Rechab, our father, in all that he commanded us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters; <sup>35:9</sup>nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: <sup>35:10</sup>but we have lived in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. <sup>35:11</sup>But it happened, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Kasdim, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem. <sup>35:12</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah, saying, <sup>35:13</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will you not receive instruction to listen to my words? says the LORD. <sup>35:14</sup>The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and you have not listened to me. <sup>35:15</sup>I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and don't go after other gods to serve them, and you shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but you have not inclined your ear, nor listened to me. <sup>35:16</sup>Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not listened to me; <sup>35:17</sup>therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring on Judah and on all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered. <sup>35:18</sup>Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Because you have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you; <sup>35:19</sup>therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me forever.

hoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, <sup>36:2</sup>Take a scroll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day. <sup>36:3</sup>It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin. <sup>36:4</sup>Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken to him, on a scroll of a book. <sup>36:5</sup>Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I can't go into the house of the LORD: <sup>36:6</sup>therefore you go, and read in the scroll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD's house on the fast day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah who come out of their cities. <sup>36:7</sup>It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return everyone from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that the LORD has pronounced against this people. <sup>36:8</sup>Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD's house. <sup>36:9</sup>Now it happened in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people who came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before the LORD. <sup>36:10</sup>Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the room of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD's house, in the ears of all the people. <sup>36:11</sup>When Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, <sup>36:12</sup>he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's room: and behold, all the princes were sitting there, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. <sup>36:13</sup>Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. <sup>36:14</sup>Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cush, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the scroll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the scroll in his hand, and came to them. <sup>36:15</sup>They said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. <sup>36:16</sup>Now it happened, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. <sup>36:17</sup>They asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth? <sup>36:18</sup>Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. <sup>36:19</sup>Then the princes said to Baruch, Go, hide, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where you are. <sup>36:20</sup>They went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king. <sup>36:21</sup>So the king sent Jehudi to get the scroll; and he took it out of the room of Elishama the scribe. Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes who stood beside the king. <sup>36:22</sup>Now the king was sitting in the winter house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him. <sup>36:23</sup>It happened, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the scroll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier. <sup>36:24</sup>They were not afraid, nor tore their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants who heard all these words. <sup>36:25</sup>Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the scroll; but he would not hear them. <sup>36:26</sup>The king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but the LORD hid them. <sup>36:27</sup>Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the scroll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, <sup>36:28</sup>Take again another scroll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first scroll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned. <sup>36:29</sup>Concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, Thus says the LORD: You have burned this scroll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and animal? <sup>36:30</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have none to sit on the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. <sup>36:31</sup>I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring on them, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and on the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they didn't listen. <sup>36:32</sup>Then took Jeremiah another scroll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.

<sup>37:1</sup>Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah. <sup>37:2</sup>But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, listened to the words of the LORD, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah. <sup>37:3</sup>Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to the LORD our God for us. <sup>37:4</sup>Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison. <sup>37:5</sup>Pharaoh's army had come forth out of Egypt; and when the Kasdim who were besieging Jerusalem heard news of them, they broke up from Jerusalem. <sup>37:6</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, <sup>37:7</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, You shall tell the king of Judah, who sent you to me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which has come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. <sup>37:8</sup>The Kasdim shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire. <sup>37:9</sup>Thus says the LORD, Don't deceive yourselves, saying, The Kasdim shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart. <sup>37:10</sup>For though you had struck the whole army of the Kasdim who fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. <sup>37:11</sup>It happened that, when the army of the Kasdim was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, <sup>37:12</sup>then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the midst of the people. <sup>37:13</sup>When he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the guard was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Kasdim. <sup>37:14</sup>Then Jeremiah said, It is false; I am not falling away to the Kasdim. But he didn't listen to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. <sup>37:15</sup>The princes were angry with Jeremiah, and struck him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison. <sup>37:16</sup>When Jeremiah had come into the dungeon house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; <sup>37:17</sup>Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon. <sup>37:18</sup>Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, Wherein have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that you have put me in prison? <sup>37:19</sup>Where now are your prophets who prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land? <sup>37:20</sup>Now please hear, my lord the king: please let my supplication be presented before you, that you not cause me to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. <sup>37:21</sup>Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

shall live. <sup>38:3</sup>Thus says the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it. <sup>38:4</sup>Then the princes said to the king, "Please let this man be put to death; because he weakens the hands of the men of war who remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man doesn't seek the welfare of this people, but the hurt." <sup>38:5</sup>Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he who can do anything against you. <sup>38:6</sup>Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. In the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire. <sup>38:7</sup>Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin), <sup>38:8</sup>Ebedmelech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying, <sup>38:9</sup>My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is likely to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city. <sup>38:10</sup>Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he dies. <sup>38:11</sup>So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. <sup>38:12</sup>Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armpits under the cords. Jeremiah did so. <sup>38:13</sup>So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard. <sup>38:14</sup>Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you something. Hide nothing from me. <sup>38:15</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, you will not listen to me. <sup>38:16</sup>So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD lives, who made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men who seek your life. <sup>38:17</sup>Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, Thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: If you will go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house. <sup>38:18</sup>But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Kasdim, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand. <sup>38:19</sup>Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews who are fallen away to the Kasdim, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. <sup>38:20</sup>But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beg you, the voice of the LORD, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live. <sup>38:21</sup>But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD has shown me: <sup>38:22</sup>behold, all the women who are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you. Your feet are sunk in the mire, they have turned away back. <sup>38:23</sup>They shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Kasdim; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire. <sup>38:24</sup>Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die. <sup>38:25</sup>But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and tell you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; don't hide it from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you: <sup>38:26</sup>then you shall tell them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there. <sup>38:27</sup>Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived. <sup>38:28</sup>So Jeremiah stayed in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.

of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it; <sup>39:2</sup>in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city), <sup>39:3</sup>that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, Nergal Sharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon. <sup>39:4</sup>It happened that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah. <sup>39:5</sup>But the army of the Kasdim pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. <sup>39:6</sup>Then the king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon killed all the nobles of Judah. <sup>39:7</sup>Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>39:8</sup>The Kasdim burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem. <sup>39:9</sup>Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people who remained in the city, the deserters also who fell away to him, and the residue of the people who remained. <sup>39:10</sup>But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, who had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. <sup>39:11</sup>Now Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon commanded Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard concerning Jeremiah, saying, <sup>39:12</sup>Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall tell you. <sup>39:13</sup>So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rabsaris, and Nergal Sharezer, Rabmag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon; <sup>39:14</sup>they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he lived among the people. <sup>39:15</sup>Now the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying, <sup>39:16</sup>Go, and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words on this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day. <sup>39:17</sup>But I will deliver you in that day, says the LORD; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid. <sup>39:18</sup>For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says the LORD.

<sup>40:1</sup>The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, who were carried away captive to Babylon. <sup>40:2</sup>The captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, the LORD your God pronounced this evil on this place; <sup>40:3</sup>and the LORD has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing has come on you. <sup>40:4</sup>Now, behold, I release you this day from the chains which are on your hand. If it seems good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will take care of you; but if it seems bad to you to come with me into Babylon, don't: behold, all the land is before you; where it seems good and right to you to go, there go. <sup>40:5</sup>Now while he had not yet gone back, Go back then, he said, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wherever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him food and a present, and let him go. <sup>40:6</sup>Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and lived with him among the people who were left in the land. <sup>40:7</sup>Now when all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of those who were not carried away captive to Babylon; <sup>40:8</sup>then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Yochanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah

the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men. <sup>40:9</sup>Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Don't be afraid to serve the Kasdim: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you. <sup>40:10</sup>As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Kasdim who shall come to us: but you, gather wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that you have taken. <sup>40:11</sup>Likewise when all the Jews who were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and who were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; <sup>40:12</sup>then all the Jews returned out of all places where they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much. <sup>40:13</sup>Moreover Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, <sup>40:14</sup>and said to him, Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam didn't believe them. <sup>40:15</sup>Then Yochanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Please let me go, and I will kill Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews who are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish? <sup>40:16</sup>But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Yochanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.

at Mizpah, and the Kasdim who were found there, the men of war. <sup>41:4</sup>It happened the second day after he had killed Gedaliah, and no man knew it, <sup>41:5</sup>that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaved and their clothes torn, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. <sup>41:6</sup>Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it happened, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. <sup>41:7</sup>It was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah killed them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men who were with him. <sup>41:8</sup>But ten men were found among those who said to Ishmael, Don't kill us; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he stopped, and didn't kill them among their brothers. <sup>41:9</sup>Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had killed, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was who which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel), Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with those who were killed. <sup>41:10</sup>Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people who were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people who remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon. <sup>41:11</sup>But when Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done, <sup>41:12</sup>then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon. <sup>41:13</sup>Now it happened that, when all the people who were with Ishmael saw Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, then they were glad. <sup>41:14</sup>So all the people who Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Yochanan the son of Kareah. <sup>41:15</sup>But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Yochanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon. <sup>41:16</sup>Then took Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon: <sup>41:17</sup>and they departed, and lived in Geruth Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to enter into Egypt, <sup>41:18</sup>because of the Kasdim; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had killed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.

<sup>42:1</sup>Then all the captains of the forces, and Yochanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near, <sup>42:2</sup>and said to Jeremiah the prophet, Please let our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to the LORD your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do see us: <sup>42:3</sup>that the LORD your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do. <sup>42:4</sup>Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall happen that whatever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you. <sup>42:5</sup>Then they said to Jeremiah, the LORD be a true and faithful witness among us, if we don't do according to all the word with which the LORD your God shall send you to us. <sup>42:6</sup>Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God. <sup>42:7</sup>It happened after ten days, that the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah. <sup>42:8</sup>Then called he Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces who were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, <sup>42:9</sup>and said to them, Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to whom you sent me to present your supplication before him: <sup>42:10</sup>If you will still live in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I grieve over the distress that I have brought on you. <sup>42:11</sup>Don't be afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom you are afraid; don't be afraid of him, says the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. <sup>42:12</sup>I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy on you, and cause you to return to your own land. <sup>42:13</sup>But if you say, We will not dwell in this land; so that you don't obey the voice of the LORD your God, <sup>42:14</sup>saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the shofar<sup>i</sup>, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: <sup>42:15</sup>now therefore hear the word of the LORD, O remnant of Judah: Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, If you indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to live there; <sup>42:16</sup>then it shall happen, that the sword, which you fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, about which you are afraid, shall follow close behind you there in Egypt; and there you shall die. <sup>42:17</sup>So shall it be with all the men who set their faces to go into Egypt to live there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring on them. <sup>42:18</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth on you, when you shall enter into Egypt; and you shall be an object of horror, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and you shall see this place no more. <sup>42:19</sup>The LORD has spoken concerning you, remnant of Judah, Don't you go into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you this day. <sup>42:20</sup>For you have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for you sent me to the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us to the LORD our God; and according to all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it: <sup>42:21</sup>and I have this day declared it to you; but you have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God in anything for which he has sent me to you. <sup>42:22</sup>Now therefore know certainly that you shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place where you desire to go to live there.

<sup>43:1</sup>It happened that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of the LORD their God, with which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, <sup>43:2</sup>then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely: the LORD our God has not sent you to say, You shall not go into Egypt to live there; <sup>43:3</sup>but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Kasdim, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon. <sup>43:4</sup>So Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, didn't obey the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. <sup>43:5</sup>But Yochanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, who were returned from all the nations where they had been driven, to live in the land of Judah; <sup>43:6</sup>the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person who Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah; <sup>43:7</sup>and they came into the land of Egypt; for they didn't obey the voice of the LORD: and they came to Tahpanhes. <sup>43:8</sup>Then came the word of the LORD to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, <sup>43:9</sup>Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brick work, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah; <sup>43:10</sup>and tell them, Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne on these stones that I have hidden; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. <sup>43:11</sup>He shall come, and shall strike the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be put to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword. <sup>43:12</sup>I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from there in peace. <sup>43:13</sup>He shall also break the pillars of Beth Shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.

who lived at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying, <sup>44:2</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, and on all the cities of Judah; and behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein, <sup>44:3</sup>because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, to serve other gods, that they didn't know, neither they, nor you, nor your fathers. <sup>44:4</sup>However I sent to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, don't do this abominable thing that I hate. <sup>44:5</sup>But they didn't listen, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods. <sup>44:6</sup>Therefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day. <sup>44:7</sup>Therefore now thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the God of Israel: Why do you commit great evil against your own souls, to cut off from yourselves man and woman, infant and nursing child out of the midst of Judah, to leave yourselves none remaining; <sup>44:8</sup>in that you provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, where you have gone to live; that you may be cut off, and that you may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? <sup>44:9</sup>Have you forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? <sup>44:10</sup>They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. <sup>44:11</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah. <sup>44:12</sup>I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to live there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an object of horror, an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. <sup>44:13</sup>For I will punish those who dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; <sup>44:14</sup>so that none of the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return save such as shall escape. <sup>44:15</sup>Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women who stood by, a great assembly, even all the people who lived in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, <sup>44:16</sup>As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of the LORD, we will not listen to you. <sup>44:17</sup>But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of food, and were well, and saw no evil. <sup>44:18</sup>But since we left off burning incense to the queen of the sky, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. <sup>44:19</sup>When we burned incense to the queen of the sky, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands? <sup>44:20</sup>Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people who had given him an answer, saying, <sup>44:21</sup>The incense that you burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, you and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, didn't the LORD remember them, and didn't it come into his mind? <sup>44:22</sup>so that the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which you have committed; therefore your land has become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day. <sup>44:23</sup>Because you have burned incense, and because you have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil has happened to you, as it is this day. <sup>44:24</sup>Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who are in the land of Egypt: <sup>44:25</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, saying, You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of the sky, and to pour out drink offerings to her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows. <sup>44:26</sup>Therefore hear the word of the LORD, all Judah who dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, As the Lord GOD lives. <sup>44:27</sup>Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah who are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until they are all gone. <sup>44:28</sup>Those who escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, who have gone into the land of Egypt to live there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs. <sup>44:29</sup>This shall be the sign to you, says the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that you may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: <sup>44:30</sup>Thus says the LORD, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of those who seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.

<sup>45:1</sup>The message that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying, <sup>45:2</sup>Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, to you, Baruch: <sup>45:3</sup>You said, Woe is me now! for the LORD has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest. <sup>45:4</sup>You shall tell him, Thus says the LORD: Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land. <sup>45:5</sup>Do you seek great things for yourself? Don't seek them; for, behold, I will bring evil on all flesh, says the LORD; but your life will I give to you for a prey in all places where you go.

again to our own people, and to the land of our birth, from the oppressing sword. <sup>46:17</sup>They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by. <sup>46:18</sup>As I live, says the King, whose name is the LORD of Hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. <sup>46:19</sup>You daughter who dwells in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant. <sup>46:20</sup>Egypt is a very beautiful heifer; but destruction out of the north has come, it has come. <sup>46:21</sup>Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they didn't stand: for the day of their calamity has come on them, the time of their visitation. <sup>46:22</sup>The sound of it shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as wood cutters. <sup>46:23</sup>They shall cut down her forest, says the LORD, though it can't be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable. <sup>46:24</sup>The daughter of Egypt shall be disappointed; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. <sup>46:25</sup>The LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and those who trust in him: <sup>46:26</sup>and I will deliver them into the hand of those who seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says the LORD. <sup>46:27</sup>But don't you be afraid, Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, Israel: for, behold, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and none shall make him afraid. <sup>46:28</sup>Don't you be afraid, O Jacob my servant, says the LORD; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations where I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no way leave you unpunished.

overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and those who dwell therein; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail. <sup>47:3</sup>At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers don't look back to their children for feebleness of hands; <sup>47:4</sup>because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper who remains: for the LORD will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor. <sup>47:5</sup>Baldness has come on Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nothing, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself? <sup>47:6</sup>You sword of the LORD, how long will it be before you be quiet? Put up yourself into your scabbard; rest, and be still. <sup>47:7</sup>How can you be quiet, since the LORD has given you a command? Against Ashkelon, and against the seashore, there has he appointed it.

<sup>48:1</sup>Of Moab. Thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is disappointed, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down. <sup>48:2</sup>The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you. <sup>48:3</sup>The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction! <sup>48:4</sup>Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard. <sup>48:5</sup>For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction. <sup>48:6</sup>Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness. <sup>48:7</sup>For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together. <sup>48:8</sup>The destroyer shall come on every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as the LORD has spoken. <sup>48:9</sup>Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein. <sup>48:10</sup>Cursed is he who does the work of the LORD negligently; and cursed is he who keeps back his sword from blood. <sup>48:11</sup>Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed. <sup>48:12</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will send to him those who pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces. <sup>48:13</sup>Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. <sup>48:14</sup>How do you say, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war? <sup>48:15</sup>Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, says the King, whose name is the LORD of Hosts. <sup>48:16</sup>The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hurries fast. <sup>48:17</sup>All you who are around him, bemoan him, and all you who know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod! <sup>48:18</sup>You daughter who dwells in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab has come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds. <sup>48:19</sup>Inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him who flees, and her who escapes; say, What has been done? <sup>48:20</sup>Moab is disappointed; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste. <sup>48:21</sup>Judgment has come on the plain country, on Holon, and on Jahzah, and on Mephaath, <sup>48:22</sup>and on Dibon, and on Nebo, and on Beth Diblathaim, <sup>48:23</sup>and on Kiriathaim, and on Beth Gamul, and on Beth Meon, <sup>48:24</sup>and on Kerioth, and on Bozrah, and on all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near. <sup>48:25</sup>The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says the LORD. <sup>48:26</sup>Make him drunken; for he magnified himself against the LORD: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision. <sup>48:27</sup>For wasn't Israel a derision to you? was he found among thieves? for as often as you speak of him, you shake your head. <sup>48:28</sup>You inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss. <sup>48:29</sup>We have heard of the pride of Moab. He is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogance, and the haughtiness of his heart. <sup>48:30</sup>I know his wrath, says the LORD, that it is nothing; his boastings have worked nothing. <sup>48:31</sup>Therefore will I wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir Heres shall they mourn. <sup>48:32</sup>With more than the weeping of Jazer will I weep for you, vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: on your summer fruits and on your vintage the destroyer is fallen. <sup>48:33</sup>Gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the wine presses: none shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting. <sup>48:34</sup>From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath Shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate. <sup>48:35</sup>Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says the LORD, him who offers in the high place, and him who burns incense to his gods. <sup>48:36</sup>Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir Heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished. <sup>48:37</sup>For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: on all the hands are cuttings, and on the waist sackcloth. <sup>48:38</sup>On all the housetops of Moab and in its streets there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which none delights, says the LORD. <sup>48:39</sup>How it is broken down! How they wail! How Moab has turned the back with shame! So shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all who are around him. <sup>48:40</sup>For thus says the LORD: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab. <sup>48:41</sup>Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>48:42</sup>Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against the LORD. <sup>48:43</sup>Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are on you, inhabitant of Moab, says the LORD. <sup>48:44</sup>He who flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he who gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring on him, even on Moab, the year of their visitation, says the LORD. <sup>48:45</sup>Those who fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. <sup>48:46</sup>Woe to you, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity. <sup>48:47</sup>Yet will I bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

<sup>49:1</sup>Of the children of Ammon. Thus says the LORD: Has Israel no sons? has he no heir? why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people well in its cities? <sup>49:2</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess those who possessed him, says the LORD. <sup>49:3</sup>Wail, Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, you daughters of Rabbah, clothe yourself in sackcloth: lament, and run back and forth among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together. <sup>49:4</sup>Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, backsliding daughter? who trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me? <sup>49:5</sup>Behold, I will bring a fear on you, says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, from all who are around you; and you shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be none to gather together the fugitives. <sup>49:6</sup>But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon, says the LORD. <sup>49:7</sup>Of Edom. Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? <sup>49:8</sup>Flee, turn back, dwell in the depths, inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau on him, the time that I shall visit him. <sup>49:9</sup>If grape gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, wouldn't they destroy until they had enough? <sup>49:10</sup>But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brothers, and his neighbors; and he is no more. <sup>49:11</sup>Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me. <sup>49:12</sup>For thus says the LORD: Behold, they to whom it didn't pertain to drink of the cup shall certainly drink; and are you he who shall altogether go unpunished? You shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink. <sup>49:13</sup>For I have sworn by myself, says the LORD, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all its cities shall be perpetual wastes. <sup>49:14</sup>I have heard news from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle. <sup>49:15</sup>For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men. <sup>49:16</sup>As for your terror, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, who hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says the LORD. <sup>49:17</sup>Edom shall become an astonishment: everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all its plagues. <sup>49:18</sup>As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says the LORD, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>49:19</sup>Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who will stand before me? <sup>49:20</sup>Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. <sup>49:21</sup>The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise which is heard in the Sea of Suf. <sup>49:22</sup>Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. <sup>49:23</sup>Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil news, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it can't be quiet. <sup>49:24</sup>Damascus has grown feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail. <sup>49:25</sup>How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy? <sup>49:26</sup>Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>49:27</sup>I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben Hadad. <sup>49:28</sup>Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon struck. Thus says the LORD: Arise, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east. <sup>49:29</sup>Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, Terror on every side! <sup>49:30</sup>Flee, wander far off, dwell in the depths, you inhabitants of Hazor, says the LORD; for Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you. <sup>49:31</sup>Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says the LORD; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone. <sup>49:32</sup>Their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their livestock a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds those who have the corners of their beards cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says the LORD. <sup>49:33</sup>Hazor shall be a dwelling place of jackals, a desolation forever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>49:34</sup>The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, <sup>49:35</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. <sup>49:36</sup>On Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of the sky, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation where the outcasts of Elam shall not come. <sup>49:37</sup>I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before those who seek their life; and I will bring evil on them, even my fierce anger, says the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, until I have consumed them; <sup>49:38</sup>and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes, says the LORD. <sup>49:39</sup>But it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says the LORD.

man and animal. <sup>50:4</sup>In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek the LORD their God. <sup>50:5</sup>They shall inquire concerning Zion with their faces turned toward it, saying, Come, and join yourselves to the LORD in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten. <sup>50:6</sup>My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting place. <sup>50:7</sup>All who found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of righteousness, even the LORD, the hope of their fathers. <sup>50:8</sup>Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Kasdim, and be as the male goats before the flocks. <sup>50:9</sup>For, behold, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; none shall return in vain. <sup>50:10</sup>The land of the Kasdim shall be a prey: all who prey on her shall be satisfied, says the LORD. <sup>50:11</sup>Because you are glad, because you rejoice, O you who plunder my heritage, because you are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses; <sup>50:12</sup>your mother shall be utterly disappointed; she who bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the least of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. <sup>50:13</sup>Because of the wrath of the LORD she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: everyone who goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. <sup>50:14</sup>Set yourselves in array against Babylon all around, all you who bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against the LORD. <sup>50:15</sup>Shout against her all around: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance on her; as she has done, do to her. <sup>50:16</sup>Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him who handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn everyone to his people, and they shall flee everyone to his own land. <sup>50:17</sup>Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones. <sup>50:18</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. <sup>50:19</sup>I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied on the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead. <sup>50:20</sup>In those days, and in that time, says the LORD, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant. <sup>50:21</sup>Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: kill and utterly destroy after them, says the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded you. <sup>50:22</sup>A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction. <sup>50:23</sup>How is the hammer of the whole earth cut apart and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! <sup>50:24</sup>I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, Babylon, and you weren't aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against the LORD. <sup>50:25</sup>The LORD has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Kasdim. <sup>50:26</sup>Come against her from the utmost border; open her storehouses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left. <sup>50:27</sup>Kill all her bulls; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day has come, the time of their visitation. <sup>50:28</sup>The voice of those who flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of the LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. <sup>50:29</sup>Call together the archers against Babylon, all those who bend the bow; encamp against her all around; let none of it escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of Israel. <sup>50:30</sup>Therefore her young men will fall in her streets, and all her men of war will be brought to silence in that day, says the LORD. <sup>50:31</sup>Behold, I am against you, you proud one, says the Lord, the LORD of Hosts; for your day has come, the time that I will visit you. <sup>50:32</sup>The proud one shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all who are around him. <sup>50:33</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all who took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go. <sup>50:34</sup>Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of Hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. <sup>50:35</sup>A sword is on the Kasdim, says the LORD, and on the inhabitants of Babylon, and on her princes, and on her wise men. <sup>50:36</sup>A sword is on the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is on her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed. <sup>50:37</sup>A sword is on their horses, and on their chariots, and on all the mixed people who are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is on her treasures, and they shall be robbed. <sup>50:38</sup>A drought is on her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of engraved images, and they are mad over idols. <sup>50:39</sup>Therefore the wild animals of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited forever; neither shall it be lived in from generation to generation. <sup>50:40</sup>As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities of it, says the LORD, so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man live therein. <sup>50:41</sup>Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth. <sup>50:42</sup>They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride on horses, everyone set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, daughter of Babylon. <sup>50:43</sup>The king of Babylon has heard the news of them, and his hands wax feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, pains as of a woman in labor. <sup>50:44</sup>Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoever is chosen, him will I appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd who can stand before me? <sup>50:45</sup>Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he has taken against Babylon;

and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Kasdim: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them. <sup>50:46</sup>At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.

the measure of your covetousness. <sup>51:14</sup>The LORD of Hosts has sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you. <sup>51:15</sup>He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens: <sup>51:16</sup>when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightning for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries. <sup>51:17</sup>Every man has become brutish without knowledge. Every goldsmith is disappointed by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. <sup>51:18</sup>They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish. <sup>51:19</sup>The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and is the tribe of his inheritance: the LORD of Hosts is his name. <sup>51:20</sup>You are my battle axe and weapons of war: and with you will I break in pieces the nations; and with you will I destroy kingdoms; <sup>51:21</sup>and with you will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; <sup>51:22</sup>and with you will I break in pieces the chariot and him who rides therein; and with you will I break in pieces man and woman; and with you will I break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you will I break in pieces the young man and the virgin; <sup>51:23</sup>and with you will I break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you will I break in pieces the farmer and his yoke; and with you will I break in pieces governors and deputies. <sup>51:24</sup>I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of the Kasdim for all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says the LORD. <sup>51:25</sup>Behold, I am against you, destroying mountain, says the LORD, which destroys all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand on you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain. <sup>51:26</sup>They shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever, says the LORD. <sup>51:27</sup>Set up a standard in the land, blow the shofar<sup>i</sup> among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker worm. <sup>51:28</sup>Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, its governors, and all its deputies, and all the land of their dominion. <sup>51:29</sup>The land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of the LORD against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant. <sup>51:30</sup>The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling places are set on fire; her bars are broken. <sup>51:31</sup>One runner will run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter: <sup>51:32</sup>and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are frightened. <sup>51:33</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her. <sup>51:34</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out. <sup>51:35</sup>The violence done to me and to my flesh be on Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be on the inhabitants of the Kasdim, shall Jerusalem say. <sup>51:36</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry. <sup>51:37</sup>Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant. <sup>51:38</sup>They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' cubs. <sup>51:39</sup>When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says the LORD. <sup>51:40</sup>I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with male goats. <sup>51:41</sup>How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! <sup>51:42</sup>The sea has come up on Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of its waves. <sup>51:43</sup>Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby. <sup>51:44</sup>I will execute judgment on Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall. <sup>51:45</sup>My people, go away from the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of the LORD. <sup>51:46</sup>Don't let your heart faint, neither fear for the news that shall be heard in the land; for news shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come news, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler. <sup>51:47</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment on the engraved images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her. <sup>51:48</sup>Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north, says the LORD. <sup>51:49</sup>As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land. <sup>51:50</sup>You who have escaped the sword, go, don't stand still; remember the LORD from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. <sup>51:51</sup>We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers have come into the sanctuaries of the LORD's house. <sup>51:52</sup>Therefore, behold, the days come, says the LORD, that I will execute judgment on her engraved images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan. <sup>51:53</sup>Though Babylon should mount up to the sky, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her, says the LORD. <sup>51:54</sup>The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Kasdim! <sup>51:55</sup>For the LORD lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered: <sup>51:56</sup>for the destroyer has come on her, even on Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for the LORD is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite. <sup>51:57</sup>I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake up, says the King, whose name is the LORD of Hosts. <sup>51:58</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire;

and they shall be weary. <sup>51:59</sup>The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief quartermaster. <sup>51:60</sup>Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come on Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon. <sup>51:61</sup>Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words, <sup>51:62</sup>and say, LORD, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that none shall dwell therein, neither man nor animal, but that it shall be desolate forever. <sup>51:63</sup>It shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates: <sup>51:64</sup>and you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring on her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

<sup>52:1</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. <sup>52:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. <sup>52:3</sup>For through the anger of the LORD it happened in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. <sup>52:4</sup>It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about. <sup>52:5</sup>So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. <sup>52:6</sup>In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was severe in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. <sup>52:7</sup>Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Kasdim were against the city all around;) and they went toward the Arabah. <sup>52:8</sup>But the army of the Kasdim pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him. <sup>52:9</sup>Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment on him. <sup>52:10</sup>The king of Babylon killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he killed also all the princes of Judah in Riblah. <sup>52:11</sup>He put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison until the day of his death. <sup>52:12</sup>Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem: <sup>52:13</sup>and he burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned he with fire. <sup>52:14</sup>All the army of the Kasdim, who were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem all around. <sup>52:15</sup>Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude. <sup>52:16</sup>But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vineyard keepers and farmers. <sup>52:17</sup>The Kasdim broke the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases and the bronze sea that were in the house of the LORD in pieces, and carried all the of their brass to Babylon. <sup>52:18</sup>They also took away the pots, the shovels, the snuffers, the basins, the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered. <sup>52:19</sup>The captain of the guard took away the cups, the fire pans, the basins, the pots, the menorahs, the spoons, and the bowls; that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver. <sup>52:20</sup>They took the two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve bronze bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of the LORD. The brass of all these vessels was without weight. <sup>52:21</sup>As for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits encircled it; and its thickness was four fingers. It was hollow. <sup>52:22</sup>A capital of brass was on it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates on the capital all around, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like these, and pomegranates.

