

THE CANAANITE WOMAN: A WOMAN OF GREAT FAITH

INTRODUCTION

She is known only as the Canaanite woman in Matthew's Gospel and the Syro-Phoenician woman in the Gospel of Mark. Jesus singled her out as a woman of great faith. In her anguish, she sought Jesus to heal her tormented, demon possessed daughter.

The Canaanites were Gentiles and enemies of the Jews, but this Canaanite woman did not allow her religious, political, cultural or ethnic differences to keep her from pursuing Jesus. She humbly accepted her inferior position, yet she was unwilling to give up until Jesus helped her. She persevered through His initial silence. Even after Jesus shared with her that His mission was to the Jews first, she pressed on, displaying a strong and persistent assurance in Him. This story depicts our Lord Jesus responding to faith wherever it can be found.

As you do the homework, prayerfully ask God to develop within you a persevering faith. Pray that you may continue to delight and please the heart of God and that your faith in Him would deepen.

SCRIPTURE MEMORY VERSE

But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of them that diligently seek Him (Hebrews 11:6).

Names Given to the Canaanite Woman

Canaanite	And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto Him . . . (Matthew 15:22). The word Canaan in Hebrew means - humiliated. Canaanites later became known as merchants and traffickers. The Canaanites were the ancient ancestors of the woman in our homework and the bitter enemies of the Jews. Because Matthew's audience was Jewish, they would have easily understood the significance of Jesus helping this woman.
Syro-Phoenician A Greek	The woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by nation . . . (Mark 7:26). The title identified her as a woman from Phoenicia, a region of Palestine. Mark's Gospel was written to the Roman Christians. They would identify the woman easily by the region of the Roman Empire she was from.

SECTION 1 - Seeking God's Mercy in Tribulation

After dealing with the opposition and unbelief of the Pharisees¹ and Scribes,² Jesus and His disciples withdrew to the Gentile area of Tyre and Sidon³ for a time of rest.

READ Matthew 15:21-28 and Mark 7:24-30.

What would Jesus say to you? _____

What do you feel is lacking in your prayer life? _____

WRITE Hebrews 4:16. _____

The amount of faith you possess is not as important as having a genuine and growing faith in the Lord. As you exercise faith in God through prayer, obedience, and feeding on His Word, your faith grows and you will learn to persevere and prevail through various trials; thus pleasing the heart of God.

MEMORY VERSE

(Hebrews 11:6).

The Canaanite woman teaches us that we can boldly and courageously go to God in prayer. Despite the fact that she was a woman and the cultural barriers, she came to Jesus in humility, demonstrating a persistent faith in Him alone. Jesus rewarded her faith by, not only granting her petition, but also commending her.
