Programme Outcome (PO), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of Various Programmes are measured through the performance in curricular and co-curricular activities of the students. Depending on the nature of the course taken, some of the methods employed for measuring the attainment level of Programme Outcomes of the students are as below:

- Performance of the students in the internal examinations
- Performance of students in university examinations
- Performance in the practical examinations
- Viva-Voce
- Projects
- Seminar
- Assignments
- Group discussion
- Study tours
- Participation in class activities

Beside this, students are assessed continuously based on their regularity, their receptiveness, participation in class discussions, participation in co-curricular and extracurricular activities and the overall quality of their conduct. Based on these parameters the scale is designed and used to analyze the attainments. PO attainments are analysed for the session 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19. PSO attainments are analysed for the session 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19. CO attainments are analysed for the session 2014-15, 2015-16, 2016-17, 2017-18 and 2018-19.
