FROM THE DESK OF RABBI PETER RIGLER

The summer is a busy time at Temple Sholom. As we enter back into school and Holy Days we hope you notice the work, both physical and spiritual, of our staff and volunteers to make the year ahead a special one. I loved seeing the steady flow of people coming to repair and beautify our congregation. It is going to sound odd but, I think my favorite moment of the summer came when our members (the Habbart Family) drove up to the front door of our synagogue with a van filled with our new High Holy Day prayer books, Mishkan Hanefesh. I was excited to finally have the opportunity to start dreaming and planning with the Cantor from our new prayer book. Well, as we expected, the Cantor and I have spent many of the days this summer focused on our new High Holy Day prayer book (machzor). While there are new and innovative prayers, we will also be comforted by traditional words and timeless themes. We will sing much of the same music that is so central to our worship, finding respite in the familiarity of sounds. We will be comforted by one another as we explore the pages of this new book together. The new book will challenge us for the better. It has already challenged us. We have debated and thoughtfully planned the services for the coming Holy Days.

Our new machzor is called Mishkan HaNefesh, Sanctuary of the Soul. I hope that you will find that the transliteration invites you to participate. I hope that you will engage with its words, understanding (as the editors did) that we come to God, and to repentance and repair, in different ways. I pray that your soul finds some comfort, respite and renewal in our worship together. We will pray and study with one another as we greet the New Year. In preparation, we will explore the themes of renewal in Mishkan HaNefesh in our S'lichot study on Saturday evening, September 5th. Copies of the new book are also available in our library for you to spend time with. The book is a wonderful opportunity to stretch beyond what we have done in the past. You will hear me say repeatedly during services that I want you to enjoy it. I want you to get lost and be a few pages behind or ahead as you use the book to guide you. I am excited for the change and the journeys that our new machzor will lead us on!

From my family to yours - L'Shana Tova Tikatevu

NOTES FROM CANTOR JAMIE MARX . . .

In the era of customized experiences and the ubiquitous opportunities to bury oneself in a screen, Temple Sholom offers a unique opportunity to connect with others, connect with God, and get visceral. You don't need anything but your body and the ability to listen. Feeling overwhelmed by the world and inundated with email? Looking for a place to belong? Set the stress aside for 90 minutes a week and engage in song.

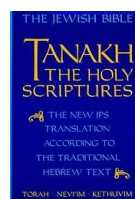

Choral singing is an opportunity for artistic self-expression that most adults don't get to engage in. There's a joy to group singing that you can't find anywhere else. Choral singing reminds us what it means to be in community, to rely on those around us to bring about a creation that is greater than the sum of its parts. And singing in the Temple Sholom choir is a holy offering that you bring to the broader community on Shabbat and the High Holy Days.

Our choir members have a wide range of experience. You don't have to be able to read music to be welcome, we go over every note. You don't have to be comfortable with Hebrew, we review the pronunciation of each word. We're a group that likes to have a lot of fun but also work hard and create beautiful music.

With the High Holy Days coming up, you'll have many chances to hear the choir at work. Any one in the choir -- myself included -- would be happy to tell you more about what it's like. Feel free to grab someone after a service and ask them about it. We'd love to have you!

GREETINGS FROM THE TEMPLE PRESIDENT, EMILY MENDELL

My favorite secular month of the year is September. While I adore the lazy, hazy days of summer as much as anyone, by the time Labor Day comes around, I'm ready to get at it. Usually, "it" refers to work (for me) or school (for my family), or High Holy Day preparations (for all of us.) As the leaves begin to turn, so do my intentions towards getting things done, making a difference, and moving forward. Opportunity abounds in September and for those who are like me, it is the ideal time to commit to something new and meaningful. Some commitments will stick; others may not. But with September – and the Hebrew month of Tishri – comes the promise of what is possible for each and every one of us. That promise alone makes my heart sing.

If you are searching for inspiration, you need not look any further than Temple Sholom where there truly is something for everyone. To wit, here are some examples of new commitments for five types of people in the New Year. Which one are you?

The Giver: The opportunities to perform mitzvot at Temple Sholom range from cooking or serving monthly meals at the Life Center of Delaware County to volunteering at lunchtime in our Preschool to walking or running for one of the many causes we support during the year. The Temple Tidings is a great source of information about volunteer events; and of course, you may always call the office to see what's happening each month.

The Show-Goer: Nothing lifts my spirits more than being entertained, especially when I am laughing with friends and family. We are bringing the renowned political satire troupe the Capitol Steps to the Media Theater on November 8. Tickets are on sale in September - and promises to be a sold-out event. Buy yours today for an excellent cause – our building! Can't make this show? Start thinking about our artist in residence Josh Nelson concert or our Purim Shpiel in the Spring. Sit back, relax, and have a ball!

The Organizer: The Temple Sholom Board of Trustees is always seeking out future leaders – those who wish to apply their skills to making our congregation a better place. If you are interested in initiating a project, joining (or heading) a committee, or learning more about opportunities to apply your particular passion or expertise to our efforts, please contact me anytime!

The Socializer: Our auxiliary groups – Sisterhood, Brotherhood, Hilltoppers and ToaSTY - hold regular, marvelous events where the only requirement is to attend, connect and enjoy one another. If you have never been to an event, give one a try this year. And be sure to let the group's leader know you are coming for the first time. You will be welcomed with open arms!

