Preface

This book contains a revelation of the Messiah—the Anointed One who came from the Almighty on a mission to save people from destruction. The Messiah demonstrated the Father’s awesome love through his perfect obedience of the Torah and the fulfillment of the prophetic writings.

The same Holy Spirit who inspired the Holy Bible is living among us today, and He is happy to help you understand what He intended as you study His Word. Just ask Him, and He is more than happy to help you apply His message to your life.

Why create yet another English Bible translation?

There are already many good translations of the Holy Bible into contemporary English. Unfortunately, almost all of them are restricted by copyright and copyright holder policy. This restricts publication of God’s Word in many ways, such as in downloadable files on the Internet. The World English Bible was commissioned by God in response to prayer about this subject. The World English Bible: Messianic Edition is published for the benefit of English-speaking Messianic Jews. In this edition, some of the traditional Greek/English names have been replaced with their traditional Hebrew equivalents. In deference to Jewish tradition, the Holy Name is rendered as “LORD” (or when used in combination with “Lord” translated from “Adonai,” as “GOD”) in this edition.

Because the World English Bible: Messianic is in the Public Domain (not copyrighted), it can be freely copied, distributed, and redistributed without any payment of royalties. You don’t even have to ask permission to do so. You may publish the whole World English Bible: Messianic Edition in book form, bind it in leather and sell it. You may incorporate it into your Bible study software. You may make and distribute audio recordings of it. You may broadcast it. All you have to do is maintain the integrity of God’s Word before God, and reserve the name “World English Bible: Messianic Edition” and “Hebrew Names Version” for faithful (unmodified except for British/American spelling issues) copies of this translation.

You may notice the following differences in comparing this translation to other translations:

- The order of Matthew 23:13 and 14 is reversed in some translations.
- Luke 17:36 and Acts 15:34, which are not found in the majority of the best manuscripts (and are relegated to footnotes in this translation) may be included in some other translations.
- Romans 14:24-26 may appear as Romans 16:25-27 in other translations.
- 1 John 5:7-8 contains an addition (“in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that testify on earth”) in some translations, including the KJV. Erasmus admitted adding this text to his published Greek New Testament, even though he could at first find no Greek manuscript support for it, because he was being pressured by men to do so, and because he didn’t see any doctrinal harm in it. Lots of things not written by John in this letter are true, but we decline to add them to what the Holy Spirit inspired through John.

With all of the above and some other places where lack of clarity in the original manuscripts has led to multiple possible readings, significant variants are listed in footnotes. The reading that in our prayerful judgement is best is in the main text. Overall, the World English Bible: Messianic Edition isn’t significantly different than several other good contemporary English translations of the Holy Bible. The message of Salvation through the Messiah is still the same.

Capitalization

Some translations capitalize pronouns pertaining to God. Some do not. Hebrew has no such thing as upper and lower case, and the Greek manuscripts were written all in one case, anyway. This is purely a matter of English style. The KJV capitalized these pronouns because English usage at the time demanded capitalization of pronouns referring to a king, and God is certainly the greatest King. In modern English, we don't capitalize pronouns pertaining to kings and presidents. One particularly difficult place to decide on capitalization is in the coronation psalms, which were written originally for an earthly king, but later sung in praise to the King of Kings. Although there are good arguments both ways, we left the capitalization of pronouns as the ASV, NIV, and others have done, without capitalizing pronouns referring to God.

Footnotes

In this edition, the only footnotes are the translators' footnotes, which offer clarification of shades of meanings of words and give equivalent weights, measures, and monetary values. Sometimes alternate readings are given where there is more than one way to legitimately translate a passage or where significant groups of manuscripts differ. In particular, the abbreviation "NU" is used to denote alternate readings from the critical text due primarily to the work of Nestle and Aland and published by the United Bible Societies. "TR" is used to denote alternate readings from the Textus Receptus, which is the basis of the King James Version New Testament. This translation is based on the Greek Majority Text as the most authoritative reading of the New Testament we could find. Significant alternate readings from the other two widely respected critical texts are given in the footnotes.

A Note to Publishers

This translation of the Holy Bible is in the Public Domain. You are free to publish the World English Bible: Messianic Edition without even having to ask anyone for permission. You may do so for free or for profit. You may download the text of the World English Bible: Messianic Edition in various formats from <http://eBible.org/webme/> and typeset them to taste. You may publish a study Bible with your own additional helps, and copyright those helps. The translators' footnotes, preface, and glossary that come with the World English Bible are also in the Public Domain, and may be published by anyone. Should you choose to create a derivative work by modifying the text of this Bible, please see Revelation 22:18-19. In addition, we ask that you not use the name "World English Bible: Messianic Edition" to describe the results of any revision or change to the text unless you have explicit permission to do so in writing. This is to avoid confusion, and not to restrict your freedom to Publish God's Word in whatever way He leads you to. "World English Bible," and "World English Bible: Messianic Edition" are trademarks of Rainbow Missions, Inc., and you have permission to use these names only for the text of these Bible translations as published by Rainbow Missions, Inc., and faithful copies thereof.

Please check <http://eBible.org/web/> for the completion status of the Old Testament before committing it to print. As of this date (26 August 2007), the World English Bible Old Testament is still being actively edited for clarity and accuracy, although the drafts are posted on the Internet. In addition, any well-justified edits are still being made to the New Testament, Psalms, and Proverbs.

Genesis

<sup>1:3</sup>God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. <sup>1:4</sup>God saw the light, and saw that it was good. God divided the light from the darkness. <sup>1:5</sup>God called the light "day," and the darkness he called "night." There was evening and there was morning, one day.

<sup>1:6</sup>God said, "Let there be an expanse in the middle of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters." <sup>1:7</sup>God made the expanse, and divided the waters which were under the expanse from the waters which were above the expanse; and it was so. <sup>1:8</sup>God called the expanse "sky." There was evening and there was morning, a second day.

<sup>1:9</sup>God said, "Let the waters under the sky be gathered together to one place, and let the dry land appear;" and it was so. <sup>1:10</sup>God called the dry land "earth," and the gathering together of the waters he called "seas." God saw that it was good. <sup>1:11</sup>God said, "Let the earth yield grass, herbs yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit after their kind, with its seed in it, on the earth;" and it was so. <sup>1:12</sup>The earth yielded grass, herbs yielding seed after their kind, and trees bearing fruit, with its seed in it, after their kind; and God saw that it was good.

<sup>1:14</sup>God said, "Let there be lights in the expanse of sky to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days and years; <sup>1:15</sup>and let them be for lights in the expanse of sky to give light on the earth;" and it was so. <sup>1:16</sup>God made the two great lights: the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night. He also made the stars. <sup>1:17</sup>God set them in the expanse of sky to give light to the earth, <sup>1:18</sup>and to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness. God saw that it was good.

<sup>1:26</sup>God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the birds of the sky, and over the livestock, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth." <sup>1:27</sup>God created man in his own image. In God's image he created him; male and female he created them.

<sup>1:28</sup>God blessed them. God said to them, "Be fruitful, multiply, fill the earth, and subdue it. Have dominion over the fish of the sea, over the birds of the sky, and over every living thing that moves on the earth." <sup>1:29</sup>God said, "Behold, I have given you every herb yielding seed, which is on the surface of all the earth, and every tree, which bears fruit yielding seed. It will be your food. <sup>1:30</sup>To every animal of the earth, and to every bird of the sky, and to everything that creeps on the earth, in which there is life, I have given every green herb for food;" and it was so.

<sup>1:31</sup>God saw everything that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. There was evening and there was morning, a sixth day.

<sup>2:1</sup>The heavens and the earth were finished, and all their vast array. <sup>2:2</sup>On the seventh day God finished his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. <sup>2:3</sup>God blessed the seventh day, and made it holy, because he rested in it from all his work which he had created and made.

<sup>a</sup>1:1 The Hebrew word rendered "God" is "Elohim." After "God," the Hebrew has the two letters "Aleph Tav" (the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet) as a grammatical marker.

<sup>2:4</sup>This is the history of the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD<sup>b</sup> God made the earth and the heavens. <sup>2:5</sup>No plant of the field was yet in the earth, and no herb of the field had yet sprung up; for the LORD God had not caused it to rain on the earth. There was not a man to till the ground, <sup>2:6</sup>but a mist went up from the earth, and watered the whole surface of the ground. <sup>2:7</sup>The LORD God formed man from the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul. <sup>2:8</sup>The LORD God planted a garden eastward, in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had formed. <sup>2:9</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God made every tree to grow that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the middle of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. <sup>2:10</sup>A river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from there it was parted, and became four heads. <sup>2:11</sup>The name of the first is Pishon: this is the one which flows through the whole land of Havilah, where there is gold; <sup>2:12</sup>and the gold of that land is good. There is aromatic resin and the onyx stone. <sup>2:13</sup>The name of the second river is Gihon: the same river that flows through the whole land of Cush. <sup>2:14</sup>The name of the third river is Hiddekel: this is the one which flows in front of Assyria. The fourth river is the Euphrates. <sup>2:15</sup>The LORD God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it. <sup>2:16</sup>The LORD God commanded the man, saying, "Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat; <sup>2:17</sup>but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, you shall not eat of it; for in the day that you eat of it you will surely die."

<sup>2:18</sup>The LORD God said, "It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper suitable for him." <sup>2:19</sup>Out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field, and every bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them. Whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. <sup>2:20</sup>The man gave names to all livestock, and to the birds of the sky, and to every animal of the field; but for man there was not found a helper suitable for him. <sup>2:21</sup>The LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on the man, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. <sup>2:22</sup>He made the rib, which the LORD God had taken from the man, into a woman, and brought her to the man. <sup>2:23</sup>The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh. She will be called 'woman,' because she was taken out of Man." <sup>2:24</sup>Therefore a man will leave his father and his mother, and will join with his wife, and they will be one flesh. <sup>2:25</sup>They were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now the serpent was more subtle than any animal of the field which the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, "Has God really said, 'You shall not eat of any tree of the garden?'"

<sup>3:2</sup>The woman said to the serpent, "Of the fruit of the trees of the garden we may eat, <sup>3:3</sup>but of the fruit of the tree which is in the middle of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat of it, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.'"

<sup>3:4</sup>The serpent said to the woman, "You won't surely die, <sup>3:5</sup>for God knows that in the day you eat it, your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil."

<sup>3:6</sup>When the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit, and ate; and she gave some to her husband with her, and he ate. <sup>3:7</sup>The eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked. They sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. <sup>3:8</sup>They heard the voice of the LORD God walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and the man and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

<sup>3:10</sup>The man said, "I heard your voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself."

<sup>3:11</sup>God said, "Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree that I commanded you not to eat from?"

<sup>3:12</sup>The man said, "The woman whom you gave to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I ate."

<sup>3:13</sup>The LORD God said to the woman,

<sup>b2:4</sup> "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

"What is this you have done?"

The woman said, "The serpent deceived me, and I ate."

<sup>3:14</sup>The LORD God said to the serpent, "Because you have done this, you are cursed above all livestock, and above every animal of the field. On your belly you shall go, and you shall eat dust all the days of your life.

<sup>3:15</sup>I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and her offspring.

He will bruise your head, and you will bruise his heel."

<sup>3:16</sup>To the woman he said, "I will greatly multiply your pain in childbirth. In pain you will bear children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you."

<sup>3:17</sup>To Adam he said, "Because you have listened to your wife's voice, and have eaten of the tree, of which I commanded you, saying, 'You shall not eat of it,' cursed is the ground for your sake.

In toil you will eat of it all the days of your life. <sup>3:18</sup>It will yield thorns and thistles to you; and you will eat the herb of the field.

For you are dust, and to dust you shall return."

<sup>3:22</sup>The LORD God said, "Behold, the man has become like one of us, knowing good and evil. Now, lest he reach out his hand, and also take of the tree of life, and eat, and live forever..." <sup>3:23</sup>Therefore the LORD God sent him out from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. <sup>3:24</sup>So he drove out the man; and he placed Cherubs at the east of the garden of Eden, and the flame of a sword which turned every way, to guard the way to the tree of life.

<sup>4:2</sup>Again she gave birth, to Cain's brother Abel. Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground. <sup>4:3</sup>As time passed, it happened that Cain brought an offering to the LORD from the fruit of the ground. <sup>4:4</sup>Abel also brought some of the firstborn of his flock and of its fat. The LORD respected Abel and his offering, <sup>4:5</sup>but he didn't respect Cain and his offering. Cain was very angry, and the expression on his face fell. <sup>4:6</sup>The LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why has the expression of your face fallen? <sup>4:7</sup>If you do well, will it not be lifted up? If you don't do well, sin crouches at the door. Its desire is for you, but you are to rule over it." <sup>4:8</sup>Cain said to Abel, his brother, "Let's go into the field." It happened when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel, his brother, and killed him.

He said, "I don't know. Am I my brother's keeper?"

<sup>4:10</sup>The LORD said, "What have you done? The voice of your brother's blood cries to me from the ground. <sup>4:11</sup>Now you are cursed because of the ground, which has opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand. <sup>4:12</sup>From now on, when you till the ground, it won't yield its strength to you. You shall be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth."

<sup>4:13</sup>Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is greater than I can bear. <sup>4:14</sup>Behold, you have driven me out this day from the surface of the ground. I will be hidden from your face, and I will be a fugitive and a wanderer in the earth. It will happen that whoever finds me will kill me."

<sup>4:15</sup>The LORD said to him, "Therefore whoever slays Cain, vengeance will be taken on him sevenfold." the LORD appointed a sign for Cain, lest any finding him should strike him.

<sup>4:16</sup>Cain went out from the LORD's presence, and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden. <sup>4:17</sup>Cain knew his wife. She conceived, and gave birth to Enoch. He built a city, and called the name of the city, after the name of his son, Enoch. <sup>4:18</sup>To Enoch was born Irad. Irad became the father of Mehujael. Mehujael became the father of Methushael. Methushael became the father of Lamech. <sup>4:19</sup>Lamech took two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah. <sup>4:20</sup>Adah gave birth to Jabal, who was the father of those who dwell in tents and have livestock. <sup>4:21</sup>His brother's name was Jubal, who was the father of all who handle the harp and pipe. <sup>4:22</sup>Zillah also gave birth to Tubal Cain, the forger of every cutting instrument of brass and iron. Tubal Cain's sister was Naamah. <sup>4:23</sup>Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, hear my voice.

You wives of Lamech, listen to my speech, for I have slain a man for wounding me,
a young man for bruising me.

<sup>4:24</sup>If Cain will be avenged seven times, truly Lamech seventy-seven times."

<sup>4:25</sup>Adam knew his wife again. She gave birth to a son, and named him Seth, "for God has appointed me another child instead of Abel, for Cain killed him." <sup>4:26</sup>There was also born a son to Seth, and he named him Enosh. Then men began to call on the LORD's name.

<sup>5:1</sup>This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, he made him in God's likeness. <sup>5:2</sup>He created them male and female, and blessed them, and called their name "Adam,"<sup>c</sup> in the day when they were created. <sup>5:3</sup>Adam lived one hundred thirty years, and became the father of a son in his own likeness, after his image, and named him Seth. <sup>5:4</sup>The days of Adam after he became the father of Seth were eight hundred years, and he became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:5</sup>All the days that Adam lived were nine hundred thirty years, then he died.

<sup>5:6</sup>Seth lived one hundred five years, and became the father of Enosh. <sup>5:7</sup>Seth lived after he became the father of Enosh eight hundred seven years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:8</sup>All the days of Seth were nine hundred twelve years, then he died.

<sup>5:9</sup>Enosh lived ninety years, and became the father of Kenan. <sup>5:10</sup>Enosh lived after he became the father of Kenan, eight hundred fifteen years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:11</sup>All the days of Enosh were nine hundred five years, then he died.

<sup>5:12</sup>Kenan lived seventy years, and became the father of Mahalalel. <sup>5:13</sup>Kenan lived after he became the father of Mahalalel eight hundred forty years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:14</sup>All the days of Kenan were nine hundred ten years, then he died.

<sup>5:15</sup>Mahalalel lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Jared. <sup>5:16</sup>Mahalalel lived after he became the father of Jared eight hundred thirty years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:17</sup>All the days of Mahalalel were eight hundred ninety-five years, then he died.

<sup>5:18</sup>Jared lived one hundred sixty-two years, and became the father of Enoch. <sup>5:19</sup>Jared lived after he became the father of Enoch eight hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:20</sup>All the days of Jared were nine hundred sixty-two years, then he died.

<sup>5:21</sup>Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Methuselah. <sup>5:22</sup>Enoch walked with God after he became the father of Methuselah three hundred years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:23</sup>All the days of Enoch were three hundred sixty-five years. <sup>5:24</sup>Enoch walked with God, and he was not, for God took him.

<sup>5:25</sup>Methuselah lived one hundred eighty-seven years, and became the father of Lamech. <sup>5:26</sup>Methuselah lived after he became the father of Lamech seven hundred eighty-two years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:27</sup>All the days of Methuselah were nine hundred sixty-nine years, then he died.

<sup>5:28</sup>Lamech lived one hundred eighty-two years, and became the father of a son, <sup>5:29</sup>and he named him Noah, saying, "This same will comfort us in our work and in the toil of our hands, because of the ground which the LORD has cursed." <sup>5:30</sup>Lamech lived after he became the father of Noah five hundred ninety-five years, and became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>5:31</sup>All the days of Lamech were seven hundred seventy-seven years, then he died.

men's daughters were beautiful, and they took for themselves wives of all that they chose. <sup>6:3</sup>The LORD said, "My Spirit will not strive with man forever, because he also is flesh; yet will his days be one hundred twenty years." <sup>6:4</sup>The Nephilim were in the earth in those days, and also after that, when God's sons came in to men's daughters. They bore children to them. Those were the mighty men who were of old, men of renown.

<sup>6:5</sup>The LORD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually. <sup>6:6</sup>The LORD was sorry that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him in his heart. <sup>6:7</sup>The LORD said, "I will destroy man whom I have created from the surface of the ground; man, along with animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky; for I am sorry that I have made them." <sup>6:8</sup>But Noah found favor in the LORD's eyes.

<sup>6:9</sup>This is the history of the generations of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time. Noah walked with God. <sup>6:10</sup>Noah became the father of three sons: Shem, Ham, and Japheth. <sup>6:11</sup>The earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. <sup>6:12</sup>God saw the earth, and saw that it was corrupt, for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth.

<sup>6:13</sup>God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before me, for the earth is filled with violence through them. Behold, I will destroy them with the earth. <sup>6:14</sup>Make a ship of gopher wood. You shall make rooms in the ship, and shall seal it inside and outside with pitch. <sup>6:15</sup>This is how you shall make it. The length of the ship will be three hundred cubits, its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>6:16</sup>You shall make a roof in the ship, and you shall finish it to a cubit upward. You shall set the door of the ship in its side. You shall make it with lower, second, and third levels. <sup>6:17</sup>I, even I, do bring the flood of waters on this earth, to destroy all flesh having the breath of life from under the sky. Everything that is in the earth will die. <sup>6:18</sup>But I will establish my covenant with you. You shall come into the ship, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. <sup>6:19</sup>Of every living thing of all flesh, you shall bring two of every sort into the ship, to keep them alive with you. They shall be male and female. <sup>6:20</sup>Of the birds after their kind, of the livestock after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of every sort shall come to you, to keep them alive. <sup>6:21</sup>Take with you of all food that is eaten, and gather it to yourself; and it will be for food for you, and for them." <sup>6:22</sup>Thus Noah did. According to all that God commanded him, so he did.

<sup>7:1</sup>The LORD said to Noah, "Come with all of your household into the ship, for I have seen your righteousness before me in this generation. <sup>7:2</sup>You shall take seven pairs of every clean animal with you, the male and his female. Of the animals that are not clean, take two, the male and his female. <sup>7:3</sup>Also of the birds of the sky, seven and seven, male and female, to keep seed alive on the surface of all the earth. <sup>7:4</sup>In seven days, I will cause it to rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights. Every living thing that I have made, I will destroy from the surface of the ground."

<sup>7:13</sup>In the same day Noah, and Shem, Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, entered into the ship; <sup>7:14</sup>they, and every animal after its kind, all the livestock after their kind, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and every bird after its kind, every bird of every sort. <sup>7:15</sup>They went to Noah into the ship, by pairs of all flesh with the breath of life in them. <sup>7:16</sup>Those who went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God commanded him; and the LORD shut him in. <sup>7:17</sup>The flood was forty days on the earth. The waters increased, and lifted up the ship, and it was lifted up above the earth. <sup>7:18</sup>The waters prevailed, and increased greatly on the earth; and the ship floated on the surface of the waters. <sup>7:19</sup>The waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth. All the high mountains that were under the whole sky were covered. <sup>7:20</sup>The waters prevailed fifteen cubits upward, and the mountains were covered. <sup>7:21</sup>All flesh died that moved on the earth, including birds, livestock, animals, every creeping thing that creeps on the earth, and every man. <sup>7:22</sup>All in whose nostrils was the breath of the spirit of life, of all that was on the dry land, died. <sup>7:23</sup>Every living thing was destroyed that was on the surface of the ground, including man, livestock, creeping things, and birds of the sky. They were destroyed from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those who were with him in the ship. <sup>7:24</sup>The waters prevailed on the earth one hundred fifty days.

<sup>8:1</sup>God remembered Noah, all the animals, and all the livestock that were with him in the ship; and God made a wind to pass over the earth. The waters subsided. <sup>8:2</sup>The deep's fountains and the sky's windows were also stopped, and the rain from the sky was restrained. <sup>8:3</sup>The waters receded from the earth continually. After the end of one hundred fifty days the waters decreased. <sup>8:4</sup>The ship rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on Ararat's mountains. <sup>8:5</sup>The waters receded continually until the tenth month. In the tenth month, on the first day of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.

<sup>8:6</sup>It happened at the end of forty days, that Noah opened the window of the ship which he had made, <sup>8:7</sup>and he sent out a raven. It went back and forth, until the waters were dried up from the earth. <sup>8:8</sup>He sent out a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from the surface of the ground, <sup>8:9</sup>but the dove found no place to rest her foot, and she returned to him into the ship; for the waters were on the surface of the whole earth. He put out his hand, and took her, and brought her to him into the ship. <sup>8:10</sup>He stayed yet another seven days; and again he sent the dove out of the ship. <sup>8:11</sup>The dove came back to him at evening, and, behold, in her mouth was an olive leaf plucked off. So Noah knew that the waters were abated from the earth. <sup>8:12</sup>He stayed yet another seven days, and sent out the dove; and she didn't return to him any more.

<sup>8:13</sup>It happened in the six hundred first year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from the earth. Noah removed the covering of the ship, and looked. He saw that the surface of the ground was dried. <sup>8:14</sup>In the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.

<sup>8:20</sup>Noah built an altar to the LORD, and took of every clean animal, and of every clean bird, and offered burnt offerings on the altar. <sup>8:21</sup>The LORD smelled the pleasant aroma. The LORD said in his heart, "I will not again curse the ground any more for man's sake, because the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; neither will I ever again strike everything living, as I have done. <sup>8:22</sup>While the earth remains, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease."

<sup>9:1</sup>God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth. <sup>9:2</sup>The fear of you and the dread of you will be on every animal of the earth, and on every bird of the sky. Everything that the ground teems with, and all the fish of the sea are delivered into your hand. <sup>9:3</sup>Every moving thing that lives will be food for you. As the green herb, I have given everything to you. <sup>9:4</sup>But flesh with its life, its blood, you shall not eat. <sup>9:5</sup>I will surely require your blood of your lives. At the hand of every animal I will require it. At the hand of man, even at the hand of every man's brother, I will require the life of man. <sup>9:6</sup>Whoever sheds man's blood, his blood will be shed by man, for God made man in his own image. <sup>9:7</sup>Be fruitful and multiply.

Increase abundantly in the earth, and multiply in it.”

<sup>9:8</sup>God spoke to Noah and to his sons with him, saying, <sup>9:9</sup>“As for me, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your offspring after you, <sup>9:10</sup>and with every living creature that is with you: the birds, the livestock, and every animal of the earth with you, of all that go out of the ship, even every animal of the earth. <sup>9:11</sup>I will establish my covenant with you: all flesh will not be cut off any more by the waters of the flood, neither will there ever again be a flood to destroy the earth.” <sup>9:12</sup>God said, “This is the token of the covenant which I make between me and you and every living creature that is with you, for perpetual generations: <sup>9:13</sup>I set my rainbow in the cloud, and it will be for a sign of a covenant between me and the earth. <sup>9:14</sup>It will happen, when I bring a cloud over the earth, that the rainbow will be seen in the cloud, <sup>9:15</sup>and I will remember my covenant, which is between me and you and every living creature of all flesh, and the waters will no more become a flood to destroy all flesh. <sup>9:16</sup>The rainbow will be in the cloud. I will look at it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living creature of all flesh that is on the earth.” <sup>9:17</sup>God said to Noah, “This is the token of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is on the earth.”

<sup>9:18</sup>The sons of Noah who went out from the ship were Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Ham is the father of Canaan. <sup>9:19</sup>These three were the sons of Noah, and from these, the whole earth was populated.

He will be servant of servants to his brothers.”

“Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem.

<sup>9:27</sup>May God enlarge Japheth.

Let him dwell in the tents of Shem.

<sup>9:28</sup>Noah lived three hundred fifty years after the flood. <sup>9:29</sup>All the days of Noah were nine hundred fifty years, then he died.

<sup>10:1</sup>Now this is the history of the generations of the sons of Noah and of Shem, Ham, and Japheth. Sons were born to them after the flood.

<sup>10:6</sup>The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put, and Canaan. <sup>10:7</sup>The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah, and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan. <sup>10:8</sup>Cush became the father of Nimrod. He began to be a mighty one in the earth. <sup>10:9</sup>He was a mighty hunter before the LORD. Therefore it is said, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD.”

<sup>10:21</sup>To Shem, the father of all the children of Eber, the elder brother of Japheth, to him also were children born. <sup>10:22</sup>The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arpachshad, Lud, and Aram. <sup>10:23</sup>The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether, and Mash. <sup>10:24</sup>Arpachshad became the father of Shelah. Shelah became the father of Eber. <sup>10:25</sup>To Eber were born two sons. The name of the one was Peleg, for in his days the earth was divided. His brother's name was Joktan. <sup>10:26</sup>Joktan became the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah, <sup>10:27</sup>Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah, <sup>10:28</sup>Obal, Abimael, Sheba, <sup>10:29</sup>Ophir, Havilah, and Jobab. All these were the sons of Joktan. <sup>10:30</sup>Their dwelling was from Mesha, as you go toward Sephar, the mountain of the east. <sup>10:31</sup>These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their languages, in their lands, after their nations.

<sup>10:32</sup>These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. Of these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

<sup>11:10</sup>This is the history of the generations of Shem. Shem was one hundred years old and became the father of Arpachshad two years after the flood. <sup>11:11</sup>Shem lived five hundred years after he became the father of Arpachshad, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:12</sup>Arpachshad lived thirty-five years and became the father of Shelah. <sup>11:13</sup>Arpachshad lived four hundred three years after he became the father of Shelah, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:14</sup>Shelah lived thirty years, and became the father of Eber. <sup>11:15</sup>and Shelah lived four hundred three years after he became the father of Eber, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:16</sup>Eber lived thirty-four years, and became the father of Peleg. <sup>11:17</sup>Eber lived four hundred thirty years after he became the father of Peleg, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:18</sup>Peleg lived thirty years, and became the father of Reu. <sup>11:19</sup>Peleg lived two hundred nine years after he became the father of Reu, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:20</sup>Reu lived thirty-two years, and became the father of Serug. <sup>11:21</sup>Reu lived two hundred seven years after he became the father of Serug, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:22</sup>Serug lived thirty years, and became the father of Nahor. <sup>11:23</sup>Serug lived two hundred years after he became the father of Nahor, and became the father of sons and daughters.

<sup>11:24</sup>Nahor lived twenty-nine years, and became the father of Terah. <sup>11:25</sup>Nahor lived one hundred nineteen years after he became the father of Terah, and became the father of sons and daughters.

of your country, and from your relatives, and from your father's house, to the land that I will show you. <sup>12:2</sup>I will make of you a great nation. I will bless you and make your name great. You will be a blessing. <sup>12:3</sup>I will bless those who bless you, and I will curse him who curses you. All of the families of the earth will be blessed in you."

<sup>12:4</sup>So Abram went, as the LORD had spoken to him. Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed out of Haran. <sup>12:5</sup>Abram took Sarai his wife, Lot his brother's son, all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls whom they had gotten in Haran, and they went to go into the land of Canaan. Into the land of Canaan they came. <sup>12:6</sup>Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. The Canaanite was then in the land.

He built an altar there to the LORD, who appeared to him. <sup>12:8</sup>He left from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, having Bethel on the west, and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD. <sup>12:9</sup>Abram traveled, going on still toward the South.

<sup>12:10</sup>There was a famine in the land. Abram went down into Egypt to live as a foreigner there, for the famine was severe in the land.

<sup>12:11</sup>It happened, when he had come near to enter Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, "See now, I know that you are a beautiful woman to look at. <sup>12:12</sup>It will happen, when the Egyptians will see you, that they will say, 'This is his wife.' They will kill me, but they will save you alive.

<sup>12:13</sup>Please say that you are my sister, that it may be well with me for your sake, and that my soul may live because of you."

<sup>12:14</sup>It happened that when Abram had come into Egypt, the Egyptians saw that the woman was very beautiful. <sup>12:15</sup>The princes of Pharaoh saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house. <sup>12:16</sup>He dealt well with Abram for her sake. He had sheep, cattle, male donkeys, male servants, female servants, female donkeys, and camels. <sup>12:17</sup>The LORD plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife. <sup>12:18</sup>Pharaoh called Abram and said, "What is this that you have done to me? Why didn't you tell me that she was your wife? <sup>12:19</sup>Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to be my wife? Now therefore, see your wife, take her, and go your way."

<sup>13:1</sup>Abram went up out of Egypt: he, his wife, all that he had, and Lot with him, into the South. <sup>13:2</sup>Abram was very rich in livestock, in silver, and in gold. <sup>13:3</sup>He went on his journeys from the South even to Bethel, to the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Bethel and Ai, <sup>13:4</sup>to the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

<sup>13:5</sup>Lot also, who went with Abram, had flocks, and herds, and tents. <sup>13:6</sup>The land was not able to bear them, that they might live together: for their substance was great, so that they could not live together. <sup>13:7</sup>There was a strife between the herdsmen of Abram's livestock and the herdsmen of Lot's livestock: and the Canaanite and the Perizzite lived in the land at that time.

<sup>13:8</sup>Abram said to Lot, "Please, let there be no strife between me and you, and between my herdsmen and your herdsmen; for we are relatives. <sup>13:9</sup>Isn't the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If you go to the left hand, then I will go to the right. Or if you go to the right hand, then I will go to the left."

<sup>13:10</sup>Lot lifted up his eyes, and saw all the plain of the Jordan, that it was well-watered everywhere, before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, as you go to Zoar.

<sup>13:11</sup>So Lot chose the Plain of the Jordan for himself. Lot traveled east, and they separated themselves the one from the other. <sup>13:12</sup>Abram lived in the land of Canaan, and Lot lived in the cities of the plain, and moved his tent as far as Sodom. <sup>13:13</sup>Now the men of Sodom were exceedingly wicked and sinners against the LORD.

<sup>13:14</sup>The LORD said to Abram, after Lot was separated from him, "Now, lift up your eyes, and look from the place where you are, northward and southward and eastward and westward, <sup>13:15</sup>for all the land which you see, I will give to you, and to your offspring forever. <sup>13:16</sup>I will make your offspring as the dust of the earth, so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then your seed may also be numbered. <sup>13:17</sup>Arise, walk through the land in its length and in its breadth; for I will give it to you."

<sup>13:18</sup>Abram moved his tent, and came and lived by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron, and built an altar there to the LORD.

<sup>14:13</sup>One who had escaped came and told Abram, the Hebrew. Now he lived by the oaks of Mamre, the Amorite, brother of Eshcol, and brother of Aner; and these were allies of Abram. <sup>14:14</sup>When Abram heard that his relative was taken captive, he led out his trained men, born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued as far as Dan. <sup>14:15</sup>He divided himself against them by night, he and his servants, and struck them, and pursued them to Hobah, which is on the left hand of Damascus. <sup>14:16</sup>He brought back all the goods, and also brought back his relative, Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

<sup>14:17</sup>The king of Sodom went out to meet him, after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer and the kings who were with him, at the valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley). <sup>14:18</sup>Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine: and he was priest of God Most High. <sup>14:19</sup>He blessed him, and said, "Blessed be Abram of God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth: <sup>14:20</sup>and blessed be God Most High, who has delivered your enemies into your hand."

Abram gave him a tenth of all.

<sup>14:21</sup>The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people, and take the goods to yourself."

<sup>14:22</sup>Abram said to the king of Sodom, "I have lifted up my hand to the LORD, God Most High, possessor of heaven and earth, <sup>14:23</sup>that I will not take a thread nor a sandal strap nor anything that is yours, lest you should say, 'I have made Abram rich.' <sup>14:24</sup>I will accept nothing from you except that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men who went with me: Aner, Eshcol, and Mamre. Let them take their portion."

<sup>15:2</sup>Abram said, "Lord<sup>e</sup> the LORD, what will you give me, since I go childless, and he who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?"

<sup>15:3</sup>Abram said, "Behold, to me you have given no seed: and, behold, one born in my house is my heir."

<sup>15:4</sup>Behold, the word of the LORD came to him, saying, "This man will not be your heir, but he who will come out of your own body will be your heir." <sup>15:5</sup>The LORD brought him outside, and said, "Look now toward the sky, and count the stars, if you are able to count them." He said to Abram, "So shall your seed be." <sup>15:6</sup>He believed in the LORD; and he reckoned it to him for righteousness. <sup>15:7</sup>He said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you out of Ur-Kasdim, to give you this land to inherit it."

<sup>15:8</sup>He said, "Lord GOD, how will I know that I will inherit it?"

<sup>15:9</sup>He said to him, "Bring me a heifer three years old, a female goat three years old, a ram three years old, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." <sup>15:10</sup>He brought him all of these, and divided them in the middle, and laid each half opposite the other; but he didn't divide the birds. <sup>15:11</sup>The birds of prey came down on the carcasses, and Abram drove them away.

<sup>15:12</sup>When the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell on Abram. Now terror and great darkness fell on him. <sup>15:13</sup>He said to Abram, "Know for sure that your seed will live as foreigners in a land that is not theirs, and will serve them. They will afflict them four hundred years. <sup>15:14</sup>I will also judge that nation, whom they will serve. Afterward they will come out with great wealth, <sup>15:15</sup>but you will go to your fathers in peace. You will be buried in a good old age. <sup>15:16</sup>In the fourth generation they will come here again, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet full." <sup>15:17</sup>It came to pass that, when the sun went down, and it was dark, behold, a smoking furnace, and a flaming torch passed between these pieces. <sup>15:18</sup>In that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your seed I have given this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the river Euphrates: <sup>15:19</sup>the Kenites, the Kenizzites, the Kadmonites, <sup>15:20</sup>the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Rephaim, <sup>15:21</sup>the Amorites, the Canaanites, the Girgashites, and the Jebusites."

<sup>16:1</sup>Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had a handmaid, an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar. <sup>16:2</sup>Sarai said to Abram, "See now, the LORD has restrained me from bearing. Please go in to my handmaid. It may be that I will obtain children by her." Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. <sup>16:3</sup>Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her handmaid, after Abram had lived ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to Abram her husband to be his wife. <sup>16:4</sup>He went in to Hagar, and she conceived. When she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes. <sup>16:5</sup>Sarai said to Abram, "This wrong is your fault. I gave my handmaid into your bosom, and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes. The LORD judge between me and you."

<sup>16:7</sup>The angel of the LORD found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain in the way to Shur. <sup>16:8</sup>He said, "Hagar, Sarai's handmaid, where did you come from? Where are you going?"

She said, "I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai."

<sup>16:9</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, "Return to your mistress, and submit yourself under her hands." <sup>16:10</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, "I will greatly multiply your seed, that they will not be numbered for multitude." <sup>16:11</sup>The angel of the LORD said to her, "Behold, you are with child, and will bear a son. You shall call his name Ishmael, because the LORD has heard your affliction. <sup>16:12</sup>He will be like a wild donkey among men. His hand will be against every man, and every man's hand against him. He will live opposite all of his brothers."

<sup>16:13</sup>She called the name of the LORD who spoke to her, "You are a God who sees," for she said, "Have I even stayed alive after seeing him?" <sup>16:14</sup>Therefore the well was called Beer Lahai Roi.<sup>f</sup> Behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.

<sup>17:1</sup>When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to Abram, and said to him, "I am God Almighty. Walk before me, and be blameless. <sup>17:2</sup>I will make my covenant between me and you, and will multiply you exceedingly."

<sup>17:3</sup>Abram fell on his face. God talked with him, saying, <sup>17:4</sup>"As for me, behold, my covenant is with you. You will be the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>17:5</sup>Neither will your name any more be called Abram, but your name will be Abraham; for I have made you the father of a multitude of nations. <sup>17:6</sup>I will make you exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of you. Kings will come out of you. <sup>17:7</sup>I will establish my covenant between me and you and your seed after you throughout their generations for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to you and to your seed after you. <sup>17:8</sup>I will give to you, and to your seed after you, the land where you are traveling, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession. I will be their God."

<sup>17:9</sup>God said to Abraham, "As for you, you will keep my covenant, you and your seed after you throughout their generations. <sup>17:10</sup>This is my covenant, which you shall keep, between me and you and your seed after you. Every male among you shall be circumcised. <sup>17:11</sup>You shall be circumcised in the flesh of your foreskin. It will be a token of the covenant between me and you. <sup>17:12</sup>He who is eight days old will be circumcised among you, every male throughout your generations, he who is born in the house, or bought with money from any foreigner who is not of your seed. <sup>17:13</sup>He who is born in your house, and he who is bought with your money, must be circumcised. My covenant will be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant. <sup>17:14</sup>The uncircumcised male who is not circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his people. He has broken my covenant."

<sup>17:15</sup>God said to Abraham, "As for Sarai your wife, you shall not call her name Sarai, but her name will be Sarah. <sup>17:16</sup>I will bless her, and moreover I will give you a son by her. Yes, I will bless her, and she will be a mother of nations. Kings of peoples will come from her."

<sup>17:17</sup>Then Abraham fell on his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, "Will a child be born to him who is one hundred years old? Will Sarah, who is ninety years old, give birth?" <sup>17:18</sup>Abraham said to God, "Oh that Ishmael might live before you!"

<sup>17:19</sup>God said, "No, but Sarah, your wife, will bear you a son. You shall call his name Isaac.<sup>8</sup> I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant for his seed after him. <sup>17:20</sup>As for Ishmael, I have heard you. Behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly. He will become the father of twelve princes, and I will make him a great nation. <sup>17:21</sup>But my covenant I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you at this set time next year."

<sup>17:22</sup>When he finished talking with him, God went up from Abraham. <sup>17:23</sup>Abraham took Ishmael his son, all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money; every male among the men of Abraham's house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin in the same day, as God had said to him. <sup>17:24</sup>Abraham was ninety-nine years old, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>17:25</sup>Ishmael, his son, was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin. <sup>17:26</sup>In the same day both Abraham and Ishmael, his son, were circumcised. <sup>17:27</sup>All the men of his house, those born in the house, and those bought with money of a foreigner, were circumcised with him.

They said, "Very well, do as you have said." <sup>18:6</sup>Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah, and said, "Quickly prepare three measures of fine meal, knead it, and make cakes." <sup>18:7</sup>Abraham ran to the herd, and fetched a tender and good calf, and gave it to the servant. He hurried to dress it. <sup>18:8</sup>He took butter, milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them. He stood by them under the tree, and they ate.

He said, "See, in the tent."

<sup>18:10</sup>He said, "I will certainly return to you when the season comes round. Behold, Sarah your wife will have a son."

Sarah heard in the tent door, which was behind him. <sup>18:11</sup>Now Abraham and Sarah were old, well advanced in age. Sarah had passed the age of childbearing. <sup>18:12</sup>Sarah laughed within herself, saying, "After I have grown old will I have pleasure, my lord being old also?"

<sup>18:13</sup>The LORD said to Abraham, "Why did Sarah laugh, saying, 'Will I really bear a child, yet I am old?' <sup>18:14</sup>Is anything too hard for the LORD? At the set time I will return to you, when the season comes round, and Sarah will have a son."

He said, "No, but you did laugh."

<sup>18:16</sup>The men rose up from there, and looked toward Sodom. Abraham went with them to see them on their way. <sup>18:17</sup>The LORD said, "Will I hide from Abraham what I do, <sup>18:18</sup>since Abraham has surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth will be blessed in him? <sup>18:19</sup>For I have known him, to the end that he may command his children and his household after him, that they may keep the way of the LORD, to do righteousness and justice; to the end that the LORD may bring on Abraham that which he has spoken of him." <sup>18:20</sup>The LORD said, "Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sin is very grievous, <sup>18:21</sup>I will go down now, and see whether their deeds are as bad as the reports which have come to me. If not, I will know."

<sup>18:22</sup>The men turned from there, and went toward Sodom, but Abraham stood yet before the LORD. <sup>18:23</sup>Abraham drew near, and said, "Will you consume the righteous with the wicked? <sup>18:24</sup>What if there are fifty righteous within the city? Will you consume and not spare the place for the fifty righteous who are in it? <sup>18:25</sup>Be it far from you to do things like that, to kill the righteous with the wicked, so that the righteous should be like the wicked. May that be far from you. Shouldn't the Judge of all the earth do right?"

<sup>18:26</sup>The LORD said, "If I find in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sake." <sup>18:27</sup>Abraham answered, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord, who am but dust and ashes. <sup>18:28</sup>What if there will lack five of the fifty righteous? Will you destroy all the city for lack of five?"

He said, "I will not destroy it, if I find forty-five there."

<sup>18:29</sup>He spoke to him yet again, and said, "What if there are forty found there?"

He said, "I will not do it for the forty's sake."

<sup>18:30</sup>He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak. What if there are thirty found there?"

He said, "I will not do it, if I find thirty there."

<sup>18:31</sup>He said, "See now, I have taken it on myself to speak to the Lord. What if there are twenty found there?"

He said, "I will not destroy it for the twenty's sake."

<sup>18:32</sup>He said, "Oh don't let the Lord be angry, and I will speak just once more. What if ten are found there?"

He said, "I will not destroy it for the ten's sake."

<sup>19:1</sup>The two angels came to Sodom at evening. Lot sat in the gate of Sodom. Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them. He bowed himself with his face to the earth, <sup>19:2</sup>and he said, "See now, my lords, please turn aside into your servant's house, stay all night, wash your feet, and you can rise up early, and go on your way."

They said, "No, but we will stay in the street all night."

<sup>19:3</sup>He urged them greatly, and they came in with him, and entered into his house. He made them a feast, and baked unleavened bread, and they ate. <sup>19:4</sup>But before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, both young and old, all the people from every quarter. <sup>19:5</sup>They called to Lot, and said to him, "Where are the men who came in to you this night? Bring them out to us, that we may have sex with them."

<sup>19:6</sup>Lot went out to them to the door, and shut the door after him. <sup>19:7</sup>He said, "Please, my brothers, don't act so wickedly. <sup>19:8</sup>See now, I have two virgin daughters. Please let me bring them out to you, and you may do to them what seems good to you. Only don't do anything to these men, because they have come under the shadow of my roof."

<sup>19:9</sup>They said, "Stand back!" Then they said, "This one fellow came in to live as a foreigner, and he appoints himself a judge. Now will we deal worse with you, than with them!" They pressed hard on the man Lot, and drew near to break the door. <sup>19:10</sup>But the men reached out their hand, and brought Lot into the house to them, and shut the door. <sup>19:11</sup>They struck the men who were at the door of the house with blindness, both small and great, so that they wearied themselves to find the door.

<sup>19:12</sup>The men said to Lot, "Do you have anybody else here? Sons-in-law, your sons, your daughters, and whoever you have in the city, bring them out of the place: <sup>19:13</sup>for we will destroy this place, because the outcry against them has grown great before the LORD that the LORD has sent us to destroy it."

<sup>19:14</sup>Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters, and said, "Get up! Get out of this place, for the LORD will destroy the city."

But he seemed to his sons-in-law to be joking. <sup>19:15</sup>When the morning came, then the angels hurried Lot, saying, "Get up! Take your wife, and your two daughters who are here, lest you be consumed in the iniquity of the city." <sup>19:16</sup>But he lingered; and the men grabbed his hand, his wife's hand, and his two daughters' hands, the LORD being merciful to him; and they took him out, and set him outside of the city. <sup>19:17</sup>It came to pass, when they had taken them out, that he said, "Escape for your life! Don't look behind you, and don't stay anywhere in the plain. Escape to the mountains, lest you be consumed!"

<sup>19:18</sup>Lot said to them, "Oh, not so, my lord. <sup>19:19</sup>See now, your servant has found favor in your sight, and you have magnified your loving kindness, which you have shown to me in saving my life. I can't escape to the mountain, lest evil overtake me, and I die. <sup>19:20</sup>See now, this city is near to flee to, and it is a little one. Oh let me escape there (isn't it a little one?), and my soul will live."

<sup>19:21</sup>He said to him, "Behold, I have granted your request concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which you have spoken. <sup>19:22</sup>Hurry, escape there, for I can't do anything until you get there." Therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>19:23</sup>The sun had risen on the earth when Lot came to Zoar. <sup>19:24</sup>Then the LORD rained on Sodom and on Gomorrah sulfur and fire from the LORD out of the sky. <sup>19:25</sup>He overthrew those cities, all the plain, all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew on the ground. <sup>19:26</sup>But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

<sup>19:27</sup>Abraham got up early in the morning to the place where he had stood before the LORD. <sup>19:28</sup>He looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and looked, and saw that the smoke of the land went up as the smoke of a furnace.

<sup>19:30</sup>Lot went out of Zoar, and lived in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he was afraid to live in Zoar. He lived in a cave with his two daughters. <sup>19:31</sup>The firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in to us in the way of all the earth. <sup>19:32</sup>Come, let's make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve our father's seed." <sup>19:33</sup>They made their father drink wine that night: and the firstborn went in, and lay with her father. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she arose. <sup>19:34</sup>It came to pass on the next day, that the firstborn said to the younger, "Behold, I lay last night with my father. Let us make him drink wine again, tonight. You go in, and lie with him, that we may preserve our father's seed." <sup>19:35</sup>They made their father drink wine that night also. The younger went and lay with him. He didn't know when she lay down, nor when she got up. <sup>19:36</sup>Thus both of Lot's daughters were with child by their father. <sup>19:37</sup>The firstborn bore a son, and named him Moab. He is the father of the Moabites to this day. <sup>19:38</sup>The younger also bore a son, and called his name Ben Ammi. He is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

<sup>20:1</sup>Abraham traveled from there toward the land of the South, and lived between Kadesh and Shur. He lived as a foreigner in Gerar. <sup>20:2</sup>Abraham said about Sarah his wife, "She is my sister." Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah. <sup>20:3</sup>But God came to Abimelech in a dream of the night, and said to him, "Behold, you are a dead man, because of the woman whom you have taken. For she is a man's wife."

<sup>20:4</sup>Now Abimelech had not come near her. He said, "Lord, will you kill even a righteous nation? <sup>20:5</sup>Didn't he tell me, 'She is my sister?' She, even she herself, said, 'He is my brother.' In the integrity of my heart and the innocence of my hands have I done this."

<sup>20:6</sup>God said to him in the dream, "Yes, I know that in the integrity of your heart you have done this, and I also withheld you from sinning against me. Therefore I didn't allow you to touch her. <sup>20:7</sup>Now therefore, restore the man's wife. For he is a prophet, and he will pray for you, and you will live. If you don't restore her, know for sure that you will die, you, and all who are yours."

<sup>20:8</sup>Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ear. The men were very scared.

<sup>20:9</sup>Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said to him, "What have you done to us? How have I sinned against you, that you have brought on me and on my kingdom a great sin? You have done deeds to me that ought not to be done!"

<sup>20:10</sup>Abimelech said to Abraham, "What did you see, that you have done this thing?"

<sup>20:11</sup>Abraham said, "Because I thought, 'Surely the fear of God is not in this place. They will kill me for my wife's sake.' <sup>20:12</sup>Besides, she is indeed my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became my wife. <sup>20:13</sup>It happened, when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, 'This is your kindness which you shall show to me. Everywhere that we go, say of me, "He is my brother."'"

<sup>20:15</sup>Abimelech said, "Behold, my land is before you. Dwell where it pleases you." <sup>20:16</sup>To Sarah he said, "Behold, I have given your brother a thousand pieces of silver. Behold, it is for you a covering of the eyes to all that are with you. In front of all you are vindicated."

LORD had closed up tight all the wombs of the house of Abimelech, because of Sarah, Abraham's wife.

<sup>21:1</sup>The LORD visited Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did to Sarah as he had spoken.

<sup>21:4</sup>Abraham circumcised his son, Isaac, when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. <sup>21:5</sup>Abraham was one hundred years old when his son, Isaac, was born to him.

<sup>21:6</sup>Sarah said, "God has made me laugh. Everyone who hears will laugh with me."

<sup>21:10</sup>Therefore she said to Abraham, "Cast out this handmaid and her son! For the son of this handmaid will not be heir with my son, Isaac."

<sup>21:11</sup>The thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight on account of his son. <sup>21:12</sup>God said to Abraham, "Don't let it be grievous in your sight because of the boy, and because of your handmaid. In all that Sarah says to you, listen to her voice. For from Isaac will your seed be called. <sup>21:13</sup>I will also make a nation of the son of the handmaid, because he is your seed."

<sup>21:14</sup>Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread and a bottle of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder; and gave her the child, and sent her away. She departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beersheba.

<sup>21:15</sup>The water in the bottle was spent, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs. <sup>21:16</sup>She went and sat down opposite him, a good way off, about a bow shot away. For she said, "Don't let me see the death of the child." She sat over against him, and lifted up her voice, and wept.

The angel of God called to Hagar out of the sky, and said to her, "What ails you, Hagar? Don't be afraid. For God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. <sup>21:18</sup>Get up, lift up the boy, and hold him in your hand. For I will make

<sup>21:22</sup>It happened at that time, that Abimelech and Phicol the captain of his army spoke to Abraham, saying, “God is with you in all that you do. <sup>21:23</sup>Now, therefore, swear to me here by God that you will not deal falsely with me, nor with my son, nor with my son’s son. But according to the kindness that I have done to you, you shall do to me, and to the land in which you have lived as a foreigner.”

<sup>21:24</sup>Abraham said, “I will swear.” <sup>21:25</sup>Abraham complained to Abimelech because of a water well, which Abimelech’s servants had violently taken away. <sup>21:26</sup>Abimelech said, “I don’t know who has done this thing. You didn’t tell me, neither did I hear of it, until today.”

<sup>21:27</sup>Abraham took sheep and cattle, and gave them to Abimelech. Those two made a covenant. <sup>21:28</sup>Abraham set seven ewe lambs of the flock by themselves. <sup>21:29</sup>Abimelech said to Abraham, “What do these seven ewe lambs which you have set by themselves mean?”

<sup>21:30</sup>He said, “You shall take these seven ewe lambs from my hand, that it may be a witness to me, that I have dug this well.” <sup>21:31</sup>Therefore he called that place Beersheba,<sup>j</sup> because they both swore there. <sup>21:32</sup>So they made a covenant at Beersheba. Abimelech rose up with Phicol, the captain of his army, and they returned into the land of the Philistines. <sup>21:33</sup>Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and called there on the name of the LORD, the Everlasting God. <sup>21:34</sup>Abraham lived as a foreigner in the land of the Philistines many days.

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>22:2</sup>He said, “Now take your son, your only son, whom you love, even Isaac, and go into the land of Moriah. Offer him there for a burnt offering on one of the mountains which I will tell you of.”

<sup>22:3</sup>Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son. He split the wood for the burnt offering, and rose up, and went to the place of which God had told him. <sup>22:4</sup>On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes, and saw the place far off. <sup>22:5</sup>Abraham said to his young men, “Stay here with the donkey. The boy and I will go yonder. We will worship, and come back to you.” <sup>22:6</sup>Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on Isaac his son. He took in his hand the fire and the knife. They both went together. <sup>22:7</sup>Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, “My father?”

He said, “Here I am, my son.”

He said, “Here is the fire and the wood, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?”

<sup>22:8</sup>Abraham said, “God will provide himself the lamb for a burnt offering, my son.” So they both went together. <sup>22:9</sup>They came to the place which God had told him of. Abraham built the altar there, and laid the wood in order, bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar, on the wood. <sup>22:10</sup>Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife to kill his son.

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>22:12</sup>He said, “Don’t lay your hand on the boy, neither do anything to him. For now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me.”

<sup>22:13</sup>Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and saw that behind him was a ram caught in the thicket by his horns. Abraham went and took the ram, and offered him up for a burnt offering instead of his son. <sup>22:14</sup>Abraham called the name of that place the LORD Will Provide<sup>k</sup>. As it is said to this day, “On the LORD’s mountain, it will be provided.”

<sup>22:15</sup>The angel of the LORD called to Abraham a second time out of the sky, <sup>22:16</sup>and said, “I have sworn by myself, says the LORD, because you have done this thing, and have not withheld your son, your only son, <sup>22:17</sup>that I will bless you greatly, and I will multiply your seed greatly like the stars of the heavens, and like the sand which is on the seashore. Your seed will possess the gate of his enemies. <sup>22:18</sup> In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice."

<sup>23:7</sup> Abraham rose up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth. <sup>23:8</sup> He talked with them, saying, "If it be your mind that I should bury my dead out of my sight, hear me, and entreat for me to Ephron the son of Zohar, <sup>23:9</sup> that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he has, which is in the end of his field. For the full price let him give it to me among you for a possession of a burying-place."

in the audience of the people of the land, saying, "But if you will, please hear me. I will give the price of the field. Take it from me, and I will bury my dead there."

<sup>23:17</sup> So the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, the cave which was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all of its borders, were deeded <sup>23:18</sup> to Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all who went in at the gate of his city. <sup>23:19</sup> After this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah before Mamre (that is, Hebron), in the land of Canaan. <sup>23:20</sup> The field, and the cave that is in it, were deeded to Abraham for a possession of a burying place by the children of Heth.

<sup>24:5</sup> The servant said to him, "What if the woman isn't willing to follow me to this land? Must I bring your son again to the land you came from?"

<sup>24:6</sup> Abraham said to him, "Beware that you don't bring my son there again. <sup>24:7</sup> The LORD, the God of heaven, who took me from my father's house, and from the land of my birth, who spoke to me, and who swore to me, saying, 'I will give this land to your seed!.' He will send his angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. <sup>24:8</sup> If the woman isn't willing to follow you, then you shall be clear

<sup>24:18</sup>She said, “Drink, my lord.” She hurried, and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave him drink. <sup>24:19</sup>When she had done giving him drink, she said, “I will also draw for your camels, until they have done drinking.” <sup>24:20</sup>She hurried, and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw, and drew for all his camels.

Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom she bore to Nahor.” <sup>24:25</sup>She said moreover to him, “We have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in.”

<sup>24:26</sup>The man bowed his head, and worshiped the LORD. <sup>24:27</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken his loving kindness and his truth toward my master. As for me, the LORD has led me in the way to the house of my master’s relatives.”

<sup>24:32</sup>The man came into the house, and he unloaded the camels. He gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet and the feet of the men who were with him. <sup>24:33</sup>Food was set before him to eat, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told my message.”

He said, “Speak on.”

<sup>24:34</sup>He said, “I am Abraham’s servant. <sup>24:35</sup>The LORD has blessed my master greatly. He has become great. He has given him flocks and herds, silver and gold, male servants and female servants, and camels and donkeys. <sup>24:36</sup>Sarah, my master’s wife, bore a son to my master when she was old. He has given all that he has to him. <sup>24:37</sup>My master made me swear, saying, ‘You shall not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live, <sup>24:38</sup>but you shall go to my father’s house, and to my relatives, and take a wife for my son.’ <sup>24:39</sup>I asked my master, ‘What if the woman will not follow me?’ <sup>24:40</sup>He said to me, ‘The LORD, before whom I walk, will send his angel with you, and prosper your way. You shall take a wife for my son of my relatives, and of my father’s house. <sup>24:41</sup>Then will you be clear from my oath, when you come to my relatives. If they don’t give her to you, you shall be clear from my oath.' <sup>24:42</sup>I came this day to the spring, and said, 'The LORD, the God of my master Abraham, if now you do prosper my way which I go—<sup>24:43</sup>behold, I am standing by this spring of water. Let it happen, that the maiden who comes out to draw, to whom I will say, "Please give me a little water from your pitcher to drink," <sup>24:44</sup>and she will tell me, "Drink, and I will also draw for your camels,"—let her be the woman whom the LORD has appointed for my master's son.' <sup>24:45</sup>Before I had finished speaking in my heart, behold, Rebekah came out with her pitcher on her shoulder. She went down to the spring, and drew. I said to her, 'Please let me drink.' <sup>24:46</sup>She hurried and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink.' So I drank, and she also gave the camels a drink. <sup>24:47</sup>I asked her, and said, 'Whose daughter are you?' She said, 'The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him.' I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands. <sup>24:48</sup>I bowed my head, and worshiped the LORD, and blessed the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me in the right way to take my master's brother's daughter for his son. <sup>24:49</sup>Now if you will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me. If not, tell me, that I may turn to the right hand, or to the left."

<sup>24:56</sup>He said to them, "Don't hinder me, since the LORD has prospered my way. Send me away that I may go to my master."

<sup>24:57</sup>They said, "We will call the young lady, and ask her." <sup>24:58</sup>They called Rebekah, and said to her, "Will you go with this man?"

She said, "I will go."

The servant said, "It is my master."

She took her veil, and covered herself. <sup>24:66</sup>The servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. <sup>24:67</sup>Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife. He loved her. Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.

happened after the death of Abraham that God blessed Isaac, his son. Isaac lived by Beer Lahai Roi.

"Two nations are in your womb.

Two peoples will be separated from your body. The one people will be stronger than the other people.

The elder will serve the younger."

said to Jacob, "Please feed me with that same red stew, for I am famished." Therefore his name was called Edom.

He swore to him. He sold his birthright to Jacob. <sup>25:34</sup>Jacob gave Esau bread and stew of lentils. He ate and drank, rose up, and went his way. So Esau despised his birthright.

<sup>26:1</sup>There was a famine in the land, besides the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines, to Gerar. <sup>26:2</sup>The LORD appeared to him, and said, "Don't go down into Egypt. Live in the land I will tell you about. <sup>26:3</sup>Live in this land, and I will be with you, and will bless you. For to you, and to your seed, I will give all these lands, and I will establish the oath which I swore to Abraham your father. <sup>26:4</sup>I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and will give to your seed all these lands. In your seed will all the nations of the earth be blessed, <sup>26:5</sup>because Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my requirements, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws."

<sup>26:6</sup>Isaac lived in Gerar. <sup>26:7</sup>The men of the place asked him about his wife. He said, "She is my sister," for he was afraid to say, "My wife," lest, he thought, "the men of the place might kill me for Rebekah, because she is beautiful to look at." <sup>26:8</sup>It happened, when he had been there a long time, that Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a window, and saw, and, behold, Isaac was caressing Rebekah, his wife. <sup>26:9</sup>Abimelech called Isaac, and said, "Behold, surely she is your wife. Why did you say, 'She is my sister?'"

Isaac said to him, "Because I said, 'Lest I die because of her.'"

<sup>26:10</sup>Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the people might easily have lain with your wife, and you would have brought guilt on us!"

grew great, and grew more and more until he became very great. <sup>26:14</sup>He had possessions of flocks, possessions of herds, and a great household. The Philistines envied him. <sup>26:15</sup>Now all the wells which his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped, and filled with earth. <sup>26:16</sup>Abimelech said to Isaac, "Go from us, for you are much mightier than we."

<sup>26:18</sup>Isaac dug again the wells of water, which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father. For the Philistines had stopped them after the death of Abraham. He called their names after the names by which his father had called them. <sup>26:19</sup>Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of springing water. <sup>26:20</sup>The herdsmen of Gerar argued with Isaac's herdsmen, saying, "The water is ours." He called the name of the well Esek, because they contended with him. <sup>26:21</sup>They dug another well, and they argued over that, also. He called its name Sitnah. <sup>26:22</sup>He left that place, and dug another well. They didn't argue over that one. He called it Rehoboth. He said, "For now the LORD has made room for us, and we will be fruitful in the land."

<sup>26:23</sup>He went up from there to Beersheba. <sup>26:24</sup>The LORD appeared to him the same night, and said, "I am the God of Abraham your father. Don't be afraid, for I am with you, and will bless you, and multiply your seed for my servant Abraham's sake."

<sup>26:26</sup>Then Abimelech went to him from Gerar, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phicol the captain of his army. <sup>26:27</sup>Isaac said to them, "Why have you come to me, since you hate me, and have sent me away from you?"

<sup>26:28</sup>They said, "We saw plainly that the LORD was with you. We said, 'Let there now be an oath between us, even between us and you, and let us make a covenant with you, <sup>26:29</sup>that you will do us no harm, as we have not touched you, and as we have done to you nothing but good, and have sent you away in peace.' You are now the blessed of the LORD."

<sup>26:30</sup>He made them a feast, and they ate and drank. <sup>26:31</sup>They rose up some time in the morning, and swore one to another. Isaac sent them away, and they departed from him in peace. <sup>26:32</sup>It happened the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well which they had dug, and said to him, "We have found water." <sup>26:33</sup>He called it Shibah.<sup>m</sup> Therefore the name of the city is Beersheba<sup>n</sup> to this day.

<sup>27:1</sup>It happened, that when Isaac was old, and his eyes were dim, so that he could not see, he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, "My son?"

He said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>27:2</sup>He said, "See now, I am old. I don't know the day of my death. <sup>27:3</sup>Now therefore, please take your weapons, your quiver and your bow, and go out to the field, and take me venison. <sup>27:4</sup>Make me savory food, such as I love, and bring it to me, that I may eat, and that my soul may bless you before I die."

<sup>27:5</sup>Rebekah heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son. Esau went to the field to hunt for venison, and to bring it. <sup>27:6</sup>Rebekah spoke to Jacob her son, saying, "Behold, I heard your father speak to Esau your brother, saying, <sup>27:7</sup>'Bring me venison, and make me savory food, that I may eat, and bless you before the LORD before my death.' <sup>27:8</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice according to that which I command you. <sup>27:9</sup>Go now to the flock, and get me from there two good young goats. I will make them savory food for your father, such as he loves. <sup>27:10</sup>You shall bring it to your father, that he may eat, so that he may bless you before his death."

<sup>27:11</sup>Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, "Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, and I am a smooth man. <sup>27:12</sup>What if my father touches me? I will seem to him as a deceiver, and I would bring a curse on myself, and not a blessing."

<sup>27:13</sup>His mother said to him, "Let your curse be on me, my son. Only obey my voice, and go get them for me."

He said, "Here I am. Who are you, my son?"

<sup>27:19</sup>Jacob said to his father, "I am Esau your firstborn. I have done what you asked me to do. Please arise, sit and eat of my venison, that your soul may bless me."

<sup>27:20</sup>Isaac said to his son, "How is it that you have found it so quickly, my son?"

He said, "Because the LORD your God gave me success."

<sup>27:21</sup>Isaac said to Jacob, "Please come near, that I may feel you, my son, whether you are really my son Esau or not."

<sup>27:22</sup>Jacob went near to Isaac his father. He felt him, and said, "The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are the hands of Esau." <sup>27:23</sup>He didn't recognize him, because his hands were hairy, like his brother, Esau's hands. So he blessed him. <sup>27:24</sup>He said, "Are you really my son Esau?"

He said, "I am."

<sup>27:25</sup>He said, "Bring it near to me, and I will eat of my son's venison, that my soul may bless you."

He brought it near to him, and he ate. He brought him wine, and he drank. <sup>27:26</sup>His father Isaac said to him, "Come near now, and kiss me, my son." <sup>27:27</sup>He came near, and kissed him. He smelled the smell of his clothing, and blessed him, and said, "Behold, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which the LORD has blessed.

<sup>27:28</sup>God give you of the dew of the sky, of the fatness of the earth, and plenty of grain and new wine.

Be lord over your brothers.

Let your mother's sons bow down to you. Cursed be everyone who curses you.

Blessed be everyone who blesses you."

<sup>27:30</sup>It happened, as soon as Isaac had made an end of blessing Jacob, and Jacob had just gone out from the presence of Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came in from his hunting. <sup>27:31</sup>He also made savory food, and brought it to his father. He said to his father, "Let my father arise, and eat of his son's venison, that your soul may bless me."

He said, "I am your son, your firstborn, Esau."

<sup>27:33</sup>Isaac trembled violently, and said, "Who, then, is he who has taken venison, and brought it me, and I have eaten of all before you came, and have blessed him? Yes, he will be blessed."

<sup>27:34</sup>When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceeding great and bitter cry, and said to his father, "Bless me, even me also, my father."

<sup>27:36</sup>He said, "Isn't he rightly named Jacob? For he has supplanted me these two times. He took away my birthright. See, now he has taken away my blessing." He said, "Haven't you reserved a blessing for me?"

<sup>27:37</sup>Isaac answered Esau, "Behold, I have made him your lord, and all his brothers have I given to him for servants. With grain and new wine have I sustained him. What then will I do for you, my son?"

<sup>27:38</sup>Esau said to his father, "Have you but one blessing, my father? Bless me, even me also, my father." Esau lifted up his voice, and wept.

It will happen, when you will break loose, that you shall shake his yoke from off your neck."

<sup>27:41</sup>Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father blessed him. Esau said in his heart, "The days of mourning for my father are at hand. Then I will kill my brother Jacob."

<sup>27:42</sup>The words of Esau, her elder son, were told to Rebekah. She sent and called Jacob, her younger son, and said to him, "Behold, your brother Esau comforts himself about you by planning to kill you. <sup>27:43</sup>Now therefore, my son, obey my voice. Arise, flee to Laban, my brother, in Haran. <sup>27:44</sup>Stay with him a few days, until your brother's fury turns away; <sup>27:45</sup>until your brother's anger turn away from you, and he forgets what you have done to him. Then I will send, and get you from there. Why should I be bereaved of you both in one day?"

<sup>27:46</sup>Rebekah said to Isaac, "I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob takes a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good will my life do me?"

<sup>28:6</sup>Now Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob and sent him away to Paddan Aram, to take him a wife from there, and that as he blessed him he gave him a command, saying, "You shall not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan," <sup>28:7</sup>and that Jacob obeyed his father and his mother, and was gone to Paddan Aram. <sup>28:8</sup>Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan didn't please Isaac, his father. <sup>28:9</sup>Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael, Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

<sup>28:10</sup>Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran. <sup>28:11</sup>He came to a certain place, and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. He took one of the stones of the place, and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep. <sup>28:12</sup>He dreamed. Behold, a stairway set upon the earth, and its top reached to heaven. Behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it. <sup>28:13</sup>Behold, the LORD stood above it, and said, "I am the LORD, the God of Abraham your father, and the God of Isaac. The land whereon you lie, to you will I give it, and to your seed. <sup>28:14</sup>Your seed will be as the dust of the earth, and you will spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south. In you and in your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed. <sup>28:15</sup>Behold, I am with you, and will keep you, wherever you go, and will bring you again into this land. For I will not leave you, until I have done that which I have spoken of to you."

<sup>28:16</sup>Jacob awakened out of his sleep, and he said, "Surely the LORD is in this place, and I didn't know it." <sup>28:17</sup>He was afraid, and said, "How dreadful is this place! This is none other than God's house, and this is the gate of heaven."

<sup>29:1</sup>Then Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the children of the east. <sup>29:2</sup>He looked, and behold, a well in the field, and, behold, three flocks of sheep lying there by it. For out of that well they watered the flocks. The stone on the well's mouth was large. <sup>29:3</sup>There all the flocks were gathered. They rolled the stone from the well's mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the well's mouth in its place. <sup>29:4</sup>Jacob said to them, "My relatives, where are you from?"

They said, "We are from Haran."

<sup>29:5</sup>He said to them, "Do you know Laban, the son of Nahor?"

They said, "We know him."

They said, "It is well. See, Rachel, his daughter, is coming with the sheep."

<sup>29:13</sup>It happened, when Laban heard the news of Jacob, his sister's son, that he ran to meet Jacob, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house. Jacob told Laban all these things. <sup>29:14</sup>Laban said to him, "Surely you are my bone and my flesh." He lived with him for a month. <sup>29:15</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "Because you are my brother, should you therefore serve me for nothing? Tell me, what will your wages be?"

<sup>29:16</sup>Laban had two daughters. The name of the elder was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel. <sup>29:17</sup>Leah's eyes were weak, but Rachel was beautiful in form and attractive. <sup>29:18</sup>Jacob loved Rachel. He said, "I will serve you seven years for Rachel, your younger daughter."

<sup>29:19</sup>Laban said, "It is better that I give her to you, than that I should give her to another man. Stay with me."

her. <sup>29:24</sup>Laban gave Zilpah his handmaid to his daughter Leah for a handmaid. <sup>29:25</sup>It happened in the morning that, behold, it was Leah. He said to Laban, "What is this you have done to me? Didn't I serve with you for Rachel? Why then have you deceived me?"

<sup>29:26</sup>Laban said, "It is not done so in our place, to give the younger before the firstborn. <sup>29:27</sup>Fulfill the week of this one, and we will give you the other also for the service which you will serve with me yet seven other years."

<sup>29:28</sup>Jacob did so, and fulfilled her week. He gave him Rachel his daughter as wife. <sup>29:29</sup>Laban gave to Rachel his daughter Bilhah, his handmaid, to be her handmaid. <sup>29:30</sup>He went in also to Rachel, and he loved also Rachel more than Leah, and served with him yet seven other years.

<sup>29:31</sup>The LORD saw that Leah was hated, and he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren. <sup>29:32</sup>Leah conceived, and bore a son, and she named him Reuben. For she said, "Because the LORD has looked at my affliction. For now my husband will love me." <sup>29:33</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son, and said, "Because the LORD has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this son also." She named him Simeon. <sup>29:34</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son. Said, "Now this time will my husband be joined to me, because I have borne him three sons." Therefore was his name called Levi. <sup>29:35</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son. She said, "This time will I praise the LORD." Therefore she named him Judah. Then she stopped bearing.

<sup>30:1</sup>When Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister. She said to Jacob, "Give me children, or else I will die."

<sup>30:2</sup>Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, "Am I in God's place, who has withheld from you the fruit of the womb?"

<sup>30:3</sup>She said, "Behold, my maid Bilhah. Go in to her, that she may bear on my knees, and I also may obtain children by her." <sup>30:4</sup>She gave him Bilhah her handmaid as wife, and Jacob went in to her. <sup>30:5</sup>Bilhah conceived, and bore Jacob a son. <sup>30:6</sup>Rachel said, "God has judged me, and has also heard my voice, and has given me a son." Therefore called she his name Dan. <sup>30:7</sup>Bilhah, Rachel's handmaid, conceived again, and bore Jacob a second son. <sup>30:8</sup>Rachel said, "With mighty wrestlings have

I wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed." She named him Naphtali.

<sup>30:14</sup>Reuben went in the days of wheat harvest, and found mandrakes in the field, and brought them to his mother, Leah. Then Rachel said to Leah, "Please give me some of your son's mandrakes."

<sup>30:15</sup>She said to her, "Is it a small matter that you have taken away my husband? Would you take away my son's mandrakes, also?"

Rachel said, "Therefore he will lie with you tonight for your son's mandrakes."

<sup>30:16</sup>Jacob came from the field in the evening, and Leah went out to meet him, and said, "You must come in to me; for I have surely hired you with my son's mandrakes."

He lay with her that night. <sup>30:17</sup>God listened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth son. <sup>30:18</sup>Leah said, "God has given me my hire, because I gave my handmaid to my husband." She named him Issachar. <sup>30:19</sup>Leah conceived again, and bore a sixth son to Jacob. <sup>30:20</sup>Leah said, "God has endowed me with a good dowry. Now my husband will live with me, because I have borne him six sons." She named him Zebulun. <sup>30:21</sup>Afterwards, she bore a daughter, and named her Dinah.

<sup>30:22</sup>God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and opened her womb. <sup>30:23</sup>She conceived, bore a son, and said, "God has taken away my reproach." <sup>30:24</sup>She named him Joseph,<sup>o</sup> saying, "May the LORD add another son to me."

<sup>30:25</sup>It happened, when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, "Send me away, that I may go to my own place, and to my country. <sup>30:26</sup>Give me my wives and my children for whom I have served you, and let me go; for you know my service with which I have served you."

that the LORD has blessed me for your sake." <sup>30:28</sup>He said, "Appoint me your wages, and I will give it."

<sup>30:29</sup>He said to him, "You know how I have served you, and how your livestock have fared with me. <sup>30:30</sup>For it was little which you had before I came, and it has increased to a multitude. The LORD has blessed you wherever I turned. Now when will I provide for my own house also?"

Jacob said, "You shall not give me anything. If you will do this thing for me, I will again feed your flock and keep it. <sup>30:32</sup>I will pass through all your flock today, removing from there every speckled and spotted one, and every black one among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats. This will be my hire. <sup>30:33</sup>So my righteousness will answer for me hereafter, when you come concerning my hire that is before you. Every one that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and black among the sheep, that might be with me, will be counted stolen."

<sup>30:35</sup>That day, he removed the male goats that were streaked and spotted, and all the female goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the black ones among the sheep, and gave them into the hand of his sons. <sup>30:36</sup>He set three days' journey between himself and Jacob, and Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flocks.

might conceive among the rods; <sup>30:42</sup>but when the flock were feeble, he didn't put them in. So the feeble were Laban's, and the stronger Jacob's. <sup>30:43</sup>The man increased exceedingly, and had large flocks, female servants and male servants, and camels and donkeys.

<sup>31:4</sup>Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the field to his flock, <sup>31:5</sup>and said to them, "I see the expression on your father's face, that it is not toward me as before; but the God of my father has been with me. <sup>31:6</sup>You know that I have served your father with all of my strength. <sup>31:7</sup>Your father has deceived me, and changed my wages ten times, but God didn't allow him to hurt me. <sup>31:8</sup>If he said this, 'The speckled will be your wages,' then all the flock bore speckled. If he said this, 'The streaked will be your wages,' then all the flock bore streaked. <sup>31:9</sup>Thus God has taken away your father's livestock, and given them to me. <sup>31:10</sup>It happened during mating season that I lifted up my eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the male goats which leaped on the flock were streaked, speckled, and grizzled. <sup>31:11</sup>The angel of God said to me in the dream, 'Jacob,' and I said, 'Here I am.' <sup>31:12</sup>He said, 'Now lift up your eyes, and behold, all the male goats which leap on the flock are streaked, speckled, and grizzled, for I have seen all that Laban does to you. <sup>31:13</sup>I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar, where you vowed a vow to me. Now arise, get out from this land, and return to the land of your birth.'"

<sup>31:14</sup>Rachel and Leah answered him, "Is there yet any portion or inheritance for us in our father's house? <sup>31:15</sup>Aren't we accounted by him as foreigners? For he has sold us, and has also quite devoured our money. <sup>31:16</sup>For all the riches which God has taken away from our father, that is ours and our children's. Now then, whatever God has said to you, do."

his wives on the camels, <sup>31:18</sup>and he took away all his livestock, and all his possessions which he had gathered, including the livestock which he had gained in Paddan Aram, to go to Isaac his father, to the land of Canaan. <sup>31:19</sup>Now Laban had gone to shear his sheep: and Rachel stole the teraphim<sup>p</sup> that were her father's.

<sup>31:25</sup>Laban caught up with Jacob. Now Jacob had pitched his tent in the mountain, and Laban with his relatives encamped in the mountain of Gilead. <sup>31:26</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "What have you done, that you have deceived me, and carried away my daughters like captives of the sword? <sup>31:27</sup>Why did you flee secretly, and deceive me, and didn't tell me, that I might have sent you away with mirth and with songs, with tambourine and with harp; <sup>31:28</sup>and didn't allow me to kiss my sons and my daughters? Now have you done foolishly. <sup>31:29</sup>It is in the power of my hand to hurt you, but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, 'Take heed to yourself that you don't speak to Jacob either good or bad.' <sup>31:30</sup>Now, you want to be gone, because you greatly longed for your father's house, but why have you stolen my gods?"

<sup>31:31</sup>Jacob answered Laban, "Because I was afraid, for I said, 'Lest you should take your daughters from me by force.' <sup>31:32</sup>Anyone you find your gods with shall not live. Before our relatives, discern what is yours with me, and take it." For Jacob didn't know that Rachel had stolen them.

<sup>31:33</sup>Laban went into Jacob's tent, into Leah's tent, and into the tent of the two female servants; but he didn't find them. He went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's tent.

<sup>31:34</sup>Now Rachel had taken the teraphim, put them in the camel's saddle, and sat on them. Laban felt about all the tent, but didn't find them. <sup>31:35</sup>She said to her father, "Don't let my lord be angry that I can't rise up before you; for I'm having my period." He searched, but didn't find the teraphim.

<sup>31:36</sup>Jacob was angry, and argued with Laban. Jacob answered Laban, "What is my trespass? What is my sin, that you have hotly pursued after me? <sup>31:37</sup>Now that you have felt around in all my stuff, what have you found of all your household stuff? Set it here before my relatives and your relatives, that they may judge between us two.

<sup>31:38</sup>"These twenty years I have been with you. Your ewes and your female goats have not cast their young, and I haven't eaten the rams of your flocks. <sup>31:39</sup>That which was torn of animals, I didn't bring to you. I bore its loss. Of my hand you required it, whether stolen by day or stolen by night. <sup>31:40</sup>This was my situation: in the day the drought consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled from my eyes. <sup>31:41</sup>These twenty years I have been in your house. I served you fourteen years for your two daughters, and six years for your flock, and you have changed my wages ten times. <sup>31:42</sup>Unless the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, had been with me, surely now you would have sent me away empty. God has seen my affliction and the labor of my hands, and rebuked you last night."

are absent one from another. <sup>31:50</sup>If you afflict my daughters, or if you take wives besides my daughters, no man is with us; behold, God is witness between me and you." <sup>31:51</sup>Laban said to Jacob, "See this heap, and see the pillar, which I have set between me and you. <sup>31:52</sup>May this heap be a witness, and the pillar be a witness, that I will not pass over this heap to you, and that you will not pass over this heap and this pillar to me, for harm. <sup>31:53</sup>The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us." Then Jacob swore by the fear of his father, Isaac. <sup>31:54</sup>Jacob offered a sacrifice in the mountain, and called his relatives to eat bread. They ate bread, and stayed all night in the mountain. <sup>31:55</sup>Early in the morning, Laban rose up, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them. Laban departed and returned to his place.

<sup>32:1</sup>Jacob went on his way, and the angels of God met him. <sup>32:2</sup>When he saw them, Jacob said, "This is God's army." He called the name of that place Mahanaim.

<sup>32:11</sup>Please deliver me from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau: for I fear him, lest he come and strike me, and the mothers with the children. <sup>32:12</sup>You said, 'I will surely do you good, and make your seed as the sand of the sea, which can't be numbered because there are so many.'"

<sup>32:13</sup>He lodged there that night, and took from that which he had with him, a present for Esau, his brother: <sup>32:14</sup>two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams, <sup>32:15</sup>thirty milk camels and their colts, forty cows, ten bulls, twenty female donkeys and ten foals. <sup>32:16</sup>He delivered them into the hands of his servants, every herd by itself, and said to his servants, "Pass over before me, and put a space between herd and herd." <sup>32:17</sup>He commanded the foremost, saying, "When Esau, my brother, meets you, and asks you, saying, 'Whose are you? Where are you going? Whose are these before you?' <sup>32:18</sup>Then you shall say, 'They are your servant, Jacob's. It is a present sent to my lord, Esau. Behold, he also is behind us.'" <sup>32:19</sup>He commanded also the second, and the third, and all that followed the herds, saying, "This is how you shall speak to Esau, when you find him. <sup>32:20</sup>You shall say, 'Not only that, but behold, your servant, Jacob, is behind us.'" For, he said, "I will appease him with the present that goes before me, and afterward I will see his face. Perhaps he will accept me."

<sup>32:22</sup>He rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two handmaids, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of the Jabbok. <sup>32:23</sup>He took them, and sent them over the stream, and sent over that which he had. <sup>32:24</sup>Jacob was left alone, and wrestled with a man there until the breaking of the day. <sup>32:25</sup>When he saw that he didn't prevail against him, he touched the hollow of his thigh, and the hollow of Jacob's thigh was strained, as he wrestled. <sup>32:26</sup>The man said, "Let me go, for the day breaks."

Jacob said, "I won't let you go, unless you bless me."

<sup>32:27</sup>He said to him, "What is your name?"

He said, "Jacob." <sup>32:28</sup>He said, "Your name will no longer be called Jacob, but Israel; for you have fought with God and with men, and have prevailed."

He said, "Why is it that you ask what my name is?" He blessed him there.

<sup>32:30</sup>Jacob called the name of the place Peniel<sup>s</sup>: for, he said, "I have seen God face to face, and my life is preserved." <sup>32:31</sup>The sun rose on him as he passed over Peniel, and he limped because of his thigh. <sup>32:32</sup>Therefore the children of Israel don't eat the sinew of the hip, which is on the hollow of the thigh, to this day, because he touched the hollow of Jacob's thigh in the sinew of the hip.

<sup>33:4</sup>Esau ran to meet him, embraced him, fell on his neck, kissed him, and they wept. <sup>33:5</sup>He lifted up his eyes, and saw the women and the children; and said, "Who are these with you?"

He said, "The children whom God has graciously given your servant." <sup>33:6</sup>Then the handmaids came near with their children, and they bowed themselves. <sup>33:7</sup>Leah also and her children came near, and bowed themselves. After them, Joseph came near with Rachel, and they bowed themselves.

<sup>33:8</sup>Esau said, "What do you mean by all this company which I met?"

Jacob said, "To find favor in the sight of my lord."

<sup>33:10</sup>Jacob said, "Please, no, if I have now found favor in your sight, then receive my present at my hand, because I have seen your face, as one sees the face of God, and you were pleased with me. <sup>33:11</sup>Please take the gift that I brought to you, because God has dealt graciously with me, and because I have enough." He urged him, and he took it.

<sup>33:12</sup>Esau said, "Let us take our journey, and let us go, and I will go before you."

<sup>33:13</sup>Jacob said to him, "My lord knows that the children are tender, and that the flocks and herds with me have their young, and if they overdrive them one day, all the flocks will die. <sup>33:14</sup>Please let my lord pass over before his servant, and I will lead on gently, according to the pace of the livestock that are before me and according to the pace of the children, until I come to my lord to Seir."

He said, "Why? Let me find favor in the sight of my lord."

them, saying, "The soul of my son, Shechem, longs for your daughter. Please give her to him as a wife. <sup>34:9</sup>Make marriages with us. Give your daughters to us, and take our daughters for yourselves. <sup>34:10</sup>You shall dwell with us, and the land will be before you. Live and trade in it, and get possessions in it."

<sup>34:11</sup>Shechem said to her father and to her brothers, "Let me find favor in your eyes, and whatever you will tell me I will give. <sup>34:12</sup>Ask me a great amount for a dowry, and I will give whatever you ask of me, but give me the young lady as a wife."

<sup>34:13</sup>The sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father with deceit, and spoke, because he had defiled Dinah their sister, <sup>34:14</sup>and said to them, "We can't do this thing, to give our sister to one who is uncircumcised; for that is a reproach to us. <sup>34:15</sup>Only on this condition will we consent to you. If you will be as we are, that every male of you be circumcised; <sup>34:16</sup>then will we give our daughters to you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people. <sup>34:17</sup>But if you will not listen to us, to be circumcised, then we will take our sister,<sup>v</sup> and we will be gone."

every male was circumcised, all who went out of the gate of his city. <sup>34:25</sup>It happened on the third day, when they were sore, that two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, each took his sword, came upon the unsuspecting city, and killed all the males. <sup>34:26</sup>They killed Hamor and Shechem, his son, with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechem's house, and went away. <sup>34:27</sup>Jacob's sons came on the dead, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their sister. <sup>34:28</sup>They took their flocks, their herds, their donkeys, that which was in the city, that which was in the field, <sup>34:29</sup>and all their wealth. They took captive all their little ones and their wives, and took as plunder everything that was in the house. <sup>34:30</sup>Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have troubled me, to make me odious to the inhabitants of the land, among the Canaanites and the Perizzites. I am few in number. They will gather themselves together against me and strike me, and I will be destroyed, I and my house."

<sup>35:1</sup>God said to Jacob, "Arise, go up to Bethel, and live there. Make there an altar to God, who appeared to you when you fled from the face of Esau your brother."

<sup>35:2</sup>Then Jacob said to his household, and to all who were with him, "Put away the foreign gods that are among you, purify yourselves, change your garments. <sup>35:3</sup>Let us arise, and go up to Bethel. I will make there an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went."

<sup>35:4</sup>They gave to Jacob all the foreign gods which were in their hands, and the rings which were in their ears; and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem. <sup>35:5</sup>They traveled, and a terror of God was on the cities that were around them, and they didn't pursue the sons of Jacob. <sup>35:6</sup>So Jacob came to Luz (that is, Bethel), which is in the land of Canaan, he and all the people who were with him. <sup>35:7</sup>He built an altar there, and called the place El Beth El; because there God was revealed to him, when he fled from the face of his brother. <sup>35:8</sup>Deborah, Rebekah's nurse, died, and she was buried below Bethel under the oak; and its name was called Allon Bacuth.

<sup>35:9</sup>God appeared to Jacob again, when he came from Paddan Aram, and blessed him.

<sup>35:10</sup>God said to him, "Your name is Jacob. Your name shall not be Jacob any more, but your name will be Israel." He named him Israel.

<sup>35:11</sup>God said to him, "I am God Almighty. Be fruitful and multiply. A nation and a company of nations will be from you, and kings will come out of your body. <sup>35:12</sup>The land which I gave to Abraham and Isaac, I will give it to you, and to your seed after you will I give the land."

<sup>35:13</sup>God went up from him in the place where he spoke with him. <sup>35:14</sup>Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he spoke with him, a pillar of stone. He poured out a drink offering on it, and poured oil on it. <sup>35:15</sup>Jacob called the name of the place where God spoke with him "Bethel."

Now the sons of Jacob were twelve. <sup>35:23</sup>The sons of Leah: Reuben (Jacob's firstborn), Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, and Zebulun. <sup>35:24</sup>The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin. <sup>35:25</sup>The sons of Bilhah (Rachel's handmaid): Dan and Naphtali. <sup>35:26</sup>The sons of Zilpah (Leah's handmaid): Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram. <sup>35:27</sup>Jacob came to Isaac his father, to Mamre, to Kiriath Arba (which is Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac lived as foreigners.

Magdiel, and chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their habitations in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of the Edomites.

<sup>37:8</sup>His brothers said to him, "Will you indeed reign over us? Or will you indeed have dominion over us?" They hated him all the more for his dreams and for his words. <sup>37:9</sup>He dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his brothers, and said, "Behold, I have dreamed yet another dream: and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me." <sup>37:10</sup>He told it to his father and to his brothers. His father rebuked him, and said to him, "What is this dream that you have dreamed? Will I and your mother and your brothers indeed come to bow ourselves down to you to the earth?" <sup>37:11</sup>His brothers envied him, but his father kept this saying in mind.

<sup>37:12</sup>His brothers went to feed their father's flock in Shechem. <sup>37:13</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "Aren't your brothers feeding the flock in Shechem? Come, and I will send you to them." He said to him, "Here I am."

<sup>37:14</sup>He said to him, "Go now, see whether it is well with your brothers, and well with the flock; and bring me word again." So he sent him out of the valley of Hebron, and he came to Shechem. <sup>37:15</sup>A certain man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the field. The man asked him, "What are you looking for?"

<sup>37:16</sup>He said, "I am looking for my brothers. Tell me, please, where they are feeding the flock."

Joseph went after his brothers, and found them in Dothan. <sup>37:18</sup>They saw him afar off, and before he came near to them, they conspired against him to kill him. <sup>37:19</sup>They said one to another, "Behold, this dreamer comes. <sup>37:20</sup>Come now therefore, and let's kill him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, 'An evil animal has devoured him.' We will see what will become of his dreams."

<sup>37:25</sup>They sat down to eat bread, and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites was coming from Gilead, with their camels bearing spices and balm and myrrh, going to carry it down to Egypt. <sup>37:26</sup>Judah said to his brothers, "What profit is it if we kill our brother and conceal his blood? <sup>37:27</sup>Come, and let's sell him to the Ishmaelites, and not let our hand be on him; for he is our brother, our flesh." His brothers listened to him. <sup>37:28</sup>Midianites who were merchants passed by, and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty pieces of silver. They brought Joseph into Egypt.

<sup>37:29</sup>Reuben returned to the pit; and saw that Joseph wasn't in the pit; and he tore his clothes. <sup>37:30</sup>He returned to his brothers, and said, "The child is no more; and I, where will I go?" <sup>37:31</sup>They took Joseph's coat, and killed a male goat, and dipped the coat in the blood. <sup>37:32</sup>They took the coat of many colors, and they brought it to their father, and said, "We have found this. Examine it, now, whether it is your son's coat or not."

son's coat. An evil animal has devoured him. Joseph is without doubt torn in pieces." <sup>37:34</sup>Jacob tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his waist, and mourned for his son many days. <sup>37:35</sup>All his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. He said, "For I will go down to Sheol<sup>y</sup> to my son mourning." His father wept for him. <sup>37:36</sup>The Midianites sold him into Egypt to Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard.

<sup>38:1</sup>It happened at that time, that Judah went down from his brothers, and visited a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah. <sup>38:2</sup>Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shua. He took her, and went in to her. <sup>38:3</sup>She conceived, and bore a son; and he named him Er. <sup>38:4</sup>She conceived again, and bore a son; and she named him Onan. <sup>38:5</sup>She yet again bore a son, and named him Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bore him. <sup>38:6</sup>Judah took a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar. <sup>38:7</sup>Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of the LORD. The LORD killed him. <sup>38:8</sup>Judah said to Onan, "Go in to your brother's wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her, and raise up seed to your brother." <sup>38:9</sup>Onan knew that the seed wouldn't be his; and it happened, when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest he should give seed to his brother. <sup>38:10</sup>The thing which he did was evil in the sight of the LORD, and he killed him also. <sup>38:11</sup>Then Judah said to Tamar, his daughter-in-law, "Remain a widow in your father's house, until Shelah, my son, is grown up;" for he said, "Lest he also die, like his brothers." Tamar went and lived in her father's house.

she had covered her face. <sup>38:16</sup>He turned to her by the way, and said, "Please come, let me come in to you," for he didn't know that she was his daughter-in-law.

She said, "What will you give me, that you may come in to me?"

<sup>38:17</sup>He said, "I will send you a young goat from the flock."

She said, "Will you give me a pledge, until you send it?"

<sup>38:18</sup>He said, "What pledge will I give you?"

She said, "Your signet and your cord, and your staff that is in your hand."

He gave them to her, and came in to her, and she conceived by him. <sup>38:19</sup>She arose, and went away, and put off her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood. <sup>38:20</sup>Judah sent the young goat by the hand of his friend, the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand, but he didn't find her. <sup>38:21</sup>Then he asked the men of her place, saying, "Where is the prostitute, that was at Enaim by the road?"

They said, "There has been no prostitute here."

<sup>38:22</sup>He returned to Judah, and said, "I haven't found her; and also the men of the place said, 'There has been no prostitute here.'" <sup>38:23</sup>Judah said, "Let her keep it, lest we be shamed. Behold, I sent this young goat, and you haven't found her."

<sup>38:24</sup>It happened about three months later, that it was told Judah, saying, "Tamar, your daughter-in-law, has played the prostitute; and moreover, behold, she is with child by prostitution."

Judah said, "Bring her out, and let her be burnt." <sup>38:25</sup>When she was brought out, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, "By the man, whose these are, I am with child." She also said, "Please discern whose are these—the signet, and the cords, and the staff."

He knew her again no more. <sup>38:27</sup>It happened in the time of her travail, that behold, twins were in her womb. <sup>38:28</sup>When she travailed, one put out a hand, and the midwife took and tied a scarlet thread on his hand, saying, "This came out first." <sup>38:29</sup>It happened, as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out, and she said, "Why have you made a breach for yourself?" Therefore his name was called Perez.<sup>z</sup> <sup>38:30</sup>Afterward his brother came out, that had the scarlet thread on his hand, and his name was called Zerah.<sup>a</sup>

<sup>39:1</sup>Joseph was brought down to Egypt. Potiphar, an officer of Pharaoh's, the captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him from the hand of the Ishmaelites that had brought him down there. <sup>39:2</sup>The LORD was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man. He was in the house of his master the Egyptian. <sup>39:3</sup>His master saw that the LORD was with him, and that the LORD made all that he did prosper in his hand. <sup>39:4</sup>Joseph found favor in his sight. He ministered to him, and he made him overseer over his house, and all that he had he put into his hand. <sup>39:5</sup>It happened from the time that he made him overseer in his house, and over all that he had, that the LORD blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of the LORD was on all that he had, in the house and in the field. <sup>39:6</sup>He left all that he had in Joseph's hand. He didn't concern himself with anything, except for the food which he ate.

Joseph was well-built and handsome. <sup>39:7</sup>It happened after these things, that his master's wife cast her eyes on Joseph; and she said, "Lie with me."

<sup>39:8</sup>But he refused, and said to his master's wife, "Behold, my master doesn't know what is with me in the house, and he has put all that he has into my hand. <sup>39:9</sup>He isn't greater in this house than I, neither has he kept back anything from me but you, because you are his wife. How then can I do this great wickedness, and sin against God?"

He left his garment in her hand, and ran outside. <sup>39:13</sup>When she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, and had run outside, <sup>39:14</sup>she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, "Behold, he has brought in a Hebrew to us to mock us. He came in to me to lie with me, and I cried with a loud voice. <sup>39:15</sup>It happened, when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment by me, and ran outside." <sup>39:16</sup>She laid up his garment by her, until his master came home. <sup>39:17</sup>She spoke to him according to these words, saying, "The Hebrew servant, whom you have brought to us, came in to me to mock me, <sup>39:18</sup>and it happened, as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment by me, and ran outside."

Joseph said to them, “Don’t interpretations belong to God? Please tell it to me.”

<sup>40:9</sup>The chief cupbearer told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, “In my dream, behold, a vine was in front of me, <sup>40:10</sup>and in the vine were three branches. It was as though it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters produced ripe grapes. <sup>40:11</sup>Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh’s cup, and I gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand.”

<sup>40:12</sup>Joseph said to him, “This is its interpretation: the three branches are three days. <sup>40:13</sup>Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head, and restore you to your office. You will give Pharaoh’s cup into his hand, the way you did when you were his cupbearer. <sup>40:14</sup>But remember me when it will be well with you, and please show kindness to me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this house. <sup>40:15</sup>For indeed, I was stolen away out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.”

<sup>40:16</sup>When the chief baker saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, “I also was in my dream, and behold, three baskets of white bread were on my head. <sup>40:17</sup>In the uppermost basket there was all kinds of baked food for Pharaoh, and the birds ate them out of the basket on my head.”

<sup>40:18</sup>Joseph answered, “This is its interpretation. The three baskets are three days. <sup>40:19</sup>Within three more days, Pharaoh will lift up your head from off you, and will hang you on a tree; and the birds will eat your flesh from off you.” <sup>40:20</sup>It happened the third day, which was Pharaoh’s birthday, that he made a feast for all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief cupbearer and the head of the chief baker among his servants. <sup>40:21</sup>He restored the chief cupbearer to his position again, and he gave the cup into Pharaoh’s hand; <sup>40:22</sup>but he hanged the chief baker, as Joseph had interpreted to them. <sup>40:23</sup>Yet the chief cupbearer didn’t remember Joseph, but forgot him.

fed in the marsh grass. <sup>41:3</sup>Behold, seven other cattle came up after them out of the river, ugly and thin, and stood by the other cattle on the brink of the river. <sup>41:4</sup>The ugly and thin cattle ate up the seven sleek and fat cattle. So Pharaoh awoke. <sup>41:5</sup>He slept and dreamed a second time: and behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, healthy and good. <sup>41:6</sup>Behold, seven heads of grain, thin and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. <sup>41:7</sup>The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven healthy and full ears. Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream. <sup>41:8</sup>It happened in the morning that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all of Egypt’s magicians and wise men. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but there was no one who could interpret them to Pharaoh.

<sup>41:14</sup>Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. He shaved himself, changed his clothing, and came in to Pharaoh. <sup>41:15</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I have dreamed a dream, and there is no one who can interpret it. I have heard it said of you, that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

had eaten them up, it couldn't be known that they had eaten them, but they were still ugly, as at the beginning. So I awoke. <sup>41:22</sup>I saw in my dream, and behold, seven heads of grain came up on one stalk, full and good: <sup>41:23</sup>and behold, seven heads of grain, withered, thin, and blasted with the east wind, sprung up after them. <sup>41:24</sup>The thin heads of grain swallowed up the seven good heads of grain. I told it to the magicians, but there was no one who could explain it to me."

of God?" <sup>41:39</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Because God has shown you all of this, there is none so discreet and wise as you. <sup>41:40</sup>You shall be over my house, and according to your word will all my people be ruled. Only in the throne I will be greater than you." <sup>41:41</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Behold, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." <sup>41:42</sup>Pharaoh took off his signet ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in robes of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck, <sup>41:43</sup>and he made him to ride in the second chariot which he had. They cried before him, "Bow the knee!" He set him over all the land of Egypt. <sup>41:44</sup>Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, and without you shall no man lift up his hand or his foot in all the land of Egypt." <sup>41:45</sup>Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphenath-Paneah; and he gave him Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On as a wife. Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.

<sup>41:46</sup>Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. Joseph went out from the presence of Pharaoh, and went throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>41:47</sup>In the seven plenteous years the earth produced abundantly. <sup>41:48</sup>He gathered up all the food of the seven years which were in the land of Egypt, and laid up the food in the cities: the food of the field, which was around every city, he laid up in the same. <sup>41:49</sup>Joseph laid up grain as the sand of the sea, very much, until he stopped counting, for it was without number. <sup>41:50</sup>To Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, whom Asenath, the daughter of Potiphera priest of On, bore to him. <sup>41:51</sup>Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh,<sup>b</sup> "For," he said, "God has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's house." <sup>41:52</sup>The name of the second, he called Ephraim<sup>c</sup>: "For God has made me fruitful in the land of my affliction."

<sup>41:53</sup>The seven years of plenty, that were in the land of Egypt, came to an end. <sup>41:54</sup>The seven years of famine began to come, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all lands, but in all the land of Egypt there was bread. <sup>41:55</sup>When all the land of Egypt was famished, the people cried to Pharaoh for bread, and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians,

"Go to Joseph. What he says to you, do."<sup>41:56</sup>The famine was over all the surface of the earth. Joseph opened all the store houses, and sold to the Egyptians. The famine was severe in the land of Egypt.<sup>41:57</sup>All countries came into Egypt, to Joseph, to buy grain, because the famine was severe in all the earth.

<sup>42:1</sup>Now Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, "Why do you look at one another?"<sup>42:2</sup>He said, "Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there, and buy for us from there, so that we may live, and not die."<sup>42:3</sup>Joseph's ten brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.<sup>42:4</sup>But Jacob didn't send Benjamin, Joseph's brother, with his brothers; for he said, "Lest perhaps harm happen to him."<sup>42:5</sup>The sons of Israel came to buy among those who came, for the famine was in the land of Canaan.<sup>42:6</sup>Joseph was the governor over the land. It was he who sold to all the people of the land. Joseph's brothers came, and bowed themselves down to him with their faces to the earth.<sup>42:7</sup>Joseph saw his brothers, and he recognized them, but acted like a stranger to them, and spoke roughly with them. He said to them, "Where did you come from?"

They said, "From the land of Canaan to buy food."

<sup>42:8</sup>Joseph recognized his brothers, but they didn't recognize him.<sup>42:9</sup>Joseph remembered the dreams which he dreamed about them, and said to them, "You are spies! You have come to see the nakedness of the land."

<sup>42:10</sup>They said to him, "No, my lord, but your servants have come to buy food."<sup>42:11</sup>We are all one man's sons; we are honest men. Your servants are not spies."

<sup>42:12</sup>He said to them, "No, but you have come to see the nakedness of the land!"

surely you are spies."<sup>42:17</sup>He put them all together into custody for three days.

<sup>42:18</sup>Joseph said to them the third day, "Do this, and live, for I fear God."<sup>42:19</sup>If you are honest men, then let one of your brothers be bound in your prison; but you go, carry grain for the famine of your houses.<sup>42:20</sup>Bring your youngest brother to me; so will your words be verified, and you won't die."

They did so.<sup>42:21</sup>They said one to another, "We are certainly guilty concerning our brother, in that we saw the distress of his soul, when he begged us, and we wouldn't listen. Therefore this distress has come upon us."<sup>42:22</sup>Reuben answered them, saying, "Didn't I tell you, saying, 'Don't sin against the child,' and you wouldn't listen? Therefore also, behold, his blood is required."<sup>42:23</sup>They didn't know that Joseph understood them; for there was an interpreter between them.<sup>42:24</sup>He turned himself away from them, and wept. Then he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.<sup>42:25</sup>Then Joseph gave a command to fill their bags with grain, and to restore each man's money into his sack, and to give them food for the way. So it was done to them.

men. So I will deliver your brother to you, and you shall trade in the land.”

<sup>42:35</sup>It happened as they emptied their sacks, that behold, each man’s bundle of money was in his sack. When they and their father saw their bundles of money, they were afraid. <sup>42:36</sup>Jacob, their father, said to them, “You have bereaved me of my children! Joseph is no more, Simeon is no more, and you want to take Benjamin away. All these things are against me.”

<sup>42:37</sup>Reuben spoke to his father, saying, “Kill my two sons, if I don’t bring him to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him to you again.”

<sup>42:38</sup>He said, “My son shall not go down with you; for his brother is dead, and he only is left. If harm happens to him along the way in which you go, then you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol<sup>d</sup>.”

<sup>43:7</sup>They said, “The man asked directly concerning ourselves, and concerning our relatives, saying, ‘Is your father still alive? Have you another brother?’ We just answered his questions. Is there any way we could know that he would say, ‘Bring your brother down?’”

<sup>43:8</sup>Judah said to Israel, his father, “Send the boy with me, and we’ll get up and go, so that we may live, and not die, both we, and you, and also our little ones. <sup>43:9</sup>I’ll be collateral for him. From my hand will you require him. If I don’t bring him to you, and set him before you, then let me bear the blame forever, <sup>43:10</sup>for if we hadn’t delayed, surely we would have returned a second time by now.”

<sup>43:17</sup>The man did as Joseph commanded, and the man brought the men to Joseph’s house. <sup>43:18</sup>The men were afraid, because they were brought to Joseph’s house; and they said, “Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, we’re brought in; that he may seek occasion against us, attack us, and seize us as slaves, along with our donkeys.” <sup>43:19</sup>They came near to the steward of Joseph’s house, and they spoke to him at the door of the house, <sup>43:20</sup>and said, “Oh, my lord, we indeed came down the first time to buy food. <sup>43:21</sup>When we came to the lodging place, we opened our sacks, and behold, each man’s money was in the mouth of his sack, our money in full weight. We have brought it back in our hand. <sup>43:22</sup>We have brought down other money in our hand to buy food. We don’t know who put our money in our sacks.”

<sup>43:23</sup>He said, “Peace be to you. Don’t be afraid. Your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks. I received your money.” He brought Simeon out to them. <sup>43:24</sup>The man brought the men into Joseph’s house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet. He gave their donkeys fodder. <sup>43:25</sup>They prepared the present for Joseph’s coming at noon, for they heard that they should eat bread there.

<sup>43:26</sup>When Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hand into the house, and bowed themselves down to him to the earth. <sup>43:27</sup>He asked them of their welfare, and said, "Is your father well, the old man of whom you spoke? Is he yet alive?"

<sup>43:28</sup>They said, "Your servant, our father, is well. He is still alive." They bowed down humbly. <sup>43:29</sup>He lifted up his eyes, and saw Benjamin, his brother, his mother's son, and said, "Is this your youngest brother, of whom you spoke to me?" He said, "God be gracious to you, my son." <sup>43:30</sup>Joseph hurried, for his heart yearned over his brother; and he sought a place to weep. He entered into his room, and wept there. <sup>43:31</sup>He washed his face, and came out. He controlled himself, and said, "Serve the meal."

<sup>43:32</sup>They served him by himself, and them by themselves, and the Egyptians, that ate with him, by themselves, because the Egyptians don't eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination to the Egyptians. <sup>43:33</sup>They sat before him, the firstborn according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth, and the men marveled one with another. <sup>43:34</sup>He sent portions to them from before him, but Benjamin's portion was five times as much as any of theirs. They drank, and were merry with him.

<sup>44:1</sup>He commanded the steward of his house, saying, "Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry, and put each man's money in his sack's mouth. <sup>44:2</sup>Put my cup, the silver cup, in the sack's mouth of the youngest, with his grain money." He did according to the word that Joseph had spoken. <sup>44:3</sup>As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their donkeys. <sup>44:4</sup>When they had gone out of the city, and were not yet far off, Joseph said to his steward, "Up, follow after the men. When you overtake them, ask them, 'Why have you rewarded evil for good?' <sup>44:5</sup>Isn't this that from which my lord drinks, and by which he indeed divines? You have done evil in so doing.'" <sup>44:6</sup>He overtook them, and he spoke these words to them.

<sup>44:7</sup>They said to him, "Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from your servants that they should do such a thing! <sup>44:8</sup>Behold, the money, which we found in our sacks' mouths, we brought again to you out of the land of Canaan. How then should we steal silver or gold out of your lord's house?

<sup>44:10</sup>He said, "Now also let it be according to your words: he with whom it is found will be my bondservant; and you will be blameless."

<sup>44:14</sup>Judah and his brothers came to Joseph's house, and he was still there. They fell on the ground before him. <sup>44:15</sup>Joseph said to them, "What deed is this that you have done? Don't you know that such a man as I can indeed divine?"

<sup>44:16</sup>Judah said, "What will we tell my lord? What will we speak? Or how will we clear ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of your servants. Behold, we are my lord's bondservants, both we, and he also in whose hand the cup is found."

<sup>44:17</sup>He said, "Far be it from me that I should do so. The man in whose hand the cup is found, he will be my bondservant; but as for you, go up in peace to your father."

<sup>44:18</sup>Then Judah came near to him, and said, "Oh, my lord, please let your servant speak a word in my lord's ears, and don't let your anger burn against your servant; for you are even as Pharaoh. <sup>44:19</sup>My lord asked his servants, saying, 'Have you a father, or a brother?' <sup>44:20</sup>We said to my lord, 'We have a father, an old man, and a child of his old age, a little one; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his father loves him.' <sup>44:21</sup>You said to your servants, 'Bring him down to me, that I may set my eyes on him.' <sup>44:22</sup>We said to my lord, 'The boy can't leave his father: for if he should leave his father, his father would die.' <sup>44:23</sup>You said to your servants, 'Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will see my face no more.' <sup>44:24</sup>It happened when we came up to your servant my father, we told him the words of my lord. <sup>44:25</sup>Our father said, 'Go again, buy us a little food.’ <sup>44:26</sup>We said, ‘We can’t go down. If our youngest brother is with us, then we will go down: for we may not see the man’s face, unless our youngest brother is with us.’ <sup>44:27</sup>Your servant, my father, said to us, ‘You know that my wife bore me two sons: <sup>44:28</sup>and the one went out from me, and I said, “Surely he is torn in pieces;” and I haven’t seen him since. <sup>44:29</sup>If you take this one also from me, and harm happens to him, you will bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to Sheol<sup>e</sup>.’ <sup>44:30</sup>Now therefore when I come to your servant my father, and the boy is not with us; since his life is bound up in the boy’s life; <sup>44:31</sup>it will happen, when he sees that the boy is no more, that he will die. Your servants will bring down the gray hairs of your servant, our father, with sorrow to Sheol<sup>f</sup>. <sup>44:32</sup>For your servant became collateral for the boy to my father, saying, ‘If I don’t bring him to you, then I will bear the blame to my father forever.’ <sup>44:33</sup>Now therefore, please let your servant stay instead of the boy, a bondservant to my lord; and let the boy go up with his brothers. <sup>44:34</sup>For how will I go up to my father, if the boy isn’t with me?—lest I see the evil that will come on my father.”

His brothers couldn’t answer him; for they were terrified at his presence. <sup>45:4</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “Come near to me, please.”

They came near. “He said, I am Joseph, your brother, whom you sold into Egypt. <sup>45:5</sup>Now don’t be grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that you sold me here, for God sent me before you to preserve life. <sup>45:6</sup>For these two years the famine has been in the land, and there are yet five years, in which there will be neither plowing nor harvest. <sup>45:7</sup>God sent me before you to preserve for you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great deliverance. <sup>45:8</sup>So now it wasn’t you who sent me here, but God, and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, lord of all his house, and ruler over all the land of Egypt. <sup>45:9</sup>Hurry, and go up to my father, and tell him, ‘This is what your son Joseph says, “God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me. Don’t wait. <sup>45:10</sup>You shall dwell in the land of Goshen, and you will be near to me, you, your children, your children’s children, your flocks, your herds, and all that you have. <sup>45:11</sup>There I will nourish you; for there are yet five years of famine; lest you come to poverty, you, and your household, and all that you have.”’ <sup>45:12</sup>Behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaks to you. <sup>45:13</sup>You shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen. You shall hurry and bring my father down here.” <sup>45:14</sup>He fell on his brother Benjamin’s neck, and wept, and Benjamin wept on his neck. <sup>45:15</sup>He kissed all his brothers, and wept on them. After that his brothers talked with him.

<sup>45:21</sup>The sons of Israel did so. Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way. <sup>45:22</sup>He gave each one of them changes of clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver and five changes of clothing. <sup>45:23</sup>He sent the following to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the good things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and provision for his father by the way. <sup>45:24</sup>So he sent his brothers away, and they departed. He said to them, “See that you don’t quarrel on the way.”

into the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father. <sup>45:26</sup>They told him, saying, "Joseph is still alive, and he is ruler over all the land of Egypt." His heart fainted, for he didn't believe them. <sup>45:27</sup>They told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said to them. When he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob, their father, revived. <sup>45:28</sup>Israel said, "It is enough. Joseph my son is still alive. I will go and see him before I die."

<sup>46:1</sup>Israel traveled with all that he had, and came to Beersheba, and offered sacrifices to the God of his father, Isaac. <sup>46:2</sup>God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night, and said, "Jacob, Jacob!"

He said, "Here I am."

<sup>46:3</sup>He said, "I am God, the God of your father. Don't be afraid to go down into Egypt, for there I will make of you a great nation. <sup>46:4</sup>I will go down with you into Egypt. I will also surely bring you up again. Joseph will close your eyes."

<sup>46:5</sup>Jacob rose up from Beersheba, and the sons of Israel carried Jacob, their father, their little ones, and their wives, in the wagons which Pharaoh had sent to carry him. <sup>46:6</sup>They took their livestock, and their goods, which they had gotten in the land of Canaan, and came into Egypt—Jacob, and all his seed with him, <sup>46:7</sup>his sons, and his sons' sons with him, his daughters, and his sons' daughters, and he brought all his seed with him into Egypt.

sister. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.

of Rachel, Jacob's wife: Joseph and Benjamin.

Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim, and Ard. <sup>46:22</sup>These are the sons of Rachel, who were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen. <sup>46:23</sup>The son of Dan: Hushim.

and Shillem. <sup>46:25</sup>These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel, his daughter, and these she bore to Jacob: all the souls were seven. <sup>46:26</sup>All the souls who came with Jacob into Egypt, who were his direct descendants, besides Jacob's sons' wives, all the souls were sixty-six. <sup>46:27</sup>The sons of Joseph, who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob, who came into Egypt, were seventy.

to show the way before him to Goshen, and they came into the land of Goshen. <sup>46:29</sup>Joseph prepared his chariot, and went up to meet Israel, his father, in Goshen. He presented himself to him, and fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while. <sup>46:30</sup>Israel said to

Joseph, "Now let me die, since I have seen your face, that you are still alive."

<sup>46:31</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, and to his father's house, "I will go up, and speak with

Pharaoh, and will tell him, 'My brothers, and my father's house, who were in the land of Canaan, have come to me. <sup>46:32</sup>These men are shepherds, for they have been keepers of livestock, and they have brought their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have.' <sup>46:33</sup>It will happen, when Pharaoh summons you, and will say, 'What is your occupation?' <sup>46:34</sup>that you shall say, 'Your servants have been keepers of livestock from our youth even until now, both we, and our fathers:' that you may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians."

<sup>47:1</sup>Then Joseph went in and told Pharaoh, and said, "My father and my brothers, with their flocks, their herds, and all that they own, have come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen." <sup>47:2</sup>From among his brothers he took five men, and presented them to Pharaoh. <sup>47:3</sup>Pharaoh said to his brothers, "What is your occupation?"

They said to Pharaoh, "Your servants are shepherds, both we, and our fathers." <sup>47:4</sup>They said to Pharaoh, "We have come to live as foreigners in the land, for there is no pasture for your servants' flocks. For the famine is severe in the land of Canaan. Now therefore, please let your servants dwell in the land of Goshen."

<sup>47:5</sup>Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, "Your father and your brothers have come to you. <sup>47:6</sup>The land of Egypt is before you. Make your father and your brothers dwell in the best of the land. Let them dwell in the land of Goshen. If you know any able men among them, then put them in charge of my livestock."

<sup>47:7</sup>Joseph brought in Jacob, his father, and set him before Pharaoh, and Jacob blessed Pharaoh. <sup>47:8</sup>Pharaoh said to Jacob, "How many are the days of the years of your life?"

<sup>47:9</sup>Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The days of the years of my pilgrimage are one hundred thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they have not attained to the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage." <sup>47:10</sup>Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from the presence of Pharaoh.

<sup>47:11</sup>Joseph placed his father and his brothers, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. <sup>47:12</sup>Joseph nourished his father, his brothers, and all of his father's household, with bread, according to their families.

<sup>47:13</sup>There was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very severe, so that the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. <sup>47:14</sup>Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house. <sup>47:15</sup>When the money was all spent in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, and said, "Give us bread, for why should we die in your presence? For our money fails."

<sup>47:17</sup>They brought their livestock to Joseph, and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for the horses, and for the flocks, and for the herds, and for the donkeys: and he fed them with bread in exchange for all their livestock for that year. <sup>47:18</sup>When that year was ended, they came to him the second year, and said to him, "We will not hide from my lord how our money is all spent, and the herds of livestock are my lord's. There is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands. <sup>47:19</sup>Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants to Pharaoh. Give us seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land won't be desolate."

<sup>47:26</sup>Joseph made it a statute concerning the land of Egypt to this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth. Only the land of the priests alone didn't become Pharaoh's.

<sup>47:27</sup>Israel lived in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they got themselves possessions therein, and were fruitful, and multiplied exceedingly. <sup>47:28</sup>Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years. So the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were one hundred forty-seven years. <sup>47:29</sup>The time drew near that Israel must die, and he called his son Joseph, and said to him, "If now I have found favor in your sight, please put your hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me. Please don't bury me in Egypt, <sup>47:30</sup>but when I sleep with my fathers, you shall carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their burying place."

He said, "I will do as you have said."

<sup>48:1</sup>It happened after these things, that someone said to Joseph, "Behold, your father is sick." He took with him his two sons, Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>48:2</sup>Someone told Jacob, and said, "Behold, your son Joseph comes to you," and Israel strengthened himself, and sat on the bed. <sup>48:3</sup>Jacob said to Joseph, "God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and blessed me, <sup>48:4</sup>and said to me, 'Behold, I will make you fruitful, and multiply you, and I will make of you a company of peoples, and will give this land to your seed after you for an everlasting possession.' <sup>48:5</sup>Now your two sons, who were born to you in the land of Egypt before I came to you into Egypt, are mine; Ephraim and Manasseh, even as Reuben and Simeon, will be mine. <sup>48:6</sup>Your issue, whom you become the father of after them, will be yours. They will be called after the name of their brothers in their inheritance. <sup>48:7</sup>As for me, when I came from Paddan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan in the way, when there was still some distance to come to Ephrath, and I buried her there in the way to Ephrath (the same is Bethlehem)."

He said, "Please bring them to me, and I will bless them." <sup>48:10</sup>Now the eyes of Israel were dim for age, so that he couldn't see. He brought them near to him; and he kissed them, and embraced them. <sup>48:11</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "I didn't think I would see your face, and behold, God has let me see your seed also."

his hands knowingly, for Manasseh was the firstborn. <sup>48:15</sup>He blessed Joseph, and said, "The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has fed me all my life long to this day, <sup>48:16</sup>the angel who has redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads, and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac. Let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth."

<sup>48:17</sup>When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it displeased him. He held up his father's hand, to remove it from Ephraim's head to Manasseh's head. <sup>48:18</sup>Joseph said to his father, "Not so, my father; for this is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head."

<sup>48:19</sup>His father refused, and said, "I know, my son, I know. He also will become a people, and he also will be great. However, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his seed will become a multitude of nations." <sup>48:20</sup>He blessed them that day, saying, "In you will Israel bless, saying, 'God make you as Ephraim and as Manasseh'" He set Ephraim before Manasseh. <sup>48:21</sup>Israel said to Joseph, "Behold, I am dying, but God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your fathers. <sup>48:22</sup>Moreover I have given to you one portion above your brothers, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow."

<sup>49:1</sup>Jacob called to his sons, and said: "Gather yourselves together, that I may tell you that which will happen to you in the days to come.

Listen to Israel, your father.

<sup>49:3</sup>"Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, and the beginning of my strength; excelling in dignity, and excelling in power.

<sup>49:4</sup>Boiling over as water, you shall not excel; because you went up to your father's bed, then defiled it. He went up to my couch.

My glory, don't be united to their assembly;

for in their anger they killed men.

In their self-will they hamstrung cattle.
<sup>49:7</sup> Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce;
 and their wrath, for it was cruel.
 I will divide them in Jacob,
 and scatter them in Israel.
<sup>49:8</sup> "Judah, your brothers will praise you.
 Your hand will be on the neck of your enemies.
 Your father's sons will bow down before you.
 From the prey, my son, you have gone up.
 He stooped down, he crouched as a lion,
 as a lioness.
 Who will rouse him up?
<sup>49:10</sup> The scepter will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler's staff from between his feet,
 until he comes to whom it belongs.
 To him will the obedience of the peoples be.
 his donkey's colt to the choice vine;
 he has washed his garments in wine,
 his robes in the blood of grapes.
<sup>49:12</sup> His eyes will be red with wine,
 He will be for a haven of ships.
 His border will be on Sidon.
<sup>49:14</sup> "Issachar is a strong donkey, lying down between the saddlebags.
<sup>49:15</sup> He saw a resting place, that it was good,
 the land, that it was pleasant.
 He bows his shoulder to the burden, and becomes a servant doing forced labor.
<sup>49:16</sup> "Dan will judge his people,
 as one of the tribes of Israel.
<sup>49:17</sup> Dan will be a serpent in the way,
 an adder in the path,
 That bites the horse's heels,
 so that his rider falls backward.
<sup>49:18</sup> I have waited for your salvation, LORD.
<sup>49:19</sup> "A troop will press on Gad,
 but he will press on their heel.
<sup>49:20</sup> "Asher's food will be rich.
 He will yield royal dainties.
<sup>49:21</sup> "Naphtali is a doe set free,
 who bears beautiful fawns.
 a fruitful vine by a spring.
 His branches run over the wall.

<sup>49:23</sup> The archers have severely grieved him, shot at him, and persecute him:
 The arms of his hands were made strong,
 by the hands of the Mighty One of Jacob, (from there is the shepherd, the stone of Israel),
<sup>49:25</sup> even by the God of your father, who will help you;
 by the Almighty, who will bless you,
 with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.
<sup>49:26</sup> The blessings of your father have prevailed above the blessings of your ancestors, above the boundaries of the ancient hills.
 They will be on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the head of him who is separated from his brothers.
 In the morning he will devour the prey.
 At evening he will divide the spoil."
<sup>49:28</sup> All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father spoke to them and blessed them. He blessed everyone according to his blessing. <sup>49:29</sup> He instructed them, and said to them, "I am to be gathered to my people.
 Bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite, <sup>49:30</sup> in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought with the field from Ephron the Hittite as a burial place. <sup>49:31</sup> There they buried Abraham and Sarah, his wife. There they buried Isaac and Rebekah, his wife, and there I buried Leah: <sup>49:32</sup> the field and the cave that is therein, which was purchased from the children of Heth." <sup>49:33</sup> When Jacob made an end of charging his sons, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the spirit, and was gathered to his people.
<sup>50:1</sup> Joseph fell on his father's face, wept on him, and kissed him. <sup>50:2</sup> Joseph commanded his servants, the physicians, to embalm his father; and the physicians embalmed Israel.
<sup>50:3</sup> Forty days were fulfilled for him, for that is how many the days it takes to embalm. The Egyptians wept for him for seventy days.
<sup>50:4</sup> When the days of weeping for him were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, "If now I have found favor in your eyes,
 please speak in the ears of Pharaoh, saying,

<sup>50:5</sup>My father made me swear, saying, “Behold, I am dying. Bury me in my grave which I have dug for myself in the land of Canaan.” Now therefore, please let me go up and bury my father, and I will come again.”

<sup>50:15</sup>When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “It may be that Joseph will hate us, and will fully pay us back for all of the evil which we did to him.”

<sup>50:16</sup>They sent a message to Joseph, saying, “Your father commanded before he died, saying, <sup>50:17</sup>‘You shall tell Joseph, “Now please forgive the disobedience of your brothers, and their sin, because they did evil to you.”’ Now, please forgive the disobedience of the servants of the God of your father.” Joseph wept when they spoke to him. <sup>50:18</sup>His brothers also went and fell down before his face; and they said, “Behold, we are your servants.” <sup>50:19</sup>Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid, for am I in the place of God? <sup>50:20</sup>As for you, you meant evil against me, but God meant it for good, to bring to pass, as it is this day, to save many people alive. <sup>50:21</sup>Now therefore don’t be afraid. I will nourish you and your little ones.” He comforted them, and spoke kindly to them.

<sup>50:22</sup>Joseph lived in Egypt, he, and his father’s house. Joseph lived one hundred ten years. <sup>50:23</sup>Joseph saw Ephraim’s children to the third generation. The children also of Machir, the son of Manasseh, were born on Joseph’s knees. <sup>50:24</sup>Joseph said to his brothers, “I am dying, but God will surely visit you, and bring you up out of this land to the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.” <sup>50:25</sup>Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, “God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones from here.” <sup>50:26</sup>So Joseph died, being one hundred ten years old, and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

<sup>1:15</sup>The king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives, of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah, <sup>1:16</sup>and he said, "When you perform the duty of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them on the birth stool; if it is a son, then you shall kill him; but if it is a daughter, then she shall live." <sup>1:17</sup>But the midwives feared God,<sup>a</sup> and didn't do what the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the baby boys alive. <sup>1:18</sup>The king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said to them, "Why have you done this thing, and have saved the boys alive?"

<sup>2:1</sup>A man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi as his wife. <sup>2:2</sup>The woman conceived, and bore a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months. <sup>2:3</sup>When she could no longer hide him, she took a papyrus basket for him, and coated it with tar and with pitch. She put the child in it, and laid it in the reeds by the river's bank. <sup>2:4</sup>His sister stood far off, to see what would be done to him. <sup>2:5</sup>Pharaoh's daughter came down to bathe at the river. Her maidens walked along by the riverside. She saw the basket among the reeds, and sent her handmaid to get it. <sup>2:6</sup>She opened it, and saw the child, and behold, the baby cried. She had compassion on him, and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

<sup>2:7</sup>Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Should I go and call a nurse for you from the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for you?"

The maiden went and called the child's mother. <sup>2:9</sup>Pharaoh's daughter said to her, "Take this child away, and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages."

The woman took the child, and nursed it. <sup>2:10</sup>The child grew, and she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. She named him Moses,<sup>b</sup> and said, "Because I drew him out of the water."

<sup>2:11</sup>It happened in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brothers, and looked at their burdens. He saw an Egyptian striking a Hebrew, one of his brothers. <sup>2:12</sup>He looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no one, he killed the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

<sup>2:13</sup>He went out the second day, and behold, two men of the Hebrews were fighting with each other. He said to him who did the wrong, "Why do you strike your fellow?"

<sup>2:14</sup>He said, "Who made you a prince and a judge over us? Do you plan to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian?"

Moses was afraid, and said, "Surely this thing is known." <sup>2:15</sup>Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to kill Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and lived in the land of Midian, and he sat down by a well.

<sup>2:16</sup>Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters. They came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock. <sup>2:17</sup>The shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock. <sup>2:18</sup>When they came to Reuel, their father, he said, "How is it that you have returned so early today?"

<sup>3:4</sup>When the LORD saw that he turned aside to see, God called to him out of the midst of the bush, and said, "Moses! Moses!"

<sup>d</sup>3:2 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>3:5</sup>He said, "Don't come close. Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place you are standing on is holy ground." <sup>3:6</sup>Moreover he said, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob."

Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look at God.

<sup>3:7</sup>The LORD said, "I have surely seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and have heard their cry because of their taskmasters, for I know their sorrows. <sup>3:8</sup>I have come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and large land, to a land flowing with milk and honey; to the place of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>3:9</sup>Now, behold, the cry of the children of Israel has come to me. Moreover I have seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress them. <sup>3:10</sup>Come now therefore, and I will send you to Pharaoh, that you may bring my people, the children of Israel, out of Egypt."

<sup>3:11</sup>Moses said to God, "Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh, and that I should bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?"

<sup>3:12</sup>He said, "Certainly I will be with you. This will be the token to you, that I have sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall serve God on this mountain."

<sup>3:13</sup>Moses said to God, "Behold, when I come to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you;' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' What should I tell them?"

<sup>3:14</sup>God said to Moses, "I AM WHO I AM," and he said, "You shall tell the children of Israel this: 'I AM has sent me to you.'" <sup>3:15</sup>God said moreover to Moses, "You shall tell the children of Israel this, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and this is my memorial to all generations. <sup>3:16</sup>Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and tell them, 'The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, has appeared to me, saying, 'I have surely visited you, and seen that which is done to you in Egypt; <sup>3:17</sup>and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt to the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, to a land flowing with milk and honey.” <sup>3:18</sup>They will listen to your voice, and you shall come, you and the elders of Israel, to the king of Egypt, and you shall tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Now please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the LORD, our God.’ <sup>3:19</sup>I know that the king of Egypt won’t give you permission to go, no, not by a mighty hand. <sup>3:20</sup>I will reach out my hand and strike Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in its midst, and after that he will let you go. <sup>3:21</sup>I will give this people favor in the sight of the Egyptians, and it will happen that when you go, you shall not go empty-handed. <sup>3:22</sup>But every woman shall ask of her neighbor, and of her who visits her house, jewels of silver, jewels of gold, and clothing; and you shall put them on your sons, and on your daughters. You shall plunder the Egyptians.”

<sup>4:1</sup>Moses answered, “But, behold, they will not believe me, nor listen to my voice; for they will say, ‘The LORD has not appeared to you.’”

<sup>4:2</sup>The LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?”

<sup>4:3</sup>He said, “Throw it on the ground.”

He threw it on the ground, and it became a snake; and Moses ran away from it.

<sup>4:4</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand, and take it by the tail.”

He stretched out his hand, and took hold of it, and it became a rod in his hand.

<sup>4:5</sup>“That they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has appeared to you.” <sup>4:6</sup>The LORD said furthermore to him, “Now put your hand inside your cloak.”

He put his hand inside his cloak, and when he took it out, behold, his hand was leprous, as white as snow.

He put his hand inside his cloak again, and when he took it out of his cloak, behold, it had turned again as his other flesh.

<sup>4:8</sup>“It will happen, if they will neither believe you nor listen to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the voice of the latter sign. <sup>4:9</sup>It will happen, if they will not believe even these two signs, neither listen to your voice, that you shall take of the water of the river, and pour it on the dry land. The water which you take out of the river will become blood on the dry land.”

<sup>4:11</sup>The LORD said to him, “Who made man’s mouth? Or who makes one mute, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? Isn’t it I, the LORD? <sup>4:12</sup>Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth, and teach you what you shall speak.”

<sup>4:14</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses, and he said, “What about Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Also, behold, he comes out to meet you. When he sees you, he will be glad in his heart. <sup>4:15</sup>You shall speak to him, and put the words in his mouth. I will be with your mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what you shall do. <sup>4:16</sup>He will be your spokesman to the people; and it will happen, that he will be to you a mouth, and you will be to him as God. <sup>4:17</sup>You shall take this rod in your hand, with which you shall do the signs.”

<sup>4:18</sup>Moses went and returned to Jethro his father-in-law, and said to him, “Please let me go and return to my brothers who are in Egypt, and see whether they are still alive.”

Jethro said to Moses, “Go in peace.”

<sup>4:20</sup>Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them on a donkey, and he returned to the land of Egypt. Moses took God’s rod in his hand. <sup>4:21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “When you go back into Egypt, see that you do before Pharaoh all the wonders which I have put in your hand, but I will harden his heart and he will not let the people go. <sup>4:22</sup>You shall tell Pharaoh, ‘Thus says the LORD, Israel is my son, my firstborn, <sup>4:23</sup>and I have said to you, ‘Let my son go, that he may serve me;’ and you have refused to

<sup>4:24</sup>It happened on the way at a lodging place, that the LORD met Moses and wanted to kill him. <sup>4:25</sup>Then Zipporah took a flint, and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet; and she said, “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me.”

He went, and met him on God’s mountain, and kissed him. <sup>4:28</sup>Moses told Aaron all the words of the LORD with which he had sent him, and all the signs with which he had instructed him. <sup>4:29</sup>Moses and Aaron went and gathered together all the elders of the children of Israel. <sup>4:30</sup>Aaron spoke all the words which the LORD had spoken to Moses, and did the signs in the sight of the people. <sup>4:31</sup>The people believed, and when they heard that the LORD had visited the children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshiped.

<sup>5:1</sup>Afterward Moses and Aaron came, and said to Pharaoh, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘Let my people go, that they may hold a feast to me in the wilderness.’”

<sup>5:2</sup>Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should listen to his voice to let Israel go? I don’t know the LORD, and moreover I will not let Israel go.”

<sup>5:3</sup>They said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Please let us go three days’ journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD, our God, lest he fall on us with pestilence, or with the sword.”

<sup>5:5</sup>Pharaoh said, “Behold, the people of the land are now many, and you make them rest from their burdens.” <sup>5:6</sup>The same day Pharaoh commanded the taskmasters of the people, and their officers, saying, <sup>5:7</sup>“You shall no longer give the people straw to make brick, as before. Let them go and gather straw for themselves.

<sup>5:8</sup>The number of the bricks, which they made before, you require from them. You shall not diminish anything of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’ <sup>5:9</sup>Let heavier work be laid on the men, that they may labor therein; and don’t let them pay any attention to lying words.”

<sup>5:17</sup>But he said, “You are idle! You are idle! Therefore you say, ‘Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.’ <sup>5:18</sup>Go therefore now, and work, for no straw shall be given to you, yet you shall deliver the same number of bricks!”

<sup>5:19</sup>The officers of the children of Israel saw that they were in trouble, when it was said, “You shall not diminish anything from your daily quota of bricks!”

<sup>5:20</sup>They met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came out from Pharaoh: <sup>5:21</sup>and they said to them, “May the LORD look at you, and judge, because you have made us a stench to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hand to kill us.”

