THE SYNOD ON SYNODALITY - TAKE SHORT SURVEY

The "synod on synodality," Pope Francis' two-year effort to move the church toward a more collaborative and decentralized model, kicked off in Rome on Sunday with a Mass in St. Peter's Basilica. In his pre-synod speech on Saturday, Pope Francis laid out his vision for the synod. The Synod, the pontiff said, offers an opportunity for the church to become "a listening" one, that sets routine aside and offers a break from routine pastoral concerns: "To listen to the Spirit in adoration and prayer, to listen to our brothers and sisters speak of their hopes and of the crises of faith present in different parts of the world, of the need for a renewed pastoral life and of the signals we are receiving from those on the ground. "The church has an opportunity to become one of "closeness," not only in words but presence in society and the world, immersed in modern-day problems, "bandaging wounds and healing broken hearts with the balm of God."

SOUTH BOSTON
CATHOLIC ACADEMY
FAITH • FAMILY • ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Grade 6 at South Boston Catholic Academy celebrated Halloween ‘Harry Potter-style.’ Students entered Hogwarts and were sorted into their houses. The sorting tradition was followed by a visit to Ollivandar’s Wand Shop where they made wands. Refreshments of butterbeer and polyjuice potion were served. The sixth grade had a fantastic time in both sixth grade home rooms.

Student Council organized a candy drive to collect leftover Halloween candy for the troops and their families. They are preparing for a crayon drive in Early December benefitting The Crayon Initiative Grade K1 learned about the post office and mailed home letters to their families.

New applicants are welcome to email Mrs. Jamie Brown at J. Brown@SBCatholicAcademy.org to learn more about South Boston Catholic Academy.

Interested in Joining the Catholic Church?
Or for those baptized Catholics who have not received First Communion.

“Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God.” These words, spoken by St. Peter, are the words of a person who has received an incredible gift – the gift of faith in Jesus Christ. If you are seeking full initiation into the life of the Catholic Church, or have a family member or friend who has expressed interest in being welcomed into the Church, now is the time to consider the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA).

Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA)

The RCIA Program for our parishes will begin in November. This program will run through Easter, and prepare those who wish to enter into full communion with the Roman Catholic Church.

Eligible adults include:

1. Those who have not been baptized; or
2. those who have been baptized in other Christian traditions; or
3. those who were baptized Catholic, but never received Confirmation and Eucharist. If you or someone you know has questions or is interested, please email our coordinator Chance Hebert at SBGHParishesRelEd@gmail.com or call the Parish Office at 617-268-3344.

November 14, 2021 | Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

Dn 12:1-3 | Heb 10:11-14, 18 | Mk 13:24-32

Written by
FAITHFUL
DISCIPLE

GROW AS A DISCIPLE
PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

My husband reads the obituaries regularly, as did my elderly Aunt Loretta. Me, I avoid them. I don't like to think about death, and the same can be said for some references to the end times, particularly those like we hear in the Book of Daniel: "Some shall live forever, others shall be an everlasting horror and disgrace." Give me a comforting psalm any day! However, in today's Gospel, Jesus assures us that we who believe need not fear the Second Coming, for at that time the Son of Man shall "gather his elect." Yes, "heaven and earth will pass away," but the words of Jesus never shall. It is true, we don't know the time or the hour of his return and so we prepare for it by remaining focused on Jesus' words and turning our lives over to him in and through the sacramental life of the Church. Strive to live well on earth, following the path to eternal life that our loving and merciful Savior has paved for us.

PRAY Read the obituaries! Many of them contain inspiring examples of lives well lived. Take a moment in this month of November to pray for all who have died. Make a conscious effort to be a specific example to another of Christ's love in the world that they, too, might be better prepared for Christ's return.

GO EVANGELIZE
PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

It's easy to become complacent in that striving. I notice that tendency in everyday life - taking my spouse for granted, not being mindful of how what I say and do serves as an example (either good or bad!) for another. It's like moving through the day with blinders on. In today's Gospel, Jesus is teaching his disciples about his return in glory, and how those who follow him will be able to sense its approach. "Learn a lesson from the fig tree. When its branch becomes tender and sprouts leaves, you know that summer is near." In other words, "pay attention; be observant" - the opposite of complacency. To counter this within ourselves, we can ask God to open our eyes to the signs of his love all around us - our spouses and dear friends, our families, and all the gifts we have been given. Just as importantly, we can accompany one another as we seek to grow in holiness and prepare for the day we meet Jesus, living as an example in word and deed. As the Book of Daniel so eloquently tells us, "The wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever."
