What would you do with an extra month?

 Rabbi Myers

February 2019

An extra month? How about a few more hours or a couple of days to get things done, see people, and live? That sounds so good. Some people are fortunate to receive bonuses for good work. What if there was a time bonus? That you were given some additional days or even a few weeks! What would you do with your time if you even had an extra month? Really, it's rather fun to imagine. Would you take a month of vacation and go cruising the Mediterranean? Would you start writing that book you've always dreamed of? How about doing the KonMari method, brought by Japanese sage, Maria Kondo of tidying up your home? (I've watched a couple of her videos and they are quite inspiring. Even had my daughter watch one. Wishful thinking that a teenager would want to clean up her room. Ah, I digress) Hmm, would you go off and spend quality time with your grandchildren? What about that work project that you know will pay off in the future? Time, the lack of it or using it well, is always a struggle for us.

Well, I've got good news for you. This February/March, we will have an extra Jewish month of Adar. Halleluya! An extra month, what are we going to do with that? Well, the holidays will be pushed later. Yes, Yom Kippur will be in October. It will give me a little more time in writing sermons. In the meantime, we will have some extra weeks to plan for Purim and make arrangements for our Pesach seders. And, well, that about it. Before I deflate your balloon of excitement, though, I want you to know that it happens every two to three years. It's because our Jewish calendar is primarily lunar and that without these additional months, our holidays would float around the calendar. It would be very odd to celebrate Passover in August, Rosh Hashanah in January, and Hanukkah in April. So this is why we have this 'solar' correction to keep our holidays in their seasons.

While we, living in the secular world, won't have any additional time to spare perhaps it's an opportunity to evaluate how we will spend the time that we do have. Abraham Joshua Heschel writes that we become imprisoned in the domain of space, i.e., of things, in his book, The Sabbath. He admonishes us to sanctify time by observing Shabbat. Yes, as Reform Jews, it can be powerful to set aside some time on Shabbat for reflection, rejuvenation, and joy. We can also take some time to look at our goals whether they are academic, work performance, personal growth, strengthening relationships, securing finances, or just planning ahead.

Maybe, it's not a bad exercise to imagine what we would do if we literally had an extra month. Once we identify what is most important to us, we can incrementally work towards it. Hillel famously stated in Pirke Avot, "If not now, when?" Perhaps, we shouldn't wait for a time bonus but instead start working towards our goals or doing things that in Marie Kondo's words, "spark joy." She's referring to items to keep but I like the concept for how we spend our time. May we use our time productively and add as much joy to our lives as possible. In the meantime, enjoy the bonus month of Adar!

President's Message

Have you stopped to take a look at what is going on around here? There are so many activities happening, that it is hard to keep up. I was just reading the most recent Shavua Tov, and I started getting winded. We are so lucky to have such active and vibrant Programming, Ways and Means, and Adult Education committees, not to mention our Sisterhood and Brotherhood, as well as our religious school and pre-school. They always plan so many great events to keep this place buzzing. But believe it or not, we are always striving to do more.

As you have heard me discuss for the past few months, we have been working with a marketing consultant to increase our reach and to make the Beth David brand more prominent in our community. So be on the lookout for new and different events, activities, and initiatives. And don't be surprised if we reach out to you to get you involved the process. After all, who doesn't love a good event.

Sincerely,

Eric Schiffer, President

By Charlie Niederman

After two months we can look back on our important brunch program about Temple security led by our own David Baroway, a veteran of a long career in law enforcement and security, joined by the Westminster Police Department's officer assigned to working with Temple Beth David. Security procedures and equipment that were discussed are now being phased in. Thanks to Lee Netzer for once again leading our culinary crew.

The joint Brotherhood, Sisterhood paid up dinner in January had a Hawaiian theme, including a band that entertained with Hawaiian music. Lee Netzer, Jeff LeBoff, Scott Telford, and their wives sampled Hawaiian restaurants before agreeing on the places to provide the food. Lee and his culinary crew set up the meal. The Sisterhood set up the decorations and provided centerpieces The Youth Group's 50/50 raffle, and the Brotherhood "white elephant" auction were successful, and added to the fun. I don't have a picture of doing the auction in an aloha shirt, and lava lava. Probably its just as well.

The Texas Hold'em event, organized and run by Jerrold Korn, and set up by Alan Jarrick was fun and successful, in no small measure due to Howie Tobey's famous French dip sandwiches. Scott Telford, and Jeff LeBoff helped, and Robin Harison set up the video for timing of the tournament. Thanks to all for a job well done.