<sup>5:22</sup>Moses returned to the LORD, and said, “Lord, why have you brought trouble on this people? Why is it that you have sent me? <sup>5:23</sup>For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble on this people; neither have you delivered your people at all.”

<sup>6:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Now you shall see what I will do to Pharaoh, for by a strong hand he shall let them go, and by a strong hand he shall drive them out of his land.”

am the LORD; <sup>6:3</sup>and I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, as God Almighty; but by my name the LORD I was not known to them. <sup>6:4</sup>I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their travels, in which they lived as aliens. <sup>6:5</sup>Moreover I have heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage, and I have remembered my covenant. <sup>6:6</sup>Therefore tell the children of Israel, 'I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm, and with great judgments: <sup>6:7</sup>and I will take you to me for a people, and I will be to you a God; and you shall know that I am the LORD your God, who brings you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians. <sup>6:8</sup>I will bring you into the land which I swore to give to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob; and I will give it to you for a heritage: I am the LORD.'"

<sup>6:12</sup>Moses spoke before the LORD, saying, "Behold, the children of Israel haven't listened to me. How then shall Pharaoh listen to me, who am of uncircumcised lips?" <sup>6:13</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a command to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>6:14</sup>These are the heads of their fathers' houses. The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi; these are the families of Reuben. <sup>6:15</sup>The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman; these are the families of Simeon. <sup>6:16</sup>These are the names of the sons of Levi according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari; and the years of the life of Levi were one hundred thirty-seven years. <sup>6:17</sup>The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, according to their families. <sup>6:18</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel; and the years of the life of Kohath were one hundred thirty-three years. <sup>6:19</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their generations. <sup>6:20</sup>Amram took Jochebed his father's sister to himself as wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses: and the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty-seven years. <sup>6:21</sup>The sons of Izhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zichri. <sup>6:22</sup>The sons of Uzziel: Mishael, and Elzaphan, and Sithri. <sup>6:23</sup>Aaron took Elisheba, the daughter of Amminadab, the sister of Nahshon, as his wife; and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>6:24</sup>The sons of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph; these are the families of the Korahites. <sup>6:25</sup>Eleazar Aaron's son took one of the daughters of Putiel as his wife; and she bore him Phinehas. These are the heads of the fathers' houses of the Levites according to their families. <sup>6:26</sup>These are that Aaron and Moses, to whom the LORD said, "Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their armies." <sup>6:27</sup>These are those who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt. These are that Moses and Aaron.

<sup>6:28</sup>It happened on the day when the LORD spoke to Moses in the land of Egypt, <sup>6:29</sup>that the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, "I am the LORD. Speak to Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I speak to you."

<sup>7:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I have made you as God to Pharaoh; and Aaron your brother shall be your prophet. <sup>7:2</sup>You shall speak all that I command you; and Aaron your brother shall speak to Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land. <sup>7:3</sup>I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt. <sup>7:4</sup>But Pharaoh will not listen to you, and I will lay my hand on Egypt, and bring out my armies, my people the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt by great judgments. <sup>7:5</sup>The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I stretch out my hand on Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them."

<sup>7:6</sup>Moses and Aaron did so. As the LORD commanded them, so they did. <sup>7:7</sup>Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.

<sup>7:8</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>7:9</sup>“When Pharaoh speaks to you, saying, ‘Perform a miracle!’ then you shall tell Aaron, ‘Take your rod, and cast it down before Pharaoh, that it become a serpent.’”

<sup>7:10</sup>Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and they did so, as the LORD had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh and before his servants, and it became a serpent. <sup>7:11</sup>Then Pharaoh also called for the wise men and the sorcerers. They also, the magicians of Egypt, did the same thing with their enchantments. <sup>7:12</sup>For they each cast down their rods, and they became serpents: but Aaron’s rod swallowed up their rods. <sup>7:13</sup>Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he didn’t listen to them; as the LORD had spoken.

<sup>7:14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is stubborn. He refuses to let the people go. <sup>7:15</sup>Go to Pharaoh in the morning. Behold, he goes out to the water; and you shall stand by the river’s bank to meet him; and the rod which was turned to a serpent you shall take in your hand. <sup>7:16</sup>You shall tell him, ‘The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to you, saying, ‘Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness:’ and behold, until now you haven’t listened. <sup>7:17</sup>Thus says the LORD, ‘In this you shall know that I am the LORD. Behold, I will strike with the rod that is in my hand on the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood. <sup>7:18</sup>The fish that are in the river shall die, and the river shall become foul; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink water from the river.’” <sup>7:19</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Take your rod, and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt, over their rivers, over their streams, and over their pools, and over all their ponds of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood and in vessels of stone.’”

<sup>7:20</sup>Moses and Aaron did so, as the LORD commanded; and he lifted up the rod, and struck the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants; and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood. <sup>7:21</sup>The fish that were in the river died; and the river became foul, and the Egyptians couldn’t drink water from the river; and the blood was throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>7:22</sup>The magicians of Egypt

did the same thing with their enchantments; and Pharaoh’s heart was hardened, and he didn’t listen to them; as the LORD had spoken. <sup>7:23</sup>Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and he didn’t even take this to heart. <sup>7:24</sup>All the Egyptians dug around the river for water to drink; for they couldn’t drink of the water of the river. <sup>7:25</sup>Seven days were fulfilled, after the LORD had struck the river.

<sup>8:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, “This is what the LORD says, ‘Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>8:2</sup>If you refuse to let them go, behold, I will plague all your borders with frogs: <sup>8:3</sup>and the river shall swarm with frogs, which shall go up and come into your house, and into your bedroom, and on your bed, and into the house of your servants, and on your people, and into your ovens, and into your kneading troughs: <sup>8:4</sup>and the frogs shall come up both on you, and on your people, and on all your servants.’” <sup>8:5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron, ‘Stretch out your hand with your rod over the rivers, over the streams, and over the pools, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.’” <sup>8:6</sup>Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt. <sup>8:7</sup>The magicians did the same thing with their enchantments, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.

<sup>8:8</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, “Entreat the LORD, that he take away the frogs from me, and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they may sacrifice to the LORD.”

<sup>8:9</sup>Moses said to Pharaoh, “I give you the honor of setting the time that I should pray for you, and for your servants, and for your people, that the frogs be destroyed from you and your houses, and remain in the river only.”

He said, “Be it according to your word, that you may know that there is none like the LORD our God. <sup>8:11</sup>The frogs shall depart from you, and from your houses, and from your servants, and from your people. They shall remain in the river only.”

<sup>8:12</sup>Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh, and Moses cried to the LORD concerning the frogs which he had brought on Pharaoh. <sup>8:13</sup>The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields.

<sup>8:14</sup>They gathered them together in heaps, and the land stank. <sup>8:15</sup>But when Pharaoh saw that there was a respite, he hardened his heart, and didn't listen to them, as the LORD had spoken.

<sup>8:16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron, 'Stretch out your rod, and strike the dust of the earth, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.'" <sup>8:17</sup>They did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and struck the dust of the earth, and there were lice on man, and on animal; all the dust of the earth became lice throughout all the land of Egypt. <sup>8:18</sup>The magicians tried with their enchantments to produce lice, but they couldn't. There were lice on man, and on animal. <sup>8:19</sup>Then the magicians said to Pharaoh, "This is the finger of God:" and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he didn't listen to them; as the LORD had spoken.

<sup>8:20</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh; behold, he comes out to the water; and tell him, 'This is what the LORD says, "Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>8:21</sup>Else, if you will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies on you, and on your servants, and on your people, and into your houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are. <sup>8:22</sup>I will set apart in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there; to the end you may know that I am the LORD in the midst of the earth. <sup>8:23</sup>I will put a division between my people and your people: by tomorrow shall this sign be.'" <sup>8:24</sup>The LORD did so; and there came grievous swarms of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses: and in all the land of Egypt the land was corrupted by reason of the swarms of flies.

<sup>8:26</sup>Moses said, "It isn't appropriate to do so; for we shall sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the LORD our God. Behold, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and won't they stone us? <sup>8:27</sup>We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the LORD our God, as he shall command us."

<sup>8:28</sup>Pharaoh said, "I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to the LORD your God in the wilderness, only you shall not go very far away. Pray for me."

<sup>8:29</sup>Moses said, "Behold, I go out from you, and I will pray to the LORD that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, tomorrow; only don't let Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the LORD." <sup>8:30</sup>Moses went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>8:31</sup>The LORD did according to the word of Moses, and he removed the swarms of flies from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people. There remained not one. <sup>8:32</sup>Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and he didn't let the people go.

<sup>9:1</sup>Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>9:2</sup>For if you refuse to let them go, and hold them still, <sup>9:3</sup>behold, the hand of the LORD is on your livestock which are in the field, on the horses, on the donkeys, on the camels, on the herds, and on the flocks with a very grievous pestilence. <sup>9:4</sup>The LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and the livestock of Egypt; and nothing shall die of all that belongs to the children of Israel.'" <sup>9:5</sup>The LORD appointed a set time, saying, "Tomorrow the LORD shall do this thing in the land." <sup>9:6</sup>The LORD did that thing on the next day; and all the livestock of Egypt died, but of the livestock of the children of Israel, not one died. <sup>9:7</sup>Pharaoh sent, and, behold, there was not so much as one of the livestock of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, and he didn't let the people go.

<sup>9:8</sup>The LORD said to Moses and to Aaron, "Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it toward the sky in the sight of Pharaoh. <sup>9:9</sup>It shall become small dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking out with boils on man and on animal, throughout all the land of Egypt."

magicians, and on all the Egyptians. <sup>9:12</sup>The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he didn't listen to them, as the LORD had spoken to Moses.

<sup>9:13</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and tell him, 'This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: "Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>9:14</sup>For this time I will send all my plagues against your heart, against your officials, and against your people; that you may know that there is none like me in all the earth. <sup>9:15</sup>For now I would have stretched out my hand, and struck you and your people with pestilence, and you would have been cut off from the earth; <sup>9:16</sup>but indeed for this cause I have made you stand: to show you my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth; <sup>9:17</sup>as you still exalt yourself against my people, that you won't let them go. <sup>9:18</sup>Behold, tomorrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as has not been in Egypt since the day it was founded even until now. <sup>9:19</sup>Now therefore command that all of your livestock and all that you have in the field be brought into shelter. Every man and animal that is found in the field, and isn't brought home, the hail shall come down on them, and they shall die.'"

<sup>9:22</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be hail in all the land of Egypt, on man, and on animal, and on every herb of the field, throughout the land of Egypt."

<sup>9:23</sup>Moses stretched out his rod toward the heavens, and the LORD sent thunder, hail, and lightning flashed down to the earth. The LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt. <sup>9:24</sup>So there was very severe hail, and lightning mixed with the hail, such as had not been in all the land of Egypt since it became a nation. <sup>9:25</sup>The hail struck throughout all the land of Egypt all that was in the field, both man and animal; and the hail struck every herb of the field, and broke every tree of the field. <sup>9:26</sup>Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, there was no hail.

<sup>9:27</sup>Pharaoh sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and said to them, "I have sinned this time. The LORD is righteous, and I and my people are wicked. <sup>9:28</sup>Pray to the LORD; for there has been enough of mighty thunderings and hail. I will let you go, and you shall stay no longer."

<sup>9:29</sup>Moses said to him, "As soon as I have gone out of the city, I will spread abroad my hands to the LORD. The thunders shall cease, neither shall there be any more hail; that you may know that the earth is the LORD's. <sup>9:30</sup>But as for you and your servants, I know that you don't yet fear the LORD God."

<sup>9:31</sup>The flax and the barley were struck, for the barley was in the ear, and the flax was in bloom. <sup>9:32</sup>But the wheat and the spelt were not struck, for they had not grown up. <sup>9:33</sup>Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread abroad his hands to the LORD; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not poured on the earth. <sup>9:34</sup>When Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his servants. <sup>9:35</sup>The heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he didn't let the children of Israel go, just as the LORD had spoken through Moses.

<sup>10:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Go in to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his servants, that I may show these my signs in their midst, <sup>10:2</sup>and that you may tell in the hearing of your son, and of your son's son, what things I have done to Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; that you may know that I am the LORD."

<sup>10:3</sup>Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and said to him, "This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: 'How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, that they may serve me. <sup>10:4</sup>Or else, if you refuse to let my people go, behold, tomorrow I will bring locusts into your country, <sup>10:5</sup>and they shall cover the surface of the earth, so that one won't be able to see the earth. They shall eat the residue of that which has escaped, which remains to you from the hail, and shall eat every tree which grows for you out of the field. <sup>10:6</sup>Your houses shall be filled, and the houses of all your servants, and the houses of all the Egyptians; as neither your fathers nor your fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were on the earth to this day." He turned, and went out from Pharaoh.

<sup>10:7</sup>Pharaoh's servants said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the men go, that they may serve the LORD, their God. Don't you yet know that Egypt is destroyed?"

<sup>10:8</sup>Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh, and he said to them, "Go, serve the LORD your God; but who are those who will go?"

<sup>10:9</sup>Moses said, "We will go with our young and with our old; with our sons and with our daughters, with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we must hold a feast to the LORD."

<sup>10:10</sup>He said to them, "The LORD be with you if I will let you go with your little ones! See, evil is clearly before your faces. <sup>10:11</sup>Not so! Go now you who are men, and serve the LORD; for that is what you desire!" They were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.

<sup>10:12</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up on the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land, even all that the hail has left." <sup>10:13</sup>Moses stretched out his rod over the land of Egypt, and the LORD brought an east wind on the land all that day, and all the night; and when it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts. <sup>10:14</sup>The locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt. They were very grievous. Before them there were no such locusts as they, neither after them shall be such. <sup>10:15</sup>For they covered the surface of the whole earth, so that the land was darkened, and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees which the hail had left. There remained nothing green, either tree or herb of the field, through all the land of Egypt. <sup>10:16</sup>Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron in haste, and he said, "I have sinned against the LORD your God, and against you. <sup>10:17</sup>Now therefore please forgive my sin again, and pray to the LORD your God, that he may also take away from me this death."

<sup>10:18</sup>He went out from Pharaoh, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>10:19</sup>The LORD turned an exceeding strong west wind, which took up the locusts, and drove them into the Sea of Suf. There remained not one locust in all the borders of Egypt. <sup>10:20</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go.

<sup>10:21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand toward the sky, that there may be darkness over the land of Egypt, even darkness which may be felt." <sup>10:22</sup>Moses stretched out his hand toward the sky, and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days. <sup>10:23</sup>They didn't see one another, neither did anyone rise from his place for three days; but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

<sup>10:24</sup>Pharaoh called to Moses, and said, "Go, serve the LORD. Only let your flocks and your herds stay behind. Let your little ones also go with you."

<sup>10:25</sup>Moses said, "You must also give into our hand sacrifices and burnt offerings, that we may sacrifice to the LORD our God. <sup>10:26</sup>Our livestock also shall go with us. Not a hoof shall be left behind, for of it we must take to serve the LORD our God; and we don't know with what we must serve the LORD, until we come there."

<sup>10:27</sup>But the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he wouldn't let them go. <sup>10:28</sup>Pharaoh said to him, "Get away from me! Be careful to see my face no more; for in the day you see my face you shall die!"

<sup>11:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Yet one plague more will I bring on Pharaoh, and on Egypt; afterwards he will let you go. When he lets you go, he will surely thrust you out altogether. <sup>11:2</sup>Speak now in the ears of the people, and let them ask every man of his neighbor, and every woman of her neighbor, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold." <sup>11:3</sup>The LORD gave the people favor in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaoh's servants, and in the sight of the people.

great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there has not been, nor shall be any more. <sup>11:7</sup>But against any of the children of Israel a dog won't even bark or move its tongue, against man or animal; that you may know that the LORD makes a distinction between the Egyptians and Israel. <sup>11:8</sup>All these your servants shall come down to me, and bow down themselves to me, saying, "Get out, with all the people who follow you;" and after that I will go out.'" He went out from Pharaoh in hot anger.

<sup>11:9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Pharaoh won't listen to you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt." <sup>11:10</sup>Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh, and the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he didn't let the children of Israel go out of his land.

<sup>12:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying, <sup>12:2</sup>"This month shall be to you the beginning of months. It shall be the first month of the year to you. <sup>12:3</sup>Speak to all the congregation of Israel, saying, 'On the tenth day of this month, they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to their fathers' houses, a lamb for a household; <sup>12:4</sup>and if the household is too little for a lamb, then he and his neighbor next to his house shall take one according to the number of the souls; according to what everyone can eat you shall make your count for the lamb. <sup>12:5</sup>Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male a year old. You shall take it from the sheep, or from the goats: <sup>12:6</sup>and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of the same month; and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at evening. <sup>12:7</sup>They shall take some of the blood, and put it on the two doorposts and on the lintel, on the houses in which they shall eat it. <sup>12:8</sup>They shall eat the flesh in that night, roasted with fire, and unleavened bread. They shall eat it with bitter herbs. <sup>12:9</sup>Don't eat it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roasted with fire; with its head, its legs and its inner parts. <sup>12:10</sup>You shall let nothing of it remain until the morning; but that which remains of it until the morning you shall burn with fire. <sup>12:11</sup>This is how you shall eat it: with your belt on your waist, your shoes on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it in haste: it is the LORD's Passover. <sup>12:12</sup>For

I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and animal. Against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. <sup>12:13</sup>The blood shall be to you for a token on the houses where you are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and there shall no plague be on you to destroy you, when I strike the land of Egypt. <sup>12:14</sup>This day shall be to you for a memorial, and you shall keep it a feast to the LORD: throughout your generations you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance forever.

<sup>12:15</sup>"Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread; even the first day you shall put away yeast out of your houses, for whoever eats leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel. <sup>12:16</sup>In the first day there shall be to you a holy convocation, and in the seventh day a holy convocation; no kind of work shall be done in them, except that which every man must eat, that only may be done by you. <sup>12:17</sup>You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore you shall observe this day throughout your generations by an ordinance forever. <sup>12:18</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at evening, you shall eat unleavened bread, until the twenty first day of the month at evening. <sup>12:19</sup>There shall be no yeast found in your houses for seven days, for whoever eats that which is leavened, that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a foreigner, or one who is born in the land. <sup>12:20</sup>You shall eat nothing leavened. In all your habitations you shall eat unleavened bread."

an ordinance to you and to your sons forever. <sup>12:25</sup>It shall happen when you have come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he has promised, that you shall keep this service. <sup>12:26</sup>It will happen, when your children ask you, 'What do you mean by this service?' <sup>12:27</sup>that you shall say, 'It is the sacrifice of the LORD's Passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he struck the Egyptians, and spared our houses.'"

The people bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>12:28</sup>The children of Israel went and did so; as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did.

<sup>12:29</sup>It happened at midnight, that the LORD struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive who was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of livestock. <sup>12:30</sup>Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt, for there was not a house where there was not one dead. <sup>12:31</sup>He called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, "Rise up, get out from among my people, both you and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as you have said! <sup>12:32</sup>Take both your flocks and your herds, as you have said, and be gone; and bless me also!"

lived in Egypt was four hundred thirty years. <sup>12:41</sup>It happened at the end of four hundred thirty years, even the same day it happened, that all the armies of the LORD went out from the land of Egypt. <sup>12:42</sup>It is a night to be much observed to the LORD for bringing them out from the land of Egypt. This is that night of the LORD, to be much observed of all the children of Israel throughout their generations.

<sup>12:43</sup>The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "This is the ordinance of the Passover. No foreigner shall eat of it, <sup>12:44</sup>but every man's servant who is bought for money, when you have circumcised him, then shall he eat of it. <sup>12:45</sup>A foreigner and a hired servant shall not eat of it. <sup>12:46</sup>In one house shall it be eaten; you shall not carry out anything of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall you break a bone of it. <sup>12:47</sup>All the congregation of Israel shall keep it. <sup>12:48</sup>When a stranger shall live as a foreigner with you, and will keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one who is born in the land: but no uncircumcised person shall eat of it. <sup>12:49</sup>One law shall be to him who is born at home, and to the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you." <sup>12:50</sup>All the children of Israel did so. As the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron, so they did. <sup>12:51</sup>It happened the same day, that the LORD brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt by their armies.

<sup>13:3</sup>Moses said to the people, "Remember this day, in which you came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; for by strength of hand the LORD brought you out from this place. No leavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>13:4</sup>This day you go out in the month Abib. <sup>13:5</sup>It shall be, when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Amorite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, which he swore to your fathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey, that you shall keep this service in this month. <sup>13:6</sup>Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be a feast to the LORD. <sup>13:7</sup>Unleavened bread shall be eaten throughout the seven days; and no leavened bread shall be seen with you, neither shall yeast be seen with you, in all your borders. <sup>13:8</sup>You shall tell your son in that day, saying, 'It is because of that which the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.' <sup>13:9</sup>It shall be for a sign to you on your hand, and for a memorial between your eyes, that the law of the LORD may be in your mouth; for with a strong hand the LORD has brought you out of Egypt. <sup>13:10</sup>You shall therefore keep this ordinance in its season from year to year.

<sup>13:11</sup>"It shall be, when the LORD shall bring you into the land of the Canaanite, as he swore to you and to your fathers, and shall give it you, <sup>13:12</sup>that you shall set apart to the LORD all that opens the womb, and every firstborn which you have that comes from an animal. The males shall be the LORD's. <sup>13:13</sup>Every firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb; and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck; and you shall redeem all the firstborn of man among your sons. <sup>13:14</sup>It shall be, when your son asks you in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that you shall tell him, 'By strength of hand the LORD brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage; <sup>13:15</sup>and it happened, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the LORD killed all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of man, and the firstborn of animal. Therefore I sacrifice to the LORD all that opens the womb, being males; but all the firstborn of my sons I redeem.' <sup>13:16</sup>It shall be for a sign on your hand, and for symbols between your eyes: for by strength of hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt."

<sup>13:17</sup>It happened, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God didn't lead them by the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, "Lest perhaps the people change their minds when they see war, and they return to Egypt;" <sup>13:18</sup>but God led the people around by the way of the wilderness by the Sea of Suf; and the children of Israel went up armed out of the land of Egypt. <sup>13:19</sup>Moses took the bones of Joseph with him, for he had made the children of Israel swear, saying, "God will surely visit you, and you shall carry up my bones away from here with you." <sup>13:20</sup>They took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, in the edge of the wilderness. <sup>13:21</sup>The LORD went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, to lead them on their way, and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light, that they might go by day and by night: <sup>13:22</sup>the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night, didn't depart from before the people.

<sup>14:5</sup>It was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was changed towards the people, and they said, "What is this we have done, that we have let Israel go from serving us?" <sup>14:6</sup>He prepared his chariot, and took his army with him; <sup>14:7</sup>and he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over all of them. <sup>14:8</sup>The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel; for the children of Israel went out with a high hand. <sup>14:9</sup>The Egyptians pursued after them: all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, his horsemen, and his army; and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pihahiroth, before Baal Zephon.

<sup>14:10</sup>When Pharaoh drew near, the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians were marching after them; and they were very afraid. The children of Israel cried out to the LORD. <sup>14:11</sup>They said to Moses, "Because there were no graves in Egypt, have you taken us away to die in the wilderness? Why have you treated us this way, to bring us out of Egypt? <sup>14:12</sup>Isn't this the word that we spoke to you in Egypt, saying, 'Leave us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians?' For it were better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness."

<sup>14:13</sup>Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid. Stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD, which he will work for you today: for the Egyptians whom you have seen today, you shall never see them again. <sup>14:14</sup>The LORD will fight for you, and you shall be still."

<sup>14:15</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Why do you cry to me? Speak to the children of Israel, that they go forward. <sup>14:16</sup>Lift up your rod, and stretch out your hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go into the midst of the sea on dry ground. <sup>14:17</sup>I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall go in after them: and I will get myself honor over Pharaoh, and over all his armies, over his chariots, and over his horsemen. <sup>14:18</sup>The Egyptians shall know that I am the LORD, when I have gotten myself honor over Pharaoh, over his chariots, and over his horsemen." <sup>14:19</sup>The angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, moved and went behind them; and the pillar of cloud moved from before them, and stood behind them. <sup>14:20</sup>It came between the camp of Egypt and the camp of Israel; and there was the cloud and the darkness, yet gave it light by night: and the one didn't come near the other all the night.

<sup>14:21</sup>Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the LORD caused the sea to go back by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry land, and the waters were divided. <sup>14:22</sup>The children of Israel went into the midst of the sea on the dry ground, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. <sup>14:23</sup>The Egyptians pursued, and went in after them into the midst of the sea: all of Pharaoh's horses, his chariots, and his horsemen. <sup>14:24</sup>It happened in the morning watch, that the LORD looked out on the Egyptian army through the pillar of fire and of cloud, and confuted the Egyptian army. <sup>14:25</sup>He took off their chariot wheels, and they drove them heavily; so that the Egyptians said, "Let's flee from the face of Israel, for the LORD fights for them against the Egyptians!"

<sup>14:26</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over the sea, that the waters may come again on the Egyptians, on their chariots, and on their horsemen." <sup>14:27</sup>Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it. The LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea. <sup>14:28</sup>The waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen, even all Pharaoh's army that went in after them into the sea. There remained not so much as one of them. <sup>14:29</sup>But the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea, and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand, and on their left. <sup>14:30</sup>Thus the LORD saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the seashore. <sup>14:31</sup>Israel saw the great work which the LORD did to the Egyptians, and the people feared the LORD; and they believed in the LORD, and in his servant Moses.

<sup>15:1</sup>Then Moses and the children of Israel sang this song to the LORD, and said, "I will sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously.

The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea.

He has become my salvation [yeshu'ah].

This is my God, and I will praise him;

my father's God, and I will exalt him.

They went down into the depths like a stone.

You send forth your wrath. It consumes them as stubble.

The floods stood upright as a heap.

The deeps were congealed in the heart of the sea.

<sup>15:9</sup>The enemy said, 'I will pursue. I will overtake. I will divide the spoil.

My desire shall be satisfied on them.

I will draw my sword, my hand shall destroy them.'

The sea covered them.

They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

15:11 Who is like you, LORD, among the gods?
Who is like you, glorious in holiness, fearful in praises, doing wonders?
15:12 You stretched out your right hand.
The earth swallowed them.
15:13 "You, in your loving kindness, have led the people that you have redeemed.
You have guided them in your strength to your holy habitation.
15:14 The peoples have heard.
They tremble.
Pangs have taken hold on the inhabitants of Philistia.
15:15 Then the chiefs of Edom were dismayed.
Trembling takes hold of the mighty men of Moab.
All the inhabitants of Canaan are melted away.
15:16 Terror and dread falls on them.
By the greatness of your arm they are as still as a stone—
until your people pass over, LORD, until the people pass over who you have purchased.
15:17 You shall bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of your inheritance,
the place, LORD, which you have made for yourself to dwell in;
the sanctuary, Lord, which your hands have established.
15:18 The LORD shall reign forever and ever."
15:19 For the horses of Pharaoh went in with his chariots and with his horsemen into the sea, and the LORD brought back the waters of the sea on them; but the children of Israel walked on dry land in the midst of the sea.
15:20 Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took a tambourine in her hand; and all the women went out after her with tambourines and with dances. 15:21 Miriam answered them,
"Sing to the LORD, for he has triumphed gloriously.
The horse and his rider he has thrown into the sea."
15:22 Moses led Israel onward from the Sea of Suf, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness, and found no water. 15:23 When they came to Marah, they couldn't drink from the waters of Marah, for they were bitter. Therefore its

name was called Marah.<sup>f</sup> 15:24 The people murmured against Moses, saying, "What shall we drink?" 15:25 Then he cried to the LORD. The LORD showed him a tree, and he threw it into the waters, and the waters were made sweet.
There he made a statute and an ordinance for them, and there he tested them; 15:26 and he said, "If you will diligently listen to the voice of the LORD your God, and will do that which is right in his eyes, and will pay attention to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you, which I have put on the Egyptians; for I am the LORD who heals you."

15:27 They came to Elim, where there were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees: and they encamped there by the waters.

16:1 They took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departing out of the land of Egypt. 16:2 The whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness; 16:3 and the children of Israel said to them, "We wish that we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the meat pots, when we ate our fill of bread, for you have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger."

16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Behold, I will rain bread from the sky for you, and the people shall go out and gather a day's portion every day, that I may test them, whether they will walk in my law, or not. 16:5 It shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily."

16:6 Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, "At evening, then you shall know that the LORD has brought you out from the land of Egypt; 16:7 and in the morning, then you shall see the glory of the LORD; because he hears your murmurings against the LORD. Who are we, that you murmur against us?" 16:8 Moses said, "Now the LORD shall give you meat to eat in the evening, and in the morning bread to satisfy you; because the LORD hears your murmurings which you murmur against him.
And who are we? Your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.”<sup>16:9</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Tell all the congregation of the children of Israel, ‘Come near before the LORD, for he has heard your murmurings.’”<sup>16:10</sup> It happened, as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.<sup>16:11</sup> The LORD spoke to Moses, saying,<sup>16:12</sup> “I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel. Speak to them, saying, ‘At evening you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall be filled with bread: and you shall know that I am the LORD your God.’”

that which you want to boil; and all that remains over lay up for yourselves to be kept until the morning.’”<sup>16:24</sup> They laid it up until the morning, as Moses asked, and it didn’t become foul, neither was there any worm in it.<sup>16:25</sup> Moses said, “Eat that today, for today is a Sabbath to the LORD. Today you shall not find it in the field.”<sup>16:26</sup> Six days you shall gather it, but on the seventh day is the Sabbath. In it there shall be none.”<sup>16:27</sup> It happened on the seventh day, that some of the people went out to gather, and they found none.<sup>16:28</sup> The LORD said to Moses, “How long do you refuse to keep my commandments and my laws?”<sup>16:29</sup> Behold, because the LORD has given you the Sabbath, therefore he gives you on the sixth day the bread of two days. Everyone stay in his place. Let no one go out of his place on the seventh day.”<sup>16:30</sup> So the people rested on the seventh day.

<sup>16:31</sup> The house of Israel called its name Manna,<sup>h</sup> and it was like coriander seed, white; and its taste was like wafers with honey.<sup>16:32</sup> Moses said, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, ‘Let an omer-full of it be kept throughout your generations, that they may see the bread with which I fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.’”<sup>16:33</sup> Moses said to Aaron, “Take a pot, and put an omer-full of manna in it, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept throughout your generations.”<sup>16:34</sup> As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.<sup>16:35</sup> The children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came to an inhabited land. They ate the manna until they came to the borders of the land of Canaan.<sup>16:36</sup> Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>17:1</sup> All the congregation of the children of Israel traveled from the wilderness of Sin, by their journeys, according to the LORD’s commandment, and encamped in Rephidim; but there was no water for the people to drink.<sup>17:2</sup> Therefore the people quarreled with Moses, and said, “Give us water to drink.”

Moses said to them, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?”

and the people murmured against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us, our children, and our livestock with thirst?"

<sup>17:5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Walk on before the people, and take the elders of Israel with you, and take the rod in your hand with which you struck the Nile, and go. <sup>17:6</sup>Behold, I will stand before you there on the rock in Horeb. You shall strike the rock, and water will come out of it, that the people may drink." Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel. <sup>17:7</sup>He called the name of the place Massah,<sup>j</sup> and Meribah,<sup>k</sup> because the children of Israel quarreled, and because they tested the LORD, saying, "Is the LORD among us, or not?"

<sup>17:8</sup>Then Amalek came and fought with Israel in Rephidim. <sup>17:9</sup>Moses said to Joshua, "Choose men for us, and go out, fight with Amalek. Tomorrow I will stand on the top of the hill with God's rod in my hand." <sup>17:10</sup>So Joshua did as Moses had told him, and fought with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron, and Hur went up to the top of the hill. <sup>17:11</sup>It happened, when Moses held up his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down his hand, Amalek prevailed. <sup>17:12</sup>But Moses' hands were heavy; and they took a stone, and put it under him, and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held up his hands, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side. His hands were steady until sunset. <sup>17:13</sup>Joshua defeated Amalek and his people with the edge of the sword. <sup>17:14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Write this for a memorial in a book, and rehearse it in the ears of Joshua: that I will utterly blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky." <sup>17:15</sup>Moses built an altar, and called its name the LORD our Banner.<sup>l</sup> <sup>17:16</sup>He said, "The LORD has sworn: 'The LORD will have war with Amalek from generation to generation.'"

<sup>18:1</sup>Now Jethro, the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, how that the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

<sup>18:7</sup>Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and bowed and kissed him. They asked each other of their welfare, and they came into the tent. <sup>18:8</sup>Moses told his father-in-law all that the LORD had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake, all the hardships that had come on them on the way, and how the LORD delivered them. <sup>18:9</sup>Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness which the LORD had done to Israel, in that he had delivered them out of the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>18:10</sup>Jethro said, "Blessed be the LORD, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of the Egyptians. <sup>18:11</sup>Now I know that the LORD is greater than all gods because of the thing in which they dealt arrogantly against them." <sup>18:12</sup>Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt offering and sacrifices for God. Aaron came with all of the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law before God.

<sup>18:13</sup>It happened on the next day, that Moses sat to judge the people, and the people stood around Moses from the morning to the evening. <sup>18:14</sup>When Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did to the people, he said, "What is this thing that you do for the people? Why do you sit alone, and all the people stand around you from morning to evening?"

<sup>18:16</sup>When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between a man and his neighbor, and I make them know the statutes of God, and his laws.” <sup>18:17</sup>Moses’ father-in-law said to him, “The thing that you do is not good. <sup>18:18</sup>You will surely wear away, both you, and this people that is with you; for the thing is too heavy for you. You are not able to perform it yourself alone. <sup>18:19</sup>Listen now to my voice. I will give you counsel, and God be with you. You represent the people before God, and bring the causes to God. <sup>18:20</sup>You shall teach them the statutes and the laws, and shall show them the way in which they must walk, and the work that they must do. <sup>18:21</sup>Moreover you shall provide out of all the people able men, such as fear God: men of truth, hating unjust gain; and place such over them, to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>18:22</sup>Let them judge the people at all times. It shall be that every great matter they shall bring to you, but every small matter they shall judge themselves. So shall it be easier for you, and they shall share the load with you. <sup>18:23</sup>If you will do this thing, and God commands you so, then you will be able to endure, and all of these people also will go to their place in peace.”

<sup>18:24</sup>So Moses listened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all that he had said. <sup>18:25</sup>Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens. <sup>18:26</sup>They judged the people at all times. They brought the hard causes to Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves. <sup>18:27</sup>Moses let his father-in-law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

<sup>19:1</sup>In the third month after the children of Israel had gone out of the land of Egypt, on that same day they came into the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>19:2</sup>When they had departed from Rephidim, and had come to the wilderness of Sinai, they encamped in the wilderness; and there Israel encamped before the mountain. <sup>19:3</sup>Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him out of the mountain, saying, “This is what you shall tell the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel: <sup>19:4</sup>You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles’ wings, and brought you to myself. <sup>19:5</sup>Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice, and keep my covenant, then you shall be my own possession from among all peoples; for all the earth is mine; <sup>19:6</sup>and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation.’ These are the words which you shall speak to the children of Israel.”

<sup>19:7</sup>Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and set before them all these words which the LORD commanded him. <sup>19:8</sup>All the people answered together, and said, “All that the LORD has spoken we will do.”

Moses reported the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>19:9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I come to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever.” Moses told the words of the people to the LORD. <sup>19:10</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people, and sanctify them today and tomorrow, and let them wash their garments, <sup>19:11</sup>and be ready against the third day; for on the third day the LORD will come down in the sight of all the people on Mount Sinai. <sup>19:12</sup>You shall set bounds to the people all around, saying, ‘Be careful that you don’t go up onto the mountain, or touch its border. Whoever touches the mountain shall be surely put to death. <sup>19:13</sup>No hand shall touch him, but he shall surely be stoned or shot through; whether it is animal or man, he shall not live.’ When the shofar<sup>o</sup> sounds long, they shall come up to the mountain.”

<sup>19:14</sup>Moses went down from the mountain to the people, and sanctified the people; and they washed their clothes. <sup>19:15</sup>He said to the people, “Be ready by the third day. Don’t have sexual relations with a woman.”

<sup>19:16</sup>It happened on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud on the mountain, and the sound of an exceedingly loud shofar<sup>p</sup>; and all the people who were in the camp trembled. <sup>19:17</sup>Moses led the people out of the camp to meet God; and they stood at the lower part of the mountain. <sup>19:18</sup>Mount Sinai, all it, smoked, because the LORD descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain

quaked greatly. <sup>19:19</sup>When the sound of the shofar<sup>q</sup> grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him by a voice. <sup>19:20</sup>The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. The LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

<sup>19:21</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Go down, warn the people, lest they break through to the LORD to gaze, and many of them perish.

<sup>19:23</sup>Moses said to the LORD, "The people can't come up to Mount Sinai, for you warned us, saying, 'Set bounds around the mountain, and sanctify it.'"

<sup>19:24</sup>The LORD said to him, "Go down and you shall bring Aaron up with you, but don't let the priests and the people break through to come up to the LORD, lest he break forth on them."

<sup>20:4</sup>"You shall not make for yourselves an idol, nor any image of anything that is in the heavens above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: <sup>20:5</sup>you shall not bow yourself down to them, nor serve them, for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me, <sup>20:6</sup>and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>20:8</sup>"Remember the Sabbath day, to keep it holy. <sup>20:9</sup>You shall labor six days, and do all your work, <sup>20:10</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. You shall not do any work in it, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; <sup>20:11</sup>for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested the seventh day; therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day, and made it holy.

<sup>20:18</sup>All the people perceived the thunderings, the lightnings, the sound of the shofar<sup>s</sup>, and the mountain smoking. When the people saw it, they trembled, and stayed at a distance. <sup>20:19</sup>They said to Moses, "Speak with us yourself, and we will listen; but don't let God speak with us, lest we die."

<sup>20:20</sup>Moses said to the people, "Don't be afraid, for God has come to test you, and that his fear may be before you, that you won't sin."

<sup>21:12</sup>“One who strikes a man so that he dies shall surely be put to death, <sup>21:13</sup>but not if it is unintentional, but God allows it to happen: then I will appoint you a place where he shall flee. <sup>21:14</sup>If a man schemes and comes presumptuously on his neighbor to kill him, you shall take him from my altar, that he may die.

<sup>21:18</sup>“If men quarrel and one strikes the other with a stone, or with his fist, and he doesn’t die, but is confined to bed; <sup>21:19</sup>if he rises again and walks around with his staff, then he who struck him shall be cleared: only he shall pay for the loss of his time, and shall provide for his healing until he is thoroughly healed.

<sup>21:22</sup>“If men fight and hurt a pregnant woman so that she gives birth prematurely, and yet no harm follows, he shall be surely fined as much as the woman’s husband demands and the judges allow. <sup>21:23</sup>But if any harm follows, then you must take life for life, <sup>21:24</sup>eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot, <sup>21:25</sup>burning for burning, wound for wound, and bruise for bruise.

<sup>21:28</sup>“If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull shall surely be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the bull shall not be held responsible. <sup>21:29</sup>But if the bull had a habit of goring in the past, and it has been testified to its owner, and he has not kept it in, but it has killed a man or a woman, the bull shall be stoned, and its owner shall also be put to death. <sup>21:30</sup>If a ransom is laid on him, then he shall give for the redemption of his life whatever is laid on him. <sup>21:31</sup>Whether it has gored a son or has gored a daughter, according to this judgment it shall be done to him. <sup>21:32</sup>If the bull gores a male servant or a female servant, thirty shekels of silver shall be given to their master, and the ox shall be stoned.

<sup>21:35</sup>“If one man’s bull injures another’s, so that it dies, then they shall sell the live bull, and divide its price; and they shall also divide the dead animal. <sup>21:36</sup>Or if it is known that the bull was in the habit of goring in the past, and its owner has not kept it in, he shall surely pay bull for bull, and the dead animal shall be his own.

thief is found breaking in, and is struck so that he dies, there shall be no guilt of bloodshed for him. <sup>22:3</sup>If the sun has risen on him, guilt of bloodshed shall be for him; he shall make restitution. If he has nothing, then he shall be sold for his theft. <sup>22:4</sup>If the stolen property is found in his hand alive, whether it is ox, donkey, or sheep, he shall pay double.

<sup>22:6</sup>"If fire breaks out, and catches in thorns so that the shocks of grain, or the standing grain, or the field are consumed; he who kindled the fire shall surely make restitution.

<sup>22:7</sup>"If a man delivers to his neighbor money or stuff to keep, and it is stolen out of the man's house; if the thief is found, he shall pay double. <sup>22:8</sup>If the thief isn't found, then the master of the house shall come near to God, to find out if he hasn't put his hand to his neighbor's goods. <sup>22:9</sup>For every matter of trespass, whether it be for ox, for donkey, for sheep, for clothing, or for any kind of lost thing, about which one says, 'This is mine,' the cause of both parties shall come before God. He whom God condemns shall pay double to his neighbor.

<sup>22:14</sup>"If a man borrows anything of his neighbor's, and it is injured, or dies, its owner not being with it, he shall surely make restitution. <sup>22:15</sup>If its owner is with it, he shall not make it good. If it is a leased thing, it came for its lease.

<sup>22:22</sup>"You shall not take advantage of any widow or fatherless child. <sup>22:23</sup>If you take advantage of them at all, and they cry at all to me, I will surely hear their cry; <sup>22:24</sup>and my wrath will grow hot, and I will kill you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, and your children fatherless.

<sup>22:26</sup>If you take your neighbor's garment as collateral, you shall restore it to him before the sun goes down, <sup>22:27</sup>for that is his only covering, it is his garment for his skin. What would he sleep in? It will happen, when he cries to me, that I will hear, for I am gracious.

"You shall give the firstborn of your sons to me. <sup>22:30</sup>You shall do likewise with your cattle and with your sheep. Seven days it shall be with its mother, then on the eighth day you shall give it to me.

kill the innocent and righteous: for I will not justify the wicked.

<sup>23:9</sup>“You shall not oppress an alien, for you know the heart of an alien, since you were aliens in the land of Egypt.

<sup>23:10</sup>“For six years you shall sow your land, and shall gather in its increase, <sup>23:11</sup>but the seventh year you shall let it rest and lie fallow, that the poor of your people may eat; and what they leave the animal of the field shall eat. In the same way, you shall deal with your vineyard and with your olive grove.

<sup>23:12</sup>“Six days you shall do your work, and on the seventh day you shall rest, that your ox and your donkey may have rest, and the son of your handmaid, and the alien may be refreshed.

<sup>23:13</sup>“Be careful to do all things that I have said to you; and don’t invoke the name of other gods, neither let them be heard out of your mouth.

<sup>23:14</sup>“You shall observe a feast to me three times a year. <sup>23:15</sup>You shall observe the feast of unleavened bread. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib (for in it you came out from Egypt), and no one shall appear before me empty. <sup>23:16</sup>And the feast of harvest, the first fruits of your labors, which you sow in the field: and the feast of harvest, at the end of the year, when you gather in your labors out of the field. <sup>23:17</sup>Three times in the year all your males shall appear before the Lord GOD.

<sup>23:18</sup>“You shall not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread, neither shall the fat of my feast remain all night until the morning. <sup>23:19</sup>The first of the first fruits of your ground you shall bring into the house of the LORD your God.

<sup>23:20</sup>“Behold, I send an angel before you, to keep you by the way, and to bring you into the place which I have prepared. <sup>23:21</sup>Pay attention to him, and listen to his voice. Don’t provoke him, for he will not pardon your disobedience, for my name is in him. <sup>23:22</sup>But if you indeed listen to his voice, and do all that I speak, then I will be an enemy to your enemies, and an adversary to your adversaries. <sup>23:23</sup>For my angel shall go before you, and bring you in to the Amorite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Canaanite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; and I will cut them off. <sup>23:24</sup>You shall not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor follow their practices, but you shall utterly overthrow them and demolish their pillars. <sup>23:25</sup>You shall serve the LORD your God, and he will bless your bread and your water, and I will take sickness away from your midst. <sup>23:26</sup>No one will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will fulfill the number of your days. <sup>23:27</sup>I will send my terror before you, and will confuse all the people to whom you come, and I will make all your enemies turn their backs to you. <sup>23:28</sup>I will send the hornet before you, which will drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the Hittite, from before you. <sup>23:29</sup>I will not drive them out from before you in one year, lest the land become desolate, and the animals of the field multiply against you. <sup>23:30</sup>Little by little I will drive them out from before you, until you have increased and inherit the land. <sup>23:31</sup>I will set your border from the Sea of Suf even to the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness to the River; for I will deliver the inhabitants of the land into your hand, and you shall drive them out before you. <sup>23:32</sup>You shall make no covenant with them, nor with their gods. <sup>23:33</sup>They shall not dwell in your land, lest they make you sin against me, for if you serve their gods, it will surely be a snare to you.”

<sup>24:1</sup>He said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship from a distance. <sup>24:2</sup>Moses alone shall come near to the LORD, but they shall not come near, neither shall the people go up with him.”

<sup>24:3</sup>Moses came and told the people all the words of the LORD, and all the ordinances; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, “All the words which the LORD has spoken will we do.”

<sup>24:4</sup>Moses wrote all the words of the LORD, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>24:5</sup>He sent young men of the children of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offerings of cattle to the LORD. <sup>24:6</sup>Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar. <sup>24:7</sup>He took the book of the covenant and read it in the hearing of the people, and they said, "All that the LORD has spoken will we do, and be obedient."

<sup>24:12</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Come up to me on the mountain, and stay here, and I will give you the tables of stone with the law and the commands that I have written, that you may teach them."

<sup>24:13</sup>Moses rose up with Joshua, his servant, and Moses went up onto God's Mountain. <sup>24:14</sup>He said to the elders, "Wait here for us, until we come again to you. Behold, Aaron and Hur are with you. Whoever is involved in a dispute can go to them."

to all that I show you, the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all of its furniture, even so you shall make it.

<sup>25:10</sup>"They shall make an ark of acacia wood. Its length shall be two and a half cubits, its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>25:11</sup>You shall overlay it with pure gold. You shall overlay it inside and outside, and you shall make a gold molding around it. <sup>25:12</sup>You shall cast four rings of gold for it, and put them in its four feet. Two rings shall be on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it. <sup>25:13</sup>You shall make poles of acacia wood, and overlay them with gold. <sup>25:14</sup>You shall put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry the ark. <sup>25:15</sup>The poles shall be in the rings of the ark. They shall not be taken from it. <sup>25:16</sup>You shall put the testimony which I shall give you into the ark. <sup>25:17</sup>You shall make a mercy seat of pure gold. Two and a half cubits shall be its length, and a cubit and a half its breadth. <sup>25:18</sup>You shall make two cherubim of hammered gold. You shall make them at the two ends of the mercy seat. <sup>25:19</sup>Make one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. You shall make the cherubim on its two ends of one piece with the mercy seat. <sup>25:20</sup>The cherubim shall spread out their wings upward, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim shall be toward the mercy seat. <sup>25:21</sup>You shall put the mercy seat on top of the ark, and in the ark you shall put the testimony that I will give you. <sup>25:22</sup>There I will meet with you, and I will tell you from above the mercy seat, from between the two cherubim which are on the ark of the testimony, all that I command you for the children of Israel.

and overlay them with gold, that the table may be carried with them. <sup>25:29</sup>You shall make its dishes, its spoons, its ladles, and its bowls to pour out offerings with. You shall make them of pure gold. <sup>25:30</sup>You shall set bread of the presence on the table before me always.

<sup>25:31</sup>“You shall make a menorah of pure gold. Of hammered work shall the menorah be made, even its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers, shall be of one piece with it. <sup>25:32</sup>There shall be six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the menorah out of its one side, and three branches of the menorah out of its other side; <sup>25:33</sup>three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower; and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower, so for the six branches going out of the menorah; <sup>25:34</sup>and in the menorah four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers; <sup>25:35</sup>and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of the menorah. <sup>25:36</sup>Their buds and their branches shall be of one piece with it, all of it one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>25:37</sup>You shall make its lamps seven, and they shall light its lamps to give light to the space in front of it. <sup>25:38</sup>Its snuffers and its snuff dishes shall be of pure gold. <sup>25:39</sup>It shall be made of a talent of pure gold, with all these accessories. <sup>25:40</sup>See that you make them after their pattern, which has been shown to you on the mountain.

<sup>26:1</sup>“Moreover you shall make the tabernacle with ten curtains; of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, with cherubim. The work of the skillful workman you shall make them. <sup>26:2</sup>The length of each curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits: all the curtains shall have one measure. <sup>26:3</sup>Five curtains shall be coupled together one to another; and the other five curtains shall be coupled one to another. <sup>26:4</sup>You shall make loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain from the edge in the coupling; and likewise you shall make in the edge of the curtain that is outmost in the second coupling. <sup>26:5</sup>You shall make fifty loops in the one curtain, and you shall make fifty loops in the edge of the curtain that is in the second coupling. The loops shall be opposite one to another. <sup>26:6</sup>You shall make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains one to another with the clasps: and the tabernacle shall be a unit.

<sup>26:7</sup>“You shall make curtains of goats’ hair for a covering over the tabernacle. You shall make them eleven curtains. <sup>26:8</sup>The length of each curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of each curtain four cubits: the eleven curtains shall have one measure. <sup>26:9</sup>You shall couple five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves, and shall double over the sixth curtain in the forefront of the tent. <sup>26:10</sup>You shall make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is outmost in the coupling, and fifty loops on the edge of the curtain which is outmost in the second coupling. <sup>26:11</sup>You shall make fifty clasps of brass, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent together, that it may be one. <sup>26:12</sup>The overhanging part that remains of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remains, shall hang over the back of the tabernacle. <sup>26:13</sup>The cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side, of that which remains in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it. <sup>26:14</sup>You shall make a covering for the tent of rams’ skins dyed red, and a covering of sea cow hides above.

<sup>26:15</sup>“You shall make the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. <sup>26:16</sup>Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and one and a half cubits the breadth of each board. <sup>26:17</sup>There shall be two tenons in each board, joined to one another: thus you shall make for all the boards of the tabernacle. <sup>26:18</sup>You shall make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>26:19</sup>You shall make forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. <sup>26:20</sup>For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, twenty boards, <sup>26:21</sup>and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>26:22</sup>For the far part of the tabernacle westward you shall make six boards. <sup>26:23</sup>You shall make two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. <sup>26:24</sup>They shall be double beneath, and in the same way they shall be whole to its top to one ring: thus shall it be for them both;

they shall be for the two corners. <sup>26:25</sup>There shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

<sup>26:36</sup>“You shall make a screen for the door of the Tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, the work of the embroiderer. <sup>26:37</sup>You shall make for the screen five pillars of acacia, and overlay them with gold: their hooks shall be of gold: and you shall cast five sockets of brass for them.

<sup>27:1</sup>“You shall make the altar of acacia wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad; the altar shall be foursquare: and its height shall be three cubits. <sup>27:2</sup>You shall make its horns on its four corners; its horns shall be of one piece with it; and you shall overlay it with brass. <sup>27:3</sup>You shall make its pots to take away its ashes, its shovels, its basins, its flesh hooks, and its fire pans: all its vessels you shall make of brass. <sup>27:4</sup>You shall make a grating for it of network of brass: and on the net you shall make four bronze rings in its four corners. <sup>27:5</sup>You shall put it under the ledge around the altar beneath, that the net may reach halfway up the altar.

with him, near to you from among the children of Israel, that he may minister to me in the priest's office, even Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's sons. <sup>28:2</sup>You shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, for glory and for beauty. <sup>28:3</sup>You shall speak to all who are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they make Aaron's garments to sanctify him, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>28:4</sup>These are the garments which they shall make: a breastplate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a coat of checker work, a turban, and a sash: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron your brother, and his sons, that he may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>28:5</sup>They shall take the gold, and the blue, and the purple, and the scarlet, and the fine linen.

<sup>28:15</sup>“You shall make a breastplate of judgment, the work of the skillful workman; like the work of the ephod you shall make it; of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, you shall make it. <sup>28:16</sup>It shall be square and folded double; a span<sup>u</sup> shall be its length of it, and a span its breadth. <sup>28:17</sup>You shall set in it settings of stones, four rows of stones: a row of ruby, topaz, and beryl shall be the first row; <sup>28:18</sup>and the second row a turquoise, a sapphire<sup>v</sup>, and an emerald; <sup>28:19</sup>and the third row a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>28:20</sup>and the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be enclosed in gold in their settings. <sup>28:21</sup>The stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, they shall be for the twelve tribes. <sup>28:22</sup>You shall make on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. <sup>28:23</sup>You shall make on the breastplate two rings of gold, and shall put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>28:24</sup>You shall put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>28:25</sup>The other two ends of the two braided chains you shall put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod in its forepart. <sup>28:26</sup>You shall make two rings of gold, and you shall put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which is toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>28:27</sup>You shall make two rings of gold, and shall put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its forepart, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>28:28</sup>They shall bind the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate may not swing out from the ephod. <sup>28:29</sup>Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes in to the holy place, for a memorial before the LORD continually. <sup>28:30</sup>You shall put in the breastplate of judgment the Urim and the Thummim; and they shall be on Aaron's heart, when he goes in before the LORD: and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel on his heart before the LORD continually.

woven work around its hole, as it were the hole of a coat of mail, that it not be torn. <sup>28:33</sup>On its hem you shall make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, around its hem; and bells of gold between and around them: <sup>28:34</sup>a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, around the hem of the robe. <sup>28:35</sup>It shall be on Aaron to minister: and its sound shall be heard when he goes in to the holy place before the LORD, and when he comes out, that he not die.

<sup>29:1</sup>“This is the thing that you shall do to them to make them holy, to minister to me in the priest’s office: take one young bull and two rams without blemish, <sup>29:2</sup>unleavened bread, unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil: you shall make them of fine wheat flour. <sup>29:3</sup>You shall put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bull and the two rams. <sup>29:4</sup>You shall bring Aaron and his sons to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall wash them with water. <sup>29:5</sup>You shall take the garments, and put on Aaron the coat, the robe of the ephod, the ephod, and the breastplate, and clothe him with the skillfully woven band of the ephod; <sup>29:6</sup>and you shall set the turban on his head, and put the holy crown on the turban. <sup>29:7</sup>Then you shall take the anointing oil, and pour it on his head, and anoint him. <sup>29:8</sup>You shall bring his sons, and put coats on them. <sup>29:9</sup>You shall clothe them with belts, Aaron and his sons, and bind headbands on them: and they shall have the priesthood by a perpetual statute: and you shall consecrate Aaron and his sons.

the fat tail, the fat that covers the innards, the cover of the liver, the two kidneys, the fat that is on them, and the right thigh (for it is a ram of consecration),<sup>29:23</sup> and one loaf of bread, one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of unleavened bread that is before the LORD.<sup>29:24</sup> You shall put all of this in Aaron's hands, and in his sons' hands, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD.<sup>29:25</sup> You shall take them from their hands, and burn them on the altar on the burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma before the LORD: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>29:26</sup> "You shall take the breast of Aaron's ram of consecration, and wave it for a wave offering before the LORD: and it shall be your portion. <sup>29:27</sup> You shall sanctify the breast of the wave offering, and the thigh of the wave offering, which is waved, and which is heaved up, of the ram of consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sons: <sup>29:28</sup> and it shall be for Aaron and his sons as their portion forever from the children of Israel; for it is a wave offering: and it shall be a wave offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace offerings, even their wave offering to the LORD.

<sup>29:29</sup> "The holy garments of Aaron shall be for his sons after him, to be anointed in them, and to be consecrated in them. <sup>29:30</sup> Seven days shall the son who is priest in his place put them on, when he comes into the Tent of Meeting to minister in the holy place.

<sup>29:35</sup> "You shall do so to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded you. You shall consecrate them seven days. <sup>29:36</sup> Every day you shall offer the bull of sin offering for atonement: and you shall cleanse the altar, when you make atonement for it; and you shall anoint it, to sanctify it. <sup>29:37</sup> Seven days you shall make atonement for the altar, and sanctify it: and the altar shall be most holy; whatever touches the altar shall be holy.

<sup>29:38</sup> "Now this is that which you shall offer on the altar: two lambs a year old day by day continually. <sup>29:39</sup> The one lamb you shall offer in the morning; and the other lamb you shall offer at evening: <sup>29:40</sup> and with the one lamb a tenth part of an ephah<sup>w</sup> of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil, and the fourth part of a hin of wine for a drink offering. <sup>29:41</sup> The other lamb you shall offer at evening, and shall do to it according to the meal offering of the morning, and according to its drink offering, for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>29:42</sup> It shall be a continual burnt offering throughout your generations at the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD, where I will meet with you, to speak there to you. <sup>29:43</sup> There I will meet with the children of Israel; and the place shall be sanctified by my glory. <sup>29:44</sup> I will sanctify the Tent of Meeting and the altar: Aaron also and his sons I will sanctify, to minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>29:45</sup> I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will be their God. <sup>29:46</sup> They shall know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I might dwell among them: I am the LORD their God.

perpetual incense before the LORD throughout your generations. <sup>30:9</sup>You shall offer no strange incense on it, nor burnt offering, nor meal offering; and you shall pour no drink offering on it. <sup>30:10</sup>Aaron shall make atonement on its horns once in the year; with the blood of the sin offering of atonement once in the year he shall make atonement for it throughout your generations. It is most holy to the LORD."

<sup>30:11</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>30:12</sup>"When you take a census of the children of Israel, according to those who are numbered among them, then each man shall give a ransom for his soul to the LORD, when you number them; that there be no plague among them when you number them. <sup>30:13</sup>They shall give this, everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary; (the shekel is twenty gerahs;) half a shekel for an offering to the LORD. <sup>30:14</sup>Everyone who passes over to those who are numbered, from twenty years old and upward, shall give the offering to the LORD. <sup>30:15</sup>The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less, than the half shekel, when they give the offering of the LORD, to make atonement for your souls. <sup>30:16</sup>You shall take the atonement money from the children of Israel, and shall appoint it for the service of the Tent of Meeting; that it may be a memorial for the children of Israel before the LORD, to make atonement for your souls."

<sup>30:22</sup>Moreover the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>30:23</sup>"Also take fine spices: of liquid myrrh, five hundred shekels; and of fragrant cinnamon half as much, even two hundred and fifty; and of fragrant cane, two hundred and fifty; <sup>30:24</sup>and of cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the sanctuary; and a hin of olive oil. <sup>30:25</sup>You shall make it a holy anointing oil, a perfume compounded after the art of the perfumer: it shall be a holy anointing oil. <sup>30:26</sup>You shall use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, <sup>30:27</sup>the table and all its articles, the menorah and its accessories, the altar of incense, <sup>30:28</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its utensils, and the basin with its base. <sup>30:29</sup>You shall sanctify them, that they may be most holy. Whatever touches them shall be holy. <sup>30:30</sup>You shall anoint Aaron and his sons, and sanctify them, that they may minister to me in the priest's office. <sup>30:31</sup>You shall speak to the children of Israel, saying, 'This shall be a holy anointing oil to me throughout your generations. <sup>30:32</sup>It shall not be poured on man's flesh, neither shall you make any like it, according to its composition: it is holy. It shall be holy to you. <sup>30:33</sup>Whoever compounds any like it, or whoever puts any of it on a stranger, he shall be cut off from his people."

put wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded you: <sup>31:7</sup>the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the testimony, the mercy seat that is on it, all the furniture of the Tent, <sup>31:8</sup>the table and its vessels, the pure menorah with all its vessels, the altar of incense, <sup>31:9</sup>the altar of burnt offering with all its vessels, the basin and its base, <sup>31:10</sup>the finely worked garments—the holy garments for Aaron the priest—the garments of his sons to minister in the priest's office, <sup>31:11</sup>the anointing oil, and the incense of sweet spices for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded you they shall do."

<sup>31:12</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>31:13</sup>"Speak also to the children of Israel, saying, 'Most certainly you shall keep my Sabbaths: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that you may know that I am the LORD who sanctifies you. <sup>31:14</sup>You shall keep the Sabbath therefore; for it is holy to you. Everyone who profanes it shall surely be put to death; for whoever does any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>31:15</sup>Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day shall surely be put to death. <sup>31:16</sup>Therefore the children of Israel shall keep the Sabbath, to observe the Sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. <sup>31:17</sup>It is a sign between me and the children of Israel forever; for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.'"

<sup>32:1</sup>When the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people gathered themselves together to Aaron, and said to him, "Come, make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him."

<sup>32:2</sup>Aaron said to them, "Take off the golden rings, which are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and bring them to me."

<sup>32:3</sup>All the people took off the golden rings which were in their ears, and brought them to Aaron. <sup>32:4</sup>He received what they handed him, and fashioned it with an engraving tool, and made it a molten calf; and they said, "These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt."

<sup>32:6</sup>They rose up early on the next day, and offered burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to play.

<sup>32:7</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, "Go, get down; for your people, who you brought up out of the land of Egypt, have corrupted themselves! <sup>32:8</sup>They have turned aside quickly out of the way which I commanded them. They have made themselves a molten calf, and have worshiped it, and have sacrificed to it, and said, 'These are your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt.'"

<sup>32:9</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "I have seen these people, and behold, they are a stiff-necked people. <sup>32:10</sup>Now therefore leave me alone, that my wrath may burn hot against them, and that I may consume them; and I will make of you a great nation."

<sup>32:11</sup>Moses begged the LORD his God, and said, "The LORD, why does your wrath burn hot against your people, that you have brought out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a mighty hand? <sup>32:12</sup>Why should the Egyptians speak, saying, 'He brought them forth for evil, to kill them in the mountains, and to consume them from the surface of the earth?' Turn from your fierce wrath, and repent of this evil against your people. <sup>32:13</sup>Remember Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, your servants, to whom you swore by your own self, and said to them, 'I will multiply your seed as the stars of the sky, and all this land that I have spoken of I will give to your seed, and they shall inherit it forever.'"

<sup>32:15</sup>Moses turned, and went down from the mountain, with the two tablets of the testimony in his hand; tablets that were written on both their sides; on the one side and on the other they were written. <sup>32:16</sup>The tablets were the work of God, and the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tables.

people as they shouted, he said to Moses, "There is the noise of war in the camp."

<sup>32:18</sup>He said, "It isn't the voice of those who shout for victory, neither is it the voice of those who cry for being overcome; but the noise of those who sing that I hear." <sup>32:19</sup>It happened, as soon as he came near to the camp, that he saw the calf and the dancing; and Moses' anger grew hot, and he threw the tablets out of his hands, and broke them beneath the mountain. <sup>32:20</sup>He took the calf which they had made, and burnt it with fire, ground it to powder, and scattered it on the water, and made the children of Israel drink of it.

<sup>32:22</sup>Aaron said, "Don't let the anger of my lord grow hot. You know the people, that they are set on evil. <sup>32:23</sup>For they said to me, 'Make us gods, which shall go before us; for as for this Moses, the man who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.' <sup>32:24</sup>I said to them, 'Whoever has any gold, let them take it off:' so they gave it to me; and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf."

<sup>32:25</sup>When Moses saw that the people had broken loose, (for Aaron had let them loose for a derision among their enemies), <sup>32:26</sup>then Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, "Whoever is on the LORD's side, come to me!"

All the sons of Levi gathered themselves together to him. <sup>32:27</sup>He said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Every man put his sword on his thigh, and go back and forth from gate to gate throughout the camp, and every man kill his brother, and every man his companion, and every man his neighbor.'" <sup>32:28</sup>The sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses: and there fell of the people that day about three thousand men. <sup>32:29</sup>Moses said, "Consecrate yourselves today to the LORD, yes, every man against his son, and against his brother; that he may bestow on you a blessing this day."

<sup>32:30</sup>It happened on the next day, that Moses said to the people, "You have sinned a great sin. Now I will go up to the LORD. Perhaps I shall make atonement for your sin."

<sup>32:31</sup>Moses returned to the LORD, and said, "Oh, this people have sinned a great sin, and have made themselves gods of gold. <sup>32:32</sup>Yet now, if you will, forgive their sin—and if not, please blot me out of your book which you have written."

<sup>32:33</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Whoever has sinned against me, him will I blot out of my book. <sup>32:34</sup>Now go, lead the people to the place of which I have spoken to you. Behold, my angel shall go before you. Nevertheless in the day when I punish, I will punish them for their sin." <sup>32:35</sup>The LORD struck the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

<sup>33:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, "Depart, go up from here, you and the people that you have brought up out of the land of Egypt, to the land of which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your seed.' <sup>33:2</sup>I will send an angel before you; and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: <sup>33:3</sup>to a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of you, for you are a stiff-necked people, lest I consume you in the way."

<sup>33:5</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Tell the children of Israel, 'You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go up into your midst for one moment, I would consume you. Therefore now take off your jewelry from you, that I may know what to do to you.'"

<sup>33:7</sup>Now Moses used to take the tent and to pitch it outside the camp, far away from the camp, and he called it "The Tent of Meeting." It happened that everyone who sought the LORD went out to the Tent of Meeting, which was outside the camp. <sup>33:8</sup>It happened that when Moses went out to the Tent, that all the people rose up, and stood, everyone at their tent door, and watched Moses, until he had gone into the Tent. <sup>33:9</sup>It happened, when Moses entered into the Tent, that the pillar of cloud descended, stood at the door of the Tent, and spoke with Moses. <sup>33:10</sup>All the people saw the pillar of cloud stand at the door of the Tent, and all the people rose up and worshiped, everyone at their tent door. <sup>33:11</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses face to face, as a man speaks to his friend. He turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua, the son of Nun, a young man, didn't depart out of the Tent.

<sup>33:12</sup>Moses said to the LORD, "Behold, you tell me, 'Bring up this people:' and you haven't let me know whom you will send with me. Yet you have said, 'I know you by name, and you have also found favor in my sight.' <sup>33:13</sup>Now therefore, if I have found favor in your sight, please show me now your ways, that I may know you, so that I may find favor in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people."

<sup>33:15</sup>He said to him, "If your presence doesn't go with me, don't carry us up from here. <sup>33:16</sup>For how would people know that I have found favor in your sight, I and your people? Isn't it in that you go with us, so that we are separated, I and your people, from all the people who are on the surface of the earth?"

<sup>33:17</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "I will do this thing also that you have spoken; for you have found favor in my sight, and I know you by name."

<sup>33:19</sup>He said, "I will make all my goodness pass before you, and will proclaim the name of the LORD before you. I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy." <sup>33:20</sup>He said, "You cannot see my face, for man may not see me and live." <sup>33:21</sup>The LORD also said, "Behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand on the rock. <sup>33:22</sup>It will happen, while my glory passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand until I have passed by; <sup>33:23</sup>then I will take away my hand, and you will see my back; but my face shall not be seen."

<sup>34:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Chisel two stone tablets like the first: and I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. <sup>34:2</sup>Be ready by the morning, and come up in the morning to Mount Sinai, and present yourself there to me on the top of the mountain. <sup>34:3</sup>No one shall come up with you; neither let anyone be seen throughout all the mountain; neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mountain."

first; and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up to Mount Sinai, as the LORD had commanded him, and took in his hand two stone tablets. <sup>34:5</sup>The LORD descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the LORD. <sup>34:6</sup>The LORD passed by before him, and proclaimed, "The LORD! the LORD, a merciful and gracious God, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth, <sup>34:7</sup>keeping loving kindness for thousands, forgiving iniquity and disobedience and sin; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the children's children, on the third and on the fourth generation."

<sup>34:8</sup>Moses hurried and bowed his head toward the earth, and worshiped. <sup>34:9</sup>He said, "If now I have found favor in your sight, Lord, please let the Lord go in the midst of us; although this is a stiff-necked people; pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for your inheritance."

<sup>34:10</sup>He said, "Behold, I make a covenant: before all your people I will do marvels, such as have not been worked in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people among which you are shall see the work of the LORD; for it is an awesome thing that I do with you.

<sup>34:11</sup>Observe that which I command you this day. Behold, I drive out before you the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite. <sup>34:12</sup>Be careful, lest you make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land where you are going, lest it be for a snare in the midst of you: <sup>34:13</sup>but you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and you shall cut down their Asherim; <sup>34:14</sup>for you shall worship no other god: for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

bread, as I commanded you, at the time appointed in the month Abib; for in the month Abib you came out from Egypt.

<sup>34:19</sup>“All that opens the womb is mine; and all your livestock that is male, the firstborn of cow and sheep. <sup>34:20</sup>The firstborn of a donkey you shall redeem with a lamb: and if you will not redeem it, then you shall break its neck. All the firstborn of your sons you shall redeem. No one shall appear before me empty.

<sup>34:28</sup>He was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights; he neither ate bread, nor drank water. He wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant, the ten commandments.

ments that the LORD had spoken with him on Mount Sinai. <sup>34:33</sup>When Moses was done speaking with them, he put a veil on his face.

<sup>34:34</sup>But when Moses went in before the LORD to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel that which he was commanded. <sup>34:35</sup>The children of Israel saw Moses’ face, that the skin of Moses’ face shone: and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

<sup>35:1</sup>Moses assembled all the congregation of the children of Israel, and said to them, “These are the words which the LORD has commanded, that you should do them. <sup>35:2</sup>Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be a holy day for you, a Sabbath of solemn rest to the LORD: whoever does any work in it shall be put to death. <sup>35:3</sup>You shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations on the Sabbath day.”

<sup>35:4</sup>Moses spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD commanded, saying, <sup>35:5</sup>Take from among you an offering to the LORD. Whoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, the LORD’s offering: gold, silver, brass, <sup>35:6</sup>blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats’ hair, <sup>35:7</sup>rams’ skins dyed red, sea cow hides, acacia wood, <sup>35:8</sup>oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the sweet incense, <sup>35:9</sup>onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod and for the breastplate.

<sup>35:10</sup>“Let every wise-hearted man among you come, and make all that the LORD has commanded: <sup>35:11</sup>the tabernacle, its outer covering, its roof, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, and its sockets; <sup>35:12</sup>the ark, and its poles, the mercy seat, the veil of the screen; <sup>35:13</sup>the table with its poles and all its vessels, and the show bread; <sup>35:14</sup>the menorah also for the light, with its vessels, its lamps, and the oil for the light; <sup>35:15</sup>and the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle; <sup>35:16</sup>the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of brass, its poles, and all its vessels, the basin and its base; <sup>35:17</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars, their sockets, and the screen for the gate of the court; <sup>35:18</sup>the pins of the tabernacle, the pins of the court, and their cords; <sup>35:19</sup>the finely worked garments, for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office."

<sup>35:20</sup>All the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses. <sup>35:21</sup>They came, everyone whose heart stirred him up, and everyone whom his spirit made willing, and brought the LORD's offering, for the work of the Tent of Meeting, and for all of its service, and for the holy garments. <sup>35:22</sup>They came, both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought brooches, earrings, signet rings, and armlets, all jewels of gold; even every man who offered an offering of gold to the LORD. <sup>35:23</sup>Everyone, with whom was found blue, purple, scarlet, fine linen, goats' hair, rams' skins dyed red, and sea cow hides, brought them. <sup>35:24</sup>Everyone who offered an offering of silver and brass brought the LORD's offering; and everyone, with whom was found acacia wood for any work of the service, brought it. <sup>35:25</sup>All the women who were wise-hearted spun with their hands, and brought that which they had spun, the blue, the purple, the scarlet, and the fine linen. <sup>35:26</sup>All the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom spun the goats' hair. <sup>35:27</sup>The rulers brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastplate; <sup>35:28</sup>and the spice, and the oil for the light, for the anointing oil, and for the sweet incense. <sup>35:29</sup>The children of Israel brought a freewill offering to the LORD; every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all the work, which the LORD had commanded to be made by Moses.

<sup>35:30</sup>Moses said to the children of Israel, "Behold, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah. <sup>35:31</sup>He has filled him with the Spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, in knowledge, and in all kinds of workmanship; <sup>35:32</sup>and to make skillful works, to work in gold, in silver, in brass, <sup>35:33</sup>in cutting of stones for setting, and in carving of wood, to work in all kinds of skillful workmanship. <sup>35:34</sup>He has put in his heart that he may teach, both he, and Oholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>35:35</sup>He has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all kinds of workmanship, of the engraver, of the skillful workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver, even of those who do any workmanship, and of those who make skillful works.

<sup>36:1</sup>"Bezalel and Oholiab shall work with every wise-hearted man, in whom the LORD has put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all the work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the LORD has commanded."

<sup>36:6</sup>Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, "Let neither man nor woman make anything else for the offering for the sanctuary." So the people were restrained from bringing. <sup>36:7</sup>For the stuff they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

<sup>36:20</sup>He made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia wood, standing up. <sup>36:21</sup>Ten cubits was the length of a board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of each board. <sup>36:22</sup>Each board had two tenons, joined one to another. He made all the boards of the tabernacle this way. <sup>36:23</sup>He made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side southward. <sup>36:24</sup>He made forty sockets of silver under the twenty boards; two sockets under one board for its two tenons, and two sockets under another board for its two tenons. <sup>36:25</sup>For the second side of the tabernacle, on the north side, he made twenty boards, <sup>36:26</sup>and their forty sockets of silver; two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board. <sup>36:27</sup>For the far part of the tabernacle westward he made six boards. <sup>36:28</sup>He made two boards for the corners of the tabernacle in the far part. <sup>36:29</sup>They were double beneath, and in the same way they were all the way to its top to one ring. He did this to both of them in the two corners. <sup>36:30</sup>There were eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets; under every board two sockets.

<sup>37:1</sup>Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood. Its length was two and a half cubits, and its breadth a cubit and a half, and a cubit and a half its height. <sup>37:2</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a molding of gold for it around it. <sup>37:3</sup>He cast four rings of gold for it, in its four feet; even two rings on its one side, and two rings on its other side. <sup>37:4</sup>He made poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>37:5</sup>He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark, to bear the ark. <sup>37:6</sup>He made a mercy seat of pure gold. Its length was two and a half cubits, and a cubit and a half its breadth. <sup>37:7</sup>He made two cherubim of gold. He made them of beaten work, at the two ends of the mercy seat; <sup>37:8</sup>one cherub at the one end, and one cherub at the other end. He made the cherubim of one piece with the mercy seat at its two ends. <sup>37:9</sup>The cherubim spread out their wings on high, covering the mercy seat with their wings, with their faces toward one another. The faces of the cherubim were toward the mercy seat.

<sup>37:10</sup>He made the table of acacia wood. Its length was two cubits, and its breadth was a cubit, and its height was a cubit and a half. <sup>37:11</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold, and made a gold molding around it. <sup>37:12</sup>He made a border of a handbreadth around it, and made a golden molding on its border around it. <sup>37:13</sup>He cast four rings of gold for it, and put the rings in the four corners that were on its four feet. <sup>37:14</sup>The rings were close by the border, the places for the poles to carry the table. <sup>37:15</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table. <sup>37:16</sup>He made the vessels which were on the table, its dishes, its spoons, its bowls, and its pitchers with which to pour out, of pure gold.

made the menorah of beaten work. Its base, its shaft, its cups, its buds, and its flowers were of one piece with it. <sup>37:18</sup>There were six branches going out of its sides: three branches of the menorah out of its one side, and three branches of the menorah out of its other side: <sup>37:19</sup>three cups made like almond blossoms in one branch, a bud and a flower, and three cups made like almond blossoms in the other branch, a bud and a flower: so for the six branches going out of the menorah. <sup>37:20</sup>In the menorah were four cups made like almond blossoms, its buds and its flowers; <sup>37:21</sup>and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, and a bud under two branches of one piece with it, for the six branches going out of it. <sup>37:22</sup>Their buds and their branches were of one piece with it. The whole thing was one beaten work of pure gold. <sup>37:23</sup>He made its seven lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff dishes, of pure gold. <sup>37:24</sup>He made it of a talent of pure gold, with all its vessels.

<sup>37:25</sup>He made the altar of incense of acacia wood. It was square: its length was a cubit, and its breadth a cubit. Its height was two cubits. Its horns were of one piece with it. <sup>37:26</sup>He overlaid it with pure gold, its top, its sides around it, and its horns. He made a gold molding around it. <sup>37:27</sup>He made two golden rings for it under its molding crown, on its two ribs, on its two sides, for places for poles with which to carry it. <sup>37:28</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with gold. <sup>37:29</sup>He made the holy anointing oil and the pure incense of sweet spices, after the art of the perfumer.

<sup>38:1</sup>He made the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood. It was square. Its length was five cubits, its breadth was five cubits, and its height was three cubits. <sup>38:2</sup>He made its horns on its four corners. Its horns were of one piece with it, and he overlaid it with brass. <sup>38:3</sup>He made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, the shovels, the basins, the forks, and the fire pans. He made all its vessels of brass. <sup>38:4</sup>He made for the altar a grating of a network of brass, under the ledge around it beneath, reaching halfway up. <sup>38:5</sup>He cast four rings for the four ends of brass grating, to be places for the poles. <sup>38:6</sup>He made the poles of acacia wood, and overlaid them with brass. <sup>38:7</sup>He put the poles into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it. He made it hollow with planks.

<sup>38:24</sup>All the gold that was used for the work in all the work of the sanctuary, even the gold of the offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred thirty shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary. <sup>38:25</sup>The silver of those who were numbered of the congregation was one hundred talents, and one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary: <sup>38:26</sup>a beka a head, that is, half a shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for everyone who passed over to those who were numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty men. <sup>38:27</sup>The one hundred talents of silver were for casting the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the veil; one hundred sockets for the one hundred talents, a talent for a socket. <sup>38:28</sup>Of the one thousand seven hundred seventy-five shekels he made hooks for the pillars, overlaid their capitals, and made fillets for them. <sup>38:29</sup>The brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four hundred shekels. <sup>38:30</sup>With this he made the sockets to the door of the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar, the bronze grating for it, all the vessels of the altar, <sup>38:31</sup>the sockets around the court, the sockets of the gate of the court, all the pins of the tabernacle, and all the pins around the court.

<sup>39:8</sup>He made the breastplate, the work of a skillful workman, like the work of the ephod; of gold, of blue, purple, scarlet, and fine twined linen. <sup>39:9</sup>It was square. They made the breastplate double. Its length was a span, and its breadth a span, being double. <sup>39:10</sup>They set in it four rows of stones. A row of ruby, topaz, and beryl was the first row; <sup>39:11</sup>and the second row, a turquoise, a sapphire<sup>x</sup>, and an emerald; <sup>39:12</sup>and the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an amethyst; <sup>39:13</sup>and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper. They were enclosed in gold settings. <sup>39:14</sup>The stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names; like the engravings of a signet, everyone according to his name, for the twelve tribes. <sup>39:15</sup>They made on the breastplate chains like cords, of braided work of pure gold. <sup>39:16</sup>They made two settings of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breastplate. <sup>39:17</sup>They put the two braided chains of gold in the two rings at the ends of the breastplate. <sup>39:18</sup>The other two ends of the two braided chains they put on the two settings, and put them on the shoulder straps of the ephod, in its front. <sup>39:19</sup>They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on its edge, which was toward the side of the ephod inward. <sup>39:20</sup>They made two rings of gold, and put them on the two shoulder straps of the ephod underneath, in its front, close by its coupling, above the skillfully woven band of the ephod. <sup>39:21</sup>They bound the breastplate by its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it might be on the skillfully woven band of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not come loose from the ephod, as the LORD commanded Moses.

around the skirts of the robe, to minister in, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>39:32</sup>Thus all the work of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting was finished. The children of Israel did according to all that the LORD commanded Moses; so they did. <sup>39:33</sup>They brought the tabernacle to Moses, the tent, with all its furniture, its clasps, its boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, <sup>39:34</sup>the covering of rams' skins dyed red, the covering of sea cow hides, the veil of the screen, <sup>39:35</sup>the ark of the testimony with its poles, the mercy seat, <sup>39:36</sup>the table, all its vessels, the show bread, <sup>39:37</sup>the pure menorah, its lamps, even the lamps to be set in order, all its vessels, the oil for the light, <sup>39:38</sup>the golden altar, the anointing oil, the sweet incense, the screen for the door of the Tent, <sup>39:39</sup>the bronze altar, its grating of brass, its poles, all of its vessels, the basin and its base, <sup>39:40</sup>the hangings of the court, its pillars, its sockets, the screen for the gate of the court, its cords, its pins, all the instruments of the service of the tabernacle, for the Tent of Meeting, <sup>39:41</sup>the finely worked garments for ministering in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to minister in the priest's office. <sup>39:42</sup>According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did all the work. <sup>39:43</sup>Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it as the LORD had commanded, even so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

the things that are on it. You shall bring in the menorah, and light its lamps. <sup>40:5</sup>You shall set the golden altar for incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the screen of the door to the tabernacle.

<sup>40:6</sup>"You shall set the altar of burnt offering before the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>40:7</sup>You shall set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and shall put water therein. <sup>40:8</sup>You shall set up the court around it, and hang up the screen of the gate of the court.

<sup>40:9</sup>"You shall take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shall make it holy, and all its furniture: and it will be holy. <sup>40:10</sup>You shall anoint the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and sanctify the altar: and the altar will be most holy. <sup>40:11</sup>You shall anoint the basin and its base, and sanctify it.

<sup>40:17</sup>It happened in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was raised up. <sup>40:18</sup>Moses raised up the tabernacle, and laid its sockets, and set up its boards, and put in its bars, and raised up its pillars. <sup>40:19</sup>He spread the covering over the tent, and put the roof of the tabernacle above on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:20</sup>He took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the poles on the ark, and put the mercy seat above on the ark. <sup>40:21</sup>He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the screen, and screened the ark of the testimony, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:22</sup>He put the table in the Tent of Meeting, on the side of the tabernacle northward, outside of the veil. <sup>40:23</sup>He set the bread in order on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:24</sup>He put the menorah in the Tent

of Meeting, opposite the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward. <sup>40:25</sup>He lit the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:26</sup>He put the golden altar in the Tent of Meeting before the veil; <sup>40:27</sup>and he burnt incense of sweet spices on it, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:28</sup>He put up the screen of the door to the tabernacle. <sup>40:29</sup>He set the altar of burnt offering at the door of the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it the burnt offering and the meal offering, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:30</sup>He set the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water therein, with which to wash. <sup>40:31</sup>Moses, Aaron, and his sons washed their hands and their feet there. <sup>40:32</sup>When they went into the Tent of Meeting, and when they came near to the altar, they washed, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>40:33</sup>He raised up the court around the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the screen of the gate of the court. So Moses finished the work.

Leviticus

<sup>1:3</sup>“If his offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he shall offer a male without blemish. He shall offer it at the door of the Tent of Meeting, that he may be accepted before the LORD. <sup>1:4</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it shall be accepted for him to make atonement for him. <sup>1:5</sup>He shall kill the bull before the LORD. Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood around on the altar that is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>1:6</sup>He shall flay the burnt offering, and cut it into pieces. <sup>1:7</sup>The sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in order on the fire; <sup>1:8</sup>and Aaron’s sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the altar; <sup>1:9</sup>but its innards and its legs he shall wash with water. The priest shall burn the whole on the altar, for a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

the place of the ashes. <sup>1:17</sup>He shall tear it by its wings, but shall not divide it apart. The priest shall burn it on the altar, on the wood that is on the fire. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

<sup>2:1</sup>“When anyone offers an offering of a meal offering to the LORD, his offering shall be of fine flour; and he shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense on it. <sup>2:2</sup>He shall bring it to Aaron’s sons, the priests; and he shall take his handful of its fine flour, and of its oil, with all its frankincense; and the priest shall burn its memorial on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>2:3</sup>That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is a most holy thing of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>2:4</sup>“When you offer an offering of a meal offering baked in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil. <sup>2:5</sup>If your offering is a meal offering of the griddle, it shall be of unleavened fine flour, mixed with oil. <sup>2:6</sup>You shall cut it in pieces, and pour oil on it. It is a meal offering. <sup>2:7</sup>If your offering is a meal offering of the pan, it shall be made of fine flour with oil. <sup>2:8</sup>You shall bring the meal offering that is made of these things to the LORD: and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar. <sup>2:9</sup>The priest shall take from the meal offering its memorial, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>2:10</sup>That which is left of the meal offering shall be Aaron’s and his sons’. It is a thing most holy of the offerings of the LORD made by fire.

<sup>2:11</sup>“No meal offering, which you shall offer to the LORD, shall be made with yeast; for you shall burn no yeast, nor any honey, as an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>2:12</sup>As an offering of firstfruits you shall offer them to the LORD: but they shall not ascend for a pleasant aroma on the altar. <sup>2:13</sup>Every offering of your meal offering you shall season with salt; neither shall you allow the salt of the covenant of your God<sup>b</sup> to be lacking from your meal offering. With all your offerings you shall offer salt.

<sup>2:14</sup>“If you offer a meal offering of first fruits to the LORD, you shall offer for the meal offering of your first fruits grain in the ear parched with fire, bruised grain of the fresh ear.

<sup>2:15</sup>You shall put oil on it, and lay frankincense on it: it is a meal offering. <sup>2:16</sup>The priest shall burn as its memorial, part of its bruised grain, and part of its oil, along with all its frankincense: it is an offering made by fire to the LORD.

<sup>3:6</sup>“If his offering for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD is from the flock; male or female, he shall offer it without blemish. <sup>3:7</sup>If he offers a lamb for his offering, then he shall offer it before the LORD; <sup>3:8</sup>and he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the Tent of Meeting: and Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood around on the altar. <sup>3:9</sup>He shall offer from the sacrifice of peace offerings an offering made by fire to the LORD; its fat, the entire tail fat, he shall take away close to the backbone; and the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards, <sup>3:10</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away. <sup>3:11</sup>The priest shall burn it on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire to the LORD.

the kidneys, he shall take away. <sup>3:16</sup>The priest shall burn them on the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a pleasant aroma; all the fat is the LORD’s.

<sup>4:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>4:2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘If anyone sins unintentionally, in any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and does any one of them: <sup>4:3</sup>if the anointed priest sins so as to bring guilt on the people, then let him offer for his sin, which he has sinned, a young bull without blemish to the LORD for a sin offering. <sup>4:4</sup>He shall bring the bull to the door of the Tent of Meeting before the LORD; and he shall lay his hand on the head of the bull, and kill the bull before the LORD. <sup>4:5</sup>The anointed priest shall take some of the blood of the bull, and bring it to the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4:6</sup>The priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle some of the blood seven times before the LORD, before the veil of the sanctuary. <sup>4:7</sup>The priest shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the LORD, which is in the Tent of Meeting; and he shall pour out all of rest of the blood of the bull at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4:8</sup>He shall take all the fat of the bull of the sin offering off of it; the fat that covers the innards, and all the fat that is on the innards, <sup>4:9</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, he shall take away, <sup>4:10</sup>as it is taken off of the bull of the sacrifice of peace offerings. The priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>4:11</sup>The bull’s skin, all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, its innards, and its dung, <sup>4:12</sup>even the whole bull shall he carry forth outside the camp to a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and burn it on wood with fire. Where the ashes are poured out it shall be burned.

<sup>4:13</sup>“If the whole congregation of Israel sins, and the thing is hidden from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and are guilty; <sup>4:14</sup>when the sin in which they have sinned is known, then the assembly shall offer a young bull for a sin offering, and bring it before the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4:15</sup>The elders of the congregation shall lay their hands on the head of the bull before the LORD; and the bull shall be killed before the LORD. <sup>4:16</sup>The anointed priest shall bring of the blood of the bull to the Tent of Meeting: <sup>4:17</sup>and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the LORD, before the veil. <sup>4:18</sup>He shall put some of the blood on the horns of the altar which is before the LORD, that is in the Tent of Meeting; and the rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering, which is at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4:19</sup>All its fat he shall take from it, and burn it on the altar. <sup>4:20</sup>Thus shall he do with the bull; as he did with the bull of the sin offering, so shall he do with this; and the priest shall make atonement for them, and they shall be forgiven. <sup>4:21</sup>He shall carry forth the bull outside the camp, and burn it as he burned the first bull. It is the sin offering for the assembly.

<sup>4:22</sup>“When a ruler sins, and unwittingly does any one of all the things which the LORD his God has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; <sup>4:23</sup>if his sin, in which he has sinned, is made known to him, he shall bring as his offering a goat, a male without blemish. <sup>4:24</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt offering before the LORD. It is a sin offering. <sup>4:25</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering. He shall pour out the rest of its blood at the base of the altar of burnt offering. <sup>4:26</sup>All its fat he shall burn on the altar, like the fat of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>4:27</sup>“If anyone of the common people sins unwittingly, in doing any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done, and is guilty; <sup>4:28</sup>if his sin, which he has sinned, is made known to him, then he shall bring for his offering a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he has sinned. <sup>4:29</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill the sin offering in the place of burnt offering. <sup>4:30</sup>The priest shall take some of its blood with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>4:31</sup>All its fat he shall take away, like the fat is taken away from off of the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn it on the altar for a pleasant aroma to the LORD; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>4:32</sup>“If he brings a lamb as his offering for a sin offering, he shall bring a female without blemish. <sup>4:33</sup>He shall lay his hand on the head of the sin offering, and kill it for a sin offering in the place where they kill the burnt offering. <sup>4:34</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering; and all the rest of its blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar. <sup>4:35</sup>All its fat he shall take away, like the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace offerings; and the priest shall burn them on the altar, on the offerings of the LORD made by fire; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned, and he will be forgiven.

<sup>5:1</sup>“If anyone sins, in that he hears the voice of adjuration, he being a witness, whether he has seen or known, if he doesn't report it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

<sup>5:2</sup>“Or if anyone touches any unclean thing, whether it is the carcass of an unclean animal, or the carcass of unclean livestock, or the carcass of unclean creeping things, and it is hidden from him, and he is unclean, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>5:3</sup>“Or if he touches the uncleanness of man, whatever his uncleanness is with which he is unclean, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty.

<sup>5:4</sup>“Or if anyone swears rashly with his lips to do evil, or to do good, whatever it is that a man might utter rashly with an oath, and it is hidden from him; when he knows of it, then he shall be guilty of one of these. <sup>5:5</sup>It shall be, when he is guilty of one of these, he shall confess that in which he has sinned: <sup>5:6</sup>and he shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD for his sin which he has sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb or a goat, for a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin.

<sup>5:7</sup>“If he can't afford a lamb, then he shall bring his trespass offering for that in which he has sinned, two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, to the LORD; one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. <sup>5:8</sup>He shall bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one which is for the sin offering, and wring off its head from its neck, but shall not sever it completely. <sup>5:9</sup>He shall sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering on the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering. <sup>5:10</sup>He shall offer the second for a burnt offering, according to the ordinance; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he has sinned, and he shall be forgiven.

<sup>5:11</sup>“But if he can’t afford two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, then he shall bring his offering for that in which he has sinned, the tenth part of an ephah<sup>c</sup> of fine flour for a sin offering. He shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put any frankincense on it, for it is a sin offering. <sup>5:12</sup>He shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it as the memorial portion, and burn it on the altar, on the offerings of the LORD made by fire. It is a sin offering. <sup>5:13</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin that he has sinned in any of these things, and he will be forgiven; and the rest shall be the priest’s, as the meal offering.”

<sup>5:17</sup>“If anyone sins, and does any of the things which the LORD has commanded not to be done; though he didn’t know it, yet he is guilty, and shall bear his iniquity. <sup>5:18</sup>He shall bring a ram without blemish from of the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning the thing in which he sinned and didn’t know it, and he will be forgiven. <sup>5:19</sup>It is a trespass offering. He is certainly guilty before the LORD.”

<sup>6:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6:2</sup>“If anyone sins, and commits a trespass against the LORD, and deals falsely with his neighbor in a matter of deposit, or of bargain, or of robbery, or has oppressed his neighbor, <sup>6:3</sup>or has found that which was lost, and dealt falsely therein, and swearing to a lie; in any of all these things that a man does, sinning therein; <sup>6:4</sup>then it shall be, if he has sinned, and is guilty, he shall restore that which he took by robbery, or the thing which he has gotten by oppression, or the deposit which was committed to him, or the lost thing which he found, <sup>6:5</sup>or any thing about which he has sworn falsely; he shall restore it even in full, and shall add a fifth part more to it. To him to whom it belongs he shall give it, in the day of his being found guilty. <sup>6:6</sup>He shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, a ram without blemish from the flock, according to your estimation, for a trespass offering, to the priest. <sup>6:7</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven concerning whatever he does to become guilty.”

the LORD. <sup>6:16</sup>That which is left of it Aaron and his sons shall eat. It shall be eaten without yeast in a holy place. They shall eat it in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6:17</sup>It shall not be baked with yeast. I have given it as their portion of my offerings made by fire. It is most holy, as the sin offering, and as the trespass offering. <sup>6:18</sup>Every male among the children of Aaron shall eat of it, as their portion forever throughout your generations, from the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Whoever touches them shall be holy.”

<sup>6:24</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>6:25</sup>“Speak to Aaron and to his sons, saying, ‘This is the law of the sin offering: in the place where the burnt offering is killed, the sin offering shall be killed before the LORD. It is most holy. <sup>6:26</sup>The priest who offers it for sin shall eat it. It shall be eaten in a holy place, in the court of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6:27</sup>Whatever shall touch its flesh shall be holy. When there is any of its blood sprinkled on a garment, you shall wash that on which it was sprinkled in a holy place. <sup>6:28</sup>But the earthen vessel in which it is boiled shall be broken; and if it is boiled in a bronze vessel, it shall be scoured, and rinsed in water. <sup>6:29</sup>Every male among the priests shall eat of it: it is most holy. <sup>6:30</sup>No sin offering, of which any of the blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

<sup>7:1</sup>“This is the law of the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>7:2</sup>In the place where they kill the burnt offering, he shall kill the trespass offering; and its blood he shall sprinkle around on the altar. <sup>7:3</sup>He shall offer all of its fat: the fat tail, and the fat that covers the innards, <sup>7:4</sup>and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the loins, and the cover on the liver, with the kidneys, shall he take away; <sup>7:5</sup>and the priest shall burn them on the altar for an offering made by fire to the LORD: it is a trespass offering. <sup>7:6</sup>Every male among the priests may eat of it. It shall be eaten in a holy place. It is most holy.

<sup>7:7</sup>“As is the sin offering, so is the trespass offering; there is one law for them. The priest who makes atonement with them shall have it. <sup>7:8</sup>The priest who offers any man’s burnt offering, even the priest shall have for himself the skin of the burnt offering which he has offered. <sup>7:9</sup>Every meal offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the pan, and on the griddle, shall be the priest’s who offers it. <sup>7:10</sup>Every meal offering, mixed with oil or dry, belongs to all the sons of Aaron, one as well as another.

<sup>7:11</sup>“This is the law of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which one shall offer to the LORD. <sup>7:12</sup>If he offers it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mixed with oil. <sup>7:13</sup>With cakes of leavened bread he shall offer his offering with the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving. <sup>7:14</sup>Of it he shall offer one out of each offering for a heave offering to the LORD. It shall be the priest’s who sprinkles the blood of the peace offerings. <sup>7:15</sup>The flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten on the day of his offering. He shall not leave any of it until the morning.

fire. As for the flesh, everyone who is clean may eat it; <sup>7:20</sup>but the soul who eats of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, that belongs to the LORD, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from his people. <sup>7:21</sup>When anyone touches any unclean thing, the uncleanness of man, or an unclean animal, or any unclean abomination, and eats some of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace offerings, which belong to the LORD, that soul shall be cut off from his people.”

the LORD commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them. It is their portion forever throughout their generations. <sup>7:37</sup>This is the law of the burnt offering, of the meal offering, and of the sin offering, and of the trespass offering, and of the consecration, and of the sacrifice of peace offerings; <sup>7:38</sup>which the LORD commanded Moses in Mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to offer their offerings to the LORD, in the wilderness of Sinai.

<sup>8:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>8:2</sup>“Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and the bull of the sin offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened bread; <sup>8:3</sup>and assemble all the congregation at the door of the Tent of Meeting.”

<sup>8:4</sup>Moses did as the LORD commanded him; and the congregation was assembled at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>8:5</sup>Moses said to the congregation, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded to be done.” <sup>8:6</sup>Moses brought Aaron and his sons, and washed them with water. <sup>8:7</sup>He put the coat on him, tied the sash on him, clothed him with the robe, put the ephod on him, and he tied the skillfully woven band of the ephod on him, and fastened it to him with it. <sup>8:8</sup>He placed the breastplate on him; and in the breastplate he put the Urim and the Thummim. <sup>8:9</sup>He set the turban on his head; and on the turban, in front, he set the golden plate, the holy crown; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>8:10</sup>Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was in it, and sanctified them. <sup>8:11</sup>He sprinkled it on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its vessels, and the basin and its base, to sanctify them. <sup>8:12</sup>He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head, and anointed him, to sanctify him. <sup>8:13</sup>Moses brought Aaron’s sons, and clothed them with coats, and tied sashes on them, and put headbands on them; as the LORD commanded Moses.

the blood at the base of the altar, and sanctified it, to make atonement for it. <sup>8:16</sup>He took all the fat that was on the innards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat; and Moses burned it on the altar. <sup>8:17</sup>But the bull, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung, he burned with fire outside the camp; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>8:18</sup>He presented the ram of the burnt offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>8:19</sup>He killed it; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. <sup>8:20</sup>He cut the ram into its pieces; and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the fat. <sup>8:21</sup>He washed the innards and the legs with water; and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar. It was a burnt offering for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>8:22</sup>He presented the other ram, the ram of consecration: and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the ram. <sup>8:23</sup>He killed it; and Moses took some of its blood, and put it on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot. <sup>8:24</sup>He brought Aaron's sons; and Moses put some of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood around on the altar. <sup>8:25</sup>He took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the innards, and the cover of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right thigh; <sup>8:26</sup>and out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the LORD, he took one unleavened cake, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and placed them on the fat, and on the right thigh. <sup>8:27</sup>He put all these in Aaron's hands and in his sons' hands, and waved them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>8:28</sup>Moses took them from their hands, and burned them on the altar on the burnt offering. They were a consecration for a pleasant aroma. It was an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>8:29</sup>Moses took the breast, and waved it for a wave offering before the LORD. It was Moses' portion of the ram of consecration, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>8:30</sup>Moses took some of the anointing oil, and some of the blood which was on the altar, and sprinkled it on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him, and sanctified Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

<sup>8:31</sup>Moses said to Aaron and to his sons, "Boil the flesh at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, 'Aaron and his sons shall eat it.' <sup>8:32</sup>What remains of the flesh and of the bread you shall burn with fire. <sup>8:33</sup>You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting seven days, until the days of your consecration are fulfilled: for he shall consecrate you seven days. <sup>8:34</sup>What has been done this day, so the LORD has commanded to do, to make atonement for you. <sup>8:35</sup>You shall stay at the door of the Tent of Meeting day and night seven days, and keep the LORD's command, that you don't die: for so I am commanded." <sup>8:36</sup>Aaron and his sons did all the things which the LORD commanded by Moses.

<sup>9:5</sup>They brought what Moses commanded before the Tent of Meeting: and all the congregation drew near and stood before the LORD. <sup>9:6</sup>Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded that you should do: and the glory of the LORD shall appear to you." <sup>9:7</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "Draw near to the altar, and offer your sin offering, and your burnt offering, and make atonement for yourself, and for the people; and offer the offering of the people, and make atonement for them; as the LORD commanded."

upon the altar; as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>9:11</sup>The flesh and the skin he burned with fire outside the camp. <sup>9:12</sup>He killed the burnt offering; and Aaron's sons delivered the blood to him, and he sprinkled it around on the altar. <sup>9:13</sup>They delivered the burnt offering to him, piece by piece, and the head: and he burned them upon the altar. <sup>9:14</sup>He washed the innards and the legs, and burned them on the burnt offering on the altar. <sup>9:15</sup>He presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin offering which was for the people, and killed it, and offered it for sin, like the first. <sup>9:16</sup>He presented the burnt offering, and offered it according to the ordinance. <sup>9:17</sup>He presented the meal offering, and filled his hand from there, and burned it upon the altar, besides the burnt offering of the morning. <sup>9:18</sup>He also killed the bull and the ram, the sacrifice of peace offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled around on the altar, <sup>9:19</sup>and the fat of the bull and of the ram, the fat tail, and that which covers the innards, and the kidneys, and the cover of the liver: <sup>9:20</sup>and they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burned the fat on the altar: <sup>9:21</sup>and the breasts and the right thigh Aaron waved for a wave offering before the LORD, as Moses commanded. <sup>9:22</sup>Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people, and blessed them; and he came down from offering the sin offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings.

<sup>9:23</sup>Moses and Aaron went into the Tent of Meeting, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people. <sup>9:24</sup>There came forth fire from before the LORD, and consumed the burnt offering and the fat upon the altar: and when all the people saw it, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

<sup>10:1</sup>Nadab and Abihu, the sons of Aaron, each took his censer, and put fire in it, and laid incense on it, and offered strange fire before the LORD, which he had not commanded them. <sup>10:2</sup>And fire came forth from before the LORD, and devoured them, and they died before the LORD.

<sup>10:3</sup>Then Moses said to Aaron, "This is what the LORD spoke of, saying,

'I will show myself holy to those who come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified.'"

Aaron held his peace. <sup>10:4</sup>Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, "Draw near, carry your brothers from before the sanctuary out of the camp." <sup>10:5</sup>So they drew near, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

<sup>10:6</sup>Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons, "Don't let the hair of your heads go loose, neither tear your clothes; that you don't die, and that he not be angry with all the congregation: but let your brothers, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the LORD has kindled. <sup>10:7</sup>You shall not go out from the door of the Tent of Meeting, lest you die; for the anointing oil of the LORD is on you." They did according to the word of Moses.

burned: and he was angry with Eleazar and with Ithamar, the sons of Aaron who were left, saying, <sup>10:17</sup>“Why haven’t you eaten the sin offering in the place of the sanctuary, since it is most holy, and he has given it you to bear the iniquity of the congregation, to make atonement for them before the LORD? <sup>10:18</sup>Behold, its blood was not brought into the inner part of the sanctuary: you certainly should have eaten it in the sanctuary, as I commanded.”

<sup>10:19</sup>Aaron spoke to Moses, “Behold, this day they have offered their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD; and such things as these have happened to me: and if I had eaten the sin offering today, would it have been pleasing in the sight of the LORD?”

<sup>11:4</sup>“Nevertheless these you shall not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those who part the hoof: the camel, because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. <sup>11:5</sup>The coney, because he chews the cud but doesn’t have a parted hoof, he is unclean to you. <sup>11:6</sup>The hare, because she chews the cud but doesn’t part the hoof, she is unclean to you. <sup>11:7</sup>The pig, because he has a split hoof, and is cloven-footed, but doesn’t chew the cud, he is unclean to you. <sup>11:8</sup>Of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch; they are unclean to you.

<sup>11:9</sup>“These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, that you may eat. <sup>11:10</sup>All that don’t have fins and scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of all the living creatures that are in the waters, they are an abomination to you, <sup>11:11</sup>and you detest them. You shall not eat of their flesh, and you shall detest their carcasses. <sup>11:12</sup>Whatever has no fins nor scales in the waters, that is an abomination to you.

<sup>11:13</sup>“These you shall detest among the birds; they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the vulture, and the black vulture, <sup>11:14</sup>and the red kite, any kind of black kite, <sup>11:15</sup>any kind of raven, <sup>11:16</sup>the horned owl, the screech owl, and the gull, any kind of hawk, <sup>11:17</sup>the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl, <sup>11:18</sup>the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey, <sup>11:19</sup>the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe, and the bat.

<sup>11:29</sup>“These are they which are unclean to you among the creeping things that creep on the earth: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard, <sup>11:30</sup>the gecko, and the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink, and the chameleon. <sup>11:31</sup>These are they which are unclean to you among all that creep. Whoever touches them when they are dead, shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>11:32</sup>On whatever any of them falls when they are dead, it shall be unclean; whether it is any vessel of wood, or clothing, or skin, or sack, whatever vessel it is, with which any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the evening; then it will be clean. <sup>11:33</sup>Every earthen vessel, into which any of them falls, all that is in it shall be unclean, and you shall break it. <sup>11:34</sup>All food which may be eaten, that on which water comes, shall be unclean; and all drink that may be drunk in every such vessel shall be

unclean. <sup>11:35</sup>Everything whereupon part of their carcass falls shall be unclean; whether oven, or range for pots, it shall be broken in pieces: they are unclean, and shall be unclean to you. <sup>11:36</sup>Nevertheless a spring or a cistern in which water is a gathered shall be clean: but that which touches their carcass shall be unclean. <sup>11:37</sup>If part of their carcass falls on any sowing seed which is to be sown, it is clean. <sup>11:38</sup>But if water is put on the seed, and part of their carcass falls on it, it is unclean to you.

<sup>11:39</sup>“If any animal, of which you may eat, dies; he who touches its carcass shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>11:40</sup>He who eats of its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening. He also who carries its carcass shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>11:46</sup>“This is the law of the animal, and of the bird, and of every living creature that moves in the waters, and of every creature that creeps on the earth, <sup>11:47</sup>to make a distinction between the unclean and the clean, and between the living thing that may be eaten and the living thing that may not be eaten.”

<sup>12:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>12:2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘If a woman conceives, and bears a male child, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of her monthly period she shall be unclean. <sup>12:3</sup>In the eighth day the flesh of his foreskin shall be circumcised. <sup>12:4</sup>She shall continue in the blood of purification thirty-three days. She shall not touch any holy thing, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her purifying are completed. <sup>12:5</sup>But if she bears a female child, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her period; and she shall continue in the blood of purification sixty-six days.

“This is the law for her who bears, whether a male or a female. <sup>12:8</sup>If she cannot afford a lamb, then she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons; the one for a burnt offering, and the other for a sin offering: and the priest shall make atonement for her, and she shall be clean.”

<sup>13:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>13:2</sup>“When a man shall have a rising in his body’s skin, or a scab, or a bright spot, and it becomes in the skin of his body the plague of leprosy, then he shall be brought to Aaron the priest, or to one of his sons, the priests: <sup>13:3</sup>and the priest shall examine the plague in the skin of the body: and if the hair in the plague has turned white, and the appearance of the plague is deeper than the body’s skin, it is the plague of leprosy; and the priest shall examine him, and pronounce him unclean. <sup>13:4</sup>If the bright spot is white in the skin of his body, and its appearance isn’t deeper than the skin, and its hair hasn’t turned white, then the priest shall isolate the infected person for seven days. <sup>13:5</sup>The priest shall examine him on the seventh day, and, behold, if in his eyes the plague is arrested, and the plague hasn’t spread in the skin, then the priest shall isolate him for seven more days. <sup>13:6</sup>The priest shall examine him again on the seventh day; and behold, if the plague has faded, and the plague hasn’t spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. It is a scab. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>13:7</sup>But if the scab spreads on the skin, after he has shown himself to the priest for his cleansing, he shall show himself to the priest again. <sup>13:8</sup>The priest shall examine him; and behold, if the scab has spread on the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is leprosy.

<sup>13:9</sup>“When the plague of leprosy is in a man, then he shall be brought to the priest; <sup>13:10</sup>and the priest shall examine him. Behold, if there is a white rising in the skin, and it has turned the hair white, and there is raw flesh in the rising, <sup>13:11</sup>it is a chronic leprosy in the skin of his body, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He shall not isolate him, for he is unclean.

if the priest examines it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it isn’t lower than the skin, but is faded; then the priest shall isolate him seven days. <sup>13:27</sup>The priest shall examine him on the seventh day. If it has spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is the plague of leprosy. <sup>13:28</sup>If the bright spot stays in its place, and hasn’t spread in the skin, but is faded, it is the swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar from the burn.

<sup>13:29</sup>“When a man or woman has a plague on the head or on the beard, <sup>13:30</sup>then the priest shall examine the plague; and behold, if its appearance is deeper than the skin, and the hair in it is yellow and thin, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is an itch, it is leprosy of the head or of the beard. <sup>13:31</sup>If the priest examines the plague of itching, and behold, its appearance isn’t deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, then the priest shall isolate him the person infected with itching seven days. <sup>13:32</sup>On the seventh day the priest shall examine the plague; and behold, if the itch hasn’t spread, and there is no yellow hair in it, and the appearance of the itch isn’t deeper than the skin, <sup>13:33</sup>then he shall be shaved, but he shall not shave the itch; and the priest shall shut him up who has the itch seven more days. <sup>13:34</sup>On the seventh day, the priest shall examine the itch; and behold, if the itch hasn’t spread in the skin, and its appearance isn’t deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean. He shall wash his clothes, and be clean. <sup>13:35</sup>But if the itch spreads in the skin after his cleansing, <sup>13:36</sup>then the priest shall examine him; and behold, if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest shall not look for the yellow hair; he is unclean. <sup>13:37</sup>But if in his eyes the itch is arrested, and black hair has grown in it; the itch is healed, he is clean. The priest shall pronounce him clean.

<sup>13:40</sup>“If a man’s hair has fallen from his head, he is bald. He is clean. <sup>13:41</sup>If his hair has fallen off from the front part of his head, he is forehead bald. He is clean. <sup>13:42</sup>But if there is in the bald head, or the bald forehead, a reddish-white plague; it is leprosy breaking out in his bald head, or his bald forehead. <sup>13:43</sup>Then the priest shall examine him; and, behold, if the rising of the plague is reddish-white in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, like the appearance of leprosy in the skin of the flesh, <sup>13:44</sup>he is a leprous man. He is unclean. His priest shall surely pronounce him unclean. His plague is on his head.

<sup>13:47</sup>“The garment also that the plague of leprosy is in, whether it is a woolen garment, or a linen garment; <sup>13:48</sup>whether it is in warp, or woof; of linen, or of wool; whether in a skin, or in anything made of skin; <sup>13:49</sup>if the plague is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything made of skin; it is the plague of leprosy, and shall be shown to the priest. <sup>13:50</sup>The priest shall examine the plague, and isolate the plague seven days. <sup>13:51</sup>He shall examine the plague on the seventh day. If the plague has spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in the skin, whatever use the skin is used for, the plague is a destructive mildew. It is unclean. <sup>13:52</sup>He shall burn the garment, whether the warp or the woof, in wool or in linen, or anything of skin, in which the plague is: for it is a destructive mildew. It shall be burned in the fire.

behold, the plague has faded after it is washed, then he shall tear it out of the garment, or out of the skin, or out of the warp, or out of the woof: <sup>13:57</sup>and if it appears again in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is spreading. You shall burn with fire that in which the plague is. <sup>13:58</sup>The garment, either the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin it is, which you shall wash, if the plague has departed from them, then it shall be washed the second time, and it will be clean.”

<sup>13:59</sup>This is the law of the plague of mildew in a garment of wool or linen, either in the warp, or the woof, or in anything of skin, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

<sup>14:2</sup>“This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing. He shall be brought to the priest, <sup>14:3</sup>and the priest shall go forth out of the camp. The priest shall examine him, and behold, if the plague of leprosy is healed in the leper, <sup>14:4</sup>then the priest shall command them to take for him who is to be cleansed two living clean birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>14:5</sup>The priest shall command them to kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>14:6</sup>As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water. <sup>14:7</sup>He shall sprinkle on him who is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird go into the open field.

<sup>14:8</sup>“He who is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and bathe himself in water; and he shall be clean. After that he shall come into the camp, but shall dwell outside his tent seven days. <sup>14:9</sup>It shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard and his eyebrows, even all his hair he shall shave off. He shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his body in water, then he shall be clean.

priest who cleanses him shall set the man who is to be cleansed, and those things, before the LORD, at the door of the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>14:12</sup>“The priest shall take one of the male lambs, and offer him for a trespass offering, with the log of oil, and wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>14:13</sup>He shall kill the male lamb in the place where they kill the sin offering and the burnt offering, in the place of the sanctuary; for as the sin offering is the priest’s, so is the trespass offering. It is most holy. <sup>14:14</sup>The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>14:15</sup>The priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand. <sup>14:16</sup>The priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle some of the oil with his finger seven times before the LORD. <sup>14:17</sup>The priest shall put some of the rest of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>14:18</sup>The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD.

<sup>14:19</sup>“The priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him who is to be cleansed because of his uncleanness: and afterward he shall kill the burnt offering; <sup>14:20</sup>and the priest shall offer the burnt offering and the meal offering on the altar. The priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

<sup>14:21</sup>“If he is poor, and can’t afford so much, then he shall take one male lamb for a trespass offering to be waved, to make atonement for him, and one tenth of an ephah of fine flour mingled with oil for a meal offering, and a log of oil; <sup>14:22</sup>and two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to afford; and the one shall be a sin offering, and the other a burnt offering.

shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. <sup>14:25</sup>He shall kill the lamb of the trespass offering. The priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass offering and put it on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot. <sup>14:26</sup>The priest shall pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand; <sup>14:27</sup>and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger some of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before the LORD. <sup>14:28</sup>Then the priest shall put some of the oil that is in his hand on the tip of the right ear of him who is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the big toe of his right foot, on the place of the blood of the trespass offering. <sup>14:29</sup>The rest of the oil that is in the priest’s hand he shall put on the head of him who is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD. <sup>14:30</sup>He shall offer one of the turtledoves, or of the young pigeons, such as he is able to afford, <sup>14:31</sup>even such as he is able to afford, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, with the meal offering. The priest shall make atonement for him who is to be cleansed before the LORD.”

<sup>14:33</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>14:34</sup>“When you have come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in the land of your possession, <sup>14:35</sup>then he who owns the house shall come and tell the priest, saying, ‘There seems to me to be some sort of plague in the house.’ <sup>14:36</sup>The priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest goes in to examine the plague, that all that is in the house not be made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to inspect the house. <sup>14:37</sup>He shall examine the plague; and behold, if the plague is in the walls of the house with hollow streaks, greenish or reddish, and it appears to be deeper than the wall; <sup>14:38</sup>then the priest shall go out of the house to the door of the house, and shut up the house seven days. <sup>14:39</sup>The priest shall come again on the seventh day, and look. If the plague has spread in the walls of the house, <sup>14:40</sup>then the priest shall command that they take out the stones in which is the plague, and cast them into an unclean place outside of the city: <sup>14:41</sup>and he shall cause the inside of the house to be scraped all over, and they shall pour out the mortar, that they scraped off, outside of the city into an unclean place. <sup>14:42</sup>They shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

<sup>14:43</sup>"If the plague comes again, and breaks out in the house, after he has taken out the stones, and after he has scraped the house, and after it was plastered; <sup>14:44</sup>then the priest shall come in and look; and behold, if the plague has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew in the house. It is unclean. <sup>14:45</sup>He shall break down the house, its stones, and its timber, and all the house's mortar. He shall carry them out of the city into an unclean place.

<sup>14:46</sup>"Moreover he who goes into the house while it is shut up shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>14:47</sup>He who lies down in the house shall wash his clothes; and he who eats in the house shall wash his clothes.

<sup>14:48</sup>"If the priest shall come in, and examine it, and behold, the plague hasn't spread in the house, after the house was plastered, then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed. <sup>14:49</sup>To cleanse the house he shall take two birds, and cedar wood, and scarlet, and hyssop. <sup>14:50</sup>He shall kill one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water. <sup>14:51</sup>He shall take the cedar wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times. <sup>14:52</sup>He shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, with the living bird, with the cedar wood, with the hyssop, and with the scarlet; <sup>14:53</sup>but he shall let the living bird go out of the city into the open field. So shall he make atonement for the house; and it shall be clean."

This is the law of leprosy.

and tell them, 'When any man has a discharge from his body, because of his discharge he is unclean. <sup>15:3</sup>This shall be his uncleanness in his discharge: whether his body runs with his discharge, or his body has stopped from his discharge, it is his uncleanness.

<sup>15:4</sup>"Every bed whereon he who has the discharge lies shall be unclean; and everything he sits on shall be unclean. <sup>15:5</sup>Whoever touches his bed shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>15:6</sup>He who sits on anything whereon the man who has the discharge sat shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:7</sup>"He who touches the body of him who has the discharge shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:8</sup>"If he who has the discharge spits on him who is clean, then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:9</sup>"Whatever saddle he who has the discharge rides on shall be unclean. <sup>15:10</sup>Whoever touches anything that was under him shall be unclean until the evening. He who carries those things shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:11</sup>"Whoever he who has the discharge touches, without having rinsed his hands in water, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:12</sup>"The earthen vessel, which he who has the discharge touches, shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

<sup>15:13</sup>"When he who has a discharge is cleansed of his discharge, then he shall count to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes; and he shall bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

<sup>15:14</sup>"On the eighth day he shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and come before the LORD to the door of the Tent of Meeting, and give them to the priest: <sup>15:15</sup>and the priest shall offer them, the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering. The priest shall make atonement for him before the LORD for his discharge.

<sup>15:16</sup>"If any man has an emission of semen, then he shall bathe all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>15:17</sup>Every garment, and every skin, whereon the semen is, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the evening. <sup>15:18</sup>If a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:25</sup>“If a woman has a discharge of her blood many days not in the time of her period, or if she has a discharge beyond the time of her period; all the days of the discharge of her uncleanness shall be as in the days of her period: she is unclean. <sup>15:26</sup>Every bed whereon she lies all the days of her discharge shall be to her as the bed of her period: and everything whereon she sits shall be unclean, as the uncleanness of her period. <sup>15:27</sup>Whoever touches these things shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening.

<sup>15:28</sup>“But if she is cleansed of her discharge, then she shall count to herself seven days, and after that she shall be clean. <sup>15:29</sup>On the eighth day she shall take two turtledoves, or two young pigeons, and bring them to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>15:30</sup>The priest shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before the LORD for the uncleanness of her discharge.

tabernacle that is in their midst.”

<sup>15:32</sup>This is the law of him who has a discharge, and of him who has an emission of semen, so that he is unclean thereby; <sup>15:33</sup>and of her who has her period, and of a man or woman who has a discharge, and of him who lies with her who is unclean.

<sup>16:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they drew near before the LORD, and died; <sup>16:2</sup>and the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron your brother, not to come at all times into the Most Holy Place within the veil, before the mercy seat which is on the ark; lest he die: for I will appear in the cloud on the mercy seat.

blood of the bull, and sprinkle it with his finger on the mercy seat on the east; and before the mercy seat he shall sprinkle some of the blood with his finger seven times.

<sup>16:15</sup>“Then he shall kill the goat of the sin offering, that is for the people, and bring his blood within the veil, and do with his blood as he did with the blood of the bull, and sprinkle it on the mercy seat, and before the mercy seat: <sup>16:16</sup>and he shall make atonement for the Holy Place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions, even all their sins; and so he shall do for the Tent of Meeting, that dwells with them in the midst of their uncleanness. <sup>16:17</sup>No one shall be in the Tent of Meeting when he enters to make atonement in the Holy Place, until he comes out, and has made atonement for himself and for his household, and for all the assembly of Israel.

<sup>16:20</sup>“When he has made an end of atoning for the Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting, and the altar, he shall present the live goat. <sup>16:21</sup>Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions, even all their sins; and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send him away into the wilderness by the hand of a man who is in readiness. <sup>16:22</sup>The goat shall carry all their iniquities on himself to a solitary land, and he shall let the goat go in the wilderness.

in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp. <sup>16:27</sup>The bull for the sin offering, and the goat for the sin offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the Holy Place, shall be carried forth outside the camp; and they shall burn their skins, their flesh, and their dung with fire. <sup>16:28</sup>He who burns them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

<sup>16:29</sup>“It shall be a statute to you forever: in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, you shall afflict your souls, and shall do no kind of work, the native-born, or the stranger who lives as a foreigner among you: <sup>16:30</sup>for on this day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you; from all your sins you shall be clean before the LORD. <sup>16:31</sup>It is a Sabbath of solemn rest to you, and you shall afflict your souls; it is a statute forever. <sup>16:32</sup>The priest, who is anointed and who is consecrated to be priest in his father’s place, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen garments, even the holy garments. <sup>16:33</sup>Then he shall make atonement for the Holy Sanctuary; and he shall make atonement for the Tent of Meeting and for the altar; and he shall make atonement for the priests and for all the people of the assembly.

It was done as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>17:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>17:2</sup>“Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them: ‘This is the thing which the LORD has commanded, <sup>17:3</sup>Whatever man there is of the house of Israel, who kills a bull, or lamb, or goat, in the camp, or who kills it outside the camp, <sup>17:4</sup>and hasn’t brought it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to offer it as an offering to the LORD before the tabernacle of the LORD: blood shall be imputed to that man. He has shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people. <sup>17:5</sup>This is to the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, that they may bring them to the LORD, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to the priest, and sacrifice them for sacrifices of peace offerings to the LORD. <sup>17:6</sup>The priest shall sprinkle the blood on the altar of the LORD at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and burn the fat for a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>17:7</sup>They shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices to the goat idols, after which they play the prostitute. This shall be a statute forever to them throughout their generations.'

<sup>17:8</sup>"You shall say to them, 'Any man there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners among them, who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice, <sup>17:9</sup>and doesn't bring it to the door of the Tent of Meeting, to sacrifice it to the LORD; that man shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>17:15</sup>"Every person that eats what dies of itself, or that which is torn by animals, whether he is native-born or a foreigner, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the evening: then he shall be clean. <sup>17:16</sup>But if he doesn't wash them, or bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity."

<sup>18:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses, <sup>18:2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and say to them, 'I am the LORD your God. <sup>18:3</sup>You shall not do as they do in the land of Egypt, where you lived: and you shall not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you; neither shall you walk in their statutes. <sup>18:4</sup>You shall do my ordinances, and you shall keep my statutes, and walk in them: I am the LORD your God.

<sup>18:5</sup>You shall therefore keep my statutes and my ordinances; which if a man does, he shall live in them: I am the LORD.

<sup>18:7</sup>"You shall not uncover the nakedness of your father, nor the nakedness of your mother: she is your mother. You shall not uncover her nakedness.

<sup>18:9</sup>"You shall not uncover the nakedness of your sister, the daughter of your father, or the daughter of your mother, whether born at home, or born abroad.

<sup>18:29</sup>“For whoever shall do any of these abominations, even the souls that do them shall be cut off from among their people. <sup>18:30</sup>Therefore you shall keep my requirements, that you do not practice any of these abominable customs, which were practiced before you, and that you do not defile yourselves with them: I am the LORD your God.”

<sup>19:5</sup>“When you offer a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, you shall offer it so that you may be accepted. <sup>19:6</sup>It shall be eaten the same day you offer it, and on the next day: and if anything remains until the third day, it shall be burned with fire. <sup>19:7</sup>If it is eaten at all on the third day, it is an abomination. It will not be accepted; <sup>19:8</sup>but everyone who eats it shall bear his iniquity, because he has profaned the holy thing of the LORD, and that soul shall be cut off from his people.

<sup>19:12</sup>“You shall not swear by my name falsely, and profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>19:15</sup>“You shall do no injustice in judgment: you shall not be partial to the poor, nor show favoritism to the great; but you shall judge your neighbor in righteousness.

<sup>19:17</sup>“You shall not hate your brother in your heart. You shall surely rebuke your neighbor, and not bear sin because of him.

“you shall not sow your field with two kinds of seed;

“neither shall there come upon you a garment made of two kinds of material.

<sup>19:20</sup>“If a man lies carnally with a woman who is a slave girl, pledged to be married to another man, and not ransomed, or given her freedom; they shall be punished. They shall not be put to death, because she was not free. <sup>19:21</sup>He shall bring his trespass offering to the LORD, to the door of the Tent of Meeting, even a ram for a trespass offering. <sup>19:22</sup>The priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass offering before the LORD for his sin which he has committed: and the sin which he has committed shall be forgiven him.

<sup>19:23</sup>“When you come into the land, and have planted all kinds of trees for food, then you shall count their fruit as forbidden.<sup>g</sup> Three years shall they be forbidden to you. It shall not be eaten. <sup>19:24</sup>But in the fourth year all its fruit shall be holy, for giving praise to the LORD. <sup>19:25</sup>In the fifth year you shall eat its fruit, that it may yield its increase to you. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>19:28</sup>“You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you. I am the LORD.

<sup>19:31</sup>“Don’t turn to those who are mediums, nor to the wizards. Don’t seek them out, to be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>19:32</sup>“You shall rise up before the gray head, and honor the face of an old man, and you shall fear your God. I am the LORD.

<sup>19:33</sup>“If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you in your land, you shall not do him wrong.

<sup>19:34</sup>The stranger who lives as a foreigner with you shall be to you as the native-born among you, and you shall love him as yourself; for you lived as foreigners in the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>19:35</sup>“You shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measures of length, of weight, or of quantity. <sup>19:36</sup>You shall have just balances, just weights, a just ephah,<sup>h</sup> and a just hin. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>20:2</sup>“Moreover, you shall tell the children of Israel, ‘Anyone of the children of Israel, or of the strangers who live as foreigners in Israel, who gives any of his seed to Molech; he shall surely be put to death. The people of the land shall stone him with stones. <sup>20:3</sup>I also will set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people because he has given of his seed to Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name. <sup>20:4</sup>If the people of the land all hide their eyes from that person, when he gives of his seed to Molech, and don’t put him to death; <sup>20:5</sup>then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all who play the prostitute after him, to play the prostitute with Molech, from among their people.

<sup>20:6</sup>“The person that turns to those who are mediums, and to the wizards, to play the prostitute after them, I will even set my face against that person, and will cut him off from among his people.

<sup>20:7</sup>“Sanctify yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am the LORD your God. <sup>20:8</sup>You shall keep my statutes, and do them. I am the LORD who sanctifies you.

<sup>20:9</sup>“For everyone who curses his father or his mother shall surely be put to death: he has cursed his father or his mother; his blood shall be upon him.

<sup>20:13</sup>“If a man lies with a male, as with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>20:14</sup>“If a man takes a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burned with fire, both he and they; that there may be no wickedness among you.

<sup>20:16</sup>“If a woman approaches any animal, and lies down with it, you shall kill the woman, and the animal: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

<sup>20:22</sup>“You shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my ordinances, and do them; that the land, where I am bringing you to dwell, may not vomit you out. <sup>20:23</sup>You shall not walk in the customs of the nation, which I am casting out before you: for they did all these things, and therefore I abhorred them. <sup>20:24</sup>But I have said to you, “You shall inherit their land, and I will give it to you to possess it, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God, who has separated you from the peoples.

<sup>20:25</sup>“You shall therefore make a distinction between the clean animal and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean: and you shall not make yourselves abominable by animal, or by bird, or by anything with which the ground teems, which I have separated from you as unclean for you. <sup>20:26</sup>You shall be holy to me: for I, the LORD, am holy, and have set you apart from the peoples, that you should be mine.

or is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones; their blood shall be upon them.”

<sup>21:7</sup>“They shall not marry a woman who is a prostitute, or profane; neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband: for he is holy to his God. <sup>21:8</sup>You shall sanctify him therefore; for he offers the bread of your God: he shall be holy to you: for I the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

throughout their generations who has a blemish, may approach to offer the bread of his God. <sup>21:18</sup>For whatever man he is that has a blemish, he shall not draw near: a blind man, or a lame, or he who has a flat nose, or any deformity, <sup>21:19</sup>or a man who has an injured foot, or an injured hand, <sup>21:20</sup>or hunchbacked, or a dwarf, or one who has a defect in his eye, or an itching disease, or scabs, or who has damaged testicles; <sup>21:21</sup>no man of the seed of Aaron the priest who has a blemish, shall come near to offer the offerings of the LORD made by fire. Since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God. <sup>21:22</sup>He shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy. <sup>21:23</sup>He shall not come near to the veil, nor come near to the altar, because he has a blemish; that he may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them."

<sup>22:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>22:2</sup>"Tell Aaron and his sons to separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, which they make holy to me, and that they not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

<sup>22:3</sup>"Tell them, 'If anyone of all your seed throughout your generations approaches the holy things, which the children of Israel make holy to the LORD, having his uncleanness on him, that soul shall be cut off from before me. I am the LORD.

<sup>22:4</sup>"Whoever of the seed of Aaron is a leper or has an issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean by the dead, or a man whose seed goes from him; <sup>22:5</sup>or whoever touches any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatever uncleanness he has; <sup>22:6</sup>the person that touches any such shall be unclean until the evening, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he bathe his body in water. <sup>22:7</sup>When the sun is down, he shall be clean; and afterward he shall eat of the holy things, because it is his bread. <sup>22:8</sup>That which dies of itself, or is torn by animals, he shall not eat, defiling himself by it. I am the LORD.

if they profane it. I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

<sup>22:17</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>22:18</sup>"Speak to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel, and say to them, 'Whoever is of the house of Israel, or of the foreigners in Israel, who offers his offering, whether it be any of their vows, or any of their freewill offerings, which they offer to the LORD for a burnt offering; <sup>22:19</sup>that you may be accepted, you shall offer a male without blemish, of the bulls, of the sheep, or of the goats. <sup>22:20</sup>But whatever has a blemish, that you shall not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you. <sup>22:21</sup>Whoever offers a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD to accomplish a vow, or for a freewill offering, of the herd or of the flock, it shall be perfect to be accepted; no blemish shall be therein. <sup>22:22</sup>Blind, injured, maimed, having a wart, festering, or having a running sore, you shall not offer these to the LORD, nor make an offering by fire of them on the altar to the LORD. <sup>22:23</sup>Either a bull or a lamb that has any deformity or lacking in his parts, that you may offer for a freewill offering; but for a vow it shall not be accepted. <sup>22:24</sup>That which has its testicles bruised, crushed, broken, or cut, you shall not offer to the LORD; neither shall you do thus in your land. <sup>22:25</sup>Neither shall you offer the bread of your God from the hand of a foreigner of any of these; because their corruption is in them. There is a blemish in them. They shall not be accepted for you.”

<sup>22:26</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>22:27</sup>“When a bull, or a sheep, or a goat, is born, then it shall remain seven days with its mother; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for the offering of an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>22:28</sup>Whether it is a cow or ewe, you shall not kill it and its young both in one day.

<sup>22:29</sup>“When you sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the LORD, you shall sacrifice it so that you may be accepted. <sup>22:30</sup>It shall be eaten on the same day; you shall leave none of it until the morning. I am the LORD.

<sup>22:31</sup>“Therefore you shall keep my commandments, and do them. I am the LORD. <sup>22:32</sup>You shall not profane my holy name, but I will be made holy among the children of Israel. I am the LORD who makes you holy, <sup>22:33</sup>who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God. I am the LORD.”

<sup>23:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23:2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘The set feasts of the LORD, which you shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my set feasts.

<sup>23:3</sup>“Six days shall work be done: but on the seventh day is a Sabbath of solemn rest, a holy convocation; you shall do no kind of work. It is a Sabbath to the LORD in all your dwellings.

<sup>23:4</sup>“These are the set feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which you shall proclaim in their appointed season. <sup>23:5</sup>In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month in the evening, is the LORD’s Passover. <sup>23:6</sup>On the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread to the LORD. Seven days you shall eat unleavened bread. <sup>23:7</sup>In the first day you shall have a holy convocation. You shall do no regular work. <sup>23:8</sup>But you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD seven days. In the seventh day is a holy convocation: you shall do no regular work.”

he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you. On the next day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it. <sup>23:12</sup>On the day when you wave the sheaf, you shall offer a male lamb without blemish a year old for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>23:13</sup>The meal offering with it shall be two tenth parts of an efa<sup>1</sup> of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire to the LORD for a pleasant aroma; and the drink offering with it shall be of wine, the fourth part of a hin. <sup>23:14</sup>You shall eat neither bread, nor roasted grain, nor fresh grain, until this same day, until you have brought the offering of your God. This is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

<sup>23:15</sup>“You shall count from the next day after the Sabbath, from the day that you brought the sheaf of the wave offering; seven Sabbaths shall be completed: <sup>23:16</sup>even to the next day after the seventh Sabbath you shall number fifty days; and you shall offer a new meal offering to the LORD. <sup>23:17</sup>You shall bring out of your habitations two loaves of bread for a wave offering made of two tenth parts of an efa of fine flour. They shall be baked with yeast, for first fruits to the LORD. <sup>23:18</sup>You shall present with the bread seven lambs without blemish a year old, one young bull, and two rams. They shall be a burnt offering to the LORD, with their meal offering, and their drink offerings, even an offering made by fire, of a sweet aroma to the LORD. <sup>23:19</sup>You shall offer one male goat for a sin offering, and two male lambs a year old for a sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>23:20</sup>The priest shall wave them with the bread of the first fruits for a wave offering before the LORD, with the two lambs. They shall be holy to the LORD for the priest. <sup>23:21</sup>You shall make proclamation on the same day: there shall be a holy convocation to you; you shall do no regular work. This is a statute forever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

<sup>23:22</sup>“When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not wholly reap into the corners of your field, neither shall you gather the gleanings of your harvest: you shall leave them for the poor, and for the foreigner. I am the LORD your God.”

