

The Beauty of the Ascended Christ

"Beauty for Ashes"

Publication of Endtime Ministries ... "Women for Christ"

He ...ascended up
far above all heavens, that he might fill
all things."
Ephesians 4:10

Wendy B. Howard
Editor of 'Despatch'

Endtime Ministries
is a Non-Profit, Independent
Service Centre.
A Salvation Gospel
Ministry, not social Liberation orientated.
No personal, financial gain received by any staff member.

Presenting the TRUTH,
a clear Trumpet call.

Affirming that the "Word of God", none other than the KJV Bible is the truth in its entirety.

"Beauty for Ashes" Autumn, Vol. 14:1

Sitting at the feet of Jesus,
Where can mortal
be more blest?

There I lay my sins and sorrows, And, when weary, find sweet rest.

Sitting at the feet of Jesus,
There I love to weep and pray,
While I from His fullness gather,
Grace and comfort every day.

(Source unknown).

A periodical spiritual handbook, which is presented in order to glorify Christ Jesus: To praise Him, and to offer thanksgiving; To show Him to be ALL that any true believer could need, or ever yearn for. "Beauty for Ashes" has also the aim to express the reality of the Exchanged Life: There is "Beauty", the Lord Jesus Christ Himself, Whose Life is given for the "Ashes" of our own sin-destroyed lives; Jesus Christ, Who is Himself, the whole of renewal, sanctification, revival, the joy unspeakable of Christian holiness. The Life that satisfies the Christian, and pleases the Almighty God is found only in Him. The wonder-filled words of Isaiah 61:3 might have a primary interpretation pertaining to the restoration of Israel. However, they also have a delightful, awe-inspiring application to the Church Age Christian believer. Do you want to exchange "Beauty" for the "Ashes" of your own fruitlessness, independence, failure and striving to do better? Then come to the One Who is All you need.

Personal Revival

MAN

SHALL NOT LIVE
BY BREAD ALONE,
BUT BY EVERY WORD OF GOD

Luke 4:4

THE "ROYAL DECREE"

What would I say to you,
if you were sitting in my living room?

What would God have me say?

It is imperative that we all aid one another in doing the will of God Almighty as the time is coming, rapidly, when all that will be left in our lives is the will of God, if it is not His will it will not survive. We are not now waiting for the Endtime events to happen as the Bible predicts - these events are happening right now and are escalating! Like a racing car roaring down the track, like a rocket blasting off into space. No time left now to think about tomorrow being the Big Occasion when you will finally fully surrender to God's will. Tomorrow is too late, now is the only time to act. The Lord has His Decree for your own life, you must fit into this.

Decide now.

Christians need to come out of their anaesthetic fog about the Latter Day events which are surrounding us all. You and your family need to know what is going on globally. Above all, it is not enough to know what the enemy is doing when you are in a war, you need to know what your own side is doing much more than to grasp what the enemy forces are engaged in. The voices out there that are yelling for your attention are monumental, so many opinions are on Internet that it can be totally confusing.

No need for this to happen, get onto sound voices of godly sense. Good voices to begin with are

- “Prophecy in the News” with Gary Stearman.
- Dr. Stanley Monteith Radio Broadcasts are good updates.
- The DVD/Book called “Daniel’ revealing `The Bloodline of the Antichrist’ ” by J.R. Church is good, get it from the Website “Prophecy in the News” www.prophecyinthenews.com

There are countless DVDs, books and magazines about the New International Order and its all-pervading system that has triumphed over planet earth. Very enlightening documents on what some call “conspiracy theories” (but are actually CONSPIRACY FACTS) are flooding the Internet - we get the picture, the penny has dropped, the Antichrist system of Biblical prophecy has swept dramatically onto the world stage, and is nearly in full control of our destiny here on earth. (But God! He will show Who is Almighty). A gigantic supernatural war is happening here; an evil power is manipulating everything we are involved in on earth, running by mighty spirit-force, operating by global events, creating vast networks and organizations, waging strategic battles and skirmishes, using weather phenomena, controlling and robbing by global warming lies that affect everyone on the planet. There are “leaders” amongst the global masses everywhere that insist they have the solution to these shocking problems, this “hideous strength.” Political solutions, fight-back solutions abound. More and still more investigation work, and swapping of documents and news items from alternative, unofficial media sources has become almost a “solution” in itself; mandatory reading. As though exposing the work of the Global Elite and their demonic masters is enough to win the whole battle. But, it is not a solution; no answer can be found to our horrifying situation by simply telling as many as one can what is “going on.” Likewise there are no political or fight-back notions that are really going to get us all out of the spider’s web we are caught in. UNDERSTAND THAT RIGHT NOW.

Christians that are aware of the world calamity (many are deliberately closing their eyes, still) must become more aware - this really is Bible prophecy happening right in front of us, nothing can be done to stop this disaster. God told us it would all happen, and it is. Don’t waste time forming new political parties to fight the enemy, or go about hiding guns under your beds. It is all coming to a pus-filled head, an ugly boil - think clearly now.

Some will tell you and me, very sincerely I am sure, that all we can do now is to win souls for Christ before it is too late. Now, I would face death to save a soul from hell, but I cannot give what life I have left here on earth to just win souls for Christ. That is not big enough; it is not the biggest calling you and I have. Our enormous calling is to submit to the Most High God, Who is the centre of the universe, the Lord of all. TO BE UNDER THE ROYAL DECREE.

6

The Rapture cannot be far away, the Bema Seat of Christ's judgement overshadows all that we are and do.

(Do not misunderstand here, I am very aware of the plight of the unsaved and share the Gospel message constantly.)

What to do?

"To be or not to be, that is the question?"

To be what?

If you are unsaved "to be" a Christian, redeemed and under the protection of the Creator of the universe is your ONLY solution. If you are redeemed (and I assume that my readers of "Beauty for Ashes" are Christians) then "to be" under the Royal Decree is your only solution. Honest with yourself, in all truth, that is. NO pretence and self-deception allowed here.

The unreality has to go, time is short.

Are we under the Law of Moses? NO!

Are we Christians who are redeemed under the Law of Adam and Eve? NO!

What was this Law put upon Adam and Eve?

There was only one item in that Law - do NOT eat of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. And Adam and Eve did not even keep that one commandment. Genesis 2:17.

Are the New Testament Christians under NO Law at all?
We are not under any Law like the Mosaic Law or the Ten commandments. We are, however, under THE ROYAL CODE or Decree which is a DIVINE STANDARD. What is this Decree, and are you, yourself, living by it in all of its aspects?

(Thanks to Gene Cunningham who has aided my thoughts on this Royal Code or Decree).

1. THE ROYAL DECREE OR STANDARD OF LIFE.

Romans 8:1-2.

"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

No matter what happens in the coming days we Christian believers must live free from the fear of death itself, to honour our Saviour. For the saved one in Christ Jesus Death is just like walking into another room, so to speak. If thousands die around us in earthquakes or famines, whatever, we have to keep in mind that this does not increase the death toll on this planet, because ALL will die anyway. 100% of us will die physically on this fallen earth, for sure. (Unless we are Raptured). We Christians have been made free from the law of death, we will never die spiritually, and our mortal bodies will be redeemed at the Rapture, our bodies will put on immortality. We have already got everlasting life; our bodies will soon have this life as well.

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16:

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord." 1 Thessalonians 4: 16-17.

