Mark 1:14-15

LENT

FIRST SUNDAY OF

BAPTISM

Today’s readings suggest two different meanings and experiences of baptism. The second reading (from 1 Peter) makes an analogy between Noah’s ark and Christian baptism: just as Noah and his family were saved from death by going through the waters of the flood in the ark, Christians are saved from sin and death by going through the waters of baptism. The first reading, from Genesis, portrays the world after the flood: washed clean of its prior wickedness, embraced by God’s promises that the world will never again be destroyed by water. The psalmist expresses a desire to follow the ways of God, as if re-establishing the harmony between God and humanity destroyed by sin. This peaceful scene is very different from the drama and urgency in Mark’s description of Jesus after his baptism. Jesus battles demons, receives sustenance from angels, and begins preaching: “Repent. The kingdom of God is at hand.”

GOOD MORNING! WELCOME TO LENT!

You probably did not get that greeting from your priest today, and you probably did not expect it. Isn’t Lent a time of reflection and repentance? Somber purple, no “Alleluias”? Prayer, fasting, and almsgiving; attending to one’s relationship with God?

True enough; however, there are Lenten practices that have a festive air woven into these penitential elements. One example is in the Church’s retrieval of ancient Lenten practices that made up the final preparation of persons elected to receive the Easter sacraments of baptism, confirmation, and eucharist. Jesus’ urgent preaching in today’s passage from Mark comes soon after his own baptism and reminds us that these sacraments still signal a dramatic change in a person’s life: they have responded to Jesus’ preaching of the kingdom and are now publicly professing themselves to be disciples of the Lord and fully initiated members of his visible church. The prayer, fasting, and almsgiving during Lent were part of that preparation. Repentance was then, and remains today, important also for those already fully initiated; the work of repentance, of prayerfully examining our lives and making changes in anticipation of God’s reign, is an ongoing aspect of our life in Christ.

A SECOND CHANCE TO MAKE A FIRST IMPRESSION

Other changes with baptism are more subtle and personal. When Noah and his family emerged from the ark, they saw that the floodwaters had receded after cleansing the world of human sinfulness. Everything was clean and fresh—a new creation, with a rainbow to guarantee God’s promise to never again destroy the world with water. So, too, will the newly baptized emerge from the font and be anointed with chrism. Like the earth after the great flood, they are a new creation. Washed clean of sin and anointed with chrism, they are renewed in the embrace of the God of covenant love.

This is why Lent is always a festive anticipation of Easter and always about baptism, just as it is always about the repentance that draws us more deeply into God’s kingdom.

Reflexión

Iba un día el demonio recorriendo el desierto cuando se encontró con un grupo de diablillos que estaban tentando a un santo ermitaño. Intentaban seducirlo con las tentaciones de la carne pero no conseguían nada. Le quisieron llenar la cabeza de dudas y de miedos pero no conseguían nada. Le rodearon de todo tipo de lujos y comodidades diciéndole que su austeridad era una pérdida de tiempo pero no conseguían nada. El demonio dijo a aquellos diablillos aficionados, déjenmelo a mí y observen. Se acercó al santo ermitaño y le dijo al oído: ¿sabes la última noticia? Tu hermano ha sido nombrado Obispo de... Cuando lo oyó una gran envidia se reflejó en el rostro del santo ermitaño. Y pecó. ¿Con qué tentación cae usted? Este santo ermitaño, hombre al fin y al cabo, tenía su punto débil. La envidia brilló en sus ojos y su corazón se entristeció. ¿Se creía más digno y mejor que su hermano?

Hoy comenzamos la Cuaresma.

Tiempo de conversión. Tiempo de fortalecer nuestros puntos débiles. Tiempo de examinar nuestra vida. Tiempo de escuchar e imitar a Jesús.

El evangelista Marcos con dos frases nos ha narrado 40 días de la vida de Jesús.

"El Espíritu empujó a Jesús al desierto. Allí permaneció 40 días y fue tentado por Satanás".

En su bautismo Jesús recibe el Espíritu Santo y ese mismo Espíritu le empuja al desierto. El Espíritu es el guía de Jesús. El Espíritu está al principio de su ministerio. El Espíritu es la fuerza de Jesús en estos 40 asaltos con el demonio.

Antes de lanzarse al ministerio de la predicación Jesús se bautiza: Espíritu y voz del Padre: "Tú eres mi hijo amado".

Y después hace un retiro de 40 días. Marcos nos dice que "vivía con los animales salvajes", es decir, luchas, pruebas, sufrimientos, escasez, tentaciones...

En los oídos de Jesús todavía resonaban las palabras del cielo:

"Tú eres mi hijo amado". ¿Sería verdad? ¿Por qué tantas pruebas? ¿Por qué la presencia de Satanás tan sentida, tan insistente, tan fuerte?

En ese cuadrilátero, en ese ring de los 40 asaltos, nos dice el evangelista Marcos, los ángeles le servían.

Jesús no está abandonado a su suerte, no está solo. El Espíritu Santo que lo empuja al desierto está con Él como guía, como fuerza y como vínculo de unión con Dios Padre que pone a prueba a su mejor hijo, a su hijo amado. Tentado por Satanás, Jesús se refugia en Dios y cierra los oídos al tentador y se prepara para el último asalto, anunciar a los hombres el Reino de Dios y la victoria sobre Satanás.

En este tiempo de Cuaresma todos somos invitados a subir al ring y a enfrentarnos a los "animales salvajes".

La tentación de Satanás, del enemigo, de los amigos, del dinero, de la carne, del ambiente, la tentación que nos viene de afuera.

Y la tentación que nace en nuestro corazón. Mi mayor enemigo no está ahí fuera, está dentro de mí. En esta lucha no estoy yo solo. "Los ángeles me sirven como a Jesús. El Espíritu es también mi guía, mi fuerza y mi vínculo de unión con Dios Padre. No estoy yo solo. Dios está conmigo, su hijo amado.

La Cuaresma es como una vacuna. El niño tiene miedo a la aguja pero no sabe que ese pinchazo le va a evitar muchas enfermedades. La vacuna contra el enemigo es 40 días de oración, ayuno y limosna.

Jesús comenzó su predicación con una Buena Noticia. Y con una promesa: una nueva Alianza. Alianza para todos, para siempre e incondicional. La de Noé "era la figura del bautismo que ahora les salva a ustedes". Y una realización: el reino de Dios ya está aquí.

Mírense y cambien. Miren a Dios y crean.
