Pastor's Corner

In the 1989 film Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade, the hero, archaeologist Indiana Jones, and his companions experience terrible dangers in their quest for the Holy Grail. To save his father from death, Indy has to risk his own life. The final challenge involves stepping onto an invisible bridge over a vast chasm. Indy can see nothing solid to rely on, but that step of faith into the unknown and invisible saves them both. Today's Gospel invites us to risk a step of faith leading to eternal life. Faith may appear unreliable in the face of life's dangers, and we may struggle to see the way ahead, but the example of many saints shows the transformative power of trusting in God.

The teaching in all three of today's readings contains a strong challenge. There is nothing fluffy and soft here, no "religion as air cushion". Jeremiah's prophecy is uncompromising. It is natural for human beings to seek security and want to trust in what seems powerful and strong. Trusting in God can seem like madness, when there is nothing to show for our confidence and nothing concrete to rely on.

In his own way, Paul is as uncompromising as Jeremiah. Faith in the resurrection is not a "take it or leave it" belief. Without Christ's resurrection, his teaching makes no sense. And in the Gospel, Luke's Beatitudes are more uncompromising than those of Matthew. Luke's Beatitudes are tough, as faith itself is tough. This faith makes demands but offers infinite rewards in return.

The life of faith stands in radical contrast to the values of the world. Reliance on the world's values, whether of strength, wealth, or reputation, is shown to be pointless and ultimately empty. Instead, we are offered what may seem unrealistic: reliance on a God we cannot see, faith in a crucified savior, belief in an eternity of which there are no guarantees. Faith, hope and love are not easy virtues, but they are the foundational graces offered to any follower of Christ.

If we take the risk of faith we can find something greater than we imagine. This is God's free gift, but it is our choice whether to accept it.

Peace, love and joy,

Fr. Bob Jones

We all know that there are times when life can feel, as Jeremiah writes, empty and wasted. There are moments when we think we resemble a barren bush, thirsting in the desert sun. That's why it is imperative for us to know the location of our water source. I promise you, it's closer than you think. God never planted a seed in barren ground.

For me, it's the Mass. Going to Mass is where I find total peace and renewal. I don't have any great theological explanation for this — Mass is simply where I can truly rest in God for a time, where nothing and no one in the world can touch me. And wouldn't you know it, it's in the toughest times that I need Mass the most — that my roots stretch harder for that water.

Woe to the rich, says Jesus — woe to the popular, to the content, to the happy. It's not because He hates to see us smile. It's because He knows our humanity. He knows our limitations. He knows that when things are going really well, we often stop looking for God.

What replenishes you as a disciple, as a steward, as a Christian? If it feels far away or hard to reach, why is that? How can you bring it closer? We are all trees planted near water, to yield our fruit in due season. Let's pray for the strength to know where our water source is, and to seek it both in good times and in bad.— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS..

Saint of the Week

The history of St. Conrad of Piacenza is quite fascinating. A member of one of the most noble families of Piacenza, he was known for his utmost honesty. One day while out hunting with friends, he thought he saw some game in an area of brush and ordered his attendants to set fire to the brush in order to scare it out of hiding. Unfortunately, the dry brush quickly ignited, and fire started to spread. Soon, the surrounding area was engulfed in flames.

Unfortunately, a known arsonist happened to be in the same area as the fire. This man was later imprisoned, tried, and condemned to death for the damage. But on his way to his execution, St. Conrad of Piacenza, full of guilt, stopped the proceedings and confessed to the fire. To make res-titution for the damages, Conrad had to sell all his belongings, which reduced him to poverty. Soon after, he decided to retire to a hermitage, where he became a hermit of the Third Order of St. Francis, and his wife entered the Order of Poor Clares.

Come Pray the Patriotic Rosary with us!

After disruptions in our Bible Study because of COVID, we are happy to announce the return of us gathering to pray the Patriotic Rosary every month!! What a wonderful way to come together, pray for all citizens in our 50 states, The President, Supreme Court, Governors, and those elected to County and Municipal Offices. For those who wish, we sing a few verses of five of America's beloved patriotic songs, one after each Mystery. We use the booklet Patriotic Rosary For the Consecration of Our Nation by a friend of Medjugorje. We have some extra booklets, and information on how to obtain additional copies.

We will meet for one hour on Mondays from 9:00 am until 10:00 am on the following days: February 7, March 14, April 11, May 9 in the lower level Community Room of the Oak Street Church. Our Country needs our prayers now more than ever. Come pray the Patriotic Rosary with us!! If you have any questions, please contact either Vicky (815 814-7404 or Jackie (815 715-3002)

"Stories for Your Faith Walk from the Camino de Santiago"

~the Pilgrimage of Saint James~

Each night we will encounter God's mercy as Deacon Willie Williams walks us through his own Camino, including stories of his gritty life experiences that surfaced while traveling the Camino, his personal reflective prayers, and the spiritual insights that God awakened. We will also be guided through "Our Own Camino" providing guidance on how we can dig deeper into our spiritual life—outside of our comfort zone, and continuing with our own faith walk story.