Ask yourself: do I believe Jesus?

"And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?" John 11:26.

We believers have been set free from death, from sin and from the dominion of Satan. These were all a way of life and a law before we were born again in Christ.

8

Death has become Life for us; we can have abundant life in Christ, “The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.” John 10:10.

No one knows how long we as individuals have to live on earth, or what the future holds for us. We may have years yet. You and I need a “little heaven” to go to Heaven in. I have just been through a near death experience when I was poisoned by Tegretol, a medication prescribed by the doctor, a medication to which I was allergic. I was covered in a thick purple rash which was so itchy that I could get little sleep day or night for over a month. The rash nearly choked me, for it spread to my tongue, roof of my mouth and throat. Yet, it was one of the best times of my life! A dear friend, Nisha, a former Muslim now a Christian, described a trial she is going through as the “best of times and the worst of times.” She is nursing her seriously incapacitated daughter. It was the best of times and the worst of times for me. It was as though the whole experience I endured was tailor made for me, to draw me closer and closer into God. I would not have missed it for anything. I was in ecstasy in Him. If you are filled with the Spirit of God, you will be in joy and peace no matter what happens in the coming days. It will be the best of times and the worst of times, maybe, but the best of times will predominate - thrillingly.

Learn to live by the Holy Spirit not by self, and you will experience abundance, we are always potentially totally alive in God:

Romans 6:11-12:

“For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto God.

Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts thereof.”

Christians are under this Royal Decree of LIFE. Live there.

2. THE ROYAL DECREE OR LAW OF LIBERTY.

Galatians 5:1.

“Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.”

God wants us to know how to walk with Him and make responsible decisions in freedom, led by the Holy Spirit Who dwells within us. In coming times you may find yourself without human friends and destitute of fellowship with believers. Ah, but you have been saved so that you can have abiding fellowship with God Himself, He is enough for your need. Is this true? Yes it is. Now is the time to understand what giving up the life of nature, self and the world is really about. Be not afraid to let the Lord separate you from the love of this world, it is only temporary with all its allurements. I am finding myself strangely being detached from the things of earth, and being gently shepherded into His very presence, into His imperatives and values. Things that were once exciting or seen to be enticing now appear frivolous or self-seeking when the Shepherd is near in all His tenderness. He is the One to direct you, you need Him and His Word. God wants you to freely choose what is right in His eyes, a personal relationship of mutual pleasing and love, not just to follow some rules or ethics. He loves you to be free and to want Him and His plans.

Hebrews 13:20-21:

“Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.”

We have all been to churches which strangely repel us because the leaders have taken a lordship over us. We may wonder why we are uneasy and distressed by these leaders who tell us what to wear, what to read, where we should go, how to spend our money, what music to listen to, lording it over us. The Holy Spirit is grieved by this usurping of His role in our lives, He is jealous of the presence of another between Himself and His redeemed one. We can actually feel this grieving of the Holy Spirit within. We in the New Testament Age of Grace have the astonishing privilege of walking directly with the Lord Jesus Christ; we have been set free from bondage to any human priest or institution. The pastor should be there, scripturally, to teach the congregation to study the Bible, and to gently nurture them in Christ Who is the Head Shepherd, instructing the saints in the ways of soul winning.

Christ died to grant us LIBERTY. He has bestowed upon us the right and accountability to make right choices whilst we live here. God delights in making us free individuals who can make decisions; He does not and will not force us to do good. We can choose what we will or will not do. The Bible sets up quite a treasure of instructions in righteousness, plainly written. But, many things in life are not written there, but must be discerned by ourselves as the Holy Spirit gives light and the lead to us. We must answer directly to God about unsure matters. God intends you to be free, not fettered down under bondage to the O.T Law, or to human priests, popes, or even pastors. His love for us surely shows us that it is utterly wrong to do things which we know inside to be against our loving Heavenly Father. Whose side are we on? Surely we do not want to follow Satan in his rebellion, now that we are saved? God will not force anyone; make your own choices carefully in liberty. This Law of Liberty is both a wonder of Grace, and an enormous responsibility.

Luke 4:18.

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,”

What do I mean here?

Well, some pastor or leader may say to you that you should not wear any gold jewellery, even a wedding ring, quoting Bible verses as “proof”. That is not the leader’s right to demand agreement; it is your right to go directly to the Lord Jesus Christ about such matters. Someone may demand that you should never have a meal in the R.S.L because all wars are godless, a church can say that you should never attend a remembrance march because wars are godless. This is not that pastor’s business, you are in liberty. Go directly to the Lord Himself, He will direct in matters like these. Be not in bondage. I find my conscience before the Lord Jesus leads me to remember the poor young men and women who died in wars with sadness and yes, gratitude - even though I acknowledge that wars in general are indeed godless. Leaders can insist your hair is too short, you should not wear slacks, men are not strong enough in their homes, all sorts of issues. You are at liberty, go straight to the Holy Spirit of God to lead you in the paths of righteous, consulting the Word:

“Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths.” Proverbs 3:5-6.

THERE ARE MANY SUCH ISSUES IN LIFE.

Live close to the Lord in obedience to Him. He is REAL. Some Christians will get an awesome shock when God finally manifests Himself, as He breaks into this world system in intervention action. So this is the God we have prayed to and worshipped, they will say in shock. He is fantastic, glorious, a Spirit which is the Universe itself. We have lived and moved and had our very being in Him. He is the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End. You know, space is not empty, space is jammed full of God. We are living now on this fallen planet in another dimension from the spirit dimension. Soon that dimension will be opened, and earth will be aware as never before. God broke into this earth obscurity long ago, and came into the tiny body of a foetus, this happened over two thousand years hence. An infinitesimal ball of a world, floating in the almost infinite cosmos, was visited by the One Who is the very centre of the universe and Maker of the cosmos. Christ Jesus is God, Who came to give His body as a sacrifice for sin; He declared His intention as He came into the earth. His words, just before He entered that tiny throbbing foetus inside a young Jewish virgin, are recorded in the Bible:

Hebrews 10: 5-7:

“Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body hast thou prepared me: In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me) to do thy will, O God.”

Live with Him as your Leader and Companion in these perilous times. Do this, not as a formality and duty, but as a thrilling privilege and LIBERTY. This is your need and honour in the Latter Days.

*Do you know you are a “son of God” in Christ Jesus? Born of the very seed of God?
WAKE UP!*

1 Peter 1:23:

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.”

3. THE ROYAL DECREE OF LOVE.

Romans 15:1-7:

“We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.”

The Decree of Love is much bigger and more profound than the Law of Moses. The Decree of Love recognises that we may be at liberty in Christ, but we must remember others and that our freedom has a fence around us, that fence is the weakness of others and their vulnerability. We are indeed our brother's keeper!

1 Corinthians 8:9:

“But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak.”

We do not ever want to be a stumbling block to others. God will not force us to live by the Decree of Love. And we cannot force others, nor does any pastor or priest have the right to force others to do so. Indeed it is impossible to make others love unless they are willing!

Matthew 22:37-40:

“Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Love sees the other person, watching us. We might be at liberty in Christ Jesus to, for example, take a swim on Sunday. But, if this is highly offensive to a brother or sister in Christ, if this makes someone distressed about your witness, then love may well cause you to keep your swimming to other days.

Seek God about how you are to delight in liberty.

Romans 12:9-17:

“Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.”

