The Prayer Before Mass

Come Holy Spirit, quiet my heart and my head, as I gather with my family, friends and neighbors to celebrate Mass.

Quiet the thoughts and distractions that will keep me from worship.

Open my mouth in prayer and song.

Open my ears to hear God's Word.

Open my eyes to the mystery of the Eucharist.

Open my heart to receive Jesus with love.

May I go forth strengthened to take the Mass into my life this week. Amen.

Disciples...Growing in Faith Together

Expecting a new baby?

You are invited to receive a special pre-natal blessing from Father Dan. A white rose dedicated to you will be placed by the statue of Mary as a symbol that the entire parish is praying for you and your baby. The blessings are normally given at 6pm on the first Monday of every month. Following the blessing there is a Baptismal Preparation Class to help you prepare for this important day in your child's life. Call the Parish Office to register.

“Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples”

We learn in today's reading from the Gospel of Matthew that the disciple's heart must be as true as his words and actions. Jesus breaks down the commandments and suggests that it isn't enough to simply avoid certain misbehaviors. We must also know our hearts and the intent that lies therein. For example, we know it is not acceptable to kill a person, but many of us walk around for years carrying bitter resentment and anger. Jesus says this makes us liable to judgment. We know better than to commit adultery, yet we think we can hide our lustful feelings in our hearts. Once again, doing so makes us liable to judgment. We are called to live authentically, and this means that our inner most thoughts must be held to the same judgment as our words and actions. We must seek holiness from the inside out! During your prayer time this week, do a thorough examination of conscience. Dig deep. What are you holding in your heart that needs to be thrown out? Take it to Jesus in confession and embrace your discipleship with renewed vigor!

Victim Assistance

The Diocese of Wichita is committed to protecting children and young people. For information about how the diocese is working to create a safe environment for children and young people, or to report sexual abuse of minors by a church employee, go to www.cdowk.org, pull down the Resources link and click on “Protection of Youth.”

6th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection

People are not property. We cannot exchange them at will or simply use them for our own designs and purposes. What does the word “commitment” mean to you? We can begin to understand its meaning by looking at some synonyms: dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, fidelity, and bond. Commitment is primarily about relationship, and Jesus is all about relationships. How our lives affect others, how we treat our brothers and sisters, how we resolve conflict, and how we view the vows of marriage. Jesus’ teachings on obeying the commandments, murder, reconciliation, marriage, divorce, and adultery all stem from the sacredness of commitment. All of this has a God connection.

We can easily see one another as interchangeable and dispensable. We treat so much of our lives this way. What works today may not be what I want tomorrow. We search and search for the right thing only to find our hearts still restless in the end. Is real happiness achievable this side of the grave? Sometimes we expect too much out of others and want our relationships to fill a hole that we must figure out how to fill ourselves. Any seasoned married couple will tell you that their love for one another changes as time passes. Even though the understanding of romance changes as life changes, the dedication, devotion, allegiance, loyalty, faithfulness, and fidelity all remain and even deepen.

Some relationships can be hurtful, and God does not want us to live with abuse or pain. Also, how a relationship develops is sometimes out of our control, and we become the victim of someone else’s decision. But we can’t be self-focused in our relationships and see them exclusively as self-fulfilling ends. We are companions on life’s journey with varying depths of relationships being enjoyed by all who are with us along the way. We have the freedom to choose. God asks us to do so wisely, with right judgment and thinking.

This week’s STANDOUT STEWARDS are Tim and Heather Loveless! This amazing couple took on the responsibility of coaching one of our middle school basketball teams, even when they did not have a child playing! They have been a wonderful example for our sixth grade girls and have put their heart and soul into coaching this team and helping them be successful on and off the court! They are also a big part of our parish and school athletic committee, and we are incredibly blessed to have their guidance. Thank you Tim and Heather for all that you do!

Congratulations on your First Reconciliation!

More than 80 students received the Sacrament of Reconciliation earlier this month. Please keep these children in your prayers as they continue to grow in faith and receive God’s merciful love!

FORMED HIGHLIGHT OF THE WEEK!

This Saturday, we celebrate the Chair of Peter the Apostle. Pope Benedict XVI described the chair as “a symbol of the special mission of Peter and his successors to tend Christ’s flock, keeping it united in faith and in charity.”

Dr. Tim Gray walks us through the significance of Jesus giving Peter the “keys of the kingdom,” and how through Peter’s mission, He was restoring and perfecting his Church.

PLAN THE CATHOLIC WAY: PROTECT YOUR FAMILY, PLAN FOR YOUR FUTURE, AND PRIORITIZE YOUR STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Who likes to get a flu shot? Nobody. However, we do it to protect ourselves and our loved ones. Estate Planning is very similar. Many people are not excited about starting the process but are very happy when it is over. Estate Planning also requires periodic "boosters" in which the plan needs to be reviewed and updated if necessary. Issues to consider when planning: Do you have minor children or do you provide care for a dependent adult? Do you have a plan in place for their care if something happened to you? Is all of your important information available in an organized manner? Are your children at an age and maturity where they can responsibly care for the estate? How do you want to address end of life issues? What is the church's position? What are your priorities? What are possible living arrangements for you as you age? Have you considered funeral plans and cemetery options? Where does stewardship of treasure fit in your plan? What tools are needed to accomplish your desires?

Please mark your calendar and plan to attend this event. Leon Keiter, Cindy LaFleur and Jennifer Sanders, Mark Miller, Fr. Tom Welk and Sandy Lessor will address some of these issues and answer questions. This FREE event promises to be informative. You will NOT be asked for money or to make a gift pledge. The workshop is packed full of practical and valuable information for adults of any age. A light snack will be available.

Please register online at www.CatholicDioceseofWichita.org/Events or RSVP to maley@CatholicDioceseofWichita.org.
