The Order of Greek Horsemen

The Order of Greek Horsemen was founded in 1955 by students Frank “Sonny” Seiler, John Wilkins and Donald Joel with John Cox, Director of Student Activities, serving as the first advisor. The organization honors outstanding greek men for their contributions to the fraternity system. This involvement may be through IFC, their own fraternity, or being active in other forms of campus life.

UGA FRATERNITY RECRUITMENT GUIDE 2021

Greetings:

Welcome to the University of Georgia, the birthplace of public higher education in America. We have a rich history of educating leaders for the state of Georgia and beyond. Fraternities and sororities have long been a part of our institution, and today a quarter of our students are active in Greek Life.

Greek Life provides students with opportunities for leadership and character development through charitable and community service while helping them build connections and friendships that can last a lifetime. Those involved in Greek Life are among the most engaged students on campus, with high levels of participation in extracurricular activities that complement their classroom experiences and grade point averages that commonly exceed those of other students.

After graduation, fraternity and sorority members often become some of our most committed alumni and our most generous donors. Notable Greek alumni have included U.S. senators, governors, corporate CEOs, scientists, educators, attorneys, and musicians, among others. By taking full advantage of the intellectual, social, and cultural opportunities available at the University of Georgia, you enrich your college experience and lay the foundation for a successful future.

While Greek Life provides numerous opportunities for personal growth and development, it also brings great responsibilities. Those involved with Greek Life should strive to be positive role models in their organization and for the greater campus community. You will be counted on to help shape a culture that fosters educational excellence and a welcoming and supportive environment for all.

I appreciate your interest in Greek Life and invite you to learn more about the opportunities it provides. Best wishes for success in your endeavors here at the University of Georgia and in all that you do.

Sincerely,

Jere W. Morehead
President

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

Nationally, Greek men make up 70% of the people listed in Who's Who, 86% of the CEO's in the country's top fifty corporations, 75% of the United States Congressmen, and 85% of Supreme Court Justices since 1910.

WELCOME FROM THE IFC PRESIDENT

Greetings,

On behalf of the Interfraternity Council, it's my pleasure to welcome you to one of the South's finest institutions of higher learning. Founded in 1785, the University of Georgia is the birthplace of public higher education in America. One could say this was the first of many proud distinctions held here at UGA. Another, as you will come to realize, is the excellence found within our Greek community. Those students who have participated in Greek Life have traditionally been some of the most active and successful on campus.

With that being said, welcome to the process of fraternity recruitment! During this process you will have the opportunity to participate in many events with numerous fraternities and many different people. With 26 chapters, we know that there is a fraternity for you! This recruitment process is designed as a vehicle for you to meet new people, explore the Greek community, and, ultimately, find the fraternity that is the best fit for you.

This is an exciting time for you, and there are thousands of active brothers and alumni that will attest to the fact that you are in an outstanding position. These fraternity men will tell you that deciding to take part in fraternity recruitment was one of the greatest decisions that they have ever made. The Greek community at the University of Georgia has consistently developed men of character and men who have gone on to lead our school, state, and country. So, thank you for your interest in our Greek community and taking the initial step in the process of joining a fraternity.

Once again, congratulations on your acceptance to the state's most storied university. I hope that you take full advantage of this amazing opportunity called fraternity recruitment, and I assure you that Greek Life will enrich your experience as a University of Georgia student. Good luck in your collegiate endeavors, and I look forward to seeing you join the ranks of the prestigious fraternity men who have come before you.

Sincerely,

Evan Venable
President

The Interfraternity Council

Established in 1915, the Interfraternity Council is the self-governing body of twenty-six member fraternity chapters at the University of Georgia. With a legislative arm composed of the respective chapter presidents and a six-person Executive Board, the Council strives to promote excellence in all aspects of fraternity life and academic pursuits. In addition, the Executive Board selects a class of clerks each year to aid in its work.

Each chapter president serves as the direct connection between his chapter and the Council and has one vote on all business before the Council, with areas of interest including philanthropy and community service, public relations, diversity, recruitment, risk management, educational programming, and scholarship. The Executive Board, aided by its class of clerks, serve as representatives of the Council to the Greek Life Office, University administrators, and the campus at-large. Scholarships have been at the core of the Council since its inception, with over $30,000 eligible to be distributed to outstanding IFC men for 2021. In addition, the Council established a $100,000 Georgia Commitment Scholarship in February 2020, continuing its legacy of philanthropic efforts.