'In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, shall be a solemn rest to you, a memorial of blowing of shofars<sup>j</sup>, a holy convocation. <sup>23:25</sup>You shall do no regular work; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD.'"

<sup>23:26</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>23:27</sup>"However on the tenth day of this seventh month is Yom Kippur: it shall be a holy convocation to you, and you shall afflict yourselves; and you shall offer an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>23:28</sup>You shall do no kind of work in that same day; for it is Yom Kippur<sup>k</sup>, to make atonement for you before the LORD your God. <sup>23:29</sup>For whoever it is who shall not deny himself in that same day; shall be cut off from his people. <sup>23:30</sup>Whoever it is who does any kind of work in that same day, that person I will destroy from among his people. <sup>23:31</sup>You shall do no kind of work: it is a statute forever throughout your generations in all your dwellings. <sup>23:32</sup>It shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for you, and you shall deny yourselves. In the ninth day of the month at evening, from evening to evening, you shall keep your Sabbath."

the land, you shall keep the feast of the LORD seven days: on the first day shall be a solemn rest, and on the eighth day shall be a solemn rest. <sup>23:40</sup>You shall take on the first day the fruit of goodly trees, branches of palm trees, and boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God seven days. <sup>23:41</sup>You shall keep it a feast to the LORD seven days in the year: it is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall keep it in the seventh month. <sup>23:42</sup>You shall dwell in booths seven days. All who are native-born in Israel shall dwell in booths, <sup>23:43</sup>that your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.'"

the camp. <sup>24:11</sup>The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought him to Moses. His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan. <sup>24:12</sup>They put him in custody, until the will of the LORD should be declared to them.

<sup>25:1</sup>The LORD said to Moses in Mount Sinai, <sup>25:2</sup>"Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, 'When you come into the land which I give you, then the land shall keep a Sabbath to the LORD. <sup>25:3</sup>Six years you shall sow your field, and six years you shall prune your vineyard, and gather in its fruits; <sup>25:4</sup>but in the seventh year there shall be a Sabbath of solemn rest for the land, a Sabbath to the LORD. You shall not sow your field or prune your vineyard. <sup>25:5</sup>What grows of itself in your harvest you shall not reap, and the grapes of your undressed vine you shall not gather. It shall be a year of solemn rest for the land. <sup>25:6</sup>The Sabbath of the land shall be for food for you; for yourself, for your servant, for your maid, for your hired servant, and for your stranger, who lives as a foreigner with you. <sup>25:7</sup>For your livestock also, and for the animals that are in your land, shall all its increase be for food.

<sup>25:8</sup>"You shall count off seven Sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; and there shall be to you the days of seven Sabbaths of years, even forty-nine years. <sup>25:9</sup>Then you shall sound the loud shofar<sup>m</sup> on the tenth day of the seventh month. On the Day of Atonement you shall sound the shofar<sup>n</sup> throughout all your land. <sup>25:10</sup>You shall make the fiftieth year holy, and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee to you; and each of you shall return to his own property, and each of you shall return to his family.

<sup>25:11</sup>That fiftieth year shall be a jubilee to you. In it you shall not sow, neither reap that which grows of itself, nor gather from the undressed vines. <sup>25:12</sup>For it is a jubilee; it shall be holy to you. You shall eat of its increase out of the field.

<sup>25:14</sup>"If you sell anything to your neighbor, or buy from your neighbor, you shall not wrong one another. <sup>25:15</sup>According to the number of years after the Jubilee you shall buy from your neighbor. According to the number of years of the crops he shall sell to you. <sup>25:16</sup>According to the length of the years you shall increase its price, and according to the shortness of the years you shall diminish its price; for he is selling the number of the crops to you. <sup>25:17</sup>You shall not wrong one another; but you shall fear your God: for I am the LORD your God.

ity, for the land is mine; for you are strangers and live as foreigners with me. <sup>25:24</sup>In all the land of your possession you shall grant a redemption for the land.

<sup>25:25</sup>“If your brother becomes poor, and sells some of his possessions, then his kinsman who is next to him shall come, and redeem that which his brother has sold. <sup>25:26</sup>If a man has no one to redeem it, and he becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it; <sup>25:27</sup>then let him reckon the years since its sale, and restore the surplus to the man to whom he sold it; and he shall return to his property. <sup>25:28</sup>But if he isn’t able to get it back for himself, then what he has sold shall remain in the hand of him who has bought it until the Year of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.

<sup>25:29</sup>“If a man sells a dwelling house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it has been sold. For a full year he shall have the right of redemption. <sup>25:30</sup>If it isn’t redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city shall be made sure in perpetuity to him who bought it, throughout his generations. It shall not be released in the Jubilee. <sup>25:31</sup>But the houses of the villages which have no wall around them shall be reckoned with the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall be released in the Jubilee.

<sup>25:35</sup>“If your brother has become poor, and his hand can’t support him among you; then you shall uphold him. He shall live with you like an alien and a temporary resident. <sup>25:36</sup>Take no interest from him or profit, but fear your God; that your brother may live among you. <sup>25:37</sup>You shall not lend him your money at interest, nor give him your food for profit. <sup>25:38</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

<sup>25:39</sup>“If your brother has grown poor among you, and sells himself to you; you shall not make him to serve as a slave. <sup>25:40</sup>As a hired servant, and as a temporary resident, he shall be with you; he shall serve with you until the Year of Jubilee: <sup>25:41</sup>then he shall go out from you, he and his children with him, and shall return to his own family, and to the possession of his fathers. <sup>25:42</sup>For they are my servants, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. They shall not be sold as slaves. <sup>25:43</sup>You shall not rule over him with harshness, but shall fear your God.

<sup>25:44</sup>“As for your male and your female slaves, whom you may have; of the nations that are around you, from them you may buy male and female slaves. <sup>25:45</sup>Moreover of the children of the aliens who live among you, of them you may buy, and of their families who are with you, which they have conceived in your land; and they will be your property. <sup>25:46</sup>You may make them an inheritance for your children after you, to hold for a possession; of them may you take your slaves forever: but over your brothers the children of Israel you shall not rule, one over another, with harshness.

<sup>25:47</sup>“If an alien or temporary resident with you becomes rich, and your brother beside him has grown poor, and sells himself to the stranger or foreigner living among you, or to a member of the stranger’s family; <sup>25:48</sup>after he is sold he may be redeemed. One of his brothers may redeem him; <sup>25:49</sup>or his uncle, or his uncle’s son, may redeem him, or any who is a close relative to him of his family may redeem him; or if he has grown rich, he may redeem himself. <sup>25:50</sup>He shall reckon with him who bought him from the year that he sold himself to him to the Year of Jubilee: and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of years; according to the time of a hired servant shall he be with him. <sup>25:51</sup>If there are yet many years, according to them he shall give back the price of his redemption out of the money that he was bought for. <sup>25:52</sup>If there remain but a few years to the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according to his years of service he shall give back the price of his redemption. <sup>25:53</sup>As a servant hired year by year shall he be with him: he shall not rule with harshness over him in your sight. <sup>25:54</sup>If he isn’t redeemed by these means, then he shall be released in the Year of

Jubilee, he, and his children with him. <sup>25:55</sup>For to me the children of Israel are servants; they are my servants whom I brought out of the land of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26:1</sup>“You shall make for yourselves no idols, neither shall you raise up an engraved image or a pillar, neither shall you place any figured stone in your land, to bow down to it: for I am the LORD your God.

<sup>26:3</sup>“If you walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; <sup>26:4</sup>then I will give you your rains in their season, and the land shall yield its increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit. <sup>26:5</sup>Your threshing shall reach to the vintage, and the vintage shall reach to the sowing time; and you shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

<sup>26:6</sup>“I will give peace in the land, and you shall lie down, and no one will make you afraid; and I will remove evil animals out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land. <sup>26:7</sup>You shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword. <sup>26:8</sup>Five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall chase ten thousand; and your enemies shall fall before you by the sword.

<sup>26:9</sup>“I will have respect for you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and will establish my covenant with you. <sup>26:10</sup>You shall eat old store long kept, and you shall move out the old because of the new. <sup>26:11</sup>I will set my tent among you: and my soul won't abhor you. <sup>26:12</sup>I will walk among you, and will be your God, and you will be my people. <sup>26:13</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that you should not be their slaves; and I have broken the bars of your yoke, and made you go upright.

<sup>26:14</sup>“But if you will not listen to me, and will not do all these commandments; <sup>26:15</sup>and if you shall reject my statutes, and if your soul abhors my ordinances, so that you will not do all my commandments, but break my covenant; <sup>26:16</sup>I also will do this to you: I will appoint terror over you, even consumption and fever, that shall consume the eyes, and make the soul to pine away; and you will sow your seed in vain, for your enemies will eat it. <sup>26:17</sup>I will set my face against you, and you will be struck before your enemies. Those who hate you will rule over you; and you will flee when no one pursues you.

<sup>26:18</sup>“If you in spite of these things will not listen to me, then I will chastise you seven times more for your sins. <sup>26:19</sup>I will break the pride of your power, and I will make your sky like iron, and your soil like brass; <sup>26:20</sup>and your strength will be spent in vain; for your land won't yield its increase, neither will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

<sup>26:21</sup>“If you walk contrary to me, and won't listen to me, then I will bring seven times more plagues on you according to your sins. <sup>26:22</sup>I will send the wild animals among you, which will rob you of your children, destroy your livestock, and make you few in number; and your roads will become desolate.

<sup>26:23</sup>“If by these things you won't be reformed to me, but will walk contrary to me; <sup>26:24</sup>then I will also walk contrary to you; and I will strike you, even I, seven times for your sins. <sup>26:25</sup>I will bring a sword upon you, that will execute the vengeance of the covenant; and you will be gathered together within your cities: and I will send the pestilence among you; and you will be delivered into the hand of the enemy. <sup>26:26</sup>When I break your staff of bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and they shall deliver your bread again by weight: and you shall eat, and not be satisfied.

<sup>26:27</sup>“If you in spite of this won't listen to me, but walk contrary to me; <sup>26:28</sup>then I will walk contrary to you in wrath; and I also will chastise you seven times for your sins. <sup>26:29</sup>You will eat the flesh of your sons, and you will eat the flesh of your daughters. <sup>26:30</sup>I will destroy your high places, and cut down your incense altars, and cast your dead bodies upon the bodies of your idols; and my soul will abhor you. <sup>26:31</sup>I will lay your cities waste, and will bring your sanctuaries to desolation, and I will not take delight in the sweet fragrance of your offerings. <sup>26:32</sup>I will bring the land into desolation; and your enemies that dwell therein will be astonished at it. <sup>26:33</sup>I will scatter you among the nations, and I will draw out the sword after you: and your land will be a desolation, and your cities shall be a waste. <sup>26:34</sup>Then the land will enjoy its sabbaths as long as it lies desolate and you are in your enemies' land. Even then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths. <sup>26:35</sup>As long as it lies desolate it shall have rest, even the rest which it didn't have in your sabbaths, when you lived on it.

<sup>26:36</sup>“As for those of you who are left, I will send a faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies: and the sound of a driven leaf will put them to flight; and they shall flee, as one flees from the sword; and they will fall when no one pursues. <sup>26:37</sup>They will stumble over one another, as it were before the sword, when no one pursues: and you will have no power to stand before your enemies. <sup>26:38</sup>You will perish among the nations, and the land of your enemies will eat you up. <sup>26:39</sup>Those of you who are left will pine away in their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

<sup>26:40</sup>“If they confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, in their trespass which they trespassed against me, and also that, because they walked contrary to me, <sup>26:41</sup>I also walked contrary to them, and brought them into the land of their enemies: if then their uncircumcised heart is humbled, and they then accept the punishment of their iniquity; <sup>26:42</sup>then I will remember my covenant with Jacob; and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham; and I will remember the land. <sup>26:43</sup>The land also will be left by them, and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them: and they will accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they rejected my ordinances, and their soul abhorred my statutes. <sup>26:44</sup>Yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them, neither will I abhor them, to destroy them utterly, and to break my covenant with them; for I am the LORD their God; <sup>26:45</sup>but I will for their sake remember the covenant of their ancestors, whom I brought out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the nations, that I might be their God. I am the LORD.”

<sup>27:9</sup>“If it is an animal, of which men offer an offering to the LORD, all that any man gives of such to the LORD becomes holy. <sup>27:10</sup>He shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change animal for animal, then both it and that for which it is changed shall be holy. <sup>27:11</sup>If it is any unclean animal, of which they do not offer as an offering to the LORD, then he shall set the animal before the priest; <sup>27:12</sup>and the priest shall value it, whether it is good or bad. As you the priest values it, so shall it be. <sup>27:13</sup>But if he will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of it to its valuation.

<sup>27:14</sup>“When a man dedicates his house to be holy to the LORD, then the priest shall evaluate it, whether it is good or bad: as the priest shall evaluate it, so shall it stand. <sup>27:15</sup>If he who dedicates it will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall be his.

abatement shall be made from your valuation.
<sup>27:19</sup>If he who dedicated the field will indeed redeem it, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of your valuation to it, and it shall remain his. <sup>27:20</sup>If he will not redeem the field, or if he has sold the field to another man, it shall not be redeemed any more; <sup>27:21</sup>but the field, when it goes out in the Jubilee, shall be holy to the LORD, as a field devoted; it shall be owned by the priests.

<sup>27:22</sup>“If he dedicates to the LORD a field which he has bought, which is not of the field of his possession, <sup>27:23</sup>then the priest shall reckon to him the worth of your valuation up to the Year of Jubilee; and he shall give your valuation on that day, as a holy thing to the LORD. <sup>27:24</sup>In the Year of Jubilee the field shall return to him from whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land belongs. <sup>27:25</sup>All your valuations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs to the shekel.

<sup>27:26</sup>“Only the firstborn among animals, which is made a firstborn to the LORD, no man may dedicate it; whether an ox or sheep, it is the LORD’s. <sup>27:27</sup>If it is an unclean animal, then he shall buy it back according to your valuation, and shall add to it the fifth part of it: or if it isn’t redeemed, then it shall be sold according to your valuation.

<sup>27:28</sup>“Notwithstanding, no devoted thing, that a man shall devote to the LORD of all that he has, whether of man or animal, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy to the LORD.

Numbers

Of Ephraim: Elishama the son of Ammihud.

tions, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, those who were numbered of it, according to the number of the names, one by one, every male from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; <sup>1:23</sup>those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

houses, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war; <sup>1:37</sup>those who were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

<sup>1:44</sup>These are those who were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men: they were each one for his fathers' house. <sup>1:45</sup>So all those who were numbered of the children of Israel by their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all who were able to go out to war in Israel; <sup>1:46</sup>even all those who were numbered were six hundred three thousand five hundred fifty. <sup>1:47</sup>But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not numbered among them. <sup>1:48</sup>For the LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>1:49</sup>"Only the tribe of Levi you shall not number, neither shall you take a census of them among the children of Israel; <sup>1:50</sup>but appoint the Levites over the Tabernacle of the Testimony, and over all its furnishings, and over all that belongs to it. They shall carry the tabernacle, and all its furnishings; and they shall take care of it, and shall encamp around it.

<sup>1:51</sup>When the tabernacle is to move, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall set it up. The stranger who comes near shall be put to death. <sup>1:52</sup>The children of Israel shall pitch their tents, every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, according to their divisions.

<sup>1:53</sup>But the Levites shall encamp around the Tabernacle of the Testimony, that there may be no wrath on the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be responsible for the Tabernacle of the Testimony."

<sup>2:9</sup>All who were numbered of the camp of Judah were one hundred eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their divisions. They shall set out first.

<sup>2:12</sup>Those who encamp next to him shall be the tribe of Simeon. The prince of the children of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai. <sup>2:13</sup>His division, and those who were numbered of them, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.

numbered of them, were forty-five thousand six hundred fifty.

<sup>2:16</sup>“All who were numbered of the camp of Reuben were one hundred fifty-one thousand four hundred fifty, according to their armies. They shall set out second.

<sup>2:17</sup>“Then the Tent of Meeting shall set out, with the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps. As they encamp, so shall they set out, every man in his place, by their standards.

<sup>2:34</sup>Thus the children of Israel did. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so they encamped by their standards, and so they set out, everyone by their families, according to their fathers' houses.

These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers’ houses.

<sup>3:21</sup>Of Gershon was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimeites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

<sup>3:22</sup>Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those who were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.

<sup>3:25</sup>The duty of the sons of Gershon in the Tent of Meeting shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, its covering, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>3:26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and around the altar, and its cords for all of its service.

<sup>3:27</sup>Of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites. <sup>3:28</sup>According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, keeping the requirements of the sanctuary.

<sup>3:30</sup>The prince of the fathers’ house of the families of the Kohathites shall be Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. <sup>3:31</sup>Their duty shall be the ark, the table, the lamp stand, the altars, the vessels of the sanctuary with which they minister, and the screen, and all its service.

<sup>3:32</sup>Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be prince of the princes of the Levites, with the oversight of those who keep the requirements of the sanctuary.

<sup>3:33</sup>Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites. These are the families of Merari. <sup>3:34</sup>Those who were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six thousand two hundred.

<sup>3:42</sup>Moses numbered, as the LORD commanded him, all the firstborn among the children of Israel. <sup>3:43</sup>All the firstborn males according to the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those who were numbered of them, were twenty-two thousand two hundred seventy-three.

shall take five shekels apiece for each one; after the shekel of the sanctuary you shall take them (the shekel is twenty gerahs): <sup>3:48</sup>and you shall give the money, with which their remainder is redeemed, to Aaron and to his sons."

shall put on it all its vessels, with which they minister about it, the fire pans, the flesh hooks, the shovels, and the basins; all the vessels of the altar; and they shall spread on it a covering of sealskin, and put in its poles.

<sup>4:15</sup>"When Aaron and his sons have finished covering the sanctuary, and all the furniture of the sanctuary, as the camp moves forward; after that, the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it: but they shall not touch the sanctuary, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sons of Kohath in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>4:16</sup>"The duty of Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall be the oil for the light, the sweet incense, the continual meal offering, and the anointing oil, the requirements of all the tabernacle, and of all that is in it, the sanctuary, and its furnishings."

<sup>4:24</sup>"This is the service of the families of the Gershonites, in serving and in bearing burdens: <sup>4:25</sup>they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the Tent of Meeting, its covering, and the covering of sealskin that is above on it, and the screen for the door of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>4:26</sup>and the hangings of the court, and the screen for the door of the gate of the court, which is by the tabernacle and around the altar, and their cords, and all the instruments of their service, and whatever shall be done with them. Therein shall they serve. <sup>4:27</sup>At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their burden, and in all their service; and you shall appoint their duty to them in all their responsibilities. <sup>4:28</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of the Gershonites in the Tent of Meeting; and their duty shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.

<sup>4:29</sup>“As for the sons of Merari, you shall number them by their families, by their fathers’ houses; <sup>4:30</sup>you shall count them from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who enters on the service, to do the work of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>4:31</sup>This is the duty of their burden, according to all their service in the Tent of Meeting: the tabernacle’s boards, its bars, its pillars, its sockets, <sup>4:32</sup>and the pillars of the court around it, and their sockets, and their pins, and their cords, with all their instruments, and with all their service: and by name you shall appoint the instruments of the duty of their burden. <sup>4:33</sup>This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service, in the Tent of Meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.”

<sup>4:38</sup>Those who were numbered of the sons of Gershon, their families, and by their fathers’ houses, <sup>4:39</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>4:40</sup>even those who were numbered of them, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, were two thousand six hundred thirty. <sup>4:41</sup>These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all who served in the Tent of Meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD. <sup>4:42</sup>Those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, by their families, by their fathers’ houses, <sup>4:43</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered into the service, for work in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>4:44</sup>even those who were numbered of them by their families, were three thousand two hundred. <sup>4:45</sup>These are those who were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of the LORD by Moses. <sup>4:46</sup>All those who were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel numbered, by their families, and by their fathers’ houses, <sup>4:47</sup>from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, everyone who entered in to do the work of service, and the work of bearing burdens in the Tent of Meeting, <sup>4:48</sup>even those who were numbered of them, were eight thousand five hundred eighty. <sup>4:49</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD they were numbered by Moses, everyone according to his service, and according to his burden. Thus were they numbered by him, as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>5:5</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>5:6</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel: ‘When a man or woman commits any sin that men commit, so as to trespass against the LORD, and that soul is guilty; <sup>5:7</sup>then he shall confess his sin which he has done, and he shall make restitution for his guilt in full, and add to it the fifth part of it, and give it to him in respect of whom he has been guilty. <sup>5:8</sup>But if the man has no kinsman to whom restitution may be made for the guilt, the restitution for guilt which is made to the LORD shall be the priest’s; besides the ram of the atonement, by which atonement shall be made for him. <sup>5:9</sup>Every heave offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present to the priest, shall be his. <sup>5:10</sup>Every man’s holy things shall be his: whatever any man gives the priest, it shall be his.’” carnally, and it is hidden from the eyes of her husband, and is kept close, and she is defiled, and there is no witness against her, and she isn't taken in the act; <sup>5:14</sup>and the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she is defiled: or if the spirit of jealousy comes on him, and he is jealous of his wife, and she isn't defiled: <sup>5:15</sup>then the man shall bring his wife to the priest, and shall bring her offering for her: the tenth part of an ephah<sup>b</sup> of barley meal. He shall pour no oil on it, nor put frankincense on it, for it is a meal offering of jealousy, a meal offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to memory. <sup>5:16</sup>The priest shall bring her near, and set her before the LORD; <sup>5:17</sup>and the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water. <sup>5:18</sup>The priest shall set the woman before the LORD, and let the hair of the woman's head go loose, and put the meal offering of memorial in her hands, which is the meal offering of jealousy. The priest shall have in his hand the water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>5:19</sup>The priest shall cause her to swear, and shall tell the woman, "If no man has lain with you, and if you haven't gone aside to uncleanness, being under your husband, be free from this water of bitterness that brings a curse. <sup>5:20</sup>But if you have gone astray, being under your husband, and if you are defiled, and some man has lain with you besides your husband:" <sup>5:21</sup>then the priest shall cause the woman to swear with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall tell the woman, "The LORD make you a curse and an oath among your people, when the LORD allows your thigh to fall away, and your body to swell; <sup>5:22</sup>and this water that brings a curse will go into your bowels, and make your body swell, and your thigh fall away." The woman shall say, "Amen, Amen."

offering before the LORD, and bring it to the altar. <sup>5:26</sup>The priest shall take a handful of the meal offering, as its memorial, and burn it on the altar, and afterward shall make the woman drink the water. <sup>5:27</sup>When he has made her drink the water, then it shall happen, if she is defiled, and has committed a trespass against her husband, that the water that causes the curse will enter into her and become bitter, and her body will swell, and her thigh will fall away: and the woman will be a curse among her people. <sup>5:28</sup>If the woman isn't defiled, but is clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

<sup>6:5</sup>"All the days of his vow of separation no razor shall come on his head, until the days are fulfilled, in which he separates himself to the LORD. He shall be holy. He shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow long.

<sup>6:9</sup>"If any man dies very suddenly beside him, and he defiles the head of his separation; then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing. On the seventh day he shall shave

it. <sup>6:10</sup>On the eighth day he shall bring two turtledoves or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>6:11</sup>The priest shall offer one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering, and make atonement for him, because he sinned by reason of the dead, and shall make his head holy that same day. <sup>6:12</sup>He shall separate to the LORD the days of his separation, and shall bring a male lamb a year old for a trespass offering; but the former days shall be void, because his separation was defiled.

<sup>6:13</sup>“This is the law of the Nazirite: when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought to the door of the Tent of Meeting, <sup>6:14</sup>and he shall offer his offering to the LORD, one male lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering, and one ewe lamb a year old without blemish for a sin offering, and one ram without blemish for peace offerings, <sup>6:15</sup>and a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mixed with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings. <sup>6:16</sup>The priest shall present them before the LORD, and shall offer his sin offering, and his burnt offering. <sup>6:17</sup>He shall offer the ram for a sacrifice of peace offerings to the LORD, with the basket of unleavened bread. The priest shall offer also its meal offering, and its drink offering. <sup>6:18</sup>The Nazirite shall shave the head of his separation at the door of the Tent of Meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice of peace offerings. <sup>6:19</sup>The priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them on the hands of the Nazirite, after he has shaved the head of his separation; <sup>6:20</sup>and the priest shall wave them for a wave offering before the LORD. This is holy for the priest, together with the breast that is waved and the thigh that is offered. After that the Nazirite may drink wine.

<sup>6:21</sup>“This is the law of the Nazirite who vows, and of his offering to the LORD for his separation, besides that which he is able to get. According to his vow which he vows, so he must do after the law of his separation.”

Israel.’ You shall tell them,

and be gracious to you.

<sup>6:26</sup>The LORD lift up his face toward you, and give you peace.’

<sup>7:12</sup>He who offered his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah, <sup>7:13</sup>and his offering was: one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:17</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:23</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Nethanel the son of Zuar.

one silver platter, the weight of which was a hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:29</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:35</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elizur the son of Shedeur.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:41</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old: this was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;

one ram,

one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

<sup>7:47</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,

 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
<sup>7:50</sup>one golden ladle of ten shekels, full of incense;
<sup>7:51</sup>one young bull,
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:53</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

<sup>7:54</sup>On the eighth day Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur, prince of the children of Manasseh <sup>7:55</sup>gave his offering:
 one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,
 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
<sup>7:57</sup>one young bull,
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:59</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

<sup>7:60</sup>On the ninth day Abidan the son of Gideoni, prince of the children of Benjamin <sup>7:61</sup>gave his offering:
 one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,
 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
<sup>7:63</sup>one young bull,
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:65</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

 one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,
 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
<sup>7:69</sup>one young bull,
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:71</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.

<sup>7:72</sup>On the eleventh day Pagiel the son of Ochran, prince of the children of Asher <sup>7:73</sup>gave his offering:
 one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,
 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
<sup>7:75</sup>one young bull,
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:77</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ochran.

<sup>7:78</sup>On the twelfth day Ahira the son of Enan, prince of the children of Naphtali <sup>7:79</sup>gave his offering:
 one silver platter, the weight of which was one hundred thirty shekels,
 one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; both of them full of fine flour mixed with oil for a meal offering;
 one ram,
 one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;
<sup>7:83</sup>and for the sacrifice of peace offerings, two head of cattle, five rams, five male goats, and five male lambs a year old. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.

<sup>7:84</sup>This was the dedication of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, by the princes of Israel: twelve silver platters, twelve silver bowls, twelve golden ladles; <sup>7:85</sup>each silver platter weighing one hundred thirty shekels, and each bowl seventy; all the silver of the vessels two thousand four hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary; <sup>7:86</sup>the twelve golden ladles, full of incense, weighing ten shekels apiece, after the shekel of the sanctuary; all the gold of the ladles weighed one hundred twenty shekels; <sup>7:87</sup>all the cattle for the burnt offering twelve bulls, the rams twelve, the male lambs a year old twelve, and their meal offering; and the male goats for a sin offering twelve; <sup>7:88</sup>and all the cattle for the sacrifice of peace offerings twenty-four bulls, the rams sixty, the male goats sixty, the male lambs a year old sixty. This was the dedication of the altar, after it was anointed.

<sup>7:89</sup>When Moses went into the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard his voice speaking to him from above the mercy seat that was on the ark of the Testimony, from between the two cherubim: and he spoke to him.

<sup>8:3</sup>Aaron did so. He lit its lamps to light the area in front of the menorah, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>8:4</sup>This was the workmanship of the menorah, beaten work of gold. From its base to its flowers, it was beaten work: according to the pattern which the LORD had shown Moses, so he made the menorah.

<sup>8:8</sup>Then let them take a young bull, and its meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil; and another young bull you shall take for a sin offering. <sup>8:9</sup>You shall present the Levites before the Tent of Meeting. You shall assemble the whole congregation of the children of Israel. <sup>8:10</sup>You shall present the Levites before the LORD. The children of Israel shall lay their hands on the Levites, <sup>8:11</sup>and Aaron shall offer the Levites before the LORD for a wave offering, on the behalf of the children of Israel, that it may be theirs to do the service of the LORD.

<sup>8:12</sup>“The Levites shall lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, and you shall offer the one for a sin offering, and the other for a burnt offering to the LORD, to make atonement for the Levites. <sup>8:13</sup>You shall set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them as a wave offering to the LORD. <sup>8:14</sup>Thus you shall separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, and the Levites shall be mine.

<sup>8:15</sup>“After that, the Levites shall go in to do the service of the Tent of Meeting: and you shall cleanse them, and offer them as a wave offering. <sup>8:16</sup>For they are wholly given to me from among the children of Israel; instead of all who open the womb, even the firstborn of all the children of Israel, I have taken them to me. <sup>8:17</sup>For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both man and animal. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for myself.

<sup>8:20</sup>Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel did so to the Levites. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so the children of Israel did to them. <sup>8:21</sup>The Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their clothes; and Aaron offered them for a wave offering before the LORD; and Aaron made atonement for them to cleanse them. <sup>8:22</sup>After that, the Levites went in to do their service in the Tent of Meeting before Aaron, and before his sons: as the LORD had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so they did to them.

<sup>8:23</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>8:24</sup>“This is that which belongs to the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward they shall go in to wait on the service in the work of the Tent of Meeting; <sup>8:25</sup>and from the age of fifty years they shall cease waiting on the work, and shall serve no more, <sup>8:26</sup>but shall minister with their brothers in the Tent of Meeting, to perform the duty, and shall do no service. You shall do thus to the Levites concerning their duties.”

<sup>9:4</sup>Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should keep the Passover. <sup>9:5</sup>They kept the Passover in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at evening, in the wilderness of Sinai. According to all that the LORD commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did. <sup>9:6</sup>There were certain men, who were unclean because of the dead body of a man, so that they could not keep the Passover on that day, and they came before Moses and before Aaron on that day. <sup>9:7</sup>Those men said to him, “We are unclean because of the dead body of a man. Why are we kept back, that we may not offer the offering of the LORD in its appointed season among the children of Israel?”

<sup>9:9</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>9:10</sup>“Say to the children of Israel, ‘If any man of you or of your generations is unclean by reason of a dead body, or is on a journey far away, he shall still keep the Passover to the LORD. <sup>9:11</sup>In the second month, on the fourteenth day at evening they shall keep it; they shall eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs. <sup>9:12</sup>They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone of it. According to all the statute of the Passover they shall keep it. <sup>9:13</sup>But the man who is clean, and is not on a journey, and fails to keep the Passover, that soul shall be cut off from his people. Because he didn’t offer the offering of the LORD in its appointed season, that man shall bear his sin.

according to the statute of the Passover, and according to its ordinance, so shall he do. You shall have one statute, both for the foreigner, and for him who is born in the land.”

<sup>9:15</sup>On the day that the tabernacle was raised up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, even the Tent of the Testimony: and at evening it was over the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until morning. <sup>9:16</sup>So it was continually. The cloud covered it, and the appearance of fire by night. <sup>9:17</sup>Whenever the cloud was taken up from over the Tent, then after that the children of Israel traveled; and in the place where the cloud remained, there the children of Israel encamped. <sup>9:18</sup>At the commandment of the LORD, the children of Israel traveled, and at the commandment of the LORD they encamped. As long as the cloud remained on the tabernacle they remained encamped. <sup>9:19</sup>When the cloud stayed on the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the LORD’s command, and didn’t travel. <sup>9:20</sup>Sometimes the cloud was a few days on the tabernacle; then according to the commandment of the LORD they remained encamped, and according to the commandment of the LORD they traveled. <sup>9:21</sup>Sometimes the cloud was from evening until morning; and when the cloud was taken up in the morning, they traveled: or by day and by night, when the cloud was taken up, they traveled. <sup>9:22</sup>Whether it was two days, or a month, or a year that the cloud stayed on the tabernacle, remaining on it, the children of Israel remained encamped, and didn’t travel; but when it was taken up, they traveled. <sup>9:23</sup>At the commandment of the LORD they encamped, and at the commandment of the LORD they traveled. They kept the LORD’s command, at the commandment of the LORD by Moses.

alarm the second time, the camps that lie on the south side shall go forward. They shall blow an alarm for their journeys. <sup>10:7</sup>But when the assembly is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

<sup>10:10</sup>“Also in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in the beginnings of your months, you shall blow the shofars<sup>g</sup> over your burnt offerings, and over the sacrifices of your peace offerings; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God. I am the LORD your God.”

before they arrived.

<sup>10:25</sup>The standard of the camp of the children of Dan, which was the rear guard of all the camps, set forward according to their armies. Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai was over his army. <sup>10:26</sup>Pagiel the son of Ochran was over the army of the tribe of the children of Asher. <sup>10:27</sup>Ahira the son of Enan was over the army of the tribe of the children of Naphtali. <sup>10:28</sup>Thus were the travels of the children of Israel according to their armies; and they went forward.

<sup>10:29</sup>Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, “We are journeying to the place of which the LORD said, ‘I will give it to you.’ Come with us, and we will treat you well; for the LORD has spoken good concerning Israel.”

<sup>10:30</sup>He said to him, “I will not go; but I will depart to my own land, and to my relatives.”

<sup>10:31</sup>He said, “Don't leave us, please; because you know how we are to encamp in the wilderness, and you can be our eyes. <sup>10:32</sup>It shall be, if you go with us, yes, it shall be, that whatever good the LORD does to us, we will do the same to you.”

<sup>10:33</sup>They set forward from the Mount of the LORD three days' journey. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them three days' journey, to seek out a resting place for them. <sup>10:34</sup>The cloud of the LORD was over them by day, when they set forward from the camp. <sup>10:35</sup>It happened, when the ark went forward, that Moses said, “Rise up, LORD, and let your enemies be scattered! Let those who hate you flee before you!” <sup>10:36</sup>When it rested, he said, “Return, LORD, to the ten thousands of the thousands of Israel.”

among them, and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp. <sup>11:2</sup>The people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to the LORD, and the fire abated. <sup>11:3</sup>The name of that place was called Taberah<sup>h</sup>, because the LORD's fire burnt among them.

<sup>11:4</sup>The mixed multitude that was among them lusted exceedingly; and the children of Israel also wept again, and said, "Who will give us flesh to eat?" <sup>11:5</sup>We remember the fish, which we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the garlic; <sup>11:6</sup>but now we have lost our appetite. There is nothing at all except this manna to look at." <sup>11:7</sup>The manna was like coriander seed, and its appearance like the appearance of bdellium. <sup>11:8</sup>The people went around, gathered it, and ground it in mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it. Its taste was like the taste of fresh oil. <sup>11:9</sup>When the dew fell on the camp in the night, the manna fell on it.

<sup>11:16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Gather to me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom you know to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you. <sup>11:17</sup>I will come down and talk with you there. I will take of the Spirit which is on you, and will put it on them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with you, that you not bear it yourself alone.

<sup>11:18</sup>"Say to the people, 'Sanctify yourselves against tomorrow, and you will eat flesh; for you have wept in the ears of the LORD, saying, "Who will give us flesh to eat? For it was well with us in Egypt." Therefore the LORD will give you flesh, and you will eat. <sup>11:19</sup>You will not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days, <sup>11:20</sup>but a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it is loathsome to you; because that you have rejected the LORD who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, "Why did we come out of Egypt?"'"

<sup>11:21</sup>Moses said, "The people, among whom I am, are six hundred thousand men on foot; and you have said, 'I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.' <sup>11:22</sup>Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to be sufficient for them? Shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to be sufficient for them?"

<sup>11:23</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Has the LORD's hand grown short? Now you will see whether my word will happen to you or not."

<sup>11:24</sup>Moses went out, and told the people the words of the LORD; and he gathered seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them around the Tent. <sup>11:25</sup>The LORD came down in the cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was on him, and put it on the seventy elders: and it happened that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did so no more. <sup>11:26</sup>But two men remained in the camp. The name of one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the Spirit rested on them; and they were of those who were written, but had not gone out to the Tent; and they prophesied in the camp. <sup>11:27</sup>A young man ran, and told Moses, and said, "Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp!"

<sup>11:29</sup>Moses said to him, "Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD's people were prophets, that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!"

let them fall by the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and a day's journey on the other side, around the camp, and about two cubits above the surface of the earth. <sup>11:32</sup>The people rose up all that day, and all the night, and all the next day, and gathered the quails. He who gathered least gathered ten homers;<sup>i</sup> and they spread them all abroad for themselves around the camp. <sup>11:33</sup>While the flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, the anger of the LORD was kindled against the people, and the LORD struck the people with a very great plague. <sup>11:34</sup>The name of that place was called Kibroth Hattaavah,<sup>j</sup> because there they buried the people who lusted.

<sup>12:1</sup>Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Cushite woman whom he had married; for he had married a Cushite woman. <sup>12:2</sup>They said, "Has the LORD indeed spoken only with Moses? Hasn't he spoken also with us?" And the LORD heard it.

The three of them came out. <sup>12:5</sup>The LORD came down in a pillar of cloud, and stood at the door of the Tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; and they both came forward. <sup>12:6</sup>He said, "Hear now my words. If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD will make myself known to him in a vision. I will speak with him in a dream. <sup>12:7</sup>My servant Moses is not so. He is faithful in all my house. <sup>12:8</sup>With him I will speak mouth to mouth, even plainly, and not in riddles; and he shall see the LORD's form. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant, against Moses?" <sup>12:9</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against them; and he departed. <sup>12:10</sup>The cloud departed from over the Tent; and behold, Miriam was leprous, as white as snow. Aaron looked at Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

<sup>12:11</sup>Aaron said to Moses, "Oh, my lord, please don't count this sin against us, in which we have done foolishly, and in which we have sinned. <sup>12:12</sup>Let her not, I pray, be as one dead, of whom the flesh is half consumed when he comes out of his mother's womb."

<sup>12:14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "If her father had but spit in her face, shouldn't she be ashamed seven days? Let her be shut up outside of the camp seven days, and after that she shall be brought in again."

<sup>12:15</sup>Miriam was shut up outside of the camp seven days, and the people didn't travel until Miriam was brought in again. <sup>12:16</sup>Afterward the people traveled from Hazeroth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur. <sup>13:5</sup>Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori. <sup>13:6</sup>Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>13:7</sup>Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph. <sup>13:8</sup>Of the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Nun.

out the land. Moses called Hoshea the son of Nun Joshua. <sup>13:17</sup>Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said to them, "Go up this way by the South, and go up into the hill country: <sup>13:18</sup>and see the land, what it is; and the people who dwell therein, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many; <sup>13:19</sup>and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds; <sup>13:20</sup>and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood therein, or not. Be courageous, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first-ripe grapes.” <sup>13:21</sup>So they went up, and spied out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, to the entrance of Hamath. <sup>13:22</sup>They went up by the South, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were there. (Now Hebron was built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.) <sup>13:23</sup>They came to the valley of Eshcol, and cut down from there a branch with one cluster of grapes, and they bore it on a staff between two. They also brought some of the pomegranates and figs. <sup>13:24</sup>That place was called the valley of Eshcol, because of the cluster which the children of Israel cut down from there. <sup>13:25</sup>They returned from spying out the land at the end of forty days. <sup>13:26</sup>They went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to all the congregation, and showed them the fruit of the land. <sup>13:27</sup>They told him, and said, “We came to the land where you sent us; and surely it flows with milk and honey; and this is its fruit. <sup>13:28</sup>However the people who dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified and very large. Moreover, we saw the children of Anak there. <sup>13:29</sup>Amalek dwells in the land of the South: and the Hittite, and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, dwell in the hill country; and the Canaanite dwells by the sea, and along by the side of the Jordan.” <sup>13:30</sup>Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, “Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.” <sup>13:31</sup>But the men who went up with him said, “We aren’t able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.” <sup>13:32</sup>They brought up an evil report of the land which they had spied out to the children of Israel, saying, “The land, through which we have gone to spy it out, is a land that eats up its inhabitants; and all the people who we saw in it are men of great stature. <sup>13:33</sup>There we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.”

and cried; and the people wept that night. <sup>14:2</sup>All the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said to them, “Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! or would that we had died in this wilderness! <sup>14:3</sup>Why does the LORD bring us to this land, to fall by the sword? Our wives and our little ones will be a prey: wouldn’t it be better for us to return into Egypt?” <sup>14:4</sup>They said one to another, “Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt.” <sup>14:5</sup>Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel. <sup>14:6</sup>Joshua the son of Nun and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, who were of those who spied out the land, tore their clothes: <sup>14:7</sup>and they spoke to all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, “The land, which we passed through to spy it out, is an exceeding good land. <sup>14:8</sup>If the LORD delights in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it to us; a land which flows with milk and honey. <sup>14:9</sup>Only don’t rebel against the LORD, neither fear the people of the land; for they are bread for us: their defense is removed from over them, and the LORD is with us. Don’t fear them.” <sup>14:10</sup>But all the congregation threatened to stone them with stones. The glory of the LORD appeared in the Tent of Meeting to all the children of Israel. <sup>14:11</sup>The LORD said to Moses, “How long will this people despise me? and how long will they not believe in me, for all the signs which I have worked among them? <sup>14:12</sup>I will strike them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of you a nation greater and mightier than they.” <sup>14:13</sup>Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear it; for you brought up this people in your might from among them; <sup>14:14</sup>and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land. They have heard that you LORD are in the midst of this people; for you LORD are seen face to face, and your cloud stands over them, and you go before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night. <sup>14:15</sup>Now if you killed this people as one man, then the nations which have heard the fame of you will speak, saying, <sup>14:16</sup>‘Because the LORD was not able to bring this people into the land which he swore to them, therefore he has slain them in the wilderness.’ <sup>14:17</sup>Now please let the power of the Lord<sup>k</sup> be great, according as you have spoken, saying, <sup>14:18</sup>“The LORD is slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, forgiving iniquity and disobedience; and that will by no means clear the guilty, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, on the third and on the fourth generation.” <sup>14:19</sup>“Please pardon the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of your loving kindness, and according as you have forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.” <sup>14:20</sup>The LORD said, “I have pardoned according to your word: <sup>14:21</sup>but in very deed, as I live, and as all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD; <sup>14:22</sup>because all those men who have seen my glory, and my signs, which I worked in Egypt and in the wilderness, yet have tempted me these ten times, and have not listened to my voice; <sup>14:23</sup>surely they shall not see the land which I swore to their fathers, neither shall any of those who despised me see it: <sup>14:24</sup>but my servant Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and has followed me fully, him will I bring into the land into which he went; and his seed shall possess it. <sup>14:25</sup>Now the Amalekite and the Canaanite dwell in the valley: tomorrow turn, and go into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Suf.” <sup>14:26</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>14:27</sup>“How long shall I bear with this evil congregation, that murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they murmur against me. <sup>14:28</sup>Tell them, ‘As I live, says the LORD, surely as you have spoken in my ears, so will I do to you: <sup>14:29</sup>your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness; and all who were numbered of you, according to your whole number, from twenty years old and upward, who have murmured against me, <sup>14:30</sup>surely you shall not come into the land, concerning which I swore that I would make you dwell therein, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>14:31</sup>But your little ones, that you said should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land which you have rejected. <sup>14:32</sup>But as for you, your dead bodies shall fall in this wilderness. <sup>14:33</sup>Your children shall be wanderers in the wilderness forty years, and shall bear your prostitution, until your dead bodies be consumed in the wilderness. <sup>14:34</sup>After the number of the days in which you spied out the land, even forty days, for every day a year, you will bear your iniquities, even forty years, and you will know my alienation.’ <sup>14:35</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken, surely this will I do to all this evil congregation, who are gathered together against me: in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.” <sup>14:36</sup>The men, whom Moses sent to spy out the land, who returned, and made all the congregation to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report against the land, <sup>14:37</sup>even those men who brought up an evil report of the land, died by the plague before the LORD. <sup>14:38</sup>But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, remained alive of those men who went to spy out the land. <sup>14:39</sup>Moses told these words to all the children of Israel: and the people mourned greatly. <sup>14:40</sup>They rose up early in the morning, and went up to the top of the mountain, saying, “Behold, we are here, and will go up to the place which the LORD has promised: for we have sinned.” <sup>14:41</sup>Moses said, “Why now do you disobey the commandment of the LORD, since it shall not prosper? <sup>14:42</sup>Don’t go up, for the LORD isn’t among you; that you not be struck down before your enemies. <sup>14:43</sup>For there the Amalekite and the Canaanite are before you, and you shall fall by the sword: because you are turned back from following the LORD, therefore the LORD will not be with you.”

<sup>14:44</sup>But they presumed to go up to the top of the mountain: nevertheless the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and Moses, didn’t depart out of the camp. <sup>14:45</sup>Then the Amalekite came down, and the Canaanite who lived in that mountain, and struck them and beat them down, even to Hormah.

<sup>15:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>15:2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you have come into the land of your habitations, which I give to you, <sup>15:3</sup>and will make an offering by fire to the LORD, a burnt offering, or a sacrifice, to accomplish a vow, or as a freewill offering, or in your set feasts, to make a pleasant aroma to the LORD, of the herd, or of the flock; <sup>15:4</sup>then he who offers his offering shall offer to the LORD a meal offering of a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour mixed with the fourth part of a hin of oil: <sup>15:5</sup>and wine for the drink offering, the fourth part of a hin, you shall prepare with the burnt offering, or for the sacrifice, for each lamb.

<sup>15:13</sup>“All who are native-born shall do these things in this way, in offering an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>15:14</sup>If a stranger lives as a foreigner with you, or whoever may be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD; as you do, so he shall do. <sup>15:15</sup>For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner, a statute forever throughout your generations: as you are, so shall the foreigner be before the LORD. <sup>15:16</sup>One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger who lives as a foreigner with you.”

<sup>15:17</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>15:18</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you come into the land where I bring you, <sup>15:19</sup>then it shall be that when you eat of the bread of the land, you shall offer up a wave offering to the LORD. <sup>15:20</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall offer up a cake for a wave offering: as the wave offering of the threshing floor, so you shall heave it. <sup>15:21</sup>Of the first of your dough you shall give to the LORD a wave offering throughout your generations.

<sup>15:22</sup>“When you shall err, and not observe all these commandments, which the LORD has spoken to Moses, <sup>15:23</sup>even all that the LORD has commanded you by Moses, from the day that the LORD gave commandment, and onward throughout your generations; <sup>15:24</sup>then it shall be, if it be done unwittingly, without the knowledge of the congregation, that all the congregation shall offer one young bull for a burnt offering, for a pleasant aroma to the LORD, with the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it, according to the ordinance, and one male goat for a sin offering. <sup>15:25</sup>The priest shall make atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and they shall be forgiven; for it was an error, and they have brought their offering, an offering made by fire to the LORD, and their sin offering before the LORD, for their error: <sup>15:26</sup>and all the congregation of the children of Israel shall be forgiven, and the stranger who lives as a foreigner among them; for in respect of all the people it was done unwittingly.

fringes<sup>l</sup> in the borders of their garments throughout their generations, and that they put on the fringe<sup>m</sup> of each border a cord of blue: <sup>15:39</sup>and it shall be to you for a fringe<sup>n</sup>, that you may look on it, and remember all the commandments of the LORD, and do them; and that you not follow after your own heart and your own eyes, after which you use to play the prostitute; <sup>15:40</sup>that you may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy to your God. <sup>15:41</sup>I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the LORD your God."

<sup>16:4</sup>When Moses heard it, he fell on his face: <sup>16:5</sup>and he spoke to Korah and to all his company, saying, "In the morning the LORD will show who are his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near to him: even him whom he shall choose he will cause to come near to him. <sup>16:6</sup>Do this: take censers, Korah, and all his company; <sup>16:7</sup>and put fire in them, and put incense on them before the LORD tomorrow: and it shall be that the man whom the LORD chooses, he shall be holy. You have gone too far, you sons of Levi!"

<sup>16:8</sup>Moses said to Korah, "Hear now, you sons of Levi! <sup>16:9</sup>Is it a small thing to you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the LORD, and to stand before the congregation to minister to them; <sup>16:10</sup>and that he has brought you near, and all your brothers the sons of Levi with you? and do you seek the priesthood also? <sup>16:11</sup>Therefore you and all your company are gathered together against the LORD: and Aaron, what is he that you murmur against him?"

<sup>16:12</sup>Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; and they said, "We won't come up: <sup>16:13</sup>is it a small thing that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, but you must also make yourself a prince over us? <sup>16:14</sup>Moreover you haven't brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, nor given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: will you put out the eyes of these men? We won't come up." <sup>16:15</sup>Moses was very angry, and said to the LORD, "Don't respect their offering: I have not taken one donkey from them, neither have I hurt one of them." <sup>16:16</sup>Moses said to Korah, "You and all your company go before the LORD, you, and they, and Aaron, tomorrow: <sup>16:17</sup>and each man take his censer, and put incense on them, and each man bring before the LORD his censer, two hundred fifty censers; you also, and Aaron, each his censer." <sup>16:18</sup>They each took his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood at the door of the Tent of Meeting with Moses and Aaron. <sup>16:19</sup>Korah assembled all the congregation against them to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the congregation. <sup>16:20</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, <sup>16:21</sup>"Separate yourselves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment!" <sup>16:22</sup>They fell on their faces, and said, "God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sin, and will you be angry with all the congregation?"

their sons, and their little ones. <sup>16:28</sup>Moses said, "Hereby you shall know that the LORD has sent me to do all these works; for they are not from my own mind. <sup>16:29</sup>If these men die the common death of all men, or if they be visited after the visitation of all men; then the LORD hasn't sent me. <sup>16:30</sup>But if the LORD make a new thing, and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain to them, and they go down alive into Sheol<sup>o</sup>; then you shall understand that these men have despised the LORD."

<sup>16:31</sup>It happened, as he made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground split apart that was under them; <sup>16:32</sup>and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men who appertained to Korah, and all their goods. <sup>16:33</sup>So they, and all that appertained to them, went down alive into Sheol<sup>p</sup>: and the earth closed on them, and they perished from among the assembly. <sup>16:34</sup>All Israel that were around them fled at their cry; for they said, "Lest the earth swallow us up!" <sup>16:35</sup>Fire came forth from the LORD, and devoured the two hundred fifty men who offered the incense.

toward the Tent of Meeting: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the LORD appeared. <sup>16:43</sup>Moses and Aaron came to the front of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>16:44</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>16:45</sup>"Get away from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment!" They fell on their faces.

<sup>16:46</sup>Moses said to Aaron, "Take your censer, and put fire from off the altar in it, and lay incense on it, and carry it quickly to the congregation, and make atonement for them; for wrath has gone out from the LORD! The plague has begun."

<sup>16:47</sup>Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly; and behold, the plague has begun among the people: and he put on the incense, and made atonement for the people. <sup>16:48</sup>He stood between the dead and the living; and the plague was stayed. <sup>16:49</sup>Now those who died by the plague were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides those who died about the matter of Korah. <sup>16:50</sup>Aaron returned to Moses to the door of the Tent of Meeting: and the plague was stayed.

<sup>17:6</sup>Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and all their princes gave him rods, for each prince one, according to their fathers' houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods. <sup>17:7</sup>Moses laid up the rods before the LORD in the tent of the testimony.

<sup>17:8</sup>It happened on the next day, that Moses went into the tent of the testimony; and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and put forth buds, and produced blossoms, and bore ripe almonds. <sup>17:9</sup>Moses brought out all the rods from before the LORD to all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

<sup>17:10</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Put back the rod of Aaron before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the children of rebellion; that you may make an end of their murmurings against me, that they not die." <sup>17:11</sup>Moses did so. As the LORD commanded him, so he did.

<sup>17:12</sup>The children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, "Behold, we perish! We are undone! We are all undone!" <sup>17:13</sup>Everyone who comes near, who comes near to the tabernacle of the LORD, dies! Will we all perish?"

<sup>18:1</sup>The LORD said to Aaron, "You and your sons and your fathers' house with you shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and you and your sons with you shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood." <sup>18:2</sup>Your brothers also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of your father, bring near with you, that they may be joined to you, and minister to you: but you and your sons with you shall be before the tent of the testimony. <sup>18:3</sup>They shall keep your commands, and the duty of all the Tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they not die, neither they, nor you. <sup>18:4</sup>They shall be joined to you, and keep the responsibility of the Tent of Meeting, for all the service of the Tent: and a stranger shall not come near to you.

<sup>18:5</sup>"You shall perform the duty of the sanctuary, and the duty of the altar; that there be no more wrath on the children of Israel. <sup>18:6</sup>I, behold, I have taken your brothers the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are a gift, given to the LORD, to do the service of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>18:7</sup>You and your sons with you shall keep your priesthood for everything of the altar, and for that within the veil; and you shall serve: I give you the priesthood as a service of gift: and the stranger who comes near shall be put to death."

<sup>18:8</sup>The LORD spoke to Aaron, "I, behold, I have given you the command of my wave offerings, even all the holy things of the children of Israel; to you have I given them by reason of the anointing, and to your sons, as a portion forever. <sup>18:9</sup>This shall be yours of the most holy things from the fire: every offering of theirs, even every meal offering of theirs, and every sin offering of theirs, and every trespass offering of theirs, which they shall render to me, shall be most holy for you and for your sons. <sup>18:10</sup>You shall eat of it like the most holy things. Every male shall eat of it. It shall be holy to you.

<sup>18:11</sup>"This is yours, too: the wave offering of their gift, even all the wave offerings of the children of Israel. I have given them to you, and to your sons and to your daughters with you, as a portion forever. Everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>18:12</sup>"All the best of the oil, and all the best of the vintage, and of the grain, the first fruits of them which they give to the LORD, to you have I given them. <sup>18:13</sup>The first-ripe fruits of all that is in their land, which they bring to the LORD, shall be yours; everyone who is clean in your house shall eat of it.

<sup>18:17</sup>"But you shall not redeem the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat. They are holy. You shall sprinkle their blood on the altar, and shall burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a pleasant aroma to the LORD. <sup>18:18</sup>Their flesh shall be yours, as the wave offering breast and as the right thigh, it shall be yours. <sup>18:19</sup>All the wave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer to the LORD, have I given you, and your sons and your daughters with you, as a portion forever: it is a covenant of salt forever before the LORD to you and to your seed with you."

<sup>18:20</sup>The LORD said to Aaron, "You shall have no inheritance in their land, neither shall you have any portion among them. I am your portion and your inheritance among the children of Israel.

<sup>18:21</sup>"To the children of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithe in Israel for an inheritance, in return for their service which they serve, even the service of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>18:22</sup>Henceforth the children of Israel shall not come near the Tent of Meeting, lest they bear sin, and die. <sup>18:23</sup>But the Levites shall do the service of the Tent of Meeting, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute forever throughout your generations; and among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance. <sup>18:24</sup>For the tithe of the children of Israel, which they offer as a wave offering to the LORD, I have given to the Levites for an inheritance: therefore I have said to them, 'Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.'"

<sup>18:30</sup>"Therefore you shall tell them, 'When you heave its best from it, then it shall be reckoned to the Levites as the increase of the threshing floor, and as the increase of the winepress. <sup>18:31</sup>You shall eat it in every place, you and your households: for it is your reward in return for your service in the Tent of Meeting. <sup>18:32</sup>You shall bear no sin by reason of it, when you have heaved from it its best: and you shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, that you not die.'"

her blood, with her dung, shall he burn: <sup>19:6</sup>and the priest shall take cedar wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer. <sup>19:7</sup>Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the evening. <sup>19:8</sup>He who burns her shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the evening.

<sup>19:11</sup>"He who touches the dead body of any man shall be unclean seven days: <sup>19:12</sup>the same shall purify himself with water on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he doesn't purify himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean. <sup>19:13</sup>Whoever touches a dead person, the body of a man who has died, and doesn't purify himself, defiles the tabernacle of the LORD; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water for impurity was not sprinkled on him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet on him.

<sup>19:14</sup>"This is the law when a man dies in a tent: everyone who comes into the tent, and everyone who is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days. <sup>19:15</sup>Every open vessel, which has no covering bound on it, is unclean.

him; and he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at evening.<sup>19:20</sup> But the man who shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the assembly, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD: the water for impurity has not been sprinkled on him; he is unclean.<sup>19:21</sup> It shall be a perpetual statute to them: and he who sprinkles the water for impurity shall wash his clothes, and he who touches the water for impurity shall be unclean until evening.

<sup>20:12</sup> The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, "Because you didn't believe in me, to sanctify me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore you shall not bring this assembly into the land which I have given them."

"Thus says your brother Israel: You know all the travail that has happened to us:<sup>20:15</sup> how our fathers went down into Egypt, and we lived in Egypt a long time; and the Egyptians dealt ill with us, and our fathers:<sup>20:16</sup> and when we cried to the LORD, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt: and behold, we are in Kadesh, a city in the uttermost of your border.

<sup>20:17</sup> "Please let us pass through your land: we will not pass through field or through vineyard, neither will we drink of the water of the wells: we will go along the king's highway; we will not turn aside to the right hand nor to the left, until we have passed your border."

<sup>20:19</sup> The children of Israel said to him, "We will go up by the highway; and if we drink of your water, I and my livestock, then will I give its price: let me only, without doing anything else, pass through on my feet."

and they went up into Mount Hor in the sight of all the congregation. <sup>20:28</sup>Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them on Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there on the top of the mountain: and Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain. <sup>20:29</sup>When all the congregation saw that Aaron was dead, they wept for Aaron thirty days, even all the house of Israel.

<sup>21:1</sup>The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South, heard tell that Israel came by the way of Atharim; and he fought against Israel, and took some of them captive. <sup>21:2</sup>Israel vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver this people into my hand, then I will utterly destroy their cities." <sup>21:3</sup>The LORD listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them and their cities: and the name of the place was called Hormah.

<sup>21:4</sup>They traveled from Mount Hor by the way to the Sea of Suf, to compass the land of Edom: and the soul of the people was much discouraged because of the way. <sup>21:5</sup>The people spoke against God, and against Moses, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? For there is no bread, and there is no water; and our soul loathes this light bread."

<sup>21:6</sup>The LORD sent fiery serpents among the people, and they bit the people; and many people of Israel died. <sup>21:7</sup>The people came to Moses, and said, "We have sinned, because we have spoken against the LORD, and against you. Pray to the LORD, that he take away the serpents from us." Moses prayed for the people.

<sup>21:8</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Make a fiery serpent, and set it on a standard: and it shall happen, that everyone who is bitten, when he sees it, shall live." <sup>21:9</sup>Moses made a serpent of brass, and set it on the standard: and it happened, that if a serpent had bitten any man, when he looked to the serpent of brass, he lived. <sup>21:10</sup>The children of Israel traveled, and encamped in Oboth. <sup>21:11</sup>They traveled from Oboth, and encamped at Iyeabarim, in the wilderness which is before Moab, toward the sunrise. <sup>21:12</sup>From there they traveled, and encamped in the valley of Zered. <sup>21:13</sup>From there they traveled, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness, that comes out of the border of the Amorites: for the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites. <sup>21:14</sup>Therefore it is said in the book of the Wars of the LORD, "Vaheb in Suphah, the valleys of the Arnon, <sup>21:15</sup>the slope of the valleys that incline toward the dwelling of Ar, leans on the border of Moab."

<sup>21:16</sup>From there they traveled to Beer: that is the well of which the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together, and I will give them water."

"Spring up, well; sing to it:

<sup>21:18</sup>the well, which the princes dug, which the nobles of the people dug,
with the scepter, and with their poles."

From the wilderness they traveled to Mattanah; <sup>21:19</sup>and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from Nahaliel to Bamoth; <sup>21:20</sup>and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the field of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks down on the desert. <sup>21:21</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, <sup>21:22</sup>"Let me pass through your land: we will not turn aside into field, or into vineyard; we will not drink of the water of the wells: we will go by the king's highway, until we have passed your border."

<sup>21:23</sup>Sihon would not allow Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz; and he fought against Israel. <sup>21:24</sup>Israel struck him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even to the children of Ammon; for the border of the children of Ammon was strong. <sup>21:25</sup>Israel took all these cities: and Israel lived in all the cities of the Amorites, in Heshbon, and in all its towns. <sup>21:26</sup>For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hand, even to the Arnon. <sup>21:27</sup>Therefore those who speak in proverbs say, "Come to Heshbon.

Let the city of Sihon be built and established;

<sup>21:28</sup>for a fire has gone out of Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon.

It has devoured Ar of Moab,

The lords of the high places of the Arnon.

You are undone, people of Chemosh!

He has given his sons as fugitives, and his daughters into captivity, to Sihon king of the Amorites.

<sup>21:30</sup>We have shot at them.

Heshbon has perished even to Dibon.

We have laid waste even to Nophah,
Which reaches to Medeba."

<sup>21:34</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Don't fear him: for I have delivered him into your hand, and all his people, and his land; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon."

<sup>21:35</sup>So they struck him, and his sons and all his people, until there was none left him remaining: and they possessed his land.

Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab at that time. <sup>22:5</sup>He sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is by the River, to the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, "Behold, there is a people who came out from Egypt. Behold, they cover the surface of the earth, and they are staying opposite me. <sup>22:6</sup>Please come now therefore curse me this people; for they are too mighty for me: perhaps I shall prevail, that we may strike them, and that I may drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed."

<sup>22:7</sup>The elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came to Balaam, and spoke to him the words of Balak. <sup>22:8</sup>He said to them, "Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, as the LORD shall speak to me." The princes of Moab stayed with

Balaam. <sup>22:9</sup>God came to Balaam, and said, "Who are these men with you?" <sup>22:10</sup>Balaam said to God, "Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, has said to me, <sup>22:11</sup>'Behold, the people that has come out of Egypt, it covers the surface of the earth: now, come curse me them; perhaps I shall be able to fight against them, and shall drive them out.'"

<sup>22:12</sup>God said to Balaam, "You shall not go with them. You shall not curse the people; for they are blessed."

<sup>22:13</sup>Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, "Go to your land; for the LORD refuses to permit me to go with you."

<sup>22:15</sup>Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honorable than they. <sup>22:16</sup>They came to Balaam, and said to him, "Thus says Balak the son of Zippor, 'Please let nothing hinder you from coming to me: <sup>22:17</sup>for I will promote you to very great honor, and whatever you say to me I will do. Please come therefore, and curse this people for me.'"

<sup>22:18</sup>Balaam answered the servants of Balak, "If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of the LORD my God, to do less or more. <sup>22:19</sup>Now therefore, please wait also here this night, that I may know what the LORD will speak to me more."

<sup>22:20</sup>God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, "If the men have come to call you, rise up, go with them; but only the word which I speak to you, that you shall do."

<sup>22:21</sup>Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his donkey, and went with the princes of Moab. <sup>22:22</sup>God's anger was kindled because he went; and the angel of the LORD placed himself in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him. <sup>22:23</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and the donkey turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam struck the donkey, to turn her into the way. <sup>22:24</sup>Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side. <sup>22:25</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD, and she thrust herself to the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall: and he struck her again.

<sup>22:26</sup>The angel of the LORD went further, and stood in a narrow place, where there was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left. <sup>22:27</sup>The donkey saw the angel of the LORD, and she lay down under Balaam: and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he struck the donkey with his staff.

<sup>22:28</sup>The LORD opened the mouth of the donkey, and she said to Balaam, "What have I done to you, that you have struck me these three times?"

<sup>22:29</sup>Balaam said to the donkey, "Because you have mocked me, I wish there were a sword in my hand, for now I would have killed you."

<sup>22:30</sup>The donkey said to Balaam, "Am I not your donkey, on which you have ridden all your life long to this day? Was I ever in the habit of doing so to you?"

He said, "No."

<sup>22:31</sup>Then the LORD opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the way, with his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed his head, and fell on his face. <sup>22:32</sup>The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why have you struck your donkey these three times? Behold, I have come forth as an adversary, because your way is perverse before me: <sup>22:33</sup>and the donkey saw me, and turned aside before me these three times. Unless she had turned aside from me, surely now I would have killed you, and saved her alive."

<sup>22:34</sup>Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, "I have sinned; for I didn't know that you stood in the way against me. Now therefore, if it displeases you, I will go back again."

<sup>22:35</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, "Go with the men; but only the word that I shall speak to you, that you shall speak."

So Balaam went with the princes of Balak. <sup>22:36</sup>When Balak heard that Balaam had come, he went out to meet him to the City of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is in the utmost part of the border. <sup>22:37</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "Didn't I earnestly send to you to call you? Why didn't you come to me? Am I not able indeed to promote you to honor?"

<sup>22:38</sup>Balaam said to Balak, "Behold, I have come to you: have I now any power at all to speak anything? The word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak."

<sup>23:2</sup>Balak did as Balaam had spoken; and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bull and a ram. <sup>23:3</sup>Balaam said to Balak, "Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go: perhaps the LORD will come to meet me; and whatever he shows me I will tell you."

He went to a bare height. <sup>23:4</sup>God met Balaam: and he said to him, "I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered up a bull and a ram on every altar."

<sup>23:6</sup>He returned to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, he, and all the princes of Moab. <sup>23:7</sup>He took up his parable, and said,

"From Aram has Balak brought me, the king of Moab from the mountains of the East.
Come, curse Jacob for me.
Come, defy Israel.

<sup>23:8</sup>How shall I curse whom God has not cursed?

How shall I defy whom the LORD has not defied?

From the hills I see him.

Behold, it is a people that dwells alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

<sup>23:10</sup>Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number the fourth part of Israel?

Let me die the death of the righteous!

Let my last end be like his!"

<sup>23:11</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and behold, you have blessed them altogether."

<sup>23:12</sup>He answered and said, "Must I not take heed to speak that which the LORD puts in my mouth?"

<sup>23:13</sup>Balak said to him, "Please come with me to another place, where you may see them; you shall see but the utmost part of them, and shall not see them all: and curse me them from there."

<sup>23:14</sup>He took him into the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar. <sup>23:15</sup>He said to Balak, "Stand here by your burnt offering, while I meet over there."

<sup>23:17</sup>He came to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab with him. Balak said to him, "What has the LORD spoken?"

Listen to me, you son of Zippor.

<sup>23:19</sup>God is not a man, that he should lie, nor the son of man, that he should repent. Has he said, and will he not do it?

Or has he spoken, and will he not make it good?

He has blessed, and I can't reverse it.

Neither has he seen perverseness in Israel.

The LORD his God is with him.

The shout of a king is among them.

He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.

Now it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel,

What has God done!

<sup>23:24</sup>Behold, the people rises up as a lioness,

As a lion he lifts himself up.

He shall not lie down until he eat of the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain."

<sup>23:27</sup>Balak said to Balaam, "Come now, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse me them from there."

<sup>23:30</sup>Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bull and a ram on every altar.

<sup>24:1</sup>When Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he didn't go, as at the other times, to meet with enchantments, but he set his face toward the wilderness. <sup>24:2</sup>Balaam lifted up his eyes, and he saw Israel dwelling according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came on him. <sup>24:3</sup>He took up his parable, and said,

"Balaam the son of Beor says,

the man whose eye was closed says;

<sup>24:4</sup>he says, who hears the words of God, who sees the vision of the Almighty, falling down, and having his eyes open:

His seed shall be in many waters.

His king shall be higher than Agag.

His kingdom shall be exalted.

He has as it were the strength of the wild ox.

He shall eat up the nations his adversaries, shall break their bones in pieces, and pierce them with his arrows.

<sup>24:9</sup>He couched, he lay down as a lion, as a lioness; who shall rouse him up?

Everyone who blesses you is blessed.

Everyone who curses you is cursed."

<sup>24:10</sup>Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, "I called you to curse my enemies, and, behold, you have altogether blessed them these three times. <sup>24:11</sup>Therefore now flee you to your place! I thought to promote you to great honor; but, behold, the LORD has kept you back from honor."

<sup>24:12</sup>Balaam said to Balak, "Didn't I also tell you your messengers who you sent to me, saying,

<sup>24:13</sup>If Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I can't go beyond the word of the LORD, to do either good or bad of my own mind. I will say what the LORD says?
<sup>24:14</sup>Now, behold, I go to my people: come, I will inform you what this people shall do to your people in the latter days."

<sup>24:15</sup>He took up his parable, and said,
 "Balaam the son of Beor says,
 the man whose eye was closed says;
<sup>24:16</sup>he says, who hears the words of God, knows the knowledge of the Most High,
 and who sees the vision of the Almighty, Falling down, and having his eyes open:

I see him, but not near.

A star will come out of Jacob.

A scepter will rise out of Israel, and shall strike through the corners of Moab,
 and break down all the sons of Sheth.

Seir, his enemies, also shall be a possession, while Israel does valiantly.

 and shall destroy the remnant from the city."

<sup>24:20</sup>He looked at Amalek, and took up his parable, and said,

"Amalek was the first of the nations,
 But his latter end shall come to destruction."

"Your dwelling place is strong.

Your nest is set in the rock.

 until Asshur carries you away captive."

<sup>24:23</sup>He took up his parable, and said,
 "Alas, who shall live when God does this?"

 of Kittim.

They shall afflict Asshur, and shall afflict Eber.

He also shall come to destruction."

<sup>24:25</sup>Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

<sup>25:1</sup>Israel stayed in Shittim; and the people began to play the prostitute with the daughters of Moab: <sup>25:2</sup>for they called the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and bowed down to their gods. <sup>25:3</sup>Israel joined himself to Baal Peor: and the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel. <sup>25:4</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Take all the chiefs of the people, and hang them up to the LORD before the sun, that the fierce anger of the LORD may turn away from Israel."

he rose up from the midst of the congregation, and took a spear in his hand; <sup>25:8</sup>and he went after the man of Israel into the pavilion, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her body. So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel. <sup>25:9</sup>Those who died by the plague were twenty-four thousand. <sup>25:10</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>25:11</sup>"Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, has turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I didn't consume the children of Israel in my jealousy. <sup>25:12</sup>Therefore say, 'Behold, I give to him my covenant of peace: <sup>25:13</sup>and it shall be to him, and to his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.'"

<sup>25:14</sup>Now the name of the man of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianite woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, a prince of a fathers' house among the Simeonites. <sup>25:15</sup>The name of the Midianite woman who was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was head of the people of a fathers' house in Midian.

of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, by their fathers' houses, all who are able to go forth to war in Israel." <sup>26:3</sup>Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, <sup>26:4</sup>"Take a census, from twenty years old and upward; as the LORD commanded Moses and the children of Israel."

These are those that came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>26:5</sup>Reuben, the firstborn of Israel; the sons of Reuben: of Hanoch, the family of the Hanochites; of Pallu, the family of the Palluites; <sup>26:6</sup>of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the family of the Carmites. <sup>26:7</sup>These are the families of the Reubenites; and those who were numbered of them were forty-three thousand seven hundred thirty. <sup>26:8</sup>The sons of Pallu: Eliab. <sup>26:9</sup>The sons of Eliab: Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. These are that Dathan and Abiram, who were called of the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the LORD, <sup>26:10</sup>and the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died; what time the fire devoured two hundred fifty men, and they became a sign. <sup>26:11</sup>Notwithstanding, the sons of Korah didn't die. <sup>26:12</sup>The sons of Simeon after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites; <sup>26:13</sup>of Zerach, the family of the Zerachites; of Shaul, the family of the Shaulites. <sup>26:14</sup>These are the families of the Simeonites, twenty-two thousand two hundred. <sup>26:15</sup>The sons of Gad after their families: of Zephon, the family of the Zephonites; of Haggi, the family of the Haggites; of Shuni, the family of the Shunites; <sup>26:16</sup>of Ozni, the family of the Oznites; of Eri, the family of the Erites; <sup>26:17</sup>of Arod, the family of the Arodites; of Areli, the family of the Arelites. <sup>26:18</sup>These are the families of the sons of Gad according to those who were numbered of them, forty thousand and five hundred. <sup>26:19</sup>The sons of Judah: Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. <sup>26:20</sup>The sons of Judah after their families were: of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites; of Perez, the family of the Perezites; of Zerach, the family of the Zerachites. <sup>26:21</sup>The sons of Perez were: of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Hamul, the family of the Hamulites. <sup>26:22</sup>These are the families of Judah according to those who were numbered of them, seventy-six thousand five hundred. <sup>26:23</sup>The sons of Issachar after their families: of Tola, the family of the Tolaites; of Puvah, the family of the Punites; <sup>26:24</sup>of Jashub, the family of the Jashubites; of Shimron, the family of the Shimronites. <sup>26:25</sup>These are the families of Issachar according to those who were numbered of them, sixty-four thousand three hundred. <sup>26:26</sup>The sons of Zebulun after their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites; of Elon, the family of the Elonites; of Jahleel, the family of the Jahleelites. <sup>26:27</sup>These are the families of the Zebulunites according to those who were numbered of them, sixty thousand five hundred. <sup>26:28</sup>The sons of Joseph after their families: Manasseh and Ephraim. <sup>26:29</sup>The sons of Manasseh: of Machir, the family of the Machirites; and Machir became the father of Gilead; of Gilead, the family of the Gileadites. <sup>26:30</sup>These are the sons of Gilead: of Iezer, the family of the Iezerites; of Helek, the family of the Helekites; <sup>26:31</sup>and Asriel, the family of the Asrielites; and Shechem, the family of the Shechemites; <sup>26:32</sup>and Shemida, the family of the Shemidaites; and Hephher, the family of the Hephherites. <sup>26:33</sup>Zelophehad the son of Hephher had no sons, but daughters: and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad were Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>26:34</sup>These are the families of Manasseh; and those who were numbered of them were fifty-two thousand seven hundred. <sup>26:35</sup>These are the sons of Ephraim after their families: of Shuthelah, the family of the Shuthelahites; of Becher, the family of the Becherites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites. <sup>26:36</sup>These are the sons of Shuthelah: of Eran, the family of the Eranites. <sup>26:37</sup>These are the families of the sons of Ephraim according to those who were numbered of them, thirty-two thousand five hundred. These are the sons of Joseph after their families. <sup>26:38</sup>The sons of Benjamin after their families: of Bela, the family of the Belaites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites; <sup>26:39</sup>of Shephupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites. <sup>26:40</sup>The sons of Bela were Ard and Naaman: the family of the Ardites; of Naaman, the family of the Naamites. <sup>26:41</sup>These are the sons of Benjamin after their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand six hundred. <sup>26:42</sup>These are the sons of Dan after their families: of Shuham, the family of the Shuhamites. These are the families of Dan after their families. <sup>26:43</sup>All the families of the Shuhamites, according to those who were numbered of them, were sixty-four thousand four hundred. <sup>26:44</sup>The sons of Asher after their families: of Imnah, the family of the Imnites; of Ishvi, the family of the Ishvites; of Beriah, the family of the Berites. <sup>26:45</sup>Of the sons of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Malchiel, the family of the Malchielites. <sup>26:46</sup>The name of the daughter of Asher was Serah. <sup>26:47</sup>These are the families of the sons of Asher according to those who were numbered of them, fifty-three thousand and four hundred. <sup>26:48</sup>The sons of Naphtali after their families: of Jahzeel, the family of the Jahzeelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites; <sup>26:49</sup>of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Shillem, the family of the Shillemites. <sup>26:50</sup>These are the families of Naphtali according to their families; and those who were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred. <sup>26:51</sup>These are those who were numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred one thousand seven hundred thirty. <sup>26:52</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>26:53</sup>“To these the land shall be divided for an inheritance according to the number of names. <sup>26:54</sup>To the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: to everyone according to those who were numbered of him shall his inheritance be given. <sup>26:55</sup>Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit. <sup>26:56</sup>According to the lot shall their inheritance be divided between the more and the fewer.”

Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt: and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister. <sup>26:60</sup>To Aaron were born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. <sup>26:61</sup>Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the LORD. <sup>26:62</sup>Those who were numbered of them were twenty-three thousand, every male from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel. <sup>26:63</sup>These are those who were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>26:64</sup>But among these there was not a man of them who were numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>26:65</sup>For the LORD had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. There was not left a man of them, except Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>27:1</sup>Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>27:2</sup>They stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and all the congregation, at the door of the Tent of Meeting, saying, <sup>27:3</sup>“Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not among the company of those who gathered themselves together against the LORD in the company of Korah: but he died in his own sin; and he had no sons. <sup>27:4</sup>Why should the name of our father be taken away from among his family, because he had no son? Give to us a possession among the brothers of our father.”

<sup>27:10</sup>If he has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his father's brothers. <sup>27:11</sup>If his father has no brothers, then you shall give his inheritance to his kinsman who is next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be to the children of Israel a statute and ordinance, as the LORD commanded Moses."

<sup>28:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>28:2</sup>"Command the children of Israel, and tell them, 'My offering, my food for my offerings made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to me, you shall observe to offer to me in their due season.' <sup>28:3</sup>You shall tell them, 'This is the offering made by fire which you shall offer to the LORD:

male lambs a year old without blemish, two day by day, for a continual burnt offering. <sup>28:4</sup>You shall offer the one lamb in the morning, and you shall offer the other lamb at evening; <sup>28:5</sup>with the tenth part of an ephah<sup>9</sup> of fine flour for a meal offering, mixed with the fourth part of a hin of beaten oil. <sup>28:6</sup>It is a continual burnt offering, which was ordained in Mount Sinai for a pleasant aroma, an offering made by fire to the LORD. <sup>28:7</sup>Its drink offering shall be the fourth part of a hin for the one lamb. You shall pour out a drink offering of strong drink to the LORD in the holy place. <sup>28:8</sup>The other lamb you shall offer at evening: as the meal offering of the morning, and as the drink offering of it, you shall offer it, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD.

bulls, and one ram, and seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish; <sup>28:20</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil: you shall offer three tenth parts for a bull, and two tenth parts for the ram. <sup>28:21</sup>You shall offer a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; <sup>28:22</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, to make atonement for you. <sup>28:23</sup>You shall offer these besides the burnt offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt offering. <sup>28:24</sup>In this way you shall offer daily, for seven days, the food of the offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD: it shall be offered besides the continual burnt offering, and the drink offering of it. <sup>28:25</sup>On the seventh day you shall have a holy convocation: you shall do no servile work.

you shall have a holy convocation; and you shall afflict your souls: you shall do no kind of work; <sup>29:8</sup>but you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD for a pleasant aroma: one young bull, one ram, seven male lambs a year old; they shall be to you without blemish; <sup>29:9</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for the bull, two tenth parts for the one ram, <sup>29:10</sup>a tenth part for every lamb of the seven lambs; <sup>29:11</sup>one male goat for a sin offering; besides the sin offering of atonement, and the continual burnt offering, and the meal offering of it, and their drink offerings.

<sup>29:12</sup>“On the fifteenth day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no servile work, and you shall keep a feast to the LORD seven days: <sup>29:13</sup>and you shall offer a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, of a pleasant aroma to the LORD; thirteen young bulls, two rams, fourteen male lambs a year old; they shall be without blemish; <sup>29:14</sup>and their meal offering, fine flour mixed with oil, three tenth parts for every bull of the thirteen bulls, two tenth parts for each ram of the two rams, <sup>29:15</sup>and a tenth part for every lamb of the fourteen lambs; <sup>29:16</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering, besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

the lambs, according to their number, after the ordinance; <sup>29:25</sup>and one male goat for a sin offering; besides the continual burnt offering, the meal offering of it, and the drink offering of it.

<sup>29:39</sup>“You shall offer these to the LORD in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your freewill offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meal offerings, and for your drink offerings, and for your peace offerings.”

the children of Israel, saying, “This is the thing which the LORD has commanded. <sup>30:2</sup>When a man vows a vow to the LORD, or swears an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; he shall do according to all that proceeds out of his mouth.

<sup>30:10</sup>“If she vowed in her husband’s house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath, <sup>30:11</sup>and her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and didn’t disallow her; then all her vows shall stand, and every bond with which she bound her soul shall stand. <sup>30:12</sup>But if her husband made them null and void in the day that he heard them, then whatever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband has made them void; and the LORD will forgive her. <sup>30:13</sup>Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void. <sup>30:14</sup>But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her from day to day, then he establishes all her vows, or all her bonds, which are on her: he has established them, because he held his peace at her in the day that he heard them. <sup>30:15</sup>But if he shall make them null and void after that he has heard them, then he shall bear her iniquity.”

<sup>31:3</sup>Moses spoke to the people, saying, “Arm men from among you for the war, that they may go against Midian, to execute the LORD’s vengeance on Midian. <sup>31:4</sup>Of every tribe one thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, you shall send to the war.” <sup>31:5</sup>So there were delivered, out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for war. <sup>31:6</sup>Moses sent them, one thousand of every tribe, to the war, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, with the vessels of the sanctuary and the shofars<sup>s</sup> for the alarm in his hand. <sup>31:7</sup>They warred against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses; and they killed every male. <sup>31:8</sup>They killed the kings of Midian with the rest of their slain: Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the five kings of Midian: Balaam also the son of Beor they killed with the sword. <sup>31:9</sup>The children of Israel took captive the women of Midian and their little ones; and all their livestock, and all their flocks, and all their goods, they took for a prey. <sup>31:10</sup>All their cities in the places in which they lived, and all their encampments, they burnt with fire. <sup>31:11</sup>They took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of man and of animal. <sup>31:12</sup>They brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil, to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the congregation of the children of Israel, to the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>31:13</sup>Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them outside of the camp. <sup>31:14</sup>Moses was angry with the officers of the army, the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war. <sup>31:15</sup>Moses said to them, “Have you saved all the women alive? <sup>31:16</sup>Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the LORD in the matter of Peor, and so the plague was among the congregation of the LORD. <sup>31:17</sup>Now therefore kill every male among the little ones, and kill every woman who has known man by lying with him. <sup>31:18</sup>But all the girls, who have not known man by lying with him, keep alive for yourselves.

<sup>31:19</sup>“Encamp outside of the camp seven days: whoever has killed any person, and whoever has touched any slain, purify yourselves on the third day and on the seventh day, you and your captives. <sup>31:20</sup>As to every garment, and all that is made of skin, and all work of goats’ hair, and all things made of wood, you shall purify yourselves.”

which the men of war took, was six hundred seventy-five thousand sheep, <sup>31:33</sup>and seventy-two thousand head of cattle, <sup>31:34</sup>and sixty-one thousand donkeys, <sup>31:35</sup>and thirty-two thousand persons in all, of the women who had not known man by lying with him. <sup>31:36</sup>The half, which was the portion of those who went out to war, was in number three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep: <sup>31:37</sup>and the LORD's tribute of the sheep was six hundred seventy-five. <sup>31:38</sup>The cattle were thirty-six thousand; of which the LORD's tribute was seventy-two. <sup>31:39</sup>The donkeys were thirty thousand five hundred; of which the LORD's tribute was sixty-one. <sup>31:40</sup>The persons were sixteen thousand; of whom the LORD's tribute was thirty-two persons. <sup>31:41</sup>Moses gave the tribute, which was the LORD's wave offering, to Eleazar the priest, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>31:42</sup>Of the children of Israel's half, which Moses divided off from the men who warred <sup>31:43</sup>(now the congregation's half was three hundred thirty-seven thousand five hundred sheep, <sup>31:44</sup>and thirty-six thousand head of cattle, <sup>31:45</sup>and thirty thousand five hundred donkeys, <sup>31:46</sup>and sixteen thousand persons), <sup>31:47</sup>even of the children of Israel's half, Moses took one drawn out of every fifty, both of man and of animal, and gave them to the Levites, who performed the duty of the tabernacle of the LORD; as the LORD commanded Moses.

<sup>31:48</sup>The officers who were over the thousands of the army, the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, came near to Moses; <sup>31:49</sup>and they said to Moses, "Your servants have taken the sum of the men of war who are under our command, and there lacks not one man of us. <sup>31:50</sup>We have brought the LORD's offering, what every man has gotten, of jewels of gold, armlets, and bracelets, signet rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls before the LORD."

<sup>32:1</sup>Now the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had a very great multitude of livestock: and when they saw the land of Jazer, and the land of Gilead, that behold, the place was a place for livestock; <sup>32:2</sup>the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the congregation, saying, <sup>32:3</sup>"Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon, <sup>32:4</sup>the land which the LORD struck before the congregation of Israel, is a land for livestock; and your servants have livestock." <sup>32:5</sup>They said, "If we have found favor in your sight, let this land be given to your servants for a possession; don't bring us over the Jordan."

<sup>32:14</sup>"Behold, you have risen up in your fathers' place, an increase of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of the LORD toward Israel. <sup>32:15</sup>For if you turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and you will destroy all this people."

<sup>32:16</sup>They came near to him, and said, "We will build sheepfolds here for our livestock, and cities for our little ones: <sup>32:17</sup>but we ourselves will be ready armed to go before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place: and our little ones shall dwell in the fortified cities because of the inhabitants of the land. <sup>32:18</sup>We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited every man his inheritance. <sup>32:19</sup>For we will not inherit with them on the other side of the Jordan, and forward; because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side of the Jordan eastward."

<sup>32:20</sup>Moses said to them, "If you will do this thing, if you will arm yourselves to go before the LORD to the war, <sup>32:21</sup>and every armed man of you will pass over the Jordan before the LORD, until he has driven out his enemies from before him, <sup>32:22</sup>and the land is subdued before the LORD; then afterward you shall return, and be guiltless towards the LORD, and towards Israel; and this land shall be to you for a possession before the LORD.

<sup>32:23</sup>"But if you will not do so, behold, you have sinned against the LORD; and be sure your sin will find you out. <sup>32:24</sup>Build cities for your little ones, and folds for your sheep; and do that which has proceeded out of your mouth."

<sup>32:28</sup>So Moses commanded concerning them to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the heads of the fathers' households of the tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>32:29</sup>Moses said to them, "If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben will pass with you over the Jordan, every man who is armed to battle, before the LORD, and the land shall be subdued before you; then you shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession: <sup>32:30</sup>but if they will not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of Canaan."

<sup>32:31</sup>The children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, "As the LORD has said to your servants, so will we do. <sup>32:32</sup>We will pass over armed before the LORD into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance shall remain with us beyond the Jordan."

<sup>32:33</sup>Moses gave to them, even to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to the half-tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, the land, according to its cities and borders, even the cities of the surrounding land. <sup>32:34</sup>The children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, <sup>32:35</sup>and Atrothshophan, and Jazer, and Jogbehah, <sup>32:36</sup>and Beth Nimrah, and Beth Haran: fortified cities, and folds for sheep. <sup>32:37</sup>The children of Reuben built Heshbon, and Elealeh, and Kiriathaim, <sup>32:38</sup>and Nebo, and Baal Meon, (their names being changed), and Sibmah: and they gave other names to the cities which they built. <sup>32:39</sup>The children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and dispossessed the Amorites who were therein. <sup>32:40</sup>Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he lived therein. <sup>32:41</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh went and took its towns, and called them Havvoth Jair. <sup>32:42</sup>Nobah went and took Kenath, and its villages, and called it Nobah, after his own name.

three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and encamped in Marah. <sup>33:9</sup>They traveled from Marah, and came to Elim: and in Elim were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there. <sup>33:10</sup>They traveled from Elim, and encamped by the Sea of Suf. <sup>33:11</sup>They traveled from the Sea of Suf, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. <sup>33:12</sup>They traveled from the wilderness of Sin, and encamped in Dophkah. <sup>33:13</sup>They traveled from Dophkah, and encamped in Alush. <sup>33:14</sup>They traveled from Alush, and encamped in Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink. <sup>33:15</sup>They traveled from Rephidim, and encamped in the wilderness of Sinai. <sup>33:16</sup>They traveled from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped in Kibroth Hattaavah. <sup>33:17</sup>They traveled from Kibroth Hattaavah, and encamped in Hazeroth. <sup>33:18</sup>They traveled from Hazeroth, and encamped in Rithmah. <sup>33:19</sup>They traveled from Rithmah, and encamped in Rimmon Perez. <sup>33:20</sup>They traveled from Rimmon Perez, and encamped in Libnah. <sup>33:21</sup>They traveled from Libnah, and encamped in Rissah. <sup>33:22</sup>They traveled from Rissah, and encamped in Kehelathah. <sup>33:23</sup>They traveled from Kehelathah, and encamped in Mount Shepher. <sup>33:24</sup>They traveled from Mount Shepher, and encamped in Haradah. <sup>33:25</sup>They traveled from Haradah, and encamped in Makheloth. <sup>33:26</sup>They traveled from Makheloth, and encamped in Tahath. <sup>33:27</sup>They traveled from Tahath, and encamped in Terah. <sup>33:28</sup>They traveled from Terah, and encamped in Mithkah. <sup>33:29</sup>They traveled from Mithkah, and encamped in Hashmonah. <sup>33:30</sup>They traveled from Hashmonah, and encamped in Moseroth. <sup>33:31</sup>They traveled from Moseroth, and encamped in Bene Jaakan. <sup>33:32</sup>They traveled from Bene Jaakan, and encamped in Hor Haggidgad. <sup>33:33</sup>They traveled from Hor Haggidgad, and encamped in Jotbathah. <sup>33:34</sup>They traveled from Jotbathah, and encamped in Abronah. <sup>33:35</sup>They traveled from Abronah, and encamped in Ezion Geber. <sup>33:36</sup>They traveled from Ezion Geber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin (the same is Kadesh). <sup>33:37</sup>They traveled from Kadesh, and encamped in Mount Hor, in the edge of the land of Edom. <sup>33:38</sup>Aaron the priest went up into Mount Hor at the commandment of the LORD, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the first day of the month. <sup>33:39</sup>Aaron was one hundred twenty-three years old when he died in Mount Hor. <sup>33:40</sup>The Canaanite, the king of Arad, who lived in the South in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel. <sup>33:41</sup>They traveled from Mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah. <sup>33:42</sup>They traveled from Zalmonah, and encamped in Punon. <sup>33:43</sup>They traveled from Punon, and encamped in Oboth. <sup>33:44</sup>They traveled from Oboth, and encamped in Iye Abarim, in the border of Moab. <sup>33:45</sup>They traveled from Iyim, and encamped in Dibon Gad. <sup>33:46</sup>They traveled from Dibon Gad, and encamped in Almon Diblathaim. <sup>33:47</sup>They traveled from Almon Diblathaim, and encamped in the mountains of Abarim, before Nebo. <sup>33:48</sup>They traveled from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho. <sup>33:49</sup>They encamped by the Jordan, from Beth Jeshimoth even to Abel Shittim in the plains of Moab. <sup>33:50</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho, saying, <sup>33:51</sup>Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, "When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>33:52</sup>then you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the land from before you, destroy all their stone idols, destroy all their molten images, and demolish all their high places. <sup>33:53</sup>You shall take possession of the land, and dwell therein; for I have given the land to you to possess it. <sup>33:54</sup>You shall inherit the land by lot according to your families; to the more you shall give the more inheritance, and to the fewer you shall give the less inheritance: wherever the lot falls to any man, that shall be his. You shall inherit according to the tribes of your fathers.

<sup>33:55</sup>"But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land from before you, then those you let remain of them will be as pricks in your eyes and as thorns in your sides, and they will harass you in the land in which you dwell. <sup>33:56</sup>It shall happen that as I thought to do to them, so will I do to you."

to its borders),<sup>34:3</sup> then your south quarter shall be from the wilderness of Zin along by the side of Edom, and your south border shall be from the end of the Salt Sea eastward;<sup>34:4</sup> and your border shall turn about southward of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass along to Zin; and the goings out of it shall be southward of Kadesh Barnea; and it shall go forth to Hazar Addar, and pass along to Azmon;<sup>34:5</sup> and the border shall turn about from Azmon to the brook of Egypt, and the goings out of it shall be at the sea.

Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>34:20</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shemuel the son of Ammihud. <sup>34:21</sup>Of the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chislon. <sup>34:22</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Dan a prince, Bukki the son of Jogli. <sup>34:23</sup>Of the children of Joseph: of the tribe of the children of Manasseh a prince, Hanniel the son of Ephod. <sup>34:24</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Ephraim a prince, Kemuel the son of Shiptan. <sup>34:25</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Zebulun a prince, Elizaphan the son of Parnach. <sup>34:26</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Issachar a prince, Paltiel the son of Azzan. <sup>34:27</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Asher a prince, Ahihud the son of Shelomi. <sup>34:28</sup>Of the tribe of the children of Naphtali a prince, Pedahel the son of Ammihud.” <sup>34:29</sup>These are they whom the LORD commanded to divide the inheritance to the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

<sup>35:6</sup>“The cities which you shall give to the Levites, they shall be the six cities of refuge, which you shall give for the manslayer to flee to: and besides them you shall give forty-two cities. <sup>35:7</sup>All the cities which you shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities together with their suburbs. <sup>35:8</sup>Concerning the cities which you shall give of the possession of the children of Israel, from the many you shall take many; and from the few you shall take few: everyone according to his inheritance which he inherits shall give of his cities to the Levites.” <sup>35:9</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses, saying, <sup>35:10</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, and tell them, ‘When you pass over the Jordan into the land of Canaan, <sup>35:11</sup>then you shall appoint you cities to be cities of refuge for you, that the manslayer who kills any person unwittingly may flee there. <sup>35:12</sup>The cities shall be to you for refuge from the avenger, that the manslayer not die, until he stands before the congregation for judgment. <sup>35:13</sup>The cities which you shall give shall be for you six cities of refuge. <sup>35:14</sup>You shall give three cities beyond the Jordan, and you shall give three cities in the land of Canaan; they shall be cities of refuge. <sup>35:15</sup>For the children of Israel, and for the stranger and for the foreigner living among them, shall these six cities be for refuge; that everyone who kills any person unwittingly may flee there.

<sup>35:16</sup>“But if he struck him with an instrument of iron, so that he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>35:17</sup>If he struck him with a stone in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>35:18</sup>Or if he struck him with a weapon of wood in the hand, by which a man may die, and he died, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death. <sup>35:19</sup>The avenger of blood shall himself put the murderer to death: when he meets him, he shall put him to death. <sup>35:20</sup>If he thrust him of hatred, or hurled at him, lying in wait, so that he died, <sup>35:21</sup>or in enmity struck him with his hand, so that he died; he who struck him shall surely be put to death; he is a murderer: the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meets him.

<sup>35:22</sup>“But if he thrust him suddenly without enmity, or hurled on him anything without lying in wait, <sup>35:23</sup>or with any stone, by which a man may die, not seeing him, and cast it on him, so that he died, and he was not his enemy, neither sought his harm; <sup>35:24</sup>then the congregation shall judge between the striker and the avenger of blood according to these ordinances; <sup>35:25</sup>and the congregation shall deliver the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to his city of refuge, where he was fled: and he shall dwell therein until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with the holy oil.

go beyond the border of his city of refuge, where he flees, <sup>35:27</sup>and the avenger of blood find him outside of the border of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer; he shall not be guilty of blood, <sup>35:28</sup>because he should have remained in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the manslayer shall return into the land of his possession.

<sup>35:32</sup>“You shall take no ransom for him who is fled to his city of refuge, that he may come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the priest.

tribe whereunto they shall belong: so will their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.”

<sup>36:10</sup>The daughters of Zelophehad did as the LORD commanded Moses: <sup>36:11</sup>for Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married to their father’s brothers’ sons. <sup>36:12</sup>They were married into the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the family of their father. <sup>36:13</sup>These are the commandments and the ordinances which the LORD commanded by Moses to the children of Israel in the plains of Moab by the Jordan at Jericho.

Deuteronomy

<sup>1:14</sup>You answered me, and said, "The thing which you have spoken is good to do." <sup>1:15</sup>So I took the heads of your tribes, wise men, and known, and made them heads over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers, according to your tribes. <sup>1:16</sup>I commanded your judges at that time, saying, "Hear cases between your brothers, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and the foreigner who is living with him. <sup>1:17</sup>You shall not show partiality in judgment; you shall hear the small and the great alike; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God's. The case that is too hard for you, you shall bring to me, and I will hear it." <sup>1:18</sup>I commanded you at that time all the things which you should do. <sup>1:19</sup>We traveled from Horeb, and went through all that great and terrible wilderness which you saw, by the way to the hill country of the Amorites, as the LORD our God commanded us; and we came to Kadesh Barnea. <sup>1:20</sup>I said to you, "You have come to the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God gives to us. <sup>1:21</sup>Behold, the LORD your God has set the land before you: go up, take possession, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has spoken to you; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed."

<sup>1:22</sup>You came near to me everyone of you, and said, "Let us send men before us, that they may search the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and the cities to which we shall come."

goes before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes, <sup>1:31</sup>and in the wilderness, where you have seen how that the LORD your God bore you, as a man does bear his son, in all the way that you went, until you came to this place."

<sup>1:37</sup>Also the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, saying, "You also shall not go in there: <sup>1:38</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, who stands before you, he shall go in there: encourage you him; for he shall cause Israel to inherit it. <sup>1:39</sup>Moreover your little ones, whom you said should be a prey, and your children, who this day have no knowledge of good or evil, they shall go in there, and to them will I give it, and they shall possess it. <sup>1:40</sup>But as for you, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way to the Sea of Suf."

<sup>1:41</sup>Then you answered and said to me, "We have sinned against the LORD, we will go up and fight, according to all that the LORD our God commanded us." Every man of you put on his weapons of war, and presumed to go up into the hill country.

<sup>1:42</sup>The LORD said to me, "Tell them, 'Don't go up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest you be struck before your enemies.'"

<sup>1:43</sup>So I spoke to you, and you didn't listen; but you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD, and were presumptuous, and went up into the hill country. <sup>1:44</sup>The Amorites, who lived in that hill country, came out against you, and chased you, as bees do, and beat you down in Seir, even to Hormah. <sup>1:45</sup>You returned and wept before the LORD; but the LORD didn't listen to your voice, nor gave ear to you. <sup>1:46</sup>So you stayed in Kadesh many days, according to the days that you remained.

<sup>2:2</sup>The LORD spoke to me, saying, <sup>2:3</sup>"You have encircled this mountain long enough. Turn northward. <sup>2:4</sup>Command the people, saying, 'You are to pass through the border of your brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you: take good heed to yourselves therefore; <sup>2:5</sup>don't contend with them; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as for the sole of the foot to tread on; because I have given Mount Seir to Esau for a possession. <sup>2:6</sup>You shall purchase food of them for money, that you may eat; and you shall also buy water of them for money, that you may drink.'"

<sup>2:7</sup>For the LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hand; he has known your walking through this great wilderness: these forty years the LORD your God has been with you; you have lacked nothing.

<sup>2:8</sup>So we passed by from our brothers the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir, from the way of the Arabah from Elath and from Ezion Geber. We turned and passed by the way of the wilderness of Moab.

<sup>2:13</sup>"Now rise up, and cross over the brook Zered." We went over the brook Zered. <sup>2:14</sup>The days in which we came from Kadesh Barnea, until we had come over the brook Zered, were thirty-eight years; until all the generation of the men of war were consumed from the midst of the camp, as the LORD swore to them. <sup>2:15</sup>Moreover the hand of the LORD was against them, to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed.

<sup>2:31</sup>The LORD said to me, “Behold, I have begun to deliver up Sihon and his land before you: begin to possess, that you may inherit his land.” <sup>2:32</sup>Then Sihon came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Jahaz. <sup>2:33</sup>The LORD our God delivered him up before us; and we struck him, and his sons, and all his people. <sup>2:34</sup>We took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones; we left none remaining: <sup>2:35</sup>only the livestock we took for a prey to ourselves, with the spoil of the cities which we had taken. <sup>2:36</sup>From Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the valley, even to Gilead, there was not a city too high for us; the LORD our God delivered up all before us: <sup>2:37</sup>only to the land of the children of Ammon you didn’t come near; all the side of the river Jabbok, and the cities of the hill country, and wherever the LORD our God forbade us.

<sup>3:1</sup>Then we turned, and went up the way to Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, to battle at Edrei. <sup>3:2</sup>The LORD said to me, “Don’t fear him; for I have delivered him, and all his people, and his land, into your hand; and you shall do to him as you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon.”

<sup>3:3</sup>So the LORD our God delivered into our hand Og also, the king of Bashan, and all his people: and we struck him until none was left to him remaining. <sup>3:4</sup>We took all his cities at that time; there was not a city which we didn’t take from them; sixty cities, all the region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>3:5</sup>All these were cities fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides the unwalled towns a great many. <sup>3:6</sup>We utterly destroyed them, as we did to Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every inhabited city, with the women and the little ones. <sup>3:7</sup>But all the livestock, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to ourselves. <sup>3:8</sup>We took the land at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, from the valley of the Arnon to Mount Hermon. <sup>3:9</sup>(The Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir.) <sup>3:10</sup>We took all the cities of the plain, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, to Salecah and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan. <sup>3:11</sup>(For only Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of the Rephaim; behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; isn’t it in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was its length, and four cubits its breadth, after the cubit of a man.) <sup>3:12</sup>This land we took in possession at that time: from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, and half the hill country of Gilead, and its cities, gave I to the Reubenites and to the Gadites: <sup>3:13</sup>and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, gave I to the half-tribe of Manasseh; all the region of Argob, even all Bashan. (The same is called the land of Rephaim. <sup>3:14</sup>Jair the son of Manasseh took all the region of Argob, to the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites, and called them, even Bashan, after his own name, Havvoth Jair, to this day.) <sup>3:15</sup>I gave Gilead to Machir. <sup>3:16</sup>To the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the valley of the Arnon, the middle of the valley, and its border, even to the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon; <sup>3:17</sup>the Arabah also, and the Jordan and its border, from Chinnereth even to the sea of the Arabah, the Salt Sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.

<sup>3:18</sup>I commanded you at that time, saying, "The LORD your God has given you this land to possess it: you shall pass over armed before your brothers the children of Israel, all the men of valor. <sup>3:19</sup>But your wives, and your little ones, and your livestock, (I know that you have much livestock), shall live in your cities which I have given you, <sup>3:20</sup>until the LORD gives rest to your brothers, as to you, and they also possess the land which the LORD your God gives them beyond the Jordan: then you shall return every man to his possession, which I have given you."

<sup>3:21</sup>I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, "Your eyes have seen all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings: so shall the LORD do to all the kingdoms where you go over. <sup>3:22</sup>You shall not fear them; for the LORD your God, he it is who fights for you."

<sup>3:26</sup>But the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and didn't listen to me; and the LORD said to me, "Let it suffice you; speak no more to me of this matter. <sup>3:27</sup>Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up your eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and see with your eyes: for you shall not go over this Jordan. <sup>3:28</sup>But commission Joshua, and encourage him, and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall cause them to inherit the land which you shall see." <sup>3:29</sup>So we stayed in the valley over against Beth Peor.

<sup>4:1</sup>Now, Israel, listen to the statutes and to the ordinances, which I teach you, to do them; that you may live, and go in and possess the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, gives you. <sup>4:2</sup>You shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall you diminish from it, that you may keep the commandments of the LORD your God which I command you. <sup>4:3</sup>Your eyes have seen what the LORD did because of Baal Peor; for all the men who followed Baal Peor, the LORD your God has destroyed them from the midst of you. <sup>4:4</sup>But you who were faithful to the LORD your God are all alive this day. <sup>4:5</sup>Behold, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as the LORD my God commanded me, that you should do so in the midst of the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>4:6</sup>Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the peoples, who shall hear all these statutes, and say, "Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people." <sup>4:7</sup>For what great nation is there, that has a god so near to them, as the LORD our God is whenever we call on him? <sup>4:8</sup>What great nation is there, that has statutes and ordinances so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day?

on the earth, and that they may teach their children.”<sup>4:11</sup> You came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of the sky, with darkness, cloud, and thick darkness.<sup>4:12</sup> The LORD spoke to you out of the midst of the fire: you heard the voice of words, but you saw no form; you only heard a voice.<sup>4:13</sup> He declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to perform, even the ten commandments; and he wrote them on two tables of stone.<sup>4:14</sup> The LORD commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it.<sup>4:15</sup> Take therefore good heed to yourselves; for you saw no kind of form on the day that the LORD spoke to you in Horeb out of the midst of the fire.<sup>4:16</sup> Lest you corrupt yourselves, and make yourself an engraved image in the form of any figure, the likeness of male or female,<sup>4:17</sup> the likeness of any animal that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged bird that flies in the sky,<sup>4:18</sup> the likeness of anything that creeps on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the water under the earth;<sup>4:19</sup> and lest you lift up your eyes to the sky, and when you see the sun and the moon and the stars, even all the army of the sky, you are drawn away and worship them, and serve them, which the LORD your God has allotted to all the peoples under the whole sky.<sup>4:20</sup> But the LORD has taken you, and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, to be to him a people of inheritance, as at this day.<sup>4:21</sup> Furthermore the LORD was angry with me for your sakes, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not go in to that good land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance:<sup>4:22</sup> but I must die in this land, I must not go over the Jordan; but you shall go over, and possess that good land.<sup>4:23</sup> Take heed to yourselves, lest you forget the covenant of the LORD your God, which he made with you, and make you an engraved image in the form of anything which the LORD your God has forbidden you.<sup>4:24</sup> For the LORD your God is a devouring fire, a jealous God.<sup>4:25</sup> When you shall father children, and children’s children, and you shall have been long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make an engraved image in the form of anything, and shall do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, to provoke him to anger;<sup>4:26</sup> I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto you go over the Jordan to possess it; you shall not prolong your days on it, but shall utterly be destroyed.<sup>4:27</sup> The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and you shall be left few in number among the nations, where the LORD shall lead you away.<sup>4:28</sup> There you shall serve gods, the work of men’s hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.<sup>4:29</sup> But from there you shall seek the LORD your God, and you shall find him, when you search after him with all your heart and with all your soul.<sup>4:30</sup> When you are in oppression, and all these things have come on you, in the latter days you shall return to the LORD your God, and listen to his voice:<sup>4:31</sup> for the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not fail you, neither destroy you, nor forget the covenant of your fathers which he swore to them.<sup>4:32</sup> For ask now of the days that are past, which were before you, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from the one end of the sky to the other, whether there has been anything as this great thing is, or has been heard like it?<sup>4:33</sup> Did a people ever hear the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as you have heard, and live?<sup>4:34</sup> Or has God tried to go and take a nation for himself from the midst of another nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a mighty hand, and by an outstretched arm, and by great terrors, according to all that the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?<sup>4:35</sup> It was shown to you so that you might know that the LORD is God. There is no one else besides him.<sup>4:36</sup> Out of heaven he made you to hear his voice, that he might instruct you: and on earth he made you to see his great fire; and you heard his words out of the midst of the fire.<sup>4:37</sup> Because he loved your fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought you out with his presence, with his great power, out of Egypt;<sup>4:38</sup> to drive out nations from before you greater and mightier than you, to bring you in, to give you their land for an inheritance, as at this day.<sup>4:39</sup> Know therefore this day, and lay it to your heart, that the LORD he is God in heaven above and on the earth beneath; there is none else.<sup>4:40</sup> You shall keep his statutes, and his commandments, which I command you this day, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD your God gives you, forever. <sup>4:41</sup>Then Moses set apart three cities beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>4:42</sup>that the manslayer might flee there, who kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past; and that fleeing to one of these cities he might live: <sup>4:43</sup>Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain country, for the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites. <sup>4:44</sup>This is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: <sup>4:45</sup>these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Moses spoke to the children of Israel, when they came forth out of Egypt, <sup>4:46</sup>beyond the Jordan, in the valley over against Beth Peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who lived at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel struck, when they came forth out of Egypt. <sup>4:47</sup>They took his land in possession, and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise; <sup>4:48</sup>from Aroer, which is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, even to Mount Sion (the same is Hermon), <sup>4:49</sup>and all the Arabah beyond the Jordan eastward, even to the sea of the Arabah, under the slopes of Pisgah.

<sup>5:1</sup>Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances which I speak in your ears this day, that you may learn them, and observe to do them. <sup>5:2</sup>The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb. <sup>5:3</sup>The LORD didn't make this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day. <sup>5:4</sup>The LORD spoke with you face to face on the mountain out of the midst of the fire, <sup>5:5</sup>(I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to show you the word of the LORD: for you were afraid because of the fire, and didn't go up onto the mountain;) saying, <sup>5:6</sup>"I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

<sup>5:8</sup>"You shall not make an engraved image for yourself, any likeness of what is in heaven above, or what is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: <sup>5:9</sup>you shall not

bow down yourself to them, nor serve them; for I, the LORD, your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children, and on the third and on the fourth generation of those who hate me; <sup>5:10</sup>and showing loving kindness to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

<sup>5:12</sup>"Observe the Sabbath day, to keep it holy, as the LORD your God commanded you.

<sup>5:13</sup>You shall labor six days, and do all your work; <sup>5:14</sup>but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God, in which you shall not do any work, you, nor your son, nor your daughter, nor your male servant, nor your female servant, nor your ox, nor your donkey, nor any of your livestock, nor your stranger who is within your gates; that your male servant and your female servant may rest as well as you. <sup>5:15</sup>You shall remember that you were a servant in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God brought you out of there by a mighty hand and by an outstretched arm: therefore the LORD your God commanded you to keep the Sabbath day.

<sup>5:16</sup>"Honor your father and your mother, as the LORD your God commanded you; that your days may be long, and that it may go well with you, in the land which the LORD your God gives you.

“Behold, the LORD our God has shown us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God does speak with man, and he lives. <sup>5:25</sup>Now therefore why should we die? For this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die. <sup>5:26</sup>For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as we have, and lived? <sup>5:27</sup>Go near, and hear all that the LORD our God shall say: and tell us all that the LORD our God shall tell you; and we will hear it, and do it.”

<sup>5:28</sup>The LORD heard the voice of your words, when you spoke to me; and the LORD said to me, “I have heard the voice of the words of this people, which they have spoken to you: they have well said all that they have spoken. <sup>5:29</sup>Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments always, that it might be well with them, and with their children forever!

<sup>5:30</sup>“Go tell them, Return to your tents. <sup>5:31</sup>But as for you, stand here by me, and I will tell you all the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which you shall teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give them to possess it.”

<sup>5:32</sup>You shall observe to do therefore as the LORD your God has commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>5:33</sup>You shall walk in all the way which the LORD your God has commanded you, that you may live, and that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which you shall possess.

<sup>6:1</sup>Now this is the commandment, the statutes, and the ordinances, which the LORD your God commanded to teach you, that you might do them in the land where you go over to possess it; <sup>6:2</sup>that you might fear the LORD your God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments, which I command you, you, and your son, and your son’s son, all the days of your life; and that your days may be prolonged. <sup>6:3</sup>Hear therefore, Israel, and observe to do it; that it may be well with you, and that you may increase mightily, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised to you, in a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>6:4</sup>Hear, Israel: the LORD is our God; the LORD is one: <sup>6:5</sup>and you shall love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might. <sup>6:6</sup>These words, which I command you this day, shall be on your heart; <sup>6:7</sup>and you shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>6:8</sup>You shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes. <sup>6:9</sup>You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates. <sup>6:10</sup>It shall be, when the LORD your God shall bring you into the land which he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give you, great and goodly cities, which you didn’t build, <sup>6:11</sup>and houses full of all good things, which you didn’t fill, and cisterns dug out, which you didn’t dig, vineyards and olive trees, which you didn’t plant, and you shall eat and be full; <sup>6:12</sup>then beware lest you forget the LORD, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>6:13</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; and you shall serve him, and shall swear by his name. <sup>6:14</sup>You shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples who are around you; <sup>6:15</sup>for the LORD your God in the midst of you is a jealous God; lest the anger of the LORD your God be kindled against you, and he destroy you from off the face of the earth. <sup>6:16</sup>You shall not tempt the LORD your God, as you tempted him in Massah. <sup>6:17</sup>You shall diligently keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he has commanded you. <sup>6:18</sup>You shall do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD; that it may be well with you, and that you may go in and possess the good land which the LORD swore to your fathers, <sup>6:19</sup>to thrust out all your enemies from before you, as the LORD has spoken.

<sup>6:20</sup>When your son asks you in time to come, saying, “What do the testimonies, the statutes, and the ordinances, which the LORD our God has commanded you mean?” <sup>6:21</sup>then you shall tell your son, “We were Pharaoh’s bondservants in Egypt: and the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand; <sup>6:22</sup>and the LORD showed great and awesome signs and wonders on Egypt, on Pharaoh, and on all his house, before our eyes; <sup>6:23</sup>and he brought us out from there, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore to our fathers. <sup>6:24</sup>The LORD commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear the LORD our God, for our good always, that he might preserve us alive, as at this day. <sup>6:25</sup>It shall be righteousness to us, if we observe to do all this commandment before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us."

<sup>7:1</sup>When the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, and shall cast out many nations before you, the Hittite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and the Jebusite, seven nations greater and mightier than you; <sup>7:2</sup>and when the LORD your God shall deliver them up before you, and you shall strike them; then you shall utterly destroy them: you shall make no covenant with them, nor show mercy to them; <sup>7:3</sup>neither shall you make marriages with them; your daughter you shall not give to his son, nor shall you take his daughter for your son. <sup>7:4</sup>For he will turn away your son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so the anger of the LORD would be kindled against you, and he would destroy you quickly. <sup>7:5</sup>But you shall deal with them like this: you shall break down their altars, and dash their pillars in pieces, and cut down their Asherim, and burn their engraved images with fire. <sup>7:6</sup>For you are a holy people to the LORD your God: the LORD your God has chosen you to be a people for his own possession, above all peoples who are on the face of the earth. <sup>7:7</sup>The LORD didn't set his love on you, nor choose you, because you were more in number than any people; for you were the fewest of all peoples: <sup>7:8</sup>but because the LORD loves you, and because he would keep the oath which he swore to your fathers, has the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt. <sup>7:9</sup>Know therefore that the LORD your God, he is God, the faithful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with them who love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations, <sup>7:10</sup>and repays those who hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him who hates him, he will repay him to his face. <sup>7:11</sup>You shall therefore keep the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command you this day, to do them. <sup>7:12</sup>It shall happen, because you listen to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that the LORD your God will keep with you the covenant and the loving kindness which he swore to your fathers: <sup>7:13</sup>and he will love you, and bless you, and multiply you; he will also bless the fruit of your body and the fruit of your ground, your grain and your new wine and your oil, the increase of your livestock and the young of your flock, in the land which he swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>7:14</sup>You shall be blessed above all peoples: there shall not be male or female barren among you, or among your livestock. <sup>7:15</sup>The LORD will take away from you all sickness; and none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which you know, he will put on you, but will lay them on all those who hate you. <sup>7:16</sup>You shall consume all the peoples whom the LORD your God shall deliver to you; your eye shall not pity them: neither shall you serve their gods; for that will be a snare to you. <sup>7:17</sup>If you shall say in your heart, "These nations are more than I; how can I dispossess them?" <sup>7:18</sup>you shall not be afraid of them: you shall well remember what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh, and to all Egypt; <sup>7:19</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the mighty hand, and the outstretched arm, by which the LORD your God brought you out: so shall the LORD your God do to all the peoples of whom you are afraid. <sup>7:20</sup>Moreover the LORD your God will send the hornet among them, until those who are left, and hide themselves, perish from before you. <sup>7:21</sup>You shall not be scared of them; for the LORD your God is in the midst of you, a great and awesome God. <sup>7:22</sup>The LORD your God will cast out those nations before you by little and little: you may not consume them at once, lest the animals of the field increase on you. <sup>7:23</sup>But the LORD your God will deliver them up before you, and will confuse them with a great confusion, until they be destroyed. <sup>7:24</sup>He will deliver their kings into your hand, and you shall make their name to perish from under the sky: no man shall be able to stand before you, until you have destroyed them. <sup>7:25</sup>You shall burn the engraved images of their gods with fire. You shall not covet the silver or the gold that is on them, nor take it for yourself, lest you be snared in it; for it is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>7:26</sup>You shall not bring an abomination into your house, and become a devoted thing like it. You shall utterly detest it, and you shall utterly abhor it; for it is a devoted thing.

<sup>8:1</sup>You shall observe to do all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may live, and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the LORD swore to your fathers. <sup>8:2</sup>You shall remember all the way which the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, to prove you, to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments, or not. <sup>8:3</sup>He humbled you, and allowed you to be hungry, and fed you with manna, which you didn't know, neither did your fathers know; that he might make you know that man does not live by bread only, but man lives by everything that proceeds out of the mouth of the LORD. <sup>8:4</sup>Your clothing didn't grow old on you, neither did your foot swell, these forty years. <sup>8:5</sup>You shall consider in your heart that as a man chastens his son, so the LORD your God chastens you. <sup>8:6</sup>You shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him. <sup>8:7</sup>For the LORD your God brings you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of springs, and underground water flowing into valleys and hills; <sup>8:8</sup>a land of wheat and barley, and vines and fig trees and pomegranates; a land of olive trees and honey; <sup>8:9</sup>a land in which you shall eat bread without scarceness, you shall not lack anything in it; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you may dig copper. <sup>8:10</sup>You shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land which he has given you. <sup>8:11</sup>Beware lest you forget the LORD your God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ordinances, and his statutes, which I command you this day: <sup>8:12</sup>lest, when you have eaten and are full, and have built goodly houses, and lived therein; <sup>8:13</sup>and when your herds and your flocks multiply, and your silver and your gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied; <sup>8:14</sup>then your heart be lifted up, and you forget the LORD your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage; <sup>8:15</sup>who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, with fiery serpents and scorpions, and thirsty ground where there was no water; who brought you forth water out of the rock of flint; <sup>8:16</sup>who fed you in the wilderness with manna, which your fathers didn't know; that he might humble you, and that he might prove you, to do you good at your latter end: <sup>8:17</sup>and lest you say in your heart, "My power and the might of my hand has gotten me this wealth." <sup>8:18</sup>But you shall remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth; that he may establish his covenant which he swore to your fathers, as at this day.

<sup>8:19</sup>It shall be, if you shall forget the LORD your God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I testify against you this day that you shall surely perish. <sup>8:20</sup>As the nations that the LORD makes to perish before you, so you shall perish; because you wouldn't listen to the voice of the LORD your God.

<sup>9:4</sup>Don't say in your heart, after the LORD your God has thrust them out from before you, saying, "For my righteousness the LORD has brought me in to possess this land;" because the LORD drives them out before you because of the wickedness of these nations. <sup>9:5</sup>Not for your righteousness, or for the uprightness of your heart, do you go in to possess their land; but for the wickedness of these nations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you, and that he may establish the word which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>9:6</sup>Know therefore, that the LORD your God doesn't give you this good land to possess it for your righteousness; for you are a stiff-necked people. <sup>9:7</sup>Remember, don't forget, how you provoked the LORD your God to wrath in the wilderness: from the day that you went forth out of the land of Egypt, until you came to this place, you have been rebellious against the LORD.<sup>9:8</sup> Also in Horeb you provoked the LORD to wrath, and the LORD was angry with you to destroy you.<sup>9:9</sup> When I was gone up onto the mountain to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the LORD made with you, then I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water.<sup>9:10</sup> The LORD delivered to me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them were all the words which the LORD spoke with you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly.

<sup>9:11</sup> It came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that the LORD gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.<sup>9:12</sup> The LORD said to me, "Arise, get down quickly from here; for your people whom you have brought out of Egypt have corrupted themselves; they have quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image."

<sup>9:13</sup> Furthermore the LORD spoke to me, saying, "I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people:<sup>9:14</sup> let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under the sky; and I will make of you a nation mightier and greater than they."

<sup>9:15</sup> So I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain was burning with fire: and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.<sup>9:16</sup> I looked, and behold, you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made yourselves a molten calf: you had turned aside quickly out of the way which the LORD had commanded you.<sup>9:17</sup> I took hold of the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.<sup>9:18</sup> I fell down before the LORD, as at the first, forty days and forty nights; I neither ate bread nor drank water; because of all your sin which you sinned, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.<sup>9:19</sup> For I was afraid of the anger and hot displeasure, with which the LORD was angry against you to destroy you. But the LORD listened to me that time also.<sup>9:20</sup> The LORD was very angry with Aaron to destroy him: and I prayed for Aaron also at the same time.<sup>9:21</sup> I took your sin, the calf which you had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, grinding it very small, until it was as fine as dust: and I cast its dust into the brook that descended out of the mountain.<sup>9:22</sup> At Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth Hattaavah, you provoked the LORD to wrath.<sup>9:23</sup> When the LORD sent you from Kadesh Barnea, saying, "Go up and possess the land which I have given you;" then you rebelled against the commandment of the LORD your God, and you didn't believe him, nor listen to his voice.<sup>9:24</sup> You have been rebellious against the LORD from the day that I knew you.<sup>9:25</sup> So I fell down before the LORD the forty days and forty nights that I fell down, because the LORD had said he would destroy you.<sup>9:26</sup> I prayed to the LORD, and said, "LORD GOD, don't destroy your people and your inheritance, that you have redeemed through your greatness, that you have brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.<sup>9:27</sup> Remember your servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; don't look to the stubbornness of this people, nor to their wickedness, nor to their sin,<sup>9:28</sup> lest the land you brought us out from say, 'Because the LORD was not able to bring them into the land which he promised to them, and because he hated them, he has brought them out to kill them in the wilderness.'<sup>9:29</sup> Yet they are your people and your inheritance, which you brought out by your great power and by your outstretched arm."

<sup>10:1</sup> At that time the LORD said to me, "Cut two tables of stone like the first, and come up to me onto the mountain, and make an ark of wood.<sup>10:2</sup> I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which you broke, and you shall put them in the ark."<sup>10:3</sup> So I made an ark of acacia wood, and cut two tables of stone like the first, and went up onto the mountain, having the two tables in my hand.<sup>10:4</sup> He wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the LORD spoke to you on the mountain out of the midst of the fire in the day of the assembly: and the LORD gave them to me.<sup>10:5</sup> I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made; and there they are as the LORD commanded me.<sup>10:6</sup> (The children of Israel traveled from Beeroth Bene Jaakan to Moserah. There Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son ministered in the priest's office in his place.<sup>10:7</sup> From there they traveled to Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of brooks of water. <sup>10:8</sup>At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister to him, and to bless in his name, to this day. <sup>10:9</sup>Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brothers; the LORD is his inheritance, according as the LORD your God spoke to him.) <sup>10:10</sup>I stayed on the mountain, as at the first time, forty days and forty nights; and the LORD listened to me that time also; the LORD would not destroy you. <sup>10:11</sup>The LORD said to me, "Arise, take your journey before the people; and they shall go in and possess the land, which I swore to their fathers to give to them."

<sup>10:12</sup>Now, Israel, what does the LORD your God require of you, but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>10:13</sup>to keep the commandments of the LORD, and his statutes, which I command you this day for your good? <sup>10:14</sup>Behold, to the LORD your God belongs heaven and the heaven of heavens, the earth, with all that is therein. <sup>10:15</sup>Only the LORD had a delight in your fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all peoples, as at this day. <sup>10:16</sup>Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked. <sup>10:17</sup>For the LORD your God, he is God of gods, and Lord of lords, the great God, the mighty, and the awesome, who doesn't respect persons, nor takes reward. <sup>10:18</sup>He does execute justice for the fatherless and widow, and loves the foreigner, in giving him food and clothing. <sup>10:19</sup>Therefore love the foreigner; for you were foreigners in the land of Egypt. <sup>10:20</sup>You shall fear the LORD your God; you shall serve him; and you shall cling to him, and you shall swear by his name. <sup>10:21</sup>He is your praise, and he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things, which your eyes have seen. <sup>10:22</sup>Your fathers went down into Egypt with seventy persons; and now the LORD your God has made you as the stars of the sky for multitude.

LORD your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his outstretched arm, <sup>11:3</sup>and his signs, and his works, which he did in the midst of Egypt to Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and to all his land; <sup>11:4</sup>and what he did to the army of Egypt, to their horses, and to their chariots; how he made the water of the Sea of Suf to overflow them as they pursued after you, and how the LORD has destroyed them to this day; <sup>11:5</sup>and what he did to you in the wilderness, until you came to this place; <sup>11:6</sup>and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben; how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and every living thing that followed them, in the midst of all Israel: <sup>11:7</sup>but your eyes have seen all the great work of the LORD which he did. <sup>11:8</sup>Therefore you shall keep all the commandment which I command you this day, that you may be strong, and go in and possess the land, where you go over to possess it; <sup>11:9</sup>and that you may prolong your days in the land, which the LORD swore to your fathers to give to them and to their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>11:10</sup>For the land, where you go in to possess it, isn't as the land of Egypt, that you came out from, where you sowed your seed, and watered it with your foot, as a garden of herbs; <sup>11:11</sup>but the land, where you go over to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys which drinks water of the rain of the sky, <sup>11:12</sup>a land which the LORD your God cares for: the eyes of the LORD your God are always on it, from the beginning of the year even to the end of the year. <sup>11:13</sup>It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to my commandments which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, <sup>11:14</sup>that I will give the rain of your land in its season, the former rain and the latter rain, that you may gather in your grain, and your new wine, and your oil. <sup>11:15</sup>I will give grass in your fields for your livestock, and you shall eat and be full. <sup>11:16</sup>Take heed to yourselves, lest your heart be deceived, and you turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>11:17</sup>and the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and he shut up the sky, so that there shall be no rain, and the land shall not yield its fruit; and you perish quickly from off the good land which the LORD gives you. <sup>11:18</sup>Therefore you shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul; and you shall bind them for a sign on your hand, and they shall be for symbols between your eyes. <sup>11:19</sup>You shall teach them your children, talking of them, when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise up. <sup>11:20</sup>You shall write them on the door posts of your house, and on your gates; <sup>11:21</sup>that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens above the earth. <sup>11:22</sup>For if you shall diligently keep all this commandment which I command you, to do it, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cling to him; <sup>11:23</sup>then will the LORD drive out all these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess nations greater and mightier than yourselves. <sup>11:24</sup>Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even to the hinder sea shall be your border. <sup>11:25</sup>No man shall be able to stand before you: the LORD your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you on all the land that you shall tread on, as he has spoken to you. <sup>11:26</sup>Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse: <sup>11:27</sup>the blessing, if you shall listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day; <sup>11:28</sup>and the curse, if you shall not listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods, which you have not known. <sup>11:29</sup>It shall happen, when the LORD your God shall bring you into the land where you go to possess it, that you shall set the blessing on Mount Gerizim, and the curse on Mount Ebal. <sup>11:30</sup>Aren't they beyond the Jordan, behind the way of the going down of the sun, in the land of the Canaanites who dwell in the Arabah, over against Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh? <sup>11:31</sup>For you are to pass over the Jordan to go in to possess the land which the LORD your God gives you, and you shall possess it, and dwell therein. <sup>11:32</sup>You shall observe to do all the statutes and the ordinances which I set before you this day.

<sup>12:1</sup>These are the statutes and the ordinances which you shall observe to do in the land which the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess it, all the days that you live on the earth. <sup>12:2</sup>You shall surely destroy all the places in which the nations that you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains, and on the hills, and under every green tree: <sup>12:3</sup>and you shall break down their altars, and dash in pieces their pillars, and burn their Asherim with fire; and you shall cut down the engraved images of their gods; and you shall destroy their name out of that place. <sup>12:4</sup>You shall not do so to the LORD your God. <sup>12:5</sup>But to the place which the LORD your God shall choose out of all your tribes, to put his name there, even to his habitation you shall seek, and there you shall come; <sup>12:6</sup>and there you shall bring your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and your vows, and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock: <sup>12:7</sup>and there you shall eat before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice in all that you put your hand to, you and your households, in which the LORD your God has blessed you. <sup>12:8</sup>You shall not do after all the things that we do here this day, every man whatever is right in his own eyes; <sup>12:9</sup>for you haven't yet come to the rest and to the inheritance, which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>12:10</sup>But when you go over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which the LORD your God causes you to inherit, and he gives you rest from all your enemies around you, so that you dwell in safety; <sup>12:11</sup>then it shall happen that to the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, there you shall bring all that I command you: your burnt offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the wave offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which you vow to the LORD. <sup>12:12</sup>You shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your sons, and your daughters, and your male servants, and your female servants, and the Levite who is within your gates, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you. <sup>12:13</sup>Take heed to yourself that you don't offer your burnt offerings in every place that you see; <sup>12:14</sup>but in the place which the LORD shall choose in one of your tribes, there you shall offer your burnt offerings, and there you shall do all that I command you. <sup>12:15</sup>Notwithstanding, you may kill and eat flesh within all your gates, after all the desire of your soul, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you: the unclean and the clean may eat of it, as of the gazelle, and as of the hart. <sup>12:16</sup>Only you shall not eat the blood; you shall pour it out on the earth as water. <sup>12:17</sup>You may not eat within your gates the tithes of your grain, or of your new wine, or of your oil, or the firstborn of your herd or of your flock, nor any of your vows which you vow, nor your freewill offerings, nor the wave offering of your hand; <sup>12:18</sup>but you shall eat them before the LORD your God in the place which the LORD your God shall choose, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates: and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God in all that you put your hand to. <sup>12:19</sup>Take heed to yourself that you don't forsake the Levite as long as you live in your land.

<sup>12:20</sup>When the LORD your God shall enlarge your border, as he has promised you, and you shall say, "I want to eat meat," because your soul desires to eat meat; you may eat meat, after all the desire of your soul. <sup>12:21</sup>If the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to put his name there, is too far from you, then you shall kill of your herd and of your flock, which the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you; and you may eat within your gates, after all the desire of your soul. <sup>12:22</sup>Even as the gazelle and as the hart is eaten, so you shall eat of it: the unclean and the clean may eat of it alike. <sup>12:23</sup>Only be sure that you don't eat the blood: for the blood is the life; and you shall not eat the life with the flesh. <sup>12:24</sup>You shall not eat it; you shall pour it out on the earth as water. <sup>12:25</sup>You shall not eat it; that it may go well with you, and with your children after you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD. <sup>12:26</sup>Only your holy things which you have, and your vows, you shall take, and go to the place which the LORD shall choose: <sup>12:27</sup>and you shall offer your burnt offerings, the flesh and the blood, on the altar of the LORD your God; and the blood of your sacrifices shall be poured out on the altar of the LORD your God; and you shall eat the flesh. <sup>12:28</sup>Observe and hear all these words which I command you, that it may go well with you, and with your children after you forever, when you do that which is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

<sup>12:29</sup>When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations from before you, where you go in to dispossess them, and you dispossess them, and dwell in their land; <sup>12:30</sup>take heed to yourself that you not be ensnared to follow them, after that they are destroyed from before you; and that you not inquire after their gods, saying, "How do these nations serve their gods? I will do likewise." <sup>12:31</sup>You shall not do so to the LORD your God: for every abomination to the LORD, which he hates, have they done to their gods; for even their sons and their daughters do they burn in the fire to their gods. <sup>12:32</sup>Whatever thing I command you, that you shall observe to do: you shall not add thereto, nor diminish from it.

<sup>13:1</sup>If there arise in the midst of you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and he give you a sign or a wonder, <sup>13:2</sup>and the sign or the wonder come to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, "Let us go after other gods" (which you have not known) "and let us serve them;" <sup>13:3</sup>you shall not listen to the words of that prophet, or to that dreamer of dreams: for the LORD your God proves you, to know whether you love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul. <sup>13:4</sup>You shall walk after the LORD your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and you shall serve him, and cling to him. <sup>13:5</sup>That prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death, because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you aside out of the way which the LORD your God commanded you to walk in. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you.