LOVE, true Holy Spirit engendered love, the love of God shed abroad in our hearts, is going to be more and more precious and indeed above price as the days proceed. When all around us is being shaken, more earthquakes, floods, famines, wars and rumours of wars, economic chaos, disease, LOVE will be like a beacon light to a ship in a storm, tossed on the sea and its passengers in horrified fear of the rocks. Let your little light shine. Not just to tell people of the Gospel message, but to love them with a fervent passion. Even your enemies, as God has declared. We all know what love is as humans; God’s love filling us is much more than even a mother’s love for her tiny, helpless baby. There are some believers who will tell you that God only loves the repentant; He does not love the rebellious sinner. Not so, the Bible shows us the error of this idea: for God so loved the world of lost sinners that He gave His only Begotten Son to die for them.

He loves because His entire Being is love:

Romans 5:8:

“But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.”

God so loved us, this world of rebellious sinners, murderers and con-artists, that He gave Christ Jesus as our sacrifice for sin, you must love others in like manner. This can only be done by Christ ¹⁴ Jesus filling you with His life and love; we have no such love naturally.

Let us get back to Romans 12:9-17. What are we looking at in those verses that should influence everything we do and are in 2011 and on? How the world longs for love, even though the sophisticated worldlings around us may not articulate or grasp consciously this truth:

“DISSIMILATION” is hypocrisy, you are to be sincere, not a religious fake. We are to look with loathing on what is evil and destructive.

No matter what the temptations might be we must stick fast to what is good in action and doctrine. People can laugh at us, but have stick-ability!

In the sphere of Christian brothers and sisters in Christ, have kindly family affection one for another.

We have to be there for the believers around us. We may be in for a rough road experience before our journey ends - “Are we there yet?” comes from the back seat. Answer, “Not yet.”

Instead of engaging in church games of come-up-manship, seeking to be big deals, we should be of such comfort to other believers that we humble ourselves, simply and transparently, competing with others in showing honour to each other. Surely there are not still Christians seeking to make a name for themselves in Christian circles? At this late stage?

Zealous in all things not lazy. There is so much to do in these days. Don't give up the fight and sit down in despair in your garden with a cup of tea and biscuits.

We are to be fervent in the Spirit, impassioned and burning hot. Away with the notion of legalistic coldness and formality. The world and our brothers and sisters in Christ need you and me. They need genuine love.

Rejoice in the sphere of HOPE. All is not lost because the churches are either engrossed in apostasy, or have empty seats because Truth is preached there. We are in the predicted time of the Great Falling Away, the “apostasia.” Of course all this heresy and disappointment is happening. It will not get better.

The world is in the grip of he who is of the number 666. Supernatural evil abounds, this will increase as we ride on in our chariots, on the highway to hell for the vast majority of this planet in rebellion against its Creator.

- We are to be patient in tribulation and trial. Persevering in prayer.
- As food perhaps becomes scarce, times get much tougher; we are to be much aware of the needs of the saints around us. Sharing with them, being really eager to show hospitality. Opening our homes to one another.
- We are to constantly bless those who consistently persecute us. Never retaliate in kind.
- Learn experientially from the Lord Himself what “empathy” is. It is about putting yourself in the same place as those who are suffering, as though you were them.
- Share their weeping and sorrow, rejoice and be glad, not envious, when things go well in other people’s lives.
- Not setting your mind upon lofty things, but associating with lowly people and lowly things.
- Stop being wise in your own opinion of yourself, we don’t need know-alls to add to our trials.
- Never repay evil with evil, but rather overcome evil with love and good.
- As far as it is possible with you, live at peace with all men. Spread the love and peace of God in the midst of increasing fear or disorder.

The Latter Days are NOW, they are upon us.

WHAT ABOUT OUR ENEMIES?

Matthew 5:43-44:

“Ye have heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for them which despitefully use you, and persecute you;”

We Christians in these Endtimes are under Grace, in all its attractiveness.

The O.T. Law said some powerful things in Exodus 21:24-26:

“Eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe. And if a man smite the eye of his servant, or the eye of his maid, that it perish; he shall let him go free for his eye’s sake.”

Jesus Christ took away the pitiless severity of the Law of Moses, and brought in the Grace commands of loving your enemy. He has established the higher "Law of Christ" with its glorious precepts of grander exaltation made possible only by the indwelling Holy Spirit:

Galatians 6:2:

"Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ."

To love your enemies is a complicated, overwhelming concept. In real time, with real enemies one needs the Holy Spirit to give His Grace and love, so that a human being can indeed love their adversaries. This does not mean that you will let adversaries kill or torture your loved ones and not lift a finger to save them, or some such monstrosity. If an enemy attacked and tried to kill any of my family, or my friends, I would defend them if I had a weapon, and shoot to kill if the need arose. Not to do so would be killing my loved ones by default! But, we should never hate or destroy our enemies ad hoc. We watched the Spielberg film called "The Empire of the Sun" - it was quite inspiring. A young English boy was incarcerated in a Japanese concentration camp in Shanghai. Over time he comes to respect some of his captors, and likes a Japanese boy pilot who responds to him. The English child seems to see the bravery of all the Japanese pilots, and one scene shows him singing in his beautiful Anglican choir-boy voice a Japanese religious song as the Jap airplanes rise from the field to go off to battle. He salutes them, with the thrilling tones of his voice ringing out, touching even the hearts of the Jap commanders. Later on, when victory has been won and he is free, he wanders around in confusion. The English child meets the Japanese boy pilot who is his friend. Ex-prisoners from the camp shoot the Jap boy. The English lad tries to perform resuscitation on the pilot, as he weeps and yells, "I will bring them all back, all the dead, I will bring them all back." He seems to see only dead people, not enemies, he loved them all, not just the English and the Americans. He sees human beings caught together in the horrors of war. He holds no grudges.

God loves all of fallen humanity, every race and colour, all of the miserable rats we call humans, even you and me.
Do not hate! LOVE.

LOVE is the Royal Decree.

4. THE ROYAL DECREE OR CODE OF SELF-DENIAL.

Galatians 2:20:

"I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me."

Under this Royal Decree of conduct we should live by the power of the Holy Spirit not by Self, not living always to please self as the people of this fallen world do. People who are unsaved are often put off the Gospel because the Christians they have met say one thing and do another! What we are is more forceful than what we say, in the long run. We need to deny self's ability to live such a God-filled life that the unsaved are attracted to Christ because they see Him in us. We cannot do this by the energy of the self-life. Be filled with Christ's Life through the Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 3:2-3:

"Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart."

People in the coming days of peril might not read the Bible, and distrust and hate its words vehemently, but we can be "read" by all men, as we interact with them filled with the Holy Spirit. They need us to be among them, as long as God permits us to stay here. We are a letter permanently engraved by God, a letter to lost humanity. We are a letter written about Christ Jesus which manifests the Saviour, exhibits Him, written not on stone tablets but on the tablets of human hearts. What an honour. This is your calling in these Latter Times, should the Church be here for a protracted time before the Rapture occurs.

Ephesians 3:17-21:

"That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God. Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen."

This period of history is not just about ourselves and our concerns. It is about God's plan for us in it, and the misery that will surely come to those in our society. Those whom we can influence and aid - if we put ourselves and our own fears aside, resolutely.

