PREFACE

The TMCEC Bench Book is designed as a reference guide for Texas municipal judges serving in their capacity as trial court judges and magistrates. This 11th edition of the TMCEC Bench Book incorporates recent federal and state case law as well as important statutory changes from the 84th Regular Legislature. Notably, H.B. 2398 (84th Legislature) repealed the offense of Failure to Attend School and designated justice, municipal, and certain county courts as truancy courts, having original, exclusive jurisdiction over allegations of truant conduct, handled as civil cases under Title 3A of the Family Code. The newly created Title 3A of the Family Code contains the procedures truancy courts are to use—the Code of Criminal Procedure does not apply. In order to stress the distinction between a municipal court and a truancy court, there are no checklists for Truant Conduct in this edition of the Bench Book. Truancy court resources are available on the TMCEC website at tmcec.com/truancy. New freestanding truancy court procedures and forms will be found in the new Texas Truancy Court Manual, set for publication in 2016.

This book often references The Recorder and the TMCEC Forms Book. Both of these resources can be easily accessed at <http://www.tmcec.com/Resources>.

Our publications and educational offerings only happen as a result of the collegial and collaborative efforts of the TMCEC staff: Hope Lochridge (Executive Director), Ryan Kellus Turner (General Counsel & Director of Education), Robby Chapman (Director of Clerk Education and Program Attorney), Regan Metteauer (Program Attorney), Ned Minevitz (TxDOT Grant Administrator & Program Attorney), Elizabeth De La Garza (TxDOT Grant Administrator), Tessa Madison (Program Coordinator), Patty Thamez (Program Coordinator & Network Administrator), Demoine Jones (Multimedia Specialist & Educational Technologist), Pat Ek (Registration Coordinator), Crystal Ferguson (Research Assistant and Office Manager), Molly Knowles (Communications Assistant), Avani Bhansali (Administrative Assistant), Benjamin Gibbs (2015 Texas Municipal Court Fellow), Breann Hunter (2015 Texas Municipal Court Fellow), and especially Isabel Ramirez (InDesign Content Editor/Graphic Artist).

A special word of thanks is owed to the countless calls TMCEC receives monthly on the toll-free legal line. These inquiries often set off a chain reaction of discussions, debates, and revisions that ultimately lead to better publications. Likewise, we are indebted to the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals and the Texas Municipal Courts Association's Board of Directors and members for their support of TMCEC.

The TMCEC Bench Book has grown over the years, and many people have worked to make it a better publication. As it is a perpetual work in progress, we welcome your comments and suggestions. The original version was published in 1996. That version and all subsequent ones were made possible through the contributions of the volunteers listed below.

CHAPTER 1 MAGISTRATE DUTIES

General Provisions Applicable to Adults

There is no statutory definition of a “magistrate,” but Article 2.10, C.C.P., does tell us the duty of magistrates:

It is the duty of every magistrate to preserve the peace within his jurisdiction by the use of all lawful means; to issue all process intended to aid in preventing and suppressing crime; to cause the arrest of offenders by the use of lawful means in order that they may be brought to punishment.

The duty, as defined above, is broadly worded, but this chapter as well as Chapter 2 will outline in further detail many of the duties that municipal judges have as magistrates. As magistrates, municipal judges serve an important gate-keeping function in the adjudication of all criminal matters, playing an active role in the beginning stages of the life of a criminal action.

While every member of the judiciary in Texas is a magistrate, municipal judges and justices of the peace perform more magistrate duties than all other members of the judiciary combined. All magistrates have co-equal jurisdiction with all other magistrates within the county, and their jurisdiction is coextensive with the limits of the county. Gilbert v. State, 493 S.W.2d 783 (Tex. Crim. App. 1973), and Ex parte Clear, 573 S.W.2d 224 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

As magistrates, municipal judges are authorized to warn adult offenders of their respective rights as required by law, and this is one of the most common and important functions of a magistrate. The duties of arresting peace officers and of magistrates are detailed in Article 14.06, C.C.P., which provides that peace officers must take the accused before a magistrate when a warrantless arrest is made pursuant to one of the exceptions to the warrant requirement. Such exceptions are stated in Chapter 14. Similarly, Article 15.17, C.C.P., requires that individuals arrested pursuant to a warrant also be brought before a magistrate. Presentation before a magistrate must take place without unnecessary delay, but in no event more than 48 hours after the person is arrested. Article 15.17, C.C.P.

Texas law contains no specific term for the presentation of the accused before a magistrate. The lack of a statutory term has resulted in the use of various terms (e.g., “magistration,” “15.17 hearing”) and contributes to potential confusion. In the past, the U.S. Supreme Court has referred to the accused’s presentation before the magistrate as an “initial appearance,” although the term “magistration” appears to be gaining ground. In 2008, the U.S. Supreme Court in Rothgery v. Gillespie County, 554 U.S. 191 (2008), noted the lack of a formal term for what they acknowledged as “magistration.” While the Court of Criminal Appeals has shown no preference for any one term, it has taken issue with courts and attorneys erroneously referring to it as an “arraignment.” Watson v. State, 762 S.W.2d 591 (Tex. Crim. App. 1988). An arraignment involves fixing the identity of the offender and taking a plea. See Checklist 6-2.

Generally, a magistrate is involved in the preliminary stages of a criminal proceeding. Such proceedings involve adults accused of criminal offenses. Because the juvenile justice laws in Texas are civil proceedings, the preliminary stages of a child being taken into custody are governed by Title 3, F.C., not Article 15.17, C.C.P. In this sense, children who are taken into custody are not “magistrated” in the same manner as adults. Magistrates are, however, frequently involved in the procedures governing the taking of a confession by a child. See Checklists 13-28 and 13-29.

For more information on the role of magistrates, see TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book, Chapter 1.

- 7. Determine whether arrestee is currently on bail for a separate offense.
- 8. Advise the arrestee in clear language of the offense with which he or she is charged.
  - a. Name the offense.
  - b. Inform arrestee of any affidavit filed in the case.
- 9. Warn the arrestee of the following rights:
  - a. The right to remain silent;
  - b. That the arrestee is not required to make a statement and that any statement made can and will be used against the arrestee;
  - c. The right to have an attorney present during any interview with peace officers or prosecutors;
  - d. The right to terminate the interview at any time; and
  - e. The right to an examining trial if the offense charged is a felony.
- 10. The Vienna Convention on Consular Notifications requires that a foreign national be offered the opportunity to have his or her country's consulate notified that he or she is facing criminal action. The magistrate should do the following:
  - a. Determine citizenship on the record;

Art. 15.17(a), C.C.P.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Magistrate's Warning.

“You are charged with the offense of _____. It is a _____ Degree/Class Misdemeanor/ Felony.”

Although it is not constitutionally required for misdemeanors, it is a good practice to admonish all defendants of possible immigration consequences. State v. Jimenez, 987 S.W.2d 886 (Tex. Crim. App. 1999).

Download the U.S. Dept. of State's Consular Notification and Access from http://travel.state.gov/content/dam/travel/CNAtrainingresources/CNAManual\_Feb2014.pdf.

- b. If the foreign national is a citizen of a mandatory country:
  - (1) Notify the consular office “without delay” regardless of defendant’s wishes; and
  - (2) Notify the defendant that you are making the notification.
- c. If the foreign national is a citizen of a permissive country:
  - (1) Offer to notify the foreign national’s consular office (in both English and the foreign national’s language);
  - (2) Have the foreign national accept or decline the notification in writing; and
  - (3) If defendant accepted the offer, notify the consular office “without delay.”
- d. Document your notification, the detainee’s response, and any other relevant paperwork.
- 11. Warn arrestee of right to counsel and appointment of counsel.
  - a. Warn of the right to retain counsel.

If foreign national requests consular notification, the magistrate should notify the consulate; it will not satisfy your duty to just let the defendant call consulate.

See Checklist 1-9.

- b. Warn of the right to request appointment of counsel if the person cannot afford counsel.

- c. Describe the local procedures, created by the district and county judges, for requesting appointment of counsel.
- d. Ensure reasonable assistance in completing the necessary forms.
- e. Appoint counsel, only if the magistrate is designated by the local district and county judges as the appropriate authority under Article 26.04, C.C.P., to appoint counsel.
- f. Forward the completed paperwork to the appropriate designee if not designated by the local district and county judges to appoint counsel:
  - (1) Without unnecessary delay; and
  - (2) Not later than 24 hours after request for appointment.

- 12. A record must be made in each case in which a person is arrested and taken before a magistrate for an Article 15.17 hearing. It may be written, recorded, or in other form adopted by the county, and it should include:
  - a. The magistrate informing the person of his or her right to request appointment of counsel;
  - b. The magistrate asking the person whether he or she wants to request appointment of counsel; and
  - c. Whether the person requested appointment of counsel.

Only indigent defendants charged with a crime that may result in punishment by confinement are entitled to have an attorney appointed. However, if a court concludes that the interests of justice require representation by counsel, the court may appoint counsel. Art. 1.051, C.C.P. See Checklist 8-3 for indigence hearings.

Art. 15.17(e), C.C.P. See TMCEC Forms Book: Magistrate Warning.

- 13. Inquire if the arrestee understands his or her rights.
  - a. A magistrate has a duty to clarify the rights if the arrestee indicates a lack of understanding.
  - b. A magistrate must ensure that reasonable assistance is given to the arrestee in completing the necessary forms for requesting appointment of counsel at the time of the Article 15.17 hearing.

14. Bail

- a. Bail is the security given by the accused that he or she will appear and answer the accusation before the proper court.
- b. A defendant may be released on bond by posting a cash deposit or surety bond, or by agreeing to a personal recognizance bond, if permitted by the magistrate.

See Checklist 1-9 and Art. 26.04, C.C.P., if you are the designated authority to appoint counsel.

If a municipal judge appoints an attorney, the city may be responsible for paying the attorney, unless an interlocal agreement is entered to the contrary.

A magistrate cannot require a defendant to post bail in cash only. Ex parte Deaton, 582 S.W.2d 151 (Tex. Crim. App. 1979); Ex parte Rodriguez, 583 S.W.2d 792 (Tex. Crim. App. 1979); Tex. Atty. Gen. Op. JM-363 (1985). The exception to this rule is when a bond forfeiture has been declared and the defendant is arrested on a capias. The court may then require a cash bond. Art. 23.05, C.C.P. For more on bail bonds, see Article 17.02, C.C.P.

15. Setting Bail

- a. Bail should be set at a reasonable amount. The court may consider any factor relevant to the fixing of bail.
- b. The court may consider any other issues deemed appropriate including any or all of the following:
  - (1) The amount must be high enough to ensure the presence of the arrestee when required, but not so high as to be oppressive;
  - (2) The nature and circumstances of the offense;
  - (3) The range of punishment for the offense charged;
  - (4) The arrestee’s ability to make bail in the amount under consideration;
  - (5) The income of a spouse;
  - (6) Do not consider the income of friends or other family members;
  - (7) The arrestee’s community ties;
  - (8) Work record;
  - (9) Family ties;
  - (10) Prior criminal record and appearances in other matters; and
  - (11) Bail, if any, set in the defendant’s other cases.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Magistrate’s Determination of Bail and Commitment Form.

Art. 17.15, C.C.P.

“Do you work? For whom? How much do you earn? Are you married? How much does your spouse earn?”

Do you live in _____ County? How will you get to court if you are released? Does anyone else live with you?

Have you ever been arrested before? When and for what? What was the outcome of the case?”

- c. If a pretrial services agency operates in the judicial district or county, order the arrestee to be interviewed and the information brought to you immediately.
- d. The court must also consider the safety of the victim, the victim’s family, and the community in fixing the amount of bail.
- e. The magistrate may impose any reasonable condition related to safety of the victim or safety of the community.
- f. Bail may only be denied or temporarily denied in certain instances.
- g. If bail is denied or temporarily denied, make a written finding explaining the legal basis.
- h. Set the amount of bail.
- i. Set conditions of bail.

- j. Record each condition in writing; or
- k. Recite each condition into the record; and
- l. Require the arrestee to acknowledge that he or she understands each condition.
- m. If the charge is a subsequent “Driving, Flying, or Boating While Intoxicated,” “Intoxication Assault,” or “Intoxication Manslaughter,” the magistrate shall require on release that a defendant:
  - (1) Have installed on the motor vehicle owned or most regularly operated by defendant a vehicle ignition interlock device;

Arts. 17.15(5) and 56.02(a)(2), C.C.P.

Art. 17.40, C.C.P.

See Checklist 1-2.

“I now set bail at $_____.”

See Checklist 1-6. “Further, I am setting the following conditions and I order you to abide by each and every one of them.” Where the alleged victim is a child 12 years of age or younger, see Article 17.41, C.C.P. and TMCEC Forms Book: Bail Condition Where Child is Alleged Victim.

“Do you understand each of these conditions?”

Art. 17.441, C.C.P. See TMCEC Forms Book: Bail with Ignition Interlock Condition.

- (2) Not operate any motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with that device;
- (3) Have device installed on appropriate motor vehicle within 30 days of release on bond; and
- (4) Pay the expense of installation.
- n. You may designate an appropriate agency to verify the installation of the device and to monitor the device.
- o. Do not require the installation of the device if to do so would not be in the best interest of justice.
- 16. Consider the arrestee for release on personal bond. See Checklist 1-5.
- 17. Set conditions of personal bond, if arrestee qualifies. See Checklist 1-6.
  - a. Insure that the arrestee acknowledges and understands each condition.
- 18. If the offense is punishable by fine only, you may, after identifying the defendant: Art. 15.17(b), C.C.P.
  - a. Release the defendant on personal bond;
  - b. Order the defendant in writing to appear in the appropriate court for arraignment at a specific:
    - (1) Date;
    - (2) Time; and
    - (3) Place;
  - c. Provide the arrestee with a copy of the order.
  - d. Other restrictions

- (1) Magistrate does not have discretion to restrict the type of bail, cash, or surety, to the exclusion of the other. A magistrate may require a cash bond only when a forfeiture of bail has been declared. A magistrate may designate that personal recognizance bond be denied by stating “cash or surety” on the bail setting.
  - (2) A magistrate may not set differential bail based on the type of bond (e.g., $200 cash or $500 surety).
  - (3) A magistrate cannot set bail that would be an instrument of oppression (i.e., too high in light of financial resources).
19. Other consideration:
- a. Enter magistrate’s “Order for Emergency Protection.”
20. Special procedures for fine-only offenses:
- a. Magistrate may set surety/cash appearance bond.
  - b. Magistrate may set personal bond.
  - c. Magistrate may release without setting bond:
    - (1) Only in fine-only misdemeanors;
    - (2) Magistrate must give defendant the time and place to appear to answer to the charges against him or her in writing;
    - (3) Release without bond is not available if defendant has a prior felony or Class A or B misdemeanor conviction.

Ex parte Deaton, 582 S.W.2d 151 (Tex. Crim. App. 1979); Ex parte Rodriguez, 583 S.W.2d 792 (Tex. Crim. App. 1979); Art. 23.05, C.C.P.

Bail that is more than what the court would accept as a fine in a fine-only misdemeanor case is probably too high when there is no history of failing to appear.

See Checklist 1-8.

Art. 15.17(b), C.C.P.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Release: With Order to Appear.

- 21. A magistrate may take a plea of guilty if person was arrested under warrant for a fine-only offense issued in a county other than the one in which the person is arrested.
  - a. Magistrate has discretion to take a plea in lieu of setting bail.
  - b. Defendant must make written plea of guilty or nolo contendere and waiver of jury trial.
  - c. Magistrate shall:
    - (1) Set fine;
    - (2) Determine costs;
    - (3) Accept payment;
    - (4) Give credit for time served:
      - (a) Determine a period of time between eight and 24 hours;
      - (b) Credit of at least $50 for each period of time.
    - (5) Determine indigence.
    - (6) On satisfaction of judgment, discharge the defendant.
  - d. Magistrate must, before the 11th business day following the plea, transmit to the court with jurisdiction the following:
    - (1) Written plea;
    - (2) Any orders entered in the case; and
    - (3) Any fine or cost collected in the case.

Art. 15.18, C.C.P. See TMCEC Forms Book: Out-of-County Magistrate's Bench Judgment.

Art. 45.048, C.C.P.

See Checklist 8-3.

Art. 15.18(b), C.C.P.

☐ 22. If the arrested person fails or refuses to give bail as provided in Article 15.18, C.C.P., the magistrate shall commit the person to the jail of the county where the person was arrested. It is the magistrate's duty to immediately notify the sheriff of the county in which the offense was committed: (1) that the arrest and commitment occurred; and (2) whether the person was also arrested under a warrant issued under Section 508.251, G.C., in relation to the conditions of his or her parole or mandatory supervision.

Art. 15.19, C.C.P.

☐ a. The sheriff, upon receiving notice under Article 15.19, C.C.P., of a person's arrest pursuant to a warrant for violation of a condition of parole or mandatory supervision, should have the arrested person brought before the proper magistrate or court before the 11th day after the day the person was committed to jail.

Art. 15.20, C.C.P.

☐ b. The arrested person shall be discharged from custody if the proper office of the county where the offense is alleged to have been committed does not demand the arrested person and take charge of the person before the 11th day after the date the person is committed to the jail of the county in which the person is arrested.

Art. 15.21, C.C.P.

- 5. The court's order is reduced to writing.
- 6. In non-capital cases only, set aside the order after 60 days and set bail if the defendant has not been tried.
- 7. A district judge at a subsequent hearing to set or reinstate bail may deny bail to any person accused of a felony who is released on bail pending trial and whose bail is subsequently revoked or forfeited for a violation of a condition of release related to the safety of a victim of the alleged offense or to the safety of the community. Art. I, Sec. 11b, Tex. Const.
- 8. A magistrate or judge may deny bail to any person who is accused of a felony or an offense involving family violence if the person has previously been released on bail and whose bail is subsequently revoked or forfeited for a violation of a condition of release. In order to deny bail, a magistrate or judge must determine by a preponderance of the evidence at a subsequent hearing that the person violated a condition of release related to the safety of a victim of the alleged offense or to the safety of the community. Art. I, Sec. 11b, Tex. Const. (added Nov. 6, 2007)
- 9. A magistrate or judge may deny bail to any person who is arrested for (1) violating an order for emergency protection, (2) an offense involving family violence, (3) violating an active protective order rendered by a court in a family violence case (including a temporary ex parte order that has been served on the person), or (4) engaging in conduct that constitutes an offense involving the violation of any of the proceeding orders. Subsequent to being taken into custody, bail may be denied if, following a hearing, a judge or magistrate determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the person violated the order or engaged in the conduct constituting the offense. Art. I, Sec. 11c, Tex. Const. (added Nov. 6, 2007)

3a. Release Because a Magistrate Has Not Determined Whether Probable Cause Exists

| Checklist 1-3(a)  | Script/Notes   |

| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. All persons arrested must be brought before a magistrate without unnecessary delay, never later than 48 hours after arrest.  | Art. 15.17(a), C.C.P. See TMCEC Forms Book: Release: Magistrate’s Determination of No Probable Cause.  |

- (13) Continuous trafficking of persons; and
- b. The defendant is examined for competency as provided in Article 16.22, C.C.P.;
- c. The report submitted concludes the defendant is mentally ill and incompetent;
- d. The report recommends treatment; and
- e. Appropriate community based mental health services are available for the defendant under Section 534.053, H.S.C., or through another mental health services provider.
- 7. Consider ordering as a condition of bond that the defendant submit to outpatient or inpatient mental health treatment if the defendant's:
  - a. Mental illness is chronic in nature; or
  - b. Ability to function independently will continue to deteriorate if the defendant is not treated.
- 8. Consider imposing any other conditions reasonably necessary to protect the community.
- 9. If the county from which the warrant of arrest was issued has a personal bond office, a copy of the bond must be forwarded to the personal bond office in that county.

- (3) Pay the costs associated with providing the victim a receptor that can receive information from the GPS device won by the defendant and that notifies the victim if the defendant is at or near a prohibited location.

- b. Prostitution:
  - (1) Attend AIDS/HIV education;
  - (2) Attend AIDS/HIV counseling.

- c. Stalking:
  - (1) No direct or indirect communication with the alleged victim;
  - (2) Prohibited from going near a residence, place of employment, or business of the victim or to go near a school, day-care facility, or similar facility where a dependent child of the victim is in attendance.

- 3. Magistrates are required to impose specific conditions of release for the following specific offenses:

Before imposing this condition, a magistrate must provide the victim information regarding the GPS system, the victim's rights to participate or refuse to participate, procedures for assistance, etc. Art 17.49(d), C.C.P. If the magistrate determines that a defendant is indigent, the magistrate may require the defendant to pay costs based on a sliding scale established by local rule in an amount less than the full amount associated with operating the GPS system. Art. 17.49(h) and (i), C.C.P.

Art. 17.45, C.C.P.

Art. 17.46, C.C.P.

Note: The magistrate must specifically describe the prohibited locations and the minimum distances, if any, that the defendant must maintain from the locations.

- a. If the charge is a subsequent “Driving, Flying or Boating While Intoxicated,” “Intoxication Assault” or “Intoxication Manslaughter,” the magistrate shall require on release that a defendant:
  - (1) Have installed on the motor vehicle owned or most regularly operated by the defendant a vehicle ignition interlock device;
  - (2) Not operate any motor vehicle unless the vehicle is equipped with that device;
  - (3) Have the device installed on appropriate motor vehicle within 30 days of release on bond; and
  - (4) Pay the expense of installation.
- b. Sexual offenses, assaultive offenses, prohibited sexual conduct, or “Sexual Performance by a Child,” if committed against a child younger than 14:
  - (1) No direct communication with the alleged victim;
  - (2) Prohibited from going near a residence, school, or other location as specifically described in the bond, frequented by the alleged victim.

Art. 17.441, C.C.P. See TMCEC Forms Book: Bail with Ignition Interlock Condition. You may designate an appropriate agency to verify the installation of the device and to monitor the device. Magistrates may not require the installation of the device if to do so would not be in the best interest of justice.

Art. 17.41, C.C.P.

Note: To the extent that this condition conflicts with an existing court order granting possession or access to a child, this order prevails for a period specified by the magistrate, not to exceed 90 days.

Art. 17.47(b), C.C.P.

- c. If the charge is “Aggravated Kidnapping with Intent to Inflict Injury or Sexual Abuse,” “Indecency with a Child,” “Sexual Assault,” “Aggravated Sexual Assault,” “Prohibited Sexual Conduct,” “Burglary of a Habitation with/or without Intent to Commit a Felony (excluding felony theft),” “Compelling Prostitution,” “Sexual Performance by a Child,” or “Possession or Promotion of Child Pornography,” the defendant shall provide to a local law enforcement agency one or more specimens for the purpose of creating a DNA record under Subchapter G, Chapter 411, G.C.

Note: This requirement only applies to offenses listed in Section 3g, Article 42.12, C.C.P., or an offense described by Article 62.01(5), C.C.P., (defining “reportable conviction or adjudication.”) Offenses include: murder, capital murder, aggravated sexual assault, aggravated robbery, continuous sexual assault of a young child, and trafficking of persons.

CHAPTER 1 MAGISTRATE DUTIES

8. Magistrate’s Order for Emergency Protection (MOEP), Article 17.292, C.C.P.

After an arrest involving family violence, stalking, sexual assault, or aggravated sexual assault, a magistrate may enter a magistrate’s order of emergency protection for either: (1) a period of not less than 31 days or more than 61 days; or (2) a period of not less than 61 days or more than 91 days if the alleged offense involves the use or exhibition of a deadly weapon. The order may be entered upon the magistrate’s own motion or upon request by the victim, the guardian of the victim, a peace officer, or by the attorney representing the State. If an order is issued, the defendant must be served by the magistrate or the magistrate’s designee in person or electronically. The MOEP no longer has to be presented in open court, but the magistrate shall make a separate record of the service in written or electronic format. The order may prohibit the arrested person from:

1. Communicating further violence, threats, or trafficking of persons;
2. Communicating directly with the victim or a family member of the victim in a threatening manner;
3. Communicating a threat through any person to the victim or a family member;
4. Communicating in any manner with the victim or a family member except through an attorney or a person appointed by the court, if the magistrate finds good cause;
5. Going to or near the residence, place of employment, or business of a family or household member; and
6. Going to or near a child care facility or school where a child protected under the order resides or attends.

It should also prohibit the defendant from possessing a firearm.

The prohibited locations and distances must be particularly described. If the magistrate’s order for emergency protection conflicts with other existing orders, the magistrate’s order for emergency protection shall prevail for the duration of the period imposed, except under limited circumstances.

The magistrate must also suspend the defendant’s license to carry a handgun issued under Section 411.177, G.C.

Article 17.292 of the Code of Criminal Procedure requires courts to send protective orders to law enforcement and victims by the end of the next business day and permits transmission in electronic form. Law enforcement must enter the orders not later than the third day after receiving the orders. Delays sending or entering a copy of the order are permissible only if the magistrate, clerk, or law enforcement agency lacks information necessary to ensure service and enforcement.

- a. Victim;
  - b. Members of the victim’s family or household; and
  - c. Children.
6. Identify the:
- a. Residence;
  - b. Place of employment or business; and
  - c. School or child care facility where a child to be protected by the order is in attendance or is enrolled.
7. Determine the minimum distances the defendant must maintain from each location.
8. Determine whether the children, if any, should be protected by the order.
9. Determine if the location is within:
- a. A municipality; or
  - b. The unincorporated part of the county.
10. Determine whether a family lawsuit involving the parties is pending.
11. The MOEP controls over other court orders with conflicting conditions, including child custody orders, while the MOEP is pending, unless:
- a. The order is a protective order issued by a family court after a hearing; or
  - b. The order is an ex parte order of the family court that was aware of the MOEP and specifically dictates that the new order controls.

If an order for emergency protection prohibits a person from going to or near a child care facility or school, the magistrate shall send a copy of the order to the child care facility or school.

- a. The order must contain the following statements printed in bold-faced type or in capital letters:

A VIOLATION OF THIS ORDER BY COMMISSION OF AN ACT PROHIBITED BY THE ORDER MAY BE PUNISHABLE BY A FINE OF AS MUCH AS $4,000 OR BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR AS LONG AS ONE YEAR OR BY BOTH. AN ACT THAT RESULTS IN FAMILY VIOLENCE OR A STALKING OR TRAFFICKING OFFENSE MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE MISDEMEANOR OR FELONY OFFENSE, AS APPLICABLE. IF THE ACT IS PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE FELONY OFFENSE, IT IS PUNISHABLE BY CONFINEMENT IN PRISON FOR AT LEAST TWO YEARS. THE POSSESSION OF A FIREARM BY A PERSON, OTHER THAN A PEACE OFFICER, AS DEFINED BY SECTION 1.07, PENAL CODE, ACTIVELY ENGAGED IN EMPLOYMENT AS A SWORN, FULL-TIME PAID EMPLOYEE OF A STATE AGENCY OR POLITICAL SUBDIVISION, WHO IS SUBJECT TO THIS ORDER MAY BE PROSECUTED AS A SEPARATE OFFENSE PUNISHABLE BY CONFINEMENT OR IMPRISONMENT. NO PERSON, INCLUDING A PERSON WHO IS PROTECTED BY THIS ORDER, MAY GIVE PERMISSION TO ANYONE TO IGNORE OR VIOLATE ANY PROVISION OF THIS ORDER. DURING THE TIME IN WHICH THIS ORDER IS VALID, EVERY PROVISION OF THIS ORDER IS IN FULL FORCE AND EFFECT UNLESS A COURT CHANGES THE ORDER.

- 18. Ensure that a copy of the order is served on the defendant in person or electronically and that he or she signs the acknowledgment.
- 19. File the original order and acknowledgment with your court clerk.

Art. 17.292, C.C.P.
See Checklist 1-6.

- ❑ 20. As soon as possible but not later than the next business day, transmit copies of the order to the Chief of Police where the member of the family or household or individual protected by the order resides, and a copy to the victim.

- ❑ 21. If the victim is not present at the time the order is issued, order an appropriate peace officer to make a good faith effort to notify the victim within 24 hours by calling the victim’s residence and place of employment.

- ❑ 22. The MOEP lasts no less than 31 days or more than 61 days unless the alleged offense involves the exhibition of a deadly weapon. Then the period shall last no less than 61 days or more than 91 days.

- ❑ 23. A MOEP may be transferred to the court with jurisdiction of the underlying criminal case:
  - ❑ a. On motion, notice, and hearing (serve all parties, including the State); or
  - ❑ b. On agreement of all parties.

- ❑ 24. The magistrate or the court to which a MOEP was transferred under Step 24 may modify all or part of the MOEP if:
  - ❑ a. Notice is made to each affected party of a hearing; and
  - ❑ b. The magistrate finds that:
    - ❑ (1) The order as originally issued is unworkable;
    - ❑ (2) The modification will not place the victim at greater risk than the original order; and
    - ❑ (3) The modification will not in any way endanger a person protected under the order.

The copies of the order and any other information may be sent electronically or in another manner accessible by the recipient.

- 1. The sheriff has a duty to notify the judge that there may be reasonable cause to believe that a defendant committed to the sheriff's custody has a mental illness or is a person with mental retardation.

- 2. Determine if there is reasonable cause to believe (1) defendant has a mental illness, or (2) is a person with mental retardation, by considering:
  - a. The defendant's behavior; and
  - b. The result of a prior evaluation indicating a need for referral for further mental health or mental retardation assessment.

- 3. Is there reasonable cause?
  - a. If the judge determines that there is no reasonable cause, no further action is required.
  - b. If reasonable cause is determined, issue a written order that the defendant be examined.

- 4. The expert designated by the judge must return a written report within 30 days of the order.
  - a. The judge is required to give copies of the report to the prosecutor and the defense attorney.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Sheriff's Notification – Sheriff's Notification – Person in Custody with Possible Mental Illness/Mental Retardation. Sheriff shall notify a magistrate within 72 hours after receiving evidence or a statement that may establish reasonable cause. Art. 16.22(a), C.C.P.

While the statute does not indicate how a magistrate is notified, requiring written notification is strongly advised.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Magistrate's Order for Mental Illness/Mental Retardation Exam. The examination must be conducted by a disinterested expert determined appropriate by the local mental health or mental retardation authority and experienced and qualified in mental health or mental retardation. Art. 16.22(a), C.C.P.

Art. 16.22(b), C.C.P.