<sup>13:6</sup>If your brother, the son of your mother, or your son, or your daughter, or the wife of your bosom, or your friend, who is as your own soul, entice you secretly, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known, you, nor your fathers; <sup>13:7</sup>of the gods of the peoples who are around you, near to you, or far off from you, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; <sup>13:8</sup>you shall not consent to him, nor listen to him; neither shall your eye pity him, neither shall you spare, neither shall you conceal him: <sup>13:9</sup>but you shall surely kill him; your hand shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterwards the hand of all the people. <sup>13:10</sup>You shall stone him to death with stones, because he has sought to draw you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage. <sup>13:11</sup>All Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall not do any more such wickedness as this is in the midst of you.

<sup>13:12</sup>If you shall hear tell concerning one of your cities, which the LORD your God gives you to dwell there, saying, <sup>13:13</sup>Certain base fellows are gone out from the midst of you, and have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying, "Let us go and serve other gods," which you have not known; <sup>13:14</sup>then you shall inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and, behold, if it be truth, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in the midst of you, <sup>13:15</sup>you shall surely strike the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, destroying it utterly, and all that is therein and its livestock, with the edge of the sword. <sup>13:16</sup>You shall gather all its spoil into the midst of its street, and shall burn with fire the city, and all its spoil every whit, to the LORD your God: and it shall be a heap forever; it shall not be built again. <sup>13:17</sup>Nothing of the devoted thing shall cling to your hand; that the LORD may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and show you mercy, and have compassion on you, and multiply you, as he has sworn to your fathers; <sup>13:18</sup>when you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep all his commandments which I command you this day, to do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

<sup>14:7</sup>Nevertheless these you shall not eat of them that chew the cud, or of those who have the hoof cloven: the camel, and the hare, and the rabbit; because they chew the cud but don't part the hoof, they are unclean to you. <sup>14:8</sup>The pig, because it has a split hoof but doesn't chew the cud, is unclean to you: of their flesh you shall not eat, and their carcasses you shall not touch. <sup>14:9</sup>These you may eat of all that are in the waters: whatever has fins and scales may you eat; <sup>14:10</sup>and whatever doesn't have fins and scales you shall not eat; it is unclean to you. <sup>14:11</sup>Of all clean birds you may eat. <sup>14:12</sup>But these are they of which you shall not eat: the eagle, and the vulture, and the osprey, <sup>14:13</sup>and the red kite, and the falcon, and the kite after its kind, <sup>14:14</sup>and every raven after its kind, <sup>14:15</sup>and the ostrich, and the owl, and the seagull, and the hawk after its kind, <sup>14:16</sup>the little owl, and the great owl, and the horned owl, <sup>14:17</sup>and the pelican, and the vulture, and the cormorant, <sup>14:18</sup>and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat. <sup>14:19</sup>All winged creeping things are unclean to you: they shall not be eaten. <sup>14:20</sup>Of all clean birds you may eat. <sup>14:21</sup>You shall not eat of anything that dies of itself: you may give it to the foreigner living among you who is within your gates, that he may eat it; or you may sell it to a foreigner: for you are a holy people to the LORD your God. You shall not boil a young goat in its mother's milk. <sup>14:22</sup>You shall surely tithe all the increase of your seed, that which comes forth from the field year by year. <sup>14:23</sup>You shall eat before the LORD your God, in the place which he shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there, the tithe of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the firstborn of your herd and of your flock; that you may learn to fear the LORD your God always. <sup>14:24</sup>If the way is too long for you, so that you are not able to carry it, because the place is too far from you, which the LORD your God shall choose, to set his name there, when the LORD your God shall bless you; <sup>14:25</sup>then you shall turn it into money, and bind up the money in your hand, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose: <sup>14:26</sup>and you shall bestow the money for whatever your soul desires, for cattle, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever your soul asks of you; and you shall eat there before the LORD your God, and you shall rejoice, you and your household. <sup>14:27</sup>The Levite who is within your gates, you shall not forsake him; for he has no portion nor inheritance with you. <sup>14:28</sup>At the end of every three years you shall bring forth all the tithe of your increase in the same year, and shall lay it up within your gates: <sup>14:29</sup>and the Levite, because he has no portion nor inheritance with you, and the foreigner living among you, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hand which you do.

saying, You shall surely open your hand to your brother, to your needy, and to your poor, in your land. <sup>15:12</sup>If your brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, is sold to you, and serves you six years; then in the seventh year you shall let him go free from you. <sup>15:13</sup>When you let him go free from you, you shall not let him go empty: <sup>15:14</sup>you shall furnish him liberally out of your flock, and out of your threshing floor, and out of your winepress; as the LORD your God has blessed you, you shall give to him. <sup>15:15</sup>You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you: therefore I command you this thing today. <sup>15:16</sup>It shall be, if he tells you, "I will not go out from you;" because he loves you and your house, because he is well with you; <sup>15:17</sup>then you shall take an awl, and thrust it through his ear to the door, and he shall be your servant forever. Also to your female servant you shall do likewise. <sup>15:18</sup>It shall not seem hard to you, when you let him go free from you; for to the double of the hire of a hireling has he served you six years: and the LORD your God will bless you in all that you do. <sup>15:19</sup>All the firstborn males that are born of your herd and of your flock you shall sanctify to the LORD your God: you shall do no work with the firstborn of your herd, nor shear the firstborn of your flock. <sup>15:20</sup>You shall eat it before the LORD your God year by year in the place which the LORD shall choose, you and your household. <sup>15:21</sup>If it has any blemish, is lame or blind, or has any defect whatever, you shall not sacrifice it to the LORD your God. <sup>15:22</sup>You shall eat it within your gates: the unclean and the clean shall eat it alike, as the gazelle, and as the hart. <sup>15:23</sup>Only you shall not eat its blood; you shall pour it out on the ground as water.

<sup>16:1</sup>Observe the month of Abib, and keep the Passover to the LORD your God; for in the month of Abib the LORD your God brought you forth out of Egypt by night. <sup>16:2</sup>You shall sacrifice the Passover to the LORD your God, of the flock and the herd, in the place which the LORD shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>16:3</sup>You shall eat no leavened bread with it. You shall eat unleavened bread with it seven days, even the bread of affliction; for you came forth out of the land of Egypt in haste: that you may remember the day when you came forth out of the land of Egypt all the days of your life. <sup>16:4</sup>No yeast shall be seen with you in all your borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which you sacrifice the first day at evening, remain all night until the morning. <sup>16:5</sup>You may not sacrifice the Passover within any of your gates, which the LORD your God gives you; <sup>16:6</sup>but at the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there you shall sacrifice the Passover at evening, at the going down of the sun, at the season that you came forth out of Egypt. <sup>16:7</sup>You shall roast and eat it in the place which the LORD your God shall choose: and you shall turn in the morning, and go to your tents. <sup>16:8</sup>Six days you shall eat unleavened bread. On the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the LORD your God; you shall do no work. <sup>16:9</sup>You shall count for yourselves seven weeks: from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing grain you shall begin to number seven weeks. <sup>16:10</sup>You shall keep the feast of weeks to the LORD your God with a tribute of a freewill offering of your hand, which you shall give, according as the LORD your God blesses you: <sup>16:11</sup>and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite who is within your gates, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are in the midst of you, in the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there. <sup>16:12</sup>You shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt: and you shall observe and do these statutes. <sup>16:13</sup>You shall keep the feast of booths seven days, after that you have gathered in from your threshing floor and from your winepress: <sup>16:14</sup>and you shall rejoice in your feast, you, and your son, and your daughter, and your male servant, and your female servant, and the Levite, and the foreigner, and the fatherless, and the widow, who are within your gates. <sup>16:15</sup>You shall keep a feast to the LORD your God seven days in the place which the LORD shall choose; because the LORD your God will bless you in all your increase, and in all the work of your hands, and you shall be altogether joyful. <sup>16:16</sup>Three times in a year shall all your males appear before the LORD your God in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of booths; and they shall not appear before the LORD empty: <sup>16:17</sup>every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God which he has given you. <sup>16:18</sup>You shall make judges and officers in all your gates, which the LORD your God gives you, according to your tribes; and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment. <sup>16:19</sup>You shall not wrest justice: you shall not respect persons; neither shall you take a bribe; for a bribe does blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous. <sup>16:20</sup>You shall follow that which is altogether just, that you may live, and inherit the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>16:21</sup>You shall not plant for yourselves an Asherah of any kind of tree beside the altar of the LORD your God, which you shall make for yourselves. <sup>16:22</sup>Neither shall you set yourself up a pillar; which the LORD your God hates.

<sup>17:1</sup>You shall not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox, or a sheep, in which is a blemish, or anything evil; for that is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>17:2</sup>If there is found in the midst of you, within any of your gates which the LORD your God gives you, man or woman, who does that which is evil in the sight of the LORD your God, in transgressing his covenant, <sup>17:3</sup>and has gone and served other gods, and worshiped them, or the sun, or the moon, or any of the army of the sky, which I have not commanded; <sup>17:4</sup>and it be told you, and you have heard of it, then you shall inquire diligently; and behold, if it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is done in Israel, <sup>17:5</sup>then you shall bring forth that man or that woman, who has done this evil thing, to your gates, even the man or the woman; and you shall stone them to death with stones. <sup>17:6</sup>At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he who is to die be put to death; at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death. <sup>17:7</sup>The hand of the witnesses shall be first on him to put him to death, and afterward the hand of all the people. So you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>17:8</sup>If there arises a matter too hard for you in judgment, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within your gates; then you shall arise, and go up to the place which the LORD your God shall choose; <sup>17:9</sup> and you shall come to the priests the Levites, and to the judge who shall be in those days: and you shall inquire; and they shall show you the sentence of judgment. <sup>17:10</sup> You shall do according to the tenor of the sentence which they shall show you from that place which the LORD shall choose; and you shall observe to do according to all that they shall teach you: <sup>17:11</sup> according to the tenor of the law which they shall teach you, and according to the judgment which they shall tell you, you shall do; you shall not turn aside from the sentence which they shall show you, to the right hand, nor to the left. <sup>17:12</sup> The man who does presumptuously, in not listening to the priest who stands to minister there before the LORD your God, or to the judge, even that man shall die: and you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>17:13</sup> All the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

<sup>17:14</sup> When you have come to the land which the LORD your God gives you, and shall possess it, and shall dwell therein, and shall say, "I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are around me;" <sup>17:15</sup> you shall surely set him king over yourselves, whom the LORD your God shall choose: one from among your brothers you shall set king over you; you may not put a foreigner over you, who is not your brother. <sup>17:16</sup> Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he may multiply horses; because the LORD has said to you, "You shall not go back that way again." <sup>17:17</sup> Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart not turn away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the LORD made by fire, and his inheritance. <sup>18:2</sup> They shall have no inheritance among their brothers: the LORD is their inheritance, as he has spoken to them. <sup>18:3</sup> This shall be the priests' due from the people, from those who offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep, that they shall give to the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw. <sup>18:4</sup> The first fruits of your grain, of your new wine, and of your oil, and the first of the fleece of your sheep, you shall give him. <sup>18:5</sup> For the LORD your God has chosen him out of all your tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the LORD, him and his sons for ever. <sup>18:6</sup> If a Levite comes from any of your gates out of all Israel, where he lives as a foreigner, and comes with all the desire of his soul to the place which the LORD shall choose; <sup>18:7</sup> then he shall minister in the name of the LORD his God, as all his brothers the Levites do, who stand there before the LORD. <sup>18:8</sup> They shall have like portions to eat, besides that which comes of the sale of his patrimony. <sup>18:9</sup> When you have come into the land which the LORD your God gives you, you shall not learn to do after the abominations of those nations. <sup>18:10</sup> There shall not be found with you anyone who makes his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, one who uses divination, one who practices sorcery, or an enchanter, or a sorcerer, <sup>18:11</sup> or a charmer, or a consulter with a familiar spirit, or a wizard, or a necromancer. <sup>18:12</sup> For whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD: and because of these abominations the LORD your God does drive them out from before you. <sup>18:13</sup> You shall be perfect with the LORD your God. <sup>18:14</sup> For these nations, that you shall dispossess, listen to those who practice sorcery, and to diviners; but as for you, the LORD your God has not allowed you so to do. <sup>18:15</sup> The LORD your God will raise up to you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him. <sup>18:16</sup> This is according to all that you desired of the LORD your God in Horeb in the day of the assembly, saying, "Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I not die."

<sup>18:17</sup> The LORD said to me, "They have well said that which they have spoken. <sup>18:18</sup> I will raise them up a prophet from among their brothers, like you; and I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I shall command him. <sup>18:19</sup>It shall happen, that whoever will not listen to my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him. <sup>18:20</sup>But the prophet, who shall speak a word presumptuously in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or who shall speak in the name of other gods, that same prophet shall die."

<sup>18:21</sup>If you say in your heart, "How shall we know the word which the LORD has not spoken?" <sup>18:22</sup>when a prophet speaks in the name of the LORD, if the thing doesn't follow, nor happen, that is the thing which the LORD has not spoken: the prophet has spoken it presumptuously, you shall not be afraid of him.

<sup>19:1</sup>When the LORD your God shall cut off the nations, whose land the LORD your God gives you, and you succeed them, and dwell in their cities, and in their houses; <sup>19:2</sup>you shall set apart three cities for you in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you to possess it. <sup>19:3</sup>You shall prepare you the way, and divide the borders of your land, which the LORD your God causes you to inherit, into three parts, that every manslayer may flee there. <sup>19:4</sup>This is the case of the manslayer, that shall flee there and live: whoever kills his neighbor unawares, and didn't hate him in time past; <sup>19:5</sup>as when a man goes into the forest with his neighbor to chop wood, and his hand fetches a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the head slips from the handle, and lights on his neighbor, so that he dies; he shall flee to one of these cities and live: <sup>19:6</sup>lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and strike him mortally; whereas he was not worthy of death, inasmuch as he didn't hate him in time past. <sup>19:7</sup>Therefore I command you, saying, You shall set apart three cities for yourselves. <sup>19:8</sup>If the LORD your God enlarges your border, as he has sworn to your fathers, and gives you all the land which he promised to give to your fathers; <sup>19:9</sup>if you keep all this commandment to do it, which I command you this day, to love the LORD your God, and to walk ever in his ways; then you shall add three cities more for yourselves, besides these three: <sup>19:10</sup>that innocent blood not be shed in the midst of your land, which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and so blood be on you. <sup>19:11</sup>But if any man hates his neighbor, and lies in wait for him, and rises up against him, and strikes him mortally so that he dies, and he flees into one of these cities; <sup>19:12</sup>then the elders of his city shall send and bring him there, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, that he may die. <sup>19:13</sup>Your eye shall not pity him, but you shall put away the innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with you. <sup>19:14</sup>You shall not remove your neighbor's landmark, which they of old time have set, in your inheritance which you shall inherit, in the land that the LORD your God gives you to possess it. <sup>19:15</sup>One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sins: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established. <sup>19:16</sup>If an unrighteous witness rise up against any man to testify against him of wrongdoing, <sup>19:17</sup>then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the LORD, before the priests and the judges who shall be in those days; <sup>19:18</sup>and the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness is a false witness, and has testified falsely against his brother; <sup>19:19</sup>then you shall do to him as he had thought to do to his brother: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>19:20</sup>Those who remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil in the midst of you. <sup>19:21</sup>Your eyes shall not pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

<sup>20:5</sup>The officers shall speak to the people, saying, "What man is there who has built a new house, and has not dedicated it? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man dedicate it. <sup>20:6</sup>What man is there who has planted a vineyard, and has not used its fruit? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man use its fruit. <sup>20:7</sup>What man is there who has pledged to be married a wife, and has not taken her? Let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her." <sup>20:8</sup>The officers shall speak further to the people, and they shall say, "What man is there who is fearful and fainthearted? Let him go and return to his house, lest his brother's heart melt as his heart." <sup>20:9</sup>It shall be, when the officers have made an end of speaking to the people, that they shall appoint captains of armies at the head of the people.

<sup>20:10</sup>When you draw near to a city to fight against it, then proclaim peace to it. <sup>20:11</sup>It shall be, if it makes you answer of peace, and opens to you, then it shall be, that all the people who are found therein shall become tributary to you, and shall serve you. <sup>20:12</sup>If it will make no peace with you, but will make war against you, then you shall besiege it: <sup>20:13</sup>and when the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, you shall strike every male of it with the edge of the sword: <sup>20:14</sup>but the women, and the little ones, and the livestock, and all that is in the city, even all its spoil, you shall take for a prey to yourself; and you shall eat the spoil of your enemies, which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>20:15</sup>Thus you shall do to all the cities which are very far off from you, which are not of the cities of these nations. <sup>20:16</sup>But of the cities of these peoples, that the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, you shall save alive nothing that breathes; <sup>20:17</sup>but you shall utterly destroy them: the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite; as the LORD your God has commanded you; <sup>20:18</sup>that they not teach you to do after all their abominations, which they have done to their gods; so would you sin against the LORD your God. <sup>20:19</sup>When you shall besiege a city a long time, in making war against it to take it, you shall not destroy its trees by wielding an axe against them; for you may eat of them, and you shall not cut them down; for is the tree of the field man, that it should be besieged of you? <sup>20:20</sup>Only the trees of which you know that they are not trees for food, you shall destroy and cut them down; and you shall build bulwarks against the city that makes war with you, until it fall.

<sup>21:1</sup>If one be found slain in the land which the LORD your God gives you to possess it, lying in the field, and it isn't known who has struck him; <sup>21:2</sup>then your elders and your judges shall come forth, and they shall measure to the cities which are around him who is slain: <sup>21:3</sup>and it shall be, that the city which is nearest to the slain man, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer of the herd, which hasn't been worked with, and which has not drawn in the yoke; <sup>21:4</sup>and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer to a valley with running water, which is neither plowed nor sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there in the valley. <sup>21:5</sup>The priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them the LORD your God has chosen to minister to him, and to bless in the name of the LORD; and according to their word shall every controversy and every stroke be. <sup>21:6</sup>All the elders of that city, who are nearest to the slain man, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley; <sup>21:7</sup>and they shall answer and say, "Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. <sup>21:8</sup>Forgive, the LORD, your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, and don't allow innocent blood in the midst of your people Israel." The blood shall be forgiven them. <sup>21:9</sup>So you shall put away the innocent blood from the midst of you, when you shall do that which is right in the eyes of the LORD.

have two wives, the one beloved, and the other hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated; and if the firstborn son be hers who was hated; <sup>21:16</sup>then it shall be, in the day that he causes his sons to inherit that which he has, that he may not make the son of the beloved the firstborn before the son of the hated, who is the firstborn: <sup>21:17</sup>but he shall acknowledge the firstborn, the son of the hated, by giving him a double portion of all that he has; for he is the beginning of his strength; the right of the firstborn is his. <sup>21:18</sup>If a man have a stubborn and rebellious son, who will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and, though they chasten him, will not listen to them; <sup>21:19</sup>then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out to the elders of his city, and to the gate of his place; <sup>21:20</sup>and they shall tell the elders of his city, "This our son is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton, and a drunkard." <sup>21:21</sup>All the men of his city shall stone him to death with stones: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you; and all Israel shall hear, and fear.

<sup>22:1</sup>You shall not see your brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely bring them again to your brother. <sup>22:2</sup>If your brother isn't near to you, or if you don't know him, then you shall bring it home to your house, and it shall be with you until your brother seek after it, and you shall restore it to him. <sup>22:3</sup>So you shall do with his donkey; and so you shall do with his garment; and so you shall do with every lost thing of your brother's, which he has lost, and you have found: you may not hide yourself. <sup>22:4</sup>You shall not see your brother's donkey or his ox fallen down by the way, and hide yourself from them: you shall surely help him to lift them up again. <sup>22:5</sup>A woman shall not wear men's clothing, neither shall a man put on women's clothing; for whoever does these things is an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>22:6</sup>If a bird's nest chance to be before you in the way, in any tree or on the ground, with young ones or eggs, and the hen sitting on the young, or on the eggs, you shall not take the hen with the young: <sup>22:7</sup>you shall surely let the hen go, but the young you may take to yourself; that it may be well with you, and that you may prolong your days. <sup>22:8</sup>When you build a new house, then you shall make a battlement for your roof, that you don't bring blood on your house, if any man fall from there. <sup>22:9</sup>You shall not sow your vineyard with two kinds of seed, lest the whole fruit be forfeited, the seed which you have sown, and the increase of the vineyard. <sup>22:10</sup>You shall not plow with an ox and a donkey together. <sup>22:11</sup>You shall not wear a mixed stuff, wool and linen together. <sup>22:12</sup>You shall make yourselves fringes<sup>d</sup> on the four borders of your cloak, with which you cover yourself.

put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>22:22</sup>If a man be found lying with a woman married to a husband, then they shall both of them die, the man who lay with the woman, and the woman: so you shall put away the evil from Israel. <sup>22:23</sup>If there is a young lady who is a virgin pledged to be married to a husband, and a man find her in the city, and lie with her; <sup>22:24</sup>then you shall bring them both out to the gate of that city, and you shall stone them to death with stones; the lady, because she didn't cry, being in the city; and the man, because he has humbled his neighbor's wife: so you shall put away the evil from the midst of you. <sup>22:25</sup>But if the man find the lady who is pledged to be married in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her; then the man only who lay with her shall die: <sup>22:26</sup>but to the lady you shall do nothing; there is in the lady no sin worthy of death: for as when a man rises against his neighbor, and kills him, even so is this matter; <sup>22:27</sup>for he found her in the field, the pledged to be married lady cried, and there was none to save her. <sup>22:28</sup>If a man find a lady who is a virgin, who is not pledged to be married, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they be found; <sup>22:29</sup>then the man who lay with her shall give to the lady's father fifty shekels of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he has humbled her; he may not put her away all his days. <sup>22:30</sup>A man shall not take his father's wife, and shall not uncover his father's skirt.

<sup>23:7</sup>You shall not abhor an Edomite; for he is your brother: you shall not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as a foreigner in his land. <sup>23:8</sup>The children of the third generation who are born to them shall enter into the assembly of the LORD. <sup>23:9</sup>When you go forth in camp against your enemies, then you shall keep yourselves from every evil thing. <sup>23:10</sup>If there is among you any man who is not clean by reason of that which happens him by night, then shall he go outside of the camp. He shall not come within the camp: <sup>23:11</sup>but it shall be, when evening comes on, he shall bathe himself in water; and when the sun is down, he shall come within the camp. <sup>23:12</sup>You shall have a place also outside of the camp, where you shall go forth abroad: <sup>23:13</sup>and you shall have a paddle among your weapons; and it shall be, when you sit down abroad, you shall dig therewith, and shall turn back and cover that which comes from you: <sup>23:14</sup>for the LORD your God walks in the midst of your camp, to deliver you, and to give up your enemies before you; therefore your camp shall be holy, that he may not see an unclean thing in you, and turn away from you. <sup>23:15</sup>You shall not deliver to his master a servant who is escaped from his master to you: <sup>23:16</sup>he shall dwell with you, in the midst of you, in the place which he shall choose within one of your gates, where it pleases him best: you shall not oppress him. <sup>23:17</sup>There shall be no prostitute of the daughters of Israel, neither shall there be a sodomite of the sons of Israel. <sup>23:18</sup>You shall not bring the hire of a prostitute, or the wages of a dog, into the house of the LORD your God for any vow: for even both these are an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>23:19</sup>You shall not lend on interest to your brother; interest of money, interest of food, interest of anything that is lent on interest: <sup>23:20</sup>to a foreigner you may lend on interest; but to your brother you shall not lend on interest, that the LORD your God may bless you in all that you put your hand to, in the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>23:21</sup>When you shall vow a vow to the LORD your God, you shall not be slack to pay it: for the LORD your God will surely require it of you; and it would be sin in you. <sup>23:22</sup>But if you shall forbear to vow, it shall be no sin in you. <sup>23:23</sup>That which is gone out of your lips you shall observe and do; according as you have vowed to the LORD your God, a freewill offering, which you have promised with your mouth. <sup>23:24</sup>When you come into your neighbor's vineyard, then you may eat of grapes your fill at your own pleasure; but you shall not put any in your vessel. <sup>23:25</sup>When you come into your neighbor's standing grain, then you may pluck the ears with your hand; but you shall not move a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain.

shall not oppress a hired servant who is poor and needy, whether he be of your brothers, or of your foreigners who are in your land within your gates: <sup>24:15</sup>in his day you shall give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down on it; for he is poor, and sets his heart on it: lest he cry against you to the LORD, and it be sin to you. <sup>24:16</sup>The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin. <sup>24:17</sup>You shall not deprive the foreigner, or the fatherless of justice, nor take a widow's clothing in pledge; <sup>24:18</sup>but you shall remember that you were a bondservant in Egypt, and the LORD your God redeemed you there: therefore I command you to do this thing. <sup>24:19</sup>When you reap your harvest in your field, and have forgot a sheaf in the field, you shall not go again to get it: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands. <sup>24:20</sup>When you beat your olive tree, you shall not go over the boughs again: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>24:21</sup>When you harvest your vineyard, you shall not glean it after yourselves: it shall be for the foreigner, for the fatherless, and for the widow. <sup>24:22</sup>You shall remember that you were a bondservant in the land of Egypt: therefore I command you to do this thing.

<sup>25:1</sup>If there is a controversy between men, and they come to judgment, and the judges judge them; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked; <sup>25:2</sup>and it shall be, if the wicked man be worthy to be beaten, that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and to be beaten before his face, according to his wickedness, by number. <sup>25:3</sup>Forty stripes he may give him, he shall not exceed; lest, if he should exceed, and beat him above these with many stripes, then your brother should seem vile to you. <sup>25:4</sup>You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain. <sup>25:5</sup>If brothers dwell together, and one of them die, and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not be married outside to a stranger: her husband's brother shall go in to her, and take her to him as wife, and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. <sup>25:6</sup>It shall be, that the firstborn whom she bears shall succeed in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name not be blotted out of Israel.

<sup>25:7</sup>If the man doesn't want to take his brother's wife, then his brother's wife shall go up to the gate to the elders, and say, "My husband's brother refuses to raise up to his brother a name in Israel; he will not perform the duty of a husband's brother to me." <sup>25:8</sup>Then the elders of his city shall call him, and speak to him: and if he stand, and say, "I don't want to take her;" <sup>25:9</sup>then his brother's wife shall come to him in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe from off his foot, and spit in his face; and she shall answer and say, "So shall it be done to the man who does not build up his brother's house." <sup>25:10</sup>His name shall be called in Israel, The house of him who has his shoe untied.

<sup>25:13</sup>You shall not have in your bag diverse weights, a great and a small. <sup>25:14</sup>You shall not have in your house diverse measures, a great and a small. <sup>25:15</sup>You shall have a perfect and just weight. You shall have a perfect and just measure, that your days may be long in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>25:16</sup>For all who do such things, all who do unrighteously, are an abomination to the LORD your God. <sup>25:17</sup>Remember what Amalek did to you by the way as you came forth out of Egypt; <sup>25:18</sup>how he met you by the way, and struck the hindmost of you, all who were feeble behind you, when you were faint and weary; and he didn't fear God. <sup>25:19</sup>Therefore it shall be, when the LORD your God has given you rest from all your enemies all around, in the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance to possess it, that you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under the sky; you shall not forget.

<sup>26:1</sup>It shall be, when you have come in to the land which the LORD your God gives you for an inheritance, and possess it, and dwell therein, <sup>26:2</sup>that you shall take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you shall bring in from your land that the LORD your God gives you; and you shall put it in a basket, and shall go to the place which the LORD your God shall choose, to cause his name to dwell there.

<sup>26:3</sup>You shall come to the priest who shall be in those days, and tell him, "I profess this day to the LORD your God, that I am come to the land which the LORD swore to our fathers to give us." <sup>26:4</sup>The priest shall take the basket out of your hand, and set it down before the altar of the LORD your God. <sup>26:5</sup>You shall answer and say before the LORD your God, "A Syrian ready to perish was my father; and he went down into Egypt, and lived there, few in number; and he became there a nation, great, mighty, and populous. <sup>26:6</sup>The Egyptians dealt ill with us, and afflicted us, and laid on us hard bondage: <sup>26:7</sup>and we cried to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice, and saw our affliction, and our toil, and our oppression; <sup>26:8</sup>and the LORD brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror, and with signs, and with wonders; <sup>26:9</sup>and he has brought us into this place, and has given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>26:10</sup>Now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruit of the ground, which you, the LORD, have given me." You shall set it down before the LORD your God, and worship before the LORD your God. <sup>26:11</sup>You shall rejoice in all the good which the LORD your God has given to you, and to your house, you, and the Levite, and the foreigner who is in the midst of you.

<sup>26:12</sup>When you have made an end of tithing all the tithe of your increase in the third year, which is the year of tithing, then you shall give it to the Levite, to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat within your gates, and be filled. <sup>26:13</sup>You shall say before the LORD your God, "I have put away the holy things out of my house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the foreigner, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all your commandment which you have commanded me: I have not transgressed any of your commandments, neither have I forgotten them: <sup>26:14</sup>I have not eaten of it in my mourning, neither have I put away of it, being unclean, nor given of it for the dead: I have listened to the voice of the LORD my God; I have done according to all that you have commanded me. <sup>26:15</sup>Look down from your holy habitation, from heaven, and bless your people Israel, and the ground which you have given us, as you swore to our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

<sup>26:16</sup>This day the LORD your God commands you to do these statutes and ordinances: you shall therefore keep and do them with all your heart, and with all your soul. <sup>26:17</sup>You have declared the LORD this day to be your God, and that you would walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and listen to his voice: <sup>26:18</sup>and the LORD has declared you this day to be a people for his own possession, as he has promised you, and that you should keep all his commandments; <sup>26:19</sup>and to make you high above all nations that he has made, in praise, and in name, and in honor; and that you may be a holy people to the LORD your God, as he has spoken.

<sup>27:1</sup>Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, “Keep all the commandment which I command you this day. <sup>27:2</sup>It shall be on the day when you shall pass over the Jordan to the land which the LORD your God gives you, that you shall set yourself up great stones, and plaster them with plaster: <sup>27:3</sup>and you shall write on them all the words of this law, when you have passed over; that you may go in to the land which the LORD your God gives you, a land flowing with milk and honey, as the LORD, the God of your fathers, has promised you. <sup>27:4</sup>It shall be, when you have passed over the Jordan, that you shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in Mount Ebal, and you shall plaster them with plaster. <sup>27:5</sup>There you shall build an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones: you shall lift up no iron on them. <sup>27:6</sup>You shall build the altar of the LORD your God of uncut stones; and you shall offer burnt offerings thereon to the LORD your God: <sup>27:7</sup>and you shall sacrifice peace offerings, and shall eat there; and you shall rejoice before the LORD your God. <sup>27:8</sup>You shall write on the stones all the words of this law very plainly.”

<sup>27:9</sup>Moses and the priests the Levites spoke to all Israel, saying, “Keep silence, and listen, Israel: this day you have become the people of the LORD your God. <sup>27:10</sup>You shall therefore obey the voice of the LORD your God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command you this day.”

day, saying, <sup>27:12</sup>“These shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people, when you have passed over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Benjamin. <sup>27:13</sup>These shall stand on Mount Ebal for the curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, Dan, and Naphtali. <sup>27:14</sup>The Levites shall answer, and tell all the men of Israel with a loud voice, <sup>27:15</sup>‘Cursed is the man who makes an engraved or molten image, an abomination to the LORD, the work of the hands of the craftsman, and sets it up in secret.’ All the people shall answer and say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:16</sup>‘Cursed is he who sets light by his father or his mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:17</sup>‘Cursed is he who removes his neighbor’s landmark.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:18</sup>‘Cursed is he who makes the blind to wander out of the way.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:19</sup>‘Cursed is he who the foreigner, fatherless, and widow of justice.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:20</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his father’s wife, because he has uncovered his father’s skirt.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:21</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with any kind of animal.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:22</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:23</sup>‘Cursed is he who lies with his mother-in-law.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:24</sup>‘Cursed is he who strikes his neighbor in secret.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:25</sup>‘Cursed is he who takes a bribe to kill an innocent person.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’ <sup>27:26</sup>‘Cursed is he who doesn’t confirm the words of this law to do them.’ All the people shall say, ‘Amen.’”

<sup>28:1</sup>It shall happen, if you shall listen diligently to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all his commandments which I command you this day, that the LORD your God will set you on high above all the nations of the earth: <sup>28:2</sup>and all these blessings shall come on you, and overtake you, if you shall listen to the voice of the LORD your God. <sup>28:3</sup>You shall be blessed in the city, and you shall be blessed in the field. <sup>28:4</sup>You shall be blessed in the fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the fruit of your animals, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock. <sup>28:5</sup>Your basket and your kneading trough shall be blessed. <sup>28:6</sup>You shall be blessed when you come in, and you shall be blessed when you go out. <sup>28:7</sup>The LORD will cause your enemies who rise up against you to be struck before you. They will come out against you one way, and will flee before you seven ways. <sup>28:8</sup>The LORD will command the blessing on you in your barns, and in all that you put your hand to; and he will bless you in the land which the LORD your God gives you. <sup>28:9</sup>The LORD will establish you for a holy people to himself, as he has sworn to you; if you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, and walk in his ways. <sup>28:10</sup>All the peoples of the earth shall see that you are called by the name of the LORD; and they shall be afraid of you. <sup>28:11</sup>The LORD will make you plenteous for good, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers to give you. <sup>28:12</sup>The LORD will open to you his good treasure in the sky, to give the rain of your land in its season, and to bless all the work of your hand: and you shall lend to many nations, and you shall not borrow. <sup>28:13</sup>The LORD will make you the head, and not the tail; and you shall be above only, and you shall not be beneath; if you shall listen to the commandments of the LORD your God, which I command you this day, to observe and to do, <sup>28:14</sup>and shall not turn aside from any of the words which I command you this day, to the right hand, or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them. <sup>28:15</sup>But it shall come to pass, if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command you this day, that all these curses shall come on you, and overtake you. <sup>28:16</sup>You shall be cursed in the city, and you shall be cursed in the field. <sup>28:17</sup>Your basket and your kneading trough shall be cursed. <sup>28:18</sup>The fruit of your body, the fruit of your ground, the increase of your livestock, and the young of your flock shall be cursed. <sup>28:19</sup>You shall be cursed when you come in, and you shall be cursed when you go out. <sup>28:20</sup>The LORD will send on you cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all that you put your hand to do, until you are destroyed, and until you perish quickly; because of the evil of your doings, by which you have forsaken me. <sup>28:21</sup>The LORD will make the pestilence cling to you, until he has consumed you from off the land, where you go in to possess it. <sup>28:22</sup>The LORD will strike you with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with fiery heat, and with the sword, and with blight, and with mildew; and they shall pursue you until you perish. <sup>28:23</sup>Your sky that is over your head shall be brass, and the earth that is under you shall be iron. <sup>28:24</sup>The LORD will make the rain of your land powder and dust: from the sky shall it come down on you, until you are destroyed. <sup>28:25</sup>The LORD will cause you to be struck before your enemies; you shall go out one way against them, and shall flee seven ways before them: and you shall be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>28:26</sup>Your dead body shall be food to all birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth; and there shall be none to frighten them away. <sup>28:27</sup>The LORD will strike you with the boil of Egypt, and with the tumors, and with the scurvy, and with the itch, of which you can not be healed. <sup>28:28</sup>The LORD will strike you with madness, and with blindness, and with astonishment of heart; <sup>28:29</sup>and you shall grope at noonday, as the blind gropes in darkness, and you shall not prosper in your ways: and you shall be only oppressed and robbed always, and there shall be none to save you. <sup>28:30</sup>You shall betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her: you shall build a house, and you shall not dwell therein: you shall plant a vineyard, and shall not use its fruit. <sup>28:31</sup>Your ox shall be slain before your eyes, and you shall not eat of it: your donkey shall be violently taken away from before your face, and shall not be restored to you: your sheep shall be given to your enemies, and you shall have none to save you. <sup>28:32</sup>Your sons and your daughters shall be given to another people; and your eyes shall look, and fail with longing for them all the day: and there shall be nothing in the power of your hand. <sup>28:33</sup>The fruit of your ground, and all your labors, shall a nation which you don't know eat up; and you shall be only oppressed and crushed always; <sup>28:34</sup>so that you shall be mad for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. <sup>28:35</sup>The LORD will strike you in the knees, and in the legs, with a sore boil, of which you can not be healed, from the sole of your foot to the crown of your head. <sup>28:36</sup>The LORD will bring you, and your king whom you shall set over you, to a nation that you have not known, you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods, wood and stone. <sup>28:37</sup>You shall become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples where the LORD shall lead you away. <sup>28:38</sup>You shall carry much seed out into the field, and shall gather little in; for the locust shall consume it. <sup>28:39</sup>You shall plant vineyards and dress them, but you shall neither drink of the wine, nor harvest; for the worm shall eat them. <sup>28:40</sup>You shall have olive trees throughout all your borders, but you shall not anoint yourself with the oil; for your olives shall drop off. <sup>28:41</sup>You shall father sons and daughters, but they shall not be yours; for they shall go into captivity. <sup>28:42</sup>All your trees and the fruit of your ground shall the locust possess. <sup>28:43</sup>The foreigner who is in the midst of you shall mount up above you higher and higher; and you shall come down lower and lower. <sup>28:44</sup>He shall lend to you, and you shall not lend to him: he shall be the head, and you shall be the tail. <sup>28:45</sup>All these curses shall come on you, and shall pursue you, and overtake you, until you are destroyed; because you didn't listen to the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which he commanded you: <sup>28:46</sup>and they shall be on you for a sign and for a wonder, and on your seed forever. <sup>28:47</sup>Because you didn't serve the LORD your God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, by reason of the abundance of all things; <sup>28:48</sup>therefore you shall serve your enemies whom the LORD shall send against you, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of all things: and he shall put a yoke of iron on your neck, until he has destroyed you. <sup>28:49</sup>The LORD will bring a nation against you from far, from the end of the earth, as the eagle flies; a nation whose language you shall not understand; <sup>28:50</sup>a nation of fierce facial expressions, that shall not respect the person of the old, nor show favor to the young, <sup>28:51</sup>and shall eat the fruit of your livestock, and the fruit of your ground, until you are destroyed; that also shall not leave you grain, new wine, or oil, the increase of your livestock, or the young of your flock, until they have caused you to perish. <sup>28:52</sup>They shall besiege you in all your gates, until your high and fortified walls come down, in which you trusted, throughout all your land; and they shall besiege you in all your gates throughout all your land, which the LORD your God has given you. <sup>28:53</sup>You shall eat the fruit of your own body, the flesh of your sons and of your daughters, whom the LORD your God has given you, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemies shall distress you. <sup>28:54</sup>The man who is tender among you, and very delicate, his eye shall be evil toward his brother, and toward the wife of his bosom, and toward the remnant of his children whom he has remaining; <sup>28:55</sup>so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children whom he shall eat, because he has nothing left him, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in all your gates. <sup>28:56</sup>The tender and delicate woman among you, who would not adventure to set the sole of her foot on the ground for delicateness and tenderness, her eye shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and toward her son, and toward her daughter, <sup>28:57</sup>and toward her young one who comes out from between her feet, and toward her children whom she shall bear; for she shall eat them for want of all things secretly, in the siege and in the distress with which your enemy shall distress you in your gates. <sup>28:58</sup>If you will not observe to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, that you may fear this glorious and fearful name, THE LORD YOUR GOD; <sup>28:59</sup>then the LORD will make your plagues wonderful, and the plagues of your seed, even great plagues, and of long continuance, and severe sicknesses, and of long continuance. <sup>28:60</sup>He will bring on you again all the diseases of Egypt, which you were afraid of; and they shall cling to you. <sup>28:61</sup>Also every sickness, and every plague, which is not written in the book of this law, the LORD will bring them on you, until you are destroyed. <sup>28:62</sup>You shall be left few in number, whereas you were as the stars of the sky for multitude; because you didn't listen to the voice of the LORD your God. <sup>28:63</sup>It shall happen that as the LORD rejoiced over you to do you good, and to multiply you, so the LORD will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and you shall be plucked from off the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>28:64</sup>The LORD will scatter you among all peoples, from the one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth; and there you shall serve other gods, which you have not known, you nor your fathers, even wood and stone. <sup>28:65</sup>Among these nations you shall find no ease, and there shall be no rest for the sole of your foot: but the LORD will give you there a trembling heart, and failing of eyes, and pining of soul; <sup>28:66</sup>and your life shall hang in doubt before you; and you shall fear night and day, and shall have no assurance of your life. <sup>28:67</sup>In the morning you shall say, "I wish it were evening!" and at evening you shall say, "I wish it were morning!" for the fear of your heart which you shall fear, and for the sight of your eyes which you shall see. <sup>28:68</sup>The LORD will bring you into Egypt again with ships, by the way of which I said to you, You shall see it no more again: and there you shall sell yourselves to your enemies for bondservants and for bondmaids, and no man shall buy you.

<sup>29:1</sup>These are the words of the covenant which the LORD commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant which he made with them in Horeb. <sup>29:2</sup>Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, You have seen all that the LORD did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land; <sup>29:3</sup>the great trials which your eyes saw, the signs, and those great wonders: <sup>29:4</sup>but the LORD has not given you a heart to know, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, to this day. <sup>29:5</sup>I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes have not grown old on you, and your shoes have not grown old on your feet. <sup>29:6</sup>You have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine or strong drink; that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>29:7</sup>When you came to this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us to battle, and we struck them: <sup>29:8</sup>and we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half-tribe of the Manassites. <sup>29:9</sup>Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that you may prosper in all that you do. <sup>29:10</sup>You stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your heads, your tribes, your elders, and your officers, even all the men of Israel, <sup>29:11</sup>your little ones, your wives, and your foreigner who is in the midst of your camps, from the one who cuts your wood to the one who draws your water; <sup>29:12</sup>that you may enter into the covenant of the LORD your God, and into his oath, which the LORD your God makes with you this day; <sup>29:13</sup>that he may establish you this day to himself for a people, and that he may be to you a God, as he spoke to you, and as he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob. <sup>29:14</sup>Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath, <sup>29:15</sup>but with him who stands here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him who is not here with us this day <sup>29:16</sup>(for you know how we lived in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the midst of the nations through which you passed; <sup>29:17</sup>and you have seen their abominations, and their idols, wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them); <sup>29:18</sup>lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turns away this day from the LORD our God, to go to serve the gods of those nations; lest there should be among you a root that bears gall and wormwood; <sup>29:19</sup>and it happen, when he hears the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, "I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to destroy the moist with the dry." <sup>29:20</sup>The LORD will not pardon him, but then the anger of the LORD and his jealousy will smoke against that man, and all the curse that is written in this book shall lie on him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under the sky. <sup>29:21</sup>The LORD will set him apart to evil out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in this scroll of the Torah.

<sup>29:22</sup>The generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner who shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses with which the LORD has made it sick; <sup>29:23</sup>and that the whole land of it is sulfur, salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor bears, nor any grass grows therein, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in his anger, and in his wrath: <sup>29:24</sup>even all the nations shall say, "Why has the LORD done thus to this land? What does the heat of this great anger mean?"

he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, <sup>29:26</sup>and went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods that they didn't know, and that he had not given to them: <sup>29:27</sup>therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against this land, to bring on it all the curse that is written in this book; <sup>29:28</sup>and the LORD rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as at this day."

<sup>29:29</sup>The secret things belong to the LORD our God; but the things that are revealed belong to us and to our children forever, that we may do all the words of this law.

<sup>30:1</sup>It shall happen, when all these things have come on you, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before you, and you shall call them to mind among all the nations, where the LORD your God has driven you, <sup>30:2</sup>and shall return to the LORD your God, and shall obey his voice according to all that I command you this day, you and your children, with all your heart, and with all your soul; <sup>30:3</sup>that then the LORD your God will turn your captivity, and have compassion on you, and will return and gather you from all the peoples, where the LORD your God has scattered you. <sup>30:4</sup>If your outcasts are in the uttermost parts of the heavens, from there will the LORD your God gather you, and from there he will bring you back: <sup>30:5</sup>and the LORD your God will bring you into the land which your fathers possessed, and you shall possess it; and he will do you good, and multiply you above your fathers. <sup>30:6</sup>The LORD your God will circumcise your heart, and the heart of your seed, to love the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, that you may live. <sup>30:7</sup>The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies, and on those who hate you, who persecuted you. <sup>30:8</sup>You shall return and obey the voice of the LORD, and do all his commandments which I command you this day. <sup>30:9</sup>The LORD your God will make you plenteous in all the work of your hand, in the fruit of your body, and in the fruit of your livestock, and in the fruit of your ground, for good: for the LORD will again rejoice over you for good, as he rejoiced over your fathers; <sup>30:10</sup>if you shall obey the voice of the LORD your God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this scroll of the Torah; if you turn to the LORD your God with all your heart, and with all your soul.

<sup>30:11</sup>For this commandment which I command you this day, it is not too hard for you, neither is it far off. <sup>30:12</sup>It is not in heaven, that you should say, "Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?" <sup>30:13</sup>Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, "Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, and make us to hear it, that we may do it?" <sup>30:14</sup>But the word is very near to you, in your mouth, and in your heart, that you may do it. <sup>30:15</sup>Behold, I have set before you this day life and good, and death and evil; <sup>30:16</sup>in that I command you this day to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, that you may live and multiply, and that the LORD your God may bless you in the land where you go in to possess it. <sup>30:17</sup>But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but shall be drawn away, and worship other gods, and serve them; <sup>30:18</sup>I denounce to you this day, that you shall surely perish; you shall not prolong your days in the land, where you pass over the Jordan to go in to possess it. <sup>30:19</sup>I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that I have set before you life and death, the blessing and the curse: therefore choose life, that you may live, you and your seed; <sup>30:20</sup>to love the LORD your God, to obey his voice, and to cling to him; for he is your life, and the length of your days; that you may dwell in the land which the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

<sup>31:1</sup>Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel. <sup>31:2</sup>He said to them, "I am one hundred twenty years old this day; I can no more go out and come in: and the LORD has said to me, 'You shall not go over this Jordan.' <sup>31:3</sup>The LORD your God, he will go over before you; he will destroy these nations from before you, and you shall dispossess them. Joshua shall go over before you, as the LORD has spoken. <sup>31:4</sup>The LORD will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land; whom he destroyed. <sup>31:5</sup>The LORD will deliver them up before you, and you shall do to them according to all the commandment which I have commanded you. <sup>31:6</sup>Be strong and courageous, don't be afraid, nor be scared of them: for the LORD your God, he it is who does go with you; he will not fail you, nor forsake you."

<sup>31:7</sup>Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, "Be strong and courageous: for you shall go with this people into the land which the LORD has sworn to their fathers to give them; and you shall cause them to inherit it. <sup>31:8</sup>The LORD, he it is who does go before you; he will be with you, he will not fail you, neither forsake you: don't be afraid, neither be dismayed."

<sup>31:9</sup>Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel. <sup>31:10</sup>Moses commanded them, saying, "At the end of every seven years, in the set time of the year of release, in the feast of booths, <sup>31:11</sup>when all Israel has come to appear before the LORD your God in the place which he shall choose, you shall read this law before all Israel in their hearing. <sup>31:12</sup>Assemble the people, the men and the women and the little ones, and your foreigner who is within your gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear the LORD your God, and observe to do all the words of this law; <sup>31:13</sup>and that their children, who have not known, may hear, and learn to fear the LORD your God, as long as you live in the land where you go over the Jordan to possess it."

<sup>31:14</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, your days approach that you must die: call Joshua, and present yourselves in the Tent of Meeting, that I may commission him." Moses and Joshua went, and presented themselves in the Tent of Meeting.

<sup>31:15</sup>The LORD appeared in the Tent in a pillar of cloud: and the pillar of cloud stood over the door of the Tent. <sup>31:16</sup>The LORD said to Moses, "Behold, you shall sleep with your fathers; and this people will rise up, and play the prostitute after the strange gods of the land, where they go to be among them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them. <sup>31:17</sup>Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall come on them; so that they will say in that day, 'Haven't these evils come on us because our God is not among us?'

<sup>31:18</sup>I will surely hide my face in that day for all the evil which they shall have worked, in that they are turned to other gods.

<sup>31:19</sup>"Now therefore write this song for yourselves, and teach it to the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel. <sup>31:20</sup>For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore to their fathers, flowing with milk and honey, and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and grown fat; then will they turn to other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my covenant. <sup>31:21</sup>It shall happen, when many evils and troubles have come on them, that this song shall testify before them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed: for I know their imagination which they frame this day, before I have brought them into the land which I swore." <sup>31:22</sup>So Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

<sup>31:23</sup>He commissioned Joshua the son of Nun, and said, "Be strong and courageous; for you shall bring the children of Israel into the land which I swore to them: and I will be with you."

<sup>31:24</sup>It happened, when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished, <sup>31:25</sup>that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, saying, <sup>31:26</sup>"Take this scroll of the Torah, and put it by the side of the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, that it may be there for a witness against you. <sup>31:27</sup>For I know your rebellion, and your stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, you have been rebellious against the LORD; and how much more after my death? <sup>31:28</sup>Assemble to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to witness against them. <sup>31:29</sup>For I know that after my death you will utterly corrupt yourselves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and evil will happen to you in the latter days; because you will do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands."

<sup>31:30</sup>Moses spoke in the ears of all the assembly of Israel the words of this song, until they were finished.

<sup>32:1</sup>Give ear, you heavens, and I will speak.
Let the earth hear the words of my mouth.

<sup>32:2</sup>My doctrine shall drop as the rain.
My speech shall condense as the dew,
as the small rain on the tender grass, as the showers on the herb.

<sup>32:3</sup>For I will proclaim the name of the LORD.
Ascribe greatness to our God!

for all his ways are justice:
a God of faithfulness and without iniquity, just and right is he.

<sup>32:5</sup>They have dealt corruptly with him. They are not his children, because of their defect.
They are a perverse and crooked generation.

<sup>32:6</sup>Do you thus requite the LORD, foolish people and unwise?
Isn't he your father who has bought you?
He has made you, and established you.

Consider the years of many generations.
Ask your father, and he will show you;
your elders, and they will tell you.

<sup>32:8</sup>When the Most High gave to the nations their inheritance,
when he separated the children of men,
he set the bounds of the peoples according to the number of the children of Israel.

Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

<sup>32:10</sup>He found him in a desert land, in the waste howling wilderness.

He surrounded him.
He cared for him.

He kept him as the apple of his eye.

<sup>32:11</sup>As an eagle that stirs up her nest, that flutters over her young,
he spread abroad his wings, he took them,
he bore them on his feathers.

<sup>32:12</sup>The LORD alone led him.
There was no foreign god with him.

<sup>32:13</sup>He made him ride on the high places of the earth.

He ate the increase of the field.
He caused him to suck honey out of the rock,

oil out of the flinty rock;

<sup>32:14</sup>Butter of the herd, and milk of the flock, with fat of lambs,
rams of the breed of Bashan, and goats,
with the finest of the wheat.
Of the blood of the grape you drank wine.

<sup>32:15</sup>But Jeshurun grew fat, and kicked.
You have grown fat.
You have grown thick.
You have become sleek.

Then he forsook God who made him, and lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.

<sup>32:16</sup>They moved him to jealousy with strange gods.
They provoked him to anger with abominations.

<sup>32:17</sup>They sacrificed to demons, not God, to gods that they didn't know,
to new gods that came up recently,
which your fathers didn't dread.

<sup>32:18</sup>Of the Rock who became your father, you are unmindful, and have forgotten God who gave you birth.

<sup>32:19</sup>The LORD saw and abhorred, because of the provocation of his sons and his daughters.

<sup>32:20</sup>He said, "I will hide my face from them.
I will see what their end shall be;
for they are a very perverse generation, children in whom is no faithfulness.

<sup>32:21</sup>They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God.
They have provoked me to anger with their vanities.

I will move them to jealousy with those who are not a people.
I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

Burns to the lowest Sheol<sup>e</sup>, Devours the earth with its increase, and sets the foundations of the mountains on fire.

<sup>32:23</sup>"I will heap evils on them.

I will spend my arrows on them.

<sup>32:24</sup>They shall be wasted with hunger, and devoured with burning heat and bitter destruction.

I will send the teeth of animals on them,

With the poison of crawling things of the dust.
<sup>32:25</sup>Outside the sword shall bereave, and in the rooms, terror;
 on both young man and virgin,
 The nursing infant with the gray-haired man.
<sup>32:26</sup>I said, I would scatter them afar.
 I would make their memory to cease from among men;
<sup>32:27</sup>were it not that I feared the provocation of the enemy, lest their adversaries should judge wrongly, lest they should say, 'Our hand is exalted,
 The LORD has not done all this.'
<sup>32:28</sup>For they are a nation void of counsel.
 There is no understanding in them.
<sup>32:29</sup>Oh that they were wise, that they understood this,
 that they would consider their latter end!
<sup>32:30</sup>How could one chase a thousand,
 and two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, and the LORD had delivered them up?
<sup>32:31</sup>For their rock is not as our Rock, even our enemies themselves being judges.
<sup>32:32</sup>For their vine is of the vine of Sodom, of the fields of Gomorrah.
 Their grapes are grapes of gall,
 Their clusters are bitter.
<sup>32:33</sup>Their wine is the poison of serpents,
 The cruel venom of asps.
<sup>32:34</sup>'Isn't this laid up in store with me, sealed up among my treasures?
<sup>32:35</sup>Vengeance is mine, and recompense, at the time when their foot slides;
 for the day of their calamity is at hand.
 The things that are to come on them shall make haste."
<sup>32:36</sup>For the LORD will judge his people, and have compassion on his servants,
 when he sees that their power is gone,
 There is none remaining, shut up or left at large.
<sup>32:37</sup>He will say, "Where are their gods,
 The rock in which they took refuge;
<sup>32:38</sup>Which ate the fat of their sacrifices,
 And drank the wine of their drink offering?
 Let them rise up and help you!

Let them be your protection.
<sup>32:39</sup>"See now that I, even I, am he,
 There is no god with me.
 I kill, and I make alive.
 I wound, and I heal.
 There is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
<sup>32:40</sup>For I lift up my hand to heaven,
 And say, As I live forever,
<sup>32:41</sup>if I whet my glittering sword,
 My hand take hold on judgment;
 I will render vengeance to my adversaries, and will recompense those who hate me.
<sup>32:42</sup>I will make my arrows drunk with blood.
 My sword shall devour flesh with the blood of the slain and the captives, from the head of the leaders of the enemy."
<sup>32:43</sup>Rejoice, you nations, with his people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants.
 He will render vengeance to his adversaries,
 And will make expiation for his land, for his people.
<sup>32:44</sup>Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Joshua the son of Nun. <sup>32:45</sup>Moses made an end of speaking all these words to all Israel; <sup>32:46</sup>He said to them, "Set your heart to all the words which I testify to you this day, which you shall command your children to observe to do, all the words of this law. <sup>32:47</sup>For it is no vain thing for you; because it is your life, and through this thing you shall prolong your days in the land, where you go over the Jordan to possess it."
<sup>32:48</sup>The LORD spoke to Moses that same day, saying, <sup>32:49</sup>"Go up into this mountain of Abarim, to Mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, that is over against Jericho; and see the land of Canaan, which I give to the children of Israel for a possession; <sup>32:50</sup>and die on the mountain where you go up, and be gathered to your people, as Aaron your brother died on Mount Hor, and was gathered to his people: <sup>32:51</sup>because you trespassed against me in the midst of the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah of Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because you didn't sanctify me in the midst of the children of Israel. <sup>32:52</sup>For you shall see the land before you; but you shall not go there into the land which I give the children of Israel."

 "The LORD came from Sinai,
 And rose from Seir to them.
 He shone forth from Mount Paran.
 He came from the ten thousands of holy ones.
 At his right hand was a fiery law for them.
<sup>33:3</sup>Yes, he loves the people.
 All his holy ones are in your hand.
 They sat down at your feet;
 each receives your words.
<sup>33:4</sup>Moses commanded us a law,
 An inheritance for the assembly of Jacob.
<sup>33:5</sup>He was king in Jeshurun,
 When the heads of the people were gathered,
 All the tribes of Israel together.
<sup>33:6</sup>"Let Reuben live, and not die;
 Nor let his men be few."
<sup>33:7</sup>This is for Judah. He said,
 "Hear, LORD, the voice of Judah.
 Bring him in to his people.
 With his hands he contended for himself.
 You shall be a help against his adversaries."
<sup>33:8</sup>Of Levi he said,
 "Your Thummim and your Urim are with your godly one,
 whom you proved at Massah, with whom you strove at the waters of Meribah;
<sup>33:9</sup>who said of his father, and of his mother, 'I have not seen him';
 Neither did he acknowledge his brothers,
 Nor did he know his own children:
 For they have observed your word,
 and keep your covenant.
<sup>33:10</sup>They shall teach Jacob your ordinances, and Israel your law.
 They shall put incense before you,
 and whole burnt offering on your altar.
<sup>33:11</sup>LORD, bless his substance.
 Accept the work of his hands.
 Strike through the hips of those who rise up against him,
 of those who hate him, that they not rise again."

"The beloved of the LORD shall dwell in safety by him.
 He covers him all the day long.
 He dwells between his shoulders."
<sup>33:13</sup>Of Joseph he said,
 "His land is blessed by the LORD, for the precious things of the heavens, for the dew,
 for the deep that couches beneath, <sup>33:14</sup>for the precious things of the fruits of the sun, for the precious things of the growth of the moons, <sup>33:15</sup>for the chief things of the ancient mountains, for the precious things of the everlasting hills, <sup>33:16</sup>for the precious things of the earth and its fullness, the good will of him who lived in the bush<sup>f</sup>.
 Let this come on the head of Joseph, on the crown of the head of him who was separate from his brothers.
<sup>33:17</sup>The firstborn of his herd, majesty is his.
 His horns are the horns of the wild ox.
 With them he shall push all of the peoples, to the ends of the earth:
 They are the ten thousands of Ephraim.
 They are the thousands of Manasseh."
<sup>33:18</sup>Of Zebulun he said,
 "Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out;
 and Issachar, in your tents.
<sup>33:19</sup>They shall call the peoples to the mountain.
 There they will offer sacrifices of righteousness, for they shall draw out the abundance of the seas,
 the hidden treasures of the sand."
<sup>33:20</sup>Of Gad he said,
 "He who enlarges Gad is blessed.
 He dwells as a lioness, and tears the arm, yes, the crown of the head.
<sup>33:21</sup>He provided the first part for himself, for there was the lawgiver's portion reserved.
 He came with the heads of the people.
 He executed the righteousness of the LORD,
 His ordinances with Israel."

<sup>33:22</sup>Of Dan he said,
 "Dan is a lion's cub that leaps out of Bashan."
<sup>33:23</sup>Of Naphtali he said,
 "Naphtali, satisfied with favor,
 full of the blessing of the LORD, Possess the west and the south."
<sup>33:24</sup>Of Asher he said,
 "Asher is blessed with children.
 Let him be acceptable to his brothers.
 Let him dip his foot in oil."
<sup>33:25</sup>Your bars shall be iron and brass.
 As your days, so your strength will be.
<sup>33:26</sup>"There is none like God, Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens for your help,
 In his excellency on the skies."
<sup>33:27</sup>The eternal God is your dwelling place.
 Underneath are the everlasting arms.
 He thrust out the enemy from before you,
 and said, 'Destroy!'
<sup>33:28</sup>Israel dwells in safety;
 the fountain of Jacob alone,
 In a land of grain and new wine.
 Yes, his heavens drop down dew.
 Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD,
 the shield of your help,
 the sword of your excellency!
 Your enemies shall submit themselves to you.
 You shall tread on their high places."

 to Mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho. The LORD showed him all the land of Gilead, to Dan, <sup>34:2</sup>and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, to the hinder sea, <sup>34:3</sup>and the South, and the Plain of the valley of Jericho the city of palm trees, to Zoar. <sup>34:4</sup>The LORD said to him, "This is the land which I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your seed.' I have caused you to see it with your eyes, but you shall not go over there."

<sup>34:5</sup>So Moses the servant of the LORD died there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>34:6</sup>He buried him in the valley in the land of Moab over against Beth Peor: but no man knows of his tomb to this day. <sup>34:7</sup>Moses was one hundred twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated. <sup>34:8</sup>The children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: so the days of weeping in the mourning for Moses were ended. <sup>34:9</sup>Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands on him: and the children of Israel listened to him, and did as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>34:10</sup>There has not arisen a prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face, <sup>34:11</sup>in all the signs and the wonders, which the LORD sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land, <sup>34:12</sup>and in all the mighty hand, and in all the great terror, which Moses worked in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

<sup>1:1</sup>Now it happened after the death of Moses the servant of the LORD,<sup>a</sup> that the LORD spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' servant, saying, <sup>1:2</sup>"Moses my servant is dead; now therefore arise, go over this Jordan, you, and all this people, to the land which I give to them, even to the children of Israel. <sup>1:3</sup>I have given you every place that the sole of your foot will tread on, as I told Moses. <sup>1:4</sup>From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even to the great river, the river Euphrates, all the land of the Hittites, and to the great sea toward the going down of the sun, shall be your border. <sup>1:5</sup>No man will be able to stand before you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you. I will not fail you nor forsake you.

<sup>1:6</sup>"Be strong and courageous; for you shall cause this people to inherit the land which I swore to their fathers to give them. <sup>1:7</sup>Only be strong and very courageous, to observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded you. Don't turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. <sup>1:8</sup>This scroll of the Torah shall not depart out of your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then you shall make your way prosperous, and then you shall have good success. <sup>1:9</sup>Haven't I commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed: for the LORD your God<sup>b</sup> is with you wherever you go."

Jordan; but you shall pass over before your brothers armed, all the mighty men of valor, and shall help them <sup>1:15</sup>until the LORD has given your brothers rest, as he has given you, and they have also possessed the land which the LORD your God gives them. Then you shall return to the land of your possession, and possess it, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan toward the sunrise."

<sup>1:16</sup>They answered Joshua, saying, "All that you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go. <sup>1:17</sup>Just as we listened to Moses in all things, so will we listen to you. Only may the LORD your God be with you, as he was with Moses. <sup>1:18</sup>Whoever rebels against your commandment, and doesn't listen to your words in all that you command him, he shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous."

<sup>2:1</sup>Joshua the son of Nun secretly sent two men out of Shittim as spies, saying, "Go, view the land, including Jericho." They went and came into the house of a prostitute whose name was Rahab, and slept there.

<sup>2:3</sup>The king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, "Bring out the men who have come to you, who have entered into your house; for they have come to spy out all the land."

<sup>2:4</sup>The woman took the two men and hid them. Then she said, "Yes, the men came to me, but I didn't know where they came from.

<sup>2:5</sup>It happened about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out. Where the men went, I don't know. Pursue them quickly; for you will overtake them." <sup>2:6</sup>But she had brought them up to the roof, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order on the roof. <sup>2:7</sup>The men pursued them the way to the Jordan to the fords: and as soon as those who pursued them had gone out, they shut the gate. <sup>2:8</sup>Before they had laid down, she came up to them on the roof; <sup>2:9</sup>and she said to the men, "I know that the LORD has given you the land, and that the fear of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land melt away before you. <sup>2:10</sup>For we have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Sea of Suf before you, when you came out of Egypt; and what you did to the two kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom you utterly destroyed. <sup>2:11</sup>As soon as we had heard it, our hearts melted, neither did there remain any more spirit in any man, because of you: for the LORD your God, he is God in heaven above, and on earth beneath. <sup>2:12</sup>Now therefore, please swear to me by the LORD, since I have dealt kindly with you, that you also will deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a true token; <sup>2:13</sup>and that you will save alive my father, my mother, my brothers, and my sisters, and all that they have, and will deliver our lives from death."

<sup>2:14</sup>The men said to her, "Our life for yours, if you don't talk about this business of ours; and it shall be, when the LORD gives us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with you."

<sup>2:15</sup>Then she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was on the side of the wall, and she lived on the wall. <sup>2:16</sup>She said to them, "Go to the mountain, lest the pursuers find you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned. Afterward, you may go your way."

<sup>2:17</sup>The men said to her, "We will be guiltless of this your oath which you have made us to swear. <sup>2:18</sup>Behold, when we come into the land, you shall bind this line of scarlet thread in the window which you used to let us down. You shall gather to yourself into the house your father, your mother, your brothers, and all your father's household. <sup>2:19</sup>It shall be that whoever goes out of the doors of your house into the street, his blood will be on his head, and we will be guiltless. Whoever is with you in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand is on him. <sup>2:20</sup>But if you talk about this business of ours, then we shall be guiltless of your oath which you have made us to swear."

<sup>2:21</sup>She said, "According to your words, so be it." She sent them away, and they departed. She tied the scarlet line in the window.

<sup>2:22</sup>They went, and came to the mountain, and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had returned. The pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but didn't find them.

<sup>2:23</sup>Then the two men returned, descended from the mountain, passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun; and they told him all that had happened to them. <sup>2:24</sup>They said to Joshua, "Truly the LORD has delivered into our hands all the land. Moreover, all the inhabitants of the land melt away before us."

<sup>3:7</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I will begin to magnify you in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with Moses, so I will be with you. <sup>3:8</sup>You shall command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, 'When you come to the brink of the waters of the Jordan, you shall stand still in the Jordan.'"

<sup>3:9</sup>Joshua said to the children of Israel, "Come here, and hear the words of the LORD your God." <sup>3:10</sup>Joshua said, "Hereby you shall know that the living God is among you, and that he will without fail drive the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Hivite, and the Perizzite, and the Girgashite, and the Amorite, and the Jebusite out from before you. <sup>3:11</sup>Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord<sup>c</sup> of all the earth passes over before you into the Jordan. <sup>3:12</sup>Now therefore take twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, for every tribe a man. <sup>3:13</sup>It shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of the LORD, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, that the waters of the Jordan will be cut off, even the waters that come down from above; and they shall stand in one heap."

<sup>3:14</sup>It happened, when the people moved from their tents to pass over the Jordan, the priests who bore the ark of the covenant being before the people, <sup>3:15</sup>and when those who bore the ark had come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark had dipped in the edge of the water (for the Jordan overflows all its banks all the time of harvest), <sup>3:16</sup>that the waters which came down from above stood, and rose up in one heap, a great way off, at Adam, the city that is beside Zarethan; and those that went down toward the sea of the Arabah, even the Salt Sea, were wholly cut off. Then the people passed over right against Jericho. <sup>3:17</sup>The priests who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan; and all Israel passed over on dry ground, until all the nation had passed completely over the Jordan.

<sup>4:4</sup>Then Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of every tribe a man. <sup>4:5</sup>Joshua said to them, "Pass over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan, and each of you pick up a stone and put it on your shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; <sup>4:6</sup>that this may be a sign among you, that when your children ask in time to come, saying, 'What do you mean by these stones?' <sup>4:7</sup>then you shall tell them, 'Because the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it passed over the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones shall be for a memorial to the children of Israel forever.'"

middle of the Jordan, as the LORD spoke to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the place where they lodged, and laid them down there. <sup>4:9</sup>Joshua set up twelve stones in the middle of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant stood; and they are there to this day. <sup>4:10</sup>For the priests who bore the ark stood in the middle of the Jordan, until everything was finished that the LORD commanded Joshua to speak to the people, according to all that Moses commanded Joshua; and the people hurried and passed over. <sup>4:11</sup>It happened, when all the people had completely passed over, that the ark of the LORD passed over, with the priests, in the presence of the people.

over, as the LORD your God did to the Sea of Suf, which he dried up from before us, until we had passed over; <sup>4:24</sup>that all the peoples of the earth may know the hand of the LORD, that it is mighty; that you may fear the LORD your God forever.”

<sup>5:1</sup>It happened, when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard how that the LORD had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until we had passed over, that their heart melted, neither was there spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel. <sup>5:2</sup>At that time, the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives, and circumcise again the children of Israel the second time.” <sup>5:3</sup>Joshua made himself flint knives, and circumcised the children of Israel at the hill of the foreskins. <sup>5:4</sup>This is the reason Joshua circumcised: all the people who came out of Egypt, who were males, even all the men of war, died in the wilderness by the way, after they came out of Egypt. <sup>5:5</sup>For all the people who came out were circumcised; but all the people who were born in the wilderness by the way as they came out of Egypt had not been circumcised. <sup>5:6</sup>For the children of Israel walked forty years in the wilderness, until all the nation, even the men of war who came out of Egypt, were consumed, because they didn’t listen to the voice of the LORD. The LORD swore to them that he wouldn’t let them see the land which the LORD swore to their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and honey. <sup>5:7</sup>Their children, whom he raised up in their place, were circumcised by Joshua; for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way. <sup>5:8</sup>It happened, when they were done circumcising all the nation, that they stayed in their places in the camp until they were healed.

<sup>5:9</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you.” Therefore the name of that place was called Gilgal,<sup>d</sup> to this day. <sup>5:10</sup>The children of Israel encamped in Gilgal. They kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the month at evening in the plains of Jericho. <sup>5:11</sup>They ate unleavened cakes and parched grain of the produce of the land on the next day after the Passover, in the same day. <sup>5:12</sup>The manna ceased on the next day, after they had eaten of the produce of the land. The children of Israel didn’t have manna any more; but they ate of the fruit of the land of Canaan that year.

<sup>5:13</sup>It happened, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man stood in front of him with his sword drawn in his hand. Joshua went to him, and said to him, “Are you for us, or for our adversaries?”

<sup>5:14</sup>He said, “No; but I have come now as commander of the LORD’s army.”

Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and worshipped, and said to him, “What does my lord say to his servant?”

<sup>5:15</sup>The prince of the LORD’s army said to Joshua, “Take your shoes off of your feet; for the place on which you stand is holy.” Joshua did so.

around the city, and let the armed men pass on before the LORD's ark."

make the camp of Israel accursed, and trouble it. <sup>6:19</sup>But all the silver, and gold, and vessels of brass and iron, are holy to the LORD. They shall come into the LORD's treasury."

<sup>6:20</sup>So the people shouted, and the priests blew the shofars<sup>q</sup>. It happened, when the people heard the sound of the shofar<sup>r</sup>, that the people shouted with a great shout, and the wall fell down flat, so that the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city. <sup>6:21</sup>They utterly destroyed all that was in the city, both man and woman, both young and old, and ox, and sheep, and donkey, with the edge of the sword. <sup>6:22</sup>Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, "Go into the prostitute's house, and bring out from there the woman and all that she has, as you swore to her." <sup>6:23</sup>The young men who were spies went in, and brought out Rahab with her father, her mother, her brothers, and all that she had. They also brought out all her relatives, and they set them outside of the camp of Israel. <sup>6:24</sup>They burnt the city with fire, and all that was in it. Only they put the silver, the gold, and the vessels of brass and of iron into the treasury of the LORD's house. <sup>6:25</sup>But Rahab the prostitute, her father's household, and all that she had, Joshua saved alive. She lived in the midst of Israel to this day, because she hid the messengers, whom Joshua sent to spy out Jericho.

<sup>6:26</sup>Joshua commanded them with an oath at that time, saying, "Cursed is the man before the LORD, who rises up and builds this city Jericho. With the loss of his firstborn shall he lay its foundation, and with the loss of his youngest son shall he set up its gates." <sup>6:27</sup>So the LORD was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

<sup>7:1</sup>But the children of Israel committed a trespass in the devoted things; for Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of the devoted things. Therefore the LORD's anger burned against the children of Israel. <sup>7:2</sup>Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, "Go up and spy out the land."

The men went up and spied out Ai. <sup>7:3</sup>They returned to Joshua, and said to him, "Don't let all the people go up; but let about two or three thousand men go up and strike Ai. Don't make all the people to toil there, for there are only a few of them." <sup>7:4</sup>So about three thousand men of the people went up there, and they fled before the men of Ai. <sup>7:5</sup>The men of Ai struck about thirty-six men of them, and they chased them from before the gate even to Shebarim, and struck them at the descent. The hearts of the people melted, and became like water. <sup>7:6</sup>Joshua tore his clothes, and fell to the earth on his face before the ark of the LORD until the evening, he and the elders of Israel; and they put dust on their heads. <sup>7:7</sup>Joshua said, "Alas, Lord GOD, why have you brought this people over the Jordan at all, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to cause us to perish? I wish that we had been content and lived beyond the Jordan! <sup>7:8</sup>Oh, Lord, what shall I say, after that Israel has turned their backs before their enemies! <sup>7:9</sup>For the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land will hear of it, and will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. What will you do for your great name?"

<sup>7:10</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Get up! Why are you fallen on your face like that? <sup>7:11</sup>Israel has sinned. Yes, they have even transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. Yes, they have even taken of the devoted things, and have also stolen, and also deceived. They have even put it among their own stuff. <sup>7:12</sup>Therefore the children of Israel can't stand before their enemies. They turn their backs before their enemies, because they have become devoted for destruction. I will not be with you any more, unless you destroy the devoted things from among you.

<sup>7:13</sup>"Get up! Sanctify the people, and say, "Sanctify yourselves for tomorrow, for the LORD, the God of Israel, says, "There is a devoted thing in the midst of you, Israel. You cannot stand before your enemies until you take away the devoted thing from among you."

<sup>7:14</sup>"In the morning therefore you shall be brought near by your tribes. It shall be that the tribe which the LORD selects shall come near by families. The family which the LORD selects shall come near by households. The household which the LORD selects shall come near man by man. <sup>7:15</sup>It shall be, that he who is taken with the devoted thing shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he has, because he has transgressed the covenant of the LORD, and because he has done a disgraceful thing in Israel."

<sup>7:16</sup>So Joshua rose up early in the morning and brought Israel near by their tribes. The tribe of Judah was selected. <sup>7:17</sup>He brought near the family of Judah; and he selected the family of the Zerahites. He brought near the family of the Zerahites man by man, and Zabdi was selected. <sup>7:18</sup>He brought near his household man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was selected. <sup>7:19</sup>Joshua said to Achan, "My son, please give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and make confession to him. Tell me now what you have done! Don't hide it from me!"

<sup>7:22</sup>So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent. Behold, it was hidden in his tent, with the silver under it. <sup>7:23</sup>They took them from the middle of the tent, and brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel. They laid them down before the LORD. <sup>7:24</sup>Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the wedge of gold, his sons, his daughters, his cattle, his donkeys, his sheep, his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up to the valley of Achor. <sup>7:25</sup>Joshua said, "Why have you troubled us? the LORD will trouble you this day." All Israel stoned him with stones, and they burned them with fire and stoned them with stones. <sup>7:26</sup>They raised over him a great heap of stones that remains to this day. The LORD turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called "The valley of Achor" to this day.

<sup>8:3</sup>So Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. Joshua chose thirty thousand men, the mighty men of valor, and sent them out by night. <sup>8:4</sup>He commanded them, saying, "Behold, you shall lie in ambush against the city, behind the city. Don't go very far from the city, but all of you be ready. <sup>8:5</sup>I, and all the people who are with me, will approach to the city. It shall happen, when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will flee before them. <sup>8:6</sup>They will come out after us, until we have drawn them away from the city; for they will say, 'They flee before us, like the first time.' So we will flee before them, <sup>8:7</sup>and you shall rise up from the ambush, and take possession of the city; for the LORD your God will deliver it into your hand. <sup>8:8</sup>It shall be, when you have seized on the city, that you shall set the city on fire. You shall do this according to the word of the LORD. Behold, I have commanded you."

<sup>8:9</sup>Joshua sent them out; and they went to set up the ambush, and stayed between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of Ai; but Joshua stayed among the people that night. <sup>8:10</sup>Joshua rose up early in the morning, mustered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai. <sup>8:11</sup>All the people, even the men of war who were with him, went up, and drew near, and came before the city, and encamped on the north side of Ai. Now there was a valley between him and Ai. <sup>8:12</sup>He took about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west side of the city. <sup>8:13</sup>So they set the people, even all the army who was on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city; and Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley. <sup>8:14</sup>It happened, when the king of Ai saw it, that they hurried and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the time appointed, before the Arabah; but he didn't know that there was an ambush against him behind the city. <sup>8:15</sup>Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the wilderness. <sup>8:16</sup>All the people who were in the city were called together to pursue after them. They pursued Joshua, and were drawn away from the city. <sup>8:17</sup>There was not a man left in Ai or Beth El who didn't go out after Israel. They left the city open, and pursued Israel.

Joshua stretched out the javelin that was in his hand toward the city. <sup>8:19</sup>The ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ran as soon as he had stretched out his hand, and entered into the city, and took it. They hurried and set the city on fire. <sup>8:20</sup>When the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had no power to flee this way or that way. The people who fled to the wilderness turned back on the pursuers. <sup>8:21</sup>When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and killed the men of Ai. <sup>8:22</sup>The others came out of the city against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side. They struck them, so that they let none of them remain or escape. <sup>8:23</sup>They captured the king of Ai alive, and brought him to Joshua.

<sup>8:24</sup>It happened, when Israel had made an end of killing all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness in which they pursued them, and they had all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all Israel returned to Ai, and struck it with the edge of the sword. <sup>8:25</sup>All that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelve thousand, even all the men of Ai. <sup>8:26</sup>For Joshua didn't draw back his hand, with which he stretched out the javelin, until he had utterly destroyed all the inhabitants of Ai. <sup>8:27</sup>Only the livestock and the spoil of that city Israel took for prey to themselves, according to the word of the LORD which he commanded Joshua. <sup>8:28</sup>So Joshua burnt Ai, and made it a heap forever, even a desolation, to this day. <sup>8:29</sup>He hanged the king of Ai on a tree until the evening, and at the sundown Joshua commanded, and they took his body down from the tree, and threw it at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised a great heap of stones on it that remains to this day.

<sup>8:30</sup>Then Joshua built an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel, in Mount Ebal, <sup>8:31</sup>as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moses, an altar of uncut stones, on which no man had lifted up any iron. They offered burnt offerings on it to the LORD, and sacrificed peace offerings. <sup>8:32</sup>He wrote there on the stones a copy of the Torah of Moses, which he wrote in the presence of the children of Israel. <sup>8:33</sup>All Israel, and their elders and officers, and their judges, stood on this side of the ark and on that side before the priests the Levites, who carried the ark of the LORD's covenant, the foreigner as well as the native; half of them in front of Mount Gerizim, and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded at the first, that they should bless the people of Israel. <sup>8:34</sup>Afterward he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the scroll of the Torah. <sup>8:35</sup>There was not a word of all that Moses commanded, which Joshua didn't read before all the assembly of Israel, with the women, the little ones, and the foreigners who were among them.

<sup>9:1</sup>It happened, when all the kings who were beyond the Jordan, in the hill country, and in the lowland, and on all the shore of the great sea in front of Lebanon, the Hittite, the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite, heard of it <sup>9:2</sup>that they gathered themselves together to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord. <sup>9:3</sup>But when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and to Ai, <sup>9:4</sup>they also resorted to a ruse, and went and made as if they had been ambassadors, and took old sacks on their donkeys, and wineskins, old and torn and bound up, <sup>9:5</sup>and old and patched shoes on their feet, and wore old garments. All the bread of their provision was dry and moldy. <sup>9:6</sup>They went to Joshua to the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, "We have come from a far country. Now therefore make a covenant with us."

<sup>9:7</sup>The men of Israel said to the Hivites, "What if you live among us. How could we make a covenant with you?"

Joshua said to them, "Who are you? Where do you come from?"

<sup>9:9</sup>They said to him, "Your servants have come from a very far country because of the name of the LORD your God; for we have heard of his fame, all that he did in Egypt, <sup>9:10</sup>and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites who were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon king of Heshbon and to Og king of Bashan, who was at Ashtaroth. <sup>9:11</sup>Our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, "Take provision in your hand for the journey, and go to meet them, and tell them, "We are your servants. Now make a covenant with us.'" <sup>9:12</sup>This our bread we took hot for our provision out of our houses on the day we went out to go to you; but now, behold, it is dry, and has become moldy. <sup>9:13</sup>These wineskins, which we filled, were new; and behold, they are torn. These our garments and our shoes have become old because of the very long journey."

saying, 'We are very far from you,' when you live among us? <sup>9:23</sup>Now therefore you are cursed, and some of you will never fail to be bondservants, both wood cutters and drawers of water for the house of my God."

<sup>9:24</sup>They answered Joshua, and said, "Because your servants were certainly told how the LORD your God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you. Therefore we were very afraid for our lives because of you, and have done this thing. <sup>9:25</sup>Now, behold, we are in your hand. Do to us as it seems good and right to you to do."

<sup>9:26</sup>He did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, so that they didn't kill them. <sup>9:27</sup>That day Joshua made them wood cutters and drawers of water for the congregation and for the altar of the LORD, to this day, in the place which he should choose.

<sup>10:1</sup>Now it happened when Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it; as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king; and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them; <sup>10:2</sup>that they were very afraid, because Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and because it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty. <sup>10:3</sup>Therefore Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, to Piram king of Jarmuth, to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, saying, <sup>10:4</sup>"Come up to me, and help me, and let us strike Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel." <sup>10:5</sup>Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armies, and encamped against Gibeon, and made war against it. <sup>10:6</sup>The men of Gibeon sent to Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, "Don't abandon your servants! Come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill country have gathered together against us."

<sup>10:7</sup>So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he, and all the people of war with him, and all the mighty men of valor. <sup>10:8</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Don't fear them, for I have delivered them into your hands. Not a man of them will stand before you."

<sup>10:9</sup>Joshua therefore came on them suddenly. He went up from Gilgal all night. <sup>10:10</sup>The LORD confused them before Israel, and he killed them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them by the way of the ascent of Beth Horon, and struck them to Azekah and to Makkedah. <sup>10:11</sup>It happened, as they fled from before Israel, while they were at the descent of Beth Horon, that the LORD cast down great stones from the sky on them to Azekah, and they died. There were more who died from the hailstones than who the children of Israel killed with the sword.

<sup>10:12</sup>Then Joshua spoke to the LORD in the day when the LORD delivered up the Amorites before the children of Israel; and he said in the sight of Israel, "Sun, stand still on Gibeon! You, moon, stop in the valley of Aijalon!"

<sup>10:13</sup>The sun stood still, and the moon stayed, until the nation had avenged themselves of their enemies. Isn't this written in the book of Jashar? The sun stayed in the midst of the sky, and didn't hurry to go down about a whole day. <sup>10:14</sup>There was no day like that before it or after it, that the LORD listened to the voice of a man; for the LORD fought for Israel.

<sup>10:15</sup>Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal. <sup>10:16</sup>These five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at Makkedah. <sup>10:17</sup>Joshua was told, saying, "The five kings are found, hidden in the cave at Makkedah."

<sup>10:18</sup>Joshua said, "Roll large stones to the mouth of the cave, and set men by it to guard them; <sup>10:19</sup>but don't stay. Pursue your enemies, and them from the rear. Don't allow them to enter into their cities; for the LORD your God has delivered them into your hand."

<sup>10:20</sup>It happened, when Joshua and the children of Israel had finished killing them with a very great slaughter until they were consumed, and the remnant which remained of them had entered into the fortified cities, <sup>10:21</sup>that all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace. None moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel. <sup>10:22</sup>Then Joshua said, "Open the mouth of the cave, and bring those five kings out of the cave to me."

<sup>10:23</sup>They did so, and brought those five kings out of the cave to him: the king of

Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Eglon. <sup>10:24</sup>It happened, when they brought those kings out to Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said to the chiefs of the men of war who went with him, "Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings."

They came near, and put their feet on their necks.

<sup>10:25</sup>Joshua said to them, "Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed. Be strong and courageous, for the LORD will do this to all your enemies against whom you fight."

<sup>10:26</sup>Afterward Joshua struck them, put them to death, and hanged them on five trees. They were hanging on the trees until the evening. <sup>10:27</sup>It happened at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave in which they had hidden themselves, and laid great stones on the mouth of the cave, which remain to this very day.

<sup>10:28</sup>Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with its king. He utterly destroyed them and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. He did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>10:29</sup>Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, to Libnah, and fought against Libnah. <sup>10:30</sup>The LORD delivered it also, with its king, into the hand of Israel. He struck it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining in it. He did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

<sup>10:31</sup>Joshua passed from Libnah, and all Israel with him, to Lachish, and encamped against it, and fought against it. <sup>10:32</sup>The LORD delivered Lachish into the hand of Israel. He took it on the second day, and struck it with the edge of the sword, with all the souls who were in it, according to all that he had done to Libnah. <sup>10:33</sup>Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua struck him and his people, until he had left him none remaining.

sword. He utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.

<sup>10:38</sup>Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir, and fought against it. <sup>10:39</sup>He took it, with its king and all its cities. They struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls who were in it. He left none remaining. As he had done to Hebron, so he did to Debir, and to its king; as he had done also to Libnah, and to its king. <sup>10:40</sup>So

Joshua struck all the land, the hill country, and the South, and the lowland, and the slopes, and all their kings. He left none remaining, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded. <sup>10:41</sup>Joshua struck them from Kadesh Barnea even to Gaza, and all the country of Goshen, even to Gibeon. <sup>10:42</sup>Joshua took all these kings and their land at one time, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel. <sup>10:43</sup>Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp to Gilgal.

<sup>11:1</sup>It happened, when Jabin king of Hazor heard of it, that he sent to Jobab king of Madon, to the king of Shimron, to the king of Achshaph, <sup>11:2</sup>and to the kings who were on the north, in the hill country, in the Arabah south of Chinneroth, in the lowland, and in the heights of Dor on the west, <sup>11:3</sup>to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the hill country, and the Hivite under Hermon in the land of Mizpah. <sup>11:4</sup>They went out, they and all their armies with them, many people, even as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots. <sup>11:5</sup>All these kings met together; and they came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight with Israel.

<sup>11:6</sup>The LORD said to Joshua, "Don't be afraid because of them; for tomorrow at this time, I will deliver them up all slain before Israel. You shall hamstring their horses and

<sup>11:7</sup>So Joshua came, and all the people of war with him, against them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell on them. <sup>11:8</sup>The LORD delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they struck them, and chased them to great Sidon, and to Misrephoth Maim, and to the valley of Mizpeh eastward. They struck them until they left them none remaining. <sup>11:9</sup>Joshua did to them as the LORD told him. He hamstringed their horses and burnt their chariots with fire. <sup>11:10</sup>Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and struck its king with the sword: for Hazor used to be the head of all those kingdoms. <sup>11:11</sup>They struck all the souls who were in it with the edge of the sword, utterly destroying them. There was no one left who breathed. He burnt Hazor with fire. <sup>11:12</sup>Joshua captured all the cities of those kings, with their kings, and he struck them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed them; as Moses the servant of the LORD commanded. <sup>11:13</sup>But as for the cities that stood on their mounds, Israel burned none of them, except Hazor only. Joshua burned that. <sup>11:14</sup>The children of Israel took all the spoil of these cities, with the livestock, as spoils for themselves; but every man they struck with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them. They didn't leave any who breathed.

<sup>11:15</sup>As the LORD commanded Moses his servant, so Moses commanded Joshua. Joshua did so. He left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>11:16</sup>So Joshua captured all that land, the hill country, all the South, all the land of Goshen, the lowland, the Arabah, the hill country of Israel, and the lowland of the same; <sup>11:17</sup>from Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir, even to Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon under Mount Hermon. He took all their kings, struck them, and put them to death. <sup>11:18</sup>Joshua made war a long time with all those kings. <sup>11:19</sup>There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, except the Hivites, the inhabitants of Gibeon. They took all in battle. <sup>11:20</sup>For it was of the LORD to harden their hearts, to come against Israel in battle, that he might utterly destroy them, that they might have no favor, but that he might destroy them, as the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>11:21</sup>Joshua came at that time, and cut off the Anakim from the hill country, from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel: Joshua utterly destroyed them with their cities. <sup>11:22</sup>There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel. Only in Gaza, in Gath, and in Ashdod, did some remain. <sup>11:23</sup>So Joshua took the whole land, according to all that the LORD spoke to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions by their tribes. The land had rest from war.

<sup>12:6</sup>Moses the servant of the LORD and the children of Israel struck them. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>12:7</sup>These are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel struck beyond the Jordan westward, from Baal Gad in the valley of Lebanon even to Mount Halak, that goes up to Seir. Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their divisions; <sup>12:8</sup>in the hill country, and in the lowland, and in the Arabah, and in the slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the South; the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite: <sup>12:9</sup>the king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, one; <sup>12:10</sup>the king of Jerusalem, one; the king of Hebron, one; <sup>12:11</sup>the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of Lachish, one; <sup>12:12</sup>the king of Eglon, one; the king of Gezer, one; <sup>12:13</sup>the king of Debir, one; the king of Geder, one; <sup>12:14</sup>the king of Hormah, one; the king of Arad, one; <sup>12:15</sup>the king of Libnah, one; the king of Adullam, one; <sup>12:16</sup>the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, one; <sup>12:17</sup>the king of Tappuah, one; the king of Hopher, one; <sup>12:18</sup>the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lassaron, one; <sup>12:19</sup>the king of Madon, one; the king of Hazor, one; <sup>12:20</sup>the king of Shimron Meron, one; the king of Achshaph, one; <sup>12:21</sup>the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, one; <sup>12:22</sup>the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam in Carmel, one; <sup>12:23</sup>the king of Dor in the height of Dor, one; the king of Goim in Gilgal, one; <sup>12:24</sup>the king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty-one.

<sup>13:1</sup>Now Joshua was old and well advanced in years. The LORD said to him, "You are old and advanced in years, and there remains yet very much land to be possessed.

<sup>13:2</sup>"This is the land that still remains: all the regions of the Philistines, and all the Geshurites; <sup>13:3</sup>from the Shihor, which is before Egypt, even to the border of Ekron northward, which is counted as Canaanite; the five lords of the Philistines; the Gazites, and the Ashdodites, the Ashkelonites, the Gittites, and the Ekronites; also the Avvim, <sup>13:4</sup>on the south; all the land of the Canaanites, and Mearah that belongs to the Sidonians, to Aphek, to the border of the Amorites; <sup>13:5</sup>and the land of the Gebalites, and all Lebanon, toward the sunrise, from Baal Gad under Mount Hermon to the entrance of Hamath; <sup>13:6</sup>all the inhabitants of the hill country from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, even all the Sidonians; them will I drive out from before the children of Israel: only allocate it to Israel for an inheritance, as I have commanded you. <sup>13:7</sup>Now therefore divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes and the half-tribe of Manasseh." <sup>13:8</sup>With him the Reubenites and the Gadites received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, even as Moses the servant of the LORD gave them: <sup>13:9</sup>from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain of Medeba to Dibon; <sup>13:10</sup>and all the cities of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, to the border of the children of Ammon; <sup>13:11</sup>and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maacathites, and all Mount Hermon, and all Bashan to Salecah; <sup>13:12</sup>all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth and in Edrei (the same was left of the remnant of the Rephaim); for Moses attacked these, and drove them out. <sup>13:13</sup>Nevertheless the children of Israel didn't drive out the Geshurites, nor the Maacathites: but Geshur and Maacath dwell in the midst of Israel to this day. <sup>13:14</sup>Only he gave no inheritance to the tribe of Levi. The offerings of the LORD, the God of Israel, made by fire are his inheritance, as he spoke to him. <sup>13:15</sup>Moses gave to the tribe of the children of Reuben according to their families. <sup>13:16</sup>Their border was from Aroer, that is on the edge of the valley of the Arnon, and the city that is in the middle of the valley, and all the plain by Medeba; <sup>13:17</sup>Heshbon, and all its cities that are in the plain; Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon, <sup>13:18</sup>Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath, <sup>13:19</sup>Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar in the mount of the valley, <sup>13:20</sup>Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, Beth Jeshimoth, <sup>13:21</sup>all the cities of the plain, and all the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, whom Moses struck with the chiefs of Midian, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur, and Reba, the princes of Sihon, who lived in the land. <sup>13:22</sup>The children of Israel also killed Balaam also the son of Beor, the soothsayer, with the sword, among the rest of their slain.

<sup>13:23</sup>The border of the children of Reuben was the bank of the Jordan. This was the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and its villages.

of the children of Manasseh according to their families. <sup>13:30</sup>Their border was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, sixty cities. <sup>13:31</sup>Half Gilead, Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were for the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, even for the half of the children of Machir according to their families.

<sup>13:32</sup>These are the inheritances which Moses distributed in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan at Jericho, eastward. <sup>13:33</sup>But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance. The LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he spoke to them.

<sup>14:6</sup>Then the children of Judah drew near to Joshua in Gilgal. Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, "You know the thing that the LORD spoke to Moses the man of God concerning me and concerning you in Kadesh Barnea. <sup>14:7</sup>I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to spy out the land. I brought him word again as it was in my heart. <sup>14:8</sup>Nevertheless, my brothers who went up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed the LORD my God. <sup>14:9</sup>Moses swore on that day, saying, 'Surely the land where you walked shall be an inheritance to you and to your children forever, because you have wholly followed the LORD my God.'

<sup>14:10</sup>"Now, behold, the LORD has kept me alive, as he spoke, these forty-five years, from the time that the LORD spoke this word to Moses, while Israel walked in the wilderness. Now, behold, I am eighty-five years old, today. <sup>14:11</sup>As yet I am as strong today as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now for war, to go out and to come in. <sup>14:12</sup>Now therefore give me this hill country, of which the LORD spoke in that day; for you heard in that day how the Anakim were there, and great and fortified cities. It may be that the LORD will be with me, and I shall drive them out, as the LORD spoke."

<sup>14:13</sup>Joshua blessed him; and he gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inheritance. <sup>14:14</sup>Therefore Hebron became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day; because he wholly followed the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>14:15</sup>Now the name of Hebron before was Kiriath Arba, after the greatest man among the Anakim. The land had rest from war.

Hinnom westward, which is at the farthest part of the valley of Rephaim northward. <sup>15:9</sup>The border extended from the top of the mountain to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out to the cities of Mount Ephron; and the border extended to Baalah (the same is Kiriath Jearim); <sup>15:10</sup>and the border turned about from Baalah westward to Mount Seir, and passed along to the side of Mount Jearim on the north (the same is Chesalon), and went down to Beth Shemesh, and passed along by Timnah; <sup>15:11</sup>and the border went out to the side of Ekron northward; and the border extended to Shikkeron, and passed along to Mount Baalah, and went out at Jabneel; and the goings out of the border were at the sea. <sup>15:12</sup>The west border was to the shore of the great sea. This is the border of the children of Judah according to their families.

<sup>15:19</sup>She said, "Give me a blessing. Because you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water."

He gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

to the border of the Japhletites, to the border of Beth Horon the lower, even to Gezer; and ended at the sea.

<sup>17:1</sup>This was the lot for the tribe of Manasseh, for he was the firstborn of Joseph. As for Machir the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead, because he was a man of war, therefore he had Gilead and Bashan. <sup>17:2</sup>So this was for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, for the children of Helek, for the children of Asriel, for the children of Shechem, for the children of Hopher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male children of Manasseh the son of Joseph according to their families. <sup>17:3</sup>But Zelophehad, the son of Hopher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah. <sup>17:4</sup>They came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, "The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers." Therefore according to the commandment of the LORD he gave them an inheritance among the brothers of their father. <sup>17:5</sup>Ten parts fell to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which is beyond the Jordan; <sup>17:6</sup>because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the sons of Manasseh. <sup>17:7</sup>The border of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem. The border went along to the right hand, to the inhabitants of En Tappuah. <sup>17:8</sup>The land of Tappuah belonged to Manasseh; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim. <sup>17:9</sup>The border went down to the brook of Kanah, southward of the brook. These cities belonged to Ephraim among the cities of Manasseh. The border of Manasseh was on the north side of the brook, and ended at the sea. <sup>17:10</sup>Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. They reached to Asher on the north, and to Issachar on the east. <sup>17:11</sup>Manasseh had three heights in Issachar, in Asher Beth Shean and its towns, and Ibleam and its towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Endor and its towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and its towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns. <sup>17:12</sup>Yet the children of Manasseh couldn't drive out the inhabitants of those cities; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

<sup>17:15</sup>Joshua said to them, "If you are a great people, go up to the forest, and clear land for yourself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the Rephaim; since the hill country of Ephraim is too narrow for you."

<sup>17:16</sup>The children of Joseph said, "The hill country is not enough for us. All the Canaanites who dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, both those who are in Beth Shean and its towns, and those who are in the valley of Jezreel."

<sup>17:17</sup>Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, "You are a great people, and have great power. You shall not have one lot only; <sup>17:18</sup>but the hill country shall be yours. Although it is a forest, you shall cut it down, and its farthest extent shall be yours; for you shall drive out the Canaanites, though they have chariots of iron, and though they are strong.”

<sup>18:8</sup>The men arose and went. Joshua commanded those who went to survey the land, saying, “Go walk through the land, survey it, and come again to me. I will cast lots for you here before the LORD in Shiloh.”

<sup>18:9</sup>The men went and passed through the land, and surveyed it by cities into seven portions in a book. They came to Joshua to the camp at Shiloh. <sup>18:10</sup>Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before the LORD. There Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

of Luz (the same is Bethel), southward. The border went down to Ataroth Addar, by the mountain that lies on the south of Beth Horon the lower. <sup>18:14</sup>The border extended, and turned around on the west quarter southward, from the mountain that lies before Beth Horon southward; and ended at Kiriath Baal (the same is Kiriath Jearim), a city of the children of Judah. This was the west quarter. <sup>18:15</sup>The south quarter was from the farthest part of Kiriath Jearim. The border went out westward, and went out to the spring of the waters of Nephtoah. <sup>18:16</sup>The border went down to the farthest part of the mountain that lies before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim northward. It went down to the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite southward, and went down to En Rogel. <sup>18:17</sup>It extended northward, went out at En Shemesh, and went out to Geliloth, which is over against the ascent of Adummim. It went down to the stone of Bohan the son of Reuben. <sup>18:18</sup>It passed along to the side over against the Arabah northward, and went down to the Arabah. <sup>18:19</sup>The border passed along to the side of Beth Hoglah northward; and the border ended at the north bay of the Salt Sea, at the south end of the Jordan. This was the south border. <sup>18:20</sup>The Jordan was its border on the east quarter. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, by the borders around it, according to their families. <sup>18:21</sup>Now the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz, <sup>18:22</sup>Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel, <sup>18:23</sup>Avvim, Parah, Ophrah, <sup>18:24</sup>Chephar Ammoni, Ophni, and Geba; twelve cities with their villages. <sup>18:25</sup>Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth, <sup>18:26</sup>Mizpeh, Chephirah, Mozah, <sup>18:27</sup>Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah, <sup>18:28</sup>Zelah, Eleph, the Jebusite (the same is Jerusalem), Gibeath, and Kiriath; fourteen cities with their villages. This is the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

Hazar Susah, <sup>19:6</sup>Beth Lebaoth, and Sharuhén; thirteen cities with their villages; <sup>19:7</sup>Ain, Rimmon, Ether, and Ashan; four cities with their villages; <sup>19:8</sup>and all the villages that were around these cities to Baalath Beer, Ramah of the South. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families. <sup>19:9</sup>Out of the part of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too much for them. Therefore the children of Simeon had inheritance in the midst of their inheritance.

hand, <sup>19:28</sup>and Ebron, Rehob, Hammon, and Kanah, even to great Sidon. <sup>19:29</sup>The border turned to Ramah, to the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah. It ended at the sea by the region of Achzib; <sup>19:30</sup>Ummah also, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two cities with their villages. <sup>19:31</sup>This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities with their villages.

<sup>19:49</sup>So they made an end of distributing the land for inheritance by its borders. The children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun in their midst. <sup>19:50</sup>According to the commandment of the LORD, they gave him the city which he asked, even Timnathserah in the hill country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and lived there. <sup>19:51</sup>These are the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua the son of Nun, and the heads of the fathers' houses of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed for inheritance by lot in Shiloh before the LORD, at the door of the Tent of Meeting. So they made an end of dividing the land.

<sup>20:1</sup>The LORD spoke to Joshua, saying, <sup>20:2</sup>“Speak to the children of Israel, saying, ‘Assign the cities of refuge, of which I spoke to you by Moses, <sup>20:3</sup>that the manslayer who kills any person accidentally or unintentionally may flee there. They shall be to you for a refuge from the avenger of blood. <sup>20:4</sup>He shall flee to one of those cities, and shall stand at the entrance of the gate of the city, and declare his cause in the ears of the elders of that city. They shall take him into the city with them, and give him a place, that he may live among them. <sup>20:5</sup>If the avenger of blood pursue after him, then they shall not deliver up the manslayer into his hand; because he struck his neighbor unintentionally, and didn't hate him before. <sup>20:6</sup>He shall dwell in that city until he stands before the congregation for judgment, until the death of the high priest that shall be in those days. Then the manslayer shall return, and come to his own city, and to his own house, to the city he fled from.”

out of their inheritance, according to the commandment of the LORD, these cities with their suburbs. <sup>21:4</sup>The lot came out for the families of the Kohathites. The children of Aaron the priest, who were of the Levites, had thirteen cities by lot out of the tribe of Judah, out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>21:5</sup>The rest of the children of Kohath had ten cities by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh. <sup>21:6</sup>The children of Gershon had thirteen cities by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, out of the tribe of Asher, out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan. <sup>21:7</sup>The children of Merari according to their families had twelve cities out of the tribe of Reuben, out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun. <sup>21:8</sup>The children of Israel gave these cities with their suburbs by lot to the Levites, as the LORD commanded by Moses. <sup>21:9</sup>They gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which are mentioned by name: <sup>21:10</sup>and they were for the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, who were of the children of Levi; for theirs was the first lot. <sup>21:11</sup>They gave them Kiriath Arba, named after the father of Anak (the same is Hebron), in the hill country of Judah, with its suburbs around it. <sup>21:12</sup>But they gave the fields of the city and its villages to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his possession. <sup>21:13</sup>To the children of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron with its suburbs, the city of refuge for the manslayer, Libnah with its suburbs, <sup>21:14</sup>Jattir with its suburbs, Eshtemoa with its suburbs, <sup>21:15</sup>Holon with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs, <sup>21:16</sup>Ain with its suburbs, Juttah with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs; nine cities out of those two tribes. <sup>21:17</sup>Out of the tribe of Benjamin, Gibeon with its suburbs, Geba with its suburbs, <sup>21:18</sup>Anathoth with its suburbs, and Almon with its suburbs; four cities. <sup>21:19</sup>All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities with their suburbs.

the city of refuge for the manslayer, and Gezer with its suburbs,<sup>21:22</sup> Kibzaim with its suburbs, and Beth Horon with its suburbs; four cities.<sup>21:23</sup> Out of the tribe of Dan, Elteke with its suburbs, Gibbethon with its suburbs,<sup>21:24</sup> Aijalon with its suburbs, Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; four cities.<sup>21:25</sup> Out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Taanach with its suburbs, and Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; two cities.<sup>21:26</sup> All the cities of the families of the rest of the children of Kohath were ten with their suburbs.

possessed it, and lived in it.<sup>21:44</sup> The LORD gave them rest all around, according to all that he swore to their fathers. Not a man of all their enemies stood before them. The LORD delivered all their enemies into their hand.<sup>21:45</sup> Nothing failed of any good thing which the LORD had spoken to the house of Israel. All came to pass.

<sup>22:1</sup> Then Joshua called the Reubenites, the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh,<sup>22:2</sup> and said to them, "You have kept all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, and have listened to my voice in all that I commanded you.<sup>22:3</sup> You have not left your brothers these many days to this day, but have performed the duty of the commandment of the LORD your God.<sup>22:4</sup> Now the LORD your God has given rest to your brothers, as he spoke to them. Therefore now return and go to your tents, to the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you beyond the Jordan.<sup>22:5</sup> Only take diligent heed to do the commandment and the law which Moses the servant of the LORD commanded you, to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to keep his commandments, to hold fast to him, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul."

<sup>22:6</sup> So Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents.<sup>22:7</sup> Now to the one half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given inheritance in Bashan; but to the other half gave Joshua among their brothers beyond the Jordan westward. Moreover when Joshua sent them away to their tents, he blessed them,<sup>22:8</sup> and spoke to them, saying, "Return with much wealth to your tents, with very much livestock, with silver, with gold, with brass, with iron, and with very much clothing. Divide the spoil of your enemies with your brothers."

<sup>22:21</sup>Then the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh answered, and spoke to the heads of the thousands of Israel, <sup>22:22</sup>"The Mighty One, God, the LORD, the Mighty One, God, the LORD, he knows; and Israel shall know: if it was in rebellion, or if in trespass against the LORD (don't save us this day), <sup>22:23</sup>that we have built us an altar to turn away from following the LORD; or if to offer burnt offering or meal offering, or if to offer sacrifices of peace offerings, let the LORD himself require it.

<sup>22:24</sup>"If we have not out of concern done this, and for a reason, saying, 'In time to come your children might speak to our children, saying, "What have you to do with the LORD, the God of Israel? <sup>22:25</sup>For the LORD has made the Jordan a border between us and you, you children of Reuben and children of Gad. You have no portion in the LORD.'" So your children might make our children cease from fearing the LORD.

<sup>22:26</sup>"Therefore we said, 'Let's now prepare to build ourselves an altar, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; <sup>22:27</sup>but it will be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we may perform the service of the LORD before him with our burnt offerings, with our sacrifices, and with our peace offerings;' that your children may not tell our children in time to come, 'You have no portion in the LORD.'

<sup>22:28</sup>"Therefore we said, 'It shall be, when they tell us or our generations this in time to come, that we shall say, "Behold the pattern of the altar of the LORD, which our fathers made, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice; but it is a witness between us and you.'"

<sup>22:29</sup>"Far be it from us that we should rebel against the LORD, and turn away this day from following the LORD, to build an altar for burnt offering, for meal offering, or for sacrifice, besides the altar of the LORD our God that is before his tabernacle!"

Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again. <sup>22:33</sup>The thing pleased the children of Israel; and the children of Israel blessed God, and spoke no more of going up against them to war, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the children of Gad lived. <sup>22:34</sup>The children of Reuben and the children of Gad named the altar "A Witness Between Us that the LORD is God."

<sup>23:1</sup>It happened after many days, when the LORD had given rest to Israel from their enemies all around, and Joshua was old and well advanced in years, <sup>23:2</sup>that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders and for their heads, and for their judges and for their officers, and said to them, "I am old and well advanced in years. <sup>23:3</sup>You have seen all that the LORD your God has done to all these nations because of you; for it is the LORD your God who has fought for you. <sup>23:4</sup>Behold, I have allotted to you these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from the Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even to the great sea toward the going down of the sun. <sup>23:5</sup>The LORD your God will thrust them out from before you, and drive them from out of your sight. You shall possess their land, as the LORD your God spoke to you.

<sup>23:6</sup>"Therefore be very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moses, that you not turn aside from it to the right hand or to the left; <sup>23:7</sup>that you not come among these nations, these that remain among you; neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow down yourselves to them; <sup>23:8</sup>but hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have done to this day.

<sup>23:9</sup>"For the LORD has driven great and strong nations out from before you. But as for you, no man has stood before you to this day. <sup>23:10</sup>One man of you shall chase a thousand; for it is the LORD your God who fights for you, as he spoke to you. <sup>23:11</sup>Take good heed therefore to yourselves, that you love the LORD your God.

<sup>23:12</sup>"But if you do at all go back, and hold fast to the remnant of these nations, even these who remain among you, and make marriages with them, and go in to them, and they to you;

<sup>23:13</sup>know for a certainty that the LORD your God will no longer drive these nations from out of your sight; but they shall be a snare and a trap to you, a scourge in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you.

<sup>23:14</sup>"Behold, today I am going the way of all the earth. You know in all your hearts and in all your souls that not one thing has failed of all the good things which the LORD your God spoke concerning you. All have happened to you. Not one thing has failed of it. <sup>23:15</sup>It shall happen that as all the good things have come on you of which the LORD your God spoke to you, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil things, until he has destroyed you from off this good land which the LORD your God has given you, <sup>23:16</sup>when you disobey the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow down yourselves to them. Then the anger of the LORD will be kindled against you, and you will perish quickly from off the good land which he has given to you."

<sup>24:1</sup>Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, for their heads, for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before God. <sup>24:2</sup>Joshua said to all the people, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Your fathers lived of old time beyond the River, even Terah, the father of Abraham, and the father of Nahor: and they served other gods. <sup>24:3</sup>I took your father Abraham from beyond the River, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac. <sup>24:4</sup>I gave to Isaac Jacob and Esau: and I gave to Esau Mount Seir, to possess it. Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

<sup>24:5</sup>"I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did in its midst: and afterward I brought you out. <sup>24:6</sup>I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came to the sea. The Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and with horsemen to the Sea of Suf. <sup>24:7</sup>When they cried out to the LORD, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea on them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt: and you lived in the wilderness many days.

Amorites, that lived beyond the Jordan: and they fought with you; and I gave them into your hand. You possessed their land; and I destroyed them from before you. <sup>24:9</sup>Then Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and fought against Israel. He sent and called Balaam the son of Beor to curse you; <sup>24:10</sup>but I would not listen to Balaam; therefore he blessed you still. So I delivered you out of his hand.

<sup>24:14</sup>“Now therefore fear the LORD, and serve him in sincerity and in truth. Put away the gods which your fathers served beyond the River, in Egypt; and serve the LORD. <sup>24:15</sup>If it seems evil to you to serve the LORD, choose this day whom you will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served that were beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the LORD.”

<sup>24:16</sup>The people answered, “Far be it from us that we should forsake the LORD, to serve other gods; <sup>24:17</sup>for it is the LORD our God who brought us and our fathers up out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and who did those great signs in our sight, and preserved us in all the way in which we went, and among all the peoples through the midst of whom we passed. <sup>24:18</sup>The LORD drove out from before us all the peoples, even the Amorites who lived in the land. Therefore we also will serve the LORD; for he is our God.”

<sup>24:19</sup>Joshua said to the people, “You can’t serve the LORD; for he is a holy God. He is a jealous God. He will not forgive your disobedience nor your sins. <sup>24:20</sup>If you forsake the LORD, and serve foreign gods, then he will turn and do you evil, and consume you, after he has done you good.”

<sup>24:21</sup>The people said to Joshua, “No; but we will serve the LORD.” <sup>24:22</sup>Joshua said to the people, “You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen the LORD yourselves, to serve him.”

They said, “We are witnesses.”

<sup>24:24</sup>The people said to Joshua, “We will serve the LORD our God, and we will listen to his voice.”

<sup>24:25</sup>So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and made for them a statute and an ordinance in Shechem. <sup>24:26</sup>Joshua wrote these words in the scroll of the Torah of God; and he took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of the LORD. <sup>24:27</sup>Joshua said to all the people, “Behold, this stone shall be a witness against us; for it has heard all the words of the LORD which he spoke to us. It shall be therefore a witness against you, lest you deny your God.”

Judges

<sup>1:3</sup>Judah said to Simeon his brother, "Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Canaanites; and I likewise will go with you into your lot." So Simeon went with him. <sup>1:4</sup>Judah went up; and the LORD delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they struck of them in Bezek ten thousand men. <sup>1:5</sup>They found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek; and they fought against him, and they struck the Canaanites and the Perizzites.

<sup>1:15</sup>She said to him, "Give me a blessing; for that you have set me in the land of the South, give me also springs of water." Then

Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs. <sup>1:16</sup>The children of the Kenite, Moses' brother-in-law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad; and they went and lived with the people. <sup>1:17</sup>Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they struck the Canaanites who inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it. The name of the city was called Hormah. <sup>1:18</sup>Also Judah took Gaza with its border, and Ashkelon with its border, and Ekron with its border. <sup>1:19</sup>The LORD was with Judah; and drove out the inhabitants of the hill country; for he could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron. <sup>1:20</sup>They gave Hebron to Caleb, as Moses had spoken: and he drove out there the three sons of Anak. <sup>1:21</sup>The children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites who inhabited Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.

<sup>1:27</sup>Manasseh did not drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shean and its towns, nor Taanach and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its towns; but the Canaanites would dwell in that land. <sup>1:28</sup>It happened, when Israel had grown strong, that they put the Canaanites to forced labor, and did not utterly drive them out. <sup>1:29</sup>Ephraim didn't drive out the Canaanites who lived in Gezer; but the Canaanites lived in Gezer among them. <sup>1:30</sup>Zebulun didn't drive out the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites lived among them, and became subject to forced labor. <sup>1:31</sup>Asher didn't drive out the inhabitants of Acco, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Ahlab, nor of Achzib, nor of Helbah, nor of Aphik, nor of Rehob; <sup>1:32</sup>but the Asherites lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not drive them out. <sup>1:33</sup>Naphtali didn't drive out the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth Anath; but he lived among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless the inhabitants of Beth Shemesh and of Beth Anath became subject to forced labor. <sup>1:34</sup>The Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill country; for they would not allow them to come down to the valley; <sup>1:35</sup>but the Amorites would dwell in Mount Heres, in Aijalon, and in Shaalbim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they became subject to forced labor. <sup>1:36</sup>The border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upward.

<sup>2:1</sup>The angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bochim. He said, "I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore to your fathers; and I said, 'I will never break my covenant with you: <sup>2:2</sup>and you shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; you shall break down their altars.' But you have not listened to my voice: why have you done this? <sup>2:3</sup>Therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare to you."

<sup>2:4</sup>It happened, when the angel of the LORD spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice, and wept. <sup>2:5</sup>They called the name of that place Bochim: and they sacrificed there to the LORD. <sup>2:6</sup>Now when Joshua had sent the people away, the children of Israel went every man to his inheritance to possess the land. <sup>2:7</sup>The people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders who outlived Joshua, who had seen all the great work of the LORD that he had worked for Israel. <sup>2:8</sup>Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being one hundred ten years old. <sup>2:9</sup>They buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Heres, in the hill country of Ephraim, on the north of the mountain of Gaash. <sup>2:10</sup>Also all that generation were gathered to their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, who didn't know the LORD, nor yet the work which he had worked for Israel. <sup>2:11</sup>The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals; <sup>2:12</sup>and they forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the peoples who were around them, and bowed themselves down to them: and they provoked the LORD to anger. <sup>2:13</sup>They forsook the LORD, and served Baal and the Ashtaroth. <sup>2:14</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers who despoiled them; and he sold them into the hands of their enemies all around, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. <sup>2:15</sup>Wherever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had spoken, and as the LORD had sworn to them: and they were very distressed. <sup>2:16</sup>The LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hand of those who despoiled them. <sup>2:17</sup>Yet they didn't listen to their judges; for they played the prostitute after other gods, and bowed themselves down to them: they turned aside quickly out of the way in which their fathers walked, obeying the commandments of the LORD. They didn't do so. <sup>2:18</sup>When the LORD raised them up judges, then the LORD was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge: for it grieved the LORD because of their groaning by reason of those who oppressed them and troubled them. <sup>2:19</sup>But it happened, when the judge was dead, that they turned back, and dealt more corruptly than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them; they didn't cease from their doings, nor from their stubborn way. <sup>2:20</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel; and he said, "Because this nation have transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and have not listened to my voice; <sup>2:21</sup>I also will not henceforth drive out any from before them of the nations that Joshua left when he died; <sup>2:22</sup>that by them I may prove Israel, whether they will keep the way of the LORD to walk therein, as their fathers kept it, or not." <sup>2:23</sup>So the LORD left those nations, without driving them out hastily; neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

of Moab. <sup>3:16</sup>Ehud made him a sword which had two edges, a cubit in length; and he wore it under his clothing on his right thigh. <sup>3:17</sup>He offered the tribute to Eglon king of Moab: now Eglon was a very fat man. <sup>3:18</sup>When he had made an end of offering the tribute, he sent away the people who bore the tribute. <sup>3:19</sup>But he himself turned back from the quarries that were by Gilgal, and said, "I have a secret errand to you, king."

The king said, "Keep silence!" All who stood by him went out from him.

<sup>3:26</sup>Ehud escaped while they waited, and passed beyond the quarries, and escaped to Seirah. <sup>3:27</sup>It happened, when he had come, that he blew a shofar<sup>c</sup> in the hill country of Ephraim; and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill country, and he before them.

<sup>3:28</sup>He said to them, "Follow me; for the LORD has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand." They followed him, and took the fords of the Jordan against the Moabites, and didn't allow any man to pass over. <sup>3:29</sup>They struck of Moab at that time about ten thousand men, every lusty man, and every man of valor; and there escaped not a man. <sup>3:30</sup>So Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. The land had rest eighty years.

who struck of the Philistines six hundred men with an oxgoad: and he also saved Israel.

<sup>4:1</sup>The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, when Ehud was dead. <sup>4:2</sup>The LORD sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; the captain of whose army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth of the Gentiles. <sup>4:3</sup>The children of Israel cried to the LORD: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron; and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel. <sup>4:4</sup>Now Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, she judged Israel at that time. <sup>4:5</sup>She lived under the palm tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment. <sup>4:6</sup>She sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh Naphtali, and said to him, "Hasn't the LORD, the God of Israel, commanded, 'Go and draw to Mount Tabor, and take with you ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun? <sup>4:7</sup>I will draw to you, to the river Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots and his multitude; and I will deliver him into your hand.'"

<sup>4:8</sup>Barak said to her, "If you will go with me, then I will go; but if you will not go with me, I will not go."

<sup>4:9</sup>She said, "I will surely go with you: nevertheless, the journey that you take shall not be for your honor; for the LORD will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman." Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.

<sup>4:10</sup>Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali together to Kedesh; and there went up ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him. <sup>4:11</sup>Now Heber the Kenite had separated himself from the Kenites, even from the children of Hobab the brother-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak in Zaanannim, which is by Kedesh. <sup>4:12</sup>They told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to Mount Tabor. <sup>4:13</sup>Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people who were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, to the river Kishon.

<sup>4:14</sup>Deborah said to Barak, "Go; for this is the day in which the LORD has delivered Sisera into your hand. Hasn't the LORD gone out before you?" So Barak went down from Mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him. <sup>4:15</sup>The LORD confused Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera alighted from his chariot, and fled away on his feet. <sup>4:16</sup>But Barak pursued after the chariots, and after the army, to Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; there was not a man left.

<sup>4:17</sup>However Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the Kenite.

<sup>4:18</sup>Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, "Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; don't be afraid." He came in to her into the tent, and she covered him with a rug.

<sup>4:19</sup>He said to her, "Please give me a little water to drink; for I am thirsty."

She opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

<sup>4:20</sup>He said to her, "Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be, when any man comes and inquires of you, and says, 'Is there any man here?' that you shall say, 'No.'"

<sup>4:21</sup>Then Jael Heber's wife took a tent peg, and took a hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and struck the pin into his temples, and it pierced through into the ground; for he was in a deep sleep; so he swooned and died. <sup>4:22</sup>Behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said to him, "Come, and I will show you the man whom you seek." He came to her; and behold, Sisera lay dead, and the tent peg was in his temples. <sup>4:23</sup>So God subdued on that day Jabin the king of Canaan before the children of Israel. <sup>4:24</sup>The hand of the children of Israel prevailed more and more against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin king of Canaan.

Give ear, you princes!

I, even I, will sing to the LORD.

I will sing praise to the LORD, the God of Israel.

<sup>5:4</sup>"LORD, when you went forth out of Seir, when you marched out of the field of Edom,

 the earth trembled, the sky also dropped.
 Yes, the clouds dropped water.
 5:5 The mountains quaked at the presence of the LORD,
 even Sinai, at the presence of the LORD,
 the God of Israel.
 5:6 "In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the highways were unoccupied.
 The travelers walked through byways.
 5:7 The rulers ceased in Israel.
 They ceased until I, Deborah, arose;
 Until I arose a mother in Israel.
 5:8 They chose new gods.
 Then war was in the gates.
 Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?
 5:9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, who offered themselves willingly among the people.
 Bless the LORD!
 5:10 "Speak, you who ride on white donkeys, you who sit on rich carpets,
 and you who walk by the way.
 5:11 Far from the noise of archers, in the places of drawing water,
 there they will rehearse the righteous acts of the LORD,
 the righteous acts of his rule in Israel.
 "Then the people of the LORD went down to the gates.
 5:12 "Awake, awake, Deborah!
 Awake, awake, utter a song!
 Arise, Barak, and lead away your captives, you son of Abinoam.'
 5:13 "Then a remnant of the nobles and the people came down.
 The LORD came down for me against the mighty.
 5:14 Those whose root is in Amalek came out of Ephraim,
 after you, Benjamin, among your peoples.
 Governors come down out of Machir.
 Those who handle the marshal's staff came out of Zebulun.
 5:15 The princes of Issachar were with Deborah.
 As was Issachar, so was Barak.
 They rushed into the valley at his feet.
 By the watercourses of Reuben,
 there were great resolves of heart.

5:16 Why did you sit among the sheepfolds,
 To hear the whistling for the flocks?
 At the watercourses of Reuben
 There were great searchings of heart.
 5:17 Gilead lived beyond the Jordan.
 Why did Dan remain in ships?
 Asher sat still at the haven of the sea,
 and lived by his creeks.
 5:18 Zebulun was a people that jeopardized their lives to the deaths;
 Naphtali also, on the high places of the field.
 5:19 "The kings came and fought, then the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo.
 They took no plunder of silver.
 5:20 From the sky the stars fought.
 From their courses, they fought against Sisera.
 5:21 The river Kishon swept them away, that ancient river, the river Kishon.
 My soul, march on with strength.
 5:22 Then the horse hoofs stamped because of the prancings,
 the prancings of their strong ones.
 5:23 'Curse Meroz,' said the angel of the LORD.
 'Curse bitterly its inhabitants, because they didn't come to help the LORD,
 to help the LORD against the mighty.'
 5:24 "Jael shall be blessed above women, the wife of Heber the Kenite; blessed shall she be above women in the tent.
 5:25 He asked for water.
 She gave him milk.
 She brought him butter in a lordly dish.
 5:26 She put her hand to the tent peg, and her right hand to the workmen's hammer.
 With the hammer she struck Sisera.
 She struck through his head.
 Yes, she pierced and struck through his temples.
 5:27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay.
 At her feet he bowed, he fell.
 Where he bowed, there he fell down dead.
 5:28 "Through the window she looked out, and cried:
 Sisera's mother looked through the lattice.

‘Why is his chariot so long in coming?
 Why do the wheels of his chariots wait?’
 5:29 Her wise ladies answered her,
 Yes, she returned answer to herself,
 5:30 ‘Have they not found, have they not divided the spoil?
 A lady, two ladies to every man;
 to Sisera a spoil of dyed garments,
 a spoil of dyed garments embroidered, of dyed garments embroidered on both sides, on the necks of the spoil?’
 5:31 “So let all your enemies perish, LORD, but let those who love him be as the sun when it rises forth in its strength.”
 Then the land had rest forty years.

6:1 The children of Israel did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: and the LORD delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years. 6:2 The hand of Midian prevailed against Israel; and because of Midian the children of Israel made them the dens which are in the mountains, and the caves, and the strongholds.
 6:3 So it was, when Israel had sown, that the Midianites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east; they came up against them; 6:4 and they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, until you come to Gaza, and left no sustenance in Israel, neither sheep, nor ox, nor donkey. 6:5 For they came up with their livestock and their tents; they came in as locusts for multitude; both they and their camels were without number: and they came into the land to destroy it. 6:6 Israel was brought very low because of Midian; and the children of Israel cried to the LORD.

6:7 It happened, when the children of Israel cried to the LORD because of Midian, 6:8 that the LORD sent a prophet to the children of Israel: and he said to them, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage; 6:9 and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all who oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you their land; 6:10 and I said to you, “I am the LORD your God; you shall not fear the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you dwell.” But you have not listened to my voice.”

6:11 The angel of the LORD came, and sat under the oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained to Joash the Abiezrite: and his son Gideon was beating out wheat in the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites. 6:12 The angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, “The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!”

6:13 Gideon said to him, “Oh, my lord, if the LORD is with us, why then has all this happened to us? Where are all his wondrous works which our fathers told us of, saying, ‘Didn’t the LORD bring us up from Egypt?’ But now the LORD has cast us off, and delivered us into the hand of Midian.”

6:14 The LORD looked at him, and said, “Go in this your might, and save Israel from the hand of Midian. Haven’t I sent you?”

6:15 He said to him, “O Lord<sup>d</sup>, how shall I save Israel? Behold, my family is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father’s house.”

6:16 The LORD said to him, “Surely I will be with you, and you shall strike the Midianites as one man.”

6:17 He said to him, “If now I have found favor in your sight, then show me a sign that it is you who talk with me. 6:18 Please don’t go away, until I come to you, and bring out my present, and lay it before you.”

He said, “I will wait until you come back.”

6:19 Gideon went in, and prepared a young goat, and unleavened cakes of an efa<sup>h</sup> of meal.
 He put the meat in a basket and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the oak, and presented it.

6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened cakes, and lay them on this rock, and pour out the broth.”

He did so. 6:21 Then the angel of the LORD stretched out the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the meat and the unleavened cakes; and fire went up out of the rock, and consumed the meat and the unleavened cakes; and the angel of the LORD departed out of his sight.

6:22 Gideon saw that he was the angel of the LORD; and Gideon said, “Alas, Lord GOD!
 Because I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

<sup>6:23</sup>The LORD said to him, "Peace be to you! Don't be afraid. You shall not die."

<sup>6:24</sup>Then Gideon built an altar there to the LORD, and called it "the LORD is Peace<sup>f</sup>." To this day it is still in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

<sup>6:25</sup>It happened the same night, that the LORD said to him, "Take your father's bull, even the second bull seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the Asherah that is by it; <sup>6:26</sup>and build an altar to the LORD your God on the top of this stronghold, in an orderly way, and take the second bull, and offer a burnt offering with the wood of the Asherah which you shall cut down."

<sup>6:27</sup>Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had spoken to him: and it happened, because he feared his father's household and the men of the city, so that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

<sup>6:28</sup>When the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bull was offered on the altar that was built. <sup>6:29</sup>They said one to another, "Who has done this thing?"

When they inquired and asked, they said, "Gideon the son of Joash has done this thing."

<sup>6:30</sup>Then the men of the city said to Joash, "Bring out your son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the Asherah that was by it." <sup>6:31</sup>Joash said to all who stood against him, "Will you contend for Baal? Or will you save him? He who will contend for him, let him be put to death by morning. If he is a god, let him contend for himself, because someone has broken down his altar." <sup>6:32</sup>Therefore on that day he named him Jerub-Baal,<sup>g</sup> saying, "Let Baal contend against him, because he has broken down his altar."

also were gathered together after him: and he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.

<sup>6:36</sup>Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken, <sup>6:37</sup>behold, I will put a fleece of wool on the threshing floor; if there is dew on the fleece only, and it is dry on all the ground, then shall I know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you have spoken."

<sup>6:38</sup>It was so; for he rose up early on the next day, and pressed the fleece together, and wrung the dew out of the fleece, a bowl full of water.

<sup>6:39</sup>Gideon said to God, "Don't let your anger be kindled against me, and I will speak but this once. Please let me make a trial just this once with the fleece. Let it now be dry only on the fleece, and on all the ground let there be dew."

<sup>6:40</sup>God did so that night: for it was dry on the fleece only, and there was dew on all the ground.

<sup>7:1</sup>Then Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, and all the people who were with him, rose up early, and encamped beside the spring of Harod: and the camp of Midian was on the north side of them, by the hill of Moreh, in the valley. <sup>7:2</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, "The people who are with you are too many for me to give the Midianites into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, 'My own hand has saved me.' <sup>7:3</sup>Now therefore proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, 'Whoever is fearful and trembling, let him return and depart from Mount Gilead.'" Twenty-two thousand of the people returned, and ten thousand remained.

<sup>7:4</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, "The people are still too many. Bring them down to the water, and I will test them for you there. It shall be, that of whom I tell you, 'This shall go with you,' the same shall go with you; and of whoever I tell you, 'This shall not go with you,' the same shall not go." <sup>7:5</sup>So he brought down the people to the water; and the LORD said to Gideon, "Everyone who laps of the water with his tongue, like a dog laps, you shall set him by himself; likewise everyone who bows down on his knees to drink." <sup>7:6</sup>The number of those who lapped, putting their hand to their mouth, was three hundred men; but all the rest of the people bowed down on their knees to drink water. <sup>7:7</sup>The LORD said to Gideon, "By the three hundred men who lapped will I save you, and deliver the Midianites into your hand. Let all the other people go, each to his own place."

<sup>7:8</sup>So the people took food in their hand, and their shofars<sup>i</sup>; and he sent all the men of Israel every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men: and the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley. <sup>7:9</sup>It happened the same night, that the LORD said to him, "Arise, go down into the camp; for I have delivered it into your hand. <sup>7:10</sup>But if you are afraid to go down, go with Purah your servant down to the camp: <sup>7:11</sup>and you shall hear what they say; and afterward your hands will be strengthened to go down into the camp." Then went he down with Purah his servant to the outermost part of the armed men who were in the camp.

<sup>7:12</sup>The Midianites and the Amalekites and all the children of the east lay along in the valley like locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand which is on the seashore for multitude.

<sup>7:13</sup>When Gideon had come, behold, there was a man telling a dream to his fellow; and he said, "Behold, I dreamed a dream; and behold, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and struck it so that it fell, and turned it upside down, so that the tent lay flat."

<sup>7:15</sup>It was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and its interpretation, that he worshiped; and he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, "Arise; for the LORD has delivered the army of Midian into your hand!"

<sup>7:16</sup>He divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put into the hands of all of them shofars<sup>j</sup>, and empty pitchers, with torches within the pitchers.

<sup>7:17</sup>He said to them, "Watch me, and do likewise. Behold, when I come to the outermost part of the camp, it shall be that, as I do, so you shall do. <sup>7:18</sup>When I blow the shofar<sup>k</sup>, I and all who are with me, then blow the shofars<sup>l</sup> also on every side of all the camp, and shout, 'For the LORD and for Gideon!'"

<sup>7:19</sup>So Gideon, and the hundred men who were with him, came to the outermost part of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch, when they had but newly set the watch: and they blew the shofars<sup>m</sup>, and broke in pieces the pitchers that were in their hands. <sup>7:20</sup>The three companies blew the shofars<sup>n</sup>, and broke the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hands, and the shofars<sup>o</sup> in their right hands with which to blow; and they shouted, "The sword of the LORD and of Gideon!" <sup>7:21</sup>They each stood in his place around the camp; and all the army ran; and they shouted, and put them to flight. <sup>7:22</sup>They blew the three hundred shofars<sup>p</sup>, and the LORD set every man's sword against his fellow, and against all the army; and the army fled as far as Beth Shittah toward Zererah, as far as the border of Abel Meholah, by Tabbath. <sup>7:23</sup>The men of Israel were gathered together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian. <sup>7:24</sup>Gideon sent messengers throughout all the hill country of Ephraim, saying, "Come down against Midian, and take before them the waters, as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan!" So all the men of Ephraim were gathered together, and took the waters as far as Beth Barah, even the Jordan. <sup>7:25</sup>They took the two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb they killed at the winepress of Zeeb, and pursued Midian: and they brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

<sup>8:1</sup>The men of Ephraim said to him, "Why have you treated us this way, that you didn't call us, when you went to fight with Midian?" They rebuked him sharply. <sup>8:2</sup>He said to them, "What have I now done in comparison with you? Isn't the gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abiezer? <sup>8:3</sup>God has delivered into your hand the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb! What was I able to do in comparison with you?" Then their anger was abated toward him, when he had said that.

<sup>8:4</sup>Gideon came to the Jordan, and passed over, he, and the three hundred men who were with him, faint, yet pursuing. <sup>8:5</sup>He said to the men of Succoth, "Please give loaves of bread to the people who follow me; for they are faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian."

<sup>8:6</sup>The princes of Succoth said, "Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your army?"

<sup>8:7</sup>Gideon said, "Therefore when the LORD has delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, then I will tear your flesh with the thorns of the wilderness and with briers."

<sup>8:8</sup>He went up there to Penuel, and spoke to them in the same way; and the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered. <sup>8:9</sup>He spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, "When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower."