The Contemplator: Whether you are reflecting on your life on a daily basis, or you need to stop and breathe every once in a while, Temple Sholom offers many opportunities to ponder, think and interpret. Friday night services represent a weekly opportunity to welcome Shabbat and rest. Tanakh class also gives congregants the chance to reflect on their lives and Jewish study. I promise you will leave these sessions more enlightened than when you came.

I do hope you recognize yourself in at least one of these types of people and seek out a new opportunity to grow this year. Personally, I see a little bit of myself in all of them, and hope to join many of you at a multitude of fantastic events throughout our Temple Sholom community in 5776.

Shana Tova!

PRESCHOOL WELCOMES
OUR NEW DIRECTOR, MISS BROOKE!

It is with great excitement that we welcome our new Preschool Director, Brooke Zeitz, to our Temple Sholom family!

A long time educator, Brooke comes to us from the Katz JCC Early Childhood Center in Cherry Hill, New Jersey, where she has served as a Lead Teacher and Special Needs Advocate. Previously she worked in the Cherry Hill Public School System and the School District of Philadelphia. She continues to tutor students privately in Reading and Math. Brooke has also worked as a committed volunteer at her synagogue, Temple Beth Sholom in Cherry Hill, serving as the Vice President of Education and on the Board of Sisterhood. Brooke was a Board Member of the Preschool at Temple Beth Sholom when her children attended. She has also been a Board Member of the Jewish Federation of Southern New Jersey. Brooke earned her B.S. in Early Childhood and Elementary Education and Masters Degree in Early Childhood Special Education, both from Temple University.

Brooke officially joined us the week of August 24th and is hard at work with our wonderful Preschool staff preparing for a fantastic school year.

We would like to thank our outstanding search committee who worked tirelessly to bring such an outstanding professional to our school. Led by Rachel Amdur and Jennifer Morgan, the committee comprised current and past Board members, Preschool parents, clergy, and staff including Rebecca Wzorek, Katie Gray, Kathy Porter, Alexis Rosenfeld, Joanne Nathans, Barbara Mark, MaryAnn Gould, Emily Mendell, Abbey Krain, Rabbi Rigler and Cantor Marx. Yasher Koach!

WELCOME TO :
OUR NEW COMMUNICATIONS ASSOCIATE,
MARISSA KUPERSCHMIDT

Hello Temple Sholom! I am so excited to begin my position as Communications Associate. Growing up in Cherry Hill, I was given a huge foundation for my Jewish identity. I attended Hebrew school all the way through 12th grade, participated in youth group, taught Hebrew and Religious school, and was a camp counselor at the preschool over the summer. I graduated from Muhlenberg College in Allentown, PA with my Bachelor of Arts in Psychology as well as my Elementary Teaching Certificate for grades K-6. At Muhlenberg, I spent all four years there working at Hillel. It was by far one of the highlights of my college experience. My synagogue growing up was my home away from home. I understand the importance of incorporating Judaism into everyday life, and I am looking forward to helping instill that ideal into members of this congregation.

In my free time, I love being with my family and friends, usually trying out the newest restaurant, seeing the most buzzed about movie, or of course, shopping. Any time you happen to be in the building, please stop by my office and introduce yourself. My door is always open to talk about the daily happenings at the Temple, the latest movie or television show, or just to say hello. I am very much looking forward to meeting each and every one of you. See you all soon!

~ Marissa Kuperschmidt, community@temple-sholom.org

RIMON ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT, CLAIRE WILLIAMS

A warm "Hello" to the Temple Sholom community! My name is Claire Amanda Williams and I am overjoyed to return to Temple Sholom in an official capacity as the Rimon School Administrative Assistant.

Formerly, I was involved at the Temple under the direction of Abbey Krain where I had the unique privilege to work and really be hands-on in many aspects at the congregation, where I learned each and every single day from the clergy, staff, and members. My introduction to Temple Sholom was truly remarkable. That said, when a job opportunity presented itself to work here I leaped at the chance! Upon accepting the position, Lori Green has blazed my path for success with her professionalism, knowledge, and unparalleled welcoming spirit! Equally, the unwavering foundation that was built when working initially under Abbey Krain was a remarkable, life-changing experience filled with acceptance, mutual appreciation, and effortless continued education in Judaism. My foundation of learning and conduct guided by Abbey is now a part of me, it is something that I carry with my every day, and it has aided in making me whom I am at Temple Sholom.

You will find me in the front office and I invite all members to stop by and introduce yourself. I look forward to meeting everyone!

~ Claire Williams, rimon@temple-sholom.org

DIRECTOR'S CORNER

Friends,

I am reading a wonderful book that I highly recommend: Wide-Open World, How Volunteering Around The Globe Changed One Family's Lives Forever by John Marshall. This true story is beautifully written, takes you on adventures all over the world (true to the title), makes you laugh out loud, and makes you really think about tikkun olam and the concept of volunteering in general.

This family's adventures are exotic. They really had a great idea and a special opportunity. The fact that the author shared their experiences is a treat to all who read Wide-Open World.

Our congregation is filled with amazing volunteers. And, as I firmly believe, each and every one of our Temple families is a volunteer to our Temple community simply by being a member. So many of us have the time, energy, expertise and availability to engage in specific Temple projects. Each and every one of us, even if we do not volunteer for a specific task, belongs to our special community, and as a result are volunteers.

