

St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy

APRIL 26, 2020

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

They set out at once and returned to Jerusalem where they found gathered together the eleven and those with them who were saying, "The Lord has truly been raised and has appeared to Simon!" - Lk 24:33-34

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

YOUTH MINISTRY NEWS

I think we all can agree that it has been a crazy few weeks. There's a lot up in the air, and we're not sure when we'll start gathering at the church again – but that doesn't mean youth nights have to stop...

For the last 4 weeks, Thousands of teenagers from across the country have been gathering on Sunday nights for the BIGGEST YOUTH NIGHT EVER. It's called ProjectYM Live and each week it'll feature some of the biggest speakers and worship leaders in the Catholic youth ministry world – last week they had OVER TEN THOUSAND students participate. This kind of collaboration is something we would only see if the youth group was attending a National Catholic Youth Conference or locally our Archdiocese of Detroit CYO Youth Conference.

Our parish is signed up to participate – all your teenager has to do is head to PROJECTYM.COM/WATCH this Sunday at 8:00 p.m. Eastern. The fast paced event is only 1 hour!

Two quick note:

1. The broadcast starts at 8pm EST, but plan to log on early to make sure they're on when it starts
2. You can access the event on any device with a web browser-but the faster the connection the better

P.S. Though this event is geared at teenagers, parents are invited to watch along with them!

P.S.S. Invite a friend to attend or your junior high sibling to attend with you. Hope you can attend Sunday evening by yourself or along with your family.

P.S.S.S. Our St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy High School Youth Group teens are also meeting on Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m. via a private zoom meeting to keep us all connected. We pray and talk together. Would you like to join us? Let me know. Communications are sent out via flocknote weekly with a new link to our meeting.

Any question, you can reach out to me!

FROM THE PASTOR -

Dear Parishioners,

As the COVID pandemic continues to bring our country to a standstill, along with the extension of the stay-at-home executive order, it is with great sadness that I am writing you. Since St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy has had to temporarily suspend the celebration of the Mass, it has caused a dramatic reduction in offertory resources. This reduction is being felt in parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit.

At this time, St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy is no longer able to maintain our current operations. Therefore, like parishes around the Archdiocese of Detroit, St. Mary will begin implementing temporarily layoffs, and reduction in hours for our staff. This is a very difficult decision, and was made after a lot of prayer, and time spent trying to balance the needs of our staff with the needs of being good stewards of our Parish's resources. Our staff will be eligible for many of the government assistance programs, that are helping workers throughout our nation

It is my prayer that the measures taken today will see the parish through this crisis and to a time when we are able to explore how we can resume normal operations. Please join with me and the Archbishop as we turn to Our Lady of Lourdes to intercede for the healing of all impacted by this pandemic.

Sincerely,

Fr. Shafique Masih
Pastor

NOTES FROM PAUL

This weekend's Gospel, about the road to Emmaus, is amongst my favorites. I even have a painting representing it in my office. This year, I feel it has a special meaning for me, and maybe for many of us. At a time when we are not able to go to Mass, I keep thinking, "Wow, how could I take being in the physically, and miraculously presence of Jesus at each Mass for granted?" Cleopas, and the other disciple, must have felt the same after Jesus left them. My guess is that they must have felt a little ashamed, and silly. I too feel ashamed, and a little silly that I took going to Mass granted for so many years. I hope that when we can finally come together again and worship, that I never overlook the miracle of the true presence of Christ, and his sacrifice again.

I pray that while we can not be together, that each of you moves closer in your relationship to the Lord.

God Bless you,
Paul Zbytowski
Pastoral Associate/Evangelization and Christian Service Coordinator

HOLY NAME FRATERNITY

Holy Name Fraternity is praying for all parishioners during this time of pandemic shutdown. We look forward to praying and worshipping all together again. In the meantime, please remember your financial support of our parish, either on line or by U.S. mail. Keep up with parish happenings by checking parish website (stmarycooj.org) or receive notifications on flocknote. Stay well!

