SAINTS OF THE WEEK

Saturday, February 6, Saint Paul Miki and Companions, Martyrs – Paul Miki, Jesuit scholastic, and his twenty-five companions, including two other Jesuits, six Franciscans, fifteen tertiaries, and two laymen, were crucified by order of the ruler Hideyoshi in 1597 at Nagasaki; among them, the Mexican, Felipe de Jesus, the first martyr from the Americas to be beatified; protomartyrs of the Far East (canonized in 1862 by Pope Pius IX).

Monday, February 8,

Saint Jerome Emiliani – died in 1537 of the plague; Venetian soldier whose conversion led to the founding (1534) of the Clerks Regular of Somascha (C.R.S.), today numbering about 600 members; dedicated to the poor and the education of youth; patron of orphans and abandoned children.

Saint Josephine Bakhita, Virgin – Was born around 1869 in Sudan. Kidnapped as a child by slave traders, she was given the name, “Bakhita,” meaning “lucky one.” She was sold to a number of owners until she was purchased around the age of twelve by the Italian Consul Callisto Legnani. He brought her to Italy and, while serving as a nanny, was sent to live with the Canossian Sisters in Venice. There she was formally introduced to the faith, baptized Giuseppina, and eventually granted her freedom. In 1896 she joined the Conossian Daughters of Charity, and for some fifty years served her sisters as cook, seamstress, and portress at their houses in Venice, Verona, and Schio. She was especially beloved by her students for her sweet nature and musical voice. After a long and painful illness she died in 1947. Pope John Paul II canonized this first Sudanese saint 1 October 2000 as a witness to evangelical reconciliation and a model of freedom.

Wednesday, February 10, Saint Scholastica, Virgin – died in 543 at Monte Cassino; twin sister of St. Benedict; eventually interred in the same grave with her brother; most of what we know of Scholastica comes from the Dialogues of St. Gregory the Great who wrote, “so death did not separate the bodies of these two, whose minds had ever been united in the Lord”; invoked against storms; patroness of Benedictine nunneries.

Thursday, February 11, Our Lady of Lourdes – According to St. Bernadette Soubirous, the visionary of Lourdes in 1858, the Virgin Mary proclaimed herself “The Immaculate Conception”; patroness of Portugal (Mary the Immaculate) and of the Philippines..

RCIA Class meets at 10:15am in the RCIA Room.

Anyone wanting to learn more about their faith or anyone interested in becoming Catholic is invited to attend.

Parents and Students!

There will be an interest meeting to talk about Summer 2021.

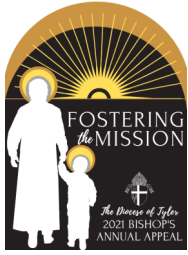

Please Join us at the Youth House or by Zoom (upon request)

SUNDAY, FEBRUARY 21 @

7 PM

Dear Lord,
help our young people to find
faith in the midst of the chaos.
Give them the desire and ability
to see you,
hear you,

talk to you,
and give thanks to you.
We pray that they will draw nearer and nearer to you all their lives.
Amen

Bishop's Appeal 2021

This weekend we kickoff Bishop's Annual Appeal: Fostering the Mission. This year's appeal is focused on accepting the charge each of us has to instill purpose, responsibility and hope in the next generation of East Texas Catholics. We do this by following the example of St. Joseph and his accepting the angel's charge to receive Mary and, in doing so, fostering Jesus Christ. To organize the diocese's efforts, this year's appeal categorizes donations into three focuses: purpose, responsibility and hope. To further help us, we have posters in the vestibule that help remind us of our mission, small brochures that explain the use of funds, a video that will be shown next week at Mass, and a Lenten season to learn and grow. It is our sincere hope that you will hear this message with an open heart, consider a sacrificial gift and pray that our parish can reach our goal of $84,000.00

Baptism Announcement

With great joy the Catholic community announces that Catalina Celeste Juarez, an infant, is to be baptized by water and the Holy Spirit.

The baptism will take place at 2:00 pm on Saturday, February 6th.

From the Beginning: God's Search for Man

Have you ever tried to read the Bible from cover to cover, only to wind up confused and frustrated? Have you ever fought your way through Lent by making tough sacrifices like giving up a bad habit, only to reach Easter and feel like you missed out on something? This Lent, join the St. Philip Institute for an exciting program, From the Beginning: God's Search for Man. Starting on Ash Wednesday, read selected passages from the Bible and in just 47 days you can learn the big picture moments of salvation history and how they all fit together and point us toward the mystery of Christ's Passion. Short reflections for each reading will help you see the way God constantly reaches out to save us and will allow you to enter deeply into the story of salvation history. Sign up today at www.stphilipinstitute.org! Available in English and Spanish.

Parish News & Weekly Gifts

To help St. Mary Magdalene help others, please consider setting up a recurring gift online at: <https://stmarymagdaleneflint.org/online-giving> as your tithe or Sunday contribution. You may also mail in your contribution to the parish or you can drop it off at the parish office which is closed to foot traffic but Marge or Sonia will be happy to receive it safely. Your sustained help in this way will benefit so many needy people and the parish. You can click the buttons below to make your contributions.

THIS weekend we will take up a collection for the Catholic Schools in the diocese. Please be generous.

The SMM Food Pantry

The Food Pantry ministry is an important ministry at St. Mary Magdalene providing help to those in need in our area. The SMM Food Pantry operates every Wednesday morning until 11:30 AM and is one of the few pantries in the area that provides a meal in addition to providing food supplies. The SMM Food Pantry purchases our food supplies from the East Texas Food Bank and typically serves 40-80 clients per week at a cost of $500-1000.

This week we served 92 clients with 115 bags and 240 "to-go" lunches!

THANK YOU!!