"Now to the One Who is able to do beyond all things, superabundantly beyond and over and above those things we are asking for ourselves and considering, in the measure of the power which is operative in us, to Him be the glory in the Church and in Christ Jesus into all the generations of the age of the ages. Amen." (The Expanded Greek of Ephesians 3:21).

There is really nothing that the redeemed should worry about or fear.

Philippians 4:6-7:

"Be careful [anxious] for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God. And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus."

It all boils down to this: are you willing to deny self so that you can be a truly effective witness in the places of influence God has given to you? In your home, in your street, at work, amongst your family members, in society? We are all different, in different spheres, you must decide, no one can decide for you, not even an angel or God Himself can decide for you. Will you draw lines in your life, what you will do and what you will not do -for the sake of manifesting Christ Jesus to a dying world?

This is what living in the Latter Days is all about.

It is our time to fulfill our vocation before God.

We have read of the history of the Christians on the earth. In times of peril, hopelessness and people dying more of empty, anguished hearts than anything else, Christians can be like water to a man parched with thirst, or like a fireman with a fire hose when the flames are licking around your ankles, like a rescue shaft to a miner who is buried in a collapse. Deny self, and take up the challenge - to be that message of God in the flesh. It needs more than words, dear ones, it means JESUS manifest through you and me.

You are not just a nobody who can make little difference to this appalling world - you have Christ Jesus living in you by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Philippians 1:20:

"According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death."

The Church triumphant stills lives on earth, although we are in the midst of the "great falling away" of 2 Thessalonians 2:3. Political action cannot bring about what the spiritual glory of the true believers can do here. Yes, we ourselves will support people like Bob Katter, who just announced his new political party, "The Australian Party", because he seeks to do away with such things as the Carbon Tax and the nonsense of Global Warming propaganda, he wants his party to rid Australia of the Privatisation of the Internationals which is the new Colonialism, Katter understands a lot of issues and is on the people's side. But, this is mere zilch compared to the bigger fight we face - this is spiritual combate time, saints.

The Royal Decree of SELF-DENIAL or Christ manifest through you and I.

5. THE ROYAL DECREE OF SUPREME SACRIFICE.

The New Testament Royal Decree is vastly more divine than the Old Testament Law. That is why we are not under the old Law, we do not, as Sons of God, need a bondage and a force from outside us to compel us to certain actions. Only as we are filled with the Holy Spirit can we be holy.

Here is Christ's example:

"For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich." 2 Corinthians 8:9.

This is the Royal Decree by which heroes of the Faith live!!!

This is the passion of Christ Himself. To love others so much that we will sacrifice ourselves for the lost and needy, and for love of God. Christ the Son of God was the very centre of the universe when He humbled Himself unto death on the Cross for this world of suffering and lost evil doers.

Are we willing to admit that we are not the centre of the universe,

Are we willing to learn to become selfless?

Will we consider that the plan, the will of God is more important than ourselves?

Will we let God wean us from the meaninglessness of worldly ambitions for wealth, self-esteem, and the seeking of happiness and pleasure for self, and consider the weak, the lost, the confused and distressed, and the people in our own personal lives, as being more important than ourselves?

The ROYAL DECREE wants us freely to choose to give up everything to enter into the love sacrifice of Christ. What a Divine Code this truly is. We gain all by doing so; there is nothing that can ever measure up to the joy of the fellowship of His sufferings.

Walk in the light with God and He will show you what all this means.

"I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God." Romans 12:1-2.

The Greek has such deepness on Romans 12:1-2, let us consider these momentous words of our Lord God, using Paul as a "secretary"-

"I therefore beg of you, please, brethren, through the instrumentality of the aforementioned mercies of God, by a once-for-all presentation to place your bodies at the disposal of God, a sacrifice, a living one, a holy one, well-pleasing, your rational sacred service, [rational, in that this service is performed by your mind]. And stop assuming an outward expression that does not come from within your inner being but is patterned after this age; but change your outward expression to one that comes from within and is representative of your inner being, by the renewing of your mind, resulting in your putting to the test what is the will of God, the good and well-pleasing and complete will, and having found that it meets specifications, place your approval upon it."

If we do indeed surrender completely to the Lord God even unto the death of the self-life, we will be taught by the Holy Spirit, Who possesses us wholly, warfare in the spirit-dimension, as the Holy Word of God is opened to us. This will be given not in a trivial, pop-culture manner as we have seen many times in modern Pentecostal churches, but in power, Holy Spirit "dunamis." The very Name of Christ Jesus has mighty "dunamis."

A short, personal testimony might be helpful here.

Years ago when I lived on the Gold Coast, Surfer's Paradise, I worked as a counsellor and street evangelist with a Christian ministry. One night I was with a fellow worker when we encountered a group of young men and women on Surfer's Mall. They yelled at us that they were Satanists, when they saw us giving out Gospel tracts, and declared with much glee and dancing that their God was Lucifer and that he was stronger than Jesus Christ. "Our God is greater than your God" they yelled. Two boys followed us down the street abusing and ridiculing Christ Jesus and ourselves, "Our God is greater than your God," they chanted with howls of laughter. I turned around on them, not really expecting what would soon happen, and extended my arm shouting, "BE SILENT IN THE NAME OF THE LORD JESUS CHRIST!" One boy had eyes which were painted around the edges with black make-up. At my shout his eyes rolled back, very white against the black paint, he then flipped backwards and fell on the ground, then he began to have fits. It was most dramatic to say the least. He writhed and rolled in terrible distress and finally passed out. My male co-worker and the Satanist friends of the boy had to carry him to my colleague's car, and drive him to the Gold Coast hospital, where he was admitted. A number of those Satanists became Christians that night.

Yes, the Name of Christ Jesus has spiritual POWER alright.

THE ALIEN INVASION & THE NEO/NEPHILIM TRANSHUMAN HYBRIDS.

So much has happened in the last decade that we, as investigators of the Endtimes in contact with many others across the earth, cannot share what is happening - it is all too vast! Everything is happening at once, and the most awesome of all horrors is the ALIEN INVASION. Christians will often not listen to reports of "aliens" or "ETs" because it appears to them to be delving into occult territory, or to be all imagination on the part of cranks, or to be too off-the-wall to be "proper" for believers in God to listen to, or read about. This stance must change; the cutting edge of the events on earth in 2011-2012 is the spiritual realm, not just the looming economic collapse or the weather warfare we are encountering. Are these "aliens" really entities from other planets in space? No, it seems now 100% sure that they are the fallen angels who have revealed themselves again, just as they did before the Great Flood in Noah's day. Genesis 6. This time they are showing themselves in forms that suit our own age, a scientific age, and passing themselves off as being benevolent beings from Mars, or Venus, perhaps further afield planets. They are really from another dimension; we are under the most fantastic of invasions that can be imagined. For more on this news of importance to us all get onto "PROPHECY IN THE NEWS" with Gary Stearman -www. prophecyinthenews.com. Send for DVDs, listen to Tom Horn, get the books exposing aliens, and get "Forbidden Gates" by Tom and Nita Horn. Read about the dawn of techno-dimensional spiritual warfare. "Apollyon Rising 2012" is an important book.

