Weekly Message from Fr. Jeider

Jesus Christ was sent by the Father on a mission. He was to establish the kingdom of God, preaching the Good News of repentance and salvation. He taught his disciples what it meant to live in the kingdom, and the behaviors and values inherent in doing so: mercy, unconditional love, commitment to justice, concern for the least ones and more. In his teaching, Jesus was offering us the path to new life. Yet he knew not all would embrace his message, especially if his words challenged their behavior and attitudes.

In today's Gospel, Jesus says: I have come to set the earth on fire. He came to purify and refine. He came to free us from sin and all that squeezes life out of us. Those who embraced his way might, in fact, find themselves at odds with their father, mother, sister, brother, or friend. Surely this was not their intent, but alienation could well result from their choice to follow Jesus.

The prophet Jeremiah faced resistance and even persecution for the word of God he proclaimed. Faithful to God's call, he reminded the people of Israel and their leaders that corruption, greed, and inattentiveness to the orphan, widow, and poor were not part of God's plan and would lead only to ruin. For speaking the truth, he was thrown into a cistern filled with mud and left there to die. To his credit, Jeremiah did not back down from preaching God's word, even though he knew there could well be dire consequences. This perseverance and determination made a difference to the court official, because he argued for and brought about Jeremiah's rescue.

Christian discipleship is not a popularity contest. Inevitably, there is a cost involved; yet, for followers of Jesus Christ, we trust that his path ultimately leads to life. We should, therefore, never apologize for the Truth, nor ever shrink from articulating and living it. Whether as a parent, coworker, friend, or neighbor, we can ask the Lord's help in being a voice for Gospel living: speaking the truth in love against behaviors and values that run contrary to God's commands, especially when there are offenses against the human dignity of another.
