TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SALE

Saturday October, 17, 2015

1. All prospective bidders must register with a clerk to obtain a bidding number. A $200 bidder deposit is required at time of registration. At the conclusion of the auction, all bidder deposits will be automatically cancelled if no purchases are made during the auction. Bidding requirements are a driver's license or passport identification and, if a dealer, a copy of your Dealer license and resale tax certificate. Please maintain possession of your Bidder number at all times and do not permit anyone else to use your bidder Number. NOTE: Whomever is registered to the bidder number is the legally responsible party for all purchases made with a bidder number. You are not permitted to bid on your own auction item(s). Bills of Sale and Titles will be made out according to the information given to us when you Register.
2. All items become the sole responsibility of the buyer when the auctioneer announces, "SOLD". CCC and any and all of its agents or employees are not responsible for damage or theft to sold items once the successful bidder has been announced.
3. All sales are final. All items are sold AS IS, WHERE IS. Bidders are responsible to know what they are bidding on. There is no buyer's remorse or cooling down period and absolutely no returning of any item for any reason whatsoever. Winning a bid at auction constitutes a legal and binding contract in which you are legally bound to pay for any and all items for which you are the recorded buyer and any and all of their perspective employees are acting representatives of the individual owners of each lot item. Bidders understand and acknowledge that each vehicles and that the auction staff will also disclose any discrepancies that they see, however, this must not be interpreted as any form of warranty or guarantee as to the age, condition or authenticity. Bidders hereby indemnify, release, waive and hold harmless and any and all of their staff from and against any liability, claim, demand, responsibility or duty of any kind.
4. If there is a tie bid or the auctioneer feels that he missed a legitimate bid, the auctioneer may at his discretion, put the item back up between the two bidders.
5. Buyer's premium of $200 will be added to the hammer price of each lot. Minimum buyer's fee is $200 per lot. Buyer payments must be made with good funds which are defined as cash, bank wire transfers, certified cheques, bank drafts or credit card at 3%. (PLEASE CHECK WITH CCC OFFICE AS TO WHICH CARDS ARE ACCEPTED).
6. All purchases must be paid for in full and must be removed from the auction facility no later than noon on Friday October 23rd., 2015, unless other arrangements are made with the auction office. Any item left in the facility after that time will be moved to a storage facility and the owner will be charged for all fees incurred by CCC including, but not limited to, transportation and storage of said items.
7. Should a bidder default on a purchase(s) in any manner whatsoever (NSF, Stop payment order, non payment etc.) all bidder deposits left with CCC will be forfeited and bidder agrees to pay CCC the full sum equal to the purchase price, buyers fee and any additional cost involved in any legal action, transportation, storage and resale of items not paid for. The sum due and payable without relief.
8. If the vehicle is sold on a "BILL OF SALE ONLY", buyer accepts all responsibility and cost in obtaining a title and /or registration in their particular state or country. Buyers are responsible to pay any sales tax due when the motorcycle is registered in their home province.
9. Licensed motor vehicle dealers must supply copies of state dealer's license number and State Sales Tax Exempt Certificate.
10. Shipping is available through CCC for a fee based on delivery area. There will be a representative present at the auction for your convenience.
11. Due to factors beyond the control of CCC. It is possible that one or more lots described on the website or in any ads or catalogs may not be present for sale. Bidders are advised to check for updated information before the start of the auction.
