- PRESENTED BY -
Style Weekly

Style Weekly readers are always opinionated – in the best sense – especially when it comes to businesses they wish to support. Once again, our annual Family Favorites contest was highly competitive, with ties in a few categories, and in others only a couple of votes separating the rankings. But what does it mean for a local business to be recognized as a “Family Favorite”? Keep reading to see what some folks had to say...

"I was shocked that they took the time to vote for me as a write-in! It is a heartwarming feeling knowing that my clients are thinking about me and wanting to share the good experience that they had with the readers of Style."

- Carla at Nelms Photographic Artistry

"I have been teaching for about 18 years now."

I have watched students of mine graduate, get married and start families of their own. They come back into the studio with their children, and get teary eyed on their child's first day of dance, feeling nostalgic, and catching up with their old teachers, their mentors. This is what "family favorites" means to us at MKSD. We continue to support our students after they graduate, go to college, and become adults. We are their second family - their "dance family". Thank you to the readers of Style Weekly, this recognition means so much to the staff at Marianne Kelley's School of Dance." - Marianne at Marianne Kelley's School of Dance

"It's an honor to be entrusted with the care and tutoring of our clients' children. Being voted as a Family Favorite is huge! Building Stronger Families is our focus 100% of the time. We thank our client parents, even potential clients, perhaps our many nannies and tutors who may have provided their vote of confidence too."

Thanks Style readers!"

- Vicki Daniel at College Nannies & Tutors

"We are honored to be chosen a second year in a row as one of Richmond's family favorites. We are dedicated to help raise our kids to be not only good dancers, but good people, who are actively involved in community outreach. At CDC, we consider ourselves a family, and our students think of it as a second home, so this award couldn't be more appropriate! Thank you to all of our entire CDC family, friends, and the Style Weekly readers!"

- Carrie at Chesterfield Dance Center

"We want to thrill our customers every time they shop at Tweed. As a family business, being chosen as a "family favorite" by Style Weekly readers means the world to us, and makes us want to work even harder to continue to thrill each and every customer in our store. THANK YOU for choosing Tweed!" - Kate at Tweed

"Saxon Shoes is a Richmond born and raised business. Being selected Family Favorite by the Style readers is so rewarding and confirms our mission of being Richmond's go-to shoe store. The entire Saxon family is so grateful for the recognition!"

- Gary at Saxon Shoes

"I'm thrilled to be voted number one for the best Farmer's Market and again for best place to buy your Christmas Tree. It's like a dream come true! Although my name is on the building, this award should go to the team members at the store. They do the hard work day in and day out making Tom Leonard's special. I'm very proud to be voted number one not once but twice and especially proud of my team that got us here! A special thank you to our customers for voting for us."

- Tom at Tom Leonard's Farmer's Market

"We are honored and grateful to be selected as one of Richmond's favorite pediatric practices. It is a privilege for us to care for your children."

- Capitol Pediatrics

"We always love being recognized by Style Weekly readers as a Family Favorite. We strive hard to make our fitness centers usable and enjoyable from the youngest to the oldest member."

- Wendy at ACAC Fitness and Wellness Centers