Let Us Live in the Joy of Salvation

Now that we're in the Easter season, we can fully rejoice in the hope of the Resurrection. When you read any Scripture passage during these days, listen especially for how God is speaking directly to you about the grace he offers in this time. He wants to speak to your heart, to offer his wisdom about what this crisis means, his guidance about how to respond and his assurance that "all things work for good for those who love [him]." (Rm 8:28) He is close; listen for him.

We appreciate everyone's patience and support during these challenging times, and when information can change at a moments notice. Amid all of the concerns that surround this current global situation, and in light of the Archbishop suspending all public Masses, just like many individuals our expenses will continue during this difficult time, and now more than ever we will need your support.

Therefore, please consider registering for Online Giving to make your contributions to St. Mary, Cause of Our Joy. Online Giving makes use of current technology and security standards, and allows you to easily setup recurring contributions. It also enables us to be more efficient and reduce overhead expenses. We also welcome your contributions by dropping off at the parish mailbox or mailing. Thank you for your continued support!

MEMORARE

Remember,
O most gracious Virgin Mary,
that never was it known
that anyone who fled to
thy protection,
implored thy help
or sought thy intercession
was left unaided.

Inspired by this confidence,
we fly unto thee
O Virgin of virgins, our Mother.
To thee do we come.
Before thee we stand,
sinful and sorrowful.
O Mother of the Word Incarnate,
despise not our petitions,
but in your mercy hear and answer
us. Amen.

ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

*My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the
Most Holy Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I
desire to receive you in my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment
receive you sacramentally,
Come at least spiritually
into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
And unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated
from you.
Amen.*

Nobody Grieves Alone: A Virtual Support Group for Covid-19 Loss

Every Friday, 2:00p.m. - 3:30p.m.

In her April 1st article, Sandee LaMotte of CNN noted that, “In the midst of heartbreak, we are alone, unable to reach out and comfort those who mourn, standing a careful six feet from each other.” But in today’s connected world, we do not have to be truly alone. Join Angela Hospice’s Bereavement team for Nobody Grieves Alone. This group is for those who have lost a loved one due to COVID-19, or those with a loved one who is currently battling COVID-19.

Please join this group from your computer, tablet or smartphone.

MEAN WHAT YOU SAY

Missouri is known as the "Show Me" state. There seem to be differing points of view as to how this motto came into existence, but today it is said to speak of a people who operate with common sense and are not easily fooled by slick-talking or show. We would be prudent to adopt such a disposition ourselves. To be this way is not really like St. Thomas in the Gospel when he doubts what he clearly sees right in front of him. It is more about holding ourselves to a standard explained in another motto: "Say what you mean and mean what you say."

If we claim to be Christians, disciples of the risen Jesus, then those around us should be able to tell by our actions. Can someone truly be a disciple of Jesus and not be a good steward of all he has given? Jesus makes himself known to us continually in the Holy Eucharist. When we come together to break bread at Mass, Jesus shows us his love by becoming truly present to us. He is willing to show us. What are we in turn willing to show him?

Every day, Jesus calls us to respond in some way. Our response shows whether we are who we claim: his disciples. I am pretty sure Jesus is not from Missouri, but I know he is not fooled by our half-truths and misguided intentions. He also means what he says and says what he means. Shouldn't his disciples do the same?

—Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

AS THE GODFATHER FOR MY NIECE, WHAT MUST I DO AS SHE GROWS UP? ARE THERE SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES I HAVE?

The biggest responsibility you have as a godparent is to set a good example of practicing faith. Receiving the sacraments and taking an active part in your parish teaches by deed and shows your godchild how to live a life of faith. Next to the child's parents, your role can be one of great influence in her religious formation and education.

What else can you do? A special remembrance on the day the child was baptized can highlight its importance. As the child grows older, discussions about God, Jesus, matters of faith, and the parish provide opportunities to share your own beliefs and practices. Celebrate first Penance, first Communion, and Confirmation as key moments in your godchild's faith journey. Parents and godparents share in this responsibility in a unique and special way. Your obligations do not end with the ceremony of Baptism, but are just the beginning.

THE EASTER PEOPLE AND hallelujah IS
OUR SONG."
