The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

Happy Feast Day!

VISION STATEMENT

As Disciples of Christ, we are a faith-filled, inclusive, connected Catholic family committed to grow, worship and serve.

MISSION

To be a welcoming Church using its talents in Ministries to develop our Parish focusing on our spiritual growth

Solemnity of Our Lady of Assumption

This Sunday is the feast of Mandurah Catholic Church! When we commemorate the feast of our Lady of Assumption, we celebrate the titular feast of our parish. Another important reason of our rejoicing is that we are fortunate to have an Adoration Chapel to be blessed on the same day! Let us therefore rejoice and be glad – This is the day which the Lord has made for His people and for His church in Mandurah.

Assumption into heaven

The Dogma of Assumption was declared by Pope Pius XII on November 1st 1950 when he wrote 'Munificentissimus Deus'. Dogma says: "Mary, the immaculate perpetually Virgin Mother of God, after the completion of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into the glory of heaven."

TIME magazine in a cover story on Mary of Nazareth said, "Among all the women who ever lived, the mother of Jesus Christ is the most celebrated, the most venerated, the most portrayed, the most honoured..." She is mentioned only on selected occasions in the Gospels, yet she has dominated the art, the music and the faith of the world for centuries. Catholics and Orthodox unite in calling her mother of God. Protestant Christians recognise her importance in the Christian story. Even the Quran devotes several chapters to her. Yes, indeed, she is an universal Mother!

Final call for the celebration

We welcome Rev. Fr. Tony Chiera, the Vicar General of the Bunbury diocese, this Sunday to preside over the Parish feast Holy Mass at 9.00 am and blessing of the Adoration chapel. Our social committee has prepared a great barbeque with music in the church grounds. I invite everyone once again to take part in all the functions of the day. Hope we might get a bright sky and weather.

Professional development day for priests

Our priests are having their PD day on 17th and 18th of August. Bishop Gerard Holohan will be the main speaker of the workshop. Our theme is "Forming missionary parishes" Fr. Walley will be celebrating masses on 17th and 18th at 7.30 am. There will be only a liturgy of communion service on 18th evening. Kindly pray for us.

Mount Carmel Adoration Chapel

The blessing of the adoration chapel takes place on 15th Sunday, and we open the adoration room publicly from Monday to Friday at 8.00 am and it will be closed by 4.00 pm. During this time the main church will remain closed. On special request, the adoration chapel could be opened on Saturday and Sunday. Come and let us adore the Lord. It is beautiful to be here!

Happy Feast of Our Lady of Assumption,

Fr. Johnny Arattukulam, C.C.D

Readings for the Day

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

11:19; 12:1–6, 10

The sanctuary of God in heaven opened, and the ark of the covenant could be seen inside it. Now a great sign appeared in heaven: a woman, adorned with the sun, standing on the moon, and with the twelve stars on her head for a crown. She was pregnant, and in labour, crying aloud in the pangs of childbirth. Then a second sign appeared in the sky, a huge red dragon which had seven heads and ten horns, and each of the seven heads crowned with a coronet. Its tail dragged a third of the stars from the sky and dropped them to the earth, and the dragon stopped in front of the woman as she was having the child, so that he could eat it as soon as it was born from its mother. The woman brought a male child into the world, the son who was to rule all the nations with an iron sceptre, and the child was taken straight up to God and to his throne, while the woman escaped into the desert, where God had made a place of safety ready. Then I heard a voice shout from heaven, 'Victory and power and empire for ever have been won by our God, and all authority for his Christ.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 44:10–12, 16

R. The queen stands at your right hand, arrayed in gold.

The daughters of kings are among your loved ones.
On your right stands the queen in gold of Ophir.
Listen, O daughter, give ear to my words:
forget your own people and your father's house. R.

So will the king desire your beauty:
He is your lord, pay homage to him.
They are escorted amid gladness and joy;
they pass within the palace of the king. R.