Tasked with overseeing the recruitment process, the Council publishes The Fraternity Way and requires all New Members to attend educational seminars covering topics such as hazing, drugs & alcohol, sexual assault prevention, diversity, and character development. The Council is guided by the Advisor to the Interfraternity Council, F. Mason Black, who is an experienced full-time administrator in the Greek Life Office.

The Interfraternity Council constitutes only a fourth of the Greek community at UGA. Included in the community are the Panhellenic, National Pan-Hellenic, and Multicultural Greek Councils and their member organizations.

The Panhellenic Council, made up of 19 sororities, is responsible for making policies, planning recruitment, promoting academic excellence, and planning other activities involving sororities. Panhellenic has its own executive board comprised of members from various organizations.

The National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) is made up of four sororities and four fraternities. The NPHC provides unity among the traditionally black sororities and fraternities on the UGA campus. Like Panhellenic and IFC, the NPHC has its own executive board and is responsible for implementing policies, procedures and events involving its member groups.

The Multicultural Greek Council (MGC) is made up of six sororities and seven fraternities. MGC works to increase awareness of each chapter's respective culture, serve the Athens community, and maintain high academic standards. MGC represents a proud and dynamic minority.

If you would like additional information about these councils, please contact the Greek Life Office at 706-542-4612 or visit greeklife.uga.edu.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is a fraternity?

A fraternity is a group of men working together toward common goals and issues. Fraternities strive to develop their members' individual talents and skills to better prepare them for life after graduation.

What is Fraternity Recruitment?

Recruitment, also known as "Rush," is the activity by which fraternities seek new members. Fall recruitment consists of three structured days that include an orientation meeting and visitation to chapter houses to meet members and learn more about fraternity life.

After visiting the chapter, potential new members are free to visit any of the chapters for the next few days. Invitations (bids) to join a fraternity can be given out any time during the recruitment period.

What is a bid?

A bid is an invitation to join a fraternity. Bids may be extended to a potential new member after the fraternity has gotten to know him. Potential new members should not feel pressured or obligated to accept a bid. Potential new members may receive numerous bids from different fraternities but can only accept one. Potential new members are encouraged to meet as many fraternity men as possible and should not concentrate on obtaining a bid from a single fraternity. Rushing more than one fraternity allows a potential new member to meet many new people during the recruitment process, even if he does not receive or accept a bid from a group.

If I go through recruitment, do I have to join a fraternity?

Although approximately 86% of potential new members will join a fraternity during the fall semester, it is not required. Usually one half of the fraternities participate in Spring Recruitment, and you may have the opportunity to join then as well.

What type of clothing should I wear during recruitment?

Individuals going through recruitment generally wear casual, khaki-type pants or shorts and a polo-type shirt. No suits or ties are required during recruitment.

Do I need a recommendation to join a fraternity?

Fraternities generally do not require any recommendations. However, if recommendations are solicited, they should be sent to the chapter house or the Greek Life Office.

How much does a fraternity cost?

The cost of fraternity dues and fees vary from chapter to chapter. Chapter dues are used to help maintain the chapter house, pay yearly insurance, national fees and services, assist with philanthropy/community service projects, support fraternity leadership schools, fund academic scholarships, and help defray the costs of alumni, parent, and social events.

For Fall 2021, average cost is as follows:

These are average numbers. Each fraternity will have its exact costs that can be provided upon request.

$1440 per semester

Costs of meals vary due to the variety of plan options
- number of meals per week, etc.

Academics

Fraternalities at the University of Georgia realize that excelling in academics is the top priority for all students. The grade point average of each fraternity is ranked, published, and available to anyone who seeks it. Fraternity life offers a wide variety of academic advantages including tutoring programs, peer advisement, and in-house study hours. Fraternity members also have the opportunity to receive IFC scholarships, a multitude of chapter scholarships, individual and chapter academic awards, and numerous scholarships and awards from their international organizations.

Leadership

The University of Georgia fraternity system is dedicated to building future leaders by providing numerous leadership opportunities. Campus leaders include men involved in Tate Society, Arch Society, Student Government, Varsity Athletics, and Student Judiciary. Greek men are also recognized in honor societies such as Order of Omega, Gridiron, Omicron Delta Kappa, Order of the Greek Horsemen, and Sphinx.

