UPRISING IN SAMAR

War Department Receives Official Cablegram Confirming News of the Recent Massacre.

SITUATION IS CRITICAL

At Dolores and Town is Threatened by a Thousand Bolomen—Appeal for Aid.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—The war department was officially advised today by General Corbin, commanding the Department of the Philippines, of the uprising in Samar, in which one lieutenant and a number of enlisted men of the Philippine Scouts were killed. The cablegram was as follows:

"The Pulajones are on the war path in Samar in considerable numbers, as may be judged by the following: On November 10th about 400 Pulajones and several hundred volunteers joined in the attack on a detachment of 20 Philippine Scouts at Oras, Samar. The killed included one hospital corps man; wounded, twelve Philippine Scouts, missing five, who are said to have been blood while in the river. All the bodies were badly mutilated.

"And again on December 16th, Second Lieutenant Stephen K. Hayt, and 37 enlisted men, Thirty-eighth Company Philippine Scouts were killed by Pulajones at Dolores. First Lieutenant George F. Abbott requests help from the military authorities. The town is threatened by a thousand Pulajones. The situation is critical. In both instances I offered the Philippine government all the assistance desired, but as yet none has been accepted."

Was a New Mexico Boy.

Second Lieutenant Stephen K. Hayt, of the Philippines Scouts, who was killed yesterday in an ambush by Pulajones at Dolores, was born in New Mexico in 1880. Prior to his appointment as a second lieutenant with the Philippine Scouts in August, 1903, he was sergeant in Company A, Ninth infantry.

CHANGE OF VENUE GRANTED

In Cases Against Officers of Western Federation of Miners—Court Reviewed Labor Troubles.

Colorado Springs, Dec. 24.—The Teller County cases against Charles H. Moyer, and other officers of the Western Federation of Miners, growing out of the strike troubles in Cripple Creek have been transferred to Douglas County for trial by orders of Judge Lewis W. Cunningham, before whom a motion for a change of venue was urged in the chambers here. The reason for this action of the judge is that he believed a fair trial could not be had in Teller County. In passing the judgment of the court he reviewed the labor troubles in the Cripple Creek district at considerable length.

FROM ROSWELL TO EL PASO

Rumored That a Railroad Will Be Built at Once to Connect These Two Cities.

According to a report that has been received from El Paso, a railroad that has long been contemplated to connect that city and Roswell will be built in the near future.

It is stated that the construction of the new line will be commenced within 60 days and pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

This would be a good thing for the City of the Pecos and that section of the Territory, as it would furnish another outlet for the products of that fertile country.

COMMISSION TOO LARGE

President Will Probably Cut Down Membership of Panama Canal Board.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—President Roosevelt has given consideration recently to the suggestions looking to the reduction in membership of the Panama Canal Commission, but thus far no definite decision has been arrived at. It has been suggested by some of the members of congress that the commission is so large as to be unwieldy.

THIRTY SO FAR SENT TO JAIL

Total of Convicted Denver Election Grafters Climbing Up—More Are to Come.

Denver, Colo., Dec. 24.—Three more election officials were sent to jail by the supreme court today for contempt, making a total of 30 who have been sentenced for violation of the court's injunction issued prior to the November election.

Isaac Goldman and Edward Sweeney, judges in precinct 2, ward 4, of Denver, were sentenced to serve four months in jail, and pay fines of $100 and costs each. The court declared that they had knowingly and wilfully permitted repeating. Clarence P. Dixon, clerk in precinct 13, ward 3, was sentenced to jail for four months and fined $250 and costs.

The court said the evidence showed there had been repeating and a wilful miscount of the votes in this precinct, in which Dixon had acquired a fictitious residence just before the election and that Dixon had interfered with the appointment of a Republican clerk and with the supreme court watchers in the performance of their duties.

There still remain on the docket contempt cases from eight other precincts but they will not be tried until after the holidays.

Quash Indictments.

Indictments against Michael Callahan and Jacob Schwartz, charged with election frauds, were quashed by Judge Mullins today. The defendants were election judges in the fall of 1903 and were indicted last April for neglect of duty and corrupt conduct at the polls. Judge Mullins held that the indictments were general and not specific.

SUDDEN ENDING TO PERJURY CASE

Man Taken From Texas to New York on Serious Charges Released—Believed to Have Turned State's Evidence.

New York, Dec. 24.—There was an unexpected turn in the case of perjury against Charles F. Dodge, who was brought to this city from Texas yesterday, when he was released on his own recognizance after his arraignment before Judge Cowing in the court of general sessions today.

Dodge was accused of committing perjury in testifying that the service was not made upon him in a suit by which divorce was secured from him by his former wife, who subsequently married Charles W. Morse, banker and promoter. After Dodge's testimony, now alleged to have been perjury, his former wife secured a divorce from Morse.

Dodge resisted when an attempt was made to bring him from Texas, but on his arrival in this city, he is said to have made a confession in a midnight talk with the local authorities. Dodge was released on the recommendation of District Attorney Jerome, who said the ends of justice would be thus better served.

It is reported Dodge has turned state's evidence and will testify as a witness for the district attorney in proceedings against others for whom Dodge is supposed to have acted as agent.