- ❑ 5. What if the defendant fails or refuses to submit to an examination?
  - ❑ a. The judge may order the defendant to custody for examination for a period not to exceed 21 days; but

  - ❑ b. The judge may not order a defendant to a facility operated by the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation without the consent of the head of that facility.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Order into Custody for Mental Illness/Mental Retardation Exam; Warrant for Mental Health/Mental Retardation Exam – Person Failing to Submit Voluntarily. It is advisable to work within your community to establish procedures for in-detention examinations. If the defendant has been released from custody, the judge will need to know to which facility to commit the individual.

CHAPTER 1 MAGISTRATE DUTIES

Property Hearings: Disposition of Stolen Property

12. Restoration when No Trial Pending

Chapter 47, C.C.P., governs the disposition of stolen property. Except in instances where a peace officer comes into property governed by the Texas Pawnshop Act (Chapter 371 of the Finance Code), an officer who comes into custody of property alleged to have been stolen must hold it if the property ownership is contested or disputed. Art. 47.01(a), C.C.P. If an officer comes into custody of property governed by the Texas Pawnshop Act, the property must be held regardless of whether the ownership of the property is contested or disputed. Art. 47.01(b), C.C.P. When an officer seizes property allegedly stolen, the officer is required to immediately file a schedule with the court having jurisdiction of the case describing the property seized and its estimated value, Art. 47.03, C.C.P. The schedule must certify both that the officer seized the property and the reason for the seizure. Furthermore, the officer is required to notify the court of the names and addresses of each party known to the officer who has a claim to possession of the seized property. The following checklists contemplate property hearings being conducted under one of two scenarios: (1) restoration when no trial is pending, or (2) restoration upon trial or trial pending.

| Checklist 1-12  | Script/Notes   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Jurisdiction and Venue: Jurisdiction under this section is based solely on jurisdiction as a criminal magistrate and not as a court with civil jurisdiction. Jurisdiction and venue to hear a seizure case lies with any: <input type="checkbox"/> a. District judge, county judge, or justice of the peace in the county where the property is held; or <input type="checkbox"/> b. Municipal judge in the municipality where the property is being held. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Change of Venue: A court may transfer venue to a court in another county on the motion of an interested party. | Art. 47.01a, C.C.P. This is one of the few instances remaining in contemporary Texas criminal procedure where the authority of the municipal judge as a magistrate is limited to the boundaries of the municipality. Art. 47.01a(d), C.C.P. |

- 3. Petition for Hearing Filed: If a criminal action involving the property in question is not pending, then any of the courts having jurisdiction may hold a hearing to determine the right to possession of the property, upon the petition of any interested party, including a county, a city, or the state.

- 4. Notice Provided.

- 5. Conduct the Hearing.

- 6. Post-Hearing Orders: After a hearing and appropriate findings, the court may enter the following orders:
  - a. Order the property delivered to whoever has the superior right to possession:
    - (1) Without conditions;

    - (2) Subject to the condition that the property be made available to the State if needed in future prosecutions.

Art. 47.01a(a), C.C.P. Note: A peace officer is an “interested party” since the evidence may establish that the State has a superior right to possession. A hearing may be held on the petition of a seizing officer. See TMCEC Forms Book: Notice of Stolen Property Hearing. The C.C.P. is silent as to the obligation of the Court to provide notice to interested parties. Nevertheless, due to the property interest at stake, due process interests, and a judge’s ethical adjudicative responsibilities (Canon 3B(8) Code of Judicial Conduct), interested parties should be given notice of the date and time of the hearing.

See Checklist 1-14.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Magistrate Duties: Order Awarding Possession of Stolen Property. Art. 47.01a(a)(1), C.C.P. Presumably, this is construed to mean that claimants are exempt from paying charges pursuant to Article 47.07, C.C.P.

Art. 47.01a(a)(2), C.C.P. This requires a written motion by an attorney representing the State. Furthermore, it contemplates that a trial is pending and that the motion is made before the trial is to begin.

| <input type="checkbox"/> c. If it is shown in a hearing that probable cause exists to believe that the property was acquired by theft or by another manner that makes its acquisition an offense and that the identity of the actual owner of the property cannot be determined, the magistrate shall order the peace officer to: <input type="checkbox"/> (1) Deliver the property to a government agency for official purposes; <input type="checkbox"/> (2) Deliver the property to a person authorized by Article 18.17, C.C.P., to receive and dispose of the property; or <input type="checkbox"/> (3) Destroy the property.   | Art. 47.01a(b), C.C.P. Art. 47.01a(b)(1), C.C.P. Art. 47.01a(b)(2), C.C.P. Art. 47.01a(b)(3), C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Appeals: Appeal from a hearing held in a municipal court or justice court under Article 47.01(a), C.C.P., shall be heard by a county court or a statutory county court. Such appeals are governed by the rules of procedure for appeals for civil cases from justice court to county court. <input type="checkbox"/> a. The requirement that the notice of appeal be given at the conclusion of the hearing does not require that the notice be given in open court. The hearing does not conclude until the court’s ruling is both announced and received. <input type="checkbox"/> b. Only an “interested person” who appears at a hearing may appeal and must post an appeal bond by the end of the next business day. <input type="checkbox"/> c. - (1) A bond of the claimant for redelivery of the property should it be thereafter shown not to belong to the claimant; or
- (2) That the sheriff retains the property until further orders are made regarding possession.
- d. Claimant to Pay Charges: The claimant of the property must pay all reasonable charges for safekeeping prior to delivery of the property. The officer claiming that such charges are owed must verify such charges. If the charges are not paid, the property shall be sold as under execution and the proceeds of the sale, less the charges and cost of the sale, paid to the owner of the property.
- 4. Appeals: No appeals from hearings under Article 47.02 are authorized.

Presumably, efforts to appeal would be dependent on the outcome of the appeal of the theft or property acquisition matter.

When the true owner of a stolen motor vehicle is unknown and there are no lien holders to be found: | Art 47.01a(a)(1), C.C.P. |

- ☐ a. The officer should proceed to file a seizure case; and
  - ☐ b. The court should notify the respondent (the person from whom the vehicle was seized, if any), of the right to appear at the hearing and assert a claim of possession.

- ☐ 6. Order of Proceedings: The hearing should be conducted in an orderly manner to ensure that parties are given an opportunity to be heard. This may be accomplished through a question and answer format facilitated by the judge.

- ☐ 7. Burden of Proof: In contrast to criminal cases in which the State’s case must be proven “beyond a reasonable doubt,” a respondent or petitioner must establish a claim to the property by a “preponderance of the evidence.”
  - ☐ a. If there are no other interested parties present who might rebut the respondent’s or petitioner’s evidence, the right to possession is established.

- ☐ 8. Rules of Evidence: In hearings conducted when no trial is pending, hearsay evidence is admissible.

- ☐ 9. Proceed to enter Post-Hearing Orders.

Though the C.C.P. is silent as to this issue, Canon 3B8, Code of Judicial Conduct, would nonetheless apply.

“Preponderance of the evidence” means the greater weight and degree of credible evidence. Upjohn Co. v. Freeman, 847 S.W.2d 589 (Tex. App.—Dallas 1992, no writ).

At the hearing, any interested person may present evidence that the property was not acquired by theft or another offense or that the person is entitled to possess the property.

Art. 47.01a(c), C.C.P. Article 47.02, C.C.P., does not address the admissibility of hearsay statements upon trial or when trial is pending.

CHAPTER 2 SEARCH WARRANTS, ARREST WARRANTS, AND OTHER WRITS

1. The Chapter 15 Arrest Warrant

Warrants, in contrast to other writs such as the capias and capias pro fine, are issued primarily by judges in their capacity as magistrates. There is one notable exception to this rule in Texas. Municipal judges and justices of the peace have authority to issue warrants of arrest for fine-only misdemeanors filed in their court pursuant to Article 45.014, C.C.P.

As a magistrate, a municipal judge has authority to issue warrants of arrest for offenses including those that are outside of the municipal court’s jurisdiction, such as Class A and B misdemeanors and felonies. A magistrate’s authority for issuing warrants of arrest is found in Chapter 15, C.C.P. Article 2.09, C.C.P., lists those persons who are magistrates in Texas; included in that list are municipal judges. A magistrate’s authority is county wide. Gilbert v. State, 493 S.W.2d 783 (Tex. Crim. App. 1973) and Ex parte Clear, 573 S.W.2d. 224 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978). A magistrate’s authority to issue warrants is discussed in Checklist 2-1.

    - (3) Gender;
    - (4) Height and weight;
    - (5) Identifying marks; and
    - (6) Ethnic origin.
  - c. Alleges the commission of some offense against the laws of the State; and
  - d. Is signed by a magistrate with his or her office named in the body of the warrant or in connection with the officer’s signature.
3. An arrest warrant must also be supported by an affidavit of probable cause stating:
- a. The name of the accused, if known, and if not known, a reasonably definite description;
  - b. The time and place of the commission of the offense, as definitely as can be stated by the affiant; and
  - c. Sufficient facts to support a finding of probable cause that the person named therein:
    - (1) Committed the offense charged;
    - (2) Within the period covered by the statute of limitations.

CHAPTER 2 SEARCH WARRANTS, ARREST WARRANTS, AND OTHER WRITS

2. The Capias

Like an arrest warrant, a capias results in the seizure of a person. A capias, however, cannot be issued by a magistrate. It can only be issued by a judge. Chronologically, an arrest warrant is normally issued before the commencement of criminal proceedings, while the capias is issued after the commencement of formal criminal proceedings. In the C.C.P., there are only three instances where a capias is utilized: (1) in instances occurring after commitment or bail and before trial (“capias” as defined in Chapter 23); (2) in instances occurring after judgment and sentence when the court seeks to have the defendant brought before the court (a “capias” as defined in Chapter 43); and (3) in instances occurring after a forfeiture of bail is declared by the court or a surety surrenders a defendant (Chapter 23). Thus, a “capias” in Chapter 23, by definition, is not the same as a “capias” in Chapter 43. Neither writ is synonymous with the capias pro fine.

CHAPTER 2 SEARCH WARRANTS, ARREST WARRANTS, AND OTHER WRITS

3. The Chapter 45 Arrest Warrant

Warrants, in contrast to other writs such as the capias and capias pro fine, are issued primarily by judges in their capacity as magistrates. There is one notable exception to this rule in Texas. Municipal judges and justices of the peace have authority to issue warrants of arrest for fine-only misdemeanors filed in their court pursuant to Art. 45.014, C.C.P. This Chapter 45 warrant is in many ways more similar to a capias than an arrest warrant, as it is issued by a judge as opposed to a magistrate and is often issued after the judge has jurisdiction over the offense due to the filing of the sworn complaint. It may also be issued by the judge after an affidavit establishing probable cause, but prior to formal charging, much like the Chapter 15 arrest warrant.

| Checklist 2-3  | Script/Notes  |

- ❑ 3. Chapter 15 applies to a warrant of arrest issued under this article, except as inconsistent or in conflict with this chapter.

- ❑ 4. In a county with a population of more than two million that does not have a county attorney, a judge may not issue a warrant under this section for the offense of Issuance of Bad Check under Section 32.41, P.C., unless the district attorney has approved the complaint or affidavit on which the warrant is based.

Art. 45.014(c), C.C.P.
See Checklist 2-1

Art. 45.014(d), C.C.P.

CHAPTER 2 SEARCH WARRANTS, ARREST WARRANTS, AND OTHER WRITS

4. Search Warrants for Persons and Property

A municipal judge, signing a search warrant in his or her capacity as a magistrate, must have geographical authority over the area to be searched (i.e., the county or counties in which the city is located). Thus, an Austin municipal judge lacks the authority to issue a search warrant for property located in the City of El Paso. All magistrates have co-equal jurisdiction with all other magistrates within the county or counties in which their city is situated and their jurisdiction is coextensive with the limits of the county or counties. Gilbert v. State, 493 S.W.2d. 783 (Tex. Crim. App. 1973) and Ex parte Clear, 573 S.W.2d. 224 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978).

5. The Affidavit Supporting the Arrest Warrant, Capias, or Search Warrant

| Checklist 2-5   | Script/Notes  |
|---|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. The affidavit must establish a substantial basis for concluding that there is a “fair probability” that a search will uncover evidence of wrongdoing or that a person has committed an offense.  | Illinois v. Gates, 462 U.S. 213 (1983).   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. The affidavit must contain facts, not mere conclusions, from which the magistrate can make an independent determination of probable cause. <input type="checkbox"/> a. The determination is based on the totality of the circumstances, practicality, and common sense. | See TMCEC Forms Book: Affidavit for Probable Cause for Arrest Warrant Art. 18.01(b), C.C.P.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b. Probable cause is a level of certainty more than mere suspicion but less than a preponderance; it is not a more-likely-than-not standard.  | See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 1.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Any reliable evidence may be considered without regard to its admissibility at trial; hearsay and police records may be considered.  |   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Do not consider any information not in the warrant affidavit.  | The four-corners doctrine limits the determination of sufficient probable cause to the four corners of the affidavit. Lagrone v. State, 742 S.W.2d 659 (Tex. Crim. App. 1987); Adkins v. State, 717 S.W.2d 363 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986).   |

- a. For search warrants the magistrate may consider additional testimony or exhibits.

- 5. Determine whether the source of the information in the affidavit is reliable.
  - a. The affiant is presumed to be honest (because of the oath).
  - b. A named victim, eyewitness, or citizen informant who reports a crime is presumed reliable.
  - c. An unnamed informant’s reliability may be shown by:
    - (1) Recitation of lack of criminal record, good reputation in the community for general veracity, and gainful employment;
    - (2) Corroboration of details provided by the informant;
    - (3) Recitation that informant has provided true, correct, and reliable information in the past; or
    - (4) Declaration by informant against penal interest.

- 6. Determine the basis of the source’s knowledge and whether the information from the source is credible.
  - a. Is the information first-hand and the result of direct observation of the facts rather than an opinion or a conclusion?
  - b. Is the information hearsay and, if so, is there an indication of its reliability?
  - c. Is the information corroborated by other sources or independent investigation?

Magistrates who consider additional information will have additional responsibilities under the new Art. 18.01(b-1), C.C.P. See Checklist 2-10.

Wetherby v. State, 482 S.W.2d 852 (Tex. Crim. App. 1972).

- d. Are there details not commonly known that suggest inside information by the informant?
- e. In the case of a search warrant, does it state the time when the information was acquired?

- 7. The search warrant affidavit is generally public information after the warrant is executed and should be made available for public inspection.

6. Search Warrants for Mere Evidence

| Checklist 2-6   | Script/Notes  |
|---|---|
| A “mere evidence” or evidentiary search warrant is an order from the magistrate to a peace officer to search for and seize property or items, except the personal writings of an accused, that constitute evidence of an offense or tend to show a particular person committed an offense.   | Art. 18.02(10), C.C.P. A blood warrant is an example of a “mere evidence” search warrant. See Checklist 2-7. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. An original mere evidence warrant may be issued by a judge of a municipal court of record or a county court judge who is a licensed attorney; a judge of a statutory county court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, or the Supreme Court.  | Art. 18.01(h), C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Except under the limited circumstances noted below, neither a judge of a non-record municipal court nor a justice of the peace may issue a mere evidence warrant. The exception is for counties that do not have: (1) a judge of a municipal court of record who is a licensed attorney; (2) a county judge who is a licensed attorney; or (3) a statutory county court judge.             | Art. 18.01(i), C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Any subsequent mere evidence warrant to search the same person, place, or thing subjected to a prior search under a mere evidence warrant may be issued only by a judge of a district court, a court of appeals, the Court of Criminal Appeals, or the Supreme Court.  | Even municipal courts of record cannot issue a second mere evidence warrant. Art. 18.01(d), C.C.P.           |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Greater specificity is required in the affidavit for an evidentiary warrant than for a regular search warrant.   | Art. 18.01(c), C.C.P.  |

CHAPTER 2 SEARCH WARRANTS, ARREST WARRANTS, AND OTHER WRITS

10. Search Warrants and Affidavits Submitted by Reliable Electronic Means

In Clay v. State, 391 S.W.3d 94 (Tex. Crim. App 2013), the Court held, in light of the specific facts of the case, that the telephonic administration of an oath for a search warrant did not run afoul of Article 18.01. Judge Meyers, dissenting, stated that only the Legislature could expand the statute. See “Case Law and Attorney General Opinion Update” The Recorder, 23:1 (November 2013). It appears that the Legislature read Judge Meyers’ lone dissent. During the 84th Legislature, Subsection (b-1) was added to Article 18.01 of the Code of Criminal Procedure authorizing communication of information supporting the issuance of a search warrant by telephone or any other reliable electronic means. Additionally, a magistrate may examine, under oath, an applicant or another person on whose testimony the application is based.

For traditionalists, subsection (b-1) marks a major departure from the “four-corners rule.” While the warrant that is ultimately issued may contain all of the required and relevant information to establish probable cause, the content within its four corners may look nothing like the initial proposed warrant. It may contain scribbled additions, subtractions, and edits written in by a magistrate after questioning an applicant or witness under oath over the phone. Many have seen this coming since the passage of H.B. 976 in the 82nd Legislature in 2011. See “Rounding the Corners: Criminal Application of the Four-Corners Rule” The Recorder, 21:3 (June 2012).

13. The Capias Pro Fine

A capias pro fine is a post-judgment enforcement mechanism for unpaid fines and/or court costs. Though the “capias pro fine” has been expressly authorized for use in courts governed by Chapter 45 since 1999, it was undefined in the C.C.P. until 2007. The issuance of a capias pro fine results in an arrest, but it is neither an arrest warrant (see Checklist 2-1), nor is it a capias (see Checklist 2-2). Remember that converting a fine and/or court costs to a term of confinement when a defendant is unable to pay violates the defendant’s constitutional rights. The 14th Amendment requires that defendants accused of fine-only offenses be provided “alternative means” of discharging the judgment to avoid incarceration (via time-payment plans or discharge through community service.) Tate v. Short, 401 U.S. 395 (1971). See “Pay or Lay: Tate v. Short Revisited,” The Recorder, 12:3 (March 2003).

- ☐ (1) has failed to make a good faith effort to discharge the fine and costs under Article 45.049, C.C.P. (community service); and
  - ☐ (2) could have discharged the fine and costs under Article 45.049, C.C.P., (community service) without experiencing any undue hardship.
- ☐ 10. A certified copy of the judgment, sentence, and order is sufficient to authorize confinement.
- ☐ 11. The court should set out a period of time between eight and 24 hours as the period the defendant must remain in jail to satisfy not less than $50 of the fine and costs owed.

Note: Article 45.0491, C.C.P., authorizes the waiver of fines and costs if the defendant defaults in payment and the court determines that (1) the defendant is indigent and (2) the performance of community service would constitute an undue hardship on the defendant.

CHAPTER 3 PRO SE DEFENDANTS AND DEFENDANTS REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL

Defendants in municipal court have constitutional and statutory rights to the assistance of counsel. However, in municipal court, even indigent defendants do not have the right to a court-appointed attorney, except where the “interests of justice” require, per Article 1.051(c), C.C.P. (For more information on “interests of justice” appointments, see, “The Oversimplification of the Assistance of Counsel in Class C Misdemeanors in Texas,” The Recorder 18:3 (January 2009). Most defendants accused of fine-only offenses appear in court pro se (unrepresented by counsel). This fact poses problems in ensuring that defendants are treated fairly. A court should have procedures for dealing with the pro se defendant in two settings: (1) outside the courtroom; and (2) in the courtroom during hearings.

1. Dealing with the Pro Se Defendant out of Court

CHAPTER 3 PRO SE DEFENDANTS AND DEFENDANTS REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL

The majority of defendants in municipal courts do not retain counsel, and instead represent themselves in court proceedings. Though pro se defendants maintain the right to litigate their own cases, they often lack a proper understanding of court procedures and decorum. A defendant who elects to represent himself or herself cannot complain of the lack of effective assistance of counsel. The rules of evidence, procedure, and substantive law will be applied the same to all parties in a criminal trial whether that party is represented by counsel or appearing pro se. Williams v. State, 549 S.W.2d 183 (Tex. Crim. App. 1977).

While no special treatment is required for pro se defendants, judges and court personnel can efficiently facilitate the court’s docket by informing pro se defendants of their rights in court and by clearly explaining the court’s expectations for maintaining order and decorum.

| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Remind the defendant that conversations with the judge are “court” proceedings.  | See Chapter 4 in this book for the complete procedure for appearances.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Emphasize the right to retain counsel. - a. General procedures and steps in the trial;
  - b. Voir dire and jury selection;
  - c. Options concerning opening statements;
  - d. Right to confront and examine prosecution witnesses;
  - e. Right to present defenses and defense evidence;
  - f. Right to testify on own behalf;
  - g. Right to request jury instructions;
  - h. Options concerning closing argument; and
  - i. Right to appeal.
6. If the defendant wishes to testify, inform him or her of the privilege against self-incrimination and obtain waiver.
7. The judge must maintain control of proceedings.
- a. If the defendant is unruly and disruptive, consider warning, restraint, or threat of contempt.

Warning to testifying defendant:
 “You have the constitutional right under the 5th Amendment not to testify and the fact that you do not testify cannot be held against you in any way. The prosecution is required to prove your guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, and you are not obliged to present any evidence. If you do testify, you may be cross-examined, that is, asked questions by the prosecution on any matter relevant to any issue in the case. Do you understand that?”

[If the defendant says “yes”:]
 “Then, understanding that, it is your desire to testify on your own behalf?” See TMCEC Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 4 for a more complete discussion of a defendant’s 5th Amendment rights.

CHAPTER 3 PRO SE DEFENDANTS AND DEFENDANTS REPRESENTED BY COUNSEL

3. Dealing with Defendants Represented by Counsel

While most defendants appear pro se in municipal court, the number of defendants retaining counsel continues to increase. Judges should welcome representation by counsel and foster an environment for conducting the business of the court in accordance with the legal and ethical guidelines applicable to both the bench and the bar. The following are basic guidelines that municipal judges should keep in mind in dealing with attorneys.

| Checklist 3-3   | Script/Notes  |
| <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="212 625 860 695"><input type="checkbox"/> 1. In order to represent a defendant in any Texas court, an attorney must be licensed to practice law.                             <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li data-bbox="310 1045 922 1283"><input type="checkbox"/> a. Attorneys licensed to practice law in other states may seek pro hac vice admission to practice in Texas courts. This requires the attorney to complete an application provided by the Texas Board of Law Examiners, pay fees, and file a sworn motion pursuant to Rule XIX of the Rules Governing Admission to the Bar of Texas in the court where the attorney requests permission to participate in representation. The decision to grant or deny such a motion is not made by the court in which the application is filed—rather by the Board of Law Examiners.</li> </ul> </li> </ul> | Art. 45.020, C.C.P. Individuals who engage in the unauthorized practice of law may be sued civilly in an effort to prohibit future occurrences. - ❑ 3. Judges should be just as familiar with the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct (setting ethical guidelines for lawyer) as they are with the Texas Code of Judicial Conduct. Lawyers are obligated to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with the Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct in all Texas courts.

- ❑ 4. Attorneys engaged in misconduct cast discredit on the legal profession. Judges have a special duty to maintain the integrity of the legal system. Hence judges also have a duty to prevent attorney misconduct. A judge who receives information clearly establishing that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Disciplinary Conduct has an ethical obligation to “take appropriate action.” “A judge having knowledge that a lawyer has committed a violation of the Rules of Professional Disciplinary Conduct that raises a substantial question as to a lawyer’s honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as a lawyers in other respects shall inform the Office of the General Counsel of the State Bar of Texas or take other appropriate action.”

- ❑ 5. Courts should consider requiring a letter of representation be on file with the court in every case where the defendant is represented by counsel. Such letters become part of the court’s file. A letter of representation is important for the following reasons:
  - ❑ a. It tells the court the scope of representation;

  - ❑ b. It provides the court with the attorney’s contact information that will be used in all subsequent communications from the court;

  - ❑ c. Prosecutors are not allowed to directly communicate with defendants represented by counsel. Rather, the prosecutor must communicate with the defendant through counsel; and Canon 3(D)(2), Code of Judicial Conduct.

The act of an attorney standing for or acting on behalf of a client is called “representation.” It is customary for defense attorneys to file a letter of representation informing both the court and the prosecution that a particular lawyer or law firm is representing the defendant in a specified matter. Black’s Law Dictionary.

Rule 4.02, Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

- d. It may become important documentary evidence in the event defendant counsel fails to appear in court or commits other violations of the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

- 6. The court may require the attorney to acknowledge the existence of any local rules (rules of decorum or guidelines for practicing before the court).

CHAPTER 4 APPEARANCE AND PLEAS

1. Appearance

This checklist is a model for the court to follow during the first appearance by a defendant before the court. This process is often—though not quite properly—referred to as an “arraignment.” The court must take a plea before conversation about the case or sentencing should take place. When the defendant pleads guilty or nolo contendere, this chapter must be read in connection with Chapter 5—Pleas and DSC. When the defendant pleads not guilty, the procedures in Chapters 6 and 7 follow. In either event, the procedures in Chapter 8 are necessary in entering a judgment of guilt or acquittal. Chapters 4 through 8 should be used together as a series of procedures used in resolving cases.

| Checklist 4-1  | Script/Notes  |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. If the defendant is appearing before you after being issued a citation, you shall perform the magistrate duties imposed by Art. 15.17, C.C.P., in the same manner as if the person had been arrested and brought before you as a magistrate.  | Art. 15.17(g), C.C.P. See Checklist 1-1.   |

4. Admonishments

a. Explain the range of punishment for the offenses before the court.

b. Explain defendant's right to jury trial.

c. Explain defendant's right to counsel.

For a greater discussion of an accused's rights, see TMCEC Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 4.

“_____, is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $_____ and not less than $_____ (if offense has a minimum fine) and by _____ (if offense bears sanctions in addition to a fine).”

“You have the right to have a jury determine your guilt or innocence on this charge. Do you wish to have a jury trial, or do you waive a jury and wish to proceed before the court without a jury?”

“You have a right to be represented by an attorney in this case. Since the maximum penalty in this case does not include time in jail, you do not have a right under the law—neither the Texas nor U.S. Constitutions—to have an attorney appointed. You have the important right to hire legal counsel. An attorney could advise you and help you make important decisions concerning the consequences and alternatives in this case. An attorney would be familiar with trial procedures and rules of evidence. In this trial, you will be held to the same legal standards as if you were an attorney. Do you still wish to proceed representing yourself?”

- d. Despite the general rule that indigent defendants accused of fine-only offenses are not statutorily entitled to the appointment of counsel, the exception is if “the interests of justice require representation.” This is a discretionary determination made by the judge.

- e. If represented by counsel, make sure the attorney’s name, address, and telephone numbers are noted on the docket.

- f. If the defendant is not represented by counsel, the defendant must waive the right to retain counsel.

- g. If the defendant wishes to retain counsel, reset the case for the defendant to have time to do so. If not, proceed.

- h. Explain defendant’s privilege against self-incrimination.

- 4. If the defendant pleads not guilty:
  - a. Set the case for a pretrial hearing and/or trial; and
  - b. Provide the defendant with a copy of the setting order and docket the case.

Art. 1.051(c), C.C.P. Texas case law provides little guidance to such appointments. Criminal law scholars have opined, “Whether or not this is the case should be determined largely on the basis of whether the case presents defensive possibilities that are most likely to be adequately presented to the court only by an attorney. If this is the case, an attorney can and must be appointed regardless of the minor nature of the offense.” 42 Dix & Schmolesky, Texas Practice: Criminal Practice & Procedure, Sec. 29.32 (3d ed. 2011).

A warning and waiver of the constitutional right to retain counsel is required. See Chapter 3 concerning lay representation.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Non-Jury Trial Setting Form: Defendant Appears by Mail; and Jury Trial Setting Form: Defendant Appears in Person.

“You are not required to testify and no one may make you testify. If you decide not to testify, I will not use the fact that you did not testify as evidence against you. Choosing to remain silent cannot be used against you.”

CHAPTER 4 APPEARANCE AND PLEAS

2. Pleas Made by Mail

Judges should instruct clerks to prepare judgments on all the pleas, waivers of jury trial, and payments offered to the courts. An offer to pay a fine and costs is not a conviction until the judge accepts the plea, waiver of jury trial, and/or payment of the fine, and enters judgment.

| Checklist 4-2  | Script/Notes   |

If a plea and waiver of jury trial and a request for the amount of fine and/or appeal bond is received, the court must either hand deliver a notice or mail a notice, certified mail return receipt requested, of the amount of fine, costs, and appeal bond that the court will accept. Defendants have up to 31 days from the date of receiving the notice to pay the fine and costs or file an appeal bond with the court. Art. 27.14(b), C.C.P. |

3. If the defendant mails a plea of not guilty to the court, the plea should be processed in the same way as a plea of not guilty made in open court.

Art. 45.025, C.C.P.

Art. 45.013, C.C.P. "Day" does not include Saturday, Sunday, or legal holidays. This rule increases the amount of time allowed to file a document when the document is filed by mail.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Notice to Defendant. Defendant must pay fine or post the appeal bond by the 31st day after receiving the notice. Remember that the bond is timely filed if postmarked before the 31st day and received within 10 days.
Art. 45.013, C.C.P.

Article 27.16(b), C.C.P., allows a defendant charged with a misdemeanor for which the maximum possible punishment is by fine only, in lieu of entering a plea in open court, to mail to the court a plea of not guilty.

CHAPTER 4 APPEARANCE AND PLEAS

3. Pleas in Open Court

Most of the requirements relating to acceptance of a plea are contained in Article 26.13, C.C.P. The Court of Criminal Appeals has held such statutory requirements inapplicable to misdemeanor cases. Empy v. State, 571 S.W.2d 526, 529 (Tex. Crim. App. 1978). Despite the increased number of direct and indirect consequences of being convicted of a Class C misdemeanor in Texas, federal due process only requires a plea of guilty in a misdemeanor be made knowingly and intelligently after being admonished as to the range of punishment. Tatum v. State, 861 S.W.2d 27 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1993, pet. ref’d). A guilty plea is not rendered involuntary by lack of knowledge of collateral consequence (e.g., deportation), and defendants have no constitutional right to be admonished of such consequences. State v. Jimenez, 987 S.W.2d 886 (Tex. Crim. App. 1999).

