SORORITY LIFE AT SAMFORD

The sorority and fraternity community at Samford University is made up of 15 registered sororities and fraternities organized within three governing councils. Forty-five perfect of the undergraduate student body is Greek at Samford. Joining a Panhellenic sorority will allow you to be a part of this larger community that is strongly connected to Samford and the Birmingham community.

National Panhellenic Conference

The National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) was created in 1902 to promote sorority unity. Today there are 25 national fraternal organizations affiliated with NPC which are represented across the United States and Canada.

When you join one of the seven NPC sororities at Samford, you also become a member of the Panhellenic Council that has over 1,000 members making us the largest women's organization on campus! Panhellenic is the serving and governing body for the six NPC sororities as well as one associate sorority, Delta Xi Phi, Multicultural Sorority, Inc. Panhellenic promotes equality and establishes guidelines governing membership recruitment, social activities, publicity, and member responsibilities.

MEETINGS WITH RECRUITMENT GUIDES

For each round of recruitment you will begin your day by meeting with your recruitment guide group. This is the time when you will receive your schedule of the day. Due to time limitations, it may be advisable for you to dress for the recruitment events prior to attending this meeting. Your Rho Gamma will communicate what is best for you.

CHAPTER SELECTION

After you have attended all of the events on your schedule, you will participate in chapter selection. This process should be completed immediately after your last event without making any stops to change clothes or make phone calls. You will use this time to select the chapter(s) you would like to visit again the next day. This selection will be submitted on a computer in a nearby computer lab after which you may return to your residence hall.

RECRUITMENT CONTACT & SILENCE POLICIES

Panhellenic has strict policies throughout the summer which restrict contacting and being contacted by women currently in sororities at Samford. The following rules apply to any female interested in joining a Panhellenic sorority.

- Potential new members (PNMs) may not attend any organized sorority function outside of formal recruitment events.
- No oral or written invitations can be made to potential new members by a sorority member or representative (alumnae or other) to attend any activity or social function. However, contact can be made with an alumnae in regards to seeking a recommendation letter.
- PNMs may not be contacted in any way by active or alumnae members. This includes telephone calls, letters, Facebook messages, snapchats, and any other social media communication. No gifts of any kind should be exchanged.
- PNMs are not allowed to be present at any fraternity activities throughout the summer.
- Attendance at fraternity parties is not allowed during recruitment in August.

Strict silence is enforced between the time of the last preference event on Saturday, September 10 until the end of Bid Day on Sunday, September 11. Any contact made between a sorority member (active or alumnae) is strictly forbidden and will lead to dismissal from the recruitment process.

G THINGS We Wish We Would Have Known Going Through Recruitment

- Not everyone has the perfect schedule.
- Each day is a new day. The chapter you loved one day might not be your favorite the next. Just because you didn't enjoy a chapter at the beginning of the week doesn't mean you should rule them out completely. There is a reason they still want you to attend events!
- The chapter women are just as nervous about talking to you as you are about talking to them.
- Don't prepare your answers. You'll rush your responses and will have less to say. Thinking on the fly allows for more genuine conversations.
- Look for the women who share similar values as you, not the women you want to be like.
- Stay true to yourself. The harder you try to be like the women in the chapter event you are attending, the harder it will be for you to find your fit.
- Dress in what makes you feel comfortable. Don't try to wear a new outfit, shoes, or hairdo the day of an event. The more confident you are in your appearance, the more your genuine personality will shine through.
- Wear comfortable shoes, bring a hair tie, and know you will sweat a little, but remember that everyone is in the same boat.
- Throughout this whole process, remember this is YOUR recruitment and YOUR decision—not your mom's, sister's, aunt's, roommate's, or anyone else's choice. Sometimes it is okay to turn off your phone.

WHAT TO EXPECT

As A New Member

As a new member, your first year will be geared toward getting acclimated with your sorority and Samford. After Bid Day, you will be required to attend regular new member meetings until your initiation. Each chapter has a different program specifically designed for the new members. The meetings will educate you about the history, tradition and rituals of your chapter. The meetings will be led by a new member educator, a woman in the chapter whose responsibility is to guide you through your new member education and initiation.

Your chapter may host a new member retreat, which will give you an opportunity to bond with your new member class. In addition, some chapters will invite you over for meals throughout the week to get to know current members of the chapter. Often, the chapters will invite you immediately to attend regular events such as social functions, philanthropies, Panhellenic-sponsored events, and community engagement opportunities.

