

The cover features a dark gray background with a repeating geometric pattern of interlocking triangles. Several diamond-shaped frames are overlaid on the pattern, each containing a black and white photograph of a different sport. The largest diamond frame in the center contains a basketball player in a dark jersey with the number 9, who is in a crouching position on a court. Other smaller diamond frames at the top and bottom corners show various athletes in action, including a soccer player and a basketball player. The text 'SPORTS AND EVENTS' is written in a bold, italicized, lime green font, and '2018' is written in a white, italicized font below it.