<sup>52:23</sup>There were ninety-six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were one hundred on the network all around. <sup>52:24</sup>The captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold: <sup>52:25</sup>and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and seven men of those who saw the king's face, who were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the army, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the midst of the city. <sup>52:26</sup>Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. <sup>52:27</sup>The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land. <sup>52:28</sup>This is the people whom Nebuchadnezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand twenty-three Jews; <sup>52:29</sup>in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty-two persons; <sup>52:30</sup>in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty-five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. <sup>52:31</sup>It happened in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison; <sup>52:32</sup>and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings who were with him in Babylon, <sup>52:33</sup>and changed his prison garments. Jehoiachin ate bread before him continually all the days of his life: <sup>52:34</sup>and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

Ezekiel

<sup>1:1</sup>Now it happened in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God<sup>a</sup>. <sup>1:2</sup>In the fifth of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, <sup>1:3</sup>the word of the LORD<sup>b</sup> came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Kasdim by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there on him. <sup>1:4</sup>I looked, and behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with flashing lightning, and a brightness around it, and out of its midst as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire. <sup>1:5</sup>Out of its midst came the likeness of four living creatures. This was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man. <sup>1:6</sup>Everyone had four faces, and each one of them had four wings. <sup>1:7</sup>Their feet were straight feet; and the sole of their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot; and they sparkled like burnished brass. <sup>1:8</sup>They had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and the four of them had their faces and their wings thus: <sup>1:9</sup>their wings were joined one to another; they didn't turn when they went; each one went straight forward. <sup>1:10</sup>As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and the four of them had the face of a lion on the right side; and the four of them had the face of an ox on the left side; the four of them also had the face of an eagle. <sup>1:11</sup>Such were their faces. Their wings were spread out above. Two wings of each one touched another, and two covered their bodies. <sup>1:12</sup>Each one went straight forward: where the spirit was to go, they went; they didn't turn when they went. <sup>1:13</sup>As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. <sup>1:14</sup>The living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning. <sup>1:15</sup>Now as I saw the living creatures, behold, one wheel on the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces of it. <sup>1:16</sup>The appearance of the wheels and their work was like a beryl: and the four of them had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel. <sup>1:17</sup>When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn when they went. <sup>1:18</sup>As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and the four of them had their rims full of eyes all around. <sup>1:19</sup>When the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up. <sup>1:20</sup>Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>1:21</sup>When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels. <sup>1:22</sup>Over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of an expanse, like the awesome crystal to look on, stretched forth over their heads above. <sup>1:23</sup>Under the expanse were their wings straight, the one toward the other: each one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies. <sup>1:24</sup>When they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of an army: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>1:25</sup>There was a voice above the expanse that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings. <sup>1:26</sup>Above the expanse that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire<sup>c</sup> stone; and on the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man on it above. <sup>1:27</sup>I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it all around, from the appearance of his waist and upward; and from the appearance of his waist and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness around him. <sup>1:28</sup>As the appearance of the rainbow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness all around. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. When

I saw it, I fell on my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.

<sup>2:1</sup>He said to me, Son of man, stand on your feet, and I will speak with you. <sup>2:2</sup>The Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me on my feet; and I heard him who spoke to me. <sup>2:3</sup>He said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to a nation of rebels who have rebelled against me. They and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day. <sup>2:4</sup>The children are impudent and stiff-hearted: I am sending you to them; and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord<sup>d</sup> the LORD. <sup>2:5</sup>They, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house), yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them. <sup>2:6</sup>You, son of man, don't be afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briars and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: don't be afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>2:7</sup>You shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious. <sup>2:8</sup>But you, son of man, hear what I tell you; don't be rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you. <sup>2:9</sup>When I looked, behold, a hand was put forth to me; and, behold, a scroll of a book was therein; <sup>2:10</sup>He spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.

<sup>3:1</sup>He said to me, Son of man, eat that which you find. Eat this scroll, and go, speak to the house of Israel. <sup>3:2</sup>So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the scroll. <sup>3:3</sup>He said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this scroll that I give you. Then I ate it; and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth. <sup>3:4</sup>He said to me, Son of man, go to the house of Israel, and speak my words to them. <sup>3:5</sup>For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel; <sup>3:6</sup>not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you can not understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would listen to you. <sup>3:7</sup>But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are obstinate<sup>e</sup> and hard-hearted. <sup>3:8</sup>Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads. <sup>3:9</sup>As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: don't be afraid of them, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>3:10</sup>Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears. <sup>3:11</sup>Go to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear. <sup>3:12</sup>Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of the LORD from his place. <sup>3:13</sup>I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing. <sup>3:14</sup>So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of the LORD was strong on me. <sup>3:15</sup>Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel Aviv, that lived by the river Chebar, and to where they lived; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days. <sup>3:16</sup>It happened at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>3:17</sup>Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word from my mouth, and give them warning from me. <sup>3:18</sup>When I tell the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him no warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>3:19</sup>Yet if you warn the wicked, and he doesn't turn from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul. <sup>3:20</sup>Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumbling block before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at your hand. <sup>3:21</sup>Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous not sin, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul. <sup>3:22</sup>The hand of the LORD was there on me; and he said to me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you. <sup>3:23</sup>Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face. <sup>3:24</sup>Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me on my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself inside your house. <sup>3:25</sup>But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands on you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them: <sup>3:26</sup>and I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be mute, and shall not be to them a reprovor; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>3:27</sup>But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: He who hears, let him hear; and he who forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.

to the number of the days that you shall lie on your side, even three hundred ninety days, you shall eat of it. <sup>4:10</sup>Your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time you shall eat it. <sup>4:11</sup>You shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time you shall drink. <sup>4:12</sup>You shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man. <sup>4:13</sup>The LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations where I will drive them. <sup>4:14</sup>Then I said, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even until now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of animals; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. <sup>4:15</sup>Then he said to me, Behold, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread thereon. <sup>4:16</sup>Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay: <sup>4:17</sup>that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.

<sup>5:1</sup>You, son of man, take a sharp sword; You shall take it as a barber's razor to you, and shall cause it to pass on your head and on your beard: then take balances to weigh, and divide the hair. <sup>5:2</sup>A third part you shall burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and strike with the sword around it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them. <sup>5:3</sup>You shall take of it a few in number, and bind them in your skirts. <sup>5:4</sup>Of these again you shall take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; from it shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel. <sup>5:5</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are around her. <sup>5:6</sup>She has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are around her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them. <sup>5:7</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you are turbulent more than the nations that are around you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you; <sup>5:8</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations. <sup>5:9</sup>I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations. <sup>5:10</sup>Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you will I scatter to all the winds. <sup>5:11</sup>Therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore will I also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity. <sup>5:12</sup>A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword around you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them. <sup>5:13</sup>Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath on them. <sup>5:14</sup>Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are around you, in the sight of all that pass by. <sup>5:15</sup>So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are around you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, the LORD, have spoken it); <sup>5:16</sup>when I shall send on them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine on you, and will break your staff of bread; <sup>5:17</sup>and I will send on you famine and evil animals, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword on you: I, the LORD, have spoken it.

the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword on you, and I will destroy your high places. <sup>6:4</sup>Your altars shall become desolate, and your incense altars shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. <sup>6:5</sup>I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones around your altars. <sup>6:6</sup>In all your dwelling places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your incense altars may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. <sup>6:7</sup>The slain shall fall in the midst of you, and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>6:8</sup>Yet will I leave a remnant, in that you shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when you shall be scattered through the countries. <sup>6:9</sup>Those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations where they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with their eyes, which play the prostitute after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. <sup>6:10</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them. <sup>6:11</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Strike with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, Alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. <sup>6:12</sup>He who is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he who is near shall fall by the sword; and he who remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my wrath on them. <sup>6:13</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols around their altars, on every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered pleasant aroma to all their idols. <sup>6:14</sup>I will stretch out my hand on them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>7:1</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>7:2</sup>You, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD to Eretz-Israel, An end: the end has come on the four corners of the land. <sup>7:3</sup>Now is the end on you, and I will send my anger on you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. <sup>7:4</sup>My eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways on you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>7:5</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes. <sup>7:6</sup>An end has come, the end has come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes. <sup>7:7</sup>Your doom has come to you, inhabitant of the land: the time has come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, on the mountains. <sup>7:8</sup>Now will I shortly pour out my wrath on you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring on you all your abominations. <sup>7:9</sup>My eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring on you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and you shall know that I, the LORD, do strike. <sup>7:10</sup>Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded. <sup>7:11</sup>Violence has risen up into a rod of wickedness. None of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth. There shall be nothing of value among them. <sup>7:12</sup>The time has come, the day draws near: don't let the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>7:13</sup>For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude of it, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life. <sup>7:14</sup>They have blown the shofar<sup>f</sup>, and have made all ready; but none goes to the battle; for my wrath is on all its multitude. <sup>7:15</sup>The sword is outside, and the pestilence and the famine within: he who is in the field shall die with the sword: and he who is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him. <sup>7:16</sup>But those of those who escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity. <sup>7:17</sup>All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. <sup>7:18</sup>They shall also clothe themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be on all faces,

and baldness on all their heads. <sup>7:19</sup>They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumbling block of their iniquity. <sup>7:20</sup>As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing. <sup>7:21</sup>I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it. <sup>7:22</sup>My face will I turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it. <sup>7:23</sup>Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence. <sup>7:24</sup>Therefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned. <sup>7:25</sup>Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. <sup>7:26</sup>Mischief shall come on mischief, and rumor shall be on rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders. <sup>7:27</sup>The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their own judgments will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>8:1</sup>It happened in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there on me. <sup>8:2</sup>Then I saw, and behold, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his waist and downward, fire; and from his waist and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal. <sup>8:3</sup>He put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and the sky, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where there was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy. <sup>8:4</sup>Behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain. <sup>8:5</sup>Then he said to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and see, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. <sup>8:6</sup>He said to me, Son of man, do you see what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? But you shall again see yet other great abominations. <sup>8:7</sup>He brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall. <sup>8:8</sup>Then he said to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door. <sup>8:9</sup>He said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here. <sup>8:10</sup>So I went in and saw; and see, every form of creeping things, and abominable animals, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed around on the wall. <sup>8:11</sup>There stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in their midst stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up. <sup>8:12</sup>Then he said to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his rooms of imagery? for they say, the LORD doesn't see us; the LORD has forsaken the land. <sup>8:13</sup>He said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do. <sup>8:14</sup>Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the LORD's house which was toward the north; and see, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz. <sup>8:15</sup>Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? You shall again see yet greater abominations than these. <sup>8:16</sup>He brought me into the inner court of the LORD's house; and see, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about twenty-five men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east. <sup>8:17</sup>Then he said to me, Have you seen this, son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and behold, they put the branch to their nose. <sup>8:18</sup>Therefore will I also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

<sup>9:1</sup>Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause those who are in charge of the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand. <sup>9:2</sup>Behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in their midst clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. They went in, and stood beside the bronze altar. <sup>9:3</sup>The glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side. <sup>9:4</sup>The LORD said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark on the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in its midst. <sup>9:5</sup>To the others he said in my hearing, Go through the city after him, and strike: don't let your eye spare, neither have pity; <sup>9:6</sup>kill utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but don't come near any man on whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house. <sup>9:7</sup>He said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain. Go forth! They went forth, and struck in the city. <sup>9:8</sup>It happened, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell on my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath on Jerusalem? <sup>9:9</sup>Then he said to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perversion: for they say, the LORD has forsaken the land, and the LORD doesn't see. <sup>9:10</sup>As for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way on their head. <sup>9:11</sup>Behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as you have commanded me.

throne. <sup>10:2</sup>He spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. He went in as I watched. <sup>10:3</sup>Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. <sup>10:4</sup>The glory of the LORD mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD's glory. <sup>10:5</sup>The sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks. <sup>10:6</sup>It came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel. <sup>10:7</sup>The cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him who was clothed in linen, who took it and went out. <sup>10:8</sup>There appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings. <sup>10:9</sup>I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like a beryl stone. <sup>10:10</sup>As for their appearance, the four of them had one likeness, like a wheel within a wheel. <sup>10:11</sup>When they went, they went in their four directions: they didn't turn as they went, but to the place where the head looked they followed it; they didn't turn as they went. <sup>10:12</sup>Their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes all around, even the wheels that the four of them had. <sup>10:13</sup>As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels. <sup>10:14</sup>Every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. <sup>10:15</sup>The cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar. <sup>10:16</sup>When the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also didn't turn from beside them. <sup>10:17</sup>When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them. <sup>10:18</sup>The glory of the LORD went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim. <sup>10:19</sup>The cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>10:20</sup>This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim. <sup>10:21</sup>Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings. <sup>10:22</sup>As for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.

LORD: for you have not walked in my statutes, neither have you executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are around you. <sup>11:13</sup>It happened, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down on my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel? <sup>11:14</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>11:15</sup>Son of man, your brothers, even your brothers, the men of your relatives, and all the house of Israel, all of them, to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Go far away from the LORD. This land has been given to us for a possession. <sup>11:16</sup>Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they have come. <sup>11:17</sup>Therefore say, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where you have been scattered, and I will give you Eretz-Israel. <sup>11:18</sup>They shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things of it and all its abominations from there. <sup>11:19</sup>I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh; <sup>11:20</sup>that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>11:21</sup>But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way on their own heads, says the Lord GOD. <sup>11:22</sup>Then the cherubim lifted up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. <sup>11:23</sup>The glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, and stood on the mountain which is on the east side of the city. <sup>11:24</sup>The Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Kasdimah, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. <sup>11:25</sup>Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shown me.

<sup>12:1</sup>The word of the LORD also came to me, saying, <sup>12:2</sup>Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, who have eyes to see, and don't see, who have ears to hear,

and don't hear; for they are a rebellious house. <sup>12:3</sup>Therefore, you son of man, prepare your stuff for moving, and move by day in their sight; and you shall move from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house. <sup>12:4</sup>You shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for moving; and you shall go forth yourself at even in their sight, as when men go forth into exile. <sup>12:5</sup>Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry your stuff out that way. <sup>12:6</sup>In their sight you shall bear it on your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, so that you don't see the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel. <sup>12:7</sup>I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it on my shoulder in their sight. <sup>12:8</sup>In the morning came the word of the LORD to me, saying, <sup>12:9</sup>Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing? <sup>12:10</sup>Say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are. <sup>12:11</sup>Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity. <sup>12:12</sup>The prince who is among them shall bear on his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes. <sup>12:13</sup>My net also will I spread on him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Kasdim; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there. <sup>12:14</sup>I will scatter toward every wind all who are around him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them. <sup>12:15</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries. <sup>12:16</sup>But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations where they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>12:17</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12:18</sup>Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness; <sup>12:19</sup>and tell the people of the land, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and Eretz-Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and all that is therein, because of the violence of all those who dwell therein. <sup>12:20</sup>The cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>12:21</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12:22</sup>Son of man, what is this proverb that you have in Eretz-Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails? <sup>12:23</sup>Tell them therefore, Thus says the Lord GOD: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but tell them, The days are at hand, and the fulfillment of every vision. <sup>12:24</sup>For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. <sup>12:25</sup>For I am the LORD; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, rebellious house, will I speak the word, and will perform it, says the Lord GOD. <sup>12:26</sup>Again the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>12:27</sup>Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off. <sup>12:28</sup>Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: None of my words shall be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>13:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>13:2</sup>Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel who prophesy, and say to those who prophesy out of their own heart, Hear the word of the LORD: <sup>13:3</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, Woe to the foolish prophets, who follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! <sup>13:4</sup>Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places. <sup>13:5</sup>You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. <sup>13:6</sup>They have seen falsehood and lying divination, who say, the LORD says; but the LORD has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed. <sup>13:7</sup>Haven't you seen a false vision, and haven't you spoken a lying divination, in that you say, the LORD says; but I have not spoken? <sup>13:8</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>13:9</sup>My hand shall be against the prophets who see false visions, and who divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into Eretz-Israel; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>13:10</sup>Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they plaster it with whitewash: <sup>13:11</sup>tell those who plaster it with whitewash, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and you, great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall tear it. <sup>13:12</sup>Behold, when the wall has fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the plaster with which you have plastered it? <sup>13:13</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I will even tear it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it. <sup>13:14</sup>So will I break down the wall that you have plastered with whitewash, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and you shall be consumed in its midst: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>13:15</sup>Thus will I accomplish my wrath on the wall, and on those who have plastered it with whitewash; and I will tell you, The wall is no more, neither those who plastered it; <sup>13:16</sup>to wit, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Lord GOD. <sup>13:17</sup>You, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy against them, <sup>13:18</sup>and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the women who sew pillows on all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves? <sup>13:19</sup>You have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to kill the souls who should not die, and to save the souls alive who should not live, by your lying to my people who listen to lies. <sup>13:20</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against your pillows, with which you there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls whom you hunt to make them fly. <sup>13:21</sup>Your kerchiefs also will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>13:22</sup>Because with lies you have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive: <sup>13:23</sup>Therefore you shall no more see false visions, nor practice divination. I will deliver my people out of your hand; and you shall know that I am the LORD.

they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Lord GOD. <sup>14:12</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>14:13</sup>Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand on it, and break the staff of its bread, and send famine on it, and cut off from it man and animal; <sup>14:14</sup>though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord GOD. <sup>14:15</sup>If I cause evil animals to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the animals; <sup>14:16</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate. <sup>14:17</sup>Or if I bring a sword on that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and animal; <sup>14:18</sup>though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves. <sup>14:19</sup>Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath on it in blood, to cut off from it man and animal; <sup>14:20</sup>though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord GOD, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. <sup>14:21</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: How much more when I send my four severe judgments on Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil animals, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and animal! <sup>14:22</sup>Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth to you, and you shall see their way and their doings; and you shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought on Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought on it. <sup>14:23</sup>They shall comfort you, when you see their way and their doings; and you shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>15:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>15:2</sup>Son of man, what is the vine tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest? <sup>15:3</sup>Shall wood be taken of it to make any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon? <sup>15:4</sup>Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both its ends, and its midst is burned: is it profitable for any work? <sup>15:5</sup>Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work! <sup>15:6</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As the vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>15:7</sup>I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and you shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. <sup>15:8</sup>I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>16:12</sup>I put a ring on your nose, and earrings in your ears, and a beautiful crown on your head. <sup>16:13</sup>Thus you were decked with gold and silver; and your clothing was of fine linen, and silk, and embroidered work; you ate fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceeding beautiful, and you prospered to royal estate. <sup>16:14</sup>Your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put on you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>16:15</sup>But you trusted in your beauty, and played the prostitute because of your renown, and poured out your prostitution on everyone who passed by; his it was. <sup>16:16</sup>You took of your garments, and made for yourselves high places decked with various colors, and played the prostitute on them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. <sup>16:17</sup>You also took your beautiful jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for yourself images of men, and played the prostitute with them; <sup>16:18</sup>and you took your embroidered garments, and covered them, and set my oil and my incense before them. <sup>16:19</sup>My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you even set it before them for a pleasant aroma; and thus it was, says the Lord GOD. <sup>16:20</sup>Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and you have sacrificed these to them to be devoured. Was your prostitution a small matter, <sup>16:21</sup>that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them? <sup>16:22</sup>In all your abominations and your prostitution you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were wallowing in your blood. <sup>16:23</sup>It has happened after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says the Lord GOD), <sup>16:24</sup>that you have built for yourselves a vaulted place, and have made yourselves a lofty place in every street. <sup>16:25</sup>You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and have made your beauty an abomination, and have opened your feet to everyone who passed by, and multiplied your prostitution. <sup>16:26</sup>You have also committed sexual immorality with the Egyptians, your neighbors, great of flesh; and have multiplied your prostitution, to provoke me to anger. <sup>16:27</sup>See therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of those who hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, who are ashamed of your lewd way. <sup>16:28</sup>You have played the prostitute also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the prostitute with them, and yet you weren't satisfied. <sup>16:29</sup>You have moreover multiplied your prostitution to the land of merchants, to Kasdimah; and yet you weren't satisfied with this. <sup>16:30</sup>How weak is your heart, says the Lord GOD, since you do all these things, the work of an impudent prostitute; <sup>16:31</sup>in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a prostitute, in that you scorn pay. <sup>16:32</sup>A wife who commits adultery! who takes strangers instead of her husband! <sup>16:33</sup>They give gifts to all prostitutes; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your prostitution. <sup>16:34</sup>You are different from *other*women in your prostitution, in that no one follows you to play the prostitute; and whereas you give hire, and no hire is given to you, therefore you are different. <sup>16:35</sup>Therefore, prostitute, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>16:36</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your prostitution with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you gave to them; <sup>16:37</sup>therefore see, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all those who you have loved, with all those who you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness. <sup>16:38</sup>I will judge you, as women who break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring on you the blood of wrath and jealousy. <sup>16:39</sup>I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your beautiful jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare. <sup>16:40</sup>They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords. <sup>16:41</sup>They shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments on you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the prostitute, and you shall also give no hire any more. <sup>16:42</sup>So will I cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry. <sup>16:43</sup>Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way on your head, says the Lord GOD: and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations. <sup>16:44</sup>Behold, everyone who uses proverbs shall use *this*proverb against you, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. <sup>16:45</sup>You are the daughter of your mother, who loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite. <sup>16:46</sup>Your elder sister is Samaria, who dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, who dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. <sup>16:47</sup>Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as *if that were*a very little thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways. <sup>16:48</sup>As I live, says the Lord GOD, Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters. <sup>16:49</sup>Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fullness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy. <sup>16:50</sup>They were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. <sup>16:51</sup>Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done. <sup>16:52</sup>You also, bear you your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; through your sins that you have committed more abominable than they, they are more righteous than you: yes, be also confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters. <sup>16:53</sup>I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in their midst; <sup>16:54</sup>that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them. <sup>16:55</sup>Your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate. <sup>16:56</sup>For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride, <sup>16:57</sup>before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all who are around her, the daughters of the Philistines, who do despite to you all around. <sup>16:58</sup>You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says the LORD. <sup>16:59</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant. <sup>16:60</sup>Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant. <sup>16:61</sup>Then you shall remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant. <sup>16:62</sup>I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am the LORD; <sup>16:63</sup>that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>17:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17:2</sup>Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel; <sup>17:3</sup>and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: A great eagle with great wings and long feathers, full of feathers, which had various colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar: <sup>17:4</sup>he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs of it, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants. <sup>17:5</sup>He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow tree. <sup>17:6</sup>It grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and its roots were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. <sup>17:7</sup>There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and behold, this vine bent its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it. <sup>17:8</sup>It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine. <sup>17:9</sup>Say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up its roots, and cut off its fruit, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or many people can it be raised from its roots. <sup>17:10</sup>Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the beds where it grew. <sup>17:11</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>17:12</sup>Say now to the rebellious house, Don't you know what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took its king, and its princes, and brought them to him to Babylon: <sup>17:13</sup>and he took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land; <sup>17:14</sup>that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand. <sup>17:15</sup>But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and many people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape who does such things? shall he break the covenant, and yet escape? <sup>17:16</sup>As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwells who made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die. <sup>17:17</sup>Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons. <sup>17:18</sup>For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape. <sup>17:19</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it on his own head. <sup>17:20</sup>I will spread my net on him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me. <sup>17:21</sup>All his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and those who remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it. <sup>17:22</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it on a high and lofty mountain: <sup>17:23</sup>in the mountain of the height of Israel will I plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of its branches shall they dwell. <sup>17:24</sup>All the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, the LORD, have spoken and have done it.

on the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife, <sup>18:16</sup>neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment; <sup>18:17</sup>who has withdrawn his hand from the poor, who has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live. <sup>18:18</sup>As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity. <sup>18:19</sup>Yet you say, Why doesn't the son bear the iniquity of the father? When the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live. <sup>18:20</sup>The soul who sins, he shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be on him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be on him. <sup>18:21</sup>But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>18:22</sup>None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live. <sup>18:23</sup>Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Lord GOD; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live? <sup>18:24</sup>But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die. <sup>18:25</sup>Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, house of Israel: Is my way not equal? Aren't your ways unequal? <sup>18:26</sup>When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die. <sup>18:27</sup>Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. <sup>18:28</sup>Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>18:29</sup>Yet the house of Israel says, "The way of the Lord is not fair." House of Israel, aren't my ways fair? Aren't your ways unfair? <sup>18:30</sup>Therefore I will judge you, house of Israel, everyone according to his ways, says the Lord GOD. Return, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. <sup>18:31</sup>Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which you have transgressed; and make yourself a new heart and a new spirit: for why will you die, house of Israel? <sup>18:32</sup>For I have no pleasure in the death of him who dies, says the Lord GOD: therefore turn yourselves, and live.

<sup>19:14</sup>Fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a scepter to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

<sup>20:1</sup>It happened in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of the LORD, and sat before me. <sup>20:2</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>20:3</sup>Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Is it to inquire of me that you have come? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you. <sup>20:4</sup>Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers; <sup>20:5</sup>and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am the LORD your God; <sup>20:6</sup>in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands. <sup>20:7</sup>I said to them, Cast away every man the abominations of his eyes, and don't defile yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am the LORD your God. <sup>20:8</sup>But they rebelled against me, and would not listen to me; they each didn't throw away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt. <sup>20:9</sup>But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt. <sup>20:10</sup>So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. <sup>20:11</sup>I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man does, he shall live in them. <sup>20:12</sup>Moreover also I gave them my Sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD who sanctifies them. <sup>20:13</sup>But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they didn't walk in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my Sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them in the wilderness, to consume them. <sup>20:14</sup>But I worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out. <sup>20:15</sup>Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; <sup>20:16</sup>because they rejected my ordinances, and didn't walk in my statutes, and profaned my Sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. <sup>20:17</sup>Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I didn't destroy them, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness. <sup>20:18</sup>I said to their children in the wilderness, Don't walk in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols. <sup>20:19</sup>I am the LORD your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them; <sup>20:20</sup>and make my Sabbaths holy; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that you may know that I am the LORD your God. <sup>20:21</sup>But the children rebelled against me; they didn't walk in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my Sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath on them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. <sup>20:22</sup>Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and worked for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth. <sup>20:23</sup>Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; <sup>20:24</sup>because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my Sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. <sup>20:25</sup>Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live; <sup>20:26</sup>and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am the LORD. <sup>20:27</sup>Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me. <sup>20:28</sup>For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their pleasant aroma, and they poured out there their drink offerings. <sup>20:29</sup>Then I said to them, What does the high place where you go mean? So its name is called Bamah to this day. <sup>20:30</sup>Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Do you pollute yourselves in the way of your fathers? and do you play the prostitute after their abominations? <sup>20:31</sup>and when you offer your gifts, when you make your sons to pass through the fire, do you pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord GOD, I will not be inquired of by you; <sup>20:32</sup>and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that you say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone. <sup>20:33</sup>As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, will I be king over you: <sup>20:34</sup>and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which you are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out; <sup>20:35</sup>and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there will I enter into judgment with you face to face. <sup>20:36</sup>Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I enter into judgment with you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>20:37</sup>I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant; <sup>20:38</sup>and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and those who disobey against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they live, but they shall not enter into Eretz-Israel: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>20:39</sup>As for you, house of Israel, thus says the Lord GOD: Go, serve everyone his idols, and hereafter also, if you will not listen to me; but my holy name you shall no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols. <sup>20:40</sup>For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the first fruits of your offerings, with all your holy things. <sup>20:41</sup>As a pleasant aroma will I accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which you have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations. <sup>20:42</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you into Eretz-Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers. <sup>20:43</sup>There you shall remember your ways, and all your doings, in which you have polluted yourselves; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that you have committed. <sup>20:44</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, you house of Israel, says the Lord GOD. <sup>20:45</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>20:46</sup>Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South; <sup>20:47</sup>and tell the forest of the South, Hear the word of the LORD: Thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby. <sup>20:48</sup>All flesh shall see that I, the LORD, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched. <sup>20:49</sup>Then I said, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Isn't he a speaker of parables?