- c. Note defendant’s election of jury trial or jury waiver on docket; set case for trial; and
  - d. Set a pretrial and trial date.
  - e. Provide defendant with Setting Notice for Pretrial or Trial. Go to Chapters 6 and 7.
4. If defendant pleads not guilty:
- a. Enter a plea of not guilty;
  - b. Note on docket;
  - c. Note defendant’s election of jury trial or jury waiver on docket; set a pretrial and trial date; and
  - d. Provide defendant with Setting Notice for Pretrial or Trial. Go to Chapters 6 and 7.
5. If the defendant will not elect jury or bench trial, set case for jury trial.
6. If the defendant is charged with an offense that is eligible for dismissal for a Driving Safety Course (DSC) pursuant to Art. 45.0511, C.C.P., the court must inform the defendant that DSC may be an option.
7. If defendant pleads guilty or no contest without conditions, go to Step 9.
- a. The most common conditional plea is a plea of guilty or no contest made with an election to take DSC. If the defendant elects DSC, go to Checklists 5-2 and 5-3.

“I accept a plea of not guilty. Do you wish to have a jury trial or to waive a jury trial and have a trial before the court?”

“Since you will not tell me whether you want a trial with or without a jury, I am setting your case for a jury trial.”

See Checklist 5-1 for DSC eligibility. Art. 45.0511(p), C.C.P. “You may have the right to elect to have your case dismissed for taking a Driving Safety Course or Motorcycle Operator Training Course under Article 45.0511, C.C.P. - ❑ 9. Determine whether it is a plea of guilty or a plea of no contest and enter it on the court's docket.

“Do you understand that by your plea of guilty or no contest, you give up the right to contest these charges and that your plea is all of the evidence I will need to find you guilty?”“Are you pleading guilty or no contest of your own free will? No one has threatened you or promised you anything we have not already discussed?”

Effective January 1, 2014, a written acknowledgement of the disclosure, receipt, and list of any discovery provided to the defendant must be signed by each party before a plea of guilty or nolo contendere is accepted. It is unclear if an acknowledgment is necessary when no discovery was requested, ordered, or provided. Art. 39.14(j), C.C.P.

- ❑ 10. Go to Checklist 8-1 for sentencing.

4. Pleas in Jail

Accepting a plea from an arrested person who is detained in jail for an unadjudicated fine-only offense has been widely practiced in jurisdictions across Texas for some time, as this method was convenient for both the court and the defendant. However, until the passage of H.B. 2679 in 2013, the practice was neither expressly sanctioned nor prohibited.

The topic of “jail house pleas” generated a lot of discussion in recent years, and the focus intensified after the holding in Lilly v. State, 365 S.W.3d 321 (Tex. Crim. App. 2012). Lilly provided insight into how the Court of Criminal Appeals might handle an appeal challenging a jail house plea as violative of the constitutional and statutory requirements that criminal defendants, even those who are imprisoned, be afforded access to a courtroom open to the public.

Article 45.023(b), C.C.P., authorizes a justice or judge of a justice or municipal court to permit a defendant who is detained in jail for a fine-only misdemeanor to enter a plea, bringing a measure of resolution to the matter by providing a procedural glide path that does not give more weight to the interests of convenience than to the 6th Amendment rights guaranteed to all criminal defendants by the U.S. Constitution.

A judge, at the time the defendant requests a driving safety course or motorcycle operator training course, is authorized to require the defendant to pay a fee equal to the sum of the fee as established by Sec. 521.048, T.C., and the state electronic Internet portal fee for obtaining the defendant's driving record by using the state electronic Internet portal, and require DPS to provide by means of the state electronic Internet portal a copy of the defendant's driving record on request to the court "as soon as practicable." The custodian of a municipal or county treasury who receives fees collected under this subsection is required to keep a record of the fees and, without deduction or prorating, forward the fees to the Comptroller of Public Accounts.

- e. During the deferral period, present to the court an affidavit stating the defendant is not taking a course and did not take a course not reflected on the driving record.
- f. If the defendant did not have a valid Texas driver's license or permit and is a member, spouse, or dependent child of a member, of the U.S. military serving in active duty, the affidavit must state that the defendant was not taking a driving safety course or motorcycle operator course in another state on the date of request and had not completed one in the preceding 12 months from the current offense.
- g. A special driving safety course including instruction of child restraints is required if the offense was a child restraint violation.
- 4. The court may require the payment of an administrative fee in an amount of not more than $10.

CHAPTER 6 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Article 28.01, C.C.P., provides that a “court may set any criminal case for a pretrial hearing before it is set for trial upon its merits, and direct the defendant and his or her attorney, if any of record, and the State’s attorney, to appear before the court at the time and place stated in the court’s order for a conference and hearing.”

Although Article 45.031, C.C.P., requires a prosecutor to be present to represent the State at trial, a prosecutor is not always required at pretrial proceedings. If a pretrial proceeding is held to inform the defendant about procedures, such as his or her right to have an attorney (not appointed by the court), then the prosecutor need not appear. If, however, the pretrial proceeding is held to resolve a contested issue, or when the judge will be required to hear evidence the prosecutor should be present to represent the State. The judge cannot serve as the State’s attorney.

Chapter 45, C.C.P., is silent on pretrial matters; accordingly, Article 28.01, C.C.P., governs pretrial matters in municipal court. Article 28.01 provides that the court may set the case for a pretrial hearing before the case is set for a trial on the merits. The court may direct the prosecutor and the defendant and his or her attorney of record to appear. The defendant must be present at a pretrial proceeding. In municipal courts, pretrial hearings may be held on matters regarding any pleadings of the defendant, special pleas, motions to quash, motions for continuance, motions to suppress, motions for change of venue, discovery, entrapment, and motions for the appointment of an interpreter. See Art. 28.01, Sec. 1, C.C.P.

Although the court is not required to set a matter for a pretrial hearing, it is the local rule in many courts to require that the parties attend a pretrial hearing when the case has been set for a jury trial. It is also a common local rule to set cases for pretrial to allow the parties to reach a plea bargain agreement.

1. Conducting a Hearing

| Checklist 6-1   | Script/Notes   |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. If a pretrial hearing has been requested by the State or the defendant or local rules require that pretrial hearing be set, the Court will set the matter for pretrial hearing. | Art. 28.01, C.C.P.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. If a hearing is set, notice must be given to both the municipal prosecutor and the defendant. The following matters should be heard:  | Art. 28.01, Sec. 2, C.C.P.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a. Arraignment, if necessary;  | See Checklist 6-2.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b. Appointment of counsel, if necessary;   | See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book : Chapter 4 and Art. 1.051(c), C.C.P. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> c. Pleadings of the defendant;   |  |

- d. Special pleas, if any (such as double jeopardy);
  - e. Exceptions to form or substance of the complaint (Motions to Quash);
  - f. Motions for continuance;
  - g. Motions to suppress evidence;
  - h. Motions for change of venue do not apply to municipal court, unless teen court has been granted;
  - i. Discovery;
  - j. Entrapment; and
  - k. Motions for appointment of interpreter.
3. Other motions (including but not limited to the election of jury punishment).
4. Notice can be made in open court if the defendant or attorney of record is present, by personal service, or in writing depending on the order of the court.
5. The defense must have 10 days notice of trials or pretrials in which to file motions.
6. Matters not raised within seven days of the pretrial hearing are waived, except by permission of the court for good cause shown.
7. The defendant has the right to open and close the argument on all defense pleadings presented to the court.
8. Testimony should be limited to the issue contained in the motion.
9. The Rules of Evidence may not apply in all pretrial proceedings.

For a detailed discussion of election and jury punishment, see The Recorder, 9:5, 3 (August 2000).

Arraignments are not required in misdemeanor cases punishable by fine only. See Checklist 16-1.

- a. The parties should be provided the opportunity to cross-examine, rebut, or argue if the other side is permitted to present evidence or argue.
- 10. After the judge makes a decision on the motions presented, the judge announces:
  - a. Granted; or
  - b. Denied.

Rulings are discussed in TMCEC

2. Arraignment

Arraignments are not required in misdemeanor cases punishable by fine only. This has historically caused confusion in municipal and justice courts because the C.C.P. provides no proper name for a defendant’s initial appearance to enter a plea in municipal or justice court. While in the most general sense of the word, the defendant’s first appearance in municipal court is an arraignment, the lack of a proper name has resulted in cities using various descriptive labels (i.e., “initial appearance” and “appearance docket”). Presumably, Texas law does not classify what occurs in municipal court as an arraignment because most defendants accused of fine-only offenses have the option of entering a plea without making a physical appearance in court (i.e., entering a plea by mail pursuant to Article 27.14 or 27.16, C.C.P.) and because municipal courts are not required to comply with all of the other provisions in Chapter 26, C.C.P.

- (6) No such violation exists in statute, code, or ordinance. This kind of motion should be based on the complaint alone.
  - b. Constitutional grounds
    - (1) The defendant’s constitutional right to a speedy trial has been violated leading to a denial of due process so great as to require dismissal based on demonstrable harm to the defendant. Evaluate legal issues presented regarding speedy trial issues with care.
- 3. The State’s attorney may, by permission of the court, dismiss a criminal action at any time upon filing a written statement with the setting out reasons for such dismissal, which shall be incorporated in the judgment of dismissal. No case shall be dismissed without the consent of the presiding judge.
- 4. Dismissal is not the appropriate remedy to dispose of case because the defendant is not competent.
  - a. The conviction of an accused person while he is legally incompetent violates due process. To protect a criminal defendant’s constitutional rights, a trial court must inquire into the accused’s mental competence once the issue is sufficiently raised.
- 5. Dismissal is not an appropriate remedy for motions alleging:
  - a. Statute or ordinance is void for vagueness in violation of the due process provisions of the 14th Amendment.

U.S. Constitution, 14th Amendment. See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 4 for a more complete discussion of constitutional issues.

Speedy trial motions are not available under Article 32A.02, C.C.P., as it was declared unconstitutional and repealed by the Legislature in 2005. Meshell v. State, 739 S.W.2d 246 (Tex. Crim. App. 1987).

5. Motions to Quash the Complaint

| Checklist 6-5   | Script/Notes   |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. A complaint vests the municipal court with jurisdiction to try a case. Motions objecting to the complaint are called motions to quash the complaint. | <input type="checkbox"/> 4. The complaint shall conclude: <input type="checkbox"/> a. “Against the peace and dignity of the State” (penal statutes) and it must, when appropriate, also conclude “Contrary to said ordinance” (municipal ordinances).   |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Complaints must be sworn.  | Art. 45.018, C.C.P.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 6. The offense alleged in “plain and intelligible words” should include:  | Kindley v. State, 879 S.W.2d 261 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1994, no pet.).                                   |

- a. Every element of the offense;
- b. The facts sufficient to identify a particular offense to be defended against and sufficient facts to enable the defendant to plead the judgment in bar of further prosecution;
- c. The intent required under the statute or ordinance, if any;
- d. The name of the owner of property if that is an element of the offense;
- e. A specific description of property if that is an element of the offense;
- f. Language used in the allegation should be clear and concise; and
- g. The exact language of the statute or ordinance is usually most appropriate, but not required.

- 7. If the defendant does not object to a defect, error, or irregularity of form or substance in a complaint before the day trial commences, the defendant waives the right to object to the complaint.

Article 45.019(f), C.C.P., does not mean that a defendant must make a motion to quash before the date on which the case is set for trial.

The trial court is not prohibited from requiring that each objection to a complaint be made at an earlier time (e.g., pretrial hearing).

- 8. Granting the motion to quash does not bar re-prosecution with a proper complaint if the new complaint is filed within the statute of limitations.
- 9. The error can be cured if the complaint is dismissed and refiled with appropriate corrections. This must be done:
  - a. In writing;
  - b. Before the date of trial; or

Art. 45.019(f), C.C.P.

Sanchez v. State, 138 S.W.3d 324 (Tex. Crim. App. 2004).

See Checklist 6-1.

Art. 28.04, C.C.P.

This method of dismissal and refile is recommended over the process of amendment. It is not clear if a complaint can be amended, nor in what manner it can be done.

- c. On the date of trial or during trial if the defense does not object.

CHAPTER 6 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

One of the guiding principles of the American legal system is the idea of an independent and neutral judiciary. In order to ensure the aims of justice and to protect the integrity of the judicial system, all judges must understand the law governing (1) disqualification and (2) recusal. While the terms disqualification and recusal are used interchangeably, such use is a grievous error. If a judge is disqualified under the constitution, he or she is absolutely without jurisdiction in the case, and any judgment rendered by him or her is void, without effect, and subject to collateral attack. The failure of a judge to recuse when recusal is appropriate can constitute a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct. Failure to recuse may rise to the level of disqualification when it impacts a litigant’s right to due process.

Article V, Section 11 of the Texas Constitution provides grounds for disqualifying a judge from sitting in any case. Similarly, Article 30.01, C.C.P., provides instances in which the judge is disqualified regardless of the judge’s application of discretion. The defendant cannot waive the judge’s disqualification.

While disqualification is mandatory, recusal lies in a judge’s appraisal of the individual situation. While this determination can only be made in light of the specifics of a situation, the Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 18b provide grounds for when a judge shall recuse. Remember, however that judges are obligated to decide issues presented in cases and must not unnecessarily recuse themselves even when the judges might prefer not to decide the issues. Ex parte Ellis, 275 S.W.3d 109 (Tex. App.—Austin 2008).

While disqualification and recusal are very different, the procedures following a judge’s disqualification or recusal are the same. In the 82nd Legislative Session (2011), a comprehensive series of procedures was created in Subchapter A-1 of Chapter 29, G.C. These rules, derived from Texas Rule of Civil Procedure 18A, are designed to accommodate all sizes of municipal courts, and strike a balance between uniformity in application of the law and judicial efficiency. They can be used in any kind of criminal or civil case in which a municipal court has jurisdiction.

6. Recusal and Disqualification

| Checklist 6-6  | Script/Notes   |
|--|--|
| Recusal <input type="checkbox"/> 1. A judge must recuse in any proceeding in which: <input type="checkbox"/> a. The judge’s impartiality might reasonably be questioned; <input type="checkbox"/> b. The judge has a personal bias or prejudice concerning the subject matter or a party; | T.R.C.P. 18b sets out the law concerning recusal and includes instances in which a judge must step down from hearing a case for reasons other than the disqualifying grounds listed in the constitution. Gaal v. State, 332 S.W.3d 448 (Tex. Crim. App. 2011). |

- c. The judge has personal knowledge of disputed evidentiary facts concerning the proceeding;
- d. The judge or a lawyer with whom the judge previously practiced law has been a material witness concerning the proceeding;
- e. The judge participated as counsel, adviser, or material witness in the matter in controversy, or expressed an opinion concerning the merits of it, while acting as an attorney in government service;
- f. The judge knows that the judge, individually or as a fiduciary, or the judge's spouse or minor child residing in the judge's household has a financial interest in the subject matter in controversy or in a party to the proceeding, or any other interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
- g. The judge or the judge's spouse, or a person within the third degree of relationship to either of them, or the spouse of such a person:
  - (1) Is a party to the proceeding or an officer, director, or trustee of a party;
  - (2) Is known by the judge to have an interest that could be substantially affected by the outcome of the proceeding;
  - (3) Is to the judge's knowledge likely to be a material witness in the proceeding; or
- h. The judge or the judge's spouse, or a person within the first degree of relationship to either of them, is acting as a lawyer in the proceeding.

Disqualification:

- 2. No justice or judge shall sit in any case where:
  - a. The judge may be the party injured;
  - b. The judge has been of counsel for the State or the accused; or
  - c. The accused may be connected with the judge by consanguinity or affinity within the third degree.

Art. 30.01, C.C.P.

An individual's relatives within the third degree by consanguinity are the individual's parent, child, brother, sister, grandparent, grandchild, great-grandparent, great-grandchild, aunt, uncle, nephew, or niece. Sec. 573.023, G.C. Two individuals are related to each other by affinity if they are married to each other or the spouse of one of the individuals is related by consanguinity to the other individual. Sec. 573.024, G.C.

Recusal or Disqualification Without a Motion:

- 3. If you choose to recuse or disqualify yourself, you are recused or disqualified. Go to step 5.

Sec. 29.055, G.C.

Recusal or Disqualification Upon Party Motion:

- 4. If a motion has been filed to recuse or disqualify you from presiding over the case, you may do one of the following:
  - a. Recuse or disqualify yourself (go to step 3); or
  - b. Decline to recuse or disqualify yourself and request the Regional Presiding Judge of the Administrative Judicial Region to assign a judge hear the motion; and
    - (1) Forward a referral order, the motion, and statements to the Regional Presiding Judge.

Sec. 29.052, G.C.

CHAPTER 6 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

7. Requests for Discovery

Michael Morton was wrongfully convicted in 1987 for the murder of his wife, Christine. In 2011, after serving nearly 25 years in prison, he was exonerated. His case brought needed attention to the issues of discovery in criminal cases and prosecutorial misconduct. The Michael Morton Act, passed by the 83rd Legislature 2013, amended the Code of Criminal Procedure to revise provisions relating to discovery in a criminal case. The changes were made in an effort to uphold a defendant’s constitutional right to a defense, minimize the likelihood of wrongful convictions, save thousands in taxpayer dollars, promote an efficient justice system, and improve public safety, all while increasing the public’s confidence in the criminal justice system.

| <input type="checkbox"/> b. The documents, evidence, materials, or witness statements have already been disclosed.   | Art. 39.14(e), C.C.P.  |

☐ 7. The defense attorney or any agent of the defense attorney may allow a defendant, witness, or prospective witness to view information acquired through discovery, but may not allow that person to have copies of the information, other than a copy of the witness’s own statement.

Art. 39.14(f), C.C.P.

☐ a. Before allowing a person to view a document or witness statement of another, the person possessing the information shall redact the address, telephone number, driver’s license number, social security number, date of birth, and any bank account or other identifying information in the document or statement.

Art. 39.14(f), C.C.P.

☐ 8. No general right to discovery of inculpatory evidence exists. However, the defendant has the constitutional right to discover “Brady” evidence, or exculpatory evidence, that shows the defendant may not be guilty.

Quinones v. State, 592 S.W.2d 933 (Tex. Crim. App. 1980); Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

☐ a. Prosecutors are statutorily required to promptly provide the defense with any exculpatory, impeachment, or mitigating document, item, or information in the possession, custody, or control of the State that tends to negate the guilt of the defendant or would tend to reduce the punishment for the offense charged. This requirement applies upon discovery of such evidence at any time before, during, or after trial. A defendant need not request this information.

Art. 39.14(h) and (k), C.C.P.

☐ b. Prosecutors also have an ethical duty to provide the defense with both exculpatory and mitigating evidence. A defendant need not request this information.

Rule 3.09, Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct.

☐ 9. If either party so requests, the court may order the parties to disclose the name and address of each person the party may call as a witness at trial. This is generally referred to as a “witness list.” The judge shall specify when witness lists must be disclosed, no later than 20 days before trial.

Art. 39.14(b), C.C.P.

- ❑ 10. A court may order the defendant to pay costs related to discovery, but the costs may not exceed the charges prescribed by Subchapter F, Chapter 552, G.C.
- ❑ 11. If a conflict exists between the rules of discovery in criminal cases under Art. 39.14, C.C.P., and the rules pertaining to public information under Chapter 552, G.C., the rules of discovery prevail.
- ❑ 12. Parties may agree to discovery and documentation requirements equal to or greater than those required under Art. 39.14, C.C.P.

Subchapter F, Chapter 552, G.C., deals with charges for providing copies of public information.

Art. 39.14(m), C.C.P.

Art. 39.14(n), C.C.P.

CHAPTER 6 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Two motions specifically affect the admission of evidence at trial. The motion to suppress evidence is generally based on constitutional or statutory grounds. On the other hand, the motion in limine is advisory in nature only. This motion provides a way to pre-judge the admissibility of evidence at trial.

Motions About Evidence

8. Motions to Suppress

| Checklist 6-8  | Script/Notes  |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. The motion to suppress can be used to exclude: <input type="checkbox"/> a. Physical evidence based on police violation of the 4th Amendment of the U.S. Constitution, Art. 38.23, C.C.P., and Art. I, Sec. 10 of the Texas Constitution prohibiting “unreasonable searches or seizures.” <input type="checkbox"/> b. The court must determine: <input type="checkbox"/> (1) Did a search or seizure occur? To be a search, police conduct must intrude upon the defendant’s “reasonable expectation of privacy.” A seizure occurs if a reasonable person would have believed that he was not free to leave; <input type="checkbox"/> (2) Did the defendant have an interest in the items or area searched? If not, then the defendant does not have “standing” to complain of the search or seizure; and <input type="checkbox"/> (3) Is the area private as opposed to open to the public or exposed to the public by the defendant? Open fields, overheard conversations, and items abandoned or relinquished to others may not be protected by the 4th Amendment. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Was seizure pursuant to a warrant? | See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 4 for a discussion on the 4th Amendment. Katz v. United States, 389 U.S. 347 (1967); Brendlin v. California, 551 U.S. 249 (2007). Rakas v. Illinois, 439 U.S. 128 (1978). See Checklist 2-4. |

- a. Was the warrant valid?
- b. Was the item seized within the scope of the warrant?
- 3. Was there an exception to the requirement of a warrant?
  - a. Was the seizure in “plain view?”
    - (1) The court must find that the officer was properly in the place where the discovery was made and it was immediately apparent the item was, in fact, evidence.
  - b. Was the search made with consent of the defendant or another person with the right to consent to the search?
  - c. Was the search or seizure only a temporary detention or “frisk” based on reasonable suspicion?
  - d. Was the search of the person or the area within his or her reach incident to a proper arrest?
  - e. Was the search based on an inventory policy of searching a properly seized vehicle?
  - f. Was the seizure or stop based on a valid roadblock or traffic stop?
  - g. Was the search based on emergency or exigent circumstances?
- 4. Has the defendant properly supported the motion to suppress with law and evidence? If so, the court grants the motion to suppress illegally obtained evidence.
- 5. If an illegal search or arrest leads to other evidence it too must be suppressed as “fruit of the poisonous tree.”

Terry v. Ohio, 392 U.S. 1 (1968).

Mich. Dept. of State Police v. Sitz, 496 U.S. 444 (1990).

Wong Sun v. U.S., 371 U.S. 471 (1963).

- 6. Statements of the accused must be suppressed as violating the defendant’s 5th Amendment right against self-incrimination if:
  - a. The statements were involuntarily made;
  - b. The statements were involuntary due to promises or threats made by the police;
  - c. The statements were made subject to “custodial interrogation” (the defendant must be in legal custody and the statements must be the result of questioning) and the police failed to “Mirandize” the defendant; or
  - d. The statements were made subject to “custodial interrogation” that does not comply with the requirement in Article 38.22, C.C.P., that the entire statement be recorded or in writing with the statutory warnings of that section included in the recording or writing.
  - e. Exceptions to this section include:
    - (1) Any statements that contain any assertions of fact or circumstances which are later found to be true;
    - (2) Prior testimony of the defendant;
    - (3) Statements introduced for the purposes of impeaching the defendant’s testimony at trial; or
    - (4) Statements obtained by federal law enforcement in compliance with federal law or obtained in another state and in compliance with the laws of that state.
  - f. If the defendant raises the issue of voluntariness as stated above, the court must hold a hearing outside the presence of the jury and make findings concerning the voluntariness of the statement.

See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 4.

Miranda v. Arizona, 384 U.S. 436 (1966).

Art. 38.22, C.C.P.

Art. 38.22, Sec. 8, C.C.P.

- ❑ 7. An in-court identification of a defendant by a witness must be suppressed if the court finds that the identification was based on an improperly suggestive police identification procedure.
  - ❑ a. Police misconduct in this situation must be of such an improper nature that it causes the court to believe that there is a substantial likelihood of irreparable misidentification by the witness.
  - ❑ b. Factors to consider include:
    - ❑ (1) The witness's opportunity to observe the defendant;
    - ❑ (2) Nature of the suggestion;
    - ❑ (3) Whether the in-court identification is based in any way on the improper procedure;
    - ❑ (4) Accuracy of prior description;
    - ❑ (5) Time between the offense and the identification; and
    - ❑ (6) Totality of the circumstances.
- ❑ 8. In the hearing on a motion to suppress, the initial burden of establishing standing (or the right to complain) is upon the defendant. Once standing is established, the burden to show evidence was properly obtained shifts to the State.
- ❑ 9. Hearings on motions to suppress can often turn into a trial of the entire case. The court can and should limit pretrial testimony to only those legal and factual matters that must be developed for a proper ruling on the motion.

CHAPTER 6 PRETRIAL PROCEEDINGS

The motion in limine is a mechanism by which either the prosecutor or defendant may raise issues of the admissibility of evidence prior to trial.

CHAPTER 7 TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Defendants in municipal courts have a right to appear by counsel as in other cases. Art. 45.020, C.C.P. When the defendant appears, the court can require the defendant to enter a plea in writing. Art. 45.021, C.C.P. A defendant who wants the judge to hear the evidence and decide his or her case must waive the right to a jury trial in writing. Art. 45.025, C.C.P. Unless good cause is shown by the defendant, a municipal court may order a defendant who does not waive a jury trial and who fails to appear for the trial to pay the costs incurred for impaneling the jury. This order is enforced by contempt as prescribed by Section 21.002(c), G.C. See Art. 45.026, C.C.P.

If the prosecutor is not present at trial—both bench and jury—the court may: (1) postpone the trial to another date; (2) appoint an attorney pro tem (see Art. 2.07, C.C.P.); or (3) proceed to trial. Art. 45.031, C.C.P. If the judge opts to proceed to trial, the State’s failure to present a prima facie case of the offense alleged in the complaint entitles the defendant to a directed verdict of “not guilty.” Art. 45.032, C.C.P. In this instance, State’s witnesses, such as the peace officer, may be present at the trial but unable to testify for the State unless called by the prosecutor.

Because procedures for conducting a bench trial differ from a jury trial, there are separate checklists for these procedures.

| <input type="checkbox"/> b. Ask the defendant if he or she understands the charge and the rights explained earlier. The defendant must be provided a reasonable amount of time to secure counsel. If the defendant does not waive a jury trial in writing, the case must be docketed as a jury trial. | Art. 45.025, C.C.P.                        |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Defendant enters a plea.  |   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a. Ask the defendant if he or she waives his or her right to a jury trial, and have the defendant sign a written waiver.   | See TMCEC Forms Book: Plea Form.    |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b. The defendant then enters a plea of:  |   |

- ❑ 4. Place witnesses under “The Rule.”
  - ❑ a. At the request of either the defense or prosecution, or on your own motion, the court may prevent witnesses from hearing the testimony of other witnesses.
    - ❑ (1) Determine all possible witnesses.
    - ❑ (2) Give oath to witnesses.
    - ❑ (3) Admonish witnesses as to “The Rule.”
  - ❑ b. Before a victim, close relative of a victim, or a guardian of a victim can be excluded under “The Rule,” the moving party must show, and the court must determine that:
    - ❑ (1) The victim (or relative or guardian) will testify; and
    - ❑ (2) The testimony of the witness/victim would be materially affected if the witness/victim is not excluded under The Rule.
  - ❑ c. If either side asks the judge to make an exception for a particular witness (for example, the crime victim or an expert witness), the judge may grant the exception if it is determined that the testimony of the witness will not be tainted or influenced if that person is allowed to remain in the courtroom during the trial and to hear the testimony of the other witnesses in the case.

- ❑ 5. Opening Statements.
  - ❑ a. Prosecution first.

Rule 614, T.R.E.

“All those of you who may be witnesses in this case who are now in the courtroom, please stand and raise your right hand.”

“Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony that you are about to give in the case now on trial is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?”

“Ladies and gentlemen, ‘The Rule’ has been invoked. ‘The Rule’ means that the witnesses, except the defendant, must remain outside the hearing of the courtroom at all times while testimony is being heard, except when testifying or until discharged. If you are a witness, you must stay close enough so that you may be reached when needed.”

“You must not converse with each other or with any other person about the case, and you are not to read any report of or comment upon the testimony in the case while under ‘The Rule.’ You may, however, discuss the case with attorneys in the case outside the presence of other witnesses. Please remain outside until called.”
 For a violation of “The Rule,” contempt may be an option.
 See TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book: Chapter 5.

Art. 36.01(b), C.C.P.

- b. Defense second. (Defense may reserve opening statement until after the State rests its case-in-chief, as long as the defense presents a case.)
- c. Should the prosecution waive its opening statement, the defense may not make an opening statement until the defense presents its case-in-chief.
- 6. Presentation of Evidence.
  - a. All testimony must be presented under oath.
  - b. Prosecution's Case
    - (1) State's direct evidence.
    - (2) Defendant's cross-examination.
    - (3) State's redirect examination.
    - (4) Defendant's recross-examination.
- 7. Prosecution rests.
- 8. Motion for directed verdict:
  - a. At this point, the defense is permitted to request a motion for directed verdict of acquittal. The motion is based upon the belief of the defense that the State has failed to present evidence proving each and every element of the offense.
  - b. If the judge believes that the defense is correct, then the judge should return a verdict of not guilty.

“Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony that you are about to give in the case now on trial is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?”

Art. 45.032, C.C.P.

- c. Granting the motion has the same practical effect of ending the trial in an acquittal. Overruling the motion results in a continuation of the trial, and the defense would then be allowed to present its case.
- 9. Defendant's case:
  - a. Defendant's direct examination.
  - b. State's cross-examination.
  - c. Defendant's redirect examination.
  - d. State's recross-examination.
- 10. Rebuttal evidence, if any. The prosecution may present rebuttal evidence in the same manner as the prosecution's case-in-chief.
- 11. Prosecution closes. If the prosecution presents more evidence, the defense may present more evidence if it chooses.
- 12. Defense closes.
- 13. Closing arguments:
  - a. Prosecution argues first (may waive).
  - b. Defense makes its arguments.
  - c. Prosecution has right to argue last.
  - d. Equal time should be given to each side.
- 14. Decide whether the State proved its case, render judgment orally in open court, and enter the judgment in the docket.
  - a. All persons are presumed to be innocent, and no person may be convicted of an offense unless each element of the offense is proven beyond a reasonable doubt.

Art. 45.041(d), C.C.P.
See the TMCEC Forms Book for a variety of judgment forms.

- ❑ b. If you return a finding of guilty, render judgment by assessing a specific fine amount within the range permitted under the statute or ordinance under which the defendant was prosecuted.

- ❑ c. If the defendant is found guilty, inform the defendant of the right to appeal.

See Chapter 8 in this book for more information on sentencing.

“You have the right to appeal my decision. Appeal is to the county court. In order to appeal this case, you must give notice of appeal and file a bond with this court in the amount of (calculate and state the amount of twice the fine and costs) within 10 days of tomorrow’s date.”

The procedure may vary for courts of record.

See Art. 45.013, C.C.P., for enlargement of time period if bond filed by mail.

See Chapter 10 in this book.