I am sorry to bring such news to the readers of Beauty for Ashes, this is not the gentle contents that usually make up my handbook, but we are involved now in stunning events, all of us will be well-aware before long. Years ago there were reports of people being taken by "UFOs" and experimented on, cows being mutilated, sexual abuse by "aliens" and so on; these would be reported at about 40 times a year. Now, there are reports coming in that amount to about 350 a day! The world is being set-up for such lying signs and wonders that people will not be able to withstand the "wonders." The ETs are announcing that they are here in order to save the earth from the environmental disasters that mankind has brought upon itself. There are New Age teachers, magazines, conferences abounding dealing with these ET Saviours who have come as some sort of delivering “Christs” that will make things right again on the planet. This is not crank stuff; we are involved in what the Bible has shown us.

Ephesians 6: 12-13:

“For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.”

What “evil day” are we looking at?

There have always been strange events on this planet, but these have been predicted to massively increase in the Latter Days.

Matthew 24:24:

“For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect.”

I will give you an introduction section of Tom and Nita Horn’s book “Forbidden Gates” entitled “Read First” pages XV to XVIII. This is not to tickle your fancy, but to give a wake-up call:

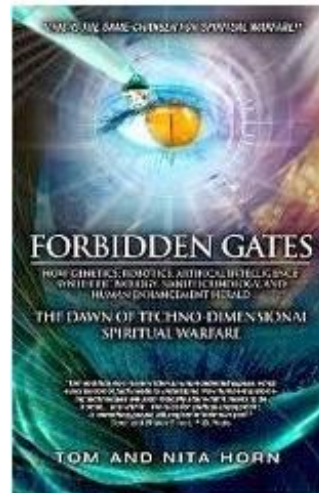

“READ FIRST:

While Forbidden Gates:

How Genetics, Robotics, Artificial Intelligence, Synthetic Biology, Nanotechnology, and Human Enhancement Herald the Dawn of Techno-Dimensional Spiritual Warfare includes fresh insights for traditional, tried-and-true methods of overcoming darkness, it also unveils for the first time how breakthrough advances in science, technology, and philosophy-including cybernetics, bioengineering, nanotechnology, machine intelligence, synthetic biology, and transhumanism-will combine to create mind-boggling game-changes to everything you have ever known about spiritual warfare.

How so?

In recent years, astonishing technological developments have *pushed the frontiers of humanity toward far-reaching morphological transformation that promises in the very near future to redefine what it means to be human. An international, intellectual, and fast-growing cultural movement known as transhumanism intends the use of genetics, robotics, artificial intelligence, and nanotechnology (GRIN technologies) as tools that will radically redesign our minds, our memories, our physiology, our offspring, and even perhaps-as Joel Garreau in his best-selling book, Radical Evolution, claims-our very souls. The technological, cultural, and metaphysical shift now underway unapologetically forecasts a future dominated by this new species of unrecognizably superior humans, and applications under study now to make this dream a reality are being funded by thousands of government and private research facilities around the world. As the reader will learn, this includes, among other things, rewriting human DNA and combining humans with beasts, a fact that some university studies and transhumanists believe will not only alter our bodies and souls but ultimately could open a door to contact with unseen intelligence.*

As a result, new modes of perception between things visible and invisible are expected to challenge the church in ways that are historically and theologically unprecedented. Without comprehending what is quickly approaching in related disciplines of research and development, vast numbers of believers could be paralyzed by the most fantastic-and most far-reaching-supernatural implications. The destiny of each individual-as well as the future of their families-will depend on knowledge of the new paradigm and the prepared-ness to face it head on.

As outlined in this book, the power operating behind this scheme to integrate human-animal-machine interfaces in order to reengineer humanity is not new. The ancient, malevolent force is simply repackaging itself these days as the forward-thinking and enlightened progress needed for the next step in human evolution.

Facing godlike machines and man's willingness to cross over species and extradimensional barriers put in place by God, traditional methods of spiritual warfare-which Christian institutions have relied on for the last century-will soon be monumentally impacted in nontraditional ways and insufficient when approaching this threshold.

*Yet it is possible, according to Forbidden Gates, not only to survive but to triumph over the uncanny challenges the impending* epoch will present. Overcomers will prevail through a working knowledge of the philosophy and technologies driving the threats, combined with a solid understanding of the authority that Christians alone have. What continues within these pages will lift the curtain on a world unlike previous generations could have expected or even imagined, and will inform believers how the power of Christ can be amplified against heretofore unknown adversarial manifestations.

Thomas and Nita Horn have nearly thirty-five years of ministry experience, with twenty-five inside the largest evangelical institution in the world-including executive-level positions with responsibilities such as exorcism. Their newest book, Forbidden Gates, is not only unique in its findings, but is invaluable for equipping serious Christians with the knowledge they will soon need to face the future with exceptional confidence. Because Forbidden Gates deals with cutting-edge applications for spiritual warfare, it has been divided into four sections to provide systematic learning:

SECTION ONE: Spiritual Warfare 101

SECTION TWO: The Battlefield until now

SECTION THREE: The Coming Battlefield --

Artifacts, Terrans, Transhumans

SECTION FOUR: The "Other" Signs of the Days of Noah

The sections above are laid out to allow even readers with little knowledge of the subject matter to learn how to organize and apply dynamic principles of spiritual warfare, and to directly benefit from this book-soon to be one of the most important books in your possession besides the Bible." (End of Quote)

THE BIBLE ON ALIENS.

"Now the Spirit (Holy Spirit) speaketh expressly, that in the LATTER DAYS (the last days of this Church Age, this dispensation) some shall depart from the Faith (that is, give up the Christian Faith) giving heed to SEDUCING SPIRITS, and DOCTRINES OF DEVILS (demons)..." 1 Timothy 4:1-2.

The revival of demonism is one of the signs of the times we live in. We should be warned by the events to do with "aliens," so called, that we are approaching the end of the age. The demons are disembodied spirits, not fallen angels. There is much being said at this period about the intermingling of animal DNA with human DNA, scientists are heavily occupied with these experiments in an ugly push to bring about transhuman beings as the best way to deal with the threatened extinction of mankind. Demons, as disembodied spirits, have no physical bodies but seek bodies to inhabit.

Do you recall the account of the demons being cast out of humans, and begging to be sent into swine? Matthew 8: 28-32:

“And when he [Jesus] was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so that no man might pass by that way. And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God? art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place into the sea, and perished in the waters.”

The POSTHUMAN movements in the world today want merging of animals and humans, and even humans and machines to take place. As an example, Mark Walker, assistant professor at New Mexico State University (who holds the Richard L. Hedden of Advanced Philosophical Studies Chair) concludes that “technological advances mean that there is a high probability that a human-only future will end in extinction.” This forbidden scientific interference in humanity’s DNA is intended to bring about a human race that is polluted to such an extent that it is no longer human. Christ Jesus died to SAVE the human race from the effects of sin; He did NOT die to redeem hybrids! Satan is working hard to prevent any of the humans from being saved at all! Meanwhile, the demons want bodies to dwell in, and the spirit of a dog, for example, will not enter a part dog part human body. Neither will a human spirit enter a hybrid. Are the experiments being carried out by the “ETs” about creating bodies for demons to enter, overthrowing the entire human race in the end? That may be the plan of Satan, but God will never allow it and must take interventionist action very soon.