<sup>21:1</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21:2</sup>Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against Eretz-Israel; <sup>21:3</sup>and tell Eretz-Israel, Thus says the LORD: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked. <sup>21:4</sup>Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: <sup>21:5</sup>and all flesh shall know that I, the LORD, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more. <sup>21:6</sup>Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your thighs and with bitterness you will sigh before their eyes. <sup>21:7</sup>It shall be, when they tell you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the news, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the

Lord GOD. <sup>21:8</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>21:9</sup>Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the LORD: Say, A sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished; <sup>21:10</sup>it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it condemns every tree. <sup>21:11</sup>It is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the killer. <sup>21:12</sup>Cry and wail, son of man; for it is on my people, it is on all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; strike therefore on your thigh. <sup>21:13</sup>For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that condemns shall be no more? says the Lord GOD. <sup>21:14</sup>You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the deadly wounded: it is the sword of the great one who is deadly wounded, which enters into their rooms. <sup>21:15</sup>I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter. <sup>21:16</sup>Gather yourselves together, go to the right, set yourselves in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set. <sup>21:17</sup>I will also strike my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, the LORD, have spoken it. <sup>21:18</sup>The word of the LORD came to me again, saying, <sup>21:19</sup>Also, you son of man, appoint two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they both shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city. <sup>21:20</sup>You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified. <sup>21:21</sup>For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows back and forth, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver. <sup>21:22</sup>In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts. <sup>21:23</sup>It shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to memory, that they may be taken. <sup>21:24</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

Because you have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins appear; because you have come to memory, you shall be taken with the hand. <sup>21:25</sup>You, deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day has come, in the time of the iniquity of the end, <sup>21:26</sup>thus says the Lord GOD: Remove the turban, and take off the crown; this shall be more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high. <sup>21:27</sup>I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. <sup>21:28</sup>You, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say, A sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furnished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning; <sup>21:29</sup>while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you on the necks of the wicked who are deadly wounded, whose day has come in the time of the iniquity of the end. <sup>21:30</sup>Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, will I judge you. <sup>21:31</sup>I will pour out my indignation on you; I will blow on you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skillful to destroy. <sup>21:32</sup>You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be remembered no more: for I, the LORD, have spoken it.

they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the foreigner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow. <sup>22:8</sup>You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>22:9</sup>Slandering men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten on the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness. <sup>22:10</sup>In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her who was unclean in her impurity. <sup>22:11</sup>One has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter. <sup>22:12</sup>In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Lord GOD. <sup>22:13</sup>Behold, therefore, I have struck my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you. <sup>22:14</sup>Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, the LORD, have spoken it, and will do it. <sup>22:15</sup>I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you. <sup>22:16</sup>You shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>22:17</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>22:18</sup>Son of man, the house of Israel has become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver. <sup>22:19</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem. <sup>22:20</sup>As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire on it, to melt it; so will I gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you. <sup>22:21</sup>Yes, I will gather you, and blow on you with the fire of my wrath, and you shall be melted in its midst. <sup>22:22</sup>As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so you will be melted in its midst; and you will know that I, the LORD, have poured out my wrath on you. <sup>22:23</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>22:24</sup>Son of man, tell her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained on in the day of indignation. <sup>22:25</sup>There is a conspiracy of her prophets in its midst, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in its midst. <sup>22:26</sup>Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hidden their eyes from my Sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. <sup>22:27</sup>Her princes in its midst are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain. <sup>22:28</sup>Her prophets have plastered for them with whitewash, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Lord GOD, when the LORD has not spoken. <sup>22:29</sup>The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have troubled the poor and needy, and have oppressed the foreigner wrongfully. <sup>22:30</sup>I sought for a man among them, who should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found none. <sup>22:31</sup>Therefore have I poured out my indignation on them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought on their heads, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>23:1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>23:2</sup>Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: <sup>23:3</sup>and they played the prostitute in Egypt; they played the prostitute in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity. <sup>23:4</sup>Their names were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. As for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah. <sup>23:5</sup>Oholah played the prostitute when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors, <sup>23:6</sup>who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding on horses. <sup>23:7</sup>She bestowed her prostitution on them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself. <sup>23:8</sup>Neither has she left her prostitution since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their prostitution on her. <sup>23:9</sup>Therefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, on whom she doted. <sup>23:10</sup>These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they killed with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments on her. <sup>23:11</sup>Her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her prostitution which were more than the prostitution of her sister. <sup>23:12</sup>She doted on the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding on horses, all of them desirable young men. <sup>23:13</sup>I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way. <sup>23:14</sup>She increased her prostitution; for she saw men portrayed on the wall, the images of the Kasdim portrayed with vermilion, <sup>23:15</sup>dressed with girdles on their waists, with flowing turbans on their heads, all of them princes to look on, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Kasdim, the land of their birth. <sup>23:16</sup>As soon as she saw them she doted on them, and sent messengers to them into Kasdimah. <sup>23:17</sup>The Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their prostitution, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them. <sup>23:18</sup>So she uncovered her prostitution, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister. <sup>23:19</sup>Yet she multiplied her prostitution, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the prostitute in the land of Egypt. <sup>23:20</sup>She doted on their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of donkeys, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. <sup>23:21</sup>Thus you called to memory the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth. <sup>23:22</sup>Therefore, Oholibah, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side: <sup>23:23</sup>the Babylonians and all the Kasdim, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding on horses. <sup>23:24</sup>They shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet all around; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments. <sup>23:25</sup>I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire. <sup>23:26</sup>They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your beautiful jewels. <sup>23:27</sup>Thus will I make your lewdness to cease from you, and your prostitution brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more. <sup>23:28</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated; <sup>23:29</sup>and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your prostitution shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your prostitution. <sup>23:30</sup>These things shall be done to you, because you have played the prostitute after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols. <sup>23:31</sup>You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore will I give her cup into your hand. <sup>23:32</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: You will drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you will be ridiculed and held in derision; it contains much. <sup>23:33</sup>You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria. <sup>23:34</sup>You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the broken pieces of it, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. <sup>23:35</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore you also bear your lewdness and your prostitution. <sup>23:36</sup>The LORD said moreover to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations. <sup>23:37</sup>For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured. <sup>23:38</sup>Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my Sabbaths. <sup>23:39</sup>For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and behold, thus have they done in the midst of my house. <sup>23:40</sup>Furthermore you have sent for men who come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and behold, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and decorate yourself with ornaments, <sup>23:41</sup>and sit on a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you set my incense and my oil. <sup>23:42</sup>The voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets on their hands twain, and beautiful crowns on their heads. <sup>23:43</sup>Then I said of her who was old in adulteries, Now will they play the prostitute with her, and she with them. <sup>23:44</sup>They went in to her, as they go in to a prostitute: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women. <sup>23:45</sup>Righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women who shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. <sup>23:46</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed back and forth and robbed. <sup>23:47</sup>The company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall kill their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire. <sup>23:48</sup>Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness. <sup>23:49</sup>They shall recompense your lewdness on you, and you shall bear the sins of your idols; and you shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

boil well; yes, let its bones be boiled in its midst. <sup>24:6</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen on it. <sup>24:7</sup>For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it on the bare rock; she didn't pour it on the ground, to cover it with dust. <sup>24:8</sup>That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood on the bare rock, that it should not be covered. <sup>24:9</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great. <sup>24:10</sup>Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned. <sup>24:11</sup>Then set it empty on its coals, that it may be hot, and its brass may burn, and that its filthiness may be molten in it, that its rust may be consumed. <sup>24:12</sup>She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust doesn't go forth out of her; her rust doesn't go forth by fire. <sup>24:13</sup>In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you weren't cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, until I have caused my wrath toward you to rest. <sup>24:14</sup>I, the LORD, have spoken it: it shall happen, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Lord GOD. <sup>24:15</sup>Also the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24:16</sup>Son of man, behold, I will take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down. <sup>24:17</sup>Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headdress on you, and put your shoes on your feet, and don't cover your lips, and don't eat men's bread. <sup>24:18</sup>So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. <sup>24:19</sup>The people said to me, Won't you tell us what these things are to us, that you do so? <sup>24:20</sup>Then I said to them, The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>24:21</sup>Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom you have left behind shall fall by the sword. <sup>24:22</sup>You shall do as I have done: you shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. <sup>24:23</sup>Your tires shall be on your heads, and your shoes on your feet: you shall not mourn nor weep; but you shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another. <sup>24:24</sup>Thus Ezekiel shall be a sign to you; according to all that he has done, you will do. When this comes, then you will know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>24:25</sup>You, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters, <sup>24:26</sup>that in that day he who escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears? <sup>24:27</sup>In that day your mouth will be opened to him who has escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more mute: so you will be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations. <sup>25:11</sup>and I will execute judgments on Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>25:12</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Because Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself on them; <sup>25:13</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, I will stretch out my hand on Edom, and will cut off man and animal from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword. <sup>25:14</sup>I will lay my vengeance on Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord GOD. <sup>25:15</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity; <sup>25:16</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I will stretch out my hand on the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. <sup>25:17</sup>I will execute great vengeance on them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance on them.

<sup>26:1</sup>It happened in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>26:2</sup>Son of man, because Tyre has said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken: the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste: <sup>26:3</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD, Behold, I am against you, Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up. <sup>26:4</sup>They shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock. <sup>26:5</sup>She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD; and she shall become a spoil to the nations. <sup>26:6</sup>Her daughters who are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>26:7</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will bring on Tyre Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and many people. <sup>26:8</sup>He shall kill your daughters in the field with the sword; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you. <sup>26:9</sup>He shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers. <sup>26:10</sup>By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach. <sup>26:11</sup>With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall kill your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground. <sup>26:12</sup>They shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters. <sup>26:13</sup>I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard. <sup>26:14</sup>I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I the LORD have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. <sup>26:15</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD to Tyre: shall not the islands shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you? <sup>26:16</sup>Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their embroidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit on the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you. <sup>26:17</sup>They shall take up a lamentation over you, and tell you, How you are destroyed, who were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, who was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, who caused their terror to be on all who lived there! <sup>26:18</sup>Now shall the islands tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the islands that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure. <sup>26:19</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep on you, and the great waters shall cover you; <sup>26:20</sup>then will I bring you down with those who descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the lower parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with those who go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living: <sup>26:21</sup>I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you are sought for, yet you will never be found again, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>27:1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>27:2</sup>You, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre; <sup>27:3</sup>and tell Tyre, you who dwell at the entry of the sea, who are the merchant of the peoples to many islands, thus says the Lord GOD: You, Tyre, have said, I am perfect in beauty. <sup>27:4</sup>Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty. <sup>27:5</sup>They have made all your planks of fir trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you. <sup>27:6</sup>Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the islands of Kittim. <sup>27:7</sup>Of fine linen with embroidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for a banner; blue and purple from the islands of Elishah was your awning. <sup>27:8</sup>The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots. <sup>27:9</sup>The old men of Gebal and the wise men of it were in you your repairers of ship seams: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise. <sup>27:10</sup>Persia and Lud and Put were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness. <sup>27:11</sup>The men of Arvad with your army were on your walls all around, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields on your walls all around; they have perfected your beauty. <sup>27:12</sup>Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares. <sup>27:13</sup>Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise. <sup>27:14</sup>They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war horses and mules. <sup>27:15</sup>The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many islands were the market of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony. <sup>27:16</sup>Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and embroidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies. <sup>27:17</sup>Judah, and Eretz-Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and confections, and honey, and oil, and balm. <sup>27:18</sup>Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool. <sup>27:19</sup>Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise. <sup>27:20</sup>Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding. <sup>27:21</sup>Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants. <sup>27:22</sup>The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold. <sup>27:23</sup>Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, Asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers. <sup>27:24</sup>These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and embroidered work, and in chests of rich clothing, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise. <sup>27:25</sup>The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas. <sup>27:26</sup>Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas. <sup>27:27</sup>Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your repairers of ship seams, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, who are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin. <sup>27:28</sup>At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake. <sup>27:29</sup>All who handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand on the land, <sup>27:30</sup>and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust on their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: <sup>27:31</sup>and they shall make themselves bald for you, and clothe them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning. <sup>27:32</sup>In their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her who is brought to silence in the midst of the sea? <sup>27:33</sup>When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you enriched the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise. <sup>27:34</sup>In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company fell in your midst. <sup>27:35</sup>All the inhabitants of the islands are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their face. <sup>27:36</sup>The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.

<sup>28:1</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>28:2</sup>Son of man, tell the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God—<sup>28:3</sup>behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you; <sup>28:4</sup>by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten yourself riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures; <sup>28:5</sup>by your great wisdom and by your traffic you have increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches—<sup>28:6</sup>therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God, <sup>28:7</sup>therefore, behold, I will bring strangers on you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness. <sup>28:8</sup>They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of those who are slain, in the heart of the seas. <sup>28:9</sup>Will you yet say before him who kills you, I am God? but you are man, and not God, in the hand of him who wounds you. <sup>28:10</sup>You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. <sup>28:11</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>28:12</sup>Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and tell him, Thus says the Lord GOD: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty. <sup>28:13</sup>You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: ruby, topaz, emerald, chrysolite, onyx, jasper, sapphire<sup>h</sup>, turquoise, and beryl. Gold work of tambourines and of

pipes was in you. In the day that you were created they were prepared. <sup>28:14</sup>You were the anointed cherub who covers: and I set you, so that you were on the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. <sup>28:15</sup>You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, until unrighteousness was found in you. <sup>28:16</sup>By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore I have cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire. <sup>28:17</sup>Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may see you. <sup>28:18</sup>By the multitude of your iniquities, in the unrighteousness of your traffic, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes on the earth in the sight of all those who see you. <sup>28:19</sup>All those who know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you have become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being. <sup>28:20</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>28:21</sup>Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it, <sup>28:22</sup>and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her. <sup>28:23</sup>For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword on her on every side; and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>28:24</sup>There shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are around them, that scorned them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. <sup>28:25</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob. <sup>28:26</sup>They shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments on all those who do them despite all around them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

<sup>29:1</sup>In the tenth year, in the tenth month, on the twelfth day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>29:2</sup>“Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him and against all Egypt. <sup>29:3</sup>Speak and say, ‘Thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, ‘My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.’ <sup>29:4</sup>I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will make the fish of your rivers stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales. <sup>29:5</sup>I’ll cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers. You’ll fall on the open field. You won’t be brought together, nor gathered. I have given you for food to the animals of the earth and to the birds of the sky. <sup>29:6</sup>All the inhabitants of Egypt will know that I am the LORD, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. <sup>29:7</sup>When they took hold of you by your hand, you broke, and tore all their shoulders; and when they leaned on you, you broke, and paralyzed all of their thighs.” <sup>29:8</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: “Behold, I will bring a sword on you, and will cut off man and animal from you. <sup>29:9</sup>The land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Because he has said, ‘The river is mine, and I have made it,’ <sup>29:10</sup>therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveh even to the border of Ethiopia. <sup>29:11</sup>No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of animal shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years. <sup>29:12</sup>I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.” <sup>29:13</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: “At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the peoples where they were scattered; <sup>29:14</sup>and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of

Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom. <sup>29:15</sup>It shall be the base of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations. <sup>29:16</sup>It shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to memory, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD.”” <sup>29:17</sup>It came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>29:18</sup>Son of man, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it. <sup>29:19</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. <sup>29:20</sup>I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they worked for me, says the Lord GOD. <sup>29:21</sup>In that day will I cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in their midst; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

are destroyed. <sup>30:9</sup>In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish on them, as in the day of Egypt; for, behold, it comes. <sup>30:10</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon. <sup>30:11</sup>He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. <sup>30:12</sup>I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, the LORD, have spoken it. <sup>30:13</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. <sup>30:14</sup>I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments on No. <sup>30:15</sup>I will pour my wrath on Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. <sup>30:16</sup>I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the daytime. <sup>30:17</sup>The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity. <sup>30:18</sup>At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. <sup>30:19</sup>Thus will I execute judgments on Egypt; and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>30:20</sup>It happened in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>30:21</sup>Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and behold, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword. <sup>30:22</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand. <sup>30:23</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries. <sup>30:24</sup>I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man. <sup>30:25</sup>I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out on the land of Egypt. <sup>30:26</sup>I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

from his shadow, and have left him. <sup>31:13</sup>On his ruin all the birds of the sky shall dwell, and all the animals of the field shall be on his branches; <sup>31:14</sup>to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all who drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the lower parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with those who go down to the pit. <sup>31:15</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day when he went down to Sheol<sup>i</sup> I caused a mourning; I covered the deep for him, and I restrained its rivers; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. <sup>31:16</sup>I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol<sup>j</sup> with those who descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the lower parts of the earth. <sup>31:17</sup>They also went down into Sheol with him to those who are slain by the sword; yes, those who were his arm, that lived under his shadow in the midst of the nations. <sup>31:18</sup>To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet you will be brought down with the trees of Eden to the lower parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>32:1</sup>It happened in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>32:2</sup>Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and tell him, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet you are as a monster in the seas; and you broke out with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers. <sup>32:3</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: I will spread out my net on you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net. <sup>32:4</sup>I will leave you on the land, I will cast you forth on the open field, and will cause all the birds of the sky to settle on you, and I will satisfy the animals of the whole earth with you. <sup>32:5</sup>I will lay your flesh on the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height. <sup>32:6</sup>I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you. <sup>32:7</sup>When I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make its stars dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light. <sup>32:8</sup>All the bright lights of the sky will I make dark over you, and set darkness on your land, says the Lord GOD. <sup>32:9</sup>I will also trouble the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known. <sup>32:10</sup>Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall. <sup>32:11</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come on you. <sup>32:12</sup>By the swords of the mighty will I cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nothing the pride of Egypt, and all its multitude shall be destroyed. <sup>32:13</sup>I will destroy also all its animals from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of animals trouble them. <sup>32:14</sup>Then will I make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord GOD. <sup>32:15</sup>When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that of which it was full, when I shall strike all those who dwell therein, then shall they know that I am the LORD. <sup>32:16</sup>This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament therewith; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament therewith, says the Lord GOD. <sup>32:17</sup>It happened also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>32:18</sup>Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the lower parts of the earth, with those who go down into the pit. <sup>32:19</sup>Whom do you pass in beauty? Go down, and be laid with the uncircumcised. <sup>32:20</sup>They shall fall in the midst of those who are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes. <sup>32:21</sup>The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol<sup>k</sup> with those who help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword. <sup>32:22</sup>Asshur is there and all her company; her graves are all around her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword; <sup>32:23</sup>whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living. <sup>32:24</sup>There is Elam and all her multitude around her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the lower parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>32:25</sup>They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are around her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with those who go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of those who are slain. <sup>32:26</sup>There is Meshech, Tubal, and all their multitude; their graves are around them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living. <sup>32:27</sup>They shall not lie with the mighty who are fallen of the uncircumcised, who are gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are on their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. <sup>32:28</sup>But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with those who are slain by the sword. <sup>32:29</sup>There is Edom, her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with those who are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with those who go down to the pit. <sup>32:30</sup>There are the princes of the north, all of them, and all the Sidonians, who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with those who are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with those who go down to the pit. <sup>32:31</sup>Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord GOD. <sup>32:32</sup>For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with those who are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>33:12</sup>You, son of man, tell the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his disobedience; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he who is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins. <sup>33:13</sup>When I tell the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die. <sup>33:14</sup>Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; <sup>33:15</sup>if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. <sup>33:16</sup>None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. <sup>33:17</sup>Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. <sup>33:18</sup>When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein. <sup>33:19</sup>When the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. <sup>33:20</sup>Yet you say, The way of the Lord is not equal. House of Israel, I will judge every one of you after his ways. <sup>33:21</sup>It happened in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one who had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city has been struck. <sup>33:22</sup>Now the hand of the LORD had been on me in the evening, before he who was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more mute. <sup>33:23</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>33:24</sup>Son of man, they who inhabit those waste places in Eretz-Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. <sup>33:25</sup>Therefore tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall you possess the land? <sup>33:26</sup>You stand on your sword, you work abomination, and every one of you defiles his neighbor's wife: and shall you possess the land? <sup>33:27</sup>You shall tell them,

Thus says the Lord GOD: As I live, surely those who are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him who is in the open field will I give to the animals to be devoured; and those who are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. <sup>33:28</sup>I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that none shall pass through. <sup>33:29</sup>Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed. <sup>33:30</sup>As for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, everyone to his brother, saying, Please come and hear what is the word that comes forth from the LORD. <sup>33:31</sup>They come to you as the people come, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but don't do them; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain. <sup>33:32</sup>Behold, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they don't do them. <sup>33:33</sup>When this comes to pass, (behold, it comes), then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.

sought. <sup>34:7</sup>Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>34:8</sup>As I live, says the Lord GOD, surely because my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the animals of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and didn't feed my sheep; <sup>34:9</sup>therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of the LORD: <sup>34:10</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them. <sup>34:11</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out. <sup>34:12</sup>As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so will I seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. <sup>34:13</sup>I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country. <sup>34:14</sup>I will feed them with good pasture; and on the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed on the mountains of Israel. <sup>34:15</sup>I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord GOD. <sup>34:16</sup>I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice. <sup>34:17</sup>As for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the male goats. <sup>34:18</sup>Does it seem a small thing to you to have fed on the good pasture, but you must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but you must foul the residue with your feet? <sup>34:19</sup>As for my sheep, they eat that which you have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which you have fouled with your feet. <sup>34:20</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep. <sup>34:21</sup>Because you thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, until you have scattered them abroad; <sup>34:22</sup>therefore will I save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep. <sup>34:23</sup>I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd. <sup>34:24</sup>I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, the LORD, have spoken it. <sup>34:25</sup>I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil animals to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. <sup>34:26</sup>I will make them and the places around my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing. <sup>34:27</sup>The tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those who made slaves of them. <sup>34:28</sup>They shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the animals of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and none shall make them afraid. <sup>34:29</sup>I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more. <sup>34:30</sup>They shall know that I, the LORD, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord GOD. <sup>34:31</sup>You my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord GOD.

pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you. <sup>35:7</sup> Thus will I make Mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him who passes through and him who returns. <sup>35:8</sup> I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall who are slain with the sword. <sup>35:9</sup> I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>35:10</sup> Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there: <sup>35:11</sup> therefore, as I live, says the Lord GOD, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you. <sup>35:12</sup> You shall know that I, the LORD, have heard all your insults which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they have been given us to devour. <sup>35:13</sup> You have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it. <sup>35:14</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate. <sup>35:15</sup> As you rejoiced over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do to you: you shall be desolate, Mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>36:1</sup> You, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>36:2</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: Because the enemy has said against you, Aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession; <sup>36:3</sup> therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that you might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and you are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people; <sup>36:4</sup> therefore, you mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD: Thus says the Lord GOD to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are all around; <sup>36:5</sup> therefore

thus says the Lord GOD: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey. <sup>36:6</sup> Therefore prophesy concerning Eretz-Israel, and tell the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because you have borne the shame of the nations: <sup>36:7</sup> therefore thus says the Lord GOD: I have sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are around you, they shall bear their shame. <sup>36:8</sup> But you, mountains of Israel, you shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come. <sup>36:9</sup> For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and you shall be tilled and sown; <sup>36:10</sup> and I will multiply men on you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built; <sup>36:11</sup> and I will multiply on you man and animal; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>36:12</sup> Yes, I will cause men to walk on you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more henceforth bereave them of children. <sup>36:13</sup> Thus says the Lord GOD: Because they say to you, You are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation; <sup>36:14</sup> therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says the Lord GOD; <sup>36:15</sup> neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says the Lord GOD. <sup>36:16</sup> Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>36:17</sup> Son of man, when the house of Israel lived in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity. <sup>36:18</sup> Therefore I poured out my wrath on them for the blood which they had poured out on the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols; <sup>36:19</sup> and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them. <sup>36:20</sup>When they came to the nations, where they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of the LORD, and are gone forth out of his land. <sup>36:21</sup>But I had respect for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, where they went. <sup>36:22</sup>Therefore tell the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: I don't do this for your sake, house of Israel, but for my holy name, which you have profaned among the nations, where you went. <sup>36:23</sup>I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which you have profaned in their midst; and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, says the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. <sup>36:24</sup>For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land. <sup>36:25</sup>I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. <sup>36:26</sup>I will also give you a new heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh. <sup>36:27</sup>I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and you shall keep my ordinances, and do them. <sup>36:28</sup>You shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and you shall be my people, and I will be your God. <sup>36:29</sup>I will save you from all your uncleanness: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine on you. <sup>36:30</sup>I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that you may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations. <sup>36:31</sup>Then you shall remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and you shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. <sup>36:32</sup>Nor for your sake do I this, says the Lord GOD, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, house of Israel. <sup>36:33</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built. <sup>36:34</sup>The land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all who passed by. <sup>36:35</sup>They shall say, This land that was desolate has become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited. <sup>36:36</sup>Then the nations that are left around you shall know that I, the LORD, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, the LORD, have spoken it, and I will do it. <sup>36:37</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: For this, moreover, will I be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock. <sup>36:38</sup>As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>37:1</sup>The hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones. <sup>37:2</sup>He caused me to pass by them all around: and behold, there were very many in the open valley; and behold, they were very dry. <sup>37:3</sup>He said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? I answered, Lord GOD, you know. <sup>37:4</sup>Again he said to me, Prophecy over these bones, and tell them, you dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. <sup>37:5</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and you shall live. <sup>37:6</sup>I will lay sinews on you, and will bring up flesh on you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and you shall live; and you shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>37:7</sup>So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone. <sup>37:8</sup>I saw, and, behold, there were sinews on them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them. <sup>37:9</sup>Then he said to me, Prophecy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and tell the wind, Thus says the Lord GOD: Come from the four winds, breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live. <sup>37:10</sup>So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up on their feet, an exceedingly great army. <sup>37:11</sup>Then he said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off. <sup>37:12</sup>Therefore prophesy, and tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, my people; and I will bring you into Eretz-Israel. <sup>37:13</sup>You shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, my people. <sup>37:14</sup>I will put my Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and you shall know that I, the LORD, have spoken it and performed it, says the LORD. <sup>37:15</sup>The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, <sup>37:16</sup>You, son of man, take one stick, and write on it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write on it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: <sup>37:17</sup>and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand. <sup>37:18</sup>When the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these? <sup>37:19</sup>tell them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand. <sup>37:20</sup>The sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes. <sup>37:21</sup>Say to them, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, where they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: <sup>37:22</sup>and I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all; <sup>37:23</sup>neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. <sup>37:24</sup>My servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them. <sup>37:25</sup>They shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers lived; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, forever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever. <sup>37:26</sup>Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in their midst forevermore. <sup>37:27</sup>My tent also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. <sup>37:28</sup>The nations shall know that I am the LORD who sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in their midst forevermore.

to take the spoil? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great spoil? <sup>38:14</sup>Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and tell Gog, Thus says the Lord GOD: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it? <sup>38:15</sup>You shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great company and a mighty army; <sup>38:16</sup>and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall happen in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, Gog, before their eyes. <sup>38:17</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, who prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them? <sup>38:18</sup>It shall happen in that day, when Gog shall come against Eretz-Israel, says the Lord GOD, that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils. <sup>38:19</sup>For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in Eretz-Israel; <sup>38:20</sup>so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the sky, and the animals of the field, and all creeping things who creep on the earth, and all the men who are on the surface of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. <sup>38:21</sup>I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother. <sup>38:22</sup>With pestilence and with blood will I enter into judgment with him; and I will rain on him, and on his hordes, and on the many peoples who are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and sulfur. <sup>38:23</sup>I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

<sup>39:1</sup>You, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord GOD: Behold, I am against you, Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal: <sup>39:2</sup>and I will turn you around, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you on the mountains of Israel; <sup>39:3</sup>and

I will strike your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand. <sup>39:4</sup>You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples who are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the animals of the field to be devoured. <sup>39:5</sup>You shall fall on the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Lord GOD. <sup>39:6</sup>I will send a fire on Magog, and on those who dwell securely in the islands; and they shall know that I am the LORD. <sup>39:7</sup>My holy name will I make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy One in Israel. <sup>39:8</sup>Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord GOD; this is the day about which I have spoken. <sup>39:9</sup>Those who dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the war clubs, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years; <sup>39:10</sup>so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those who plundered them, and rob those who robbed them, says the Lord GOD. <sup>39:11</sup>It shall happen in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of those who pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop those who pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>39:12</sup>Seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land. <sup>39:13</sup>Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord GOD. <sup>39:14</sup>They shall set apart men of continual employment, who shall pass through the land, and, with those who pass through, those who bury those who remain on the surface of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search. <sup>39:15</sup>Those who pass through the land shall pass through; and when any sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, until the undertakers have buried it in the valley of Hamon Gog. <sup>39:16</sup>Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land. <sup>39:17</sup>You, son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every animal of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice on the mountains of Israel, that you may eat flesh and drink blood. <sup>39:18</sup>You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan. <sup>39:19</sup>You shall eat fat until you be full, and drink blood until you are drunk, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. <sup>39:20</sup>You shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Lord GOD. <sup>39:21</sup>I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid on them. <sup>39:22</sup>So the house of Israel shall know that I am the LORD their God, from that day and forward. <sup>39:23</sup>The nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword. <sup>39:24</sup>According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them. <sup>39:25</sup>Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: Now will I bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy on the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name. <sup>39:26</sup>They shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses by which they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and none shall make them afraid; <sup>39:27</sup>when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations. <sup>39:28</sup>They shall know that I am the LORD their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there; <sup>39:29</sup>neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit on the house of Israel, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>40:1</sup>In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was struck, in the same day, the hand of the LORD was on me, and he brought me there. <sup>40:2</sup>In the visions of God brought he me into Eretz-Israel, and set me down on a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south. <sup>40:3</sup>He brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. <sup>40:4</sup>The man said to me, Son of man, see with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, you are brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel. <sup>40:5</sup>Behold, a wall on the outside of the house all around, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. <sup>40:6</sup>Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up its steps: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad. <sup>40:7</sup>Every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed. <sup>40:8</sup>He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed. <sup>40:9</sup>Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and its posts, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house. <sup>40:10</sup>The lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. <sup>40:11</sup>He measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits; <sup>40:12</sup>and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side. <sup>40:13</sup>He measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of twenty-five cubits; door against door. <sup>40:14</sup>He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, around the gate. <sup>40:15</sup>From the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits. <sup>40:16</sup>There were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate all around, and likewise to the arches; and windows were around inward;

and on each post were palm trees. <sup>40:17</sup> Then he brought me into the outer court; and behold, there were rooms and a pavement, made for the court all around: thirty rooms were on the pavement. <sup>40:18</sup> The pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement. <sup>40:19</sup> Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court outside, one hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north. <sup>40:20</sup> The gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured its length and its breadth. <sup>40:21</sup> The lodges of it were three on this side and three on that side; and its posts and its arches were after the measure of the first gate: its length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>40:22</sup> The windows of it, and its arches, and the palm trees of it, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and its arches were before them. <sup>40:23</sup> There was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate one hundred cubits. <sup>40:24</sup> He led me toward the south; and behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured its posts and its arches according to these measures. <sup>40:25</sup> There were windows in it and in its arches all around, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>40:26</sup> There were seven steps to go up to it, and its arches were before them; and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, on its posts. <sup>40:27</sup> There was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits. <sup>40:28</sup> Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; <sup>40:29</sup> and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. <sup>40:30</sup> There were arches all around, twenty-five cubits long, and five cubits broad. <sup>40:31</sup> The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>40:32</sup> He brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures; <sup>40:33</sup> and its lodges, and its posts, and its arches, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in its arches all around; it was fifty cubits long, and twenty-five cubits broad. <sup>40:34</sup> The arches of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>40:35</sup> He brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures; <sup>40:36</sup> its lodges, its posts, and its arches: and there were windows therein all around; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth twenty-five cubits. <sup>40:37</sup> The posts of it were toward the outer court; and palm trees were on its posts, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps. <sup>40:38</sup> A room with its door was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering. <sup>40:39</sup> In the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to kill thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering. <sup>40:40</sup> On the oneside outside, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables. <sup>40:41</sup> Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they killed the sacrifices. <sup>40:42</sup> There were four tables for the burnt offering, of cut stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they killed the burnt offering and the sacrifice. <sup>40:43</sup> The hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within all around: and on the tables was the flesh of the offering. <sup>40:44</sup> Outside of the inner gate were rooms for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north. <sup>40:45</sup> He said to me, This room, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the house; <sup>40:46</sup> and the room whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the duty of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to the LORD to minister to him. <sup>40:47</sup> He measured the court, one hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house. <sup>40:48</sup> Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. <sup>40:49</sup>The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps by which they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

<sup>41:1</sup>He brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tent. <sup>41:2</sup>The breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured its length, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits. <sup>41:3</sup>Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits. <sup>41:4</sup>He measured its length, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place. <sup>41:5</sup>Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side room, four cubits, all around the house on every side. <sup>41:6</sup>The side rooms were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side rooms all around, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house. <sup>41:7</sup>The side rooms were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher around the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest room to the highest by the middle room. <sup>41:8</sup>I saw also that the house had a raised base all around: the foundations of the side rooms were a full reed of six great cubits. <sup>41:9</sup>The thickness of the wall, which was for the side rooms, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side rooms that belonged to the house. <sup>41:10</sup>Between the rooms was a breadth of twenty cubits around the house on every side. <sup>41:11</sup>The doors of the side rooms were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits all around. <sup>41:12</sup>The building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits. <sup>41:13</sup>So he measured the house, one hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with its walls, one hundred cubits long; <sup>41:14</sup>also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, one hundred cubits. <sup>41:15</sup>He measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at its back, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court; <sup>41:16</sup>the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries around on their three stories, over against the threshold, with wood ceilings all around, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered), <sup>41:17</sup>to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and outside, and by all the wall all around inside and outside, by measure. <sup>41:18</sup>It was made with cherubim and palm trees; and a palm tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces; <sup>41:19</sup>so that there was the face of a man toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side. thus was it made through all the house all around: <sup>41:20</sup>from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm trees made: thus was the wall of the temple. <sup>41:21</sup>As for the temple, the door posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple. <sup>41:22</sup>The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits; and its corners, and its length, and its walls, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before the LORD. <sup>41:23</sup>The temple and the sanctuary had two doors. <sup>41:24</sup>The doors had two leaves a piece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other. <sup>41:25</sup>There were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm trees, like as were made on the walls; and there was a threshold of wood on the face of the porch outside. <sup>41:26</sup>There were closed windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side rooms of the house, and the thresholds.

