Our Story

CORWIN BEVERAGE COMPANY is a fourth generation family-owned business that has sold beverages in Southwest Washington since 1941. Our story starts in the post-prohibition era of the 1930's, when Kyle and Laura Kendall founded Kendall's Pioneer Distributing in Bend, Oregon, where they sold beer and Coca-Cola. In 1940, the couple sold the business and with their daughter Barbara and future son-in-law Harold Corwin, moved to Vancouver, Washington to acquire the Vancouver Pepsi franchise. This business eventually became Corwin Beverage Company, a market leader known for award-winning sales and service.

In 2014, the fourth generation of Kendalls saw a need in the marketplace for craft beer and wine delivered with the same high level of service the family was known for and launched a boutique distribution company to bring exclusive, emerging, regional craft brands to market. This business was named in honor of their founding generation's entrepreneurial spirit and after two years of rapid growth and success, the new Kendall's Pioneer merged with Corwin Beverage to bring the opportunities of our larger distribution operation to our local suppliers.

From our humble beginnings with one truck and three employees, to over 100 trucks and more than 145 employees today, we're active in supporting the communities we serve, and are proud of our employees, products and partnerships. Our goal is to be the number one vendor of choice and employer of choice in Southwest Washington and we thank you for your business.