What is an A1C Test?

An A1C test is a blood analysis that measures the average glucose level in the blood for the last 3 months. A1C tests can be used to diagnose diabetes and prediabetes. An A1C test is also the main test used to in the management of diabetes.

No Fasting Needed

Risk Test for Prediabetes

1. If you are a woman, at one time, were you diagnosed with gestational diabetes?
2. Do you have a mother, father, brother or sister with diabetes?
3. Have you ever been diagnosed with high blood pressure?
4. Have you ever been told you have diabetes or prediabetes?

If you responded YES to any of these questions, you may benefit from an A1C screening!

THANK YOU, FOOD DONORS!!!

Light of the World Retreat

March 18-21, 2022—www.stthomascl.church/lotw

"Behold, I make all things new." Rev 21:5

Join us for an awesome retreat given by St. Thomas Parishioners to help you grow in your personal relationship with Christ.

Meals and snacks will be provided and you will sleep in your own bed each night! We will have our own Sunday Mass so your Sunday obligation will be met.

You are welcome to invite a spouse, adult children or friends to attend with you - just forward the registration link to them! The retreat will be in the lower level of the Pierson St. Church (453 Pierson St., Crystal Lake, IL 60014)

Carmelite Spirituality

Are you searching for something more? Wanting to go deeper in your faith? Were you aware that lay people can be Carmelites? Most orders of the church (Franscian, Dominican, etc.) have a part of their order that allows lay people to participate in their way of life. This part of the order is called the Third Order. The call to Carmel is a vocation! It includes friars and monks, religious sisters and cloistered nuns and lay people who want to follow the path of Carmel. To become a Lay Carmelite, one must be at least 18 years old, a practicing Catholic in good standing, if married in a valid Catholic marriage and registered with a parish. You must also be searching for deeper spiritual guidance as a servant of the Lord.

We welcome you to learn more about a vocation to the Order of Carmel. We meet the second Wednesday of the month at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton in Crystal Lake. Contact the director, Marcie Girolamo at (815) 245-0537 or email marciegirolamo4@gmail.com
Our Lady of Mt. Carmel, pray for us!

¿Qué es la prueba de A1C?

La prueba de A1C es un análisis de sangre que mide el promedio de glucosa en la sangre durante los últimos 3 meses. Se puede usar la prueba de A1C para diagnosticar la diabetes y prediabetes. También se usa la prueba de A1C como la prueba principal en el control de diabetes.

No es necesario ayunar

Prueba de riesgo de prediabetes

- ¿Es mujer y le diagnosticaron alguna vez diabetes gestacional?
- ¿Tiene diabetes su madre, padre, algún hermano o hermana?
- ¿Le diagnosticaron alguna vez presión arterial alta?
- ¿Le han dicho alguna vez que tiene diabetes o prediabetes?

Si respondió SI a cualquiera de estas preguntas, se beneficiará de una prueba de A1C!

13 de febrero de 2022 6º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Dichosa la persona que confía en el Señor, es el eco del Evangelio de este sexto domingo del Tiempo Ordinario. Después de bajar del monte, el Señor da el discurso de las Bienaventuranzas, donde se transmiten todos los valores de la Sabiduría del Evangelio. Solamente que, Lucas resume en cuatro bienaventuranzas lo que Mateo describe en ocho. Lucas sintetiza la oposición de pensamiento entre el mundo y los que siguen al Señor. Dios pide que escuchemos a su Hijo en estas enseñanzas. Cambiar de pensamiento y actitud para darse cuenta que toda la riqueza, bienes y poder son pasajeros y se quedan en el mundo. Jesús, proyecta una dimensión de felicidad inmensa y definitiva en los bienes del cielo.

La invitación es cambiar esta sociedad marcada por la injusticia y la falta de valores espirituales. Tener el pensamiento de Dios es el reto de cada cristiano. Trabajar y hacer ministerio con la predica de Jesús debe crear conciencia de la necesidad de una sociedad más justa y equilibrada. Y si Cristo mismo las enseñó en su tiempo, son aplicables al cien por ciento ahora. “Felices ustedes los pobres, porque de ustedes es el Reino de Dios. Felices ustedes los que ahora tienen hambre, porque serán saciados. Felices ustedes los que lloran, porque reirán. Felices ustedes si los hombres los odian, los expulsan, los insultan y los consideran unos delincuentes a causa del Hijo del Hombre. Alégrese en ese momento y lléñese de gozo, porque les espera una recompensa grande en el cielo” (Lucas 6,20-23). Vivir las bienaventuranzas es camino seguro a la santidad...©LPi