During the summer our Temple community has been incredibly busy. With our Security Task force committee we have developed and implemented our new security system so that all Temple members feel at home while maintaining safety and security. With our Personnel Committee, Board and ad-hoc committees including an energized and committed Preschool committee we have created job descriptions, interviewed qualified candidates and hired amazing people to help us fulfill our Temple values and mission. With our Buildings and Grounds/ Temple Beautiful committee we have worked diligently to plan and implement our thoughtful lobby renovations as well as portion of our detailed landscaping plan. These are just some of the goals we have recently accomplished: with special thanks to all our dedicated volunteers.

All that we have accomplished and continue to work on together takes the work of many volunteers. We have an amazing cadre of individuals who give of their time, their money, their expertise and certainly their love of our community. As a Temple community we have so many opportunities for volunteering throughout the year. We work together at Temple Sholom to better the world: all around the globe, in our surrounding local community and right here at home. And, by being a Temple member, we are all volunteers working together to change the lives of all who belong to and are touched by Temple Sholom.

Please let me know if you would like to volunteer in any capacity at our Temple. It would be my pleasure to help you get started.

May we all continue to find volunteer opportunities that fulfill our ability to add meaning to and change our lives.

~ Warmly, Abbey Krain
director@temple-sholom.org

CELEBRATING THE HIGH HOLY DAYS AT TEMPLE SHOLOM

Dear Temple Members:

Erev Rosh Hashanah begins on Sunday, September 13. In keeping with the recommendations of the Religious Practices Committee, the Board has developed the following Temple Policies regarding the High Holy Days. Please keep in mind that the High Holy Days are a time when most of our members attend services, and our space is limited. Further, they are a quiet and reflective time.

High Holy Days Policies and Procedures

To assist all congregants with questions or concerns, Ushers will be stationed throughout the Sanctuary, lobby and parking lot.

All congregants must bring your personalized, nontransferable tickets to each service. Your ticket is required for entrance. Tot Services on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur, as well as the evening service on Rosh Hashanah do not require a ticket.

Our Temple building, as well as the doors to the Sanctuary will open one hour before the service begins. This allows us to prepare for your arrival.

You may hold seats for your immediate family only.

Once Services have begun, entry into the Sanctuary will be at the discretion of the ushers. It is our policy that no one is to be admitted while the congregation is standing, when the Ark is open or during the Rabbi's sermon or Cantor's Sermon Anthem.

If you bring cell phones, beepers and other electronic devices into the building, please make certain they are set to "inaudible."

Tickets for High Holy Day Services will be issued to members in good standing only.

A limited number of guest tickets are available to purchase for relatives who live outside of our service area. The fee for guest tickets is $200 each. Please contact the Temple Office to purchase guest tickets.

According to Temple policy, children of member families, 25 years and older, are independent adults. If adult children live outside of our service area, a guest ticket may be purchased for them. Children who are 24 years or younger may attend services as part of the family unit and will receive a ticket in the mail.

The Family Service is recommended for families who wish to attend services together with children under 12 years of age. So that the Family Services may be fulfilling for everyone, we ask that parents be responsible for the behavior of their children. It is recommended that Adult Services are for those congregants 12 years and older.

Babysitting is available during Adult services on Rosh Hashanah morning and on Yom Kippur morning. Registration is required in advance. Contact the Temple Office regarding the fee and to sign up.

Family and Tot Services

We invite all families with toddlers and preschool children to attend a special service in the Sanctuary on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. In order to allow us to set up for Adult Services, we will ask all to leave the Sanctuary when Tot Services are finished.

Parking on the Temple Grounds

Parking spaces are limited and are available on a first-come, first-served basis. When our property is full, you will be allowed to drop off your passengers at the door and then park in the Little League parking lot at the corner of Church Lane and Marple Road. Cars illegally parked in the neighborhood will be ticketed. All others may park in the large lot in the back. There will be no parking on the grass or on any blacktop that is not striped. When parking on the street, please be sure not to block our neighbors' driveways. The Marple Township Police will patrol, assist and help direct traffic.

Parking for People with Physical Disabilities

The smaller parking lot at the front of the Temple, spaces along the side and in front of the Annex will be reserved for physical disability and emergency parking. Spaces are limited. To request Disabled Parking, you must be a driver with physical disabilities and have a Person with Disabilities License Plate or a Disability placard to display in the car. Parking reservations will be honored up to 30 minutes before the start of services. After that time, the parking space will be released to other congregants. We appreciate your respect of our parking lot ushers and hope you arrive on time.

Wheelchair/Limited Mobility/Special Needs Seating

Requests for special seating will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. These special seats will be honored up to 30 minutes before the start of services. After that time, the seats will be released to other congregants. Please be respectful of our ushers and arrive on time.

We will not be able to accept dues payments at High Holy Day Services. Please make all arrangements with Abbey Krain, Executive Director, at 610-356-5165, ext. 103 or Betsy Blackburn-Goslin, Temple Bookkeeper, at 610-356-5165, ext. 111 prior to September 11.

All area College Students are welcome to join us for all services. Please call the Office to register their name(s). College or university ID are required.

Best wishes for a happy, healthy and sweet new year.

SISTERHOOD GET READY! THE 2015-2016 YEAR IS PACKED

Be sure to mark your calendar now for our Welcome Dinner on Thursday, October 22.

We are proud to have as our guest speaker Temple member Ebony Goldsmith straight from Homer, Alaska. Join us to hear about her journey to our community. Come meet this fun and dynamic young woman. In addition, we will enjoy a delicious Asian meal catered by Ebony's husband, chef Todd Goldsmith. Yes, there may even be a couple of your favorite entertainers.