<sup>42:1</sup>Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the room that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north. <sup>42:2</sup>Before the length of one hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. <sup>42:3</sup>Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story. <sup>42:4</sup>Before the rooms was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north. <sup>42:5</sup>Now the upper rooms were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middle, in the building. <sup>42:6</sup>For they were in three stories, and they didn't have pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middle from the ground. <sup>42:7</sup>The wall that was outside by the side of the rooms, toward the outer court before the rooms, its length was fifty cubits. <sup>42:8</sup>For the length of the rooms that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and behold, before the temple were one hundred cubits. <sup>42:9</sup>From under these rooms was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court. <sup>42:10</sup>In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were rooms. <sup>42:11</sup>The way before them was like the appearance of the way of the rooms which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their exits were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. <sup>42:12</sup>According to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them. <sup>42:13</sup>Then he said to me, The north rooms and the south rooms, which are before the separate place, they are the holy rooms, where the priests who are near to the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. <sup>42:14</sup>When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people. <sup>42:15</sup>Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it all around. <sup>42:16</sup>He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed all around. <sup>42:17</sup>He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed all around. <sup>42:18</sup>He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>42:19</sup>He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. <sup>42:20</sup>He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall around it, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.

measure the pattern. <sup>43:11</sup>If they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and its fashion, and its exits, and its entrances, and all its forms, and all its ordinances, and all its forms, and all its laws; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form of it, and all its ordinances, and do them. <sup>43:12</sup>This is the law of the house: on the top of the mountain the whole limit around it shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. <sup>43:13</sup>These are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and its border around its edge a span; and this shall be the base of the altar. <sup>43:14</sup>From the bottom on the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit. <sup>43:15</sup>The upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns. <sup>43:16</sup>The altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides of it. <sup>43:17</sup>The ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides of it; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and its bottom shall be a cubit around; and its steps shall look toward the east. <sup>43:18</sup>He said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord GOD: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. <sup>43:19</sup>You shall give to the priests the Levites who are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord GOD, a young bull for a sin offering. <sup>43:20</sup>You shall take of its blood, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and on the border all around: thus you shall cleanse it and make atonement for it. <sup>43:21</sup>You shall also take the bull of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, outside of the sanctuary. <sup>43:22</sup>On the second day you shall offer a male goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull. <sup>43:23</sup>When you have finished cleansing it, you shall offer a young bull without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. <sup>43:24</sup>You shall bring them near to the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt on them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>43:25</sup>Seven days you shall prepare every day a goat for a sin offering; they shall also prepare a young bull, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. <sup>43:26</sup>Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it. <sup>43:27</sup>When they have accomplished the days, it shall be that on the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings on the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord GOD.

<sup>44:1</sup>Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut. <sup>44:2</sup>The LORD said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for the LORD, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut. <sup>44:3</sup>As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same. <sup>44:4</sup>Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and I fell on my face. <sup>44:5</sup>The LORD said to me, Son of man, mark well, and see with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I tell you concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all its laws; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every exit of the sanctuary. <sup>44:6</sup>You shall tell the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord GOD: you house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations, <sup>44:7</sup>in that you have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when you offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations. <sup>44:8</sup>You have not performed the duty of my holy things; but you have set performers of my duty in my sanctuary for yourselves. <sup>44:9</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners who are among the children of Israel. <sup>44:10</sup>But the Levites who went far from me, when Israel went astray, who went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>44:11</sup>Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall kill the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them. <sup>44:12</sup>Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumbling block of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. <sup>44:13</sup>They shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. <sup>44:14</sup>Yet will I make them performers of the duty of the house, for all its service, and for all that shall be done therein. <sup>44:15</sup>But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, who performed the duty of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord GOD: <sup>44:16</sup>they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my instruction. <sup>44:17</sup>It shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come on them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. <sup>44:18</sup>They shall have linen tires on their heads, and shall have linen breeches on their waists; they shall not clothe themselves with anything that causes sweat. <sup>44:19</sup>When they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy rooms; and they shall put on other garments, that they not sanctify the people with their garments. <sup>44:20</sup>Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads. <sup>44:21</sup>Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. <sup>44:22</sup>Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her who is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow who is the widow of a priest. <sup>44:23</sup>They shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. <sup>44:24</sup>In a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall make my Sabbaths holy. <sup>44:25</sup>They shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister who has had no husband, they may defile themselves. <sup>44:26</sup>After he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days. <sup>44:27</sup>In the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord GOD. <sup>44:28</sup>They shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and you shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession. <sup>44:29</sup>They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs. <sup>44:30</sup>The first of all the first fruits of every thing, and every offering of everything, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: you shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house. <sup>44:31</sup>The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or animal.

<sup>45:1</sup>Moreover, when you shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, you shall offer an offering to the LORD, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of twenty-five thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all its border all around. <sup>45:2</sup>Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square all around; and fifty cubits for its suburbs all around. <sup>45:3</sup>Of this measure you shall measure a length of twenty-five thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy. <sup>45:4</sup>It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, who come near to minister to the LORD; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary. <sup>45:5</sup>Twenty-five thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, forty rooms. <sup>45:6</sup>You shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and twenty-five thousand long, side by side with the offering of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. <sup>45:7</sup>Whatever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy offering and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy offering and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border. <sup>45:8</sup>In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes. <sup>45:9</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: Let it suffice you, princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; dispossessing my people, says the Lord GOD. <sup>45:10</sup>You shall have just balances, and a just ephah,<sup>p</sup> and a just bath. <sup>45:11</sup>The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer<sup>q</sup>, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: its measure shall be after the homer. <sup>45:12</sup>The shekel shall be twenty gerahs. Twenty shekels plus twenty-five shekels plus fifteen shekels shall be your mina. <sup>45:13</sup>This is the offering that you shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and you shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley; <sup>45:14</sup>and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which isten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;) <sup>45:15</sup>and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel—for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord GOD. <sup>45:16</sup>All the people of the land shall give to this offering for the prince in Israel. <sup>45:17</sup>It shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the Sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel. <sup>45:18</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bull without blemish; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary. <sup>45:19</sup>The priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it on the door posts of the house, and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner court. <sup>45:20</sup>So you shall do on the seventh day of the month for everyone who errs, and for him who is simple: so you shall make atonement for the house. <sup>45:21</sup>In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, you shall have the Passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. <sup>45:22</sup>On that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering. <sup>45:23</sup>The seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bulls and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a male goat daily for a sin offering. <sup>45:24</sup>He shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bull, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah. <sup>45:25</sup>In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.

people of the land shall come before the LORD in the appointed feasts, he who enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he who enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate by which he came in, but shall go forth straight before him. <sup>46:10</sup>The prince, when they go in, shall go in with of them; and when they go out, he shall go out. <sup>46:11</sup>In the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an eph<sup>f</sup> for a bull, and an eph for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an eph. <sup>46:12</sup>When the prince shall prepare a freewill offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill offering to the LORD, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the Sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate. <sup>46:13</sup>You shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to the LORD daily: morning by morning you shall prepare it. <sup>46:14</sup>You shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an eph, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to the LORD continually by a perpetual ordinance. <sup>46:15</sup>Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering. <sup>46:16</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance. <sup>46:17</sup>But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons. <sup>46:18</sup>Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people not be scattered every man from his possession. <sup>46:19</sup>Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy rooms for the priests, which looked toward the north: and behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward. <sup>46:20</sup>He said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they not bring them forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people. <sup>46:21</sup>Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and behold, in every corner of the court there was a court. <sup>46:22</sup>In the four corners of the court there were courts enclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure. <sup>46:23</sup>There was a wall around in them, around the four, and boiling places were made under the walls all around. <sup>46:24</sup>Then he said to me, These are the boiling houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters have come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes. <sup>47:10</sup>It shall happen, that fishermen shall stand by it: from En Gedi even to En Eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. <sup>47:11</sup>But the miry places of it, and its marshes, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt. <sup>47:12</sup>By the river on its bank, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not wither, neither shall its fruit fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because its waters issue out of the sanctuary; and its fruit shall be for food, and its leaf for healing. <sup>47:13</sup>Thus says the Lord GOD: This shall be the border, by which you shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. <sup>47:14</sup>You shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance. <sup>47:15</sup>This shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad; <sup>47:16</sup>Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer Hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran. <sup>47:17</sup>The border from the sea, shall be Hazer Enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side. <sup>47:18</sup>The east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and Eretz-Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea you shall measure. This is the east side. <sup>47:19</sup>The south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth Kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea. This is the south side southward. <sup>47:20</sup>The west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side. <sup>47:21</sup>So you shall divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel. <sup>47:22</sup>It shall happen, that you shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the aliens who live among you, who shall father children among you; and they shall be to you as the native-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel. <sup>47:23</sup>It shall happen, that in what tribe

the stranger lives, there you shall give him his inheritance, says the Lord GOD.

measures: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. <sup>48:17</sup> The city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred fifty, and toward the south two hundred fifty, and toward the east two hundred fifty, and toward the west two hundred fifty. <sup>48:18</sup> The remainder in the length, answerable to the holy offering, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy offering; and its increase shall be for food to those who labor in the city. <sup>48:19</sup> Those who labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall cultivate it. <sup>48:20</sup> All the offering shall be twenty-five thousand by twenty-five thousand: you shall offer the holy offering foursquare, with the possession of the city. <sup>48:21</sup> The residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy offering and of the possession of the city; in front of the twenty-five thousand of the offering toward the east border, and westward in front of the twenty-five thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy offering and the sanctuary of the house shall be in its midst. <sup>48:22</sup> Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince. <sup>48:23</sup> As for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion. <sup>48:24</sup> By the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion. <sup>48:25</sup> By the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion. <sup>48:26</sup> By the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion. <sup>48:27</sup> By the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion. <sup>48:28</sup> By the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath Kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea. <sup>48:29</sup> This is the land which you shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord GOD. <sup>48:30</sup> These are the exits of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure; <sup>48:31</sup> and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one. <sup>48:32</sup> At the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one. <sup>48:33</sup> At the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one. <sup>48:34</sup> At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one. <sup>48:35</sup> It shall be eighteen thousand reeds around: and the name of the city from that day shall be, the LORD is there.

Hosea

<sup>1:4</sup>The LORD said to him, “Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel on the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease. <sup>1:5</sup>It will happen in that day that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.”

Then he said to him, “Call her name Lo-Ruhamah<sup>b</sup>; for I will no longer have mercy on the house of Israel, that I should in any way pardon them. <sup>1:7</sup>But I will have mercy on the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God<sup>c</sup>, and will not save them by bow, sword, battle, horses, or horsemen.”

<sup>1:9</sup>He said, “Call his name Lo-Ammi<sup>d</sup>; for you are not my people, and I will not be yours. <sup>1:10</sup>Yet the number of the children of Israel will be as the sand of the sea, which can’t be measured nor numbered; and it will come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not my people,’ they will be called ‘sons of the living God.’ <sup>1:11</sup>The children of Judah and the children of Israel will be gathered together, and they will appoint themselves one head, and will go up from the land; for great will be the day of Jezreel.

and to your sisters, ‘My loved one!’<sup>f</sup>

Contend, for she is not my wife,

neither am I her husband;
and let her put away her prostitution from her face,
and her adulteries from between her breasts;

and make her bare as in the day that she was born,
and make her like a wilderness,
and set her like a dry land,
and kill her with thirst.

<sup>2:4</sup>Indeed, on her children I will have no mercy;
for they are children of unfaithfulness;

She who conceived them has done shamefully;

for she said, ‘I will go after my lovers,
who give me my bread and my water,
my wool and my flax,
my oil and my drink.’

<sup>2:6</sup>Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns,
and I will build a wall against her,
that she can’t find her way.

<sup>2:7</sup>She will follow after her lovers, but she won’t overtake them;
and she will seek them,
but won’t find them.

Then she will say, ‘I will go and return to my first husband;

for then was it better with me than now.’

<sup>2:8</sup>For she did not know that I gave her the grain, the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold,
which they used for Baal.

<sup>2:9</sup>Therefore I will take back my grain in its time, and my new wine in its season,
and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.

<sup>2:10</sup>Now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one will deliver her out of my hand.

<sup>a</sup>1:1 “LORD” or “GOD” (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

her feasts, her new moons, her Sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.
2:12 I will lay waste her vines and her fig trees, about which she has said, "These are my wages that my lovers have given me;
and I will make them a forest,"
and the animals of the field shall eat them.
2:13 I will visit on her the days of the Baals, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels,
and went after her lovers,
and forgot me," says the LORD.
2:14 "Therefore, behold, I will allure her,
and bring her into the wilderness,
and speak tenderly to her.
2:15 I will give her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope;
and she will respond there,
as in the days of her youth,
and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
2:16 It will be in that day," says the LORD,
"that you will call me 'my husband,' and no longer call me 'my master.'
2:17 For I will take away the names of the Baals out of her mouth,
and they will no longer be mentioned by
name.
2:18 In that day I will make a covenant for them with the animals of the field, and with the birds of the sky, and with the creeping things of the ground.
I will break the bow, the sword, and the battle
out of the land,
and will make them lie down safely.
2:19 I will betroth you to me forever.
Yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, in justice, in loving kindness, and in compassion.
2:20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness;
and you shall know the LORD.
2:21 It will happen in that day, I will respond,"
says the LORD,
"I will respond to the heavens,
and they will respond to the earth;
2:22 and the earth will respond to the grain, and the new wine, and the oil;
and they will respond to Jezreel.

<sup>83:2</sup> 1 homer is about 220 litres or 6 bushels

2:23 I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy on her who had not obtained mercy;
and I will tell those who were not my people, "You are my people," and they will say, "My God!"
3:1 The LORD said to me, "Go again, love a woman loved by another, and an adulteress, even as the LORD loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins."
3:2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver and a homer<sup>8</sup> and a half of barley. 3:3 I said to her, "You shall stay with me many days. You shall not play the prostitute, and you shall not be with any other man. I will also be so toward you."
3:4 For the children of Israel shall live many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without sacred stone, and without ephod or idols. 3:5 Afterward the children of Israel shall return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king, and shall come with trembling to the LORD and to his blessings in the last days.
4:1 Hear the word of the LORD, you children of Israel;
for the LORD has a charge against the inhabitants of the land:
"Indeed there is no truth,
nor goodness,
nor knowledge of God in the land.
4:2 There is cursing, lying, murder, stealing, and committing adultery;
they break boundaries, and bloodshed causes bloodshed.
4:3 Therefore the land will mourn, and everyone who dwells therein will waste away.
all living things in her,
even the animals of the field and the birds of the sky;
yes, the fish of the sea also die.
4:4 "Yet let no man bring a charge, neither let any man accuse; For your people are like those who bring charges against a priest.
4:5 You will stumble in the day, and the prophet will also stumble with you in the night;
and I will destroy your mother.

4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge.
 Because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you,
 that you may be no priest to me.
 Because you have forgotten your God's law,
 I will also forget your children.
 4:7 As they were multiplied, so they sinned
 against me.
 I will change their glory into shame.
 4:8 They feed on the sin of my people,
 and set their heart on their iniquity.
 4:9 It will be, like people, like priest;
 and I will punish them for their ways,
 and will repay them for their deeds.
 4:10 They will eat, and not have enough.
 They will play the prostitute, and will not increase;
 because they have abandoned giving to
 the LORD.
 4:11 Prostitution, wine, and new wine take away understanding.
 4:12 My people consult with their wooden idol,
 and answer to a stick of wood.
 Indeed the spirit of prostitution has led them
 astray,
 and they have been unfaithful to their
 God.
 4:13 They sacrifice on the tops of the mountains, and burn incense on the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because its shade is good.
 Therefore your daughters play the prostitute,
 and your brides commit adultery.
 4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the prostitute, nor your brides when they commit adultery;
 because the men consort with prostitutes, and they sacrifice with the shrine prosti-tutes;
 so the people without understanding will come to ruin.
 4:15 "Though you, Israel, play the prostitute, yet don't let Judah offend;
 and don't come to Gilgal, neither go up to Beth Aven,
 nor swear, 'As the LORD lives.'
 4:16 For Israel has behaved extremely stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer.

<sup>h</sup>5:8 or, trumpet

Then how will the LORD feed them like a lamb in a meadow.
 4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols.
 Leave him alone!
 4:18 Their drink has become sour.
 They play the prostitute continually.
 Her rulers dearly love their shameful way.
 4:19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings;
 and they shall be disappointed because of their sacrifices.
 5:1 "Listen to this, you priests!
 Listen, house of Israel,
 and give ear, house of the king!
 For the judgment is against you;
 for you have been a snare at Mizpah,
 and a net spread on Tabor.
 5:2 The rebels are deep in slaughter;
 but I discipline all of them.
 5:3 I know Ephraim,
 and Israel is not hidden from me;
 for now, Ephraim, you have played the prostitute.
 Israel is defiled.
 5:4 Their deeds won't allow them to turn to their
 God;
 for the spirit of prostitution is within
 them,
 and they don't know the LORD.
 5:5 The pride of Israel testifies to his face.
 Therefore Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their iniquity.
 Judah also will stumble with them.
 5:6 They will go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD;
 but they won't find him.
 He has withdrawn himself from them.
 5:7 They are unfaithful to the LORD;
 for they have borne illegitimate children.
 Now the new moon will devour them with their fields.
 5:8 "Blow the cornet in Gibeah, and the shofar<sup>h</sup> in Ramah!
 Sound a battle cry at Beth Aven, behind you, Benjamin!
 5:9 Ephraim will become a desolation in the day of rebuke.
 Among the tribes of Israel, I have made known that which will surely be.
 5:10 The princes of Judah are like those who remove a landmark.

I will pour out my wrath on them like water.

he is crushed in judgment;
Because he is intent in his pursuit of idols.

<sup>5:12</sup> Therefore I am to Ephraim like a moth, and to the house of Judah like rottenness.

and Judah his wound,
Then Ephraim went to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb:
but he is not able to heal you,
neither will he cure you of your wound.

<sup>5:14</sup> For I will be to Ephraim like a lion, and like a young lion to the house of Judah.
I myself will tear in pieces and go away.
I will carry off, and there will be no one to deliver.

<sup>5:15</sup> I will go and return to my place, until they acknowledge their offense,
and seek my face.
In their affliction they will seek me earnestly."

<sup>6:1</sup> "Come, and let us return to the LORD; for he has torn us to pieces,
and he will heal us;
he has injured us,
and he will bind up our wounds.

<sup>6:2</sup> After two days he will revive us.
On the third day he will raise us up,
and we will live before him.

<sup>6:3</sup> Let us acknowledge the LORD.
Let us press on to know the LORD.
As surely as the sun rises,
The LORD will appear.
He will come to us like the rain,
like the spring rain that waters the earth."

<sup>6:4</sup> "Ephraim, what shall I do to you?
Judah, what shall I do to you?
For your love is like a morning cloud, and like the dew that disappears early.

<sup>6:5</sup> Therefore I have cut them to pieces with the prophets;
I killed them with the words of my mouth.
Your judgments are like a flash of lightning.

and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.

They were unfaithful to me, there.

it is stained with blood.

<sup>6:9</sup> As gangs of robbers wait to ambush a man,
so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem, committing shameful crimes.

<sup>6:10</sup> In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing.
There is prostitution in Ephraim.
Israel is defiled.

<sup>6:11</sup> "Also, Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you,
when I restore the fortunes of my people.

<sup>7:1</sup> When I would heal Israel,
then the iniquity of Ephraim is uncovered,
also the wickedness of Samaria;
for they commit falsehood,
and the thief enters in,
and the gang of robbers ravages outside.

<sup>7:2</sup> They don't consider in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness.
Now their own deeds have engulfed them.
They are before my face.

and the princes with their lies.

They are burning like an oven that the baker stops stirring,
from the kneading of the dough, until it is leavened.

<sup>7:5</sup> On the day of our king, the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine.
He joined his hand with mockers.

<sup>7:6</sup> For they have prepared their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait.
Their baker sleeps all the night.
In the morning it burns as a flaming fire.

<sup>7:7</sup> They are all hot as an oven,
and devour their judges.
All their kings have fallen.
There is no one among them who calls to me.

<sup>7:8</sup> Ephraim, he mixes himself among the nations.
Ephraim is a pancake not turned over.

7:9 Strangers have devoured his strength,
and he doesn't realize it.
Indeed, gray hairs are here and there on him,
and he doesn't realize it.
7:10 The pride of Israel testifies to his face;
yet they haven't returned to the LORD
their God,
nor sought him, for all this.
7:11 "Ephraim is like an easily deceived dove, without understanding.
They call to Egypt.
They go to Assyria.
7:12 When they go, I will spread my net on them.
I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.
I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.
7:13 Woe to them!
For they have wandered from me.
Destruction to them!
For they have trespassed against me.
Though I would redeem them,
yet they have spoken lies against me.
7:14 They haven't cried to me with their heart,
but they howl on their beds.
They assemble themselves for grain and new wine.
They turn away from me.
7:15 Though I have taught and strengthened their arms,
yet they plot evil against me.
7:16 They return, but not to the Most High.
They are like a faulty bow.
Their princes will fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue.
This will be their derision in the land of Egypt.
8:1 "Put the shofar<sup>i</sup> to your lips!
Something like an eagle is over the LORD's house,
because they have broken my covenant,
and rebelled against my law.
8:2 They cry to me, 'My God, we Israel acknowledge you!'
8:3 Israel has cast off that which is good.
The enemy will pursue him.
8:4 They have set up kings, but not by me.
They have made princes, and I didn't approve.
Of their silver and their gold they have made themselves idols,

<sup>i</sup>8:1 or, trumpet

that they may be cut off.
8:5 Let Samaria throw out his calf idol!
My anger burns against them!
How long will it be until they are capable of purity?
8:6 For this is even from Israel!
The workman made it, and it is no God;
indeed, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.
8:7 For they sow the wind, and they will reap the whirlwind.
He has no standing grain.
The stalk will yield no head.
If it does yield, strangers will swallow it up.
8:8 Israel is swallowed up.
Now they are among the nations like a worthless thing.
8:9 For they have gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey wandering alone.
Ephraim has hired lovers for himself.
8:10 But although they sold themselves among the nations,
I will now gather them;
and they begin to waste away because of the oppression of the king of mighty ones.
8:11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning,
they became for him altars for sinning.
8:12 I wrote for him the many things of my law;
but they were regarded as a strange thing.
8:13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings,
they sacrifice flesh and eat it;
But the LORD doesn't accept them.
Now he will remember their iniquity,
and punish their sins.
They will return to Egypt.
8:14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker and built palaces;
and Judah has multiplied fortified cities;
but I will send a fire on his cities,
and it will devour its fortresses." 9:1 Don't rejoice, Israel, to jubilation like the nations;
for you were unfaithful to your God.
You love the wages of a prostitute at every grain threshing floor.
9:2 The threshing floor and the winepress won't feed them,
and the new wine will fail her.

- <sup>9:3</sup>They won't dwell in the LORD's land;
 but Ephraim will return to Egypt,
 and they will eat unclean food in Assyria.
- <sup>9:4</sup>They won't pour out wine offerings to the LORD,
 neither will they be pleasing to him.
 Their sacrifices will be to them like the bread of mourners;
 all who eat of it will be polluted;
 for their bread will be for their appetite.
 It will not come into the house of the
 LORD.
- <sup>9:5</sup>What will you do in the day of solemn assembly,
 and in the day of the feast of the LORD?
- <sup>9:6</sup>For, behold, they have gone away from destruction.
 Egypt will gather them up.
 Memphis will bury them.
 Nettles will possess their pleasant things of silver.
 Thorns will be in their tents.
- <sup>9:7</sup>The days of visitation have come.
 The days of reckoning have come.
 Israel will consider the prophet to be a fool,
 and the man who is inspired to be insane,
 because of the abundance of your sins,
 and because your hostility is great.
- <sup>9:8</sup>A prophet watches over Ephraim with my God.
 A fowler's snare is on all of his paths,
 and hostility in the house of his God.
- <sup>9:9</sup>They have deeply corrupted themselves,
 as in the days of Gibeah.
 He will remember their iniquity.
 He will punish them for their sins.
- <sup>9:10</sup>I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness.
 I saw your fathers as the first ripe in the fig tree at its first season;
 but they came to Baal Peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing,
 and became abominable like that which they loved.
- <sup>9:11</sup>As for Ephraim, their glory will fly away like a bird.
 There will be no birth, none with child,
 and no conception.
- <sup>9:12</sup>Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left.
- Indeed, woe also to them when I depart from them!
- <sup>9:13</sup>I have seen Ephraim, like Tyre, planted in a pleasant place;
 but Ephraim will bring out his children to the murderer.
- <sup>9:14</sup>Give them—LORD what will you give?
 Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.
- <sup>9:15</sup>"All their wickedness is in Gilgal;
 for there I hated them.
 Because of the wickedness of their deeds
 I will drive them out of my house!
 I will love them no more.
 All their princes are rebels.
- <sup>9:16</sup>Ephraim is struck.
 Their root has dried up.
 They will bear no fruit.
 Even though they bring forth, yet I will kill the beloved ones of their womb."
- <sup>9:17</sup>My God will cast them away, because they did not listen to him;
 and they will be wanderers among the nations.
- <sup>10:1</sup>Israel is a luxuriant vine that puts forth his fruit.
 According to the abundance of his fruit
 he has multiplied his altars.
 As their land has prospered, they have adorned their sacred stones.
- <sup>10:2</sup>Their heart is divided.
 Now they will be found guilty.
 He will demolish their altars.
 He will destroy their sacred stones.
- <sup>10:3</sup>Surely now they will say, "We have no king;
 for we don't fear the LORD;
 and the king, what can he do for us?"
- <sup>10:4</sup>They make promises, swearing falsely in making covenants.
 Therefore judgment springs up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.
- <sup>10:5</sup>The inhabitants of Samaria will be in terror for the calves of Beth Aven;
 for its people will mourn over it,
 Along with its priests who rejoiced over
 it,
 for its glory, because it has departed from
 it.
- <sup>10:6</sup>It also will be carried to Assyria for a present to a great king.
 Ephraim will receive shame,

- and Israel will be ashamed of his own counsel.
- <sup>10:7</sup>Samaria and her king float away,
like a twig on the water.
- <sup>10:8</sup>The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, will be destroyed.
The thorn and the thistle will come up on their altars.
They will tell the mountains, "Cover us!"
and the hills, "Fall on us!"
- <sup>10:9</sup>"Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah.
There they remained.
The battle against the children of iniquity doesn't overtake them in Gibeah.
- <sup>10:10</sup>When it is my desire, I will chastise them;
and the nations will be gathered against them,
when they are bound to their two transgressions.
- <sup>10:11</sup>Ephraim is a trained heifer that loves to thresh;
so I will put a yoke on her beautiful neck.
I will set a rider on Ephraim.
Judah will plow.
Jacob will break his clods.
- <sup>10:12</sup>Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness.
Break up your fallow ground;
for it is time to seek the LORD,
until he comes and rains righteousness on you.
- <sup>10:13</sup>You have plowed wickedness.
You have reaped iniquity.
You have eaten the fruit of lies,
for you trusted in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men.
- <sup>10:14</sup>Therefore a battle roar will arise among your people,
and all your fortresses will be destroyed,
as Shalman destroyed Beth Arbel in the day of battle.
The mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
- <sup>10:15</sup>So Bethel will do to you because of your great wickedness.
At daybreak the king of Israel will be destroyed.
- <sup>11:1</sup>"When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.
- <sup>11:2</sup>They called to them, so they went from them.
They sacrificed to the Baals, and burned incense to engraved images.
- <sup>11:3</sup>Yet I taught Ephraim to walk.
I took them by his arms;
but they didn't know that I healed them.
- <sup>11:4</sup>I drew them with cords of a man, with ties of love;
and I was to them like those who lift up the yoke on their necks;
and I bent down to him and I fed him.
- <sup>11:5</sup>"They won't return into the land of Egypt;
but the Assyrian will be their king,
because they refused to repent.
- <sup>11:6</sup>The sword will fall on their cities, and will destroy the bars of their gates,
and will put an end to their plans.
- <sup>11:7</sup>My people are determined to turn from me.
Though they call to the Most High,
he certainly won't exalt them.
- <sup>11:8</sup>"How can I give you up, Ephraim?
How can I hand you over, Israel?
How can I make you like Admah?
How can I make you like Zeboiim?
My heart is turned within me,
my compassion is aroused.
- <sup>11:9</sup>I will not execute the fierceness of my anger.
I will not return to destroy Ephraim:
for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of you;
and I will not come in wrath.
- <sup>11:10</sup>They will walk after the LORD,
who will roar like a lion;
for he will roar, and the children will come trembling from the west.
- <sup>11:11</sup>They will come trembling like a bird out of Egypt, and like a dove out of the land of Assyria;
and I will settle them in their houses," says the LORD.
- <sup>11:12</sup>Ephraim surrounds me with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit.
Judah still strays from God,
and is unfaithful to the Holy One.
- <sup>12:1</sup>Ephraim feeds on wind,
and chases the east wind.
He continually multiplies lies and desolation.
They make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.
- <sup>12:2</sup>The LORD also has a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways;

 according to his deeds he will repay him.
<sup>12:3</sup>In the womb he took his brother by the heel;
 and in his manhood he contended with God.
<sup>12:4</sup>Indeed, he struggled with the angel, and prevailed;
 he wept, and made supplication to him.
 He found him at Bethel, and there he spoke with us, <sup>12:5</sup>even the LORD, the God of Hosts;
 The LORD is his name of renown!
<sup>12:6</sup>Therefore turn to your God.
 Keep kindness and justice,
 and wait continually for your God.
<sup>12:7</sup>A merchant has dishonest scales in his hand.
 He loves to defraud.
<sup>12:8</sup>Ephraim said, "Surely I have become rich,
 I have found myself wealth.
 In all my wealth they won't find in me any iniquity that is sin."
<sup>12:9</sup>"But I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt.
 I will yet again make you dwell in tents,
 as in the days of the solemn feast.
<sup>12:10</sup>I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions;
 and by the ministry of the prophets I have used parables.
<sup>12:11</sup>If Gilead is wicked, surely they are worthless.
 In Gilgal they sacrifice bulls.
 Indeed, their altars are like heaps in the furrows of the field.
<sup>12:12</sup>Jacob fled into the country of Aram, and Israel served to get a wife,
 and for a wife he tended flocks and herds.
<sup>12:13</sup>By a prophet the LORD brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet he was preserved.
<sup>12:14</sup>Ephraim has bitterly provoked anger.
 Therefore his blood will be left on him,
 and his Lord<sup>j</sup> will repay his contempt.
<sup>13:1</sup>When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling.
 He exalted himself in Israel,
 but when he became guilty in Baal, he died.
<sup>13:2</sup>Now they sin more and more,

and have made themselves molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding,
 all of them the work of the craftsmen.
 They say of them, 'They offer human sacrifice and kiss the calves.'
<sup>13:3</sup>Therefore they will be like the morning mist, and like the dew that passes away early,
 like the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing floor, and like the smoke out of the chimney.
<sup>13:4</sup>"Yet I am the LORD your God from the land of Egypt;
 and you shall acknowledge no god but me,
 and besides me there is no savior.
<sup>13:5</sup>I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.
<sup>13:6</sup>According to their pasture, so were they filled;
 they were filled, and their heart was exalted.
 Therefore they have forgotten me.
<sup>13:7</sup>Therefore I am like a lion to them.
 Like a leopard, I will lurk by the path.
<sup>13:8</sup>I will meet them like a bear that is bereaved of her cubs, and will tear the covering of their heart.
 There I will devour them like a lioness.
 The wild animal will tear them.
<sup>13:9</sup>You are destroyed, Israel, because you are against me, against your help.
<sup>13:10</sup>Where is your king now, that he may save you in all your cities?
 And your judges, of whom you said, 'Give me a king and princes?'
<sup>13:11</sup>I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath.
<sup>13:12</sup>The guilt of Ephraim is stored up.
 His sin is stored up.
<sup>13:13</sup>The sorrows of a travailing woman will come on him.
 He is an unwise son;
 for when it is time, he doesn't come to the opening of the womb.

