ST. COLUMBA CYO BASKETBALL:

Registration forms for the 2021-22 season are now available for downloading at www.stcolumbabasketball.net. As our school is starting in "Phase 1" because of COVID-19 our season start will be delayed. Please visit our website to download your registration and mail it today so we can plan for the new season. The website will be updated with any changes to the season status. No fees are being collected at this time. All parishioners of St. Columba, St. Denis, and St. Kateri are encouraged to sign-up. We offer programs for boys and girls in grades 1-8.

Our Travel Program (grades 5-8) plays against other parishes in Dutchess County. In house programs are offered for beginner and instructional divisions. These divisions will be formed based on registration numbers for grades 1-4. Both Beginner and Instructional Programs focus on learning fundamentals of the game in a developmentally appropriate setting. All of our divisions place a great emphasis on building Christian principles and team sportsmanship. We are a volunteer organization. If you are interested in coaching or assistant coaching please see the website for information and a coaching application. We look forward to working with you!

Catholic Engaged Encounter Inc.
A WEDDING IS A DAY, A MARRIAGE IS A LIFETIME

Giving couples the tools for a healthy and successful marriage.
Reminding fiancés to keep prayer in their marriage.

These are just some of the ways Catholic Engaged Encounter pre-cana marriage preparation has been helping engaged couples to prepare for the Sacrament of Matrimony for over 45 years.

Our in-person retreats are back and at a new location too!

We offer a weekend retreat away, where couples can focus on each other, their relationship, and what it means to become a Sacrament. Catholic Engaged Encounter is an alternative program that fulfills the pre-cana requirements of the Archdiocese.

Please refer couples to Catholic Engaged Encounter.

Attached is a flyer about our weekend retreats which you can print and give to engaged couples in your parish.

Click on our website below for more information and to register for our November 13-14 in-person weekend retreat!! Consider giving a couple an early wedding gift from your parish so they can attend one of our retreats.

May the Lord guide you as you help couples join in Holy Matrimony,

SING A NEW SONG:
Best Practices for the 21st Century Music Ministry

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 | 7:00 PM - 9:00 PM EST

Join us for a discussion on best practices in the area of pastoral music ministry, focusing on the search process for new parish musicians and how to navigate clergy-musician relationships. How should a musician best approach their job as a new music minister? What are the ingredients for success in a music ministry program? How can the process of arranging weddings, funerals, and occasional services be streamlined? What are some best practices for finding, hiring, and keeping a great music minister? These topics and many more will be discussed during this two-hour online workshop, presented by the Archdiocese of New York's Liturgy Office.

Presenter:
Vincent Carr
Carr is currently Director of Sacred Music at Our Lady of the Lake Church in Yonkers, New Jersey, as well as the National Council of Education for the American Guild of Organists. Most recently, he served as Associate Professor of Organ & Sacred Music at the Indiana University Jacobs School of Music, and also served on the faculties of Montclair State University and William Paterson University.

THE FAITHFUL

GROW AS A DISCIPLE | PRAY, STUDY, ENGAGE, SERVE

I have a competitive nature. As an older runner, I strive to place high in my age group (maybe even pick off runners older than I one at a time as we near the finish of a race – of course, I can neither confirm nor deny that). Oh, to be first! There is nothing inherently wrong with healthy competition. However, constantly striving to be the “best” or the “first” in other areas of life – career, parenting, even holiness – can quickly lead to frustration and burnout. As the disciples jostled for “first place,” Jesus gently but directly corrected them: “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all.” Like the Apostles, we tend to focus on our achievements as a measure of our worth, forgetting why we are here: to serve others. We can ask Jesus to help us gain the “wisdom from above” and the characteristics so beautifully described by Saint James: pure, peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits.

GO EVANGELIZE

PRAYER, INVITATION, WITNESS, ACCOMPANIMENT

Reading today’s Gospel from Mark, I am struck by the image of Jesus embracing a child: “Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me.” Most of us picture our own children, grandchildren, godchildren, nieces, or nephews. Of course we would embrace them! However, Scripture scholars point out that for Jesus, the child symbolized the anawim, a Hebrew word for the poor, the lowly, the vulnerable, the oppressed. Picture, then, not just children but those we might be less eager to immediately embrace: ragged men on the corner, immigrants at the border, the neighbor’s son with schizophrenia, prisoners or ex-convicts. Jesus challenges us not to avert our eyes but to “embrace” them – whether that means offering a cup of coffee, becoming a pen pal, stopping to chat, or finding another way to accompany them. Scholars tell us that the anawim share a total dependence upon God, something we all have in common regardless of our life’s circumstances.

ACTIONS Seek “wisdom from above” at the beginning of each day. In the evening, reflect on the ways God has held you in his loving embrace through the kindness of others, moments in nature, simple pleasures. Say thank you.
