Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 19, 2021

The Lord upholds my life. Psalm 54

From the Desk of Father James

Dear Parishioners,

This week we celebrate two Italian saints: one of them is popular around the world, the other is not widely known outside of his hometown of Naples; one is modern, the other is ancient. Both, however, remind us of the unusual and unexpected ways in which God works.

Thursday September 23 is the feast of St. Padre Pio. He died in 1968 and is widely known as a miracle worker. There are countless stories of the ways in which God worked marvelous things through Padre Pio. His devotion to our Lord Jesus was so great that our Lord gave him the grace of the stigmata: he bore the marks of the crucifixion on his body. (Please note that our parish will be observing his feast on Wednesday, since I will be out of town on Thursday).

Today, September 19, is the feast of St. Januarius. St. Januarius was a bishop who was martyred by Emperor Diocletian in the year 305. He is the patron saint of the city of Naples and is associated with a very unusual miracle. A vial of his blood, which dried out long ago, is kept in the Cathedral of Naples. Each year, on his feast day, this relic of his blood is brought out and placed upon the altar of the church. Oddly enough, the ancient vial of blood, which begins the service as a dried-up vial of blood, returns to its liquid state upon the altar of the church. The miracle is celebrated in the city with great rejoicing.

The miracle of the blood of St. Januarius is indeed very unusual. Likewise, we as Catholics are not compelled to accept it as a true miracle. But nevertheless we must admit that God, who can do anything, is indeed fully capable of doing this unexpected deed as well.

Both of these saints remind us that God is still active, though his ways may seem unusual to us. As God said to the prophet Isaiah: "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways" (Isaiah 55:8). God is always at work bringing us to himself, and the ways in which he does so will always surprise us.

In Christ,
Fr. James

A Family Perspective

Disagreements are common in families. But what would you say if Jesus posed the same question "What are you arguing about?" Is it silly and petty? Is it an attempt to impose your will and control on another, or to really solve a problem? Today Jesus tells us and his disciples to give it up. We are meant to serve each other, not control.

Catholic Rural Ministry invites you to an overnight Retreat entitled "Social Friendship" based on "Fratelli Tutti", the most recent letter of Pope Francis. It will be held at Olmsted Conference Center, Ludlow, PA Thursday-Friday, noon-noon October 21-22, 2021. Books will be available. Please register as soon as possible by calling 814 677 2032 or email: srtinag@gmail.com.

"This powerful encyclical is Pope Francis' "cry from the heart" to all people of the earth to see beyond their differences--indeed to work with their differences--and begin to grow together to build a new and peaceful world. This remarkable document comes from a pastor's heart, setting forth Francis' vision for a new church and new world, against the backdrop of a catastrophic pandemic that has spared nothing and altered every thing." (Twenty-Third Publications)

Our retreat dates are finally decided: Thursday October 21 Noon - Friday, October 22 Noon, at Olmstead Manor, Ludlow, on Pope Francis' newest letter to us all on social friendship. We try to keep costs low, so the retreat cost is $50.00. We request a non refundable deposit of $25 to keep your space. As always scholarships are available. Please RSVP to srtinag@gmail.com

THANKS, and HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!

THE MEANING OF DISCIPLESHIP

The geography of today's Gospel is significant. Jesus is completing his ministry in Galilee and beginning his journey to Jerusalem, where he will meet both death and resurrection. The prediction of his death placed here is the second of three in Mark's Gospel, and as usual it is the occasion for an important teaching on the part of Jesus. Today that lesson is tied to the need for his disciples to embrace a ministry of service. A play on words in Aramaic would have linked the words "child" and "servant," thus turning Jesus' gesture of placing a child in their midst into an illustration of his understanding of himself as the Servant of the Lord. It is that same awareness of the meaning of their ministry that Jesus (and Mark) wishes to instill in the disciples. Theirs must be a ministry of service if they are to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. And that service might even require of them that they be "handed over" to death. What would have been—in the culture of Jesus' day—an ordinary discussion of social status ("who is the greatest") becomes in Mark's context a key insight into the meaning of discipleship for the disciples and for us.
