Catechism of the Catholic Church

204. What is the relationship between the Resurrection of Christ and our resurrection?

Just as Christ is truly risen from the dead and now lives forever, so he himself will raise everyone on the last day with an incorruptible body: "Those who have done good will rise to the resurrection of life and those who have done evil to the resurrection of condemnation" (John 5:29).

Further reading: CCC 998, 1002-1003

205. What happens to our body and our soul after death?

After death, which is the separation of the body and the soul, the body becomes corrupt while the soul, which is immortal, goes to meet the judgment of God and awaits its reunion with the body when it will rise transformed at the time of the return of the Lord. How the resurrection of the body will come about exceeds the possibilities of our imagination and understanding.

Further reading: CCC 992-1004, 1016-1018

206. What does it mean to die in Christ Jesus?

Dying in Christ Jesus means to die in the state of God's grace without any mortal sin. A believer in Christ, following his example, is thus able to transform his own death into an act of obedience and love for the Father. "This saying is sure: if we have died with him, we will also live with him" (2 Timothy 2:11).

Further reading: CCC 992-1004, 1016-1018

209. What is meant by the term "heaven"?

By "heaven" is meant the state of supreme and definitive happiness. Those who die in the grace of God and have no need of further purification are gathered around Jesus and Mary, the angels and the saints. They thus form the Church of heaven, where they see God "face to face" (1 Corinthians 13:12). They live in a communion of love with the Most Blessed Trinity and they intercede for us.

Further reading: CCC 1023-1026, 1053

210. What is purgatory?

Purgatory is the state of those who die in God's friendship, assured of their eternal salvation, but who still have need of purification to enter into the happiness of heaven.

Youth Humor of the Week

After reading the story of Jonah and the whale to her PREP class, the catechist asked this question to the class.

"What," she asked "is the moral of this bible story?" For the answer she called on Little Betsy who was shouting, "I know, I know." "Okay, Betsy, tell the class." "People make whales throw up!"

Yes, the Catechist and Jonah were smiling!

Father Marty's Corner by Deacon Jim Kochu

"Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, sacred bond of the Trinity, we ask you to empty us of ourselves and allow You a welcome home in our hearts as we grow to draw closer to and love you more fully.

As Your Apostles awaited the coming of the Advocate at the first Pentecost, so we now await Your presence in our lives. Grant us freedom from weakness of Your truths, ignorance of Your Divine Will and unwillingness to heed Your calling.

Remove from us that which is displeasing and contrary to Your design for our lives and replace that which is not necessary with that which is essential for our eternal salvation.,

Bring us to seek only that which is Divine while quenching our appetites for the passing things of this world which supply us with fleeting pleasures.

Lord Jesus, who before ascending into Heaven promised to send the Holy Spirit to finish Your work in the souls of those who love You, we pray that we also be given an opportunity to participate in the gifts you communicated to them.

May our devotion of love to the Most Holy Trinity remain a delightful necessity in our lives purifying us and allowing us to become fruitful in good works, obedient to Your Divine Will. Amen"

Blessings to All!
Deacon Jim

Holy Trinity Sunday —Gospel—Matthew 28: 16-20

The eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain to which Jesus had ordered them.
When they all saw him, they worshiped, but they doubted.

Then Jesus approached and said to them,
"All power in heaven and on earth has been given to me.
Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations,
baptizing them in the name of the Father,
and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit,
teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.
And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Did you know that...

St. Augustine wrote this about the Trinity in the year 408 A.D.? All the Catholic interpreters of the divine books of the Old and New Testaments whom I have been able to read, who wrote before me about the Trinity, which is God, intended to teach in accord with Scripture that the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit are of one and the same substance constituting a divine unity with an inseparable equality; and therefore there are not three gods but one God, although the Father begat the Son, and therefore he who is the Son is not the Father; and the Holy Spirit is neither the Father nor the Son but only the Spirit of the Father and of the Son, himself, too, coequal to the Father and to the Son and belonging to the unity of the Trinity (The Trinity 1:4:7 [A.D. 408]).

MORE ON THE TRINITY!

THE DOGMA OF THE TRINITY

The Trinity is the term employed to signify the central doctrine of the Christian religion—the truth that in the unity of the Godhead there are Three Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, these Three Persons being truly distinct one from another. Thus, in the words of the Athanasian Creed: "the Father is God, the Son is God, and the Holy Spirit is God, and yet there are not three Gods but one God." In this Trinity of Persons the Son is begotten of the Father by an eternal generation, and the Holy Spirit proceeds by an eternal procession from the Father and the Son. Yet, notwithstanding this difference as to origin, the Persons are co-eternal and co-equal: all alike are uncreated and omnipotent. This, the Church teaches is the revelation regarding God's nature which Jesus Christ, the Son of God, came upon earth to deliver to the world: and which she proposes to man as the foundation of her whole dogmatic system.

WIDOW AND WIDOWERS GRIEF SUPPORT

The next "REACH OUT" meeting is THIS Sunday, May 27th at Most Blessed Sacrament's Schneider Hall at 1 PM. Some will find that the change of seasons is particularly stressful. Come join us to reduce that stress in many ways. For those that have lost a loved one, the thought of a New Season is challenging where they are at that time. We ask all to pray for the families who have lost a loved-one as they adapt to life after loss. For more information, please call Dn. Mike Boyle at 484-336-9849.

How Do We Hear Christ's Call for Us?

One thing to understand is there is never an age limit to when or how often we are called by Christ. If you are interested in pursuing this through a spiritual direction process call Kevin Martin, S.F.O., M.S. at: 610-310-7077. All of us are attempting to discover God's plan for us in this world ...Give Kevin a call and begin the journey of discovery!

BISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL Many thanks to those who have made a pledge to the Bishop's Annual Appeal. Making a six-month pledge to the Appeal allows you to maximize the amount that you may give by making monthly payments. For example, a $120 gift to the Appeal may be setup with six $20 installments. Remember, every gift counts, no matter how small. Your generosity funds the annual budget for 6 important Diocesan ministries in our area. You can make your gift online at FaithHopeCharityGives.org.