Important Note

Sisterhood has formed a coalition with the women of Main Line Reform Temple to work together supporting HIAS, a refugee resettlement and integration service. We felt that the Welcome Dinner would be a perfect place to start collecting specific items that will be distributed to the refugees who will be arriving shortly. The following items will help in the effort to set up for their initial household needs: all-purpose cleaners and supplies, including: dish detergent, laundry detergent, paper towels, sponges, brooms and dust pans, and wastebasket/trash cans. But NO bleach please.

We are very excited to be sending a few of our Sisterhood members to the WRJ (Women of Reform Judaism) Assembly happening alongside the URJ (Union of Reform Judaism) North American Biennial 2015 from Wednesday, November 4 to Sunday, November 8, in Orlando, Florida.

In addition, we would like to give you a preview of the upcoming year Sisterhood has in store.

Back by popular demand, our Crafty Social Action Project/Memory Boxes decorations will be held on Sunday afternoon, November 1 in our Temple's Multipurpose room.

Do you like to play board games, card games, Mah Jong? Bring your group or join an existing group on Thursday evening, November 12 at Temple Sholom.

On Sunday, November 22 we will be participating in a Refugee Thanksgiving sponsored by HIAS. Look for additional information in the coming months.

Calling all baking mavens! Make great hamentaschen? Let us be the judge of that at the Hamentaschen Bake-Off immediately following the Purim Carnival on March 24th, sponsored by Sisterhood and Brotherhood.

There is more! Sisterhood Hanukkah Dinner on December 11th. Holiday Gift Wrapping at the King of Prussia Mall on December 19th. Our education program with Lawrence Husick on March 10th, speaking about the race for the White House. There is a trip to the backstage at the Walnut Street Theater on April 18th and our Closing Event on May 26th.

Sisterhood will be supporting the DMAX Foundation this year as our Social Action Project. DMAX is planning an event for the Spring. We are looking for people interested in being involved in the formation of DMAX Clubs, volunteering, or donating.

Please contact Laurie Burstein-Maxwell, Executive Director and Co-Founder of DMAX Foundation at 610-420-7699 or laurie@dmxfoundation.org. For additional information visit the website at www.dmxfoundation.org.

We're happy to continue offering Happiness and Memorial Cards and Jewish National Fund trees throughout the summer. Our prices through Temple Sholom's Sisterhood are lower than anywhere else around. Please contact Shirley Birenbaum, who will take care of your commemorations of life's events. Either call her at 610-328-2171 or email her with your order at surabassa@aol.com.

The Gift Garden has opened up for the season! Come see all the wonderful items we have for purchase. Contact sisterhood@temple-sholom.org for more information.

To open our Sisterhood Book Club year, we will be discussing The Fortune Teller's Kiss by Brenda Serotte on Thursday, October 8 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Laurie Browngoehl. Please RSVP to Laurie at LaurieB403@gmail.com if you'll be attending. Sisterhood has generously purchased two sets of every Sisterhood Book Club selection for the upcoming year. Be sure to check the special bookshelf for copies.

Please let us know what interests you! As you can see, we have a full schedule for the coming year and all it takes to participate is an email to sisterhood@temple-sholom.org.

Sisterhood Co-Presidents

Remember, our Sisterhood is Your Sisterhood. Without you, we are one woman short!

THE HILLTOPPERS

The Hilltoppers, starting our 21st year, is Temple Sholom's auxiliary group for those 55 and older. We hope that you will join us at our monthly programs and our book discussion group. You do not have to have read the book to attend; come to find out what the book is about. Books on the book list are available to borrow from the Temple library - just sign them out. Everyone is welcome to attend board meetings as well. Your input and insight are encouraged and wanted.

Our schedule is posted on our webpage: temple-sholom.org/community/hilltoppers. It is summarized below.

~ Cindy Meyer, Hilltoppers President

Donations: Please direct your donations to the Hilltoppers Fund by making checks payable to "Hilltoppers of Temple Sholom" and mailing them to the Temple. Your donations will be listed in The Temple Tidings.

CONVERSATIONS WITH MEN

The third year of Conversations with Men was our best yet. We had great meetings every month with lots of interesting conversations on many different aspects of Judaism. From the Garden of Eden to the Zohar, from the Ten Commandments to the Psalms, from the Prophets to Maimonides, and from the mysteries of Prayer to Hospice care, we covered a lot of very interesting ground. Many thanks to all the regulars - and the irregulars - for participating and for contributing their unique perspectives. We even discovered a few scholars hidden in plain sight.

As we look ahead to next year, we are planning many more interesting topics!

Looking forward to hearing from you.

CAMP MENSCHY: WHAT AN AWESOME SUMMER!

This summer, the kids at Camp Mentschy had a blast! Highlights included going to the wading pools and sprinklers each day, arts and crafts, and visits from Nature Jack, a camp favorite! Nature Jack taught about spheres and each child made their very own bouncy ball and learned about animals with spines. The campers also interacted with a frog, a toad, a bird, and a turtle. Together we learned about nature, helping our environment and the importance of being a Mensch. Every Friday, Miss Liz led a Shabbat service, with the campers holding the candles, kiddush cup and a challah. Some of the camper's favorite art projects included beach in a bottle and an octopus made out of socks. Everyone had a blast, and the six weeks flew by!

A NEW YEAR FOR THE MITZVAH MEALS PROGRAM

Temple Sholom members have long been involved in helping to feed hungry people at the Life Center of Eastern Delaware County, a shelter at 63rd and Market Street. Six times a year - on the second Tuesday of every even-numbered month - it's our turn to prepare and serve a hot meal to 100-200 hungry people who come from all over the area. Meals are served there every night of the year, with the help of many faith congregations and universities in the area. Unfortunately, a number of area shelters have recently closed, so the need for "soup kitchens" such as this one is ever-increasing.