<sup>8:10</sup>Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their armies with them, about fifteen thousand men, all who were left of all the army of the children of the east; for there fell one hundred twenty thousand men who drew sword. <sup>8:11</sup>Gideon went up by the way of those who lived in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and struck the army; for the army was secure. <sup>8:12</sup>Zebah and Zalmunna fled; and he pursued after them; and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and confused all the army. <sup>8:13</sup>Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle from the ascent of Heres. <sup>8:14</sup>He caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him: and he described for him the princes of Succoth, and its elders, seventy-seven men. <sup>8:15</sup>He came to the men of Succoth, and said, "See Zebah and Zalmunna, concerning whom you taunted me, saying, 'Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in your hand, that we should give bread to your men who are weary?'" <sup>8:16</sup>He took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briers, and with them he taught the men of Succoth. <sup>8:17</sup>He broke down the tower of Penuel, and killed the men of the city.

<sup>8:18</sup>Then he said to Zebah and Zalmunna, "What kind of men were they whom you killed at Tabor?"

They answered, "They were like you. Each one resembled the children of a king."

<sup>8:19</sup>He said, "They were my brothers, the sons of my mother. As the LORD lives, if you had saved them alive, I would not kill you."

<sup>8:20</sup>He said to Jether his firstborn, "Get up, and kill them!" But the youth didn't draw his sword; for he was afraid, because he was yet a youth.

<sup>8:21</sup>Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, "Rise and fall on us; for as the man is, so is his strength." Gideon arose, and killed Zebah and Zalmunna, and took the crescents that were on their camels' necks.

<sup>8:22</sup>Then the men of Israel said to Gideon, "Rule over us, both you, and your son, and your son's son also; for you have saved us out of the hand of Midian."

<sup>8:23</sup>Gideon said to them, "I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over you. The LORD shall rule over you." <sup>8:24</sup>Gideon said to them, "I would make a request of you, that you would give me every man the earrings of his spoil." (For they had golden earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.)

<sup>8:25</sup>They answered, "We will willingly give them." They spread a garment, and every man threw the earrings of his spoil into it. <sup>8:26</sup>The weight of the golden earrings that he requested was one thousand and seven hundred shekels of gold, besides the crescents, and the pendants, and the purple clothing that was on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were about their camels' necks. <sup>8:27</sup>Gideon made an ephod of it, and put it in his city, even in Ophrah: and all Israel played the prostitute after it there; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house. <sup>8:28</sup>So Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. The land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon. <sup>8:29</sup>Jerubbaal the son of Joash went and lived in his own house. <sup>8:30</sup>Gideon had seventy sons conceived from his body; for he had many wives. <sup>8:31</sup>His concubine who was in Shechem, she also bore him a son, and he named him Abimelech. <sup>8:32</sup>Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the tomb of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abiezrites. <sup>8:33</sup>It happened, as soon as Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and played the prostitute after the Baals, and made Baal Berith their god. <sup>8:34</sup>The children of Israel didn't remember the LORD their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side; <sup>8:35</sup>neither did they show kindness to the house of Jerubbaal, Gideon, according to all the goodness which he had shown to Israel.

<sup>9:1</sup>Abimelech the son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brothers, and spoke with them, and with all the family of the house of his mother's father, saying, <sup>9:2</sup>"Please speak in the ears of all the men of Shechem, 'Is it better for you that all the sons of Jerubbaal, who are seventy persons, rule over you, or that one rule over you?' Remember also that I am your bone and your flesh."

<sup>9:3</sup>His mother's brothers spoke of him in the ears of all the men of Shechem all these words: and their hearts inclined to follow Abimelech; for they said, "He is our brother." <sup>9:4</sup>They gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal Berith, with which Abimelech hired vain and light fellows, who followed him. <sup>9:5</sup>He went to his father's house at Ophrah, and killed his brothers the sons of Jerubbaal, being seventy persons, on one stone: but Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal was left; for he hid himself. <sup>9:6</sup>All the men of Shechem assembled themselves together, and all the house of Millo, and went and made Abimelech king, by the oak of the pillar that was in Shechem. <sup>9:7</sup>When they told it to Jotham, he went and stood on the top of Mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said to them, "Listen to me, you men of Shechem, that God may listen to you. <sup>9:8</sup>The trees went forth on a time to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive tree, 'Reign over us.'

<sup>9:9</sup>"But the olive tree said to them, 'Should I leave my fatness, with which by me they honor God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>9:11</sup>"But the fig tree said to them, 'Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>9:13</sup>"The vine said to them, 'Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and man, and go to wave back and forth over the trees?'

<sup>9:15</sup>"The bramble said to the trees, 'If in truth you anoint me king over you, then come and take refuge in my shade; and if not, let fire come out of the bramble, and devour the cedars of Lebanon.'

<sup>9:16</sup>"Now therefore, if you have dealt truly and righteously, in that you have made Abimelech king, and if you have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and have done to him according to the deserving of his hands <sup>9:17</sup>(for my father fought for you, and risked his life, and delivered you out of the hand of Midian: <sup>9:18</sup>and you have risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy persons, on one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his female servant, king over the men of Shechem, because he is your brother); <sup>9:19</sup>if you then have dealt truly and righteously with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, then rejoice in Abimelech, and let him also rejoice in you: <sup>9:20</sup>but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the men of Shechem, and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the men of Shechem, and from the house of Millo, and devour Abimelech."

trod the grapes, and held festival, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech. <sup>9:28</sup>Gaal the son of Ebed said, "Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? Isn't he the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his officer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: but why should we serve him? <sup>9:29</sup>Would that this people were under my hand! Then I would remove Abimelech." He said to Abimelech, "Increase your army, and come out!"

<sup>9:30</sup>When Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, his anger was kindled. <sup>9:31</sup>He sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, "Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem; and behold, they incite the city against you. <sup>9:32</sup>Now therefore, go up by night, you and the people who are with you, and lie in wait in the field: <sup>9:33</sup>and it shall be, that in the morning, as soon as the sun is up, you shall rise early, and rush on the city; and behold, when he and the people who are with him come out against you, then may you do to them as you shall find occasion."

<sup>9:34</sup>Abimelech rose up, and all the people who were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in four companies. <sup>9:35</sup>Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and Abimelech rose up, and the people who were with him, from the ambush.

<sup>9:36</sup>When Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, "Behold, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains."

Zebul said to him, "You see the shadow of the mountains as if they were men."

<sup>9:37</sup>Gaal spoke again and said, "Behold, people are coming down by the middle of the land, and one company comes by the way of the oak of Meonenim."

<sup>9:38</sup>Then Zebul said to him, "Now where is your mouth, that you said, 'Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him?' Isn't this the people that you have despised? Please go out now and fight with them."

his brothers, that they should not dwell in Shechem. <sup>9:42</sup>It happened on the next day, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abimelech. <sup>9:43</sup>He took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field; and he looked, and behold, the people came forth out of the city; He rose up against them, and struck them. <sup>9:44</sup>Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city: and the two companies rushed on all who were in the field, and struck them. <sup>9:45</sup>Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and killed the people who were therein: and he beat down the city, and sowed it with salt.

<sup>9:54</sup>Then he called hastily to the young man his armor bearer, and said to him, "Draw your sword, and kill me, that men not say of me, 'A woman killed him.' His young man thrust him through, and he died."

<sup>9:55</sup>When the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man to his place. <sup>9:56</sup>Thus God required the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father, in killing his seventy brothers;<sup>9:57</sup> and all the wickedness of the men of Shechem did God requite on their heads: and on them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

<sup>10:1</sup>After Abimelech there arose to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he lived in Shamir in the hill country of Ephraim. <sup>10:2</sup>He judged Israel twenty-three years, and died, and was buried in Shamir. <sup>10:3</sup>After him arose Jair, the Gileadite; and he judged Israel twenty-two years. <sup>10:4</sup>He had thirty sons who rode on thirty donkey colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called Havvoth Jair to this day, which are in the land of Gilead. <sup>10:5</sup>Jair died, and was buried in Kamon. <sup>10:6</sup>The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and served the Baals, and the Ashtaroth, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook the LORD, and didn't serve him. <sup>10:7</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of Ammon. <sup>10:8</sup>They troubled and oppressed the children of Israel that year. For eighteen years, they oppressed all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead. <sup>10:9</sup>The children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was very distressed. <sup>10:10</sup>The children of Israel cried to the LORD, saying, "We have sinned against you, even because we have forsaken our God, and have served the Baals."

<sup>10:11</sup>The LORD said to the children of Israel, "Didn't I save you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines? <sup>10:12</sup>The Sidonians also, and the Amalekites, and the Maonites, oppressed you; and you cried to me, and I saved you out of their hand. <sup>10:13</sup>Yet you have forsaken me, and served other gods: therefore I will save you no more. <sup>10:14</sup>Go and cry to the gods which you have chosen. Let them save you in the time of your distress!"

<sup>10:15</sup>The children of Israel said to the LORD, "We have sinned: do you to us whatever seems good to you; only deliver us, please, this day."

<sup>10:16</sup>They put away the foreign gods from among them, and served the LORD; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.

<sup>10:17</sup>Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead. The children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Mizpah. <sup>10:18</sup>The people, the princes of Gilead, said one to another, "What man is he who will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? He shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>11:1</sup>Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valor, and he was the son of a prostitute: and Gilead became the father of Jephthah. <sup>11:2</sup>Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons grew up, they drove out Jephthah, and said to him, "You shall not inherit in our father's house; for you are the son of another woman." <sup>11:3</sup>Then Jephthah fled from his brothers, and lived in the land of Tob: and there were gathered vain fellows to Jephthah, and they went out with him. <sup>11:4</sup>It happened after a while, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel. <sup>11:5</sup>It was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah out of the land of Tob; <sup>11:6</sup>and they said to Jephthah, "Come and be our chief, that we may fight with the children of Ammon."

<sup>11:7</sup>Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "Didn't you hate me, and drive me out of my father's house? Why have you come to me now when you are in distress?"

<sup>11:8</sup>The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "Therefore we have turned again to you now, that you may go with us, and fight with the children of Ammon; and you shall be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead."

<sup>11:9</sup>Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, "If you bring me home again to fight with the children of Ammon, and the LORD deliver them before me, shall I be your head?"

<sup>11:10</sup>The elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, "The LORD shall be witness between us; surely according to your word so will we do."

<sup>11:11</sup>Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and chief over them: and Jephthah spoke all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

<sup>11:12</sup>Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, "What have you to do with me, that you have come to me to fight against my land?"

<sup>11:13</sup>The king of the children of Ammon answered to the messengers of Jephthah, "Because Israel took away my land, when he came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and to the Jordan: now therefore restore that territory again peaceably."

<sup>11:14</sup>Jephthah sent messengers again to the king of the children of Ammon; <sup>11:15</sup>and he said to him, "Thus says Jephthah: Israel didn't take away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon, <sup>11:16</sup>but when they came up from Egypt, and Israel went through the wilderness to the Sea of Suf, and came to Kadesh; <sup>11:17</sup>then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, 'Please let me pass through your land;' but the king of Edom didn't listen. In the same way, he sent to the king of Moab; but he would not: and Israel stayed in Kadesh. <sup>11:18</sup>Then they went through the wilderness, and went around the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the east side of the land of Moab, and they encamped on the other side of the Arnon; but they didn't come within the border of Moab, for the Arnon was the border of Moab. <sup>11:19</sup>Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon; and Israel said to him, 'Please let us pass through your land to my place.' <sup>11:20</sup>But Sihon didn't trust Israel to pass through his border; but Sihon gathered all his people together, and encamped in Jahaz, and fought against Israel. <sup>11:21</sup>The LORD, the God of Israel, delivered Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they struck them: so Israel possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that country. <sup>11:22</sup>They possessed all the border of the Amorites, from the Arnon even to the Jabbok, and from the wilderness even to the Jordan. <sup>11:23</sup>So now the LORD, the God of Israel, has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and should you possess them? <sup>11:24</sup>Won't you possess that which Chemosh your god gives you to possess? So whoever the LORD our God has dispossessed from before us, them will we possess. <sup>11:25</sup>Now are you anything better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever strive against Israel, or did he ever fight against them? <sup>11:26</sup>While Israel lived in Heshbon and its towns, and in Aroer and its towns, and in all the cities that are along by the side of the Arnon, three hundred years; why didn't you recover them within that time? <sup>11:27</sup>I therefore have not sinned against you, but you do me wrong to war against me. The LORD, the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon."

<sup>11:28</sup>However the king of the children of Ammon didn't listen to the words of Jephthah which he sent him. <sup>11:29</sup>Then the Spirit of the LORD came on Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead and Manasseh, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon.

<sup>11:30</sup>Jephthah vowed a vow to the LORD, and said, "If you will indeed deliver the children of Ammon into my hand, <sup>11:31</sup>then it shall be, that whatever comes forth from the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, it shall be the LORD's, and I will offer it up for a burnt offering."

<sup>11:32</sup>So Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and the LORD delivered them into his hand. <sup>11:33</sup>He struck them from Aroer until you come to Minnith, even twenty cities, and to Abelcheramim, with a very great slaughter. So the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

<sup>11:34</sup>Jephthah came to Mizpah to his house; and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with tambourines and with dances: and she was his only child; besides her he had neither son nor daughter. <sup>11:35</sup>It happened, when he saw her, that he tore his clothes, and said, "Alas, my daughter! You have brought me very low, and you are one of those who trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to the LORD, and I can't go back."

<sup>11:36</sup>She said to him, "My father, you have opened your mouth to the LORD; do to me according to that which has proceeded out of your mouth, because the LORD has taken vengeance for you on your enemies, even on the children of Ammon." <sup>11:37</sup>She said to her father, "Let this thing be done for me: let me alone two months, that I may depart and go down on the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my companions."

<sup>11:38</sup>He said, "Go." He sent her away for two months: and she departed, she and her companions, and mourned her virginity on the mountains. <sup>11:39</sup>It happened at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, who did with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she was a virgin. It was a custom in Israel, <sup>11:40</sup>that the daughters of Israel went yearly to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

<sup>12:1</sup>The men of Ephraim were gathered together, and passed northward; and they said to Jephthah, "Why did you pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didn't call us to go with you? We will burn your house around you with fire!"

<sup>12:2</sup>Jephthah said to them, "I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, you didn't save me out of their hand. <sup>12:3</sup>When I saw that you didn't save me, I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the LORD delivered them into my hand. Why then have you come up to me this day, to fight against me?"

<sup>12:4</sup>Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead struck Ephraim, because they said, "You are fugitives of Ephraim, you Gileadites, in the midst of Ephraim, and in the midst of Manasseh." <sup>12:5</sup>The Gileadites took the fords of the Jordan against the Ephraimites. It was so, that when the fugitives of Ephraim said, "Let me go over," the men of Gilead said to him, "Are you an Ephraimite?" If he said, "No;" <sup>12:6</sup>then they said to him, "Now say 'Shibboleth,'" and he said "Sibboleth;" for he couldn't manage to pronounce it right: then they siezed him, and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. At that time, forty-two thousand of Ephraim fell. <sup>12:7</sup>Jephthah judged Israel six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in the cities of Gilead. <sup>12:8</sup>After him Ibzan of Bethlehem judged Israel. <sup>12:9</sup>He had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he sent abroad, and thirty daughters he brought in from abroad for his sons. He judged Israel seven years. <sup>12:10</sup>Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem. <sup>12:11</sup>After him Elon the Zebulunite judged Israel; and he judged Israel ten years. <sup>12:12</sup>Elon the Zebulunite died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun. <sup>12:13</sup>After him Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite judged Israel. <sup>12:14</sup>He had forty sons and thirty sons' sons, who rode on seventy donkey colts:

and he judged Israel eight years. <sup>12:15</sup>Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

<sup>13:1</sup>The children of Israel again did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD; and the LORD delivered them into the hand of the Philistines forty years. <sup>13:2</sup>There was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Manoah; and his wife was barren, and didn't bear. <sup>13:3</sup>The angel of the LORD appeared to the woman, and said to her, "See now, you are barren, and don't bear; but you shall conceive, and bear a son. <sup>13:4</sup>Now therefore please beware and drink no wine nor strong drink, and don't eat any unclean thing: <sup>13:5</sup>for, behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and no razor shall come on his head; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb: and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>13:6</sup>Then the woman came and told her husband, saying, "A man of God came to me, and his face was like the face of the angel of God, very awesome; and I didn't ask him where he was from, neither did he tell me his name: <sup>13:7</sup>but he said to me, 'Behold, you shall conceive, and bear a son; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, and eat not any unclean thing; for the child shall be a Nazirite to God from the womb to the day of his death.'"

<sup>13:8</sup>Then Manoah entreated the LORD, and said, "Oh, Lord, please let the man of God whom you did send come again to us, and teach us what we shall do to the child who shall be born."

<sup>13:9</sup>God listened to the voice of Manoah; and the angel of God came again to the woman as she sat in the field: but Manoah, her husband, wasn't with her. <sup>13:10</sup>The woman made haste, and ran, and told her husband, and said to him, "Behold, the man has appeared to me, who came to me that day."

<sup>13:11</sup>Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, "Are you the man who spoke to the woman?"

He said, "I am."

<sup>13:12</sup>Manoah said, "Now let your words happen. What shall the child's way of life and mission be?"

<sup>13:13</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Of all that I said to the woman let her beware.

<sup>13:15</sup>Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "Please, let us detain you, that we may make a young goat ready for you."

<sup>13:16</sup>The angel of the LORD said to Manoah, "Though you detain me, I won't eat of your bread; and if you will prepare a burnt offering, you must offer it to the LORD." For Manoah didn't know that he was the angel of the LORD.

<sup>13:17</sup>Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, "What is your name, that when your words happen, we may honor you?"

<sup>13:18</sup>The angel of the LORD said to him, "Why do you ask about my name, since it is wonderful?"

<sup>13:19</sup>So Manoah took the young goat with the meal offering, and offered it on the rock to the LORD. Then the angel did a wonderful thing as Manoah and his wife looked on.

<sup>13:20</sup>For it happened, when the flame went up toward the sky from off the altar, that the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame of the altar: and Manoah and his wife looked on; and they fell on their faces to the ground. <sup>13:21</sup>But the angel of the LORD didn't appear to Manoah or to his wife any more. Then Manoah knew that he was the angel of the LORD. <sup>13:22</sup>Manoah said to his wife, "We shall surely die, because we have seen God."

<sup>13:23</sup>But his wife said to him, "If the LORD were pleased to kill us, he wouldn't have received a burnt offering and a meal offering at our hand, neither would he have shown us all these things, nor would at this time have told such things as these." <sup>13:24</sup>The woman bore a son, and named him Samson: and the child grew, and the LORD blessed him. <sup>13:25</sup>The Spirit of the LORD began to move him in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

<sup>14:1</sup>Samson went down to Timnah, and saw a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines. <sup>14:2</sup>He came up, and told his father and his mother, and said, "I have seen a woman in Timnah of the daughters of the Philistines: now therefore get her for me as wife."

<sup>14:3</sup>Then his father and his mother said to him, "Is there never a woman among the daughters of your brothers, or among all my people, that you go to take a wife of the uncircumcised Philistines?"

Samson said to his father, "Get her for me; for she pleases me well."

<sup>14:4</sup>But his father and his mother didn't know that it was of the LORD; for he sought an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time the Philistines had rule over Israel.

<sup>14:5</sup>Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnah, and came to the vineyards of Timnah: and behold, a young lion roared against him. <sup>14:6</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came mightily on him, and he tore him as he would have torn a young goat; and he had nothing in his hand: but he didn't tell his father or his mother what he had done. <sup>14:7</sup>He went down, and talked with the woman, and she pleased Samson well. <sup>14:8</sup>After a while he returned to take her; and he turned aside to see the carcass of the lion: and behold, there was a swarm of bees in the body of the lion, and honey. <sup>14:9</sup>He took it into his hands, and went on, eating as he went; and he came to his father and mother, and gave to them, and they ate: but he didn't tell them that he had taken the honey out of the body of the lion. <sup>14:10</sup>His father went down to the woman: and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young men to do. <sup>14:11</sup>It happened, when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions to be with him. <sup>14:12</sup>Samson said to them, "Let me tell you a riddle now. If you can declare it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find it out, then I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing; <sup>14:13</sup>but if you can't declare it to me, then you shall give me thirty linen garments and thirty changes of clothing."

They said to him, "Put forth your riddle, that we may hear it." <sup>14:14</sup>He said to them, "Out of the eater came forth food. Out of the strong came forth sweetness."

They couldn't in three days declare the riddle. <sup>14:15</sup>It happened on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife, "Entice your husband, that he may declare to us the riddle, lest we burn you and your father's house with fire. Have you called us to impoverish us? Is it not so?"

<sup>14:16</sup>Samson's wife wept before him, and said, "You just hate me, and don't love me. You have put forth a riddle to the children of my people, and haven't told it me."

He said to her, "Behold, I haven't told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell you?"

<sup>14:17</sup>She wept before him the seven days, while their feast lasted: and it happened on the seventh day, that he told her, because she pressed him severely; and she told the riddle to the children of her people. <sup>14:18</sup>The men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?"

He said to them,
"If you hadn't plowed with my heifer, you wouldn't have found out my riddle."

<sup>14:19</sup>The Spirit of the LORD came mightily on him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and struck thirty men of them, and took their spoil, and gave the changes of clothing to those who declared the riddle. His anger was kindled, and he went up to his father's house. <sup>14:20</sup>But Samson's wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

<sup>15:1</sup>But it happened after a while, in the time of wheat harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a young goat; and he said, "I will go in to my wife into the room."

But her father wouldn't allow him to go in. <sup>15:2</sup>Her father said, "I most certainly thought that you had utterly hated her; therefore I gave her to your companion. Isn't her younger sister more beautiful than she? Please take her, instead."

<sup>15:3</sup>Samson said to them, "This time I will be blameless in regard of the Philistines, when I harm them." <sup>15:4</sup>Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst between every two tails. <sup>15:5</sup>When he had set the brands on fire, he let them go into the standing grain of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks and the standing grain, and also the olive groves.

<sup>15:6</sup>Then the Philistines said, "Who has done this?"

They said, "Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he has taken his wife, and given her to his companion." The Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

<sup>15:7</sup>Samson said to them, "If you behave like this, surely I will be avenged of you, and after that I will cease." <sup>15:8</sup>He struck them hip and thigh with a great slaughter: and he went down and lived in the cleft of the rock of Etam. <sup>15:9</sup>Then the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.

<sup>15:10</sup>The men of Judah said, "Why have you come up against us?"

They said, "We have come up to bind Samson, to do to him as he has done to us."

<sup>15:11</sup>Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the rock of Etam, and said to Samson, "Don't you know that the Philistines are rulers over us? What then is this that you have done to us?"

He said to them, "As they did to me, so have I done to them."

<sup>15:12</sup>They said to him, "We have come down to bind you, that we may deliver you into the hand of the Philistines."

Samson said to them, "Swear to me that you will not fall on me yourselves."

<sup>15:13</sup>They spoke to him, saying, "No; but we will bind you fast, and deliver you into their hand; but surely we will not kill you." They bound him with two new ropes, and brought him up from the rock.

<sup>15:14</sup>When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted as they met him: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily on him, and the ropes that were on his arms became as flax that was burnt with fire, and his bands dropped from off his hands. <sup>15:15</sup>He found a fresh jawbone of a donkey, and put forth his hand, and took it, and struck a thousand men therewith. <sup>15:16</sup>Samson said, "With the jawbone of a donkey, heaps on heaps; with the jawbone of a donkey I have struck a thousand men." <sup>15:17</sup>It happened, when he had made an end of speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand; and that place was called Ramath Lehi. <sup>15:18</sup>He was very thirsty, and called on the LORD, and said, "You have given this great deliverance by the hand of your servant; and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircumcised?"

<sup>15:19</sup>But God split the hollow place that is in Lehi, and water came out of it. When he had drunk, his spirit came again, and he revived: therefore its name was called En Hakkore, which is in Lehi, to this day. <sup>15:20</sup>He judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

were told, "Samson is here!" They surrounded him, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, "Wait until morning light, then we will kill him." <sup>16:3</sup>Samson lay until midnight, and arose at midnight, and laid hold of the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and plucked them up, bar and all, and put them on his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.

<sup>16:4</sup>It came to pass afterward, that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah. <sup>16:5</sup>The lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, "Entice him, and see in which his great strength lies, and by what means we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to afflict him; and we will each give you eleven hundred pieces of silver."

<sup>16:6</sup>Delilah said to Samson, "Please tell me where your great strength lies, and what you might be bound to afflict you."

<sup>16:7</sup>Samson said to her, "If they bind me with seven green cords that were never dried, then shall I become weak, and be as another man."

<sup>16:8</sup>Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven green cords which had not been dried, and she bound him with them. <sup>16:9</sup>Now she had an ambush waiting in the inner room. She said to him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He broke the cords, as a string of tow is broken when it touches the fire. So his strength was not known.

<sup>16:10</sup>Delilah said to Samson, "Behold, you have mocked me, and told me lies: now please tell me with which you might be bound."

<sup>16:11</sup>He said to her, "If they only bind me with new ropes with which no work has been done, then shall I become weak, and be as another man."

<sup>16:12</sup>So Delilah took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said to him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" The ambush was waiting in the inner room. He broke them off his arms like a thread.

<sup>16:13</sup>Delilah said to Samson, "Until now, you have mocked me and told me lies. Tell me with what you might be bound."

He said to her, "If you weave the seven locks of my head with the web."

<sup>16:14</sup>She fastened it with the pin, and said to him, "The Philistines are on you, Samson!" He awakened out of his sleep, and plucked away the pin of the beam, and the web.

<sup>16:15</sup>She said to him, "How can you say, 'I love you,' when your heart is not with me? You have mocked me these three times, and have not told me where your great strength lies."

<sup>16:16</sup>It happened, when she pressed him daily with her words, and urged him, that his soul was troubled to death. <sup>16:17</sup>He told her all his heart, and said to her, "No razor has ever come on my head; for I have been a Nazirite to God from my mother's womb. If I am shaved, then my strength will go from me, and I will become weak, and be like any other man."

<sup>16:18</sup>When Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, "Come up this once, for he has told me all his heart." Then the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought the money in their hand. <sup>16:19</sup>She made him sleep on her knees; and she called for a man, and shaved off the seven locks of his head; and she began to afflict him, and his strength went from him. <sup>16:20</sup>She said, "The Philistines are upon you, Samson!"

He awoke out of his sleep, and said, "I will go out as at other times, and shake myself free." But he didn't know that the LORD had departed from him. <sup>16:21</sup>The Philistines laid hold on him, and put out his eyes; and they brought him down to Gaza, and bound him with fetters of brass; and he ground at the mill in the prison. <sup>16:22</sup>However the hair of his head began to grow again after he was shaved.

<sup>16:23</sup>The lords of the Philistines gathered them together to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, "Our god has delivered Samson our enemy into our hand." <sup>16:24</sup>When the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, "Our god has delivered our enemy and the destroyer of our country, who has slain many of us, into our hand."

<sup>16:25</sup>It happened, when their hearts were merry, that they said, "Call for Samson, that he may entertain us." They called for Samson out of the prison; and he performed before them. They set him between the pillars; <sup>16:26</sup>and Samson said to the boy who held him by the hand, "Allow me to feel the pillars whereupon the house rests, that I may lean on them."

<sup>16:27</sup>Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and there were on the roof about three thousand men and women, who saw while Samson performed. <sup>16:28</sup>Samson called to the LORD, and said, "Lord GOD, remember me, please, and strengthen me, please, only this once, God, that I may be at once avenged of the Philistines for my two eyes." <sup>16:29</sup>Samson took hold of the two middle pillars on which the house rested, and leaned on them, the one with his right hand, and the other with his left. <sup>16:30</sup>Samson said, "Let me die with the Philistines!" He bowed himself with all his might; and the house fell on the lords, and on all the people who were therein. So the dead that he killed at his death were more than those who he killed in his life. <sup>16:31</sup>Then his brothers and all the house of his father came down, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the burial site of Manoah his father. He judged Israel twenty years.

<sup>17:1</sup>There was a man of the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Micah. <sup>17:2</sup>He said to his mother, "The eleven hundred pieces of silver that were taken from you, about which you uttered a curse, and also spoke it in my ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it."

His mother said, "Blessed be my son of the LORD."

<sup>17:3</sup>He restored the eleven hundred pieces of silver to his mother; and his mother said, "I most certainly dedicate the silver to the LORD from my hand for my son, to make an engraved image and a molten image. Now therefore I will restore it to you."

<sup>17:4</sup>When he restored the money to his mother, his mother took two hundred pieces of silver, and gave them to the founder, who made of it an engraved image and a molten image: and it was in the house of Micah.

<sup>17:5</sup>The man Micah had a house of gods, and he made an ephod, and teraphim, and consecrated one of his sons, who became his priest. <sup>17:6</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes. <sup>17:7</sup>There was a young man out of Bethlehem Judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite; and he lived there. <sup>17:8</sup>The man departed out of the city, out of Bethlehem Judah, to live where he could find a place, and he came to the hill country of Ephraim to the house of Micah, as he traveled. <sup>17:9</sup>Micah said to him, "Where did you come from?"

He said to him, "I am a Levite of Bethlehem Judah, and I am looking for a place to live."

<sup>17:10</sup>Micah said to him, "Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give you ten pieces of silver per year, a suit of clothing, and your food." So the Levite went in. <sup>17:11</sup>The Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of his sons. <sup>17:12</sup>Micah consecrated the Levite, and the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah. <sup>17:13</sup>Then Micah said, "Now know I that the LORD will do good to me, since I have a Levite to my priest."

<sup>18:1</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel: and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day, their inheritance had not fallen to them among the tribes of Israel. <sup>18:2</sup>The children of Dan sent of their family five men from their whole number, men of valor, from Zorah, and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to search it; and they said to them, "Go, explore the land!"

They came to the hill country of Ephraim, to the house of Micah, and lodged there.

<sup>18:3</sup>When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite; and they turned aside there, and said to him, "Who brought you here? What do you do in this place? What do you have here?"

<sup>18:4</sup>He said to them, "Thus and thus has Micah dealt with me, and he has hired me, and I am become his priest."

<sup>18:5</sup>They said to him, "Please ask counsel of God, that we may know whether our way which we go shall be prosperous."

<sup>18:6</sup>The priest said to them, "Go in peace. Your way in which you go is before the LORD."

<sup>18:7</sup>Then the five men departed, and came to Laish, and saw the people who were therein, how they lived in security, in the way of the Sidonians, quiet and secure; for there was none in the land, possessing authority, that might put them to shame in anything, and they were far from the Sidonians, and had no dealings with any man. <sup>18:8</sup>They came to their brothers to Zorah and Eshtaol: and their brothers said to them, "What do you say?"

<sup>18:9</sup>They said, "Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good. Do you stand still?"

Don't be slothful to go and to enter in to possess the land. <sup>18:10</sup>When you go, you shall come to a secure people, and the land is large; for God has given it into your hand, a place where there is no want of anything that is in the earth."

<sup>18:11</sup>There set forth from there of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men girt with weapons of war. <sup>18:12</sup>They went up, and encamped in Kiriath Jearim, in Judah: therefore they called that place Mahaneh Dan, to this day; behold, it is behind Kiriath Jearim. <sup>18:13</sup>They passed there to the hill country of Ephraim, and came to the house of Micah.

<sup>18:14</sup>Then the five men who went to spy out the country of Laish answered, and said to their brothers, "Do you know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and an engraved image, and a molten image? Now therefore consider what you have to do."

<sup>18:15</sup>They turned aside there, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, even to the house of Micah, and asked him of his welfare. <sup>18:16</sup>The six hundred men girt with their weapons of war, who were of the children of Dan, stood by the entrance of the gate. <sup>18:17</sup>The five men who went to spy out the land went up, and came in there, and took the engraved image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image: and the priest stood by the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men girt with weapons of war.

<sup>18:18</sup>When these went into Micah's house, and fetched the engraved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image, the priest said to them, "What are you doing?"

<sup>18:19</sup>They said to him, "Hold your peace, put your hand on your mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for you to be priest to the house of one man, or to be priest to a tribe and a family in Israel?"

<sup>18:20</sup>The priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the engraved image, and went in the midst of the people. <sup>18:21</sup>So they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the livestock and the goods before them. <sup>18:22</sup>When they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men who were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan. <sup>18:23</sup>They cried to the children of Dan. They turned their faces, and said to Micah,

"What ails you, that you come with such a company?"

<sup>18:24</sup>He said, "You have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and have gone away, and what more do I have? How then do you say to me, 'What ails you?'"

<sup>18:25</sup>The children of Dan said to him, "Don't let your voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows fall on you, and you lose your life, with the lives of your household."

<sup>18:26</sup>The children of Dan went their way: and when Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back to his house.

<sup>18:27</sup>They took that which Micah had made, and the priest whom he had, and came to Laish, to a people quiet and secure, and struck them with the edge of the sword; and they burnt the city with fire. <sup>18:28</sup>There was no deliverer, because it was far from Sidon, and they had no dealings with any man; and it was in the valley that lies by Beth Rehob. They built the city, and lived therein. <sup>18:29</sup>They called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel: however the name of the city was Laish at the first.

<sup>18:30</sup>The children of Dan set up for themselves the engraved image: and Jonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, he and his sons were priests to the tribe of the Danites until the day of the captivity of the land. <sup>18:31</sup>So they set them up Micah's engraved image which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

<sup>19:1</sup>It happened in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite living on the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Bethlehem Judah. <sup>19:2</sup>His concubine played the prostitute against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Bethlehem Judah, and was there the space of four months. <sup>19:3</sup>Her husband arose, and went after her, to speak kindly to her, to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of donkeys: and she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the young lady saw him, he rejoiced to meet him. <sup>19:4</sup>His father-in-law, the young lady's father, retained him; and he stayed with him three days: so they ate and drink, and lodged there.

<sup>19:5</sup>It happened on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart: and the young lady's father said to his son-in-law, "Strengthen your heart with a morsel of bread, and afterward you shall go your way." <sup>19:6</sup>So they sat down, ate, and drank, both of them together: and the young lady's father said to the man, "Please be pleased to stay all night, and let your heart be merry." <sup>19:7</sup>The man rose up to depart; but his father-in-law urged him, and he lodged there again. <sup>19:8</sup>He arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; and the young lady's father said, "Please strengthen your heart and stay until the day declines;" and they both ate.

<sup>19:9</sup>When the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant, his father-in-law, the young lady's father, said to him, "Behold, now the day draws toward evening, please stay all night: behold, the day grows to an end, lodge here, that your heart may be merry; and tomorrow go on your way early, that you may go home." <sup>19:10</sup>But the man wouldn't stay that night, but he rose up and departed, and came over against Jebus (the same is Jerusalem): and there were with him a couple of donkeys saddled; his concubine also was with him.

<sup>19:11</sup>When they were by Jebus, the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, "Please come and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it."

<sup>19:12</sup>His master said to him, "We won't turn aside into the city of a foreigner, that is not of the children of Israel; but we will pass over to Gibeah." <sup>19:13</sup>He said to his servant, "Come and let us draw near to one of these places; and we will lodge in Gibeah, or in Ramah." <sup>19:14</sup>So they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down on them near to Gibeah, which belongs to Benjamin. <sup>19:15</sup>They turned aside there, to go in to lodge in Gibeah: and he went in, and sat him down in the street of the city; for there was no man who took them into his house to lodge.

<sup>19:16</sup>Behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at evening: now the man was of the hill country of Ephraim, and he lived in Gibeah; but the men of the place were Benjamites. <sup>19:17</sup>He lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfaring man in the street of the city; and the old man said, "Where are you going? Where did you come from?"

Bethlehem Judah to the farther side of the hill country of Ephraim. I am from there, and I went to Bethlehem Judah. I am going to the house of the LORD; and there is no man who takes me into his house. <sup>19:19</sup>Yet there is both straw and provender for our donkeys; and there is bread and wine also for me, and for your handmaid, and for the young man who is with your servants: there is no want of anything."

<sup>19:20</sup>The old man said, "Peace be to you; howsoever let all your wants lie on me; only don't lodge in the street." <sup>19:21</sup>So he brought him into his house, and gave the donkeys fodder; and they washed their feet, and ate and drink. <sup>19:22</sup>As they were making their hearts merry, behold, the men of the city, certain base fellows, surrounded the house, beating at the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, "Bring out the man who came into your house, that we may have sex with him!"

<sup>19:23</sup>The man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, "No, my brothers, please don't act so wickedly; since this man has come into my house, don't do this folly. <sup>19:24</sup>Behold, here is my virgin daughter and his concubine. I will bring them out now. Humble them, and do with them what seems good to you; but to this man don't do any such folly."

<sup>19:25</sup>But the men wouldn't listen to him: so the man laid hold of his concubine, and brought her out to them; and they had sex with her, and abused her all night until the morning: and when the day began to dawn, they let her go. <sup>19:26</sup>Then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell down at the door of the man's house where her lord was, until it was light. <sup>19:27</sup>Her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way; and behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

<sup>19:28</sup>He said to her, "Get up, and let us be going!" but no one answered. Then he took her up on the donkey; and the man rose up, and went to his place.

<sup>19:29</sup>When he had come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, limb by limb, into twelve pieces, and sent her throughout all the borders of Israel. <sup>19:30</sup>It was so, that all who saw it said, "There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt to this day! Consider it, take counsel, and speak."

<sup>20:1</sup>Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was assembled as one man, from Dan even to Beersheba, with the land of Gilead, to the LORD at Mizpah. <sup>20:2</sup>The chiefs of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen who drew sword. <sup>20:3</sup>(Now the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah.) The children of Israel said, "Tell us, how did this wickedness happen?"

<sup>20:4</sup>The Levite, the husband of the woman who was murdered, answered, "I came into Gibeah that belongs to Benjamin, I and my concubine, to lodge. <sup>20:5</sup>The men of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house by night. They thought to have slain me, and they forced my concubine, and she is dead. <sup>20:6</sup>I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and folly in Israel. <sup>20:7</sup>Behold, you children of Israel, all of you, give here your advice and counsel."

<sup>20:8</sup>All the people arose as one man, saying, "None of us will go to his tent, neither will any of us turn to his house. <sup>20:9</sup>But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: we will go up against it by lot; <sup>20:10</sup>and we will take ten men of one hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and one hundred of one thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to get food for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah of Benjamin, according to all the folly that they have worked in Israel." <sup>20:11</sup>So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.

<sup>20:12</sup>The tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, "What wickedness is this that is happen among you? <sup>20:13</sup>Now therefore deliver up the men, the base fellows, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel."

But Benjamin would not listen to the voice of their brothers the children of Israel. <sup>20:14</sup>The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities to Gibeah, to go out to battle against the children of Israel. <sup>20:15</sup>The children of Benjamin were numbered on that day out of the cities twenty-six thousand men who drew the sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen men. <sup>20:16</sup>Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; everyone could sling stones at a hair-breadth, and not miss. <sup>20:17</sup>The men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men who drew sword: all these were men of war.

<sup>20:18</sup>The children of Israel arose, and went up to Bethel, and asked counsel of God; and they said, "Who shall go up for us first to battle against the children of Benjamin?"

The LORD said, "Judah first."

<sup>20:20</sup>The men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel set the battle in array against them at Gibeah. <sup>20:21</sup>The children of Benjamin came forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites on that day twenty-two thousand men.

<sup>20:22</sup>The people, the men of Israel, encouraged themselves, and set the battle again in array in the place where they set themselves in array the first day. <sup>20:23</sup>The children of Israel went up and wept before the LORD until evening; and they asked of the LORD, saying, "Shall I again draw near to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother?"

<sup>20:25</sup>Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again eighteen thousand men; all these drew the sword.

<sup>20:26</sup>Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up, and came to Bethel, and wept, and sat there before the LORD, and fasted that day until evening; and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>20:27</sup>The children of Israel asked of the LORD (for the ark of the covenant of God was there in those days, <sup>20:28</sup>and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, "Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother, or shall I cease?"

The LORD said, "Go up; for tomorrow I will deliver him into your hand."

<sup>20:32</sup> The children of Benjamin said, "They are struck down before us, as at the first." But the children of Israel said, "Let us flee, and draw them away from the city to the highways."

<sup>20:33</sup> All the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and set themselves in array at Baal Tamar: and the ambushers of Israel broke forth out of their place, even out of Maareh Geba. <sup>20:34</sup> There came over against Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was severe; but they didn't know that evil was close on them. <sup>20:35</sup> The LORD struck Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of Benjamin that day twenty-five thousand one hundred men: all these drew the sword. <sup>20:36</sup> So the children of Benjamin saw that they were struck; for the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin, because they trusted the ambushers whom they had set against Gibeah. <sup>20:37</sup> The ambushers hurried, and rushed on Gibeah; and the ambushers drew themselves along, and struck all the city with the edge of the sword. <sup>20:38</sup> Now the appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambushers was that they should make a great cloud of smoke rise up out of the city. <sup>20:39</sup> The men of Israel turned in the battle, and Benjamin began to strike and kill of the men of Israel about thirty persons; for they said, "Surely they are struck down before us, as in the first battle." <sup>20:40</sup> But when the cloud began to arise up out of the city in a pillar of smoke, the Benjamites looked behind them; and behold, the whole of the city went up in smoke to the sky. <sup>20:41</sup> The men of Israel turned, and the men of Benjamin were dismayed; for they saw that evil had come on them. <sup>20:42</sup> Therefore they turned their backs before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle followed hard after them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in its midst. <sup>20:43</sup> They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them, and trod them down at their resting place, as far as over against Gibeah toward the sunrise. <sup>20:44</sup> There fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men; all these were men of valor. <sup>20:45</sup> They turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon: and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men, and followed hard after them to Gidom, and struck of them two thousand men. <sup>20:46</sup> So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men who drew the sword; all these were men of valor. <sup>20:47</sup> But six hundred men turned and fled toward the wilderness to the rock of Rimmon, and stayed in the rock of Rimmon four months. <sup>20:48</sup> The men of Israel turned again on the children of Benjamin, and struck them with the edge of the sword, both the entire city, and the livestock, and all that they found: moreover all the cities which they found they set on fire.

<sup>21:4</sup> It happened on the next day that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. <sup>21:5</sup> The children of Israel said, "Who is there among all the tribes of Israel who didn't come up in the assembly to the LORD?" For they had made a great oath concerning him who didn't come up to the LORD to Mizpah, saying, "He shall surely be put to death." <sup>21:6</sup> The children of Israel grieved for Benjamin their brother, and said, "There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day. <sup>21:7</sup> How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since we have sworn by the LORD that we will not give them of our daughters to wives?" <sup>21:8</sup> They said, "What one is there of the tribes of Israel who didn't come up to the LORD to Mizpah?" Behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh Gilead to the assembly. <sup>21:9</sup> For when the people were numbered, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead there. <sup>21:10</sup>The congregation sent there twelve thousand men of the most valiant, and commanded them, saying, "Go and strike the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead with the edge of the sword, with the women and the little ones. <sup>21:11</sup>This is the thing that you shall do: you shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman who has lain with a man." <sup>21:12</sup>They found among the inhabitants of Jabesh Gilead four hundred young virgins, who had not known man by lying with him; and they brought them to the camp to Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan. <sup>21:13</sup>The whole congregation sent and spoke to the children of Benjamin who were in the rock of Rimmon, and proclaimed peace to them. <sup>21:14</sup>Benjamin returned at that time; and they gave them the women whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh Gilead: and yet so they weren't enough for them. <sup>21:15</sup>The people grieved for Benjamin, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Israel. <sup>21:16</sup>Then the elders of the congregation said, "How shall we provide wives for those who remain, since the women are destroyed out of Benjamin?" <sup>21:17</sup>They said, "There must be an inheritance for those who are escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe not be blotted out from Israel. <sup>21:18</sup>However we may not give them wives of our daughters, for the children of Israel had sworn, saying, 'Cursed is he who gives a wife to Benjamin.'" <sup>21:19</sup>They said, "Behold, there is a feast of the LORD from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north of Bethel, on the east side of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the south of Lebonah." <sup>21:20</sup>They commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, "Go and lie in wait in the vineyards, <sup>21:21</sup>and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and each man catch his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to the land of Benjamin. <sup>21:22</sup>It shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come to complain to us, that we will say to them, 'Grant them graciously to us, because we didn't take for each man his wife in battle, neither did you give them to them, otherwise you would now be guilty.'"

<sup>21:23</sup>The children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of those who danced, whom they carried off.

They went and returned to their inheritance, built the cities, and lived in them. <sup>21:24</sup>The children of Israel departed there at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from there every man to his inheritance. <sup>21:25</sup>In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

The First Book of Samuel

<sup>1:1</sup>Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim Zophim, of the hill country of Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite: <sup>1:2</sup>and he had two wives; the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of other Peninnah: and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children. <sup>1:3</sup>This man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to the LORD<sup>a</sup> of Hosts in Shiloh. The two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, priests to the LORD, were there. <sup>1:4</sup>When the day came that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters, portions: <sup>1:5</sup>but to Hannah he gave a double portion; for he loved Hannah, but the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>1:6</sup>Her rival provoked her severely, to make her fret, because the LORD had shut up her womb. <sup>1:7</sup>As he did so year by year, when she went up to the house of the LORD, so she provoked her; therefore she wept, and didn't eat. <sup>1:8</sup>Elkanah her husband said to her, "Hannah, why do you weep? Why don't you eat? Why is your heart grieved? Am I not better to you than ten sons?" <sup>1:9</sup>So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk. Now Eli the priest was sitting on his seat by the doorpost of the temple of the LORD. <sup>1:10</sup>She was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to the LORD, and wept bitterly. <sup>1:11</sup>She vowed a vow, and said, "The LORD of Hosts, if you will indeed look on the affliction of your handmaid, and remember me, and not forget your handmaid, but will give to your handmaid a boy, then I will give him to the LORD all the days of his life, and no razor shall come on his head."

a woman of a sorrowful spirit. I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but I poured out my soul before the LORD. <sup>1:16</sup>Don't count your handmaid for a wicked woman; for I have been speaking out of the abundance of my complaint and my provocation."

<sup>1:17</sup>Then Eli answered, "Go in peace; and may the God<sup>b</sup> of Israel grant your petition that you have asked of him."

<sup>1:20</sup>It happened, when the time had come, that Hannah conceived, and bore a son; and she named him Samuel,<sup>c</sup> saying, "Because I have asked him of the LORD."

<sup>1:21</sup>The man Elkanah, and all his house, went up to offer to the LORD the yearly sacrifice, and his vow. <sup>1:22</sup>But Hannah didn't go up; for she said to her husband, "Not until the child is weaned; then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and stay there forever."

So the woman waited and nursed her son, until she weaned him. <sup>1:24</sup>When she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bulls, and one efa<sup>d</sup> of meal, and a bottle of wine, and brought him to the LORD's house in Shiloh. The child was young. <sup>1:25</sup>They killed the bull, and brought the child to Eli. <sup>1:26</sup>She said, "Oh, my lord, as your soul lives, my lord, I am the woman who stood by you here, praying to the LORD. <sup>1:27</sup>For this child I prayed; and the LORD has given me my petition which I asked of him. <sup>1:28</sup>Therefore also I have granted him to the LORD. As long as he lives he is granted to the LORD." He worshiped the LORD there.

"My heart exults in the LORD!

My horn is exalted in the LORD.
 My mouth is enlarged over my enemies,

 For there is no one besides you,
 nor is there any rock like our God.

 By him actions are weighed.

 Those who stumbled are armed with

<sup>2:5</sup>Those who were full have hired themselves

 Those who were hungry are satisfied.
 Yes, the barren has borne seven.
 She who has many children languishes.

 He brings down to Sheol<sup>e</sup>, and brings up.

 broken to pieces.
 He will thunder against them in the sky.
 “The LORD will judge the ends of the earth.
 He will give strength to his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.”
<sup>2:11</sup>Elkanah went to Ramah to his house.
 The child served the LORD before Eli the priest.
 didn’t know the LORD. <sup>2:13</sup>The custom of the priests with the people was that when any man offered sacrifice, the priest’s servant came, while the flesh was boiling, with a fork of three teeth in his hand; <sup>2:14</sup>and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot; all that the fork brought up the priest took therewith. So they did in Shiloh to all the Israelites who came there. <sup>2:15</sup>Yes, before they burnt the fat, the

priest’s servant came, and said to the man who sacrificed, “Give meat to roast for the priest; for he will not accept boiled meat from you, but raw.”

<sup>2:16</sup>If the man said to him, “Let the fat be burned first, and then take as much as your soul desires;” then he would say, “No, but you shall give it to me now; and if not, I will take it by force.” <sup>2:17</sup>The sin of the young men was very great before the LORD; for the men despised the offering of the LORD. <sup>2:18</sup>But Samuel ministered before the LORD, being a child, clothed with a linen ephod. <sup>2:19</sup>Moreover his mother made him a little robe, and brought it to him from year to year, when she came up with her husband to offer the yearly sacrifice.
 “The LORD give you seed of this woman for the petition which was asked of the LORD.”
 They went to their own home. <sup>2:21</sup>The LORD visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. The child Samuel grew before the LORD. <sup>2:22</sup>Now Eli was very old; and he heard all that his sons did to all Israel, and how that they lay with the women who served at the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>2:23</sup>He said to them, “Why do you do such things? for I hear of your evil dealings from all this people. <sup>2:24</sup>No, my sons; for it is no good report that I hear: you make the LORD’s people disobey. <sup>2:25</sup>If one man sin against another, God shall judge him; but if a man sin against the LORD, who shall entreat for him?” Notwithstanding, they didn’t listen to the voice of their father, because the LORD intended to kill them. <sup>2:26</sup>The child Samuel grew on, and increased in favor both with the LORD, and also with men. <sup>2:27</sup>A man of God came to Eli, and said to him, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Did I reveal myself to the house of your father, when they were in Egypt in bondage to Pharaoh’s house? <sup>2:28</sup>Did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? Did I give to the house of your father all the offerings of the children of Israel made by fire? <sup>2:29</sup>Why do you kick at my sacrifice and at my offering, which I have commanded in my habitation, and honor your sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the best of all the offerings of Israel my people?’

<sup>2:30</sup>“Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘I said indeed that your house, and the house of your father, should walk before me forever.’ But now the LORD says, ‘Be it far from me; for those who honor me I will honor, and those who despise me shall be lightly esteemed. <sup>2:31</sup>Behold, the days come, that I will cut off your arm, and the arm of your father’s house, that there shall not be an old man in your house. <sup>2:32</sup>You shall see the affliction of my habitation, in all the wealth which I shall give Israel; and there shall not be an old man in your house forever. <sup>2:33</sup>The man of yours, whom I shall not cut off from my altar, shall consume your eyes, and grieve your heart; and all the increase of your house shall die in the flower of their age.

<sup>2:34</sup>“This shall be the sign to you, that shall come on your two sons, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall both die. <sup>2:35</sup>I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in my heart and in my mind. I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before my anointed forever. <sup>2:36</sup>It shall happen, that everyone who is left in your house shall come and bow down to him for a piece of silver and a loaf of bread, and shall say, ‘Please put me into one of the priests’ offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.’”

<sup>3:1</sup>The child Samuel ministered to the LORD before Eli. The word of the LORD was precious in those days; there was no frequent vision. <sup>3:2</sup>It happened at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place (now his eyes had begun to grow dim, so that he could not see), <sup>3:3</sup>and the lamp of God hadn’t yet gone out, and Samuel had laid down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was; <sup>3:4</sup>that the LORD called Samuel; and he said, “Here I am.” <sup>3:5</sup>He ran to Eli, and said, “Here I am; for you called me.”

He said, “I didn’t call; lie down again.”

He went and lay down. <sup>3:6</sup>The LORD called yet again, “Samuel!”

Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am; for you called me.”

He answered, “I didn’t call, my son; lie down again.” <sup>3:7</sup>Now Samuel didn’t yet know the LORD, neither was the word of the LORD yet revealed to him. <sup>3:8</sup>The LORD called Samuel again the third time. He arose and went to Eli, and said, “Here I am; for you called me.”

Eli perceived that the LORD had called the child. <sup>3:9</sup>Therefore Eli said to Samuel, “Go, lie down: and it shall be, if he calls you, that you shall say, ‘Speak, the LORD; for your servant hears.’” So Samuel went and lay down in his place. <sup>3:10</sup>The LORD came, and stood, and called as at other times, “Samuel! Samuel!”

Then Samuel said, “Speak; for your servant hears.”

<sup>3:11</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, “Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of everyone who hears it shall tingle. <sup>3:12</sup>In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house, from the beginning even to the end. <sup>3:13</sup>For I have told him that I will judge his house forever, for the iniquity which he knew, because his sons brought a curse on themselves, and he didn’t restrain them. <sup>3:14</sup>Therefore I have sworn to the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Eli’s house shall not be removed with sacrifice nor offering forever.”

<sup>3:15</sup>Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of the LORD. Samuel feared to show Eli the vision. <sup>3:16</sup>Then Eli called Samuel, and said, “Samuel, my son!”

He said, “Here I am.”

<sup>3:17</sup>He said, “What is the thing that he has spoken to you? Please don’t hide it from me. God do so to you, and more also, if you hide anything from me of all the things that he spoke to you.”

<sup>3:18</sup>Samuel told him every bit, and hid nothing from him.

He said, “It is the LORD. Let him do what seems good to him.”

<sup>3:19</sup>Samuel grew, and the LORD was with him, and let none of his words fall to the ground. <sup>3:20</sup>All Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the LORD. <sup>3:21</sup>The LORD appeared again in Shiloh; for the LORD revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the LORD.

<sup>4:1</sup>The word of Samuel came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Ebenezer: and the Philistines encamped in Aphek. <sup>4:2</sup>The Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was struck before the Philistines; and they killed of the army in the field about four thousand men. <sup>4:3</sup>When the people had come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, "Why has the LORD struck us today before the Philistines? Let us get the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of Shiloh to us, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of our enemies."

<sup>4:4</sup>So the people sent to Shiloh; and they brought from there the ark of the covenant of the LORD of Hosts, who sits above the cherubim: and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God. <sup>4:5</sup>When the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again. <sup>4:6</sup>When the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, "What does the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews mean?" They understood that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp. <sup>4:7</sup>The Philistines were afraid, for they said, "God has come into the camp." They said, "Woe to us! For there has not been such a thing before. <sup>4:8</sup>Woe to us! Who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? These are the gods that struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the wilderness. <sup>4:9</sup>Be strong, and behave like men, O you Philistines, that you not be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Strengthen yourselves like men, and fight!" <sup>4:10</sup>The Philistines fought, and Israel was struck, and they fled every man to his tent: and there was a very great slaughter; for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen. <sup>4:11</sup>The ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain. <sup>4:12</sup>There ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes torn, and with earth on his head. <sup>4:13</sup>When he came, behold, Eli was sitting on his seat by the road watching; for his heart trembled for the ark of God. When the man came into the city, and told it, all the city cried out. <sup>4:14</sup>When Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, "What does the noise of this tumult mean?"

The man hurried, and came and told Eli. <sup>4:15</sup>Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, so that he could not see. <sup>4:16</sup>The man said to Eli, "I am he who came out of the army, and I fled today out of the army."

He said, "How did the matter go, my son?"

<sup>4:17</sup>He who brought the news answered, "Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people. Your two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured."

<sup>4:18</sup>It happened, when he made mention of the ark of God, that Eli fell from off his seat backward by the side of the gate; and his neck broke, and he died; for he was an old man, and heavy. He had judged Israel forty years.

<sup>4:19</sup>His daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered. When she heard the news that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and gave birth; for her pains came on her. <sup>4:20</sup>About the time of her death the women who stood by her said to her, "Don't be afraid; for you have given birth to a son." But she didn't answer, neither did she regard it. <sup>4:21</sup>She named the child Ichabod,<sup>f</sup> saying, "The glory has departed from Israel;" because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law and her husband. <sup>4:22</sup>She said, "The glory has departed from Israel; for the ark of God is taken."

<sup>5:1</sup>Now the Philistines had taken the ark of God, and they brought it from Ebenezer to Ashdod. <sup>5:2</sup>The Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by Dagon. <sup>5:3</sup>When they of Ashdod arose early on the next day, behold, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD. They took Dagon, and set him in his place again. <sup>5:4</sup>When they arose early on the next day morning, behold, Dagon was fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of the LORD; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off on the threshold. Only Dagon's torso was intact. <sup>5:5</sup>Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any who come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, to this day. <sup>5:6</sup>But the hand of the LORD was heavy on them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and struck them with tumors, even Ashdod and its borders.

<sup>5:7</sup>When the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, "The ark of the God of Israel shall not stay with us; for his hand is severe on us, and on Dagon our god." <sup>5:8</sup>They sent therefore and gathered all the lords of the Philistines to them, and said, "What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel?"

They answered, "Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried over to Gath." They carried the ark of the God of Israel there. <sup>5:9</sup>It was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of the LORD was against the city with a very great confusion: and he struck the men of the city, both small and great; and tumors broke out on them. <sup>5:10</sup>So they sent the ark of God to Ekron.

It happened, as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, "They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to kill us and our people." <sup>5:11</sup>They sent therefore and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and they said, "Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it not kill us and our people." For there was a deadly confusion throughout all the city; the hand of God was very heavy there. <sup>5:12</sup>The men who didn't die were struck with the tumors; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

<sup>6:1</sup>The ark of the LORD was in the country of the Philistines seven months. <sup>6:2</sup>The Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, "What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Show us with which we shall send it to its place."

<sup>6:3</sup>They said, "If you send away the ark of the God of Israel, don't send it empty; but by all means return him a trespass offering: then you shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you."

<sup>6:4</sup>Then they said, "What shall be the trespass offering which we shall return to him?"

They said, "Five golden tumors, and five golden mice, for the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague was on you all, and on your lords. <sup>6:5</sup>Therefore you shall make images of your tumors, and images of your mice that mar the land; and you shall give glory to the God of Israel: perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land. <sup>6:6</sup>Why then do you harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts? When he had worked wonderfully among them, didn't they let the people go, and they departed?"

<sup>6:7</sup>"Now therefore take and prepare yourselves a new cart, and two milk cows, on which there has come no yoke; and tie the cows to the cart, and bring their calves home from them;

<sup>6:8</sup>and take the ark of the LORD, and lay it on the cart; and put the jewels of gold, which you return him for a trespass offering, in a coffer by its side; and send it away, that it may go. <sup>6:9</sup>Behold; if it goes up by the way of its own border to Beth Shemesh, then he has done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that struck us; it was a chance that happened to us."

<sup>6:10</sup>The men did so, and took two milk cows, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home; <sup>6:11</sup>and they put the ark of the LORD on the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold and the images of their tumors. <sup>6:12</sup>The cows took the straight way by the way to Beth Shemesh; they went along the highway, lowing as they went, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them to the border of Beth Shemesh. <sup>6:13</sup>They of Beth Shemesh were reaping their wheat harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it. <sup>6:14</sup>The cart came into the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they split the wood of the cart, and offered up the cows for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>6:15</sup>The Levites took down the ark of the LORD, and the coffer that was with it, in which the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to the LORD. <sup>6:16</sup>When the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day. <sup>6:17</sup>These are the golden tumors which the Philistines returned for a trespass offering to the LORD: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one; <sup>6:18</sup>and the golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both of fortified cities and of country villages, even to the great stone, whereon they set down the ark of the LORD. That stone remains to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh. <sup>6:19</sup>He struck of the men of Beth Shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of the LORD, he struck of the people fifty thousand seventy men; and the people mourned, because the LORD had struck the people with a great slaughter. <sup>6:20</sup>The men of Beth Shemesh said, "Who is able to stand before the LORD, this holy God? To whom shall he go up from us?"

<sup>6:21</sup>They sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kiriath Jearim, saying, "The Philistines have brought back the ark of the LORD; come down, and bring it up to yourselves."

<sup>7:1</sup>The men of Kiriath Jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the LORD, and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his son to keep the ark of the LORD. <sup>7:2</sup>It happened, from the day that the ark stayed in Kiriath Jearim, that the time was long; for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the LORD. <sup>7:3</sup>Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, "If you do return to the LORD with all your heart, then put away the foreign gods and the Ashtaroth from among you, and direct your hearts to the LORD, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines."

<sup>7:4</sup>Then the children of Israel removed the Baals and the Ashtaroth, and served the LORD only. <sup>7:5</sup>Samuel said, "Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray for you to the LORD." <sup>7:6</sup>They gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before the LORD, and fasted on that day, and said there, "We have sinned against the LORD." Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpah. <sup>7:7</sup>When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel. When the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines. <sup>7:8</sup>The children of Israel said to Samuel, "Don't cease to cry to the LORD our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines." <sup>7:9</sup>Samuel took a suckling lamb, and offered it for a whole burnt offering to the LORD: and Samuel cried to the LORD for Israel; and the LORD answered him. <sup>7:10</sup>As Samuel was offering up the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to battle against Israel; but the LORD thundered with a great thunder on that day on the Philistines, and confused them; and they were struck down before Israel. <sup>7:11</sup>The men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and struck them, until they came under Beth Kar.

<sup>7:12</sup>Then Samuel took a stone, and set it between Mizpah and Shen, and called its name Ebenezer,<sup>g</sup> saying, "The LORD helped us until now." <sup>7:13</sup>So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more within the border of Israel. The hand of the LORD was against the Philistines all the days of Samuel.

<sup>7:14</sup>The cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and Israel recovered its border out of the hand of the Philistines. There was peace between Israel and the Amorites. <sup>7:15</sup>Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life. <sup>7:16</sup>He went from year to year in circuit to Bethel and Gilgal, and Mizpah; and he judged Israel in all those places. <sup>7:17</sup>His return was to Ramah, for there was his house; and there he judged Israel: and he built there an altar to the LORD.

Samuel prayed to the LORD. <sup>8:7</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to the voice of the people in all that they tell you; for they have not rejected you, but they have rejected me, that I should not be king over them. <sup>8:8</sup>According to all the works which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even to this day, in that they have forsaken me, and served other gods, so do they also to you. <sup>8:9</sup>Now therefore listen to their voice: however you shall protest solemnly to them, and shall show them the way of the king who shall reign over them."

<sup>8:10</sup>Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who asked of him a king. <sup>8:11</sup>He said, "This will be the way of the king who shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them to him, for his chariots, and to be his horsemen; and they shall run before his chariots; <sup>8:12</sup>and he will appoint them to him for captains of thousands, and captains of fifties; and he will assign some to plow his ground, and to reap his harvest, and to make his instruments of war, and the instruments of his chariots. <sup>8:13</sup>He will take your daughters to be perfumers, and to be cooks, and to be bakers. <sup>8:14</sup>He will take your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive groves, even their best, and give them to his servants. <sup>8:15</sup>He will take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyards, and give to his officers, and to his servants. <sup>8:16</sup>He will take your male servants, and your female servants, and your best young men, and your donkeys, and put them to his work. <sup>8:17</sup>He will take the tenth of your flocks: and you shall be his servants. <sup>8:18</sup>You shall cry out in that day because of your king whom you shall have chosen you; and the LORD will not answer you in that day."

<sup>8:19</sup>But the people refused to listen to the voice of Samuel; and they said, "No; but we will have a king over us, <sup>8:20</sup>that we also may be like all the nations, and that our king may judge us, and go out before us, and fight our battles."

<sup>8:21</sup>Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he rehearsed them in the ears of the LORD. <sup>8:22</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, "Listen to their voice, and make them a king."

Samuel said to the men of Israel, "Every man go to his city."

<sup>9:1</sup>Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjamite, a mighty man of valor. <sup>9:2</sup>He had a son, whose name was Saul, an impressive young man; and there was not among the children of Israel a better person than he. From his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

<sup>9:3</sup>The donkeys of Kish, Saul's father, were lost. Kish said to Saul his son, "Take now one of the servants with you, and arise, go seek the donkeys." <sup>9:4</sup>He passed through the hill country of Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they didn't find them: then they passed through the land of Shaalim, and there they weren't there: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they didn't find them.

<sup>9:5</sup>When they had come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant who was with him, "Come, and let us return, lest my father stop caring about the donkeys, and be anxious for us."

<sup>9:6</sup>He said to him, "See now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is a man who is held in honor. All that he says comes surely to pass. Now let us go there. Perhaps he can tell us concerning our journey whereon we go."

<sup>9:7</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, "But, behold, if we go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, and there is not a present to bring to the man of God. What do we have?"

<sup>9:8</sup>The servant answered Saul again, and said, "Behold, I have in my hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver. I will give that to the man of God, to tell us our way." <sup>9:9</sup>(In earlier times in Israel, when a man went to inquire of God, thus he said, "Come, and let us go to the seer;" for he who is now called a prophet was before called a Seer.)

<sup>9:10</sup>Then Saul said to his servant, "Well said. Come, let us go." So they went to the city where the man of God was. <sup>9:11</sup>As they went up the ascent to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said to them, "Is the seer here?"

<sup>9:12</sup>They answered them, and said, "He is. Behold, he is before you. Hurry now, for he has come today into the city; for the people have a sacrifice today in the high place. <sup>9:13</sup>As soon as you have come into the city, you shall immediately find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people will not eat until he come, because he blesses the sacrifice. Afterwards those who are invited eat. Now therefore go up; for at this time you shall find him."

<sup>9:14</sup>They went up to the city. As they came within the city, behold, Samuel came out toward them, to go up to the high place.

<sup>9:15</sup>Now the LORD had revealed to Samuel a day before Saul came, saying, <sup>9:16</sup>"Tomorrow about this time I will send you a man out of the land of Benjamin, and you shall anoint him to be prince over my people Israel; and he shall save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked on my people, because their cry has come to me."

<sup>9:17</sup>When Samuel saw Saul, the LORD said to him, "Behold, the man of whom I spoke to you! this same shall have authority over my people."

gate, and said, "Please tell me where the seer's house is."

<sup>9:19</sup>Samuel answered Saul, and said, "I am the seer. Go up before me to the high place, for you shall eat with me today. In the morning I will let you go, and will tell you all that is in your heart. <sup>9:20</sup>As for your donkeys who were lost three days ago, don't set your mind on them; for they are found. For whom is all that is desirable in Israel? Is it not for you, and for all your father's house?"

<sup>9:21</sup>Saul answered, "Am I not a Benjamin, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel? And my family the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? Why then do you speak to me like this?"

<sup>9:22</sup>Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the guest room, and made them sit in the best place among those who were invited, who were about thirty persons. <sup>9:23</sup>Samuel said to the cook, "Bring the portion which I gave you, of which I said to you, 'Set it aside.'" <sup>9:24</sup>The cook took up the thigh, and that which was on it, and set it before Saul. Samuel said, "Behold, that which has been reserved! Set it before yourself and eat; because for the appointed time has it been kept for you, for I said, 'I have invited the people.'" So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

<sup>9:25</sup>When they had come down from the high place into the city, he talked with Saul on the housetop. <sup>9:26</sup>They arose early: and it happened about the spring of the day, that Samuel called to Saul on the housetop, saying, "Get up, that I may send you away." Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, abroad. <sup>9:27</sup>As they were going down at the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, "Tell the servant pass on before us" (and he passed on), "but stand still first, that I may cause you to hear the word of God."

<sup>10:1</sup>Then Samuel took the vial of oil, and poured it on his head, and kissed him, and said, "Isn't it that the LORD has anointed you to be prince over his inheritance? <sup>10:2</sup>When you have departed from me today, then you shall find two men by Rachel's tomb, in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will tell you, 'The donkeys which you went to seek have been found; and behold, your father has stopped caring about the donkeys, and is anxious for you, saying, 'What shall I do for my son?'"

<sup>10:3</sup>"Then you shall go on forward from there, and you shall come to the oak of Tabor; and three men shall meet you there going up to God to Bethel, one carrying three young goats, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine: <sup>10:4</sup>and they will greet you, and give you two loaves of bread, which you shall receive of their hand.

<sup>10:5</sup>"After that you shall come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall happen, when you have come there to the city, that you shall meet a band of prophets coming down from the high place with a psaltery, and a tambourine, and a pipe, and a harp, before them; and they will be prophesying: <sup>10:6</sup>and the Spirit of the LORD will come mightily on you, and you shall prophesy with them, and shall be turned into another man. <sup>10:7</sup>Let it be, when these signs have come to you, that you do as occasion shall serve you; for God is with you.

<sup>10:8</sup>"You shall go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to you, to offer burnt offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace offerings: you shall wait seven days, until I come to you, and show you what you shall do." <sup>10:9</sup>It was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all those signs happened that day. <sup>10:10</sup>When they came there to the hill, behold, a band of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came mightily on him, and he prophesied among them. <sup>10:11</sup>It happened, when all who knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied with the prophets, then the people said one to another, "What is this that has come to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?"

<sup>10:12</sup>One of the same place answered, "Who is their father?" Therefore it became a proverb, "Is Saul also among the prophets?" <sup>10:13</sup>When he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

<sup>10:14</sup>Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, "Where did you go?"

He said, "To seek the donkeys. When we saw that they were not found, we came to Samuel."

<sup>10:15</sup>Saul's uncle said, "Please tell me what Samuel said to you."

<sup>10:16</sup>Saul said to his uncle, "He told us plainly that the donkeys were found." But concerning the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel spoke, he didn't tell him.

<sup>10:17</sup>Samuel called the people together to the LORD to Mizpah; <sup>10:18</sup>and he said to the children of Israel, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you.' <sup>10:19</sup>but you have this day rejected your God, who himself saves you out of all your calamities and your distresses; and you have said to him, 'No! Set a king over us.' Now therefore present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes, and by your thousands."

<sup>10:20</sup>So Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, and the tribe of Benjamin was taken. <sup>10:21</sup>He brought the tribe of Benjamin near by their families; and the family of the Matrites was taken; and Saul the son of Kish was taken: but when they sought him, he could not be found. <sup>10:22</sup>Therefore they asked of the LORD further, "Is there yet a man to come here?"

The LORD answered, "Behold, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

<sup>10:23</sup>They ran and fetched him there; and when he stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from his shoulders and upward. <sup>10:24</sup>Samuel said to all the people, "You see him whom the LORD has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people?"

All the people shouted, and said, "Let the king live!"

<sup>10:25</sup>Then Samuel told the people the regulations of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the LORD. Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house. <sup>10:26</sup>Saul also went to his house to Gibeah; and there went with him the army, whose hearts God had touched. <sup>10:27</sup>But certain worthless fellows said, "How shall this man save us?" They despised him, and brought him no present. But he held his peace.

<sup>11:1</sup>Then Nahash the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh Gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, "Make a covenant with us, and we will serve you." <sup>11:2</sup>Nahash the Ammonite said to them, "On this condition I will make it with you, that all your right eyes be put out; and I will lay it for a reproach on all Israel."

<sup>11:3</sup>The elders of Jabesh said to him, "Give us seven day, that we may send messengers to all the borders of Israel; and then, if there is no one to save us, we will come out to you." <sup>11:4</sup>Then the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul, and spoke these words in the ears of the people: and all the people lifted up their voice, and wept.

<sup>11:5</sup>Behold, Saul came following the oxen out of the field; and Saul said, "What ails the people that they weep?" They told him the words of the men of Jabesh. <sup>11:6</sup>The Spirit of God came mightily on Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly. <sup>11:7</sup>He took a yoke of oxen, and cut them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the borders of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, "Whoever doesn't come forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen." The dread of the LORD fell on the people, and they came out as one man. <sup>11:8</sup>He numbered them in Bezek; and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand. <sup>11:9</sup>They said to the messengers who came, "Thus you shall tell the men of Jabesh Gilead, 'Tomorrow, by the time the sun is hot, you shall have deliverance.'" The messengers came and told the men of Jabesh; and they were glad. <sup>11:10</sup>Therefore the men of Jabesh said, "Tomorrow we will come out to you, and you shall do with us all that seems good to you." <sup>11:11</sup>It was so on the next day, that Saul put the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and struck the Ammonites until the heat of the day: and it happened, that those who remained were scattered, so that no two of them were left together. <sup>11:12</sup>The people said to Samuel, "Who is he who said, 'Shall Saul reign over us?' Bring those men, that we may put them to death!"

<sup>11:13</sup>Saul said, "There shall not a man be put to death this day; for today the LORD has worked deliverance in Israel." <sup>11:14</sup>Then Samuel said to the people, "Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the kingdom there." <sup>11:15</sup>All the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before the LORD in Gilgal; and there they offered sacrifices of peace offerings before the LORD; and there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

<sup>12:1</sup>Samuel said to all Israel, "Behold, I have listened to your voice in all that you said to me, and have made a king over you. <sup>12:2</sup>Now, behold, the king walks before you; and I am old and gray-headed; and behold, my sons are with you: and I have walked before you from my youth to this day. <sup>12:3</sup>Here I am. Witness against me before the LORD, and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I defrauded? Whom have I oppressed? Of whose hand have I taken a ransom to blind my eyes therewith? I will restore it to you."

<sup>12:5</sup>He said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand."

They said, "He is witness." <sup>12:6</sup>Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt. <sup>12:7</sup>Now therefore stand still, that I may plead with you before the LORD concerning all the righteous acts of the LORD, which he did to you and to your fathers.

<sup>12:8</sup>"When Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers cried to the LORD, then the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them to dwell in this place.

<sup>12:9</sup>"But they forgot the LORD their God; and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the army of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab; and they fought against them. <sup>12:10</sup>They cried to the LORD, and said, 'We have sinned, because we have forsaken the LORD, and have served the Baals and the Ashtaroth: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve you.' <sup>12:11</sup>The LORD sent Jerubbaal, and Bedan, and Jephthah, and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side; and you lived in safety.

<sup>12:12</sup>"When you saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, you said to me, 'No, but a king shall reign over us;' when the LORD your God was your king. <sup>12:13</sup>Now therefore see the king whom you have chosen, and whom you have asked for: and behold, the LORD has set a king over you. <sup>12:14</sup>If you will fear the LORD, and serve him, and listen to his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then both you and also the king who reigns over you are followers of the LORD your God. <sup>12:15</sup>But if you will not listen to the voice of the LORD, but rebel against the commandment of the LORD, then will the hand of the LORD be against you, as it was against your fathers.

<sup>12:16</sup>"Now therefore stand still and see this great thing, which the LORD will do before your eyes. <sup>12:17</sup>Isn't it wheat harvest today? I will call to the LORD, that he may send thunder and rain; and you shall know and see that your wickedness is great, which you have done in the sight of the LORD, in asking for a king."

<sup>12:18</sup>So Samuel called to the LORD; and the LORD sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the LORD and Samuel.

<sup>12:19</sup>All the people said to Samuel, "Pray for your servants to the LORD your God, that we not die; for we have added to all our sins this evil, to ask us a king."

<sup>12:20</sup>Samuel said to the people, "Don't be afraid. You have indeed done all this evil; yet don't turn aside from following the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart. <sup>12:21</sup>Don't turn aside to go after vain things which can't profit nor deliver, for they are vain. <sup>12:22</sup>For the LORD will not forsake his people for his great name's sake, because it has pleased the LORD to make you a people to himself. <sup>12:23</sup>Moreover as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD in ceasing to pray for you: but I will instruct you in the good and the right way. <sup>12:24</sup>Only fear the LORD, and serve him in truth with all your heart; for consider how great things he has done for you. <sup>12:25</sup>But if you shall still do wickedly, you shall be consumed, both you and your king."

<sup>13:1</sup>Saul reigned a year; and when he had reigned two years over Israel, <sup>13:2</sup>Saul chose for himself three thousand men of Israel, of which two thousand were with Saul in Michmash and in the Mount of Bethel, and one thousand were with Jonathan in Gibeath of Benjamin: and the rest of the people he sent every man to his tent. <sup>13:3</sup>Jonathan struck the garrison of the Philistines that was in Geba: and the Philistines heard of it. Saul blew the shofar<sup>h</sup> throughout all the land, saying, "Let the Hebrews hear!" <sup>13:4</sup>All Israel heard that Saul had struck the garrison of the Philistines, and also that Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines. The people were gathered together after Saul to Gilgal. <sup>13:5</sup>The Philistines assembled themselves together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the seashore in multitude: and they came up, and encamped in Michmash, eastward of Beth Aven. <sup>13:6</sup>When the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people were distressed), then the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in rocks, and in coverts, and in pits. <sup>13:7</sup>Now some of the Hebrews had gone over the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead; but as for Saul, he was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling. <sup>13:8</sup>He stayed seven days, according to the time set by Samuel: but Samuel didn't come to Gilgal; and the people were scattered from him. <sup>13:9</sup>Saul said, "Bring here the burnt offering to me, and the peace offerings." He offered the burnt offering.

<sup>13:10</sup>It came to pass that as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he might greet him. <sup>13:11</sup>Samuel said, "What have you done?"

Saul said, "Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that you didn't come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines assembled themselves together at Michmash; <sup>13:12</sup>therefore I said, 'Now the Philistines will come down on me to Gilgal, and I haven't entreated the favor of the LORD.' I forced myself therefore, and offered the burnt offering."

<sup>13:13</sup>Samuel said to Saul, "You have done foolishly. You have not kept the commandment of the LORD your God, which he commanded you; for now the LORD would have established your kingdom on Israel forever. <sup>13:14</sup>But now your kingdom shall not continue. The LORD has sought for himself a man after his own heart, and the LORD has appointed him to be prince over his people, because you have not kept that which the LORD commanded you."

people who were present with him, about six hundred men. <sup>13:16</sup>Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people who were present with them, stayed in Geba of Benjamin: but the Philistines encamped in Michmash. <sup>13:17</sup>The spoilers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned to the way that leads to Ophrah, to the land of Shual; <sup>13:18</sup>and another company turned the way to Beth Horon; and another company turned the way of the border that looks down on the valley of Zeboim toward the wilderness. <sup>13:19</sup>Now there was no smith found throughout all Eretz-Israel; for the Philistines said, "Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears;" <sup>13:20</sup>but all the Israelites went down to the Philistines, to sharpen every man his plowshare, mattock, axe, and sickle; <sup>13:21</sup>yet they had a file for the mattocks, and for the plowshares, and for the forks, and for the axes, and to set the goads. <sup>13:22</sup>So it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people who were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul and with Jonathan his son was there found. <sup>13:23</sup>The garrison of the Philistines went out to the pass of Michmash.

<sup>14:1</sup>Now it fell on a day, that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison, that is on the other side." But he didn't tell his father. <sup>14:2</sup>Saul stayed in the uttermost part of Gibeah under the pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people who were with him were about six hundred men; <sup>14:3</sup>and Ahijah, the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the priest of the LORD in Shiloh, wearing an ephod. The people didn't know that Jonathan was gone. <sup>14:4</sup>Between the passes, by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison, there was a rocky crag on the one side, and a rocky crag on the other side: and the name of the one was Bozez, and the name of the other Seneh. <sup>14:5</sup>The one crag rose up on the north in front of Michmash, and the other on the south in front of Geba. <sup>14:6</sup>Jonathan said to the young man who bore his armor, "Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised. It may be that the LORD will work for us; for there is no restraint on the LORD to save by many or by few." <sup>14:7</sup>His armor bearer said to him, "Do all that is in your heart. Turn and, behold, I am with you according to your heart." <sup>14:8</sup>Then Jonathan said, "Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will reveal ourselves to them. <sup>14:9</sup>If they say thus to us, 'Wait until we come to you!' then we will stand still in our place, and will not go up to them. <sup>14:10</sup>But if they say this, 'Come up to us!' then we will go up; for the LORD has delivered them into our hand. This shall be the sign to us."

<sup>14:11</sup>Both of them revealed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, "Behold, the Hebrews are coming out of the holes where they had hidden themselves!" <sup>14:12</sup>The men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armor bearer, and said, "Come up to us, and we will show you something!"

Jonathan said to his armor bearer, "Come up after me; for the LORD has delivered them into the hand of Israel." <sup>14:13</sup>Jonathan climbed up on his hands and on his feet, and his armor bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armor bearer killed them after him. <sup>14:14</sup>That first slaughter, which Jonathan and his armor bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half a furrow's length in an acre of land. <sup>14:15</sup>There was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the spoilers, they also trembled; and the earth quaked: so there was an exceeding great trembling. <sup>14:16</sup>The watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and scattered. <sup>14:17</sup>Then Saul said to the people who were with him, "Count now, and see who is missing from us." When they had counted, behold, Jonathan and his armor bearer were not there.

<sup>14:18</sup>Saul said to Ahijah, "Bring the ark of God here." For the ark of God was with the children of Israel at that time. <sup>14:19</sup>It happened, while Saul talked to the priest, that the tumult that was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased: and Saul said to the priest, "Withdraw your hand!"

<sup>14:20</sup>Saul and all the people who were with him were gathered together, and came to the battle: and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow: a very great confusion.

<sup>14:21</sup>Now the Hebrews who were with the Philistines as before, and who went up with them into the camp, from all around, even they also turned to be with the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan. <sup>14:22</sup>Likewise all the men of Israel who had hidden themselves in the hill country of Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battle. <sup>14:23</sup>So the LORD saved Israel that day: and the battle passed over by Beth Aven.

<sup>14:24</sup>The men of Israel were distressed that day; for Saul had adjured the people, saying, "Cursed is the man who eats any food until it is evening, and I am avenged of my enemies." So none of the people tasted food.

<sup>14:25</sup>All the people came into the forest; and there was honey on the ground. <sup>14:26</sup>When the people had come to the forest, behold, the honey dropped: but no man put his hand to his mouth; for the people feared the oath. <sup>14:27</sup>But Jonathan didn't hear when his father commanded the people with the oath: therefore he put forth the end of the rod who was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened. <sup>14:28</sup>Then one of the people answered, and said, "Your father directly commanded the people with an oath, saying, 'Cursed is the man who eats food this day.'" The people were faint. <sup>14:29</sup>Then Jonathan said, "My father has troubled the land. Please look how my eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey. <sup>14:30</sup>How much more, if perhaps the people had eaten freely today of the spoil of their enemies which they found? For now has there been no great slaughter among the Philistines." <sup>14:31</sup>They struck of the Philistines that day from Michmash to Aijalon. The people were very faint; <sup>14:32</sup>and the people flew on the spoil, and took sheep, and cattle, and calves, and killed them on the ground; and the people ate them with the blood. <sup>14:33</sup>Then they told Saul, saying, "Behold, the people are sinning against the LORD, in that they eat meat with the blood."

He said, "You have dealt treacherously. Roll a large stone to me this day!" <sup>14:34</sup>Saul said, "Disperse yourselves among the people, and tell them, 'Bring me here every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and kill them here, and eat; and don't sin against the LORD in eating meat with the blood.” All the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and killed them there.

<sup>14:35</sup>Saul built an altar to the LORD. This was the first altar that he built to the LORD. <sup>14:36</sup>Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and take spoil among them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them.”

They said, “Do whatever seems good to you.”

Then the priest said, “Let us draw near here to God.”

<sup>14:37</sup>Saul asked counsel of God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you deliver them into the hand of Israel?” But he didn’t answer him that day. <sup>14:38</sup>Saul said, “Draw near here, all you chiefs of the people; and know and see in which this sin has been this day. <sup>14:39</sup>For, as the LORD lives, who saves Israel, though it is in Jonathan my son, he shall surely die.” But there was not a man among all the people who answered him. <sup>14:40</sup>Then he said to all Israel, “You be on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side.”

The people said to Saul, “Do what seems good to you.”

<sup>14:41</sup>Therefore Saul said to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Show the right.”

Jonathan and Saul were chosen; but the people escaped.

<sup>14:42</sup>Saul said, “Cast lots between me and Jonathan my son.”

Jonathan was selected.

<sup>14:43</sup>Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done!”

Jonathan told him, and said, “I certainly did taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in my hand; and behold, I must die.”

<sup>14:44</sup>Saul said, “God do so and more also; for you shall surely die, Jonathan.”

<sup>14:45</sup>The people said to Saul, “Shall Jonathan die, who has worked this great salvation in Israel? Far from it! As the LORD lives, there shall not one hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has worked with God this day!” So the people rescued Jonathan, that he didn’t die.

<sup>14:46</sup>Then Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place. <sup>14:47</sup>Now when Saul had taken the kingdom over Israel, he fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and wherever he turned himself, he defeated them. <sup>14:48</sup>He did valiantly, and struck the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of those who despoiled them. <sup>14:49</sup>Now the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Ishvi, and Malchishua; and the names of his two daughters were these: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger Michal: <sup>14:50</sup>and the name of Saul’s wife was Ahinoam the daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the captain of his army was Abner the son of Ner, Saul’s uncle. <sup>14:51</sup>Kish was the father of Saul; and Ner the father of Abner was the son of Abiel. <sup>14:52</sup>There was severe war against the Philistines all the days of Saul: and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him to him.

<sup>15:1</sup>Samuel said to Saul, “The LORD sent me to anoint you to be king over his people, over Israel. Now therefore listen to the voice of the words of the LORD. <sup>15:2</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, ‘I have marked that which Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he came up out of Egypt. <sup>15:3</sup>Now go and strike Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and don’t spare them; but kill both man and woman, infant and nursing baby, ox and sheep, camel and donkey.’”

<sup>15:5</sup>Saul came to the city of Amalek, and laid wait in the valley. <sup>15:6</sup>Saul said to the Kenites, “Go, depart, go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for you showed kindness to all the children of Israel, when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

<sup>15:7</sup>Saul struck the Amalekites, from Havilah as you go to Shur, that is before Egypt. <sup>15:8</sup>He took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. <sup>15:9</sup>But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the cattle, and of the fatlings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and wouldn’t utterly destroy them: but everything that was vile and refuse, that they destroyed utterly. <sup>15:10</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel, saying, <sup>15:11</sup>“It grieves me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and has not performed my commandments." Samuel was angry; and he cried to the LORD all night.

<sup>15:12</sup>Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning; and it was told Samuel, saying, "Saul came to Carmel, and behold, he set up a monument for himself, and turned, and passed on, and went down to Gilgal."

<sup>15:13</sup>Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, "You are blessed by the LORD! I have performed the commandment of the LORD."

<sup>15:14</sup>Samuel said, "Then what does this bleating of the sheep in my ears, and the lowing of the cattle which I hear mean?"

<sup>15:15</sup>Saul said, "They have brought them from the Amalekites; for the people spared the best of the sheep and of the cattle, to sacrifice to the LORD your God. We have utterly destroyed the rest."

<sup>15:16</sup>Then Samuel said to Saul, "Stay, and I will tell you what the LORD has said to me last night."

He said to him, "Say on."

<sup>15:17</sup>Samuel said, "Though you were little in your own sight, weren't you made the head of the tribes of Israel? the LORD anointed you king over Israel; <sup>15:18</sup>and the LORD sent you on a journey, and said, 'Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they are consumed.' <sup>15:19</sup>Why then didn't you obey the voice of the LORD, but took the spoils, and did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD?"

<sup>15:20</sup>Saul said to Samuel, "But I have obeyed the voice of the LORD, and have gone the way which the LORD sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites. <sup>15:21</sup>But the people took of the spoil, sheep and cattle, the chief of the devoted things, to sacrifice to the LORD your God in Gilgal."

<sup>15:22</sup>Samuel said, "Has the LORD as great delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the LORD? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to listen than the fat of rams. <sup>15:23</sup>For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as idolatry and teraphim. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has also rejected you from being king."

for I have transgressed the commandment of the LORD, and your words, because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice. <sup>15:25</sup>Now therefore, please pardon my sin, and turn again with me, that I may worship the LORD."

<sup>15:26</sup>Samuel said to Saul, "I will not return with you; for you have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you from being king over Israel." <sup>15:27</sup>As Samuel turned about to go away, Saul grabbed the skirt of his robe, and it tore. <sup>15:28</sup>Samuel said to him, "The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you this day, and has given it to a neighbor of yours who is better than you. <sup>15:29</sup>Also the Strength of Israel will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent."

<sup>15:30</sup>Then he said, "I have sinned: yet please honor me now before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and come back with me, that I may worship the LORD your God."

<sup>15:31</sup>So Samuel went back with Saul; and Saul worshiped the LORD. <sup>15:32</sup>Then Samuel said, "Bring here to me Agag the king of the Amalekites!"

Agag came to him cheerfully. Agag said, "Surely the bitterness of death is past."

<sup>15:33</sup>Samuel said, "As your sword has made women childless, so your mother will be childless among women!" Samuel cut Agag in pieces before the LORD in Gilgal.

<sup>15:34</sup>Then Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah of Saul. <sup>15:35</sup>Samuel came no more to see Saul until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned for Saul: and the LORD grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

<sup>16:1</sup>The LORD said to Samuel, "How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him from being king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil, and go. I will send you to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have provided a king for myself among his sons."

<sup>16:2</sup>Samuel said, "How can I go? If Saul hears it, he will kill me."

The LORD said, "Take a heifer with you, and say, I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. <sup>16:3</sup>Call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what you shall do. You shall anoint to me him whom I name to you."

<sup>16:4</sup>Samuel did that which the LORD spoke, and came to Bethlehem. The elders of the city came to meet him trembling, and said, "Do you come peaceably?"

<sup>16:5</sup>He said, "Peaceably; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Sanctify yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice." He sanctified Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice. <sup>16:6</sup>It happened, when they had come, that he looked at Eliab, and said, "Surely the LORD's anointed is before him."

<sup>16:7</sup>But the LORD said to Samuel, "Don't look on his face, or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him: for I see not as man sees; for man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart."

<sup>16:8</sup>Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. He said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." <sup>16:9</sup>Then Jesse made Shammah to pass by. He said, "Neither has the LORD chosen this one." <sup>16:10</sup>Jesse made seven of his sons to pass before Samuel. Samuel said to Jesse, "The LORD has not chosen these." <sup>16:11</sup>Samuel said to Jesse, "Are all your children here?"

He said, "There remains yet the youngest, and behold, he is keeping the sheep."

Samuel said to Jesse, "Send and get him; for we will not sit down until he comes here."

<sup>16:12</sup>He sent, and brought him in. Now he was ruddy, and withal of a beautiful face, and goodly to look on. The LORD said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is he."

<sup>16:13</sup>Then Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brothers: and the Spirit of the LORD came mightily on David from that day forward. So Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah. <sup>16:14</sup>Now the Spirit of the LORD departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD troubled him. <sup>16:15</sup>Saul's servants said to him, "See now, an evil spirit from God troubles you." <sup>16:16</sup>Let our lord now command your servants who are before you, to seek out a man who is a skillful player on the harp. It shall happen, when the evil spirit from God is on you, that he shall play with his hand, and you shall be well."

<sup>16:17</sup>Saul said to his servants, "Provide me now a man who can play well, and bring him to me."

<sup>16:18</sup>Then one of the young men answered, and said, "Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skillful in playing, a mighty man of valor, a man of war, prudent in speech, and a comely person; and the LORD is with him."

<sup>16:19</sup>Therefore Saul sent messengers to Jesse, and said, "Send me David your son, who is with the sheep."

<sup>17:1</sup>Now the Philistines gathered together their armies to battle; and they were gathered together at Socoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Socoh and Azekah, in Ephesdammim. <sup>17:2</sup>Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the valley of Elah, and set the battle in array against the Philistines. <sup>17:3</sup>The Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side: and there was a valley between them. <sup>17:4</sup>There went out a champion out of the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span. <sup>17:5</sup>He had a helmet of brass on his head, and he was clad with a coat of mail; and the weight of the coat was five thousand shekels of brass. <sup>17:6</sup>He had brass shin armor on his legs, and a javelin of brass between his shoulders. <sup>17:7</sup>The staff of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron: and his shield bearer went before him. <sup>17:8</sup>He stood and cried to the armies of Israel, and said to them, "Why have you come out to set your battle in array? Am I not a Philistine, and you servants to Saul? Choose a man for yourselves, and let him come down to me. <sup>17:9</sup>If he be able to fight with me, and kill me, then will we be your servants; but if I prevail against him, and kill him, then you will be our servants, and serve us." <sup>17:10</sup>The Philistine said, "I defy the armies of Israel this day! Give me a man, that we may fight together!"

<sup>17:11</sup>When Saul and all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were dismayed, and greatly afraid. <sup>17:12</sup>Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem Judah, whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons: and the man was an old man in the days of Saul, stricken among men. <sup>17:13</sup>The three eldest sons of Jesse had gone after Saul to the battle: and the names of his three sons who went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and next to him Abinadab, and the third Shammah. <sup>17:14</sup>David was the youngest; and the three eldest followed Saul. <sup>17:15</sup>Now David went back and forth from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem. <sup>17:16</sup>The Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days. <sup>17:17</sup>Jesse said to David his son, "Now take for your brothers an efa<sup>1</sup> of this parched grain, and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly to the camp to your brothers; <sup>17:18</sup>and bring these ten cheeses to the captain of their thousand, and see how your brothers are doing, and bring back news." <sup>17:19</sup>Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel, were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines. <sup>17:20</sup>David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took, and went, as Jesse had commanded him; and he came to the place of the wagons, as the army which was going forth to the fight shouted for the battle. <sup>17:21</sup>Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, army against army. <sup>17:22</sup>David left his baggage in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran to the army, and came and greeted his brothers. <sup>17:23</sup>As he talked with them, behold, there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words: and David heard them. <sup>17:24</sup>All the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him, and were terrified. <sup>17:25</sup>The men of Israel said, "Have you seen this man who has come up? He has surely come up to defy Israel. It shall be, that the man who kills him, the king will enrich him with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel."

<sup>17:26</sup>David spoke to the men who stood by him, saying, "What shall be done to the man who kills this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? For who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies of the living God?"

<sup>17:28</sup>Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, "Why have you come down? With whom have you left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know your pride, and the naughtiness of your heart; for you have come down that you might see the battle."

<sup>17:29</sup>David said, "What have I now done? Is there not a cause?" <sup>17:30</sup>He turned away from him toward another, and spoke like that again; and the people answered him again the same way. <sup>17:31</sup>When the words were heard which David spoke, they rehearsed them before Saul; and he sent for him. <sup>17:32</sup>David said to Saul, "Let no man's heart fail because of him. Your servant will go and fight with this Philistine."

<sup>17:34</sup>David said to Saul, "Your servant was keeping his father's sheep; and when a lion or a bear came, and took a lamb out of the flock, <sup>17:35</sup>I went out after him, and struck him, and rescued it out of his mouth. When he arose against me, I caught him by his beard, and struck him, and killed him. <sup>17:36</sup>Your servant struck both the lion and the bear. This uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, since he has defied the armies of the living God." <sup>17:37</sup>David said, "The LORD who delivered me out of the paw of the lion, and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine."

Saul said to David, "Go; and the LORD shall be with you." <sup>17:38</sup>Saul dressed David with his clothing. He put a helmet of brass on his head, and he clad him with a coat of mail. <sup>17:39</sup>David strapped his sword on his clothing, and he tried to move; for he had not tested it. David said to Saul, "I can't go with these; for I have not tested them." David took them off.

<sup>17:40</sup>He took his staff in his hand, and chose for himself five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in the shepherd's bag which he had, even in his wallet. His sling was in his hand; and he drew near to the Philistine.

David; and the man who bore the shield went before him. <sup>17:42</sup>When the Philistine looked about, and saw David, he disdained him; for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and withal of a fair face. <sup>17:43</sup>The Philistine said to David, "Am I a dog, that you come to me with sticks?" The Philistine cursed David by his gods. <sup>17:44</sup>The Philistine said to David, "Come to me, and I will give your flesh to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the field."

<sup>17:45</sup>Then David said to the Philistine, "You come to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a javelin: but I come to you in the name of the LORD of Hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied. <sup>17:46</sup>Today, the LORD will deliver you into my hand. I will strike you, and take your head from off you. I will give the dead bodies of the army of the Philistines this day to the birds of the sky, and to the wild animals of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel, <sup>17:47</sup>and that all this assembly may know that the LORD doesn't save with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's, and he will give you into our hand."

<sup>17:48</sup>It happened, when the Philistine arose, and came and drew near to meet David, that David hurried, and ran toward the army to meet the Philistine. <sup>17:49</sup>David put his hand in his bag, took a stone, and slung it, and struck the Philistine in his forehead; and the stone sank into his forehead, and he fell on his face to the earth. <sup>17:50</sup>So David prevailed over the Philistine with a sling and with a stone, and struck the Philistine, and killed him; but there was no sword in the hand of David. <sup>17:51</sup>Then David ran, and stood over the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him, and cut off his head therewith. When the Philistines saw that their champion was dead, they fled. <sup>17:52</sup>The men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until you come to Gai, and to the gates of Ekron. The wounded of the Philistines fell down by the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to Ekron. <sup>17:53</sup>The children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they plundered their camp. <sup>17:54</sup>David took the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armor in his tent. <sup>17:55</sup>When Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the army, "Abner, whose son is this youth?"

Abner said, "As your soul lives, O king, I can't tell."

<sup>17:56</sup>The king said, "Inquire whose son the young man is!"

<sup>17:57</sup>As David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the Philistine in his hand. <sup>17:58</sup>Saul said to him, "Whose son are you, you young man?"

David answered, "I am the son of your servant Jesse the Bethlehemite."

<sup>18:1</sup>It happened, when he had made an end of speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jonathan loved him as his own soul. <sup>18:2</sup>Saul took him that day, and would let him go no more home to his father's house. <sup>18:3</sup>Then Jonathan and David made a covenant, because he loved him as his own soul. <sup>18:4</sup>Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was on him, and gave it to David, and his clothing, even to his sword, and to his bow, and to his sash. <sup>18:5</sup>David went out wherever Saul sent him, and behaved himself wisely: and Saul set him over the men of war, and it was good in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants. <sup>18:6</sup>It happened as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambourines, with joy, and with instruments of music. <sup>18:7</sup>The women sang one to another as they played, and said,

"Saul has slain his thousands,

David his ten thousands."

<sup>18:8</sup>Saul was very angry, and this saying displeased him; and he said, "They have ascribed to David ten thousands, and to me they have ascribed but thousands. What can he have more but the kingdom?" <sup>18:9</sup>Saul eyed David from that day and forward. <sup>18:10</sup>It happened on the next day, that an evil spirit from God came mightily on Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house. David played with his hand, as he did day by day. Saul had his spear in his hand; <sup>18:11</sup>and Saul threw the spear; for he said, "I will pin David even to the wall!" David escaped from his presence twice. <sup>18:12</sup>Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with him, and was departed from Saul. <sup>18:13</sup>Therefore Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and came in before the people.

<sup>18:14</sup>David behaved himself wisely in all his ways; and the LORD was with him. <sup>18:15</sup>When Saul saw that he behaved himself very wisely, he stood in awe of him. <sup>18:16</sup>But all Israel and Judah loved David; for he went out and came in before them. <sup>18:17</sup>Saul said to David, "Behold, my elder daughter Merab, I will give her to you as wife. Only be valiant for me, and fight the LORD's battles." For Saul said, "Don't let my hand be on him, but let the hand of the Philistines be on him." <sup>18:18</sup>David said to Saul, "Who am I, and what is my life, or my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?"

<sup>18:19</sup>But it happened at the time when Merab, Saul's daughter, should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife. <sup>18:20</sup>Michal, Saul's daughter, loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing pleased him. <sup>18:21</sup>Saul said, I will give her to him, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Therefore Saul said to David, "You shall this day be my son-in-law a second time." <sup>18:22</sup>Saul commanded his servants, "Talk with David secretly, and say, 'Behold, the king has delight in you, and all his servants love you: now therefore be the king's son-in-law.'"

<sup>18:23</sup>Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. David said, "Does it seem to you a light thing to be the king's son-in-law, since I am a poor man, and lightly esteemed?"

<sup>18:25</sup>Saul said, "You shall tell David, 'The king desires no dowry except one hundred foreskins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.'" Now Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines. <sup>18:26</sup>When his servants told David these words, it pleased David well to be the king's son-in-law. The days were not expired; <sup>18:27</sup>and David arose and went, he and his men, and killed of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they gave them in full number to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife. <sup>18:28</sup>Saul saw and knew that the LORD was with David; and Michal, Saul's daughter, loved him. <sup>18:29</sup>Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David's enemy continually. <sup>18:30</sup>Then the princes of the Philistines went forth: and it happened, as often as they went forth, that David behaved himself more wisely than all the servants of Saul; so that his name was highly esteemed.

<sup>19:1</sup>Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, that they should kill David. But Jonathan, Saul's son, delighted much in David. <sup>19:2</sup>Jonathan told David, saying, "Saul my father seeks to kill you. Now therefore, please take care of yourself in the morning, and live in a secret place, and hide yourself. <sup>19:3</sup>I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where you are, and I will talk with my father about you; and if I see anything, I will tell you."

<sup>19:4</sup>Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, "Don't let the king sin against his servant, against David; because he has not sinned against you, and because his works have been very good toward you; <sup>19:5</sup>for he put his life in his hand, and struck the Philistine, and the LORD worked a great victory for all Israel. You saw it, and rejoiced. Why then will you sin against innocent blood, to kill David without a cause?"

<sup>19:7</sup>Jonathan called David, and Jonathan showed him all those things. Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence, as before. <sup>19:8</sup>There was war again. David went out, and fought with the Philistines, and killed them with a great slaughter; and they fled before him.

<sup>19:9</sup>An evil spirit from the LORD was on Saul, as he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and David was playing with his hand. <sup>19:10</sup>Saul sought to pin David even to the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he stuck the spear into the wall. David fled, and escaped that night. <sup>19:11</sup>Saul sent messengers to David's house, to watch him, and to kill him in the morning. Michal, David's wife, told him, saying, "If you don't save your life tonight, tomorrow you will be killed." <sup>19:12</sup>So Michal let David down through the window. He went, fled, and escaped. <sup>19:13</sup>Michal took the teraphim, and laid it in the bed, and put a pillow of goats' hair at its head, and covered it with the clothes.

<sup>19:14</sup>When Saul sent messengers to take David, she said, "He is sick."

<sup>19:15</sup>Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, "Bring him up to me in the bed, that I may kill him."
<sup>19:16</sup>When the messengers came in, behold, the teraphim was in the bed, with the pillow of goats' hair at its head.

<sup>19:17</sup>Saul said to Michal, "Why have you deceived me thus, and let my enemy go, so that he is escaped?"

Michal answered Saul, "He said to me, 'Let me go! Why should I kill you?'"

<sup>19:18</sup>Now David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. He and Samuel went and lived in Naioth.

<sup>19:20</sup>Saul sent messengers to take David: and when they saw the company of the prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as head over them, the Spirit of God came on the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied.
<sup>19:21</sup>When it was told Saul, he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. Saul sent messengers again the third time, and they also prophesied.
<sup>19:22</sup>Then went he also to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Secu: and he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?"

One said, "Behold, they are at Naioth in Ramah."

<sup>19:23</sup>He went there to Naioth in Ramah. Then the Spirit of God came on him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came to Naioth in Ramah.
<sup>19:24</sup>He also stripped off his clothes, and he also prophesied before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Therefore they say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

<sup>20:1</sup>David fled from Naioth in Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, "What have I done? What is my iniquity? What is my sin before your father, that he seeks my life?"

<sup>20:2</sup>He said to him, "Far from it; you shall not die. Behold, my father does nothing either great or small, but that he discloses it to me; and why should my father hide this thing from me? It is not so."

<sup>20:3</sup>David swore moreover, and said, "Your father knows well that I have found favor in your eyes; and he says, 'Don't let Jonathan know this, lest he be grieved:' but truly as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, there is but a step between me and death."

<sup>20:4</sup>Then Jonathan said to David, "Whatever your soul desires, I will even do it for you."

<sup>20:5</sup>David said to Jonathan, "Behold, tomorrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to dine with the king; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field to the third day at evening.
<sup>20:6</sup>If your father miss me at all, then say, 'David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city; for it is the yearly sacrifice there for all the family.'
<sup>20:7</sup>If he says, 'It is well;' your servant shall have peace: but if he be angry, then know that evil is determined by him.
<sup>20:8</sup>Therefore deal kindly with your servant; for you have brought your servant into a covenant of the LORD with you: but if there is iniquity in me, kill me yourself; for why should you bring me to your father?"

<sup>20:9</sup>Jonathan said, "Far be it from you; for if I should at all know that evil were determined by my father to come on you, then wouldn't I tell you that?"

<sup>20:10</sup>Then David said to Jonathan, "Who shall tell me if perchance your father answers you roughly?"

<sup>20:11</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Come, and let us go out into the field." They both went out into the field.
<sup>20:12</sup>Jonathan said to David, "By the LORD, the God of Israel, when I have sounded my father about this time tomorrow, or the third day, behold, if there is good toward David, shall I not then send to you, and disclose it to you?
<sup>20:13</sup>The LORD do so to Jonathan, and more also, should it please my father to do you evil, if I don't disclose it to you, and send you away, that you may go in peace: and the LORD be with you, as he has been with my father.
<sup>20:14</sup>You shall not only while yet I live show me the loving kindness of the LORD, that I not die;
<sup>20:15</sup>but also you shall not cut off your kindness from my house forever; no, not when the LORD has cut off the enemies of David everyone from the surface of the earth."
<sup>20:16</sup>So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, "The LORD will require it at the hand of David's enemies."
<sup>20:17</sup>Jonathan caused David to swear again, for the love that he had to him; for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
<sup>20:18</sup>Then Jonathan said to him, "Tomorrow is the new moon: and you will be missed, because your seat will be empty. <sup>20:19</sup>When you have stayed three days, you shall go down quickly, and come to the place where you hid yourself when this started, and shall remain by the stone Ezel. <sup>20:20</sup>I will shoot three arrows on its side, as though I shot at a mark. <sup>20:21</sup>Behold, I will send the boy, saying, 'Go, find the arrows!' If I tell the boy, 'Behold, the arrows are on this side of you. Take them;' then come; for there is peace to you and no hurt, as the LORD lives. <sup>20:22</sup>But if I say this to the boy, 'Behold, the arrows are beyond you;' then go your way; for the LORD has sent you away. <sup>20:23</sup>Concerning the matter which you and I have spoken of, behold, the LORD is between you and me forever."

<sup>20:24</sup>So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon had come, the king sat him down to eat food. <sup>20:25</sup>The king sat on his seat, as at other times, even on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan stood up, and Abner sat by Saul's side: but David's place was empty. <sup>20:26</sup>Nevertheless Saul didn't say anything that day: for he thought, "Something has happened to him. He is not clean. Surely he is not clean."

<sup>20:27</sup>It happened on the next day after the new moon, the second day, that David's place was empty. Saul said to Jonathan his son, "Why doesn't the son of Jesse come to eat, neither yesterday, nor today?"

<sup>20:28</sup>Jonathan answered Saul, "David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Bethlehem. <sup>20:29</sup>He said, 'Please let me go, for our family has a sacrifice in the city. My brother has commanded me to be there. Now, if I have found favor in your eyes, please let me go away and see my brothers.' Therefore he has not come to the king's table."

<sup>20:30</sup>Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, "You son of a perverse rebellious woman, don't I know that you have chosen the son of Jesse to your own shame, and to the shame of your mother's nakedness? <sup>20:31</sup>For as long as the son of Jesse lives on the earth, you shall not be established, nor your kingdom. Therefore now send and bring him to me, for he shall surely die!"

<sup>20:32</sup>Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?"

<sup>20:33</sup>Saul cast his spear at him to strike him. By this Jonathan knew that his father was determined to put David to death. <sup>20:34</sup>So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no food the second day of the month; for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame. <sup>20:35</sup>It happened in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field at the time appointed with David, and a little boy with him. <sup>20:36</sup>He said to his boy, "Run, find now the arrows which I shoot." As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him. <sup>20:37</sup>When the boy had come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the boy, and said, "Isn't the arrow beyond you?" <sup>20:38</sup>Jonathan cried after the boy, "Go fast! Hurry! Don't delay!" Jonathan's boy gathered up the arrows, and came to his master. <sup>20:39</sup>But the boy didn't know anything. Only Jonathan and David knew the matter. <sup>20:40</sup>Jonathan gave his weapons to his boy, and said to him, "Go, carry them to the city."

<sup>20:41</sup>As soon as the boy was gone, David arose out of the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times. They kissed one another, and wept one with another, and David wept the most. <sup>20:42</sup>Jonathan said to David, "Go in peace, because we have both sworn in the name of the LORD, saying, 'The LORD shall be between me and you, and between my seed and your seed, forever.'" He arose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

<sup>21:1</sup>Then came David to Nob to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech came to meet David trembling, and said to him, "Why are you alone, and no man with you?" <sup>21:2</sup>David said to Ahimelech the priest, "The king has commanded me a business, and has said to me, 'Let no man know anything of the business about which I send you, and what I have commanded you; and I have appointed the young men to such and such a place.' <sup>21:3</sup>Now therefore what is under your hand? Give me five loaves of bread in my hand, or whatever there is present."

<sup>21:4</sup>The priest answered David, and said, "There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if only the young men have kept themselves from women."

<sup>21:5</sup>David answered the priest, and said to him, "Truly, women have been kept from us about these three days. When I came out, the vessels of the young men were holy, though it was but a common journey. How much more then today shall their vessels be holy?" <sup>21:6</sup>So the priest gave him holy bread; for there was no bread there but the show bread, that was taken from before the LORD, to put hot bread in the day when it was taken away.

<sup>21:7</sup>Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before the LORD; and his name was Doeg the Edomite, the best of the herdsmen who belonged to Saul. <sup>21:8</sup>David said to Ahimelech, "Isn't there here under your hand spear or sword? For I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, because the king's business required haste."

<sup>21:9</sup>The priest said, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the valley of Elah, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you will take that, take it; for there is no other except that here."

David said, "There is none like that. Give it to me."

<sup>21:10</sup>David arose, and fled that day for fear of Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath. <sup>21:11</sup>The servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David the king of the land? Didn't they sing one to another about him in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?'" <sup>21:12</sup>David laid up these words in his heart, and was very afraid of Achish the king of Gath. <sup>21:13</sup>He changed his behavior before them, and pretended to be mad in their hands, and scabbled on the doors of the gate, and let his spittle fall down on his beard. <sup>21:14</sup>Then Achish said to his servants, "Look, you see the man is mad. Why then have you brought him to me?" <sup>21:15</sup>Do I lack madmen, that you have brought this fellow to play the madman in my presence? Shall this fellow come into my house?"

<sup>22:1</sup>David therefore departed there, and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and all his father's house heard it, they went down there to him. <sup>22:2</sup>Everyone who was in distress, and everyone who was in debt, and everyone who was discontented, gathered themselves to him; and he became captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men. <sup>22:3</sup>David went there to Mizpeh of Moab, and he said to the king of Moab, "Please let my father and my mother come out with you, until I know what God will do for me." <sup>22:4</sup>He brought them before the king of Moab; and they lived with him all the while that David was in the stronghold. <sup>22:5</sup>The prophet Gad said to David, "Don't stay in the stronghold. Depart, and go into the land of Judah."

Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hereth. <sup>22:6</sup>Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men who were with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah, under the tamarisk tree in Ramah, with his spear in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him. <sup>22:7</sup>Saul said to his servants who stood about him, "Hear now, you Benjamites! Will the son of Jesse give everyone of you fields and vineyards, will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, <sup>22:8</sup>that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none who discloses to me when my son makes a treaty with the son of Jesse, and there is none of you who is sorry for me, or discloses to me that my son has stirred up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

<sup>22:9</sup>Then Doeg the Edomite, who stood by the servants of Saul, answered and said, "I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech the son of Ahitub. <sup>22:10</sup>He inquired of the LORD for him, gave him food, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine."

<sup>22:11</sup>Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests who were in Nob: and they came all of them to the king. <sup>22:12</sup>Saul said, "Hear now, you son of Ahitub."

He answered, "Here I am, my lord."

<sup>22:13</sup>Saul said to him, "Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, in that you have given him bread, and a sword, and have inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?"

<sup>22:14</sup>Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, "Who among all your servants is so faithful as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and is taken into your council, and is honorable in your house? <sup>22:15</sup>Have I today begun to inquire of God for him? Be it far from me! Don't let the king impute anything to his servant, nor to all the house of my father; for your servant knows nothing of all this, less or more."

Ahimelech, you, and all your father's house." <sup>22:17</sup>The king said to the guard who stood about him, "Turn, and kill the priests of the LORD; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew that he fled, and didn't disclose it to me." But the servants of the king wouldn't put forth their hand to fall on the priests of the LORD. <sup>22:18</sup>The king said to Doeg, "Turn and attack the priests!"

Doeg the Edomite turned, and he attacked the priests, and he killed on that day eighty-five people who wore a linen ephod. <sup>22:19</sup>He struck Nob, the city of the priests, with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and nursing babies, and cattle and donkeys and sheep, with the edge of the sword. <sup>22:20</sup>One of the sons of Ahimelech, the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after David. <sup>22:21</sup>Abiathar told David that Saul had slain the LORD's priests. <sup>22:22</sup>David said to Abiathar, "I knew on that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would surely tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of all the persons of your father's house. <sup>22:23</sup>Stay with me, don't be afraid; for he who seeks my life seeks your life. For with me you shall be in safeguard."

The LORD said to David, "Go strike the Philistines, and save Keilah."

<sup>23:3</sup>David's men said to him, "Behold, we are afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?"

<sup>23:4</sup>Then David inquired of the LORD yet again. The LORD answered him, and said, "Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will deliver the Philistines into your hand."

<sup>23:5</sup>David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their livestock, and killed them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah. <sup>23:6</sup>It happened, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

<sup>23:7</sup>It was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. Saul said, "God has delivered him into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a town that has gates and bars."

<sup>23:8</sup>Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. <sup>23:9</sup>David knew that Saul was devising mischief against him; and he said to Abiathar the priest, "Bring the ephod here." <sup>23:10</sup>Then David said, "O LORD, the God of Israel, your servant has surely heard that Saul seeks to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. <sup>23:11</sup>Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? LORD, the God of Israel, I beg you, tell your servant."

The LORD said, "He will come down."

<sup>23:12</sup>Then David said, "Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul?"

The LORD said, "They will deliver you up."

<sup>23:13</sup>Then David and his men, who were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went wherever they could go. It was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah; and he gave up going there. <sup>23:14</sup>David stayed in the wilderness in the strongholds, and remained in the hill country in the wilderness of Ziph. Saul sought him every day, but God didn't deliver him into his hand. <sup>23:15</sup>David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life. David was in the wilderness of Ziph in the wood.

<sup>23:16</sup>Jonathan, Saul's son, arose, and went to David into the woods, and strengthened his hand in God. <sup>23:17</sup>He said to him, "Don't be afraid; for the hand of Saul my father shall not find you; and you shall be king over Israel, and I shall be next to you; and that also Saul my father knows." <sup>23:18</sup>They both made a covenant before the LORD: and David stayed in the woods, and Jonathan went to his house. <sup>23:19</sup>Then the Ziphites came up to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself with us in the strongholds in the wood, in the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the desert? <sup>23:20</sup>Now therefore, O king, come down, according to all the desire of your soul to come down; and our part shall be to deliver him up into the king's hand."

<sup>23:21</sup>Saul said, "You are blessed by the LORD; for you have had compassion on me. <sup>23:22</sup>Please go make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his haunt is, and who has seen him there; for it is told me that he deals very subtly. <sup>23:23</sup>See therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hides himself, and come again to me with certainty, and I will go with you: and it shall happen, if he is in the land, that I will search him out among all the thousands of Judah."

<sup>23:24</sup>They arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the Arabah on the south of the desert. <sup>23:25</sup>Saul and his men went to seek him. When David was told, he went down to the rock, and stayed in the wilderness of Maon. When Saul heard that, he pursued David in the wilderness of Maon. <sup>23:26</sup>Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made haste to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men surrounded David and his men to take them. <sup>23:27</sup>But a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Hurry and come; for the Philistines have made a raid on the land!" <sup>23:28</sup>So Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Sela Hammahlekoth. <sup>23:29</sup>David went up from there, and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

<sup>24:1</sup>It happened, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, "Behold, David is in the wilderness of En Gedi." <sup>24:2</sup>Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men on the rocks of the wild goats. <sup>24:3</sup>He came to the sheep pens by the way, where there was a cave; and Saul went in to relieve himself. Now David and his men were abiding in the innermost parts of the cave. <sup>24:4</sup>The men of David said to him, "Behold, the day of which the LORD said to you, 'Behold, I will deliver your enemy into your hand, and you shall do to him as it shall seem good to you.'" Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe secretly. <sup>24:5</sup>It happened afterward, that David's heart struck him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. <sup>24:6</sup>He said to his men, "The LORD forbid that I should do this thing to my lord, the LORD's anointed, to put forth my hand against him, since he is the LORD's anointed." <sup>24:7</sup>So David checked his men with these words, and didn't allow them to rise against Saul. Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. <sup>24:8</sup>David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, "My lord the king!"

When Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and showed respect. <sup>24:9</sup>David said to Saul, "Why do you listen to men's words, saying, 'Behold, David seeks your hurt?'" <sup>24:10</sup>Behold, this day your eyes have seen how that the LORD had delivered you today into my hand in the cave. Some urged me to kill you; but I spared you; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord; for he is the LORD's anointed. <sup>24:11</sup>Moreover, my father, behold, yes, see the skirt of your robe in my hand; for in that I cut off the skirt of your robe, and didn't kill you, know and see that there is neither evil nor disobedience in my hand, and I have not sinned against you, though you hunt for my life to take it. <sup>24:12</sup>May the LORD judge between me and you, and may the LORD avenge me of you; but my hand shall not be on you. <sup>24:13</sup>As the proverb of the ancients says, 'Out of the wicked comes forth wickedness;' but my hand shall not be on you. <sup>24:14</sup>Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom do you pursue? A dead dog? A flea? <sup>24:15</sup>May the LORD therefore be judge, and give sentence between me and you, and see, and plead my cause, and deliver me out of your hand."

<sup>24:16</sup>It came to pass, when David had made an end of speaking these words to Saul, that Saul said, "Is this your voice, my son David?" Saul lifted up his voice, and wept. <sup>24:17</sup>He said to David, "You are more righteous than I; for you have done good to me, whereas I have done evil to you. <sup>24:18</sup>You have declared this day how you have dealt well with me, because when the LORD had delivered me up into your hand, you didn't kill me. <sup>24:19</sup>For if a man finds his enemy, will he let him go away unharmed? Therefore may the LORD reward you good for that which you have done to me this day. <sup>24:20</sup>Now, behold, I know that you shall surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in your hand. <sup>24:21</sup>Swear now therefore to me by the LORD, that you will not cut off my seed after me, and that you will not destroy my name out of my father's house."

<sup>25:1</sup>Samuel died; and all Israel gathered themselves together, and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. David arose, and went down to the wilderness of Paran. <sup>25:2</sup>There was a man in Maon, whose possessions were in Carmel; and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, and a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel. <sup>25:3</sup>Now the name of the man was Nabal; and the name of his wife Abigail; and the woman was of good understanding, and of a beautiful face: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings; and he was of the house of Caleb. <sup>25:4</sup>David heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. <sup>25:5</sup>David sent ten young men, and David said to the young men, "Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and greet him in my name. <sup>25:6</sup>You shall tell him, 'Long life to you! Peace be to you, and peace be to your house, and peace be to all that you have. <sup>25:7</sup>Now I have heard that you have shearers. Your shepherds have now been with us, and we didn't hurt them, neither was there anything missing from them, all the while they were in Carmel. <sup>25:8</sup>Ask your young men, and they will tell you. Therefore, let the young men find favor in your eyes; for we come in a good day. Please give whatever comes to your hand, to your servants, and to your son David.'"

<sup>25:9</sup>When David's young men came, they spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.

<sup>25:10</sup>Nabal answered David's servants, and said, "Who is David? Who is the son of Jesse? There are many servants who break away from their masters these days. <sup>25:11</sup>Shall I then take my bread, and my water, and my meat that I have killed for my shearers, and give it to men who I don't know where they come from?"

<sup>25:12</sup>So David's young men turned on their way, and went back, and came and told him according to all these words. <sup>25:13</sup>David said to his men, "Every man put on his sword!"

Every man put on his sword. David also put on his sword. About four hundred men followed David; and two hundred stayed by the baggage. <sup>25:14</sup>But one of the young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, "Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to Greet our master; and he railed at them. <sup>25:15</sup>But the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we anything, as long as we went with them, when we were in the fields. <sup>25:16</sup>They were a wall to us both by night and by day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep. <sup>25:17</sup>Now therefore know and consider what you will do; for evil is determined against our master, and against all his house; for he is such a worthless fellow that one can't speak to him."

<sup>25:18</sup>Then Abigail hurried and took two hundred loaves of bread, two bottles of wine, five sheep ready dressed, five measures of parched grain, one hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on donkeys. <sup>25:19</sup>She said to her young men, "Go on before me. Behold, I come after you." But she didn't tell her husband, Nabal. <sup>25:20</sup>It was so, as she rode on her donkey, and came down by the covert of the mountain, that behold, David and his men came down toward her; and she met them.

<sup>25:21</sup>Now David had said, "Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained to him. He has returned me evil for good. <sup>25:22</sup>God do so to the enemies of David, and more also, if I leave of all that belongs to him by the morning light so much as one who urinates on a wall.<sup>j</sup>"

<sup>25:23</sup>When Abigail saw David, she hurried, and alighted from her donkey, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground. <sup>25:24</sup>She fell at his feet, and said, "On me, my lord, on me be the iniquity; and please let your handmaid speak in your ears. Hear the words of your handmaid. <sup>25:25</sup>Please don't let my lord regard this worthless fellow, even Nabal; for as his name is, so is he. Nabal is his name, and folly is with him; but I, your handmaid, didn't see the young men of my lord, whom you sent. <sup>25:26</sup>Now therefore, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, since the LORD has withheld you from blood guiltiness, and from avenging yourself with your own hand, now therefore let your enemies, and those who seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal. <sup>25:27</sup>Now this present which your servant has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men who follow my lord. <sup>25:28</sup>Please forgive the trespass of your handmaid. For the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord fights the battles of the LORD; and evil shall not be found in you all your days. <sup>25:29</sup>Though men may rise up to pursue you, and to seek your soul, yet the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the LORD your God. He will sling out the souls of your enemies, as from the hollow of a sling. <sup>25:30</sup>It shall come to pass, when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning you, and shall have appointed you prince over Israel, <sup>25:31</sup>that this shall be no grief to you, nor offense of heart to my lord, either that you have shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. When the LORD has dealt well with my lord, then remember your handmaid."

<sup>25:35</sup>So David received of her hand that which she had brought him: and he said to her, "Go up in peace to your house. Behold, I have listened to your voice, and have granted your request."

<sup>25:36</sup>Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king. Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken. Therefore she told him nothing, less or more, until the morning light. <sup>25:37</sup>It happened in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things, and his heart died within him, and he became as a stone. <sup>25:38</sup>It happened about ten days after, that the LORD struck Nabal, so that he died. <sup>25:39</sup>When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, "Blessed is the LORD, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil. The LORD has returned the evildoing of Nabal on his own head." David sent and spoke concerning Abigail, to take her to him as wife. <sup>25:40</sup>When the servants of David had come to Abigail to Carmel, they spoke to her, saying, "David has sent us to you, to take you to him as wife."

<sup>25:41</sup>She arose, and bowed herself with her face to the earth, and said, "Behold, your handmaid is a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord." <sup>25:42</sup>Abigail hurried, and arose, and rode on a donkey, with five ladies of hers who followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife. <sup>25:43</sup>David also took Ahinoam of Jezreel; and they both became his wives. <sup>25:44</sup>Now Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Palti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

<sup>26:1</sup>The Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, "Doesn't David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert?" <sup>26:2</sup>Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph. <sup>26:3</sup>Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which is before the desert, by the way. But David stayed in the wilderness, and he saw that Saul came after him into the wilderness. <sup>26:4</sup>David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul had certainly come. <sup>26:5</sup>David arose, and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David saw the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his army: and Saul lay within the place of the wagons, and the people were encamped around him. <sup>26:6</sup>Then answered David and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruah, brother to Joab, saying, "Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp?"

Abishai said, "I will go down with you." <sup>26:7</sup>So David and Abishai came to the people by night: and, behold, Saul lay sleeping within the place of the wagons, with his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay around him. <sup>26:8</sup>Then Abishai said to David, "God has delivered up your enemy into your hand this day. Now therefore please let me strike him with the spear to the earth at one stroke, and I will not strike him the second time."

<sup>26:9</sup>David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him; for who can put forth his hand against the LORD's anointed, and be guiltless?" <sup>26:10</sup>David said, "As the LORD lives, the LORD will strike him; or his day shall come to die; or he shall go down into battle and perish. <sup>26:11</sup>The LORD forbid that I should put forth my hand against the LORD's anointed; but now please take the spear that is at his head, and the jar of water, and let us go."

<sup>26:12</sup>So David took the spear and the jar of water from Saul's head; and they went away: and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither did any awake; for they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the LORD was fallen on them. <sup>26:13</sup>Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of the mountain afar off; a great space being between them; <sup>26:14</sup>and David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, "Don't you answer, Abner?"

Then Abner answered, "Who are you who cries to the king?"

<sup>26:15</sup>David said to Abner, "Aren't you a man? Who is like you in Israel? Why then have you not kept watch over your lord, the king? For one of the people came in to destroy the king your lord. <sup>26:16</sup>This thing isn't good that you have done. As the LORD lives, you are worthy to die, because you have not kept watch over your lord, the LORD's anointed. Now see where the king's spear is, and the jar of water that was at his head."

David said, "It is my voice, my lord, O king." <sup>26:18</sup>He said, "Why does my lord pursue after his servant? For what have I done? Or what evil is in my hand? <sup>26:19</sup>Now therefore, please let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If it is so that the LORD has stirred you up against me, let him accept an offering. But if it is the children of men, they are cursed before the LORD; for they have driven me out this day that I shouldn't cling to the LORD's inheritance, saying, 'Go, serve other gods!' <sup>26:20</sup>Now therefore, don't let my blood fall to the earth away from the presence of the LORD; for the king of Israel has come out to seek a flea, as when one hunts a partridge in the mountains."

<sup>26:21</sup>Then Saul said, "I have sinned. Return, my son David; for I will no more do you harm, because my life was precious in your eyes this day. Behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly."

ness; because the LORD delivered you into my hand today, and I wouldn't put forth my hand against the LORD's anointed. <sup>26:24</sup>Behold, as your life was respected this day in my eyes, so let my life be respected in the eyes of the LORD, and let him deliver me out of all oppression."

<sup>26:25</sup>Then Saul said to David, "You are blessed, my son David. You shall both do mightily, and shall surely prevail." So David went his way, and Saul returned to his place.

<sup>27:1</sup>David said in his heart, "I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul. There is nothing better for me than that I should escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me, to seek me any more in all the borders of Israel. So shall I escape out of his hand." <sup>27:2</sup>David arose, and passed over, he and the six hundred men who were with him, to Achish the son of Maach, king of Gath. <sup>27:3</sup>David lived with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Nabal's wife. <sup>27:4</sup>It was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him. <sup>27:5</sup>David said to Achish, "If now I have found favor in your eyes, let them give me a place in one of the cities in the country, that I may dwell there. For why should your servant dwell in the royal city with you?" <sup>27:6</sup>Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: why Ziklag pertains to the kings of Judah to this day. <sup>27:7</sup>The number of the days that David lived in the country of the Philistines was a full year and four months. <sup>27:8</sup>David and his men went up, and made a raid on the Geshurites, and the Girzites, and the Amalekites; for those were the inhabitants of the land, who were of old, as you go to Shur, even to the land of Egypt. <sup>27:9</sup>David struck the land, and saved neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the cattle, and the donkeys, and the camels, and the clothing; and he returned, and came to Achish. <sup>27:10</sup>Achish said, "Against whom have you made a raid today?"

David said, "Against the South of Judah, against the South of the Jerahmeelites, and against the South of the Kenites." <sup>27:11</sup>David saved neither man nor woman alive, to bring them to Gath, saying, "Lest they should tell of us, saying, 'David this, and this has been his way all the time he has lived in the country of the Philistines.”

<sup>27:12</sup>Achish believed David, saying, “He has made his people Israel utterly to abhor him. Therefore he shall be my servant forever.”

<sup>28:1</sup>It happened in those days, that the Philistines gathered their armies together for warfare, to fight with Israel. Achish said to David, “Know assuredly that you shall go out with me in the army, you and your men.”

Achish said to David, “Therefore will I make you my bodyguard for ever.”

<sup>28:3</sup>Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. Saul had put away those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. <sup>28:4</sup>The Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa. <sup>28:5</sup>When Saul saw the army of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart trembled greatly. <sup>28:6</sup>When Saul inquired of the LORD, the LORD didn’t answer him, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets. <sup>28:7</sup>Then Saul said to his servants, “Seek me a woman who has a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and inquire of her.”

His servants said to him, “Behold, there is a woman who has a familiar spirit at Endor.”

<sup>28:8</sup>Saul disguised himself, and put on other clothing, and went, he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night: and he said, “Please divine to me by the familiar spirit, and bring me up whomever I shall name to you.”

<sup>28:9</sup>The woman said to him, “Behold, you know what Saul has done, how he has cut off those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land. Why then do you lay a snare for my life, to cause me to die?”

<sup>28:10</sup>Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, “As the LORD lives, no punishment shall happen to you for this thing.”

<sup>28:11</sup>Then the woman said, “Whom shall I bring up to you?”

He said, “Bring Samuel up for me.”

<sup>28:12</sup>When the woman saw Samuel, she cried with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, “Why have you deceived me? For you are Saul!”

<sup>28:13</sup>The king said to her, “Don’t be afraid.

For what do you see?”

The woman said to Saul, “I see a god coming up out of the earth.”

<sup>28:14</sup>He said to her, “What does he look like?”

She said, “An old man comes up. He is covered with a robe.” Saul perceived that it was Samuel, and he bowed with his face to the ground, and showed respect.

<sup>28:15</sup>Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me, to bring me up?”

Saul answered, “I am very distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God has departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreams. Therefore I have called you, that you may make known to me what I shall do.”

<sup>28:16</sup>Samuel said, “Why then do you ask of me, since the LORD has departed from you and has become your adversary? <sup>28:17</sup>The LORD has done to you as he spoke by me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hand, and given it to your neighbor, even to David.

<sup>28:18</sup>Because you didn’t obey the voice of the LORD, and didn’t execute his fierce wrath on Amalek, therefore the LORD has done this thing to you this day. <sup>28:19</sup>Moreover the LORD will deliver Israel also with you into the hand of the Philistines; and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will deliver the army of Israel also into the hand of the Philistines.”

<sup>28:20</sup>Then Saul fell immediately his full length on the earth, and was terrified, because of the words of Samuel. There was no strength in him; for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night. <sup>28:21</sup>The woman came to Saul, and saw that he was very troubled, and said to him, “Behold, your handmaid has listened to your voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have listened to your words which you spoke to me. <sup>28:22</sup>Now therefore, please listen also to the voice of your handmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before you; and eat, that you may have strength, when you go on your way.”

<sup>28:23</sup>But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, constrained him; and he listened to their voice. So he arose from the earth, and sat on the bed. <sup>28:24</sup>The woman had a fattened calf in the house. She hurried and killed it; and she took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread of it. <sup>28:25</sup>She brought it before Saul, and before his servants; and they ate. Then they rose up, and went away that night.

<sup>29:1</sup>Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites encamped by the spring which is in Jezreel. <sup>29:2</sup>The lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands; and David and his men passed on in the rear with Achish. <sup>29:3</sup>Then the princes of the Philistines said, "What about these Hebrews?"

Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, "Isn't this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or rather these years, and I have found no fault in him since he fell away to this day?"

<sup>29:4</sup>But the princes of the Philistines were angry with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him, "Make the man return, that he may go back to his place where you have appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battle, lest in the battle he become an adversary to us. For with what should this fellow reconcile himself to his lord? Should it not be with the heads of these men? <sup>29:5</sup>Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, 'Saul has slain his thousands, David his ten thousands?'"

<sup>29:6</sup>Then Achish called David, and said to him, "As the LORD lives, you have been upright, and your going out and your coming in with me in the army is good in my sight; for I have not found evil in you since the day of your coming to me to this day. Nevertheless, the lords don't favor you. <sup>29:7</sup>Therefore now return, and go in peace, that you not displease the lords of the Philistines."

