Revision of Padang Stage layout to deliver a more up-close concert experience

The Padang Stage, which will host Kylie, Bastille, Queen + Adam Lambert and a yet-to-be announced Sunday headliner, will be resited this year. Singapore's largest outdoor stage will be situated between Padang Grandstand A and Padang Grandstand B, facing Connaught Drive and Esplanade Park to deliver a more up-close concert experience for all ticketholders.

By positioning the Padang stage centrally, overall Fan Zone capacity will increase and will be split into six sections for easier and safer crowd control. "The front of house that controls spotlights and audio towers will be tucked in front of the heritage trees on Connaught Drive so we don't lose valuable viewing space behind the towers. Overall, the patrons furthest from stage will be much closer than in past years. We will also install additional superscreens on the far right and left of the stage to give a wider viewing opportunity for races and concerts which will take the concert experience all the way into the Esplanade Park," said Mr. Michael Roche, Executive Director of Singapore GP Pte Ltd.

Patrons can look forward to more food and beverage options at the Padang with the new Portside Hawkers situated beside the Singapore Recreation Club, in addition to the Docksides Hawkers located beside the Singapore Cricket Club. The new layout will also provide easier access out of the Circuit Park via St. Andrew's Road and Fullerton Road.