Brotherhood

Greek fraternities were founded as a network of support for men who were going through similar experiences. The fraternity is a great way to enhance the general college experience through brotherhood and friendship. Brotherhood means building bonds between members of the Greek community and working towards the shared goal of a better campus for all. Some of the best friends one will ever make are fellow fraternity brothers and other members of the Greek community.

Community Service

One of the founding principles of every fraternity is giving of yourself in service to the community. Thousands of dollars are raised and over 25,000 hours of service are performed by fraternity men each year in such activities as UGA Miracle, UGA HERO, Relay for Life, Adopt-a-Highway, tutoring Athens area students, and volunteering at the homeless shelter, local Boy's and Girl's Club, and two local hospitals.

Social Life

Social life is a visible portion of Greek life that is excellent for acclimating students to the University. Fraternities are very busy with homecoming, alumni weekends, parents weekends, formals, and date nights. Fraternities also host band parties, thematic weekends, socials and dinners. Social events give the fraternity man an opportunity to meet new and exciting people while building life-long friendships.

Intramurals

Intramurals are a very exciting aspect of fraternity life. Although open to all students, the strongest competition is among Greek organizations. Apart from UGA intramurals, fraternity men also participate in philanthropic and interfraternity sporting events. Athletics prove to be important physical and mental outlets for students and help improve self-confidence and develop teamwork. Through competition, intramurals continue to help build brotherhood and school spirit at UGA.

Alumni

Brotherhood continues throughout life as one enters into alumni status. Fraternity alumni are considerably the most loyal of all Bulldogs, both to the University and to their Greek peers. Alumni enjoy returning to Athens and visiting the University and their chapter house. Through alumni, the fraternity network extends across the world and is helpful in gaining employment or when relocating to a new area.

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Fraternities offer a wide range of social activities and programs for their members. Fraternities have also taken responsibility by utilizing risk management procedures to decrease the possibility of accidents at their events. Each chapter follows a social policy developed by its national organization in addition to the policies of the Interfraternity Council and the University. The IFC is committed to helping the fraternities maintain a safe and responsible environment that contributes to the life-long friendships unique to the Greek community.

Dry Recruitment

No one in any way connected to the fraternity may serve or partake of alcohol or other illegal substances in the presence of a potential new member. No potential new member may be in possession of alcohol or other illegal substances at any time during the recruitment period. Any potential new member violating the recruitment rules is subject to suspension from recruitment and will not be allowed to join a fraternity.

Alcohol

Each chapter maintains a responsible social policy that promotes enjoyable social activities in a safe environment. The University also has a closed party policy that opposes the misuse of alcohol and maintains that all chapters, individual members, and guests must abide by state and local laws and University regulations. All chapters work to educate and foster a better understanding of social responsibility and alcohol education for their members. The IFC is committed to helping organizations maintain balanced social programs that contribute to personal development and do not detract from the University's educational mission.

Diversity

The Greek Community at the University of Georgia is comprised of a diverse group of individuals coming together to work for a common goal. The IFC is committed to educating its members about the value of living in a multicultural society. The Greek community sponsors a variety of programs to educate their members on diversity issues.

Behavioral Expectations

All chapters work to educate and foster a strong commitment to a fair and respectful environment for living, work, and study. The University's Non-Discrimination and Anti-Harassment ("NDAH") Policy prohibits any member of the UGA community from engaging in harassment, including sexual misconduct, and discrimination against others within the University community, and includes instructions for making a complaint.

The full NDAH Policy is available at:

Interfraternity Council

Hazing in any manner is prohibited. Fraternities at UGA expect their members to strive for academic achievement, demonstrate responsible citizenship, show concern for the rights and needs of others, and provide leadership. Hazing has no place in fraternity life and is completely contrary to the ideals on which fraternities were founded.

All members of the University community share the responsibility to challenge and make known to the University or the Interfraternity Council any acts that appear to be hazing. There are a number of ways to report incidents of possible hazing. You may report such activity to the IFC, the Greek Life Office at (706) 542-4612, or the Hazing Hotline at (706) 207-0779. You do not have to identify yourself at any time.

HAZING POLICY

Hazing is defined as any intentional, negligent or reckless action, or situation which causes another pain, embarrassment, ridicule or harassment, regardless of the willingness of the participant.