To join in our effort, there are many options. If you'd like to perform the very gratifying mitzvah of serving the meal, you do need to be available on the Tuesday night in question (the October 2015 meal is on Tuesday, October 13). But there are so many other ways to participate. You can purchase paper goods, beverages, bread, or food items; prepare a salad or dessert; or cook a simple casserole (recipe provided). Everything is usually prepared in advance, in your own kitchen, and brought to the Temple for those who are serving the meal to bring to the shelter. Usually each person prepares enough for 25 to 50 people, and there is also the option of donating money for supplies, or using the money others have donated to purchase supplies.

The easiest way to sign up is on the Signup Genius website at the following link: <http://www.signupgenius.com/go/10c044da5ac22aaf85-life1> Or, you may contact the October meal coordinator, Howard Cylinder, at 610-355-7554.

This project works best when many different people are involved with each meal, so we really hope to see some more new faces this year. Thank you in advance for your efforts!

Seeds of Rimon

Seeds remind us of beginnings! A seed drops and slowly plants its roots firmly in the ground. As it matures, its sprouts begin to grow. One seed may become a maple tree, one may become a flowering bush, and one may become a fruit-bearing tree. There are so many types of seeds that mature into amazing and wonderful creations. So, too, is it with our children at Rimon. As parents lovingly nurture a child and place that child into the caring and supportive hands of our Rimon program, the wonder and awe of Jewish learning takes root. Throughout the years this child grows into a young adult, confident and secure in his/her unique Jewish self.

During the 2015-2016/5776 Rimon year of learning we will nurture each child and provide an environment where the unique interests, abilities and ideas of each child may flourish. As always, my door is always open not only for children, but parents and all adults as well!

Introducing Rimon Noar!

Rimon Noar is the new teen engagement program at Temple Sholom for 6th -12th graders. Noar is the Hebrew word for “teenager” and reflects our new program that puts teens at the center. Formerly known as Academy, Rimon Noar is not only a new name but a name that embodies a new focus for engagement of ALL of our teens. Understanding that teens have very hectic lives we have created alternative opportunities for teens to engage in Jewish learning, leadership and community-building.

Here are some highlights!

- Intentional elective trimesters focusing on the BIG IDEAS of Finding Me! Finding Us! Finding Israel! Finding Expression!
- Each BIG IDEA offers choices for every interest and taste
- Monday evening structure remains in place
- Alternative opportunities for Confirmation track allows for teens to replace a Monday night trimester with a variety of alternatives, including a new program, Team Tzedek, Teen Leadership Seminar, Independent Study opportunities and/or NFTY Youth Group opportunities.
- Noar is open to ALL teens whether in Confirmation track or not!
- Community is a hallmark of Temple Sholom’s teen programs. As such a number of NOAR NIGHTS will be offered throughout the year so that all teens can join together for meaningful friendship.

Don’t forget to check out our new Teen Engagement page on the Temple Sholom website!

L'Shana Tova Temple Sholom!

We hope the summer was great and that you are ready for the new year! As the High Holidays are among us, please remember to bring your canned goods to Temple Sholom for our annual Philabundance Food Drive that will take place on September 23rd, 2015! You are always such a big help to the community, let's keep it going!

Be on the lookout for NFTY-PAR news coming your way for Fall Kallah, which is the weekend of October 23rd-25th at Camp Harlam! It is always such a blast, and our teens love it. If you are interested please let us know and we will help you get there!

In your welcome back packet from Temple Sholom, you should have received a ToaSTY form. If you are interested in finding out who we are and what we do, come join us for an event, or contact us at toasty@temple-sholom.org. We always love hearing from you and getting our teens involved and engaged!

B'Shalom,
Joanna Gould, ToaSTY Youth Group Director

TEMPLE SHOLOM GOES TO THE CINEMA!!

The first Temple Sholom Goes To The Movies event was such fun. Twelve of us met at the Bryn Mawr Film Institute to see Harold and Maude on July 29 and then went to Starbucks for drinks and conversation. Everyone met new people, and we all had a great time. The Relational Judaism Task Force will organize this event throughout the year and everyone is invited! Stay tuned for our next movie night out this fall. WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY

Hello from Women's Spirituality! We hope everyone had a relaxing and enjoyable summer. Women's Spirituality is planning an exciting calendar for 2015-2016. Who are we? What do we do? We are a group of women who are Temple

Sholom members. We meet once a month, usually in the Temple library on Wednesday evenings between 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. Sometimes the location, day and time can change. The programs focus on women's topics. Some of the topics might include women's concerns, culture and holiday observances. They can be interactive, thought provoking and fun.

The Women's Spirituality Calendar is full of exciting, interactive and thought provoking programs. The programs are open to all women who are Temple Sholom members.

This year promises to be another year of exciting and new learning experiences with our much dedicated friends and teachers. We hope you will plan to be a part of our group. You can choose as many sessions that interest you and come as often as you wish.

Our first meeting will be on Wednesday, September 30th when our Education Director, Lori Green will bring us The Poetry of Prayer. Prayer is our way of having a conversation with God. The poetry can lift us and connect us to not only God but to each other. Every prayer has a story, a texture and a cadence that is unique. Join together as we explore The Poetry of Prayer, and each of us can add our own voices to the conversation.

