Decisions Matter, Especially Now

Dr. John Watford
President, SGTC

The decisions you make today have the ability to affect your life as well as the lives of others tomorrow. 2020 has been a challenging year, but I am very thankful for each and every one of you and for your support of South Georgia Technical College.

I am thankful for the faculty, staff, and administrators who make the decision to work each day to help our students persevere. I am thankful to the students who decide to overcome personal and professional challenges to continue their education. And I am very thankful for a community filled with individuals and business and industry leaders who support South Georgia Technical College and our mission of workforce education.

Despite the challenges of the 2020 Coronavirus crisis, South Georgia Technical College is "Moving Forward." South Georgia Technical College was chosen as the top Community College in Georgia for the second consecutive year by Niche.com. Niche assessed 871 colleges across the nation based on statistics such as: academics, average loan amount, alumni earnings, student surveys regarding value and professor quality, awards won by faculty, student-faculty ratio, retention and graduation rates, and overall student experience. Based on those factors and others, South Georgia Technical College was listed as the top two-year college in Georgia and 71st in the nation. It was also listed as one of the 30 best Colleges for Culinary Arts in America.

Another organization listed the SGTC Medical Assisting program as the 4th best in Georgia. South Georgia Technical College was spotlighted for these successes because of the successes of our students and faculty. Brantley Lane Douglas, a Caterpillar Heavy Equipment Dealer Service Technology student, was recognized as the best in the nation in Agriculture Repair and Maintenance Proficiency this year by the FFA organization. He is an apprentice with Yancey Caterpillar and was singled out for his knowledge from a National organization that has 760,113 student members – all preparing for leadership and careers in the science, business and technology of agriculture across this nation.

He is one of the many students in the over 200 associate degree, diploma, and technical certificate of credit programs who have persevered and "Moved Forward" during a year filled with challenges and obstacles. Over the past 12 months, students have adapted to online enrollment, registration, and learning. They have adapted to masks and other safety precautions. They have graduated virtually or in Drive-Thru ceremonies. But through it all they made the decision to "Move Forward!" And we are glad they did.

The SGTC faculty and staff have had to make adjustments as well, but they have risen to the occasion. Dorothea McKenzie, South Georgia Technical College's Cosmetology Instructor, was recognized as one of the top instructors in the state this year. She was nominated as SGTC's Rick Perkins Instructor of the Year for 2020 and then advanced to the regional level of the state competition. She was named one of the Best of the Best within the Technical College System of Georgia. She is a great representative of the quality faculty at South Georgia Tech and in technical colleges around the state.

Just recently, the SGTC faculty and staff banded together to host the Drive-Thru "Light Up Your Future" celebration for the community in an attempt to share the different opportunities available here while giving back to the community through a celebration of lights and a spirit of encouragement. Over 1200 individuals drove through the SGTC campus for this event. They made the decision to "Move Forward."

At South Georgia Technical College, I hope we always make decisions to positively impact our community and our students. What decisions are YOU making now as we enter the new year that will impact your life and the lives of others tomorrow? If you decide to improve your workplace skills or make a career change, I hope you choose South Georgia Technical College.

The Spring Flight Plan is filled with information about outstanding students, excellent academic programs, important information about how to enroll and register, and a list of the classes offered this semester. All that is required now is for you to decide to "move forward" at South Georgia Technical College.

Spring Semester starts January 13th, 2021. Registration is on January 11th. Remember South Georgia Technical College has a 99% job placement rate for graduates and offers graduates lifetime job placement assistance.

SOUTH GEORGIA TECH NAMED THE BEST COMMUNITY COLLEGE IN GEORGIA FOR SECOND YEAR IN A ROW

South Georgia Technical College has earned the top spot as the Best Community College in Georgia for 2021 by Niche, announced South Georgia Technical College President Dr. John Watford. This is the second consecutive year that South Georgia Technical College has earned this distinction. Niche's Best College rankings for 2021 for Georgia can be found at: <https://www.niche.com/colleges/search/best-community-colleges/s/georgia/>.

"South Georgia Technical College has a tremendous reputation for providing an outstanding two-year education that prepares students for the workforce," said Dr. Watford. "We are very pleased that Niche has ranked us as the number one community college in Georgia for two consecutive years. This provides external validation about the quality and excellence in technical education that we provide."

Dr. Watford gave credit to the community as well as the faculty, staff, and students at South Georgia Technical College. "This ranking is a testament to the faculty, staff and students at South Georgia Technical College and to our business and industry partners. Students attend South Georgia Technical College because of the outstanding faculty and staff here who continuously work for the betterment of students. Our professionals are helping students enroll, remain in classes, and become educated and trained for the careers of their choice. Then we work with business and industry partners to help place students in the workplace. This type of cooperation and hard work is what has helped us to be the top community college in Georgia for the second consecutive year."

Niche is a website that rigorously analyzes dozens of public data sets and millions of reviews to produce comprehensive rankings, report cards, and profiles for every K-12 school, college and neighborhood in the U.S. Niche has over 100 million reviews and poll responses with transparent statistics needed to help find the right college or school for individuals. Niche assessed 1,223 colleges.

For the purpose of this ranking, community colleges include public post-secondary institutions where the majority of the degrees conferred are two-year or fewer. Statistics were obtained from the U.S. Department of Education.

The factors considered for the ranking included statistics such as: academics, average loan amount, alumni earnings, student surveys regarding value, awards won by faculty, student-faculty ratio, student surveys regarding professor quality, grades including retention and graduation rates, and overall student experience. Other factors included: the ethnic composition of the student body, proportion of international students and out-of-state students as well as information from the area such as median rent, local crime rates, access to amenities, campus crime rate, and health and safety services on campus.

The state of Georgia is home to more than 60 colleges and universities, including 30 schools under the University System of Georgia (USG), and 22 schools within the state's technical college system. There are also a number of private and for-profit colleges operating in the state.

"South Georgia Technical College is an excellent choice for an individual that is interested in finding the career of a lifetime. We offer over 200 different associate degree, diploma, or technical certificate of credit programs that individuals can choose from," said Dr. Watford.

Partnerships with industry leaders such as Caterpillar, John Deere, Georgia Power, Delta, and others have helped the college to earn world-wide recognition in graduating students in heavy equipment technology while also taking advantage of on-campus housing, a full-service cafeteria, men's and women's basketball, intramural sports, and clubs and student organizations. The college also highlights particularly successful students through its Student of Excellence program and by participation in the Georgia Occupational Award of Leadership (GOAL). SGTC students have earned national recognition in its SkillsUSA, National Technical Honor Society, and Phi Beta Lambda organizations.
