Paul Hobbs' FELINO AND CROSSBARN WINES

Paul Hobbs combined his roots on the family farm with an innovative scientific approach to refine the art of winemaking. He earned his B.S. in chemistry from Notre Dame and an M.S. in viticulture and enology from the University of California.

In the late '70s, Robert Mondavi invited Hobbs to join the inaugural team of Opus One. A 1988 trip to Argentina began a South American winemaking career that continues today with his Felino wines and their distinct fruit profiles.

Founded by Hobbs in 2000, Crossbarn wines offer fruit blended from diverse vineyards within California's finest appellations.