On October 28th, Rabbi Stacy Rigler will present a wonderful and interesting program for us to explore together.

Questions? Please contact the Temple Office at 610-356-5165 or Linda Tarash at 610-446-2101 or linda.tarash@gmail.com.

November 18th Andi Stern will be facilitating a special program with Sara Shapiro, Serene Friedman, Elaine Samans and Rae (Elaine Smith's mother). They will share their stories and wisdom with us.

Come and enjoy the programs, the friendships and the sharing that takes place once a month with Women's Spirituality.

Women's Spirituality would like to take this opportunity to thank Sisterhood for their generous and continuous support of our program. We also would like to thank all of the donors to the Women's Spirituality designated Temple Fund that enables us to provide the programming we offer.

We look forward to exploring The Poetry of Prayer with Lori Green on September 30th at 7:30 p.m. in the Temple library.

SEPTEMBER AND OCTOBER B'NAI MITZVAH

Gabrielle Craig, daughter of Heidi & Jim Boudreau and Steve Craig, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, September 12. Joining her on this special day will be her brothers: Jake Craig, Nick and Jack Boudreau, Grandpa Jerry Usatch, Grandma and Grandpa Marilyn & Jack Craig, Grandma

Mary Boudreau, Great Aunt Lora Baum, aunts & uncles: Ben & Robin Usatch, Brian & Andi Bookbinder, Mark & Chris Sheraden, John & Cindy Craig, Neil & Liz O'Keefe, David & Tina Boudreau. Jim & Caroline Sweeney and other significant relatives: "Uncle & Aunt" Rick & Amy Pierce. Family and friends are coming in from Massachusetts, Minnesota, New York, and Connecticut.

A Radnor Middle School 7th grader, Gabi loves animals and hopes to one day be a veterinarian and/or run an animal shelter. She spent a week this summer at Sea World camp learning about marine biology and helping to take care of the animals. She swam with dolphins and even went into a shark tank! Her other passion is baking homemade cupcakes. She enjoys playing golf and has played for the White Manor Junior team.

Gabi has two mitzvah projects and will be working on a third going forward. Following her love of animals, she volunteered at the Martha's Vineyard animal shelter this summer taking care of the animals. Her responsibilities included: cleaning up the different areas, taking dogs for walks, and giving lots of love and affection to animals in need. Going forward, she will be working with the family Newfoundland, Bella, to get her trained as a therapy dog. Once she is certified, she will be taking her to work with elderly and special needs individuals.

Immediately following her Bat Mitzvah service, Gabi and eight girls are donating 8 to 12 inches of hair to Pantene Beautiful Lengths to make wigs for women and girls with cancer. This will be Gabi's third time donating her hair, but this time, she will be surrounded by the close friends joining her. They are: Cousin Alyssa Sheraden, and friends Avery McMullin, Libby Ward, Carolyn Izenberg, Morgan Colleluori, Hayden Barsamian, Rebecca Yarnell, and Lilah Demmy. These girls have been growing their hair for over a year and Gabi is very thankful to share this with them.

Gabi also wants to say a very special thank you to "Aunt" Phyllis Black who made her beautiful tallit.

Jack Lacianca, son of Mark and Lisa Lacianca, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, September 26th. Celebrating with him will be his siblings, Kara and Evan, grandparents Lynne Cohen; Howard Cohen and Gail Sklar; Theresa and Ercole Lacianca, along with many friends and family.

A Haverford Middle School 7th grader, Jack enjoys playing baseball, basketball, and soccer; plays trumpet in the school band and the Jazz Fords; is an honor student; and won "Spirit of Coopertown Award" at his graduation from Coopertown Elementary school.

Describing his Mitzvah Project, he says: for my Mitzvah Project I helped a senior citizen with Multiple Sclerosis. I helped her with some projects in her house, made her dinner, and spent time visiting with her.

Marielle G. Buxbaum, daughter of Laurence U. Buxbaum and Christine Du Bois-Buxbaum, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, October 3. Sharing in her special day will be her sister, Rebecca coming from Providence, Rhode Island, grandparents, George and Daniele Du Bois from Maryland, grandmother, Marcella Buxbaum from Philadelphia, cousin, Adam Buxbaum from California, great aunt and uncle Elena and Stuart Nightingale from Maryland, cousin, Emilie Sureau from Germany, and great aunt, Odile Sureau from France.

An 8th grader at the French International School of Philadelphia, Marielle is a competitive free-style figure skater (Juvenile level); has won Best in Show at the Delaware Valley Science Fair, Middle School Division 2015; and was a participant in the Pennsylvania State Geography Bee 2015 as well as at the National History Bee 2015.

Describing her Mitzvah Project, she says: For my Mitzvah Project I volunteered at a local ice rink with the figure skating program run by the Special Olympics organization. Special Olympics is a program that provides children and young adults who have learning disabilities with a place to participate in athletics. When I volunteered, I coached a young man named Max, teaching him how to figure skate. I was so happy for him when he performed in the competition held at the rink for the Special Olympics skaters at the end of the season. I was proud to see how much he improved his skills, and that he overcame some of his fears related to the sport. I loved encouraging him to try new moves and have confidence in his skating. I enjoyed making up choreography for his routine, too. Because of this bond, I plan to coach him in the program for years to come.