This year's Brotherhood Shabbat Service is being set up by Arnie Weintraub. Join us for Friday Shabbat Service on February 8th. It will feature the Director of the Anti Defamation League in Orange County, Rabbi Peter Levy, who will update us on anti-Semitism, hate crimes, security, and the role the ADL plays in working with law enforcement.

On February Saturday evening, February 23, join us for THE JEWS OF ROCK AND ROLL starting with wine and cheese at 7:00pm. Our friend, Perry Goldstein, is producing this sing along anthology that will, feature the band Orange Jews. Join us for the extravaganza by buying your tickets online at www.jb-bro.com or calling 714-892-6623.

We are also looking forward to our brunch on March 31st featuring the Harrison family's journey to Judaism

SISTERHOOD MATTERS...

Sisterhood began 2019 with some excellent events. First, we joined with Brotherhood for our annual Paid Membership Dinner. Sue Leboff and Mickey Lewin, membership co-vice presidents, led the Sisterhood contingent for planning this event. Much thanks to them for their hard work, and thank you also to their committee: Cathy Niederman, Thea Wientraub, Elaine Netzer, Anne Farber, Mulu Skinner-Harrison, Eileen Tobey, and Renee Dorfman.

The following day, we had a speaker on depression. She was very professional, knowledgeable, and interesting. Thank you to Debbie Lelchuk and Ai Resnick for planning this speaker series, which will bring additional interesting and worthwhile speakers in the coming months.

To end January, we took the bus to Pechanga for a day at the casino. Some people won, some didn't, but all had fun! Thank you, Ruth Kramer, for coordinating this for us.

Coming in February will be a Mah Jongg tournament on February 20. There may be some additional events in February, but details are not yet available. I urge you to read the Shavuah Tov every week and watch our Sisterhood Facebook page to keep up on all that is going on, so you don't miss out!

March will be busy, and I hope you will plan ahead to join us. Sisterhood Shabbat is on March 8, always a lovely service. On March 17 and 18, we will be baking hamantaschen for the Purim Carnival which will be March 24.

We are in a unique position, affiliated with the Jewish Federation and Family Service of Greater Long Beach and West Orange County in Long Beach, and Orange County JFFS in Irvine. Both JFFS Women's Philanthropy will be holding their annual events in March. Long Beach will hold its Visions dinner on Thursday, March 14. Orange County will be having a brunch on Sunday, March 17. Both are worthwhile, and I will be attending. I encourage you to join me, and hundreds of other Jewish women from our area, for one or both. Feel free to call me for more information.

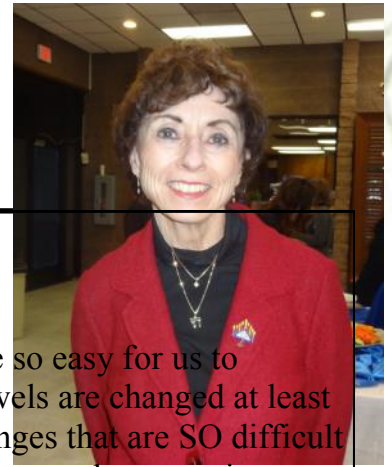

Our big event is March 30, a dinner and speaker Chris Epting. Chris is an author of numerous books, mostly writing about history and interesting facts about an area. He spoke at a Club 55 morning, sharing bits of history and trivia about Orange County, and we were all enthralled. He will be bringing his interesting style to us again, and I promise this will be an enjoyable evening. I hope you will put it on your calendar now!

As always, I am grateful for my wonderful Sisterhood board, a dynamic, hard-working group of women, and I am grateful for every Sisterhood member. I hope to see many of you enjoying our upcoming events!

Shalom,

Laurie

Message from Membership Chair

Thoughts from Membership

Mr. Webster defines 'change' as to make or become different. Some things are so easy for us to change. We usually change clothes at least once a day. Our bed sheets and towels are changed at least weekly. Car oil is changed on a regular schedule. And yet, there are other changes that are SO difficult to make. Our brains just do not want to go there. There is comfort in events that are the same time after time, perhaps even a sense of good luck if we can predict outcomes of unchanged experiences. Often, we have worked hard to create, over time, a perfect, predictable outcome.