DYNAMITERS STILL AT WORK

Cincinnati, Ohio, Dec. 24.—Another attempt was made during the night to blow up the Newport Foundry and Machine Company's plant at Newport, Kentucky. The entire building was shaken by a terrific explosion of dynamite. The dynamite was dropped near a fence and consequently little damage was done. The explosion was heard all over the city.

MESHES DRAWN CLOSER ABOUT DOOMED FORTRESS

Mikado's Forces Capture Another Strategic Point—Russian Officers Killed—Blockading Fleet Reduced—Sevastopol a Wreck—Imperial Praise.

Tokio, Dec. 24.—The Japanese forces besieging Port Arthur yesterday stormed and now hold the heights of Houyangshukou, a very important position. Russian prisoners captured by the Japanese report that Major General Kondratenko, commander of the Seventh East Siberian Rifle Brigade, and another Russian officer whose name is not known, have been killed and that Major General Fock, commanding the Fourth East Siberian Rifle Brigade, is among the wounded.

Togo Reports Recent Actions. Admiral Togo, telegraphing under date of December 22, says: "After 203 Meter Hill was occupied as the result of a gallant and desperate attack by the besieging army, the bombardment of the enemy's squadron by siege and other heavy guns became effective. In consequence, the battleships Poltava and Retvizan were sunk and subsequently the battleships Pobleda and Peresviet, the armored cruiser Bayan and several protected cruisers were also sunk.

Small Fleet Guards Harbor. "The battleship Sevastopol escaped the land bombardment, left the harbor December 9 and anchored near Chentao mountain. She was attacked continuously by our torpedo boats and heavily damaged. The main strength of the enemy is completely crushed, only one weak gunboat, the Otvashni, (coast defense vessel), and several torpedo boat destroyers remaining afloat. Under the circumstances our combined fleet which has been maintained since May 1, has been removed as unnecessary. I have arranged for a closer watch of ships attempting to run the blockade and to watch the remnant of the enemy's squadron."

Sevastopol Doomed. A dispatch has been received here stating that the advanced Japanese batteries at Port Arthur have succeeded in getting the range of the Russian battleship Sevastopol and one successful hit is reported. It is expected that the last of the recently formidable array of battleships will soon be destroyed.

Navy Department Silent. At the navy department today officials declined to discuss the formation, movements or plans of the Japanese flying squadron which is reported to be in the vicinity of Singapore.

Again Repulse Slaves.

A dispatch from the Manchurian headquarters of the Japanese army says: "On December 22, the enemy's artillery bombarded Sanchutz, Naing and Luntun and their vicinities. At about midnight, following, his infantry attacked our positions south of Pinninlupao and on the northeastern heights of Hsia Postaitzu, but were repulsed. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon of the following day, the enemy's heavy guns in the neighborhood of Takuchiatzu, occasionally bombarded our position."

Praises for Togo's Men. An imperial receipt dispatched to Vice-Admiral Togo today says: "We hear with satisfaction that our torpedo boat flotilla engaged in the work required of them at Port Arthur, have gallantly and successfully accomplished the duties required of them and in so doing had to brave the dangers of storms of shells by day and night. Despite all of the difficulties confronting them, they have succeeded in performing their duties without leave or confusion, rendering one another mutual assistance. We especially note their brave and loyal performance of the duties required of them and express our approbation of their behavior."

PAID AFTER FORTY YEARS

Government Settles Debt Contracted in 1865—Warrant Amounted to Small Sum.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Dec. 24.—General L. E. Sherman, of this city, past department commander of the G. A. R. for Colorado and Wyoming, today received a warrant for $3.55 in payment for a debt which the government has owed him for 40 years. It was a war settlement warrant for his servant's clothing allowance for the month of March, 1865, which is paid as a result of the readjustment of the claims upon which General Sherman received $75 several years ago.

TO ABOLISH PASSPORTS

One Reform Which Will Come to Pass in Russia Owing to New Minister of Interior.

St. Petersburg, Dec. 24.—The Associated Press is enabled to announce that Russia is on the eve of abolishing the passport system, as the matter has already been decided upon in principle by the commission which is investigating. This is one of the solid reforms, resulting from the administration of the new interior minister, Sviatopolk-Mirsky.

QUIT CAPITAL OF MOROCCO

Foreigners Preparing to Leave Fez, on Account of Sultan's Action and Imminent Trouble.

Tangier, Dec. 24.—The British minister has instructed the British consul and all British subjects to leave Fez. It is believed that all other legations will similarly instruct the people of their nationality.

TO SMUGGLE IN CHINESE

Will Bring Them in From Canada—A Serious Problem For Immigration Authorities.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 24.—Information has reached the immigration authorities of a scheme by which it is proposed to bring into this country Chinese, who, in the regular order of events, might be refused admission. The proposition is to take Chinese from China to Liverpool, and then ticket them through to New York via Halifax or St. John's and Rouses Point. The particular desire of the promoters of the plan is to have the Chinese enter this country through Rouse's Point, which is on the Canadian line near the border of New York and Vermont. At Rouse's Point no detention house of the immigration service is located and the Chinese entering the country there would not be subject to investigation of the regular board of inspectors.

