

Scriptures to Know

Directions: The words of the below well known scriptures are out of order. Try to arrange them in the correct order (according to the KJV) without looking up the verse. To make it a fun competition, go one-on-one OR create teams and have them race to be the first to solve a verse. When a verse is solved, award that team a point. No other team may be awarded points for verses already solved. The team with the most points wins! Note: Try to distribute the verses to your group over time so when the game is played they have some familiarity from which to recall.
