Leonard Cohen - When Leonard Cohen passed away on Nov. 7, 2016, his family held a wake at Moishes Steakhouse. Opened in 1938, the Montreal institution strikes a perfect balance between old and new Montreal: its classic Jewish dishes pay tribute to the restaurant's Romanian roots, while the dining room's beautiful graffiti murals evoke the multicultural, ever-evolving Plateau-Mont Royal neighbourhood. Owner and operator Lenny Lighter—son of late founder Moishe Lighter, who won the restaurant in a poker game—recalls Leonard Cohen visiting regularly with his children and his mother. According to Lighter, Cohen's favourite dish was the lamb chops, and his go-to wine was a red Bordeaux. "Everything you read about [Cohen] being a sweet and soulful person is absolutely true," Lighter says. "That was his nature, and he had a great sense of humour." > Moishes.ca