Each Chinaman would be provided with papers indicating that he was a resident of this country and had a right, therefore, to return to it. Such papers, the immigration officials assert, are not difficult to obtain. The same scheme was worked successfully several years ago along the Canadian border until broken up by the establishing of detention houses where applicants were held pending a rigid inquiry into the nature of the evidence they submitted, and this plan will be followed at Rouse's Point if the scheme is not abandoned.

SIoux CITY FIRE SWEPT

Two Business Blocks in Ashes as Result of Destructive Conflagration.

THE LOSS IS IMMENSE

Estimated at Two and a Half Millions—One Life Lost—Hundreds Thrown Out of Employment.

Sioux City, Iowa, Dec. 24.—Sioux City awoke this morning with two of its best business blocks in ashes, causing a loss of two and a half millions, throwing hundreds of people out of employment and entailing a loss of at least one life.

The fire originated in the basement of the Pelletier Dry Goods Company. A strong wind was blowing and the fire soon spread to adjoining buildings and for several hours it was believed the whole business section of the city would be burned. Omaha, Council Bluffs and other nearby cities sent their fire apparatus, but the fire was under control when they arrived.

The two blocks swept over by the flames are bounded by Pierce and Jackson and Third and Fourth Streets. Within this territory the only buildings saved were the Northwestern National Bank on Fourth and Pierce Streets and the Tribune Building on Pierce, near Third Street.

The New Mexican is the oldest newspaper in New Mexico. It is sent to every postoffice in the Territory...

COMPARE THE ALBUQUERQUE 'GANG' WITH THE SANTA FE 'GANG.'

The New Mexican objects to a larger state. It fears that the Santa Fe 'Gang' would not be able to steal everything in sight.

The above from the Albuquerque Citizen needs an explanation. It is a slur on the city of Santa Fe and intended to hurt the good name, fair reputation and progress of the capital of the Territory.

It is a very sensible idea to teach children as much about their immediate surroundings and their home town and home state as they were formerly taught about far away regions and subjects.

The Territorial administration in Santa Fe consists of the following: Governor, M. A. Otero, appointed from Las Vegas; secretary of the Territory, J. W. Reynolds, appointed from Las Vegas; auditor, W. G. Sargent, appointed from El Rito Rio Arriba County; treasurer, J. H. Vaughn, appointed from Santa Fe; traveling auditor, C. V. Safford, appointed from Aztec, San Juan County; superintendent of the penitentiary, H. O. Bursum, appointed from Socorro; land commissioner, A. A. Keen, appointed from Albuquerque; solicitor general, George W. Prichard, appointed from White Oaks, Lincoln County; up to within a month ago, and since March, 1901, the late Colonel J. Franco Chaves filled the office of Territorial superintendent of public instruction; he hailed from Valencia County. These are the officials who the Albuquerque Citizen insinuates are 'the Santa Fe Gang.'

Which of the above officials is meant by the Citizen and why does the paper not come out and make the charge against them personally? If he be Governor Otero, whom the people of this Territory have known since childhood, why not say so? If he be Secretary Reynolds, who is one of the best known of the younger citizens of the Territory, why not say so? If he be W. G. Sargent, one of the leading merchants of his county, why not say so? If he be Charles V. Safford, who has been a citizen of San Juan County for fifteen years, why not say so? If he be H. O. Bursum, superintendent of the Territorial penitentiary, who has no superior as a prison official, why not say so? If he be A. A. Keen, land commissioner, who has been a resident of Albuquerque for nearly fifteen or more years, and during these years was cashier of the First National Bank of that city, why not say so? If these officials, combined and collectively are committing malfeasance in office and are robbing the people, why not give a full bill of particulars?

A GOOD JOKE ON SECRETARY HITCHCOCK.

The following joke on Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock has two morals which need not be pointed out: President Roosevelt and nearly all the members of the cabinet have demanded an explanation of Secretary Hitchcock, but he refuses to explain.

He spoke eloquently of the honesty of a man who has been identified with these cases, and the question was asked why the man had never been elected to office. 'He's too honest to be elected to office,' asserted Secretary Hitchcock.

The Denver newspapers contain columns and columns of the descriptions of the election frauds committed in Colorado on November 8th, last. This is no doubt interesting reading to the people of the state, but it is disgusting to the good people everywhere else. Nevertheless, the venomous iniquity and awful dishonesty practiced by the Democratic state and city machines in the Queen City of the Plains must be shown up and this is being done by the Supreme Court in great shape.

STUDYING HOME CONDITIONS.

It is a very sensible idea to teach children as much about their immediate surroundings and their home town and home state as they were formerly taught about far away regions and subjects. At the request of the superintendent of the Colorado State Normal school, Secretary Thomas D. Parker of the Colorado Promotion and Publicity committee has supplied that institution with a set of the booklets issued by the committee, treating of the resources and industries of the Centennial State. These are to be used as text books by the classes of the school.