2. The Jury Trial – Before Trial

For courts that conduct jury trials infrequently, it is recommended that a pretrial hearing be conducted to ensure that the parties are in agreement on all possible issues and to minimize the risk for procedural surprises during the trial. This is especially important for jury trials involving pro se defendants that may not understand trial processes.

Although courts can carry out many of the following procedures on the day of trial, handling them in advance will achieve a smoother and more efficient trial experience. Under no circumstances should the pretrial process be used as a tool to thwart or discourage a person from exercising his or her constitutional right to a trial.

Coordination and agreement (or the court’s ruling) before the day of trial on trial-related issues may assist in eliminating unnecessarily long delays for the jury panel.

Some judges prefer to prepare the jury charge in advance and allow both sides to comment and recommend revisions. The judge, however, has the final decision on the wording. Both sides have a final opportunity to make recommendations or state objections to the charge on the day of trial, but are less likely to do so if given a previous opportunity to respond. The court may not flatly prohibit motions made on the day of trial and after the deadline date, but the court may require the movant to show good cause for not complying with the deadline. Some motions must be ruled upon on the trial day, but some can be decided in advance.

- (3) Filing objections to the complaint;
  - (4) Filing recommendations, or exceptions to the jury charge; and
  - (5) Requests for interpreter.
  - (6) Other motions (including but not limited to election of jury punishment.)
2. Sign an order for the clerk to summon a sufficient number of jurors for the type of case.
- a. Consider summoning 30 to 40 persons for a misdemeanor trial.
  - b. Prospective jurors may be randomly selected from:
    - (1) Driver's license records, if available;
    - (2) Utility records;
    - (3) Tax rolls; and
    - (4) Voter registration rolls.
  - c. Prospective jurors must live within the city.

Challenges to the complaint need not be considered unless good cause is shown for violating the court's order to file them timely.

For a detailed discussion of election and jury punishment, see The Recorder 9:5, 3 (August 2000).

See TMCEC Forms Book: Order to Summon Venire.

A written policy should be developed and adopted by the court that details the procedure for jury selection (preparing the jury candidate list, summoning the prospective jurors, etc.); the policy should be on file and available for inspection upon request.

- ❑ 3. Court may reschedule prospective jurors to a later date. Clerk may postpone juror’s service if:
  - ❑ a. The person summoned has not been granted a postponement in the county for one year prior to the date on which the juror is summoned to appear; and
  - ❑ b. The person and the clerk determine a substitute date on which the person will appear for jury service that is not later than six months after the date on which the person was originally summoned to appear.

- ❑ 4. Unless the court’s criminal case records are accessible on the internet, the clerk of the court must post in a designated public place in the courthouse notice of a criminal docket setting as soon as the court notifies the clerk of the setting.

CHAPTER 7 TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

3. The Jury Trial –Trial Day

Checklist 7-3 begins with calling the jury. Please remember that the court must receive announcements and explain procedures to the pro se defendant, even in a jury trial. Please review Chapters 3 and 4. These actions should not take place in front of the jury. If the defendant waives a jury in writing or pleads guilty and waives a jury in writing, the jury is not necessary.

□ 6. Judge's Opening Remarks

“Ladies and gentlemen, I want to welcome you to the _____ Municipal Court. You have been called for jury duty for this (day/week). You will be examined for inclusion on a jury hearing a criminal case. Courtroom hours vary, but are normally from 9:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.”

“Whether you are selected as a juror today or not, you are performing a significant service that only free people can perform. If you are selected, the case will be tried as expediently as possible consistent with justice that requires a careful and correct trial.”

“If selected on the jury, unless instructed otherwise, you will be permitted to separate at recess, for meals, and at night.”

□ 7. The judge should administer the first jury oath to the array.

Art. 35.02, C.C.P.

“Do each of you solemnly swear that you will make true answers to such questions as may be propounded to you by the court, or under its directions, touching your service and qualifications as a juror (so help you God).”

“The law requires that each of you must possess certain qualifications before you may be considered for service as a juror.”

“There are also certain excuses and exemptions that some of you may wish to claim.”

8. Ask the array the questions shown to the right.

“Except for a failure to register, are you a qualified voter in this city, county, and state under the Constitution and laws of the state?”

“Have you ever been convicted of theft or any felony?”

“Are you under indictment or legal accusation, or on deferred adjudication for theft or any felony?”

“Are you presently insane?” Arts. 35.19 and 35.16(a)(4), C.C.P.

“Are you 18 years of age or older?”

“Are you a resident of the city where this court is located?”

“Are you of sound mind and good moral character?”

“Are you able to read and write the English language?”

“Have you served as a petit juror for six days in the preceding three months in a county court, or six days in the preceding six months in a district court?” Sec. 62.102(6), G.C.

Arts. 35.12, 35.16, and 35.19, C.C.P.

Sec. 62.106, G.C.

“You may claim any of the following exemptions if you choose to, but you are not required to claim them.”

“If one of these applies to you, but you still desire to be considered as a juror, please continue to remain seated.”

“Are you over 70 years of age?”

9. Immediately excuse any person whose answer to any one of the above questions is inconsistent with the statutory requirements.

10. Determine if anyone who is otherwise qualified to be a juror wishes to claim one of the following legal exemptions:

a. The person is over 70 years of age;

- b. The challenge must be in writing and must set forth the grounds for challenging.
- c. When made by the defendant, it must be supported by his or her affidavit or the affidavit of any credible person.
- 17. If the challenge is sustained:
  - a. Discharge the array;
  - b. Order a new array summoned;
  - c. Prohibit the person who summoned or composed the array to bring another array in the case; and
  - d. Have another array brought to the courtroom.
- 18. After the array is qualified, the prosecutor and defendant or defendant's attorney should be permitted to view them for purposes of requesting a jury shuffle.

Art. 35.08, C.C.P.

It may be prudent to reschedule the trial to allow sufficient time to summon another array in an orderly manner. Discuss the new trial date with both parties and seek consensus for the new date.

Put simply, a "jury shuffle" occurs when one of the parties does not like the order in which the jury is seated and wants the panel reseated in a new order.

A simple way to do this is to write each juror's name on a card, place the cards in a container and mix them up (shuffle) and randomly draw out each card in sequence. The first name drawn is now juror number one; the second name is juror number two, etc., until all names are drawn. The clerk will prepare the new juror list and they will be re-seated in the order drawn.

- 19. The trial judge, on motion of the defendant or his or her attorney, or of the State’s attorney shall cause the names of the jurors to be randomly shuffled. The clerk shall deliver a copy of the new juror list to the State’s attorney and to the defendant or his or her attorney.

Only one shuffle is permissible by law.

- 20. The motion must be made before the State’s voir dire begins.
- 21. After a jury shuffle, seat the panel in the order their names were drawn.
- 22. Seating the Panel:

- a. After considering and determining qualifications, exemptions, and excuses, the remaining jurors should be seated. The panel at this stage should consist of no fewer than 12 persons. This will allow the prosecution and the defense to exercise three strikes each and still have at least six persons available to serve on the jury.

- b. There is no authority for the selection of alternate jurors in municipal court cases.

- 23. Announcement of the Case and Introductions.

- a. Introduce yourself.

- b. Call the case.

- c. Introduce lawyers.

Williams v. State, 719 S.W.2d 573
(Tex. Crim. App. 1986).

Art. 33.01, C.C.P.
Art. 45.029, C.C.P.

Art. 33.011, C.C.P.

“Good morning. My name is _____, and I am the Judge of the _____ Municipal Court. I will be presiding over this trial.”

“At this time, I call the State of Texas vs. _____. What says the State? And the Defense? Ladies and gentlemen, allow me to introduce the lawyers in this case.”

“Representing the State in this matter is (title of state’s attorney), Mr(s). _____; representing the defendant is Mr(s). _____.” If the defendant is representing himself or herself, see Chapter 3 in this book.

d. Introduce defendant.

“This is a criminal case. It will be tried before six of you selected as the jury. As jurors, it is your exclusive duty to decide all questions of fact in this case, and, for that purpose, to determine the effect, the value, and the weight of the evidence. The evidence in this case will be the testimony you receive and hear from the witness stand and from that place only.”

“You will not be called upon to decide questions of law. It is my duty as judge to rule upon legal matters and to see that this case is tried in accordance with the rules of law.”

“Both the defendant and the people of this state have a right to expect that you will conscientiously consider and weigh the evidence, apply the law given you to that evidence, and that you will reach a just verdict.”

“In this case, as in all cases, the actions of us all – the judge, the attorneys, the witnesses, parties, and jurors – must be according to law: You must therefore follow all instructions given you, as well as others received as the case progresses.”

24. Preliminary Instructions.

“Do not mingle with, nor talk to, the lawyers, the witnesses, the parties, or any other person who might be connected with or interested in this case, except of course, for casual greetings. They must follow these same instructions, and you will understand it when they do.”

a. These are the court’s instructions to each juror to follow throughout the trial.

“Do not accept from, nor give to, any of those persons any favors, however slight, such as food, refreshments, or cigarettes.”

- ❑ 25. The judge, at his or her discretion, may choose to voir dire the jury at this time on general principles of law and the practice and procedure of the court, or permit the prosecutor and the defense to voir dire. The prosecutor has the right to conduct voir dire first, the defense second.
- ❑ 26. Opening voir dire remarks

“Do not discuss anything about this case, nor mention it to anyone, nor permit anyone to mention it in your presence, until you are discharged as jurors or excused from this case. If anyone attempts to discuss the case with you, report it to me immediately.”

“The parties, through their attorneys, have the right to direct questions to each of you concerning your qualifications, background, attitudes, and experiences.”

“In so questioning, they are not prying into your personal affairs, but are trying to select fair and impartial jurors who will be free from bias or prejudice in this case. If you are selected to serve as a juror, you will be permitted to separate at recesses, unless otherwise instructed by me. Consistent with justice, we will try this case as expediently as possible, but justice requires a careful and correct trial.”

The court will proceed into what is called voir dire (questioning under oath).

“Ladies and gentlemen of the jury panel: The case about to be tried is Cause Number _____, styled The State of Texas vs. (Defendant), who is charged by (complaint) with the offense of (name of offense). The range of punishment provided for by law for this offense is a fine between $_____ and $_____.” [In addition, identify other sanctions, if any, that apply upon conviction, such as: community service hours, attendance at an education course, etc.]

- 27. Explain the jury’s function and the role of the judge.

“As the jury panel, you have been seated in the order in which your names were selected using a purely random process. This is done purposely so that no one can “stack” or in any way manipulate who may sit as a juror on any particular case.”

“Some of you may be eliminated because of disqualification.”

“For those that remain, each side will have three peremptory challenges. Peremptory strikes may be exercised for any lawful reason. A peremptory strike removes a name from the list of potential jurors. Each side also has an unlimited number of strikes based upon a variety of legal reasons. The first six names remaining after all the strikes have been made will form the jury for this case.”

“It is the function of the jury to determine the facts. In doing so, you are the sole and exclusive judge of the credibility of the witnesses and the weight to be given their testimony. Even I, as the judge, am not permitted to influence your evaluation through words or actions during the trial. My job is to decide the law and to be certain that both sides receive a fair trial. When I rule on the admissibility of evidence, or hear other objections, I am not indicating my personal feelings for one side or the other, but simply applying rules of law established by the legislature that govern this trial.”

“There are a few general principles of law that I would like to review with you at this time.”

28. Explain who has the burden of proof in a criminal trial.

“The burden of proof in this case rests solely upon the State. The prosecutor must prove each and every element of the offense beyond a reasonable doubt.”

29. Explain the presumption of innocence and touch upon the concept of beyond a reasonable doubt.

“The defendant is presumed to be innocent until guilt is established by legal evidence, received before you in the trial of this case, beyond a reasonable doubt. If, after you retire to deliberate, each of you believes beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant is guilty of the offense charged, it will be your duty to return a verdict of ‘Guilty.’ If you have a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the defendant, it will be your duty to return a verdict of ‘Not Guilty.’”

30. Explain that the defendant is not required to testify in a criminal trial.

“The defendant in any criminal case is not required to prove himself or herself innocent. If the defendant does not choose to testify, you may not consider that fact as evidence of guilt, nor may you, in your deliberations, comment or in any way allude to that fact.”

31. Explain the purpose of a complaint or citation in a criminal trial.

“The (complaint/citation) in this case is not an indication of the guilt of the defendant. It is simply the legal means by which a person in Texas is brought to trial in municipal court.”

32. Emphasize the importance of a fair trial.

“The defendant, the prosecutor, the public, and our system of justice, all require that a fair jury, one without bias or prejudice, and free of opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the defendant, be chosen here today. A fair jury is one that, not having heard any of the evidence, is not committed to either side. A fair jury is one that is impartial to both sides and that can and will follow the law as given to it by this court.”

- ❑ 33. Explain why the attorneys for each side, or the defendant, if pro se, will question them.

- ❑ 34. Allow prosecutor to proceed with his or her voir dire. After prosecutor has finished with voir dire, allow defense to proceed with voir dire.

- ❑ 35. After voir dire is completed, allow prosecutor and defense to exercise their peremptory challenges.
  - ❑ a. The prosecutor and the defense may each exercise as many as three strikes (that is, ask that a potential juror be excused) without having to explain why the strikes were made unless a Batson challenge is raised.

  - ❑ b. Each side takes its jury list supplied by the court and marks through as many as three names.

  - ❑ c. The two lists are returned to the clerk, who makes a list of the first six names that have not been marked through. Those six persons then take their position in the jury box. The clerk delivers the original list to the judge and gives a copy of the list of six jurors to both the prosecutor and the defendant or the defendant’s attorney.

- ❑ 36. Seat and administer oath to jury at the conclusion of the voir dire proceedings.

“In a moment, the attorneys for each side are going to ask each of you some questions. These questions are not meant to pry into your personal affairs, or those of your family. The questions are designed to determine if you can be a fair juror, or whether any bias or prejudice you may have about the law in this case or the facts as they may be presented to you, will prevent you from following your oath as a juror.”

Art. 35.25, C.C.P.

Art. 45.029, C.C.P. See Checklist 7-4.

Art. 33.01, C.C.P.

It is good practice for the judge to compare the attorney’s strikes with the juror list prepared by the clerk to assure accuracy. The judge will then direct the clerk to prepare the juror list and make a copy for each side.

For instructions for a “pickup jury,” see Art. 45.028, C.C.P., and TMCEC Forms Book: Other Jurors Summoned (“Pickup Jury”).

If there is a Batson challenge, see Checklist 7-4.

37. Give oath and preliminary instructions to jury at conclusion of voir dire.

a. Oath

b. Preliminary instructions

38. Explain how the trial will proceed.

“Members of the jury, will you please stand, raise your right hand, and be sworn.”

Art. 35.22, C.C.P.

“Each of you do solemnly swear that in the case of the State of Texas against the defendant, you will a true verdict render according to the law and the evidence (so help you God).”

“You may be seated. Ladies and gentlemen of the jury, by that oath which you took as jurors, you have become officials of this court and active participants in the public administration of justice. It is your duty to listen to and consider the evidence and law in this case and to obey all instructions given you.”

“As an additional instruction, I now instruct you not to discuss this case among yourselves until after you have heard all the evidence and the attorney’s arguments, and until I have sent you to the jury room to deliberate and consider your verdict.”

“Ladies and gentlemen, we are now ready to proceed.”

“The trial will proceed as follows:”

“The prosecutor may make an opening statement;”

“The defense attorney/ defendant may do so as well, or at a later time;”

“The prosecutor will then offer evidence through witnesses;” and

- 39. Have prosecutor read complaint; take defendant’s plea.
  - a. Prosecutor reads complaint, unless defendant waives the right to have the complaint read aloud.
  - b. The defendant then enters a plea of:
    - (1) Guilty;
    - (2) Nolo contendere (no contest); or
    - (3) Not guilty.
  - c. If the defendant refuses to enter a plea, the court must enter a plea of not guilty for the defendant.
    - (1) If the defendant pleads guilty or nolo contendere, then the court determines the punishment.

“The defense attorney/ defendant may cross-examine each witness.”

“When the prosecutor has finished presenting the State’s case, the defense attorney/defendant may or may not present his or her evidence.”

“The defendant is never required to prove his or her innocence.”

“The prosecutor may cross-examine each defense witness, if any.”

“When the defense is finished presenting its witnesses, the prosecutor may put on rebuttal witnesses, and the defense may then do the same.”

“After the prosecution and the defense have presented their cases, we will hear closing arguments.”

Art. 36.01, C.C.P.

Art. 45.023, C.C.P.

Art. 45.024, C.C.P.

Art. 45.022, C.C.P.

- (2) The defendant in a misdemeanor case may be absent and appear by counsel with the consent of the State.

- 40. Place witnesses under “The Rule.”
  - a. At the request of either the defense or prosecution, or on the judge’s own motion, the judge may prevent witnesses from hearing the testimony of other witnesses.

  - b. Determine all witnesses.

  - c. Give oath to witnesses.

  - d. Instruct the witness in the language of “The Rule.”

  - e. Before a victim, close relative of a victim, or a guardian of a victim can be excluded under “The Rule,” the moving party must show, and the court must determine that:
    - (1) The victim (or relative or guardian) will testify; and

    - (2) The testimony of the witness/victim would be materially affected if the witness/victim is not excluded under “The Rule.”

Art. 33.04, C.C.P.

The prosecuting attorney has unrestricted discretion in consenting to defendant’s absence in a jury trial.

“All those of you who may be witnesses in this case who are in the courtroom, please stand and raise your right hand.”

“Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony that you are about to give in the case now on trial is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?”

Rule 614 of the Rules of Evidence.

“Ladies and gentlemen, ‘The Rule’ has been invoked.’ The Rule’ means that the witnesses who are not parties to this case must remain outside the hearing of the courtroom at all times while testimony is being heard, except when testifying or until discharged. If you are a witness, you must stay close enough so that you may be reached when needed. You must not discuss this case among yourselves or allow it to be discussed in your presence except in the presence of your attorney and under the orders of the court. You must not read any report, newspaper article, correspondence, or comment on the testimony in the case while you are under ‘The Rule.’ Please remain outside until called.”

- f. If either side asks the judge to make an exception for a particular witness (for example, an expert witness), the judge may grant the exception if determining that the witness' testimony will not be tainted or influenced if that person is allowed to remain in the courtroom during the trial and to hear the testimony of the other witnesses in the case.

  - 41. Opening statements:
    - a. Prosecution first.
    - b. Defense second or may reserve opening statement until after the State rests its case-in-chief.
    - c. Should the prosecution waive its opening statement, the defense may not make an opening statement until the prosecution concludes its case-in-chief.

  - 42. Presentation of evidence.
    - a. Prosecution's case-in-chief
      - (1) State's direct evidence.
      - (2) Defendant's cross-examination.
      - (3) State's redirect examination, if any.
      - (4) Defendant's recross-examination, if any.
    - b. State rests.

  - 43. Motion for directed verdict.
    - a. At this point, the defense is permitted to bring a motion for directed verdict of acquittal. The motion is based upon the belief of the defense that the State has failed to bring up some evidence on an element of the offense.
- Art. 36.01, C.C.P.
- Art. 36.01, C.C.P.
- Art. 45.032, C.C.P.
- It may prove necessary to clear the jury from the courtroom. Motions for directed verdict are often made and argued outside the presence of the jury.

- b. If the court believes that the defense is correct, the judge should instruct the jury to return a verdict of not guilty.
  - (1) Granting the motion has the same practical effect of ending the trial in an acquittal. Overruling the motion results in a continuation of the trial, and the defense would then be allowed to present its case.

- 44. Defendant's case:
  - a. Defendant's direct examination
  - b. State's cross-examination
  - c. Defendant's redirect examination, if any
  - d. State's recross-examination, if any

- 45. Rebuttal evidence.
  - a. The prosecution may present rebuttal evidence in the same manner as the prosecution's case-in-chief.

- 46. Prosecution closes.
  - a. If the State presents more evidence, the defense may present more evidence if it chooses.

- 47. Defense closes.

Art. 36.01, C.C.P.

❑ 48. You must give the jury a charge on the law that applies to the case. The charges may be made orally or in writing, except that the charge must be in writing if required by law. Municipal courts of record are required to have a written jury charge. The jury charge must be given before closing arguments.

❑ 49. Read the charge to the jury. Do not comment or communicate your views regarding the instructions given by changes in your voice or facial expressions.

Art. 45.033, C.C.P.

A written charge is preferred by most judges to avoid objections to the oral charge being made in front of the jury. Some judges prepare the charge in advance and provide a copy to the defense and the prosecution for review and objection prior to the trial. This avoids having to review and possibly revise the charge at trial while the jury and others wait. The final version is provided to the prosecution and defense at the trial. See Checklist 7-6.

Art. 36.14, C.C.P.

“At this time, ladies and gentlemen, I will read to you the charge of the court containing the law applicable to this case. In continuing to discharge your responsibilities as jurors, you will continue to observe all the instructions that have previously been given to you. These instructions are given to you because your conduct is subject to review the same as that of the witnesses, parties, attorneys, and myself. If it should be found that you have disregarded any of these instructions, it will be jury misconduct and it may require another trial by another jury.”

“If any of you observe one or more of your group violating any of my instructions, you shall immediately warn the violator and caution him or her not to do so again.”

- 50. Closing arguments:
  - a. Prosecution argues first (may waive).

  - b. Defense makes its argument.
  - c. Prosecution has the right to argue last.

- 51. Submit case to the jury for deliberations:
  - a. Instruct the jury.
    - (1) Provide the jury with:
      - (a) Jury charge;
      - (b) Jury instructions; and
      - (c) Verdict forms.

    - b. Instruct the jury to assess a fine if they find the defendant guilty of the offense. (This instruction is given only if the defendant elected to have the jury assess punishment.)

“Please listen carefully as I read the charge to you. The original will be placed on the table in the jury room when you retire to begin your deliberations.”

See Checklist 7-6 on preparing a jury charge.

Arts. 36.07 and 36.08, C.C.P.

Both sides are allotted equal time for closing arguments. If the prosecution chooses to divide their argument, they do not receive additional time.

Art. 36.16, C.C.P.

“You must appoint a presiding juror.”

“The verdict must be unanimous.”

“If you find the defendant guilty, you must assess a fine. In setting a fine, you must not compromise or set the fine by chance. It must be an amount set by the free opinion of each individual juror within the range allowed by law.”

- c. If the defendant did not elect the jury to determine punishment, instruct the jury to only render a verdict of “Not Guilty” or “Guilty.”
- (1) If verdict is “Guilty,” you will assess a fine.

“If you find the State did not prove each element of its case and the guilt of the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt, you must return a verdict of ‘Not Guilty.’”

“You will be provided forms to reflect a verdict of either not guilty or guilty. After you have reached your verdict, the presiding juror will complete the appropriate form, sign the form, and notify the bailiff a verdict has been reached.”

“Any communication between the jury and court must be in writing and transmitted by the bailiff.”

“If you cannot reach a verdict within a reasonable time, notify the bailiff of your difficulty or problem.”

See TMCEC Forms Book: Verdicts.

Art. 45.036, C.C.P.

- 52. The verdict.
  - a. The judge should see that the verdict is in the proper form (if guilty, the verdict should include assessment of punishment).
  - b. Read the verdict in open court.
  - c. Enter the verdict on your docket.
    - (1) If the jury is deadlocked, give an Allen Charge.
    - (2) If a verdict cannot be reached and it is improbable that an agreement can be reached, the jury should be discharged and the case tried again.

Art. 45.017, C.C.P.

See Checklist 7-5(5).

- 53. Poll jury on request of prosecution or defense.
- 54. Discharge jury.

Art. 37.05, C.C.P.

See Chapter 8 in this book.

CHAPTER 7 TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

Parties use peremptory challenges to remove from the jury panel jurors they believe will have an unfavorable bias as a factfinder. Though a party need not state a reason for rejecting jurors when using peremptory challenges, the U.S. Supreme Court held in Batson v. Kentucky, 476 U.S. 79 (1986), and J.E.B. v. Alabama ex rel. T.B., 511 U.S. 127 (1994), that these challenges cannot be used to strike a juror in a criminal case based solely on his or her race or gender, respectively.

- ❑ 7. If the party against whom the objection or motion is made fails to offer a reasonable race or gender-neutral reason, the objecting party’s burden is met.
- ❑ 8. If the party against whom the objection or motion is made offers a reasonable race or gender-neutral explanation, the objecting party has the burden of persuading the judge by a preponderance of the evidence that the allegations of purposeful discrimination are true.
  - ❑ a. The objecting party may call witnesses, including opposing counsel.
  - ❑ b. The objecting party’s counsel is entitled to examine opposing counsel’s notes for purposes of cross-examination.
  - ❑ c. Objecting counsel may also testify as to what occurred during voir dire.
- ❑ 9. The trial judge must evaluate the reasons given in light of the circumstances of the trial and decide whether the explanations are valid or a pretext.
  - ❑ a. In reviewing the rationale for strikes, the judge should look at:
    - ❑ (1) Reasons given not related to facts given;
    - ❑ (2) Lack of questions or meaningful questions;
    - ❑ (3) Disparate treatment of prospective jurors;
    - ❑ (4) Disparate questioning to exclude jurors; and
    - ❑ (5) Bias toward a group or profession where the trait is not shown to apply.
  - ❑ b. Reasons held to be racially neutral include but are not limited to:

Salazar v. State, 795 S.W.2d 187 (Tex. Crim. App. 1990).

Prosper v. State, 788 S.W.2d 625 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th] 1990, pet. ref’d).

- (1) Juror has family members with criminal problems;
  - (2) Juror has family member in the penitentiary;
  - (3) Juror has a criminal history;
  - (4) Juror previously served on a hung jury; and
  - (5) Juror previously served on a jury that acquitted.
10. The judge should, but is not required to, make findings of fact and conclusions of law.
11. If purposeful discrimination is found, the judge is not required to dismiss the venire, call another, and begin jury selection again. The judge may fashion any remedy he or she deems appropriate consistent with Batson, and its progeny.
- a. Consider, for example:
    - (1) Calling a new jury array under Art. 35.261, C.C.P.; or
    - (2) Seating the struck venire person.

Lewis v. State, 779 S.W.2d 449 (Tex. App.—Tyler 1989, pet. ref'd).

State ex rel Curry v. Bowman, 885 S.W.2d. 421 (Tex. Crim. App. 1993).

- ❑ 5. If the jury is deadlocked and cannot reach a verdict, the court may give an “Allen Charge” or “Dynamite Charge.”
  - ❑ a. Read the charge to the jury and give the charge to them in writing to take to the jury room along with the original instructions.

An “Allen” charge is one given to a deadlocked jury which indicates to a juror that some deference is owed to the opinion of the majority of the other jurors. Allen v. United States, 164 U.S. 492 (1896).

“While undoubtedly, members of the jury, the verdict of a jury should represent the opinion of each individual juror, it by no means follows that opinions may not be changed by conference in the jury room. The very object of the jury system is to secure unanimity by comparison of views and by arguments among the jurors themselves. Every juror should listen with deference to the arguments of the other jurors, and with a distrust of his or her own judgment if he or she finds the larger majority of the jury takes a different view of the case than that which he or she takes. No juror should go to the jury room with a blind determination that the verdict should represent his or her opinion of the case at that moment or that he or she should close his or her eyes to the arguments of the other jurors, who are equally honest and intelligent.”

“So I charge that although the law requires the considered verdict of each individual juror and not a mere acquiescence in the conclusion of his or her fellows, you should examine the questions submitted with candor and with a proper regard and deference to the opinions of each other.”

- 6. If a verdict is returned, read it in open court.
- 7. Poll the jury on request of the prosecution or defense.
- 8. If jury cannot agree, it may be discharged:
  - a. When both parties consent to its discharge; or
  - b. When the court believes that the jury has been kept together for such time as to render it altogether improbable that it can agree.

“Now, it is your duty to decide this case, if you can conscientiously do so. No juror is expected to do violence to his or her own conscience. You should listen with a disposition to be convinced of each other’s arguments. If a much larger number are for conviction, a dissenting juror should consider whether his or her doubt is a reasonable doubt, which made no impression upon the minds of so many men or women equally honest and intelligent as himself or herself.”

“If, on the other hand, a majority of you are for acquittal, the minority ought to ask themselves whether they might not reasonably doubt the correctness of a judgment which was not concurred in by the majority.”

“Having given you these additional instructions, it is my hope that you will return to the jury room and endeavor to reach a verdict. And with these instructions in mind, I am now going to ask you to return to the jury room and consider further your verdict.”

Art. 36.31, C.C.P.

CHAPTER 7 TRIAL PROCEEDINGS

In a jury trial, the jury determines questions of fact while the judge determines questions of law. Despite having such an important role in deciding a defendant’s criminal liability, jurors often do not fully understand what they are to properly consider in determining fact questions. Jury charges narrow the scope of considerations to be made by the jury to relevant and nonprejudicial matters.

(3) Defendant's name.

3. Commencement

a. Insert the:

- (1) Name of the offense;
- (2) Name of the city;
- (3) Date of the offense; and
- (4) Defendant's plea.

4. Abstract Charge

a. Describe the offense as specifically as possible from the statute and complaint. Consider quoting applicable statutory language.

5. Definitions

a. Define the culpable mental state, if any.

b. Define any terms which are defined in the code or statute.

MEMBERS OF THE JURY:

The defendant, (name as appearing on the complaint), is charged with the offense of _____ alleged to have been committed in the City of (municipality), (county), Texas, on or about the ____ day of _____, 20__. To this charge the defendant has pled not guilty. You are instructed that the law applicable to this case is as follows:

E.g., A person commits the offense of assault if the person intentionally or knowingly causes physical contact with another when the person knows or should reasonably believe that the other will regard the contact as offensive or provocative.

E.g., A person acts intentionally or with intent, with respect to the nature of his or her conduct or to a result of his or her conduct, when it is his or her conscious objective or desire to engage in the conduct or cause the result.

c. Reasonable Doubt

The six paragraphs previously required by Geesa v. State, 820 S.W.2d 154 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991) are no longer required under the holding of Paulson v. State, 28 S.W.3d 570 (Tex. Crim. App. 2000). If both sides agree, it can be included but, if either objects, its inclusion is error. Vosberg v. State, 80 S.W.3d 320 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2002, pet. ref’d).

6. Application Paragraph

Therefore, if you believe from the evidence beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant, (name of defendant), on or about (date alleged in the complaint), in the City of _____, Texas, did then and there intentionally or knowingly cause physical contact with (name of victim/complainant), by (set out facts alleged in complaint), when the defendant knew or should have reasonably believed that the said (name of victim/complainant) would regard the contact as offensive or provocative, you will find the defendant guilty of the offense of assault by contact.

a. Incorporate complaint or statutory language to include all elements of offense.

b. Delete any manner or means of committing the offense not supported by evidence.

c. Change conjunctive pleadings (“and”) to disjunctive (“or”) where applicable.

d. Apply law without commenting on weight of evidence.

