

Our Lady's Assumption Catholic Parish

Served by the Discalced Carmelite Friars

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

15th & 16th August 2020 (Year A)

Our Lady of Assumption

Holy Virgin, Holy Mother, assumed into heaven, pray for us.

Our Lady of Assumption Feast

A Dogma of the church

We celebrate our parish titular feast of our Lady of Assumption on 15th August. The dogma of Assumption was declared by Pope Pius XII on November 1st 1950 when he wrote 'Munificentissimus Deus'. Dogma says: "Mary, the immaculate perpetually Virgin Mother of God, after the completion of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into the glory of heaven."

Mary - a universal Mother

TIME magazine in a cover story on Mary of Nazareth said, "Among all the women who ever lived, the mother of Jesus Christ is the most celebrated, the most venerated, the most portrayed, the most honoured..." She is mentioned only on selected occasions in the Gospels, yet she has dominated the art, the music and the faith of the world for centuries. Catholics and Orthodox unite in calling her Mother of God. Protestant Christians recognise her importance in the Christian story. Even the Quran devotes several chapters to her. Yes, indeed, she is a universal Mother!

Coming Sacramental programmes

We are going to have the Sacramental programmes of First Holy Communion and Confirmation at our church in the coming weeks. I hereby give you a schedule of these said programmes. I take this occasion to thank the sacramental coordinators, Teachers, Catechists and Parents for preparing these children.

1st Sept Tuesday at 6.00 pm – First Communion of PREP – 08

12th Sept Saturday at 4.00 pm – Confirmation – 35 (Bishop)

13th Sept Sunday at 11.00 am – Confirmation – 35 (Bishop)

18th Oct Sunday at 11.00 am – First Communion of ACPS - 40

PAM meeting

I am very glad to inform you that we have formed a new group called PAM (Parish+Assumption+MCC) Consisting of the priests and principles of Mandurah Catholic College and Assumption Catholic Primary school. The first of its meeting was held in our parish centre on 13th August and discussed about the future planning and ministries of these two institutions of our parish. We are going to have this meeting in every semester. Wishing you all a very happy feast of Our Lady of Assumption!

Fr. Johnny Arattukulam, OCD

First Reading

Is 56:1.6-7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I will lead the foreigners to my holy mountain.

Thus says the Lord: Have a care for justice, act with integrity, for soon my salvation will come and my integrity be manifest.

Foreigners who have attached themselves to the Lord to serve him and to love his name and be his servants – all who observe the sabbath, not profaning it, and cling to my covenant – these I will bring to my holy mountain. I will make them joyful in my house of prayer. Their holocausts and their sacrifices will be accepted on my altar, for my house will be called a house of prayer for all the peoples.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 66:2-3 5-6. 8. R. v.4

(R.) O God, let all the nations praise you!

1. O God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us.
So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. (R.)

2. Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice.
With fairness you rule the peoples,
you guide the nations on earth. (R.)

3. Let the peoples praise you, O God;
let all the peoples praise you.
May God still give us his blessing
till the ends of the earth revere him. (R.)

*Then Jesus said to her in reply,
"O woman, great is your faith!
Let it be done for you as you wish."
And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.*

Second Reading

Rom 11:13-15. 29-32

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

The gifts and call of God are irrevocable.

Let me tell you pagans this: I have been sent to the pagans as their apostle, and I am proud of being sent, but the purpose of it is to make my own people envious of you, and in this way save some of them. Since their rejection meant the reconciliation of the world, do you know what their admission will mean? Nothing less than a resurrection from the dead! God never takes back his gifts or revokes his choice.

Just as you changed from being disobedient to God, and now enjoy mercy because of their disobedience, so those who are disobedient now – and only because of the mercy shown to you – will also enjoy mercy eventually. God has imprisoned all men in their own disobedience only to show mercy to all mankind.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 4:23

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus preached the Good News of the kingdom and healed all who were sick.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mt 15:21-28

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Woman, you have great faith.

Jesus left Gennesaret and withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. Then out came a Canaanite woman from that district and started shouting, ‘Sir, Son of David, take pity on me. My daughter is tormented by a devil.’ But he answered her not a word. And his disciples went and pleaded with him. ‘Give her what she wants,’ they said ‘because she is shouting after us.’ He said in reply, ‘I was sent only to the lost sheep of the House of Israel.’ But the woman had come up and was kneeling at his feet. ‘Lord,’ she said ‘help me.’ He replied, ‘It is not fair to take the children’s food and throw it to the house-dogs.’ She retorted, ‘Ah yes, sir; but even house-dogs can eat the scraps that fall from their master’s table.’ Then Jesus answered her, ‘Woman, you have great faith. Let your wish be granted.’ And from that moment her daughter was well again.

