Sunbonnet Sue Quilt Club of the Olympic Peninsula

August 2016

To further the act and skill of quilt making and to foster an appreciation of quilts old and new.

For the past several years the Sunbonnet Sue Quilt Club website has been hosted by a company called Websites for Quilters. A year ago they announced that they had been purchased by Like Sew. This new company offered to convert our website to their services but the cost was more than the club could bear and their monthly hosting fees were considerably higher than what we had been paying. They were willing to keep our website on their servers until our contract ran out. Of course, I didn't rush to find a new webhosting company; after all our contract didn't expire until August 2016!! The months flew by and suddenly I was under a deadline!! I found that there were a lot of webhosting companies out there!! After reading reviews and doing research I settled on Weebly, a webhosting company based in San Francisco. Since it wasn't possible to convert our old website to Weebly it was necessary for me to build a new one! This week our newly designed website was officially launched.

site. And best of all it will cost the club less than half of what we were paying.

I hope you'll take a look around the new site. It's located at the same address (sunbonnetsuequiltclub.org). The password to the members only section hasn't changed...it's still SBSQC. Hopefully, you'll find the site easy to use, clean and informative. Please let me know what you think. It's still a work in progress so if you have suggestions on how to make it better please let me know.

NEWS FROM THE BAGUETTES:

Baguettes are continuing to work on “Professional Tote” by The Creative Thimble for the month of August. Judy Ramos will be the leader. Again, Baguettes provides no formal instruction. There is help though, from the leader and the other Baguettes working on the project.

In September the Baguettes will start a new project, “Union Square Floor Tote” by Kenzie Mac. The Leader will be Judy Andersen. Judy bought her pattern with the additional strapping from Nancy’s Notions.

Please feel free to join us on the First Wednesday of the month at the Sunbonnet Sue Quilt Club Meeting.

Peeps from your Veeps

The Washington Post

No PEEPING! Oops...I mean No PEEKING! Your Peeps have been busy taking photos from the quilt show and putting a random few into the FIRST SBSQC Quilt Calendar. The Veeps are the only ones in the club who know which quilts’ photos are in it. Don’t bother asking; we won’t tell you. The rules are No PEEKING! All will be revealed after (1) you have placed your orders to us in advance, (2) we place the order with the printers and (3) we receive the order and bring them to you at SBSQC. As soon as we get the price quote, we will be selling advance copies. Stay Tuned! Don’t miss out!

A quick review of what’s coming up:

1. Retreat at St. Andrew’s August 22-26. If you are attending, meet with Kath Beecher in the lobby after the announcements at club on August 17th.
2. September 21 is the Table/ Library Book Sale. We have 10 tables signed up so far.
3. September 22 is the trip to La Conner Quilt Museum. There is room for 26 people on the bus. The price is still not confirmed; stay tuned.
4. October 17-19 is Kamp Sew-a-Lot. It is full and has a waiting list.
5. We vote for Volunteer of the Year on November 9th. Be thinking of who you would like to nominate.
6. December 14th is the Holiday Party. Thank you, Frosty’s Flakes!

Your Veeps, Kath and Judy

Christmas stockings in August??? That's right. On August 31 (Community Quilt day) we'll be unveiling the 2016 Christmas Stocking program! This is the club's 15th year participating in the project. Our goal is to make over 250 stockings this year!! We're giving you lots of time to make at least a few stockings! We'll have patterns, fabric and batting.

There are just 4 basic requirements:

1. Large size (please use our pattern which is fairly large and provides lots of room for "stuffers")
2. Quilted
3. Lined
4. A loop for hanging

Avoid the Holiday rush and complete your stockings before Halloween!!

Also needed...a couple of members to work on the Christmas stocking committee -- help with the organization of fabric and patterns, collect finished stockings, spread the Holiday spirit!! Please contact Merrie Jo by email if you're interested in being a Santa's helper.

Besides Christmas stockings we'll have a few Community Quilts that need binding and there will be kits available to take home.

The Community Quilt display at the quilt show received lots of positive comments and support from our visitors. Many had no idea that we provide quilts and Christmas stockings to the community. Thanks to all who staffed the area and demonstrated tying and binding.

Hope to see you on August 31.