7. Converse Charge

But if you do not so believe or if you have a reasonable doubt thereof, you will acquit the defendant and say by your verdict not guilty.

a. Insert the converse charge.

8. Evidentiary Instructions

E.g., You are instructed that certain evidence was admitted before you in regard to the defendant having been charged and convicted of an offense or offenses, other than the one for which the defendant is now on trial. Such evidence cannot be considered by you against the defendant as any evidence of guilt in this case. The evidence was admitted for the purpose of aiding you, if it does, in passing upon the credibility of the defendant as a witness in this case, and to aid you, if it does, in deciding on the weight you will give to the defendant's testimony, and you will not consider it for any other purpose. Arts. 38.22 and 38.23, C.C.P.

a. If evidence has been admitted for a limited purpose such as to impeach a witness, add an instruction to limit the jury's consideration to the purpose for which it was offered.

b. If there is a fact issue as to admissibility of evidence or a confession because of illegality in the way it was obtained, submit it to the jury if requested by the defendant.

9. Defenses

a. If evidence from any source establishes a defense, instruct the jury on the law and the requirement to acquit if the State fails to disprove the defense evidence beyond a reasonable doubt.

b. If evidence from any source establishes an affirmative defense, instruct the jury on the law and the requirement to acquit if defendant proves the defense by a preponderance of the evidence.

10. Presumptions

- a. Add any evidentiary presumption authorized by law.

- b. Include the general instructions relating to presumptions found in Section 2.05, P.C.

The jury is instructed relative to this presumption:

(1) that the facts giving rise to the presumption must be proven beyond a reasonable doubt;

(2) that if such facts are proven beyond a reasonable doubt the jury may find that the element of the offense sought to be presumed exists, but it is not bound to so find;

(3) that even though the jury may find the existence of such element, the State must prove beyond a reasonable doubt each of the other elements of the offense charged; and

(4) that if the jury has a reasonable doubt as to the existence of a fact or facts giving rise to the presumption, the presumption fails and the jury shall not consider the presumption for any purpose.

11. Range of Punishment

- a. Instruct on the range of punishment for every offense if defendant elected jury to assess punishment.

An individual adjudged guilty of _____ shall be punished by a fine not to exceed _____ dollars [or] by a fine of not less than $_____ nor more than $_____. Therefore, if you find the defendant guilty you shall assess punishment by a fine not to exceed _____ dollars [and not less than $_____].

12. General Instructions

- a. Add general instructions.

“You are instructed that the criminal complaint is not evidence of guilt. It is the means whereby a defendant is brought to trial in a misdemeanor prosecution. It is not evidence, nor can it be considered by you in passing upon the innocence or guilt of this defendant.”

“During your deliberations in this case, you must not consider, discuss or relate any matters not in evidence before you. You should not consider or mention any personal knowledge or information you may have about any fact or person connected with this case which is not shown by the evidence.”

“After you have retired to your jury room, you should select one of your members as your presiding juror. It is his or her duty to preside at your deliberations, vote with you, and when you have unanimously agreed upon a verdict, to certify to your verdict by signing the same as presiding juror.”

“You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses, and of the weight to be given to the evidence, but you are bound to receive the law from the court, which is herein given to you, and be governed thereby.”

- b. If the defendant elected that the jury assess punishment, explain how to arrive at punishment.

“A form for your verdict is attached; your verdict must be in writing and signed by your presiding juror. In deliberating on the punishment in this case, you must not refer to or discuss any matter not in evidence before you. You must not arrive at the punishment to be assessed by any lot or chance, or by putting down any figures or doing any dividing.”

“Your verdict must be unanimous.”

“You are the exclusive judges of the facts proved, of the credibility of the witnesses and of the weight to be given to their testimony, but you are bound to receive the law from the court which is herein given you, and be governed thereby.”

- 13. Verdict Form:

CAUSE NUMBER _____

THE STATE OF TEXAS

COURT OF § (City) § (County), TEXAS

VERDICT

- a. Prepare the verdict form on a separate page and include it with the charge.

(Choose one of the following)

We, the Jury, find the defendant not guilty.

_____
Presiding Juror

- b. If defendant elected to have the jury assess punishment, include a punishment section on verdict form.

- 14. Submission of Main Charge.
  - a. Give each party a copy of the charge and allow them a reasonable amount of time to review it.

- 15. Objections to the Main Charge.
  - a. Allow each party to make objections to the charge.

- 16. Make any needed changes to the charge.
  - a. Do not indicate in the charge which party requested the instruction.

- 17. Read the charge to the jury.

We, the Jury, find the defendant guilty, and assess a fine of $ _____.

26. Defense closes.
27. Provide a charge to the jury and a copy to prosecution and defense.
28. Read the charge to the jury.
29. Closing arguments:
- a. Prosecution argues first (may waive).
  - b. Defense makes its argument.
  - c. Prosecution has the right to argue last.
  - d. Both sides are given equal time.
30. Submit case to the jury for deliberations.
31. Verdict:
- a. You should see that the verdict is in the proper form (if guilty, the verdict should include assessment of punishment) and read it in open court.
  - b. Enter the verdict on your docket.

- c. If a verdict cannot be reached and it is improbable that an agreement can be reached, the jury should be discharged and the case tried again.

- 32. Motion for new trial.

See Chapter 10 in this book.

- 33. Appeal

See Chapter 10 in this book.

If the defendant is found guilty, the judge should inform the defendant of the right to appeal. The defendant is not required to give notice in open court. However, the notice of appeal and appeal bond must be filed within 10 days of rendition of judgment.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Order of the Court for Installment Agreement; and Schedule of Payments for Installment Agreement.

b. The entire fine and costs at some later date; or

“You will pay the total amount of $(fine and costs) immediately.”
 “You will pay the total amount of $(fine and costs) on or before (date).”

c. A specified portion of the fine and costs at designated intervals.

“You will pay the amount of $(payment) on or before (date) and payments of $(installment) each (installment period) until the total amount of $(fine and costs) is paid.”

A time payment fee of $25 must be paid if the total fine and costs are not paid before the 31st day after judgment. Sec. 133.103, L.G.C.

2. Deferred Disposition, Art. 45.051, C.C.P.

Deferred disposition is a form of probation used by municipal and justice courts that can last up to six months. Granting deferred disposition is within the court’s discretion. It is not mandatory. For more information about deferred disposition, see “Deferred Disposition is Not Deferred Adjudication,” The Recorder, 11:7 (August 2002)

| Checklist 8-2  | Script/Notes   |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Determine that deferred disposition is available for the alleged offense. It is not available for:   |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a. Traffic offenses committed in a work-construction zone while workers are present;  | Art. 45.051(f)(1), C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b. Violation of a state law or local ordinance relating to “motor vehicle control,” other than a parking violation committed by a person who holds a commercial driver’s license or held a commercial driver’s license at the time of the offense; or | Art. 45.051(f)(2), C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> c. A minor with two prior convictions for Consumption of Alcohol by a Minor (Sec. 106.04, A.B.C.) and Driving or Operating Watercraft Under the Influence of Alcohol by a Minor (Sec. 106.041, A.B.C.).   | If there are two prior convictions, the municipal court must waive jurisdiction of the third or subsequent offenses unless the court has a juvenile case manager. Sec. 51.08, F.C. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Deferred disposition may be granted:   | See TMCEC Forms Book :Deferred Disposition Order.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> a. After defendant pleads guilty or no contest; or  | The plea may be oral or written.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> b. After a finding of guilt by judge or jury.   | Deferred may be granted at the defendant’s request, the prosecutor’s suggestion, or the court’s own motion.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Set a fine.  | The court must set a fine when granting deferred disposition, even though the case may be dismissed later.   |

- 4. Defendant must pay court costs:
  - a. At the time the deferred disposition is granted or ordered; or,
  - b. Alternatively, notwithstanding any other provision of law;
    - (1) in installments during the probation period;
    - (2) by performing community service, if eligible, under Article 45.049, C.C.P., if:
      - (a) Defendant failed to pay previously assessed fine or cost; or
      - (b) Defendant is determined by the court to have insufficient resources or income to pay fine or costs;
    - (3) by performing community service, if defendant is younger than 17 years, under Article 45.0492, C.C.P.;
    - (4) by performing tutoring, if defendant is younger than 17 years of age and the offense occurred in a building or on the grounds of the primary or secondary school at which the defendant was enrolled at the time of the offense, under Article 45.0492, C.C.P.; or
    - (5) through a combination of the alternatives described above.
- 5. Defer the proceedings for a period of time not to exceed 180 days.
- 6. Set any or all of the following conditions to be performed by the defendant during the deferral period, which may include:

Art. 45.051(a), C.C.P.; Sec. 133.101, G.C.

Art. 45.051(a-1), C.C.P.

Alternatives should be incorporated as conditions of the deferred disposition order. See Checkbox 6 below.

- a. Post bond in amount of the fine to secure payment of the fine;
- b. Require payment of restitution to victim;
- c. Go to professional counseling;
- d. Submit to alcohol or drug testing;
- e. Submit to psychosocial assessment;
- f. Participate in an alcohol or drug abuse treatment or education program such as:
  - (1) A drug education program approved by the Department of State Health Services in accordance with Sec. 521.734, T.C.; or
  - (2) An alcohol awareness program described by Sec. 106.115, A.B.C.
- g. Pay for testing, treatment, or education;
- h. Complete a driving safety course or other course;
- i. Present the court with proof of compliance with any required conditions;
- j. Comply with any other reasonable requirements;

Restitution under the deferred statute may not be more than the fine assessed.

If the offense is a “traffic offense classified as a moving violation” and the defendant is younger than age 25, the judge shall require as a condition of deferred disposition that the defendant complete a driving safety course. See Checkbox “m” below.

Community service and committing no further offenses are examples of “other reasonable requirements.”

- k. If the offense is Purchase, Attempt to Purchase, Consumption, or Possession of Alcohol by a Minor; Misrepresentation of Age by a Minor; or Driving or Operating Watercraft Under the Influence of Alcohol by a Minor, the court must require as a condition of deferred disposition that the minor attend an alcohol awareness course, a DADAP, or a drug awareness program.

Sec. 106.115(a), A.B.C.

Persons under age 18 hold provisional licenses.Sec. 521.161(b)(2), T.C.                          |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 7. Inform the defendant: <input type="checkbox"/> a. When all the conditions are met, the case will be dismissed at the end of the deferral period. Otherwise the court will enter a judgment, and the fine will be due; and   | Give the defendant a written copy of the order deferring disposition, listing all the conditions, and the consequences of both successful and unsuccessful compliance. |

- b. Whether a special expense fee is imposed.

Art. 45.051(a), C.C.P. The judge may impose a special expense fee on the defendant not to exceed the amount of the fine that could be imposed. The special expense fee may be collected at any time before the end of the probation period. The judge may elect not to impose the special expense fee for good cause shown. If the judge orders the collection of a special expense fee, the judge shall require that the amount of the special expense fee be credited in the event of default by the defendant toward the payment of the amount of the fine imposed by the judge.

- 8. At the end of the deferral period:

- a. If the defendant presents satisfactory evidence of compliance with the requirements, then dismiss the case.

- b. If the defendant fails to provide proof of compliance within the deferred period:

- (1) The court must set the matter for a show cause hearing.
- (2) The court must provide notice in writing of the defendant's opportunity to show cause. The notice shall be mailed to either the address on file with the court or the address that appeared on the citation.
- (3) The court shall require the defendant to appear at the time and place stated in the notice and show cause why the deferral should not be revoked.

Art. 45.051(c-1), C.C.P.

(4) At the show cause hearing on the defendant's showing of good cause for failure to present satisfactory evidence of compliance with the requirements of the deferred order, the court may allow an additional period during which the defendant may present evidence of the defendant's compliance with the order's requirements.

Art. 45.051(c-2), C.C.P.

(5) After a show cause hearing the judge may either:

Art. 45.051(d)-(d-1), C.C.P.

(a) impose the fine originally suspended pending the deferral period; or

(b) impose a lesser fine (except in instances involving defendants younger than 25 years of age involving traffic offenses classified as moving violations; court shall impose the original fine assessed.)

CHAPTER 8 SENTENCING, DEFERRED, AND INDIGENCE

3. Indigence

The 78th Legislature defined “indigent” to mean “an individual who earns not more than 125 percent of the income standard established by applicable federal poverty guidelines” under Sec. 133.002, L.G.C. However, it is unclear which, if any, federal poverty guidelines municipal courts should apply. The TMCEC application form for time payment, extensions, or community service asks that the defendant note any federal programs that he or she is eligible for and is receiving assistance from. The court should consider this information in combination with the defendant’s ability to pay a fine and costs.

It is recommended that any defendant who is: (1) not required to pay costs by court order; or (2) unable to pay all fines and costs at the time of judgment, complete an admonishment as to financial changes (See TMCEC Forms Book).

|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Defendant raises indigence impacting paying fine/ costs, appeal, bond, or posting bail.                           | A person who is unable to pay a fine must be provided an alternative means of discharging the fine other than incarceration under the equal protection clause. | <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Have the defendant swear to or affirm information on the sheet.   | After defendant completes form, have defendant sign under oath. “Do you swear (affirm) that the information that you have provided in this document is true and correct?”   |

- a. Place the defendant under oath to present testimony about financial condition.

- 4. Consider the defendant's income and resources:
  - a. Amount of income;
  - b. Source of income:
    - (1) Wages, investment income, checking/savings, child support, social security/disability/welfare income, selling assets/non-exempt property, etc.
    - (2) Loans and ability to borrow money.
    - (3) Whether defendant has posted bail (cash bond or surety).

- 5. Consider the defendant's expenses:
  - a. Number and ages of dependents;
  - b. Rent/mortgage payment;
  - c. Debts and obligations (car notes, credit cards, etc.);
  - d. Personal expenses; and
  - e. Illness/incapacity of defendant or spouse.

- 6. Consider other evidence:
  - a. Ability to work; and
  - b. Spouse's financial condition.

"I'm going to place you under oath before conducting this indigence hearing and reviewing your financial information sheet. Please raise your right hand. Do you swear to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth in this matter pending before the court?"

- 7. Factors not to be considered:
  - a. Financial resources of parents and other relatives;
  - b. Exempt property including homestead and vehicles (see Chapters 41 and 42, Texas Property Code); and
  - c. Attitude.
- 8. Review financial information sheet with the defendant, if necessary.
- 9. Review any federal assistance program(s) that the defendant is participating in.
- 10. Procedural issues:
  - a. Consider the truthfulness of indigent affidavit and defendant’s testimony;
  - b. Examine court records — payment history and/or prior indigence hearing;
  - c. Documentation:
    - (1) Note date and time of hearing or ruling; and
    - (2) Attach or secure all documentation with ruling and place in file.
- 11. Upon determination that defendant is unable to pay the fine, costs, or special expense fee:
  - a. Advise of right to appeal.
    - (1) Appeal:
      - (a) Grant personal bond for appeal bond; and
      - (b) Send case to the appellate court.

See Chapter 10 of this book.

(2) No Appeal:

(a) Time payment if defendant can obtain funds at a later time:

(i) All payable at a later date;

(ii) Payment in periodic installments;

(iii) Explain that if the defendant wants time payment or an extension, he or she will have to pay an additional $25 for each charge where there is a conviction if any part of the fine or court costs is paid on or after the 31st day after judgment is entered.

Art. 45.041(b), C.C.P.
Sec. 133.103, L.G.C

b. Consider ordering community service:

(1) Each eight hours of service discharges not less than $50 of the fine and costs.

(2) No more than 16 hours per week, unless the court finds that a greater period would not work a hardship.

(3) Court should specify the number of hours to be worked.

(4) Can be used in conjunction with partial payment.

Art. 45.049, C.C.P.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Community Service Order; and Community Service Time Sheet.

- (5) Defendants charged with a traffic offense or possession of alcohol by a minor who are residents of Texas and ordered to perform community service as a condition of deferred disposition may elect to perform the required community service in the county in which the court is located, or the county in which the defendant resides; but only if the entity or organization agrees to supervise the defendant in the performance of the defendant's community service work and report to the court on the defendant's community service work.

Art. 45.051(b)(10), C.C.P.

- c. Consider the waiver of costs and fine:

Art. 45.0491, C.C.P.
See TMCEC Forms Book: Waiver of Payment of Fine and Costs for Indigent Defendants.

- (1) Court must order immediate payment and the defendant subsequently defaults in payment.
- (2) Defendant must be indigent and unable to make installment payments.
- (3) Community service must impose an undue hardship on defendant.
- (4) Note these findings and waiver in court records.

CHAPTER 9 BOND FORFEITURES

Municipal judges are empowered to admit persons to bail and to forfeit bail in the same manner as provided for county courts. The failure to perform the condition on the bond causes the court to declare forfeiture of the bail. Therefore, a defendant’s failure to appear in court after posting bail and the judicial declaration of the forfeiture initiates bond forfeiture procedures.

Generally, Chapter 22, C.C.P., governs bond forfeiture proceedings. The exception to using the bond forfeiture procedures in Chapter 22 is found in Article 45.044, C.C.P. This statute provides an additional method of forfeiting a cash bond in certain instances.

1. Cash Bond Forfeitures in Satisfaction of Fine Under Article 45.044, C.C.P.

| Checklist 9-1   | Script/Notes   |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Ask the defendant to acknowledge his or her presence when the defendant’s name is called.   | Art. 22.02, C.C.P.Calling name in hallway on sixth floor is sufficient. Burns v. State , 814 S.W.2d 768 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 1991, rev’d on other grounds).See TMCEC Forms Book: Bailiff/Clerk’s Affidavit of Defendant’s Failure to Appear . |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. When the defendant fails to answer, order the bailiff or another to call the defendant’s name distinctly at the courthouse door.  | Art. 45.044, C.C.P.  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. If the defendant has posted a cash bond and has signed a conditional plea of nolo contendere and waiver of jury trial, the judge may forfeit the bond for fine and court costs when the defendant fails to appear. Otherwise, skip remaining steps and proceed to judgment. |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Notify the defendant immediately by regular mail of the court action and the right to request a new trial.  |  |

- ❑ 5. If the defendant makes a request for a new trial within 10 days after the forfeiture, the court shall grant the motion and allow the defendant to withdraw his or her conditional plea of nolo contendere and waiver of jury trial. The bond is reinstated and the case is set for trial.

To count, start the day after the forfeiture and count 10 calendar days. If the 10th day falls on a weekend or holiday, go to the next working day of the court for the 10th day.

- ❑ a. Amount of time increased by the “Mailbox Rule.”

If the request for new trial is mailed first class mail on or before the due date of filing of the request for new trial and received by the clerk not later than 10 days after the due date, the motion is properly filed. (“Day” does not include Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.) Make sure the clerk keeps the envelope showing the postmark.

- ❑ 6. If the defendant does not make a timely motion for a new trial, the judgment and forfeiture become final. Court costs are paid to the State and the fine is deposited in the general revenue fund. If the offense is a traffic offense, the court reports the conviction to the Department of Public Safety:

- ❑ a. If the defendant has been in jail, jail time credit is required to be given at a rate of not less than $50 for a period of time specified in the judgment. The court should determine the period of time between eight and 24 hours.
- ❑ b. Depending on the credit and amount of fine imposed, the court may have to refund all or part of the bond.

Sec. 311.014, G.C.

Art. 45.013, C.C.P.

Defendants filing documents by mail have additional time (10 days) in which to present the document to the court. This rule, commonly called the “Mail Box Rule,” increases the time for filing documents.

Arts. 42.03, Sec. 2, 45.041, and 45.048, C.C.P.

2. Cash, Surety, or Personal Bond Forfeiture Procedures Under Chapter 22, C.C.P.

Before a judgment nisi is issued initiating a bond forfeiture, a surety can be released from the responsibility on the bond by filing an affidavit of intention to surrender the defendant. The affidavit must include a statement that notice to the principal’s attorney has been given as required by Article. 17.19, C.C.P. See Arts. 17.16, 17.19, C.C.P., for rules regarding discharge of liability on bond.

An action by the State to forfeit a bail bond must be brought not later than the fourth anniversary of the date the principal fails to appear in court. Art. 22.18, C.C.P.

| Checklist 9-2   | Script/Notes |

| Definitions: “Agreed judgment” is a judgment entered on agreement of the parties, which receives the sanction of the court. When the court gives the agreement its sanction, it becomes the judgment of the court. An “answer” is the formal written statement made by a defendant setting forth grounds for his or her defense. In some instances the answer may need to be verified (sworn to). A “citation” is a writ (written order) issued by the clerk of the court. The citation notifies a person of a lawsuit filed against him or her and directs the person to file an answer to the suit within a certain number of days. “Defendant” is a term used to describe the surety. “Forfeiture” means the signing of the judgment nisi. “Judgment nisi” is a temporary order which will become final unless the defendant in the criminal case and/or the surety show good cause why the judgment should be set aside. “Judicial notice” is an act by which a court, in conducting a trial, will, without the production of evidence, recognize the existence and truth of certain facts or documents because the court already is aware of the facts or documents. A “movant” is one who makes a motion before a court. “Pleadings” are formal documents filed by parties, stating their respective claims and defenses. |                     |

A “principal” is the defendant in the criminal case.

“Scire Facias” is a special docket required by law to handle all cases and proceedings involved in the forfeiture of bail bonds. This docket may also be called the civil docket.

“Summary proceeding” is any proceeding by which a controversy (lawsuit) is settled, case disposed of, or trial conducted in a prompt and simple manner, without a jury. The court may grant a summary judgment when it believes that there is no genuine issue of material fact and that the party is entitled to prevail as a matter of law. Any party to a civil action may move for a summary judgment.

“Surrender” means that a surety may relieve himself or herself of liability before forfeiture by surrendering the accused into custody or by filing an affidavit stating that the accused is in federal, state, or county custody.

A “waiver” is a sworn statement that intentionally and voluntarily relinquishes the right of being served by citation.

- 1. Ask the defendant to acknowledge his or her presence when the defendant’s name is called.
- 2. When the defendant fails to answer, order the bailiff or another to call the name distinctly at the courthouse door.
- 3. Note the time the call was made and who made the call.
- 4. If the defendant does not appear within a reasonable time after the call, enter judgment nisi against the defendant and his or her sureties. (The judgment nisi is usually prepared by the clerk for the judge’s signature.)

- a. Party requesting must file and serve the motion and supporting affidavit at least 21 days before the time specified for hearing.
- b. Filed when:
  - (1) No valid defense is raised; and
  - (2) No genuine issue as to material fact exists and moving party is entitled to judgment as matter of law.
- c. Defenses raised must be verified and the answer not verified. Defenses required to be verified include:
  - (1) Defendant did not execute bond;
  - (2) Defendant is not liable in the capacity sued;
  - (3) There is a defect of parties; or
  - (4) Defendant alleged to be a corporation and is not incorporated as alleged.
- d. Adverse party has no later than seven days prior to hearing to file and serve opposing affidavits.
- e. Fact issues include:
  - (1) Whether surety executed bond;
  - (2) Whether principal's name was called at courthouse door;
  - (3) Whether principal failed to appear; or
  - (4) Whether principal had a valid reason for not appearing.
- f. Summary judgment hearing:
  - (1) No oral testimony;

- (2) Judge reviews pleadings; and,
    - (3) State asks judge to take judicial notice of bond and judgment nisi, then rests.
  - g. Defense must set forth affidavits. Affidavit must include:
    - (1) Information based on personal knowledge; and
    - (2) How affiant became personally familiar with facts.
  - h. If no genuine issue exists, grant movant's (usually State's) motion for summary judgment.
  - i. If there is a genuine issue, deny and set for bond forfeiture trial.
- 13. Procedure at bond forfeiture trial
  - a. At least 45 days notice of the first trial setting required.
  - b. If service of citation is by publication and there was no answer, appoint an attorney to represent the surety.
  - c. Defendant may request a jury trial.
  - d. Written request for a jury trial is required.
  - e. Must be received not less than 30 days in advance of the first trial setting for trial before the judge.
  - f. Defendant must pay jury trial fee of $5. (Fee might be $5, which is paid to county court, or $10, which is paid to district court. Court will have to determine which fee is applicable.)

- a. If the defendant or surety is entitled to remittitur, before entry of final judgment and written motion submitted, deduct from the amount of the bond, court costs, interest, and any reasonable costs to the city for the return of the defendant.
- b. Interest accrues on the bond amount from the date of forfeiture in the same manner and at the same rate as provided for in the accrual of prejudgment interest in civil cases.
- c. Interest on the bond amount after forfeiture begins to accrue on the face amount of the bond if no specified rate of interest is agreed upon by the defendant (surety) or State (prosecutor). Interest on the bond forfeiture begins to accrue from the date of the judgment nisi.
- d. Remittitur is required if the defendant or sureties show:
  - (1) Defendant (principal) is released on new bail; or
  - (2) The case for which the bond was given is dismissed.
- e. The court may remit the bond or any part of the bond for any other good cause shown the court.

25. Agreed Judgment. If the county population is more than 110,000 or a bail bond board created within the county:

- a. State and defense may agree to an amount less than bond and recommendation is submitted to court.
- b. Court accepts the recommendation and enters a final judgment.

Art. 22.125, C.C.P.
Sec. 1704.205, O.C.

The court accepts the State's recommendation of the agreed judgment and finds that the judgment nisi is now final. The defendant and sureties are jointly and severally bound in the amount of $_____ and costs of court to (City), Texas and order judgment be entered and execution issued. (Note: If sureties are a corporation, they are not in default until the 11th day after judgment. Sec. 1704.212, O.C.)

See TMCEC Forms Book: Agreed Final Judgment.

26. Motion for New Trial

- a. Defendant and/or surety requests within 30 days after final judgment has been signed.
- b. Request (motion) is made in writing.

Tex. R. Civ. P. 329(b).

Motion extends time for issuance of execution up to 105 days. If the judge never signs the motion for new trial, it will be deemed overruled 75 days after the original judgment was signed. The same rule applies whenever a final judgment is signed.

27. Non-Contested Cases

- a. Proper answer is filed; and
- b. Defendant is not contesting forfeiture.

Tex. R. Civ. P. 245.

The case may be tried or disposed of at any time, whether set or not, and may be set at any time for any other time.

28. Appeal

- a. Defendant(s) have the right to appeal a final forfeiture.

Art. 45.042, C.C.P.

29. Bill of Review

Art. 22.17, C.C.P.

- a. Defense presents not later than two years after the date of final judgment.
- b. Includes request, on equitable grounds, that the final judgment be reformed and that all or part of the bond be remitted to the surety.
- c. The court grants a bill in part or in whole. For bill of review, interest accrues on the bond amount from the date of:
  - (1) The date of forfeiture to the date of final judgment in the same manner and at the same rate as provided for the accrual of prejudgment interest in civil cases; and
  - (2) The date of final judgment to the date of the order for remittitur at the same rate as provided for the accrual of post-judgment interest in civil cases.
- d. The court denies the bill.

The court grants the bill of review (in part / in whole) and orders that judgment be reformed and the amount of $_____ be returned to the defendant.

The State should review and respond to the bill. If granting the bill, costs of court, any reasonable expenses in re-arresting the defendant, and interest accrued on the bond from the date of the forfeiture should be deducted.

- e. A municipal court has concurrent jurisdiction with county and justice courts in cases that arise under ordinances of the municipality's extraterritorial jurisdiction under Section 216.906 of the Local Government Code (Regulation of Outdoor Signs in Municipality's Extraterritorial Jurisdiction). Art. 4.11, C.C.P.

- f. Section 30.00005, G.C., says that municipal courts of record have jurisdiction over city ordinance violations authorized by Sections 215.072, 217.042, 341.903, and 551.002, L.G.C., providing the following:
  - (1) A municipality is permitted to inspect dairies, slaughterhouses, or slaughter pens in or outside the municipal limits from which milk or meat is furnished to the residents of the municipality. Sec. 215.072, L.G.C.

  - (2) A municipality may define and prohibit any nuisance within the limits of the municipality and within 5,000 feet outside those limits and may enforce all ordinances necessary to prevent and summarily abate and remove a nuisance. Sec. 217.042, L.G.C.

  - (3) A home-rule municipality may police the following areas owned by and located outside the municipality: (1) parks and grounds; (2) lakes and land contiguous to and used in connection with a lake; and (3) speedways and boulevards. Sec. 341.903, L.G.C.

(4) A home-rule municipality may prohibit the pollution or degradation of the city’s water supply and provide protection and policing of watersheds. The statute further provides that the authority granted by this statute may be exercised inside the city boundaries and in the extra-territorial jurisdiction only if required to meet certain other state or federal requirements. The authority granted under this statute regarding the protection of recharge areas may be exercised outside the city boundaries within the extra-territorial limits provided that the city has a population greater than 750,000 and the groundwater constitutes more than 75 percent of the city’s water supply.

Sec. 551.002, L.G.C.

g. The city may grant the municipal court of record, by passing an ordinance, civil jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing municipal ordinances under Chapter 214, L.G.C., (Nuisance), and Chapter 683, T.C., (Junked Vehicles). This jurisdiction is concurrent with district and county courts at law and includes the power to issue search warrants and destruction orders.

h. The city may create by ordinance an administrative procedure for dealing with nuisance violations and junked vehicles that may be appealed to the municipal court.

Sec. 54.044, L.G.C.,and
Sec. 683.0765, T.C.

2. Ordinance is invalid if:

a. It is inconsistent with the city’s charter;

b. It is inconsistent with state law or the Texas Constitution;

Some statutes specifically grant authority to cities to go beyond state law definitions or regulatory schemes.

- c. It is preempted by state or federal law;

- d. It is inconsistent with the U.S. Constitution or federal law; or

- e. It is enacted in violation of the Texas Open Meetings law and not subsequently validated by the Legislature.

- 3. Culpable Mental States
  - a. If the ordinance does not prescribe a culpable mental state, a culpable mental state is nevertheless required unless the definition of the offense plainly dispenses with any mental element.

  - b. An offense defined by municipal ordinance may not dispense with the requirement of a culpable mental state if the offense is punishable by a fine exceeding $500.

- 4. Notice

A determination of invalidity in municipal court results in an individual being found not guilty. Barring an injunction from a court of equity, a municipality may continue to enforce its ordinances. State v. Morales, 869 S.W.2d 941 (Tex. 1994).