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

15:20–26

Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of all who have fallen asleep. Death came through one man and in the same way the resurrection of the dead has come through one man. Just as all men die in Adam, so all men will be brought to life in Christ; but all of them in their proper order: Christ as the first-fruits and then, after the coming of Christ, those who belong to him. After that will come the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, having done away with every sovereignty, authority and power. For he must be king until he has put all his enemies under his feet and the last of the enemies to be destroyed is death, for everything is to be put under his feet.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!

Mary is taken up to heaven, and the angels of God shout for joy. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

1:39–56

Mary set out and went as quickly as she could to a town in the hill country of Judah. She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. Now as soon as Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the child leapt in her womb and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. She gave a loud cry and said, 'Of all women you are the most blessed, and blessed is the fruit of your womb. Why should I be honoured with a visit from the mother of my Lord? From the moment your greeting reached my ears, the child in my womb leapt for joy. Yes, blessed is she who believed that the promise made her by the Lord would be fulfilled.'

And Mary said:

'My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord

and my spirit exults in God my saviour;

because he has looked upon his lowly handmaid.

Yes, from this day forward all generations will call me blessed,

for the Almighty has done great things for me.

Holy is his name, and his mercy reaches from age to age for those who fear him.

He has shown the power of his arm, he has routed the proud of heart.

He has pulled down princes from their thrones

and exalted the lowly.

The hungry he has filled with good things,

the rich sent empty away.

He has come to the help of Israel his servant, mindful of his mercy

– according to the promise he made to our ancestors –

of his mercy to Abraham and to his descendants for ever.'

Mary stayed with Elizabeth about three months and then went back home.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Becoming the Eucharist

We Celebrate

This is a morning seminar for all liturgical ministers, exploring more deeply the meaning of the Eucharist we celebrate Sunday after Sunday. While this gathering will not address the practice of the various liturgical ministries of the Mass, it will provide a deeper understanding of the Eucharist, and of our mission and call to holiness that flow from its fruitful celebration. This seminar will be useful for all who serve in the Liturgy, and will help us appreciate better the role entrusted to us by the Parish.

Venue: Mandurah Parish Centre

Date: Saturday Sept 18th

9.30am - 12 noon

(please bring a plate for morning tea)

Presenter: Fr Tony Chiera,

Pastoral Office Bunbury

Nearby parishes welcome to attend.
Seminar live streamed for other Parishes throughout the Diocese.

To register:

Table Fellowship – Youth Ministry Networking

This is an invitation to youth ministry leaders, coordinators, and teachers to come together for conversation, networking and mutual support. One of the major ways Jesus gathered and formed His community of disciples was to break bread with them, commonly referred to these days as 'table fellowship'. Great things can happen when we gather committed and passionate people together to eat, talk and pray.

Bunbury Diocesan Office, 4th of September 2021. 12pm – 2pm.

RSVP Essential. Please RSVP via email to dioyouth@bunburycatholic.org.au by the 28th of August 2021.

To Our Lady's Assumption Parish Community

"O Immaculate Virgin, Mother of God and Mother of Men,
we believe with all the fervor of our Faith in your triumphal Assumption, both in body and soul, into heaven where you are acclaimed as Queen of all the choirs of angels and all the legions of the Saints;
and we unite with them to praise and bless the Lord
Who has exalted you above all other pure creatures,
and to offer you the tribute of our devotion and our love."

Prayers & Reflection

Preparing to hear God's word

Today is a special day in the Church's calendar. It is the day we remember the end of Mary's life when she was taken up into heaven, body and soul. Like Mary, we hope and pray that one day we too will be with Jesus in heaven.

The Gospel story

The gospel story, remembers a special event in Mary's life when she visited her cousin Elizabeth. Both women were expecting babies. When Mary greeted Elizabeth, the baby in Elizabeth leapt for joy! Elizabeth recognises that Mary is the mother of the Lord and celebrates Mary's faith in God's promise.

Reflecting on the Gospel

In today's gospel, both Mary and Elizabeth are expecting babies as a result of the promise of God. Has anyone ever made you a promise? As we heard in today's gospel, Mary was blessed because she believed that God would keep his promises to her. We know that God promises to love and care for us always. Share aloud some of the things you know God has done for you, and give thanks with a joyful heart!