<sup>29:8</sup>David said to Achish, "But what have I done? What have you found in your servant so long as I have been before you to this day, that I may not go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

<sup>29:9</sup>Achish answered David, "I know that you are good in my sight, as an angel of God. Notwithstanding the princes of the Philistines have said, 'He shall not go up with us to the battle.' <sup>29:10</sup>Therefore now rise up early in the morning with the servants of your lord who have come with you; and as soon as you are up early in the morning, and have light, depart."

to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. The Philistines went up to Jezreel.

<sup>30:1</sup>It happened, when David and his men had come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid on the South, and on Ziklag, and had struck Ziklag, and burned it with fire, <sup>30:2</sup>and had taken captive the women and all who were therein, both small and great. They didn't kill any, but carried them off, and went their way. <sup>30:3</sup>When David and his men came to the city, behold, it was burned with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, were taken captive. <sup>30:4</sup>Then David and the people who were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to weep. <sup>30:5</sup>David's two wives were taken captive, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite. <sup>30:6</sup>David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sons and for his daughters: but David strengthened himself in the LORD his God. <sup>30:7</sup>David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Please bring me here the ephod."

Abiathar brought the ephod to David. <sup>30:8</sup>David inquired of the LORD, saying, "If I pursue after this troop, shall I overtake them?"

He answered him, "Pursue; for you shall surely overtake them, and shall without fail recover all."

<sup>30:9</sup>So David went, he and the six hundred men who were with him, and came to the brook Besor, where those who were left behind stayed. <sup>30:10</sup>But David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were so faint that they couldn't go over the brook Besor. <sup>30:11</sup>They found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to drink. <sup>30:12</sup>They gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins. when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, three days and three nights. <sup>30:13</sup>David asked him, "To whom do you belong? Where are you from?"

He said, "I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite; and my master left me, because three days ago I fell sick. <sup>30:14</sup>We made a raid on the South of the Cherethites, and on that which belongs to Judah, and on the South of Caleb; and we burned Ziklag with fire."

<sup>30:15</sup>David said to him, "Will you bring me down to this troop?"

He said, "Swear to me by God that you will neither kill me, nor deliver me up into the hands of my master, and I will bring you down to this troop."

<sup>30:16</sup>When he had brought him down, behold, they were spread around over all the ground, eating, drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah. <sup>30:17</sup>David struck them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day. Not a man of them escaped from there, except four hundred young men, who rode on camels and fled. <sup>30:18</sup>David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken; and David rescued his two wives. <sup>30:19</sup>There was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil, nor anything that they had taken to them. David brought back all. <sup>30:20</sup>David took all the flocks and the herds, which they drove before those other livestock, and said, "This is David's spoil."

<sup>30:21</sup>David came to the two hundred men, who were so faint that they could not follow David, whom also they had made to stay at the brook Besor; and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people who were with him. When David came near to the people, he greeted them. <sup>30:22</sup>Then all the wicked men and base fellows, of those who went with David, answered and said, "Because they didn't go with us, we will not give them anything of the spoil that we have recovered, except to every man his wife and his children, that he may lead them away, and depart."

<sup>30:23</sup>Then David said, "You shall not do so, my brothers, with that which the LORD has given to us, who has preserved us, and delivered the troop that came against us into our hand. <sup>30:24</sup>Who will listen to you in this matter? For as his share is who goes down to the battle, so shall his share be who carries by the baggage: they shall share alike." <sup>30:25</sup>It was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day. <sup>30:26</sup>When David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, even to his friends, saying, "Behold, a present for you of the spoil of the enemies of the LORD." <sup>30:27</sup>He sent it to those who were in Bethel, and to those who were in Ramoth of the South, and to those who were in Jattir, <sup>30:28</sup>and to those who were in Aroer, and to those who were in Siphmoth, and to those who were in Eshtemoa, <sup>30:29</sup>and to those who were in Racal, and to those who were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those who were in the cities of the Kenites, <sup>30:30</sup>and to those who were in Hormah, and to those who were in Borashan, and to those who were in Athach, <sup>30:31</sup>and to those who were in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men used to stay.

all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth Shan; and they came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

The Second Book of Samuel

<sup>1:1</sup>It happened after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had stayed two days in Ziklag; <sup>1:2</sup>it happened on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes torn, and earth on his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and showed respect. <sup>1:3</sup>David said to him, "Where do you come from?"

He said to him, "I have escaped out of the camp of Israel." <sup>1:4</sup>David said to him, "How did it go? Please tell me."

He answered, "The people have fled from the battle, and many of the people also have fallen and are dead; and Saul and Jonathan his son are dead also."

<sup>1:5</sup>David said to the young man who told him, "How do you know that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?"

<sup>1:6</sup>The young man who told him said, "As I happened by chance on Mount Gilboa, behold, Saul was leaning on his spear; and behold, the chariots and the horsemen followed hard after him. <sup>1:7</sup>When he looked behind him, he saw me, and called to me. I answered, 'Here I am.' <sup>1:8</sup>He said to me, 'Who are you?' I answered him, 'I am an Amalekite.' <sup>1:9</sup>He said to me, 'Please stand beside me, and kill me; for anguish has taken hold of me, because my life is yet whole in me.' <sup>1:10</sup>So I stood beside him, and killed him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he had fallen. I took the crown that was on his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them here to my lord."

<sup>1:11</sup>Then David took hold on his clothes, and tore them; and likewise all the men who were with him. <sup>1:12</sup>They mourned, and wept, and fasted until evening, for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of the LORD,<sup>a</sup> and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword. <sup>1:13</sup>David said to the young man who told him, "Where are you from?"

He answered, "I am the son of a foreigner, an Amalekite."

young men, and said, "Go near, and fall on him." He struck him, so that he died. <sup>1:16</sup>David said to him, "Your blood be on your head; for your mouth has testified against you, saying, 'I have slain the LORD's anointed.'"

How the mighty have fallen!

Don't publish it in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.

let there be no dew nor rain on you, neither fields of offerings;

For there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away,

The shield of Saul was not anointed with oil.

<sup>1:22</sup>From the blood of the slain,

from the fat of the mighty,

Jonathan's bow didn't turn back.

Saul's sword didn't return empty.

In their death, they were not divided.

They were swifter than eagles.

They were stronger than lions.

who clothed you in scarlet delicately, who put ornaments of gold on your clothing.

Jonathan is slain on your high places.

You have been very pleasant to me.

Your love to me was wonderful, passing the love of women.

<sup>1:27</sup>How are the mighty fallen,

and the weapons of war perished!"

<sup>2:1</sup>It happened after this, that David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up into any of the cities of Judah?"

The LORD said to him, "Go up."

David said, "Where shall I go up?"

He said, "To Hebron."

<sup>2:8</sup>Now Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's army, had taken Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; <sup>2:9</sup>and he made him king over Gilead, and over the Ashurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel. <sup>2:10</sup>Ishbosheth, Saul's son, was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. But the house of Judah followed David. <sup>2:11</sup>The time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months. <sup>2:12</sup>Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim to Gibeon. <sup>2:13</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out, and met them by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, the one on the one side of the pool, and the other on the other side of the pool. <sup>2:14</sup>Abner said to Joab, "Please let the young men arise and play before us!"

Joab said, "Let them arise!" <sup>2:15</sup>Then they arose and went over by number: twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of the servants of David. <sup>2:16</sup>They each caught his opponent by the head, and thrust his sword in his fellow's side; so they fell down together: therefore that place was called Helkath Hazzurim, which is in Gibeon. <sup>2:17</sup>The battle was very severe that day: and Abner was beaten, and the men of Israel, before the servants of David. <sup>2:18</sup>The three sons of Zeruiah were there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foot as a wild gazelle. <sup>2:19</sup>Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he didn't turn to the right hand nor to the left from following Abner. <sup>2:20</sup>Then Abner looked behind him, and said, "Is it you, Asahel?"

He answered, "It is I."

<sup>2:21</sup>Abner said to him, "Turn aside to your right hand or to your left, and grab one of the young men, and take his armor." But Asahel would not turn aside from following him. <sup>2:22</sup>Abner said again to Asahel, "Turn aside from following me. Why should I strike you to the ground? How then should I hold up my face to Joab your brother?" <sup>2:23</sup>However he refused to turn aside. Therefore Abner with the back end of the spear struck him in the body, so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place. It happened, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down and died stood still. <sup>2:24</sup>But Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner: and the sun went down when they had come to the hill of Ammah, that lies before Giah by the way of the wilderness of Gibeon. <sup>2:25</sup>The children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one band, and stood on the top of a hill. <sup>2:26</sup>Then Abner called to Joab, and said, "Shall the sword devour forever? Don't you know that it will be bitterness in the latter end? How long shall it be then, before you ask the people to return from following their brothers?"

<sup>2:27</sup>Joab said, "As God<sup>b</sup> lives, if you had not spoken, surely then in the morning the people would have gone away, and not each followed his brother." <sup>2:28</sup>So Joab blew the shofar<sup>c</sup>; and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more. <sup>2:29</sup>Abner and his men went all that night through the Arabah; and they passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and came to Mahanaim. <sup>2:30</sup>Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of David's servants nineteen men and Asahel. <sup>2:31</sup>But the servants of David had struck of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, so that three hundred sixty men died. <sup>2:32</sup>They took up Asahel, and buried him in the tomb of his father, which was in Bethlehem. Joab and his men went all night, and the day broke on them at Hebron.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now there was long war between the house of Saul and the house of David: and David grew stronger and stronger, but the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker. <sup>3:2</sup>To David were sons born in Hebron: and his first-born was Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; <sup>3:3</sup>and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; <sup>3:4</sup>and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; <sup>3:5</sup>and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah, David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron. <sup>3:6</sup>It happened, while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong in the house of Saul. <sup>3:7</sup>Now Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ishbosheth said to Abner, "Why have you gone in to my father's concubine?" <sup>3:8</sup>Then was Abner very angry for the words of Ishbosheth, and said, "Am I a dog's head that belongs to Judah? Today I show kindness to the house of Saul your father, to his brothers, and to his friends, and have not delivered you into the hand of David; and yet you charge me this day with a fault concerning this woman!" <sup>3:9</sup>God do so to Abner, and more also, if, as the LORD has sworn to David, I don't do even so to him; <sup>3:10</sup>to transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba."

<sup>3:11</sup>He could not answer Abner another word, because he feared him. <sup>3:12</sup>Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, "Whose is the land?" and saying, "Make your alliance with me, and behold, my hand shall be with you, to bring all Israel around to you."

<sup>3:13</sup>He said, "Good; I will make a treaty with you; but one thing I require of you. That is, you shall not see my face, unless you first bring Michal, Saul's daughter, when you come to see my face."

<sup>3:14</sup>David sent messengers to Ishbosheth, Saul's son, saying, "Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I pledged to be married to me for one hundred foreskins of the Philistines."

<sup>3:15</sup>Ishbosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Paltiel the son of Laish. <sup>3:16</sup>Her husband went with her, weeping as he went, and followed her to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, "Go! Return!" and he returned. <sup>3:17</sup>Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, "In times past, you sought for David to be king over you. <sup>3:18</sup>Now then do it; for the LORD has spoken of David, saying, 'By the hand of my servant David, I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.'"

<sup>3:19</sup>Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and to the whole house of Benjamin. <sup>3:20</sup>So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. David made Abner and the men who were with him a feast. <sup>3:21</sup>Abner said to David, "I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with you, and that you may reign over all that your soul desires." David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.

<sup>3:22</sup>Behold, the servants of David and Joab came from a foray, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron; for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace. <sup>3:23</sup>When Joab and all the army who was with him had come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away, and he is gone in peace. <sup>3:24</sup>Then Joab came to the king, and said, "What have you done? Behold, Abner came to you. Why is it that you have sent him away, and he is quite gone?" <sup>3:25</sup>You know Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive you, and to know your going out and your coming in, and to know all that you do."

<sup>3:26</sup>When Joab had come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah; but David didn't know it. <sup>3:27</sup>When Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the midst of the gate to speak with him quietly, and struck him there in the body, so that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother. <sup>3:28</sup>Afterward, when David heard it, he said, "I and my kingdom are guiltless before the LORD forever of the blood of Abner the son of Ner. <sup>3:29</sup>Let it fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house. Let there not fail from the house of Joab one who has an issue, or who is a leper, or who leans on a staff, or who falls by the sword, or who lacks bread." <sup>3:30</sup>So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had killed their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle. <sup>3:31</sup>David said to Joab, and to all the people who were with him, Tear your clothes, and clothe yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. King David followed the bier. <sup>3:32</sup>They buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lifted up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept. <sup>3:33</sup>The king lamented for Abner, and said, "Should Abner die as a fool dies? <sup>3:34</sup>Your hands were not bound, nor your feet put into fetters. As a man falls before the children of iniquity, so you fell."

All the people wept again over him. <sup>3:35</sup>All the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if I taste bread, or anything else, until the sun goes down." <sup>3:36</sup>All the people took notice of it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people. <sup>3:37</sup>So all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to kill Abner the son of Ner. <sup>3:38</sup>The king said to his servants, "Don't you know that there a prince and a great man has fallen this day in Israel? <sup>3:39</sup>I am this day weak, though anointed king; and these men the sons of Zeruiah are too hard for me. May the LORD reward the evildoer according to his wickedness."

<sup>4:1</sup>When Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands became feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled. <sup>4:2</sup>Saul's son had two men who were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin (for Beeroth also is reckoned to Benjamin: <sup>4:3</sup>and the Beerothites fled to Gittaim, and have lived as foreigners there until this day). <sup>4:4</sup>Now Jonathan, Saul's son, had a son who was lame of his feet. He was five years old when the news came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel; and his nurse took him up, and fled: and it happened, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. His name was Mephibosheth. <sup>4:5</sup>The sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ishbosheth, as he took his rest at noon. <sup>4:6</sup>They came there into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched wheat; and they struck him in the body: and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped. <sup>4:7</sup>Now when they came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedroom, they struck him, and killed him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and went by the way of the Arabah all night. <sup>4:8</sup>They brought the head of Ishbosheth to David to Hebron, and said to the king, "Behold, the head of Ishbosheth, the son of Saul, your enemy, who sought your life! the LORD has avenged my lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed."

<sup>4:9</sup>David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, <sup>4:10</sup>when someone told me, 'Behold, Saul is dead,' thinking to have brought good news, I took hold of him, and killed him in Ziklag, which was the reward I gave him for his news. <sup>4:11</sup>How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house on his bed, shall I not now require his blood of your hand, and take you away from the earth?" <sup>4:12</sup>David commanded his young men, and they killed them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up beside the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the grave of Abner in Hebron.

<sup>5:1</sup>Then came all the tribes of Israel to David to Hebron, and spoke, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>5:2</sup>In times past, when Saul was king over us, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. The LORD said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over Israel.'" <sup>5:3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel. <sup>5:4</sup>David was thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years. <sup>5:5</sup>In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah. <sup>5:6</sup>The king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, who spoke to David, saying, "Unless you take away the blind and the lame, you shall not come in here;" thinking, "David can't come in here." <sup>5:7</sup>Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion; the same is the city of David. <sup>5:8</sup>David said on that day, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites, let him get up to the watercourse, and strike the lame and the blind, who are hated by David's soul." Therefore they say, "The blind and the lame can't come into the house." <sup>5:9</sup>David lived in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. David built around from Millo and inward. <sup>5:10</sup>David grew greater and greater; for the LORD, the God of Hosts, was with him. <sup>5:11</sup>Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and cedar trees, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David a house. <sup>5:12</sup>David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom for his people Israel's sake. <sup>5:13</sup>David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron; and there were yet sons and daughters born to David. <sup>5:14</sup>These are the names of those who were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, <sup>5:15</sup>and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>5:16</sup>and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet. <sup>5:17</sup>When the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard of it, and went down to the stronghold. <sup>5:18</sup>Now the Philistines had come and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>5:19</sup>David inquired of the LORD, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?"

The LORD said to David, "Go up; for I will certainly deliver the Philistines into your hand."

<sup>5:20</sup>David came to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and he said, "The LORD has broken my enemies before me, like the breach of waters." Therefore he called the name of that place Baal Perazim. <sup>5:21</sup>They left their images there; and David and his men took them away. <sup>5:22</sup>The Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>5:23</sup>When David inquired of the LORD, he said, "You shall not go up. Circle around behind them, and attack them over against the mulberry trees. <sup>5:24</sup>It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall stir yourself up; for then the LORD has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

<sup>5:25</sup>David did so, as the LORD commanded him, and struck the Philistines from Geba until you come to Gezer.

<sup>6:1</sup>David again gathered together all the chosen men of Israel, thirty thousand. <sup>6:2</sup>David arose, and went with all the people who were with him, from Baale Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, even the name of the LORD of Hosts who sits above the cherubim. <sup>6:3</sup>They set the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in the hill: and Uzzah and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove the new cart. <sup>6:4</sup>They brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was in the hill, with the ark of God: and Ahio went before the ark. <sup>6:5</sup>David and all the house of Israel played before the LORD with all kinds of instruments made of fir wood, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with castanets, and with cymbals. <sup>6:6</sup>When they came to the threshing floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached for the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the cattle stumbled. <sup>6:7</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah; and God struck him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God. <sup>6:8</sup>David was displeased, because the LORD had broken forth on Uzzah; and he called that place Perez Uzzah, to this day. <sup>6:9</sup>David was afraid of the LORD that day; and he said, "How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?" <sup>6:10</sup>So David would not move the ark of the LORD to be with him in the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>6:11</sup>The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months: and the LORD blessed Obed-Edom, and all his house. <sup>6:12</sup>It was told king David, saying, "The LORD has blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that pertains to him, because of the ark of God."

David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom into the city of David with joy. <sup>6:13</sup>It was so, that, when those who bore the ark of the LORD had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fattened calf. <sup>6:14</sup>David danced before the LORD with all his might; and David was clothed in a linen ephod. <sup>6:15</sup>So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouting, and with the sound of the shofar<sup>d</sup>. <sup>6:16</sup>It was so, as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she despised him in her heart. <sup>6:17</sup>They brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it; and David offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before the LORD. <sup>6:18</sup>When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>6:19</sup>He gave to all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, both to men and women, to everyone a portion of bread, dates, and raisins. So all the people departed everyone to his house. <sup>6:20</sup>Then David returned to bless his household. Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, "How glorious the king of Israel was today, who uncovered himself today in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows shamelessly uncovers himself!"

<sup>6:21</sup>David said to Michal, "It was before the LORD, who chose me above your father, and above all his house, to appoint me prince over the people of the LORD, over Israel. Therefore will I celebrate before the LORD. <sup>6:22</sup>I will be yet more vile than this, and will be base in my own sight. But of the handmaids of whom you have spoken, they shall honor me." <sup>6:23</sup>Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

<sup>7:1</sup>It happened, when the king lived in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies all around, <sup>7:2</sup>that the king said to Nathan the prophet, "See now, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of God dwells within curtains."

<sup>7:3</sup>Nathan said to the king, "Go, do all that is in your heart; for the LORD is with you."

<sup>7:4</sup>It happened the same night, that the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying, <sup>7:5</sup>"Go and tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD, "Shall you build me a house for me to dwell in? <sup>7:6</sup>For I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but have moved around in a tent and in a tabernacle. <sup>7:7</sup>In all places in which I have walked with all the children of Israel, did I say a word to any of the tribes of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'" <sup>7:8</sup>Now therefore you shall tell my servant David this, 'Thus says the LORD of Hosts, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people, over Israel. <sup>7:9</sup>I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a great name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>7:10</sup>I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more, as at the first, <sup>7:11</sup>and as from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. I will cause you to rest from all your enemies. Moreover the LORD tells you that the LORD will make you a house. <sup>7:12</sup>When your days are fulfilled, and you shall sleep with your fathers, I will set up your seed after you, who shall proceed out of your bowels, and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>7:13</sup>He shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom forever. <sup>7:14</sup>I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commits iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men, and with the stripes of the children of men; <sup>7:15</sup>but my loving kindness shall not depart from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away before you. <sup>7:16</sup>Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure forever before you. Your throne shall be established forever.'" <sup>7:17</sup>According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>7:18</sup>Then David the king went in, and sat before the LORD; and he said, "Who am I, Lord<sup>e</sup> the LORD, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? <sup>7:19</sup>This was yet a small thing in your eyes, Lord GOD; but you have spoken also of your servant's house for a great while to come; and this after the way of men, Lord GOD! <sup>7:20</sup>What more can David say to you? For you know your servant, Lord GOD. <sup>7:21</sup>For your word's sake, and according to your own heart, you have worked all this greatness, to make your servant know it. <sup>7:22</sup>Therefore you are great, LORD God. For there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>7:23</sup>What one nation in the earth is like your people, even like Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, and to make himself a name, and to do great things for you, and awesome things for your land, before your people, whom you redeem to yourself out of Egypt, from the nations and their gods? <sup>7:24</sup>You established for yourself your people Israel to be a people to you forever; and you, LORD, became their God. <sup>7:25</sup>Now, LORD God, the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, confirm it forever, and do as you have spoken. <sup>7:26</sup>Let your name be magnified forever, saying, 'The LORD of Hosts is God over Israel; and the house of your servant David shall be established before you.' <sup>7:27</sup>For you, LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, have revealed to your servant, saying, 'I will build you a house.' Therefore your servant has found in his heart to pray this prayer to you.

<sup>7:28</sup>"Now, O Lord GOD, you are God, and your words are truth, and you have promised this good thing to your servant. <sup>7:29</sup>Now therefore let it please you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, Lord GOD, have spoken it. Let the house of your servant be blessed forever with your blessing."

<sup>8:1</sup>After this it happened that David struck the Philistines, and subdued them: and David took the bridle of the mother city out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>8:2</sup>He struck Moab, and measured them with the line, making them to lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. The Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. <sup>8:3</sup>David struck also Hadadezer the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion at the River. <sup>8:4</sup>David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. <sup>8:5</sup>When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men. <sup>8:6</sup>Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>8:7</sup>David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>8:8</sup>From Betah and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass. <sup>8:9</sup>When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer, <sup>8:10</sup>then Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi. Joram brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass: <sup>8:11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and gold that he dedicated of all the nations which he subdued; <sup>8:12</sup>of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Rehob, king of Zobah. <sup>8:13</sup>David earned a reputation when he returned from smiting the Syrians in the Valley of Salt, even eighteen thousand men. <sup>8:14</sup>He put garrisons in Edom; throughout all Edom put he garrisons, and all the Edomites became servants to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>8:15</sup>David reigned over all Israel; and David executed justice and righteousness to all his people. <sup>8:16</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>8:17</sup>and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Seraiah was scribe; <sup>8:18</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and David's sons were chief ministers.

<sup>9:1</sup>David said, "Is there yet any who is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?" <sup>9:2</sup>There was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba, and they called him to David; and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?"

He said, "Your servant is he."

<sup>9:3</sup>The king said, "Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God to him?"

Ziba said to the king, "Jonathan has yet a son, who is lame of his feet."

<sup>9:4</sup>The king said to him, "Where is he?"

Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lo Debar."

<sup>9:5</sup>Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from Lo Debar. <sup>9:6</sup>Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face, and showed respect. David said, "Mephibosheth."

He answered, "Behold, your servant!"

<sup>9:7</sup>David said to him, "Don't be afraid of him; for I will surely show you kindness for Jonathan your father's sake, and will restore to you all the land of Saul your father. You shall eat bread at my table continually." <sup>9:8</sup>He bowed down, and said, "What is your servant, that you should look on such a dead dog as I am?" <sup>9:9</sup>Then the king called to Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "All that pertained to Saul and to all his house have I given to your master's son. <sup>9:10</sup>You shall till the land for him, you, and your sons, and your servants; and you shall bring in the harvest, that your master's son may have bread to eat: but Mephibosheth your master's son shall eat bread always at my table." Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants. <sup>9:11</sup>Then Ziba said to the king, "According to all that my lord the king commands his servant, so your shall servant do." So Mephibosheth ate at the king's table, like one of the king's sons. <sup>9:12</sup>Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica. All that lived in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth. <sup>9:13</sup>So Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem; for he ate continually at the king's table. He was lame in both his feet.

<sup>10:1</sup>It happened after this, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son reigned in his place. <sup>10:2</sup>David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father showed kindness to me." So David sent by his servants to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

<sup>10:3</sup>But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Hasn't David sent his servants to you to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?" <sup>10:4</sup>So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>10:5</sup>When they told it to David, he sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Wait at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>10:6</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that they were become odious to David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth Rehob, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah with one thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men. <sup>10:7</sup>When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>10:8</sup>The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate: and the Syrians of Zobah and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah, were by themselves in the field. <sup>10:9</sup>Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians: <sup>10:10</sup>The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and he put them in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>10:11</sup>He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will come and help you. <sup>10:12</sup>Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God; and the LORD do that which seems good to him." <sup>10:13</sup>So Joab and the people who were with him drew near to the battle against the Syrians: and they fled before him. <sup>10:14</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. Then Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>10:15</sup>When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they gathered themselves together. <sup>10:16</sup>Hadadezer sent, and brought out the Syrians who were beyond the River: and they came to Helam, with Shobach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>10:17</sup>It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. The Syrians set themselves in array against David, and fought with him. <sup>10:18</sup>The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians seven hundred charioteers, and forty thousand horsemen, and struck Shobach the captain of their army, so that he died there. <sup>10:19</sup>When all the kings who were servants to Hadadezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and served them. So the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

<sup>11:4</sup>David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her (for she was purified from her uncleanness); and she returned to her house. <sup>11:5</sup>The woman conceived; and she sent and told David, and said, "I am with child."

<sup>11:6</sup>David sent to Joab, "Send me Uriah the Hittite." Joab sent Uriah to David. <sup>11:7</sup>When Uriah had come to him, David asked of him how Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the war prospered. <sup>11:8</sup>David said to Uriah, "Go down to your house, and wash your feet." Uriah departed out of the king's house, and a gift from the king was sent after him. <sup>11:9</sup>But Uriah slept at the door of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and didn't go down to his house. <sup>11:10</sup>When they had told David, saying, "Uriah didn't go down to his house," David said to Uriah, "Haven't you come from a journey? Why didn't you go down to your house?"

<sup>11:11</sup>Uriah said to David, "The ark, Israel, and Judah, are staying in tents; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open field. Shall I then go into my house to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? As you live, and as your soul lives, I will not do this thing!"

<sup>11:12</sup>David said to Uriah, "Stay here today also, and tomorrow I will let you depart." So

Uriah stayed in Jerusalem that day, and the next day. <sup>11:13</sup>When David had called him, he ate and drink before him; and he made him drunk. At evening, he went out to lie on his bed with the servants of his lord, but didn't go down to his house. <sup>11:14</sup>It happened in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Uriah. <sup>11:15</sup>He wrote in the letter, saying, "Send Uriah to the forefront of the hottest battle, and retreat from him, that he may be struck, and die."

<sup>11:16</sup>It happened, when Joab kept watch on the city, that he assigned Uriah to the place where he knew that valiant men were. <sup>11:17</sup>The men of the city went out, and fought with Joab. Some of the people fell, even of the servants of David; and Uriah the Hittite died also. <sup>11:18</sup>Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war; <sup>11:19</sup>and he commanded the messenger, saying, "When you have finished telling all the things concerning the war to the king, <sup>11:20</sup>it shall be that, if the king's wrath arise, and he asks you, 'Why did you go so near to the city to fight? Didn't you know that they would shoot from the wall? <sup>11:21</sup>who struck Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? Didn't a woman cast an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died at Thebez? Why did you go so near the wall?' then you shall say, 'Your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead also.'"

<sup>11:25</sup>Then David said to the messenger, "Thus you shall tell Joab, 'Don't let this thing displease you, for the sword devours one as well as another. Make your battle stronger against the city, and overthrow it.' Encourage him."

<sup>11:26</sup>When the wife of Uriah heard that Uriah her husband was dead, she made lamentation for her husband. <sup>11:27</sup>When the mourning was past, David sent and took her home to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done displeased the LORD.

<sup>12:1</sup>The LORD sent Nathan to David. He came to him, and said to him, "There were two men in one city; the one rich, and the other poor. <sup>12:2</sup>The rich man had very many flocks and herds, <sup>12:3</sup>but the poor man had nothing, except one little ewe lamb, which he had bought and raised. It grew up together with him, and with his children. It ate of his own food, drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosom, and was to him like a daughter. <sup>12:4</sup>A traveler came to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man who had come to him, but took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man who had come to him."

<sup>12:5</sup>David's anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, "As the LORD lives, the man who has done this is worthy to die! <sup>12:6</sup>He shall restore the lamb fourfold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity!"

<sup>12:7</sup>Nathan said to David, "You are the man. This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: 'I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you out of the hand of Saul. <sup>12:8</sup>I gave you your master's house, and your master's wives into your bosom, and gave you the house of Israel and of Judah; and if that would have been too little, I would have added to you many more such things. <sup>12:9</sup>Why have you despised the word of the LORD, to do that which is evil in his sight? You have struck Uriah the Hittite with the sword, and have taken his wife to be your wife, and have slain him with the sword of the children of Ammon. <sup>12:10</sup>Now therefore the sword will never depart from your house, because you have despised me, and have taken the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your wife.'

<sup>12:11</sup>"This is what the LORD says: 'Behold, I will raise up evil against you out of your own house; and I will take your wives before your eyes, and give them to your neighbor, and he will lie with your wives in the sight of this sun. <sup>12:12</sup>For you did it secretly, but I will do this thing before all Israel, and before the sun.'"

Nathan said to David, "The LORD also has put away your sin. You will not die. <sup>12:14</sup>However, because by this deed you have given great occasion to the LORD's enemies to blaspheme, the child also who is born to you shall surely die." <sup>12:15</sup>Nathan departed to his house.

The LORD struck the child that Uriah's wife bore to David, and it was very sick. <sup>12:16</sup>David therefore begged God for the child; and David fasted, and went in, and lay all night on the earth. <sup>12:17</sup>The elders of his house arose beside him, to raise him up from the earth: but he would not, neither did he eat bread with them. <sup>12:18</sup>It happened on the seventh day, that the child died. The servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, "Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he didn't listen to our voice. How will he then harm himself, if we tell him that the child is dead?"

<sup>12:19</sup>But when David saw that his servants were whispering together, David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, "Is the child dead?"

They said, "He is dead."

<sup>12:20</sup>Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing; and he came into the house of the LORD, and worshiped: then he came to his own house; and when he required, they set bread before him, and he ate. <sup>12:21</sup>Then his servants said to him, "What is this that you have done? You fasted and wept for the child while he was alive; but when the child was dead, you rose up and ate bread."

<sup>12:22</sup>He said, "While the child was yet alive, I fasted and wept; for I said, 'Who knows whether the LORD will not be gracious to me, that the child may live?' <sup>12:23</sup>But now he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me."

<sup>12:24</sup>David comforted Bathsheba his wife, and went in to her, and lay with her. She bore a son, and he called his name Solomon. The LORD loved him; <sup>12:25</sup>and he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he named him Jedidiah, for the LORD's sake. <sup>12:26</sup>Now Joab fought against Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and took the royal city. <sup>12:27</sup>Joab sent messengers to David, and said, "I have fought against Rabbah. Yes, I have taken the city of waters. <sup>12:28</sup>Now therefore gather the rest of the people together, and encamp against the city, and take it; lest I take the city, and it be called after my name.”

<sup>12:29</sup>David gathered all the people together, and went to Rabbah, and fought against it, and took it. <sup>12:30</sup>He took the crown of their king from off his head; and its weight was a talent of gold, and in it were precious stones; and it was set on David’s head. He brought out the spoil of the city, exceeding much. <sup>12:31</sup>He brought out the people who were therein, and put them under saws, and under iron picks, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick kiln: and he did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>13:1</sup>It happened after this, that Absalom the son of David had a beautiful sister, whose name was Tamar; and Amnon the son of David loved her. <sup>13:2</sup>Amnon was so troubled that he fell sick because of his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed hard to Amnon to do anything to her. <sup>13:3</sup>But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David’s brother; and Jonadab was a very subtle man. <sup>13:4</sup>He said to him, “Why, son of the king, are you so sad from day to day? Won’t you tell me?”

Amnon said to him, “I love Tamar, my brother Absalom’s sister.”

<sup>13:5</sup>Jonadab said to him, “Lay down on your bed, and pretend to be sick. When your father comes to see you, tell him, ‘Please let my sister Tamar come and give me bread to eat, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it from her hand.’”

<sup>13:6</sup>So Amnon lay down and faked being sick. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to the king, “Please let my sister Tamar come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.” <sup>13:7</sup>Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, “Go now to your brother Amnon’s house, and prepare food for him.” <sup>13:8</sup>So Tamar went to her brother Amnon’s house; and he was laid down. She took dough, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the cakes. <sup>13:9</sup>She took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. Amnon said, “Have all men leave me.” Every man went out from him.

<sup>13:10</sup>Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food into the room, that I may eat from your hand.” Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the room to Amnon her brother. <sup>13:11</sup>When she had brought them near to him to eat, he took hold of her, and said to her, “Come, lie with me, my sister!”

<sup>13:12</sup>She answered him, “No, my brother, do not force me! For no such thing ought to be done in Israel. Don’t you do this folly. <sup>13:13</sup>I, where would I carry my shame? And as for you, you will be as one of the fools in Israel. Now therefore, please speak to the king; for he will not withhold me from you.”

<sup>13:14</sup>However he would not listen to her voice; but being stronger than she, he forced her, and lay with her. <sup>13:15</sup>Then Amnon hated her with exceeding great hatred; for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. Amnon said to her, “Arise, be gone!”

<sup>13:16</sup>She said to him, “Not so, because this great wrong in sending me away is worse than the other that you did to me!”

But he would not listen to her. <sup>13:17</sup>Then he called his servant who ministered to him, and said, “Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.” <sup>13:18</sup>She had a garment of various colors on her; for with such robes were the king’s daughters who were virgins dressed. Then his servant brought her out, and bolted the door after her. <sup>13:19</sup>Tamar put ashes on her head, and tore her garment of various colors that was on her; and she laid her hand on her head, and went her way, crying aloud as she went. <sup>13:20</sup>Absalom her brother said to her, “Has Amnon your brother been with you? But now hold your peace, my sister. He is your brother. Don’t take this thing to heart.”

So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absalom’s house. <sup>13:21</sup>But when king David heard of all these things, he was very angry. <sup>13:22</sup>Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar. <sup>13:23</sup>It happened after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal Hazor, which is beside Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the king’s sons. <sup>13:24</sup>Absalom came to the king, and said, “See now, your servant has sheepshearers. Please let the king and his servants go with your servant.”

<sup>13:25</sup>The king said to Absalom, “No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be burdensome to you.” He pressed him; however he would not go, but blessed him. <sup>13:26</sup>Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon go with us.”

The king said to him, “Why should he go with you?”

<sup>13:27</sup>But Absalom pressed him, and he let Amnon and all the king’s sons go with him. <sup>13:28</sup>Absalom commanded his servants, saying, “Mark now, when Amnon’s heart is merry with wine; and when I tell you, ‘Strike Amnon,’ then kill him. Don’t be afraid. Haven’t I commanded you? Be courageous, and be valiant!”

<sup>13:29</sup>The servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king’s sons arose, and every man got up on his mule, and fled. <sup>13:30</sup>It happened, while they were in the way, that the news came to David, saying, “Absalom has slain all the king’s sons, and there is not one of them left!”

<sup>13:31</sup>Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn. <sup>13:32</sup>Jonadab, the son of Shimeah, David’s brother, answered, “Don’t let my lord suppose that they have killed all the young men the king’s sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he forced his sister Tamar. <sup>13:33</sup>Now therefore don’t let my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the king’s sons are dead; for Amnon only is dead.”

<sup>13:34</sup>But Absalom fled. The young man who kept the watch lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, many people were coming by way of the hillside behind him. <sup>13:35</sup>Jonadab said to the king, “Behold, the king’s sons are coming! It is as your servant said.” <sup>13:36</sup>It happened, as soon as he had finished speaking, that behold, the king’s sons came, and lifted up their voice, and wept. The king also and all his servants wept bitterly. <sup>13:37</sup>But Absalom fled, and went to Talmai the son of Ammihur, king of Geshur. David mourned for his son every day. <sup>13:38</sup>So Absalom fled, and went to Geshur, and was there three years. <sup>13:39</sup>King David longed to go forth to Absalom: for he was comforted concerning Amnon, since he was dead.

<sup>14:1</sup>Now Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king’s heart was toward Absalom. <sup>14:2</sup>Joab sent to Tekoa, and fetched there a wise woman, and said to her, “Please act like a mourner, and put on mourning clothing, please, and don’t anoint yourself with oil, but be as a woman who has mourned a long time for the dead. <sup>14:3</sup>Go in to the king, and speak like this to him.” So Joab put the words in her mouth. <sup>14:4</sup>When the woman of Tekoa spoke to the king, she fell on her face to the ground, showed respect, and said, “Help, O king!”

She answered, “Truly I am a widow, and my husband is dead. <sup>14:6</sup>Your handmaid had two sons, and they both fought together in the field, and there was no one to part them, but the one struck the other, and killed him. <sup>14:7</sup>Behold, the whole family has risen against your handmaid, and they say, ‘Deliver him who struck his brother, that we may kill him for the life of his brother whom he killed, and so destroy the heir also.’ Thus they would quench my coal which is left, and would leave to my husband neither name nor remainder on the surface of the earth.”

<sup>14:8</sup>The king said to the woman, “Go to your house, and I will give a command concerning you.”

<sup>14:9</sup>The woman of Tekoa said to the king, “My lord, O king, the iniquity be on me, and on my father’s house; and the king and his throne be guiltless.”

<sup>14:10</sup>The king said, “Whoever says anything to you, bring him to me, and he shall not touch you any more.”

<sup>14:11</sup>Then she said, “Please let the king remember the LORD your God, that the avenger of blood destroy not any more, lest they destroy my son.”

He said, “As the LORD lives, not one hair of your son shall fall to the earth.”

<sup>14:12</sup>Then the woman said, “Please let your handmaid speak a word to my lord the king.”

He said, “Say on.”

<sup>14:13</sup>The woman said, “Why then have you devised such a thing against the people of God? For in speaking this word the king is as one who is guilty, in that the king does not bring home again his banished one. <sup>14:14</sup>For we must die, and are as water split on the ground, which can’t be gathered up again; neither does God take away life, but devises means, that he who is banished not be an outcast from him. <sup>14:15</sup>Now therefore seeing that I have come to speak this word to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid: and your handmaid said, ‘I will now speak to the king; it may be that the king will perform the request of his servant.' <sup>14:16</sup>For the king will hear, to deliver his servant out of the hand of the man who would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance of God. <sup>14:17</sup>Then your handmaid said, 'Please let the word of my lord the king bring rest; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad. May the LORD, your God, be with you.'"

<sup>14:18</sup>Then the king answered the woman, "Please don't hide anything from me that I ask you."

The woman said, "Let my lord the king now speak."

<sup>14:19</sup>The king said, "Is the hand of Joab with you in all this?"

The woman answered, "As your soul lives, my lord the king, no one can turn to the right hand or to the left from anything that my lord the king has spoken; for your servant Joab, he urged me, and he put all these words in the mouth of your handmaid; <sup>14:20</sup>to change the face of the matter has your servant Joab done this thing. My lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all things that are in the earth."

<sup>14:22</sup>Joab fell to the ground on his face, showed respect, and blessed the king. Joab said, "Today your servant knows that I have found favor in your sight, my lord, king, in that the king has performed the request of his servant." <sup>14:23</sup>So Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem. <sup>14:24</sup>The king said, "Let him return to his own house, but let him not see my face." So Absalom returned to his own house, and didn't see the king's face. <sup>14:25</sup>Now in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him. <sup>14:26</sup>When he cut the hair of his head (now it was at every year's end that he cut it; because it was heavy on him, therefore he cut it); he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels, after the king's weight. <sup>14:27</sup>To Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar; she was a woman of a beautiful face. <sup>14:28</sup>Absalom lived two full years in Jerusalem; and he didn't see the king's face. <sup>14:29</sup>Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him: and he sent again a second time, but he would not come. <sup>14:30</sup>Therefore he said to his servants, "Behold, Joab's field is near mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire." Absalom's servants set the field on fire.

<sup>14:31</sup>Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to his house, and said to him, "Why have your servants set my field on fire?"

<sup>14:32</sup>Absalom answered Joab, "Behold, I sent to you, saying, 'Come here, that I may send you to the king, to say, "Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me to be there still. Now therefore let me see the king's face; and if there is iniquity in me, let him kill me.'"

<sup>14:33</sup>So Joab came to the king, and told him; and when he had called for Absalom, he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king: and the king kissed Absalom.

<sup>15:1</sup>It happened after this, that Absalom prepared him a chariot and horses, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>15:2</sup>Absalom rose up early, and stood beside the way of the gate. It was so, that when any man had a suit which should come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called to him, and said, "What city are you from?"

He said, "Your servant is of one of the tribes of Israel."

<sup>15:4</sup>Absalom said moreover, "Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any suit or cause might come to me, and I would do him justice!" <sup>15:5</sup>It was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took hold of him, and kissed him. <sup>15:6</sup>Absalom did this sort of thing to all Israel who came to the king for judgment. So Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel. <sup>15:7</sup>It happened at the end of forty years, that Absalom said to the king, "Please let me go and pay my vow, which I have vowed to the LORD, in Hebron. <sup>15:8</sup>For your servant vowed a vow while I stayed at Geshur in Syria, saying, 'If the LORD shall indeed bring me again to Jerusalem, then I will serve the LORD.'"

So he arose, and went to Hebron. <sup>15:10</sup> But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "As soon as you hear the sound of the shofar<sup>f</sup>, then you shall say, 'Absalom is king in Hebron!'" <sup>15:11</sup> Two hundred men went with Absalom out of Jerusalem, who were invited, and went in their simplicity; and they didn't know anything. <sup>15:12</sup> Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counselor, from his city, even from Giloh, while he was offering the sacrifices. The conspiracy was strong; for the people increased continually with Absalom. <sup>15:13</sup> A messenger came to David, saying, "The hearts of the men of Israel are after Absalom."

<sup>15:14</sup> David said to all his servants who were with him at Jerusalem, "Arise, and let us flee; for else none of us shall escape from Absalom. Make speed to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring down evil on us, and strike the city with the edge of the sword."

<sup>15:21</sup> Ittai answered the king, and said, "As the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, surely in what place my lord the king shall is, whether for death or for life, even there also will your servant be."

<sup>15:22</sup> David said to Ittai, "Go and pass over." Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones who were with him. <sup>15:23</sup> All the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over: the king also himself passed over the brook Kidron, and all the people passed over, toward the way of the wilderness. <sup>15:24</sup> Behold, Zadok also came, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and Abiathar went up, until all the people finished passing out of the city. <sup>15:25</sup> The king said to Zadok, "Carry back the ark of God into the city. If I find favor in the eyes of the LORD, he will bring me again, and show me both it, and his habitation; <sup>15:26</sup> but if he say thus, 'I have no delight in you;' behold, here am I. Let him do to me as seems good to him." <sup>15:27</sup> The king said also to Zadok the priest, "Aren't you a seer? Return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz your son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar. <sup>15:28</sup> Behold, I will stay at the fords of the wilderness, until word comes from you to inform me." <sup>15:29</sup> Zadok therefore and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they stayed there. <sup>15:30</sup> David went up by the ascent of the Mount of Olives, and wept as he went up; and he had his head covered, and went barefoot: and all the people who were with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up. <sup>15:31</sup> Someone told David, saying, "Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom."

David said, "LORD, please turn the counsel of Ahithophel into foolishness."

<sup>15:32</sup> It happened that when David had come to the top, where God was worshiped, behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat torn, and earth on his head. <sup>15:33</sup> David said to him, "If you pass on with me, then you will be a burden to me; <sup>15:34</sup> but if you return to the city, and tell Absalom, 'I will be your servant, O king. As I have been your father's servant in time past, so will I now be your servant; then will you defeat for me the counsel of Ahithophel.'" <sup>15:35</sup> "Don't you have Zadok and Abiathar the priests there with you? Therefore it shall be, that whatever thing you shall hear out of the king's house, you shall tell it to Zadok and Abiathar the priests. <sup>15:36</sup> Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz, Zadok's son, and Jonathan, Abiathar's son; and by them you shall send to me everything that you shall hear."

<sup>15:37</sup> So Hushai, David's friend, came into the city; and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

Ziba said to the king, "Behold, he is staying in Jerusalem; for he said, 'Today the house of Israel will restore me the kingdom of my father.'"

<sup>16:4</sup>Then the king said to Ziba, "Behold, all that pertains to Mephibosheth is yours."

Ziba said, "I do obeisance. Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, O king."

<sup>16:5</sup>When king David came to Bahurim, behold, a man of the family of the house of Saul came out, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera. He came out, and cursed still as he came. <sup>16:6</sup>He cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David, and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his left. <sup>16:7</sup>Shimei said when he cursed, "Be gone, be gone, you man of blood, and base fellow! <sup>16:8</sup>The LORD has returned on you all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose place you have reigned! the LORD has delivered the kingdom into the hand of Absalom your son! Behold, you are caught by your own mischief, because you are a man of blood!"

<sup>16:9</sup>Then Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, "Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Please let me go over and take off his head." <sup>16:10</sup>The king said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah? Because he curses, and because the LORD has said to him, 'Curse David;' who then shall say, 'Why have you done so?'"

<sup>16:11</sup>David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, "Behold, my son, who came forth from my bowels, seeks my life. How much more this Benjamite, now? Leave him alone, and let him curse; for the LORD has invited him. <sup>16:12</sup>It may be that the LORD will look on the wrong done to me, and that the LORD will repay me good for the cursing of me today."

<sup>16:13</sup>So David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hillside opposite him, and cursed as he went, threw stones at him, and threw dust. <sup>16:14</sup>The king, and all the people who were with him, came weary; and he refreshed himself there. <sup>16:15</sup>Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with him. <sup>16:16</sup>It happened, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, had come to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, "Long live the king! Long live the king!"

<sup>16:17</sup>Absalom said to Hushai, "Is this your kindness to your friend? Why didn't you go with your friend?"

<sup>16:18</sup>Hushai said to Absalom, "No; but whomever the LORD, and this people, and all the men of Israel have chosen, his will I be, and with him I will stay. <sup>16:19</sup>Again, whom should I serve? Shouldn't I serve in the presence of his son? As I have served in your father's presence, so will I be in your presence."

<sup>16:21</sup>Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Go in to your father's concubines, that he has left to keep the house. Then all Israel will hear that you are abhorred by your father. Then the hands of all who are with you will be strong."

<sup>16:22</sup>So they spread Absalom a tent on the top of the house; and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the sight of all Israel. <sup>16:23</sup>The counsel of Ahithophel, which he gave in those days, was as if a man inquired at the oracle of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

<sup>17:1</sup>Moreover Ahithophel said to Absalom, "Let me now choose twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David tonight.

<sup>17:2</sup>I will come on him while he is weary and exhausted, and will make him afraid. All the people who are with him shall flee. I will strike the king only; <sup>17:3</sup>and I will bring back all the people to you. The man whom you seek is as if all returned. All the people shall be in peace."

<sup>17:4</sup>The saying pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel. <sup>17:5</sup>Then Absalom said, "Now call Hushai the Archite also, and let us hear likewise what he says."

<sup>17:6</sup>When Hushai had come to Absalom,

Absalom spoke to him, saying, "Ahithophel has spoken like this. Shall we do what he says? If not, speak up."

<sup>17:7</sup>Hushai said to Absalom, "The counsel that Ahithophel has given this time is not good." <sup>17:8</sup>Hushai said moreover, "You know your father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are fierce in their minds, like a bear robbed of her cubs in the field. Your father is a man of war, and will not lodge with the people. <sup>17:9</sup>Behold, he is now hidden in some pit, or in some other place. It will happen, when some of them have fallen at the first, that whoever hears it will say, 'There is a slaughter among the people who follow Absalom!' <sup>17:10</sup>Even he who is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a lion, will utterly melt; for all Israel knows that your father is a mighty man, and those who are with him are valiant men. <sup>17:11</sup>But I counsel that all Israel be gathered together to you, from Dan even to Beersheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that you go to battle in your own person. <sup>17:12</sup>So shall we come on him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light on him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men who are with him we will not leave so much as one. <sup>17:13</sup>Moreover, if he be gone into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the river, until there isn't one small stone found there."

<sup>17:14</sup>Absalom and all the men of Israel said, "The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel." For the LORD had ordained to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil on Absalom. <sup>17:15</sup>Then Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, "Ahithophel counseled Absalom and the elders of Israel that way; and I have counseled this way. <sup>17:16</sup>Now therefore send quickly, and tell David, saying, 'Don't lodge this night at the fords of the wilderness, but by all means pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the people who are with him.'"

<sup>17:17</sup>Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying by En Rogel; and a female servant used to go and tell them; and they went and told king David. For they might not be seen to come into the city. <sup>17:18</sup>But a boy saw them, and told Absalom. Then they both went away quickly, and came to the house of a man in Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and they went down there. <sup>17:19</sup>The woman took and spread the covering over the well's mouth, and spread out bruised grain on it; and nothing was known. <sup>17:20</sup>Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house; and they said, "Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?"

The woman said to them, "They have gone over the brook of water."

When they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem. <sup>17:21</sup>It happened, after they had departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said to David, "Arise and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahithophel counseled against you."

<sup>17:22</sup>Then David arose, and all the people who were with him, and they passed over the Jordan. By the morning light there lacked not one of them who had not gone over the Jordan. <sup>17:23</sup>When Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his donkey, and arose, and went home, to his city, and set his house in order, and hanged himself; and he died, and was buried in the tomb of his father. <sup>17:24</sup>Then David came to Mahanaim. Absalom passed over the Jordan, he and all the men of Israel with him. <sup>17:25</sup>Absalom set Amasa over the army instead of Joab. Now Amasa was the son of a man, whose name was Ithra the Israelite, who went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruah, Joab's mother. <sup>17:26</sup>Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead. <sup>17:27</sup>It happened, when David had come to Mahanaim, that Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lodebar, and Barzillai the Gileadite of Rogelim, <sup>17:28</sup>brought beds, basins, earthen vessels, wheat, barley, meal, parched grain, beans, lentils, roasted grain, <sup>17:29</sup>honey, butter, sheep, and cheese of the herd, for David, and for the people who were with him, to eat: for they said, "The people are hungry, and weary, and thirsty, in the wilderness."

<sup>18:1</sup>David numbered the people who were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them. <sup>18:2</sup>David sent forth the people, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. The king said to the people, "I will surely go forth with you myself also."

<sup>18:3</sup>But the people said, "You shall not go forth; for if we flee away, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us. But you are worth ten thousand of us. Therefore now it is better that you are ready to help us out of the city."

<sup>18:4</sup>The king said to them, "I will do what seems best to you."

The king stood beside the gate, and all the people went out by hundreds and by thousands. <sup>18:5</sup>The king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, "Deal gently for my sake with the young man, even with Absalom." All the people heard when the king commanded all the captains concerning Absalom.

<sup>18:6</sup>So the people went out into the field against Israel: and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim. <sup>18:7</sup>The people of Israel were struck there before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day of twenty thousand men. <sup>18:8</sup>For the battle was there spread over the surface of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day than the sword devoured. <sup>18:9</sup>Absalom happened to meet the servants of David. Absalom was riding on his mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the sky and earth; and the mule that was under him went on. <sup>18:10</sup>A certain man saw it, and told Joab, and said, "Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in an oak."

<sup>18:11</sup>Joab said to the man who told him, "Behold, you saw it, and why didn't you strike him there to the ground? I would have given you ten pieces of silver, and a sash."

<sup>18:12</sup>The man said to Joab, "Though I should receive a thousand pieces of silver in my hand, I still wouldn't put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai, saying, 'Beware that none touch the young man Absalom.' <sup>18:13</sup>Otherwise if I had dealt falsely against his life (and there is no matter hidden from the king), then you yourself would have set yourself against me."

<sup>18:14</sup>Then Joab said, "I'm not going to wait like this with you." He took three darts in his hand, and thrust them through the heart of Absalom, while he was yet alive in the midst of the oak. <sup>18:15</sup>Ten young men who bore Joab's armor surrounded and struck Absalom, and killed him. <sup>18:16</sup>Joab blew the shofar<sup>8</sup>, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for Joab held back the people. <sup>18:17</sup>They took Absalom, and cast him into the great pit in the forest, and raised over him a very great heap of stones. Then all Israel fled everyone to his tent. <sup>18:18</sup>Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself the pillar, which is in the king's dale; for he said, "I have no son to keep my name in memory." He called the pillar after his own name; and it is called Absalom's monument, to this day. <sup>18:19</sup>Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, "Let me now run, and bear the king news, how that the LORD has avenged him of his enemies."

<sup>18:20</sup>Joab said to him, "You shall not be the bearer of news this day, but you shall bear news another day. But today you shall bear no news, because the king's son is dead."

<sup>18:21</sup>Then Joab said to the Cushite, "Go, tell the king what you have seen!" The Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran.

<sup>18:22</sup>Then Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, "But come what may, please let me also run after the Cushite."

Joab said, "Why do you want to run, my son, since that you will have no reward for the news?"

<sup>18:23</sup>"But come what may," he said, "I will run."

He said to him, "Run!" Then Ahimaaz ran by the way of the Plain, and outran the Cushite.

<sup>18:24</sup>Now David was sitting between the two gates: and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate to the wall, and lifted up his eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man running alone.

<sup>18:25</sup>The watchman cried, and told the king. The king said, "If he is alone, there is news in his mouth." He came closer and closer.

<sup>18:26</sup>The watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the porter, and said, "Behold, a man running alone!"

The king said, "He also brings news."

<sup>18:27</sup>The watchman said, "I think the running of the first one is like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok."

<sup>8</sup>18:16 or, trumpet

The king said, "He is a good man, and comes with good news."

<sup>18:28</sup>Ahimaaz called, and said to the king, "All is well." He bowed himself before the king with his face to the earth, and said, "Blessed is the LORD your God, who has delivered up the men who lifted up their hand against my lord the king!"

<sup>18:29</sup>The king said, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?"

Ahimaaz answered, "When Joab sent the king's servant, even me your servant, I saw a great tumult, but I don't know what it was."

<sup>18:30</sup>The king said, "Turn aside, and stand here." He turned aside, and stood still.

<sup>18:31</sup>Behold, the Cushite came. The Cushite said, "News for my lord the king; for the LORD has avenged you this day of all those who rose up against you."

<sup>18:32</sup>The king said to the Cushite, "Is it well with the young man Absalom?"

The Cushite answered, "May the enemies of my lord the king, and all who rise up against you to do you harm, be as that young man is."

<sup>18:33</sup>The king was much moved, and went up to the room over the gate, and wept. As he went, he said, "My son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! I wish I had died for you, Absalom, my son, my son!"

<sup>19:1</sup>It was told Joab, "Behold, the king weeps and mourns for Absalom." <sup>19:2</sup>The victory that day was turned into mourning to all the people; for the people heard it said that day, "The king grieves for his son."

<sup>19:5</sup>Joab came into the house to the king, and said, "You have shamed this day the faces of all your servants, who this day have saved your life, and the lives of your sons and of your daughters, and the lives of your wives, and the lives of your concubines; <sup>19:6</sup>in that you love those who hate you, and hate those who love you. For you have declared this day, that princes and servants are nothing to you. For today I perceive that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died this day, then it would have pleased you well. <sup>19:7</sup>Now therefore arise, go out, and speak to comfort your servants; for I swear by the LORD, if you don't go out, not a man will stay with you this night. That would be worse to you than all the evil that has happened to you from your youth until now."

<sup>19:8</sup>Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. They told to all the people, saying, "Behold, the king is sitting in the gate." All the people came before the king. Now Israel had fled every man to his tent. <sup>19:9</sup>All the people were at strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, "The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he has fled out of the land from Absalom. <sup>19:10</sup>Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle. Now therefore why don't you speak a word of bringing the king back?"

<sup>19:11</sup>King David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, "Speak to the elders of Judah, saying, 'Why are you the last to bring the king back to his house? Since the speech of all Israel has come to the king, to return him to his house. <sup>19:12</sup>You are my brothers, you are my bone and my flesh. Why then are you the last to bring back the king?' <sup>19:13</sup>Say to Amasa, 'Aren't you my bone and my flesh? God do so to me, and more also, if you aren't captain of the army before me continually in the room of Joab.'" <sup>19:14</sup>He bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as one man; so that they sent to the king, saying, "Return, you and all your servants."

<sup>19:15</sup>So the king returned, and came to the Jordan. Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to bring the king over the Jordan. <sup>19:16</sup>Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, who was of Bahurim, hurried and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David. <sup>19:17</sup>There were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they went through the Jordan in the presence of the king. <sup>19:18</sup>A ferry boat went to bring over the king's household, and to do what he thought good. Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king, when he had come over the Jordan. <sup>19:19</sup>He said to the king, "Don't let my lord impute iniquity to me, nor remember that which your servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart. <sup>19:20</sup>For your servant knows that I have sinned. Therefore, behold, I have come this day the first of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the king."

<sup>19:21</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered, "Shall Shimei not be put to death for this, because he cursed the LORD's anointed?"

<sup>19:22</sup>David said, "What have I to do with you, you sons of Zeruiah, that you should this day be adversaries to me? Shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? For don't I know that I am this day king over Israel?"

<sup>19:24</sup>Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king; and he had neither groomed his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he came home in peace. <sup>19:25</sup>It happened, when he had come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said to him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?"

<sup>19:26</sup>He answered, "My lord, O king, my servant deceived me. For your servant said, I will saddle me a donkey, that I may ride thereon, and go with the king; because your servant is lame. <sup>19:27</sup>He has slandered your servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God. Do therefore what is good in your eyes. <sup>19:28</sup>For all my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; yet you set your servant among those who ate at your own table. What right therefore have I yet that I should cry any more to the king?"

<sup>19:29</sup>The king said to him, "Why do you speak any more of your matters? I say, you and Ziba divide the land."

<sup>19:30</sup>Mephibosheth said to the king, "Yes, let him take all, because my lord the king has come in peace to his own house." <sup>19:31</sup>Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim; and he went over the Jordan with the king, to conduct him over the Jordan. <sup>19:32</sup>Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even eighty years old: and he had provided the king with sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim; for he was a very great man. <sup>19:33</sup>The king said to Barzillai, "Come over with me, and I will sustain you with me in Jerusalem." <sup>19:34</sup>Barzillai said to the king, "How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the king to Jerusalem? <sup>19:35</sup>I am this day eighty years old. Can I discern between good and bad? Can your servant taste what I eat or what I drink? Can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? Why then should your servant be yet a burden to my lord the king? <sup>19:36</sup>Your servant would but just go over the Jordan with the king. Why should the king repay me with such a reward? <sup>19:37</sup>Please let your servant turn back again, that I may die in my own city, by the grave of my father and my mother. But behold, your servant Chimham; let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what shall seem good to you."

<sup>19:38</sup>The king answered, "Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good to you. Whatever you require of me, that I will do for you."

<sup>19:39</sup>All the people went over the Jordan, and the king went over. Then the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place. <sup>19:40</sup>So the king went over to Gilgal, and Chimham went over with him. All the people of Judah brought the king over, and also half the people of Israel. <sup>19:41</sup>Behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, "Why have our brothers the men of Judah stolen you away, and brought the king, and his household, over the Jordan, and all David's men with him?"

<sup>19:42</sup>All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, "Because the king is a close relative to us. Why then are you angry about this matter? Have we eaten at all at the king's cost? Or has he given us any gift?"

<sup>19:43</sup>The men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, "We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more claim to David than you. Why then did you despise us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king?" The words of the men of Judah were fiercer than the words of the men of Israel.

<sup>20:1</sup>There happened to be there a base fellow, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjamite: and he blew the shofar<sup>h</sup>, and said, "We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse. Every man to his tents, Israel!"

<sup>20:2</sup>So all the men of Israel went up from following David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri; but the men of Judah joined with their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem. <sup>20:3</sup>David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in custody, and provided them with sustenance, but didn't go in to them. So they were shut up to the day of their death, living in widowhood.

<sup>20:5</sup>So Amasa went to call the men of Judah together; but he stayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him. <sup>20:6</sup>David said to Abishai, "Now Sheba the son of Bichri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get himself fortified cities, and escape out of our sight."

<sup>20:7</sup>There went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>20:8</sup>When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was clothed in his apparel of war that he had put on, and on it was a sash with a sword fastened on his waist in its sheath; and as he went forth it fell out. <sup>20:9</sup>Joab said to Amasa, "Is it well with you, my brother?" Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him. <sup>20:10</sup>But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joab's hand. So he struck him with it in the body, and shed out his bowels to the ground, and didn't strike him again; and he died. Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>20:11</sup>There stood by him one of Joab's young men, and said, "He who favors Joab, and he who is for David, let him follow Joab!"

<sup>20:12</sup>Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the midst of the highway. When the man saw that all the people stood still, he carried Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a garment over him, when he saw that everyone who came by him stood still. <sup>20:13</sup>When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri. <sup>20:14</sup>He went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth Maacah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him. <sup>20:15</sup>They came and besieged him in Abel of Beth Maacah, and they cast up a mound against the city, and it stood against the rampart; and all the people who were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down. <sup>20:16</sup>Then a wise woman cried out of the city, "Hear, hear! Please say to Joab, 'Come near here, that I may speak with you.'" <sup>20:17</sup>He came near to her; and the woman said, "Are you Joab?"

He answered, "I am."

Then she said to him, "Hear the words of your handmaid."

He answered, "I do hear."

<sup>20:18</sup>Then she spoke, saying, "They were used to say in old times, 'They shall surely ask counsel at Abel;' and so they settled it. <sup>20:19</sup>I am among those who are peaceable and faithful in Israel. You seek to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why will you swallow up the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>20:20</sup>Joab answered, "Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or destroy. <sup>20:21</sup>The matter is not so. But a man of the hill country of Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, even against David. Deliver him only, and I will depart from the city."

The woman said to Joab, "Behold, his head shall be thrown to you over the wall."

<sup>20:22</sup>Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. They cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and threw it out to Joab. He blew the shofar<sup>i</sup>, and they were dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king. <sup>20:23</sup>Now Joab was over all the army of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and over the Pelethites; <sup>20:24</sup>and Adoram was over the men subject to forced labor; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was the recorder; <sup>20:25</sup>and Sheva was scribe; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>20:26</sup>and also Ira the Jairite was chief minister to David.

<sup>21:1</sup>There was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, "It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he put to death the Gibeonites."

<sup>21:2</sup>The king called the Gibeonites, and said to them (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them: and Saul sought to kill them in his zeal for the children of Israel and Judah); <sup>21:3</sup>and David said to the Gibeonites, "What shall I do for you? And with what shall I make atonement, that you may bless the inheritance of the LORD?"

<sup>21:4</sup>The Gibeonites said to him, "It is no matter of silver or gold between us and Saul, or his house; neither is it for us to put any man to death in Israel."

He said, "Whatever you say, that will I do for you."

<sup>21:5</sup>They said to the king, "The man who consumed us, and who devised against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the borders of Israel, <sup>21:6</sup>let seven men of his sons be delivered to us, and we will hang them up to the LORD in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of the LORD."

The king said, "I will give them."

<sup>21:7</sup>But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of the LORD's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul. <sup>21:8</sup>But the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she bore to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and the five sons of Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she bore to Adriel the son of Barzillai the Meholathite. <sup>21:9</sup>He delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the mountain before the LORD, and all seven of them fell together. They were put to death in the days of harvest, in the first days, at the beginning of barley harvest.

<sup>21:10</sup>Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her on the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water was poured on them from the sky. She allowed neither the birds of the sky to rest on them by day, nor the animals of the field by night. <sup>21:11</sup>It was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the concubine of Saul, had done. <sup>21:12</sup>David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men of Jabesh Gilead, who had stolen them from the street of Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, in the day that the Philistines killed Saul in Gilboa; <sup>21:13</sup>and he brought up from there the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son: and they gathered the bones of those who were hanged. <sup>21:14</sup>They buried the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the tomb of Kish his father: and they performed all that the king commanded. After that God was entreated for the land.

<sup>21:15</sup>The Philistines had war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines. David grew faint; <sup>21:16</sup>and Ishbibenob, who was of the sons of the giant, the weight of whose spear was three hundred shekels of brass in weight, he being armed with a new sword, thought to have slain David. <sup>21:17</sup>But Abishai the son of Zeruiah helped him, and struck the Philistine, and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, "You shall go no more out with us to battle, that you don't quench the lamp of Israel."

<sup>21:18</sup>It came to pass after this, that there was again war with the Philistines at Gob: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, who was of the sons of the giant. <sup>21:19</sup>There was again war with the Philistines at Gob; and Elhanan the son of Jaareoregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite's brother, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>21:20</sup>There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, who had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>21:21</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimei, David's brother, killed him. <sup>21:22</sup>These four were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

<sup>22:1</sup>David spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul. <sup>22:2</sup>and he said,

"The LORD is my rock,

my fortress,

and my deliverer, even mine;

<sup>22:3</sup>God, my rock, in him I will take refuge;

my shield, and the horn of my salvation,

my high tower, and my refuge.

My savior, you save me from violence.

<sup>22:4</sup>I will call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised:

So shall I be saved from my enemies.

<sup>22:5</sup>For the waves of death surrounded me.

The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.

22:6 The cords of Sheol<sup>i</sup> were around me.
 The snares of death caught me.
 22:7 In my distress I called on the LORD.
 Yes, I called to my God.
 He heard my voice out of his temple.
 My cry came into his ears.
 22:8 Then the earth shook and trembled.
 The foundations of heaven quaked and were shaken,
 because he was angry.
 22:9 Smoke went up out of his nostrils.
 Fire out of his mouth devoured.
 Coals were kindled by it.
 22:10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down.
 Thick darkness was under his feet.
 22:11 He rode on a cherub, and flew.
 Yes, he was seen on the wings of the wind.
 22:12 He made darkness pavilions around himself:
 gathering of waters, and thick clouds of the skies.
 22:13 At the brightness before him, coals of fire were kindled.
 22:14 The LORD thundered from heaven.
 The Most High uttered his voice.
 22:15 He sent out arrows, and scattered them;
 lightning, and confused them.
 22:16 Then the channels of the sea appeared.
 The foundations of the world were laid bare by the rebuke of the LORD,
 At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
 22:17 He sent from on high and he took me.
 He drew me out of many waters.
 22:18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me, for they were too mighty for me.
 22:19 They came on me in the day of my calamity,
 but the LORD was my support.
 22:20 He also brought me out into a large place.
 He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
 22:21 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness.
 He rewarded me according to the cleanness of my hands.
 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.

<sup>i</sup>22:6 Sheol is the place of the dead.

22:23 For all his ordinances were before me.
 As for his statutes, I did not depart from them.
 22:24 I was also perfect toward him.
 I kept myself from my iniquity.
 22:25 Therefore the LORD has rewarded me
 according to my righteousness,
 According to my cleanness in his eyesight.
 22:26 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.
 With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect.
 22:27 With the pure you will show yourself pure.
 With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
 22:28 You will save the afflicted people,
 But your eyes are on the haughty, that you may bring them down.
 22:29 For you are my lamp, LORD.
 The LORD will light up my darkness.
 22:30 For by you, I run against a troop.
 By my God, I leap over a wall.
 22:31 As for God, his way is perfect.
 The word of the LORD is tested.
 He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
 22:32 For who is God, besides the LORD?
 Who is a rock, besides our God?
 22:33 God is my strong fortress.
 He makes my way perfect.
 22:34 He makes his feet like hinds' feet, and sets me on my high places.
 22:35 He teaches my hands to war,
 so that my arms bend a bow of brass.
 22:36 You have also given me the shield of your salvation.
 Your gentleness has made me great.
 22:37 You have enlarged my steps under me.
 My feet have not slipped.
 22:38 I have pursued my enemies and destroyed
 them.
 I didn't turn again until they were consumed.
 22:39 I have consumed them,
 and struck them through,
 so that they can't arise.
 Yes, they have fallen under my feet.
 22:40 For you have armed me with strength for the battle.

You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
 22:41 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me,
 that I might cut off those who hate me.
 22:42 They looked, but there was none to save;
 even to the LORD, but he didn't answer
 them.
 22:43 Then I beat them as small as the dust of the earth.
 I crushed them as the mire of the streets,
 and spread them abroad.
 22:44 You also have delivered me from the strivings of my people.
 You have kept me to be the head of the nations.
 A people whom I have not known will serve me.
 22:45 The foreigners will submit themselves to me.
 As soon as they hear of me, they will obey
 me.
 22:46 The foreigners will fade away, and will come trembling out of their close places.
 22:47 The LORD lives!
 Blessed be my rock!
 Exalted be God, the rock of my salvation, 22:48 even the God who executes vengeance for me,
 who brings down peoples under me, 22:49 who brings me away from my enemies.
 Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me.
 You deliver me from the violent man.
 22:50 Therefore I will give thanks to you, LORD, among the nations.
 Will sing praises to your name.
 22:51 He gives great deliverance to his king, and shows loving kindness to his anointed, to David and to his seed, forevermore."
 23:1 Now these are the last words of David.
 David the son of Jesse says,
 the man who was raised on high says,
 the anointed of the God of Jacob,
 the sweet psalmist of Israel:
 23:2 "The Spirit of the LORD spoke by me.
 His word was on my tongue.
 23:3 The God of Israel said,
 the Rock of Israel spoke to me,

'One who rules over men righteously, who rules in the fear of God, 23:4 shall be as the light of the morning, when the sun rises,
 a morning without clouds,
 when the tender grass springs out of the earth,
 through clear shining after rain.'
 23:5 Most certainly my house is not so with God, yet he has made with me an everlasting covenant,
 ordered in all things, and sure,
 for it is all my salvation, and all my desire,
 although he doesn't make it grow.
 23:6 But all of the ungodly shall be as thorns to be thrust away,
 because they can't be taken with the hand,
 23:7 But the man who touches them must be armed with iron and the staff of a spear.
 They shall be utterly burned with fire in their place."
 23:8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Josheb Basshebeth a Tahchemonite, chief of the captains; the same was Adino the Eznite, against eight hundred slain at one time. 23:9 After him was Eleazar the son of Dodai the son of an Ahohite, one of the three mighty men with David, when they defied the Philistines who were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone away. 23:10 He arose, and struck the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand froze to the sword; and the LORD worked a great victory that day; and the people returned after him only to take spoil. 23:11 After him was Shammah the son of Agee a Hararite.
 The Philistines were gathered together into a troop, where there was a plot of ground full of lentils; and the people fled from the Philistines.
 23:12 But he stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD worked a great victory. 23:13 Three of the thirty chief men went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam; and the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim. 23:14 David was then in the stronghold; and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. 23:15 David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>23:16</sup>The three mighty men broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but he would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD. <sup>23:17</sup>He said, "Be it far from me, LORD, that I should do this! Isn't it the blood of the men who went in jeopardy of their lives?" Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things. <sup>23:18</sup>Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the three. He lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>23:19</sup>Wasn't he most honorable of the three? therefore he was made their captain: however he didn't attain to the three. <sup>23:20</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab: he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. <sup>23:21</sup>He killed an Egyptian, a goodly man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; but he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>23:22</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>23:23</sup>He was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three. David set him over his guard. <sup>23:24</sup>Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, <sup>23:25</sup>Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, <sup>23:26</sup>Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, <sup>23:27</sup>Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hushathite, <sup>23:28</sup>Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, <sup>23:29</sup>Heleb the son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, <sup>23:30</sup>Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks of Gaash. <sup>23:31</sup>Abialbon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite, <sup>23:32</sup>Eliabha the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan, <sup>23:33</sup>Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar the Ararite, <sup>23:34</sup>Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maacathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel the Gilonite, <sup>23:35</sup>Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite, <sup>23:36</sup>Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the Gadite, <sup>23:37</sup>Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, armor bearers to Joab the son of Zeruiah, <sup>23:38</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>23:39</sup>Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

<sup>24:1</sup>Again the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, saying, "Go, number Israel and Judah." <sup>24:2</sup>The king said to Joab the captain of the army, who was with him, "Now go back and forth through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, and number the people, that I may know the sum of the people."

<sup>24:3</sup>Joab said to the king, "Now may the LORD your God add to the people, however many they may be, one hundred times; and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king delight in this thing?"

<sup>24:4</sup>Notwithstanding, the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel. <sup>24:5</sup>They passed over the Jordan, and encamped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the middle of the valley of Gad, and to Jazer: <sup>24:6</sup>then they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim Hodshi; and they came to Dan Jaan, and around to Sidon, <sup>24:7</sup>and came to the stronghold of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites, and of the Canaanites; and they went out to the south of Judah, at Beersheba. <sup>24:8</sup>So when they had gone back and forth through all the land, they came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days. <sup>24:9</sup>Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to the king: and there were in Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men who drew the sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men. <sup>24:10</sup>David's heart struck him after that he had numbered the people. David said to the LORD, "I have sinned greatly in that which I have done. But now, the LORD, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>24:11</sup>When David rose up in the morning, the word of the LORD came to the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>24:12</sup>"Go and speak to David, 'Thus says the LORD, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you.'"

<sup>24:13</sup>So Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, "Shall seven years of famine come to you in your land? Or will you flee three months before your foes while they pursue you? Or shall there be three days' pestilence in your land? Now answer, and consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me."

<sup>24:14</sup>David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let us fall now into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are great. Let me not fall into the hand of man."

<sup>24:15</sup>So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel from the morning even to the appointed time; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beersheba seventy thousand men.

<sup>24:16</sup>When the angel stretched out his hand toward Jerusalem to destroy it, the LORD relented of the disaster, and said to the angel who destroyed the people, "It is enough. Now stay your hand." The angel of the LORD was by the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

<sup>24:17</sup>David spoke to the LORD when he saw the angel who struck the people, and said, "Behold, I have sinned, and I have done perversely; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand be against me, and against my father's house."

<sup>24:18</sup>Gad came that day to David, and said to him, "Go up, build an altar to the LORD on the threshing floor of Araunah the Jebusite."

<sup>24:19</sup>David went up according to the saying of Gad, as the LORD commanded.

<sup>24:21</sup>Araunah said, "Why has my lord the king come to his servant?"

David said, "To buy your threshing floor, to build an altar to the LORD, that the plague may be stopped from afflicting the people."

<sup>24:22</sup>Araunah said to David, "Let my lord the king take and offer up what seems good to him. Behold, the cattle for the burnt offering, and the threshing instruments and the yokes of the oxen for the wood: <sup>24:23</sup>all this, king, does Araunah give to the king." Araunah said to the king, "May the LORD your God accept you."

<sup>24:24</sup>The king said to Araunah, "No; but I will most certainly buy it from you for a price. I will not offer burnt offerings to the LORD my God which cost me nothing." So David bought the threshing floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver. <sup>24:25</sup>David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings. So the LORD was entreated for the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

The First Book of Kings

<sup>1:1</sup>Now king David was old and stricken in years; and they covered him with clothes, but he couldn't keep warm. <sup>1:2</sup>Therefore his servants said to him, "Let there be sought for my lord the king a young virgin. Let her stand before the king, and cherish him; and let her lie in your bosom, that my lord the king may keep warm." <sup>1:3</sup>So they sought for a beautiful young lady throughout all the borders of Israel, and found Abishag the Shunammite, and brought her to the king. <sup>1:4</sup>The young lady was very beautiful; and she cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king didn't know her intimately. <sup>1:5</sup>Then Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, "I will be king." Then he prepared him chariots and horsemen, and fifty men to run before him. <sup>1:6</sup>His father had not displeased him at any time in saying, "Why have you done so?" and he was also a very handsome man; and he was born after Absalom. <sup>1:7</sup>He conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest: and they following Adonijah helped him. <sup>1:8</sup>But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men who belonged to David, were not with Adonijah. <sup>1:9</sup>Adonijah killed sheep and cattle and fatlings by the stone of Zohelath, which is beside En Rogel; and he called all his brothers, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the king's servants: <sup>1:10</sup>but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he didn't call. <sup>1:11</sup>Then Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, "Haven't you heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith reigns, and David our lord doesn't know it?" <sup>1:12</sup>Now therefore come, please let me give you counsel, that you may save your own life, and the life of your son Solomon. <sup>1:13</sup>Go in to king David, and tell him, 'Didn't you, my lord, king, swear to your handmaid, saying, Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? Why then does Adonijah reign?' <sup>1:14</sup>Behold, while you yet talk there with the king, I also will come in after you, and confirm your words."

When he had come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground. <sup>1:24</sup>Nathan said, "My lord, king, have you said, 'Adonijah shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne?' <sup>1:25</sup>For he is gone down this day, and has slain cattle and fatlings and sheep in abundance, and has called all the king's sons, and the captains of the army, and Abiathar the priest. Behold, they are eating and drinking before him, and say, 'Long live king Adonijah!' <sup>1:26</sup>But he hasn't called me, even me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon. <sup>1:27</sup>Is this thing done by my lord the king, and you haven't shown to your servants who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?"

<sup>1:28</sup>Then king David answered, "Call to me Bathsheba." She came into the king's presence, and stood before the king. <sup>1:29</sup>The king swore, and said, "As the LORD lives, who has redeemed my soul out of all adversity, <sup>1:30</sup>most certainly as I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, 'Assuredly Solomon your son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my place;’ most certainly so will I do this day.”

<sup>1:31</sup>Then Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and showed respect to the king, and said, “Let my lord king David live forever!”

<sup>1:32</sup>King David said, “Call to me Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada.” They came before the king.

<sup>1:33</sup>The king said to them, “Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride on my own mule, and bring him down to Gihon. <sup>1:34</sup>Let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel. Blow the shofar<sup>c</sup>, and say, ‘Long live king Solomon!’ <sup>1:35</sup>Then you shall come up after him, and he shall come and sit on my throne; for he shall be king in my place. I have appointed him to be prince over Israel and over Judah.”

<sup>1:36</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, “Amen. May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, say so. <sup>1:37</sup>As the LORD has been with my lord the king, even so may he be with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.”

<sup>1:38</sup>So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, went down, and caused Solomon to ride on king David’s mule, and brought him to Gihon. <sup>1:39</sup>Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the Tent, and anointed Solomon. They blew the shofar<sup>d</sup>; and all the people said, “Long live king Solomon!”

<sup>1:40</sup>All the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth shook with their sound. <sup>1:41</sup>Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they had made an end of eating. When Joab heard the sound of the shofar<sup>e</sup>, he said, “Why is this noise of the city being in an uproar?”

<sup>1:42</sup>While he yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came: and Adonijah said, “Come in; for you are a worthy man, and bring good news.”

son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and they have caused him to ride on the king’s mule. <sup>1:45</sup>Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king in Gihon. They have come up from there rejoicing, so that the city rang again. This is the noise that you have heard. <sup>1:46</sup>Also, Solomon sits on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>1:47</sup>Moreover the king’s servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, ‘May your God make the name of Solomon better than your name, and make his throne greater than your throne;’ and the king bowed himself on the bed. <sup>1:48</sup>Also thus said the king, ‘Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, my eyes even seeing it.’”

<sup>1:49</sup>All the guests of Adonijah were afraid, and rose up, and each man went his way.

<sup>1:50</sup>Adonijah feared because of Solomon; and he arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>1:51</sup>It was told Solomon, saying, “Behold, Adonijah fears king Solomon; for, behold, he has laid hold on the horns of the altar, saying, ‘Let king Solomon swear to me first that he will not kill his servant with the sword.’”

<sup>1:53</sup>So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. He came and bowed down to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, “Go to your house.”

<sup>2:1</sup>Now the days of David drew near that he should die; and he commanded Solomon his son, saying, <sup>2:2</sup>“I am going the way of all the earth. You be strong therefore, and show yourself a man; <sup>2:3</sup>and keep the instruction of the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, his commandments, his ordinances, and his testimonies, according to that which is written in the Torah of Moses, that you may prosper in all that you do, and wherever you turn yourself. <sup>2:4</sup>That the LORD may establish his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, ‘If your children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail you,' he said, 'a man on the throne of Israel.'

<sup>2:5</sup>"Moreover you know also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, even what he did to the two captains of the armies of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he killed, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war on his sash that was about his waist, and in his shoes that were on his feet. <sup>2:6</sup>Do therefore according to your wisdom, and don't let his gray head go down to Sheol<sup>f</sup> in peace. <sup>2:7</sup>But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those who eat at your table; for so they came to me when I fled from Absalom your brother.

<sup>2:8</sup>"Behold, there is with you Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjamite, of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day when I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by the LORD, saying, 'I will not put you to death with the sword.'<sup>2:9</sup>Now therefore don't hold him guiltless, for you are a wise man; and you will know what you ought to do to him, and you shall bring his gray head down to Sheol<sup>g</sup> with blood." <sup>2:10</sup>David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. <sup>2:11</sup>The days that David reigned over Israel were forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>2:12</sup>Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was firmly established. <sup>2:13</sup>Then Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. She said, "Do you come peaceably?"

He said, "Peaceably. <sup>2:14</sup>He said moreover, I have something to tell you."

She said, "Say on."

<sup>2:15</sup>He said, "You know that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign. However the kingdom is turned around, and has become my brother's; for it was his from the LORD. <sup>2:16</sup>Now I ask one petition of you. Don't deny me."

She said to him, "Say on." <sup>2:17</sup>He said, "Please speak to Solomon the king (for he will not tell you 'no'), that he give me Abishag the Shunammite as wife."

<sup>2:18</sup>Bathsheba said, "Alright. I will speak for you to the king."

<sup>2:19</sup>Bathsheba therefore went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. The king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne, and caused a throne to be set for the king's mother; and she sat on his right hand. <sup>2:20</sup>Then she said, "I ask one small petition of you; don't deny me."

The king said to her, "Ask on, my mother; for I will not deny you."

<sup>2:21</sup>She said, "Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah your brother as wife."

<sup>2:22</sup>King Solomon answered his mother, "Why do you ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? Ask for him the kingdom also; for he is my elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah." <sup>2:23</sup>Then king Solomon swore by the LORD, saying, "God do so to me, and more also, if Adonijah has not spoken this word against his own life. <sup>2:24</sup>Now therefore as the LORD lives, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, surely Adonijah shall be put to death this day."

<sup>2:25</sup>King Solomon sent by Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he fell on him, so that he died.

<sup>2:26</sup>To Abiathar the priest the king said, "Go to Anathoth, to your own fields; for you are worthy of death. But I will not at this time put you to death, because you bore the ark of the Lord<sup>h</sup> the LORD before David my father, and because you were afflicted in all in which my father was afflicted." <sup>2:27</sup>So Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to the LORD, that he might fulfill the word of the LORD, which he spoke concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.

<sup>2:28</sup>The news came to Joab; for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he didn't turn after Absalom. Joab fled to the Tent of the LORD, and caught hold on the horns of the altar. <sup>2:29</sup>It was told king Solomon, "Joab has fled to the Tent of the LORD, and behold, he is by the altar." Then Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, "Go, fall on him."

<sup>2:30</sup>Benaiah came to the Tent of the LORD, and said to him, "Thus says the king, 'Come forth!"

He said, "No; but I will die here."

Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, "Thus said Joab, and thus he answered me."

<sup>2:31</sup>The king said to him, "Do as he has said, and fall on him, and bury him; that you may take away the blood, which Joab shed without cause, from me and from my father's house. <sup>2:32</sup>The LORD will return his blood on his own head, because he fell on two men more righteous and better than he, and killed them with the sword, and my father David didn't know it: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the army of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain of the army of Judah. <sup>2:33</sup>So shall their blood return on the head of Joab, and on the head of his seed forever. But to David, and to his seed, and to his house, and to his throne, there shall be peace forever from the LORD."

<sup>2:34</sup>Then Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up, and fell on him, and killed him; and he was buried in his own house in the wilderness. <sup>2:35</sup>The king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his place over the army; and the king put Zadok the priest in the place of Abiathar. <sup>2:36</sup>The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Build yourself a house in Jerusalem, and dwell there, and don't go out from there anywhere. <sup>2:37</sup>For on the day you go out, and pass over the brook Kidron, know for certain that you shall surely die: your blood shall be on your own head."

<sup>2:38</sup>Shimei said to the king, "The saying is good. As my lord the king has said, so will your servant do." Shimei lived in Jerusalem many days.

<sup>2:39</sup>It happened at the end of three years, that two of the servants of Shimei ran away to Achish, son of Maacah, king of Gath. They told Shimei, saying, "Behold, your servants are in Gath."

<sup>2:40</sup>Shimei arose, and saddled his donkey, and went to Gath to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his servants from Gath. <sup>2:41</sup>It was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and had come again.

<sup>2:42</sup>The king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, "Didn't I adjure you by the LORD, and warn you, saying, 'Know for certain, that on the day you go out, and walk abroad any where, you shall surely die?' You said to me, 'The saying that I have heard is good.' <sup>2:43</sup>Why then have you not kept the oath of the LORD, and the commandment that I have instructed you with?" <sup>2:44</sup>The king said moreover to Shimei, "You know all the wickedness which your heart is privy to, that you did to David my father. Therefore the LORD shall return your wickedness on your own head. <sup>2:45</sup>But king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before the LORD forever." <sup>2:46</sup>So the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; and he went out, and fell on him, so that he died. The kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

<sup>3:1</sup>Solomon made affinity with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had made an end of building his own house, and the house of the LORD, and the wall of Jerusalem all around. <sup>3:2</sup>Only the people sacrificed in the high places, because there was no house built for the name of the LORD until those days. <sup>3:3</sup>Solomon loved the LORD, walking in the statutes of David his father: only he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>3:4</sup>The king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place. Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar. <sup>3:5</sup>In Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, "Ask what I shall give you."

<sup>3:6</sup>Solomon said, "You have shown to your servant David my father great loving kindness, according as he walked before you in truth, and in righteousness, and in uprightness of heart with you. You have kept for him this great loving kindness, that you have given him a son to sit on his throne, as it is this day. <sup>3:7</sup>Now, LORD my God, you have made your servant king instead of David my father. I am but a little child. I don't know how to go out or come in. <sup>3:8</sup>Your servant is in the midst of your people which you have chosen, a great people, that can't be numbered nor counted for multitude. <sup>3:9</sup>Give your servant therefore an understanding heart to judge your people, that I may discern between good and evil; for who is able to judge this your great people?"

<sup>3:10</sup>The speech pleased the Lord, that Solomon had asked this thing. <sup>3:11</sup>God said to him, "Because you have asked this thing, and have not asked for yourself long life, neither have asked riches for yourself, nor have asked the life of your enemies, but have asked for yourself understanding to discern justice; <sup>3:12</sup>behold, I have done according to your word. Behold, I have given you a wise and an understanding heart; so that there has been none like you before you, neither after you shall any arise like you. <sup>3:13</sup>I have also given you that which you have not asked, both riches and honor, so that there shall not be any among the kings like you, all your days. <sup>3:14</sup>If you will walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as your father David walked, then I will lengthen your days."

<sup>3:15</sup>Solomon awoke; and behold, it was a dream. Then he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and offered up burnt offerings, offered peace offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.

<sup>3:16</sup>Then two women who were prostitutes came to the king, and stood before him. <sup>3:17</sup>The one woman said, "Oh, my lord, I and this woman dwell in one house. I delivered a child with her in the house. <sup>3:18</sup>It happened the third day after I delivered, that this woman delivered also. We were together. There was no stranger with us in the house, just us two in the house. <sup>3:19</sup>This woman's child died in the night, because she lay on it. <sup>3:20</sup>She arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while your handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead child in my bosom. <sup>3:21</sup>When I rose in the morning to nurse my child, behold, it was dead; but when I had looked at it in the morning, behold, it was not my son, whom I bore."

<sup>3:22</sup>The other woman said, "No; but the living is my son, and the dead is your son."

This said, "No; but the dead is your son, and the living is my son." Thus they spoke before the king.

<sup>3:23</sup>Then the king said, "The one says, 'This is my son who lives, and your son is the dead;' and the other says, 'No; but your son is the dead one, and my son is the living one.'" <sup>3:24</sup>The king said, "Get me a sword." They brought a sword before the king. <sup>3:25</sup>The king said, "Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the other."

<sup>3:26</sup>Then the woman whose the living child was spoke to the king, for her heart yearned over her son, and she said, "Oh, my lord, give her the living child, and in no way kill it!"

But the other said, "It shall be neither mine nor yours. Divide it."

<sup>3:27</sup>Then the king answered, "Give her the living child, and in no way kill it. She is its mother."

<sup>3:28</sup>All Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king: for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.

<sup>4:1</sup>King Solomon was king over all Israel. <sup>4:2</sup>These were the princes whom he had: Azariah the son of Zadok, the priest; <sup>4:3</sup>Elihoreph and Ahijah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, the recorder; <sup>4:4</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the army; and Zadok and Abiathar were priests; <sup>4:5</sup>and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the officers; and Zabud the son of Nathan was chief minister, the king's friend; <sup>4:6</sup>and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the men subject to forced labor. <sup>4:7</sup>Solomon had twelve officers over all Israel, who provided food for the king and his household: each man had to make provision for a month in the year. <sup>4:8</sup>These are their names: Ben Hur, in the hill country of Ephraim; <sup>4:9</sup>Ben Deker, in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Beth Shemesh, and Elon Beth Hanan; <sup>4:10</sup>Ben Heshed, in Arubboth (to him belonged Socoh, and all the land of Hephher); <sup>4:11</sup>Ben Abinadab, in all the height of Dor (he had Taphath the daughter of Solomon as wife); <sup>4:12</sup>Baana the son of Ahilud, in Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth Shean which is beside Zarethan, beneath Jezreel, from Beth Shean to Abel Meholah, as far as beyond Jokmeam; <sup>4:13</sup>Ben Geber, in Ramoth Gilead (to him belonged the towns of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; to him belonged the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bronze bars); <sup>4:14</sup>Ahinadab the son of Iddo, in Mahanaim; <sup>4:15</sup>Ahimaaz, in Naphtali (he also took Basemath the daughter of Solomon as wife); <sup>4:16</sup>Baana the son of Hushai, in Asher and Bealoth; <sup>4:17</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar; <sup>4:18</sup>Shimei the son of Ela, in Benjamin; <sup>4:19</sup>Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and of Og king of Bashan; and he was the only officer who was in the land. <sup>4:20</sup>Judah and Israel were many as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry. <sup>4:21</sup>Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt: they brought tribute, and served Solomon all the days of his life. <sup>4:22</sup>Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures of fine flour, and sixty measures of meal, <sup>4:23</sup>ten head of fat cattle, and twenty head of cattle out of the pastures, and one hundred sheep, besides harts, and gazelles, and roebucks, and fattened fowl. <sup>4:24</sup>For he had dominion over all on this side the River, from Tiphseh even to Gaza, over all the kings on this side the River: and he had peace on all sides around him. <sup>4:25</sup>Judah and Israel lived safely, every man under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan even to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon. <sup>4:26</sup>Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen. <sup>4:27</sup>Those officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month; they let nothing be lacking. <sup>4:28</sup>Barley also and straw for the horses and swift steeds brought they to the place where the officers were, every man according to his duty. <sup>4:29</sup>God gave Solomon wisdom and understanding exceeding much, and very great understanding, even as the sand that is on the seashore. <sup>4:30</sup>Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the children of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt. <sup>4:31</sup>For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol: and his fame was in all the nations all around. <sup>4:32</sup>He spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were one thousand five. <sup>4:33</sup>He spoke of trees, from the cedar that is in Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of animals, and of birds, and of creeping things, and of fish. <sup>4:34</sup>There came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all kings of the earth, who had heard of his wisdom.

<sup>5:1</sup>Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father: for Hiram was ever a lover of David. <sup>5:2</sup>Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, <sup>5:3</sup>"You know how that David my father could not build a house for the name of the LORD his God for the wars which were about him on every side, until the LORD put them under the soles of his feet. <sup>5:4</sup>But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side. There is neither adversary, nor evil occurrence. <sup>5:5</sup>Behold, I purpose to build a house for the name of the LORD my God, as the LORD spoke to David my father, saying, 'Your son, whom I will set on your throne in your place, he shall build the house for my name.' <sup>5:6</sup>Now therefore command that they cut me cedar trees out of Lebanon. My servants shall be with your servants; and I will give you wages for your servants according to all that you shall say. For you know that there is not among us any who knows how to cut timber like the Sidonians."

<sup>5:7</sup>It happened, when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, "Blessed is the LORD this day, who has given to David a wise son over this great people." <sup>5:8</sup>Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, "I have heard the message which you have sent to me. I will do all your desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of fir. <sup>5:9</sup>My servants shall bring them down from Lebanon to the sea. I will make them into rafts to go by sea to the place that you shall appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and you shall receive them. You shall accomplish my desire, in giving food for my household."

<sup>5:10</sup>So Hiram gave Solomon timber of cedar and timber of fir according to all his desire. <sup>5:11</sup>Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat for food to his household, and twenty measures of pure oil. Solomon gave this to Hiram year by year. <sup>5:12</sup>The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, as he promised him; and there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a treaty together. <sup>5:13</sup>King Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men. <sup>5:14</sup>He sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, and two months at home; and Adoniram was over the men subject to forced labor. <sup>5:15</sup>Solomon had seventy thousand who bore burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains; <sup>5:16</sup>besides Solomon's chief officers who were over the work, three thousand and three hundred, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. <sup>5:17</sup>The king commanded, and they cut out great stones, costly stones, to lay the foundation of the house with worked stone. <sup>5:18</sup>Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Gebalites cut them, and prepared the timber and the stones to build the house.

<sup>6:1</sup>It happened in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel had come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Ziv, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD. <sup>6:2</sup>The house which king Solomon built for the LORD, its length was sixty cubits, and its breadth twenty, and its height thirty cubits. <sup>6:3</sup>The porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was its length, according to the breadth of the house. Ten cubits was its breadth before the house. <sup>6:4</sup>For the house he made windows of fixed lattice work. <sup>6:5</sup>Against the wall of the house he built stories all around, against the walls of the house all around, both of the temple and of the oracle; and he made side rooms all around. <sup>6:6</sup>The nethermost story was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for on the outside he made offsets in the wall of the house all around, that the beams should not have hold in the walls of the house. <sup>6:7</sup>The house, when it was in building, was built of stone prepared at the quarry; and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building. <sup>6:8</sup>The door for the middle side rooms was in the right side of the house: and they went up by winding stairs into the middle story, and out of the middle into the third. <sup>6:9</sup>So he built the house, and finished it; and he covered the house with beams and planks of cedar. <sup>6:10</sup>He built the stories against all the house, each five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

<sup>6:11</sup>The word of the LORD came to Solomon, saying, <sup>6:12</sup>"Concerning this house which you are building, if you will walk in my statutes, and execute my ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them; then will I establish my word with you, which I spoke to David your father. <sup>6:13</sup>I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel."

<sup>6:14</sup>So Solomon built the house, and finished it. <sup>6:15</sup>He built the walls of the house within with boards of cedar: from the floor of the house to the walls of the ceiling, he covered them on the inside with wood; and he covered the floor of the house with boards of fir. <sup>6:16</sup>He built twenty cubits on the hinder part of the house with boards of cedar from the floor to the ceiling; he built them for it within, for an oracle, even for the most holy place. <sup>6:17</sup>In front of the temple sanctuary was forty cubits. <sup>6:18</sup>There was cedar on the house within, carved with buds and open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone seen. <sup>6:19</sup>He prepared an oracle in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>6:20</sup>Within the oracle was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in its height; and he overlaid it with pure gold: and he covered the altar with cedar. <sup>6:21</sup>So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he drew chains of gold across before the oracle; and he overlaid it with gold. <sup>6:22</sup>The whole house he overlaid with gold, until all the house was finished: also the whole altar that belonged to the oracle he overlaid with gold. <sup>6:23</sup>In the oracle he made two cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high. <sup>6:24</sup>Five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing to the uttermost part of the other were ten cubits. <sup>6:25</sup>The other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubim were of one measure and one form. <sup>6:26</sup>The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub. <sup>6:27</sup>He set the cherubim within the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house. <sup>6:28</sup>He overlaid the cherubim with gold. <sup>6:29</sup>He carved all the walls of the house around with carved figures of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, inside and outside. <sup>6:30</sup>The floor of the house he overlaid with gold, inside and outside. <sup>6:31</sup>For the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive wood: the lintel and door posts were a fifth part of the wall. <sup>6:32</sup>So he made two doors of olive wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim and palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold; and he spread the gold on the cherubim, and on the palm trees. <sup>6:33</sup>So also made he for the entrance of the temple door posts of olive wood, out of a fourth part of the wall; <sup>6:34</sup>and two doors of fir wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other door were folding. <sup>6:35</sup>He carved cherubim and palm trees and open flowers; and he overlaid them with gold fitted on the engraved work. <sup>6:36</sup>He built the inner court with three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams. <sup>6:37</sup>In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of the LORD laid, in the month Ziv. <sup>6:38</sup>In the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished throughout all its parts, and according to all its fashion. So was he seven years in building it.

<sup>7:1</sup>Solomon was building his own house thirty years, and he finished all his house. <sup>7:2</sup>For he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was one hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, on four rows of cedar pillars, with cedar beams on the pillars. <sup>7:3</sup>It was covered with cedar above over the forty-five beams, that were on the pillars; fifteen in a row. <sup>7:4</sup>There were beams in three rows, and window was over against window in three ranks. <sup>7:5</sup>All the doors and posts were made square with beams: and window was over against window in three ranks. <sup>7:6</sup>He made the porch of pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; and a porch before them; and pillars and a threshold before them. <sup>7:7</sup>He made the porch of the throne where he was to judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor. <sup>7:8</sup>His house where he was to dwell, the other court within the porch, was of the like work. He made also a house for Pharaoh's daughter (whom Solomon had taken as wife), like this porch. <sup>7:9</sup>All these were of costly stones, even of cut stone, according to measure, sawed with saws, inside and outside, even from the foundation to the coping, and so on the outside to the great court. <sup>7:10</sup>The foundation was of costly stones, even great stones, stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits. <sup>7:11</sup>Above were costly stones, even cut stone, according to measure, and cedar wood. <sup>7:12</sup>The great court around had three courses of cut stone, and a course of cedar beams; like as the inner court of the house of the LORD, and the porch of the house. <sup>7:13</sup>King Solomon sent and fetched Hiram out of Tyre. <sup>7:14</sup>He was the son of a widow of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass; and he was filled with wisdom and understanding and skill, to work all works in brass. He came to king Solomon, and performed all his work. <sup>7:15</sup>For he fashioned the two pillars of brass, eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits encircled either of them about. <sup>7:16</sup>He made two capitals of molten brass, to set on the tops of the pillars: the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the other capital was five cubits. <sup>7:17</sup>There were nets of checker work, and wreaths of chain work, for the capitals which were on the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital, and seven for the other capital. <sup>7:18</sup>So he made the pillars; and there were two rows around on the one network, to cover the capitals that were on the top of the pillars: and he did so for the other capital. <sup>7:19</sup>The capitals that were on the top of the pillars in the porch were of lily work, four cubits. <sup>7:20</sup>There were capitals above also on the two pillars, close by the belly which was beside the network: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows around on the other capital. <sup>7:21</sup>He set up the pillars at the porch of the temple: and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin; and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz. <sup>7:22</sup>On the top of the pillars was lily work: so was the work of the pillars finished. <sup>7:23</sup>He made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>7:24</sup>Under its brim around there were buds which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea: the buds were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>7:25</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>7:26</sup>It was a handbreadth thick: and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it held two thousand baths. <sup>7:27</sup>He made the ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits its breadth, and three cubits its height. <sup>7:28</sup>The work of the bases was like this: they had panels; and there were panels between the ledges; <sup>7:29</sup>and on the panels that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubim; and on the ledges there was a pedestal above; and beneath the lions and oxen were wreaths of hanging work. <sup>7:30</sup>Every base had four bronze wheels, and axles of brass; and the four feet of it had supports: beneath the basin were the supports molten, with wreaths at the side of each. <sup>7:31</sup>The mouth of it within the capital and above was a cubit: and its mouth was round after the work of a pedestal, a cubit and a half; and also on its mouth were engravings, and their panels were foursquare, not round. <sup>7:32</sup>The four wheels were underneath the panels; and the axles of the wheels were in the base: and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit. <sup>7:33</sup>The work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their axles, and their rims, and their spokes, and their naves, were all molten. <sup>7:34</sup>There were four supports at the four corners of each base: its supports were of the base itself. <sup>7:35</sup>In the top of the base was there a round compass half a cubit high; and on the top of the base its stays and its panels were of the same. <sup>7:36</sup>On the plates of its stays, and on its panels, he engraved cherubim, lions, and palm trees, according to the space of each, with wreaths all around. <sup>7:37</sup>In this way, he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, and one form. <sup>7:38</sup>He made ten basins of brass: one basin contained forty baths; and every basin was four cubits; and on every one of the ten bases one basin. <sup>7:39</sup>He set the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house: and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south. <sup>7:40</sup>Hiram made the basins, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he worked for king Solomon in the house of the LORD: <sup>7:41</sup>the two pillars, and the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars; <sup>7:42</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars; <sup>7:43</sup>and the ten bases, and the ten basins on the bases; <sup>7:44</sup>and the one sea, and the twelve oxen under the sea; <sup>7:45</sup>and the pots, and the shovels, and the basins: even all these vessels, which Hiram made for king Solomon, in the house of the LORD, were of burnished brass. <sup>7:46</sup>The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zarethan. <sup>7:47</sup>Solomon left all the vessels unweighed, because they were exceeding many: the weight of the brass could not be found out. <sup>7:48</sup>Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of the LORD: the golden altar, and the table whereupon the show bread was, of gold; <sup>7:49</sup>and the menorahs, five on the right side, and five on the left, before the oracle, of pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold; <sup>7:50</sup>and the cups, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold; and the hinges, both for the doors of the inner house, the most holy place, and for the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold. <sup>7:51</sup>Thus all the work that king Solomon worked in the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things which David his father had dedicated, the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of the LORD.

<sup>8:1</sup>Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>8:2</sup>All the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the feast, in the month Ethanim, which is the seventh month. <sup>8:3</sup>All the elders of Israel came, and the priests took up the ark. <sup>8:4</sup>They brought up the ark of the LORD, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; even these the priests and the Levites brought up. <sup>8:5</sup>King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, who were assembled to him, were with him before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>8:6</sup>The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>8:7</sup>For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>8:8</sup>The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the holy place before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there they are to this day. <sup>8:9</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt. <sup>8:10</sup>It came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the house of the LORD, <sup>8:11</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud; for the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD. <sup>8:12</sup>Then Solomon said, "The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>8:13</sup>I have surely built you a house of habitation, a place for you to dwell in forever."

<sup>8:14</sup>The king turned his face about, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>8:15</sup>He said, "Blessed is the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David your father, and has with his hand fulfilled it, saying, <sup>8:16</sup>'Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house, that my name might be there; but I chose David to be over my people Israel.'

<sup>8:17</sup>"Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>8:18</sup>But the LORD said to David my father, 'Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart. <sup>8:19</sup>Nevertheless, you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.' <sup>8:20</sup>The LORD has established his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and I sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>8:21</sup>There I have set a place for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with our fathers, when he brought them out of the land of Egypt."

<sup>8:22</sup>Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven; <sup>8:23</sup>and he said, "LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven above, or on earth beneath; who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; <sup>8:24</sup>who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him. Yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day. <sup>8:25</sup>Now therefore, may LORD, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk before me as you have walked before me.'

<sup>8:26</sup>"Now therefore, God of Israel, please let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David my father. <sup>8:27</sup>But will God in very deed dwell on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house that I have built! <sup>8:28</sup>Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and for his supplication, LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you this day; <sup>8:29</sup>that your eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which you have said, 'My name shall be there;' to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>8:30</sup>Listen to the supplication of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place. Yes, hear in heaven, your dwelling place; and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>8:31</sup>"If a man sins against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swear before your altar in this house; <sup>8:32</sup>then hear in heaven, and do, and judge your servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way on his own head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>8:33</sup>"When your people Israel are struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you; if they turn again to you, and confess your name, and pray and make supplication to you in this house: <sup>8:34</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to their fathers.

<sup>8:35</sup>"When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: <sup>8:36</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

<sup>8:37</sup>"If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight, mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemy besieges them in the land of their cities; whatever plague, whatever sickness there is; <sup>8:38</sup> whatever prayer and supplication is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall each know the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands toward this house: <sup>8:39</sup> then hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of all the children of men;) <sup>8:40</sup> that they may fear you all the days that they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

<sup>8:41</sup> "Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come out of a far country for your name's sake <sup>8:42</sup> (for they shall hear of your great name, and of your mighty hand, and of your outstretched arm); when he shall come and pray toward this house; <sup>8:43</sup> hear in heaven, your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, to fear you, as do your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

<sup>8:44</sup> "If your people go out to battle against their enemy, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to the LORD toward the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name; <sup>8:45</sup> then hear in heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause. <sup>8:46</sup> If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn't sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to the land of the enemy, far off or near; <sup>8:47</sup> yet if they shall repent in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of those who carried them captive, saying, 'We have sinned, and have done perversely; we have dealt wickedly;' <sup>8:48</sup> if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their enemies, who carried them captive, and pray to you toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, the city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name: <sup>8:49</sup> then hear their prayer and their supplication in heaven, your dwelling place, and maintain their cause; <sup>8:50</sup> and forgive your people who have sinned against you, and all their transgressions in which they have transgressed against you; and give them compassion before those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them <sup>8:51</sup> (for they are your people, and your inheritance, which you brought out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron); <sup>8:52</sup> that your eyes may be open to the supplication of your servant, and to the supplication of your people Israel, to listen to them whenever they cry to you. <sup>8:53</sup> For you separated them from among all the peoples of the earth, to be your inheritance, as you spoke by Moses your servant, when you brought our fathers out of Egypt, Lord GOD."

<sup>8:54</sup> It was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication to the LORD, he arose from before the altar of the LORD, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth toward heaven. <sup>8:55</sup> He stood, and blessed all the assembly of Israel with a loud voice, saying, <sup>8:56</sup> "Blessed be the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised. There has not failed one word of all his good promise, which he promised by Moses his servant. <sup>8:57</sup> May the LORD our God be with us, as he was with our fathers. Let him not leave us, nor forsake us; <sup>8:58</sup> that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and his statutes, and his ordinances, which he commanded our fathers. <sup>8:59</sup> Let these my words, with which I have made supplication before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may maintain the cause of his servant, and the cause of his people Israel, as every day shall require; <sup>8:60</sup> that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD, he is God. There is none else.

<sup>8:61</sup> "Let your heart therefore be perfect with the LORD our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day."

<sup>8:62</sup> The king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the LORD. <sup>8:63</sup> Solomon offered for the sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered to the LORD, two and twenty thousand head of cattle, and one hundred twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the LORD. <sup>8:64</sup> The same day the king made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar that was before the LORD was too little to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat of the peace offerings. <sup>8:65</sup>So Solomon held the feast at that time, and all Israel with him, a great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt, before the LORD our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days. <sup>8:66</sup>On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that the LORD had shown to David his servant, and to Israel his people.

<sup>9:1</sup>It happened, when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, <sup>9:2</sup>that the LORD appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon. <sup>9:3</sup>The LORD said to him, "I have heard your prayer and your supplication, that you have made before me. I have made this house holy, which you have built, to put my name there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. <sup>9:4</sup>As for you, if you will walk before me, as David your father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; <sup>9:5</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom over Israel forever, according as I promised to David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man on the throne of Israel.' <sup>9:6</sup>But if you turn away from following me, you or your children, and not keep my commandments and my statutes which I have set before you, but shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>9:7</sup>then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>9:8</sup>Though this house is so high, yet shall everyone who passes by it be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house?' <sup>9:9</sup>and they shall answer, 'Because they forsook the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold of other gods, and worshiped them, and served them. Therefore the LORD has brought all this evil on them.'"

<sup>9:10</sup>It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the LORD and the king's house <sup>9:11</sup>(now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar trees and fir trees, and with gold, according to all his desire), that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee. <sup>9:12</sup>Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him; and they didn't please him. <sup>9:13</sup>He said, "What cities are these which you have given me, my brother?" He called them the land of Cabul to this day. <sup>9:14</sup>Hiram sent to the king one hundred twenty talents of gold.

<sup>9:15</sup>This is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of the LORD, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gezer. <sup>9:16</sup>Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites who lived in the city, and given it for a portion to his daughter, Solomon's wife. <sup>9:17</sup>Solomon built Gezer, and Beth Horon the lower, <sup>9:18</sup>and Baalath, and Tamar in the wilderness, in the land, <sup>9:19</sup>and all the storage cities that Solomon had, and the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion. <sup>9:20</sup>As for all the people who were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of Israel; <sup>9:21</sup>their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, of them Solomon raised a levy of bondservants to this day. <sup>9:22</sup>But of the children of Israel Solomon made no bondservants; but they were the men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>9:23</sup>These were the chief officers who were over Solomon's work, five hundred fifty, who bore rule over the people who labored in the work. <sup>9:24</sup>But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house which Solomon had built for her: then he built Millo. <sup>9:25</sup>Solomon offered burnt offerings and peace offerings on the altar which he built to the LORD three times a year, burning incense with them, on the altar that was before the LORD. So he finished the house. <sup>9:26</sup>King Solomon made a navy of ships in Ezion Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Sea of Suf, in the land of Edom. <sup>9:27</sup>Hiram sent in the navy his servants, sailors who had knowledge of the sea, with the servants of Solomon. <sup>9:28</sup>They came to Ophir, and fetched from there gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

<sup>10:1</sup>When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon concerning the name of the LORD, she came to prove him with hard questions. <sup>10:2</sup>She came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices, and very much gold, and precious stones; and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>10:3</sup>Solomon told her all her questions: there was not anything hidden from the king which he didn't tell her. <sup>10:4</sup>When the queen of Sheba had seen all the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>10:5</sup>and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, and his cup bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her. <sup>10:6</sup>She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>10:7</sup>However I didn't believe the words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it. Behold, the half was not told me! Your wisdom and prosperity exceed the fame which I heard. <sup>10:8</sup>Happy are your men, happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, who hear your wisdom. <sup>10:9</sup>Blessed is the LORD your God, who delighted in you, to set you on the throne of Israel. Because the LORD loved Israel forever, therefore made he you king, to do justice and righteousness." <sup>10:10</sup>She gave the king one hundred twenty talents of gold, and of spices very great store, and precious stones. There came no more such abundance of spices as these which the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon.

<sup>10:11</sup>The navy also of Hiram, that brought gold from Ophir, brought in from Ophir great plenty of almug trees and precious stones. <sup>10:12</sup>The king made of the almug trees pillars for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, harps also and stringed instruments for the singers: there came no such almug trees, nor were seen, to this day. <sup>10:13</sup>King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which Solomon gave her of his royal bounty. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. <sup>10:14</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>10:15</sup>besides that which the traders brought, and the traffic of the merchants, and of all the kings of the mixed people, and of the governors of the country. <sup>10:16</sup>King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of gold went to one buckler. <sup>10:17</sup>he made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three minas of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>10:18</sup>Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with the finest gold. <sup>10:19</sup>There were six steps to the throne, and the top of the throne was round behind; and there were stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>10:20</sup>Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>10:21</sup>All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>10:22</sup>For the king had at sea a navy of Tarshish with the navy of Hiram: once every three years came the navy of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>10:23</sup>So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and in wisdom. <sup>10:24</sup>All the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>10:25</sup>They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>10:26</sup>Solomon gathered together chariots and horsemen: and he had a thousand and four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he bestowed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>10:27</sup>The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>10:28</sup>The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt; and the king's merchants received them in droves, each drove at a price. <sup>10:29</sup>A chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty; and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and for the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

<sup>11:1</sup>Now king Solomon loved many foreign women, together with the daughter of Pharaoh, women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians, and Hittites; <sup>11:2</sup>of the nations concerning which the LORD said to the children of Israel, "You shall not go among them, neither shall they come among you; for surely they will turn away your heart after their gods." Solomon joined to these in love. <sup>11:3</sup>He had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his heart. <sup>11:4</sup>For it happened, when Solomon was old, that his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as was the heart of David his father. <sup>11:5</sup>For Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites. <sup>11:6</sup>Solomon did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and didn't go fully after the LORD, as did David his father. <sup>11:7</sup>Then Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, on the mountain that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>11:8</sup>So he did for all his foreign wives, who burnt incense and sacrificed to their gods. <sup>11:9</sup>The LORD was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice, <sup>11:10</sup>and had commanded him concerning this thing, that he should not go after other gods: but he didn't keep that which the LORD commanded. <sup>11:11</sup>Therefore the LORD said to Solomon, "Because this is done by you, and you have not kept my covenant and my statutes, which I have commanded you, I will surely tear the kingdom from you, and will give it to your servant. <sup>11:12</sup>Notwithstanding I will not do it in your days, for David your father's sake; but I will tear it out of the hand of your son. <sup>11:13</sup>However I will not tear away all the kingdom; but I will give one tribe to your son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen."

of the army was gone up to bury the slain, and had struck every male in Edom <sup>11:16</sup>(for Joab and all Israel remained there six months, until he had cut off every male in Edom); <sup>11:17</sup>that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad being yet a little child. <sup>11:18</sup>They arose out of Midian, and came to Paran; and they took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave him a house, and appointed him food, and gave him land. <sup>11:19</sup>Hadad found great favor in the sight of Pharaoh, so that he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tahpenes the queen. <sup>11:20</sup>The sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son, whom Tahpenes weaned in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's house among the sons of Pharaoh. <sup>11:21</sup>When Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the army was dead, Hadad said to Pharaoh, "Let me depart, that I may go to my own country."

<sup>11:22</sup>Then Pharaoh said to him, "But what have you lacked with me, that behold, you seek to go to your own country?"

He answered, "Nothing, however only let me depart."

<sup>11:23</sup>God raised up an adversary to him, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zobah. <sup>11:24</sup>He gathered men to him, and became captain over a troop, when David killed them of Zobah: and they went to Damascus, and lived therein, and reigned in Damascus. <sup>11:25</sup>He was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief of Hadad: and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria. <sup>11:26</sup>Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephraimite of Zeredah, a servant of Solomon, whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow, he also lifted up his hand against the king. <sup>11:27</sup>This was the reason why he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon built Millo, and repaired the breach of the city of David his father. <sup>11:28</sup>The man Jeroboam was a mighty man of valor; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he put him in charge of all the labor of the house of Joseph. <sup>11:29</sup>It happened at that time, when Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, that the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; now Ahijah had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were alone in the field. <sup>11:30</sup>Ahijah laid hold of the new garment that was on him, and tore it in twelve pieces. <sup>11:31</sup>He said to Jeroboam, "Take ten pieces; for thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I will tear the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and will give ten tribes to you <sup>11:32</sup>(but he shall have one tribe, for my servant David's sake and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel); <sup>11:33</sup>because that they have forsaken me, and have worshiped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of Moab, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon. They have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in my eyes, and to keep my statutes and my ordinances, as David his father did.

<sup>11:34</sup>"However I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; but I will make him prince all the days of his life, for David my servant's sake whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my statutes; <sup>11:35</sup>but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it to you, even ten tribes. <sup>11:36</sup>To his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city which I have chosen me to put my name there. <sup>11:37</sup>I will take you, and you shall reign according to all that your soul desires, and shall be king over Israel. <sup>11:38</sup>It shall be, if you will listen to all that I command you, and will walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my eyes, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did; that I will be with you, and will build you a sure house, as I built for David, and will give Israel to you. <sup>11:39</sup>I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not forever." <sup>11:40</sup>Solomon sought therefore to kill Jeroboam; but Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon. <sup>11:41</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, aren't they written in the book of the acts of Solomon? <sup>11:42</sup>The time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was forty years. <sup>11:43</sup>Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>12:1</sup>Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.

<sup>12:2</sup>It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it (for he was yet in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam lived in Egypt, <sup>12:3</sup>and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the assembly of Israel came, and spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>12:4</sup>"Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

The people departed. <sup>12:6</sup>King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people?"

<sup>12:7</sup>They spoke to him, saying, "If you will be a servant to this people this day, and will serve them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

<sup>12:8</sup>But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>12:9</sup>He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?'"

<sup>12:10</sup>The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell this people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter to us;' you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>12:11</sup>Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

<sup>12:12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day."

<sup>12:13</sup>The king answered the people roughly, and forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, <sup>12:14</sup>and spoke to them according to the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

<sup>12:15</sup>So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was a thing brought about of the LORD, that he might establish his word, which the LORD spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>12:16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? Neither do we have an inheritance in the son of Jesse. To your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David." So Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>12:17</sup>But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>12:18</sup>Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and all Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>12:19</sup>So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day. <sup>12:20</sup>It happened, when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was returned, that they sent and called him to the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none who followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only. <sup>12:21</sup>When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Judah, and the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of Solomon. <sup>12:22</sup>But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>12:23</sup>"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people, saying, <sup>12:24</sup>"Thus says the LORD, "You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers, the children of Israel. Everyone return to his house; for this thing is of me." So they listened to the word of the LORD, and returned and went their way, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>12:25</sup>Then Jeroboam built Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and lived in it; and he went out from there, and built Penuel. <sup>12:26</sup>Jeroboam said in his heart, "Now the kingdom will return to the house of David. <sup>12:27</sup>If this people goes up to offer sacrifices in the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, then the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, even to Rehoboam king of Judah; and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah." <sup>12:28</sup>Whereupon the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold; and he said to them, "It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Look and see your gods, Israel, which brought you up out of the land of Egypt!" <sup>12:29</sup>He set the one in Bethel, and the other put he in Dan. <sup>12:30</sup>This thing became a sin; for the people went to worship before the one, even to Dan. <sup>12:31</sup>He made houses of high places, and made priests from among all the people, who were not of the sons of Levi. <sup>12:32</sup>Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that is in Judah, and he went up to the altar; he did so in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made: and he placed in Bethel the priests of the high places that he had made. <sup>12:33</sup>He went up to the altar which he had made in Bethel on the fifteenth day in the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and he ordained a feast for the children of Israel, and went up to the altar, to burn incense.

<sup>13:1</sup>Behold, there came a man of God out of Judah by the word of the LORD to Beth El: and Jeroboam was standing by the altar to burn incense. <sup>13:2</sup>He cried against the altar by the word of the LORD, and said, "Altar, altar, thus says the LORD: 'Behold, a son shall be born to the house of David, Josiah by name. On you he shall sacrifice the priests of the high places who burn incense on you, and they will burn men's bones on you.'" <sup>13:3</sup>He gave a sign the same day, saying, "This is the sign which the LORD has spoken: Behold, the altar will be split apart, and the ashes that are on it will be poured out."

<sup>13:4</sup>It happened, when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam put out his hand from the altar, saying, "Seize him!" His hand, which he put out against him, dried up, so that he could not draw it back again to himself. <sup>13:5</sup>The altar also was split apart, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the LORD. <sup>13:6</sup>The king answered the man of God, "Now entreat the favor of the LORD your God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored me again."

The man of God entreated the LORD, and the king's hand was restored him again, and became as it was before.

<sup>13:7</sup>The king said to the man of God, "Come home with me, and refresh yourself, and I will give you a reward.”

<sup>13:8</sup>The man of God said to the king, “Even if you gave me half of your house, I would not go in with you, neither would I eat bread nor drink water in this place; <sup>13:9</sup>for so was it commanded me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘You shall eat no bread, nor drink water, neither return by the way that you came.’”

<sup>13:10</sup>So he went another way, and didn’t return by the way that he came to Bethel.

<sup>13:11</sup>Now there lived an old prophet in Bethel; and one of his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel. They also told their father the words which he had spoken to the king.

<sup>13:12</sup>Their father said to them, “Which way did he go?” Now his sons had seen which way the man of God went, who came from Judah.

<sup>13:13</sup>He said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” So they saddled the donkey for him; and he rode on it. <sup>13:14</sup>He went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak. He said to him, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?”

He said, “I am.” <sup>13:15</sup>Then he said to him, “Come home with me, and eat bread.”

<sup>13:16</sup>He said, “I may not return with you, nor go in with you; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with you in this place. <sup>13:17</sup>For it was said to me by the word of the LORD, ‘You shall eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that you came.’”

<sup>13:18</sup>He said to him, “I also am a prophet as you are; and an angel spoke to me by the word of the LORD, saying, ‘Bring him back with you into your house, that he may eat bread and drink water.’” He lied to him.

<sup>13:19</sup>So he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water. <sup>13:20</sup>It happened, as they sat at the table, that the word of the LORD came to the prophet who brought him back; <sup>13:21</sup>and he cried to the man of God who came from Judah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, ‘Because you have been disobedient to the mouth of the LORD, and have not kept the commandment which the LORD your God commanded you, <sup>13:22</sup>but came back, and have eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to you, ‘Eat no bread, and drink no water;’ your body shall not come to the tomb of your fathers.’” and after he had drunk, that he saddled the donkey for the prophet whom he had brought back. <sup>13:24</sup>When he had gone, a lion met him by the way, and killed him. His body was cast in the way, and the donkey stood by it. The lion also stood by the body. <sup>13:25</sup>Behold, men passed by, and saw the body cast in the way, and the lion standing by the body; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet lived. <sup>13:26</sup>When the prophet who brought him back from the way heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who was disobedient to the mouth of the LORD. Therefore the LORD has delivered him to the lion, which has mauled him and slain him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke to him.”

<sup>13:27</sup>He spoke to his sons, saying, “Saddle the donkey for me.” They saddled it. <sup>13:28</sup>He went and found his body cast in the way, and the donkey and the lion standing by the body. The lion had not eaten the body, nor mauled the donkey. <sup>13:29</sup>The prophet took up the body of the man of God, and laid it on the donkey, and brought it back. He came to the city of the old prophet to mourn, and to bury him. <sup>13:30</sup>He laid his body in his own grave; and they mourned over him, saying, “Alas, my brother!”

<sup>13:31</sup>It happened, after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons, saying, “When I am dead, then bury me in the tomb in which the man of God is buried. Lay my bones beside his bones. <sup>13:32</sup>For the saying which he cried by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places which are in the cities of Samaria, will surely happen.”

<sup>13:33</sup>After this thing Jeroboam didn’t return from his evil way, but again made priests of the high places from among all the people. Whoever wanted to, he consecrated him, that there might be priests of the high places. <sup>13:34</sup>This thing became sin to the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off, and to destroy it from off the surface of the earth.

<sup>14:1</sup>At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick. <sup>14:2</sup>Jeroboam said to his wife, “Please get up and disguise yourself, that you won’t be recognized as the wife of Jeroboam. Go to Shiloh. Behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who spoke concerning me that I should be king over this people. <sup>14:3</sup>Take with you ten loaves, and cakes, and a jar of honey, and go to him.

He will tell you what will become of the child.”

<sup>14:4</sup>Jeroboam’s wife did so, and arose, and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. Now Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were set by reason of his age. <sup>14:5</sup>The LORD said to Ahijah, “Behold, the wife of Jeroboam comes to inquire of you concerning her son; for he is sick. Thus and thus you shall tell her; for it will be, when she comes in, that she will pretend to be another woman.”

<sup>14:6</sup>It was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, “Come in, you wife of Jeroboam! Why do you pretend to be another? For I am sent to you with heavy news. <sup>14:7</sup>Go, tell Jeroboam, ‘Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: “Because I exalted you from among the people, and made you prince over my people Israel, <sup>14:8</sup>and tore the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it you; and yet you have not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that only which was right in my eyes, <sup>14:9</sup>but have done evil above all who were before you, and have gone and made you other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and have cast me behind your back: <sup>14:10</sup>therefore, behold, I will bring evil on the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam everyone who urinates on a wall,<sup>i</sup> he who is shut up and he who is left at large in Israel, and will utterly sweep away the house of Jeroboam, as a man sweeps away dung, until it is all gone. <sup>14:11</sup>He who dies of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat; and he who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat: for the LORD has spoken it.”’ <sup>14:12</sup>Arise therefore, and go to your house. When your feet enter into the city, the child shall die. <sup>14:13</sup>All Israel shall mourn for him, and bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing toward the LORD, the God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam. <sup>14:14</sup>Moreover the LORD will raise him up a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam. This is day! What? Even now. <sup>14:15</sup>For the LORD will strike Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water; and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the River, because they have made their Asherim, provoking the LORD to anger. <sup>14:16</sup>He will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, which he has sinned, and with which he has made Israel to sin.”

<sup>i</sup>14:10 or, male

<sup>14:17</sup>Jeroboam’s wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah. As she came to the threshold of the house, the child died. <sup>14:18</sup>All Israel buried him, and mourned for him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the prophet. <sup>14:19</sup>The rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>14:20</sup>The days which Jeroboam reigned were two and twenty years: and he slept with his fathers, and Nadab his son reigned in his place. <sup>14:21</sup>Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>14:22</sup>Judah did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed, above all that their fathers had done. <sup>14:23</sup>For they also built them high places, and pillars, and Asherim, on every high hill, and under every green tree; <sup>14:24</sup>and there were also sodomites in the land: they did according to all the abominations of the nations which the LORD drove out before the children of Israel. <sup>14:25</sup>It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem; <sup>14:26</sup>and he took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house; he even took away all: and he took away all the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>14:27</sup>King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king’s house. <sup>14:28</sup>It was so, that as often as the king went into the house of the LORD, the guard bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. <sup>14:29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, aren’t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>14:30</sup>There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>14:31</sup>Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess. Abijam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>15:1</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah. <sup>15:2</sup>He reigned three years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>15:3</sup>He walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father. <sup>15:4</sup>Nevertheless for David's sake, the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, to set up his son after him, and to establish Jerusalem; <sup>15:5</sup>because David did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and didn't turn aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except only in the matter of Uriah the Hittite. <sup>15:6</sup>Now there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life. <sup>15:7</sup>The rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijam and Jeroboam. <sup>15:8</sup>Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his place. <sup>15:9</sup>In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel began Asa to reign over Judah. <sup>15:10</sup>He reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Maacah the daughter of Abishalom. <sup>15:11</sup>Asa did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, as did David his father. <sup>15:12</sup>He put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols that his fathers had made. <sup>15:13</sup>Also Maacah his mother he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>15:14</sup>But the high places were not taken away: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect with the LORD all his days. <sup>15:15</sup>He brought into the house of the LORD the things that his father had dedicated, and the things that himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>15:16</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>15:17</sup>Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>15:18</sup>Then Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and delivered them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben Hadad, the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>15:19</sup>"There is a treaty between me and you, between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent to you a present of silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

<sup>15:20</sup>Ben Hadad listened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel, and struck Ijon, and Dan, and Abel Beth Maacah, and all Chinneroth, with all the land of Naphtali. <sup>15:21</sup>It happened, when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ramah, and lived in Tirzah. <sup>15:22</sup>Then king Asa made a proclamation to all Judah; none was exempted: and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and its timber, with which Baasha had built; and king Asa built therewith Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah. <sup>15:23</sup>Now the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities which he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? But in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet. <sup>15:24</sup>Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place. <sup>15:25</sup>Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two years. <sup>15:26</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>15:27</sup>Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon. <sup>15:28</sup>Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15:29</sup>It happened that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite; <sup>15:30</sup>for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger. <sup>15:31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>15:32</sup>There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days. <sup>15:33</sup>In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha the son of Ahijah began to reign over all Israel in Tirzah for twenty-four years. <sup>15:34</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.

<sup>16:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying, <sup>16:2</sup>"Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins; <sup>16:3</sup>behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>16:4</sup>The dogs will eat Baasha's descendants who die in the city; and he who dies of his in the field the birds of the sky will eat."

<sup>16:8</sup>In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel in Tirzah for two years. <sup>16:9</sup>His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah: <sup>16:10</sup>and Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place. <sup>16:11</sup>It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he didn't leave him a single one who urinates on a wall,<sup>j</sup> neither of his relatives, nor of his friends. <sup>16:12</sup>Thus Zimri

destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet, <sup>16:13</sup>for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>16:14</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16:15</sup>In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines. <sup>16:16</sup>The people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king over Israel that day in the camp. <sup>16:17</sup>Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah. <sup>16:18</sup>It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died, <sup>16:19</sup>for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin. <sup>16:20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he committed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16:21</sup>Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri. <sup>16:22</sup>But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned. <sup>16:23</sup>In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel for twelve years. He reigned six years in Tirzah. <sup>16:24</sup>He bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver; and he built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, the owner of the hill, Samaria. <sup>16:25</sup>Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him. <sup>16:26</sup>For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities. <sup>16:27</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>16:28</sup>So Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his place. <sup>16:29</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah began Ahab the son of Omri to reign over Israel: and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two years. <sup>16:30</sup>Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him. <sup>16:31</sup>It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him. <sup>16:32</sup>He reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he had built in Samaria. <sup>16:33</sup>Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>16:34</sup>In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho: he laid its foundation with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up its gates with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.

<sup>17:1</sup>Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the foreigners of Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word." <sup>17:2</sup>The word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>17:3</sup>"Go away from here, turn eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. <sup>17:4</sup>It shall be, that you shall drink of the brook. I have commanded the ravens to feed you there." <sup>17:5</sup>So he went and did according to the word of the LORD; for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan. <sup>17:6</sup>The ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook. <sup>17:7</sup>It happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land. <sup>17:8</sup>The word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>17:9</sup>"Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and stay there. Behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you."

<sup>17:10</sup>So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, "Please get me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink."

<sup>17:11</sup>As she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, "Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand."

<sup>17:12</sup>She said, "As the LORD your God lives, I don't have a cake, but a handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the jar. Behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die."

<sup>17:13</sup>Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it out to me, and afterward make some for you and for your son.

<sup>17:14</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, "The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sends rain on the earth."

<sup>17:15</sup>She went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, ate many days. <sup>17:16</sup>The jar of meal didn't empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Elijah.

<sup>17:17</sup>It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so severe, that there was no breath left in him. <sup>17:18</sup>She said to Elijah, "What have I to do with you, you man of God? You have come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son!"

<sup>17:19</sup>He said to her, "Give me your son." He took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the room where he stayed, and laid him on his own bed. <sup>17:20</sup>He cried to the LORD, and said, "LORD my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I stay, by killing her son?"

<sup>17:21</sup>He stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to the LORD, and said, "LORD my God, please let this child's soul come into him again."

<sup>17:22</sup>The LORD listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived. <sup>17:23</sup>Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the room into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, "Behold, your son lives."

<sup>17:24</sup>The woman said to Elijah, "Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in your mouth is truth."

word of the LORD came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, "Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain on the earth."

<sup>18:2</sup>Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. The famine was severe in Samaria. <sup>18:3</sup>Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly: <sup>18:4</sup>for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took one hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.) <sup>18:5</sup>Ahab said to Obadiah, "Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the brooks. Perhaps we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals."

<sup>18:6</sup>So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself. <sup>18:7</sup>As Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he recognized him, and fell on his face, and said, "Is it you, my lord Elijah?"

<sup>18:8</sup>He answered him, "It is I. Go, tell your lord, 'Behold, Elijah is here!'"

<sup>18:9</sup>He said, "Wherein have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me? <sup>18:10</sup>As the LORD your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you. When they said, 'He is not here,' he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you. <sup>18:11</sup>Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, 'Behold, Elijah is here.'" <sup>18:12</sup>It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me. But I, your servant, have feared the LORD from my youth. <sup>18:13</sup>Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of the LORD, how I hid one hundred men of the LORD's prophets with fifty to a cave, and fed them with bread and water? <sup>18:14</sup>Now you say, 'Go, tell your lord, "Behold, Elijah is here;"' and he will kill me."

<sup>18:15</sup>Elijah said, "As the LORD of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today." <sup>18:16</sup>So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah. <sup>18:17</sup>It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, "Is that you, you troubler of Israel?"

<sup>18:18</sup>He answered, "I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father's house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and you have followed the Baals. <sup>18:19</sup>Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and four hundred fifty of the prophets of Baal, and four hundred of the prophets of the Asherah, who eat at Jezebel's table."

<sup>18:20</sup>So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel. <sup>18:21</sup>Elijah came near to all the people, and said, "How long will you waver between the two sides? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him."