Sec. 6.02(b), P.C. A city ordinance on adult businesses was held to require a culpable mental state even though the ordinance was silent as to the issue. Aguirre v. State, 22 S.W.3d 463 (Tex. Crim. App. 1999). NOTE: To the degree that Aguirre contradicts Section 6.02, P.C., its holding is modified by legislative enactment.

Sec. 6.02(f), P.C.

- a. There is no notice requirement in most ordinances.
- b. If there is a notice requirement, whether it has been complied with is a matter to be decided after hearing the testimony.
- c. Notice need not be pled in the complaint.
- 5. Judicial Notice
  - a. Judge may take judicial notice of all municipal ordinances.
  - b. Some court of record statutes state that the judge shall take judicial notice of the ordinances.
  - c. A printed ordinance is selfauthenticating and a judge shall admit it without further proof.
- 6. Warrants
  - a. A magistrate may issue search warrants for code inspections based on probable cause.

A city may adopt an ordinance which incorporates some other document, such as the International Building Code. Unless a notice provision is specifically eliminated or altered, the city is bound to follow the language fo the incorporated document. State v. Cooper, 420 S. W. 3d 829 (Tex. Crim. App. 2013).

Check procedure in Chapter 30, G.C., if a court of record.

Requirements for these warrants are found in Section 18.05, C.C.P.

CHAPTER 12 OATHS AND CEREMONIES

Complaints (a/k/a the Charging Instrument)

1. Complaints Filed in Municipal Court

Caution: The term “complaint” has historically been a source of confusion in Texas criminal law (especially in the context of criminal procedure). The term describes the formal charging instrument to try Class C misdemeanors. Unfortunately, it is also the term used to describe what is commonly known as the sworn affidavit for a warrant under Chapter 15, C.C.P. Do not confuse the two different applications of the term. For a detailed discussion of the different meanings of the term “complaint,” see “Complaints, Complaints, Complaints: Don’t Let the Language of the Law Confuse You,” The Recorder 13:6 (July 2004). Checklist 12-1 relates to the term as used to refer to the charging instrument under Chapter 45, C.C.P. Checklist 12-2 relates to the term as it refers to the affidavit for the issuance of a warrant.

In Naff v. State, 946 S.W.2d 529 (Tex. App.–Fort Worth 1997), the court held that a person swearing to a complaint in municipal court may do so based on information contained in the citation. In this case, the defendant argued that the complaint filed against him in municipal court was invalid because it was sworn to by the municipal prosecutor’s secretary. The secretary did not have firsthand knowledge of the events in question. She swore to the complaint based upon the information contained in the citation written by the police officer. The court stated that there is no requirement that the person swearing to the complaint do so based on firsthand knowledge.

- a. Before testifying, each witness shall be required to declare that he or she will testify truthfully by oath or affirmation in a form calculated to awaken the witness's conscience and impress on the witness the duty to do so.
- b. Both the judge (or other person administering oath) and witness should raise their right hands.
- c. Oath is administered.

- d. Invoke "The Rule."

Rule 603, T.R.E.

"Do you solemnly swear or affirm that the testimony that you are about to give in the case now on trial is the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth (so help you God)?"

At the request of either party, or the court, witnesses may be excluded from the courtroom so that they cannot hear the testimony of other witnesses. This is commonly called "The Rule." If "The Rule" is invoked, all witnesses should be sworn before being directed to wait outside the courtroom. Rule 614, T.R.E.

- f. For purposes of status tobacco offenses, a “minor” is an individual under the age of 18 years of age.

Sec. 161.252(a), H.S.C.
See Checklists 13-8 and 13-9 for a listing of status tobacco offenses and penalties.
- g. For purposes of all other offenses, a child is a person who is at least age 10 and under the age of 17.

Sec. 51.02(2), F.C.
Municipal court has jurisdiction only if the child is at least 10 years of age.
- 3. Court determines if there is probable cause to believe that a child, including a child with mental illness or developmental disability:
  - a. Lacks the capacity to understand the proceedings or to assist in their own defense and is unfit to proceed; or
  - b. Lacks substantial capacity either to appreciate the wrongfulness of the child’s own conduct or to conform their conduct to the requirements of the law.

Sec. 8.08, P.C.
- 4. If court determines that probable cause exists under step 3 above, the court may dismiss the complaint after giving notice to the prosecution.

The prosecution has the right to appeal such determinations. Art. 44.01, C.C.P.
- 5. Court determines whether to retain jurisdiction or to transfer a case involving a child under the age of 17 to the juvenile court.

See Checklist 13-2.
The court may not transfer a traffic offense or a tobacco offense involving persons under the age of 17.
- 6. If the court does not waive jurisdiction, the court proceeds.
- 7. Determine if parent(s) is present. (Parent’s presence required for all proceedings if the child or minor is under the age of 17 and for a 17-year-old defendant charged with a sexting offense under Section 43.261, P.C.)

Art. 45.0215, C.C.P.
“Parent” includes a person standing in parental relation, a managing conservator, or a custodian. Art. 45.057(a)(3), C.C.P.

- ❑ 8. If the parent does not appear, determine if the parent(s) has been served with a summons. If not, reset the case.
  - ❑ a. The court must summon the parent(s) to appear in open court with his or her child (a person under the age of 17 or a 17-year-old charged with a sexting offense under Section 43.261, P.C.).
  - ❑ b. If the parent(s) has been served with a summons but failed to appear, the court may waive the requirement of the presence of the parents, guardian, or managing conservator if, after diligent effort, the court cannot locate them or compel their presence.

Marriage removes the disability of minority. Thus, the parents of defendants who are younger than 17 years of age and who are married need not be summoned. Sec. 1.104, F.C.

Art. 45.0215, C.C.P.

If the court waives this requirement, it is advisable to document what action the court employed to compel the parent's presence in the offender's file. If the parent, guardian, or managing conservator fails to respond to the summons, it is punishable as a Class C misdemeanor. Art. 45.057(g), C.C.P.

- 9. Notify parent and child in writing of their continuing obligation to give written notice of current address. The court should provide a copy of Article 45.057(h) and (i), C.C.P., to child and parent.

Art. 45.057, C.C.P.

“Here is a copy of the law requiring you and your parent to give notice of your current address. If you fail to give this court written notice of your current address or if you move and fail to give written notice of your current address within seven days after moving, you and your parent(s) could be charged with a Class C misdemeanor that has a maximum penalty of $500.”

Art. 45.057(h), C.C.P. A child and parent required to appear before the court have an obligation to provide the court in writing with the current address and residence of the child. The obligation does not end when the child reaches age 17. On or before the seventh day after the date the child or parent changes residence, the child or parent shall notify the court of the current address in the manner directed by the court. A violation of this subsection may result in arrest and is a Class C misdemeanor. The obligation to provide notice terminates on discharge and satisfaction of the judgment or final disposition not requiring a finding of guilt.

Art. 45.057(i), C.C.P. If an appellate court accepts an appeal for a trial de novo, the child and parent shall provide the notice under Subsection (h) to the appellate court.

10. Make notes on child’s sophistication and maturity and file notes with case.

11. If an attorney appears without the child or the child’s parent(s). Reset the case.

12. If the child does not appear with an attorney, determine whether the juvenile offender is intending to hire an attorney.

a. If an attorney is going to be hired, reset the case and inform the juvenile offender and parent or guardian to have the attorney present for the date and time in which the case is rescheduled.

b. Provide the specific:

(1) Date;

(2) Place; and

(3) Time of the resetting.

c. If an attorney is not going to be hired, proceed.

13. Explain the child’s rights, charge(s), pleas, and penalties. Make sure that child understands consequences of each plea.

Article 45.045, C.C.P., requires the court to consider the defendant’s sophistication and maturity before issuing a capias pro fine for the defendant when the defendant reaches age 17. This might be the only time that the court has to determine that information. See Checklist 13-22 Children Now Adults who Fail to Pay Fines.

Art. 45.0215, C.C.P.

“The law requires that a child and his or her parents must personally be present in open court before the court can proceed with the child’s case. Therefore, I am resetting this case.”

See Checklist 3-2 for explaining the defendant’s right to counsel.

“At your next court date and at any subsequent court appearances, you and your parent(s) must still appear even though you will be represented by an attorney.” Art. 45.0215, C.C.P.

See Checklists 3-2 and 4-1 for rights and pleas; see Checklists 13-3 through 13-14 for information on charges and penalties for each code.

- 14. In addition to the rights in Checklists 3-2 and 4-1, if the offense is a fine-only misdemeanor penal offense (includes Penal Code offenses, penal ordinance offenses, and Education Code offenses the court must:
  - a. Notify the parent and child of the child’s right to an expunction at the commencement of the proceedings; and
  - b. Give both the parent and child a copy of the expunction statute, Article 45.0216, C.C.P.
- 15. Request a plea.
- 16. On a plea of not guilty, determine whether the juvenile offender wants to:
  - a. Waive a jury trial and proceed with a non-jury trial; or
  - b. Exercise his or her right to a trial by jury.
  - c. Set the case according to the juvenile offender’s request.
  - d. Set bail, if applicable.
  - e. Inform both the juvenile offender and his or her parent or guardian of the date, time, and place of the trial.
- 17. On a plea of “guilty” or “no contest,” inform the juvenile offender and his or her parent or guardian of the possible options to dispose of the case:
  - a. Driving safety course, if applicable.

See Checklist 13-22.

“You have the right to have the offense of _____ expunged. Here is a copy of the law regarding your right to expunction. Please take time to read this information.”

See Chapter 5 on taking pleas.

“How do you plead to the charge of _____ brought against you? ‘Guilty,’ ‘No Contest,’ or ‘Not Guilty?’”

All trials are to be open to the public. Art. 1.24, C.C.P.

See Chapters 6 and 7 for pretrial and trial procedures.

If the trial date is not known at the time of plea, tell the juvenile offender and parent or guardian that notice is coming. Verify the juvenile’s address at this time.

See Checklist 5-1.

- b. Teen court, if applicable.
  - c. Deferred disposition, if applicable.
18. Set the fine and impose any required sanctions. The court may require rehabilitative sanctions under Article 45.057, C.C.P. See Checklist 13-15 for imposing those sanctions.
19. You may allow a defendant who is a child, to elect at the time of conviction, to discharge the fine and costs by:
- a. Performing community service or receiving tutoring under Article 45.0492, as added by Chapter 227 (H.B. 350), Acts of the 82nd Legislature, Regular Session, 2011; or
  - b. Paying the fine and costs.
20. If you do not allow election by the child, determine how you would like the fine to be discharged. It can be discharged by:
- a. Payment;
  - b. By performing community service, if eligible, under Article 45.049, C.C.P., if:

Art. 45.052, C.C.P.

See Checklist 8-2.
See Checklist 8-1 for sentencing.

“The fine is set in the amount of $_____. In addition to the fine, you must pay court costs.”

For Alcoholic Beverage Code offenses, see Checklist 13-6 and 13-7 for information on required sanctions.

For tobacco offenses, see Checklist 13-9 for information on required sanctions.

For additional sanctions that the court might also impose upon conviction for any offense, see Checklist 13-15.

Art. 45.041(b-3), C.C.P.

See Checklist 8-3 for indigent hearings.

- (1) Defendant failed to pay previously assessed fine or cost; or

- (2) Defendant is determined by the court to have insufficient resources or income to pay fine or costs;

- c. By performing community service, if defendant is younger than 17 years, under Article 45.0492, C.C.P.;

- d. By performing tutoring, if defendant is younger than 17 years of age and the criminal offense occurred in a building or on the grounds of the primary or secondary school at which the defendant was enrolled at the time of the offense, under Article 45.0492, C.C.P.; or

- e. Through a combination of the alternatives described above.

Art. 45.049, C.C.P.

“If you do not have the resources to pay the fine and costs, you may perform community service for a governmental entity or a non-profit organization to discharge payment of your fine and costs.”

2. Waiver of Municipal Court Jurisdiction and Transfer of Child to Juvenile Court

It would be prudent for the municipal judge and other interested officials to meet with the juvenile court judge in your respective jurisdiction to devise a system of transfer that is acceptable to both courts.

| Checklist 13-2   | Script/Notes   |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. If the court decides to waive jurisdiction, see the following information: <input type="checkbox"/> a. A municipal court may enter an “order of waiver of jurisdiction” and transfer the juvenile defendant to juvenile court whenever a complaint is pending against a juvenile for any fine-only offense other than a traffic offense, or a tobacco offense under Section 161.252, H.S.C. This is called discretionary transfer. <input type="checkbox"/> b. A municipal court shall enter an “order of waiver of jurisdiction” and transfer the juvenile defendant to juvenile court if the complaint pending alleges a violation of Section 43.261, P.C., that is punishable by fine only (i.e., “sexting”). <input type="checkbox"/> c. A municipal court shall enter an “order of waiver of jurisdiction” and transfer the juvenile defendant to juvenile court if the municipal court or another court has previously dismissed a complaint against the child under Section 8.08, Penal Code. <input type="checkbox"/> c. A municipal court shall enter an “order of waiver of jurisdiction” and transfer the juvenile defendant to juvenile court when the juvenile has previously been convicted of: <input type="checkbox"/> (1) Two or more misdemeanors punishable by fine only other than traffic or tobacco; | Sec. 51.08(b)(2), F.C.Sec. 161.257, H.S.C. Sexting offenses alleged against a child must be transferred to juvenile court. (2) Two or more violations of a penal ordinance of a political subdivision other than a traffic; or

(3) One or more of each of the types of misdemeanors described above.

This is called mandatory transfer.

2. A municipal court may elect not to enter an “order of waiver of jurisdiction” for a third or other subsequent violation if the court employs a juvenile case manager under Article 45.056, C.C.P.

Sec. 51.08(d), F.C.

3. Notice to Juvenile Court

Sec. 51.08(c), F.C.

a. A municipal court is required to notify the juvenile court of any pending complaint against a juvenile in which jurisdiction is not waived except for:

A letter addressed to the juvenile court judge or the appropriate designee of the juvenile court should contain the following information:

- 1) Name of the court;
- 2) Name of the defendant;
- 3) Name of the judge;
- 4) Offense charged; and
- 5) Cause number assigned to the case.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Report to Juvenile Court of Complaint Filed.

(1) A traffic offense; or

(2) A tobacco offense committed by a person under the age of 17.

b. In addition, the municipal court must furnish the juvenile court with notice of the final disposition of the cases in which the municipal court retained jurisdiction.

Sec. 51.08(c), F.C.

CHAPTER 13 JUVENILE AND MINOR PROCEEDINGS

Traffic and Other Motor Vehicle Misdemeanors

Section 729.001, T.C., provides that Chapter 729 applies to a person who is under the age of 17. Municipal courts may not waive jurisdiction over traffic offenses committed by a person under age 17 regardless of the number of convictions for fine-only traffic offenses. Sec. 51.08, F.C.

- d. Motor Vehicle Safety Responsibility Act – Chapter 601, T.C.

Sec. 601.191, T.C. (Specific Penalty) – A minimum fine of $175 and a maximum fine of $350.

If the offense involves failure to yield right-of-way that causes a crash and bodily injury to a person other than defendant, the fine is a minimum of $500 and a maximum of $2,000. The fine increases to a minimum of $1,000 and a maximum of $4,000 if the offense results in serious bodily injury or death. Sec. 542.4045, T.C.

Fines for no safety belt are a minimum of $25 and a maximum of $50. Fines for allowing a child younger than 17 to ride in a vehicle without requiring a safety belt are a minimum of $100 and a maximum of $200. Sec. 545.413, T.C.

If the driver is charged with not having a child secured, the fines are a maximum of $25 for the first offense and a maximum of $250 for a second or subsequent offense. Sec. 545.412(b), T.C.

The fine for passing a school bus is a minimum of $200 and a maximum of $1000. Sec. 545.066(c), T.C.

If the court determines that a person has not been previously convicted of Failure to Maintain Financial Responsibility and that the person is economically unable to pay the fine, the court may reduce the fine to not less than $175. Sec. 601.191(d), T.C.

Sec. 601.191(c), T.C. (Specific Penalty) – If a person has been previously convicted of an offense of failure to maintain financial responsibility, the fine is not less than $350 or more than $1000. (The complaint must be enhanced alleging a prior judgment and the prosecution must prove the prior judgment before the court may assess this fine.)

- e. General Provisions Relating to Vehicle Size and Weight – Chapter 621, T.C.

Sec. 621.507, T.C. (General Penalty) – A fine not to exceed $200. (Subsequent offenses include jail time. Hence, municipal court does not have jurisdiction.)

- f. Protective Headgear for Motorcycle Operators and Passengers – Chapter 661, T.C.

Sec. 661.003(h), T.C. (Specific Penalty) – A minimum fine of $10 and a maximum fine of $50.

- 2. In addition to the fine, upon conviction, the court may also require optional sanctions under Article 45.057, C.C.P.
- 3. There is no right to expunge traffic convictions.

On a second or subsequent conviction for Failure to Maintain Financial Responsibility, the court shall order the sheriff to impound the vehicle if the defendant was an owner at the time of the offense and at the time of conviction. Sec. 601.261, T.C. See TMCEC Forms Book: Order for Impoundment of In-State Motor Vehicle.

If a person is covered with valid insurance or other form of financial responsibility at the time of offense, presents it to the court, and the court (clerk) verifies that it is valid at the time of the offense, the court shall dismiss the charge. No fee may be charged.

All persons under the age of 21 must wear protective headgear. Exceptions to this rule are contained in Sec. 661.003(c).

- (1) If the defendant resides in a county with a population of 75,000 or less and access to an alcohol awareness program is not readily available in the county:
  - (a) The court may allow the defendant to take an online alcohol awareness program if the Department of State Health Services approves online courses; or
  - (b) The court may require the defendant to perform not less than eight hours of community service related to alcohol abuse prevention or treatment and approved by the Department of State Health Services instead of attending the alcohol awareness program.
- (2) The minor has 90 days from the date of final conviction to submit to the court evidence of satisfactory completion of the alcohol awareness program or DADAP.
- (3) For good cause, the court may extend this period by not more than 90 days.

Sec. 106.115(b-1) A.B.C.

A defendant's residence is the one listed on the defendant's driver's license. If no driver's license or state ID, residence is that of defendant's voter registration certificate. If not registered to vote, the residence is that which is on file with the public school district. If not enrolled in public school, residence is determined by commission rule. The court may consider a defendant who is a college student to be a resident of the county where the college is, if the county offers readily available alcohol awareness classes.

If a court wishes to allow and online program, the cumbersome residency and county population requirements can be avoided by ordering DADAP instead, as it has approved online courses.

Community service ordered under this subsection is in addition to community service ordered under Section 106.071(d).

Sec. 106.115(c), A.B.C.

"You are required to attend an alcohol awareness program or DADAP. You have 90 days from today to submit to this court evidence of completion of the program."

"If you fail to submit the proper evidence within 90 days, this court will schedule a show cause hearing."

- ❑ (4) Failure by the defendant to present evidence of completion of the alcohol awareness program or DADAP within the prescribed time period obligates the court to order the Department of Public Safety to suspend the defendant’s driver’s license or permit, or, if the defendant does not have a driver’s license or permit, to deny the issuance of a license or permit for a period not to exceed six months in either event.

- ❑ (5) If a defendant previously convicted of a Chapter 106, A.B.C., offense fails to provide proof of attending an alcohol awareness program or DADAP within the period proscribed by the court, the court may either order the suspension of the defendant’s driver’s license or permit for a period not to exceed one year or, if the defendant does not have a license or a permit, may deny the issuance of a license or a permit for a period not to exceed one year.

- ❑ (6) If the minor fails to present evidence of completion of the alcohol awareness program or DADAP, the court may order the parent or guardian of the minor to do any act or refrain from doing any act if the court determines that the doing or refraining from doing the act will increase the likelihood that the minor will complete the alcohol awareness course.

- ❑ (7) Court order on parents may be enforced by contempt.
  - ❑ (a) Punishment for the parents: up to three days in jail and a fine up to $100.

“If the court determines that you did not have a good reason for not completing the alcohol awareness program and submitting evidence of completion within 90 days, I will order the Texas Department of Public Safety to suspend or deny issuance of your driver’s license for up to 180 days.” Sec. 106.115(d)(1)(A), A.B.C.

Sec. 106.115(d)(1)(B), A.B.C.

Sec. 106.115(d)(2), A.B.C.

Ex parte Powell, 883 S.W.2d 775 (Tex. App.—Beaumont 1994) Sec. 21.002(c), G.C.

- (8) If the defendant presents evidence of successful completion of the course in a timely manner, the court may reduce the assessed fine to an amount equal to no less than one-half of the amount of the initial fine.
- b. Eight to 12 hours of alcohol-related community service; and
- c. DPS to suspend or deny issuance of the minor’s DL or permit for 30 days.
- 4. A second conviction (charge is enhanced alleging the prior conviction) is punishable as a Class C misdemeanor—maximum fine of $500.
  - a. The court is required to order:

Sec. 106.115(c), A.B.C.

Sec. 106.071(e), A.B.C.

“In addition to the fine and alcohol awareness program, you must perform eight to 12 hours of community service (judge selects amount of hours between eight to 12 hours). You must complete the community service by _____.”

Community service ordered must be related to education about or prevention of misuse of alcohol or drugs if programs and services are available in the community. If educational programs and services are not available, the court may order community service that it considers appropriate for rehabilitative purposes.

“Also, I am going to order the Texas Department of Public Safety to suspend (or deny issuance of) your driver’s license for 30 days. The suspension is effective 11 days from today.” Sec. 106.071(h), A.B.C.

The judge should order the clerk to immediately send notice of the order to DPS.

(1) 20-40 hours of alcohol-related community service; and

(2) DPS to suspend or deny issuance of the minor's DL or permit for 60 days.

b. The alcohol awareness, Drug Education program, or DADAP is optional.

However, if the court opts to order the defendant to attend a subsequent alcohol awareness program or DADAP and the defendant fails to provide proof of attending with the proscribed period, the court may either order the suspension of the defendant's driver's license or permit for a period not to exceed one year or, if the defendant does not have a license or permit, may deny the issuance of a license or a permit for a period not to exceed one year.

5. If it is shown at trial that a minor (17 to 20 years of age) has two prior convictions under this section, the offense is punishable by a fine of not less than $250 or more than $2,000; confinement in jail of not more than 180 days; or both fine and confinement; plus 180 days suspension or denial of DL or permit.

Community service ordered must be related to education about or prevention of misuse of alcohol if programs and services are available in the community. If educational programs and services are not available, the court may order community service that it considers appropriate for rehabilitative purposes.

The driver's license suspension takes effect on the 11th day after the date the minor is convicted. Sec. 106.071(h), A.B.C. The judge should order the clerk to immediately send notice of the order to DPS.

If the court requires the minor to attend an alcohol awareness program or DADAP, the court may require that the parent or guardian of the minor attend the alcohol awareness program when the minor is younger than 18 years of age. Sec. 106.115(a), A.B.C.

Sec. 106.115(d)(1)(B), A.B.C.

For procedures on alcohol awareness program and DADAP, see the previous discussion on first conviction.

If the prosecutor wants to seek the more serious penalty provided by this section, the municipal court does not have jurisdiction because the penalty includes the possibility of jail-time.

- ❑ 6. If a person is under 17 years of age and has two prior convictions under this section, then the court must transfer the case to juvenile court.

- ❑ 7. For purposes of determining whether a minor has been previously convicted:
  - ❑ a. An adjudication under Title 3, F.C., that the minor engaged in DUI is considered a conviction; and

  - ❑ b. An order of deferred disposition for an offense alleging DUI is considered a conviction.

- ❑ 8. If a court grants deferred disposition, the court, in addition to any other term ordered under Article 45.0511, C.C.P., must require the minor to:
  - ❑ a. Attend an alcohol awareness program, Drug Education program, or DADAP; and

  - ❑ b. Perform eight to 40 hours of community service.

- ❑ 9. The court may also enter additional orders under Section 45.057, C.C.P.

Sec. 51.08, F.C.

An exception is made in Sec. 51.08(d), F.C., for courts that have created juvenile case managers under Article 45.056, C.C.P.

Sec. 106.071(f), A.B.C.

Note: When a defendant receives deferred disposition for an alcohol offense (excluding DUI), the defendant's driver's license is not suspended. The court does, however, report the deferred disposition to DPS using Form DIC-15. If the defendant is subsequently convicted of an alcohol offense, prior deferred disposition orders are treated as convictions for the purpose of determining the duration of the driver's license suspension (e.g., a defendant convicted of an alcohol offense with two prior deferred dispositions would face a 180 day suspension). Furthermore, prosecutors may use prior deferred dispositions to allege enhanced charges.

Sec. 106.115, A.B.C.

Sec. 106.071, A.B.C.

See Checklist 13-15.

- 10. Minors convicted of an Alcoholic Beverage Code status offense may request an expunction.
- 11. If person is under 17 years of age and has two prior convictions under this section, see Step 6 above.

Health & Safety Code

Section 161.257, H.S.C., provides that Title 3, F.C., does not apply to a proceeding under Chapter 161, Subchapter N (Tobacco Use by Minors), H.S.C. This means that minors charged with tobacco offenses may not be transferred to juvenile court.

8. Tobacco Offenses Committed by Minors

|---|--------------|
| Definitions: Section 161.251, H.S.C., incorporates the definitions of “cigarette,” “E-cigarette,” and “tobacco product” found in the Tax Code and elsewhere in the Health and Safety Code. “Cigarette” is defined in Section 154.001, Tax Code, as a roll for smoking: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> (1) that is made of tobacco or tobacco mixed with another ingredient and wrapped or covered with a material other than tobacco; and</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> (2) that is not a cigar.</li> </ul> “E-cigarette” is defined in Section 161.081, H.S.C., as an electronic cigarette or any other device that simulates smoking by using a mechanical heating element, battery, or electronic circuit to deliver nicotine or other substances to the individual inhaling from the device. The term does not include a prescription medical device unrelated to the cessation of smoking. The term includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> (1) a device described by this subdivision regardless of whether the device is manufactured, distributed, or sold as an e-cigarette, e-cigar, or e-pipe or under another product name or description; and</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> (2) a component, part, or accessory for the device, regardless of whether the component, part, or accessory is sold separately from the device.</li> </ul> |              |

“Tobacco product” is defined in Section 155.001, Tax Code, as:

- (1) a cigar;
- (2) smoking tobacco, including granulated, plug-cut, crimp-cut, ready-rubbed, and any form of tobacco suitable for smoking in a pipe or as a cigarette;
- (3) chewing tobacco, including Cavendish, Twist, plug, scrap, and any kind of tobacco suitable for chewing;
- (4) snuff or other preparations of pulverized tobacco; or
- (5) an article or product that is made of tobacco or a tobacco substitute and that is not a cigarette.

1. Before proceeding with this Checklist, see Chapter 4 and Checklist 13-1 for general procedures, rights, and pleas.

2. A person must be younger than 18 years of age to commit the offenses described in Section 161.252, H.S.C.

Sec. 161.252(a), H.S.C.

3. Identify the code provision that is alleged to have been violated.

a. Possession, Purchase, Consumption, or Acceptance of Cigarettes, E-cigarettes, or Tobacco Products by a Minor – Elements of this offense are:

Sec. 161.252(a)(1), H.S.C.

(1) an individual younger than 18

To give defendant adequate notice of the offense charged, complaint must allege only one specific violation (e.g., “possessed a cigarette” or “purchased a cigar”). A complaint alleging defendant “possessed, purchased, or received” or alleging “a tobacco product” is subject to being quashed.

(select one):

- (1) possesses;
- (2) purchases;
- (3) consumes; or
- (4) accepts

(select one):

- (a) a cigarette; or
- (b) an e-cigarette; or
- (c) a tobacco product (specify the product).

- b. False Proof of Age by a Minor to Obtain Cigarette, E-cigarette, or Tobacco Product – Elements of this offense are:

- (1) an individual younger than 18;
- (2) falsely represents himself or herself to be 18 or older;
- (3) by displaying a proof of age that is false;

Sec. 161.252(a)(2), H.S.C.

To give defendant adequate notice of the offense charged, complaint must allege only one specific violation (e.g., “to obtain possession of a cigarette” or “to purchase chewing tobacco”). A complaint alleging “to obtain possession of, purchase, or receive” or alleging “a tobacco product” is subject to being quashed.

(4) in order to (select one):

(a) obtain possession of;

(b) purchase; or

(c) receive

(select one):

(i) a cigarette; or

(ii) an e-cigarette; or

(iii) a tobacco product
(specify the product).

c. Exceptions:

(1) It is an exception if the defendant possessed the cigarette, e-cigarette, or tobacco product in the presence of an adult parent, guardian, or spouse.

(2) It is an exception if the defendant is in the presence of an employer, if possession or receipt is required as part of defendant's duties as an employee.

(3) It is an exception if the defendant is participating in an inspection or test of compliance in accordance with Section 161.088, H.S.C.

The parent, guardian, or spouse exception applies only to possession. Sec. 161.252(b)(1), H.S.C.

The employee exception applies only to possession or receipt by a minor. Sec. 161.252(b)(2), H.S.C.

This is sometimes known as "the minor sting operation" exception and applies to all Section 161.252 offenses. Sec. 161.252(c), H.S.C.

Education Code Offenses

12. Criminal Procedure for School Offenses

Chapter 37, E.C., contains subchapters governing “Law and Order”, “Protection of Buildings and School Grounds”, and “Penal Provisions”, but until the passage of S.B. 393 in 2013, no subchapter in the Education Code governed criminal procedure. This omission contributed to existing disparities in the legal system and has resulted in greater consumption of limited local judicial resources.

