From the desk of Father James

Our second reading this weekend is one that offers us a promise, if we allow it, a profound sense of hope... "The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness...the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings." Allow this to really sink in. What are these words from the apostle Paul saying to us?

A couple weeks ago, I spoke at Mass about humility and meekness and the importance of embracing and cultivating these virtues in our lives. As we live out these virtues more and more, we begin to see more and more that we are all equal. As members of the Body of Christ we see that no one is better than another. We need each other in order to be able to finish the race. We also need God.

Another aspect of humility is that we need to acknowledge that we are not perfect and that not only do we need one another, we also need God. It is hard to admit that there are often different areas in our lives in which we need some extra help, areas in our lives in which we are weak. But that is where we turn to Christ to help us in a particular area. The Spirit comes and intercedes with "inexpressible groanings."

Sometimes we do not even know where we are lacking and where we need some extra help. However, the Spirit is there and fills in for us, asking and interceding when we may not even know what it is that we may need.

What is it in your life right now that you need the Spirit to come and intercede for you? Where do you need to humble yourself so that the Spirit may be free to come and work? Our God is always there, just waiting for you to let Him in.

I also want to take a moment to express my gratitude for the Knights of Columbus and our school families that took part in the Robin Hood Festival Parade! We had a great turnout this year, and I think that the kids had a lot of fun handing out fliers and candy along the parade route. I also had fun co-piloting up front with Mike Roos as we drove along. Thank you to all who participated!

Additionally, on Saturday evening we finished off the day with a wonderful dinner provided by the parish staff for all our wonderful volunteers that make everything that we do here at St. Francis possible. It truly can take a legion of volunteers to make everything that takes place at our parish possible, from setting up for Mass, cleaning the linens, taking care of the grounds outside, stuffing bulletins, answering phones, catechizing our youth, cleaning up after coffee and donuts and the list goes on and on. Thank you to everyone who makes this all possible. If you are not currently serving in some way, I encourage you to start thinking and praying where the Spirit may be calling you to serve our community. We will have an opportunity early in the fall to sign up for a ministry to serve in.

Lastly, I will be taking some vacation and retreat time during the first two weeks of August and I will be away for the next two weekends. July 28 until July 30 I will be in Spokane with our high school youth for Steubenville NW. I will come back and then be on vacation for a week. Then in the second week of August, I will be on retreat for 5 days. Often the priests of the diocese will take a retreat at Mt. Angel at the beginning of June, but I like to take my retreat time in August when it is a bit quieter in the parish before all the activities in the fall commence again. Please keep me and our high schoolers in prayer!

In the Spirit of St. Francis...

- ◆ To everyone who helped with set-up, serving and clean-up and those who shared their delicious salads and desserts for the Jack McLaughlin funeral luncheon.
- ◆ To Carol and Larry Laughlin for the beautiful flowers for the church.

In the Spirit of St. Francis...THANK YOU!

St. Francis Parish would like to welcome all newcomers and visitors. We turn your attention to the Ministry Table in the narthex of the church where you will find information on the various ministries in our parish and how to contact the coordinator.

New parishioners are encouraged to register by calling the office at 503-625-6185.

We welcome you as we welcome Christ!

FAITH FORMATION
A JOURNEY FOR LIFE

(and Let Your Child Bless You)

Pbgrace.com / Pray with Your Kids

(Adapted from 77 Ways to Pray with Your Kids.)

Did you know that, as a baptized lay person, you are not only qualified to bless people and objects and places in certain situations (such as in your home), you are called to do so?

Regularly blessing your child is a powerful symbol of your love, and more importantly, your desire to entrust your child into the care of God's love.

Here's how to start: Come up with a short ritual for blessing your children during transitional times of the day (leaving /returning home, going to bed, etc.).

Here's how:

- Make the Sign of the Cross on your child's forehead saying: "May God bless you and keep you, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen."
- Seal the blessing with a kiss on the forehead.
- Use holy water if you have it available.

Even more powerfully, encourage your kids to bless you as well. Kids as young as two will enjoy reciprocating your blessing once they've received it often enough.

Oregon Catholic Conference Statement

House Bill 3391 Forces Coverage of Abortion and Expands Taxpayer-Funded Abortion

The day after our country celebrated Independence Day the Oregon State Legislature passed a bill that has more to do with force than it does with freedom. House Bill 3391 forces insurance companies to cover abortion on demand and it forces all Oregon taxpayers to help finance an extremist abortion agenda that does not enjoy majority support.

By insisting on complete insurance coverage of abortion, including late-term and sex-selective abortions, the legislature shows itself intolerant of widely-held opposing views and will compel thousands of Oregonians to support what their conscience rejects.

The Oregon Catholic Conference hopes Governor Brown will not join in sending this intolerant message by signing it into law.

Oregonians opposed to House Bill 3391 should lend their support to the stop taxpayer funding for abortion act. This measure needs 117,000 signatures to qualify as an initiative for the 2018 election. Visit www.StopTheFunding.org to sign the petition and find out how you can help reverse the harmful effects of past and current legislation that implements and expands taxpayer funding for abortion. ~Homepage of Archdpdx.org

“And the LORD will continually guide you, and satisfy your desire in scorched places, and give strength to your bones; and you will be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water whose waters do not fail.” Isaiah 58:11

Throughout the summer we face all types of dry places. We see it physically with dry fields of grass, dusty roads, and scorched earth. But, we also see it spiritually. Summer is the time for vacations and summer camps. For it being a time of getaways, it often feels much busier than any other time of the year. In times of business, our faith is often the first thing to fall by the wayside. In the verse from Isaiah, we see God’s promise to us that even as we pass through times of drought, He will always be a source of water. “You will be like a watered garden,” He says to us. If we stay strong in Him we will be tapped into an abundant stream that will keep us green and growing. This picture resonated with me as I looked at our own garden here at St. Francis. The Hope Garden, sitting in a field of dry grass, looks like a sanctuary within the dust. It is a place of growth and new life. If you would like to continue to help our oasis flourish, let Anna in the church office know! It can be a time of spiritual and physical growth.