Garrett Nathaniel Spillerman, son of Dorothy Potash and Jason Spillerman, will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 10. Joining him on this special day will be his brother Max, Nana and Poppy (Jane and Chuck Potash), Grandmom and Grandpop (Sidney and Cheryl Spillerman), Uncles Andy Potash, David Spillerman and Chad Spillerman, and Aunts, Barbara Potash and Ruth Spillerman and Illysa Spillerman, nieces and nephews, Jesse, Emme, Ari and Talia Spillerman.

A 7th grader at Radnor Middle School, Garrett is a competitive and ranked tennis player in the USTA, as well as an avid photographer and skier.

Describing his Mitzvah Project, Garrett writes: For my Bar Mitzvah Project I decided to partner with the St. Christopher's Oncology Department and Sara's Smiles Foundation to assist in their efforts to create positive experiences for those children and families fighting cancer. I incorporated my Torah project, which was a photo essay that exemplified my interest in nature. I also tried to show how much of a beautiful world God had made for us. I had been moved by children who were stuck in the hospital while they received treatment, and thought that it must be very hard to be separated from friends and at times family, and cooped up indoors, and thought that perhaps pictures of nature in their rooms would cheer them up. I met with the founder of Sara's Smiles Foundation, Jennifer Burke and she thought that this was a good idea and put me in touch with Robin Capecci, the Social Worker for Oncology at St Christopher's Hospital for Children. I gathered all of my pictures of nature, blew them up on massive pieces of fabric with a sticky back so that the posters could be moved and rehung multiple times, and met with Robin from St Chris's. She loved the idea and the posters. I then created a book for each child upon admission to look at and choose which poster they wanted for their room. To be able to pay for continued production of posters, I had a photography show called, "Looking Beyond The Walls" and sold my photos to fund the project so that it can continue. I like the idea of Kids helping other kids, and invited Jennifer Burke to host an Inspiration Station at my camp, and at the art show, where everyone including even the youngest kids, decorated "clouds" with inspiring words and pictures to be delivered with Sara's Smiles Kits to the kids in more than 23 hospitals in the country. I am also meeting with the kids at St Christopher's to discuss finding inspiration around you, as most of my photos were taken in my backyard, the beach we visit every year, etc. We will offer to produce any posters of their photos that they would like to offer to other children. Thus far we have donated more than 100 posters to the kids in the Oncology Department at St Christopher's and I hope in the future I will have more photography shows to raise more money leading to printing more pictures for the kids. In addition, I hope that more hospitals will become interested and that more and more children will want to donate their own photos so that this grows into something much bigger, and that many kids become inspired to look beyond the walls of a hospital, or beyond the walls of thinking that "I am just a kid, what can I do" and know that each of us can make a difference every day in someone else's life.

Hannah Rose Plotkin, daughter of Kevin and Mollie Plotkin, will become a Bat Mitzvah on Saturday, October 17. Sharing in her special day will be her siblings, Grant and Macie; grandparents Mary Weiner and Steve & Marcia Plotkin; her cousins from Israel Netta Bar-El, Yotvat & Itay Hering and their twin 1 year olds, Mayaan and Yuval.

A 7th grader at The Baldwin School, Hannah enjoys playing soccer, basketball, softball, lacrosse, loves overnight camp at Camp Tockwogh, hanging with her friends from Radnor Middle School, Agnes Irwin, St. Patrick's, Episcopal Academy and keeping up with her school activities!

In her own words, Hannah describes what she's doing for her Mitzvah Project: I was very lucky because my Torah portion is the story of Noah. After learning my Torah portion and reading a lot about Noah and his preparation for the great flood, I thought it would be good to concentrate on the environment. I contacted the Radnor Township Parks and Recreation Department and found out that me, my friends and our families could volunteer to help clean up the Radnor Trail. We could also volunteer to clean up other areas in our township. I scheduled two dates in September and October for all of us to get together and clean up some parks and streams in our area. I also am working with Riverbend which is an organization that teaches about nature and keeping our earth healthy.

Any other information you would like to share? I want to say thank you to my parents, my brother Grant and sister Macie for all their help in preparing for my Bat Mitzvah. I also want to thank Rabbi Rigler, Cantor Marx and, most importantly, Shelley White who was really really great in helping me learn to chant my Torah portion!

Zachary Andrew Rosenblum, son of Jeff and Lon Rosenblum, will become a Bar Mitzvah on Saturday, October 24. Sharing in his special day will be his siblings Sarah, Audrey and Danny; grandparents Ben & Gini Ronquillo and Bob & Joan Rosenblum, along with relatives and friends from Delaware, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Michigan, Florida and Washington.

A 7th grade student at Radnor Middle School, Zach likes to play soccer, basketball, baseball, tennis, scuba diving, snorkeling and playing the piano.

For his Mitzvah Project Zach will be helping children stay healthy thru Simon's Fund and will continue trying to make the days at CHOP a little easier for all the patients. One way he helped was thru a dvd drive. He collected over 90 dvds to distribute to each floor of CHOP and Seashore House.

Max Curello, son of Ugo & Linda Curello, will become a Bar Mitzvah on October 31. Joining in his special day will be his sister, Valerie; grandparents Stephen and Frannie Stein; and Uncle Bobby, Aunt Susan and cousins Drew and Dean. Because all of Max's father's side live in Italy, they will join in via the webcast.

A Radnor Middle School 7th grader, Max enjoys doing all kinds of things like playing tennis, baseball, the bass clarinet and guitar, fishing, archery, building rockets, videogames, going to the movies and reading.

