

MARBLE COLLEGIATE CHURCH

WELCOME
Thank You for Worshipping with Us Today!

We continue to stay in community
during these uncertain times.

*The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.*

*... I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God,
and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord,"
for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,
says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.*

— Jeremiah 31:31, 33-34

MARBLE'S EASTER OFFERING

Marble's Easter Offering has supported the work of Poor People's Campaign.* Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. said, "Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere." Poor People's Campaign embodies these words in the intentional actions they take to raise awareness and to drive policies that seek to bring justice to communities that have been severely underserved. Whenever they raise their voices, it is under the umbrella of the phrase "A National Call for Moral Revival." Furthermore they have said,

"We rise together because:

1. We rise to demand that the 140 million poor and low-income people in our nation — from every race, creed, color, sexuality and place — are no longer ignored, dismissed or pushed to the margins of our political and social agenda.
2. We rise not as left or right, Democrat or Republican, but as a moral fusion movement to build power, build moral activism, build voter participation, and we won't be silent any more!
3. We rise to change the moral narrative and demand that the interlocking injustices of systemic racism, poverty, ecological devastation, the war economy/militarism and the distorted moral narrative of religious nationalism all be ended.
4. We rise to challenge the lie of scarcity in the midst of abundance.
5. We rise to lift the voices and faces of poor and low-income Americans and their moral allies with a new vision of love, justice, and truth for America that says poverty can be abolished and change can come."

Poor People's Campaign calls everyone to join them in their movement as Jesus calls us to follow him and raise our voices to effect justice on behalf of others who may not be able to do so by themselves.

This year, as Marble has done for decades, we will take up an Easter Offering on Easter Sunday, although you can give at any time. Our goal is to raise $220,000, 100% of which will support organizations like Poor People's Campaign. No amount is too small and know that whatever you give will help to improve quality of life and give hope to those who need it the most.

Here are ways in which you can give:

- Give online at MarbleChurch.org/give/easter-offering or click on the blue Easter Offering button below the streaming window at MarbleChurch.org
- Text "GIVEMCC EASTER21" to 73256 (standard messaging rates apply)
- Mail checks to Marble Collegiate Church, attention: Easter Offering, or use an Easter Offering Envelope which you will receive in the mail later in March. (please note, processing will take longer)
- Call the Business Office, (212) 686-2770, ext. 252, to give over the phone or get information about making a matching gift. Matching Gifts offered by employers are eligible through Marble Community Outreach (a 501(c) 3 organization). Please contact Clay Hale, CHale@MarbleChurch.org for assistance.

Thank you for prayerfully considering making a generous contribution to this year's Easter Offering to help make a positive difference in the lives of others.

MUSIC FOR PRAYERFUL CONTEMPLATION
Sundays During Lent, 10:50am

Today we present cellist Willemina (Mina) Smith, an artist of intense commitment, poetic insight and dazzling versatility, whose artistic mission embraces a conversation through music, one that enthusiastically encompasses the music of the present placed within the context of a living past. As a soloist and recitalist as well as a collaborative musician and festival director, Mina has consistently advocated for composers with whom she has developed vital relationships, to have their music creatively positioned within an intellectually engaging context and performed with the utmost passion and technical assurance.

Ms. Smith was awarded a 2015-2016 McKnight Artist Fellowship for Performing Musicians, one of the largest and most established fellowships of its kind in the U.S. She made her solo debut with the Philadelphia Orchestra while a student at the Curtis Institute of Music and in 1997 was a prizewinner in the Leonard Rose International Cello Competition. She has been soloist with orchestras nationally and internationally including the Orquesta Millenium of Guatemala and the Ural Philharmonic Orchestra of Russia and has performed recitals across the US and Japan.

She has been a guest artist with the Philadelphia and Boston Chamber Music Societies, and the Chamber Music Society of Lincoln Center, and has performed regularly in festivals such as the Marlboro Music Festival and Santa Fe Chamber Music Festival. In 2005, she formed the Variation String Trio with violinist Jennifer Koh and violist Hsin-Yun Huang, and is a founding member of Music from Copland House. She is founder and Artistic Director of Salt Bay Chamberfest, on the coast of Maine; a festival that has been home to performers and composers of international renown for over two decades.

Praised by The Strad as “A consummate communicator of the new virtuosity,” Smith’s 2019 recording of solo works by Salonen and Saariaho (Ondine) has earned high praise from reviewers including BBC and Gramophone. Ms. Smith’s recording of sonatas by Britten and Schnittke with pianist Thomas Sauer was released on the Arabesque label in 2006, and her recordings of chamber music include the complete chamber works of Aaron Copland (Arabesque), and works by Sebastian Currier (Koch), Osvaldo Golijov (Kleos), Pierre Jalbert (CHB), Jennifer Higdon (Naxos), Aaron Jay Kernis (Koch), Tamar Muskal, John Musto (Koch), Kaija Saariaho (Cedille), and Michael Torke (AMR).

We thank Hamline United Methodist Church in St. Paul, MN and their music director David Kozisek for making this recording for our Lenten prelude series possible.

Our series concludes on Palm Sunday, March 28 — Carol Wincenc, flute

For surely I know the plans I have for you, says the Lord,...to give you a future with hope.

Growing Deeper — Seeking to grow in our faith in God, we commit to being a safe place to explore what it means to follow the way of Jesus who, as our source of hope, leads us to new possibilities.

Growing Relationally — Seeking to grow in our relationships with God and one another, we commit to being good neighbors in the world by seeking peace and justice for all people and cultivating a community of healing, reconciliation and transformation.

Growing in Generosity — Seeking to grow in our generosity as a grateful response to God's blessings in our lives, we recognize everything we have belongs to God, and we commit to giving and serving as acts of worship.

Growing Young Across Generations — Seeking to grow in our capacity to be a beacon of hope and life for all people, we commit to welcoming young people and their ideas, building an inter-generational community of respect, care and belonging.