TELL US YOUR ALPHA STORY

Brendan Chestnutt's ALPHA Journey.

I am from a large Irish Catholic Family and so was brought up in the faith. As an adult I attended mass most weeks but did not have a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

I moved to Mandurah about 4 years ago and for the first couple of years nothing really changed, then I was invited to join the initial ALPHA by Deacon Michael, about 2 years ago, which I did and at the Holy Spirit Weekend I finally got it. I found a relationship with Jesus and discovered the true meaning of the Holy Spirit. For the next 2 years I have worked with Rosemary promoting and Hosting Alpha. When I first met Deacon Michael, I had joined The Grief Support Group, I joined and took part in the initial ALPHA, Then I assisted with running Alpha for 2 years, this year I joined the PPC and a couple of months ago I was elected Chairperson of The PPC. This has all been inspired by the transformation I made through ALPHA. If you have questions about life and /or Faith I can recommend ALPHA to you as it is a great way to explore what you believe.

Happy Feast Day!

To Our Lady's Assumption Parish Community

"O Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God and Mother of Men, we believe with all the fervor of our Faith in your triumphal Assumption, both in body and soul, into heaven where you are acclaimed as Queen of all the choirs of angels and all the legions of the Saints; and we unite with them to praise and bless the Lord Who has exalted you above all other pure creatures, and to offer you the tribute of our devotion and our love."

(from the Assumption Prayer of Pope Pius XII)

The Assumption of Mary

According to Catholic doctrine and the traditions of the Catholic Church, the Blessed Virgin Mary "having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." This means that Mary was transported into Heaven with her body and soul united. This doctrine was dogmatically and infallibly defined by Pope Pius XII on 1 November 1950

Announcement. We will not be serving our traditional soup and bread rolls this year due to pandemic restrictions. Thank you for your understanding.

Prayers & Spiritual Resources

Prayers and Reflections 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A

God's plan of salvation is for all people. The loving Spirit of God is poured into the whole of creation and rests within everyone. This truth is revealed throughout Scripture and is a message of hope for all times.

The prophet Isaiah (First Reading) calls us to act with integrity and justice, recognising that a time will come when true faith in the Lord of love and compassion will find expression in people of all faith and none.

This universal vision is echoed in both the response and the verses of the Psalms. The light of God's love shines on all people of every tribe and nation. This is a text that speaks to our times, reminding us of our common humanity, bound together by the love and blessings of God.

In the letter to the Romans (Second Reading), Paul teaches that God is faithful to his promises and will never take back the gifts he has so lovingly and freely given to all people. God's mercy is for all of humanity.

In the Gospel, we witness what at first seems an uncharacteristically harsh response from Jesus to a desperately worried mother. In this exchange, a foreign pagan woman with a daughter troubled by an evil spirit approaches him directly for help. She has so much faith in Jesus that she even reveals a truth about him that his own disciples have yet to recognise. Jesus's initial rebuff to her cry for help, and her unwavering faith in him, offers an opportunity for him to teach his disciples that God's healing love is available for all people, no matter what their race or religion may be.

Matthew 21:22
And whatever you ask in prayer, you will receive, if you have faith.

Psalm 121 A song of ascents.

- 1 "I lift up my eyes to the hills-- where does my help come from?
- 2 My help comes from the LORD, the Maker of heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not let your foot slip-- he who watches over you will not slumber;
- 4 indeed, he who watches over Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
- 5 The LORD watches over you-- the LORD is your shade at your right hand;
- 6 the sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.
- 7 The LORD will keep you from all harm-- he will watch over your life;
- 8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore."

NOTES from the ORDO:

HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION for Australia and New Zealand are 15
August (Assumption) and 25 December (Christmas).
The importance of a day in the liturgical calendar is determined by its rank (solemnity, feast, memorial); a Holy Day is simply a solemnity
celebrated like a Sunday,
that is, with obligation.

O MARY, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.
HOLY MARY, pray for us!
IMMACULATE HEART of Mary, pray for us now and at the hour of our death.
SWEET HEART of Mary, be my salvation!
OUR LADY, Queen of Peace, pray for us!

