TRAVEL SIZE TOILETRIES COLLECTION

The 7th & 8th students in our Religious Education Program are collecting small travel size toiletries to make gift bags for those in need. Please consider donating travel size toiletries such as shampoo, toothpaste, toothbrushes, lotions, soap, etc. The items can be dropped off at the Parish Center. Thank you in advance for your support.

THE BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE

The Book of Remembrance will be available in the Church to inscribe the names of beloved deceased family members and friends on October 28. The Book is placed adjacent to the Baptismal font in the Church and will remain there throughout November. All are welcome to memorialize their deceased loved ones by placing their names in the book.

Our annual All Souls Prayer Remembrance will be held at the 12:15 PM Mass on Sunday, November 4. We will remember all those from our community as well as our loved ones, who have gone home to the Lord this year. Hospitality will follow.

PRAY EACH DAY for the souls of our dearly departed parishioners as well as those of our loved ones. May they rest in the Lord's heavenly peace.

THIRTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

REFLECTION

Ten Simple Ordinary Ways to Serve the People in Your Daily Life

Are you looking for ways to serve others with your time, your talents and your treasure? Here are 10 suggestions to be of service to others.

- 1) I can serve others simply by paying attention: by paying attention to their lives, to their circumstances: their pain, their burdens, their joys, their problems and their fears. So I might ask myself: who around me, needs me to pay them more attention?
- 2) I can serve others with my affection: with a warm word, a word of praise, a hand on a shoulder, a hug, my gentle presence, a firm handshake, any kind gesture. So I might ask myself: who around me, needs a share of my affection?
- 3) I can serve others with my compassion: with my reaching out to someone in trouble, just my "showing up" in someone's time of need or loss, with my silence, when my silent presence might be the most compassionate gift I can offer. So I might ask myself: who around me is in need of my compassion?
- 4) I can serve others by including them: by inviting someone who's often forgotten, by including someone who's often left out, by reaching out and drawing in someone who's afraid to approach. So I might ask myself: who around me is waiting to find and enjoy a place in my life?
- 5) I can serve others with my patience: with my willingness to wait, without complaint, with my calmness in matching the slower pace another sets, with my perseverance in helping those who stumble and make mistakes – often. So I might ask myself: who around me would benefit from a more patient response from me?
- 6) I can serve others with my forgiveness: with my not holding others to standards higher than I set for myself, with my letting go my grudges and resentments, with my pardoning without punishing. So I might ask myself: who around me might I set free simply by forgiving them?
- 7) I can serve others with my generosity: with my freely giving - even before I'm asked, with my quiet giving, behind the scenes, with my giving until I feel the pinch myself. So I might ask myself: who around me has wants and needs my generosity might answer and supply?
- 8) I can serve others with my understanding: with my taking time to really listen, with letting go my prejudice and bias, with my opening up to other points of view. So I might ask myself: who around me needs a more understanding response from me?
- 9) I can serve others with my truth: with my speaking honestly when a lie would be much easier, with my speaking accurately when I'm tempted to exaggerate, with my speaking face to face and not behind another's back. So I might ask myself: who around me deserves a more honest, accurate, personal response from me?
- 10) I can serve others with my prayer: by praying for others, by praying for others and letting them know I prayed for them, by inviting others to join me in prayer. So I might ask myself: who needs my prayers, who needs to know I pray for them, who might I invite to join me in prayer?

Ten simple ways for all of us to serve one another as followers of Jesus who served us with His attention and affection, His compassion and inclusion, His patience and forgiveness, His generosity and understanding, His truth and His prayer. As Jesus served us, so let us serve one another at home, at work, at school and all around us.

MASS BOOK OPENING

The Mass Book for 2019 will open to begin scheduling Masses on:

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, FOLLOWING THE 9:00 AM MASS
IN THE MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM OF THE PARISH CENTER

In order to accommodate those families and friends of the recently deceased throughout the year and enable the majority of our parishioners to participate in the celebration of the liturgy, the total number of Mass requests accepted from each individual, on that day, will be limited to two weekday Masses and two weekend Masses. Please note, in addition to Masses, we offer Memorials for the hosts, wine and sanctuary candle in the church and the chapel. We are hopeful that these guidelines will allow the majority of St. Andrew's parishioners the ongoing benefit of obtaining a Mass or Memorial for their loved ones during the course of the year.

HARRISON HOUSE - VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

On the second Thursday of the month, volunteers are asked to prepare dinners and deliver the meals to patients at Harrison House which is located at New Bridge Medical Center (formerly Bergen Regional Medical Center), at 230 E. Ridgewood Ave., Paramus. A menu is provided and there is a designated time and place to leave the meals. Please contact the Parish Center for more information.

New Handicap Ramp

Construction has begun on a new handicap ramp at the carport entrance of the Church. The project will take about 3 weeks. A temporary ramp has been installed at the front entrance of the Church on Washington Avenue.

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

GOSPEL: Mark 10:46-52

ADULT'S QUESTION: What have your eyes of faith helped you see in a new way?

CHILD'S QUESTION: What do you like most about the story of Bartimaeus? Why?

The Giant Sequoia trees of California have roots that are just below the surface. They grow only in groves and their roots intertwine — they hold each other up. In our family, friends and Church, God groups us together with others so our roots intertwine and we can stand tall and withstand adversity. We are made to support each other.

Immaculate Heart Academy, Township of Washington, presents The Matchmaker by Thornton Wilder as its fall drama.

Performances will be Friday/Saturday, Nov. 16/17, at 7:30 PM and Sunday, Nov. 18 at 2:00 PM. More information and ticket purchases can be found at ihatheater.com. Questions, call IHA at 201.445.6800 or email mmcnulty@ihanj.com.
