“Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

John 20:29

SECOND SUNDAY
OF Easter
(OR SUNDAY OF DIVINE MERCY)

DIFFICULTY, SURVIVAL, AND GLORY

In Revelation, John the Evangelist tells us what we can expect as followers of the risen Jesus: distress, endurance, and a kingdom. Although we are only eight days into our fifty-day Easter feasting, we cannot ignore the distress weighing down our daily lives. Jesus' resurrection does not erase individual suffering, but his glorious triumph over death cultivates endurance in our hearts. We remember that Jesus did not spare himself, and we ask for the strength to endure as he did. Imitating Christ helps us grow as members of God's royal family. As beloved citizens of the Kingdom of God, we recognize our kinship with all people. Peter demonstrates his care for others as he heals multitudes of broken, suffering people. In the Gospel, Thomas accepts his own spiritual healing when Jesus helps him to believe. In times of difficulty, survival, and glory, we borrow Thomas' declaration of faith: “My Lord and my God!”

STEWARDSHIP

Hospitality Prayer Formation Service

Sunday of Divine Mercy “Jesus said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’” (JOHN 20:21)

Peace – the first gift of the risen Lord. Just as Jesus sent the apostles out into the world, so too, He sends us. As disciples of Jesus, we are called to be compassionate and merciful; and not with just those who are our friends, but also with our “enemies.” Think of someone in your life who you need to reconcile with. Call them right now or better yet, go visit them

MQOH is hosting MPACT. This day of service is open to middle schoolers and their Families. NEXT SATURDAY!!!

DIOCESAN NEWS

DID YOU KNOW?? — A man condemns himself when he deliberately chooses to act against his judgment of conscience, yet it can happen that, in ignorance, his conscience leads him to make erroneous judgments. Man must therefore work to correct the errors of moral conscience and formulate its judgments according to reason and divine law. (CCC 1790, 1793, 1798, 1799)