I will redeem them from death!
 Death, where are your plagues?
 Sheol, where is your destruction?
 "Compassion will be hidden from my eyes.
<sup>13:15</sup>Though he is fruitful among his brothers, an east wind will come, the breath of the LORD coming up from the wilderness;
 and his spring will become dry,
 and his fountain will be dried up.
 He will plunder the storehouse of treasure.
<sup>13:16</sup>Samaria will bear her guilt;
 for she has rebelled against her God.
 They will fall by the sword.
 Their infants will be dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women will be ripped open."
<sup>14:1</sup>Israel, return to the LORD your God;
 for you have fallen because of your sin.
<sup>14:2</sup>Take words with you, and return to the
 LORD.
 Tell him, "Forgive all our sins,
 and accept that which is good:
 so we offer our lips like bulls.
<sup>14:3</sup>Assyria can't save us.
 We won't ride on horses;
 neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, 'Our gods!'
 for in you the fatherless finds mercy."
<sup>14:4</sup>"I will heal their waywardness.
 I will love them freely;
 for my anger is turned away from him.
<sup>14:5</sup>I will be like the dew to Israel.
 He will blossom like the lily,
 and send down his roots like Lebanon.
<sup>14:6</sup>His branches will spread,
 and his beauty will be like the olive tree,
 and his fragrance like Lebanon.
<sup>14:7</sup>Men will dwell in his shade.
 They will revive like the grain,
 and blossom like the vine.
 Their fragrance will be like the wine of Lebanon.
<sup>14:8</sup>Ephraim, what have I to do any more with idols?
 I answer, and will take care of him.
 I am like a green fir tree;
 from me your fruit is found."
<sup>14:9</sup>Who is wise, that he may understand these things?
 Who is prudent, that he may know them?

For the ways of the LORD are right, and the righteous walk in them;
 But the rebellious stumble in them.

Joel

And listen, all you inhabitants of the land.
Has this ever happened in your days,
or in the days of your fathers?

and have your children tell their children,
and their children, another generation.

What the great locust has left, the grasshopper has eaten.

What the grasshopper has left, the caterpillar has eaten.

Wail, all you drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine;
for it is cut off from your mouth.

<sup>1:6</sup>For a nation has come up on my land, strong, and without number.

His teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the fangs of a lioness.

<sup>1:7</sup>He has laid my vine waste, and stripped my fig tree.
He has stripped its bark, and thrown it away.
Its branches are made white.

The priests, the LORD's ministers, mourn.

The land mourns, for the grain is destroyed,

The new wine has dried up,
and the oil languishes.

Wail, you vineyard keepers;
for the wheat and for the barley;
for the harvest of the field has perished.

<sup>1:12</sup>The vine has dried up, and the fig tree withered;
the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also,
and the apple tree,

even all of the trees of the field are withered;

for joy has withered away from the sons of men.

Wail, you ministers of the altar.

Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you ministers of my God<sup>b</sup>, for the meal offering and the drink offering are withheld from your God's house.

Call a solemn assembly.

Gather the elders, and all the inhabitants of the land, to the house of the LORD, your God, and cry to the LORD.

For the day of the LORD is at hand,
and it will come as destruction from the Almighty.

joy and gladness from the house of our God?

The granaries are laid desolate.
The barns are broken down, for the grain has withered.

The herds of livestock are perplexed, because they have no pasture.

Yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.

<sup>1:19</sup>The LORD, I cry to you,
For the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.

for the water brooks have dried up,
And the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

and sound an alarm in my holy mountain!

Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD comes,
for it is close at hand:

<sup>2:2</sup>A day of darkness and gloominess,
a day of clouds and thick darkness.

As the dawn spreading on the mountains,
 a great and strong people;
 there has never been the like,
 neither will there be any more after them,
 even to the years of many generations.
<sup>2:3</sup>A fire devours before them,
 and behind them, a flame burns.
 The land is as the garden of Eden before them,
 and behind them, a desolate wilderness.
 Yes, and no one has escaped them.
<sup>2:4</sup>Their appearance is as the appearance of horses,
 and as horsemen, so do they run.
<sup>2:5</sup>Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble,
 as a strong people set in battle array.
<sup>2:6</sup>At their presence the peoples are in anguish.
 All faces have grown pale.
 They climb the wall like warriors.
 They each march in his line, and they don't swerve off course.
<sup>2:8</sup>Neither does one jostle another;
 they march everyone in his path,
 and they burst through the defenses,
 and don't break ranks.
<sup>2:9</sup>They rush on the city.
 They run on the wall.
 They climb up into the houses.
 They enter in at the windows like thieves.
<sup>2:10</sup>The earth quakes before them.
 The heavens tremble.
 The sun and the moon are darkened,
 and the stars withdraw their shining.
<sup>2:11</sup>The LORD thunders his voice before his army;
 for his forces are very great;
 for he is strong who obeys his command;
 for the day of the LORD is great and very awesome,
 and who can endure it?
<sup>2:12</sup>"Yet even now," says the LORD, "turn to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning."
<sup>2:13</sup>Tear your heart, and not your garments, and turn to the LORD, your God;
 for he is gracious and merciful,

<sup>d</sup>2:15 or, trumpet

slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness,
 and relents from sending calamity.
<sup>2:14</sup>Who knows? He may turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to the LORD, your God.
<sup>2:15</sup>Blow the shofar<sup>d</sup> in Zion!
 Sanctify a fast.
 Call a solemn assembly.
<sup>2:16</sup>Gather the people.
 Sanctify the assembly.
 Assemble the elders.
 Gather the children, and those who nurse from breasts.
 Let the bridegroom go forth from his room,
 and the bride out of her room.
<sup>2:17</sup>Let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar,
 and let them say, "Spare your people,
 LORD,
 and don't give your heritage to reproach,
 that the nations should rule over them.
 Why should they say among the peoples,
 'Where is their God?'"
<sup>2:18</sup>Then the LORD was jealous for his land,
 And had pity on his people.
<sup>2:19</sup>The LORD answered his people,
 "Behold, I will send you grain, new wine,
 and oil,
 and you will be satisfied with them;
 and I will no more make you a reproach
 among the nations.
<sup>2:20</sup>But I will remove the northern army far away from you,
 and will drive it into a barren and desolate land,
 its front into the eastern sea,
 and its back into the western sea;
 and its stench will come up,
 and its bad smell will rise."
 Surely he has done great things.
<sup>2:21</sup>Land, don't be afraid.
 Be glad and rejoice, for the LORD has done great things.
 for the pastures of the wilderness spring
 up,
 for the tree bears its fruit.
 The fig tree and the vine yield their strength.

- <sup>2:23</sup>“Be glad then, you children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD, your God;
for he gives you the former rain in just measure,
and he causes the rain to come down for
you,
the former rain and the latter rain,
as before.
- <sup>2:24</sup>The threshing floors will be full of wheat, and the vats will overflow with new wine
and oil.
- <sup>2:25</sup>I will restore to you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the great locust, the grasshopper, and the caterpillar,
my great army, which I sent among you.
- <sup>2:26</sup>You will have plenty to eat, and be satisfied, and will praise the name of the LORD,
your God,
who has dealt wondrously with you;
and my people will never again be disappointed.
- <sup>2:27</sup>You will know that I am in the midst of Israel,
and that I am the LORD, your God, and
there is no one else;
and my people will never again be disappointed.
- <sup>2:28</sup>“It will happen afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh;
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your old men will dream dreams.
Your young men will see visions.
- <sup>2:29</sup>And also on the servants and on the handmaids in those days,
I will pour out my Spirit.
- <sup>2:30</sup>I will show wonders in the heavens and in
the earth:
blood, fire, and pillars of smoke.
- <sup>2:31</sup>The sun will be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes.
- <sup>2:32</sup>It will happen that whoever will call on the name of the LORD shall be saved;
for in Mount Zion and in Jerusalem there will be those who escape,
as the LORD has said,
and among the remnant, those whom the LORD calls.
- <sup>3:1</sup>“For, behold, in those days,
and in that time,
when I restore the fortunes of Judah and Jerusalem,
<sup>3:2</sup>I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat;
and I will execute judgment on them
there for my people, and for my heritage, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations.
They have divided my land,
<sup>3:3</sup>and have cast lots for my people,
and have given a boy for a prostitute, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.
- <sup>3:4</sup>“Yes, and what are you to me, Tyre, and Sidon,
and all the regions of Philistia?
Will you repay me?
And if you repay me,
I will swiftly and speedily return your repayment on your own head.
- <sup>3:5</sup>Because you have taken my silver and my gold,
and have carried my finest treasures into your temples,
<sup>3:6</sup>and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Greeks, that you may remove them far from their border.
- <sup>3:7</sup>Behold, I will stir them up out of the place where you have sold them, and will return your repayment on your own head;
- <sup>3:8</sup>and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hands of the children of Judah, and they will sell them to the men of Sheba,
to a faraway nation,
for the LORD has spoken it.”
- <sup>3:9</sup>Proclaim this among the nations: “Prepare for war!
Stir up the mighty men.
Let all the warriors draw near.
Let them come up. <sup>3:10</sup>Beat your plowshares into swords,
and your pruning hooks into spears.
Let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’”
- <sup>3:11</sup>Hurry and come, all you surrounding nations,
and gather yourselves together.”

Cause your mighty ones to come down there,
LORD.

<sup>3:12</sup>“Let the nations arouse themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat;
for there will I sit to judge all the surrounding nations.

for the harvest is ripe.
Come, tread, for the winepress is full,
the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great.”

<sup>3:14</sup>Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision!
For the day of the LORD is near, in the valley of decision.

<sup>3:15</sup>The sun and the moon are darkened,
and the stars withdraw their shining.

<sup>3:16</sup>The LORD will roar from Zion, and thunder from Jerusalem;
and the heavens and the earth will shake;
but the LORD will be a refuge to his people,
and a stronghold to the children of Israel.

<sup>3:17</sup>“So you will know that I am the LORD, your God,
dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain.

Then Jerusalem will be holy,
and no strangers will pass through her any more.

<sup>3:18</sup>It will happen in that day, that the mountains will drop down sweet
wine,
the hills will flow with milk,
all the brooks of Judah will flow with waters,
and a fountain will come forth from the house of the LORD,
and will water the valley of Shittim.

<sup>3:19</sup>Egypt will be a desolation, and Edom will be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah,
because they have shed innocent blood in their land.

<sup>3:20</sup>But Judah will be inhabited forever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.

<sup>3:21</sup>I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed:
for the LORD dwells in Zion.”

Amos

<sup>1:1</sup>The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake. <sup>1:2</sup>He said:

“the LORD<sup>a</sup> will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem;
and the pastures of the shepherds will mourn,
and the top of Carmel will wither.”

“For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four,

I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron;

<sup>1:4</sup>but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it will devour the palaces of Ben Hadad.

<sup>1:5</sup>I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him who holds the scepter from the house of Eden;
and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir,”
says the LORD.

<sup>1:6</sup>Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they carried away captive the whole community,
to deliver them up to Edom;

<sup>1:7</sup>but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza,
and it will devour its palaces.

and him who holds the scepter from Ashkelon;

and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines will perish,”
says the Lord<sup>b</sup> the LORD.

<sup>1:9</sup>Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they delivered up the whole community to Edom,

and didn’t remember the brotherly covenant;

<sup>1:10</sup>but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre,

“For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because he pursued his brother with the sword,
and cast off all pity,
and his anger raged continually,
and he kept his wrath forever;

<sup>1:12</sup>but I will send a fire on Teman,
and it will devour the palaces of Bozrah.”

“For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have ripped open the pregnant women of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border.

and it will devour its palaces,
with shouting in the day of battle,
with a storm in the day of the whirlwind; <sup>1:15</sup>and their king will go into captivity, he and his princes together,”
says the LORD.

<sup>2:1</sup>Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime;

and it will devour the palaces of Kerioth;
and Moab will die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the shofar<sup>c</sup>;

<sup>2:3</sup>and I will cut off the judge from their midst,
and will kill all its princes with him,”
says the LORD.

<sup>2:4</sup>Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have rejected the LORD’s law,
and have not kept his statutes,
and their lies have led them astray,
after which their fathers walked;

and it will devour the palaces of

<sup>2:6</sup> Thus says the LORD:

“For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four,
I will not turn away its punishment;
because they have sold the righteous for silver,
and the needy for a pair of shoes;

<sup>2:7</sup> They trample on the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and deny justice to the oppressed;
and a man and his father use the same maiden, to profane my holy name;

<sup>2:8</sup> and they lay themselves down beside every altar on clothes taken in pledge;
and in the house of their God<sup>d</sup> they drink
the wine of those who have been fined.

<sup>2:9</sup> Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars,
and he was strong as the oaks;
yet I destroyed his fruit from above,
and his roots from beneath.

<sup>2:10</sup> Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt,
and led you forty years in the wilderness,
to possess the land of the Amorite.

<sup>2:11</sup> I raised up some of your sons for prophets, and some of your young men for Nazirites.

Isn't this true,
you children of Israel?” says the LORD.

<sup>2:12</sup> “But you gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying,
‘Don't prophesy!’

<sup>2:13</sup> Behold, I will crush you in your place,
as a cart crushes that is full of grain.

and the strong won't strengthen his force;
neither shall the mighty deliver himself;

<sup>2:15</sup> neither shall he stand who handles the bow;

and he who is swift of foot won't escape;
neither shall he who rides the horse deliver himself;

<sup>2:16</sup> and he who is courageous among the mighty will flee away naked on that day,”
says the LORD.

<sup>3:1</sup> Hear this word that the LORD has spoken against you, children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying:

<sup>3:2</sup> “You only have I chosen of all the families of
the earth.
Therefore I will punish you for all of your sins.”

unless they have agreed?

<sup>3:4</sup> Will a lion roar in the thicket, when he has no prey?

Does a young lion cry out of his den,
if he has caught nothing?

<sup>3:5</sup> Can a bird fall in a trap on the earth,
where no snare is set for him?

Does a snare spring up from the ground,
when there is nothing to catch?

without the people being afraid?

Does evil happen to a city,
and the LORD hasn't done it?

<sup>3:7</sup> Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, unless he reveals his secret to his servants
the prophets.

<sup>3:8</sup> The lion has roared.

Who will not fear?

The Lord GOD has spoken.

Who can but prophesy?

and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, “Assemble yourselves on the mountains of Samaria, and see what unrest is in her,

and what oppression is among them.”

<sup>3:10</sup> “Indeed they don't know to do right,” says
the LORD,
“Who hoard plunder and loot in their palaces.”

<sup>3:11</sup> Therefore thus says the Lord GOD:

“An adversary will overrun the land;
and he will pull down your strongholds,
and your fortresses will be plundered.”

<sup>3:12</sup> Thus says the LORD:

“As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs,
or a piece of an ear,
so shall the children of Israel be rescued who sit in Samaria on the corner of a couch,

- and on the silken cushions of a bed.”
- <sup>3:13</sup>“Listen, and testify against the house of Jacob,” says the Lord GOD, the God of Hosts.
- <sup>3:14</sup>“For in the day that I visit the transgressions of Israel on him,
I will also visit the altars of Bethel;
and the horns of the altar will be cut off,
and fall to the ground.
- <sup>3:15</sup>I will strike the winter house with the summer house;
and the houses of ivory will perish,
and the great houses will have an end,”
says the LORD.
- <sup>4:1</sup>Listen to this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Samaria, who oppress the poor, who crush the needy, who tell their husbands, “Bring us drinks!”
- <sup>4:2</sup>The Lord GOD has sworn by his holiness that behold, “The days shall come on you that they will take you away with hooks, and the last of you with fish hooks.
- <sup>4:3</sup>You will go out at the breaks in the wall, everyone straight before her;
and you will cast yourselves into Harmon,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:4</sup>“Go to Bethel, and sin;
to Gilgal, and sin more.
Bring your sacrifices every morning,
your tithes every three days, <sup>4:5</sup>offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim free will offerings and brag about them:
for this pleases you, you children of Israel,” says the Lord GOD.
- <sup>4:6</sup>“I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in every town;
yet you haven’t returned to me,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:7</sup>“I also have withheld the rain from you,
when there were yet three months to the harvest;
and I caused it to rain on one city,
and caused it not to rain on another city.
One place was rained on,
and the piece where it didn’t rain withered.
- <sup>4:8</sup>So two or three cities staggered to one city to drink water,
and were not satisfied:
yet you haven’t returned to me,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:9</sup>“I struck you with blight and mildew many times in your gardens and your vineyards;
and your fig trees and your olive trees have the swarming locust devoured:
yet you haven’t returned to me,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:10</sup>“I sent plagues among you like I did Egypt.
I have slain your young men with the sword,
and have carried away your horses;
and I filled your nostrils with the stench of your camp,
yet you haven’t returned to me,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:11</sup>“I have overthrown some of you,
as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and you were like a burning stick plucked out of the fire;
yet you haven’t returned to me,” says the LORD.
- <sup>4:12</sup>“Therefore thus will I do to you, Israel;
because I will do this to you,
prepare to meet your God, Israel.
- <sup>4:13</sup>For, behold, he who forms the mountains, and creates the wind,
and declares to man what is his thought;
who makes the morning darkness,
and treads on the high places of the earth:
The LORD, the God of Hosts, is his name.”
- <sup>5:1</sup>Listen to this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.
- <sup>5:2</sup>“The virgin of Israel has fallen;
She shall rise no more.
She is cast down on her land;
there is no one to raise her up.”
- <sup>5:3</sup>For thus says the Lord GOD:
“The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth one hundred shall have ten left to the house of Israel.”
- <sup>5:4</sup>For thus says the LORD to the house of Israel: “Seek me, and you will live;
<sup>5:5</sup>but don’t seek Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal,
and don’t pass to Beersheba:

for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity,
and Bethel shall come to nothing.
5:6 Seek the LORD, and you will live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph,
and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Bethel.
5:7 You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth:
5:8 seek him who made the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning,
and makes the day dark with night;
who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth, the LORD is his name, 5:9 who brings sudden destruction on the strong,
so that destruction comes on the fortress.
5:10 They hate him who reproves in the gate, and they abhor him who speaks blame-
lessly.
5:11 Forasmuch therefore as you trample on the poor,
and take taxes from him of wheat:
You have built houses of cut stone,
but you will not dwell in them.
You have planted pleasant vineyards,
but you shall not drink their wine.
5:12 For I know how many your offenses, and how great are your sins—
you who afflict the just,
who take a bribe,
and who turn aside the needy in the courts.
5:13 Therefore a prudent person keeps silent in such a time,
for it is an evil time.
5:14 Seek good, and not evil,
that you may live;
and so the LORD, the God of Hosts, will be with you,
as you say.
5:15 Hate evil, love good,
and establish justice in the courts.
It may be that the LORD, the God of Hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.”
5:16 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Hosts, the Lord:
“Wailing will be in all the broad ways;

and they will say in all the streets, ‘Alas!
Alas!’
and they will call the farmer to mourning, and those who are skillful in lamentation to wailing.
5:17 In all vineyards there will be wailing;
for I will pass through the midst of you,”
says the LORD.
5:18 “Woe to you who desire the day of the
LORD!
Why do you long for the day of the
LORD?
It is darkness,
and not light.
5:19 As if a man fled from a lion,
and a bear met him;
Or he went into the house and leaned his hand
on the wall,
and a snake bit him.
5:20 Won’t the day of the LORD be darkness,
and not light?
Even very dark, and no brightness in it?
5:21 I hate, I despise your feasts,
and I can’t stand your solemn assemblies.
5:22 Yes, though you offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings,
I will not accept them;
neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat animals.
5:23 Take away from me the noise of your songs!
I will not listen to the music of your harps.
5:24 But let justice roll on like rivers,
and righteousness like a mighty stream.
5:25 “Did you bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, house of Israel? 5:26 You also carried the tent of your king and the shrine of your images, the star of your god, which you made for yourselves.
5:27 Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus,” says the LORD, whose name is the God of Hosts.
6:1 Woe to those who are at ease in Zion, and to those who are secure on the mountain of Samaria,
the notable men of the chief of the nations,
to whom the house of Israel come!
6:2 Go to Calneh, and see;
and from there go to Hamath the great;
then go down to Gath of the Philistines.
are they better than these kingdoms?

or is their border greater than your border?
<sup>6:3</sup>Those who put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;
<sup>6:4</sup>Who lie on beds of ivory,
 and stretch themselves on their couches,
 and eat the lambs out of the flock,
 and the calves out of the midst of the stall;
<sup>6:5</sup>who strum on the strings of a harp;
 who invent for themselves instruments of music,
 like David;
<sup>6:6</sup>who drink wine in bowls,
 and anoint themselves with the best oils;
 but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
<sup>6:7</sup>Therefore they will now go captive with the first who go captive;
 and the feasting and lounging will end.
<sup>6:8</sup>"The Lord GOD has sworn by himself," says the LORD, the God of Hosts:
 "I abhor the pride of Jacob,
 and detest his fortresses.
 Therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is in it.
<sup>6:9</sup>It will happen, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
<sup>6:10</sup>"When a man's relative carries him, even he who burns him, to bring bodies out of the house, and asks him who is in the innermost parts of the house, 'Is there yet any with you?'
 And he says, 'No;' then he will say, 'Hush! Indeed we must not mention the name of the LORD.'
<sup>6:11</sup>"For, behold, the LORD commands, and the great house will be smashed to pieces, and the little house into bits.
<sup>6:12</sup>Do horses run on the rocky crags?
 Does one plow there with oxen?
 But you have turned justice into poison,
 and the fruit of righteousness into bitterness; <sup>6:13</sup>you who rejoice in a thing of nothing, who say,
 'Haven't we taken for ourselves horns by our own strength?'
<sup>6:14</sup>For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, house of Israel," says the LORD, the God of Hosts;

"and they will afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah."

<sup>7:1</sup>Thus the Lord GOD showed me: and behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and behold, it was the latter growth after the king's harvest. <sup>7:2</sup>It happened that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, "Lord GOD, forgive, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

<sup>7:4</sup>Thus the Lord GOD showed me and behold, the Lord GOD called for judgment by fire; and it dried up the great deep, and would have devoured the land. <sup>7:5</sup>Then I said, "Lord GOD, stop, I beg you! How could Jacob stand? For he is small."

<sup>7:7</sup>Thus he showed me and behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb line, with a plumb line in his hand. <sup>7:8</sup>The LORD said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A plumb line."

Then the Lord said, "Behold, I will set a plumb line in the midst of my people Israel. I will not again pass by them any more. <sup>7:9</sup>The high places of Isaac will be desolate, the sanctuaries of Israel will be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword."

<sup>7:10</sup>Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, "Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel. The land is not able to bear all his words. <sup>7:11</sup>For Amos says, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

<sup>7:12</sup>Amaziah also said to Amos, "You seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: <sup>7:13</sup>but don't prophesy again any more at Bethel; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house!"

<sup>7:14</sup>Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a farmer of sycamore figs; <sup>7:15</sup>and the LORD took me from following the flock, and the LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' <sup>7:16</sup>Now therefore listen to the word of the LORD: 'You say, Don't prophesy against Israel, and don't proclaim against the house of Isaac.' <sup>7:17</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: 'Your wife shall be a prostitute in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.'"

I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me,

"The end has come on my people Israel.

I will not again pass by them any more.

<sup>8:3</sup>The songs of the temple will be wailings in that day," says the Lord GOD.

"The dead bodies will be many. In every place they will throw them out with silence.

<sup>8:4</sup>Hear this, you who desire to swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,

<sup>8:5</sup>Saying, 'When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain?

And the Sabbath, that we may market wheat, making the ephah<sup>f</sup> small, and the shekel large,

and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;

<sup>8:6</sup>that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the sweepings with the wheat?"

<sup>8:8</sup>Won't the land tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it?

Yes, it will rise up wholly like the River; and it will be stirred up and sink again, like the River of Egypt.

<sup>8:9</sup>It will happen in that day," says the Lord GOD,

"that I will cause the sun to go down at noon,

and I will darken the earth in the clear day.

<sup>8:10</sup>I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation;

<sup>f</sup>8:5 1 ephah is about 22 litres or about 2/3 of a bushel

and I will make you wear sackcloth on all your bodies, and baldness on every head.

I will make it like the mourning for an only son, and its end like a bitter day.

<sup>8:11</sup>Behold, the days come," says the Lord GOD,

"that I will send a famine in the land,

not a famine of bread,

nor a thirst for water,

but of hearing the words of the LORD.

<sup>8:12</sup>They will wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east;

they will run back and forth to seek the word of the LORD, and will not find it.

<sup>8:13</sup>In that day the beautiful virgins and the young men will faint for thirst.

<sup>8:14</sup>Those who swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, 'As your god, Dan, lives;'

and, 'As the way of Beersheba lives;'

they will fall, and never rise up again."

<sup>9:1</sup>I saw the Lord standing beside the altar, and he said, "Strike the tops of the pillars, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will kill the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape. <sup>9:2</sup>Though they dig into Sheol<sup>g</sup>, there my hand will take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down. <sup>9:3</sup>Though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hidden from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it will bite them.

<sup>9:4</sup>Though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it will kill them. I will set my eyes on them for evil, and not for good. <sup>9:5</sup>For the Lord, the LORD of Hosts, is he who touches the land and it melts, and all who dwell in it will mourn; and it will rise up wholly like the River, and will sink again, like the River of Egypt. <sup>9:6</sup>It is he who builds his rooms in the heavens, and has founded his vault on the earth; he who calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the surface of the earth; the LORD is his name. <sup>9:7</sup>Are you not like the children of the Ethiopians to me, children of Israel?" says the LORD. "Haven't I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Capthor, and the Syrians from Kir? <sup>9:8</sup>Behold, the eyes of the Lord GOD are on the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the surface of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob," says the LORD. <sup>9:9</sup>"For, behold, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet not the least kernel will fall on the earth. <sup>9:10</sup>All the sinners of my people will die by the sword, who say, 'Evil won't overtake nor meet us.' <sup>9:11</sup>In that day I will raise up the tent of David who is fallen, and close up its breaches, and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old; <sup>9:12</sup>that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations who are called by my name," says the LORD who does this.

<sup>9:13</sup>"Behold, the days come," says the LORD,
 "that the plowman shall overtake the reaper,
 and the one treading grapes him who sows seed;
 and sweet wine will drip from the mountains,
 and flow from the hills.

<sup>9:14</sup>I will bring my people Israel back from captivity, and they will rebuild the ruined cities,
 and inhabit them;
 and they will plant vineyards, and drink wine from them.

They shall also make gardens,
 and eat their fruit.

<sup>9:15</sup>I will plant them on their land, and they will no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them," says the LORD your God.

Obadiah

<sup>8</sup>"Won't I in that day," says the LORD, "destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mountain of Esau? <sup>9</sup>Your mighty men, Teman, will be dismayed, to the end that everyone may be cut off from the mountain of Esau by slaughter. <sup>10</sup>For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame will cover you, and you will be cut off forever. <sup>11</sup>In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots for Jerusalem, even you were like one of them. <sup>12</sup>But don't look down on your brother in the day of his disaster, and don't rejoice over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction. Don't speak proudly in the day of distress. <sup>13</sup>Don't enter into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity. Don't look down on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither seize their wealth on the day of their calamity. <sup>14</sup>Don't stand in the crossroads to cut off those of his who escape. Don't deliver up those of his who remain in the day of distress. <sup>15</sup>For the day of the LORD is near all the nations! As you have done, it will be done to you. Your deeds will return upon your own head. <sup>16</sup>For as you have drunk on my holy mountain, so will all the nations drink continually. Yes, they will drink, swallow down, and will be as though they had not been. <sup>17</sup>But in Mount Zion, there will be those who escape, and it will be holy. The house of Jacob will possess their possessions. <sup>18</sup>The house of Jacob will be a fire, the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble. They will burn among them, and devour them. There will not be any remaining to the house of Esau." Indeed, the LORD has spoken.

<sup>19</sup>Those of the South will possess the mountain of Esau, and those of the lowland, the Philistines. They will possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria. Benjamin will possess Gilead. <sup>20</sup>The captives of this army of the children of Israel, who are among the Canaanites, will possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, who are in Sepharad, will possess the cities of the Negev. <sup>21</sup>Saviors will go up on Mount Zion to judge the mountains of Esau, and the kingdom will be the LORD's.

Jonah

<sup>1:3</sup>But Jonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. He went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish; so he paid its fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of the LORD. <sup>1:4</sup>But the LORD sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a mighty storm on the sea, so that the ship was likely to break up. <sup>1:5</sup>Then the mariners were afraid, and every man cried to his god. They threw the cargo that was in the ship into the sea to lighten the ship. But Jonah had gone down into the innermost parts of the ship, and he was laying down, and was fast asleep. <sup>1:6</sup>So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, “What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, call on your God<sup>b</sup>! Maybe your God<sup>c</sup> will notice us, so that we won’t perish.”

<sup>1:7</sup>They all said to each other, “Come, let us cast lots, that we may know who is responsible for this evil that is on us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Jonah. <sup>1:8</sup>Then they asked him, “Tell us, please, for whose cause this evil is on us. What is your occupation? Where do you come from? What is your country? Of what people are you?”

<sup>1:10</sup>Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “What is this that you have done?” For the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of the LORD, because he had told them. <sup>1:11</sup>Then they said to him, “What shall we do to you, that the sea may be calm to us?” For the sea grew more and more stormy. <sup>1:12</sup>He said to them, “Take me up, and throw me into the sea. Then the sea will be calm for you; for I know that because of me this great storm is on you.”

the sea grew more and more stormy against them. <sup>1:14</sup>Therefore they cried to the LORD, and said, “We beg you, LORD, we beg you, don’t let us die for this man’s life, and don’t lay on us innocent blood; for you, LORD, have done as it pleased you.” <sup>1:15</sup>So they took up Jonah, and threw him into the sea; and the sea ceased its raging. <sup>1:16</sup>Then the men feared the LORD exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to the LORD, and made vows.

