

Girl Scout Silver Award Final Report

Each eligible Girl Scout Cadette must submit a Final Report to the Girl Scouts of Central Indiana Council Office

To be recognized at the current year’s council Girls of Distinction Celebration, final reports must be postmarked by April 1. Reports received after the cutoff date will be recognized at Girls of Distinction Celebration the next year.

Note: Since the Girl Scout Silver Award is a special honor for Girl Scout Cadettes, projects must be complete and final reports must be submitted no later than Sept. 30 of the year you start ninth grade.

Please type or print in black ink. Make a copy for your records.

On a separate sheet of paper, answer the following questions. Please type your responses.

1. What need did in your community did you address with your project? Discuss your reasons for selecting this issue.
2. How are others working to addressing this same community issue on a local level? Global level?
3. Briefly describe your project? Include the steps required to put your plan into action.
4. What impact did you make on those who benefitted? How did you evaluate the effectiveness of your project?
5. Did knowing what others are doing help to make your project better?
6. What was the most successful aspect of your project?
7. What aspects of your project would you do differently if you could start over?
8. How can your project be sustained in the future?
9. Complete and attach the Girl Scout Silver Award Time Log and Girl Scout Silver Award Financial Report. Both of these documents are collected to help provide an idea of the scope of your project and while there is not a required number of hours for completion of the Girl Scout Silver Award the suggested minimum is 50 hours per individual.
10. What did you discover about yourself from this experience?
11. During your project how did you live the Girl Scout Promise and Law?
12. Discuss how you think your leadership skills will grow in the future because of this project?
13. During the process of earning your Girl Scout Silver Award you further developed your leadership skills. On the next page please indicate which of the 15 Girl Scout Leadership Outcomes listed do you think you were able to develop though this project? (check all that apply)?

Girl Scout Silver Award Financial Report

Use this form to help keep track your income and expenses as you earn your Girl Scout Silver Award. Remember, Girl Scout Silver Award projects should not be used as money-earning opportunities (though you can do a money-earning activity to fund your Girl Scout Silver Award project). All money-earning activities must be approved by Girl Scouts of Central Indiana before you do them.