The creation of a new subchapter in the E.C. (Subchapter E-1, Criminal Procedure) balances the interest of the other subchapters with due process and procedural protections for children accused of criminal violations. Subchapter E-1 should help reduce referrals to court without having a negative impact on school safety. Under Sec. 37.141, E.C., Subchapter E-1 only governs criminal procedures to be utilized when a child is alleged to have committed an offense on property under the control and jurisdiction of a school district which is a Class C misdemeanor, excluding traffic offenses. It aims to preserve judicial resources for students who are most in need of formal adjudication.

|---|---|
| Definitions: “Child” is a person who is at least 10 years of age and younger than 18 years of age, who is charged with or convicted of an offense that a justice or municipal court has jurisdiction of, and who is a student. “School offense” is an offense committed by a child enrolled in a public school that is a Class C misdemeanor other than a traffic offense and that is committed on property under the control and jurisdiction of a school district. <input type="checkbox"/> 1. To the extent of any conflict, this subchapter controls over any other law applied to a school offense alleged to have been committed by a child. <input type="checkbox"/> 2. A peace officer may not issue a citation to a child who is alleged to have committed a school offense. <input type="checkbox"/> 3. ❑ 4. Graduated Sanctions: A school district that commissions peace officers under Section 37.081 may develop a system of graduated sanctions that the school district may require to be imposed on a child before a complaint is filed under Section 37.145 against the child for a school offense that is an offense under Section 37.124 or 37.126 or under Section 42.01(a)(1), (2), (3), (4), or (5), Penal Code. A system adopted under this section must include multiple graduated sanctions. The system may require:

- ❑ a. A warning letter to be issued to the child and the child’s parent or guardian that specifically states the child’s alleged school offense and explains the consequences if the child engages in additional misconduct;
- ❑ b. A behavior contract with the child that must be signed by the child, the child’s parent or guardian, and an employee of the school and that includes a specific description of the behavior that is required or prohibited for the child and the penalties for additional alleged school offenses, including additional disciplinary action or the filing of a complaint in a criminal court;
- ❑ c. The performance of school-based community service by the child; and
- ❑ d. The referral of the child to counseling, community-based services, or other in-school or out-of-school services aimed at addressing the child’s behavioral problems.

❑ 5. If a child fails to comply with or complete graduated sanctions, or if the school district has not adopted a system of graduated sanctions, the school may file a complaint against the child with a criminal court in accordance with the subchapter.

❑ 6. In addition to the requirements imposed by Art. 45.019, C.C.P, a complaint alleging the commission of a school offense must:

Sec. 37.144, E.C.

A referral to counseling may include participation by the child’s parent or guardian if necessary.
Sec. 37.144(b), E.C.

Sec. 37.145, E.C.

Sec. 37.146(a), E.C.

- a. Be sworn to by a person who has personal knowledge of the underlying facts giving rise to probable cause to believe that an offense has been committed; and
  - b. Be accompanied by a statement from a school employee stating:
    - (1) Whether the child is eligible for or receives special services under Subchapter A, Chapter 29; and
    - (2) The graduated sanctions, if required under Section 37.144, that were imposed on the child before the complaint was filed.

- 7. After a complaint has been filed under this subchapter, a summons may be issued under Art. 23.04 and 45.057(e), C.C.P. Sec. 37.146(a), E.C.

- 8. An attorney representing the state in a court with jurisdiction may adopt rules pertaining to the filing of a complaint under this subchapter that the state considers necessary in order to: Sec. 37.147, E.C.
  - a. Determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the child committed the alleged offense;
  - b. Review the circumstances and allegations in the complaint for legal sufficiency; and
  - c. See that justice is done.

- 9. An employee of a school district or open-enrollment charter school may report a crime witnessed at the school to any peace officer with authority to investigate the crime. Sec. 37.148, E.C.
  - a. A school district or open-enrollment charter school may not adopt a policy requiring a school employee to:
    - (1) Refrain from reporting a crime witnessed at the school; or

- (2) Report a crime witnessed at the school only to certain persons or peace officers.

18. Children Taken into Custody – General Procedures

While only a juvenile court may issue a directive to apprehend (Sec. 52.015, F.C.), children accused of criminal behavior may be taken into custody “pursuant to the laws of arrest.” Sec. 52.01, F.C. Because Class C misdemeanors are an exception to the general rule that children do not belong in the criminal justice system, Chapter 45, C.C.P., contains provisions for taking children into custody accused of fine-only offenses. Article 45.058, C.C.P., is the general rule. Article 45.059, C.C.P., applies only to curfew violations. For more information see Chapter 6, “The Adjudication of Juveniles,” TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book.

The following procedures place the responsibility of ensuring compliance with this section on the peace officer who takes into custody a person under 17 years of age.

| Checklist 13-18   | Script/Notes               |
|---|----------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. A peace officer who takes into custody a person under the age of 17 for an act committed prior to becoming 17 years of age shall take the person to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> a. A place of nonsecure custody, unless the child is released to a parent, guardian, or other responsible adult; or</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> b. - b. The child may be held in the nonsecure facility only long enough to accomplish the purpose of:
    - (1) Identification;
    - (2) Investigation;
    - (3) Processing;
    - (4) Release to parents; or
    - (5) The arranging of transportation to the appropriate juvenile court, juvenile detention facility, municipal court, or justice court.
  - c. Residential use of the area is prohibited.
  - d. The child shall be under continuous visual supervision by a law enforcement officer or facility staff person during the time the child is in nonsecure custody.
  - e. The child may not be detained in a place of nonsecure custody for more than six hours.
4. A child taken into custody may be released to the child's parent, guardian, custodian, or other responsible adult as provided in Section 52.02(a) (1), F.C., for:
- a. A traffic offense;
  - b. An offense punishable by fine only; or
  - c. As a status offender or nonoffender.
5. A child cannot be incarcerated for contempt. For details about contempt for juveniles see Checklist 13-27.
6. If the judge sees the child, the judge may handle all charges against the child.

Art. 45.058, C.C.P.

CHAPTER 13 JUVENILE AND MINOR PROCEEDINGS

19. Children Taken into Custody for Violation of Juvenile Curfew

While only a juvenile court may issue a directive to apprehend (Sec. 52.015, F.C.), children accused of criminal behavior may be taken into custody “pursuant to the laws of arrest.” Sec. 52.01, F.C. Because Class C misdemeanors are an exception to the general rule that children do not belong in the criminal justice system, Chapter 45, C.C.P., contains provisions for taking children into custody accused of fine-only offenses. Article 45.058, C.C.P., is the general rule. Article 45.059 applies only to curfew violations. For more information see Chapter 6, “The Adjudication of Juveniles,” TMCEC Municipal Judges Book.

The procedures that follow place the responsibility of ensuring compliance with this section on the peace officer who takes into custody a person under 17 years of age for a juvenile curfew offense.

- d. A juvenile curfew processing office may not be designated or intended for residential purposes.
  - e. The person must be under continuous visual supervision by a peace officer or other person during the time the person is in the juvenile curfew processing office.
  - f. A person may not be held in a juvenile curfew processing office for more than six hours.
3. A juvenile curfew office, if so designated, may also be used as a place of nonsecure custody for children taken into custody for:
- a. Traffic offenses;
  - b. Other fine-only misdemeanor offenses; or
  - c. As a status offender.

Beware that Section 370.002, L.G.C., requires review, public hearings, and reenactment of curfew ordinances no less than every three years.

CHAPTER 13 JUVENILE AND MINOR PROCEEDINGS

The criminal records of children have traditionally been handled in municipal courts in the same manner as the criminal records of adults. Juvenile records in juvenile courts, however, have long been confidential. House Bill 961, enacted during the 82nd Legislative Session, created procedures that conditionally made particular criminal case records confidential. Senate Bill 393, enacted during the 83rd Legislative Session, expanded conditional confidentiality to those children that successfully completed a form of “probation” (e.g., DSC, deferred disposition, or teen court.). This is intended to provide parity to children in the juvenile justice system by extending the confidentiality of juvenile courts to criminal court records. House Bill 528 was also enacted during the 83rd Legislative Session, and it supported confidentiality for the criminal records of children upon charging. This approach, called total confidentiality, appeared to be incompatible with conditional confidentiality under Senate Bill 393.

The Attorney General, in GA-1035, opined that H.B. 528 (total confidentiality) enveloped S.B. 393 (conditional confidentiality) and that there is no conflict between the laws, and that children should be afforded confidentiality upon charging. The 84th Legislature did not address the two laws and the conflicting approaches, and Texas still has two different sets of laws on the books regarding the confidentiality of juvenile records accused of certain fine-only misdemeanors. Attorney General opinions are persuasive, not binding upon the judiciary. It is up to each municipal judge to decide whether they share the Attorney General’s opinion.

27. Juvenile Contempt

Article 45.050, C.C.P. gives municipal and justice courts two distinct options when dealing with children who do not comply with court orders. The first option is to refer the child to juvenile court for delinquent conduct. Art. 45.050(c)(1). The second option is to retain the matter and proceed to conduct a contempt hearing. Art. 45.050(c)(2).

- 10. No law enforcement official or prosecuting attorney can be present except that a magistrate may require a bailiff or law enforcement officer to be present to ensure the safety of the magistrate and other court personnel. The bailiff or law enforcement officer may not carry a weapon in the presence of the child.

- 11. The magistrate must certify in writing that he or she is convinced that the child understands the nature and contents of the statement and signs it voluntarily.

When an attorney is requested, a police officer must stop asking the accused questions until he is provided with an attorney. However, a request for counsel must be sufficiently clear that a reasonable police officer would understand the statement to be a request for an attorney. Stanley v. State, 2015 Tex. ## CHAPTER 14 CONTEMPT OF COURT

1. General Contempt

The contempt power of the court should be used sparingly. A person accused of contempt has the rights of a criminal defendant, regardless of whether the contempt is considered civil or criminal (discussed below). A more thorough discussion of contempt of court is contained in Chapter 5 of TMCEC The Municipal Judges Book. Juvenile contempt under Article 45.050, C.C.P., is covered in Checklist 13-27.

| Checklist 14-1   | Script/Notes   |
|--|--|
| Definitions: “Contemnor” is a person held in contempt. “Contempt”: Although there is no statutory definition of contempt, common law defines it as conduct that tends to impede the judicial process by disrespectful or uncooperative behavior in open court or by unexcused failure to comply with clear court orders. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 1. Contempt can be direct or indirect.</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> 2. “Direct contempt” is an act which occurs in the judge’s presence and under circumstances that require the judge to act immediately to quell the disruption, violence, disrespect, or physical abuse. “Presence of the court” does not necessarily mean in the immediate presence of the judge or court. Examples of direct contempt may include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> a. A physical altercation occurring at the door of the courtroom although the court was not able to see the physical act itself;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> b. Disruptive act or event in the courtroom or just outside the courtroom while court is in session;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> c. Refusal to rise on the entrance and exit of the judge;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> d. Tampering with jurors in the jury room;</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> e. An abusive letter delivered to the judge in chambers while trial was in short recess; or</li> </ul> </li> </ul> | Ex parte Norton, 191 S.W.2d 713 (Tex. 1946). Ex parte Chambers, 898 S.W.2d 257 (Tex. 1995). Ex parte Knable, 818 S.W.2d 811 (Tex. App. 1959). Ex parte Krupps, 712 S.W.2d 144 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986). |

- f. Refusal to answer questions in court.

Note that an affront to a judge’s personal sensibilities should not be confused with obstruction to the administration of justice. Offensive comments, even though spoken in open court, are not contemptuous unless they are disruptive or boisterous.

- 3. In many instances, direct contempt is punished summarily by the offended court at the time the act occurs. However, there is no requirement that direct contempt be punished immediately; a judge has discretion to set the matter for hearing at a later time.

The trial court’s authority to punish contemptuous conduct summarily requires an act which occurs in the judge’s presence and under circumstances that require the judge to act immediately to maintain order. If the contemnor can be afforded due process protections without disrupting the orderly trial process, the Due Process Clause of the 14th Amendment mandates that the contemnor should be afforded these protections.

- 4. “Indirect contempt” is an act that occurs outside the court’s presence. Examples of indirect contempt include:

- a. Failure to comply with a valid court order.

- b. Failure to appear in court.

- c. Attorney being late for trial.

- d. Offensive papers filed in court.

- 5. Indirect contempt requires the contemnor to be notified of the charges, the right to trial or hearing in open court, and the right to counsel.

- 6. Contempt can be civil or criminal:

Ex parte Flourney, 312 S.W.2d 488 (Tex. 1958).

In re Bell, 894 S.W.2d 119 (Tex. 1995).

See Ex parte Knable, 818 S.W.2d 811 (Tex. Crim. App. 1991).

Ex parte Gordon, 584 S.W.2d 686 (Tex. 1979).

Ex parte Hill, 52 S.W.2d 367 (Tex. 1932).

Ex parte O’Fiel, 246 S.W. 664 (Tex. Crim. App. 1923).

See TMCEC Forms Book: Show Cause Notice: Adult or Juvenile.

Civil contempt is willfully disobeying a court order or decree.

Criminal contempt is an act that disrupts court proceedings, obstructs justice, is directly against the dignity of the court, or brings the court into disrepute.

7. Statutory Authority for Contempt Proceedings

a. In municipal courts, contempt is generally punishable by up to three days confinement in jail and/or a fine up to $100.

b. Some statutes provide for specific contempt fines and do not allow confinement in jail:

(1) Failure by sheriff or officer to execute summons, subpoena, or attachment is punishable for contempt by a fine of $10 to $200.

(2) Failure to appear for jury duty is punishable for contempt by a maximum fine of $100.

8. Special Procedures for Officers of the Court

a. Upon proper motion, release contemnor on personal recognizance bond.

b. Refer case to the presiding judge of the administrative district where alleged contempt occurred.

Ex parte Powell, 883 S.W.2d 775 (Tex. App.—Beaumont 1994, no pet.).

See Step 15: Sentencing Goals.

Sec. 21.002(c), G.C.

Art. 2.16, C.C.P.

Art. 45.027(c), C.C.P.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Contempt: Failure to Appear for Jury Service (Complaint and Judgment).

Officers of the court include attorneys, peace officers, clerks, bailiffs, court reporters, interpreters, and others on whom the court relies for its operation and enforcement of its orders. Note: the defendant and witnesses are not officers of the court.

Sec. 21.002(d), G.C.

The presiding judge will assign a judge to conduct a contempt hearing. (You may be called as a witness.)

- c. An officer of the court is essentially entitled to a trial de novo on request.
- d. An attorney may be held in direct contempt primarily for misconduct at trial:
  - (1) Expressing indifference to what court may hold or do on account of his or her improper remarks and misconduct.
  - (2) Making continuous frivolous objections amounting to obstruction of the orderly progress of the trial.
- 9. Determine whether act constitutes direct or indirect contempt.
  - a. Direct contempt
    - (1) Act occurred in the presence of the court or in its immediate vicinity while the court was in session. Judge is aware of all facts constituting contempt.
    - (2) Immediate action is necessary to quell disruption, violence, disrespect, or to allow trial or proceeding to continue.
  - b. Indirect contempt
    - (1) Act occurred outside the presence of the court. Judge does not personally witness act.
    - (2) Immediate action is not required to quell disruption, violence, disrespect, or physical abuse.
    - (3) Act requires testimony or production of evidence to establish its existence.

Ex parte Avila, 659 S.W.2d 443 (Tex. Crim. App. 1983).

Ex parte Norton, 191 S.W.2d 713 (Tex. 1946).

Ex parte Crenshaw, 259 S.W.587 (Tex. Crim. App. 1924).

If both of these conditions are met, summary proceedings are authorized and you may go to Step 10: Direct Contempt Procedure below.

Due process requires notice and hearing. Go to Step 11: Indirect Contempt Procedure below.

- (4) Most common violation — disobeying a court order:
  - (a) Court order must be in effect at the time of the act;
  - (b) Contemnor must be aware of the order; and
  - (c) A written order must be served on the contemnor.

10. Direct Contempt Procedure

- a. If the act is in disobedience to a court order or admonishment, and the contemnor disobeys or fails to cease the undesirable conduct:

- (1) Announce that contemnor is in contempt of court.
- (2) Optional: Give contemnor opportunity to explain:
  - (a) If explanation is not accepted or if conduct persists, contempt exists.
  - (b) If explanation is accepted, no contempt.

11. Indirect Contempt Procedure

See TMCEC Forms Book: Judgment of Direct Contempt: Adult.

Example: Any act that disrupts court proceedings or offends the dignity of the court. Contemnor argues combatively, uses curse words or threatening acts.

Factors to consider: egregious conduct; danger if contemnor not immediately removed.

Announce “You are in contempt of court.”

Sec. 21.002(c), G.C.

See Step 13 below.

Skip rest of this section.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Judgment of Contempt for Disobeying a Court Order: Adult.

- a. If disobedience to a court order is alleged, notice to contemnor must:
  - (1) Contain the order;
  - (2) Specify when and how contemnor was notified of the order;
  - (3) Specify contemnor’s alleged act in disobedience of the order;
  - (4) Specify when and where act occurred; and
  - (5) Specify that the act took place after the contemnor became aware of the order.
- b. Otherwise, notice must:
  - (1) Specify contemnor’s alleged contemptuous act; and
  - (2) Specify when and where act occurred.
- 12. Right to Counsel
  - a. Contemnor has right to have counsel represent him or her.
  - b. Appoint counsel to represent contemnor if:
    - (1) the contemnor is indigent; and
    - (2) jail time is imposed as part of contempt punishment.
- 13. Contempt Hearing for Direct Contempt

See TMCEC Forms Book: Show Cause Notice.

Ex parte Goodman, 742 S.W.2d 536 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 1987). Appointed counsel is not necessary for contempt punishment limited to fine-only sanctions under Arts. 2.16 and 45.027(c), C.C.P.

- a. An act of direct contempt occurring in the presence of the court generally requires neither notice nor hearing since there is no factual dispute concerning the contemptuous conduct. Contemnor may be convicted and sentenced for the direct contempt as it occurs.
- b. Summary punishment is permissible on the theory that immediate action is necessary to control courtroom proceedings. If the court postpones conviction and punishment until after the trial, for example, the justification for dispensing with due process requirements disappears.

14. Contempt Hearing for Indirect Contempt

- a. Since indirect contempt involves an offense not observed by the court, due process requires the contemnor to be given notice and hearing.
- b. If disobedience to a court order is alleged:
  - (1) Provide evidence contemnor was properly notified of the order;
  - (2) Provide evidence contemnor willfully disobeyed the order after notified of it; and
  - (3) Provide evidence for no satisfactory explanation or defense for disobedience.
- c. If court order not involved:
  - (1) Provide evidence contemnor committed the alleged act; and

Ex parte Krupps, 712 S.W.2d 144 (Tex. Crim. App. 1986).

See Step 15 below.

Ex parte Smith, 467 S.W.2d 411 (Tex. Crim. App. 1971). If a contemnor is summarily held in contempt, the fact that the court waits a day to enter the contempt order does not affect its validity.

Possible defenses include: court lacks personal or subject matter jurisdiction; order of court lacked clarity or specificity or was ambiguous; contemnor not given adequate notice; and order was not based on same acts set forth in charge of contempt.

- (2) Provide evidence for no satisfactory explanation or defense for act.
- d. Ensure contemnor’s constitutional rights are protected:
  - (1) Right to counsel;
  - (2) Right to confront and cross-examine witnesses;
  - (3) Privilege against self-incrimination;
  - (4) Protection against double jeopardy; and
  - (5) Right to public trial.

There is no right to trial by jury in most contempt hearings. Texas courts generally have the right to adjudicate contempt proceedings without a jury.
Ex parte Werblud, 536 S.W.2d 542 (Tex. 1976).

Contemnor is entitled to a jury trial if the contempt is classified as a serious rather than petty offense. One factor in determining whether the offense should be treated as serious or petty is the amount of the fine imposed. The imposition of a minor fine does not elevate the offense from the classification of petty to a serious crime.
Ex parte Werblud, 536 S.W.2d 542 (Tex. 1976).

15. Sentencing Goals

- a. Civil Contempt.

Purpose of civil contempt is remedial and coercive in nature. Judgment of civil contempt exerts the judicial authority of the court to persuade the contemnor to obey some order of the court where such obedience will benefit an opposing litigant.

Ex parte Werblud, 536 S.W.2d 542 (Tex. 1976).

b. Criminal Contempt (Punitive)

The sentence is not conditioned upon some promise of future performance because the contemnor is being punished by fine and imprisonment for some completed act that affronted the dignity and authority of the court.

Ex parte Werblud, 536 S.W.2d 542 (Tex. 1976).

Examples: disruptive conduct that prevents trial from proceeding; attempting to bias jury panel by handing them pamphlets.

16. Order and Commitment

a. Describe the act found to be in contempt.

See TMCEC Forms Book: Judgment of Direct Contempt: Adult; and Judgment of Contempt for Disobeying a Court Order: Adult.

b. If act was disobeying a court order:

- (1) Include written order or reduce verbal order to writing.
- (2) Specify when and how contemnor was notified of the order.
- (3) Specify that the act was in disobedience of the order.
- (4) State that the act was committed after contemnor was aware of the order.

c. Remedial Sanction:

- (1) Specify exactly what contemnor must do to purge the contempt.
- (2) Order sheriff or chief of police to place person in jail.
- (3) If contemnor purges himself or herself of contempt, order his or her release.

No particular form is required for commitment. Directive that a person be placed in jail and detained may be contained in an authenticated copy of the court's order. Ex parte Barnett, 600 S.W.2d 252 (Tex. 1980).

d. Punitive Sanction:

- (1) Specify the punishment.
- (2) If jail time is part of punishment, order sheriff or chief of police to place contemnor in jail for specified time.
- (3) If fine is part of punishment, order contemnor to pay fine by a specific date.
- (4) If more than one act of contempt, specify a separate punishment for each act.

Normally, maximum punishment is three days and $100. Check specific statutes; some authorize fine-only. See Arts. 2.16 and 45.027(c), C.C.P.

Punishment should be assessed for each act even if sentences run concurrently. If one punishment is assessed for multiple acts and one of those acts is not contempt, the entire judgment is void. Ex parte Lee, 704 S.W.2d 15 (Tex. 1986).

CHAPTER 16 EVIDENCE

Evidence is something presented at trial to prove or disprove the existence of an alleged fact. Black’s Law Dictionary. Not all facts, recollections, records, opinions, or physical items are evidence. Each of the mentioned proofs must meet certain legal standards before they can be called evidence. In determining whether an offered proof is evidence, the court determines if the proof meets the legal threshold of admissibility, but not whether the proof is conclusive, credible, believable, or true. The factual credibility of the evidence is determined by the fact finder after hearing all the evidence. Rule 104, T.R.E.

The most common form of evidence is oral statements of witnesses based on personal knowledge. In limited circumstance, evidence can be opinions of a witness. Evidence can also be physical items, such as records, photos, recordings, etc. Demonstrative evidence is proof offered as illustrations or explanations of the witness’s recollections and perceptions. This includes physical demonstrations by the witness, drawings created during or before testimony, experiments, lists, items that are introduced that look like items observed by the witness, or any other item that demonstrates other properly introduced evidence.

- 3. Offers of proof
  - a. To properly consider excluded evidence on appeal, the reviewing court must be able to study that evidence.
  - b. The party tendering the excluded evidence is responsible for getting the excluded evidence into the record.
  - c. The offer of proof is always made outside the presence of the jury.
  - d. The party making the offer of proof may be granted substantial latitude in the means of producing said evidence.
  - e. The offer of proof may be made by:
    - (1) Sworn statement;
    - (2) Placement in the record of a physical object not admitted into evidence;
    - (3) Questions to and answers of a witness; or
    - (4) A summary by counsel of the questions and answers expected.
  - f. Offers of proof do not have to be made at the time of the objection and may be made at any time during the trial, so as to facilitate an orderly presentation of the evidence at trial.

5. Objections Concerning Nature of Questions, Answers, or Courtroom Behavior

| Checklist 16-5   | Script/Notes  |

| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Leading questions are questions that suggest the answer desired by the questioner. Leading questions are proper and preferred during cross-examination or during any examination of a hostile witness.   | Rule 611(c), T.R.E.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 2. Scope of cross-examination: A witness may be cross-examined on any matter relevant to any issue in the case, including credibility.  | Rule 611(b), T.R.E.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 3. Narrative answers - All examinations should be done in a question and answer format. Failure to follow this format causes opposing counsel to be unable to object to particular matters. Testimony that moves from topic to topic without interspersed questions is narrative and improper. However, in some situations, the court may permit narrative responses.   |  |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 4. Badgering the witness: A trial should be a formal and civilized proceeding. Undue dramatics, improper aggression, or just plain bad manners may be controlled by the court on a proper objection. The court, if necessary, may act on its own to stop certain conduct.   | Rule 611(a), T.R.E.   |
| <input type="checkbox"/> 5. Sidebar comments and arguing with the witness: During testimony, the attorney’s and/or pro se defendant’s role is to ask questions; they are not sworn and they may not testify. Counsel and pro se defendants should not be allowed to comment on witness’ answers, opposing counsel’s questions, or the court’s rulings in a verbal or non-verbal fashion. Counsel and pro se defendants must convey the ideas they wish to express to the jury through proper questions and during closing arguments. Objections, as noted earlier, should be addressed to the court and not to the witness, opposing counsel, pro se defendant, or jury. | An example of sidebar comments would include: “Oh, I’m sure that is what you saw.” “Please, Your Honor, that is such a stupid question.” “Objection . . . Like he’s never going to sustain one of my objections.” |

- ❑ 6. Non-responsive answers: The court should require witnesses to answer proper, clearly stated questions as asked. During cross-examination, witnesses should be limited to answering questions as asked.
- ❑ 7. The court shall exercise reasonable control over witnesses and the presentation of evidence. The efficient presentation of evidence and actual ascertainment of the truth should be the constant goals of the court.
- ❑ 8. Ethically, the court must require order and decorum in all proceedings. These objections are all based on conduct rather than content and may provide the court with a tool to control courtroom behavior.

To properly make this objection, counsel must ask clear, simple questions that do not call for an explanation.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

One area of municipal court civil jurisdiction is over cases involving animals under the Health and Safety Code. State law provides procedures for the seizure, hearing, and disposition of dogs that are a danger to persons and animals that are cruelly treated; however, there are many lingering questions and uncertainties when it comes to handling these civil cases.

Many municipalities have enacted ordinances regulating these animal cases. Such local ordinances are contemplated in Sections 822.007 and 822.047, H.S.C. Cities should be aware of the state laws as well and consider whether ordinances may be preempted by state law.

These checklists only discuss the procedures under state law contained in Chapters 821 and 822, H.S.C.

1. Definitions

| Checklist 17-1  | Script/Notes  |
|---|---|
| “Animal control authority” is a municipal or county animal control office with authority over the area in which the dog is kept or the county sheriff in an area that does not have an animal control office.  | Secs. 822.001(1) and 822.041(1), H.S.C.                      |
| “Dangerous dog” is a dog that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li><input type="checkbox"/> a. Makes an unprovoked attack on a person that causes bodily injury and occurs in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own; or</li> <li><input type="checkbox"/> b. Commits unprovoked acts in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own and those acts cause a person to reasonably believe that the dog will attack and cause bodily injury to that person.</li> </ul> | Sec. 822.041(2)(A), H.S.C. Sec. 822.041(2)(B), H.S.C. |
| “Owner” is a person who owns or has custody or control of the dog.   | Sec. 822.041(5), H.S.C.                                      |
| “Secure” means to take steps that a reasonable person would take to ensure a dog remains on the owner’s property, including confining the dog in an enclosure that is capable of preventing the escape or release of the dog.  | Sec. 822.001(4), H.S.C.                                      |

“Secure enclosure” means a fenced area or structure that is locked; capable of preventing the entry of the general public, including children; capable of preventing the escape or release of a dog; clearly marked as containing a dangerous dog; and in conformance with the requirements for enclosures established by the local animal control authority.

Sec. 822.041(4), H.S.C.

“Serious bodily injury” is an injury characterized by severe bite wounds or severe ripping and tearing of muscle that would cause a reasonably prudent person to seek treatment from a medical professional and would require hospitalization without regard to whether the person actually sought medical treatment.

Sec. 822.001(2), H.S.C.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

A county, justice, or municipal court has original jurisdiction to hear cases involving a dog attack, bite, or mauling that causes serious bodily injury or death to a person. These hearings are governed by Subchapter A, Chapter 822, H.S.C.

2. Dogs that Cause Death or Serious Bodily Injury to a Person

| Checklist 17-2  | Script/Notes   |
|---|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Hearings to Determine if a Dog Has Caused Death or Serious Bodily Injury to a Person. <input type="checkbox"/> a. Any person including the county attorney, city attorney, or a peace officer, may file a sworn complaint alleging that a dog attack, bite, or mauling caused the death of or serious bodily injury to a person. <input type="checkbox"/> b. The complaint must be supported by an affidavit setting forth sufficient facts to establish probable cause to believe that the dog caused death or serious bodily injury by attacking, biting, or mauling a person. <input type="checkbox"/> c. When a sworn complaint showing probable cause is filed, the court must issue a warrant authorizing the animal control authority to seize the dog and impound it in secure and humane conditions until the court orders the disposition of the dog. <input type="checkbox"/> d. The court must set a time for a hearing to determine whether the dog caused the death of or serious bodily injury to a person by attacking, biting, or mauling the person. The court must give written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the owner of the dog or the person from whom the dog was seized and the person who made the complaint. <input type="checkbox"/> e. The hearing must be set within 10 days of issuing the warrant. | This type of hearing is used to determine if a dog caused the death of or serious bodily injury to a person by attacking, biting, or mauling the person.Secs. 822.002 and 822.003, H.S.C. Sec. 822.002(a)(1-2), H.S.C.See TMCEC Forms Book:Affidavit for Warrant to Seize Dog that Caused Serious Bodily Injury or Death. Sec. 822.002(a)-(b), H.S.C.See TMCEC Forms Book:Seizure Warrant for Dog that Caused Serious Bodily Injury or Death. Sec. 822.003(b), H.S.C.See TMCEC Forms Book:Notice of Hearing for Dog that Caused Serious Bodily Injury or Death. Sec. 822.003(a), H.S.C. |

f. Any interested person, including the county or city attorney, may present evidence at the hearing.

g. A “preponderance of evidence” standard may be used to make the required findings.

Preponderance of the evidence is “superior evidentiary weight that, though not sufficient to free the mind wholly from all reasonable doubt, is still sufficient to incline a fair and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than the other.” Black’s Law Dictionary.

h. If the court determines at the hearing that the dog caused the death of a person, the court must order the dog be destroyed.

The dog must be destroyed by a licensed veterinarian, trained animal shelter or humane society personnel, or trained animal control authority personnel.

i. If the court determines the dog caused serious bodily injury to the person, the court may order the dog be destroyed.

j. The court may not order the dog to be destroyed if:

(1) The dog was being used to protect persons or property; the attack, bite, or mauling occurred in a properly marked enclosure in which the dog was being kept that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from escaping and provided notice of the dog’s presense; and the injured person was at least eight years old and was trespassing in the enclosure;

Sec. 822.003(c), H.S.C.

It is statutorily unclear whether a “reasonable doubt” or a “preponderance of the evidence” standard should be used in this determination. However, in Timmons v. Pecorino, 977 S.W.2d 603, (Tex. Crim. App. 1998), the Court of Criminal Appeals implicitly acknowledged the civil nature of these cases but refused to answer the question for lack of jurisdiction.

Sec. 822.004, H.S.C.

Sec. 822.003(e), H.S.C.