PANHELLENIC EXECUTIVE BOARD

Samford University Panhellenic Executive Board is comprised of 6 women from different chapters in the campus community. Each woman is elected to perform a specific job enhancing the community as a whole. Samford Panhellenic keeps sorority members informed of upcoming events and fosters relationships with women in different organizations through weekly council meetings. The Panhellenic Council Executive Board also strives to create and maintain relationships with the two other Greek councils on campus.

RHO GAMMAS

Women participating in formal recruitment will be assigned to a recruitment group led by two recruitment guides. Recruitment guides are women from the Greek community who disaffiliate from their chapters during recruitment week to help potential new members navigate recruitment. They will not be able to reveal their sorority membership. Since the recruitment guides are disaffiliated these women will be able to answer any questions you may have throughout the week of recruitment in order to help you decide which sorority is the best fit for you. These women went through a competitive application and interview process and were selected for their leadership abilities, peer counseling skills and enthusiasm for the recruitment. process. Our amazing recruitment guides dedicate their recruitment week to be your listener, guide, and friend.

My Rho Gammas' names and cell phone numbers

Potential New Member Bill of Rights

- The right to ask questions and receive true objective answers from Rho Gammas and sorority members.
- The right to have and express opinions to recruitment guides.
- The right to have unbreakable confidentiality when sharing information with recruitment guides.
- The right to make one's own choices and decisions and accept full responsibility for the results of the decision.
- The right to have a positive, safe, and enriching recruitment and new member experience.

If at any time you feel you are not being treated according to the bill of rights stated above, contact your rho gamma. With your permission, your rho gamma will inform the Panhellenic Council of the issue and take immediate and appropriate action to rectify the situation.

ACTIVE: a woman who has been formally initiated by her sorority.

ALUMNA: a sorority member who graduated and is no longer an active member of a collegiate chapter.

BID: an invitation to join a sorority.

BID DAY: the last day of recruitment, when potential new members receive bids to join chapters and become new members.

CHAPTER: a local membership unit of a sorority.

COB (Continuous Open Bidding): an informal membership recruitment process during which bids may be extended and accepted at any time during the school year other than during primary recruitment. However not all chapters participate in COB.

IFC (Interfraternity Council): the governing body of 5 for men's fraternities at Samford, most of which are part of the North American Interfraternity Conference.

LEGACY: a prospective member whose relative is an initiated member of a sorority (different NPC organizations vary in defining which relationships confer legacy status).

MRABA (Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement): a document from NPC signed by a PNM immediately following preference rounds, which states her membership preferences in descending order.
This binding agreement states the PNM would be willing to accept a bid from any sorority she lists on her preference card, and will not be eligible to accept a bid from another chapter until the next formal recruitment period.

NPC (National Panhellenic Conference):

an organization composed of 26 national and international women's fraternities, of which 6 have chapters at Samford.

NPHC (National Pan-Hellenic Council): the governing body of the nine historically African-American fraternities and sororities, three of which have chapters at Samford.

PHILANTHROPY: an event or program where participants raise money for an organization.

PNM (Potential New Member): a woman participating in the sorority recruitment process (you!).

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Recommendations are letters or statements from a sorority alumna recommending a potential new member for membership. The alumna member will provide a brief description of the prospective member and explain why that woman would be an asset to the specific chapter. It is also important to note that a recommendation does not guarantee a potential new member an invitation to events during recruitment week, nor does it guarantee membership in that sorority.

Samford University has 5 nationally-recognized NPC-affiliated sororities participating in fall 2016 formal recruitment and one new sorority colonizing this fall. The recommendation process varies among the sororities, but alumnae will be familiar with their own sorority's requirements. While it is common to send multiple recommendations to one sorority from separate alumnae, it is unnecessary to exceed more than two. Letters of recommendation are not required to participate in fall formal recruitment, however, some chapters do find it helpful in getting to know a woman. While it is not required, the Panhellenic Council encourages you to get one for each sorority.

Although there is no official deadline for when letters of recommendation must be received, all alumnae are encouraged to mail them directly to the addresses below no later than August 15 to ensure that they are received prior to the start of recruitment.

STEP 1: HOW DO I CONTACT AN ALUMNA?

The easiest way to contact an alumna to write you a letter is to start asking among your friends and family. Ask your neighbors, your friends' mothers, your mother's friends, and your teachers at school. If they are not members of a sorority, they may be able to put you in contact with someone who is.

Another option is to contact an Alumnae Panhellenic Association in your area for assistance with securing a recommendation. The alumnae member writing the letter should know her sorority's forms are available through the national office and website.

STEP 2: MAILING

The alumna writing your recommendation letter should mail it directly to Samford's Greek Life Office at the address listed below

Office of Greek Life Attention: Sorority Name 800 Lakeshore Drive Birmingham, AL 35229