There are not just a few demons in number, there is a vast martialled HOST of veterans in the service of Satan. Their central base camp is the “Bottomless Pit” from which they rush forth at the command of their devilish leader, as shown in Revelation 9:1-11

Many scholars believe these demons to be the inhabitants of the Pre-Noahic Earth whose sin caused its wreck, and whose bodies were destroyed in the catastrophe that overwhelmed it. It is very clear from Scripture that demons have personalities from the fact that Jesus conversed with them, asked them questions and received answers back. Luke 8:26-33. They appear to be highly intelligent, as Matthew 8:29 shows, as they know that Christ Jesus is the “Son of God” and that they are to be finally imprisoned in the place of “Torment.”

The FALLEN ANGELS

are NOT demons,
they are another race
altogether.

We at Endtime Ministries have written permission from the estate of the late Clarence Larkin to use his material freely. It would be an excellent idea here to give our readers a portion of his book “Spirit World” so that you may fully understand what fallen angels actually are.

The Spirit World - Clarence Larkin,

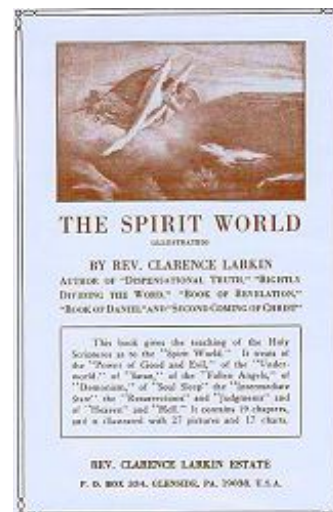

Chapter IV The Fallen Angels (pp. 23-36)

“In 2 Peter 2: 4-5, we read—
“God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell

(Tartarus), and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment: and spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the Flood upon the world of the ungodly.”

“The angels which kept not their ‘FIRST ESTATE,’ but left their own habitation, He hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the Judgment of the Great Day. (The Great White Throne Judgment.) Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after STRANGE FLESH, are set forth as an example, suffering the vengeance of Eternal Fire.” Jude 6-7.

Who are these angels? They are not Satan’s angels, for his angels are free, and like him roam about, but these angels are in “prison,” “in darkness,” and “reserved in chains” for judgment. The place of their confinement is not Hell, but Tartarus. See the Chart and Chapter on "The Underworld." What was their sin? It was "fornication," and fornication of an abnormal character, the unlawful sexual intercourse of angelic beings with "STRANGE FLESH," that is with beings of a different nature. When was this sin committed? The text says in the "Days of Noah," and that it was the cause of the Flood. For the details we must go back to the time before the Flood. In Gen. 6: 1-4 we read-

"And it came to pass, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the 'SONS OF GOD' saw the 'Daughters of Men' that they were fair (beautiful); and they took them wives of all which they chose There were 'Giants' in the earth in those days; and also after that, when the 'SONS OF GOD' came in unto the 'Daughters of Men,' and they bare children to them, the same became 'Mighty Men' which were of old, men of renown."

Who were these "SONS OF GOD"? Some claim that they were the Sons of "SETH," and that the "Daughters of MEN" were the daughters of "CAIN," and that what is meant is that the Sons of the supposedly godly line of Seth, intermarried with the godless daughters of Cain, the result being a godless race. That the "Sons of God" were the descendants of Seth is based on the assumption that the descendants of Seth lived apart from the descendants of Cain up to a time shortly before the Flood, and that they were a pure and holy race, while the descendants of Cain were ungodly, and their women irreligious and carnal minded, and possessed of physical attractions that were foreign to the women of the tribe of Seth. Such an assumption has no foundation in Scripture. Be sure it says in Gen. 4: 26, that after the birth of Enos, a son of Seth, that men began to call upon the Lord, but it does not follow that those men were limited to the descendants of Seth, nor that all the descendants of Seth from that time were righteous. As in the early days of the race it was necessary that brothers and sisters and near relatives should marry, it was very unlikely that the descendants of Seth and Cain did not intermarry until some time before the Flood, and stranger still that when they did marry their offspring would be a race of "giants" or "Mighty Men." It is worthy of note that nothing is said of giantesses, or "Mighty Women," which would have been the case if it were simply a union of the sons of Seth, and the daughters of Cain. As both the descendants of Seth (except 8 persons) and of Cain were destroyed in the Flood, it is evident that they were not separate tribes at that time and were equally sinners in the sight of God.

If the sons of Seth and the daughters of Cain were meant why did not Moses, who wrote the Pentateuch, say so? It is not sufficient to say that the men of Moses' time knew what he meant. The Scriptures are supposed to mean what they say. When MEN, we are told, began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, the "Sons of God" saw the "daughters of MEN." The use of the word MEN signifies the whole Adamic race, and not simply the descendants of Cain, thus distinguishing the "Sons of God" from the descendants of Adam. There is no suggestion of contrast if the "Sons of God" were also men. ...

That the "Sons of God" of Gen. 6: 1-4 were ANGELS was maintained by the ancient Jewish Synagogue, by Hellenistic Jews at, and before, the time of Christ, and by the Christian Church up until the Fourth Century, when the interpretation was changed to "sons of Seth" for two reasons. First, because the worship of angels had been set up, and if the "Sons of God" of Gen. 6: 1-4 were angels and fell, then angels might fall again, and that possibility would affect the worship of angels. The second reason was, that Celibacy had become an institution of the Church, and if it was taught that the angels in heaven did not marry, and yet that some of them seduced by the beauty of womanhood came down from heaven to gratify their amorous propensities, a weakness of a similar kind in one of the "earthly angels" (Celibates) might be the more readily excused. In the Eighteenth Century the "Angelic Interpretation" was revived, and is now largely held by Biblical scholars.

The objection to the "Angelic Interpretation" is based on the words of Jesus as to the marriage relation, of the redeemed in Heaven, when He said-They neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the Angels of God in Heaven. Matt. 22: 30; Mark 12: 25; Luke 20: 35-36. The legitimate conclusion from this statement is, that the Angels do not marry, but it does not therefore follow that they are "sexless." It says they do not marry in Heaven, not that they do not have the power of procreation, but that it is not the nature of "Holy Angels" to seek such a relationship. But it does not follow that if they have the power they will not exercise it in a fallen state. What these passages teach is that angels do not multiply by procreation. Angels as far as we know were created "en masse," and as they are immortal, and never die, there is no necessity for marriage among them. Marriage is a human institution to prevent the extinction of the race by death. If the bodies of the dead are to be resurrected, as the Scriptures clearly teach, the inference is that those bodies will be male and female. To teach otherwise is to declare that such a relationship as husband and wife and sister and brother will be unknown in Heaven. As the bodies of the Righteous dead after they have been resurrected and glorified are immortal, and shall never die again, there will be no necessity for the Righteous in Heaven to marry, and therefore the marriage relation will be discontinued, but it does not follow husbands and wives will not know each other "as such" in the other world. See the Chapter on "Recognition and Relationship in the Spirit World."

...They do not marry in Heaven is because there are no female angels to marry. But it does not follow that they do not have male generative organs and cannot cohabit with females of the human race. It is highly improbable that angels by sinking lower in the scale of being could acquire sexual power of which they had previously been destitute, and yet they have such power if we are to believe the statement of Gen. 6: 1-4. The whole thing hinges on the correspondence between the bodies of angels and the bodies of human beings.