It is not only the territories that are agitated about the Hamilton statehood bill, as the following item from the South Bethlehem (Pennsylvania) Daily Globe indicates: 'The Teachers' Five O'Clock Tea Club held its first meeting in its newly-furnished club room in the Postoffice building Saturday afternoon.

Juries are juries, whether in New Mexico or Minnesota. In the latter state a few days ago twelve intelligent citizens acquitted ex-Mayor Ames on indictments of official corruption and malfeasance in office, although the proof against him was quite conclusive, and in this Territory, in Socorro County, a jury this week said that a man who was indicted for murder, was not guilty, although the evidence was so strong as to leave no room for doubt.

A reverend gentleman by the name of Fox, who hails from New Jersey, advises the young women of that state to look well into a man's past before marrying him. The reverend doctor does not know much about female human nature. The girls who marry do so for the future and not for the past.

The members of the Thirty-sixth legislative assembly, who are members of the Republican party and who were elected by regular Republican tickets, take no stock in the so-called contests instituted by Democratic candidates for the council and house in Bernalillo County. It is not material to the regular Republicans in these two bodies, who shall represent the district of which Bernalillo County is a part, in the assembly. Those who are justly entitled to the seats and received a majority of the votes, will, in all human probability, not be disturbed. The regular Republicans have a two-thirds majority in both houses and will therefore have control of the assembly.

The coming legislature of the state of New York will be asked to appropriate $4,000,000 for the improvement of the roads and highways. New York is a great and powerful state, but in this respect it will have to follow the example of New Mexico, which has taken the initiative, and where a public highway to connect two of the important cities of the Territory, Santa Fe and Las Vegas, is now in course of construction under Territorial direction and at Territorial expense.

The trans-continental roads running through New Mexico are doing an immense passenger business to California points. Were these roads to make low passenger rates to New Mexico and were they to advertise such as they should, much of this tourist travel would remain in the Sunshine Territory and this, of course, would prove of great benefit and help in the up-building and advancement of New Mexico; but here it seems again the idea prevails that the longest haul is the most profitable for railroads.

The Denver newspapers contain columns and columns of the descriptions of the election frauds committed in Colorado on November 8th, last. This is no doubt interesting reading to the people of the state, but it is disgusting to the good people everywhere else. Nevertheless, the venomous iniquity and awful dishonesty practiced by the Democratic state and city machines in the Queen City of the Plains must be shown up and this is being done by the Supreme Court in great shape.

The war in the far east is not as productive of additions to the English language as was the war in South Africa between the Boers and the British. It is true, that such expressions as 'Kuropatkined' are occasionally met with in the newspapers but the only word that is likely to be remembered is 'vodka,' which is slaying almost as many among the Russians as are the Japanese sharpshooters.

Sentiment among both Republicans and Democrats in the United States Senate is at present for the unseating of Senator Smoot of Utah. The senatorial investigation has brought out that since the admission of Utah as a state and the passage of laws absolutely prohibiting polygamy, there have been plural marriages and that the Mormon church authorities have repeatedly set at naught the laws of the land. The oaths taken by those high in church councils have been shown to be treasonable against the United States. The influence that the Mormon church wields in politics in Utah must be broken.

Colonel Greene, the copper king of Arizona, says that Mr. Lawson, of Boston, by his recent attacks on copper stocks in New England papers has caused him to lose about $4,000,000 and that he is naturally very hot at Lawson's performances. The New Mexican does not blame him, but it would like to know how it feels to have money so as to lose $4,000,000. It must be a unique feeling and one which a good many citizens of this Territory would like to enjoy for a while.

Says the Las Vegas Optic: 'New Mexico produced 267,781 tons of coal last year. The picturesque woodland burro will soon be a thing of the past.' As a matter of fact, Colfax County alone produced almost twice as much coal last year as the amount given by the Optic, and the entire Territory over a million tons more. And as to the burro, well, he is still doing business at the old stand, in this neck of the woods, at least.

Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock has held up a bill for $750,000 by two Indian Territory lawyers who devoted some of their time during the past two years to Indian litigation. All the grafters in the United States are not in Missouri by any means.

The esteemed Albuquerque Citizen advocates the removal of Governor Otero. It is pretty well known, who 'pays the freight'

$500 REWARD FOR WOMEN WHO CANNOT BE CURED.

The proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Prolapsus, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure.

'You have my heartfelt thanks for your kind advice to me,' writes Mrs. Geo. Fletcher, of 106 Victoria Avenue, Galt, Ontario. 'Was troubled with catarrh of uterus for over a year. The doctors said I would go through an operation, but I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery, also his 'Lotion Tablets' and 'Antiseptic and Healing Suppositories.' Now I am completely cured, after using six bottles of Dr. Pierce's medicines. I am glad to say his medicine has made me a new woman.'

Of almost 20,000,000 admissions to the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, 7,000,000 were on passes. Of these again almost 6,000,000 were not those of employes or attendants. All of which demonstrates that the United States is still the country of the free pass and that there is no likelihood of the pass business becoming extinct within the next few years.

The Educational Association of New Mexico meets at Silver City Tuesday of the coming week. It should be fully attended by educators and teachers, as its deliberations will be of great interest to the people. The cause of education should be pushed forward in every possible way and meetings of this kind always help in the right direction.