Sec. 822.003(f)(1-5), H.S.C.

- (2) The dog was not being used to protect persons or property; the attack, bite, or mauling occurred in an enclosure in which the dog was being kept; and the injured person was at least eight years old and was trespassing in the enclosure;
  - (3) The dog was being used for law enforcement purposes and the attack, bite, or mauling occurred during an arrest or other law enforcement action;
  - (4) The dog was defending a person from an assault or defending property from damage or theft by the injured person; or
  - (5) The injured person was under eight years of age and the attack, bite, or mauling occurred in a secure enclosure designed to prevent a person under eight years of age from entering.
- 2. There is no right to appeal a court's determination provided in the subchapter.
  - 3. An owner may face criminal liability if the owner fails, with criminal negligence, to secure the dog, and the dog's unprovoked attack causes serious bodily injury to (3rd degree felony) or the death of (2nd degree felony) a person.

(Tex.Crim. App. 2012).

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

Subchapter A, Chapter 822, H.S.C., provides procedures for what to do if a dog attacks and causes death or serious bodily injury. What if the dog causes injury that does not rise to the level of serious bodily injury? The court cannot order a dog be destroyed if it causes just bodily injury to a person unless the dog has been determined to be a “dangerous dog,” as defined in Section 822.041(2), H.S.C.

There are three distinct types of hearings dealing with dangerous dogs that can originate in a county, justice, or municipal court. These proceedings are all governed by Subchapter D, Chapter 822, H.S.C. A county or municipality may place additional requirements or restrictions on dangerous dogs if the requirements or restrictions are not breed specific and are more stringent than restrictions provided under Chapter 82, H.S.C. Sec. 822.047, H.S.C. It is a Class C misdemeanor for a person who owns or has custody or control of a dangerous dog to fail to comply with Section 822.042 or Section 822.0422 (b) or an applicable municipal ordinance relating to dangerous dogs, and a subsequent offense is a Class B misdemeanor. Sec. 822.045, H.S.C.

Note that none of these procedures apply when a dog attacks another animal. There is no municipal court involvement, under state law, when a dog attacks an animal.

3. Dangerous Dogs

| Checklist 17-3   | Script/Notes  |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> 1. Appeal from Animal Control Authority Determination that Dog is a Dangerous Dog. <input type="checkbox"/> a. If a person reports an incident where a dog either: <input type="checkbox"/> (1) Makes an unprovoked attack on a person that causes bodily injury and occurs in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own; or <input type="checkbox"/> (2) Commits unprovoked acts in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own and those acts cause a person to reasonably believe that the dog will attack and cause bodily injury to that person. | Sec. 822.0421(a), H.S.C. Sec. 822.041(2)(A), H.S.C. Sec. 822.041(2)(B), H.S.C. |

Then, the animal control authority may investigate the incident and determine if the dog is a “dangerous dog” according to Section 822.041(2), H.S.C. The animal control authority shall notify the owner in writing if the dog is determined to be dangerous.

- b. Notwithstanding any other law, including a municipal ordinance, an owner may appeal the animal control authority determination to the county, justice, or municipal court of competent jurisdiction within 15 days of being notified of the determination.

- c. To file an appeal, the owner must:
  - (1) File a notice of appeal with the court;
  - (2) Attach a copy of the determination from the animal control authority; and
  - (3) Serve a copy of the notice of appeal on the animal control authority by mailing the notice through the United States Postal Service.

- d. The owner may appeal the municipal court’s decision under Sec. 822.0421(b) in the manner described by Section 822.0424.

2. Municipal Court Determination that Dog is a Dangerous Dog.

- a. If city has not adopted an ordinance electing to be governed by Section 822.0422, skip to number 3, as this portion does not apply.

- b. If city has adopted an ordinance electing to be governed by Section 822.0422, any person may report to the court an incident where a dog either:

Sec. 822.0421(a).

Sec. 822.0421(b), H.S.C.
 There are no statutory procedures for how the municipal court should handle or dispose of the appeal. Tex. Atty. Gen. Opp. GA-0660 (2008) interprets “court of competent jurisdiction” to refer to territorial jurisdiction and not as requiring the municipal court be a court of record.

- ☐ (1) Makes an unprovoked attack on a person that causes bodily injury and occurs in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own; or
- ☐ (2) Commits unprovoked acts in a place other than an enclosure in which the dog was being kept and that was reasonably certain to prevent the dog from leaving the enclosure on its own and those acts cause a person to reasonably believe that the dog will attack and cause bodily injury to that person.

- ☐ c. The court must notify the owner that the report has been filed and that the owner has five days from the date they receive the notice of the report being filed to deliver the dog to the animal control authority, which shall provide for secure and humane impoundment of the dog until the court orders disposition.

- ☐ d. If the owner fails to deliver the dog, the court must issue a warrant authorizing the animal control authority to seize the dog and impound it in secure and humane conditions until the court orders the disposition of the dog. The owner shall pay any cost incurred in seizing the dog.

- ☐ e. The court must set a time for a hearing to determine whether the dog is a dangerous dog. The court must give written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the owner of the dog or the person from whom the dog was seized and the person who made the complaint.

- ☐ f. The hearing must be set within 10 days of the date the dog is delivered or seized.

g. Any interested person, including the county or city attorney, may present evidence at the hearing.

h. A “preponderance of evidence” standard may be used to make the required findings.

Preponderance of the evidence is “superior evidentiary weight that, though not sufficient to free the mind wholly from all reasonable doubt, is still sufficient to incline a fair and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than the other.” Black’s Law Dictionary.

i. At the hearing, the court must determine if the dog is a dangerous dog, according to the definitions in Section 822.041(2), H.S.C.

j. If the court determines the dog is a dangerous dog, the court may order the dog continued to be impounded until the court determines if the owner(s) comply with the requirements in Step 3.

k. The court shall determine the estimated costs to house and care for the impounded dog during the appeal process and shall set the amount of bond for an appeal adequate to cover those estimated costs.

l. The owner or person who filed the complaint may appeal the municipal court’s decision in the manner provided for the appeal of cases from the municipal court.

m. The owner shall pay any cost or fee assessed under Section 822.042(d) for seizing the dog.

5. Non-compliance Hearing

a. Any person may file an application with the court alleging that a dog is dangerous or that the owner of a dangerous dog has failed to comply with the requirements under Section 822.042(a), H.S.C.

Sec. 822.042(c), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Application: Dangerous Dog
Owner Failed to Comply.

b. The court must set a hearing and give written notice of the time and place of the hearing to the owner of the dog or the person from whom the dog was seized and the person making the complaint.

Sec. 822.0423(a)-(b), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book:
Notice of Hearing: Owner Failed to Comply.

c. The hearing should be held not later than 10 days after the dog is seized or delivered.

Sec. 822.0423(a), H.S.C.

There is a contradiction in the methodology for dangerous dog hearings set forth in Chapter 822. Specifically, Section 822.042(c) states that if, “after notice and hearing” to determine whether an owner of a dangerous dog has failed to comply with the requirements of Section 822.042(a), H.S.C., the court finds a failure to comply, it shall order the seizure of the dog. However, Section 822.0423(a) states that such a compliance hearing must be held not later than 10 days after the seizure. This apparent conflict can be resolved if the dog is seized pursuant to another seizure provision (e.g., a quarantine or dog-at-large ordinance). Otherwise, courts may set the hearing for not later than 10 days from the date the owner is notified.

d. At the hearing, any interested party, including the city or county attorney, may present evidence.

Sec. 822.0423(c), H.S.C.

CHAPTER 17 ANIMALS

There are two avenues for protecting animals from cruel treatment under state law: criminal prosecution of the actor under the Penal Code, and the civil remedy to remove animals from the owners under Chapter 822, H.S.C. These cases can be presented originally to a judge of a justice or municipal court or to a magistrate for a hearing in the justice or municipal court.

2. Hearing to Determine if an Animal has been Cruelly Treated.

a. A statement of an owner made at a hearing provided for under this subchapter is not admissible in a trial of the owner for an offense under Section 42.09 (cruelty to livestock animals) or 42.092 (cruelty to nonlivestock animals), P.C.

Sec. 821.023(b), H.S.C.

b. Each interested party is entitled an opportunity to present evidence at the hearing.

Sec. 821.023(c), H.S.C.
There is no definition of “interested party.”

c. If the court finds that the animal’s owner has cruelly treated the animal, the owner shall be divested of ownership of the animal, and the court shall:

Sec. 821.023(d), H.S.C.
See TMCEC Forms Book: Order: Cruelly Treated Animal(s) Hearing.

(1) Order a public sale of the animal by auction;

(2) Order the animal be given to a municipal or county animal shelter or a nonprofit animal welfare organization; or “Nonprofit animal welfare organization” means a nonprofit organization that has as its purpose (A) the prevention of cruelty to animals; or (B) the sheltering of, caring for, and providing homes for lost, stray, and abandoned animals. Sec. 821.021(2), H.S.C.

(3) Order the animal be humanely destroyed if the court decides that the best interests of the animal or the public health and safety would be served by doing so.

d. After a court that finds that an animal’s owner has cruelly treated the animal, the court shall order the owner to pay all court costs, including costs of:

Sec. 821.023(e), H.S.C.

(1) the administrative costs of:

(a) investigation;

(b) expert witnesses; and

3. Sale or Disposition of Animal.

- a. Notice of an auction must be posted on a public bulletin board where other public notices are posted for the county or municipality.
- b. At the auction, a bid by the former owner of a cruelly treated animal or the owner's representative may not be accepted.
- c. Proceeds from the sale of the animal shall be applied first to any costs owed by the former owner. The officer conducting the auction shall pay any excess proceeds to the court ordering the auction. The court shall return the excess proceeds to the former owner of the animal.
- d. If the officer is unable to sell the animal at auction, the officer may cause the animal to be humanely destroyed or may give the animal to a municipal or county animal shelter or nonprofit animal welfare organization.

Sec. 821.024, H.S.C.

4. Appeal.

- a. An owner divested of ownership of an animal under Section 821.023 may appeal the order to a county court or county court at law in the county in which the justice or municipal court is located.
- b. As a condition of perfecting an appeal, not later than the 10th calendar day after the date the order is issued, the owner must file a notice of appeal and a cash or surety bond in an amount determined by the court under Section 821.023(e-2).
- c. A person filing an appeal is not required to file a motion for new trial to perfect an appeal.

Sec. 821.025(a), H.S.C.
Notwithstanding any other law, a county court or county court at law has jurisdiction to hear an appeal filed under this section. Sec. 821.025(g), H.S.C.

For the purpose of assessing, imposing, and collecting most court costs and fees, a person is considered to have been convicted if, pursuant to Section 133.101 of the Local Government Code or the specific statute authorizing the court cost, either: a judgment, sentence or both are imposed on the person; or the person receives a DSC, deferred disposition, or some other deferral (see Articles 45.051–45.053 of the Code of Criminal Procedure). In contrast, this expanded definition of conviction does not appear in the statute establishing the Juror Reimbursement Fee.

*1 Additional Child Safety Fund costs:

- $2-$5 court cost for cities with population greater than 850,000 that have adopted appropriate ordinance, regulation, or order (mandatory).
- Up to $5 court cost for cities with population less than 850,000 that have adopted appropriate ordinance, regulation, or order (optional).

*2 MVF: Add 10¢ court cost on all moving violations. Moving violations are found in Title 37, Section 15.89(b) of the Texas Administrative Code. Note that some moving violations are in codes other than the Transportation Code. Because passing a school bus is a moving violation, the 10¢ has already been calculated into the total.

FEES (add the following whenever they apply):

- ✦ The following fees are collected upon conviction for services performed by a peace officer (Article 102.011 of the Code of Criminal Procedure and Section 133.104 of the Local Government Code):
  - $5 arrest fee for issuing a written notice to appear in court following the defendant's violation of a traffic law, municipal ordinance, penal law, or for making an arrest without a warrant; when service is performed by a peace officer employed by the State, 20% is sent to the State on the quarterly report.
  - $50 warrant fee for executing or processing an issued arrest warrant, capias, or capias pro fine; when service is performed by a peace officer employed by the State, 20% is sent to the State on the quarterly report; when service is performed by another agency, that agency can request the amount of the fee.
  - $5 for serving a subpoena.
  - $5 for summoning a jury.
  - $35 for serving any other writ (includes summons for a defendant or a child's parent).
  - Other costs: costs for peace officer's time testifying off duty or mileage for certain transports.
- ✦ Fees created by city ordinance
  - Juvenile Case Manager Fee: up to $5 on every conviction if governing body has passed required ordinance establishing a juvenile case manager fund and has hired a juvenile case manager; to be used only to finance the salary, benefits, training, travel expenses, office supplies, and other necessary expenses of the juvenile case manager. Once those costs are paid, funds may be used to implement programs directly related to the juvenile case manager (Article 102.0174 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
  - Municipal Court Building Security Fund: $3 on every conviction if governing body has passed required ordinance establishing building security fund; to be used only for security personnel, services, and items related to buildings that house the operation of the municipal court (Article 102.017 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
  - Municipal Court Technology Fund: up to $4 on every conviction if governing body has passed required ordinance establishing the municipal court technology fund; to be used only to finance the purchase of or to maintain technological enhancements for the municipal court (Article 102.0172 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
  - Special Expense Fee: up to $25 for execution of a warrant for failure to appear or violation of promise to appear if governing body has passed required ordinance (Article 45.203 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
- ✦ Jury Fees
  - $3.00 fee collected upon conviction when a case is tried before a jury or when the defendant requested a jury trial and then withdrew the request within 24 hours of the trial setting (Article 102.004 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
  - Actual costs incurred for impanelling a jury when the defendant fails to appear for a jury trial (Article 45.026 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
- ✦ Time Payment Fee: $25 fee on conviction if defendant pays any part of the fine, court costs, fees, or restitution on or after the 31st day after the date judgment is entered; 50% is remitted to the State on the quarterly report; 50% stays with the city; $2.50 of that shall be used for the purpose of improving the efficiency of the administration of justice and the city shall prioritize the needs of the judicial officer who collected the fee (Section 133.103 of the Local Government Code).
- ✦ Restitution Fee: $12 optional fee if defendant pays restitution in installments; 50% remitted to the State for the crime victims' compensation fund (Article 42.037 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).
- ✦ Contractual enforcement options:
  - OmniBase Fee: $30 for failure to appear or failure to satisfy a judgment for any fine-only offense if city has contracted with the Department of Public Safety to deny renewal of driver's licenses; 66% is sent to the State on the quarterly report; 33% is retained by the city out of which OmniBase is paid (Sections 706.006 and 706.007 of the Transportation Code).
  - Scofflaw Fee: $20 optional fee for failure to appear or satisfy a judgment on an outstanding warrant for violation of a traffic law if the city has contracted with the Department of Motor Vehicles to deny renewal of vehicle registration; entire fee goes to the county tax-assessor (Section 702.003 of the Transportation Code).
  - Third Party Collection Fee: 30% of the unpaid fines, fees, costs, restitution, or forfeited bonds if the city has a contract with a third party collections agency and the amount is more than 60 days past due or more than 60 days have elapsed since the defendant's failure to appear (Article 103.0031 of the Code of Criminal Procedure).

MUNICIPAL JUVENILE/MINOR CHART

<sup>1</sup>Art. 45.056, C.C.P., provides authority for municipal courts to employ case managers for juvenile cases. Sec.51.08, F.C., provides that a court that has implemented a juvenile case manager program under Art. 45.056, C.C.P., may, but is not required to, waive its original jurisdiction under subsection (b)(1) of Section 51.08, F.C. Article 102.0174, C.C.P., provides that cities may adopt an ordinance creating a juvenile case manager fund and collect a fee of up to $5 to fund a juvenile case manager.

<sup>2</sup>A “School Offense” is an offense other than a traffic offense that is a Class C Misdemeanor committed by a child enrolled in a public school, and that is committed on property under the control and jurisdiction of a school district. In addition to the requirements imposed by Art. 45.019, C.C.P., a complaint alleging the commission of a school offense must: (1) be sworn to by a person with personal knowledge of the facts; (2) be accompanied by a statement from a school employee stating whether the child is eligible for or receives special services, and the graduated sanctions, if any, imposed prior to the filing of the complaint. An attorney representing the state in a court with jurisdiction over a school offense may adopt rules pertaining to the filing of a complaint under this subchapter that the state considers necessary in order to: (1) determine whether there is probable cause to believe that the child committed the alleged offense; (2) review the circumstances and allegations in the complaint for legal sufficiency; and (3) see that justice is done.

<sup>3</sup>Art. 45.057, C.C.P. – When a child who is at least 10 years old and younger than age 17 is charged with a fine-only offense, the court may, in addition to a fine, order the following sanctions: 1) Refer the child or child’s parent for services under Sec. 264.302, F.C.; 2) Require child to attend a special program that is in best interest of child, including rehabilitation, counseling, self-esteem and leadership, work and job skills training, job interviewing and work preparation, self-improvement, parenting, manners, violence avoidance, tutoring, sensitivity training, parental responsibility, community service, restitution, advocacy or mentoring program; 3) Require parents to do an act or refrain from an act that will increase the likelihood that the child will comply with court orders, including attending a parenting class or parental responsibility program and attending the child’s school classes or functions; 4) Order the parents of a child required to attend a special program to pay an amount not greater than $100 for the costs of the program; 5) Require both the child and parent to submit proof of attendance. (If program involves the expenditure of county funds, county must approve child’s attendance.)

Deferred Disposition

- If the court grants deferred for all Alcoholic Beverage Code offenses except DUI, the court must require the defendant to perform the community service requirements and attend an alcohol awareness course; for DUI, the court must require an alcohol awareness course.
- If defendant charged with the offense of public intoxication is under age 21, and the court grants deferred, the court must order the community service requirements under Sec. 106.071, A.B.C., and attendance at an alcohol awareness course.

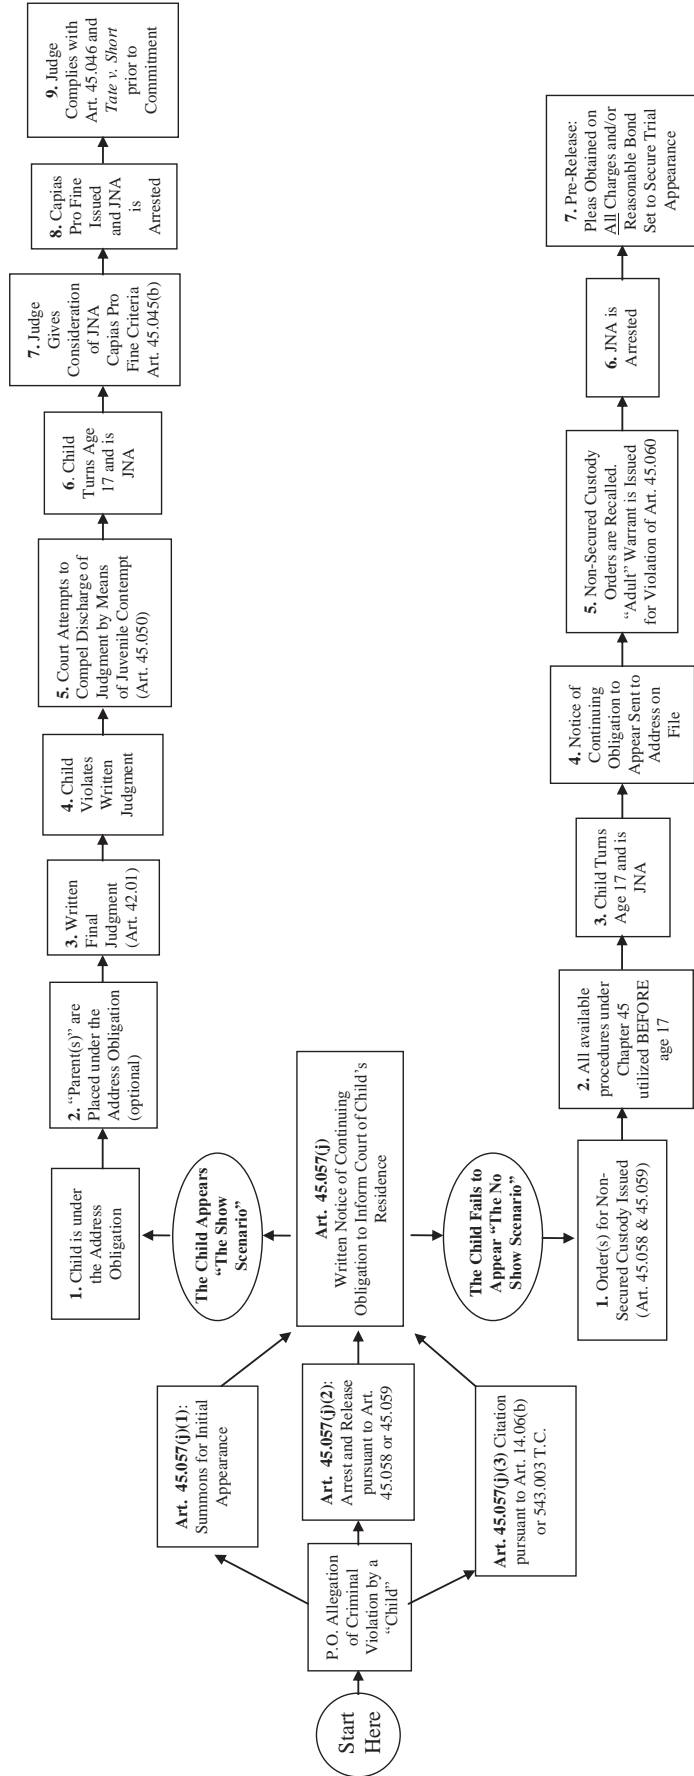

<sup>4</sup> Art. 45.059, C.C.P.: Children Taken into Custody for Violation of Juvenile Curfew or Order: 1) Release person to parent, guardian or custodian; 2) Take person before a justice or municipal court; or 3) Take person to juvenile curfew processing office (similar to nonsecure custody and not held for more than six hours).

<sup>5</sup> Art. 45.0216, C.C.P., provides that proceedings under Art. 45.051, C.C.P. (Deferred Disposition), and proceedings under Art. 45.052, C.C.P. (Teen Court), may be expunged under Art. 45.0216, C.C.P.

<sup>6</sup> Under Sec. 25.093(f), E.C., when a court grants deferred disposition to a parent charged with parent contributing to nonattendance, the court may require the defendant to attend a program that provides instruction designed to assist the parent in identifying problems that contribute to his or her child’s absence from school and strategies for resolving those problems.

Cruelly-Treated Animal Hearing Process

Dogs that Attack Persons

Chapter 822, Subchapter A,
Health and Safety Code

BEGINNING THE PROCESS:

(1) Any person (including county attorney, city attorney, or peace officer) files sworn complaint with county, justice, or municipal court alleging:

- a dog has caused the death of or serious bodily injury to a person
- by attacking, biting, or mauling the person

(2) Judge issues seizure warrant and sets hearing date for not later than 10th day after warrant is issued

Court shall give written notice of hearing date to:

- the owner of the dog or person from whom the dog is seized and
- the person who made the complaint

Question for Judge:

Is there probable cause to believe the dog caused the death of or serious bodily injury to the person as stated in the complaint?

YES →

AT THE HEARING:

Question for Judge:

Did the dog cause the death of the person by attacking, biting, or mauling the person?

NO ↓

Judge does not issue seizure warrant

YES ↓

Judge shall order dog destroyed

Question for Judge:

Did the dog cause serious bodily injury to the person by attacking, biting, or mauling the person?

NO →

Judge shall order dog released to:

- its owner
- the person from whom dog was seized, or
- any other person authorized to take possession of the dog

YES ↓

Judge may not order the dog destroyed if:

- dog was being used for protection of a person or property, attack occurred in dog's enclosure that was reasonably certain to prevent dog from escaping and provided notice of dog's presence, and injured person was at least 8 years old and was trespassing in the enclosure;
- attack occurred in dog's enclosure, and injured person was at least 8 years old and was trespassing in the enclosure;
- attack occurred while peace officer was using the dog for law enforcement purposes;
- dog was defending a person from assault or property from damage or theft by the injured person; or
- injured person was younger than 8 and occurred in dog's enclosure that was reasonably certain to keep a child from entering

If none of these circumstances are present, judge may order the dog destroyed

.....

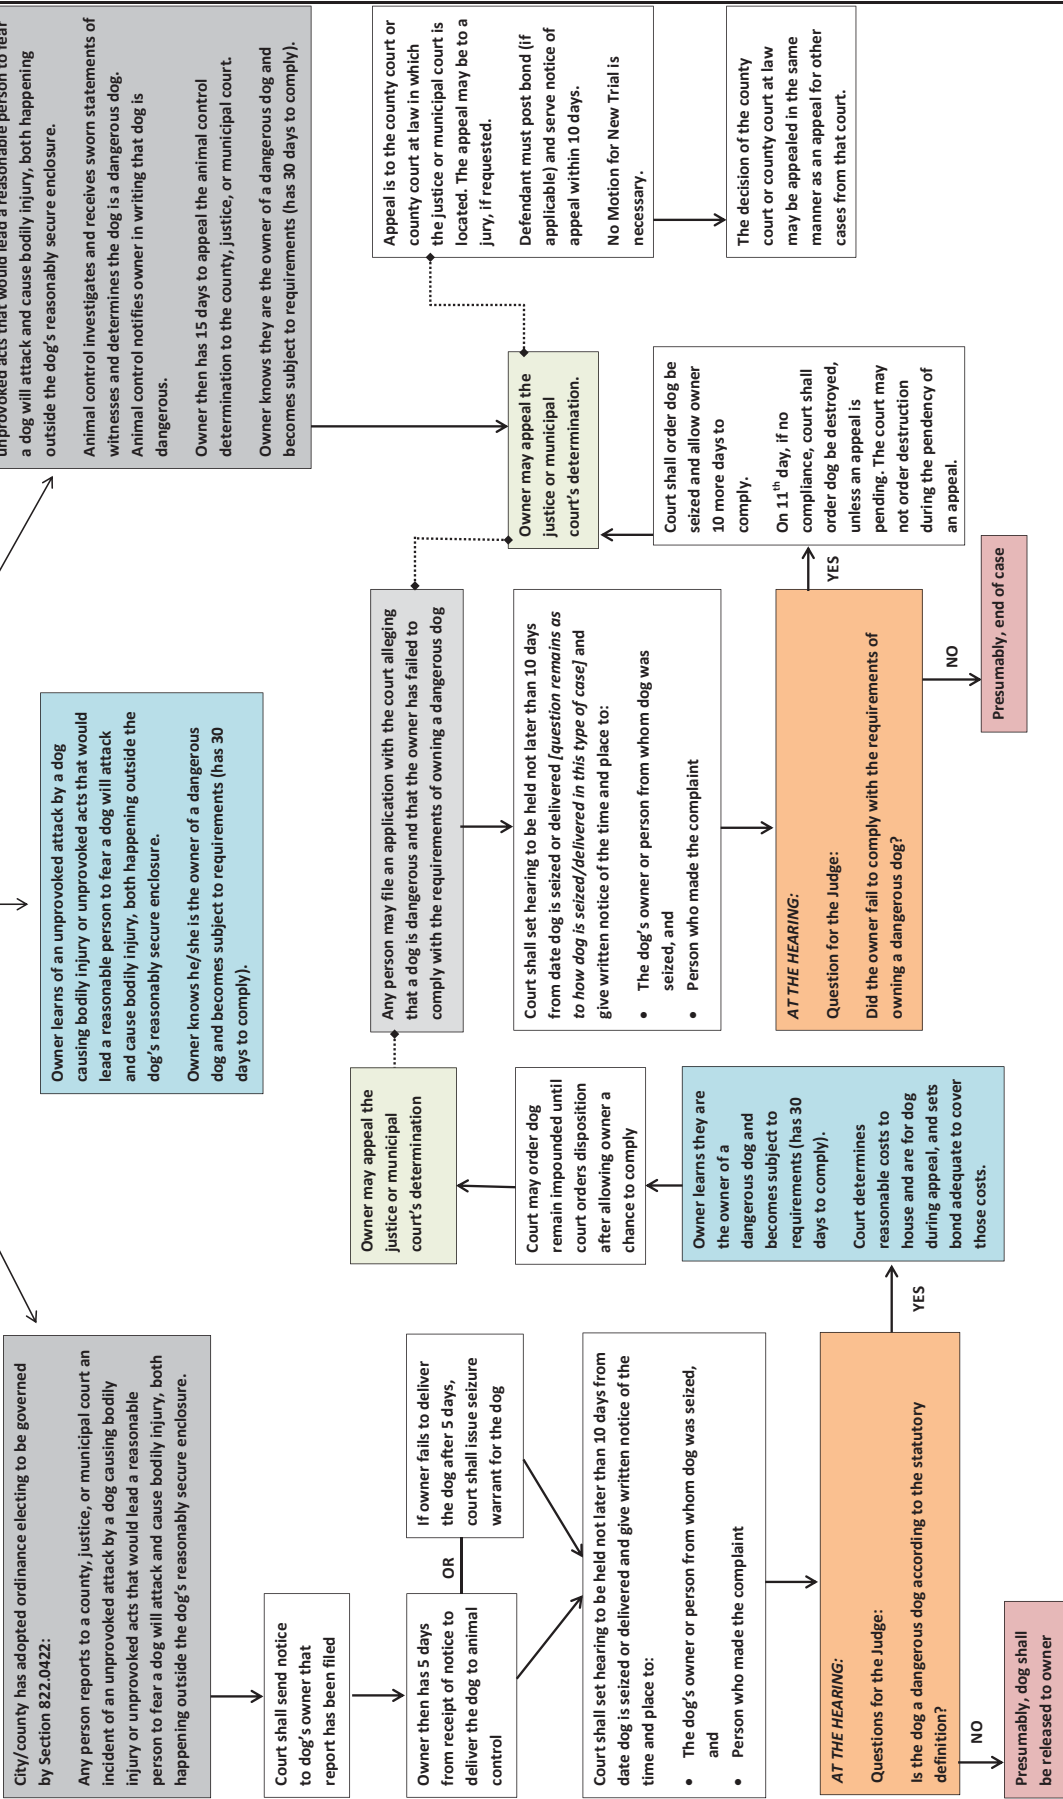

Presumably, if judge may not or chooses not to order the dog destroyed, dog would have to be released to owner or person from whom the dog was seized.

There is NO right to appeal judge's determination

Dangerous Dogs

Chapter 822, Subchapter D, Health and Safety Code

3 ways for an owner to learn that he/she is the owner of a dangerous dog, and thus to become subject to requirements.