Clean or Unclean?

The concept of personal cleanliness as both a prerequisite of holiness and an aid to physical fitness. Cleansing with water for physical as well as spiritual purity was commanded in the Old Testament.

Moses bathed Aaron and his sons before their ordination as priests. (Leviticus 8:6)

A diseased, unclean person had to be quarantined outside the camp until the infection ceased. (Leviticus 13:45,46)

When the disease was gone, the person had to “wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe with water.” (Leviticus 14:8)

By the time of Christ, ceremonial cleanliness by water had become institutionalized into a purity ritual involving full immersion in a mikveh (or miqveh), a “collection of water.”

To be clean outside was a metaphor for inward, spiritual purity.

Baptism promotes this cleansing for spiritual purity and in these times of pandemic we are reminded that washing is also important for physical health.

August 11 the feast day of John Henry Newman - his daily prayer inspires many.

May God support us all the day long,
till the shades lengthen and the evening comes,
and the busy world is hushed,
and the fever of life is over,
and our work is done.
Then in mercy may God give us a safe lodging and a holy rest and peace at the last.
Amen

Brigidine Prayer for the People of Lebanon

We pray, God of all people, that your Spirit of healing and protection be with the people of Beirut and Lebanon at this time.

May the good news of peace and loving care be with all who live in Beirut, especially those suffering as a result of this disaster.

May the terrifying sounds of explosion, ambulance sirens and the cries of those trapped in buildings give way to sounds of courage and hope.

May the smell of acrid smoke, burning buildings and remains soon give way to a renewed sense of God's loving presence and strength.

May there be real cooperation between rescue workers, government personnel and civilians so that true justice and peace might break through for all and people's deep suffering alleviated.

Our Lady of Lebanon, pray for us and for all who suffer in Beirut.

Prayer for Victoria by Daniel Giles

We give thanks for efforts to contain COVID-19 in Australia, for the many lives saved, for keeping our nation healthy, and for allowing us to begin returning to the nourishment you provide us.

May your comforting hand come upon Victoria as we fight the local outbreaks of our pandemic. May we work together to swiftly end this current outbreak so that we may once again feast with our loved ones, return in greater numbers to your Eucharistic nourishment and confidently return to community life without fear of falling sick to the virus. And may we return to a better normal than the one we had pre COVID-19.

In the meantime, we know you are our constant companion as we battle the loneliness and isolation that COVID-19 brings. Help us to be sensible in our decision making. Give us strength to be patient.

Comfort those who are weary of this fight.
Protect the health of Victorians.
Prevent the continued spread of disease.
Help us appreciate all you have given us.
And help us surrender to your will.

Help us also walk in solidarity with our sisters and brothers who fight this disease. May we be empowered to help these people and may we prevent the devastating effects of sickness in areas that already experience extreme poverty.

Amen.

Prayer for Priests by St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus

O Jesus, I pray for your faithful and fervent priests;
for your unfaithful and tepid priests;
for your priests labouring at home or abroad
in distant mission fields;
for your tempted priests;
for your lonely and desolate priests;
for your young priests;
for your dying priests;
for the souls of your priests in purgatory.
But above all, I recommend to you the priests dearest to me:
the priest who baptized me;
the priests who absolved me from my sins;
the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me your Body and Blood in Holy Communion;
the priests who taught and instructed me;
all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way (especially ...).
O Jesus, keep them all close to your heart,
and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen.

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time Year A, 16 August 2020

"Woman, your faith is great."

Something to Think About. In today's story, Jesus talks to a woman from a different country and, despite their differences, he eventually helps her because of her faith. Who, in your life, would you consider to be a foreigner or a stranger? Maybe a person you haven't met yet or a person you have judged to be 'different'.

The Story. The woman in this week's story from Matthew's gospel is a stranger and a foreigner and the last person one would expect to seek out Jesus. She displays great faith, more faith, in fact, than the disciples ever show! It is her faith that saves her and heals her daughter.

ORDINARY TIME 20 – YEAR A

JESUS HELPS EVERYONE!

A WOMAN FROM ANOTHER COUNTRY ASKED JESUS TO HELP HER DAUGHTER WHO WAS SICK.

SHE ASKED, AND ASKED AGAIN. SHE DID NOT GIVE UP.

JESUS SAW HER FAITH AND HEALED HER DAUGHTER.

WHAT DO YOU ASK JESUS FOR?