<sup>2:1</sup>Then Jonah prayed to the LORD, his God, out of the fish’s belly. <sup>2:2</sup>He said, “I called because of my affliction to the LORD.

He answered me.

Out of the belly of Sheol<sup>e</sup> I cried.

You heard my voice.

<sup>2:3</sup>For you threw me into the depths, in the heart of the seas.

The flood was all around me.

All your waves and your billows passed over me.

<sup>2:4</sup>I said, ‘I have been banished from your sight; yet I will look again toward your holy temple.’

The deep was around me.

The weeds were wrapped around my head.

<sup>2:6</sup>I went down to the bottoms of the mountains.

The earth barred me in forever:

yet have you brought up my life from the pit, LORD my God.

<sup>2:7</sup>“When my soul fainted within me, I remembered the LORD.

My prayer came in to you, into your holy temple.

I will pay that which I have vowed.

<sup>3:3</sup>So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across. <sup>3:4</sup>Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried out, and said, "In forty days, Nineveh will be overthrown!"

<sup>4:1</sup>But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry. <sup>4:2</sup>He prayed to the LORD, and said, "Please, LORD, wasn't this what I said when I was still in my own country? Therefore I hurried to flee to Tarshish, for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and you relent of doing harm. <sup>4:3</sup>Therefore now, LORD, take, I beg you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."

<sup>4:5</sup>Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made himself a booth, and sat under it in the shade, until he might see what would become of the city. <sup>4:6</sup>The LORD God prepared a vine, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his discomfort. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the vine. <sup>4:7</sup>But God prepared a worm at dawn the next day, and it chewed on the vine, so that it withered. <sup>4:8</sup>It happened, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat on Jonah's head, so that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."

He said, "I am right to be angry, even to death."

<sup>4:10</sup>The LORD said, "You have been concerned for the vine, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night. <sup>4:11</sup>Shouldn't I be concerned for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred twenty thousand persons who can't discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much livestock?"

Micah

<sup>1:2</sup>Hear, you peoples, all of you.

Listen, O earth, and all that is therein:
and let the Lord<sup>b</sup> the LORD be witness against you,
the Lord from his holy temple.

and will come down and tread on the high places of the earth.

and the valleys split apart,
like wax before the fire,
like waters that are poured down a steep place.

and for the sins of the house of Israel.

What is the disobedience of Jacob?

Isn't it Samaria?

And what are the high places of Judah?

Aren't they Jerusalem?

<sup>1:6</sup>Therefore I will make Samaria like a rubble heap of the field, like places for planting vineyards;
and I will pour down its stones into the valley,
and I will uncover its foundations.

<sup>1:7</sup>All her idols will be beaten to pieces, and all her temple gifts will be burned with fire,
and all her images I will destroy;
for of the hire of a prostitute has she gathered them,
and to the hire of a prostitute shall they return.”

<sup>1:8</sup>For this I will lament and wail;
I will go stripped and naked;
I will howl like the jackals,
and moan like the daughters of owls.

<sup>1:9</sup>For her wounds are incurable;
for it has come even to Judah.

It reaches to the gate of my people,
even to Jerusalem.

Don't weep at all.

At Beth Ophrah<sup>c</sup> I have rolled myself in the dust.

The inhabitant of Zaanan won't come out.
The wailing of Beth Ezel will take from you his protection.

because evil has come down from the LORD to the gate of Jerusalem.

She was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion;
For the transgressions of Israel were found in you.

The houses of Achzib will be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.

He who is the glory of Israel will come to Adullam.

and cut off your hair for the children of your delight.

Enlarge your baldness like the vulture;
for they have gone into captivity from you!

<sup>2:1</sup>Woe to those who devise iniquity and work evil on their beds!
When the morning is light, they practice it,
because it is in the power of their hand.

<sup>2:2</sup>They covet fields, and seize them;
and houses, and take them away:
and they oppress a man and his house,
even a man and his heritage.

“Behold, I am planning against these people a disaster, from which you will not remove your necks, neither will you walk haughtily;

for it is an evil time.

<sup>2:4</sup>In that day they will take up a parable against you,

and lament with a doleful lamentation, saying,
 'We are utterly ruined!
 My people's possession is divided up.
 Indeed he takes it from me and assigns
 our fields to traitors!'" <sup>2:5</sup>Therefore you will have no one who divides the land by lot in the assembly of the
<sup>2:6</sup>"Don't prophesy!"
 They prophesy.
 "Don't prophesy about these things.
 Disgrace won't overtake us."
<sup>2:7</sup>Shall it be said, O house of Jacob:
 "Is the Spirit of the LORD angry?
 Are these his doings?
 Don't my words do good to him who walks blamelessly?"
<sup>2:8</sup>But lately my people have risen up as an enemy.
 You strip the robe and clothing from those who pass by without a care, returning from battle.
<sup>2:9</sup>You drive the women of my people out from their pleasant houses;
 from their young children you take away
 my blessing forever.
<sup>2:10</sup>Arise, and depart!
 For this is not your resting place,
 because of uncleanness that destroys,
 even with a grievous destruction.
<sup>2:11</sup>If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood lies:
 "I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink;"
 he would be the prophet of this people.
<sup>2:12</sup>I will surely assemble, Jacob, all of you;
 I will surely gather the remnant of Israel;
 I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah,
 as a flock in the midst of their pasture;
 they will swarm with people.
<sup>2:13</sup>He who breaks open the way goes up before
 them.
 They break through the gate, and go out.
 And their king passes on before them,
 with the LORD at their head.
<sup>3:1</sup>I said,
 "Please listen, you heads of Jacob,
 and rulers of the house of Israel:
 Isn't it for you to know justice?"
<sup>3:2</sup>You who hate the good,
 and love the evil;

who tear off their skin,
 and their flesh from off their bones;
<sup>3:3</sup>who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them,
 and break their bones,
 and chop them in pieces, as for the pot,
 and as flesh within the caldron.
<sup>3:4</sup>Then they will cry to the LORD,
 but he will not answer them.
 Yes, he will hide his face from them at that time,
 because they made their deeds evil."
<sup>3:5</sup>Thus says the LORD concerning the prophets who lead my people astray; for those who feed their teeth, they proclaim, "Peace!"
 and whoever doesn't provide for their mouths,
 they prepare war against him:
<sup>3:6</sup>"Therefore night is over you, with no vision, and it is dark to you, that you may not divine;
 and the sun will go down on the prophets,
 and the day will be black over them.
<sup>3:7</sup>The seers shall be disappointed, and the diviners confounded.
 Yes, they shall all cover their lips;
 for there is no answer from God<sup>d</sup>."
<sup>3:8</sup>But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of the LORD,
 and of judgment, and of might,
 to declare to Jacob his disobedience,
 and to Israel his sin.
<sup>3:9</sup>Please listen to this, you heads of the house of Jacob,
 and rulers of the house of Israel,
 who abhor justice,
 and pervert all equity.
<sup>3:10</sup>They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
<sup>3:11</sup>Her leaders judge for bribes, and her priests teach for a price, and her prophets of it tell fortunes for money:
 yet they lean on the LORD, and say,
 "Isn't the LORD in the midst of us?
 No disaster will come on us."
<sup>3:12</sup>Therefore Zion for your sake will be plowed like a field,
 and Jerusalem will become heaps of rubble, and the mountain of the temple like the high places of a forest.

it will happen that the mountain of the LORD's temple will be established on the top of the mountains, and it will be exalted above the hills;
and peoples will stream to it.

<sup>4:2</sup> Many nations will go and say,
"Come, and let us go up to the mountain
of the LORD,
and to the house of the God of Jacob;
and he will teach us of his ways,
and we will walk in his paths."

For out of Zion will go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from
Jerusalem;

<sup>4:3</sup> and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off.

They will beat their swords into plowshares,
and their spears into pruning hooks.

Nation will not lift up sword against nation,
neither will they learn war any more.

<sup>4:4</sup> But they will sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree;
and no one will make them afraid:
For the mouth of the LORD of Hosts has spoken. <sup>4:5</sup> Indeed all the nations may walk in the name of their gods;
but we will walk in the name of the LORD
our God forever and ever.

<sup>4:6</sup> "In that day," says the LORD,
"I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven
away,
and that which I have afflicted;

<sup>4:7</sup> and I will make that which was lame a remnant,
and that which was cast far off a strong nation:
and the LORD will reign over them on Mount Zion from then on, even forever."

<sup>4:8</sup> You, tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion,
to you it will come,
yes, the former dominion will come,
the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.

<sup>4:9</sup> Now why do you cry out aloud?
Is there no king in you?
Has your counselor perished, that pains have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?

<sup>4:10</sup> Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, daughter of Zion,
like a woman in travail;
for now you will go forth out of the city,
and will dwell in the field,
and will come even to Babylon.

There you will be rescued.

There the LORD will redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

<sup>4:11</sup> Now many nations have assembled against you, that say,
"Let her be defiled, and let our eye gloat over Zion."

<sup>4:12</sup> But they don't know the thoughts of the LORD,
neither do they understand his counsel;
for he has gathered them like the sheaves to the threshing floor.

<sup>4:13</sup> Arise and thresh, daughter of Zion;
for I will make your horn iron,
and I will make your hoofs brass;

and you will beat in pieces many peoples:
and I will devote their gain to the LORD, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.

<sup>5:1</sup> Now you shall gather yourself in troops, daughter of troops.

He has laid siege against us.

They will strike the judge of Israel with a rod on the cheek.

<sup>5:2</sup> But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, being small among the clans of Judah, out of you one will come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel;
whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.

<sup>5:3</sup> Therefore he will abandon them until the time that she who is in labor gives birth.

Then the rest of his brothers will return to the children of Israel.

<sup>5:4</sup> He shall stand, and shall shepherd in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD
his God:

and they will live, for then he will be great
to the ends of the earth.

<sup>5:5</sup> He will be our peace when Assyria invades
our land,

and when he marches through our fortresses,
 then we will raise against him seven shepherds,
 and eight leaders of men.
<sup>5:6</sup>They will rule the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in its gates.
 He will deliver us from the Assyrian,
 when he invades our land,
 and when he marches within our border.
<sup>5:7</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be in the midst of many peoples, like dew from the LORD,
 like showers on the grass,
 that don't wait for man,
 nor wait for the sons of men.
<sup>5:8</sup>The remnant of Jacob will be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples,
 like a lion among the animals of the forest,
 like a young lion among the flocks of sheep;
 who, if he goes through, treads down and tears in pieces,
 and there is no one to deliver.
<sup>5:9</sup>Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all of your enemies be cut off.
<sup>5:10</sup>"It will happen in that day," says the LORD,
 "That I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you,
 and will destroy your chariots.
<sup>5:11</sup>I will cut off the cities of your land,
 and will tear down all your strongholds.
<sup>5:12</sup>I will destroy witchcraft from your hand;
 and you shall have no soothsayers.
<sup>5:13</sup>I will cut off your engraved images and your pillars out of your midst;
 and you shall no more worship the work of your hands.
<sup>5:14</sup>I will uproot your Asherim out of your midst;
 and I will destroy your cities.
<sup>5:15</sup>I will execute vengeance in anger, and wrath on the nations that didn't listen."

<sup>6:1</sup>Listen now to what the LORD says:

"Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear what you have to say.

<sup>6:2</sup>Hear, you mountains, the LORD's controversy, and you enduring foundations of the earth;
 for the LORD has a controversy with his people,
 and he will contend with Israel.

<sup>6:3</sup>My people, what have I done to you?
 How have I burdened you?
 Answer me!

<sup>6:4</sup>For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage.
 I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam.

<sup>6:5</sup>My people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD."

<sup>6:6</sup>How shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the exalted God?
 Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

<sup>6:7</sup>Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams?
 With tens of thousands of rivers of oil?
 Shall I give my firstborn for my disobedience?
 The fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?

<sup>6:8</sup>He has shown you, O man, what is good.
 What does the LORD require of you, but to act justly, to love mercy, and to walk humbly with your God?

<sup>6:9</sup>The LORD's voice calls to the city, and wisdom sees your name:
 "Listen to the rod,
 and he who appointed it.

<sup>6:10</sup>Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a short efa<sup>e</sup> that is accursed?

<sup>6:11</sup>Shall I be pure with dishonest scales,
 and with a bag of deceitful weights?

<sup>6:12</sup>Her rich men are full of violence,
 her inhabitants speak lies,

<sup>e</sup>6:10 An efa is a measure of volume (about 22 litres or about 2/3 of a bushel), and a short efa is made smaller than a full efa for the purpose of cheating customers.

- and their tongue is deceitful in their speech.
- 6:13 Therefore I also have struck you with a grievous wound.
I have made you desolate because of your sins.
- 6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied.
Your humiliation will be in your midst.
You will store up, but not save;
and that which you save I will give up to the sword.
- 6:15 You will sow, but won't reap.
You will tread the olives, but won't anoint yourself with oil;
and crush grapes, but won't drink the wine.
- 6:16 For the statutes of Omri are kept,
and all the works of the house of Ahab.
You walk in their counsels,
that I may make you a ruin,
and her inhabitants a hissing;
And you will bear the reproach of my people."
- 7:1 Misery is mine!
Indeed, I am like one who gathers the summer fruits, as gleanings of the vineyard:
There is no cluster of grapes to eat.
My soul desires to eat the early fig.
- 7:2 The godly man has perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men.
They all lie in wait for blood;
every man hunts his brother with a net.
- 7:3 Their hands are on that which is evil to do it diligently.
The ruler and judge ask for a bribe;
and the powerful man dictates the evil desire of his soul.
Thus they conspire together.
- 7:4 The best of them is like a brier.
The most upright is worse than a thorn hedge.
The day of your watchmen,
even your visitation, has come;
now is the time of their confusion.
- 7:5 Don't trust in a neighbor.
Don't put confidence in a friend.
With the woman lying in your embrace,
be careful of the words of your mouth!
- 7:6 For the son dishonors the father,
the daughter rises up against her mother,
- the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law;
a man's enemies are the men of his own house.
- 7:7 But as for me, I will look to the LORD.
I will wait for the God of my salvation.
My God will hear me.
- 7:8 Don't rejoice against me, my enemy.
When I fall, I will arise.
When I sit in darkness, the LORD will be a light to me.
- 7:9 I will bear the indignation of the LORD,
because I have sinned against him,
until he pleads my case, and executes judgment for me.
He will bring me forth to the light.
I will see his righteousness.
- 7:10 Then my enemy will see it,
and shame will cover her who said to me,
where is the LORD your God?
Then my enemy will see me and will cover her shame.
Now she will be trodden down like the mire of the streets.
- 7:11 A day to build your walls—
In that day, he will extend your boundary.
- 7:12 In that day they will come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River,
and from sea to sea,
and mountain to mountain.
- 7:13 Yet the land will be desolate because of those who dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.
- 7:14 Shepherd your people with your staff,
the flock of your heritage,
who dwell by themselves in a forest,
in the midst of fertile pasture land, let them feed;
in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
- 7:15 "As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt,
I will show them marvelous things."
- 7:16 The nations will see and be ashamed of all their might.
They will lay their hand on their mouth.
Their ears will be deaf.
- 7:17 They will lick the dust like a serpent.
Like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their dens.

They will come with fear to the LORD our
God,
and will be afraid because of you.
7:18 Who is a God like you, who pardons iniquity, and passes over the disobedience of the remnant of his heritage?
He doesn't retain his anger forever,
because he delights in loving kindness.
7:19 He will again have compassion on us.
He will tread our iniquities under foot;
and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
7:20 You will give truth to Jacob,
and mercy to Abraham,
as you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

Nahum

<sup>2:1</sup>He who dashes in pieces has come up against you. Keep the fortress! Watch the way! Strengthen your waist! Fortify your power mightily! <sup>2:2</sup>For the LORD restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the destroyers have destroyed them, and ruined their vine branches. <sup>2:3</sup>The shield of his mighty men is made red. The valiant men are in scarlet. The chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the pine spears are brandished. <sup>2:4</sup>The chariots rage in the streets. They rush back and forth in the broad ways. Their appearance is like torches. They run like the lightnings. <sup>2:5</sup>He summons his picked troops. They stumble on their way. They dash to its wall, and the protective shield is put in place. <sup>2:6</sup>The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved. <sup>2:7</sup>It is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts. <sup>2:8</sup>But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water, yet they flee away. "Stop! Stop!" they cry, but no one looks back. <sup>2:9</sup>Take the spoil of silver. Take the spoil of gold, for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture. <sup>2:10</sup>She is empty, void, and waste. The heart melts, the knees knock together, their bodies and faces have grown pale. <sup>2:11</sup>Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's cubs, and no one made them afraid? <sup>2:12</sup>The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with the kill, and his dens with prey. <sup>2:13</sup>"Behold, I am against you," says the LORD of Hosts, "and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword will devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers will no longer be heard."

the mistress of witchcraft, who sells nations through her prostitution, and families through her witchcraft. <sup>3:5</sup>“Behold, I am against you,” says the LORD of Hosts, “and I will lift your skirts over your face. I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame. <sup>3:6</sup>I will throw abominable filth on you, and make you vile, and will set you a spectacle. <sup>3:7</sup>It will happen that all those who look at you will flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste! Who will mourn for her?’ Where will I seek comforters for you?”

<sup>3:8</sup>Are you better than No-Amon,<sup>c</sup> who was situated among the rivers, who had the waters around her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea? <sup>3:9</sup>Cush and Egypt were her boundless strength. Put and Libya were her helpers. <sup>3:10</sup>Yet was she carried away. She went into captivity. Her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets, and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains. <sup>3:11</sup>You also will be drunken. You will be hidden. You also will seek a stronghold because of the enemy. <sup>3:12</sup>All your fortresses will be like fig trees with the first-ripe figs: if they are shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater. <sup>3:13</sup>Behold, your troops in your midst are women. The gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies. The fire has devoured your bars. <sup>3:14</sup>Draw water for the siege. Strengthen your fortresses. Go into the clay, and tread the mortar. Make the brick kiln strong. <sup>3:15</sup>There the fire will devour you. The sword will cut you off. It will devour you like the grasshopper. Multiply like grasshoppers. Multiply like the locust. <sup>3:16</sup>You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the skies. The grasshopper strips, and flees away. <sup>3:17</sup>Your guards are like the locusts, and your officials like the swarms of locusts, which settle on the walls on a cold day, but when the sun appears, they flee away, and their place is not known where they are. <sup>3:18</sup>Your shepherds slumber, king of Assyria. Your nobles lie down. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and there is no one to gather them. <sup>3:19</sup>There is no healing your wound, for your injury is fatal. All who hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for who hasn’t felt your endless cruelty?

Habakkuk

<sup>1:5</sup>"Look among the nations, watch, and wonder marvelously; for I am working a work in your days, which you will not believe though it is told you. <sup>1:6</sup>For, behold, I raise up the Kasdim, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs. <sup>1:7</sup>They are feared and dreaded. Their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves. <sup>1:8</sup>Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves. Their horsemen press proudly on. Yes, their horsemen come from afar. They fly as an eagle that hurries to devour. <sup>1:9</sup>All of them come for violence. Their hordes face the desert. He gathers prisoners like sand. <sup>1:10</sup>Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him. He laughs at every stronghold, for he builds up an earthen ramp, and takes it. <sup>1:11</sup>Then he sweeps by like the wind, and goes on. He is indeed guilty, whose strength is his god."

<sup>1:12</sup>Aren't you from everlasting, LORD my God<sup>b</sup>, my Holy One? We will not die. LORD, you have appointed him for judgment. You, Rock, have established him to punish. <sup>1:13</sup>You who have purer eyes than to see evil, and who cannot look on perversity, why do you tolerate those who deal treacherously, and keep silent when the wicked swallows up the man who is more righteous than he, <sup>1:14</sup>and make men like the fish of the sea, like the creeping things, that have no ruler over them? <sup>1:15</sup>He takes up all of them with the hook. He catches them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and is glad. <sup>1:16</sup>Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, because by them his life is luxurious, and his food is good. <sup>1:17</sup>Will he therefore continually empty his net, and kill the nations without mercy?

<sup>2:1</sup>I will stand at my watch, and set myself on the ramparts, and will look out to see what he will say to me, and what I will answer concerning my complaint.

<sup>2:2</sup>The LORD answered me, "Write the vision, and make it plain on tablets, that he who runs may read it. <sup>2:3</sup>For the vision is yet for the appointed time, and it hurries toward the end, and won't prove false. Though it takes time, wait for it; because it will surely come. It won't delay. <sup>2:4</sup>Behold, his soul is puffed up. It is not upright in him, but the righteous will live by his faith. <sup>2:5</sup>Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous. A haughty man who doesn't stay at home, who enlarges his desire as Sheol<sup>c</sup>, and he is like death, and can't be satisfied, but gathers to himself all nations, and heaps to himself all peoples. <sup>2:6</sup>Won't all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, 'Woe to him who increases that which is not his, and who enriches himself by extortion! How long?' <sup>2:7</sup>Won't your debtors rise up suddenly, and wake up those who make you tremble, and you will be their victim? <sup>2:8</sup>Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples will plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all who dwell in it. <sup>2:9</sup>Woe to him who gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil! <sup>2:10</sup>You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul. <sup>2:11</sup>For the stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the woodwork will answer it. <sup>2:12</sup>Woe to him who builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity! <sup>2:13</sup>Behold, isn't it of the LORD of Hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity? <sup>2:14</sup>For the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

bodies! <sup>2:16</sup>You are filled with shame, and not glory. You will also drink, and be exposed! The cup of the LORD's right hand will come around to you, and disgrace will cover your glory. <sup>2:17</sup>For the violence done to Lebanon will overwhelm you, and the destruction of the animals, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to every city and to those who dwell in them.

<sup>3:2</sup>LORD, I have heard of your fame.

I stand in awe of your deeds, LORD.

Renew your work in the midst of the years.

In the midst of the years make it known.

In wrath, you remember mercy.

<sup>3:3</sup>God came from Teman,
the Holy One from Mount Paran.

Selah.

His glory covered the heavens,
and his praise filled the earth.

<sup>3:4</sup>His splendor is like the sunrise.

Rays shine from his hand, where his power is hidden.

<sup>3:5</sup>Plague went before him,
and pestilence followed his feet.

<sup>3:6</sup>He stood, and shook the earth.

He looked, and made the nations tremble.

The ancient mountains were crumbled.

The age-old hills collapsed.

His ways are eternal.

The dwellings of the land of Midian trembled.

<sup>3:8</sup>Was the LORD displeased with the rivers?

Was your anger against the rivers, or your wrath against the sea,

that you rode on your horses,

on your chariots of salvation?

You called for your sworn arrows.

Selah.

You split the earth with rivers.

<sup>3:10</sup>The mountains saw you, and were afraid.

The storm of waters passed by.

The deep roared and lifted up its hands on high.

<sup>3:11</sup>The sun and moon stood still in the sky, at the light of your arrows as they went,
at the shining of your glittering spear.

<sup>3:12</sup>You marched through the land in wrath.

You threshed the nations in anger.

<sup>3:13</sup>You went forth for the salvation of your
people,

for the salvation of your anointed.

You crushed the head of the land of wickedness.

You stripped them head to foot.

Selah.

<sup>3:14</sup>You pierced the heads of his warriors with their own spears.

They came as a whirlwind to scatter me, gloating as if to devour the wretched in secret.

<sup>3:15</sup>You trampled the sea with your horses, churning mighty waters.

<sup>3:16</sup>I heard, and my body trembled.

My lips quivered at the voice.

Rottenness enters into my bones, and I tremble
in my place,

because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble,

for the coming up of the people who invade us.

<sup>3:17</sup>For though the fig tree doesn't flourish, nor fruit be in the vines;

the labor of the olive fails,

the fields yield no food;

the flocks are cut off from the fold,

and there is no herd in the stalls:

<sup>3:18</sup>yet I will rejoice in the LORD.

I will be joyful in the God of my salvation!

He makes my feet like deer's feet,
and enables me to go in high places.

For the music director, on my stringed instruments.

Zephaniah

<sup>1:1</sup>The word of the LORD<sup>a</sup> which came to Zephaniah, the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah. <sup>1:2</sup>I will utterly sweep away everything off of the surface of the earth, says the LORD. <sup>1:3</sup>I will sweep away man and animal. I will sweep away the birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and the heaps of rubble with the wicked. I will cut off man from the surface of the earth, says the LORD. <sup>1:4</sup>I will stretch out my hand against Judah, and against all the inhabitants of Jerusalem. I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place: the name of the idolatrous and pagan priests, <sup>1:5</sup>those who worship the army of the sky on the housetops, those who worship and swear by the LORD and also swear by Malcam, <sup>1:6</sup>those who have turned back from following the LORD, and those who haven't sought the LORD nor inquired after him. <sup>1:7</sup>Be silent at the presence of the Lord<sup>b</sup> the LORD, for the day of the LORD is at hand. For the LORD has prepared a sacrifice. He has consecrated his guests. <sup>1:8</sup>It will happen in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, the king's sons, and all those who are clothed with foreign clothing. <sup>1:9</sup>In that day, I will punish all those who leap over the threshold, who fill their master's house with violence and deceit. <sup>1:10</sup>In that day, says the LORD, there will be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills. <sup>1:11</sup>Wail, you inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the people of Canaan are undone! All those who were loaded with silver are cut off. <sup>1:12</sup>It will happen at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps, and I will punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, "The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil." <sup>1:13</sup>Their wealth will become a spoil, and their houses a desolation. Yes, they will build houses, but won't inhabit them. They will plant vineyards, but won't drink their wine. <sup>1:14</sup>The great day of the LORD is near. It is near, and hurries greatly, the voice of the day of the LORD. The mighty man cries there bitterly. <sup>1:15</sup>That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and anguish, a day of trouble and ruin, a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and blackness, <sup>1:16</sup>a day of the shofar<sup>c</sup> and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements. <sup>1:17</sup>I will bring distress on men, that they will walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD, and their blood will be poured out like dust, and their flesh like dung. <sup>1:18</sup>Neither their silver nor their gold will be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath, but the whole land will be devoured by the fire of his jealousy; for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all those who dwell in the land.

and a perpetual desolation. The remnant of my people will plunder them, and the survivors of my nation will inherit them. <sup>2:10</sup>This they will have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:11</sup>The LORD will be awesome to them, for he will famish all the gods of the land. Men will worship him, everyone from his place, even all the shores of the nations. <sup>2:12</sup>You Cushites also, you will be killed by my sword. <sup>2:13</sup>He will stretch out his hand against the north, destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, as dry as the wilderness. <sup>2:14</sup>Herds will lie down in the midst of her, all the animals of the nations. Both the pelican and the porcupine will lodge in its capitals. Their calls will echo through the windows. Desolation will be in the thresholds, for he has laid bare the cedar beams. <sup>2:15</sup>This is the joyous city that lived carelessly, that said in her heart, "I am, and there is none besides me." How she has become a desolation, a place for animals to lie down in! Everyone who passes by her will hiss, and shake their fists.

devoured with the fire of my jealousy. <sup>3:9</sup>For then I will purify the lips of the peoples, that they may all call on the name of the LORD, to serve him shoulder to shoulder. <sup>3:10</sup>From beyond the rivers of Cush, my worshipers, even the daughter of my dispersed people, will bring my offering. <sup>3:11</sup>In that day you will not be disappointed for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will take away out of the midst of you your proudly exulting ones, and you will no more be haughty in my holy mountain. <sup>3:12</sup>But I will leave in the midst of you an afflicted and poor people, and they will take refuge in the name of the LORD. <sup>3:13</sup>The remnant of Israel will not do iniquity, nor speak lies, neither will a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth, for they will feed and lie down, and no one will make them afraid."

<sup>3:14</sup>Sing, daughter of Zion! Shout, Israel! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem. <sup>3:15</sup>The LORD has taken away your judgments. He has thrown out your enemy. The King of Israel, the LORD, is in the midst of you. You will not be afraid of evil any more. <sup>3:16</sup>In that day, it will be said to Jerusalem, "Don't be afraid, Zion. Don't let your hands be weak." <sup>3:17</sup>The LORD, your God, is in the midst of you, a mighty one who will save. He will rejoice over you with joy. He will calm you in his love. He will rejoice over you with singing. <sup>3:18</sup>I will remove those who grieve about the appointed feasts from you. They are a burden and a reproach to you. <sup>3:19</sup>Behold, at that time I will deal with all those who afflict you, and I will save those who are lame, and gather those who were driven away. I will give them praise and honor, whose shame has been in all the earth. <sup>3:20</sup>At that time will I bring you in, and at that time will I gather you; for I will give you honor and praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I restore your fortunes before your eyes, says the LORD.

Haggai

<sup>1:12</sup>Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD, their God<sup>b</sup>, and the words of Haggai, the prophet, as the LORD, their God, had sent him; and the people feared the LORD.

<sup>1:13</sup>Then Haggai, the LORD’s messenger, spoke the LORD’s message to the people, saying, “I am with you,” says the LORD.

and the spirit of Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and worked on the house of the LORD of Hosts, their God, <sup>1:15</sup>in the twenty-fourth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

<sup>2:1</sup>In the seventh month, in the twenty-first day of the month, the Word of the LORD came by Haggai the prophet, saying, <sup>2:2</sup>“Speak now to Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua, the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying, <sup>2:3</sup>‘Who is left among you who saw this house in its former glory? How do you see it now? Isn’t it in your eyes as nothing? <sup>2:4</sup>Yet now be strong, Zerubbabel,’ says the LORD. ‘Be strong, Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest. Be strong, all you people of the land,’ says the LORD, ‘and work, for I am with you,’ says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:5</sup>This is the word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Egypt, and my Spirit lived among you. ‘Don’t be afraid.’ <sup>2:6</sup>For this is what the LORD of Hosts says: ‘Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the dry land; <sup>2:7</sup>and I will shake all nations. The precious things of all nations will come, and I will fill this house with glory, says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:8</sup>The silver is mine, and the gold is mine,’ says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:9</sup>The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,’ says the LORD of Hosts; ‘and in this place will I give peace,’ says the LORD of Hosts.”

The priests answered, “No.”

<sup>2:13</sup>Then Haggai said, “If one who is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, will it be unclean?”

The priests answered, “It will be unclean.”

ple, and so is this nation before me,' says the LORD; 'and so is every work of their hands. That which they offer there is unclean. <sup>2:15</sup>Now, please consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid on a stone in the temple of the LORD. <sup>2:16</sup>Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were only ten. When one came to the wine vat to draw out fifty, there were only twenty. <sup>2:17</sup>I struck you with blight, mildew, and hail in all the work of your hands; yet you didn't turn to me,' says the LORD. <sup>2:18</sup>'Consider, please, from this day and backward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of the LORD's temple was laid, consider it. <sup>2:19</sup>Is the seed yet in the barn? Yes, the vine, the fig tree, the pomegranate, and the olive tree haven't brought forth. From this day will I bless you.'"