Angels and human beings are members of the great family of God, and this "kinship" between them implies a relationship that under certain conditions might result in a fruitful marriage union. Angels are "Spirit Beings" clothed in celestial bodies. These bodies are not ethereal in the sense that they are mere "ether," for they have a materialistic form and can fly (Dan. 9: 21, Rev. 14: 6-7) and assume the form of a man, and could eat of Abraham's calf (Gen. 18: 1-8), and of Lot's unleavened bread (Gen. 19: 1-3). Man is also a "Spirit Being" clothed in a material body of flesh, and hereafter, as a redeemed man, is to have a "Spirit body" like unto the angels. As someone has said man is now "half-beast" and "half-angel," but some day will be all angel. "As we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the Heavenly." 1 Cor. 15: 49. Are men and angels then so dissimilar that under certain conditions there could not be a union between them?

... If man was made in the "IMAGE OF GOD," and after His "LIKENESS" (Gen. 1: 26-27), it stands to reason that when God would manifest Himself to men, it would be in the form of a man.

When Jesus ascended He ascended as a MAN, and He is now in Heaven the "MAN CHRIST JESUS." 1 Tim. 2: 5. And as a MAN John had a vision of Him in the midst of the "Seven Lampstands." Rev.1:10-20. The human body is not made after the pattern of the Heavenly, then Jesus in the form of a MAN in Heaven is out of harmony with His environment, and we have the anomalous condition of the second person in the Trinity now being different in form from the Father and the Holy Spirit. If Jesus came to reveal the Father, then what did He mean when He said- "He that hath seen ME, hath SEEN THE FATHER" (John 14: 8-11), if He was not a revelation of God in His person as well as in His works? As no mortal being in the flesh can look on the person of God and live (Ex. 33: 18-23), it was necessary that Jesus should veil His Deity in human flesh, but the veil of the flesh became transparent on the Mount of Transfiguration, and three of His Disciples beheld His Glorious Heavenly Form, that of a Man. Matt. 17: 1-2. John 1: 14. 2 Pet. 1: 16-18.

We know from the first three chapters of Genesis that God visited the "Garden of Eden" and talked with Adam. We also know that Satan, a "Fallen Angel," also was a visitor to the Garden, for it was there that he tempted the first pair. May it not have been true that Adam and Eve had other angelic visitors, because of the "kinship" between them? It would be interesting to know what would have been the relation between the Adamic and Angelic races if Adam had not fallen. Is not the difference between them, caused by the Fall, more of a spiritual than a physical one, and, if so, where does the impossibility of physical intercourse come in? What effect the Fall had upon the physical state of Adam and Eve is an interesting question. We are told that as a result of the Fall their eyes were opened, and they knew that they were naked. Gen. 3: 7. Why did they not know that before? Is it true, as some have supposed, that before the Fall a sort of "Halo" acted as a veil to hide their nakedness, and by the Fall they lost this? While the first pair were told to be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth (Gen. 1: 28), showing that if had been inhabited before, the inference is that that union would have been of the most pure and chaste character, but the Fall so changed the human heart as to cause man to fall below the brute creation in yielding to lust, and if this be true of fallen man, why not true of "Fallen Angels"? As the Fall of man did not sever completely the communication of angelic beings with the race, we see no reason why fallen angelic beings could not be attracted by the beauty and comeliness of the females of a race, inferior, but not so far removed from them, and desire to have intimate companionship with them.

In Rev. 12: 7-12, we read that when Satan and his angels are cast out of the Heavens onto the earth there will be great "woe." As this will be in the midst of the "Tribulation Period," and as we read—"As it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the Days of the Son of Man" (Luke 17: 26-27), it may be that this new invasion of the earth by "Fallen Angels" will be attended with like conduct on their part as that of the Fallen Angels of Noah's day.

There is a statement in Gen. 3: 15, that seems to throw considerable light on the subject we are discussing. It reads— "I will put enmity between thee (Satan) and the woman (Eve), and between THY SEED (Anti-Christ) and HER SEED (Christ): IT (Christ) shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise His heel." From this it seems clear that Satan has the power of procreation, and that he will beget a son—"THE ANTI-CHRIST," called in 2 Thess. 2: 3, the "SON OF PERDITION." While "Perdition" is a PLACE (Rev. 17: 8, 11), and also a "condition" into which men may fall (1 Tim. 6: 9; Heb. 10: 39), the author of it is SATAN, and "Antichrist" in the above passage is called the "SON OF PERDITION" because he is the son of the author of "Perdition," or SATAN.

As Christ Was born of a "virgin" by the Holy Spirit without the instrumentality of a human father, so it would appear that Antichrist, in imitation of the birth of Christ, is to be born of a woman (not necessarily a virgin) with Satan as his father. This is no new view, but has been held by many of God's spiritually minded children since the days of the Apostle John. ... If Satan then has the power of procreation, why not his and other Fallen Angels?

As further evidence as to the possibility of angelic beings having intercourse with human beings it might be well to cite the treatment of the angels that came to Sodom, by the men of Sodom, which incident is connected with the account of the "Fallen Angels" in 2 Pet. 2:4-6, and Jude 6-7. From the account in Gen. 19: 1-11. it is clear that the men of Sodom sought to seize the two angels that came to Lot that they might commit the unnatural vice of Sodomy with them, as described in Rom. 1:26-27, thus revealing that the angels had the generative organs of men.

When Moses sent the twelve spies into Canaan (Num. 13: 1-33), they reported on their return—

“And there we saw the ‘giants’ (Nephilim), the sons of Anak, which come of the Giants (Nephilim); and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.” Where did these giants, called “Nephilim,” the same as the “Giants” of Gen. 6: 1-4, come from? They did not come from the other side of the Flood, unless there was such blood in Noah and his sons and their wives, which we must believe that God prevented, for the purpose of the Flood was to destroy such contamination of the race. Does it not look as if even after the Flood there were some sporadic cases of angelic intercourse with the daughters of men, and was not this the reason why God called for the extermination of the Canaanites that He might blot out the descendants of the Nephilim? This interpretation is confirmed by the words of Gen. 6: 4- “There were giants (Nephilim) in the earth in those days (the days before the Flood), and also AFTER THAT.” That is, after the Flood. The statement that the sin of the “Fallen Angels” was that they left their “First Estate,” the “Kingdom of the Air,” to descend to the earth for the purpose of going after “STRANGE FLESH,” ought to forever settle the character of that sin to everyone who believes the word of God.

... As the older nations of the earth have traditions, and III some cases records of the Flood, showing that they can trace their origin back to that catastrophe, we have in these traditions the source or origin whence the classic writers of antiquity obtained their conception of the “Gods” and “Demi-Gods” whose loves for members of the human race led to the birth of beings half human and half divine. Thus the writers of antiquity, who must have had some basis for their stories, indirectly confirm our contention that the “Sons of God” of Gen. 6: 1-4, whose descendants are described as “Mighty Men,” were more than human, that they were of heavenly origin. (End of quote)

We, in 2011-2012 are facing a return to times which are like the DAYS OF NOAH, when vast untold interaction between demons, fallen angels and mankind went on, just as the Bible predicts.

Matthew 24: 37-39:

“But as the days of Noe [Noah] were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noe [Noah] entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be."

This passage shows the ignorance of the godless peoples in the face of amazing changes on this planet. They will seek to keep up ordinary life; planning for the future when it will not exist in the form we have known it. It is sad to see our own children, grandchildren and their families wanting to have decent jobs, to buy their own houses, do well in their lives, expecting things to be as they were when we were young. But, God has bigger plans than just the things of this transient world, all that pertains to this world's style is finite, God is infinite and the Rock we have built our lives upon as Christians is infinite also (Matthew 7:24), that Rock is Jesus. Do not grieve for the things of this world, move with the Lord God as we enter deeper into these Latter Times.