Dear God,
Like Mary, we praise you for keeping
your promises to us.
Help us to follow you even when we don't understand everything.
Amen.

Commentaries

Belief in the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was decreed only in 1950 but was evident in the prayer tradition of the Church long before that. Liturgical texts appeared as early as the fifth century. The present Preface for the feast links Mary's unique destiny with her role as the Mother of God; it also sees her Assumption as sign and promise for the pilgrim people of God.

She was personally spared
. . . the corruption of the tomb,
since from her own body she marvellously brought forth
your incarnate Son, the Author of all life.

But her privilege is a blessing for us all, since Mary was assumed into heaven
as the beginning and image of your Church's coming to perfection and a sign of sure hope and comfort to your pilgrim people.

Saints & Heroes

By Fr Anson Antony OCD

St. Bernard- August 20

St. Bernard was born of noble parentage in Burgundy, France, in the castle of Fontaines near Dijon in 1090. Under the care of his pious parents he was sent at an early age to a college at Chatillon, where he was conspicuous for his remarkable piety and spirit of recollection. At the same place he entered upon the studies of theology and Holy Scripture. After the death of his mother, fearing the snares and temptations of the world, he resolved to embrace the newly established and very austere institute of the Cistercian Order, of which he was destined to become the greatest ornament. He also persuaded his brothers and several of his friends to follow his example. In 1113, St. Bernard, with thirty young noblemen, presented himself to the holy Abbot, St. Stephen, at Citeaux. After a novitiate spent in great fervour, he made his profession in the following year. His superior soon after, seeing the great progress he had made in the spiritual life, sent him with twelve monks to found a new monastery, which afterward became known as the celebrated Abbey of Clairvaux. St. Bernard was at once appointed Abbot and began that active life which has rendered him the most conspicuous figure in the history of the 12th century. He founded numerous other monasteries, composed a number of works and undertook many journeys for the honour of God. Several Bishoprics were offered him, but he refused them all. The reputation of St. Bernard spread far and wide; even the Popes were governed by his advice. He was commissioned by Pope Eugene III to preach the second Crusade. In obedience to the Sovereign Pontiff he travelled through France and Germany, and aroused the greatest enthusiasm for the holy war among the masses of the population. The failure of the expedition raised a great storm against the saint, but he attributed it to the sins of the Crusaders. St. Bernard was eminently endowed with the gift of miracles. He died on August 20, 1153.

St. Pius X- August 21

Pope Pius X, born Giuseppe Melchiorre Sarto, was the first Pope elected in the 20th century. He came to the papal office in 1903 and died 11 years later in 1914, just as World War I was beginning. He was born in 1835 at Riese, near Venice, and was one of eight children. His family was poor. He felt a calling to be a priest at a young age and was ordained in 1858. After 26 years, he was named bishop of Mantua, Italy, and in 1893, he became patriarch of Venice. As Pope, he issued decrees making the age of First Holy Communion earlier (at the age of 7) and advocated frequent and even daily reception of the Eucharist. He promoted the reading of the Bible among laypeople, reformed the liturgy, promoted clear and simple homilies, and brought back Gregorian chant. He revised the Breviary, reorganized the curia, and initiated the codification of canon law. He died in 1914 of natural causes reportedly aggravated by worries over the beginning of World War I. Pope Pius X was canonized by Pope Pius XII in 1954. His last will and testament bears the striking sentence: "I was born poor, I have lived in poverty, and I wish to die poor."

Solemn Blessing (The Blessed Virgin Mary)

May God, who through the childbearing of the Blessed Virgin Mary willed in his great kindness to redeem the human race, be pleased to enrich us with his blessing.

Amen.

May we know always and everywhere the protection of her, through whom we have been found worthy to receive the author of life.

Amen.

May we, who have devoutly gathered on this day, carry away with us the gifts of spiritual joys and heavenly rewards.

Amen.

And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on us and remain with us for ever.

Amen.
