Covid-19 Church Essay by Lillianna Afram

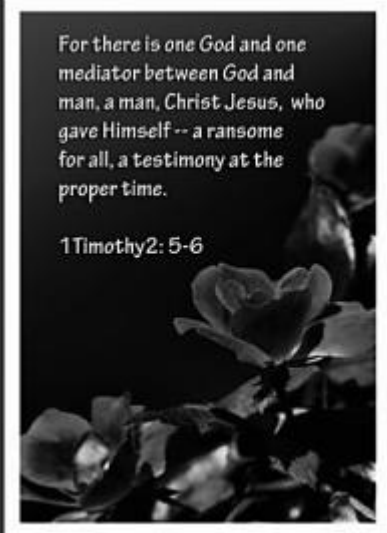

Covid-19 has affected me in many ways that I would not have expected. Staying in quarantine for 6 months has showed me a lot about myself and how much we take things for granted. At the beginning of quarantine, I was so excited to leave school for supposedly "two weeks". Little did I know that I would regret everything I said. As we began to stay longer and longer in quarantine, I finally realized that this was not what I wanted. I wanted to go back to school, and I wanted to see my friends. I wanted to go to the store, and when I was able to, I wanted to do it without having to wear a mask every time. I think it had a great effect on everybody. Many people got the virus and many people had loved ones who passed due to the virus, and I think it shows us that we must appreciate every bit of life while we have it, because it could be gone in the blink of an eye. Although corona had a negative effect on everyone, I do believe that it was a blessing in disguise. This quarantine really gave people the time to reflect and to work on themselves when they needed. A lot of people needed the time but never had the time because of work or school. Yes, covid-19 had its pros and cons, but in the end, this will all be history, so all we can do now and forever is keep our faith in God, because he will lead us through it all.

"Surely it was for my benefit that I suffered such anguish.
In your love you kept me from the pit of destruction;
you have put all my sins behind your back.
For the grave cannot praise you, death cannot sing your P R A I S E;
Those who go down to the pit cannot hope for your F A I T H F U L N E S S.
The living, the living- they praise you, as I am doing today;
Parents tell their children about your faithfulness.
The Lord will save me, and we will sing with stringed instruments all the days of our lives in the temple of the Lord." (Isaiah 38:17-20)

Everyone is invited,
all ages are encouraged to attend!

PASTOR'S CORNER

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

This weekend at all Liturgies we are going to pray the Anaphora of Saint John Chrysostom, Doctor of the Church and in many ways the pride of the Eastern Liturgies. John Chrysostom was from the school of Antioch and a colleague of Saint Maron. We rarely use his Anaphora because of his 'length'. In all honesty, it only adds six minutes to the Liturgy.

The beauty of that Anaphora is that it gives you an overall explanation of the plan of Salvation of Christ. In other words, it covers every aspect from the Incarnation through the life of Christ emphasizing His salvific mission, life, suffering, death and resurrection.

By not using that beautiful Anaphora more often, I feel as if I am being neglectful in offering a more diverse understanding of our rich heritage. It has led me to the need of more Adult catechesis on a parish level for a deeper understanding of our Maronite Antiochine Church.

I would like to announce that our focus this New Liturgical Year will center around the theme of our "Heritage and Roots". We need to get back to basics my dear people. Our Heritage has always been based on a family, the family of Beit Maroun. In that family we see a church that has survived despite the various attacks and persecutions it has endured, spiritual, theological and cultural.

I pray that this New Year bring us ever closer to the one person who means everything to us, our Lord, Jesus Christ. Happy New Year and many blessings to all of you.

HOLY ROSARY

A simple reminder that Deacon Mike prays the Rosary on the weekend a half hour before the Liturgy. All parishioners and families are invited to join Deacon Mike in this powerful prayer. Thank you!

CHRISTMAS LITURGIES SCHEDULE

Within the next two weeks we will post and publish our schedule of the Divine Liturgies for Christmas. We feel that will have many people for Christmas as long as the numbers of COVID-19 cases do not increase over the next few weeks. Either way we are asking all families to attend one of the five Liturgies that we will offer.

2020 AD BOOK

I wish to thank each and every sponsor who took out an ad in our 2020 Ad Book. We will be posting all of the sponsors on our website in the near future and ask that you support them by making referrals to their businesses. The money brought in by this successful fundraising drive is used to help support the daily operations and nonprofit outreach efforts of St. Sharbel Church. Thank you again to Maysoon and Valerie for their hard work and dedication to this project.

THANK YOU!

A special thank you to Dr. Mike and Tracy Saba for packaging the candy bars for our Halloween Drive thru Truck or Treat!

Volunteering is about giving, and we're so grateful for all the care and support you've given us. May it return to you many times over.

May the Lord God bless and protect you from evil and harm and increase your faith and your love.

With gratitude,

Chorbishop Alfred Badawi, Pastor