A BOON TO SICK WOMEN.

After four years of vain endeavor to regain her health by taking other medicines, Miss Beatrice Wood was made a perfectly well woman by taking Wine of Cardui, the most successful menstrual regulator and woman's tonic known to the science of medicine.

She took Wine of Cardui and that is what we advise you to do.

Will you follow her example and be a well woman?

We could show you letters from 10,000 other women who praise Wine of Cardui as she praises it.

WINE OF CARDUI

No. 14 Main St., PENSACOLA, FLA., Nov. 20, 1903.

I had been suffering with irregular, scanty and most painful menstruation, and when the periods occurred I was unable to be up and had to stay in bed for a day or two. Nothing I took helped me until I used Wine of Cardui. It proved to be just what I needed. Within two months the serious pain had disappeared, my headaches were less frequent and not so severe and felt very much encouraged, but had to use your medicine for four months before I was entirely well and regular. I have enjoyed the finest health now for eighteen months. I am very regular and have no more pains and eat and sleep as well as could be desired.

NEW MEXICO AGRICULTURE AND POMOLOGY

Sketches by an Old Agriculturist.

Alfalfa or Lucerne.

This leguminous fodder plant is as I had occasion to remark in one of my former sketches, like most of our economic vegetables, adventitious to this continent; a term used by botanists to denote plants of extrinsic or foreign importation. It belongs to the Pulse family, while in English and American botanical books it is invariably called by its English name, Lucerne, which it bears also in every country of Europe where it is cultivated, except in Spain, where its Arabian name of Alfalfa, was adopted by the Spaniards from the Moors who, without doubt, introduced this variety of leguminosa from Africa during their occupation of the Iberian Peninsula, which ended the year before the discovery of America. It is doubtful whether, as claimed by some etymologists the name Lucerne is derived from the Celtic; but it is asserted that the appellation of Medicago was given to it by the Greeks, who, like the Romans, knew and cultivated this plant during many centuries before the Christian era, because it came from Media and it was also known and grown from the earliest times, in northern Africa and in Syria, Persia, Media and other parts of Asia.

It is therefore very clear that alfalfa or lucerne is not, as many people imagine, a native of the Rocky Mountains, or of the so-called arid zone of the United States and that it was not cultivated by the Indians previous to the discovery of America. Even if it had been known to them there would have been no inducement for them to have sown and tilled alfalfa, as they had no ponies or other herds of any kind to feed it to, and there were no bees, which are likewise a naturalized European insect to gather honey gleaned by these industrious little workers, for the Indians to eat with their "tortillas azules."

In fact, if we are inclined to philosophize and tell the truth about it, we are all adventitious and of extrinsic origin in America except the red men; and no "savant" will be able to tell when or whence the Indians came except as a surmise. Even the bible so far as known, makes no mention of them.

It is probable that the Spaniards were the first to introduce the cultivation of alfalfa on the new continent and that they brought it originally to Chili or Peru from whence it gradually wended its way north.

There is but one species of lucerne and plants grown from its seed brought from France, Germany or South America, or grown in this country, do not appear to differ from each other. This might seem anomalous, if we consider the fact that other leguminous or gramineal vegetables like peas, beans or wheat, have branched out into innumerable sub-species or kinds. Of wheat alone there are scores of different sorts which differ in some slight particular from each other. It is somewhat singular—I may remark in passing—that winter wheat is not more cultivated in New Mexico in localities where water can be had in sufficiency during fall. There is no country where it grows finer and better, as I ascertained by an experiment on my own grounds in Santa Fe some years ago. Such wheat under "intensive" culture, of the kind I am known to apply would easily yield from 40 to 50 bushels per acre. But most people prefer "extensive" cultivation, as they imagine that the first mentioned is too expensive.

The culture of lucerne, although carried on successfully in many localities, may be considered to be still in its incipency in the United States. In many sections, New Mexico being a conspicuous exemplification of its successful production right here where it finds a congenial climate and a soil naturally suited, it will become one of the most important crops. But in other cases, experiments will prove unavailing and result in failure. The writer has been acquainted with lucerne since his early youth. On his father's farm, in central Europe, there grew large fields of this fodder plant, which were never irrigated and yielded four or five cuts of hay every season, it being used almost exclusively for soiling (stall feeding) milch cows and work oxen during summer in the green state; for which purpose it is preferred to red clover and all other grasses. But for some reason, farmers in my native country, and I think throughout Europe, do not esteem lucerne for hay as highly as when fed green, and when they are compelled to dry it they never feed alfalfa or clover hay to horses, but always to cattle, claiming among various reasons that it has a tendency to make horses short of breath, give them a kind of asthma. One rule that is carefully adhered to in Europe, is never to feed clover, lucerne or other leguminous plants given as fodder, to animals of the bovine species in the green state, if the alfalfa, clover, etc., are wet, either from rain, dew, or even when very young and tender, as this causes bloating. Bloating is due to the generation and expansion of aeriform and gaseous fumes, in the stomach of the animal, from which the cow or ox swells up to a disproportionate size and dies within an hour or two before which it was apparently healthy. The only help is to perform in extreme cases an operation with an instrument called a trocar by which a hole is punched in the paunch of the brute in a place known to veterinarians, through which the noxious gases can escape. Cases of animals bloating through eating green alfalfa are less likely to occur in our dry climate than in more humid sections of the United States, but may happen under circumstances and this short digression may possibly sometime be of use to a reader of the New Mexican. After once dried and made into hay bloating no longer occurs from eating lucerne or clover.