Still, despite knowing the outcome of events, we are depriving ourselves of new experiences, of creating out of the box events that may soar far beyond the present known experiences. Oh, we may err along the way to creating that amazing, perfect new experience or event, but our minds are growing and excitement is generated. Many years ago, soon after Max and I were married, I made some meal on a Monday, but the following Monday I made something totally different. Max was stunned. Growing up, his family had the same meal each Monday, a different one for Tuesday, continuing to the end of the week, and then the pattern was repeated. In my house, we had whatever my mother felt like making for dinner on any given day! And that is just what I was doing. Well, Max found that changing his dinner expectation was actually enjoyable!

The same is true at Temple. When our amazing Cantor Linder first came to Beth David, she began introducing new music at a rate to which the Choir was not accustomed. We were shocked....we had never done it this way before....we had been doing just fine for over twenty years. W-E-L-L....guess what? We changed. Not only did we change, but we are now so proud of our large repertoire. Cantor Linder showed us a new way of singing. We complained, and then we stood tall and proud. And this year, we had the MOST successful Congregational Meeting ever by combining it with a wonderful dinner. Ta Da!

If Beth David is going to keep up with 2019 and beyond, it, too, has to keep changing. We have updated our logo, and our new website will soon be fantastic! Sisterhood is changing the Donor Luncheon format for the first time.....a step into the future again. Bravo!! I hope all arms of the Temple will look to the years ahead and to our changing world and tastes. We need to step out of that OLD, moth eaten box and into a gorgeous new gift bag.

Okay, I have said enough (probably too much).

Have you Met.....

Anne Hoogasian

Perhaps we have the cold climate of Illinois to thank for bringing Anne Hoogasian to California, and ultimately, to Temple Beth David. We are fortunate she chose California in which to make her home.

Though quiet and reserved, as an adult, Anne has been an advocate of students struggling to learn English and become a part of the American society. She retired from the Los Angeles Unified School District, having taught English as a Second Language for many years, and having taught grades six through twelve, as well. She graduated with a Liberal Arts degree from Gordon College, and received her Master's Degree from the University of Memphis. Ahh, a southern belle!

Underneath that reserved persona, however, is an adventurous woman. Anne and her mother have not once, but TWICE, sailed around the world!! When was the last time any of us have accomplished such a feat? In addition, as a young woman she spent over a year living on a kibbutz in Israel, with the thought of possibly moving there permanently. When she arrived on the shores of Israel, she knew not one word of Hebrew. Definitely a woman of courage.

Back home in California, Anne loves music, going to the movies, and swimming. And, she is still taking Hebrew lessons! When she comes to Temple, which is often, she helps set up the delicious desserts for the oneg shabbats for which Beth David is rightly famous. During Shabbat services, she enjoys sitting quietly by herself and absorbing the spirituality filling the sanctuary.

Anne loves Temple Beth David. She was looking for a place to fill a bit of loneliness in her heart, and she found it here.....with monthly Torah services and good friends.

THURSDAY, FEB 21 | 7-9 PM

Magic Yarn Project makes wigs and caps for children fighting cancer because often, wigs are too heavy for kids to wear. These wigs are weaved into styles mimicking the kids' favorite characters, such as Disney princesses and Marvel heroes. Along with the wigs, the organization also makes special envelopes adorned with stickers featuring the character who the wig was styled after. These bedazzled envelopes are given to the children when they receive their wigs. We will be collecting stickers during an upcoming sticker drive.

You will simply click on a link on the Temple Home Page, start saving money for your family and help the Temple out as well! We have included an easy step-by-step signup guide with this letter. Here are some examples of companies that participate in the program:

Target, Macy's, Nordstrom, Neiman Marcus, Sears, Sak's, Apple, Old Navy, the Gap, Amazon, Office Depot, Petco, Staples, Dell, The Limited, Holiday Inn, Groupon, Levi's, Lands End, Best Buy, 1-800 Flowers, 24 Hour Fitness, and Victoria's Secret.

These are companies that we all normally shop at, and by simply clicking on the link on the Temple website, you will be saving money for your family and actually raising money for the Temple. In addition, you can also save money by dining out at participating restaurants and, at the same time, raising donations for the Temple as well. It's simple, free and easy to use, and the average family using the site over a year will actually raise more than $350 annually for the Temple. Multiply that by our 300 families and we will raise more than $100,000 per year for the Temple! This program really works. Goodshop has raised more than $11 million for charitable organizations with this program.

Likewise, we are also rolling out Goodsearch. By doing your internet searches through Goodsearch.com, which links with Yahoo, the Temple will receive a penny for every internet search. If you can imagine how many internet searches you do, and your families do, this will also add up to real money for the Temple.

We encourage all of you to participate and to help strengthen our Temple for all of us and for the generations to come.

With best regards,

Neil Kornswiet