The people answered him not a word.

<sup>18:22</sup>Then Elijah said to the people, "I, even I only, am left a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophets are four hundred fifty men. <sup>18:23</sup>Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under it. <sup>18:24</sup>You call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The God who answers by fire, let him be God."

All the people answered, "It is well said."

<sup>18:25</sup>Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, "Choose one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under it."

<sup>18:26</sup>They took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. They leaped about the altar which was made. <sup>18:27</sup>It happened at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, "Cry aloud; for he is a god. Either he is musing, or he has gone aside, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleeps and must be awakened."

<sup>18:28</sup>They cried aloud, and cut themselves in their way with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them. <sup>18:29</sup>It was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the offering; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded.

<sup>18:30</sup>Elijah said to all the people, "Come near to me;" and all the people came near to him. He repaired the altar of the LORD that was thrown down. <sup>18:31</sup>Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, "Israel shall be your name." <sup>18:32</sup>With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD. He made a trench around the altar, large enough to contain two measures of seed. <sup>18:33</sup>He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, "Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood." <sup>18:34</sup>He said, "Do it a second time;" and they did it the second time. He said, "Do it a third time;" and they did it the third time. <sup>18:35</sup>The water ran around the altar; and he also filled the trench with water.

<sup>18:36</sup>It happened at the time of the offering of the offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, "LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word. <sup>18:37</sup>Hear me, LORD, hear me, that this people may know that you, LORD, are God, and that you have turned their heart back again."

<sup>18:38</sup>Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench. <sup>18:39</sup>When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces. They said, "The LORD, he is God! the LORD, he is God!"

<sup>18:40</sup>Elijah said to them, "Seize the prophets of Baal! Don't let one of them escape!"

They seized them. Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there. <sup>18:41</sup>Elijah said to Ahab, "Get up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain."

<sup>18:42</sup>So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees. <sup>18:43</sup>He said to his servant, "Go up now, look toward the sea."

He went up, and looked, and said, "There is nothing."

He said, "Go again" seven times.

<sup>18:44</sup>It happened at the seventh time, that he said, "Behold, a small cloud, like a man's hand, is rising out of the sea."

He said, "Go up, tell Ahab, 'Get ready and go down, so that the rain doesn't stop you.'"

<sup>18:45</sup>It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel. <sup>18:46</sup>The hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he tucked his cloak into his belt and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.

<sup>19:1</sup>Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. <sup>19:2</sup>Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time!"

<sup>19:3</sup>When he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.

<sup>19:4</sup>But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper tree: and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is enough. Now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers."

<sup>19:5</sup>He lay down and slept under a juniper tree; and behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, "Arise and eat!"

<sup>19:6</sup>He looked, and behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. <sup>19:7</sup>The angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, "Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you."

<sup>19:8</sup>He arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God. <sup>19:9</sup>He came there to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>19:10</sup>He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of Hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

<sup>19:11</sup>He said, "Go out, and stand on the mountain before the LORD."

Behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake. <sup>19:12</sup>After the earthquake a fire passed; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice. <sup>19:13</sup>It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, a voice came to him, and said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?"

<sup>19:14</sup>He said, "I have been very jealous for the LORD, the God of Hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword. I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away."

<sup>19:15</sup>The LORD said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus. When you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria. <sup>19:16</sup>You shall anoint Jehu the son of Nimshi to be king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel Meholah to be prophet in your place. <sup>19:17</sup>It shall happen, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will kill. <sup>19:18</sup>Yet will I leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him."

<sup>19:19</sup>So he departed there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle on him. <sup>19:20</sup>He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, "Let me please kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you."

He said to him, "Go back again; for what have I done to you?"

<sup>19:21</sup>He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and served him.

<sup>20:1</sup>Ben Hadad the king of Syria gathered all his army together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it. <sup>20:2</sup>He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, "Thus says Ben Hadad, <sup>20:3</sup>Your silver and your gold is mine. Your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine."

<sup>20:4</sup>The king of Israel answered, "It is according to your saying, my lord, O king. I am yours, and all that I have."

<sup>20:5</sup>The messengers came again, and said, "Ben Hadad says, 'I sent indeed to you, saying, "You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children; <sup>20:6</sup>but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.'"

<sup>20:7</sup>Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, "Please notice how this man seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn't deny him."

<sup>20:8</sup>All the elders and all the people said to him, "Don't listen, neither consent."

<sup>20:9</sup>Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben Hadad, "Tell my lord the king, 'All that you sent for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do.'"

The messengers departed, and brought him back the message. <sup>20:10</sup>Ben Hadad sent to him, and said, "The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me."

<sup>20:11</sup>The king of Israel answered, "Tell him, 'Don't let him who puts on his armor brag like he who takes it off.'"

<sup>20:12</sup>It happened, when Ben Hadad heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, "Prepare to attack!" They prepared to attack the city.

<sup>20:13</sup>Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Have you seen all this great multitude? Behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>20:14</sup>Ahab said, "By whom?"

He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'By the young men of the princes of the provinces.'"

Then he said, "Who shall begin the battle?"

He answered, "You."

<sup>20:15</sup>Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two. After them, he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand. <sup>20:16</sup>They went out at noon. But Ben Hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him. <sup>20:17</sup>The young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben Hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, "Men are coming out from Samaria."

<sup>20:18</sup>He said, "If they have come out for peace, take them alive; or if they have come out for war, take them alive."

<sup>20:23</sup>The servants of the king of Syria said to him, "Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we. But let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they." <sup>20:24</sup>Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their place. <sup>20:25</sup>Muster an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot. We will fight against them in the plain, and surely we will be stronger than them."

He listened to their voice, and did so. <sup>20:26</sup>It happened at the return of the year, that Ben Hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel. <sup>20:27</sup>The children of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them. The children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of young goats; but the Syrians filled the country. <sup>20:28</sup>A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because the Syrians have said, "The LORD is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys;" therefore I will deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am the LORD.'"

<sup>20:29</sup>They encamped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed one hundred thousand footmen of the Syrians in one day. <sup>20:30</sup>But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben Hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner room. <sup>20:31</sup>His servants said to him, "See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings. Please let us put sackcloth on our bodies, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel. Maybe he will save your life."

<sup>20:32</sup>So they put sackcloth on their bodies and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, "Your servant Ben Hadad says, 'Please let me live.'"

He said, "Is he still alive? He is my brother."

<sup>20:33</sup>Now the men observed diligently, and hurried to take this phrase; and they said, "Your brother Ben Hadad."

Then he said, "Go, bring him."

Then Ben Hadad came out to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot. <sup>20:34</sup>Ben Hadad said to him, "The cities which my father took from your father I will restore. You shall make streets for yourself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria."

"I," said Ahab, "will let you go with this covenant." So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.

<sup>20:35</sup>A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of the LORD, "Please strike me!"

The man refused to strike him. <sup>20:36</sup>Then he said to him, "Because you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you." As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him.

<sup>20:37</sup>Then he found another man, and said, "Please strike me."

The man struck him, smiting and wounding him. <sup>20:38</sup>So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes. <sup>20:39</sup>As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, "Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, 'Guard this man! If by any means he be missing, then your life shall be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.'" <sup>20:40</sup>As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone."

The king of Israel said to him, "So your judgment shall be; you yourself have decided it."

<sup>20:41</sup>He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel recognized that he was of the prophets. <sup>20:42</sup>He said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.'"

<sup>20:43</sup>The king of Israel went to his house sullen and angry, and came to Samaria.

<sup>21:1</sup>It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria. <sup>21:2</sup>Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, "Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it. Or, if it seems good to you, I will give you its worth in money."

<sup>21:3</sup>Naboth said to Ahab, "May the LORD forbid me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you!"

<sup>21:4</sup>Ahab came into his house sullen and angry because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He laid himself down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread. <sup>21:5</sup>But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, "Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?"

<sup>21:6</sup>He said to her, "Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, 'Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it pleases you, I will give you another vineyard for it.' He answered, 'I will not give you my vineyard.'"

<sup>21:7</sup>Jezebel his wife said to him, "Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? Arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry. I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

<sup>21:8</sup>So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, who lived with Naboth. <sup>21:9</sup>She wrote in the letters, saying, "Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>21:10</sup>Set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, 'You cursed God and the king!' Then carry him out, and stone him to death."

and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them. <sup>21:12</sup>They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people. <sup>21:13</sup>The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him. The base fellows testified against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, "Naboth cursed God and the king!" Then they carried him out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones. <sup>21:14</sup>Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, "Naboth has been stoned, and is dead."

<sup>21:15</sup>It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, "Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead."

<sup>21:16</sup>It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it. <sup>21:17</sup>The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>21:18</sup>"Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria. Behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he has gone down to take possession of it. <sup>21:19</sup>You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, 'Have you killed and also taken possession?'" You shall speak to him, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth, dogs will lick your blood, even yours.'"

<sup>21:20</sup>Ahab said to Elijah, "Have you found me, my enemy?"

He answered, "I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>21:21</sup>Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,<sup>k</sup> and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>21:22</sup>I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin." <sup>21:23</sup>The LORD also spoke of Jezebel, saying, "The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel. <sup>21:24</sup>The dogs will eat he who dies of Ahab in the city; and the birds of the sky will eat he who dies in the field."

<sup>21:25</sup>But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up. <sup>21:26</sup>He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>21:27</sup>It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.

<sup>21:28</sup>The word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, <sup>21:29</sup>"See how Ahab humbles himself before me? Because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son's days will I bring the evil on his house."

<sup>22:1</sup>They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel. <sup>22:2</sup>It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel. <sup>22:3</sup>The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth Gilead is ours, and we are still, and don't take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?" <sup>22:4</sup>He said to Jehoshaphat, "Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth Gilead?"

Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." <sup>22:5</sup>Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of the LORD."

<sup>22:6</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall I go against Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

They said, "Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>22:7</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>22:8</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD, Micaiah the son of Imlah; but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil."

Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."

<sup>22:9</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Quickly get Micaiah the son of Imlah."

<sup>22:10</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat

the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>22:11</sup>Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed.'" <sup>22:12</sup>All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>22:13</sup>The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "See now, the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak good."

<sup>22:14</sup>Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what the LORD says to me, that I will speak."

<sup>22:15</sup>When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear?"

He answered him, "Go up and prosper; and the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king." <sup>22:16</sup>The king said to him, "How many times do I have to adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

<sup>22:17</sup>He said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, 'These have no master. Let them each return to his house in peace.'"

<sup>22:18</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>22:24</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>22:25</sup>Micaiah said, "Behold, you will see on that day, when you go into an inner room to hide yourself."

<sup>22:26</sup>The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son. <sup>22:27</sup>Say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.'"

<sup>22:28</sup>Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, all you people!"

<sup>22:29</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead.

<sup>22:30</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

<sup>22:31</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel. <sup>22:32</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "Surely that is the king of Israel!" and they turned aside to fight against him. Jehoshaphat cried out. <sup>22:33</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>22:34</sup>A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of his chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the battle; for I am severely wounded." <sup>22:35</sup>The battle increased that day. The king was propped up in his chariot facing the Syrians, and died at evening. The blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot. <sup>22:36</sup>A cry went throughout the army about the going down of the sun, saying, "Every man to his city, and every man to his country!"

<sup>22:37</sup>So the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the king in Samaria. <sup>22:38</sup>They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood where the prostitutes washed themselves; according to the word of the LORD which he spoke.

all that he did, and the ivory house which he built, and all the cities that he built, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>22:40</sup>So Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>22:41</sup>Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of Israel. <sup>22:42</sup>Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>22:43</sup>He walked in all the way of Asa his father; He didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: however the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>22:44</sup>Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel. <sup>22:45</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he showed, and how he warred, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>22:46</sup>The remnant of the sodomites, that remained in the days of his father Asa, he put away out of the land. <sup>22:47</sup>There was no king in Edom: a deputy was king. <sup>22:48</sup>Jehoshaphat made ships of Tarshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they didn't go; for the ships were broken at Ezion Geber. <sup>22:49</sup>Then Ahaziah the son of Ahab said to Jehoshaphat, "Let my servants go with your servants in the ships." But Jehoshaphat would not. <sup>22:50</sup>Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; Jehoram his son reigned in his place. <sup>22:51</sup>Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and he reigned two years over Israel. <sup>22:52</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin. <sup>22:53</sup>He served Baal, and worshiped him, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done.

The Second Book of Kings

<sup>1:1</sup>Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. <sup>1:2</sup>Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper room that was in Samaria, and was sick. So he sent messengers, and said to them, "Go, inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I will recover of this sickness."

<sup>1:3</sup>But the angel of the LORD<sup>a</sup> said to Elijah the Tishbite, "Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, 'Is it because there is no God<sup>b</sup> in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron?' <sup>1:4</sup>Now therefore thus says the LORD, "You shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die."'" Elijah departed.

<sup>1:5</sup>The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, "Why is it that you have returned?"

<sup>1:6</sup>They said to him, "A man came up to meet us, and said to us, 'Go, return to the king who sent you, and tell him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.''"

<sup>1:7</sup>He said to them, "What kind of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?"

<sup>1:8</sup>They answered him, "He was a hairy man, and wearing a leather belt around his waist."

He said, "It is Elijah the Tishbite."

<sup>1:9</sup>Then the king sent a captain of fifty with his fifty to him. He went up to him; and behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He said to him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down!'"

<sup>1:10</sup>Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty!" Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>1:11</sup>Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, "Man of God, the king has said, 'Come down quickly!'"

<sup>1:12</sup>Elijah answered them, "If I am a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty!" The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.

<sup>1:13</sup>Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, "Man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight. <sup>1:14</sup>Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties. But now let my life be precious in your sight."

He arose, and went down with him to the king. <sup>1:16</sup>He said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal Zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? Therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you have gone up, but shall surely die.'"

<sup>1:17</sup>So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son. <sup>1:18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

<sup>2:1</sup>It happened, when the LORD would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal. <sup>2:2</sup>Elijah said to Elisha, "Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me as far as Bethel."

Elisha said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they went down to Bethel.

<sup>2:3</sup>The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came out to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today?"

He said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."

<sup>2:4</sup>Elijah said to him, "Elisha, please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to Jericho."

He said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." So they came to Jericho.

<sup>a</sup>1:3 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>2:5</sup>The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that the LORD will take away your master from your head today?"

He answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace."

<sup>2:6</sup>Elijah said to him, "Please wait here, for the LORD has sent me to the Jordan."

He said, "As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." They both went on. <sup>2:7</sup>Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood opposite them at a distance; and they both stood by the Jordan. <sup>2:8</sup>Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground. <sup>2:9</sup>It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, "Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you."

Elisha said, "Please let a double portion of your spirit be on me."

<sup>2:10</sup>He said, "You have asked a hard thing. If you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so for you; but if not, it shall not be so."

<sup>2:11</sup>It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire separated them; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven. <sup>2:12</sup>Elisha saw it, and he cried, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

He saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces. <sup>2:13</sup>He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan. <sup>2:14</sup>He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, "Where is the LORD, the God of Elijah?" When he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over. <sup>2:15</sup>When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, "The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha." They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him. <sup>2:16</sup>They said to him, "See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men. Please let them go and seek your master. Perhaps the Spirit of the LORD has taken him up, and put him on some mountain, or into some valley.

He said, "You shall not send them."

<sup>2:17</sup>When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, "Send them."

They sent therefore fifty men; and they searched for three days, but didn't find him.

<sup>2:18</sup>They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go?'"

<sup>2:19</sup>The men of the city said to Elisha, "Behold, please, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and the land miscarries."

<sup>2:20</sup>He said, "Bring me a new jar, and put salt in it." They brought it to him. <sup>2:21</sup>He went out to the spring of the waters, and threw salt into it, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'I have healed these waters. There shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying.'" <sup>2:22</sup>So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

<sup>2:23</sup>He went up from there to Bethel. As he was going up by the way, some youths came out of the city and mocked him, and said to him, "Go up, you baldy! Go up, you baldhead!" <sup>2:24</sup>He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. Two female bears came out of the woods, and mauled forty-two of those youths. <sup>2:25</sup>He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years. <sup>3:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made. <sup>3:3</sup>Nevertheless he held to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart from it. <sup>3:4</sup>Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep breeder; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams. <sup>3:5</sup>But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel. <sup>3:6</sup>King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel. <sup>3:7</sup>He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, "The king of Moab has rebelled against me. Will you go with me against Moab to battle?"

He said, "I will go up. I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses." <sup>3:8</sup>He said, "Which way shall we go up?"

He answered, "The way of the wilderness of Edom." <sup>3:9</sup>So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. There was no water for the army, nor for the animals that followed them. <sup>3:10</sup>The king of Israel said, "Alas! For the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab."

<sup>3:11</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him?"

One of the king of Israel's servants answered, "Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah."

<sup>3:12</sup>Jehoshaphat said, "The word of the LORD is with him." So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.

<sup>3:13</sup>Elisha said to the king of Israel, "What have I to do with you? Go to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother."

The king of Israel said to him, "No; for the LORD has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab." <sup>3:14</sup>Elisha said, "As the LORD of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I respect the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you. <sup>3:15</sup>But now bring me a minstrel." It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came on him. <sup>3:16</sup>He said, "Thus says the LORD, 'Make this valley full of trenches.' <sup>3:17</sup>For thus says the LORD, 'You will not see wind, neither will you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you will drink, both you and your livestock and your animals. <sup>3:18</sup>This is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD. He will also deliver the Moabites into your hand. <sup>3:19</sup>You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.'"

<sup>3:20</sup>It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that behold, water came by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

<sup>3:21</sup>Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border. <sup>3:22</sup>They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood. <sup>3:23</sup>They said, "This is blood. The kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each other. Now therefore, Moab, to the spoil!"

<sup>3:24</sup>When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites.

<sup>3:25</sup>They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir Hareseth only they left its stones; however the men armed with slings went about it, and struck it. <sup>3:26</sup>When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not. <sup>3:27</sup>Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

<sup>4:1</sup>Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, "Your servant my husband is dead. You know that your servant feared the LORD. Now the creditor has come to take for himself my two children to be slaves."

<sup>4:2</sup>Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me: what do you have in the house?"

She said, "Your handmaid has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil."

<sup>4:3</sup>Then he said, "Go, borrow containers from of all your neighbors, even empty containers. Don't borrow just a few. <sup>4:4</sup>You shall go in, and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour out into all those containers; and you shall set aside that which is full."

<sup>4:5</sup>So she went from him, and shut the door on her and on her sons; they brought the containers to her, and she poured out. <sup>4:6</sup>It happened, when the containers were full, that she said to her son, "Bring me another container."

He said to her, "There isn't another container." The oil stopped flowing.

<sup>4:7</sup>Then she came and told the man of God. He said, "Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt; and you and your sons live on the rest.”

<sup>4:8</sup>It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where there was a prominent woman; and she persuaded him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread. <sup>4:9</sup>She said to her husband, “See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, that passes by us continually. <sup>4:10</sup>Please let us make a little room on the wall. Let us set for him there a bed, a table, a chair, and a lamp stand. It shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in there.”

<sup>4:11</sup>One day he came there, and he turned into the room and lay there. <sup>4:12</sup>He said to Gehazi his servant, “Call this Shunammite.” When he had called her, she stood before him. <sup>4:13</sup>He said to him, “Say now to her, ‘Behold, you have cared for us with all this care. What is to be done for you? Would you like to be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the army?’”

She answered, “I dwell among my own people.”

<sup>4:14</sup>He said, “What then is to be done for her?”

Gehazi answered, “Most certainly she has no son, and her husband is old.”

<sup>4:15</sup>He said, “Call her.” When he had called her, she stood in the door. <sup>4:16</sup>He said, “At this season, when the time comes around, you will embrace a son.”

She said, “No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your handmaid.”

<sup>4:17</sup>The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came around, as Elisha had said to her. <sup>4:18</sup>When the child was grown, it happened one day that he went out to his father to the reapers. <sup>4:19</sup>He said to his father, “My head! My head!”

He said to his servant, “Carry him to his mother.”

<sup>4:20</sup>When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died. <sup>4:21</sup>She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door on him, and went out. <sup>4:22</sup>She called to her husband, and said, “Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.”

<sup>4:23</sup>He said, “Why would you want go to him today? It is neither new moon nor Sabbath.”

She said, “It’s alright.”

<sup>4:24</sup>Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, “Drive, and go forward! Don’t slow down for me, unless I ask you to.”

<sup>4:25</sup>So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, “Behold, there is the Shunammite. <sup>4:26</sup>Please run now to meet her, and ask her, ‘Is it well with you? Is it well with your husband? Is it well with the child?’”

She answered, “It is well.”

<sup>4:27</sup>When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, “Leave her alone; for her soul is troubled within her; and the LORD has hidden it from me, and has not told me.”

<sup>4:28</sup>Then she said, “Did I desire a son of my lord? Didn’t I say, Do not deceive me?”

<sup>4:29</sup>Then he said to Gehazi, “Tuck your cloak into your belt, take my staff in your hand, and go your way. If you meet any man, don’t greet him; and if anyone greets you, don’t answer him again. Then lay my staff on the face of the child.”

<sup>4:30</sup>The mother of the child said, “As the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you.”

He arose, and followed her.

<sup>4:31</sup>Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Therefore he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, “The child has not awakened.”

<sup>4:32</sup>When Elisha had come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid on his bed. <sup>4:33</sup>He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to the LORD. <sup>4:34</sup>He went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands. He stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child grew warm. <sup>4:35</sup>Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched himself on him. Then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes. <sup>4:36</sup>He called Gehazi, and said, “Call this Shunammite!” So he called her.

When she had come in to him, he said, “Take up your son.”

<sup>4:37</sup>Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.

<sup>4:38</sup>Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, "Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets."

<sup>4:39</sup>One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognize them. <sup>4:40</sup>So they poured out for the men to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, "Man of God, there is death in the pot!" They could not eat of it.

<sup>4:41</sup>But he said, "Then bring meal." He cast it into the pot; and he said, "Pour out for the people, that they may eat." There was no harm in the pot.

<sup>4:42</sup>A man from Baal Shalishah came, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. He said, "Give to the people, that they may eat."

<sup>4:43</sup>His servant said, "What, should I set this before a hundred men?"

But he said, "Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says the LORD, 'They will eat, and will have some left over.'"

<sup>4:44</sup>So he set it before them, and they ate, and left some of it, according to the word of the LORD.

<sup>5:1</sup>Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him the LORD had given victory to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, but he was a leper. <sup>5:2</sup>The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of Eretz-Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife. <sup>5:3</sup>She said to her mistress, "I wish that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! Then he would heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>5:4</sup>Someone went in, and told his lord, saying, "The maiden who is from Eretz-Israel said this."

<sup>5:5</sup>The king of Syria said, "Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel."

He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of clothing. <sup>5:6</sup>He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, "Now when this letter has come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may heal him of his leprosy."

<sup>5:7</sup>It happened, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes, and said, "Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to heal a man of his leprosy? But please consider and see how he seeks a quarrel against me."

<sup>5:8</sup>It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel."

<sup>5:9</sup>So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha. <sup>5:10</sup>Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean."

<sup>5:11</sup>But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, "Behold, I thought, 'He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and wave his hand over the place, and heal the leper.' <sup>5:12</sup>Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Couldn't I wash in them, and be clean?" So he turned and went away in a rage.

<sup>5:13</sup>His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, "My father, if the prophet had asked you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? How much rather then, when he says to you, 'Wash, and be clean?'"

<sup>5:14</sup>Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh was restored like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean. <sup>5:15</sup>He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, "See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel. Now therefore, please take a gift from your servant."

<sup>5:16</sup>But he said, "As the LORD lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none."

He urged him to take it; but he refused. <sup>5:17</sup>Naaman said, "If not, then, please let two mules' burden of earth be given to your servant; for your servant will from now on offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD. <sup>5:18</sup>In this thing may the LORD pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon. When I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, may the LORD pardon your servant in this thing."

<sup>5:19</sup>He said to him, "Go in peace."

So he departed from him a little way. <sup>5:20</sup>But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, "Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought. As the LORD lives, I will run after him, and take something from him."

<sup>5:21</sup>So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he came down from the chariot to meet him, and said, "Is all well?"

<sup>5:22</sup>He said, "All is well. My master has sent me, saying, 'Behold, even now two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill country of Ephraim. Please give them a talent of silver and two changes of clothing.'"

<sup>5:23</sup>Naaman said, "Be pleased to take two talents." He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they carried them before him. <sup>5:24</sup>When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stored them in the house. Then he let the men go, and they departed. <sup>5:25</sup>But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, "Where did you come from, Gehazi?"

He said, "Your servant went nowhere."

<sup>5:26</sup>He said to him, "Didn't my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and cattle, and male servants and female servants? <sup>5:27</sup>Therefore the leprosy of Naaman will cling to you and to your seed forever."

He went out from his presence a leper, as white as snow.

<sup>6:1</sup>The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, "See now, the place where we dwell before you is too small for us. <sup>6:2</sup>Please let us go to the Jordan, and every man take a beam from there, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell."

He answered, "Go!"

<sup>6:3</sup>One said, "Please be pleased to go with your servants."

He answered, "I will go." <sup>6:4</sup>So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood. <sup>6:5</sup>But as one was felling a beam, the axe head fell into the water. Then he cried, and said, "Alas, my master! For it was borrowed."

<sup>6:6</sup>The man of God asked, "Where did it fall?" He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, threw it in there, and made the iron float. <sup>6:7</sup>He said, "Take it." So he put out his hand and took it.

<sup>6:8</sup>Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, "My camp will be in such and such a place."

<sup>6:9</sup>The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, "Beware that you not pass such a place; for the Syrians are coming down there."

<sup>6:10</sup>The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice.

<sup>6:11</sup>The heart of the king of Syria was very troubled about this. He called his servants, and said to them, "Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?"

<sup>6:12</sup>One of his servants said, "No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom."

<sup>6:13</sup>He said, "Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him."

It was told him, saying, "Behold, he is in Dothan."

<sup>6:14</sup>Therefore he sent horses, chariots, and a great army there. They came by night, and surrounded the city. <sup>6:15</sup>When the servant of the man of God had risen early, and gone out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was around the city. His servant said to him, "Alas, my master! What shall we do?"

<sup>6:16</sup>He answered, "Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them." <sup>6:17</sup>Elisha prayed, and said, "LORD, please open his eyes, that he may see." the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha. <sup>6:18</sup>When they came down to him,

Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, "Please strike this people with blindness."

He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha. <sup>6:19</sup>Elisha said to them, "This is not the way, neither is this the city. Follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek." He led them to Samaria. <sup>6:20</sup>It happened, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, "LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see."

The LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria. <sup>6:21</sup>The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, "My father, shall I strike them? Shall I strike them?"

<sup>6:22</sup>He answered, "You shall not strike them. Would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master."

<sup>6:23</sup>He prepared great feast for them. When they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria stopped raiding Eretz-Israel.

<sup>6:24</sup>It happened after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria. <sup>6:25</sup>There was a great famine in Samaria. Behold, they besieged it, until a donkey's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver. <sup>6:26</sup>As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried to him, saying, "Help, my lord, O king!"

She answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' <sup>6:29</sup>So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, 'Give your son, that we may eat him;' and she has hidden her son."

<sup>6:30</sup>It happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall); and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth underneath on his flesh. <sup>6:31</sup>Then he said, "God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stay on him this day."

<sup>6:32</sup>But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him. Then the king sent a man from before him; but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, "Do you see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? Behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door shut against him. Isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?"

<sup>6:33</sup>While he was still talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. Then he said, "Behold, this evil is from the LORD. Why should I wait for the LORD any longer?"

<sup>7:1</sup>Elisha said, "Hear the word of the LORD. Thus says the LORD, 'Tomorrow about this time a measure of fine flour will be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.'"

<sup>7:2</sup>Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, "Behold, if the LORD made windows in heaven, could this thing be?"

He said, "Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it."

<sup>7:3</sup>Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate. They said one to another, "Why do we sit here until we die? <sup>7:4</sup>If we say, 'We will enter into the city,' then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there. If we sit still here, we also die. Now therefore come, and let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they save us alive, we will live; and if they kill us, we will only die."

<sup>7:5</sup>They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians. When they had come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no man there. <sup>7:6</sup>For the Lord<sup>c</sup> had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army: and they said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us.

<sup>7:7</sup>Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life. <sup>7:8</sup>When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it. Then they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it. <sup>7:9</sup>Then they said one to another, "We aren't doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we keep silent. If we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us. Now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household."

<sup>7:10</sup>So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, "We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were."

<sup>7:11</sup>He called the porters; and they told it to the king's household within. <sup>7:12</sup>The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, "I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry. Therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, 'When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.'"

<sup>7:13</sup>One of his servants answered, "Please let some take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are left in it. Behold, they are like all the multitude of Israel who are consumed. Let us send and see."

<sup>7:14</sup>They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the army of the Syrians, saying, "Go and see."

<sup>7:15</sup>They went after them to the Jordan; and behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king. <sup>7:16</sup>The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>7:17</sup>The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to be in charge of the gate: and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him. <sup>7:18</sup>It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, "Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria;" <sup>7:19</sup>and that captain answered the man of God, and said, "Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be?" and he said,

"Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it." <sup>7:20</sup>It happened like that to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.

<sup>8:1</sup>Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, "Arise, and go, you and your household, and stay for a while wherever you can; for the LORD has called for a famine. It shall also come on the land seven years."

<sup>8:2</sup>The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God. She went with her household, and lived in the land of the Philistines seven years. <sup>8:3</sup>It happened at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines. Then she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land. <sup>8:4</sup>Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, "Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done." <sup>8:5</sup>It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, "My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life."

<sup>8:6</sup>When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, "Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now."

<sup>8:7</sup>Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick. It was told him, saying, "The man of God has come here."

<sup>8:8</sup>The king said to Hazael, "Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>8:9</sup>So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden, and came and stood before him, and said, "Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, 'Will I recover from this sickness?'"

<sup>8:10</sup>Elisha said to him, "Go, tell him, 'You shall surely recover;' however the LORD has shown me that he shall surely die." <sup>8:11</sup>He settled his gaze steadfastly on him, until he was ashamed. Then the man of God wept.

<sup>8:12</sup>Hazael said, "Why do you weep, my lord?"

He answered, "Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel. You will set their strongholds on fire, and you will kill their young men with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child."

<sup>8:13</sup>Hazael said, "But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing?"

Elisha answered, "The LORD has shown me that you will be king over Syria."

<sup>8:14</sup>Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, "What did Elisha say to you?"

He answered, "He told me that you would surely recover."

<sup>8:15</sup>It happened on the next day, that he took a thick cloth, dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died. Then Hazael reigned in his place.

<sup>8:16</sup>In the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being king of Judah then, Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah began to reign. <sup>8:17</sup>He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign. He reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>8:18</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife. He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>8:19</sup>However the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always.

<sup>8:20</sup>In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>8:21</sup>Then Joram passed over to Zair, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled to their tents. <sup>8:22</sup>So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time. <sup>8:23</sup>The rest of the acts of Joram, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>8:24</sup>Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his place. <sup>8:25</sup>In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah began to reign. <sup>8:26</sup>Twenty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri king of Israel. <sup>8:27</sup>He walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-law of the house of Ahab. <sup>8:28</sup>He went with Joram the son of Ahab to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>8:29</sup>King Joram returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Joram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

<sup>9:1</sup>Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, "Put your belt on your waist, take this vial of oil in your hand, and go to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>9:2</sup>When you come there, find Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him arise up from among his brothers, and carry him to an inner room. <sup>9:3</sup>Then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head, and say, 'Thus says the LORD, "I have anointed you king over Israel."' Then open the door, flee, and don't wait."

<sup>9:4</sup>So the young man, even the young man the prophet, went to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>9:5</sup>When he came, behold, the captains of the army were sitting. Then he said, "I have a message for you, captain."

Jehu said, "To which of us all?"

He said, "To you, O captain." <sup>9:6</sup>He arose, and went into the house. Then he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'I have anointed you king over the people of the LORD, even over Israel. <sup>9:7</sup>You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel. <sup>9:8</sup>For the whole house of Ahab shall perish. I will cut off from Ahab everyone who urinates against a wall,<sup>d</sup> both him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel. <sup>9:9</sup>I will make the house of Ahab like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah. <sup>9:10</sup>The dogs will eat Jezebel on the plot of ground of Jezreel, and there shall be none to bury her.'" He opened the door, and

<sup>9:11</sup>Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said to him, "Is all well? Why did this mad fellow come to you?"

He said to them, "You know the man and what his talk was." <sup>9:12</sup>They said, "That is a lie. Tell us now."

He said, "He said to me, 'Thus says the LORD, I have anointed you king over Israel.'"

<sup>9:14</sup>So Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat the son of Nimshi conspired against Joram. (Now Joram was keeping Ramoth Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria; <sup>9:15</sup>but king Joram was returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which the Syrians had given him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) Jehu said, "If this is your thinking, then let no one escape and go out of the city, to go to tell it in Jezreel." <sup>9:16</sup>So Jehu rode in a chariot, and went to Jezreel; for Joram lay there. Ahaziah king of Judah had come down to see Joram. <sup>9:17</sup>Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, "I see a company."

Joram said, "Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, 'Is it peace?'"

<sup>9:18</sup>So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu said, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!"

The watchman said, "The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back."

<sup>9:19</sup>Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, "Thus says the king, 'Is it peace?'"

Jehu answered, "What do you have to do with peace? Fall in behind me!"

<sup>9:20</sup>The watchman said, "He came to them, and isn't coming back. The driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously."

They got his chariot ready. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite. <sup>9:22</sup>It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, "Is it peace, Jehu?"

He answered, "What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?"

<sup>9:23</sup>Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, "There is treason, Ahaziah!"

<sup>9:24</sup>Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot. <sup>9:25</sup>Then Jehu said to Bidkar his captain, "Pick him up, and throw him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how, when you and I rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden on him: <sup>9:26</sup>'Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons,' says the LORD; 'and I will repay you in this plot of ground,' says the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him onto the plot of ground, according to the word of the LORD."

<sup>9:27</sup>But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. Jehu followed after him, and said, "Strike him also in the chariot!" They struck him at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there. <sup>9:28</sup>His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>9:29</sup>In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah. <sup>9:30</sup>When Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window. <sup>9:31</sup>As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, "Do you come in peace, Zimri, you murderer of your master?"

<sup>9:32</sup>He lifted up his face to the window, and said, "Who is on my side? Who?"

Two or three eunuchs looked out at him.

<sup>9:33</sup>He said, "Throw her down!"

So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses. Then he trampled her under foot. <sup>9:34</sup>When he had come in, he ate and drink; and he said, "See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter."

<sup>9:35</sup>They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands. <sup>9:36</sup>Therefore they came back, and told him.

He said, "This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 'The dogs will eat the flesh of Jezebel on the plot of Jezreel, <sup>9:37</sup> and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, 'This is Jezebel.'""

<sup>10:1</sup>Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up the sons of Ahab, saying, <sup>10:2</sup>"Now as soon as this letter comes to you, since your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor. <sup>10:3</sup>Select the best and fittest of your master's sons, set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house."

<sup>10:4</sup>But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, "Behold, the two kings didn't stand before him! How then shall we stand?" <sup>10:5</sup>He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who raised the children, sent to Jehu, saying, "We are your servants, and will do all that you ask us. We will not make any man king. You do that which is good in your eyes."

<sup>10:6</sup>Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, "If you are on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time."

Now the king's sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up. <sup>10:7</sup>It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel. <sup>10:8</sup>A messenger came, and told him, "They have brought the heads of the king's sons."

He said, "Lay them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning." <sup>10:9</sup>It happened in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, "You are righteous. Behold, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these? <sup>10:10</sup>Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab. For the LORD has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah."

<sup>10:12</sup>He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at the shearing house of the shepherds on the way, <sup>10:13</sup>Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, "Who are you?"

They answered, "We are the brothers of Ahaziah. We are going down to greet the children of the king and the children of the queen."

<sup>10:14</sup>He said, "Take them alive!"

They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing house, even forty-two men. He didn't leave any of them. <sup>10:15</sup>When he had departed from there, he met Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him. He greeted him, and said to him, "Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart?"

Jehonadab answered, "It is."

"If it is, give me your hand." He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot. <sup>10:16</sup>He said, "Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD." So they made him ride in his chariot. <sup>10:17</sup>When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke to Elijah. <sup>10:18</sup>Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, "Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much. <sup>10:19</sup>Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all of his worshippers, and all of his priests. Let none be absent; for I have a great sacrifice to Baal. Whoever is absent, he shall not live." But Jehu did it in subtlety, intending that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

They proclaimed it. <sup>10:21</sup>Jehu sent through all Israel; and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that didn't come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another. <sup>10:22</sup>He said to him who was over the vestry, "Bring out robes for all the worshippers of Baal!"

He brought robes out to them. <sup>10:23</sup>Jehu went with Jehonadab the son of Rechab into the house of Baal. Then he said to the worshippers of Baal, "Search, and look that there are here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshippers of Baal only."

<sup>10:24</sup>They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside, and said, "If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, he who lets him go, his life shall be for the life of him."

<sup>10:25</sup>It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, "Go in, and kill them! Let none escape." They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal. <sup>10:26</sup>They brought out the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them. <sup>10:27</sup>They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a latrine, to this day. <sup>10:28</sup>Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

<sup>10:29</sup>However from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, Jehu didn't depart from after them, the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan. <sup>10:30</sup>The LORD said to Jehu, "Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel."

<sup>10:31</sup>But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD, the God of Israel, with all his heart. He didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>10:32</sup>In those days the LORD began to cut off from Israel; and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel; <sup>10:33</sup>from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan. <sup>10:34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>10:35</sup>Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place. <sup>10:36</sup>The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

<sup>11:1</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal. <sup>11:2</sup>But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, and put them in the bedroom; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain; <sup>11:3</sup>He was with her hidden in the house of the LORD six years. Athaliah reigned over the land. <sup>11:4</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son. <sup>11:5</sup>He commanded them, saying, "This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house; <sup>11:6</sup>A third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard. So you shall keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier. <sup>11:7</sup>The two companies of you, even all who go out on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD around the king. <sup>11:8</sup>You shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain. Be with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in."

<sup>11:9</sup>The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. <sup>11:10</sup>The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David's, which were in the house of the LORD. <sup>11:11</sup>The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>11:12</sup>Then he brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>11:13</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: <sup>11:14</sup>and she looked, and behold, the king stood by the pillar, as the tradition was, and the captains and the shofars<sup>f</sup> by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew shofars<sup>g</sup>. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, "Treason! Treason!"

<sup>11:15</sup>Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks. Kill him who follows her with the sword." For the priest said, "Don't let her be slain in the house of the LORD." <sup>11:16</sup>So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses' entry to the king's house. She was slain there. <sup>11:17</sup>Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD's people; between the king also and the people. <sup>11:18</sup>All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of the LORD. <sup>11:19</sup>He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings. <sup>11:20</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house. <sup>11:21</sup>Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.

<sup>12:1</sup>In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba. <sup>12:2</sup>Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him. <sup>12:3</sup>However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>12:4</sup>Jehoash said to the priests, "All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of the LORD, in current money, the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD, <sup>12:5</sup>let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found."

<sup>h</sup>12:13 or, trumpets

<sup>12:6</sup>But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house. <sup>12:7</sup>Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the other priests, and said to them, "Why don't you repair the breaches of the house? Now therefore take no more money from your treasurers, but deliver it for the breaches of the house."

<sup>12:8</sup>The priests consented that they should take no more money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house. <sup>12:9</sup>But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in its lid, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of the LORD: and the priests who kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD. <sup>12:10</sup>It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>12:11</sup>They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of the LORD, <sup>12:12</sup>and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it. <sup>12:13</sup>But there were not made for the house of the LORD cups of silver, snuffers, basins, shofars<sup>h</sup>, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD; <sup>12:14</sup>for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of the LORD. <sup>12:15</sup>Moreover they didn't demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully. <sup>12:16</sup>The money for the trespass offerings, and the money for the sin offerings, was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'. <sup>12:17</sup>Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>12:18</sup>Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and of the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem. <sup>12:19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>12:20</sup>His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, on the way that goes down to Silla. <sup>12:21</sup>For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>13:1</sup>In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria for seventeen years. <sup>13:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart from it. <sup>13:3</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually. <sup>13:4</sup>Jehoahaz begged the LORD, and the LORD listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them. <sup>13:5</sup>(the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before. <sup>13:6</sup>Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but walked therein: and there remained the Asherah also in Samaria.) <sup>13:7</sup>For he didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people any more than fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing. <sup>13:8</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>13:9</sup>Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his place. <sup>13:10</sup>In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah, Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz began to reign over Israel in Samaria for sixteen years. <sup>13:11</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD;

he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked therein. <sup>13:12</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>13:13</sup>Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel. <sup>13:14</sup>Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness of which he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, "My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and its horsemen!"

<sup>13:15</sup>Elisha said to him, "Take bow and arrows;" and he took to him bow and arrows. <sup>13:16</sup>He said to the king of Israel, "Put your hand on the bow;" and he put his hand on it. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands. <sup>13:17</sup>He said, "Open the window eastward;" and he opened it. Then Elisha said, "Shoot!" and he shot. He said, "The LORD's arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them."

<sup>13:18</sup>He said, "Take the arrows;" and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, "Strike the ground;" and he struck three times, and stopped. <sup>13:19</sup>The man of God was angry with him, and said, "You should have struck five or six times. Then you would have struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria just three times."

<sup>13:20</sup>Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year. <sup>13:21</sup>It happened, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha: and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet. <sup>13:22</sup>Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Jehoahaz. <sup>13:23</sup>But the LORD was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from his presence as yet. <sup>13:24</sup>Hazael king of Syria died; and Benhadad his son reigned in his place. <sup>13:25</sup>Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father by war. Joash struck him three times, and recovered the cities of Israel.

<sup>14:1</sup>In the second year of Joash son of Joahaz king of Israel began Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah to reign. <sup>14:2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddin of Jerusalem. <sup>14:3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done. <sup>14:4</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>14:5</sup>It happened, as soon as the kingdom was established in his hand, that he killed his servants who had slain the king his father: <sup>14:6</sup>but the children of the murderers he didn't put to death; according to that which is written in the scroll of the Torah of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, nor the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." <sup>14:7</sup>He killed of Edom in the Valley of Salt ten thousand, and took Sela by war, and called its name Joktheel, to this day. <sup>14:8</sup>Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash, the son of Jehoahaz son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, "Come, let us look one another in the face."

<sup>14:9</sup>Jehoash the king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as wife. Then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>14:10</sup>You have indeed struck Edom, and your heart has lifted you up. Enjoy the glory of it, and stay at home; for why should you meddle to your harm, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?'" <sup>14:11</sup>But Amaziah would not listen. So Jehoash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>14:12</sup>Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. <sup>14:13</sup>Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash the son of Ahaziah, at Beth Shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>14:14</sup>He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. <sup>14:15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoash which he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>14:16</sup>Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his place. <sup>14:17</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>14:18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>14:19</sup>They made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish: but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>14:20</sup>They brought him on horses; and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers in the city of David. <sup>14:21</sup>All the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the place of his father Amaziah. <sup>14:22</sup>He built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers. <sup>14:23</sup>In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel began to reign in Samaria for forty-one years. <sup>14:24</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>14:25</sup>He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath to the sea of the Arabah, according to the word of the LORD, the God of Israel, which he spoke by his servant Jonah the son of Amittai, the prophet, who was of Gath Hopher. <sup>14:26</sup>For the LORD saw the affliction of Israel, that it was very bitter; for there was none shut up nor left at large, neither was there any helper for Israel. <sup>14:27</sup>The LORD didn't say that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the sky; but he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash. <sup>14:28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered Damascus, and Hamath, which had belonged to Judah, for Israel, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>14:29</sup>Jeroboam slept with his fathers, even with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his place.

king of Israel began Azariah son of Amaziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>15:2</sup>Sixteen years old was he when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jecoliah of Jerusalem. <sup>15:3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Amaziah had done. <sup>15:4</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places. <sup>15:5</sup>The LORD struck the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house. Jotham the king's son was over the household, judging the people of the land. <sup>15:6</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>15:7</sup>Azariah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Jotham his son reigned in his place. <sup>15:8</sup>In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria six months. <sup>15:9</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as his fathers had done: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>15:10</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and struck him before the people, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15:11</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>15:12</sup>This was the word of the LORD which he spoke to Jehu, saying, "Your sons to the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel." So it came to pass.

<sup>15:13</sup>Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned for a month in Samaria. <sup>15:14</sup>Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and struck Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15:15</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>15:16</sup>Then Menahem struck Tiphseh, and all who were therein, and its borders, from Tirzah: because they didn't open to him, therefore he struck it; and all the women therein who were with child he ripped up. <sup>15:17</sup>In the nine and thirtieth year of Azariah king of Judah,

Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel for ten years in Samaria. <sup>15:18</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he didn't depart all his days from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>15:19</sup>There came against the land Pul the king of Assyria; and Menahem gave Pul one thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to confirm the kingdom in his hand. <sup>15:20</sup>Menahem exacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria. So the king of Assyria turned back, and didn't stay there in the land. <sup>15:21</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel? <sup>15:22</sup>Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his place. <sup>15:23</sup>In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria for two years. <sup>15:24</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>15:25</sup>Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and struck him in Samaria, in the castle of the king's house, with Argob and Arieah; and with him were fifty men of the Gileadites: and he killed him, and reigned in his place. <sup>15:26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>15:27</sup>In the two and fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria for twenty years. <sup>15:28</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin. <sup>15:29</sup>In the days of Pekah king of Israel came Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel Beth Maacah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and he carried them captive to Assyria. <sup>15:30</sup>Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and struck him, and killed him, and reigned in his place, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son of Uzziah. <sup>15:31</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel. <sup>15:32</sup>In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah king of Israel began Jotham the son of Uzziah king of Judah to reign. <sup>15:33</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok. <sup>15:34</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done. <sup>15:35</sup>However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>15:36</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>15:37</sup>In those days the LORD began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah. <sup>15:38</sup>Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

<sup>16:1</sup>In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign. <sup>16:2</sup>Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of the LORD his God, like David his father. <sup>16:3</sup>But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel. <sup>16:4</sup>He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>16:5</sup>Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him. <sup>16:6</sup>At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and lived there, to this day. <sup>16:7</sup>So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, saying, "I am your servant and your son. Come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me." <sup>16:8</sup>Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria. <sup>16:9</sup>The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried its people captive to Kir, and killed Rezin. <sup>16:10</sup>King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath Pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and its pattern, according to all its workmanship. <sup>16:11</sup>Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so Urijah the priest made it for the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus. <sup>16:12</sup>When the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered on it. <sup>16:13</sup>He burnt his burnt offering and his meal offering, and poured his drink offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace offerings, on the altar. <sup>16:14</sup>The bronze altar, which was before the LORD, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of his altar. <sup>16:15</sup>King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, "On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal offering, and their drink offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice; but the bronze altar shall be for me to inquire by." <sup>16:16</sup>Urijah the priest did so, according to all that king Ahaz commanded. <sup>16:17</sup>King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the bronze oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone. <sup>16:18</sup>The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, turned he to the house of the LORD, because of the king of Assyria. <sup>16:19</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>16:20</sup>Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>17:1</sup>In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria over Israel for nine years. <sup>17:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him. <sup>17:3</sup>Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute. <sup>17:4</sup>The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison. <sup>17:5</sup>Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years. <sup>17:6</sup>In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes. <sup>17:7</sup>It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods, <sup>17:8</sup>and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made. <sup>17:9</sup>The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city; <sup>17:10</sup>and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree; <sup>17:11</sup>and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom the LORD carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger; <sup>17:12</sup>and they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, "You shall not do this thing." <sup>17:13</sup>Yet the LORD testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, "Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets." <sup>17:14</sup>Notwithstanding, they would not listen, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn't believe in the LORD their God. <sup>17:15</sup>They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and followed the nations that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had commanded them that they should not do like them. <sup>17:16</sup>They forsook all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served Baal. <sup>17:17</sup>They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>17:18</sup>Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only. <sup>17:19</sup>Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made. <sup>17:20</sup>The LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight. <sup>17:21</sup>For he tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin. <sup>17:22</sup>The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn't depart from them; <sup>17:23</sup>until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day. <sup>17:24</sup>The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it. <sup>17:25</sup>So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which killed some of them. <sup>17:26</sup>Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, "The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, don't know the law of the god of the land. Therefore he has sent lions among them, and behold, they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land."

<sup>17:27</sup>Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, "Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land."

<sup>17:28</sup>So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear the LORD. <sup>17:29</sup>However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived. <sup>17:30</sup>The men of Babylon made Succoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima, <sup>17:31</sup>and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim. <sup>17:32</sup>So they feared the LORD, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places. <sup>17:33</sup>They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the ways of the nations from among whom they had been carried away. <sup>17:34</sup>To this day they do what they did before: they don't fear the LORD, neither do they follow their statutes, or their ordinances, or the law or the commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel; <sup>17:35</sup>with whom the LORD had made a covenant, and commanded them, saying, "You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them; <sup>17:36</sup>but you shall fear the LORD, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, and you shall bow yourselves to him, and you shall sacrifice to him. <sup>17:37</sup>The statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore. You shall not fear other gods. <sup>17:38</sup>You shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you; neither shall you fear other gods. <sup>17:39</sup>But you shall fear the LORD your God; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies." <sup>17:40</sup>However they did not listen, but they did what they did before. <sup>17:41</sup>So these nations feared the LORD, and served their engraved images. Their children likewise, and their children's children, as their fathers did, so they do to this day.

<sup>18:1</sup>Now it happened in the third year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz king of Judah began to reign. <sup>18:2</sup>He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abi the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>18:3</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>18:4</sup>He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he broke in pieces the bronze serpent that Moses had made; for in those days the children of Israel burned incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan. <sup>18:5</sup>He trusted in the LORD, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor among them that were before him. <sup>18:6</sup>For he joined with the LORD; he didn't depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses. <sup>18:7</sup>The LORD was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him. <sup>18:8</sup>He struck the Philistines to Gaza and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city. <sup>18:9</sup>It happened in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea son of Elah king of Israel, that Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria, and besieged it. <sup>18:10</sup>At the end of three years they took it: in the sixth year of Hezekiah, which was the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria was taken. <sup>18:11</sup>The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes, <sup>18:12</sup>because they didn't obey the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it. <sup>18:13</sup>Now in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them. <sup>18:14</sup>Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, "I have offended; return from me. That which you put on me, I will bear." The king of Assyria appointed to Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents of gold. <sup>18:15</sup>Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house. <sup>18:16</sup>At that time, Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria. <sup>18:17</sup>The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rabsaris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they had come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field. <sup>18:18</sup>When they had called to the king, there came out to them Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder. <sup>18:19</sup>Rabshakeh said to them, "Say now to Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? <sup>18:20</sup>You say (but they are but vain words), 'There is counsel and strength for war.' Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>18:21</sup>Now, behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt. If a man leans on it, it will go into his hand, and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him. <sup>18:22</sup>But if you tell me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?' <sup>18:23</sup>Now therefore, please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them. <sup>18:24</sup>How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>18:25</sup>Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? the LORD said to me, 'Go up against this land, and destroy it.'""

<sup>18:26</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it. Don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."

<sup>18:27</sup>But Rabshakeh said to them, "Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?" <sup>18:28</sup>Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, "Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria. <sup>18:29</sup>Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand. <sup>18:30</sup>Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria." <sup>18:31</sup>Don't listen to Hezekiah.' For thus says the king of Assyria, 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and everyone of you eat of his vine, and everyone of his fig tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern; <sup>18:32</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die. Don't listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." <sup>18:33</sup>Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? <sup>18:34</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? Have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? <sup>18:35</sup>Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?'"

<sup>18:36</sup>But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him." <sup>18:37</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, came with Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

<sup>19:1</sup>It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. <sup>19:2</sup>He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. <sup>19:3</sup>They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the point of birth, and there is no strength to deliver them. <sup>19:4</sup>It may be the LORD your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'"

<sup>19:5</sup>So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. <sup>19:6</sup>Isaiah said to them, "Thus you shall tell your master, "Thus says the LORD, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. <sup>19:7</sup>Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.””

<sup>19:8</sup>So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.

<sup>19:9</sup>When he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, “Behold, he has come out to fight against you, he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>19:10</sup>“Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, “Don’t let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria. <sup>19:11</sup>Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Will you be delivered? <sup>19:12</sup>Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar? <sup>19:13</sup>Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?””

<sup>19:14</sup>Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>19:15</sup>Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, “LORD, the God of Israel, who sit above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>19:16</sup>Incline your ear, LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, LORD, and see. Hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent to defy the living God. <sup>19:17</sup>Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands, <sup>19:18</sup>and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men’s hands, wood and stone. Therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>19:19</sup>Now therefore, LORD our God, save us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you, LORD, are God alone.”

<sup>19:20</sup>Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, “Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, ‘Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard you. <sup>19:21</sup>This is the word that the LORD has spoken concerning him: “The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>19:22</sup>Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>19:23</sup>By your messengers you have defied the Lord, and have said, ‘With the multitude of my chariots, I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down its tall cedars, and its choice fir trees; and I will enter into his farthest lodging place, the forest of his fruitful field.

<sup>19:24</sup>I have dug and drunk strange waters, and with the sole of my feet will I dry up all the rivers of Egypt.’ <sup>19:25</sup>Haven’t you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? Now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps. <sup>19:26</sup>Therefore their inhabitants were of small power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like grain blasted before it has grown up. <sup>19:27</sup>But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me. <sup>19:28</sup>Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.”

<sup>19:29</sup>“This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat its fruit. <sup>19:30</sup>The remnant that has escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. <sup>19:31</sup>For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go out, and out of Mount Zion those who shall escape. The zeal of the LORD will perform this.’

<sup>19:32</sup>“Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, ‘He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>19:33</sup>By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city,’ says the LORD. <sup>19:34</sup>For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David’s sake.”

<sup>19:35</sup>It happened that night, that the angel of the LORD went out, and struck one hundred eighty-five thousand in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.

<sup>19:36</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and lived at Nineveh.
<sup>19:37</sup>It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>20:1</sup>In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live.'"

<sup>20:2</sup>Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>20:3</sup>"Remember now, LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>20:4</sup>It happened, before Isaiah had gone out into the middle part of the city, that the word of the LORD came to him, saying, <sup>20:5</sup>"Turn back, and tell Hezekiah the prince of my people, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will heal you. On the third day, you shall go up to the house of the LORD."
<sup>20:6</sup>I will add to your days fifteen years. I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria. I will defend this city for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'"

They took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered. <sup>20:8</sup>Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "What shall be the sign that the LORD will heal me, and that I shall go up to the house of the LORD the third day?"

<sup>20:9</sup>Isaiah said, "This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do the thing that he has spoken: shall the shadow go forward ten steps, or go back ten steps?"

<sup>20:10</sup>Hezekiah answered, "It is a light thing for the shadow to go forward ten steps. Nay, but let the shadow return backward ten steps."

<sup>20:11</sup>Isaiah the prophet cried to the LORD; and he brought the shadow ten steps backward, by which it had gone down on the dial of Ahaz.

<sup>20:12</sup>At that time Berodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he had heard that Hezekiah had been sick. <sup>20:13</sup>Hezekiah listened to them, and showed them all the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. <sup>20:14</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and said to him, "What did these men say? From where did they come to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a far country, even from Babylon."

<sup>20:15</sup>He said, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

<sup>20:16</sup>Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD. <sup>20:17</sup>Behold, the days come, that all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store to this day, shall be carried to Babylon. Nothing shall be left,' says the LORD. <sup>20:18</sup>'Of your sons who shall issue from you, whom you shall father, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.'"

<sup>20:19</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The word of the LORD which you have spoken is good." He said moreover, "Isn't it so, if peace and truth shall be in my days?"

<sup>20:20</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool, and the conduit, and brought water into the city, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>20:21</sup>Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

<sup>21:1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hephzibah. <sup>21:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>21:3</sup>For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars for Baal, and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served them. <sup>21:4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, "I will put my name in Jerusalem." <sup>21:5</sup>He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>21:6</sup>He made his son to pass through the fire, and practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he worked much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>21:7</sup>He set the engraved image of Asherah, that he had made, in the house of which the LORD said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever; <sup>21:8</sup>neither will I cause the feet of Israel to wander any more out of the land which I gave their fathers, if only they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them." <sup>21:9</sup>But they didn't listen: and Manasseh seduced them to do that which is evil more than the nations did whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel. <sup>21:10</sup>The LORD spoke by his servants the prophets, saying, <sup>21:11</sup>"Because Manasseh king of Judah has done these abominations, and has done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and has made Judah also to sin with his idols; <sup>21:12</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Behold, I bring such evil on Jerusalem and Judah, that whoever hears of it, both his ears shall tingle. <sup>21:13</sup>I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab; and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipes a dish, wiping it and turning it upside down. <sup>21:14</sup>I will cast off the remnant of my inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies. They will become a prey and a spoil to all their enemies; <sup>21:15</sup>because they have done that which is evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even to this day.'"

<sup>21:16</sup>Moreover Manasseh shed innocent blood very much, until he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another; besides his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>21:17</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin that he sinned, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21:18</sup>Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his son reigned in his place. <sup>21:19</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Meshullemeth the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah. <sup>21:20</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as Manasseh his father did. <sup>21:21</sup>He walked in all the way that his father walked in, and served the idols that his father served, and worshiped them: <sup>21:22</sup>and he forsook the LORD, the God of his fathers, and didn't walk in the way of the LORD. <sup>21:23</sup>The servants of Amon conspired against him, and put the king to death in his own house. <sup>21:24</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place. <sup>21:25</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>21:26</sup>He was buried in his tomb in the garden of Uzza: and Josiah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>22:1</sup>Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jedidah the daughter of Adaiah of Bozkath. <sup>22:2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, and walked in all the way of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left. <sup>22:3</sup>It happened in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah the son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of the LORD, saying, <sup>22:4</sup>"Go up to Hilkiyah the high priest, that he may sum the money which is brought into the house of the LORD, which the keepers of the threshold have gathered of the people. <sup>22:5</sup>Let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house, <sup>22:6</sup>to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and cut stone to repair the house. <sup>22:7</sup>However there was no accounting made with them of the money that was delivered into their hand; for they dealt faithfully."

<sup>22:8</sup>Hilkiyah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the scroll of the Torah in the house of the LORD." Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan, and he read it. <sup>22:9</sup>Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, "Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of the LORD." <sup>22:10</sup>Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has delivered a book to me." Shaphan read it before the king. <sup>22:11</sup>It happened, when the king had heard the words of the scroll of the Torah, that he tore his clothes. <sup>22:12</sup>The king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, <sup>22:13</sup>"Go inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us."

<sup>22:14</sup>So Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her. <sup>22:15</sup>She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>22:16</sup>'Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read. <sup>22:17</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.'" <sup>22:18</sup>But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you shall tell him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Concerning the words which you have heard, <sup>22:19</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before the LORD, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you,' says the LORD. <sup>22:20</sup>Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place.'" They brought back this message to the king.

<sup>23:1</sup>The king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders of Judah and of Jerusalem. <sup>23:2</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>23:3</sup>The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and all his soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant. <sup>23:4</sup>The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the army of the sky, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried their ashes to Bethel. <sup>23:5</sup>He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the army of the sky. <sup>23:6</sup>He brought out the Asherah from the house of the LORD, outside of Jerusalem, to the brook Kidron, and burned it at the brook Kidron, and beat it to dust, and cast its dust on the graves of the common people. <sup>23:7</sup>He broke down the houses of the sodomites, that were in the house of the LORD, where the women wove hangings for the Asherah. <sup>23:8</sup>He brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba to Beersheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates that were at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, which were on a man's left hand at the gate of the city. <sup>23:9</sup>Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers. <sup>23:10</sup>He defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the children of Hinnom, that no man might make his son or his daughter to pass through the fire to Molech. <sup>23:11</sup>He took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sun, at the entrance of the house of the LORD, by the room of Nathan Melech the officer, who was in the court; and he burned the chariots of the sun with fire. <sup>23:12</sup>The king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper room of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, and beat them down from there, and cast their dust into the brook Kidron. <sup>23:13</sup>The king defiled the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon. <sup>23:14</sup>He broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and filled their places with the bones of men. <sup>23:15</sup>Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, had made, even that altar and the high place he broke down; and he burned the high place and beat it to dust, and burned the Asherah. <sup>23:16</sup>As Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of the LORD which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things. <sup>23:17</sup>Then he said, "What monument is that which I see?"

The men of the city told him, "It is the tomb of the man of God, who came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that you have done against the altar of Bethel."

<sup>23:18</sup>He said, "Let him be! Let no man move his bones." So they let his bones alone, with the bones of the prophet who came out of Samaria. <sup>23:19</sup>All the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the LORD to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel. <sup>23:20</sup>He killed all the priests of the high places that were there, on the altars, and burned men's bones on them; and he returned to Jerusalem. <sup>23:21</sup>The king commanded all the people, saying, "Keep the Passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant." <sup>23:22</sup>Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah; <sup>23:23</sup>but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this Passover kept to the LORD in Jerusalem. <sup>23:24</sup>Moreover Josiah removed those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiyah the priest found in the house of the LORD. <sup>23:25</sup>Like him was there no king before him, who turned to the LORD with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the Torah of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him. <sup>23:26</sup>Notwithstanding, the LORD didn't turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him. <sup>23:27</sup>The LORD said, "I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, 'My name shall be there.'"

<sup>23:28</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>23:29</sup>In his days Pharaoh Necho king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates: and king Josiah went against him; and Pharaoh Necho killed him at Megiddo, when he had seen him. <sup>23:30</sup>His servants carried him in a chariot dead from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own tomb. The people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's place. <sup>23:31</sup>Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>23:32</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done. <sup>23:33</sup>Pharaoh Necho put him in bonds at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem; and put the land to a tribute of one hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold. <sup>23:34</sup>Pharaoh Necho made Eliakim the son of Josiah king in the place of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim: but he took Jehoahaz away; and he came to Egypt, and died there. <sup>23:35</sup>Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he taxed the land to give the money according to the commandment of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of everyone according to his taxation, to give it to Pharaoh Necoh. <sup>23:36</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zebidah the daughter of Pedaiah of Rumah. <sup>23:37</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his fathers had done.

<sup>24:1</sup>In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim became his servant three years: then he turned and rebelled against him. <sup>24:2</sup>The LORD sent against him bands of the Kasdim, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servants the prophets. <sup>24:3</sup>Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did, <sup>24:4</sup>and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and the LORD would not pardon. <sup>24:5</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? <sup>24:6</sup>So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>24:7</sup>The king of Egypt didn't come again out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt. <sup>24:8</sup>Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned in Jerusalem three months: and his mother's name was Nehushta the daughter of Elnathan of Jerusalem. <sup>24:9</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done. <sup>24:10</sup>At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged. <sup>24:11</sup>Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to the city, while his servants were besieging it; <sup>24:12</sup>and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign. <sup>24:13</sup>He carried out there all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said. <sup>24:14</sup>He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, except the poorest sort of the people of the land. <sup>24:15</sup>He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>24:16</sup>All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon. <sup>24:17</sup>The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, Jehoiachin's father's brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah. <sup>24:18</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>24:19</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>24:20</sup>For through the anger of the LORD, it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

<sup>25:1</sup>It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it around it. <sup>25:2</sup>So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>25:3</sup>On the ninth day of the fourth month the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>25:4</sup>Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Kasdim were against the city around it); and the king went by the way of the Arabah. <sup>25:5</sup>But the army of the Kasdim pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>25:6</sup>Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him. <sup>25:7</sup>They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon. <sup>25:8</sup>Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, to Jerusalem. <sup>25:9</sup>He burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire. <sup>25:10</sup>All the army of the Kasdim, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls around Jerusalem. <sup>25:11</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. <sup>25:12</sup>But the captain of the guard left some of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields. <sup>25:13</sup>The Kasdim broke up the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD, and carried the brass pieces to Babylon. <sup>25:14</sup>They took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. <sup>25:15</sup>The captain of the guard took away the fire pans, the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. <sup>25:16</sup>The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases, which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD, the brass of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>25:17</sup>The height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a capital of brass was on it; and the height of the capital was three cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital around it, all of brass: and like to these had the second pillar with network. <sup>25:18</sup>The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: <sup>25:19</sup>and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. <sup>25:20</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>25:21</sup>The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>25:22</sup>As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor. <sup>25:23</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Yochanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>25:24</sup>Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, "Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Kasdim. Dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you."

<sup>25:25</sup>But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed came, and ten men with him, and struck Gedaliah, so that he died, and the Jews and the Kasdim that were with him at Mizpah. <sup>25:26</sup>All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Kasdim. <sup>25:27</sup>It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison; <sup>25:28</sup>and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>25:29</sup>and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: <sup>25:30</sup>and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him of the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

Isaiah

<sup>1:2</sup>Hear, heavens, and listen, earth; for the LORD<sup>a</sup> has spoken:

"I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.

<sup>1:3</sup>The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib;
but Israel doesn't know,
my people don't consider."

<sup>1:4</sup>Ah sinful nation, a people loaded with iniquity,
a seed of evildoers, children who deal corruptly!

They have forsaken the LORD.
They have despised the Holy One of Israel.

They are estranged and backward.

<sup>1:5</sup>Why should you be beaten more,
that you revolt more and more?

The whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.

<sup>1:6</sup>From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it:
wounds, welts, and open sores.
They haven't been closed, neither banded, neither soothed with oil.

<sup>1:7</sup>Your country is desolate.
Your cities are burned with fire.
Strangers devour your land in your presence, and it is desolate,
as overthrown by strangers.

<sup>1:8</sup>The daughter of Zion is left like a shelter in a vineyard, like a hut in a field of melons, like a besieged city.

<sup>1:9</sup>Unless the LORD of Hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom;
we would have been like Gomorrah.

Listen to the law of our God<sup>b</sup>, you people of Gomorrah!

<sup>1:11</sup>"What are the multitude of your sacrifices to me?," says the LORD.

"I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed animals.
I don't delight in the blood of bulls, or of lambs,
or of male goats.

<sup>1:12</sup>When you come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?

<sup>1:13</sup>Bring no more vain offerings.
Incense is an abomination to me;
new moons, Sabbaths, and convocations:
I can't bear with evil assemblies.

<sup>1:14</sup>My soul hates your New Moons and your appointed feasts.

They are a burden to me.
I am weary of bearing them.

<sup>1:15</sup>When you spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you.

Yes, when you make many prayers, I will not hear.

Your hands are full of blood.

<sup>1:16</sup>Wash yourselves, make yourself clean.
Put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes.

Cease to do evil.

Seek justice.
Relieve the oppressed.
Judge the fatherless.
Plead for the widow."

<sup>1:18</sup>"Come now, and let us reason together," says the LORD:

"Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow.

Though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.

<sup>1:19</sup>If you are willing and obedient,
you shall eat the good of the land;

<sup>1:20</sup>but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword;
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it."

<sup>1:21</sup>How the faithful city has become a prostitute!

She was full of justice; righteousness lodged in her,
but now murderers.

<sup>a</sup>1:2 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>1:22</sup>Your silver has become dross, your wine mixed with water.
<sup>1:23</sup>Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves.
 Everyone loves bribes, and follows after rewards.
 They don't judge the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them.
<sup>1:24</sup>Therefore the Lord,<sup>c</sup> the LORD of Hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, says:
 "Ah, I will get relief from my adversaries, and avenge myself of my enemies;
<sup>1:25</sup>and I will turn my hand on you, thoroughly purge away your dross,
 and will take away all your tin.
<sup>1:26</sup>I will restore your judges as at the first,
 and your counselors as at the beginning.
 Afterward you shall be called 'The city of righteousness,
 a faithful town.'
<sup>1:27</sup>Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.
<sup>1:28</sup>But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and those who forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
<sup>1:29</sup>For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which you have desired, and you shall be confounded for the gardens that you have chosen.
<sup>1:30</sup>For you shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.
<sup>1:31</sup>The strong will be like tinder, and his work like a spark.
 They will both burn together, and no one will quench them."
<sup>2:1</sup>This is what Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
<sup>2:2</sup>It shall happen in the latter days, that the mountain of the LORD's house shall be established on the top of the mountains,
 and shall be raised above the hills;
 and all nations shall flow to it.
<sup>2:3</sup>Many peoples shall go and say,
 "Come, let's go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the house of the God of Jacob;
 and he will teach us of his ways,
 and we will walk in his paths."

<sup>c</sup>1:24 The word translated "Lord" is "Adonai."

For out of Zion the law shall go forth, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem.
<sup>2:4</sup>He will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples;
 and they shall beat their swords into plowshares,
 and their spears into pruning hooks.
 Nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
<sup>2:5</sup>House of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.
<sup>2:6</sup>For you have forsaken your people, the house of Jacob,
 because they are filled from the east, with those who practice divination like
 the Philistines,
 and they clasp hands with the children of foreigners.
<sup>2:7</sup>Their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures.
 Their land also is full of horses,
 neither is there any end of their chariots.
<sup>2:8</sup>Their land also is full of idols.
 They worship the work of their own hands,
 that which their own fingers have made.
<sup>2:9</sup>Man is brought low,
 and mankind is humbled;
 therefore don't forgive them.
<sup>2:10</sup>Enter into the rock, and hide in the dust,
 from before the terror of the LORD,
 and from the glory of his majesty.
<sup>2:11</sup>The lofty looks of man will be brought low, the haughtiness of men will be bowed
 down,
 and the LORD alone will be exalted in that day.
<sup>2:12</sup>For there will be a day of the LORD of Hosts for all that is proud and haughty, and for all that is lifted up;
 and it shall be brought low:
<sup>2:13</sup>For all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up,
 for all the oaks of Bashan, <sup>2:14</sup>For all the high mountains, for all the hills that are lifted up, <sup>2:15</sup>For every lofty tower,
 for every fortified wall,

<sup>2:16</sup>For all the ships of Tarshish, and for all pleasant imagery.
<sup>2:17</sup>The loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low;
 and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day.
<sup>2:18</sup>The idols shall utterly pass away.
<sup>2:19</sup>Men shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth,
 from before the terror of the LORD,
 and from the glory of his majesty,
 when he arises to shake the earth mightily.
<sup>2:20</sup>In that day, men shall cast away their idols of silver,
 and their idols of gold,
 which have been made for themselves to worship,
 to the moles and to the bats;
<sup>2:21</sup>To go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks,
 from before the terror of the LORD,
 and from the glory of his majesty,
 when he arises to shake the earth might-
 ily.
<sup>2:22</sup>Stop trusting in man, whose breath is in his nostrils;
 for of what account is he?
<sup>3:1</sup>For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, takes away from Jerusalem and from Judah supply and support, the whole supply of bread, and the whole supply of water; <sup>3:2</sup>the mighty man,
 the man of war,
 the judge,
 the prophet,
 the diviner,
 the elder,
<sup>3:3</sup>the captain of fifty,
 the honorable man,
 the counselor,
 the skilled craftsman,
 and the clever enchanter.
<sup>3:4</sup>I will give boys to be their princes, and children shall rule over them.
<sup>3:5</sup>The people will be oppressed, everyone by another,
 and everyone by his neighbor.
 The child will behave himself proudly against the old man,

and the base against the honorable.
<sup>3:6</sup>Indeed a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying,
 "You have clothing, you be our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand." <sup>3:7</sup>In that day he will cry out, saying, "I will not be a healer;
 for in my house is neither bread nor clothing.
 You shall not make me ruler of the people."
<sup>3:8</sup>For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD,
 to provoke the eyes of his glory.
<sup>3:9</sup>The look of their faces testify against them.
 They parade their sin like Sodom.
 They don't hide it.
 Woe to their soul!
 For they have brought disaster upon themselves.
<sup>3:10</sup>Tell the righteous "Good!"
 For they shall eat the fruit of their deeds.
<sup>3:11</sup>Woe to the wicked!
 Disaster is upon them;
 for the deeds of his hands will be paid back to him.
<sup>3:12</sup>As for my people, children are their oppressors,
 and women rule over them.
 My people, those who lead you cause you to err,
 and destroy the way of your paths.
<sup>3:13</sup>The LORD stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples.
<sup>3:14</sup>The LORD will enter into judgment with the elders of his people, and their leaders:
 "It is you who have eaten up the vineyard.
 The spoil of the poor is in your houses.
<sup>3:15</sup>What do you mean that you crush my people,
 and grind the face of the poor?" says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts.
<sup>3:16</sup>Moreover the LORD said, "Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and flirting eyes,
 walking to trip as they go,
 jingling ornaments on their feet;

<sup>3:17</sup> therefore the Lord brings sores on the crown of the head of the women of Zion, and the LORD will make their scalps bald.”

<sup>3:24</sup> It shall happen that instead of sweet spices, there shall be rottenness; instead of a belt, a rope; instead of well set hair, baldness; instead of a robe, a wearing of sackcloth; and branding instead of beauty.

<sup>4:1</sup> Seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, “We will eat our own bread, and wear our own clothing: only let us be called by your name. Take away our reproach.”

<sup>4:2</sup> In that day, the LORD’s branch will be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land will be the beauty and glory of the survivors of Israel. <sup>4:3</sup> It will happen, that he who is left in Zion, and he who remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even everyone who is written among the living in Jerusalem; <sup>4:4</sup> when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from its midst, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning. <sup>4:5</sup> The LORD will create over the whole habitation of Mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory will be a canopy. <sup>4:6</sup> There will be a pavilion for a shade in the daytime from the heat, and for a refuge and for a shelter from storm and from rain.

<sup>e</sup>5:10 1 bath is about 22 litres or 5.8 U. S. gallons

<sup>f</sup>5:10 1 homer is about 220 litres or 6 bushels

<sup>g</sup>5:10 1 ephah is about 22 litres or 0.6 bushels or about 2 pecks—only one tenth of what was sown.

<sup>5:1</sup> Let me sing for my well beloved a song of my beloved about his vineyard.

My beloved had a vineyard on a very fruitful hill.

<sup>5:2</sup> He dug it up, gathered out its stones, planted it with the choicest vine, built a tower in its midst, and also cut out a winepress therein.

He looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

<sup>5:3</sup> “Now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, please judge between me and my vineyard.

<sup>5:4</sup> What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? Why, when I looked for it to yield grapes, did it yield wild grapes?

<sup>5:5</sup> Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard.

I will take away its hedge, and it will be eaten up.

I will break down its wall of it, and it will be trampled down.

<sup>5:6</sup> I will lay it a wasteland. It won’t be pruned nor hoed, but it will grow briars and thorns.

I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain on it.”

<sup>5:7</sup> For the vineyard of the LORD of Hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry of distress.

<sup>5:8</sup> Woe to those who join house to house, who lay field to field, until there is no room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!

<sup>5:9</sup> In my ears, the LORD of Hosts says: “Surely many houses will be desolate, even great and beautiful, unoccupied.

5:11 Woe to those who rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; who stay late into the night, until wine inflames them!

5:12 The harp, lyre, tambourine, and flute, with wine, are at their feasts;
 but they don't respect the work of the LORD, neither have they considered the operation of his hands.

5:13 Therefore my people go into captivity for lack of knowledge.
 Their honorable men are famished, and their multitudes are parched with thirst.

5:14 Therefore Sheol<sup>h</sup> has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure;
 and their glory, their multitude, their pomp, and he who rejoices among them, descend into it.

5:15 So man is brought low, mankind is humbled,
 and the eyes of the arrogant ones are humbled;

5:16 but the LORD of Hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.

5:17 Then the lambs will graze as in their pasture, and strangers will eat the ruins of the rich.

5:18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and wickedness as with cart rope;

5:19 Who say, “Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it;
 and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come,
 that we may know it!”

5:20 Woe to those who call evil good, and good evil;
 who put darkness for light,
 and light for darkness;
 who put bitter for sweet,
 and sweet for bitter!

5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!

5:22 Woe to those who are mighty to drink wine, and champions at mixing strong drink;

5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, but deny justice for the innocent!

5:24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame,
 so their root shall be as rottenness,
 and their blossom shall go up as dust;
 because they have rejected the law of the LORD of Hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

5:25 Therefore the LORD's anger burns against his people, and he has stretched out his hand against them, and has struck them.
 The mountains tremble,
 and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets.
 For all this, his anger is not turned away,
 but his hand is still stretched out.

5:26 He will lift up a banner to the nations from far, and he will whistle for them from the end of the earth.
 Behold, they will come speedily and swiftly.

5:27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them;
 none shall slumber nor sleep;
 neither shall the belt of their waist be untied,
 nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

5:28 whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent.
 Their horses' hoofs will be like flint,
 and their wheels like a whirlwind.

5:29 Their roaring will be like a lioness.
 They will roar like young lions.
 Yes, they shall roar,
 and seize their prey and carry it off,
 and there will be no one to deliver.

5:30 They will roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea.
 If one looks to the land behold, darkness and distress.
 The light is darkened in its clouds.

6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple. 6:2 Above him stood the seraphim. Each one had six wings.

<sup>h</sup>5:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

With two he covered his face. With two he covered his feet. With two he flew. <sup>6:3</sup>One called to another, and said,
 "Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of Hosts!

The whole earth is full of his glory!"

<sup>6:4</sup>The foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him who called, and the house was filled with smoke. <sup>6:5</sup>Then I said, "Woe is me! For I am undone, because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, the LORD of Hosts!"

<sup>6:6</sup>Then one of the seraphim flew to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar. <sup>6:7</sup>He touched my mouth with it, and said, "Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven."

<sup>6:8</sup>I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?"

Then I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

<sup>6:9</sup>He said, "Go, and tell this people, 'You hear indeed, but don't understand;

and you see indeed,

but don't perceive.'

<sup>6:10</sup>Make the heart of this people fat.

Make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes;

lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed."

<sup>6:11</sup>Then I said, "Lord, how long?"

He answered,

"Until cities are waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land becomes utterly waste,

<sup>6:12</sup>And the LORD has removed men far away, and the forsaken places are many in the midst of the land.

<sup>6:13</sup>If there is a tenth left in it,

that also will in turn be consumed:

as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remains when they are felled;

so the holy seed is its stock."

<sup>7:1</sup>It happened in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. <sup>7:2</sup>It was told the house of David, saying, "Syria is allied with Ephraim."

His heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.

<sup>7:3</sup>Then the LORD said to Isaiah, "Go out now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shearjashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, on the highway to the fuller's field. <sup>7:4</sup>Tell him, 'Be careful, and keep calm.

Don't be afraid, neither let your heart be faint because of these two tails of smoking torches, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. <sup>7:5</sup>Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have plotted evil against you, saying, <sup>7:6</sup>"Let's go up against Judah, and tear it apart, and let's divide it among ourselves, and set up a king in its midst, even the son of Tabeel." <sup>7:7</sup>This is what the Lord GOD says:

"It shall not stand, neither shall it happen."

<sup>7:8</sup>For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years Ephraim shall be broken in pieces, so that it shall not be a people; <sup>7:9</sup>and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If you will not believe, surely you shall not be established.'"

<sup>7:10</sup>The LORD spoke again to Ahaz, saying, <sup>7:11</sup>"Ask a sign of the LORD your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above."

<sup>7:12</sup>But Ahaz said, "I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD."

<sup>7:13</sup>He said, "Listen now, house of David. Is it not enough for you to try the patience of men, that you will try the patience of my God also?"

<sup>7:14</sup>Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign. Behold, the virgin will conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.<sup>i</sup>

<sup>7:15</sup>He shall eat butter and honey when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good.

<sup>7:16</sup>For before the child knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken. <sup>7:17</sup>The LORD will bring on you, on your people, and on your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah; even the king of Assyria. <sup>7:18</sup>It will happen in that day that the LORD will whistle for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria. <sup>7:19</sup>They shall come, and shall all rest in the desolate valleys, in the clefts of the rocks, on all thorn hedges, and on all pastures. <sup>7:20</sup>In that day the Lord will shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard. <sup>7:21</sup>It shall happen in that day that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep; <sup>7:22</sup>and it shall happen, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for everyone will eat butter and honey that is left in the midst of the land. <sup>7:23</sup>It will happen in that day that every place where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silver shekels, shall be for briers and thorns. <sup>7:24</sup>People will go there with arrows and with bow, because all the land will be briers and thorns. <sup>7:25</sup>All the hills that were cultivated with the hoe, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep."

<sup>8:1</sup>The LORD said to me, "Take a large tablet, and write on it with a man's pen, 'For Maher Shalal Hash Baz;' <sup>8:2</sup>and I will take for myself faithful witnesses to testify: Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah."

<sup>8:3</sup>I went to the prophetess, and she conceived, and bore a son. Then the LORD said to me, "Call his name 'Maher Shalal Hash Baz.' <sup>8:4</sup>For before the child knows how to say, 'My father,' and, 'My mother,' the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria will be carried away by the king of Assyria."

<sup>8:5</sup>The LORD spoke to me yet again, saying, <sup>8:6</sup>"Because this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; <sup>8:7</sup>now therefore, behold, the Lord brings upon them the mighty flood waters of the River: the king of Assyria and all his glory. It will come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks. <sup>8:8</sup>It will sweep onward into Judah. It will overflow and pass through; it will reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings will fill the breadth of your land, Immanuel. <sup>8:9</sup>Make an uproar, you peoples, and be broken in pieces! Listen, all you from far countries: dress for battle, and be shattered! Dress for battle, and be shattered! <sup>8:10</sup>Take counsel together, and it will be brought to nothing; speak the word, and it will not stand: for God is with us." <sup>8:11</sup>For the LORD spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying, <sup>8:12</sup>"Don't say, 'A conspiracy!' concerning all about which this people say, 'A conspiracy!' neither fear their threats, nor be terrorized. <sup>8:13</sup>The LORD of Hosts is who you must respect as holy. He is the one you must fear. He is the one you must dread. <sup>8:14</sup>He will be a sanctuary, but for both houses of Israel, he will be a trap and a snare for the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>8:15</sup>Many will stumble over it, fall, be broken, be snared, and be captured." <sup>8:16</sup>Wrap up the testimony. Seal the law among my disciples. <sup>8:17</sup>I will wait for the LORD, who hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. <sup>8:18</sup>Behold, I and the children whom the LORD has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of Hosts, who dwells in Mount Zion.

<sup>8:19</sup>When they tell you, "Consult with those who have familiar spirits and with the wizards, who chirp and who mutter:" shouldn't a people consult with their God? Should they consult the dead on behalf of the living? <sup>8:20</sup>Turn to the law and to the testimony! If they don't speak according to this word, surely there is no morning for them. <sup>8:21</sup>They will pass through it, very distressed and hungry; and it will happen that when they are hungry, they will worry, and curse by their king and by their God. They will turn their faces upward, <sup>8:22</sup>and look to the earth, and see distress, darkness, and the gloom of anguish. They will be driven into thick darkness.

<sup>9:1</sup>But there shall be no more gloom for her who was in anguish. In the former time, he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time he has made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

Those who lived in the land of the shadow of death, on them the light has shined.

You have increased their joy.

They rejoice before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. <sup>9:4</sup>For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian. <sup>9:5</sup>For all the armor of the armed man in the noisy battle, and the garments rolled in blood, will be for burning, fuel for the fire. <sup>9:6</sup>For to us a child is born. To us a son is given; and the government will be on his shoulders. His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. <sup>9:7</sup>Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, on the throne of David, and on his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from that time on, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will perform this.

<sup>9:9</sup>All the people will know, including Ephraim and the inhabitants of Samaria, who say in pride and in arrogance of heart, <sup>9:10</sup>"The bricks have fallen, but we will build with cut stone. The sycamore fig trees have been cut down, but we will put cedars in their place."
<sup>9:11</sup>Therefore the LORD will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies, <sup>9:12</sup>The Syrians in front, and the Philistines behind; and they will devour Israel with open mouth.
 For all this, his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
<sup>9:13</sup>Yet the people have not turned to him who struck them, neither have they sought the LORD of Hosts.
<sup>9:14</sup>Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm branch and reed, in one day.
<sup>9:15</sup>The elder and the honorable man is the head, and the prophet who teaches lies is the tail.
<sup>9:16</sup>For those who lead this people lead them astray; and those who are led by them are destroyed.
<sup>9:17</sup>Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows;

for everyone is profane and an evildoer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
<sup>9:18</sup>For wickedness burns like a fire. It devours the briars and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.
<sup>9:19</sup>Through the wrath of the LORD of Hosts, the land is burnt up; and the people are the fuel for the fire. No one spares his brother.
<sup>9:20</sup>One will devour on the right hand, and be hungry; and he will eat on the left hand, and they will not be satisfied. Everyone will eat the flesh of his own arm:
 For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
<sup>10:1</sup>Woe to those who decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers who write oppressive decrees; <sup>10:2</sup>to deprive the needy from justice, and to rob the poor among my people of their rights, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!
<sup>10:3</sup>What will you do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which will come from afar? To whom will you flee for help? Where will you leave your wealth?
<sup>10:4</sup>They will only bow down under the prisoners, and will fall under the slain.
 For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
<sup>10:5</sup>Alas Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation! <sup>10:6</sup>I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people who anger me will I give him a command to take the spoil and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. <sup>10:7</sup>However he doesn't mean so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off not a few nations.
<sup>10:8</sup>For he says, "Aren't all of my princes kings?
<sup>10:10</sup>As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose engraved images exceeded those of Jerusalem and of Samaria; <sup>10:11</sup> shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? <sup>10:12</sup> Therefore it will happen that, when the Lord has performed his whole work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the willful proud heart of the king of Assyria, and the insolence of his haughty looks. <sup>10:13</sup> For he has said, "By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding; and I have removed the boundaries of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures. Like a valiant man I have brought down their rulers. <sup>10:14</sup> My hand has found the riches of the peoples like a nest, and like one gathers eggs that are abandoned, have I gathered all the earth. There was no one who moved their wing, or that opened their mouth, or chirped."

<sup>10:15</sup> Should an axe brag against him who chops with it? Should a saw exalt itself above him who saws with it? As if a rod should lift those who lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up someone who is not wood. <sup>10:16</sup> Therefore the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, will send among his fat ones leanness; and under his glory a burning will be kindled like the burning of fire. <sup>10:17</sup> The light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briars in one day. <sup>10:18</sup> He will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body. It will be as when a standard bearer faints. <sup>10:19</sup> The remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child could write their number.

<sup>10:20</sup> It will come to pass in that day that the remnant of Israel, and those who have escaped from the house of Jacob will no more again lean on him who struck them, but shall lean on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth. <sup>10:21</sup> A remnant will return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God. <sup>10:22</sup> For though your people, Israel, are like the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them will return. A destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. <sup>10:23</sup> For the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, will make a full end, and that determined, in the midst of all the earth. <sup>10:24</sup> Therefore the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, says "My people who dwell in Zion, don't be afraid of the Assyrian, though he strike you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, as Egypt did. <sup>10:25</sup> For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you will be accomplished, and my anger will be directed to his destruction." <sup>10:26</sup> The LORD of Hosts will stir up a scourge against him, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb. His rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up like he did against Egypt. <sup>10:27</sup> It will happen in that day, that his burden will depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing oil.

<sup>10:28</sup> He has come to Aiath. He has passed through Migron. At Michmash he stores his baggage. <sup>10:29</sup> They have gone over the pass. They have taken up their lodging at Geba. Ramah trembles. Gibeah of Saul has fled. <sup>10:30</sup> Cry aloud with your voice, daughter of Gallim! Listen, Laishah! You poor Anathoth! <sup>10:31</sup> Madmenah is a fugitive. The inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety. <sup>10:32</sup> This very day he will halt at Nob. He shakes his hand at the mountain of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. <sup>10:33</sup> Behold, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, will lop the boughs with terror. The tall will be cut down, and the lofty will be brought low. <sup>10:34</sup> He will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon will fall by the Mighty One.

<sup>11:1</sup> A shoot will come out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots will bear fruit.

<sup>11:2</sup> The Spirit of the LORD will rest on him:
the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might,
the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.

<sup>11:3</sup> His delight will be in the fear of the LORD.

He will not judge by the sight of his eyes, neither decide by the hearing of his ears;
<sup>11:4</sup> but with righteousness he will judge the poor, and decide with equity for the humble of the earth.

He will strike the earth with the rod of his mouth;
and with the breath of his lips he will kill the wicked.

<sup>11:5</sup> Righteousness will be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his waist.

<sup>11:6</sup> The wolf will live with the lamb, and the leopard will lie down with the young goat;

The calf, the young lion, and the fattened calf together;
and a little child will lead them.

<sup>11:7</sup>The cow and the bear will graze.

Their young ones will lie down together.

The lion will eat straw like the ox.

<sup>11:8</sup>The nursing child will play near a cobra's hole, and the weaned child will put his hand on the viper's den.

<sup>11:9</sup>They will not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain;

for the earth will be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

<sup>11:10</sup>It will happen in that day that the nations will seek the root of Jesse, who stands as a banner of the peoples; and his resting place will be glorious. <sup>11:11</sup>It will happen in that day that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. <sup>11:12</sup>He will set up a banner for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth. <sup>11:13</sup>The envy also of Ephraim will depart, and those who persecute Judah will be cut off. Ephraim won't envy Judah, and Judah won't persecute Ephraim. <sup>11:14</sup>They will fly down on the shoulders of the Philistines on the west. Together they will plunder the children of the east. They will extend their power over Edom and Moab, and the children of Ammon will obey them. <sup>11:15</sup>The LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind he will wave his hand over the River, and will split it into seven streams, and cause men to march over in sandals. <sup>11:16</sup>There will be a highway for the remnant that is left of his people from Assyria, like there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

<sup>12:1</sup>In that day you will say, "I will give thanks to you, the LORD; for though you were angry with me, your anger has turned away and you comfort me. <sup>12:2</sup>Behold, God is my salvation. I will trust, and will not be afraid; for the LORD, the LORD, is my strength and song; and he has become my salvation [yeshu'ah]."

<sup>12:3</sup>Therefore with joy you will draw water out of the wells of salvation [yeshu'ah]. <sup>12:4</sup>In that day you will say, "Give thanks to the LORD! Call on his name. Declare his doings among the peoples. Proclaim that his name is exalted! <sup>12:5</sup>Sing to the LORD, for he has done excellent things! Let this be known in all the earth! <sup>12:6</sup>Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for the Holy One of Israel is great in the midst of you!"

<sup>13:1</sup>The burden of Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw: <sup>13:2</sup>Set up a banner on the bare mountain! Lift up your voice to them! Wave your hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles. <sup>13:3</sup>I have commanded my consecrated ones; yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones. <sup>13:4</sup>The noise of a multitude is in the mountains, as of a great people; the noise of an uproar of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! the LORD of Hosts is mustering the army for the battle. <sup>13:5</sup>They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. <sup>13:6</sup>Wail; for the day of the LORD is at hand! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. <sup>13:7</sup>Therefore all hands will be feeble, and everyone's heart will melt. <sup>13:8</sup>They will be dismayed. Pangs and sorrows will seize them. They will be in pain like a woman in labor. They will look in amazement one at another. Their faces will be faces of flame. <sup>13:9</sup>Behold, the day of the LORD comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy its sinners out of it. <sup>13:10</sup>For the stars of the sky and its constellations will not give their light. The sun will be darkened in its going forth, and the moon will not cause its light to shine. <sup>13:11</sup>I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity. I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will humble the haughtiness of the terrible. <sup>13:12</sup>I will make people more rare than fine gold, even a person than the pure gold of Ophir. <sup>13:13</sup>Therefore I will make the heavens tremble, and the earth will be shaken out of its place in the wrath of the LORD of Hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. <sup>13:14</sup>It will happen that like a hunted gazelle, and like sheep that no one gathers, they will each turn to their own people, and will each flee to their own land. <sup>13:15</sup>Everyone who is found will be thrust through. Everyone who is captured will fall by the sword. <sup>13:16</sup>Their infants also will be dashed in pieces before their eyes. Their houses will be ransacked, and their wives raped. <sup>13:17</sup>Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who will not value silver, and as for gold, they will not delight in it. <sup>13:18</sup>Their bows will dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb. Their eyes will not spare children. <sup>13:19</sup>Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Kasdim' pride, will be like when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. <sup>13:20</sup>It will never be inhabited, neither will it be lived in from generation to generation. The Arabian will not pitch a tent there, neither will shepherds make their flocks lie down there. <sup>13:21</sup>But wild animals of the desert will lie there, and their houses will be full of jackals. Ostriches will dwell there, and wild goats will frolic there. <sup>13:22</sup>Wolves will cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces. Her time is near to come, and her days will not be prolonged.

<sup>14:1</sup>For the LORD will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land. The foreigner will join himself with them, and they will unite with the house of Jacob. <sup>14:2</sup>The peoples will take them, and bring them to their place. The house of Israel will possess them in the LORD's land for servants and for handmaids. They will take as captives those whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors. <sup>14:3</sup>It will happen in the day that the LORD will give you rest from your sorrow, from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve, <sup>14:4</sup>that you will take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, "How the oppressor has ceased! The golden city has ceased!" <sup>14:5</sup>The LORD has broken the staff of the wicked, the scepter of the rulers, <sup>14:6</sup>who struck the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, who ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that none restrained. <sup>14:7</sup>The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet. They break out song. <sup>14:8</sup>Yes, the fir trees rejoice with you, with the cedars of Lebanon, saying, "Since you are humbled, no lumberjack has come up against us." <sup>14:9</sup>Sheol<sup>k</sup> from beneath has moved for you to meet you at your coming. It stirs up the dead for you, even all the rulers of the earth. It has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. <sup>14:10</sup>They all will answer and ask you, "Have you also become as weak as we are? Have you become like us?" <sup>14:11</sup>Your pomp is brought down to Sheol<sup>l</sup>, with the sound of your stringed instruments. Maggots are spread out under you, and worms cover you.

<sup>14:12</sup>How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, who laid the nations low! <sup>14:13</sup>You said in your heart, "I will ascend into heaven! I will exalt my throne above the stars of God! I will sit on the mountain of assembly, in the far north! <sup>14:14</sup>I will ascend above the heights of the clouds! I will make myself like the Most High!" <sup>14:15</sup>Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol<sup>m</sup>, to the depths of the pit. <sup>14:16</sup>Those who see you will stare at you. They will ponder you, saying, "Is this the man who made the earth to tremble, who shook kingdoms; <sup>14:17</sup>who made the world like a wilderness, and overthrew its cities; who didn't release his prisoners to their home?"

<sup>14:18</sup>All the kings of the nations, sleep in glory, everyone in his own house. <sup>14:19</sup>But you are cast away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, who are thrust through with the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit; like a dead body trodden under foot. <sup>14:20</sup>You will not join them in burial, because you have destroyed your land. You have killed your people. The seed of evildoers will not be named forever. <sup>14:21</sup>Prepare for slaughter of his children because of the iniquity of their fathers, that they not rise up and possess the earth, and fill the surface of the world with cities. <sup>14:22</sup>"I will rise up against them," says the LORD of Hosts, "and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son," says the LORD. <sup>14:23</sup>"I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water. I will sweep it with the broom of destruction," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>14:24</sup>The LORD of Hosts has sworn, saying, "Surely, as I have thought, so shall it happen; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:

<sup>14:25</sup>that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and tread him under foot on my mountains. Then his yoke will leave them, and his burden leave their shoulders. <sup>14:26</sup>This is the plan that is determined for the whole earth. This is the hand that is stretched out over all the nations. <sup>14:27</sup>For the LORD of Hosts has planned, and who can stop it? His hand is stretched out, and who can turn it back?"

<sup>14:28</sup>This burden was in the year that king Ahaz died. <sup>14:29</sup>Don't rejoice, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that struck you is broken; for out of the serpent's root an adder will emerge, and his fruit will be a fiery flying serpent. <sup>14:30</sup>The firstborn of the poor will eat, and the needy will lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant will be killed.

<sup>14:31</sup>Howl, gate! Cry, city! You are melted away, Philistia, all of you; for smoke comes out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks. <sup>14:32</sup>What will they answer the messengers of the nation? That the LORD has founded Zion, and in her the afflicted of his people will take refuge.

<sup>15:1</sup>The burden of Moab: for in a night, Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nothing. <sup>15:2</sup>They have gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep. Moab wails over Nebo and over Medeba. Baldness is on all of their heads. Every beard is cut off. <sup>15:3</sup>In their streets, they clothe themselves in sackcloth. In their streets and on their housetops, everyone wails, weeping abundantly. <sup>15:4</sup>Heshbon cries out with Elealeh. Their voice is heard even to Jahaz. Therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud. Their souls tremble within them. <sup>15:5</sup>My heart cries out for Moab! Her Nazirites flee to Zoar, to Eglath Shelishiyah; for they go up by the ascent of Luhith with weeping; for in the way of Horonaim, they raise up a cry of destruction. <sup>15:6</sup>For the waters of Nimrim will be desolate; for the grass has withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing. <sup>15:7</sup>Therefore they will carry away the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have stored up, over the brook of the willows. <sup>15:8</sup>For the cry has gone around the borders of Moab; its wailing to Eglaim, and its wailing to Beer Elim. <sup>15:9</sup>For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more on Dimon, a lion on those of Moab who escape, and on the remnant of the land.

<sup>16:1</sup>Send the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mountain of the daughter of Zion. <sup>16:2</sup>For it will be that as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so will the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon. <sup>16:3</sup>Give counsel! Execute justice! Make your shade like the night in the midst of the noonday! Hide the outcasts! Don't betray the fugitive! <sup>16:4</sup>Let my outcasts dwell with you! As for Moab, be a hiding place for him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nothing. Destruction ceases. The oppressors are consumed out of the land. <sup>16:5</sup>A throne will be established in loving kindness. One will sit on it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.

<sup>16:6</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogance, his pride, and his wrath. His boastings are nothing. <sup>16:7</sup>Therefore Moab will wail for Moab. Everyone will wail. You will mourn for the raisin cakes of Kir Hareseth, utterly stricken. <sup>16:8</sup>For the fields of Heshbon languish with the vine of Sibmah. The lords of the nations have broken down its choice branches, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness. Its shoots were spread abroad. They passed over the sea. <sup>16:9</sup>Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah. I will water you with my tears, Heshbon, and Elealeh: for on your summer fruits and on your harvest the battle shout has fallen. <sup>16:10</sup>Gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there will be no singing, neither joyful noise. Nobody will tread out wine in the presses. I have made the shouting stop. <sup>16:11</sup>Therefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir Heres. <sup>16:12</sup>It will happen that when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself on the high place, and comes to his sanctuary to pray, that he will not prevail. <sup>16:13</sup>This is the word that the LORD spoke concerning Moab in time past. <sup>16:14</sup>But now the LORD has spoken, saying, "Within three years, as a worker bound by contract would count them, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant will be very small and feeble.”

<sup>17:1</sup>The burden of Damascus: “Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it will be a ruinous heap. <sup>17:2</sup>The cities of Aroer are forsaken. They will be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. <sup>17:3</sup>The fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria. They will be as the glory of the children of Israel,” says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>17:4</sup>“It will happen in that day that the glory of Jacob will be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh will become lean. <sup>17:5</sup>It will be like when the harvester gathers the wheat, and his arm reaps the grain. Yes, it will be like when one gleanes grain in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>17:6</sup>Yet gleanings will be left there, like the shaking of an olive tree, two or three olives in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outermost branches of a fruitful tree,” says the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>17:7</sup>In that day, people will look to their Maker, and their eyes will have respect for the Holy One of Israel. <sup>17:8</sup>They will not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they respect that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the incense altars. <sup>17:9</sup>In that day, their strong cities will be like the forsaken places in the woods and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it will be a desolation. <sup>17:10</sup>For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not remembered the rock of your strength. Therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set out foreign seedlings. <sup>17:11</sup>In the day of your planting, you hedge it in. In the morning, you make your seed blossom, but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. <sup>17:12</sup>Ah, the uproar of many peoples, who roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters! <sup>17:13</sup>The nations will rush like the rushing of many waters: but he will rebuke them, and they will flee far off, and will be chased like the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm. <sup>17:14</sup>At evening, behold, terror! Before the morning, they are no more. This is the portion of those who plunder us, and the lot of those who rob us.

which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia; <sup>18:2</sup>that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus on the waters, saying, “Go, you swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!” <sup>18:3</sup>All you inhabitants of the world, and you dwellers on the earth, when a banner is lifted up on the mountains, look! When the shofar<sup>n</sup> is blown, listen! <sup>18:4</sup>For the LORD said to me, “I will be still, and I will see in my dwelling place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.” <sup>18:5</sup>For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and he will cut down and take away the spreading branches. <sup>18:6</sup>They will be left together for the ravenous birds of the mountains, and for the animals of the earth. The ravenous birds will summer on them, and all the animals of the earth will winter on them. <sup>18:7</sup>In that time, a present will be brought to the LORD of Hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people awesome from their beginning onward, a nation that measures out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of the LORD of Hosts, Mount Zion.

<sup>19:1</sup>The burden of Egypt: “Behold, the LORD rides on a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt. The idols of Egypt will tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt will melt in its midst. <sup>19:2</sup>I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians, and they will fight everyone against his brother, and everyone against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>19:3</sup>The spirit of Egypt will fail in its midst. I will destroy its counsel. They will seek the idols, the charmers, those who have familiar spirits, and the wizards. <sup>19:4</sup>I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord. A fierce king will rule over them,” says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts. <sup>19:5</sup>The waters will fail from the sea, and the river will be wasted and become dry. <sup>19:6</sup>The rivers will become foul. The streams of Egypt will be diminished and dried up. The reeds and flags will wither away. <sup>19:7</sup>The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, will become dry, be driven away, and be no more. <sup>19:8</sup>The fishermen will lament, and all those who fish in the Nile will mourn, and those who spread nets on the waters will languish. <sup>19:9</sup>Moreover those who work in combed flax, and those who weave white cloth, will be confounded. <sup>19:10</sup>The pillars will be broken in pieces. All those who work for hire will be grieved in soul. <sup>19:11</sup>The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish. The counsel of the wisest counselors of Pharaoh has become stupid. How do you say to Pharaoh, "I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?" <sup>19:12</sup>Where then are your wise men? Let them tell you now; and let them know what the LORD of Hosts has purposed concerning Egypt. <sup>19:13</sup>The princes of Zoan have become fools. The princes of Memphis are deceived. They have caused Egypt to go astray, who are the cornerstone of her tribes. <sup>19:14</sup>The LORD has mixed a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in all of its works, like a drunken man staggers in his vomit. <sup>19:15</sup>Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which head or tail, palm branch or rush, may do. <sup>19:16</sup>In that day the Egyptians will be like women. They will tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of Hosts, which he shakes over them. <sup>19:17</sup>The land of Judah will become a terror to Egypt. Everyone to whom mention is made of it will be afraid, because of the plans of the LORD of Hosts, which he determines against it. <sup>19:18</sup>In that day, there will be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of Hosts. One will be called "The city of destruction." <sup>19:19</sup>In that day, there will be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the LORD at its border. <sup>19:20</sup>It will be for a sign and for a witness to the LORD of Hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the LORD because of oppressors, and he will send them a savior and a defender, and he will deliver them. <sup>19:21</sup>The LORD will be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the LORD in that day. Yes, they will worship with sacrifice and offering, and will vow a vow to the LORD, and will perform it. <sup>19:22</sup>The LORD will strike Egypt, striking and healing. They will return to the LORD, and he will be entreated by them, and will heal them. <sup>19:23</sup>In that day there will be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians. <sup>19:24</sup>In that day, Israel will be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth; <sup>19:25</sup>because the LORD of Hosts has blessed them, saying, "Blessed be Egypt my people, Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance."

<sup>20:1</sup>In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it; <sup>20:2</sup>at that time the LORD spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, "Go, and loosen the sackcloth from off your waist, and take your shoes from off your feet." He did so, walking naked and barefoot. <sup>20:3</sup>The LORD said, "As my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia, <sup>20:4</sup>so the king of Assyria will lead away the captives of Egypt and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. <sup>20:5</sup>They will be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. <sup>20:6</sup>The inhabitants of this coast land will say in that day, 'Behold, this is our expectation, where we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria. And we, how will we escape?'"

<sup>21:1</sup>The burden of the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from an awesome land. <sup>21:2</sup>A grievous vision is declared to me. The treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, Elam; attack! I have stopped all of Media's sighing. <sup>21:3</sup>Therefore my thighs are filled with anguish. Pains have taken hold on me, like the pains of a woman in labor. I am in so much pain that I can't hear. I so am dismayed that I can't see. <sup>21:4</sup>My heart flutters. Horror has frightened me. The twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling for me. <sup>21:5</sup>They prepare the table. They set the watch. They eat. They drink. Rise up, you princes, oil the shield! <sup>21:6</sup>For the Lord said to me, "Go, set a watchman. Let him declare what he sees. <sup>21:7</sup>When he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall listen diligently with great attentiveness." <sup>21:8</sup>He cried like a lion:

"Lord, I stand continually on the watchtower in the daytime, and every night I stay at my post. <sup>21:9</sup>Behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs." He answered, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the engraved images of her gods are broken to the ground. <sup>21:10</sup>You are my threshing, and the grain of my floor!" That which I have heard from the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, I have declared to you.

<sup>21:11</sup>The burden of Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, "Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?" <sup>21:12</sup>The watchman said, "The morning comes, and also the night. If you will inquire, inquire. Come back again."

<sup>21:13</sup>The burden on Arabia. In the forest in Arabia you will lodge, you caravans of Dedanites. <sup>21:14</sup>They brought water to him who was thirsty. The inhabitants of the land of Tema met the fugitives with their bread. <sup>21:15</sup>For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, from the bent bow, and from the heat of battle. <sup>21:16</sup>For the Lord said to me, "Within a year, as a worker bound by contract would count it, all the glory of Kedar will fail, <sup>21:17</sup>and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, will be few; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has spoken it."

<sup>22:1</sup>The burden of the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you have all gone up to the housetops? <sup>22:2</sup>You that are full of shouting, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle. <sup>22:3</sup>All your rulers fled away together. They were bound by the archers. All who were found by you were bound together. They fled far away. <sup>22:4</sup>Therefore I said, "Look away from me. I will weep bitterly. Don't labor to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people. <sup>22:5</sup>For it is a day of confusion, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains." <sup>22:6</sup>Elam carried his quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield. <sup>22:7</sup>It happened that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate. <sup>22:8</sup>He took away the covering of Judah; and you looked in that day to the armor in the house of the forest. <sup>22:9</sup>You saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many; and you gathered together the waters of the lower pool. <sup>22:10</sup>You numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and you broke down the houses to fortify the wall. <sup>22:11</sup>You also made a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But you didn't look to him who had done this, neither did you have respect for him who purposed it long ago. <sup>22:12</sup>In that day, the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, called to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to dressing in sackcloth: <sup>22:13</sup>and behold, joy and gladness, killing cattle and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: "Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we will die." <sup>22:14</sup>The LORD of Hosts revealed himself in my ears, "Surely this iniquity will not be forgiven you until you die," says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>22:15</sup>Thus says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, "Go, get yourself to this treasurer, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say, <sup>22:16</sup>What are you doing here? Who has you here, that you have dug out a tomb here?" Cutting himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!" <sup>22:17</sup>Behold, the LORD will overcome you and hurl you away violently. Yes, he will grasp you firmly. <sup>22:18</sup>He will surely wind you around and around, and throw you like a ball into a large country. There you will die, and there the chariots of your glory will be, you shame of your lord's house. <sup>22:19</sup>I will thrust you from your office. You will be pulled down from your station.

<sup>22:20</sup>It will happen in that day that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, <sup>22:21</sup>and I will clothe him with your robe, and strengthen him with your belt. I will commit your government into his hand; and he will be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. <sup>22:22</sup>I will lay the key of the house of David on his shoulder. He will open, and no one will shut. He will shut, and no one will open. <sup>22:23</sup>I will fasten him like a nail in a sure place. He will be for a throne of glory to his father's house. <sup>22:24</sup>They will hang on him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the pitchers. <sup>22:25</sup>"In that day," says the LORD of Hosts, "the nail that was fastened in a sure place will give way. It will be cut down, and fall. The burden that was on it will be cut off, for the LORD has spoken it.”

<sup>23:1</sup>The burden of Tyre. Howl, you ships of Tarshish! For it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in. From the land of Kittim it is revealed to them. <sup>23:2</sup>Be still, you inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. <sup>23:3</sup>On great waters, the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue. She was the market of nations. <sup>23:4</sup>Be ashamed, Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, “I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins.” <sup>23:5</sup>When the report comes to Egypt, they will be in anguish at the report of Tyre. <sup>23:6</sup>Pass over to Tarshish! Wail, you inhabitants of the coast! <sup>23:7</sup>Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her far away to travel? <sup>23:8</sup>Who has planned this against Tyre, the giver of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth? <sup>23:9</sup>The LORD of Hosts has planned it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth. <sup>23:10</sup>Pass through your land like the Nile, daughter of Tarshish. There is no restraint any more. <sup>23:11</sup>He has stretched out his hand over the sea. He has shaken the kingdoms. The LORD has ordered the destruction of Canaan’s strongholds. <sup>23:12</sup>He said, “You shall rejoice no more, you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon. Arise, pass over to Kittim. Even there you will have no rest.”

<sup>23:13</sup>Behold, the land of the Kasdim. This people was not. The Assyrians founded it for those who dwell in the wilderness. They set up their towers. They overthrew its palaces. They made it a ruin. <sup>23:14</sup>Howl, you ships of Tarshish, for your stronghold is laid waste! <sup>23:15</sup>It will come to pass in that day that Tyre will be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king. After the end of seventy years it will be to Tyre like in the song of the prostitute. <sup>23:16</sup>Take a harp; go about the city, you prostitute that has been forgotten. Make sweet melody. Sing many songs, that you may be remembered. <sup>23:17</sup>It will happen after the end of seventy years that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and will play the prostitute with all the kingdoms of the world on the surface of the earth. <sup>23:18</sup>Her merchandise and her wages will be holiness to the LORD. It will not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise will be for those who dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.

<sup>24:1</sup>Behold, the LORD makes the earth empty, makes it waste, turns it upside down, and scatters its inhabitants. <sup>24:2</sup>It will be as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest. <sup>24:3</sup>The earth will be utterly emptied and utterly laid waste; for the LORD has spoken this word. <sup>24:4</sup>The earth mourns and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish and fades away. The lofty people of the earth languish. <sup>24:5</sup>The earth also is polluted under its inhabitants, because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, and broken the everlasting covenant. <sup>24:6</sup>Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and those who dwell therein are found guilty. Therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. <sup>24:7</sup>The new wine mourns. The vine languishes. All the merry-hearted sigh. <sup>24:8</sup>The mirth of tambourines ceases. The sound of those who rejoice ends. The joy of the harp ceases. <sup>24:9</sup>They will not drink wine with a song. Strong drink will be bitter to those who drink it. <sup>24:10</sup>The confused city is broken down. Every house is shut up, that no man may come in. <sup>24:11</sup>There is a crying in the streets because of the wine. All joy is darkened. The mirth of the land is gone. <sup>24:12</sup>The city is left in desolation, and the gate is struck with destruction. <sup>24:13</sup>For it will be so in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done. <sup>24:14</sup>These shall lift up their voice. They will shout for the majesty of the LORD. They cry aloud from the sea. <sup>24:15</sup>Therefore glorify the LORD in the east, even the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, in the islands of the sea! <sup>24:16</sup>From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs. Glory to the righteous! But I said, “I pine away! I pine away! woe is me!” The treacherous have dealt treacherously. Yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously. <sup>24:17</sup>Fear, the pit, and the snare, are on you who inhabitant the earth.

<sup>24:18</sup>It will happen that he who flees from the noise of the fear will fall into the pit; and he who comes up out of the midst of the pit will be taken in the snare; for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble. <sup>24:19</sup>The earth is utterly broken. The earth is torn apart. The earth is shaken violently. <sup>24:20</sup>The earth will stagger like a drunken man, and will sway back and forth like a hammock. Its disobedience will be heavy on it, and it will fall and not rise again. <sup>24:21</sup>It shall happen in that day that the LORD will punish the army of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth on the earth. <sup>24:22</sup>They shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited. <sup>24:23</sup>Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for the LORD of Hosts will reign on Mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders will be glory.

<sup>25:1</sup>The LORD, you are my God. I will exalt you! I will praise your name, for you have done wonderful things, things planned long ago, in complete faithfulness and truth. <sup>25:2</sup>For you have made a city into a heap, a fortified city into a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city. It will never be built. <sup>25:3</sup>Therefore a strong people will glorify you. A city of awesome nations will fear you. <sup>25:4</sup>For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the dreaded ones is like a storm against the wall. <sup>25:5</sup>As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the dreaded ones will be brought low. <sup>25:6</sup>In this mountain, the LORD of Hosts will make all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of choice wines, of fat things full of marrow, of well refined choice wines. <sup>25:7</sup>He will destroy in this mountain the surface of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations. <sup>25:8</sup>He has swallowed up death forever! The Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces. He will take the reproach of his people away from off all the earth, for the LORD has spoken it. <sup>25:9</sup>It shall be said in that day, "Behold, this is our God! We have waited for him, and he will save us! This is the LORD! We have waited for him. We will be glad and rejoice in his salvation!"

Moab will be trodden down in his place, even like straw is trodden down in the water of the dunghill. <sup>25:11</sup>He will spread out his hands in its midst, like one who swims spreads out hands to swim, but his pride will be humbled together with the craft of his hands. <sup>25:12</sup>He has brought the high fortress of your walls down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.

<sup>26:1</sup>In that day, this song will be sung in the land of Judah:

"We have a strong city.

God appoints salvation for walls and bulwarks.

<sup>26:2</sup>Open the gates, that the righteous nation may enter:

the one which keeps faith.

<sup>26:3</sup>You will keep whoever's mind is steadfast in perfect peace, because he trusts in you.

<sup>26:4</sup>Trust in the LORD forever;

for in the LORD, the LORD, is an everlasting Rock.

<sup>26:5</sup>For he has brought down those who dwell on high, the lofty city.

He lays it low.

He lays it low even to the ground.

He brings it even to the dust.

<sup>26:6</sup>The foot shall tread it down;

Even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy."

You who are upright make the path of the righteous level.

<sup>26:8</sup>Yes, in the way of your judgments, the LORD, have we waited for you. Your name and your renown are the desire of our soul. <sup>26:9</sup>With my soul have I desired you in the night. Yes, with my spirit within me will I seek you earnestly; for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness. <sup>26:10</sup>Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet he will not learn righteousness. In the land of uprightness he will deal wrongfully, and will not see the LORD's majesty.

<sup>26:11</sup>The LORD, your hand is lifted up, yet they don't see; but they will see your zeal for the people, and be disappointed. Yes, fire will consume your adversaries. <sup>26:12</sup>The LORD, you will ordain peace for us, for you have also worked all our works for us. <sup>26:13</sup>The LORD our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us, but by you only will we make mention of your name. <sup>26:14</sup>The dead shall not live. The deceased shall not rise. Therefore have you visited and destroyed them, and caused all memory of them to perish. <sup>26:15</sup>You have increased the nation, O LORD. You have increased the nation! You are glorified! You have enlarged all the borders of the land. <sup>26:16</sup>LORD, in trouble they have visited you. They poured out a prayer when your chastening was on them. <sup>26:17</sup>Like as a woman with child, who draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, LORD. <sup>26:18</sup>We have been with child. We have been in pain. We gave birth, it seems, only to wind. We have not worked any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen. <sup>26:19</sup>Your dead shall live. My dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, you who dwell in the dust; for your dew is like the dew of herbs, and the earth will cast forth the dead.

<sup>26:20</sup>Come, my people, enter into your rooms, and shut your doors behind you. Hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation is past. <sup>26:21</sup>For, behold, the LORD comes forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity. The earth also will disclose her blood, and will no longer cover her slain.

<sup>27:1</sup>In that day, the LORD with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan, the fleeing serpent, and leviathan the twisted serpent; and he will kill the dragon that is in the sea. <sup>27:2</sup>In that day, sing to her, "A pleasant vineyard! <sup>27:3</sup>I, the LORD, am its keeper. I will water it every moment. Lest anyone damage it, I will keep it night and day. <sup>27:4</sup>Wrath is not in me, but if I should find briars and thorns, I would do battle! I would march on them and I would burn them together. <sup>27:5</sup>Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me. Let him make peace with me."

<sup>27:6</sup>In days to come, Jacob will take root. Israel will blossom and bud. They will fill the surface of the world with fruit. <sup>27:7</sup>Has he struck them as he struck those who struck them? Or are they killed like those who killed them were killed? <sup>27:8</sup>In measure, when you send them away, you contend with them. He has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind. <sup>27:9</sup>Therefore, by this the iniquity of Jacob will be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalk stones that are beaten in pieces, so that the Asherim and the incense altars shall rise no more. <sup>27:10</sup>For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness. The calf will feed there, and there he will lie down, and consume its branches. <sup>27:11</sup>When its boughs are withered, they will be broken off. The women will come and set them on fire, for they are a people of no understanding. Therefore he who made them will not have compassion on them, and he who formed them will show them no favor. <sup>27:12</sup>It will happen in that day, that the LORD will thresh from the flowing stream of the Euphrates to the brook of Egypt; and you will be gathered one by one, children of Israel. <sup>27:13</sup>It will happen in that day that a great shofar<sup>o</sup> will be blown; and those who were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and those who were outcasts in the land of Egypt, shall come; and they will worship the LORD in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.

<sup>28:1</sup>Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley of those who are overcome with wine! <sup>28:2</sup>Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one. Like a storm of hail, a destroying storm, and like a storm of mighty waters overflowing, he will cast them down to the earth with his hand. <sup>28:3</sup>The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim will be trodden under foot. <sup>28:4</sup>The fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fertile valley, shall be like the first-ripe fig before the summer; which someone picks and eats as soon as he sees it. <sup>28:5</sup>In that day, the LORD of Hosts will become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people; <sup>28:6</sup>and a spirit of justice to him who sits in judgment, and strength to those who turn back the battle at the gate. <sup>28:7</sup>They also reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink. The priest and the prophet reel with strong drink. They are swallowed up by wine. They stagger with strong drink. They err in vision. They stumble in judgment. <sup>28:8</sup>For all tables are completely full of filthy vomit and filthiness. <sup>28:9</sup>Whom will he teach knowledge? To whom will he explain the message? Those who are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts? <sup>28:10</sup>For it is precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little. <sup>28:11</sup>But he will speak to this nation with stammering lips and in another language; <sup>28:12</sup>to whom he said, "This is the resting place. Give rest to weary;" and "This is the refreshing;" yet they would not hear. <sup>28:13</sup>Therefore the word of the LORD will be to them precept on precept, precept on precept; line on line, line on line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, fall backward, be broken, be snared, and be taken. <sup>28:14</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD, you scoffers, that rule this people in Jerusalem: <sup>28:15</sup>"Because you have said, 'We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol<sup>P</sup> are we in agreement. When the overflowing scourge passes through, it won't come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and we have hidden ourselves under falsehood.'" <sup>28:16</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious cornerstone of a sure foundation. He who believes shall not act hastily. <sup>28:17</sup>I will make justice the measuring line, and righteousness the plumb line. The hail will sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters will overflow the hiding place. <sup>28:18</sup>Your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol<sup>Q</sup> shall not stand. When the overflowing scourge passes through, then you will be trampled down by it. <sup>28:19</sup>As often as it passes through, it will seize you; for morning by morning it will pass through, by day and by night; and it will be nothing but terror to understand the message." <sup>28:20</sup>For the bed is too short to stretch out on, and the blanket is too narrow to wrap oneself in. <sup>28:21</sup>For the LORD will rise up as on Mount Perazim. He will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his unusual work, and bring to pass his act, his extraordinary act. <sup>28:22</sup>Now therefore don't be scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for I have heard a decree of destruction from the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, on the whole earth.

<sup>28:23</sup>Give ear, and hear my voice! Listen, and hear my speech! <sup>28:24</sup>Does he who plows to sow plow continually? Does he keep turning the soil and breaking the clods? <sup>28:25</sup>When he has leveled its surface, doesn't he plant the dill, and scatter the cumin seed, and put in the wheat in rows, the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in its place? <sup>28:26</sup>For his God instructs him in right judgment, and teaches him. <sup>28:27</sup>For the dill are not threshed with a sharp instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned over the cumin; but the dill is beaten out with a stick, and the cumin with a rod. <sup>28:28</sup>Bread flour must be ground; so he will not always be threshing it. Although he drives the wheel of his threshing cart over it, his horses don't grind it. <sup>28:29</sup>This also comes forth from the LORD of Hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.

<sup>29:1</sup>Woe to Ariel! Ariel, the city where David encamped! Add year to year; let the feasts come around; <sup>29:2</sup>then I will distress Ariel, and there will be mourning and lamentation. She shall be to me as an altar hearth<sup>r</sup>. <sup>29:3</sup>I will encamp against you all around you, and will lay siege against you with posted troops. I will raise siege works against you. <sup>29:4</sup>You will be brought down, and will speak out of the ground. Your speech will mumble out of the dust. Your voice will be as of one who has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech will whisper out of the dust. <sup>29:5</sup>But the multitude of your foes will be like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like chaff that blows away. Yes, it will be in an instant, suddenly. <sup>29:6</sup>She will be visited by the LORD of Hosts with thunder, with earthquake, with great noise, with whirlwind and storm, and with the flame of a devouring fire. <sup>29:7</sup>The multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all who fight against her and her stronghold, and who distress her, will be like a dream, a vision of the night. <sup>29:8</sup>It will be like when a hungry man dreams, and behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his hunger isn't satisfied; or like when a thirsty man dreams, and behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and behold, he is faint, and he is still thirsty. The multitude of all the nations that fight against Mount Zion will be like that. <sup>29:9</sup>Pause and wonder! Blind yourselves and be blind! They are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. <sup>29:10</sup>For the LORD has poured out on you a spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and he has covered your heads, the seers. <sup>29:11</sup>All vision has become to you like the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one who is educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't, for it is sealed:" <sup>29:12</sup>and the book is delivered to one who is not educated, saying, "Read this, please;" and he says, "I can't read." <sup>29:13</sup>The Lord said, "Because this people draws near with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but they have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught; <sup>29:14</sup>therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvelous work among this people, even a marvelous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men will perish, and the understanding of their prudent men will be hidden."

<sup>29:15</sup>Woe to those who deeply hide their counsel from the LORD, and whose works are in the dark, and who say, "Who sees us?" and "Who knows us?" <sup>29:16</sup>You turn things upside down! Should the potter be thought to be like clay; that the thing made should say about him who made it, "He didn't make me;" or the thing formed say of him who formed it, "He has no understanding?"

<sup>29:17</sup>Isn't it yet a very little while, and Lebanon will be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field will be regarded as a forest? <sup>29:18</sup>In that day, the deaf will hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind will see out of obscurity and out of darkness. <sup>29:19</sup>The humble also will increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. <sup>29:20</sup>For the ruthless is brought to nothing, and the scoffer ceases, and all those who are alert to do evil are cut off— <sup>29:21</sup>who cause a person to be indicted by a word, and lay a snare for the arbiter in the gate, and who deprive the innocent of justice with false testimony. <sup>29:22</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: "Jacob shall no longer be ashamed, neither shall his face grow pale. <sup>29:23</sup>But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they will sanctify my name. Yes, they will sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and will stand in awe of the God of Israel. <sup>29:24</sup>They also who err in spirit will come to understanding, and those who grumble will receive instruction."

<sup>30:1</sup>"Woe to the rebellious children," says the LORD, "who take counsel, but not from me; and who make an alliance, but not with my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin, <sup>30:2</sup>who set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked my advice; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt! <sup>30:3</sup>Therefore the strength of Pharaoh will be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. <sup>30:4</sup>For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors have come to Hanes. <sup>30:5</sup>They shall all be ashamed because of a people that can't profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach."

<sup>30:6</sup>The burden of the animals of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, of the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches on the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures on the humps of camels, to an unprofitable people. <sup>30:7</sup>For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose; therefore have I called her Rahab who sits still. <sup>30:8</sup>Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come forever and ever. <sup>30:9</sup>For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children who will not hear the law of the LORD; <sup>30:10</sup>who tell the seers, "Don't see!" and to the prophets, "Don't prophesy to us right things. Tell us pleasant things. Prophecy deceits. <sup>30:11</sup>Get out of the way. Turn aside from the path. Cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us." <sup>30:12</sup>Therefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, "Because you despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely on it;

<sup>30:13</sup>therefore this iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant. <sup>30:14</sup>He will break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing, so that there won't be found among the broken piece a piece good enough to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern." <sup>30:15</sup>For thus said the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, "You will be saved in returning and rest. Your strength will be in quietness and in confidence." You refused, <sup>30:16</sup>but you said, "No, for we will flee on horses;" therefore you will flee; and, "We will ride on the swift;" therefore those who pursue you will be swift. <sup>30:17</sup>One thousand will flee at the threat of one. At the threat of five, you will flee until you are left like a beacon on the top of a mountain, and like a banner on a hill. <sup>30:18</sup>Therefore the LORD will wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore he will be exalted, that he may have mercy on you, for the LORD is a God of justice. Blessed are all those who wait for him. <sup>30:19</sup>For the people will dwell in Zion at Jerusalem. You will weep no more. He will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry. When he hears you, he will answer you. <sup>30:20</sup>Though the Lord may give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet your teachers won't be hidden anymore, but your eyes will see your teachers; <sup>30:21</sup>and when you turn to the right hand, and when you turn to the left, your ears will hear a voice behind you, saying, "This is the way. Walk in it." <sup>30:22</sup>You shall defile the overlaying of your engraved images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold. You shall cast them away as an unclean thing. You shall tell it, "Go away!" <sup>30:23</sup>He will give the rain for your seed, with which you will sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground will be rich and plentiful. In that day, your livestock will feed in large pastures. <sup>30:24</sup>The oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground will eat savory provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork. <sup>30:25</sup>There shall be brooks and streams of water on every lofty mountain and on every high hill in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. <sup>30:26</sup>Moreover the light of the moon will be like the light of the sun, and the light of the sun will be seven times brighter, like the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD binds up the fracture of his people, and heals the wound they were struck with.

<sup>30:27</sup>Behold, the name of the LORD comes from far away, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke. His lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire. <sup>30:28</sup>His breath is as an overflowing stream that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction; and a bridle that leads to ruin will be in the jaws of the peoples. <sup>30:29</sup>You will have a song, as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a flute to come to the LORD's mountain, to Israel's Rock. <sup>30:30</sup>The LORD will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the descent of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, storm, and hailstones. <sup>30:31</sup>For through the voice of the LORD the Assyrian will be dismayed. He will strike him with his rod. <sup>30:32</sup>Every stroke of the rod of punishment, which the LORD will lay on him, will be with the sound of tambourines and harps. He will fight with them in battles, brandishing weapons. <sup>30:33</sup>For his burning place has long been ready. Yes, for the king it is prepared. He has made its pyre deep and large with fire and much wood. The LORD's breath, like a stream of sulfur, kindles it.

and rely on horses,
and trust in chariots because they are many,
and in horsemen because they are very strong,
but they don't look to the Holy One of Israel, and they don't seek the LORD!

<sup>31:2</sup>Yet he also is wise, and will bring disaster, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of those who work iniquity.

<sup>31:3</sup>Now the Egyptians are men, and not God;
and their horses flesh, and not spirit.
When the LORD stretches out his hand, both he who helps shall stumble, and he who is helped shall fall,
and they all shall be consumed together.

<sup>31:4</sup>For thus says the LORD to me,
 "As the lion and the young lion growling over his prey,
 if a multitude of shepherds is called together against him,
 will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for their noise, so the LORD of Hosts will come down to fight on Mount Zion and on its heights.
<sup>31:5</sup>As birds hovering, so the LORD of Hosts will protect Jerusalem.
 He will protect and deliver it.
 He will pass over and preserve it."
<sup>31:6</sup>Return to him from whom you have deeply revolted, children of Israel. <sup>31:7</sup>For in that day everyone shall cast away his idols of silver and his idols of gold—sin which your own hands have made for you.
<sup>31:8</sup>"The Assyrian will fall by the sword, not of man;
 and the sword, not of mankind, shall devour him.
 He will flee from the sword, and his young men will become subject to forced labor.
<sup>31:9</sup>His rock will pass away by reason of terror, and his princes will be afraid of the banner,"
 says the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.
<sup>32:1</sup>Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice.
<sup>32:2</sup>A man shall be as a hiding place from the wind,
 and a covert from the storm,
 as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a large rock in a weary land.
<sup>32:3</sup>The eyes of those who see will not be dim, and the ears of those who hear will listen.
<sup>32:4</sup>The heart of the rash will understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers will be ready to speak plainly.
<sup>32:5</sup>The fool will no longer be called noble, nor the scoundrel be highly respected.
<sup>32:6</sup>For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity,
 to practice profanity,
 and to utter error against the LORD,
 To make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.

<sup>32:7</sup>The ways of the scoundrel are evil.
 He devises wicked devices to destroy the humble with lying words, even when the needy speaks right.
<sup>32:8</sup>But the noble devises noble things;
 and he will continue in noble things.
<sup>32:9</sup>Rise up, you women who are at ease! Hear my voice!
 You careless daughters, give ear to my speech!
<sup>32:10</sup>For days beyond a year you will be troubled, you careless women;
 for the vintage shall fail.
 The harvest won't come.
<sup>32:11</sup>Tremble, you women who are at ease!
 Be troubled, you careless ones!
 Strip yourselves, make yourselves naked,
 and put sackcloth on your waist.
<sup>32:12</sup>Beat your breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
<sup>32:13</sup>Thorns and briars will come up on my people's land;
 yes, on all the houses of joy in the joyous city.
<sup>32:14</sup>For the palace will be forsaken.
 The populous city will be deserted.
 The hill and the watchtower will be fordens forever,
 a delight for wild donkeys,
 a pasture of flocks;
<sup>32:15</sup>Until the Spirit is poured on us from on high,
 and the wilderness becomes a fruitful
 field,
 and the fruitful field is considered a forest.
<sup>32:16</sup>Then justice will dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness will remain in the fruitful field.
<sup>32:17</sup>The work of righteousness will be peace;
 and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence forever.
<sup>32:18</sup>My people will live in a peaceful habitation,
 in safe dwellings,
 and in quiet resting places.
<sup>32:19</sup>Though hail flattens the forest, and the city is leveled completely.
<sup>32:20</sup>Blessed are you who sow beside all waters, who send out the feet of the ox and the donkey.

