White Mass for Those Who Serve in the Medical Profession

On Sunday, October 14, 2018, 5:30 p.m.
 at the Cathedral of the Assumption
 (433 South Fifth Street, Louisville)

Archbishop Joseph E. Kurtz will preside at the White Mass, and health care professionals of all faiths are invited to attend. The White Mass gathers those who work in healthcare under the patronage of Saint Luke to ask God's blessing upon patients and the doctors, nurses, and other healthcare providers who serve them. All healthcare professionals are encouraged to wear their white coats for this special Mass.

"The LORD God said: It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suited to him." Genesis 2:18

The U.S. Bishops' pastoral on stewardship calls us to a life of community in order to fight the destructive individualism in our culture. It is not good to be alone.

Have you remembered St. Joseph in your will?

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Gn 2:18-24; Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5, 6;
Heb 2:9-11; Mk 10:2-16 or 10:2-12

And people were bringing children to him that he might touch them, but the disciples rebuked them. Mark 10:13

The disciples assumed they knew what Jesus wanted and needed. Consequently, they decided the children would distract from His teaching and tried to shove the young ones away. So convinced were they about this false idea, they even went so far as to scold the adults who were bringing the children. How surprised the disciples must have been when they heard Jesus encourage the little ones to come to Him. This situation reminds me of how I, too, can misunderstand and presume what God desires. This happens when I insist on my plans and endeavors going the way I want them to, in spite of evidence to the contrary. When the day fills with disruptions and disturbances, that is when I am called to go beyond my presumptions and consider the fact that the Spirit might have something else in mind. I cannot assume my ways are God's ways just because I have decided what I want.

November 2 ~ All Soul's Day until November 12 ~ Veteran's Day

We are Built to Honor the living and deceased. From September 15 - October 13, we will have envelopes available for you to participate in honoring loved ones in our Cemetery. We will have an American flag and prayer tag prepared for you, your family, and friends to place on the resting place of your loved one(s), in St. Joseph Cemetery, to honor them. Fr. Terry will bless the flags on November 2 (All Soul's Day), and they will be available at all of the Masses between November 2-4. Please take the flag to the gravesite before November 12th. We will recover the flags after Veteran's Day. This is a spiritual opportunity to honor those who have gone before us.

Hurricane Florence with its related rain and flooding has caused massive destruction in North and South Carolina, and other weather events will likely cause destruction in the United States and elsewhere in the remaining months of the year. We can assist our brothers and sisters affected by disasters in 2018 through monetary donations that will be used to support the efforts of Catholic Charities and/or Catholic Relief Services as they provide emergency assistance to those in need. Funds also will be directed to pastoral and reconstruction needs of the Church should they arise.

Checks should include the notation: "2018 Disasters and can be turned into the parish or sent to Catholic Charities of Louisville, 2911 S. 4th Street, Louisville, KY 40208-1303."
