Thank You in advance for your participation.

EVANGELIZATION IS AT THE HEART OF "ALL THINGS NEW": By the time that you read these words, Fr. Mark and I will have heard on this past Friday the first proposal, the first model, of what the Archdiocese has in mind concerning the possible consolidation of parishes in our eleven county area. In September, this first proposal will be revealed to our deacons and to those members of our parish who have been working on this process here. Each parish is to have a committee of seven parishioners of diverse backgrounds. Our committee is comprised of Rosann Doherty, Laura Henderson,

Becky Williamson, Jennifer Warren, Jeremy Poulter, Gregg Viscomi, and Mike Boschert. As I pointed out recently, this proposal will go through a refinement process leading to the two listening sessions in each parish. However, while there is much excitement and curiosity about all of this, please remember that, at its heart, this process is really about evangelization, that is, how to more effectively and efficiently proclaim Jesus to all the people of our area.

WHAT IS NECESSARY FOR US TO KNOW ABOUT EVANGELIZATION? (From the USCCB's "Living As Missionary Disciples"). Taking the First Step: Keys to Sharing Faith Person-to-Person: points from St. Paul Street Evangelization, a grassroots, non-profit organization, dedicated to responding to the mandate of Jesus to preach the Gospel to all nations by taking the Catholic Faith to the streets:

--Evaluating our Relationship with Christ - Growth in Self-knowledge

Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect. Romans 12:2

All Catholics, whatever their circumstances in life, have been called to proclaim the Gospel (CCC 905, 1816; Evangelii Gaudium, no. 120). As a grassroots organization, St. Paul Street Evangelization has equipped thousands of Catholics for the task of evangelization. Our evangelists share the Gospel with their communities through face-to-face encounters in the public square. They are on sidewalks and street corners; they are in classrooms and workplaces; they are at festivals, bus stations, front doors, and even prisons. Years of experience and tens of thousands of conversations have taught us that evangelization is a ministry of presence which takes place through listening, befriending, proclaiming the Gospel, and making an invitation to faith. These steps are the beginning of a lifelong process of conversion and discipleship for many people.

Evangelization is at the heart of the mission of the Church. "As the kernel and center of His Good News, Christ proclaims salvation, this great gift of God which is liberation from everything that oppresses man but which is above all liberation from sin and the Evil One, in the joy of knowing God and being known by Him, of seeing Him, and of being given over to Him" (Paul VI, Evangelii Nuntiandi, no. 9). Evangelists are motivated by the love of God and the desire for the salvation of souls; they wish to share with others that faith in Jesus Christ is the way given to us by God that we might spend eternity in heaven with him, and avoid the pains of hell (see 2 Corinthians 5:14).

In order to become an evangelist, it is necessary to first examine our own life and our walk with Christ. In The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis reminds us that people are attracted to the joy they see in Christians. Joy cannot be faked, but radiates from a soul who is in the state of grace, and prays. The evangelist has given their life to Jesus, received forgiveness of sin, and therefore exhibits the graces evident in a life lived according to the cross of Christ.

Evangelists encounter people in the messiness of their lives. Evangelization begins when we invest ourselves in others in all their brokenness, because our own brokenness has been taken up and healed by Christ. There is something different about such Christians. They have found joy in their suffering because they have put their faith in Jesus, who first suffered and died for us. The Christian does not escape suffering, but suffering is transformed and gives way to a deep and abiding peace because of the nearness of Jesus Christ. "It is impossible to persevere in a fervent evangelization unless we are convinced from personal experience that it is not the same thing to have known Jesus as not to have known him" (Evangelii Gaudium, no. 266). We cannot introduce others to Jesus if we do not know Him and if we do not live as disciples.

All Things New Young Adult Survey

Why a young adult survey?

The Disciple Maker Index survey results proved an overwhelming desire to see more young people involved parish life. Young adults are gifted with the energy, time, creativity, and talents needed by the Church. Young adults are already the torchbearers for society (major athletes, actors, and cultural influencers are young adults) and the future Church.

Recent studies (Notre Dame, Pew) have shown that "the single most important measurable factor for determining the spiritual and religious lives of teenagers and young adults is the religious faith, commitments, and practices of their parents." (Christian Smith, Young Catholic America). If we want to build a more vibrant Church for tomorrow, we must target the young adults discerning marriage and families today.

In this survey, young adults may anonymously share their beliefs and interests, their needs, their experience in parishes, and their hopes for the future if the church in St. Louis. All responses will be received by the Young Adult Advisory Board and the Office of Young Adult Ministry. Results will be summarized, reviewed, and distributed at a later date.

Who should take the survey?

The survey is open to all young adults, ages 18 -39. The U.S. bishops define young adults as individuals ages 18-39, "persons in their late teens, twenties and thirties who represent diverse cultural, racial, ethnic, educational, vocational, social, political and spiritual backgrounds. They are college students, workers and professionals; they are persons in military service; they are single, married, divorced or widowed; they are with or without children; they are newcomers in search of a better life." The questions in the following survey will reflect this radically diverse population.

This Young Adult Survey will close on Monday, September 12, 2022, and can be found at <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/ATN-youngadultsurvey>

The Archdiocese's LAY FORMATION PROGRAM

Parishioner Carol Golwas is a recent graduate of this program, and she writes, "There is a new class of Lay Formation starting September 10, 2022. This is an opportunity to deepen your union with Christ and develop your ability to participate in the Church's mission of evangelization as missionary disciples. What does this mean? Through my participation in Lay Formation, I have learned so much about the Church, and the more I learned, the deeper my love for God and His Church grew. I am a counselor who works with people struggling through difficult circumstances. My increased understanding of God's word and His unending love for me has helped me to comfort others and in some cases, I have seen people either start going to Church or return to the Church. I evangelize as I help others experience the peace and love of God that I have grown to depend on. Much of this would not have happened without Lay Formation. Lay Formation meets once a month September through May for three years. You have a team of 8 or 9 people that you go through the program with. These people become prayer partners and friends. As you discuss various questions about the day's learnings, your understanding grows as different perspectives and understandings are discussed. I definitely recommend this to anyone who wants to grow their faith. Please let Father Benz know if you are interested so he can sponsor you. You can find more information and the application at <https://www.archstl.org/catholic-education-and-formation/lay-formation>. If you have any questions, please contact me at 314-384-8229."

Please note that other parishioners besides Carol have participated in this program are Beth Del Rosario, Ann Roussel Holterman, Jim Van de Riet, Joan and Rick Bates, Barry McCauley, and Brandi Schmidt. Feel free to check with them too this program. A brochure about this program can be found at: <https://www.archstl.org/Portals/0/Assets/Lay%20Formation/Lay%20formation%20brochure%202022-25.pdf?ver=2022-05-19-114238-300> or at the link above.

“Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief, but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique.”

The MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers) group at Calvary Church Mid Rivers is in desperate need of childcare volunteers this year!

MOPS is an awesome opportunity for moms to get a little break, have some adult conversation, be encouraged, and make friends with other moms figuring out the same everyday rhythms. Calvary Church Mid Rivers offers MOPS as a service, an outreach to the community.

Twice a month MOPS meets for two hours, and we need childcare volunteers for those meetings. It's very light work, just playing with little ones preschool and younger. The first meeting begins September 13. Even if you don't think you'd be able to help for all the meetings, they will happily use you when you're available!