In Europe, lucerne is only cultivated in the central and southern portions of the continent where the climate is moderate. It cannot endure long winters or an excessive degree of cold, which are apt to kill it. For this reason I do not believe that its cultivation can be carried on successfully in states like the Dakotas, Montana, Minnesota, etc., where even the much harder apple tree does not thrive and fails to endure the winters. The isotherm of the successful growth of lucerne in Europe may be said to coincide with that of the grape. The humid and cool climate of England does not suit it and like the grape it is little cultivated in that country, if at all.

There are amusing tales told about its roots going down 50 feet into the ground; about twice the depth the roots of large old apple trees have been known to reach. But the roots of alfalfa attain a depth of several feet. Although lucerne is not difficult to suit in its choice of soils it does not like beds of hard pan and poorly succeeds in hard and compact clay soils and still less on water-logged lands. A good, deep loamy soil suits it best. Orchards are like alfalfa, in that respect, but do not like it when grown among them as it is, on account of its long and wide-spreading roots, the most pernicious crop that can be raised among trees. No experienced orchardist in the "states" or in Europe would ever think of raising lucerne among his fruit trees.

Sweet Clover.

I read an article or correspondence which appeared in this esteemed paper on the 19th instant, entitled "Bee Culture in Taos Valley," with much interest. The plant described by the writer of the article is the Melilotus Alba, or white Melilot, of the botanists. It belongs to the Melilot family, which is closely related to the Medicks, or lucernes and trefolls, or clovers. The common name by which it is known in English is as your correspondent correctly states, sweet clover. It is a great honey producing plant, far superior in that respect to the Lucerne, which, in my opinion, is somewhat overrated as a bee plant. It is probably a native of Asia, as indicated by the name given it by the seedsmen, who advertise its seed in their catalogues under the name of Bokhara Clover. Some adventitious plants of it which grow on my place each year, seem to be biennial as well as annual and this fact is noted in the manuals of botany. When dried into hay it exhales a strong odor, which some people call fragrant, and hay-stacks of it when mixed in large proportions with alfalfa may be smelled at 50 paces or even a longer distance. Animals can be taught to eat its hay, especially when mixed with alfalfa, hay but very few will touch it when green, unless reduced to a state of semi-starvation.

Besides the white melilot, there is a yellow melilot and some other kinds of the same family which are weeds of no value. The former is a plant of recent importation to the United States and was not brought like alfalfa, by the Spaniards. Apparently it seeds itself and runs wild in many places in New Mexico, which is probably due to the fact that herbivorous animals have an aversion against it while it is in the green state. I have seen large patches of it along the railroad track at Bernalillo and in other localities in the Territory.

There is another very valuable honey plant, indigenous to the southwestern Rocky Mountain region, which belongs to an entirely distinct botanical family, viz: the indigo species, although some persons, ignorant of botany, because of a remote resemblance to alfalfa, insist that it is the latter. I noticed it for the first time in Santa Fe some ten or twelve years ago. It has a purple flower and birds and chickens eat its seeds with avidity. When there is sufficient humidity in the spring to cause its dormant seeds to germinate, it grows in great abundance in waste places and especially in refuse heaps all over the suburbs of Santa Fe. The bees swarm around it in great numbers in July and August and the honey they make from it is of an excellent quality. Its leaves have an odor that seems to be repugnant to burros, goats and other quadrupeds. Continued on Page Seven.

C. J. Brantley of No. 12, 4th Street Southeast Washington, D. C., has addressed a letter to the Bureau of Immigration, asking if forty shares of stock of The Sierra Blanco Gold & Copper Company, of which Frederick T. Dorton is president and R. A. Manning is secretary, and which claims to have mines in the Black Mountain Mining District, Dona Ana County, is worth anything. The headquarters of this mining company are said to have been at the Union Trust Building, Baltimore, Maryland. The Bureau of Immigration knows nothing about the company or its mines, but would like, if there is any citizen of Dona Ana County who knows something about the matter to have him address the Bureau of Immigration with such information as he may be able to give in order that Mr. Brantley may be answered promptly.

CADETS WON GOOD GAME

Eleven of New Mexico Military Institute Defeats Team of Company B, 1st Regiment National Guard, of Roswell.

BY A SCORE OF 29 TO 0

Military School Outplayed Rivals at Every Stage of Game—Large Crowd Present.

Special Correspondence of the New Mexican.
Roswell, N. M.—On Friday, the 16th of December, the long delayed football game between the rival elevens of Company B, First Regiment, New Mexico National Guard, and the New Mexico Military Institute, took place at the polo grounds just west of the Institute. The field was in excellent condition and a wire stretched around the entire gridiron prevented any crowding upon the field of action. A guard of cadets, under arms, patrolled the side lines and policed the grounds. The Blue and White of Company B, was freely planted while many cadets sported the Red and Black. The teams had been practicing hard for several weeks and much interest was excited among the followers of the game.

