MY FREEDOM LIFESTYLE ACTION PLAN

ACTION STEP #11 MAKE MONEY while you TRAVEL

WORK / CAMPING while living in your RV Want a Seasonal Job while you travel?

If you enjoy Nature and want to explore Canada and the U.S., consider working in a Campground or Government-owned Park.

Thousands of RV owners are stretching their Pensions this way. It's a means to earn your campsite fee and can provide a paycheque as well.

Opportunities are too vast to list all of them.

In exchange for a free site for your RV, you can work part-time while on vacation. We met quite a few men and women doing this.

Some examples from www.WorkersOnWheels.com

Activity Director	Camp Host	Landscaper	Cook
Hairdresser	Waiter	Dog sitter	Dog groomer
Front Desk Clerk	Cashier	Maintenance	Tour Guide

Expatriate Communities are growing in Low-cost Countries

Consider living Abroad in a lower-cost location than your own. This can be Part-time or Full-time. The more radically different the culture is from your own – the richer the learning will be.

Living in another country can cost much less than staying at home. If you decide to launch a new business, it can take a few years to make a profit. If living costs are low, it can be more affordable.

Reasons people have started their business away from home:

- A chance to reinvent themselves.
- No pre-conceived notions from those around them.
- Without the pressure to conform or meet the expectations of others – it can give you a chance to experiment with a new way to live and work.
- Travel Expenses can be a Biz cost – Keep receipts for Tax Time.

Lots of Expats are starting businesses in new locations:
Cafes, Sailing schools, B & Bs, Bakeries and more.