Such actions and situations include, but are not limited to the following:

1. Forcing or requiring the drinking of alcohol or any other substance;
2. Forcing or requiring the eating of food or anything an individual refuses to eat;
3. Calisthenics (push-ups, sit-ups, jogging, runs, etc.);
4. Paddling;
5. Line-ups (yelling at people in any formation or harassing them);
6. Forcing or requiring the theft of any property;
7. Road trips (dropping someone off to find his/her own way back);
8. Scavenger hunts;
9. Any activity that causes disruption of academic pursuits or endeavors;
10. Permitting less than six (6) continuous, uninterrupted hours of sleep per night;
11. Conducting activities, which do not allow adequate time for study (not allowing to go to class, missing group projects, etc.);
12. Nudity at any time;
13. Running personal errands of the members (cleaning individual rooms, serving meals, picking up laundry or other items, washing cars, etc.);
14. Physical abuse or injury;
15. Requiring the violation of University, Federal, State or local law.

AEPi stresses all aspects of fraternity life including academics, philanthropy, campus involvement, athletics, and social life. The Brothers of Omicron consider academic excellence as fundamental to college life and we are currently the highest-ranking GPA fraternity on campus. Furthermore, individuals in AEPi and the organization as a whole regularly contribute to community service efforts through Relay for Life, Dance Marathon, ugaMiracle, and Habitat for Humanity. Our organization's members are devoted to bettering UGA's campus as a whole. Betas consistently serve in leadership roles of student organizations like UGA Miracle, HEROs, IFC, Red Cross, Student Government, and many more. In addition, there is certainly no shortage of fun in Athens. Between spending time downtown, hosting socials with sororities, traveling to New Orleans for date nights, or playing intramural sports like flag football, basketball, and soccer, there is plenty of time to enjoy your college experience. College is about finding a healthy balance between academic excellence, campus involvement, and of course many social activities, and Beta is a great place to do just that.

Chi Psi Fraternity has a large variety of events on the social calendar ranging from large themed socials to smaller brotherhood events. Chi Psi mixes with a variety of Sororities on campus for these themed socials. Brotherhood events on the other hand, can be getting together for a bonfire, playing paintball, or participating in a sports tournament - as the name suggests these are only for Brothers. Chi Psi also has date nights, these usually are sporting events or something local like ice-skating in Athens; these differ from socials in that they are not such large events. UGA's Chi Psi has philanthropy events every semester to benefit the local area, this is a great way to give back to the community of Athens, which is one of the characteristics of the Chi Psi Gentlemen. Brothers' get involved on campus through IM sports and all Brothers' are encouraged to join clubs. With regards to Awards, we have Nationally Sponsored scholarships that all Brothers' are eligible to apply for, and the new member with the highest GPA gets a scholarship from the UGA Chapter. Delta Sigma Phi at the University of Georgia has distinguished itself for its size, academics, dense social calendar, and strong philanthropic presence. High academic expectations, strong brotherhood involvement, and an unwavering devotion to the national fraternity motto of "Better Men, Better Lives", has led the 140-member brotherhood to being the largest and most successful chapter of Delta Sigma Phi in the nation. Ranking among the highest GPAs of all on campus fraternities each semester, Delta Sig consistently remains a key player in the academic community at the university, with members on the executive boards of over 15 campus organizations. Weekly social events with sororities, four date nights, and multiple member-exclusive events per semester maintain the fraternity's involvement within Greek Life and the general student body. Each year, members have an opportunity to travel to the fraternity-wide Carnation Ball formal in January, enriching themselves in the culture of cities such as Nashville, New Orleans, Charleston, and Miami. Over half of all brothers are proudly involved in extracurricular philanthropies such as UGA Miracle, UGA HE-ROS, Whatever It Takes, Hope Haven, and more. The chapter also hosts Miss Sorority Row, a philanthropy event in the Spring which raises over $15,000 annually for locally based Extra Special People. The Art Richard Scholarship, dedicated to the chapter's beloved founder and advisor, provides $1,000 each fall to incoming freshmen to put towards fraternal dues.

Founded locally in 1882, Delta Tau Delta is among the oldest fraternities at the University of Georgia. Our house, as seen below, sits on the largest fraternity property at UGA. We pride ourselves on our philanthropic work. Each year, Delt hosts the Sound of Milledge—a sorority singing competition at the Georgia Theatre—to raise money in support of JDRF. Outside of philanthropy, we have a robust social schedule that includes date nights, sorority socials, an annual Formal and Semi-Formal, a mountain weekend, and much more. Delt is also represented in a myriad of organizations across campus, including Student Government Association, Corsair, UGAMiracle, HEROs, and ServeUGA. In addition to campus involvement, Delt recognizes academic achievement and fraternal commitment through the Dean Tate Scholarship, which is named in honor of Brother William Tate, who also lends his name to the Tate Student Center.