Mr. Bedell and Mr. Carlin acted as umpire and referee, Colonel Willson and Mr. DeForest as linesmen, while Dr. Fisher and Mr. Cahoon kept the time. The cadets were feeling much discouraged by the absence of their captain and Coach C. N. McWhorter, formerly quarterback on the West Virginia University Eleven. Captain McWhorter was injured by the explosion of some lime a short time ago and was not able to witness the game. The toss was won by the Institute Eleven, which chose the kick off. The town eleven elected to defend the west goal, thus gaining the advantage of a stiff breeze from the northwest. The ball was kicked past the goal line on the first trial and on the second attempt was run back 30 yards by the cadets. Two line bucks and an end run failed to make the necessary five yards against the stiff defence of Company B, so the ball changed hands.

The National Guard eleven was not able to do anything only 25 yards from the line. This was the only time the Institute eleven's goal was threatened. The cadets now got their machine to working and after a few short gains, the right tackle, Dow, was pulled back on the whop back and broke through for a 40-yard run. This encouraged the Institute eleven and they soon bucked the ball to the 10-yard line, where they lost it on a fumble. The town tried a couple of plays with poor success and then kicked. The cadets got up speed and brought the ball to the five-yard line to lose it on a fumble. The third time, however, the Institute eleven would not be denied and by a succession of plunges by left guard, Smith, and by fullback Kuckenbecker, the ball was put within striking distance of the goal. The left guard tore through the line and was shoved ahead under the goal posts. The ball barely rested on the line. Kunz kicked a goal. Only one minute was left to play and the cadets kicked to the town who were downed on their ten yards line and after advancing ten yards were held. The cadets made two gains and were on the verge of making another touch-down when time was called.

The second half was easy for the New Mexico Military Institute eleven, as the town team was winded. Four touch-downs were made in rapid succession and another minute would have given the cadets a fifth. The chief gains were made on the short end runs and tackle bucks. The two halves, Young and Brownwell, made several long runs while the two ends, Kunz and Bell, rarely failed to take ten yards at a clip. The defense stiffened up also and the town made first down but once, then making their gain through the fault of the left tackle. The nifty little quarterback, Lohman, was knocked out, but tied a handkerchief around his head and played the game. Right Guard Talbot made one beautiful tackle on the opposing quarter, Bedwell, when the latter secured the ball on a fumble with a clear field. Major Wright at center gave a fine example of skill and although much outweighed by his man, played horse with him. Four men were removed from the town eleven and replaced ed by subs. Hamilton, Bidwell and Aye played a hard game for Company B, but were unable to keep down the score. The score was 29 to 0, four out of five goals being kicked in spite of the wind. The touch-downs were made by Smith, Kuckenbecker, Nave, Kunz and Brownell.

No rough play was indulged in and there was not much evidence of the usual tiresome rag chewing. The first half was closely contested, but the superior endurance of the cadets proved too much for their rivals. The cadets averaged 159 while the Company B eleven was about ten pounds heavier. The National Guardsmen showed lack of power to hold their line but with some hard practice they would make a very strong combination and one hard to beat. Quick, snappy playing and lost of endurance won the game. The line-up was as follows:
Institute. Company B.
Kunz, R. E. Aye
Dow, R. T. Petty
Talbot, R. G. Barrett
Wright, C. Rheinbolt
Smith, L. G. McCune
Nave, Captain, L. T. Hunt
Bell, L. E. Leland
Lohmann, Q. B. Bidwell
Kuckenbecker, E. B. Smith-Gross
Young, R. B. Hamilton, Captain
Brownwell, L. B. Smith
Time of halves, 25 minutes.

All Santa Fe People Have to Do is to Follow Their Neighbor's Advice.

Our readers have no excuse for going astray. The way is almost fenced with guide-posts in Santa Fe. They are on every highway and byway. "He who runs may read." Investigate this example:
Ruperto Martinez of Griffin st., says: "I knew that a pretty sure indication of kidney complaint is an aching back, but in my case there was added to that annoyance trouble with the kidney secretions. At first the pain across the loins was the only evidence, but latterly the condition and action of the kidney secretions plainly told me that I must do something for my kidneys or aggravated trouble would follow. I went to Ireland's drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills, took a course of the treatment and the complication stopped. To show my faith in Doan's Kidney Pills, let me tell you that while working at Watrous getting out stone for the railroad an acquaintance of mine was compelled to stop and go home on account of his back. I advised him to use Doan's Kidney Pills. He acted on my advice and in a couple of days after commencing their use he returned to work."

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S,
Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I shall tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsent remedy. Respectfully yours,
E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A.,
Rector to St. Luke's Church.

