Q: Do you have any special Thanksgiving traditions?

A: Thanksgiving is our favorite eating holiday! We have the same food every year; traditional and delicious. We spend the day - watching the parade and football on TV and generally just relaxing. In the past few years since our children are now old enough to participate, we have made PB & J sandwiches at one homeless shelter and delivered meals to shut ins with another worthy organization.

Spinach & Artichoke Stuffed Chicken -brought to you by Renee Charles

Ingredients: Chicken: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 boneless, skinless chicken breasts• 2 tablespoons Italian Seasoning• 1 teaspoon mild paprika (optional)• salt and pepper to season Spinach and Artichoke dip: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 4 oz frozen spinach thawed• 8oz block cream cheese• 6oz bottled or canned artichoke hearts in brine• ½ cup shredded mozzarella cheese• ¼ cup finely grated parmesan cheese• 1 tablespoon minced garlic• salt to taste Optional Cream Sauce: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• remaining spinach/ artichoke dip• 1 cup milk	Ingredients: For the Chicken: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Place each chicken breast on a flat surface. Season both sides of each breast with the Italian seasoning and paprika. With your hand supporting each piece, cut a slit or pocket about ¾ of the way through, being careful not to cut all the way. For the Dip Filling: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Squeeze any and all excess liquid out of the spinach. Discard the water released. In a medium-sized bowl, combine the spinach, cream cheese, artichokes, mozzarella, parmesan and garlic; mix well to combine.2. Fill chicken ‘pockets’ with 1-2 tablespoons of the spinach artichoke dip, spreading evenly with the back of the spoon. Reverse the leftover dip for the optional cream sauce.3. Seal with two or three toothpicks near the opening to keep the dip inside while cooking.4. Heat 1 tablespoon of oil in a skillet over medium-high heat. Add the chicken and fry until golden. Rotate and fry on the other side, covering pan with a lid, until cooked through (about 6-7 minutes per side). Transfer chicken to a warm plate to make the optional cream sauce. For the Cream Sauce: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Pour milk into the skillet / pan and bring to a simmer. Add the remaining dip (you should have half remaining) and stir until sauce is combined and thickened. Add the chicken back into the pan and serve immediately!
