Application to Serve on the SuperScience Advisory Board

Help us make SuperScience an even better magazine.

Thank you for your interest in becoming a SuperScience advisor. We have a history of working with talented and passionate teacher advisors, and we rely on this group to provide honest feedback on each of our issues and to help us make important editorial decisions.

As a SuperScience advisory board member, you will:

- use all 8 issues of SuperScience with your students
- complete a SurveyMonkey survey (~10 minutes) for each issue (For sample survey questions, please visit: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/SuperScienceNov2017>.)
- provide feedback via email about upcoming article topics, covers, new additions to the magazine and/or website, etc.
- help promote SuperScience on social media (Twitter, Facebook, and Instagram) and blogs
- represent SuperScience at conferences and events as needed and willing

Some of the potential benefits of being a SuperScience advisor include:

- networking with the top teachers in your field from around the country
- establishing a strong relationship with the SuperScience editors
- opportunities to Skype with editors in your classroom
- receiving insider news
- invitations to Scholastic Classroom Magazine events and gatherings
- recognition on the SuperScience website
- a free one-year subscription of SuperScience for your class (up to 35 student issues)