Coughing Spell Caused Death.
"Harry Duckwell, aged 25 years, choked to death early yesterday morning at his home, in the presence of his wife and child. He contracted a slight cold a few days ago and paid but little attention to it. Yesterday morning he was seized with a fit of coughing which continued some time. His wife sent for a physician but before he could arrive, another coughing spell came on and Duckwell died from suffocation.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat, Dec. 1, 1901."

rupeds that enliven our suburbs and the environs of our city by their gambols and harmonious brayings and bleatings, and they never touch the plant in its green stage of growth. This plant is called "Waco" by the natives and the Navaho Indians used in days gone by to extract from its stems and roots, the black tint they employed as one of the many natural pigment with which they colored their renowned blankets.

Nowadays, these ingenious Indians, disdain the slow old process of gathering the plants and roots to make their finely colored fabrics, have succumbed to the incipient progress of a pale civilization and employ cheap aniline colors, they get from the white man.

Oh to lie awake at night and think of England.
Out of reach and far away;
Oh to see her in the distance as a picture,
And to let your fancy play
With the vision of her houses as you knew them,
And her people moving there.
When of old yourself went in and out among them,
Scarcely heeding who they were;
But, ah! now your hungry heart would leap within you,
And your very soul rejoice,
If across the night there came the sound you long for,
And you heard an English voice.

Oh to lie and feel the very blood within you—
Every pulse of it is hers—
And to know that you shall lay it down in silence
Where no English memory stirs;
Where the very trees and birds seem not to know you,
And no restful turf is seen,
Where the eye is fed with scarlet and with purple,
But, ah! not with English green;
And above the frowning mountain you can listen
To the mighty thunder-crash,
But may never hear the sighing of the willow,
Or the rustle of the ash.
—William H. Draper, in Spectator.

Awful.
Mrs. Bender was sobbing at breakfast.
"Oh, Tom," she faltered, "you were drinking last night."
Mr. Bender frowned.
"What gave you such a silly idea?" he demanded.
"Why—why, Tom, you started to lie down."
"Well, madame, is there anything in a tired man wishing to lie down?"
"Yes, but—but you started to lie in a trolley car fender and thought it was a hammock."
Bender coughed and said he thought it was time to get down to the office.

A WHITE CHRISTMAS

Given Santa Fe by the Weather Bureau—Snow General Throughout. This Section—More Predicted.

The white Christmas with which the weather bureau has treated Santa Fe seems to have been the result of a secondary storm which was central over the southwest portion of Colorado on Thursday morning, the main storm lying northward along the Rocky Mountain slope in Wyoming with the barometer reading 29.45 inches.

It is probable that the movement of the main storm was somewhat to the southward along the mountain slope during Friday and thus Santa Fe was treated to about an inch of snow, with the southwest winds which swept up the Rio Grande Valley toward the storm center.

Reports from along the line of the Santa Fe Central indicate that the lower country to the southward had some rain. This morning the sky was partially cloudy at Moriarty, with a little snow on the ground, while at Estancia and Torrance the sun was shining at intervals.
The indications are that more snow will fall tonight and Christmas day, with little change in the temperature.

SECURED MONEY ON FAKE STONES

Diamond Swindler Held to Grand Jury in Tucson—Wealthy Merchant His Victim.

Tucson, Ariz., Dec. 24.—J. S. Harcourt, an alleged diamond swindler, who last February secured $12,500 from Albert Steinfeldt, a wealthy merchant of this city, giving as security jewels which were supposed to represent a value of $30,000, was today held to the grand jury on a charge of securing money under false pretenses. Bail was fixed at $8,000. The evidence showed the total of the jewels would not exceed $2,200. Harcourt was extradited from California three weeks ago.

PUEBLO INDIANS IN CONVENTION

Held Meeting at Albuquerque This Week and Decided to Send Delegation to Washington.

A convention of the Indians from the pueblos of Isleta, San Felipe, San Dia, San Domingo, Cochiti and Mesilla was held at San Felipe this week, for the purpose of selecting a delegation representing the Indians of the various pueblos to send to Washington to confer with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs with reference to relieving the Pueblos of taxation of their lands.

The convention was well attended and many good points were advanced. It was decided that the Indians would hold a meeting at the Indian Industrial School in Albuquerque in the near future for the purpose of drawing up a petition containing all the arguments that the Indians wish to offer in their favor.

The Legunas and the Zuni Indians will also send delegates at the same time, who will act in concert with the delegates from the Albuquerque district. One of the suggestions made at the convention was that the land now owned in common by the different Pueblos, be deeded to them as individuals. This land is to be divided pro rata after this has been accomplished to try to get the land exempted from taxation.

The delegation is expected to go to Washington about January 10th and it is probable that Judge A. J. Abbott, attorney for the Pueblos, Superintendent Clinton J. Crandall, of the U. S. Indian Industrial School in Santa Fe, and J. K. Allen, superintendent of the Indian school at Albuquerque, will accompany them.

Nominations in Precinct Three.

A meeting of the Republican voters of Precinct No. 3, this city, was held on Friday evening at the public school house. Nicholas Sena was nominated as the Republican candidate for justice of the peace and Manuel Montoya y Columbia was nominated for constable.

HOT LUNCH TONIGHT.

The St. Elmo Club will serve a hot lunch tonight at 8 o'clock. Everybody invited.
