SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Joseph of Cupertino

Feast day: September 18

(June 17, 1603 – September 18, 1663)

Joseph of Cupertino is most famous for levitating at prayer. Already as a child, Joseph showed a fondness for prayer. After a short career with the Capuchins, he joined the Conventual Franciscans. Following a brief assignment caring for the friary mule, Joseph began his studies for the priesthood. Though studies were very difficult for him, Joseph gained a great deal of knowledge from prayer. He was ordained in 1628. Joseph's tendency to levitate during prayer was sometimes a cross; some people came to see this much as they might have gone to a circus sideshow. Joseph's gift led him to be humble, patient, and obedient, even though at times he was greatly tempted and felt forsaken by God. He fasted and wore iron chains for much of his life. The friars transferred Joseph several times for his own good and for the good of the rest of the community. He was reported to and investigated by the Inquisition; the examiners exonerated him. Joseph died September 18, 1663 and was canonized in 1767. In the investigation preceding the canonization, 70 incidents of levitation are recorded. (from franciscanmedia.org)

Diocese of Green Bay and WFRV Local 5 to resume broadcast of Sunday Mass with Bishop Ricken

Mass will be broadcast at 10:00 a.m. on WFRV Local 5. The broadcast Sunday Mass originates from St. Francis Xavier Cathedral in downtown Green Bay. Bishop Ricken said, "We hope this broadcast will help reach those who are homebound, as well as those in hospitals, nursing homes, prisons, or anywhere else where getting to church isn't an option. I offer my sincere thanks to WFRV Local 5 for their willingness to continue broadcasting Sunday Mass, especially during these difficult times."

Sunday Readings

(Readings will only be posted in bulletin if space permits, Sunday readings can be found at : <http://www.usccb.org/bible/>)

FIRST READING: Wrath and anger are hateful things, yet the sinner hugs them tight. The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance, for he remembers their sins in detail. Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself, can he seek pardon for his own sins? If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who will forgive his sins? Remember your last days, set enmity aside; remember death and decay, and cease from sin! Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor; remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults. (SIR 27:30-28:7)

SECOND READING: Brothers and sisters: None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself. For if we live, we live for the Lord, and if we die, we die for the Lord; so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's. For this is why Christ died and came to life, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. (ROM 14: 7-9)

GOSPEL: Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times. That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king who decided to settle accounts with his servants. When he began the accounting, a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount. Since he had no way of paying it back, his master ordered him to be sold, along with his wife, his children, and all his property, in payment of the debt. At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.' Moved with compassion the master of that servant let him go and forgave him the loan. When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a much smaller amount. He seized him and started to choke him, demanding, 'Pay back what you owe.' Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.' But he refused. Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison until he paid back the debt. No when his fellow servants saw what had happened, they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master and reported the whole affair. His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to. Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant, as I had pity on you?' Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt. So will my heavenly Father do to you, unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart." (MT 18:21-35)

Governor Tony Evers Emergency Order, requires the wearing of face coverings when attending Mass. We ask that you bring your own mask as our supply of disposable masks is limited.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.

God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Library

The Parish Library will reopen Sept. 19 & 20 after all Masses in Room #1. Usual pandemic precautions are recommended.

It has been ten years since The Catholic Order of Foresters started the library with the purchase of 61 DVDs and 7 audio-books! Since then there has been a constant donation of books, etc. I would like to recognize four wonderful, dependable volunteers who have helped after Masses all these 10 years: Mary Lou Nowak, Marge Thibodeau, Fran Wolf and Pat Weddel. At this time we also have Jean Holley and Janet Yoder who fill the Saturday slots. Thank you and God Bless! As before, the library will be open the first and third Sunday of the month - and the preceding Saturday. Stop in and browse. Our library is there to aid in your spiritual growth. Remember, there are no due dates and no fines. Agatha Lipovac, librarian

Help Us Reach Our Bishop's Appeal Goal by Contributing $13 on the 13th of September

As this year's Bishop's Appeal begins to wrap up, know your gifts to the Appeal make a tremendous impact in our parish and our community. This is especially true this year as we continue to journey through the COVID-19 pandemic.

Throughout the pandemic the Diocese has been tremendously helpful to our parish by providing us with ways to stay connected with each of you. Tools and best practices have been shared to help us re-engage and keep our families safe as we return to Mass. People also benefit from the counseling services of Catholic Charities. You help make this and so much more happen through your generous support of the Bishop's Appeal.

If you have already made your gift to the Bishop's Appeal, thank you! If you have not given, please prayerfully consider a gift today or joining us by donating $13 on the 13th of September. Every gift helps. Please mail your gift to the parish office or visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give. Thank you for your generous support of the Bishop's Appeal and our parish.
