Today's Readings

Is 2:1-5 Rom 13:11-14 Mt 24:37-44

Lord, as we begin our Advent preparation, we wait for you. We listen for you in the stillness. We wait for you as in the quiet darkness before the dawn. We do not know what I ahead, but in this moment, breathe within us and strengthen us. Abide with us. Cleanse our hearts and let us be ready to receive you, no matter what may swirl around us. Come, Lord Jesus! Come and be born in our hearts.

Likii Tender Hearts Spirit of Giving

Our Parish Mission Outreach

For the past several years November and December have been special months for Likii Tender Hearts because it is the time we gather, share dinner, socialize, and receive an update on our activities. This year due to circumstances beyond our control the appreciation dinner was canceled but as promised in a previous post we will provide some updates.

Your support for the past 11 years continues to help our beneficiaries live a life of significance and change the trajectory of their family's legacy. The free vocational training has opened doors for them to expand their small businesses or get employed.

In keeping with our mission of creating a spirit of giving, we will be introducing a new project called "Something new for Everyone" by 2020. Together with our beneficiaries we plan on custom making new dresses or sweaters for those in Likii village who rely on hand me downs. We have children from Likii Special School with severe disabilities who would greatly benefit from this project. But we will also work with the village chief to help in identifying other people especially the elderly who can no longer afford anything new to benefit from this selfless cause. Your support in donating fabric at least 3 yards or more and yarn will be greatly appreciated.

Several years ago, we partnered with Likii Special School and committed to sponsoring child to cover their boarding needs. Currently there are 136 students and it is our sincere hope that you can sponsor one child for $120 a year to meet this need. If you are internet savvy, please download the form from our website www.likiiheartshirts.org and access our programs or send me a text and I will mail you the form: Lucy Kigano: 408-218-4732.

God is our provider and we trust and pray that we will be able to hold the dinner in 2020 and for many years to come. Thank you so much and may God bless you.

The First Sunday of Advent

Reflecting on the Word

When you stand at the lip of the Grand Canyon, you can see into a vast distance. You know that you are at the edge of something. Today, we are on the edge of something, too — the edge of time. That is a little harder to see. A pregnant mother breathes with the contractions of her womb; she is on the edge of the moment of birth. The family of a dying man waits by his hospital bed, attentive to his breathing, on the brink of the time of his death. Time has edges. Time has moments when something is about to shift.

As the time of First Isaiah, bloodthirsty Assyria hovered over Israel. The prophet sensed that time was about to change. Now we know that it was the total destruction of Israel's northern kingdom and the loss of the ten northern tribes. Only Isaiah felt it coming. His people didn't know. They were on an edge when history was about to shift.

Jesus alerts us to this edginess: we do not know our own time or hour. We do not know the time or the hour for our loved ones. Each moment of the present is a shifting point between past and future. We live on the edge of time.

Today, we are on the edge of Advent. Advent is the liturgical time that alerts us: Stay awake! Be ready~! We know that Christmas is coming. We do not know when Jesus will come again in glory. With Isaiah, we pray that swords will be turned into plowshares. Are we on the edge of a shift in history? We do not know. But with God's help, we hold onto this quiet Advent hope: Our God is timeless, but is also the Lord of time. Jesus is here, now and always.

Let us walk in the light of the Lord

©Religious Graphics, Ltd.

Dr. Karla J. Bellinger, 2019 Living the Word

First Sunday of Advent — Path of Light

Lord of our eternal day, you alone brighten our world. Sometimes we lose our way in the darkness, and sometimes we make the world a darker place. Alert us to the ways we drift into shadow. Illuminate our hearts and send forth your instruction, that we may follow your path of light and ascend your holy mountain. When darkness surrounds us, keep us radiant with hope, so that all will see and know that you are in our midst, you who alone are God. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Sunday, December 1, 2019 — The Day Is Coming

Our liturgical year both concludes and begins with readings on the end-times. As we enter the season of Advent, we are reminded that we are not only preparing to celebrate Christ's birth, we are also preparing for his return. The First Reading fills us with hope for the Second Coming, for on that day everyone in the world will turn to God and there will be an end to conflicts and war.

Until Christ comes again, we must "walk in the light" and turn away from dark, destructive thoughts and deeds. When we live as holy, kind, and loving people, we show that we are ready for God's kingdom, even though we continue doing everyday things such as working, eating, and sleeping. Our lives may not seem radically different from the lives of others, but God can tell the difference.

Jesus warns us of the danger of not getting ready. Disaster struck those who did not prepare for the flood. Disaster struck the master of the house who slept through the swift and sudden arrival—and departure—of the thief. Disaster struck those who were left behind; they were excluded from God's kingdom. Today we light the first candle of our Advent wreaths. Before you do, sit in darkness. Name whatever evils confront you as you prepare for Christ's return. Then light the candle, and pray for God to expel darkness from you and our world. Rejoice that Christ has already come to lead you into the light of his eternal day.

Monday, December 2 — Far and Wide

The soldier is certain that Jesus can heal his servant, even from a distance. He sees that Jesus is the presence of God, sheltering and protecting people. In Jesus, God's holy presence spreads out beyond Jerusalem to wherever Jesus goes, to whoever asks for his help. Use a map to find places in the world that are the farthest from you and pray for the people there.

Tuesday, December 3 — St. Francis Xavier

Jesus is the one on whom the Spirit rests, bringing the peace for which people yearn. St. Francis Xavier, recognizing that he was blessed to know the one filled with this Spirit, devoted his life to sharing the Gospel. Although thousands of people came to know God through the revelation of his Son, not everyone welcomed this missionary. But he persisted. Persevere in the Spirit of peace today by letting go of a mean or angry thought.

Wednesday, December 4 — Food for Life

Every day in our world some people have more than they can eat while others go hungry. God promises a world in which everyone has enough to eat and there are no more tears of hunger, no more pleas for help. By healing and feeding all who come to him desperate for physical and spiritual aid, Jesus fulfills God's promise. This ministry did not end with Jesus. It continues with the next generation of followers: us. Volunteer for a meal program that helps the local poor to share the good news that God is fulfilling his promises.

Thursday, December 5 — Built to Last

Sometimes we think we're doing what our Lord wants, when we're doing what we want. By becoming human, God surprised everyone and revealed how much about the divine we have to learn. We must listen closely to the words of God's Son and not imagine that we know best. Only when we truly know what our Lord is calling us to do will we be like "a strong city" and a house built on rock. Read chapters 5 through 7 of Matthew's account of the Gospel and reflect on the passage that most surprises and challenges you.

Friday, December 6 — Gifts

God's name is revered by all who long for justice and who turn to him for instruction. Jesus heals the two blind men because they "see" that he leads people to such reverence for God. They're so happy to be healed that they refuse to keep the healing a secret. St. Nicholas, who is honored today, brought joy to people by secretly leaving gifts. Surprise someone with an anonymous gift. In this way, you will revere God, the source of all gifts.

Saturday, December 7 — St. Ambrose

During St. Ambrose's lifetime, many people denied that Jesus was fully divine. Yet if Jesus did not fully share in the divinity of his Father, then God hadn't become truly present to us at the Incarnation. St. Ambrose knew that the Jesus who came to "bind up the wounds of his people" perfectly and completely revealed the love of God. Share God's love today by visiting someone who might feel forgotten or alone.