Max describes his Mitzvah Project: In sixth grade we were asked to sew a pillow case that would be donated to a children's hospital. I enjoyed making the pillow case and realized that it would be a great mitzvah project. I have decided to sew 25 pillowcases for ConKerrcancer.org. Picking out the cheerful fabrics was fun and now I am busy with the cutting and sewing. Hopefully these pillow cases will brighten a child's stay in the hospital.

TEMPLE SHOLOM IN BROOMALL RAISE THE ROOF GALA

CAPITOL STEPS will appear at the Media Theater, Sunday, November 8 at 7:30 p.m. Their appearance will be the highlight of the Raise the Roof Gala, proceeds from which will benefit Temple Sholom in Broomall's Capital Fund.

The Capitol Steps, a Washington DC-based comedy troupe that began as a group of Senate Staffers, will present a show based on songs from their current album "Mock the Vote" at the Media Theater.

The Capitol Steps have been a Washington, DC institution for over thirty years, providing a unique blend of musical and political comedy to our Nation's Capital and more. Each show consists of tasteful lampooning guaranteed to leave both sides of the political spectrum laughing. The troupe started in 1981, when John McCain was only 63 years old! Since then, they have appeared on The Today Show, Nightline, CBS Evening News and for many years in specials for National Public Radio.

Their show is constantly changing, strenuously bi-partisan, and includes songs about everything in the news, such as "How Do You Solve a Problem Like Crimea," "Ain't No Pipeline, Now It's Gone," and "The iMpossible iWatch."

If you've ever wanted to see Barack Obama sing a show tune, Nancy Pelosi sing a rock song, and New Jersey Governor Chris Christie do a classical ballet, this might just be the show for you!

Temple Sholom depends on the Capital Fund for many things: books, furniture, building maintenance, and, of course, the roof. The Temple's roof is older and is in significant need of repair. Your support helps ensure we are able to preserve the warm, inclusive community that we have worked so hard to build.

We are happy to be able to offer sponsorship for this event to Temple Sholom members at a reduced rate of $250. Your support of this worthy cause comes with two tickets to the Raise the Roof Gala on November 8, a VIP meet-and-greet with the stars of the Capitol Steps, along with having your name included on the list of sponsors in the formal invitation.

Introduction to Judaism/Hebrew I Class

Introduction to Judaism

This class is for you if you are:

- Jewish and want to learn the basics
- A non-Jewish person interested in or considering conversion
- Not Jewish, part of a Jewish family & want to deepen your understanding of Judaism

This 12 week class will cover:

- The meaning and rituals of Shabbat and other holidays
- Life cycle events such as birth, bris, marriage, conversion and death
- Jewish ethics and prayer

The class will be taught by Rabbi Beth Janus.
Classes will be held on Tuesdays 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.
October 13 - December 15, 2015 and January 5 -19, 2016
at Temple Sholom

Introduction to Judaism Cost:
$180 for members of Temple Sholom / $250 for non-synagogue members
Students will be asked to purchase 3 books for the class

Hebrew I Class

Many people are interested in learning the meanings of the prayers but don't know how to begin. Knowledge of the Alef Bet is required. Take this class if you cannot read as fluently as you want and/or if you want to begin learning the meanings of the Hebrew prayers. We will learn how to spot Hebrew roots and will begin to learn how to translate the words of the prayer book.

Join Rabbi Beth Janus following the Introduction to Judaism Class. Hebrew I Class will be held:
Tuesdays 8:30 - 9:00 p.m. October 13 - December 15, 2015 and January 5 - 9, 2016
at Temple Sholom.

Hebrew I Cost:
$136 for members of Temple Sholom / $218 for non-synagogue members

To ensure that we have enough students, please register by September 29.

Volunteer Literacy Tutors Needed

Through the tireless efforts of volunteers, the Delaware County Literacy Council (DCLC) provides one-to-one tutoring to local adults with low literacy skills. Tutors and students meet twice weekly at mutually convenient times and locations. During September and November, DCLC is offering 12 hours of free tutor training in either Adult Basic Education (ABE) or English as a Second Language (ESL). Trainings are held at DCLC, 2217 Providence Avenue, Chester, PA 19013. Pre-registration is required.

To learn more, visit www.delcoliteracy.org or call Melina at 610-876-4811.

A Friendly Reminder:
Everyone Deserves a Little Shabbat Peace

Unless it is an emergency, please be aware that clergy and staff may not reply to your work related emails or "business" phone calls until after Shabbat ends.

Our goal is to help you pursue yours.
It's that simple.

The things that are important to you are what really matter. That's why we'll take the time to understand life priorities like your family, your work, your hopes and dreams. Then we can help you get ready for the future with a financial strategy that's just for you.

THE SHABBAT SUITE AT LANKENAU MEDICAL CENTER

PROVIDING COMFORT

When you or a loved one needs the care or services of a hospital, it's comforting to know that a premier medical center in your region offers a peaceful space for families to observe Shabbat and holidays.

At Lankenau Medical Center, our specialized medical and surgical teams are skilled in providing advanced care. We also understand the importance of helping patients and families through their physical, emotional, and spiritual journey.

Our comfortable and convenient Shabbat Suite features:

- Two private bedrooms, each with two beds and a private bathroom with shower*
- 24/7 private kitchen and stocked pantry
- Spacious lounge and private space for minyan

At Lankenau, providing compassionate care has been a tradition for more than 150 years.

To learn more about Shabbat services or to visit the Shabbat suite at Lankenau Medical Center, call 484.476.2020 or visit mainlinehealth.org/shabbat. We look forward to helping ensure a comfortable Shabbat environment.