On January 6, 1871 the Georgia Alpha Chapter of Phi Delta Theta was chartered at the University of Georgia. With 149 years on this campus we are the longest continuously active fraternity at UGA.

We pride ourselves on our strong, close-knit brotherhood and the caliber of our chapter. Since 1871, Georgia Alpha has consistently produced some of Georgia's greatest governors, lawyers, and businessmen, including the late Governors Vandiver and Busbee, and Olympic Committee Chairman and Chairman of Augusta National Billy Payne. Several members of our chapter serve in the Armed forces, and we are proud to count a recipient of the Congressional Medal of Honor among our distinguished Alumni.

Throughout our 149 years at the University of Georgia, we have been competitive in all areas of campus life, including academics, athletics, and philanthropy. Our social events include tailgating at UGA football games, band parties throughout the year, the Bowery Ball in the spring, and date-nights between these annual events. Phi Delta Theta is also proud to be one of the most philanthropically active chapters at the University. We host two or more large events each year; one benefiting ALS "Lou Gehrig's Disease" Research.

Phi Gamma Delta was founded at Jefferson College in 1848. Our Kappa Deuteron Chapter was founded here at the University of Georgia in 1871, and is the fifth oldest fraternity on campus. Since our founding on this campus, we have been awarded the Cheney Efficiency Cup, given to the most outstanding FIJI chapter, an unprecedented fourteen times, including four consecutive wins, with our last win coming in 2016. The Kappa Deuteron Chapter also boasts an unparalleled 8 Wilkinson Award Winners, given annually to Phi Gamma Delta's most outstanding senior, including the last 3 consecutive winners.

One area our brothers have always excelled in is academics with our chapter frequently ranking among the best on campus. We also pride ourselves in awarding over $10,000 in academic scholarships annually to brothers. By stressing campus involvement, our brothers have also become leaders in such student activities as the Interfraternity Council, the Student Government Association, Student Judiciary, Gridiron, UGA Miracle, The Corsair Society, The Institute for Leadership Advancement, and numerous other clubs and organizations.

In addition to the awards and campus involvement, the brothers of Kappa Deuteron enjoy a strong social calendar complete with numerous band parties, socials, date nights, and a winter and spring formal. But most important at Phi Gamma Delta is our belief in our brotherhood and being a true gentleman on this campus.

For over a century, Pi Kappa Phi has distinguished itself through strong brotherhood, academics, philanthropy, and a full social calendar here at UGA. We are proud to announce the completion of our three-million-dollar house renovation and expansion, providing one of the best living experiences on campus. Now the newest and largest fraternity house on Milledge, we boast over thirteen thousand square feet of lounge rooms, study rooms, a full kitchen and chef, a basketball court, and double the living capacity. In addition, we host date nights, socials, tailgates, beach weekend, parents weekend, and our annual Rose Ball Formal.

Pi Kappa Phi is the only fraternity with its own philanthropy. The Ability Experience works to build a more inclusive community for people living with disabilities. Each semester, we also choose a local Athens small business to support through a philanthropy event such as dodgeball or corn-hole.

In addition to being members of Pi Kappa Phi, several individuals hold leadership positions across campus such as the UGA Miracle team, Student Ambassadors, SGA, IFC exec, and Wishmakers. We also excel in academics, once again maintaining a higher average GPA than men not involved in Greek life at UGA.

Outside of our own philanthropy, our members are leaders in a variety of different on and off-campus organizations such as: Student Government Association, Extra Special People, Duck's Unlimited, Athen's PBJ, YoungLife, CRU, UGA CURE, The Institute for Leadership Advancement and various other programs. Our full social calendar includes various date nights such as: golf tournaments, Braves and ice hockey games, a semi-formal, a beach weekend, a mountain weekend, a formal, and much more every year. We also have developed strong relationships with a wide variety of sororities through weekly socials, and we have been fortunate enough to take weekend trips to cities like Nashville, Savannah, Charleston, Myrtle Beach, and Asheville.