Zechariah

"Then they repented and said, 'Just as the LORD of Hosts determined to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our practices, so he has dealt with us.'" <sup>1:7</sup>On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, the word of the LORD came to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying, <sup>1:8</sup>"I had a vision in the night, and behold, a man riding on a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in a ravine; and behind him there were red, brown, and white horses. <sup>1:9</sup>Then I asked, 'My lord, what are these?'"

The angel who talked with me said to me, "I will show you what these are."

<sup>1:10</sup>The man who stood among the myrtle trees answered, "They are the ones the LORD has sent to go back and forth through the earth."

<sup>1:11</sup>They reported to the angel of the LORD who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, "We have walked back and forth through the earth, and behold, all the earth is at rest and in peace."

<sup>1:12</sup>Then the angel of the LORD replied, "O LORD of Hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?"

talked with me with kind and comforting words. <sup>1:14</sup>So the angel who talked with me said to me, "Proclaim, saying, 'Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. <sup>1:15</sup>I am very angry with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, but they added to the calamity.'" <sup>1:16</sup>Therefore thus says the LORD: "I have returned to Jerusalem with mercy. My house shall be built in it," says the LORD of Hosts, "and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem.""

He answered me, "These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem."

He said, "These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man lifted up his head; but these have come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it."

He said to me, "To measure Jerusalem, to see what is its breadth and what is its length."

<sup>2:3</sup>Behold, the angel who talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him, <sup>2:4</sup>and said to him, "Run, speak to this young man, saying, 'Jerusalem will be inhabited as villages without walls, because of the multitude of men and livestock in it. <sup>2:5</sup>For I,' says the LORD, 'will be to her a wall of fire around it, and I will be the glory in the midst of her. <sup>2:6</sup>Come! Come! Flee from the land of the north,' says the LORD; 'for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the sky,' says the LORD. <sup>2:7</sup>'Come, Zion! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of Babylon.' <sup>2:8</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts: 'For honor he has sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he who touches you touches the apple of his eye. <sup>2:9</sup>For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they will be a spoil to those who served them; and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me. <sup>2:10</sup>Sing and rejoice, daughter of Zion; for, behold, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you,' says the LORD. <sup>2:11</sup>Many nations shall join themselves to the LORD in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. <sup>2:12</sup>The LORD will inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and will again choose Jerusalem. <sup>2:13</sup>Be silent, all flesh, before the LORD; for he has roused himself from his holy habitation!"

<sup>3:1</sup>He showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary. <sup>3:2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "The LORD rebuke you, Satan! Yes, the LORD who has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you! Isn't this a burning stick plucked out of the fire?"

<sup>3:3</sup>Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel. <sup>3:4</sup>He answered and spoke to those who stood before him, saying, "Take the filthy garments off of him." To him he said, "Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich clothing."

So they set a clean turban on his head, and clothed him; and the angel of the LORD was standing by. <sup>3:6</sup>The angel of the LORD protested to Joshua, saying, <sup>3:7</sup>"Thus says the LORD of Hosts: 'If you will walk in my ways, and if you will follow my instructions, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these who stand by. <sup>3:8</sup>Hear now, Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows who sit before you; for they are men who are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant, the Branch. <sup>3:9</sup>For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; on one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave its engraving,' says the LORD of Hosts, 'and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. <sup>3:10</sup>In that day,' says the LORD of Hosts, 'you will invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig tree.'"

I said, "I have seen, and behold, a menorah all of gold, with its bowl on the top of it, and its seven lamps thereon; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are on the top of it; <sup>4:3</sup>and two olive trees by it, one on the right side of the bowl, and the other on the left side of it."

<sup>4:5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me answered me, "Don't you know what these are?"

I said, "No, my lord."

<sup>4:6</sup>Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, "This is the word of the LORD to Zerubbabel, saying, 'Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit,' says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>4:7</sup>Who are you, great mountain? Before Zerubbabel you are a plain; and he will bring out the capstone with shouts of 'Grace, grace, to it!'"

<sup>4:8</sup>Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>4:9</sup>"The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house. His hands shall also finish it; and you will know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. <sup>4:10</sup>Indeed, who despises the day of small things? For these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plumb line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These are the eyes of the LORD, which run back and forth through the whole earth."

<sup>4:12</sup>I asked him the second time, "What are these two olive branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that pour the golden oil out of themselves?"

I said, "No, my lord."

<sup>5:1</sup>Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, a flying scroll. <sup>5:2</sup>He said to me, "What do you see?"

I answered, "I see a flying scroll; its length is twenty cubits, and its breadth ten cubits."

<sup>5:3</sup>Then he said to me, "This is the curse that goes out over the surface of the whole land; for everyone who steals shall be cut off according to it on the one side; and everyone who swears falsely shall be cut off according to it on the other side. <sup>5:4</sup>I will cause it to go out," says the LORD of Hosts, "and it will enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him who swears falsely by my name; and it will remain in the midst of his house, and will destroy it with its timber and its stones."

<sup>5:5</sup>Then the angel who talked with me came forward, and said to me, "Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that is appearing."

He said, "This is the efah<sup>c</sup> basket that is appearing." He said moreover, "This is their appearance in all the land <sup>5:7</sup>(and behold, a talent<sup>d</sup> of lead was lifted up); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the efah basket." <sup>5:8</sup>He said, "This is Wickedness;" and he threw her down into the midst of the efah basket; and he threw the weight of lead on its mouth.

<sup>5:9</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there were two women, and the wind was in their wings. Now they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the efah basket between earth and the sky. <sup>5:10</sup>Then I said to the angel who talked with me, "Where are these carrying the efah basket?"

<sup>5:11</sup>He said to me, "To build her a house in the land of Shinar. When it is prepared, she will be set there in her own place."

<sup>6:5</sup>The angel answered me, "These are the four winds of the sky, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. <sup>6:6</sup>The one with the black horses goes out toward the north country; and the white went out after them; and the dappled went forth toward the south country." <sup>6:7</sup>The strong went out, and sought to go that they might walk back and forth through the earth: and he said, "Go around and through the earth!" So they walked back and forth through the earth.

<sup>6:8</sup>Then he called to me, and spoke to me, saying, "Behold, those who go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country."

<sup>6:9</sup>The word of the LORD came to me, saying, <sup>6:10</sup>"Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, where they have come from Babylon. <sup>6:11</sup>Yes, take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them on the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest; <sup>6:12</sup>and speak to him, saying, "Thus says the LORD of Hosts, "Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of the LORD; <sup>6:13</sup>even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule on his throne; and he shall be a priest on his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both. <sup>6:14</sup>The crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of the LORD. <sup>6:15</sup>Those who are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD; and you shall know that the LORD of Hosts has sent me to you. This will happen, if you will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God<sup>e</sup>."'"

<sup>7:4</sup>Then the word of the LORD of Hosts came to me, saying, <sup>7:5</sup>"Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, 'When you fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month for these seventy years, did you at all fast to me, really to me? <sup>7:6</sup>When you eat, and when you drink, don't you eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? <sup>7:7</sup>Aren't these the words which the LORD proclaimed by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and its cities around her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?"

<sup>7:8</sup>The word of the LORD came to Zechariah, saying, <sup>7:9</sup>"Thus has the LORD of Hosts spoken, saying, 'Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother. <sup>7:10</sup>Don't oppress the widow, nor the fatherless, the foreigner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.' <sup>7:11</sup>But they refused to listen, and turned their backs, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear. <sup>7:12</sup>Yes, they made their hearts as hard as flint, lest they might hear the law, and the words which the LORD of Hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from the LORD of Hosts. <sup>7:13</sup>It has come to pass that, as he called, and they refused to listen, so they will call, and I will not listen," said the LORD of Hosts; <sup>7:14</sup>"but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they made the pleasant land desolate."

<sup>8:1</sup>The word of the LORD of Hosts came to me. <sup>8:2</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath."

<sup>8:3</sup>Thus says the LORD: "I have returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem. Jerusalem shall be called 'The City of Truth;' and the mountain of the LORD of Hosts, 'The Holy Mountain.'"

<sup>8:4</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "Old men and old women will again dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age. <sup>8:5</sup>The streets of the city will be full of boys and girls playing in its streets."

<sup>8:6</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "If it is marvelous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvelous in my eyes?" says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>8:7</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country; <sup>8:8</sup>and I will bring them, and they will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they will be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness."

<sup>8:9</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "Let your hands be strong, you who hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets who were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of Hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built. <sup>8:10</sup>For before those days there was no wages for man, nor any wages for an animal; neither was there any peace to him who went out or came in, because of the adversary. For I set all men everyone against his neighbor. <sup>8:11</sup>But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>8:12</sup>"For the seed of peace and the vine will yield its fruit, and the ground will give its increase, and the heavens will give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things. <sup>8:13</sup>It shall come to pass that, as you were a curse among the nations, house of Judah and house of Israel, so will I save you, and you shall be a blessing. Don't be afraid. Let your hands be strong."

<sup>8:14</sup>For thus says the LORD of Hosts: "As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath," says the LORD of Hosts, "and I didn't repent; <sup>8:15</sup>so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah. Don't be afraid. <sup>8:16</sup>These are the things that you shall do: speak every man the truth with his neighbor. Execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates, <sup>8:17</sup>and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor, and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate," says the LORD.

<sup>8:18</sup>The word of the LORD of Hosts came to me. <sup>8:19</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "The fasts of the fourth fifth, seventh, and tenth months shall be for the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts. Therefore love truth and peace."

<sup>8:20</sup>Thus says the LORD of Hosts: "Many peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities will yet come; <sup>8:21</sup>and the inhabitants of one shall go to another, saying, 'Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of the LORD, and to seek the LORD of Hosts. I will go also.' <sup>8:22</sup>Yes, many peoples and strong nations will come to seek the LORD of Hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of the LORD.”<sup>8:23</sup> Thus says the LORD of Hosts: “In those days, ten men will take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they will take hold of the skirt of him who is a Jew, saying, ‘We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.’”

The word of the LORD is against the land of Hadrach, and will rest upon Damascus;
for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward the LORD;

<sup>9:2</sup> and Hamath, also, which borders on it;
Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.

<sup>9:3</sup> Tyre built herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver like the dust,
and fine gold like the mire of the streets.

<sup>9:4</sup> Behold, the Lord will dispossess her,
and he will strike her power in the sea;
and she will be devoured with fire.

<sup>9:5</sup> Ashkelon will see it, and fear;
Gaza also, and will writhe in agony;
as will Ekron, for her expectation will be disappointed;
and the king will perish from Gaza,
and Ashkelon will not be inhabited.

<sup>9:6</sup> Foreigners will dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

<sup>9:7</sup> I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth;
and he also will be a remnant for our God;
and he will be as a chieftain in Judah,
and Ekron as a Jebusite.

<sup>9:8</sup> I will encamp around my house against the army, that none pass through or return;
and no oppressor will pass through them any more:
for now I have seen with my eyes.

Shout, daughter of Jerusalem!
Behold, your King comes to you!
He is righteous, and having salvation;
lowly, and riding on a donkey,
even on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

<sup>9:10</sup> I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem;

and the battle bow will be cut off;
and he will speak peace to the nations:
and his dominion will be from sea to sea,
and from the River to the ends of the earth.

<sup>9:11</sup> As for you also,
because of the blood of your covenant,
I have set free your prisoners from the pit
in which is no water.

<sup>9:12</sup> Turn to the stronghold, you prisoners of hope!
Even today I declare that I will restore double to you.

<sup>9:13</sup> For indeed I bend Judah as a bow for me.
I have filled the bow with Ephraim;
and I will stir up your sons, Zion, against your sons, Greece, and will make you like the sword of a mighty man.

<sup>9:14</sup> The LORD will be seen over them;
and his arrow will go flash like lightning;
and the Lord GOD will blow the shofar<sup>f</sup>,
and will go with whirlwinds of the south.

<sup>9:15</sup> The LORD of Hosts will defend them; and they will destroy and overcome with sling stones;
and they will drink, and roar as through
wine;
and they will be filled like bowls,
like the corners of the altar.

<sup>9:16</sup> The LORD their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people;
for they are like the jewels of a crown, lifted on high over his land.

<sup>9:17</sup> For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty!
Grain will make the young men flourish,
and new wine the virgins.

<sup>10:1</sup> Ask of the LORD rain in the spring time,
The LORD who makes storm clouds, and he gives rain showers to everyone for the plants in the field.

<sup>10:2</sup> For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie;
and they have told false dreams.
They comfort in vain.
Therefore they go their way like sheep.
They are oppressed, because there is no shepherd.

<sup>10:3</sup> My anger is kindled against the shepherds,

<sup>f</sup>9:14 or, trumpet

and I will punish the male goats;
 For the LORD of Hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his majestic horse
 in the battle.

<sup>10:4</sup>From him will come forth the cornerstone,
 from him the nail,
 from him the battle bow,
 from him every ruler together.
<sup>10:5</sup>They shall be as mighty men, treading down muddy streets in the battle;
 and they shall fight, because the LORD is
 with them;
 and the riders on horses will be confounded.

<sup>10:6</sup>"I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph,
 and I will bring them back;
 for I have mercy on them;
 and they will be as though I had not cast
 them off:
 for I am the LORD their God, and I will hear them.

<sup>10:7</sup>Ephraim will be like a mighty man, and their heart will rejoice as through
 wine;
 yes, their children will see it, and rejoice.
 Their heart will be glad in the LORD.

<sup>10:8</sup>I will signal for them, and gather them;
 for I have redeemed them;
 and they will increase as they have increased.

<sup>10:9</sup>I will sow them among the peoples; and they will remember me in far countries;
 and they will live with their children, and will return.

<sup>10:10</sup>I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt,
 and gather them out of Assyria;
 and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon;
 and there won't be room enough for
 them.

<sup>10:11</sup>He will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea,
 and all the depths of the Nile will dry up;
 and the pride of Assyria will be brought down,
 and the scepter of Egypt will depart.

<sup>10:12</sup>I will strengthen them in the LORD; and they will walk up and down in his name," says the LORD.

 that the fire may devour your cedars.

<sup>11:2</sup>Wail, fir tree, for the cedar has fallen,
 because the stately ones are destroyed.
 Wail, you oaks of Bashan,
 for the strong forest has come down.

<sup>11:3</sup>A voice of the wailing of the shepherds!
 For their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions!
 For the pride of the Jordan is ruined.

<sup>11:4</sup>Thus says the LORD my God: "Feed the flock of slaughter. <sup>11:5</sup>Their buyers slaughter them, and go unpunished. Those who sell them say, 'Blessed be the LORD, for I am rich;' and their own shepherds don't pity them. <sup>11:6</sup>For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land," says the LORD; "but, behold, I will deliver the men everyone into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king. They will strike the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver
 them."

<sup>11:7</sup>So I fed the flock of slaughter, especially the oppressed of the flock. I took for myself two staves. The one I called "Favor," and the other I called "Union," and I fed the flock. <sup>11:8</sup>I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me. <sup>11:9</sup>Then I said, "I will not feed you. That which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let those who are left eat each other's flesh." <sup>11:10</sup>I took my staff Favor, and cut it apart, that I might break my covenant that I had made with all the peoples. <sup>11:11</sup>It was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that listened to me knew that it was the word of the LORD. <sup>11:12</sup>I said to them, "If you think it best, give me my wages; and if not, keep them." So they weighed for my wages thirty pieces of silver. <sup>11:13</sup>The LORD said to me, "Throw it to the potter, the handsome price that I was valued at by them!" I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter, in the house of the LORD. <sup>11:14</sup>Then I cut apart
 my other staff, even Union, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.

<sup>11:15</sup>The LORD said to me, "Take for yourself yet again the equipment of a foolish shepherd. <sup>11:16</sup>For, behold, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those who are cut off, neither will seek those who are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces. <sup>11:17</sup>Woe to the worthless shepherd who leaves the flock! The sword will be on his arm, and on his right eye. His arm will be completely withered, and his right eye will be totally blinded!"

<sup>12:1</sup>An oracle. The word of the LORD concerning Israel. The LORD, who stretches out the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him says: <sup>12:2</sup>"Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the surrounding peoples, and on Judah also will it be in the siege against Jerusalem. <sup>12:3</sup>It will happen in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples. All who burden themselves with it will be severely wounded, and all the nations of the earth will be gathered together against it. <sup>12:4</sup>In that day," says the LORD, "I will strike every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes on the house of Judah, and will strike every horse of the peoples with blindness. <sup>12:5</sup>The chieftains of Judah will say in their heart, 'The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in the LORD of Hosts their God.' <sup>12:6</sup>In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they will devour all the surrounding peoples, on the right hand and on the left; and Jerusalem will yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem. <sup>12:7</sup>The LORD also will save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem not be magnified above Judah. <sup>12:8</sup>In that day the LORD will defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem. He who is feeble among them at that day will be like David, and the house of David will be like God, like the angel of the LORD before them. <sup>12:9</sup>It will happen in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem. <sup>12:10</sup>I will pour on the house of David, and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they will look to me<sup>s</sup> whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and will grieve bitterly for him, as one grieves for his firstborn. <sup>12:11</sup>In that day there will be a great mourning in Jerusalem, like the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon. <sup>12:12</sup>The land will mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart; <sup>12:13</sup>the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart; <sup>12:14</sup>all the families who remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.

<sup>13:1</sup>"In that day there will be a spring opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness. <sup>13:2</sup>It will come to pass in that day, says the LORD of Hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they will be remembered no more. I will also cause the prophets and the spirit of impurity to pass out of the land. <sup>13:3</sup>It will happen that, when anyone still prophesies, then his father and his mother who bore him will tell him, 'You must die, because you speak lies in the name of the LORD;' and his father and his mother who bore him will stab him when he prophesies. <sup>13:4</sup>It will happen in that day, that the prophets will each be ashamed of his vision, when he prophesies; neither will they wear a hairy mantle to deceive: <sup>13:5</sup>but he will say, 'I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondservant from my youth.' <sup>13:6</sup>One will say to him, 'What are these wounds between your arms?' Then he will answer, 'Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.'

<sup>13:7</sup>"Awake, sword, against my shepherd, and against the man who is close to me," says the LORD of Hosts.

"Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered; and I will turn my hand against the little ones.

<sup>13:8</sup>It shall happen that in all the land," says the LORD,

"two parts in it will be cut off and die; but the third will be left in it.

<sup>13:9</sup>I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will test them like gold is tested.

<sup>s</sup>12:10 After "me," the Hebrew has the two letters "Aleph Tav" (the first and last letters of the Hebrew alphabet), not as a word, but as a grammatical marker.

They will call on my name, and I will hear them.

I will say, 'It is my people;' and they will say, 'The LORD is my God.'"

<sup>14:1</sup>Behold, a day of the LORD comes, when your spoil will be divided in your midst. <sup>14:2</sup>For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city will be taken, the houses rifled, and the women ravished. Half of the city will go out into captivity, and the rest of the people will not be cut off from the city. <sup>14:3</sup>Then the LORD will go out and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. <sup>14:4</sup>His feet will stand in that day on the Mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the Mount of Olives will be split in two, from east to west, making a very great valley. Half of the mountain will move toward the north, and half of it toward the south. <sup>14:5</sup>You shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, you shall flee, just like you fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah. The LORD my God will come, and all the holy ones with you. <sup>14:6</sup>It will happen in that day, that there will not be light, cold, or frost. <sup>14:7</sup>It will be a unique day which is known to the LORD; not day, and not night; but it will come to pass, that at evening time there will be light.

<sup>14:8</sup>It will happen in that day, that living waters will go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea; in summer and in winter will it be.

<sup>14:9</sup>The LORD will be King over all the earth. In that day the LORD will be one, and his name one. <sup>14:10</sup>All the land will be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she will be lifted up, and will dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. <sup>14:11</sup>Men will dwell therein, and there will be no more curse; but Jerusalem will dwell safely. <sup>14:12</sup>This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike all the peoples who have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh will consume away while they stand on their feet, and their eyes will consume away in their sockets, and their tongue will consume away in their mouth. <sup>14:13</sup>It will happen in that day, that a great panic from the LORD will be among them; and they will lay hold everyone on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand will rise up against the hand of his neighbor. <sup>14:14</sup>Judah also will fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the surrounding nations will be gathered together: gold, and silver, and clothing, in great abundance.

<sup>14:15</sup>So will be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the animals that will be in those camps, as that plague. <sup>14:16</sup>It will happen that everyone who is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem will go up from year to year to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, and to keep the feast of booths. <sup>14:17</sup>It will be, that whoever of all the families of the earth doesn't go up to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD of Hosts, on them there will be no rain. <sup>14:18</sup>If the family of Egypt doesn't go up, and doesn't come, neither will it rain on them. This will be the plague with which the LORD will strike the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. <sup>14:19</sup>This will be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that don't go up to keep the feast of booths. <sup>14:20</sup>In that day there will be on the bells of the horses, "HOLY TO THE LORD;" and the pots in the LORD's house will be like the bowls before the altar. <sup>14:21</sup>Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah will be holy to the LORD of Hosts; and all those who sacrifice will come and take of them, and cook in them. In that day there will no longer be a Canaanite in the house of the LORD of Hosts.

Malachi

Yet you say, "How have you loved us?"

"Wasn't Esau Jacob's brother?" says the LORD, "Yet I loved Jacob; <sup>1:3</sup>but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness." <sup>1:4</sup>Whereas Edom says, "We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places;" thus says the LORD of Hosts, "They shall build, but I will throw down; and men will call them 'The Wicked Land,' even the people against whom the LORD shows wrath forever."

<sup>1:6</sup>"A son honors his father, and a servant his master. If I am a father, then where is my honor? And if I am a master, where is the respect due me? Says the LORD of Hosts to you, priests, who despise my name. You say, 'How have we despised your name?' <sup>1:7</sup>You offer polluted bread on my altar. You say, 'How have we polluted you?' In that you say, 'The LORD's table contemptible.' <sup>1:8</sup>When you offer the blind for sacrifice, isn't that evil? And when you offer the lame and sick, isn't that evil? Present it now to your governor! Will he be pleased with you? Or will he accept your person?" says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>1:9</sup>"Now, please entreat the favor of God<sup>b</sup>, that he may be gracious to us. With this, will he accept any of you?" says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>1:10</sup>"Oh that there were one among you who would shut the doors, that you might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you," says the LORD of Hosts, "neither will I accept an offering at your hand. <sup>1:11</sup>For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same, my name is great among the nations, and in every place incense will be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name is great among the nations," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>1:12</sup>"But you profane it, in that you say, 'The LORD's table is polluted, and its fruit, even its food, is contemptible.' <sup>1:13</sup>You say also, 'Behold, what a weariness it is!' and you have sniffed at it," says the LORD of Hosts; "and you have brought that which was taken by violence, the lame, and the sick; thus you bring the offering. Should I accept this at your hand?" says the LORD.

<sup>1:14</sup>"But the deceiver is cursed, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord<sup>c</sup> a blemished thing; for I am a great King," says the LORD of Hosts, "and my name is awesome among the nations."

<sup>2:1</sup>"Now, you priests, this commandment is for you. <sup>2:2</sup>If you will not listen, and if you will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name," says the LORD of Hosts, "then will I send the curse on you, and I will curse your blessings. Indeed, I have cursed them already, because you do not lay it to heart. <sup>2:3</sup>Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung on your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and you will be taken away with it. <sup>2:4</sup>You will know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:5</sup>"My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might be reverent toward me; and he was reverent toward me, and stood in awe of my name. <sup>2:6</sup>The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips. He walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity. <sup>2:7</sup>For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:8</sup>But you have turned aside out of the way. You have caused many to stumble in the law. You have corrupted the covenant of Levi," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:9</sup>"Therefore I have also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according to the way you have not kept my ways, but have had respect for persons in the law. <sup>2:10</sup>Don't we all have one father? Hasn't one God created us? Why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers? <sup>2:11</sup>Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god. <sup>2:12</sup>The LORD will cut off, to the man who does this, him who wakes and him who answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him who offers an offering to the LORD of Hosts. <sup>2:13</sup>This again you do: you cover the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, because he doesn't regard the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand. <sup>2:14</sup>Yet you say, 'Why?' Because the LORD has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your companion, and the wife of your covenant. <sup>2:15</sup>Did he not make you one, although he had the residue of the Spirit? Why one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let no one deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. <sup>2:16</sup>For I hate divorce," says the LORD, the God of Israel, "and him who covers his garment with violence!" says the LORD of Hosts. "Therefore take heed to your spirit, that you don't deal treacherously. <sup>2:17</sup>You have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet you say, 'How have we wearied him?' In that you say, 'Everyone who does evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delights in them;' or 'Where is the God of justice?'

<sup>3:1</sup>"Behold, I send my messenger, and he will prepare the way before me; and the Lord, whom you seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom you desire, behold, he comes!" says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>3:2</sup>"But who can endure the day of his coming? And who will stand when he appears? For he is like a refiner's fire, and like launderer's soap; <sup>3:3</sup>and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to the LORD offerings in righteousness. <sup>3:4</sup>Then the offering of Judah and Jerusalem will be pleasant to the LORD, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years. <sup>3:5</sup>I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the perjurers, and against those who oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and who deprive the foreigner of justice, and don't fear me," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>3:6</sup>"For I, the LORD, don't change; therefore you, sons of Jacob, are not consumed. <sup>3:7</sup>From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you," says the LORD of Hosts. "But you say, 'How shall we return?' <sup>3:8</sup>Will a man rob God? Yet you rob me! But you say, 'How have we robbed you?' In tithes and offerings. <sup>3:9</sup>You are cursed with the curse; for you rob me, even this whole nation. <sup>3:10</sup>Bring the whole tithe into the storehouse, that there may be food in my house, and test me now in this," says the LORD of Hosts, "if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough for. <sup>3:11</sup>I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before its time in the field," says the LORD of Hosts. <sup>3:12</sup>"All nations shall call you blessed, for you will be a delightful land," says the LORD of Hosts.

<sup>3:13</sup>"Your words have been stout against me," says the LORD. "Yet you say, 'What have we spoken against you?' <sup>3:14</sup>You have said, 'It is vain to serve God;' and 'What profit is it that we have followed his instructions, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of Hosts? <sup>3:15</sup>Now we call the proud happy; yes, those who work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.' <sup>3:16</sup>Then those who feared the LORD spoke one with another; and the LORD listened, and heard, and a book of memory was written before him, for those who feared the LORD, and who honored his name. <sup>3:17</sup>They shall be mine," says the LORD of Hosts, "my own possession in the day that I make, and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son who serves him. <sup>3:18</sup>Then you shall return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him who serves God and him who doesn't serve him.

<sup>4:1</sup>"For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all who work wickedness, will be stubble; and the day that comes will burn them up," says the LORD of Hosts, "that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. <sup>4:2</sup>But to you who fear my name shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in its wings. You will go out, and leap like calves of the stall. <sup>4:3</sup>You shall tread down the wicked; for they will be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make," says the LORD of

<sup>4:4</sup>“Remember the Torah of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances. <sup>4:5</sup>Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of the LORD comes. <sup>4:6</sup>He will turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and strike the earth with a curse.”

The Psalms

BOOK I

Psalm 1

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, nor stand in the way of sinners,
nor sit in the seat of scoffers;
<sup>2</sup>but his delight is in the LORD's<sup>a</sup> law.
On his Torah he meditates day and night.
<sup>3</sup>He will be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season,
whose leaf also does not wither.
Whatever he does shall prosper.
<sup>4</sup>The wicked are not so,
but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
<sup>5</sup>Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
<sup>6</sup>For the LORD knows the way of the righteous, but the way of the wicked shall perish.

<sup>1</sup>Why do the nations rage,
and the peoples plot a vain thing?
<sup>2</sup>The kings of the earth take a stand,
and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his Anointed,<sup>b</sup> saying, <sup>3</sup>"Let's break their bonds apart,
and cast their cords from us."
<sup>4</sup>He who sits in the heavens will laugh.
The Lord<sup>c</sup> will have them in derision.
<sup>5</sup>Then he will speak to them in his anger, and terrify them in his wrath:
<sup>6</sup>"Yet I have set my King on my holy hill of Zion."
<sup>7</sup>I will tell of the decree.
The LORD said to me, "You are my son.
Today I have become your father.

<sup>a</sup>1:2 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>b</sup>2:2 The word "Anointed" is the same as the word for "Messiah" or "Christ"

<sup>8</sup>Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.
You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
<sup>10</sup>Now therefore be wise, you kings.
Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
<sup>11</sup>Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
<sup>12</sup>Give sincere homage to the Son<sup>d</sup>, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath will soon be kindled.
Blessed are all those who take refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, how my adversaries have increased!
Many are those who rise up against me.
<sup>2</sup>Many there are who say of my soul,
"There is no help for him in God<sup>e</sup>."
Selah.
<sup>3</sup>But you, LORD, are a shield around me,
my glory, and the one who lifts up my head.
<sup>4</sup>I cry to the LORD with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill.
Selah.
<sup>5</sup>I laid myself down and slept.
I awakened; for the LORD sustains me.
<sup>6</sup>I will not be afraid of tens of thousands of people who have set themselves against me on every side.
<sup>7</sup>Arise, LORD!
Save me, my God!
For you have struck all of my enemies on the cheek bone.
You have broken the teeth of the wicked.
<sup>8</sup>Salvation belongs to the LORD.
Your blessing be on your people.
Selah.

Psalm 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Answer me when I call, God of my righteousness.

Give me relief from my distress.

Have mercy on me, and hear my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>You sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor?

Will you love vanity, and seek after falsehood?

Selah.

<sup>3</sup>But know that the LORD has set apart for himself him who is godly:

The LORD will hear when I call to him.

<sup>4</sup>Stand in awe, and don't sin.

Search your own heart on your bed, and be still.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>Offer the sacrifices of righteousness.

Put your trust in the LORD.

LORD, let the light of your face shine on us.

<sup>7</sup>You have put gladness in my heart, more than when their grain and their new wine are increased.

<sup>8</sup>In peace I will both lay myself down and sleep, for you, the LORD alone, make me live in safety.

Psalm 5

For the Chief Musician, with the flutes. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Give ear to my words, LORD.

Consider my meditation.

<sup>2</sup>Listen to the voice of my cry, my King and my God;

for to you do I pray.

In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.

<sup>4</sup>For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness.

Evil can't live with you.

You hate all workers of iniquity.

<sup>6</sup>You will destroy those who speak lies.

The LORD abhors the bloodthirsty and deceitful man.

<sup>7</sup>But as for me, in the abundance of your loving kindness I will come into your house.

I will bow toward your holy temple in reverence of you.

<sup>8</sup>Lead me, LORD, in your righteousness because of my enemies.

Make your way straight before my face.

<sup>9</sup>For there is no faithfulness in their mouth.

Their heart is destruction.

Their throat is an open tomb.

They flatter with their tongue.

Let them fall by their own counsels;

Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against you.

<sup>11</sup>But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice,

Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them.

Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.

<sup>12</sup>For you will bless the righteous.

LORD, you will surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, upon the eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm by David.

LORD, heal me, for my bones are troubled.