Although the understanding of where demons actually came from originally has a traditional and absorbing setting, as explained by Larkin, there are a number of assumptions presented from other quarters, we should realise this. The subject of demons is one which is deeply mysterious, it is not really a cut-and-dried affair with dogmatic answers. I will briefly give here some other views of demons, these are popular theories:

1. DEMONS are thought by some to be Otherworld Beings, from parallel universes or distant worlds. Some Bible scholars have taught that demons are entities from another reality. That they have a structure which is invisible to the physical eye, but have a distinct design, in the realm of quantum physics and atoms.

2. DEMONS are thought to be by some people the offspring of angels and women. There are those who believe that the "gods" of Rome, Greece, Egypt, Persia, Assyria, Babylonia and Sumer were and are demons. Part-celestial, part-terrestrial hybrids known as "Nephilim." Called in Hebrew "The Watchers."

Believers in this theory point out that the Nephilim and the Rephaim were in ancient days associated with demons, ghosts, apparitions, haunting, and spirits in Sheol.

3. Some believers acquaint DEMONS with fallen angels, those who fell with Lucifer as recorded in Ezekiel 28:13-19 and Isaiah 14:12-14. They are one and the same beings, it is believed.

4. DEMONS are also seen as a merger of all the theories already dealt with, and it is suggested that there might be a hierarchy in the unseen evil spirit realm. This view sees fallen angels perhaps as outranking demons, but all being part of the army of Satan.

5. Some (mostly unsaved scholars?) believe that all the theories presented are erroneous, and that demons have their only existence in the imaginations of men. DEMONS can be hallucinations of people who have disorders such as mental illness, schizophrenia or brain tumours.

A rather heavy but extremely valuable master-piece is "Earth's Earliest Ages" by G.H. Pember, which explains and instructs to a high degree in the spirit world and Biblical subjects pertaining to many areas which are important in our world-view right now.

Pub. Kregel Publications, Michigan USA.

A FINAL BENEDICTION.

What would I say and do if you were in my living room right now?

I would make you a cup of fluffy coffee, with a marshmallow on top. I would sit you down and we would have hot scones together (I make good date scones). We would draw close to our Beloved Lord; we would pray and worship together. My friend and co-worker Wendy Beuster would be there and we would discuss all this loudly with zeal; you would make comments and we would wonder and be amazed together - can it be that we, ourselves, are present on earth at this strategic, mind-blowing, period? You and I would agree together, I am sure, that we are in very safe Hands; we have no problems, for HE, our Saviour, has taken us on and will order our steps until the end.

Psalm 119: 130-137:

"The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth understanding unto the simple. I opened my mouth, and panted: for I longed for thy commandments. Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy name. Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have dominion over me. Deliver me from the oppression of man: so will I keep thy precepts. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant; and teach me thy statutes. Rivers of waters run down mine eyes, because they keep not thy law. TZADDI. Righteous art thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments."

AMEN.

See you at peace and aware,
in joy without care;
here, there or in the air.

APPENDIX:

GOD WILL USE ANY SAVED PERSON WHO IS TOTALLY COMMITTED TO HIM.
PHOEBE PALMER - EVANGELIST.

WHO IS PHOEBE PALMER, you might ask?

Phoebe Palmer was a woman of God who was born in 1807 in New York city, her parents were Christians. She is considered by many to be the most influential woman in the Methodist Church in America in the 1800s. But, as happens with many mighty women of God, she has been largely forgotten.

The born-again Christian, Phoebe Worrall, married Dr Walter Palmer in 1827. She had two children which died in infancy, the events caused her considerable grief and internal wonderings and conjecture - why had this happened to her?

why had God allowed it?

A third and fourth child were born to the Palmers, but the fourth died in an accident. The tragedy brought Phoebe to her knees. She had lost trust in God's love for a brief period, and now she vowed "to trust God's goodness" no matter what happened. Her spiritual life was deepened considerably by what she suffered. And a veritable passion for souls and for suffering humanity grew from the roots of shattering emotional pain!

This is the story behind many of the lives of distinguished Christians, a passion for service because of deep personal grief. She became a mighty evangelist, visiting horrible areas of New York, telling of God's love. She sought out the lonely, the unloved, the lost who lived in slums and squalor. In one area the famous Charles Dickens visited Phoebe to observe her work, but he would only go accompanied by two strong policemen. Phoebe needed only the protection of the Holy Spirit of God, she went alone except for His powerful presence. Phoebe Palmer believed that the poor and lost should not only be helped spiritually but that they needed food, clothing and housing as well as spiritual instruction. She was one of the forerunners of settlement houses that sprang up in many cities to help the needy and distressed.

Phoebe Palmer became famous for her teaching on entire sanctification by Grace.

Every person was important to Ms. Palmer. Lack of money or position meant nothing to her as she sought souls for the kingdom. In fact she was even known to pay a person to attend church! She met a woman who wanted to come to services but was unable to because of money. She did piecework, and the money she lost while at church would have taken food away from her children. Ms. Palmer paid her the amount she would have lost, and the woman attended services.

The Tuesday Meeting for the Promotion of Holiness for which Ms. Palmer was famous in her day, was actually started by her sister Sarah. Sarah led her to seek entire sanctification and influenced her to attend the beginning sessions of the Tuesday Meeting. As Ms. Palmer attended and began to speak to those present, the power of her exhortations was evident, and the group grew from a few people to hundreds.

Twice she and her husband added rooms onto their home to provide for the numbers who wanted to attend. Bishops, pastors, laypeople, and professors attended these meetings, and no one left without a blessing. Ministers of many denominations attended because they were seeking the “second blessing” of which Ms. Palmer spoke, but they did not feel they could attend another church. With the meetings held in a home, they were safe to attend without criticism.

Holiness of heart and life was the central theme of her ministry, and her teachings caused quite a stir within the Methodist Episcopal Church. Her experience of sanctification included putting everything in a person's life on the altar and consecrating it to God. When this had been done, the person accepted on faith in the Word of God that she was indeed sanctified—entirely sanctified. The consecrating of everything in a person's life was the important step. She had even written out a covenant which appeared in her book "Entire Devotion" so that others would have a guide to use. The covenant helped persons to review all of their life and not omit any aspect when committing everything to God.

As a revivalist, Ms. Palmer stands almost without equal. She was a prodigious speaker and converted thousands in America and England. She spoke with Moody in England with tremendous response. For thirty-five years she continued to travel and preach every summer at camp meetings in America."

GOD CAN WORK MIRACLES through any dedicated Christian who is filled with the Life of Christ. Phoebe Palmer won many, many thousands of people to Christ before the Civil War broke out in America. Lay your life on God's Altar, go to the lost, frightened and suffering people in our country of Australia, seek the Lord about what YOU should be doing! The BAD TIMES coming demand the preaching of the Gospel by all the redeemed saints out there. Pray, witness, let your little light shine in the darkness.

For any who wish to access this wonderful material below from a bygone era, these books of Phoebe Palmer have been download from the internet and are available as pdf files, which can be sent by email or put on a CD to be read on your computer or printed out by you at Office Works.

