FALL COLORS OPEN STUDIOS & ART TOUR 2017

see fall colors. experience art. encounter nature.

Visit 65+ local artists in 43 studios this October and see where art is made, displayed, and appreciated in Nevada County.

The tour features painters, printmakers, photographers, ceramicists, illustrators, jewelers, designers, woodworkers and more. You will have the opportunity to meet the artists, view new work, and buy original art in a wide range of media & styles. See their workspace, watch live demonstrations, observe works in progress and learn about an art process from concept to completion. Beyond an art sale, Open Studios is a chance to experience first-hand how, where and why art is created.

Don't miss the Fall Colors Tour Guide Companion in The Union on Thursday, October 5. It includes all the artist info, maps, weekend events, live music and more!

plan your tour

We've equipped you with artist listings, maps, and additional information to complete your Fall Colors Open Studios Art Tour experience; now it's up to you to create your itinerary. With 43 studios to visit, plus downtown art galleries, tasting rooms, restaurants, unique shops, scenic trails, historic sites, farmers markets, brilliant fall colors, and live music at The Center for the Arts, we're confident that you will draw up an amazing tour!

remembering Phil Brown

One of Nevada County's most beloved artists,

Phillip Denney Brown, passed away August 16, at home surrounded by friends and family. He was 72.

Phil was born in 1944. He went to UC Davis to become a veterinarian and while there took an art class from Wayne Thiebaud. He never looked back. He got a BA in Art and Art History and in 1974 moved to Nevada County where he met his wife, Barbara. At age 45, he was taking an art class at Sierra College when his teacher Dick Hotchkiss talked him into applying for graduate school. He went to Mills College where he graduated with a Masters in Fine Arts in Painting.

When the local campus of Sierra College opened, he was hired as an adjunct professor where he taught drawing and painting for 10 years. There he developed a following of students who, when he retired, followed him to classes he taught at the Center for the Arts, Artist Studios of the Foothills, and eventually his own studio.

He decided in the mid 90s to dedicate his art to preserving images of the Yuba River and it became the focus of his work for 20 years. His kind, generous spirit is forever embodied in the 400 images of the river that he painted – giving so much joy to so many people in Nevada County and around the world.

We believe the arts not only make a community but they help build a community. Whether it is a production that brings people together on stage for the first time, a headlining concert that benefits other area non-profits, an audience that shares in a new memory, or artists hanging their artwork in one of our two community art galleries, The Center provides the organization and the venue to bring it all together.

The Center for the Arts' Fall Colors Open Studios Art Tour would not be possible without the support of local businesses, individuals, and organizations throughout Nevada County.

We are grateful for your contribution to our community and the visual arts.

Nevada County Arts Council is proud to partner with The Center for the Arts in sponsoring and nurturing the Fall Colors Open Studios Tour. Our mission is to promote and sustain the visual, literary, and performing arts of Nevada County in order to advance the cultural, social, and economic life of our community. Sponsoring the Tour and hosting frequent educational and practical workshops for artists are two of the many ways we accomplish this.

Thank you to all of the Open Studios 2017 participating artists and galleries, and our many volunteers. We are grateful to everyone who helped to make this event possible.