<sup>33:1</sup>Woe to you who destroy, but you weren't destroyed;
 and who betray, but nobody betrayed you!
 When you have finished destroying, you will be destroyed;
 and when you have made an end of betrayal, you will be betrayed.
<sup>33:2</sup>LORD, be gracious to us. We have waited for you.
 Be our strength every morning,
 our salvation also in the time of trouble.
<sup>33:3</sup>At the noise of the thunder, the peoples have fled.
 When you lift yourself up, the nations are scattered.
<sup>33:4</sup>Your spoil will be gathered as the caterpillar gathers.
 Men will leap on it as locusts leap.
<sup>33:5</sup>The LORD is exalted, for he dwells on high.
 He has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
<sup>33:6</sup>There will be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge.
 The fear of the LORD is your treasure.
<sup>33:7</sup>Behold, their valiant ones cry outside;
 the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
<sup>33:8</sup>The highways are desolate.
 The traveling man ceases.
 The covenant is broken.
 He has despised the cities.
 He doesn't respect man.
<sup>33:9</sup>The land mourns and languishes.
 Lebanon is confounded and withers away.
 Sharon is like a desert, and Bashan and Carmel are stripped bare.
<sup>33:10</sup>"Now I will arise," says the LORD;
 "Now I will lift myself up.
 Now I will be exalted.
<sup>33:11</sup>You will conceive chaff.
 You will bring forth stubble.
 Your breath is a fire that will devour you.
<sup>33:12</sup>The peoples will be like the burning of lime, like thorns that are cut down and burned in the fire.
<sup>33:13</sup>Hear, you who are far off, what I have done;
 and, you who are near, acknowledge my might."
<sup>33:14</sup>The sinners in Zion are afraid.
 Trembling has seized the godless ones.
 Who among us can live with the devouring fire?
 Who among us can live with everlasting burning?
<sup>33:15</sup>He who walks righteously, and speaks blamelessly;
 He who despises the gain of oppressions, who gestures with his hands, refusing to take a bribe,
 who stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking at evil—<sup>33:16</sup>he will dwell on high.
 His place of defense will be the fortress of rocks.
 His bread will be supplied.
 His waters will be sure.
<sup>33:17</sup>Your eyes will see the king in his beauty.
 They will see a distant land.
<sup>33:18</sup>Your heart will meditate on the terror.
 Where is he who counted?
 Where is he who weighed?
 Where is he who counted the towers?
<sup>33:19</sup>You will no longer see the fierce people, a people of a deep speech that you can't comprehend, with a strange language that you can't understand.
<sup>33:20</sup>Look at Zion, the city of our appointed festivals.
 Your eyes will see Jerusalem, a quiet habitation, a tent that won't be removed.
 Its stakes will never be plucked up,
 nor will any of its cords be broken.
<sup>33:21</sup>But there the LORD will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams,
 in which no galley with oars will go, neither will any gallant ship pass by there.
<sup>33:22</sup>For the LORD is our judge.
 The LORD is our lawgiver.
 The LORD is our king.
 He will save us.
<sup>33:23</sup>Your rigging is untied.
 They couldn't strengthen the foot of their mast.
 They couldn't spread the sail.

Then the prey of a great spoil was divided.

The lame took the prey.

<sup>33:24</sup>The inhabitant won't say, "I am sick."

The people who dwell therein will be forgiven their iniquity.

<sup>34:1</sup>Come near, you nations, to hear!

Listen, you peoples.

Let the earth and all it contains hear;
the world, and everything that comes from it.

<sup>34:2</sup>For the LORD is enraged against all the nations, and angry with all their armies.

He has utterly destroyed them.

He has given them over for slaughter.

<sup>34:3</sup>Their slain will also be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies will come up;
and the mountains will melt in their blood.

<sup>34:4</sup>All of the army of the sky will be dissolved.
The sky will be rolled up like a scroll, and all its armies will fade away,

as a leaf fades from off a vine or a fig tree.

<sup>34:5</sup>For my sword has drunk its fill in the sky.

Behold, it will come down on Edom, and on the people of my curse, for judgment.

<sup>34:6</sup>The LORD's sword is filled with blood.

It is covered with fat, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams;
for the LORD has a sacrifice in Bozrah,
And a great slaughter in the land of Edom.

<sup>34:7</sup>The wild oxen will come down with them, and the young bulls with the mighty bulls;

and their land will be drunken with blood, and their dust made greasy with fat.

<sup>34:8</sup>For the LORD has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.

<sup>34:9</sup>Its streams will be turned into pitch, its dust into sulfur,

And its land will become burning pitch.

<sup>34:10</sup>It won't be quenched night nor day.

Its smoke will go up forever.
From generation to generation, it will lie waste.

No one will pass through it forever and ever.

<sup>34:11</sup>But the pelican and the porcupine will possess it.

The owl and the raven will dwell in it.

He will stretch the line of confusion over it, and the plumb line of emptiness.

<sup>34:12</sup>They shall call its nobles to the kingdom, but none shall be there;

and all its princes shall be nothing.

<sup>34:13</sup>Thorns will come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in its fortresses;
and it will be a habitation of jackals,
a court for ostriches.

<sup>34:14</sup>The wild animals of the desert will meet with the wolves, and the wild goat will cry to his fellow.

Yes, the night creature<sup>s</sup> shall settle there, and shall find herself a place of rest.

<sup>34:15</sup>The arrow snake will make her nest there, and lay, hatch, and gather under her shade.

Yes, the kites will be gathered there, every one with her mate.

<sup>34:16</sup>Search in the book of the LORD, and read:
not one of these will be missing.

none will lack her mate.

For my mouth has commanded,
and his Spirit has gathered them.

<sup>34:17</sup>He has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them with a measuring line.

They shall possess it forever.

From generation to generation they will dwell in it.

<sup>35:1</sup>The wilderness and the dry land will be glad.

The desert will rejoice and blossom like a rose.

<sup>35:2</sup>It will blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing.

Lebanon's glory Lebanon will be given to it, the excellence of Carmel and Sharon.

They will see the LORD's glory,
the excellence of our God.

<sup>35:3</sup>Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees.

<sup>35:4</sup>Tell those who have a fearful heart, "Be strong.

Don't be afraid.

<sup>s</sup>34:14 literally, lilith, which could also be a night demon or night monster

Behold, your God will come with vengeance, God's retribution.
 He will come and save you.
<sup>35:5</sup>Then the eyes of the blind will be opened, and the ears of the deaf will be un-stopped.
<sup>35:6</sup>Then the lame man will leap like a deer, and the tongue of the mute will sing;
 for waters will break out in the wilderness,
 and streams in the desert.
<sup>35:7</sup>The burning sand will become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water.
 Grass with reeds and rushes will be in the habitation of jackals, where they lay.
<sup>35:8</sup>A highway will be there, a road,
 and it will be called The Holy Way.
 The unclean shall not pass over it, but it will be for those who walk in the Way.
 Wicked fools will not go there.
<sup>35:9</sup>No lion will be there, nor will any ravenous animal go up on it.
 They will not be found there;
 but the redeemed will walk there.
<sup>35:10</sup>The the LORD's ransomed ones will return,
 and come with singing to Zion;
 and everlasting joy will be on their heads.
 They will obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing will flee away."
<sup>36:1</sup>Now it happened in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria attacked all of the fortified cities of Judah, and captured them. <sup>36:2</sup>The king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a large army. He stood by the aqueduct from the upper pool in the fuller's field highway. <sup>36:3</sup>Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder came out to him. <sup>36:4</sup>Rabshakeh said to them, "Now tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, "What confidence is this in which you trust? <sup>36:5</sup>I say that your counsel and strength for the war are only vain words. Now in whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me? <sup>36:6</sup>Behold, you trust in the staff of this bruised reed, even in Egypt, which if a man leans on it, it will go into his hand and pierce it. So is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust in him. <sup>36:7</sup>But if you tell me, 'We trust in the LORD our God,' isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, 'You shall worship before this altar?'" <sup>36:8</sup>Now therefore, please make a pledge to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able on your part to set riders on them.

<sup>36:9</sup>How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? <sup>36:10</sup>Have I come up now without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD said to me, "Go up against this land, and destroy it.""
<sup>36:11</sup>Then Eliakim, Shebna and Joah said to Rabshakeh, "Please speak to your servants in Aramaic, for we understand it; and don't speak to us in the Jews' language in the hearing of the people who are on the wall."
<sup>36:12</sup>But Rabshakeh said, "Has my master sent me only to your master and to you, to speak these words, and not to the men who sit on the wall, who will eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?" <sup>36:13</sup>Then Rabshakeh stood, and called out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, "Hear the words of the great king, the king of Assyria!
<sup>36:14</sup>Thus says the king, 'Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you. <sup>36:15</sup>Don't let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, "The LORD will surely deliver us. This city won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" <sup>36:16</sup>Don't listen to Hezekiah, for thus says the king of Assyria,
 'Make your peace with me, and come out to me;
 and each of you eat from his vine, and each one from his fig tree, and each one of you drink the waters of his own cistern; <sup>36:17</sup>until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards. <sup>36:18</sup>Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, "The LORD will deliver us." Have any of the gods of the nations delivered their lands from the hand of the king of Assyria?
<sup>36:19</sup>Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad?
 Where are the gods of Sepharvaim? Have they delivered Samaria from my hand? <sup>36:20</sup>Who are they among all the gods of these countries that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?"

<sup>36:21</sup> But they remained silent, and said nothing in reply, for the king's commandment was, "Don't answer him."

<sup>36:22</sup> Then Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

<sup>37:1</sup> It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the LORD's house. <sup>37:2</sup> He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz. <sup>37:3</sup> They said to him, "Thus says Hezekiah, 'This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children have come to the birth, and there is no strength to bring forth. <sup>37:4</sup> It may be the LORD your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which the LORD your God has heard. Therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.'" <sup>37:5</sup> So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

<sup>37:6</sup> Isaiah said to them, "Tell your master, 'Thus says the LORD, "Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me. <sup>37:7</sup> Behold, I will put a spirit in him and he will hear news, and will return to his own land. I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.'"

<sup>37:8</sup> So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah, for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish. <sup>37:9</sup> He heard news concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, "He has come out to fight against you." When he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, <sup>37:10</sup> "Thus you shall speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, 'Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, "Jerusalem won't be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.'" <sup>37:11</sup> Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly. Shall you be delivered? <sup>37:12</sup> Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the children of Eden who were in Telassar? <sup>37:13</sup> Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?"

<sup>37:14</sup> Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers and read it. Then Hezekiah went up to the LORD's house, and spread it before the LORD. <sup>37:15</sup> Hezekiah prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>37:16</sup> "LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, who is enthroned among the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth. You have made heaven and earth. <sup>37:17</sup> Turn your ear, LORD, and hear. Open your eyes, LORD, and behold. Hear all of the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God. <sup>37:18</sup> Truly, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed all the countries and their land, <sup>37:19</sup> and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them. <sup>37:20</sup> Now therefore, LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are the LORD, even you only."

<sup>37:21</sup> Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, 'Because you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, <sup>37:22</sup> this is the word which the LORD has spoken concerning him. The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and ridiculed you. The daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you. <sup>37:23</sup> Whom have you defied and blasphemed? Against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? Against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>37:24</sup> By your servants, have you defied the Lord, and have said, "With the multitude of my chariots I have come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon. I will cut down its tall cedars and its choice fir trees. I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field. <sup>37:25</sup> I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt.'" <sup>37:26</sup> Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it in ancient times? Now I have brought it to pass, that it should be yours to destroy fortified cities, turning them into ruinous heaps. <sup>37:27</sup> Therefore their inhabitants had little power. They were dismayed and confounded. They were like the grass of the field, and like the green herb, like the grass on the housetops, and like a field before its crop has grown. <sup>37:28</sup>But I know your sitting down, your going out, your coming in, and your raging against me. <sup>37:29</sup>Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance has come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came. <sup>37:30</sup>This shall be the sign to you. You will eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs from the same; and in the third year sow and reap and plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. <sup>37:31</sup>The remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah will again take root downward, and bear fruit upward. <sup>37:32</sup>For out of Jerusalem a remnant will go forth, and survivors will escape from Mount Zion. The zeal of the LORD of Hosts will perform this. <sup>37:33</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the king of Assyria, 'He will not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither will he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it. <sup>37:34</sup>By the way that he came, by the same he shall return, and he shall not come to this city,' says the LORD. <sup>37:35</sup>For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.'"

<sup>37:36</sup>The angel of the LORD went out and struck one hundred and eighty-five thousand men in the camp of the Assyrians. When men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies. <sup>37:37</sup>So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, went away, returned to Nineveh, and stayed there. <sup>37:38</sup>It happened, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons struck him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. Esar Haddon his son reigned in his place.

<sup>38:1</sup>In those days was Hezekiah sick and near death. Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, came to him, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Set your house in order, for you will die, and not live.'"

<sup>38:2</sup>Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and prayed to the LORD, <sup>38:3</sup>and said, "Remember now, the LORD, I beg you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight." Hezekiah wept bitterly.

<sup>38:4</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Isaiah, saying, <sup>38:5</sup>"Go, and tell Hezekiah, 'Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, "I have heard your prayer. I have seen your tears. Behold, I will add fifteen years to your life. <sup>38:6</sup>I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city. <sup>38:7</sup>This shall be the sign to you from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he has spoken. <sup>38:8</sup>Behold, I will cause the shadow on the sundial, which has gone down on the sundial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the sundial on which it had gone down.'"

<sup>38:9</sup>The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and had recovered of his sickness.

<sup>38:10</sup>I said, "In the middle of my life I go into the gates of Sheol<sup>t</sup>.

I am deprived of the residue of my years."

<sup>38:11</sup>I said, "I won't see the LORD,

The LORD in the land of the living.

I will see man no more with the inhabitants of the world.

<sup>38:12</sup>My dwelling is removed,

and is carried away from me like a shepherd's tent.

I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life.

He will cut me off from the loom.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

<sup>38:13</sup>I waited patiently until morning.

He breaks all my bones like a lion.

From day even to night you will make an end of me.

<sup>38:14</sup>I chattered like a swallow or a crane.

I moaned like a dove.

My eyes weaken looking upward.

Lord, I am oppressed.

Be my security."

<sup>38:15</sup>What will I say?

He has both spoken to me, and himself has done it.

I will walk carefully all my years because of the anguish of my soul.

<sup>38:16</sup>Lord, men live by these things; and my spirit finds life in all of them:

you restore me, and cause me to live.

<sup>38:17</sup>Behold, for peace I had great anguish, but you have in love for my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption;

<sup>t</sup>38:10 Sheol is the place of the dead.

for you have cast all my sins behind your back.

Death can't celebrate you.

Those who go down into the pit can't hope for your truth.

<sup>38:19</sup>The living, the living, he shall praise you, as I do this day.

The father shall make known your truth to the children.

Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD.

<sup>38:21</sup>Now Isaiah had said, "Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a poultice on the boil, and he shall recover." <sup>38:22</sup>Hezekiah also had said, "What is the sign that I will go up to the house of the LORD?"

<sup>39:1</sup>At that time, Merodach Baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and had recovered. <sup>39:2</sup>Hezekiah was pleased with them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures. There was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah didn't show them. <sup>39:3</sup>Then Isaiah the prophet came to king Hezekiah, and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from to you?"

Hezekiah said, "They have come from a country far from me, even from Babylon."

<sup>39:4</sup>Then he asked, "What have they seen in your house?"

Hezekiah answered, "They have seen all that is in my house. There is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them."

<sup>39:5</sup>Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Hear the word of the LORD of Hosts: <sup>39:6</sup>Behold, the days are coming when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have stored up until this day, will be carried to Babylon. Nothing will be left," says the LORD. <sup>39:7</sup>"They will take away your sons who will issue from you, whom you shall father, and they will be eunuchs in the king of Babylon's palace."

<sup>39:8</sup>Then Hezekiah said to Isaiah, "The LORD's word which you have spoken is good."

<sup>u</sup>38:18 Sheol is the place of the dead.

He said moreover, "For there will be peace and truth in my days."

<sup>40:1</sup>"Comfort, comfort my people," says your God. <sup>40:2</sup>"Speak comfortably to Jerusalem; and call out to her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins."

<sup>40:3</sup>The voice of one who calls out, "Prepare the way of the LORD in the wilderness!

Make a level highway in the desert for our God.

<sup>40:4</sup>Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low.

The uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain.

<sup>40:5</sup>The glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it." <sup>40:6</sup>The voice of one saying, "Cry!"

One said, "What shall I cry?"

"All flesh is like grass, and all its glory is like the flower of the field.

<sup>40:7</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades, because the LORD's breath blows on it. Surely the people are like grass.

<sup>40:8</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God stands forever."

<sup>40:9</sup>You who tell good news to Zion, go up on a high mountain.

You who tell good news to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength.

Lift it up. Don't be afraid.

Say to the cities of Judah, "Behold, your God!"

<sup>40:10</sup>Behold, the Lord GOD will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him.

Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.

He will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom.

He will gently lead those who have their young.

- 40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and marked off the sky with his span,
and calculated the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales,
and the hills in a balance?
- 40:13 Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or has taught him as his counselor?
- 40:14 Who did he take counsel with,
and who instructed him,
and taught him in the path of justice,
and taught him knowledge,
and showed him the way of understanding?
- 40:15 Behold, the nations are like a drop in a bucket, and are regarded as a speck of dust on a balance.
Behold, he lifts up the islands like a very little thing.
- 40:16 Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor its animals sufficient for a burnt offering.
- 40:17 All the nations are like nothing before him.
They are regarded by him as less than nothing, and vanity.
- 40:18 To whom then will you liken God?
Or what likeness will you compare to him?
- 40:19 A workman has cast an image, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold,
and casts silver chains for it.
- 40:20 He who is too impoverished for such an offering chooses a tree that will not rot.
He seeks a skillful workman to set up an engraved image for him that will not be moved.
- 40:21 Haven't you known?
Haven't you heard, yet?
Haven't you been told from the beginning?
Haven't you understood from the foundations of the earth?
- 40:22 It is he who sits above the circle of the earth, and its inhabitants are like grasshoppers;
who stretches out the heavens like a curtain, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;
40:23 who brings princes to nothing;
- who makes the judges of the earth like meaningless.
- 40:24 They are planted scarcely.
They are sown scarcely.
Their stock has scarcely taken root in the ground.
He merely blows on them, and they wither,
and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.
- 40:25 "To whom then will you liken me?
Who is my equal?" says the Holy One.
- 40:26 Lift up your eyes on high,
and see who has created these,
who brings out their army by number.
He calls them all by name,
by the greatness of his might,
and because he is strong in power,
Not one is lacking.
- 40:27 Why do you say, Jacob,
and speak, Israel,
"My way is hidden from the LORD, and the justice due me is disregarded by my God?"
- 40:28 Haven't you known?
Haven't you heard?
The everlasting God, the LORD,
The Creator of the ends of the earth, doesn't faint.
He isn't weary.
His understanding is unsearchable.
- 40:29 He gives power to the weak.
He increases the strength of him who has no might.
- 40:30 Even the youths faint and get weary, and the young men utterly fall;
40:31 But those who wait for the LORD will renew their strength.
They will mount up with wings like eagles.
They will run, and not be weary.
They will walk, and not faint.
- 41:1 "Keep silent before me, islands, and let the peoples renew their strength.
Let them come near,
then let them speak.
Let's meet together for judgment.
- 41:2 Who has raised up one from the east?
Who called him to his foot in righteousness?
He hands over nations to him,
and makes him rule over kings.

- He gives them like the dust to his sword, like the driven stubble to his bow.
- <sup>41:3</sup>He pursues them,
and passes by safely,
Even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.
- <sup>41:4</sup>Who has worked and done it, calling the generations from the beginning?
I, the LORD, the first, and with the last, I am he."
- <sup>41:5</sup>The islands have seen, and fear.
The ends of the earth tremble.
They approach, and come.
- <sup>41:6</sup>Everyone helps his neighbor.
They say to their brothers, "Be strong!"
- <sup>41:7</sup>So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith.
He who smoothes with the hammer encourages him who strikes the anvil, saying of the soldering, "It is good;"
and he fastens it with nails, that it might not totter.
- <sup>41:8</sup>"But you, Israel, my servant,
Jacob whom I have chosen,
the seed of Abraham my friend, <sup>41:9</sup>You whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from its corners,
and said to you, 'You are my servant,
I have chosen you and not cast you
away;'
- <sup>41:10</sup>Don't you be afraid, for I am with you.
Don't be dismayed, for I am your God.
I will strengthen you.
Yes, I will help you.
Yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.
- <sup>41:11</sup>Behold, all those who are incensed against you will be disappointed and confounded.
Those who strive with you will be like nothing, and shall perish.
- <sup>41:12</sup>You will seek them, and won't find them, even those who contend with you.
Those who war against you will be as nothing,
as a non-existent thing.
- <sup>41:13</sup>For I, the LORD your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, 'Don't be afraid.
I will help you.'
- <sup>41:14</sup>Don't be afraid, you worm Jacob, and you men of Israel.
I will help you," says the LORD,
"and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>41:15</sup>Behold, I have made you into a new sharp threshing instrument with teeth.
You will thresh the mountains, and beat them small,
and will make the hills like chaff.
- <sup>41:16</sup>You will winnow them, and the wind will carry them away,
and the whirlwind will scatter them.
You will rejoice in the LORD.
You will glory in the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>41:17</sup>The poor and needy seek water, and there is none.
Their tongue fails for thirst.
I, the LORD, will answer them.
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
- <sup>41:18</sup>I will open rivers on the bare heights, and springs in the midst of the valleys.
I will make the wilderness a pool of water,
and the dry land springs of water.
- <sup>41:19</sup>I will put cedar, acacia, myrtle, and oil trees in the wilderness.
I will set fir trees, pine, and box trees together in the desert; <sup>41:20</sup>that they may see, know, consider,
and understand together,
that the hand of the LORD has done this,
and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
- <sup>41:21</sup>Produce your cause," says the LORD.
"Bring forth your strong reasons," says
the King of Jacob.
- <sup>41:22</sup>"Let them announce, and declare to us what shall happen.
Declare the former things, what they are,
that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them;
or show us things to come.
- <sup>41:23</sup>Declare the things that are to come hereafter,
that we may know that you are gods.
Yes, do good, or do evil,
that we may be dismayed,
and see it together.
- <sup>41:24</sup>Behold, you are of nothing, and your work is of nothing.
He who chooses you is an abomination.
- <sup>41:25</sup>"I have raised up one from the north, and he has come;

from the rising of the sun, one who calls on my name;
 and he shall come on rulers as on mortar,
 and as the potter treads clay.
<sup>41:26</sup>Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know?
 And before, that we may say, 'He is right?'
 Surely, there is no one who declares.
 Surely, there is no one who shows.
 Surely, there is no one who hears your words.
<sup>41:27</sup>I am the first to say to Zion, 'Behold, look at them;'
 and I will give one who brings good news to Jerusalem.
<sup>41:28</sup>When I look, there is no man;
 even among them there is no counselor who, when I ask of them, can answer a word.
<sup>41:29</sup>Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nothing.
 Their molten images are wind and confusion.
<sup>42:1</sup>"Behold, my servant, whom I uphold;
 my chosen, in whom my soul delights—
 I have put my Spirit on him.
 He will bring justice to the nations.
<sup>42:2</sup>He will not shout, nor raise his voice,
 nor cause it to be heard in the street.
<sup>42:3</sup>He won't break a bruised reed.
 He won't quench a dimly burning wick.
 He will faithfully bring justice.
<sup>42:4</sup>He will not fail nor be discouraged, until he has set justice in the earth, and the islands will wait for his law."
<sup>42:5</sup>Thus says God the LORD, he who created the heavens and stretched them out,
 he who spread out the earth and that which comes out of it, he who gives breath to its people and spirit to those who walk in it.
<sup>42:6</sup>"I, the LORD, have called you in righteousness,
 and will hold your hand,
 and will keep you,
 and make you a covenant for the people,
 as a light for the nations;
<sup>42:7</sup>to open the blind eyes, to bring the prisoners out of the dungeon, and those who sit in darkness out of the prison.

<sup>42:8</sup>"I am the LORD.
 That is my name.
 I will not give my glory to another,
 nor my praise to engraved images.
<sup>42:9</sup>Behold, the former things have happened, and I declare new things.
 I tell you about them before they come up."
<sup>42:10</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth,
 you who go down to the sea,
 and all that is therein,
 the islands and their inhabitants.
<sup>42:11</sup>Let the wilderness and its cities raise their voices,
 with the villages that Kedar inhabits.
 Let the inhabitants of Sela sing.
 Let them shout from the top of the mountains!
<sup>42:12</sup>Let them give glory to the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands.
<sup>42:13</sup>The LORD will go out like a mighty man.
 He will stir up zeal like a man of war.
 He will raise a war cry.
 Yes, he will shout aloud.
 He will triumph over his enemies.
<sup>42:14</sup>"I have been silent a long time.
 I have been quiet and restrained myself.
 Now I will cry out like a travailing woman. I will both gasp and pant.
<sup>42:15</sup>I will destroy mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs.
 I will make the rivers islands,
 and will dry up the pools.
<sup>42:16</sup>I will bring the blind by a way that they don't know.
 I will lead them in paths that they don't know.
 I will make darkness light before them,
 and crooked places straight.
 I will do these things,
 and I will not forsake them.
<sup>42:17</sup>"Those who trust in engraved images, who tell molten images,
 'You are our gods'
 will be turned back.
 They will be utterly disappointed.
<sup>42:18</sup>"Hear, you deaf, and look, you blind,
 that you may see.

42:19 Who is blind, but my servant?
 Or who is as deaf as my messenger whom I send?
 Who is as blind as he who is at peace,
 and as blind as the LORD's servant?
 42:20 You see many things, but don't observe.
 His ears are open, but he doesn't listen.
 42:21 It pleased the LORD, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law,
 and make it honorable.
 42:22 But this is a robbed and plundered people.
 All of them are snared in holes, and they are hidden in prisons.
 They have become a prey, and no one delivers;
 and a spoil, and no one says, 'Restore
 them!'
 42:23 Who is there among you who will give ear to this?
 Who will listen and hear for the time to come?
 42:24 Who gave Jacob as plunder, and Israel to the robbers?
 Didn't the LORD, he against whom we have sinned?
 For they would not walk in his ways,
 and they disobeyed his law.
 42:25 Therefore he poured the fierceness of his anger on him,
 and the strength of battle;
 and it set him on fire all around, but he didn't know;
 and it burned him, but he didn't take it to heart."
 43:1 But now thus says the LORD who created you, Jacob,
 and he who formed you, Israel:
 "Don't be afraid, for I have redeemed you.
 I have called you by your name.
 You are mine.
 43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you;
 and through the rivers, they will not overflow you.
 When you walk through the fire, you will not be burned,
 and flame will not scorch you.
 43:3 For I am the LORD your God,
 the Holy One of Israel,
 your Savior.
 I have given Egypt as your ransom,
 Ethiopia and Seba in your place.

43:4 Since you have been precious and honored in my sight,
 and I have loved you;
 therefore I will give people in your place,
 and nations instead of your life.
 43:5 Don't be afraid; for I am with you.
 I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west.
 43:6 I will tell the north, 'Give them up!'
 and tell the south, 'Don't hold them back!
 Bring my sons from far,
 and my daughters from the ends of the earth—
 43:7 everyone who is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed,
 yes, whom I have made.'"
 43:8 Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.
 43:9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled.
 Who among them can declare this,
 and show us former things?
 Let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified;
 or let them hear, and say, "That is true."
 43:10 "You are my witnesses," says the LORD,
 "With my servant whom I have chosen;
 that you may know and believe me,
 and understand that I am he.
 Before me there was no God formed, neither will there be after me.
 43:11 I myself am the LORD;
 and besides me there is no savior.
 43:12 I have declared, I have saved, and I have shown;
 and there was no strange god among you.
 Therefore you are my witnesses," says the LORD, "and I am God.
 43:13 Yes, since the day was I am he;
 and there is no one who can deliver out of my hand.
 I will work, and who can hinder it?"
 43:14 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: "For your sake, I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring all of them down as fugitives, even the Kasdim, in the ships of their rejoicing. 43:15 I am the LORD, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King."
 43:16 Thus says the LORD, who makes a way in the sea,

and a path in the mighty waters;
 43:17 who brings forth the chariot and horse,
 the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise;
 they are extinct, they are quenched like a wick):
 43:18 "Don't remember the former things, and don't consider the things of old.
 43:19 Behold, I will do a new thing.
 It springs forth now.
 Don't you know it?
 I will even make a way in the wilderness,
 and rivers in the desert.
 43:20 The animals of the field shall honor me,
 the jackals and the ostriches;
 because I give water in the wilderness and rivers in the desert,
 to give drink to my people, my chosen, 43:21 the people which I formed for myself,
 that they might set forth my praise.
 43:22 Yet you have not called on me, Jacob;
 but you have been weary of me, Israel.
 43:23 You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt offerings;
 neither have you honored me with your sacrifices.
 I have not burdened you with offerings,
 nor wearied you with frankincense.
 43:24 You have bought me no sweet cane with money,
 nor have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices;
 but you have burdened me with your sins.
 You have wearied me with your iniquities.
 43:25 I, even I, am he who blots out your transgressions for my own sake;
 and I will not remember your sins.
 43:26 Put me in remembrance.
 Let us plead together.
 Set forth your case,
 that you may be justified.
 43:27 Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed
 against me.
 43:28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary;
 and I will make Jacob a curse,
 and Israel an insult."
 44:1 Yet listen now, Jacob my servant, and Israel, whom I have chosen.

 44:2 This is what the LORD who made you, and formed you from the womb,
 who will help you says:
 "Don't be afraid, Jacob my servant;
 and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
 44:3 For I will pour water on him who is thirsty, and streams on the dry ground.
 I will pour my Spirit on your seed, and my blessing on your offspring:
 44:4 and they will spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses.
 44:5 One will say, 'I am the LORD's,' and another will be called by the name of Jacob;
 and another will write with his hand 'to the LORD,'
 and honor the name of Israel."
 44:6 This is what the LORD, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, the LORD of Hosts, says:
 "I am the first, and I am the last;
 and besides me there is no God.
 44:7 Who is like me?
 Who will call,
 and will declare it,
 and set it in order for me,
 since I established the ancient people?
 Let them declare the things that are coming,
 and that will happen.
 44:8 Don't fear,
 neither be afraid.
 Haven't I declared it to you long ago,
 and shown it?
 You are my witnesses.
 Is there a God besides me?
 Indeed, there is not.
 I don't know any other Rock."
 44:9 Everyone who makes an engraved image is vain.
 The things that they delight in will not profit.
 Their own witnesses don't see, nor know, that they may be disappointed.
 44:10 Who has fashioned a god, or molds an image that is profitable for nothing?
 44:11 Behold, all his fellows will be disappointed;
 and the workmen are mere men.
 Let them all be gathered together.
 Let them stand up.

They will fear.
They will be put to shame together.

44:12 The blacksmith takes an axe, works in the coals,
fashions it with hammers,
and works it with his strong arm.
He is hungry,
and his strength fails;
he drinks no water,
and is faint.

44:13 The carpenter stretches out a line.
He marks it out with a pencil.
He shapes it with planes.
He marks it out with compasses, and shapes it like the figure of a man,
with the beauty of a man,
to reside in a house.

44:14 He cuts down cedars for himself, and takes the cypress and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest.
He plants a fir tree,
and the rain nourishes it.

44:15 Then it will be for a man to burn;
and he takes some of it, and warms himself.
Yes, he burns it, and bakes bread.
Yes, he makes a god, and worships it;
he makes it an engraved image, and falls down to it.

44:16 He burns part of it in the fire.
With part of it, he eats meat.
He roasts a roast, and is satisfied.
Yes, he warms himself, and says, "Aha! I am warm. I have seen the fire."

44:17 The rest of it he makes into a god, even his engraved image.
He bows down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, "Deliver me; for you are my god!"

44:18 They don't know, neither do they consider:
for he has shut their eyes, that they can't see;
and their hearts, that they can't understand.

44:19 No one thinks, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say,
"I have burned part of it in the fire.
Yes, I have also baked bread on its coals.
I have roasted meat and eaten it.

Shall I make the rest of it into an abomination?
Shall I bow down to a tree trunk?"

44:20 He feeds on ashes.
A deceived heart has turned him aside;
and he can't deliver his soul,
nor say, "Isn't there a lie in my right hand?"

44:21 Remember these things, Jacob and Israel;
for you are my servant.
I have formed you.
You are my servant.
Israel, you will not be forgotten by me.

44:22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions,
and, as a cloud, your sins.
Return to me, for I have redeemed you.

44:23 Sing, you heavens, for the LORD has done
it!
Shout, you lower parts of the earth!
Break out into singing, you mountains, O forest, all of your trees, for the LORD has redeemed Jacob,
and will glorify himself in Israel.

44:24 Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, and he who formed you from the womb:
"I am the LORD, who makes all things;
who alone stretches out the heavens;
who spreads out the earth by myself; 44:25 who frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad;
who turns wise men backward,
and makes their knowledge foolish;
44:26 who confirms the word of his servant, and performs the counsel of his messengers;
who says of Jerusalem, 'She will be inhabited;'
and of the cities of Judah, 'They will be built,'
and 'I will raise up its waste places;'
44:27 who says to the deep, 'Be dry,' and 'I will dry up your rivers;'
44:28 Who says of Cyrus, 'He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure,' even saying of Jerusalem, 'She will be built;'
and of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"

45:1 Thus says the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have held, to subdue nations before him, and strip kings of their armor; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:

<sup>45:2</sup>“I will go before you,
and make the rough places smooth.
I will break the doors of brass in pieces, and cut apart the bars of iron.

<sup>45:3</sup>I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, the LORD, who call you by your name,
even the God of Israel.

<sup>45:4</sup>For Jacob my servant’s sake, and Israel my chosen,
I have called you by your name.

I have surnamed you,
though you have not known me.

<sup>45:5</sup>I am the LORD, and there is none else.
Besides me, there is no God.

I will strengthen<sup>v</sup> you,
though you have not known me;

<sup>45:6</sup>that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west,
that there is none besides me.
I am the LORD, and there is no one else.

<sup>45:7</sup>I form the light, and create darkness.

I make peace,
and create calamity.

I am the LORD,
who does all these things.

<sup>45:8</sup>Distil, you heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness.

Let the earth open, that it may bring forth
salvation,
and let it cause righteousness to spring up with it.

I, the LORD, have created it.

<sup>45:9</sup>Woe to him who strives with his Maker—a clay pot among the clay pots of the earth!

Shall the clay ask him who fashions it, ‘What are you making?’
or your work, ‘He has no hands?’

<sup>45:10</sup>Woe to him who says to a father, ‘What have you become the father of?’
or to a mother, ‘To what have you given birth?’”

<sup>45:11</sup>Thus says the LORD, the Holy One of Israel,

and his Maker:

“You ask me about the things that are to come,
concerning my sons,
and you command me concerning the work of my hands!

<sup>45:12</sup>I have made the earth, and created man on it.

I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens;

and I have commanded all their army.

<sup>45:13</sup>I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways.

He shall build my city,
and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward,” says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>45:14</sup>Thus says the LORD: “The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabean, men of stature, shall come over to you,
and they shall be yours.

They will go after you.

They shall come over in chains;
and they will bow down to you.

They will make supplication to you:
‘Surely God is in you; and there is none else.

There is no other god.

<sup>45:15</sup>Most certainly you are a God who hidden yourself,
God of Israel, the Savior.”

<sup>45:16</sup>They will be disappointed, yes, confounded, all of them.

Those who are makers of idols will go into confusion together.

<sup>45:17</sup>Israel will be saved by the LORD with an everlasting salvation.

You will not be disappointed nor confounded to ages everlasting.

<sup>45:18</sup>For thus says the LORD who created the heavens,

the God who formed the earth and made
it,

who established it and didn’t create it a waste,

who formed it to be inhabited:

“I am the LORD;
and there is no other.

<sup>45:19</sup>I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness.

<sup>v</sup>45:5 or, equip

I didn't say to the seed of Jacob, 'Seek me in vain.'

I, the LORD, speak righteousness.

I declare things that are right.

<sup>45:20</sup>"Assemble yourselves and come.

Draw near together, you who have escaped from the nations.

Those have no knowledge who carry the wood of their engraved image, and pray to a god that can't save.

<sup>45:21</sup>Declare and present it.

Yes, let them take counsel together.

Who has shown this from ancient time?

Who has declared it of old?

Haven't I, the LORD?

There is no other God besides me, a just God and a Savior;

There is no one besides me.

<sup>45:22</sup>"Look to me, and be saved, all the ends of the earth;

for I am God, and there is no other.

<sup>45:23</sup>I have sworn by myself, the word has gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and will not return, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall take an oath. <sup>45:24</sup>They will say of me, 'There is righteousness and strength only in the LORD.'"

Even to him shall men come; and all those who were incensed against him shall be disappointed. <sup>45:25</sup>In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

<sup>46:1</sup>Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are on the animals, and on the livestock: the things that you carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary. <sup>46:2</sup>They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves have gone into captivity.

<sup>46:3</sup>"Listen to me, house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been borne from their birth, that have been carried from the womb; <sup>46:4</sup>and even to old age I am he, and even to gray hairs will I carry you. I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

<sup>46:5</sup>"To whom will you liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? <sup>46:6</sup>Some pour out gold from the bag, and weigh silver in the balance. They hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god. They fall down—yes, they worship. <sup>46:7</sup>They bear it on the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place it shall not move: yes, one may cry to it, yet it can not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.

<sup>46:8</sup>"Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, you transgressors. <sup>46:9</sup>Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is none else; I am God, and there is none like me; <sup>46:10</sup>declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure; <sup>46:11</sup>calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it. <sup>46:12</sup>Listen to me, you stout-hearted, who are far from righteousness: <sup>46:13</sup>I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not wait; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

<sup>47:1</sup>"Come down, and sit in the dust, virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, daughter of the Kasdim: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate. <sup>47:2</sup>Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers. <sup>47:3</sup>Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no man."

<sup>47:5</sup>"Sit in silence, and go into darkness, daughter of the Kasdim;

for you shall no more be called the mistress of kingdoms.

<sup>47:6</sup>I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you showed them no mercy; on the aged you have very heavily laid your yoke. <sup>47:7</sup>You said, 'I shall be a mistress forever;' so that you did not lay these things to your heart, nor did you remember the latter end of it.

<sup>47:8</sup>“Now therefore hear this, you who are given to pleasures, who sit securely, who say in your heart, ‘I am, and there is none else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:’ <sup>47:9</sup>but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come on you, in the multitude of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments. <sup>47:10</sup>For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is none else besides me. <sup>47:11</sup>Therefore evil will come on you; you won’t know when it dawns: and mischief will fall on you; you will not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come on you suddenly, which you don’t know.

<sup>47:12</sup>“Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail. <sup>47:13</sup>You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels: let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from the things that shall come on you. <sup>47:14</sup>Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before. <sup>47:15</sup>Thus shall the things be to you in which you have labored: those who have trafficked with you from your youth shall wander everyone to his quarter; there shall be none to save you.

<sup>48:1</sup>“Hear this, house of Jacob, you who are called by the name of Israel, and have come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness

<sup>48:2</sup>(for they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves on the God of Israel; the LORD of Hosts is his name): <sup>48:3</sup>I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they happened. <sup>48:4</sup>Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass; <sup>48:5</sup>therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, ‘My idol has done them, and my engraved image, and my molten image, has commanded them.’ <sup>48:6</sup>You have heard it; see all this; and you, will you not declare it?

“I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known. <sup>48:7</sup>They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you didn’t hear them; lest you should say, ‘Behold, I knew them.’

<sup>48:8</sup>Yes, you didn’t hear; yes, you didn’t know; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you dealt very treacherously, and was called a transgressor from the womb. <sup>48:9</sup>For my name’s sake will I defer my anger, and for my praise will I refrain for you, that I not cut you off. <sup>48:10</sup>Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction. <sup>48:11</sup>For my own sake, for my own sake, will I do it; for how should my name be profaned? I will not give my glory to another.

<sup>48:12</sup>“Listen to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. <sup>48:13</sup>Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together.

<sup>48:14</sup>“Assemble yourselves, all you, and hear; who among them has declared these things? He whom the LORD loves shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Kasdim. <sup>48:15</sup>I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.

<sup>48:16</sup>“Come near to me and hear this:

“From the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I.” Now the Lord GOD has sent me, with his Spirit.

<sup>48:17</sup>Thus says the LORD, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am the LORD your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go. <sup>48:18</sup>Oh that you had listened to my commandments! then your peace would have been like a river, and your righteousness like the waves of the sea: <sup>48:19</sup>your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your body like its grains: his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me. <sup>48:20</sup>Go forth from Babylon, flee from the Kasdim; with a voice of singing declare, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say, the LORD has redeemed his servant Jacob.

<sup>48:21</sup>They didn’t thirst when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he split the rock also, and the waters gushed out. <sup>48:22</sup>“There is no peace,” says the LORD, “for the wicked.”

<sup>49:1</sup>Listen, islands, to me; and listen, you peoples, from far: the LORD has called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother has he made mention of my name: <sup>49:2</sup>and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand, he has hidden me: and he has made me a polished shaft; in his quiver has he kept me close: <sup>49:3</sup>and he said to me, “You are my servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified.” <sup>49:4</sup>But I said, “I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with the LORD, and my reward with my God.”

<sup>49:5</sup>Now says the LORD who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered to him (for I am honorable in the eyes of the LORD, and my God has become my strength); <sup>49:6</sup>yes, he says,

“It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the nations, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth.”

<sup>49:7</sup>Thus says the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: “Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of the LORD who is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.”

<sup>49:8</sup>Thus says the LORD, “In an acceptable time have I answered you, and in a day of salvation have I helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritage: <sup>49:9</sup>saying to those who are bound, ‘Come out!’; to those who are in darkness, ‘Show yourselves!’

“They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their pasture. <sup>49:10</sup>They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun strike them: for he who has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water he will guide them. <sup>49:11</sup>I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. <sup>49:12</sup>Behold, these shall come from far; and behold, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.”

<sup>49:13</sup>Sing, heavens; and be joyful, earth; and break forth into singing, mountains: for the LORD has comforted his people, and will have compassion on his afflicted. <sup>49:14</sup>But Zion said, “The LORD has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me.”

<sup>49:15</sup>“Can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you! <sup>49:16</sup>Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me. <sup>49:17</sup>Your children make haste; your destroyers and those who made you waste shall go forth from you. <sup>49:18</sup>Lift up your eyes all around, and see: all these gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live," says the LORD, "you shall surely clothe yourself with them all as with an ornament, and dress yourself with them, like a bride.

<sup>49:19</sup>"For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now you shall be too small for the inhabitants, and those who swallowed you up shall be far away. <sup>49:20</sup>The children of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too small for me; give place to me that I may dwell. <sup>49:21</sup>Then you will say in your heart, 'Who has conceived these for me, since I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering back and forth? Who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?'"

<sup>49:22</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, "Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my banner to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried on their shoulders. <sup>49:23</sup>Kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am the LORD; and those who wait for me shall not be disappointed."

<sup>49:25</sup>But thus says the LORD, "Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him who contends with you, and I will save your children. <sup>49:26</sup>I will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob."

have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were you sold, and for your transgressions was your mother put away. <sup>50:2</sup>Why, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it can't redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst. <sup>50:3</sup>I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering."

<sup>50:4</sup>The Lord GOD has given me the tongue of those who are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him who is weary: he wakens morning by morning, he wakens my ear to hear as those who are taught. <sup>50:5</sup>The Lord GOD has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward. <sup>50:6</sup>I gave my back to the strikers, and my cheeks to those who plucked off the hair; I didn't hide my face from shame and spitting. <sup>50:7</sup>For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore I have not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be disappointed. <sup>50:8</sup>He is near who justifies me; who will bring charges against me? Let us stand up together: who is my adversary? Let him come near to me. <sup>50:9</sup>Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he who shall condemn me? Behold, all they shall wax old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up. <sup>50:10</sup>Who is among you who fears the LORD, who obeys the voice of his servant? He who walks in darkness, and has no light, let him trust in the name of the LORD, and rely on his God. <sup>50:11</sup>Behold, all you who kindle a fire, who adorn yourselves with torches around yourselves; walk in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that you have kindled. You shall have this of my hand; you shall lie down in sorrow.

teousness, you who seek the LORD: look to the rock you were cut from, and to the hold of the pit you were dug from. <sup>51:2</sup>Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah who bore you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many. <sup>51:3</sup>For the LORD has comforted Zion; he has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.

<sup>51:4</sup>“Attend to me, my people; and give ear to me, my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples. <sup>51:5</sup>My righteousness is near, my salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the peoples; the islands shall wait for me, and on my arm shall they trust.

<sup>51:6</sup>Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look on the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment; and those who dwell therein shall die in the same way: but my salvation shall be forever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.

<sup>51:7</sup>“Listen to me, you who know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; don’t fear the reproach of men, neither be dismayed at their insults.

<sup>51:8</sup>For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be forever, and my salvation to all generations.”

<sup>51:9</sup>Awake, awake, put on strength, arm of the LORD; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Isn’t it you who cut Rahab in pieces, who pierced the monster? <sup>51:10</sup>Isn’t it you who dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; who made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over? <sup>51:11</sup>The ransomed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be on their heads. They shall obtain gladness and joy. Sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

<sup>51:12</sup>“I, even I, am he who comforts you: who are you, that you are afraid of man who shall die, and of the son of man who shall be made as grass; <sup>51:13</sup>and have forgotten the LORD your Maker, who stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he makes ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? <sup>51:14</sup>The captive exile shall speedily be freed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail. <sup>51:15</sup>For I am the LORD your God, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar: the LORD of Hosts is his name. <sup>51:16</sup>I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and tell Zion, ‘You are my people.’”

<sup>51:17</sup>Awake, awake, stand up, Jerusalem, that have drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his wrath; you have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it. <sup>51:18</sup>There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any who takes her by the hand among all the sons who she has brought up. <sup>51:19</sup>These two things have happened to you. Who will bemoan you? Desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort you? <sup>51:20</sup>Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of the LORD, the rebuke of your God. <sup>51:21</sup>Therefore hear now this, you afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine: <sup>51:22</sup>Thus says your Lord GOD, and your God who pleads the cause of his people, “Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath; you shall no more drink it again: <sup>51:23</sup>and I will put it into the hand of those who afflict you, who have said

- to your soul, 'Bow down, that we may walk over you;' and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to those who walk over."
- <sup>52:1</sup>Awake, awake, put on your strength, Zion; put on your beautiful garments, Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean. <sup>52:2</sup>Shake yourself from the dust! Arise, sit up, Jerusalem! Release yourself from the bonds of your neck, captive daughter of Zion! <sup>52:3</sup>For thus says the LORD, "You were sold for nothing; and you shall be redeemed without money."
- <sup>52:4</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD, "My people went down at the first into Egypt to live there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause."
- <sup>52:5</sup>"Now therefore, what do I do here," says the LORD, "seeing that my people are taken away for nothing? Those who rule over them mock," says the LORD, "and my name continually all the day is blasphemed. <sup>52:6</sup>Therefore my people shall know my name. Therefore they shall know in that day that I am he who speaks; behold, it is I."
- <sup>52:7</sup>How beautiful on the mountains are the feet of him who brings good news, who publishes peace, who brings good news of good, who publishes salvation, who says to Zion, "Your God reigns!" <sup>52:8</sup>The voice of your watchmen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD returns to Zion. <sup>52:9</sup>Break forth into joy, sing together, you waste places of Jerusalem; for the LORD has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem. <sup>52:10</sup>The LORD has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- <sup>52:11</sup>Depart, depart, go out from there, touch no unclean thing! Go out of the midst of her! Cleanse yourselves, you who bear the vessels of the LORD. <sup>52:12</sup>For you shall not go out in haste, neither shall you go by flight: for the LORD will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.
- <sup>52:13</sup>Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.
- <sup>52:14</sup>Like as many were astonished at you (his appearance was marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men),
- <sup>52:15</sup>so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.
- <sup>53:1</sup>Who has believed our message?
To whom has the arm of the LORD been revealed?
- <sup>53:2</sup>For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of dry ground. He has no good looks or majesty. When we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.
- <sup>53:3</sup>He was despised, and rejected by men; a man of suffering, and acquainted with disease. He was despised as one from whom men hide their face; and we didn't respect him.
- <sup>53:4</sup>Surely he has borne our sickness, and carried our suffering; yet we considered him plagued, struck by God, and afflicted.
- <sup>53:5</sup>But he was pierced for our transgressions. He was crushed for our iniquities. The punishment that brought our peace was on him; and by his wounds we are healed.
- <sup>53:6</sup>All we like sheep have gone astray. Everyone has turned to his own way; and the LORD has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
- <sup>53:7</sup>He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he didn't open his mouth. As a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is mute, so he didn't open his mouth.
- <sup>53:8</sup>He was taken away by oppression and judgment; and as for his generation, who considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living and stricken for the disobedience of my people?

<sup>53:9</sup>They made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death;
although he had done no violence,
neither was any deceit in his mouth.

<sup>53:10</sup>Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him.
He has caused him to suffer.

When you make his soul an offering for sin,
he shall see his seed.

He shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand.

<sup>53:11</sup>After the suffering of his soul,
he will see the light<sup>w</sup> and be satisfied.

My righteous servant will justify many by the knowledge of himself;
and he will bear their iniquities.

<sup>53:12</sup>Therefore will I divide him a portion with the great,
and he shall divide the spoil with the strong;

because he poured out his soul to death, and was numbered with the transgres-
sors;

yet he bore the sin of many,
and made intercession for the transgres-
sors.

<sup>54:1</sup>“Sing, barren, you who didn’t bear; break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you who did not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife,” says the LORD.

<sup>54:2</sup>“Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations; don’t spare: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.

<sup>54:3</sup>For you shall spread out on the right hand and on the left; and your seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

<sup>54:4</sup>“Don’t be afraid; for you shall not be ashamed: neither be confounded; for you shall not be disappointed: for you shall forget the shame of your youth;
and the reproach of your widowhood you shall remember no more. <sup>54:5</sup>For your Maker is your husband; the LORD of Hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he be called. <sup>54:6</sup>For the LORD has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off,” says your God.

<sup>54:7</sup>“For a small moment have I forsaken you;
but with great mercies will I gather you. <sup>54:8</sup>In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment; but with everlasting loving kindness will I have mercy on you,” says the LORD your Redeemer.

<sup>54:9</sup>“For this is like the waters of Noah to me;
for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you. <sup>54:10</sup>For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my loving kindness shall not depart from you, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed,” says the LORD who has mercy on you.

<sup>54:11</sup>“You afflicted, tossed with storms, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in beautiful colors, and lay your foundations with sapphires. <sup>54:12</sup>I will make your pinnacles of rubies, and your gates of sparkling jewels, and all your walls of precious stones. <sup>54:13</sup>All your children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of your children. <sup>54:14</sup>In righteousness you shall be established: you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not be afraid; and from terror, for it shall not come near you. <sup>54:15</sup>Behold, they may gather together, but not by me:
whoever shall gather together against you shall fall because of you.

<sup>54:16</sup>“Behold, I have created the smith who blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.

<sup>54:17</sup>No weapon that is formed against you will prevail;
and you will condemn every tongue that rises against you in judgment.

This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD,

- and their righteousness which is of me," says the LORD.
- <sup>55:1</sup>"Come, everyone who thirsts, to the waters! Come, he who has no money, buy, and eat! Yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. <sup>55:2</sup>Why do you spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which doesn't satisfy? listen diligently to me, and eat you that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. <sup>55:3</sup>Turn your ear, and come to me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. <sup>55:4</sup>Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples. <sup>55:5</sup>Behold, you shall call a nation that you don't know; and a nation that didn't know you shall run to you, because of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you."
- <sup>55:6</sup>Seek the LORD while he may be found; call you on him while he is near: <sup>55:7</sup>let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to the LORD, and he will have mercy on him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
- <sup>55:8</sup>"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways," says the LORD.
- <sup>55:9</sup>"For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways,
and my thoughts than your thoughts.
- <sup>55:10</sup>For as the rain comes down and the snow from the sky, and doesn't return there, but waters the earth, and makes it bring forth and bud, and gives seed to the sower and bread to the eater;
- <sup>55:11</sup>so shall my word be that goes forth out of my mouth:
it shall not return to me void,
but it shall accomplish that which I please,
and it shall prosper in the thing I sent it to do.
- <sup>55:12</sup>For you shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands. <sup>55:13</sup>Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off."
- <sup>56:1</sup>Thus says the LORD, "Keep justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation [yeshuah-ti] is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed. <sup>56:2</sup>Blessed is the man who does this, and the son of man who holds it fast; who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil."
- <sup>56:3</sup>Neither let the foreigner, who has joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, "The LORD will surely separate me from his people;" neither let the eunuch say, "Behold, I am a dry tree."
- <sup>56:4</sup>For thus says the LORD, "To the eunuchs who keep my Sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and hold fast my covenant: <sup>56:5</sup>to them I will give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off. <sup>56:6</sup>Also the foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, to minister to him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, everyone who keeps the Sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant; <sup>56:7</sup>even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted on my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples."
- <sup>56:8</sup>The Lord GOD, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, "Yet will I gather others to him, besides his own who are gathered."
- <sup>56:9</sup>All you animals of the field, come to devour, all you animals in the forest. <sup>56:10</sup>His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all mute dogs, they can't bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber. <sup>56:11</sup>Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds who can't understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter. <sup>56:12</sup>"Come," say they, "I will get wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, great beyond measure."

<sup>57:1</sup>The righteous perishes, and no man lays it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil. <sup>57:2</sup>He enters into peace; they rest in their beds, each one who walks in his uprightness.

<sup>57:3</sup>"But draw near here, you sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the prostitute. <sup>57:4</sup>Against whom do you sport yourselves? Against whom do you make a wide mouth, and stick out your tongue? Aren't you children of disobedience, a seed of falsehood, <sup>57:5</sup>you who inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; who kill the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks? <sup>57:6</sup>Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they are your lot; you have even poured a drink offering to them. You have offered an offering. Shall I be appeased for these things? <sup>57:7</sup>On a high and lofty mountain you have set your bed; there also you went up to offer sacrifice. <sup>57:8</sup>Behind the doors and the posts you have set up your memorial:

for you have uncovered to someone besides me, and have gone up;

you have enlarged your bed,

and made you a covenant with them:

you loved their bed where you saw it.

<sup>57:9</sup>You went to the king with oil, and increased your perfumes, and sent your ambassadors far off, and debased yourself even to Sheol<sup>x</sup>. <sup>57:10</sup>You were wearied with the length of your way; yet you didn't say, 'It is in vain.' You found a reviving of your strength; therefore you weren't faint.

<sup>57:11</sup>"Of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? Haven't I held my peace even of long time, and you don't fear me? <sup>57:12</sup>I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they shall not profit you. <sup>57:13</sup>When you cry, let those who you have gathered deliver you; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he who takes refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain."

take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people."

<sup>57:15</sup>For thus says the high and lofty One who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: "I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also who is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.

<sup>57:16</sup>For I will not contend forever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls who I have made. <sup>57:17</sup>For the iniquity of his covetousness was I angry, and struck him; I hid myself and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart. <sup>57:18</sup>I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners. <sup>57:19</sup>I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him who is far off and to him who is near," says the LORD; "and I will heal them." <sup>57:20</sup>But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it can't rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt. <sup>57:21</sup>"There is no peace," says my God, "for the wicked."

<sup>58:1</sup>"Cry aloud, don't spare, lift up your voice like a shofar<sup>y</sup>, and declare to my people their disobedience, and to the house of Jacob their sins. <sup>58:2</sup>Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and didn't forsake the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God. <sup>58:3</sup>'Why have we fasted,' say they, 'and you don't see? Why have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge?'

"Behold, in the day of your fast you find pleasure, and exact all your labors. <sup>58:4</sup>Behold, you fast for strife and contention, and to strike with the fist of wickedness: you don't fast this day so as to make your voice to be heard on high. <sup>58:5</sup>Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? Will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD?

<sup>58:6</sup>"Isn't this the fast that I have chosen: to release the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that you break every yoke? <sup>58:7</sup>Isn't it to distribute your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor who are cast out to your house? When you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you not hide yourself from your own flesh? <sup>58:8</sup>Then your light shall break forth as the morning, and your healing shall spring forth speedily; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard.

<sup>58:9</sup>Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, 'Here I am.'

"If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly; <sup>58:10</sup>and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then your light shall rise in darkness, and your obscurity be as the noonday; <sup>58:11</sup>and the LORD will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make strong your bones; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters don't fail. <sup>58:12</sup>Those who shall be of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.

<sup>58:13</sup>"If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the Sabbath a delight, and the holy of the LORD honorable; and shall honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words: <sup>58:14</sup>then you shall delight yourself in the LORD; and I will make you to ride on the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father:"

for the mouth of the LORD has spoken it.

<sup>59:1</sup>Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it can't save; neither his ear heavy, that it can't hear: <sup>59:2</sup>but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hidden his face from you, so that he will not hear. <sup>59:3</sup>For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness. <sup>59:4</sup>None sues in righteousness, and none pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. <sup>59:5</sup>They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he who eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper. <sup>59:6</sup>Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. <sup>59:7</sup>Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their paths. <sup>59:8</sup>The way of peace they don't know; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes therein does not know peace. <sup>59:9</sup>Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, behold, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity. <sup>59:10</sup>We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as those who have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among those who are lusty we are as dead men. <sup>59:11</sup>We roar all like bears, and moan bitterly like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.

<sup>59:12</sup>For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them: <sup>59:13</sup>transgressing and denying the LORD, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood. <sup>59:14</sup>Justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness can't enter. <sup>59:15</sup>Yes, truth is lacking; and he who departs from evil makes himself a prey. The LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice. <sup>59:16</sup>He saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him. <sup>59:17</sup>He put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation on his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle. <sup>59:18</sup>According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense. <sup>59:19</sup>So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of the LORD drives.

<sup>59:20</sup>"A Redeemer will come to Zion, and to those who turn from disobedience in Jacob," says the LORD.

<sup>59:21</sup>"As for me, this is my covenant with them," says the LORD. "My Spirit who is on you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed," says the LORD, "from henceforth and forever."

<sup>60:1</sup>"Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD is risen on you. <sup>60:2</sup>For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but the LORD will arise on you, and his glory shall be seen on you. <sup>60:3</sup>Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

<sup>60:4</sup>"Lift up your eyes all around, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms. <sup>60:5</sup>Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. <sup>60:6</sup>The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of the LORD. <sup>60:7</sup>All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory.

<sup>60:8</sup>"Who are these who fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? <sup>60:9</sup>Surely the islands shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of the LORD your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.

<sup>60:10</sup>"Foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you: for in my wrath I struck you, but in my favor have I had mercy on you.

<sup>60:11</sup>Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive.

<sup>60:12</sup>For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.

<sup>60:13</sup>“The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir tree, the pine, and the box tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

<sup>60:14</sup>The sons of those who afflicted you shall come bending to you; and all those who despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.

<sup>60:15</sup>“Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.

<sup>60:16</sup>You shall also drink the milk of the nations, and shall nurse from royal breasts; and you shall know that I, the LORD, am your Savior, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob. <sup>60:17</sup>For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron. I will also make your officers peace, and righteousness your ruler.

<sup>60:18</sup>Violence shall no more be heard in your land, desolation nor destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise. <sup>60:19</sup>The sun shall be no more your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you: but the LORD will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory.

<sup>60:20</sup>Your sun shall no more go down, neither shall your moon withdraw itself; for the LORD will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended. <sup>60:21</sup>Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land forever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. <sup>60:22</sup>The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, the LORD, will hasten it in its time.”

<sup>61:1</sup>The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on me; because the LORD has anointed me to proclaim good news to the humble.

He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and release to those who are bound;

<sup>61:2</sup>to proclaim the year of the LORD’s favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all who mourn; <sup>61:3</sup>to appoint to those who mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he may be glorified.

<sup>61:4</sup>They shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

<sup>61:5</sup>Strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers.

<sup>61:6</sup>But you shall be named the priests of the LORD; men will call you the ministers of our God: you will eat the wealth of the nations, and you will boast in their glory.

<sup>61:7</sup>Instead of your shame you shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be to them.

<sup>61:8</sup>“For I, the LORD, love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them. <sup>61:9</sup>Their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all who see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the LORD has blessed.”

<sup>61:10</sup>I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels. <sup>61:11</sup>For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

<sup>62:1</sup>For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns. <sup>62:2</sup>The nations shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD shall name. <sup>62:3</sup>You shall also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. <sup>62:4</sup>You shall no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate: but you shall be called Hephzibah, and your land Beulah; for the LORD delights in you, and your land shall be married. <sup>62:5</sup>For as a young man marries a virgin, so your sons shall marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your God will rejoice over you. <sup>62:6</sup>I have set watchmen on your walls, Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: you who call on the LORD, take no rest, <sup>62:7</sup>and give him no rest, until he establishes, and until he makes Jerusalem a praise in the earth.

<sup>62:8</sup>The LORD has sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength,

"Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and foreigners shall not drink your new wine, for which you have labored: <sup>62:9</sup>but those who have garnered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and those who have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary."

<sup>62:10</sup>Go through, go through the gates! Prepare the way of the people! Cast up, cast up the highway! Gather out the stones! Lift up a banner for the peoples. <sup>62:11</sup>Behold, the LORD has proclaimed to the end of the earth,

"Say to the daughter of Zion,

'Behold, your salvation comes.

Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.'"

<sup>62:12</sup>They shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and you shall be called Sought out, A city not forsaken.

<sup>63:1</sup>Who is this who comes from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this who is glorious in his clothing, marching in the greatness of his strength?

"It is I who speak in righteousness, mighty to save."

<sup>63:2</sup>Why are you red in your clothing, and your garments like him who treads in the wine vat?

<sup>63:3</sup>"I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yes, I trod them in my anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is sprinkled on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing. <sup>63:4</sup>For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed has come. <sup>63:5</sup>I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore my own arm brought salvation to me; and my wrath, it upheld me. <sup>63:6</sup>I trod down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."

<sup>63:7</sup>I will make mention of the loving kindnesses of the LORD and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses. <sup>63:8</sup>For he said, "Surely, they are my people, children who will not deal falsely:" so he was their Savior.

<sup>63:9</sup>In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old. <sup>63:10</sup>But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he himself fought against them.

<sup>63:11</sup>Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he who brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock?

where is he who put his holy Spirit in their midst? <sup>63:12</sup>who caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? who divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name? <sup>63:13</sup>who led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they didn't stumble? <sup>63:14</sup>As the livestock that go down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused them to rest; so you led your people, to make yourself a glorious name.

<sup>63:15</sup>Look down from heaven, and see from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? the yearning of your heart and your compassion is restrained toward me. <sup>63:16</sup>For you are our Father, though Abraham doesn't know us, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, LORD, are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name. <sup>63:17</sup>O LORD, why do you make us to err from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance. <sup>63:18</sup>Your holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary. <sup>63:19</sup>We have become as they over whom you never bear rule, as those who were not called by your name.

<sup>64:1</sup>Oh that you would tear the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence, <sup>64:2</sup>as when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence! <sup>64:3</sup>When you did awesome things which we didn't look for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. <sup>64:4</sup>For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for him who waits for him. <sup>64:5</sup>You meet him who rejoices and works righteousness, those who remember you in your ways. Behold, you were angry, and we sinned. We have been in sin for a long time; and shall we be saved? <sup>64:6</sup>For we have all become as one who is unclean, and all our righteousness is as a polluted garment: and we all fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. <sup>64:7</sup>There is none who calls on your name, who stirs up himself to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.

<sup>64:8</sup>But now, LORD, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you our potter; and we all are the work of your hand. <sup>64:9</sup>Don't be furious, LORD, neither remember iniquity forever: see, look, we beg you, we are all your people. <sup>64:10</sup>Your holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion has become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. <sup>64:11</sup>Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste. <sup>64:12</sup>Will you refrain yourself for these things, LORD? Will you hold your peace, and afflict us very severely?

<sup>65:1</sup>"I am inquired of by those who didn't ask; I am found by those who didn't seek me: I said, See me, see me, to a nation that was not called by my name. <sup>65:2</sup>I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts; <sup>65:3</sup>a people who provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense on bricks; <sup>65:4</sup>who sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; who eat pig's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; <sup>65:5</sup>who say, Stand by yourself, don't come near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day.

<sup>65:6</sup>"Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom, <sup>65:7</sup>your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together," says the LORD, "who have burned incense on the mountains, and blasphemed me on the hills; therefore will I first measure their work into their bosom.”

“As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, ‘Don’t destroy it, for a blessing is in it:’ so will I do for my servants’ sake, that I may not destroy them all. <sup>65:9</sup>I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there. <sup>65:10</sup>Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people who have sought me.

<sup>65:11</sup>“But you who forsake the LORD, who forget my holy mountain, who prepare a table for Fortune, and who fill up mixed wine to Destiny; <sup>65:12</sup>I will destine you to the sword, and you shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, you didn’t answer; when I spoke, you didn’t listen; but you did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn’t delight.”

<sup>65:13</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD, “Behold, my servants shall eat, but you shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but you shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but you shall be disappointed; <sup>65:14</sup>behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but you shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall wail for anguish of spirit.

<sup>65:15</sup>You shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Lord GOD will kill you; and he will call his servants by another name: <sup>65:16</sup>so that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he who swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hidden from my eyes.

<sup>65:17</sup>“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind. <sup>65:18</sup>But be you glad and rejoice forever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy. <sup>65:19</sup>I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.

<sup>65:20</sup>“There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old man who has not filled his days; for the child shall die one hundred years old, and the sinner being one hundred years old shall be accursed. <sup>65:21</sup>They shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat their fruit. <sup>65:22</sup>They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands. <sup>65:23</sup>They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. <sup>65:24</sup>It shall happen that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. <sup>65:25</sup>The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent’s food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,” says the LORD.

<sup>66:1</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what kind of house will you build to me? and what place shall be my rest? <sup>66:2</sup>For all these things has my hand made, and so all these things came to be,” says the LORD:

“but to this man will I look, even to him who is poor and of a contrite spirit, and who trembles at my word.

<sup>66:3</sup>He who kills an ox is as he who kills a man; he who sacrifices a lamb, as he who breaks a dog’s neck; he who offers an offering, as he who offers pig’s blood; he who burns frankincense, as he who blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations: <sup>66:4</sup>I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears on them; because when I called, no one answered; when I spoke, they didn’t listen; but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I didn’t delight.”

- <sup>66:5</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you who tremble at his word: "Your brothers who hate you, who cast you out for my name's sake, have said,
 'Let the LORD be glorified, that we may see your joy;' but it is those who shall be disappointed. <sup>66:6</sup>A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that renders recompense to his enemies.
- <sup>66:7</sup>"Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she delivered a son.
- <sup>66:8</sup>Who has heard such a thing? who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? shall a nation be brought forth at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. <sup>66:9</sup>"Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth?" says the LORD: "shall I who cause to bring forth shut the womb?" says your God. <sup>66:10</sup>"Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her: rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn over her;
- <sup>66:11</sup>that you may nurse and be satisfied at the comforting breasts; that you may drink deeply, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory."
- <sup>66:12</sup>For thus says the LORD, "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream: and you will nurse. You will be carried on her side, and will be dandled on her knees.
- <sup>66:13</sup>As one whom his mother comforts, so will I comfort you; and you will be comforted in Jerusalem."
- <sup>66:14</sup>You will see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies. <sup>66:15</sup>For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire. <sup>66:16</sup>For by fire will the LORD execute judgment, and by his sword, on all flesh; and the slain of the LORD shall be many.
- <sup>66:17</sup>"Those who sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating pig's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together," says the LORD.
- <sup>66:18</sup>"For I know their works and their thoughts: the time comes, that I will gather all nations and languages; and they shall come, and shall see my glory.
- <sup>66:19</sup>"I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, who draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the islands afar off, who have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations. <sup>66:20</sup>They shall bring all your brothers out of all the nations for an offering to the LORD, on horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and on mules, and on dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says the LORD, as the children of Israel bring their offering in a clean vessel into the house of the LORD. <sup>66:21</sup>Of them also will I take for priests and for Levites," says the LORD.
- <sup>66:22</sup>"For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me," says the LORD, "so your seed and your name shall remain. <sup>66:23</sup>It shall happen, that from one new moon to another, and from one Sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me," says the LORD. <sup>66:24</sup>"They shall go forth, and look on the dead bodies of the men who have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they will be loathsome to all mankind."

Jeremiah

<sup>1:1</sup>The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests who were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: <sup>1:2</sup>to whom the word of the LORD<sup>a</sup> came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. <sup>1:3</sup>It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. <sup>1:4</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>1:5</sup>"Before I formed you in the belly, I knew you. Before you came forth out of the womb, I sanctified you. I have appointed you a prophet to the nations." <sup>1:6</sup>Then I said, "Ah, Lord<sup>b</sup> the LORD! Behold, I don't know how to speak; for I am a child."

<sup>1:7</sup>But the LORD said to me, "Don't say, 'I am a child;' for to whoever I shall send you, you shall go, and whatever I shall command you, you shall speak. <sup>1:8</sup>Don't be afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you," says the LORD. <sup>1:9</sup>Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and the LORD said to me, "Behold, I have put my words in your mouth. <sup>1:10</sup>Behold, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant." <sup>1:11</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I said, "I see a branch of an almond tree."

<sup>1:12</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "You have seen well; for I watch over my word to perform it."

<sup>1:13</sup>The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a boiling caldron; and it is tipping away from the north."

<sup>1:14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, "Out of the north evil will break out on all the inhabitants of the land. <sup>1:15</sup>For, behold, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north," says the LORD; "and they shall come, and they shall each set his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all its walls all around, and against all the cities of Judah. <sup>1:16</sup>I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshiped the works of their own hands.

<sup>1:17</sup>"You therefore put your belt on your waist, arise, and speak to them all that I command you. Don't be dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them. <sup>1:18</sup>For, behold, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and bronze walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against its princes, against its priests, and against the people of the land. <sup>1:19</sup>They will fight against you; but they will not prevail against you; for I am with you," says the LORD, "to deliver you."

<sup>2:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>2:2</sup>"Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "I remember for you the kindness of your youth, the love of your weddings; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown. <sup>2:3</sup>Israel was holiness to the LORD, the first fruits of his increase. All who devour him shall be held guilty. Evil shall come on them,'" says the LORD."

<sup>2:4</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel!

<sup>2:5</sup>Thus says the LORD, "What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they have gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain? <sup>2:6</sup>Neither did they say, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up out of the land of Egypt, who led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that none passed through, and where no man lived?' <sup>2:7</sup>I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat its fruit and its goodness; but when you entered, you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. <sup>2:8</sup>The priests didn't say, 'Where is the LORD?' and those who handle the law didn't know me. The rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.

<sup>2:9</sup>"Therefore I will yet contend with you," says the LORD, "and I will contend with your children's children. <sup>2:10</sup>For pass over to the islands of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing. <sup>2:11</sup>Has a nation changed its gods, which really are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.

<sup>2:12</sup>“Be astonished, you heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid. Be very desolate,” says the LORD. <sup>2:13</sup>“For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the spring of living waters, and cut them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. <sup>2:14</sup>Is Israel a servant? Is he a native-born slave? Why has he become a prey? <sup>2:15</sup>The young lions have roared at him, and yelled. They have made his land waste. His cities are burned up, without inhabitant. <sup>2:16</sup>The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.

<sup>2:17</sup>“Haven’t you procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken the LORD your God<sup>c</sup>, when he led you by the way? <sup>2:18</sup>Now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? Or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?

<sup>2:19</sup>“Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backsliding shall reprove you. Know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that you have forsaken the LORD your God, and that my fear is not in you,” says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:20</sup>“For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, ‘I will not serve;’ for on every high hill and under every green tree you bowed yourself, playing the prostitute. <sup>2:21</sup>Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed. How then have you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me? <sup>2:22</sup>For though you wash yourself with lye, and use much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me,” says the Lord GOD.

<sup>2:23</sup>“How can you say, ‘I am not defiled. I have not gone after the Baals’? See your way in the valley. Know what you have done. You are a swift dromedary traversing her ways; <sup>2:24</sup>a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in her desire. When she is in heat, who can turn her away? All those who seek her will not weary themselves. In her month, they will find her.

<sup>2:25</sup>“Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst. But you said, ‘It is in vain. No, for I have loved strangers, and I will go after them.’ <sup>2:26</sup>As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets; <sup>2:27</sup>who tell wood, ‘You are my father;’ and a stone, ‘You have brought me out:’ for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, ‘Arise, and save us.’

<sup>2:28</sup>“But where are your gods that you have made for yourselves? Let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah.

<sup>2:29</sup>“Why will you contend with me? You all have transgressed against me,” says the LORD.

<sup>2:30</sup>“I have struck your children in vain. They received no correction. Your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. <sup>2:31</sup>Generation, consider the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? Or a land of thick darkness? Why do my people say, ‘We have broken loose. We will come to you no more?’

<sup>2:32</sup>“Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? Yet my people have forgotten me for days without number. <sup>2:33</sup>How well you prepare your way to seek love! Therefore you have taught even the wicked women your ways. <sup>2:34</sup>Also the blood of the souls of the innocent poor is found in your skirts. You did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.

<sup>2:35</sup>“Yet you said, ‘I am innocent. Surely his anger has turned away from me.’

“Behold, I will judge you, because you say, ‘I have not sinned.’ <sup>2:36</sup>Why do you go about so much to change your way? You will be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria. <sup>2:37</sup>From there also you shall go forth, with your hands on your head; for the LORD has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.

<sup>3:1</sup>“They say, ‘If a man puts away his wife, and she goes from him, and become another man’s, will he return to her again?’ Wouldn’t that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the prostitute with many lovers; yet return again to me,” says the LORD.

and see! Where have you not been lain with? You have sat for them by the ways, as an Arabian in the wilderness. You have polluted the land with your prostitution and with your wickedness. <sup>3:3</sup>Therefore the showers have been withheld, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a prostitute's forehead, you refused to be ashamed. <sup>3:4</sup>Will you not from this time cry to me, 'My Father, you are the guide of my youth?'

<sup>3:5</sup>"Will he retain his anger forever? Will he keep it to the end?' Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way."

<sup>3:6</sup>Moreover, the LORD said to me in the days of Josiah the king, "Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? She has gone up on every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the prostitute. <sup>3:7</sup>I said after she had done all these things, 'She will return to me;' but she didn't return; and her treacherous sister Judah saw it. <sup>3:8</sup>I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorce, yet treacherous Judah, her sister, didn't fear; but she also went and played the prostitute. <sup>3:9</sup>It happened through the lightness of her prostitution, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks. <sup>3:10</sup>Yet for all this her treacherous sister, Judah, has not returned to me with her whole heart, but only in pretense," says the LORD.

<sup>3:11</sup>The LORD said to me, "Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah. <sup>3:12</sup>Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, 'Return, you backsliding Israel,' says the LORD; 'I will not look in anger on you; for I am merciful,' says the LORD. 'I will not keep anger forever. <sup>3:13</sup>Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against the LORD your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and you have not obeyed my voice,' says the LORD." <sup>3:14</sup>"Return, backsliding children," says the LORD; "for I am a husband to you. I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion. <sup>3:15</sup>I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. <sup>3:16</sup>It shall come to pass, when you are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days," says the LORD, "they shall say no more, 'The ark of the covenant of the LORD!' neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more. <sup>3:17</sup>At that time they shall call Jerusalem 'The throne of the LORD;' and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem. Neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart. <sup>3:18</sup>In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.

<sup>3:19</sup>"But I said, 'How I would put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the armies of the nations!' and I said, 'You shall call me "My Father," and shall not turn away from following me.'

<sup>3:20</sup>"Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so you have dealt treacherously with me, house of Israel," says the LORD. <sup>3:21</sup>A voice is heard on the bare heights, the weeping and the petitions of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten the LORD their God. <sup>3:22</sup>Return, you backsliding children, I will heal your backsliding.

"Behold, we have come to you; for you are the LORD our God. <sup>3:23</sup>Truly in vain is help from the hills, the tumult on the mountains. Truly the salvation of Israel is in the LORD our God. <sup>3:24</sup>But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. <sup>3:25</sup>Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day. We have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God."

<sup>4:1</sup>"If you will return, Israel," says the LORD, "if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then you shall not be removed; <sup>4:2</sup>and you shall swear, 'As the LORD lives,' in truth, in justice, and in righteousness. The nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory."

of Judah and to Jerusalem, "Break up your fallow ground, and don't sow among thorns. <sup>4:4</sup>Circumcise yourselves to the LORD, and take away the foreskins of your heart, you men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. <sup>4:5</sup>Declare in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, 'Blow the shofar<sup>d</sup> in the land!' Cry aloud and say, 'Assemble yourselves! Let us go into the fortified cities!' <sup>4:6</sup>Set up a standard toward Zion. Flee for safety! Don't wait; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction."

<sup>4:7</sup>A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant. <sup>4:8</sup>For this clothe yourself with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of the LORD hasn't turned back from us. <sup>4:9</sup>"It shall happen at that day," says the LORD, "that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder."

<sup>4:10</sup>Then I said, "Ah, Lord GOD! Surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall have peace;' whereas the sword reaches to the heart."

<sup>4:11</sup>At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, "A hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse; <sup>4:12</sup>a full wind from these shall come for me. Now I will also utter judgments against them."

<sup>4:13</sup>Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! For we are ruined. <sup>4:14</sup>Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you? <sup>4:15</sup>For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim: <sup>4:16</sup>"Tell the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, 'Watchers come from a far country, and raise their voice against the cities of Judah. <sup>4:17</sup>As keepers of a field, they are against her all around, because she has been rebellious against me,'" says the LORD. <sup>4:18</sup>"Your way and your doings have brought these things to you. This is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart."

<sup>4:19</sup>My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I can't hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the shofar<sup>e</sup>, the alarm of war. <sup>4:20</sup>Destruction on destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment. <sup>4:21</sup>How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the shofar<sup>f</sup>?

<sup>4:22</sup>"For my people are foolish, they don't know me. They are foolish children, and they have no understanding. They are skillful in doing evil, but to do good they have no knowledge." <sup>4:23</sup>I saw the earth, and, behold, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. <sup>4:24</sup>I saw the mountains, and behold, they trembled, and all the hills moved back and forth. <sup>4:25</sup>I saw, and behold, there was no man, and all the birds of the sky had fled. <sup>4:26</sup>I saw, and behold, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down at the presence of the LORD, before his fierce anger. <sup>4:27</sup>For thus says the LORD, "The whole land shall be a desolation; yet will I not make a full end. <sup>4:28</sup>For this the earth will mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it."

<sup>4:29</sup>Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and archers; they go into the thickets, and climb up on the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein. <sup>4:30</sup>You, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck you with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself beautiful; your lovers despise you, they seek your life. <sup>4:31</sup>For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her who brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, who gasps for breath, who spreads her hands, saying, "Woe is me now! For my soul faints before the murderers."

<sup>5:1</sup>"Run back and forth through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places of it, if you can find a man, if there are any who does justly, who seeks truth; and I will pardon her. <sup>5:2</sup>Though they say, 'As the LORD lives;' surely they swear falsely."

<sup>5:3</sup>O LORD, don't your eyes look on truth? You have stricken them, but they were not grieved. You have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction. They have made their faces harder than a rock. They have refused to return.

<sup>5:4</sup>Then I said, "Surely these are poor. They are foolish; for they don't know the way of the LORD, nor the law of their God. <sup>5:5</sup>I will go to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of the LORD, and the law of their God." But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds. <sup>5:6</sup>Therefore a lion out of the forest shall kill them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; everyone who goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backsliding is increased.

<sup>5:7</sup>"How can I pardon you? Your children have forsaken me, and sworn by what are no gods. When I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the prostitutes' houses. <sup>5:8</sup>They were as fed horses roaming at large: everyone neighed after his neighbor's wife. <sup>5:9</sup>Shouldn't I punish them for these things?" says the LORD; "and shouldn't my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

<sup>5:10</sup>"Go up on her walls, and destroy; but don't make a full end. Take away her branches; for they are not the LORD's. <sup>5:11</sup>For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me," says the LORD.

<sup>5:12</sup>They have denied the LORD, and said, "It is not he; neither shall evil come on us; neither shall we see sword nor famine. <sup>5:13</sup>The prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them. Thus shall it be done to them."

<sup>5:14</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, "Because you speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. <sup>5:15</sup>Behold, I will bring a nation on you from far, house of Israel," says the LORD. "It is a mighty nation. It is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you don't know, neither understand what they say. <sup>5:16</sup>Their quiver is an open tomb, they are all mighty men. <sup>5:17</sup>They shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat. They shall eat up your flocks and your herds. They shall eat up your vines and your fig trees. They shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.

<sup>5:18</sup>"But even in those days," says the LORD, "I will not make a full end with you. <sup>5:19</sup>It will happen, when you say, 'Why has the LORD our God done all these things to us?' Then you shall say to them, 'Just like you have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so you shall serve strangers in a land that is not yours.'

<sup>5:20</sup>"Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, <sup>5:21</sup>'Hear now this, foolish people, and without understanding; who have eyes, and don't see; who have ears, and don't hear: <sup>5:22</sup>Don't you fear me?' says the LORD 'Won't you tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it can't pass it? and though its waves toss themselves, yet they can't prevail; though they roar, yet they can't pass over it.'

<sup>5:23</sup>"But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they have revolted and gone. <sup>5:24</sup>Neither do they say in their heart, 'Let us now fear the LORD our God, who gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; who preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.'

<sup>5:25</sup>"Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withheld good from you. <sup>5:26</sup>For among my people are found wicked men. They watch, as fowlers lie in wait. They set a trap. They catch men. <sup>5:27</sup>As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit. Therefore they have become great, and grew rich. <sup>5:28</sup>They have grown fat. They shine; yes, they excell in deeds of wickedness. They don't plead the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and they don't judge the right of the needy.

<sup>5:29</sup>"Shall I not punish for these things?" says the LORD. "Shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?"

<sup>5:30</sup>"An astonishing and horrible thing has happened in the land. <sup>5:31</sup>The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests rule by their own authority; and my people love to have it so. What will you do in the end of it?"

<sup>6:1</sup>“Flee for safety, you children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the shofar<sup>s</sup> in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth Haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction. <sup>6:2</sup>The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, will I cut off. <sup>6:3</sup>Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her all around; they shall feed everyone in his place.”

<sup>6:4</sup>“Prepare war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! For the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out. <sup>6:5</sup>Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.” <sup>6:6</sup>For the LORD of Hosts said, “Cut down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her. <sup>6:7</sup>As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds. <sup>6:8</sup>Be instructed, Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited.”

<sup>6:9</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, “They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel like a vine. Turn again your hand as a grape gatherer into the baskets.”

<sup>6:10</sup>To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? Behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they can’t listen. Behold, the word of the LORD has become a reproach to them. They have no delight in it. <sup>6:11</sup>Therefore I am full of the wrath of the LORD. I am weary with holding in.

“Pour it out on the children in the street, and on the assembly of young men together;
for even the husband with the wife shall be taken,
the aged with him who is full of days.

<sup>6:12</sup>Their houses shall be turned to others, their fields and their wives together;
for I will stretch out my hand on the inhabitants of the land, says the LORD.”

<sup>6:13</sup>“For from their least even to their greatest, everyone is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even to the priest, everyone deals falsely.

<sup>6:14</sup>They have healed also the hurt of my people superficially, saying, ‘Peace, peace!’ when there is no peace.

<sup>6:15</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination?

No, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush.

Therefore they shall fall among those who fall;
at the time that I visit them, they shall be cast down,” says the LORD.

<sup>6:16</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Stand in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, ‘Where is the good way?’ and walk in it, and you will find rest for your souls. But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’ <sup>6:17</sup>I set watchmen over you, saying, ‘Listen to the sound of the shofar<sup>h</sup>!’ But they said, ‘We will not listen!’ <sup>6:18</sup>Therefore hear, you nations, and know, congregation, what is among them. <sup>6:19</sup>Hear, earth! Behold, I will bring evil on this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not listened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it. <sup>6:20</sup>To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.”

<sup>6:21</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, “Behold, I will lay stumbling blocks before this people. The fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them. The neighbor and his friend shall perish.” <sup>6:22</sup>Thus says the LORD, “Behold, a people comes from the north country. A great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>6:23</sup>They take hold of bow and spear. They are cruel, and have no mercy. Their voice roars like the sea, and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Zion.”

<sup>6:24</sup>We have heard its report; our hands become feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>6:25</sup>Don’t go forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and terror, are on every side. <sup>6:26</sup>Daughter of my people, clothe yourself with sackcloth, and wallow in ashes! Mourn, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come on us.

<sup>6:27</sup>“I have made you a tester of metals and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way. <sup>6:28</sup>They are all grievous rebels, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly. <sup>6:29</sup>The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed of the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away. <sup>6:30</sup>Men will call them rejected silver, because the LORD has rejected them."

<sup>7:1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>7:2</sup>"Stand in the gate of the LORD's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, 'Hear the word of the LORD, all you of Judah, who enter in at these gates to worship the LORD. <sup>7:3</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place. <sup>7:4</sup>Don't trust in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, the temple of the LORD, are these. <sup>7:5</sup>For if you thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if you thoroughly execute justice between a man and his neighbor; <sup>7:6</sup>if you don't oppress the foreigner, the fatherless, and the widow, and don't shed innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt: <sup>7:7</sup>then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even forevermore. <sup>7:8</sup>Behold, you trust in lying words, that can't profit. <sup>7:9</sup>Will you steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that you have not known, <sup>7:10</sup>and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that you may do all these abominations? <sup>7:11</sup>Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, says the LORD. <sup>7:12</sup>But go now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel. <sup>7:13</sup>Now, because you have done all these works, says the LORD, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but you didn't hear; and I called you, but you didn't answer: <sup>7:14</sup>therefore will I do to the house which is called by my name, in which you trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh. <sup>7:15</sup>I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brothers, even the whole seed of Ephraim.

<sup>7:16</sup>Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up a cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you. <sup>7:17</sup>Don't you see what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>7:18</sup>The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. <sup>7:19</sup>Do they provoke me to anger? says the LORD. Don't they provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces? <sup>7:20</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out on this place, on man, and on animal, and on the trees of the field, and on the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. <sup>7:21</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat meat. <sup>7:22</sup>For I didn't speak to your fathers, nor command them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: <sup>7:23</sup>but this thing I commanded them, saying, Listen to my voice, and I will be your God, and you shall be my people; and walk in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you. <sup>7:24</sup>But they didn't listen nor turn their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. <sup>7:25</sup>Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: <sup>7:26</sup>yet they didn't listen to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers. <sup>7:27</sup>You shall speak all these words to them; but they will not listen to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you. <sup>7:28</sup>You shall tell them, This is the nation that has not listened to the voice of the LORD their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. <sup>7:29</sup>Cut off your hair, and throw it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for the LORD has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath. <sup>7:30</sup>For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, says the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>7:31</sup>They have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I didn't command, nor did it come into my mind. <sup>7:32</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. <sup>7:33</sup>The dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth; and none shall frighten them away. <sup>7:34</sup>Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.

<sup>8:1</sup>At that time, says the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves; <sup>8:2</sup>and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the army of the sky, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshiped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung on the surface of the earth. <sup>8:3</sup>Death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places where I have driven them, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>8:4</sup>Moreover you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return? <sup>8:5</sup>Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return. <sup>8:6</sup>I listened and heard, but they didn't speak aright: no man repents him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? everyone turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle. <sup>8:7</sup>Yes, the stork in the sky knows her appointed times; and the turtledove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people don't know the LORD's law. <sup>8:8</sup>How do you say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has worked falsely. <sup>8:9</sup>The wise men are disappointed, they are dismayed and taken: behold, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what kind of wisdom is in them? <sup>8:10</sup>Therefore will I give their wives to others, and their fields to those who shall possess them: for everyone from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely. <sup>8:11</sup>They have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. <sup>8:12</sup>Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among those who fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says the LORD. <sup>8:13</sup>I will utterly consume them, says the LORD: no grapes shall be on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. <sup>8:14</sup>Why do we sit still? Assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for the LORD our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. <sup>8:15</sup>We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! <sup>8:16</sup>The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they have come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those who dwell therein. <sup>8:17</sup>For, behold, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, says the LORD. <sup>8:18</sup>Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! My heart is faint within me. <sup>8:19</sup>Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: isn't the LORD in Zion? Isn't her King in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their engraved images, and with foreign vanities? <sup>8:20</sup>The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. <sup>8:21</sup>For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me. <sup>8:22</sup>Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then isn't the health of the daughter of my people recovered?

<sup>9:1</sup>Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a spring of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people! <sup>9:2</sup>Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. <sup>9:3</sup>They bend their tongue, as their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they don't know me, says the LORD. <sup>9:4</sup>Take heed everyone of his neighbor, and don't trust in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders. <sup>9:5</sup>They will deceive everyone his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity. <sup>9:6</sup>Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, says the LORD. <sup>9:7</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how should I deal with the daughter of my people? <sup>9:8</sup>Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lays wait for him. <sup>9:9</sup>Shall I not visit them for these things? says the LORD; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? <sup>9:10</sup>For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none passes through; neither can men hear the voice of the livestock; both the birds of the sky and the animals are fled, they are gone. <sup>9:11</sup>I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant. <sup>9:12</sup>Who is the wise man, that may understand this? Who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD has spoken, that he may declare it? Why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that none passes through? <sup>9:13</sup>The LORD says, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein, <sup>9:14</sup>but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baals, which their fathers taught them; <sup>9:15</sup>therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. <sup>9:16</sup>I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them. <sup>9:17</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, Consider, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skillful women, that they may come: <sup>9:18</sup>and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. <sup>9:19</sup>For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we ruined! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings. <sup>9:20</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, you women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and everyone her neighbor lamentation. <sup>9:21</sup>For death has come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from outside, and the young men from the streets. <sup>9:22</sup>Speak, Thus says the LORD, The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung on the open field, and as the handful after the harvester; and none shall gather them. <sup>9:23</sup>Thus says the LORD, Don't let the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, don't let the rich man glory in his riches; <sup>9:24</sup>but let him who glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am the LORD who exercises loving kindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, says the LORD. <sup>9:25</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will punish all those who are circumcised in uncircumcision: <sup>9:26</sup>Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, who dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.

<sup>10:1</sup>Hear the word which the LORD speaks to you, house of Israel! <sup>10:2</sup>Thus says the LORD, "Don't learn the way of the nations, and don't be dismayed at the signs of the sky; for the nations are dismayed at them. <sup>10:3</sup>For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe. <sup>10:4</sup>They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it not move. <sup>10:5</sup>They are like a palm tree, of turned work, and don't speak: they must be carried, because they can't go. Don't be afraid of them; for they can't do evil, neither is it in them to do good." <sup>10:6</sup>There is none like you, LORD; you are great, and your name is great in might. <sup>10:7</sup>Who should not fear you, King of the nations? For it appertains to you; because among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like you. <sup>10:8</sup>But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! it is but a stock. <sup>10:9</sup>There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skillful men. <sup>10:10</sup>But the LORD is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to withstand his indignation. <sup>10:11</sup>You shall say this to them: The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens. <sup>10:12</sup>He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: <sup>10:13</sup>when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. <sup>10:14</sup>Every man has become brutish and without knowledge; every goldsmith is disappointed by his engraved image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. <sup>10:15</sup>They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. <sup>10:16</sup>The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of Hosts is his name. <sup>10:17</sup>Gather up your wares out of the land, you who live under siege. <sup>10:18</sup>For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it. <sup>10:19</sup>Woe is me because of my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it. <sup>10:20</sup>My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are no more: there is none to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. <sup>10:21</sup>For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of the LORD: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered. <sup>10:22</sup>The voice of news, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling place of jackals. <sup>10:23</sup>LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man who walks to direct his steps. <sup>10:24</sup>LORD, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing. <sup>10:25</sup>Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you, and on the families that don't call on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.

<sup>11:1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>11:2</sup>Hear the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; <sup>11:3</sup>and say to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Cursed is the man who doesn't hear the words of this covenant, <sup>11:4</sup>which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so you shall be my people, and I will be your God; <sup>11:5</sup>that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered I, and said, Amen, LORD. <sup>11:6</sup>The LORD said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear the words of this covenant, and do them. <sup>11:7</sup>For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. <sup>11:8</sup>Yet they didn't obey, nor turn their ear, but walked everyone in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought on them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they didn't do them. <sup>11:9</sup>The LORD said to me, A conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>11:10</sup>They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers. <sup>11:11</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil on them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not listen to them. <sup>11:12</sup>Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble. <sup>11:13</sup>For according to the number of your cities are your gods, Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have you set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal. <sup>11:14</sup>Therefore don't pray for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble. <sup>11:15</sup>What has my beloved to do in my house, since she has worked lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? when you do evil, then you rejoice. <sup>11:16</sup>The LORD called your name, A green olive tree, beautiful with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire on it, and its branches are broken. <sup>11:17</sup>For the LORD of Hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have worked for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal. <sup>11:18</sup>The LORD gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings. <sup>11:19</sup>But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I didn't know that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. <sup>11:20</sup>But, the LORD of Hosts, who judges righteously, who tests the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. <sup>11:21</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the men of Anathoth, who seek your life, saying, You shall not prophesy in the name of the LORD, that you not die by our hand; <sup>11:22</sup>therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine; <sup>11:23</sup>and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil on the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

<sup>12:1</sup>You are righteous, LORD, when I contend with you; yet I would reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? why are all they at ease who deal very treacherously? <sup>12:2</sup>You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart. <sup>12:3</sup>But you, LORD, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you:

pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. <sup>12:4</sup>How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of those who dwell therein, the animals are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our latter end. <sup>12:5</sup>If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan? <sup>12:6</sup>For even your brothers, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: don't believe them, though they speak beautiful words to you. <sup>12:7</sup>I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. <sup>12:8</sup>My heritage has become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her. <sup>12:9</sup>Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her all around? Go, assemble all the animals of the field, bring them to devour. <sup>12:10</sup>Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. <sup>12:11</sup>They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart. <sup>12:12</sup>Destroyers have come on all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of the LORD devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace. <sup>12:13</sup>They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and you shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>12:14</sup>Thus says the LORD against all my evil neighbors, who touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them. <sup>12:15</sup>It shall happen, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land. <sup>12:16</sup>It shall happen, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, As the LORD lives; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people. <sup>12:17</sup>But if they will not hear, then will I pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, says the LORD.

<sup>13:1</sup>Thus says the LORD to me, Go, and buy yourself a linen belt, and put it on your waist, and don't put it in water. <sup>13:2</sup>So I bought a belt according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my waist. <sup>13:3</sup>The word of the LORD came to me the second time, saying, <sup>13:4</sup>Take the belt that you have bought, which is on your waist, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock. <sup>13:5</sup>So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. <sup>13:6</sup>It happened after many days, that the LORD said to me, Arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the belt from there, which I commanded you to hide there. <sup>13:7</sup>Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the belt from the place where I had hidden it; and behold, the belt was marred, it was profitable for nothing. <sup>13:8</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>13:9</sup>Thus says the LORD, In this way I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem. <sup>13:10</sup>This evil people, who refuse to hear my words, who walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this belt, which is profitable for nothing. <sup>13:11</sup>For as the belt clings to the waist of a man, so have I caused to cling to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, says the LORD; that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear. <sup>13:12</sup>Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall tell you, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? <sup>13:13</sup>Then you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings who sit on David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. <sup>13:14</sup>I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them. <sup>13:15</sup>Hear, and give ear; don't be proud; for the LORD has spoken. <sup>13:16</sup>Give glory to the LORD your God, before he causes darkness, and before your feet stumble on the dark mountains, and, while you look for light, he turns it into the shadow of death, and makes it gross darkness. <sup>13:17</sup>But if you will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep bitterly, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is taken captive. <sup>13:18</sup>Say to the king and to the queen mother, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headdresses have come down, even the crown of your glory. <sup>13:19</sup>The cities of the South are shut up, and there is none to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive. <sup>13:20</sup>Lift up your eyes, and see those who come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock? <sup>13:21</sup>What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail? <sup>13:22</sup>If you say in your heart, Why are these things come on me? for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence. <sup>13:23</sup>Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may you also do good, who are accustomed to do evil. <sup>13:24</sup>Therefore will I scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness. <sup>13:25</sup>This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me, says the LORD; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. <sup>13:26</sup>Therefore will I also uncover your skirts on your face, and your shame shall appear. <sup>13:27</sup>I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighing, the lewdness of your prostitution, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, Jerusalem! You will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?

<sup>14:1</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought. <sup>14:2</sup>Judah mourns, and its gates languish, they sit in black on the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up. <sup>14:3</sup>Their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are disappointed and confounded, and cover their heads. <sup>14:4</sup>Because of the ground which is cracked, because no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are disappointed, they cover their heads. <sup>14:5</sup>Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass. <sup>14:6</sup>The wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage. <sup>14:7</sup>Though our iniquities testify against us, work for your name's sake, LORD; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you. <sup>14:8</sup>You hope of Israel, its Savior in the time of trouble, why should you be as a foreigner in the land, and as a wayfaring man who turns aside to stay for a night? <sup>14:9</sup>Why should you be like a scared man, as a mighty man who can't save? Yet you, LORD, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; don't leave us. <sup>14:10</sup>Thus says the LORD to this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore the LORD does not accept them; now he will remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. <sup>14:11</sup>The LORD said to me, Don't pray for this people for their good. <sup>14:12</sup>When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. <sup>14:13</sup>Then I said, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets tell them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall you have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place. <sup>14:14</sup>Then the LORD said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I didn't send them, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nothing, and the deceit of their own heart. <sup>14:15</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who prophesy in my name, and I didn't send them, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed. <sup>14:16</sup>The people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them—they, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness on them. <sup>14:17</sup>You shall say this word to them, Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound. <sup>14:18</sup>If I go forth into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, those who are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge. <sup>14:19</sup>Have you utterly rejected Judah? has your soul loathed Zion? why have you struck us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and behold, dismay! <sup>14:20</sup>We acknowledge, LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you. <sup>14:21</sup>Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, don't break your covenant with us. <sup>14:22</sup>Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? or can the sky give showers? Aren't you he, the LORD our God? therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.

<sup>15:1</sup>Then the LORD said to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. <sup>15:2</sup>It shall happen, when they tell you, Where shall we go forth? Then you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity. <sup>15:3</sup>I will appoint over them four kinds, says the LORD: the sword to kill, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the earth, to devour and to destroy. <sup>15:4</sup>I will cause them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. <sup>15:5</sup>For who will have pity on you, Jerusalem? or who will bemoan you? or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare? <sup>15:6</sup>You have rejected me, says the LORD, you have gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting. <sup>15:7</sup>I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they didn't return from their ways. <sup>15:8</sup>Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought on them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall on her suddenly. <sup>15:9</sup>She who has borne seven languishes; she has given up the spirit; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been disappointed and confounded: and their residue will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, says the LORD. <sup>15:10</sup>Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet everyone of them curses me. <sup>15:11</sup>The LORD said, Most certainly I will strengthen you for good; most certainly I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. <sup>15:12</sup>Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass? <sup>15:13</sup>Your substance and your treasures will I give for a spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders. <sup>15:14</sup>I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you don't know; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn on you. <sup>15:15</sup>LORD, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; don't take me away in your longsuffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach. <sup>15:16</sup>Your words were found, and I ate them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, the LORD, God of Hosts. <sup>15:17</sup>I didn't sit in the assembly of those who make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation. <sup>15:18</sup>Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? Will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail? <sup>15:19</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, If you return, then will I bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them. <sup>15:20</sup>I will make you to this people a fortified bronze wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says the LORD. <sup>15:21</sup>I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.

<sup>16:1</sup>The word of the LORD came also to me, saying, <sup>16:2</sup>You shall not take a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place. <sup>16:3</sup>For thus says the LORD concerning the sons and concerning the daughters who are born in this place, and concerning their mothers who bore them, and concerning their fathers who became their father in this land: <sup>16:4</sup>They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung on the surface of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. <sup>16:5</sup>For thus says the LORD, Don't enter into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says the LORD, even loving kindness and tender mercies. <sup>16:6</sup>Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them; <sup>16:7</sup>neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. <sup>16:8</sup>You shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink. <sup>16:9</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride. <sup>16:10</sup>It shall happen, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall tell you, Why has the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? <sup>16:11</sup>Then you shall tell them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, says the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshiped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; <sup>16:12</sup>and you have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, you walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that you don't listen to me: <sup>16:13</sup>therefore will I cast you forth out of this land into the land that you have not known, neither you nor your fathers; and there you shall serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor. <sup>16:14</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that it shall no more be said, As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; <sup>16:15</sup>but, As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries where he had driven them. I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers. <sup>16:16</sup>Behold, I will send for many fishermen, says the LORD, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks. <sup>16:17</sup>For my eyes are on all their ways; they are not hidden from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes. <sup>16:18</sup>First I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations. <sup>16:19</sup>LORD, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nothing but lies, vanity and things in which there is no profit. <sup>16:20</sup>Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods? <sup>16:21</sup>Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once will I cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is the LORD.

<sup>17:1</sup>The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is engraved on the tablet of their heart, and on the horns of your altars; <sup>17:2</sup>while their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees on the high hills. <sup>17:3</sup>My mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders. <sup>17:4</sup>You, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you don't know: for you have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn forever. <sup>17:5</sup>Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the man who trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from the LORD. <sup>17:6</sup>For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited. <sup>17:7</sup>Blessed is the man who trusts in the LORD, and whose trust the LORD is. <sup>17:8</sup>For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, who spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. <sup>17:9</sup>The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it? <sup>17:10</sup>I, the LORD,

search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings. <sup>17:11</sup>As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he who gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool. <sup>17:12</sup>A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary. <sup>17:13</sup>LORD, the hope of Israel, all who forsake you shall be disappointed. Those who depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the spring of living waters. <sup>17:14</sup>Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise. <sup>17:15</sup>Behold, they tell me, Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now. <sup>17:16</sup>As for me, I have not hurried from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face. <sup>17:17</sup>Don't be a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil. <sup>17:18</sup>Let them be disappointed who persecute me, but let not me be disappointed; let them be dismayed, but don't let me be dismayed; bring on them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. <sup>17:19</sup>Thus said the LORD to me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, through which the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; <sup>17:20</sup>and tell them, Hear the word of the LORD, you kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: <sup>17:21</sup>Thus says the LORD, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the Sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; <sup>17:22</sup>neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the Sabbath day holy, neither do any work: but make the Sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. <sup>17:23</sup>But they didn't listen, neither turn their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction. <sup>17:24</sup>It shall happen, if you diligently listen to me, says the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the Sabbath day, but to make the Sabbath day holy, to do no work therein; <sup>17:25</sup>then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain forever. <sup>17:26</sup>They shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places around Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to the house of the LORD. <sup>17:27</sup>But if you will not listen to me to make the Sabbath day holy, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in its gates, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

<sup>18:1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>18:2</sup>Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words. <sup>18:3</sup>Then I went down to the potter's house, and behold, he was making a work on the wheels. <sup>18:4</sup>When the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it. <sup>18:5</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>18:6</sup>House of Israel, can't I do with you as this potter? says the LORD. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are you in my hand, house of Israel. <sup>18:7</sup>At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it; <sup>18:8</sup>if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them. <sup>18:9</sup>At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; <sup>18:10</sup>if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they not obey my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them. <sup>18:11</sup>Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return you now everyone from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings. <sup>18:12</sup>But they say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do everyone after the stubbornness of his evil heart. <sup>18:13</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: Ask now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing. <sup>18:14</sup>Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? Shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up? <sup>18:15</sup>For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in byways, in a way not built up; <sup>18:16</sup>to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head. <sup>18:17</sup>I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. <sup>18:18</sup>Then they said, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us strike him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. <sup>18:19</sup>Give heed to me, LORD, and listen to the voice of those who contend with me. <sup>18:20</sup>Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them. <sup>18:21</sup>Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men struck of the sword in battle. <sup>18:22</sup>Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly on them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. <sup>18:23</sup>Yet, LORD, you know all their counsel against me to kill me; don't forgive their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.

<sup>19:1</sup>Thus said the LORD, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take some of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests; <sup>19:2</sup>and go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you; <sup>19:3</sup>and say, Hear the word of the LORD, kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle. <sup>19:4</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they didn't know, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents, <sup>19:5</sup>and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I didn't command, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind: <sup>19:6</sup>therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter. <sup>19:7</sup>I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of those who seek their life: and their dead bodies will I give to be food for the birds of the sky, and for the animals of the earth. <sup>19:8</sup>I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; everyone who passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all its plagues. <sup>19:9</sup>I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat everyone the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and those who seek their life, shall distress them. <sup>19:10</sup>Then you shall break the bottle in the sight of the men who go with you, <sup>19:11</sup>and shall tell them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that can't be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, until there is no place to bury. <sup>19:12</sup>Thus will I do to this place, says the LORD, and to its inhabitants, even making this city as Topheth: <sup>19:13</sup>and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses on whose roofs they have burned incense to all the army of the sky, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods. <sup>19:14</sup>Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, where the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD's house, and said to all the people: <sup>19:15</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring on this city and on all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.

<sup>20:1</sup>Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of the LORD, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things. <sup>20:2</sup>Then Pashhur struck Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of the LORD. <sup>20:3</sup>It happened on the next day, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then Jeremiah said to him, the LORD has not called your name Pashhur, but Magorissabib. <sup>20:4</sup>For thus says the LORD, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall see it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall kill them with the sword. <sup>20:5</sup>Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all its gains, and all the precious things of it, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. <sup>20:6</sup>You, Pashhur, and all who dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there you shall be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely. <sup>20:7</sup>LORD, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me. <sup>20:8</sup>For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! because the word of the LORD is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day. <sup>20:9</sup>If I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I can't. <sup>20:10</sup>For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, those who watch for my fall; perhaps he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him. <sup>20:11</sup>But the LORD is with me as an awesome mighty one: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly disappointed, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten. <sup>20:12</sup>But, the LORD of Hosts, who tests the righteous, who sees the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause. <sup>20:13</sup>Sing to the LORD, praise the LORD; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evildoers. <sup>20:14</sup>Cursed is the day in which I was born: don't let the day in which my mother bore me be blessed. <sup>20:15</sup>Cursed is the man who brought news to my father, saying, A boy is born to you; making him very glad. <sup>20:16</sup>Let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and didn't repent: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime; <sup>20:17</sup>because he didn't kill me from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great. <sup>20:18</sup>Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

<sup>21:1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying, <sup>21:2</sup>Please inquire of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: perhaps the LORD will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us. <sup>21:3</sup>Then Jeremiah said to them, You shall tell Zedekiah: <sup>21:4</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which you fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Kasdim who besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city. <sup>21:5</sup>I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation. <sup>21:6</sup>I will strike the inhabitants of this city, both man and animal: they shall die of a great pestilence. <sup>21:7</sup>Afterward, says the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life: and he shall strike them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy. <sup>21:8</sup>To this people you shall say, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death. <sup>21:9</sup>He who remains in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he who goes out, and passes over to the Kasdim who besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey. <sup>21:10</sup>For I have set my face on this city for evil, and not for good, says the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire. <sup>21:11</sup>Touching the house of the king of Judah, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>21:12</sup>House of David, thus says the LORD, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. <sup>21:13</sup>Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain, says the LORD; you that say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? <sup>21:14</sup>I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says the LORD; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is around her.

<sup>22:1</sup>Thus said the LORD: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word, <sup>22:2</sup>Say, Hear the word of the LORD, king of Judah, who sits on the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people who enter in by these gates. <sup>22:3</sup>Thus says the LORD: Execute justice and righteousness, and deliver him who is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the foreigner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place. <sup>22:4</sup>For if you do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting on the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. <sup>22:5</sup>But if you will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. <sup>22:6</sup>For thus says the LORD concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are Gilead to me, the head of Lebanon. Yet surely I will make you a wilderness, cities which are not inhabited. <sup>22:7</sup>I will prepare destroyers against you, everyone with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. <sup>22:8</sup>Many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, Why has the LORD done thus to this great city? <sup>22:9</sup>Then they shall answer, Because they forsook the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshiped other gods, and served them. <sup>22:10</sup>Don't weep for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep bitterly for him who goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. <sup>22:11</sup>For thus says the LORD touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: He shall not return there any more. <sup>22:12</sup>But in the place where they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more. <sup>22:13</sup>Woe to him who builds his house by unrighteousness, and his rooms by injustice; who uses his neighbor's service without wages, and doesn't give him his hire; <sup>22:14</sup>who says, I will build me a wide house and spacious rooms, and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiling with cedar, and painted with vermilion. <sup>22:15</sup>Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Didn't your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? then it was well with him. <sup>22:16</sup>He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Wasn't this to know me? says the LORD. <sup>22:17</sup>But your eyes and your heart are not but for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. <sup>22:18</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! They shall not lament for him, saying Ah lord! or, Ah his glory! <sup>22:19</sup>He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. <sup>22:20</sup>Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed. <sup>22:21</sup>I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your way from your youth, that you didn't obey my voice. <sup>22:22</sup>The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then you will be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness. <sup>22:23</sup>Inhabitant of Lebanon, who makes your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied you will be when pangs come on you, the pain as of a woman in travail! <sup>22:24</sup>As I live, says the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet on my right hand, yet would I pluck you there; <sup>22:25</sup>and I will give you into the hand of those who seek your life, and into the hand of them of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Kasdim. <sup>22:26</sup>I will cast you out, and your mother who bore you, into another country, where you were not born; and there you will die. <sup>22:27</sup>But to the land whereunto their soul longs to return, there shall they not return. <sup>22:28</sup>Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? is he a vessel in which none delights? why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they don't know? <sup>22:29</sup>O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>22:30</sup>Thus says the LORD, Write you this man childless, a man who shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting on the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.

<sup>23:1</sup>Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says the LORD. <sup>23:2</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, against the shepherds who feed my people: You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit on you the evil of your doings, says the LORD. <sup>23:3</sup>I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply. <sup>23:4</sup>I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, says the LORD. <sup>23:5</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>23:6</sup>In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name by which he shall be called: the LORD our righteousness. <sup>23:7</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that they shall no more say, As the LORD lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; <sup>23:8</sup>but, As the LORD lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries where I had driven them. They shall dwell in their own land. <sup>23:9</sup>Concerning the prophets. My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of the LORD, and because of his holy words. <sup>23:10</sup>For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. Their course is evil, and their might is not right; <sup>23:11</sup>for both prophet and priest are profane;

yes, in my house have I found their wickedness, says the LORD. <sup>23:12</sup>Therefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil on them, even the year of their visitation, says the LORD. <sup>23:13</sup>I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. <sup>23:14</sup>In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that none does return from his wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and its inhabitants as Gomorrah. <sup>23:15</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land. <sup>23:16</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, Don't listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. <sup>23:17</sup>They say continually to those who despise me, the LORD has said, You shall have peace; and to everyone who walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, No evil shall come on you. <sup>23:18</sup>For who has stood in the council of the LORD, that he should perceive and hear his word? who has marked my word, and heard it? <sup>23:19</sup>Behold, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth. Yes, a whirling storm. It shall burst on the head of the wicked. <sup>23:20</sup>The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he has executed, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days you shall understand it perfectly. <sup>23:21</sup>I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I didn't speak to them, yet they prophesied. <sup>23:22</sup>But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings. <sup>23:23</sup>Am I a God at hand, says the LORD, and not a God afar off? <sup>23:24</sup>Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? says the LORD. Don't I fill heaven and earth? says the LORD. <sup>23:25</sup>I have heard what the prophets have said, who prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed. <sup>23:26</sup>How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart? <sup>23:27</sup>who think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgot my name for Baal. <sup>23:28</sup>The prophet who has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he who has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? says the LORD. <sup>23:29</sup>Isn't my word like fire? says the LORD; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces? <sup>23:30</sup>Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who steal my words everyone from his neighbor. <sup>23:31</sup>Behold, I am against the prophets, says the LORD, who use their tongues, and say, He says. <sup>23:32</sup>Behold, I am against those who prophesy lying dreams, says the LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I didn't send them, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all, says the LORD. <sup>23:33</sup>When this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden of the LORD? Then you shall tell them, What burden! I will cast you off, says the LORD. <sup>23:34</sup>As for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, who shall say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. <sup>23:35</sup>You shall say everyone to his neighbor, and everyone to his brother, What has the LORD answered? and, What has the LORD spoken? <sup>23:36</sup>You shall mention the burden of the LORD no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for you have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of Hosts our God. <sup>23:37</sup>You shall say to the prophet, What has the LORD answered you? and, What has the LORD spoken? <sup>23:38</sup>But if you say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus says the LORD: Because you say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent to you, saying, You shall not say, The burden of the LORD; <sup>23:39</sup>therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence: <sup>23:40</sup>and I will bring an everlasting reproach on you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

<sup>24:1</sup>The LORD showed me, and behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. <sup>24:2</sup>One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. <sup>24:3</sup>Then the LORD said to me, What do you see, Jeremiah? I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. <sup>24:4</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24:5</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so will I regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Kasdim, for good. <sup>24:6</sup>For I will set my eyes on them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up. <sup>24:7</sup>I will give them a heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart. <sup>24:8</sup>As the bad figs, which can't be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says the LORD, So will I give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, who remain in this land, and those who dwell in the land of Egypt, <sup>24:9</sup>I will even give them up to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places where I shall drive them. <sup>24:10</sup>I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, until they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.

<sup>25:1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), <sup>25:2</sup>which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying: <sup>25:3</sup>From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these twenty-three years, the word of the LORD has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but you have not listened. <sup>25:4</sup>The LORD has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them (but you have not listened, nor inclined your ear to hear) <sup>25:5</sup>saying, Return now everyone from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even forevermore; <sup>25:6</sup>and don't go after other gods to serve them or worship them, and don't provoke me to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no harm. <sup>25:7</sup>Yet you have not listened to me, says the LORD; that you may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt. <sup>25:8</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts: Because you have not heard my words, <sup>25:9</sup>behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says the LORD, and I will send to Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against its inhabitants, and against all these nations around; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations. <sup>25:10</sup>Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp. <sup>25:11</sup>This whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years. <sup>25:12</sup>It shall happen, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Kasdim; and I will make it desolate forever. <sup>25:13</sup>I will bring on that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations. <sup>25:14</sup>For many nations and great kings shall make bondservants of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands. <sup>25:15</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it. <sup>25:16</sup>They shall drink, and reel back and forth, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them. <sup>25:17</sup>Then took I the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom the LORD had sent me: <sup>25:18</sup>Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and its kings, and its princes, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day; <sup>25:19</sup>Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people; <sup>25:20</sup>and all the mixed people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod; <sup>25:21</sup>Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon; <sup>25:22</sup>and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea; <sup>25:23</sup>Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all who have the corners of their beard cut off; <sup>25:24</sup>and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mixed people who dwell in the wilderness; <sup>25:25</sup>and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes; <sup>25:26</sup>and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are on the surface of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them. <sup>25:27</sup>You shall tell them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Drink, and be drunk, vomit, fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you. <sup>25:28</sup>It shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then you shall tell them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts: You shall surely drink. <sup>25:29</sup>For, behold, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should you be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword on all the inhabitants of the earth, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>25:30</sup>Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and tell them, the LORD will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as those who tread grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth. <sup>25:31</sup>A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for the LORD has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, says the LORD. <sup>25:32</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great storm shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>25:33</sup>The slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung on the surface of the ground. <sup>25:34</sup>Wail, you shepherds, and cry; and wallow in dust, you principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and you shall fall like a goodly vessel. <sup>25:35</sup>The shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape. <sup>25:36</sup>A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! for the LORD lays waste their pasture. <sup>25:37</sup>The peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>25:38</sup>He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land has become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppression, and because of his fierce anger.

<sup>26:1</sup>In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from the LORD, saying, <sup>26:2</sup>Thus says the LORD: Stand in the court of the LORD's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; don't diminish a word. <sup>26:3</sup>It may be they will listen, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings. <sup>26:4</sup>You shall tell them, Thus says the LORD: If you will not listen to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, <sup>26:5</sup>to listen to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but you have not listened; <sup>26:6</sup>then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth. <sup>26:7</sup>The priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. <sup>26:8</sup>It happened, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, You shall surely die. <sup>26:9</sup>Why have you prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? All the people were gathered to Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. <sup>26:10</sup>When the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of the LORD; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house. <sup>26:11</sup>Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as you have heard with your ears. <sup>26:12</sup>Then spoke Jeremiah to all the princes and to all the people, saying, the LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that you have heard. <sup>26:13</sup>Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he has pronounced against you. <sup>26:14</sup>But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes. <sup>26:15</sup>Only know for certain that, if you put me to death, you will bring innocent blood on yourselves, and on this city, and on its inhabitants; for of a truth the LORD has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears. <sup>26:16</sup>Then the princes and all the people said to the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of the LORD our God. <sup>26:17</sup>Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying, <sup>26:18</sup>Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest. <sup>26:19</sup>Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? Didn't he fear the LORD, and entreat the favor of the LORD, and the LORD relented of the disaster which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls. <sup>26:20</sup>There was also a man who prophesied in the name of the LORD, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath Jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah: <sup>26:21</sup>and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt: <sup>26:22</sup>and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt; <sup>26:23</sup>and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who killed him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people. <sup>26:24</sup>But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.

<sup>27:2</sup>Thus says the LORD to me: Make bonds and bars, and put them on your neck; <sup>27:3</sup>and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers who come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah; <sup>27:4</sup>and give them a command to their masters, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, You shall tell your masters: <sup>27:5</sup>I have made the earth, the men and the animals that are on the surface of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me. <sup>27:6</sup>Now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the animals of the field also have I given him to serve him. <sup>27:7</sup>All the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondservant. <sup>27:8</sup>It shall happen, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, says the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. <sup>27:9</sup>But as for you, don't you listen to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon: <sup>27:10</sup>for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and you should perish. <sup>27:11</sup>But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation will I let remain in their own land, says the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. <sup>27:12</sup>I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. <sup>27:13</sup>Why will you die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? <sup>27:14</sup>Don't listen to the words of the prophets who speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>27:15</sup>For I have not sent them, says the LORD, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that you may perish, you, and the prophets who prophesy to you. <sup>27:16</sup>Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says the LORD: Don't listen to the words of your prophets who prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you. <sup>27:17</sup>Don't listen to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation? <sup>27:18</sup>But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of Hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, don't go to Babylon. <sup>27:19</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city, <sup>27:20</sup>which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon didn't take, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem; <sup>27:21</sup>yes, thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem: <sup>27:22</sup>They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, says the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

<sup>28:1</sup>It happened the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying, <sup>28:2</sup>Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>28:3</sup>Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon: <sup>28:4</sup>and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, who went to Babylon, says the LORD; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon. <sup>28:5</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people who stood in the house of the LORD, <sup>28:6</sup>even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so; the LORD perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place. <sup>28:7</sup>Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people: <sup>28:8</sup>The prophets who have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. <sup>28:9</sup>The prophet who prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall happen, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD has truly sent him. <sup>28:10</sup>Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it. <sup>28:11</sup>Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus says the LORD: Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. The prophet Jeremiah went his way. <sup>28:12</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>28:13</sup>Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says the LORD: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their place bars of iron. <sup>28:14</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron on the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the animals of the field also. <sup>28:15</sup>Then the prophet Jeremiah said to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah: the LORD has not sent you; but you make this people to trust in a lie. <sup>28:16</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will send you away from off the surface of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against the LORD. <sup>28:17</sup>So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

<sup>29:1</sup>Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,

<sup>29:2</sup>(after that Jeconiah the king, the queen mother, the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, the craftsmen, and the smiths, had departed from Jerusalem), <sup>29:3</sup>by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiyah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon), saying, <sup>29:4</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon: <sup>29:5</sup>Build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit. <sup>29:6</sup>Take wives, and father sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply there, and don't be diminished. <sup>29:7</sup>Seek the peace of the city where I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to the LORD for it; for in its peace you shall have peace. <sup>29:8</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Don't let your prophets who are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither listen to your dreams which you cause to be dreamed. <sup>29:9</sup>For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them, says the LORD. <sup>29:10</sup>For thus says the LORD, After seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place. <sup>29:11</sup>For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope and a future. <sup>29:12</sup>You shall call on me, and you shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you. <sup>29:13</sup>You shall seek me, and find me, when you shall search for me with all your heart. <sup>29:14</sup>I will be found by you, says the LORD, and I will turn again your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places where I have driven you, says the LORD; and I will bring you again to the place from where I caused you to be carried away captive. <sup>29:15</sup>Because you have said, the LORD has raised us up prophets in Babylon; <sup>29:16</sup>thus says the LORD concerning the king who sits on the throne of David, and concerning all the people who dwell in this city, your brothers who haven't gone forth with you into captivity; <sup>29:17</sup>thus says the LORD of Hosts; Behold, I will send on them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that can't be eaten, they are so bad. <sup>29:18</sup>I will pursue after them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations where I have driven them; <sup>29:19</sup>because they have not listened to my words, says the LORD, with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but you would not hear, says the LORD. <sup>29:20</sup>Hear therefore the word of the LORD, all you of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon. <sup>29:21</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall kill them before your eyes; <sup>29:22</sup>and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah who are in Babylon, saying, the LORD make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; <sup>29:23</sup>because they have worked folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I didn't command them; and I am he who knows, and am witness, says the LORD. <sup>29:24</sup>Concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying, <sup>29:25</sup>Thus speaks the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people who are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying, <sup>29:26</sup>The LORD has made you priest in the place of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man who is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles. <sup>29:27</sup>Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you, <sup>29:28</sup>because he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long; build houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat their fruit? <sup>29:29</sup>Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. <sup>29:30</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>29:31</sup>Send to all them of the captivity, saying,

Thus says the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I didn't send him, and he has caused you to trust in a lie; <sup>29:32</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he see the good that I will do to my people, says the LORD, because he has spoken rebellion against the LORD.

<sup>30:1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>30:2</sup>Thus speaks the LORD, the God of Israel, saying, Write all the words that I have spoken to you in a book. <sup>30:3</sup>For, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says the LORD; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it. <sup>30:4</sup>These are the words that the LORD spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah. <sup>30:5</sup>For thus says the LORD: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. <sup>30:6</sup>Ask now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his waist, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness? <sup>30:7</sup>Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it. <sup>30:8</sup>It shall come to pass in that day, says the LORD of Hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondservant; <sup>30:9</sup>but they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them. <sup>30:10</sup>Therefore don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD; neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>30:11</sup>For I am with you, says the LORD, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you; but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished. <sup>30:12</sup>For thus says the LORD, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous. <sup>30:13</sup>There is none to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines. <sup>30:14</sup>All your lovers have forgotten you; they don't seek you: for

I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased. <sup>30:15</sup>Why do you cry for your hurt? Your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you. <sup>30:16</sup>Therefore all those who devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, everyone of them, shall go into captivity; and those who despoil you shall be a spoil, and all who prey on you will I give for a prey. <sup>30:17</sup>For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says the LORD; because they have called you an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man seeks after. <sup>30:18</sup>Thus says the LORD: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling places; and the city shall be built on its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited in its own way. <sup>30:19</sup>Out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of those who make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. <sup>30:20</sup>Their children also shall be as before, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all who oppress them. <sup>30:21</sup>Their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from their midst; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he who has had boldness to approach to me? says the LORD. <sup>30:22</sup>You shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>30:23</sup>Behold, the storm of the LORD, his wrath, has gone forth, a sweeping storm: it shall burst on the head of the wicked. <sup>30:24</sup>The fierce anger of the LORD will not return, until he has executed, and until he has performed the intentions of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it.

<sup>31:1</sup>At that time, says the LORD, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people. <sup>31:2</sup>Thus says the LORD, The people who were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. <sup>31:3</sup>The LORD appeared of old to me, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with loving kindness have I drawn you. <sup>31:4</sup>Again will I build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again you shall be adorned with your tambourines, and shall go forth in the dances of those who make merry. <sup>31:5</sup>Again you shall plant vineyards on the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy its fruit. <sup>31:6</sup>For there shall be a day, that the watchmen on the hills of Ephraim shall cry, Arise, and let us go up to Zion to the LORD our God. <sup>31:7</sup>For thus says the LORD, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish, praise, and say, the LORD, save your people, the remnant of Israel. <sup>31:8</sup>Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, along with the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her who travails with child together: a great company shall they return here. <sup>31:9</sup>They shall come with weeping; and with petitions will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. <sup>31:10</sup>Hear the word of the LORD, you nations, and declare it in the islands afar off; and say, He who scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as shepherd does his flock. <sup>31:11</sup>For the LORD has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him who was stronger than he. <sup>31:12</sup>They shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of the LORD, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all. <sup>31:13</sup>Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow. <sup>31:14</sup>I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says the LORD. <sup>31:15</sup>Thus says the LORD: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are no more. <sup>31:16</sup>Thus says the LORD: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says the LORD; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy. <sup>31:17</sup>There is hope for your latter end, says the LORD; and your children shall come again to their own border. <sup>31:18</sup>I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as an untrained calf: turn me, and I shall be turned; for you are the LORD my God. <sup>31:19</sup>Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I struck on my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I bore the reproach of my youth. <sup>31:20</sup>Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a darling child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy on him, says the LORD. <sup>31:21</sup>Set up road signs, make guideposts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities. <sup>31:22</sup>How long will you go here and there, you backsliding daughter? for the LORD has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man. <sup>31:23</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in its cities, when I shall bring again their captivity: the LORD bless you, habitation of righteousness, mountain of holiness. <sup>31:24</sup>Judah and all its cities shall dwell therein together, the farmers, and those who go about with flocks. <sup>31:25</sup>For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished. <sup>31:26</sup>On this I awakened, and saw; and my sleep was sweet to me. <sup>31:27</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of animal. <sup>31:28</sup>It shall happen that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so will I watch over them to build and to plant, says the LORD. <sup>31:29</sup>In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge. <sup>31:30</sup>But everyone shall die for his own iniquity: every man who eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge. <sup>31:31</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: <sup>31:32</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them, says the LORD. <sup>31:33</sup>But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the LORD: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart will I write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people: <sup>31:34</sup>and they shall teach no more every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD; for they shall all know me, from their least to their greatest, says the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin will I remember no more. <sup>31:35</sup>Thus says the LORD, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that its waves roar; the LORD of Hosts is his name: <sup>31:36</sup>If these ordinances depart from before me, says the LORD, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me forever. <sup>31:37</sup>Thus says the LORD: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then will I also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says the LORD. <sup>31:38</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner. <sup>31:39</sup>The measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah. <sup>31:40</sup>The whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more forever.

<sup>32:1</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>32:2</sup>Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house. <sup>32:3</sup>For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, and say, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; <sup>32:4</sup>and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Kasdim, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall see his eyes; <sup>32:5</sup>and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and he shall be there until I visit him, says the LORD: though you fight with the Kasdim, you shall not prosper? <sup>32:6</sup>Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>32:7</sup>Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it. <sup>32:8</sup>So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of the LORD, and said to me, Please buy my field that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. <sup>32:9</sup>I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. <sup>32:10</sup>I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. <sup>32:11</sup>So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, containing the terms and conditions, and that which was open; <sup>32:12</sup>and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses who subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews who sat in the court of the guard. <sup>32:13</sup>I commanded Baruch before them, saying, <sup>32:14</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days. <sup>32:15</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land. <sup>32:16</sup>Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD, saying, <sup>32:17</sup>Ah Lord GOD! Behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you, <sup>32:18</sup>who show loving kindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, the LORD of Hosts is his name; <sup>32:19</sup>great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open on all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: <sup>32:20</sup>who performed signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made yourself a name, as in this day; <sup>32:21</sup>and brought forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror; <sup>32:22</sup>and gave them this land, which you swore to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; <sup>32:23</sup>and they came in, and possessed it, but they didn't obey your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come on them. <sup>32:24</sup>Behold, the mounds, they have come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Kasdim who fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken has happened; and behold, you see it. <sup>32:25</sup>You have said to me, Lord GOD, Buy the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Kasdim. <sup>32:26</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>32:27</sup>Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me? <sup>32:28</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Kasdim, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: <sup>32:29</sup>and the Kasdim, who fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, on whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger. <sup>32:30</sup>For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says the LORD. <sup>32:31</sup>For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face, <sup>32:32</sup>because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>32:33</sup>They have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not listened to receive instruction. <sup>32:34</sup>But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it. <sup>32:35</sup>They built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through fire to Molech; which I didn't command them, neither did it come into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin. <sup>32:36</sup>Now therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, about which you say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: <sup>32:37</sup>Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, where I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely: <sup>32:38</sup>and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: <sup>32:39</sup>and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me forever, for their good, and of their children after them: <sup>32:40</sup>and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me. <sup>32:41</sup>Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. <sup>32:42</sup>For thus says the LORD: Like as I have brought all this great evil on this people, so will I bring on them all the good that I have promised them. <sup>32:43</sup>Fields shall be bought in this land, about which you say, It is desolate, without man or animal; it is given into the hand of the Kasdim. <sup>32:44</sup>Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says the LORD.

<sup>33:1</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>33:2</sup>Thus says the LORD who does it, the LORD who forms it to establish it; the LORD is his name: <sup>33:3</sup>Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great things, and difficult, which you don't know. <sup>33:4</sup>For thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defense against the mounds and against the sword; <sup>33:5</sup>while men come to fight with the Kasdim, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have killed in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hidden my face from this city: <sup>33:6</sup>Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth. <sup>33:7</sup>I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. <sup>33:8</sup>I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, by which they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, by which they have sinned against me, and by which they have transgressed against me. <sup>33:9</sup>This city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it. <sup>33:10</sup>Thus says the LORD: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, about which you say, It is waste, without man and without animal, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without animal, <sup>33:11</sup>the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of those who say, Give thanks to the LORD of Hosts, for the LORD is good, for his loving kindness endures forever; who bring thanksgiving into the house of the LORD. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says the LORD. <sup>33:12</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without animal, and in all its cities, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down. <sup>33:13</sup>In the cities of the hill country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him who numbers them, says the LORD. <sup>33:14</sup>Behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah. <sup>33:15</sup>In those days, and at that time, will I cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land. <sup>33:16</sup>In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name by which she shall be called: the LORD our righteousness. <sup>33:17</sup>For thus says the LORD: David shall never want a man to sit on the throne of the house of Israel; <sup>33:18</sup>neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. <sup>33:19</sup>The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>33:20</sup>Thus says the LORD: If you can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season; <sup>33:21</sup>then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign on his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. <sup>33:22</sup>As the army of the sky can't be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites who minister to me. <sup>33:23</sup>The word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>33:24</sup>Don't consider what this people has spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD chose, he has cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. <sup>33:25</sup>Thus says the LORD: If my covenant of day and night fails, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; <sup>33:26</sup>then will I also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.

<sup>34:1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of it, saying: <sup>34:2</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: <sup>34:3</sup>and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall see the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon. <sup>34:4</sup>Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says the LORD concerning you, You shall not die by the sword; <sup>34:5</sup>you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings who were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, Ah Lord! for I have spoken the word, says the LORD. <sup>34:6</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, <sup>34:7</sup>when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities. <sup>34:8</sup>The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people who were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them; <sup>34:9</sup>that every man should let his male servant, and every man his female servant, who is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that none should make bondservants of them, of a Jew his brother. <sup>34:10</sup>All the princes and all the people obeyed, who had entered into the covenant, that everyone should let his male servant, and everyone his female servant, go free, that none should make bondservants of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go: <sup>34:11</sup>but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids. <sup>34:12</sup>Therefore the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>34:13</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying, <sup>34:14</sup>At the end of seven years you shall let go every man his brother who is a Hebrew, who has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you: but your fathers didn't listen to me, neither inclined their ear. <sup>34:15</sup>You had now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and you had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name: <sup>34:16</sup>but you turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom you had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and you brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids. <sup>34:17</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: you have not listened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold,

I proclaim to you a liberty, says the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed back and forth among all the kingdoms of the earth. <sup>34:18</sup>I will give the men who have transgressed my covenant, who have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in two and passed between its parts; <sup>34:19</sup>the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, who passed between the parts of the calf; <sup>34:20</sup>I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the sky, and to the animals of the earth. <sup>34:21</sup>Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those who seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, who have gone away from you. <sup>34:22</sup>Behold, I will command, says the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.

<sup>35:1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, <sup>35:2</sup>Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the rooms, and give them wine to drink. <sup>35:3</sup>Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brothers, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; <sup>35:4</sup>and I brought them into the house of the LORD, into the room of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the room of the princes, which was above the room of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold. <sup>35:5</sup>I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, Drink wine! <sup>35:6</sup>But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, neither you, nor your sons, forever: <sup>35:7</sup>neither shall you build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days you shall dwell in tents; that you may live many days in the land in which you live. <sup>35:8</sup>We have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of