<sup>3</sup>My soul is also in great anguish.

But you, LORD—how long?

<sup>4</sup>Return, LORD. Deliver my soul, and save me for your loving kindness' sake.

<sup>5</sup>For in death there is no memory of you.

In Sheol<sup>f</sup>, who shall give you thanks?

<sup>6</sup>I am weary with my groaning.

Every night I flood my bed.

I drench my couch with my tears.

<sup>7</sup>My eye wastes away because of grief.

It grows old because of all my adversaries.

<sup>8</sup>Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, for the LORD has heard the voice of my weeping.

<sup>9</sup>The LORD has heard my supplication.
The LORD accepts my prayer.

<sup>10</sup>May all my enemies be ashamed and dismayed.
They shall turn back, they shall be disgraced suddenly.

Psalm 7

A meditation by David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush, the Benjamite.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, my God, I take refuge in you.
Save me from all those who pursue me,
and deliver me,

<sup>2</sup>lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, ripping it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.

<sup>3</sup>LORD, my God, if I have done this,
if there is iniquity in my hands,

<sup>4</sup>if I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me
(yes, if I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary),

<sup>5</sup>let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it;

yes, let him tread my life down to the earth,
and lay my glory in the dust.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>Arise, LORD, in your anger.
Lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries.

Awake for me. You have commanded judgment.

<sup>7</sup>Let the congregation of the peoples surround you.

Rule over them on high.

Judge me, LORD, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.

<sup>9</sup>Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish the righteous;

their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.

<sup>10</sup>My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.

<sup>11</sup>God is a righteous judge,
yes, a God who has indignation every day.

<sup>12</sup>If a man doesn't relent, he will sharpen his sword;
he has bent and strung his bow.

<sup>13</sup>He has also prepared for himself the instruments of death.

He makes ready his flaming arrows.

Yes, he has conceived mischief,
and brought forth falsehood.

<sup>15</sup>He has dug a hole, and has fallen into the pit which he made.

His violence shall come down on the crown of his own head.

<sup>17</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of the LORD Most High.

Psalm 8

For the Chief Musician; on an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by David.

who has set your glory above the heavens!

<sup>2</sup>From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.

<sup>3</sup>When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained;

<sup>4</sup>what is man, that you think of him?
What is the son of man, that you care for him?

<sup>5</sup>For you have made him a little lower than God,<sup>5</sup>

and crowned him with glory and honor.
<sup>6</sup>You make him ruler over the works of your hands.
 You have put all things under his feet:
<sup>7</sup>All sheep and cattle,
 yes, and the animals of the field,
<sup>8</sup>The birds of the sky, the fish of the sea, and whatever passes through the paths of the seas.
<sup>9</sup>LORD, our Lord,
 how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Death of the Son." A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart.
 I will tell of all your marvelous works.
<sup>2</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in you.
 I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.
<sup>3</sup>When my enemies turn back,
 they stumble and perish in your presence.
<sup>4</sup>For you have maintained my just cause.
 You sit on the throne judging righteously.
<sup>5</sup>You have rebuked the nations.
 You have destroyed the wicked.
 You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
<sup>6</sup>The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin.
 The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.
<sup>7</sup>But the LORD reigns forever.
 He has prepared his throne for judgment.
<sup>8</sup>He will judge the world in righteousness.
 He will administer judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
<sup>9</sup>The LORD will also be a high tower for the oppressed;
 a high tower in times of trouble.
<sup>10</sup>Those who know your name will put their trust in you, for you, LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you.
<sup>11</sup>Sing praises to the LORD, who dwells in Zion, and declare among the people what he has done.
<sup>12</sup>For he who avenges blood remembers them.

He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.
<sup>13</sup>Have mercy on me, LORD.
 See my affliction by those who hate me,
 and lift me up from the gates of death;
<sup>14</sup>that I may show forth all your praise.
 In the gates of the daughter of Zion, I will rejoice in your salvation.
<sup>15</sup>The nations have sunk down in the pit that they made.
 In the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.
<sup>16</sup>The LORD has made himself known.
 He has executed judgment.
 The wicked is snared by the work of his own hands.

Meditation. Selah.

 even all the nations that forget God.
<sup>18</sup>For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the hope of the poor perish forever.
<sup>19</sup>Arise, LORD! Don't let man prevail.
 Let the nations be judged in your sight.
<sup>20</sup>Put them in fear, LORD.
 Let the nations know that they are only men.
 Selah.

Psalm 10

<sup>1</sup>Why do you stand far off, LORD?
 Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
<sup>2</sup>In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak.
 They are caught in the schemes that they devise.
<sup>3</sup>For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings.
 He blesses the greedy, and condemns the LORD.
<sup>4</sup>The wicked, in the pride of his face,
 has no room in his thoughts for God.
<sup>5</sup>His ways are prosperous at all times.
 He is haughty, and your laws are far from his sight.
 As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.
<sup>6</sup>He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken.
 For generations I shall have no trouble."
<sup>7</sup>His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression.
 Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
<sup>8</sup>He lies in wait near the villages.

From ambushes, he murders the innocent.
 His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
<sup>9</sup>He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush.
 He lies in wait to catch the helpless.
 He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.
<sup>10</sup>The helpless are crushed.
 They collapse.
 They fall under his strength.
<sup>11</sup>He says in his heart, "God has forgotten.
 He hides his face.
 He will never see it."
<sup>12</sup>Arise, LORD!
 God, lift up your hand!
 Don't forget the helpless.
<sup>13</sup>Why does the wicked person condemn God, and say in his heart, "God won't call me into account?"
<sup>14</sup>But you do see trouble and grief.
 You consider it to take it into your hand.
 You help the victim and the fatherless.
<sup>15</sup>Break the arm of the wicked.
 As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.
<sup>16</sup>The LORD is King forever and ever!
 The nations will perish out of his land.
<sup>17</sup>LORD, you have heard the desire of the humble.
 You will prepare their heart.
 You will cause your ear to hear,
<sup>18</sup>to judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that man who is of the earth may terrify
 no more.

Psalm 11

For the Chief Musician. By David.

<sup>1</sup>In the LORD, I take refuge.
 How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"
<sup>2</sup>For, behold, the wicked bend their bows.
 They set their arrows on the strings, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.
<sup>3</sup>If the foundations are destroyed,
 what can the righteous do?
<sup>4</sup>The LORD is in his holy temple.
 The LORD is on his throne in heaven.
 His eyes observe.

His eyes examine the children of men.
<sup>5</sup>The LORD examines the righteous, but the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates.
<sup>6</sup>On the wicked he will rain blazing coals; fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
<sup>7</sup>For the LORD is righteous.
 He loves righteousness.
 The upright shall see his face.

Psalm 12

For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.

<sup>1</sup>Help, LORD; for the godly man ceases.
 For the faithful fail from among the children
 of men.
<sup>2</sup>Everyone lies to his neighbor.
 They speak with flattering lips, and with a double heart.
<sup>3</sup>May the LORD cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that boasts, <sup>4</sup>who have said, "With our tongue we will prevail.
 Our lips are our own.
 Who is lord over us?"
<sup>5</sup>"Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy,
 I will now arise," says the LORD;
 "I will set him in safety from those who malign
 him."
<sup>6</sup>The words of the LORD are flawless words, as silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.
<sup>7</sup>You will keep them, LORD.
 You will preserve them from this generation
 forever.
<sup>8</sup>The wicked walk on every side, when what is vile is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>How long, LORD?
Will you forget me forever?
How long will you hide your face from me?
- <sup>2</sup>How long shall I take counsel in my soul,
having sorrow in my heart every day?
How long shall my enemy triumph over me?
- <sup>3</sup>Behold, and answer me, LORD, my God.
Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
<sup>4</sup>Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him;"
Lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.
- <sup>5</sup>But I trust in your loving kindness.
My heart rejoices in your salvation.
- <sup>6</sup>I will sing to the LORD, because he has been good to me.

Psalm 14

For the Chief Musician. By David.

- <sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God."
They are corrupt.
They have done abominable works.
There is none who does good.
- <sup>2</sup>The LORD looked down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who understood,
who sought after God.
- <sup>3</sup>They have all gone aside.
They have together become corrupt.
There is none who does good, no, not one.
- <sup>4</sup>Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and don't call on the LORD?
- <sup>5</sup>There they were in great fear,
for God is in the generation of the righteous.
- <sup>6</sup>You frustrate the plan of the poor,
because the LORD is his refuge.
- <sup>7</sup>Oh that the salvation [yeshuat] of Israel would come out of Zion!
When the LORD restores the fortunes of his people, then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 15

A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>LORD, who shall dwell in your sanctuary?
Who shall live on your holy hill?
- <sup>2</sup>He who walks blamelessly does what is right, and speaks truth in his heart;
- <sup>3</sup>He who doesn't slander with his tongue,
nor does evil to his friend,
nor casts slurs against his fellow man;
- <sup>4</sup>In whose eyes a vile man is despised,
but who honors those who fear the LORD;
he who keeps an oath even when it hurts,
and doesn't change;
- <sup>5</sup>he who doesn't lend out his money for usury, nor take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things shall never be shaken.

Psalm 16

A Poem by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.
- <sup>2</sup>My soul, you have said to the LORD, "You are my Lord.
Apart from you I have no good thing."
- <sup>3</sup>As for the holy ones who are in the earth, they are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.
- <sup>4</sup>Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god.
Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, nor take their names on my lips.
- <sup>5</sup>The LORD assigned my portion and my cup.
You made my lot secure.
- <sup>6</sup>The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places.
Yes, I have a good inheritance.
- <sup>7</sup>I will bless the LORD, who has given me counsel.
Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
- <sup>8</sup>I have set the LORD always before me.
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
- <sup>9</sup>Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices.
My body shall also dwell in safety.

<sup>10</sup>For you will not leave my soul in Sheol<sup>i</sup>, neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
<sup>11</sup>You will show me the path of life.
In your presence is fullness of joy.
In your right hand there are pleasures forever-more.

Psalm 17

A Prayer by David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear, LORD, my righteous plea; Give ear to my prayer, that doesn't go out of deceitful lips.
<sup>2</sup>Let my sentence come forth from your presence.
Let your eyes look on equity.
<sup>3</sup>You have proved my heart.
You have visited me in the night.
You have tried me, and found nothing.
I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.
<sup>4</sup>As for the works of men, by the word of your lips,
I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
<sup>5</sup>My steps have held fast to your paths.
My feet have not slipped.
<sup>6</sup>I have called on you, for you will answer me,
God.
Turn your ear to me.
Hear my speech.
<sup>7</sup>Show your marvelous loving kindness, you who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies.
<sup>8</sup>Keep me as the apple of your eye.
Hide me under the shadow of your wings,
<sup>9</sup>from the wicked who oppress me,
my deadly enemies, who surround me.
<sup>10</sup>They close up their callous hearts.
With their mouth they speak proudly.
<sup>11</sup>They have now surrounded us in our steps.
They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.
<sup>12</sup>He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
<sup>13</sup>Arise, LORD, confront him.

Cast him down.
Deliver my soul from the wicked by your
sword;
<sup>14</sup>from men by your hand, LORD, from men of the world, whose portion is in this life.
You fill the belly of your cherished ones.
Your sons have plenty,
and they store up wealth for their children.
<sup>15</sup>As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness.
I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form.

Psalm 18

For the Chief Musician. By David the servant of the LORD, who spoke to the LORD the words of this song in the day that the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

<sup>1</sup>I love you, LORD, my strength.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD is my rock, my fortress, and my deliverer;
my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge;
my shield, and the horn of my salvation,
my high tower.
<sup>3</sup>I call on the LORD, who is worthy to be praised;
and I am saved from my enemies.
<sup>4</sup>The cords of death surrounded me.
The floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
<sup>5</sup>The cords of Sheol<sup>j</sup> were around me.
The snares of death came on me.
<sup>6</sup>In my distress I called on the LORD, and cried to my God.
He heard my voice out of his temple.
My cry before him came into his ears.
<sup>7</sup>Then the earth shook and trembled.
The foundations also of the mountains
quaked and were shaken, because he was angry.
<sup>8</sup>Smoke went out of his nostrils.
Consuming fire came out of his mouth.
Coals were kindled by it.
<sup>9</sup>He bowed the heavens also, and came down.
Thick darkness was under his feet.
<sup>10</sup>He rode on a cherub, and flew.

<sup>j</sup>18:5 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- Yes, he soared on the wings of the wind.
<sup>11</sup>He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion around him, darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
<sup>12</sup>At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed,
 hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>13</sup>The LORD also thundered in the sky.
 The Most High uttered his voice:
 hailstones and coals of fire.
<sup>14</sup>He sent out his arrows, and scattered them;
 Yes, great lightning bolts, and routed them.
<sup>15</sup>Then the channels of waters appeared.
 The foundations of the world were laid bare at your rebuke, LORD,
 at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
<sup>16</sup>He sent from on high.
 He took me.
 He drew me out of many waters.
<sup>17</sup>He delivered me from my strong enemy, from those who hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
<sup>18</sup>They came on me in the day of my calamity, but the LORD was my support.
<sup>19</sup>He brought me forth also into a large place.
 He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
<sup>20</sup>The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness.
 According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
<sup>21</sup>For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
<sup>22</sup>For all his ordinances were before me.
 I didn't put away his statutes from me.
<sup>23</sup>I was also blameless with him.
 I kept myself from my iniquity.
<sup>24</sup>Therefore the LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
<sup>25</sup>With the merciful you will show yourself merciful.
 With the perfect man, you will show yourself perfect.
<sup>26</sup>With the pure, you will show yourself pure.
 With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
<sup>27</sup>For you will save the afflicted people,
 but the haughty eyes you will bring down.
<sup>28</sup>For you will light my lamp, LORD.
 My God will light up my darkness.
<sup>29</sup>For by you, I advance through a troop.
 By my God, I leap over a wall.
<sup>30</sup>As for God, his way is perfect.
 The word of the LORD is tried.
 He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
<sup>31</sup>For who is God, except the LORD?
 Who is a rock, besides our God, <sup>32</sup>the God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?
<sup>33</sup>He makes my feet like deer's feet,
 and sets me on my high places.
<sup>34</sup>He teaches my hands to war,
 so that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
<sup>35</sup>You have also given me the shield of your salvation.
 Your right hand sustains me.
 Your gentleness has made me great.
<sup>36</sup>You have enlarged my steps under me,
 My feet have not slipped.
<sup>37</sup>I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them.
 Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.
<sup>38</sup>I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise.
 They shall fall under my feet.
<sup>39</sup>For you have armed me with strength to the battle.
 You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
<sup>40</sup>You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, that I might cut off those who hate me.
<sup>41</sup>They cried, but there was none to save;
 even to the LORD, but he didn't answer them.
<sup>42</sup>Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind.
 I cast them out as the mire of the streets.
<sup>43</sup>You have delivered me from the strivings of the people.
 You have made me the head of the nations.
 A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
<sup>44</sup>As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me.

The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.
<sup>45</sup>The foreigners shall fade away,
 and shall come trembling out of their close places.
<sup>46</sup>The LORD lives; and blessed be my rock.
 Exalted be the God of my salvation, <sup>47</sup>even the God who executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me.
<sup>48</sup>He rescues me from my enemies.
 Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me.
 You deliver me from the violent man.
<sup>49</sup>Therefore I will give thanks to you, LORD,
 among the nations,
 and will sing praises to your name.
<sup>50</sup>He gives great deliverance to his king, and shows loving kindness to his anointed,
 to David and to his seed, forevermore.

Psalm 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>The heavens declare the glory of God.
 The expanse shows his handiwork.
<sup>2</sup>Day after day they pour forth speech,
 and night after night they display knowledge.
<sup>3</sup>There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard.
<sup>4</sup>Their voice has gone out through all the earth, their words to the end of the world.
 In them he has set a tent for the sun, <sup>5</sup>which is as a bridegroom coming out of his room, like a strong man rejoicing to run his course.
<sup>6</sup>His going forth is from the end of the heavens, his circuit to its ends;
 There is nothing hidden from its heat.
<sup>7</sup>The LORD's Torah is perfect, restoring the soul.
 The LORD's testimony is sure, making wise the simple.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD's precepts are right, rejoicing the heart.
 The LORD's commandment is pure, enlightening the eyes.

 The LORD's ordinances are true, and righteous altogether.
<sup>10</sup>More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold;
 sweeter also than honey and the extract of the honeycomb.
<sup>11</sup>Moreover by them is your servant warned.
 In keeping them there is great reward.
<sup>12</sup>Who can discern his errors?
 Forgive me from hidden errors.
<sup>13</sup>Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins.
 Let them not have dominion over me.
 Then I will be upright.
 I will be blameless and innocent of great transgression.
<sup>14</sup>Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight,
 LORD, my rock, and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>May the LORD answer you in the day of trouble.
 May the name of the God of Jacob set you up on high, <sup>2</sup>send you help from the sanctuary,
 grant you support from Zion, <sup>3</sup>remember all your offerings,
 and accept your burnt sacrifice.
 Selah.
<sup>4</sup>May He grant you your heart's desire,
 and fulfill all your counsel.
<sup>5</sup>We will triumph in your salvation.
 In the name of our God, we will set up our banners.
 May the LORD grant all your requests.
<sup>6</sup>Now I know that the LORD saves his anointed.
 He will answer him from his holy heaven,
 with the saving strength of his right hand.
<sup>7</sup>Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
 but we trust the name of the LORD our God.
<sup>8</sup>They are bowed down and fallen,
 but we rise up, and stand upright.
<sup>9</sup>Save, LORD!
 Let the King answer us when we call!

Psalm 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>The king rejoices in your strength, LORD!
How greatly he rejoices in your salvation!
- <sup>2</sup>You have given him his heart's desire,
and have not withheld the request of his lips.
- Selah.
- <sup>3</sup>For you meet him with the blessings of goodness.
You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
- <sup>4</sup>He asked life of you, you gave it to him,
even length of days forever and ever.
- <sup>5</sup>His glory is great in your salvation.
You lay honor and majesty on him.
- <sup>6</sup>For you make him most blessed forever.
You make him glad with joy in your presence.
- <sup>7</sup>For the king trusts in the LORD.
Through the loving kindness of the Most High, he shall not be moved.
- <sup>8</sup>Your hand will find out all of your enemies.
Your right hand will find out those who hate you.
- <sup>9</sup>You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger.
The LORD will swallow them up in his wrath.
The fire shall devour them.
- <sup>10</sup>You will destroy their descendants from the earth,
their posterity from among the children of men.
- <sup>11</sup>For they intended evil against you.
They plotted evil against you which cannot succeed.
- <sup>12</sup>For you will make them turn their back,
when you aim drawn bows at their face.
- <sup>13</sup>Be exalted, LORD, in your strength,
so we will sing and praise your power.

Psalm 22

For the Chief Musician; set to "The Doe of the Morning." A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?
Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?

- <sup>2</sup>My God, I cry in the daytime, but you don't answer;
in the night season, and am not silent.
- <sup>3</sup>But you are holy,
you who inhabit the praises of Israel.
- <sup>4</sup>Our fathers trusted in you.
They trusted, and you delivered them.
- <sup>5</sup>They cried to you, and were delivered.
They trusted in you, and were not disappointed.
- <sup>6</sup>But I am a worm, and no man;
a reproach of men, and despised by the people.
- <sup>7</sup>All those who see me mock me.
They insult me with their lips. They shake their heads, saying, <sup>8</sup>"He trusts in the LORD;
let him deliver him.
Let him rescue him, since he delights in him."
- <sup>9</sup>But you brought me out of the womb.
You made me trust at my mother's breasts.
- <sup>10</sup>I was thrown on you from my mother's womb.
You are my God since my mother bore me.
- <sup>11</sup>Don't be far from me, for trouble is near.
For there is none to help.
- <sup>12</sup>Many bulls have surrounded me.
Strong bulls of Bashan have encircled me.
- <sup>13</sup>They open their mouths wide against me,
lions tearing prey and roaring.
- <sup>14</sup>I am poured out like water.
All my bones are out of joint.
My heart is like wax;
it is melted within me.
- <sup>15</sup>My strength is dried up like a potsherd.
My tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth.
You have brought me into the dust of death.
- <sup>16</sup>For dogs have surrounded me.
A company of evildoers have enclosed me.
They have pierced my hands and feet.<sup>k</sup>
- <sup>17</sup>I can count all of my bones.
They look and stare at me.
- <sup>18</sup>They divide my garments among them.
They cast lots for my clothing.
- <sup>19</sup>But don't be far off, LORD.
You are my help: hurry to help me.
- <sup>20</sup>Deliver my soul from the sword,

my precious life from the power of the dog.

Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen, you have answered me.

<sup>22</sup>I will declare your name to my brothers.
In the midst of the assembly, I will praise you.

<sup>23</sup>You who fear the LORD, praise him!
All you descendants of Jacob, glorify him!
Stand in awe of him, all you descendants of Israel!

<sup>24</sup>For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted, Neither has he hidden his face from him;
but when he cried to him, he heard.

<sup>25</sup>Of you comes my praise in the great assembly.
I will pay my vows before those who fear him.

<sup>26</sup>The humble shall eat and be satisfied.
They shall praise the LORD who seek after him.
Let your hearts live forever.

<sup>27</sup>All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the LORD.
All the relatives of the nations shall worship before you.

He is the ruler over the nations.

<sup>29</sup>All the rich ones of the earth shall eat and worship.
All those who go down to the dust shall bow before him, even he who can't keep his soul alive.

<sup>30</sup>Posterity shall serve him.
Future generations shall be told about the Lord.

<sup>31</sup>They shall come and shall declare his righteousness to a people that shall be born, for he has done it.

Psalm 23

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD is my shepherd:
I shall lack nothing.

<sup>2</sup>He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters.

<sup>3</sup>He restores my soul.

He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

<sup>4</sup>Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil, for you are with me.
Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

<sup>5</sup>You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil.
My cup runs over.

<sup>6</sup>Surely goodness and loving kindness shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the LORD's house forever.

Psalm 24

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>The earth is the LORD's, with its fullness;
the world, and those who dwell therein.

<sup>2</sup>For he has founded it on the seas,
and established it on the floods.

<sup>3</sup>Who may ascend to the LORD's hill?
Who may stand in his holy place?

<sup>4</sup>He who has clean hands and a pure heart;
who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood,
and has not sworn deceitfully.

<sup>5</sup>He shall receive a blessing from the LORD, righteousness from the God of his salvation.

<sup>6</sup>This is the generation of those who seek Him, who seek your face—even Jacob.

Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates!
Be lifted up, you everlasting doors,
and the King of glory will come in.

<sup>8</sup>Who is the King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty,
The LORD mighty in battle.

<sup>9</sup>Lift up your heads, you gates;
yes, lift them up, you everlasting doors,
and the King of glory will come in.

<sup>10</sup>Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of Hosts is the King of glory!

Selah.

Psalm 25

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>To you, LORD, do I lift up my soul.
<sup>2</sup>My God, I have trusted in you.
 Don't let me be shamed.
 Don't let my enemies triumph over me.
<sup>3</sup>Yes, no one who waits for you shall be shamed.
 They shall be shamed who deal treacherously without cause.
<sup>4</sup>Show me your ways, LORD.
 Teach me your paths.
<sup>5</sup>Guide me in your truth, and teach me,
 For you are the God of my salvation,
 I wait for you all day long.
<sup>6</sup>LORD, remember your tender mercies and your loving kindness, for they are from old times.
<sup>7</sup>Don't remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions.
 Remember me according to your loving kindness,
 for your goodness' sake, LORD.
<sup>8</sup>Good and upright is the LORD, therefore he will instruct sinners in the way.
<sup>9</sup>He will guide the humble in justice.
 He will teach the humble his way.
<sup>10</sup>All the paths of the LORD are loving kindness and truth to such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
<sup>11</sup>For your name's sake, LORD, pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
<sup>12</sup>What man is he who fears the LORD?
 He shall instruct him in the way that he shall choose.
<sup>13</sup>His soul shall dwell at ease.
 His seed shall inherit the land.
<sup>14</sup>The friendship of the LORD is with those who fear him.
 He will show them his covenant.
<sup>15</sup>My eyes are ever on the LORD, for he will pluck my feet out of the net.
<sup>16</sup>Turn to me, and have mercy on me,
 for I am desolate and afflicted.
<sup>17</sup>The troubles of my heart are enlarged.
 Oh bring me out of my distresses.
<sup>18</sup>Consider my affliction and my travail.
 Forgive all my sins.

- <sup>19</sup>Consider my enemies, for they are many.
 They hate me with cruel hatred.
<sup>20</sup>Oh keep my soul, and deliver me.
 Let me not be disappointed, for I take refuge in you.
<sup>21</sup>Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for you.
<sup>22</sup>Redeem Israel, God, out all of his troubles.

Psalm 26

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>Judge me, LORD, for I have walked in my integrity.
 I have trusted also in LORD without wavering.
<sup>2</sup>Examine me, LORD, and prove me.
 Try my heart and my mind.
<sup>3</sup>For your loving kindness is before my eyes.
 I have walked in your truth.
<sup>4</sup>I have not sat with deceitful men, neither will I go in with hypocrites.
<sup>5</sup>I hate the assembly of evildoers, and will not sit with the wicked.
<sup>6</sup>I will wash my hands in innocence, so I will go about your altar, LORD; <sup>7</sup>that I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all your wondrous works.
<sup>8</sup>LORD, I love the habitation of your house,
 the place where your glory dwells.
<sup>9</sup>Don't gather my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloodthirsty men;
<sup>10</sup>in whose hands is wickedness, their right hand is full of bribes.
<sup>11</sup>But as for me, I will walk in my integrity.
 Redeem me, and be merciful to me.
<sup>12</sup>My foot stands in an even place.
 In the congregations I will bless the LORD.

Psalm 27

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>The LORD is my light and my salvation.
Whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life.
Of whom shall I be afraid?
- <sup>2</sup>When evildoers came at me to eat up my flesh, even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
- <sup>3</sup>Though an army should encamp against me,
my heart shall not fear.
Though war should rise against me,
even then I will be confident.
- <sup>4</sup>One thing I have asked of the LORD, that I will seek after,
that I may dwell in the house of the LORD
all the days of my life,
to see the LORD's beauty,
and to inquire in his temple.
- <sup>5</sup>For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion.
In the covert of his tabernacle he will hide
me.
He will lift me up on a rock.
- <sup>6</sup>Now my head will be lifted up above my enemies around me.
I will offer sacrifices of joy in his tent.
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup>Hear, LORD, when I cry with my voice.
Have mercy also on me, and answer me.
- <sup>8</sup>When you said, "Seek my face," my heart said to you, "I will seek your face, LORD."
- <sup>9</sup>Don't hide your face from me.
Don't put your servant away in anger.
You have been my help.
Don't abandon me,
neither forsake me, God of my salvation.
- <sup>10</sup>When my father and my mother forsake me,
then the LORD will take me up.
- <sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, LORD.
Lead me in a straight path, because of my enemies.
- <sup>12</sup>Don't deliver me over to the desire of my adversaries,
for false witnesses have risen up against
me,
such as breathe out cruelty.
- <sup>13</sup>I am still confident of this:

I will see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

<sup>14</sup>Wait for the LORD.

Be strong, and let your heart take courage.

Yes, wait for the LORD.

Psalm 28

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>To you, LORD, I call.
My rock, don't be deaf to me;
lest, if you are silent to me,
I would become like those who go down into the pit.
- <sup>2</sup>Hear the voice of my petitions, when I cry to
you,
when I lift up my hands toward your Most Holy Place.
- <sup>3</sup>Don't draw me away with the wicked, with the workers of iniquity who speak
peace with their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts.
- <sup>4</sup>Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings.
Give them according to the operation of their hands.
Bring back on them what they deserve.
- <sup>5</sup>Because they don't respect the works of the LORD,
nor the operation of his hands,
he will break them down and not build them up.
- <sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD, because he has heard the voice of my petitions.
- <sup>7</sup>The LORD is my strength and my shield.
My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped.
Therefore my heart greatly rejoices.
With my song I will thank him.
- <sup>8</sup>The LORD is their strength.
He is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
- <sup>9</sup>Save your people,
and bless your inheritance.
Be their shepherd also,
and bear them up forever.

Psalm 29

A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you sons of the mighty,
ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
- <sup>2</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his
name.
Worship the LORD in holy array.
- <sup>3</sup>The LORD's voice is on the waters.
The God of glory thunders, even the LORD on many waters.
- <sup>4</sup>The LORD's voice is powerful.
The LORD's voice is full of majesty.
- <sup>5</sup>The voice of the LORD breaks the cedars.
Yes, the LORD breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
- <sup>6</sup>He makes them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young, wild ox.
- <sup>7</sup>The LORD's voice strikes with flashes of lightning.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD's voice shakes the wilderness.
The LORD shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- <sup>9</sup>The LORD's voice makes the deer calve, and strips the forests bare.
In his temple everything says, "Glory!"
- <sup>10</sup>The LORD sat enthroned at the Flood.
Yes, the LORD sits as King forever.
- <sup>11</sup>The LORD will give strength to his people.
The LORD will bless his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A Psalm. A Song for the Dedication of the Temple. By David.

- <sup>1</sup>I will extol you, LORD, for you have raised me
up,
and have not made my foes to rejoice over
me.
- <sup>2</sup>LORD my God, I cried to you,
and you have healed me.
- <sup>3</sup>LORD, you have brought up my soul from
You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
- <sup>4</sup>Sing praise to the LORD, you holy ones of his.
Give thanks to his holy name.

- <sup>5</sup>For his anger is but for a moment.
His favor is for a lifetime.
Weeping may stay for the night,
but joy comes in the morning.
- <sup>6</sup>As for me, I said in my prosperity,
"I shall never be moved."
- <sup>7</sup>You, LORD, when you favored me, made my mountain stand strong;
but when you hid your face, I was troubled.
- <sup>8</sup>I cried to you, LORD.
To the LORD I made supplication:
<sup>9</sup>"What profit is there in my destruction, if I go down to the pit?
Shall the dust praise you?
Shall it declare your truth?"
- <sup>10</sup>Hear, LORD, and have mercy on me.
LORD, be my helper."
- <sup>11</sup>You have turned my mourning into dancing
for me.
You have removed my sackcloth, and clothed me with gladness, <sup>12</sup>To the end that my heart may sing praise to you, and not be silent.
LORD my God, I will give thanks to you
forever!

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>In you, LORD, I take refuge.
Let me never be disappointed.
Deliver me in your righteousness.
- <sup>2</sup>Bow down your ear to me.
Deliver me speedily.
Be to me a strong rock,
a house of defense to save me.
- <sup>3</sup>For you are my rock and my fortress, therefore for your name's sake lead me
and guide me.
- <sup>4</sup>Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me,
for you are my stronghold.
- <sup>5</sup>Into your hand I commend my spirit.
You redeem me, LORD, God of truth.
- <sup>6</sup>I hate those who regard lying vanities,
but I trust in the LORD.
- <sup>7</sup>I will be glad and rejoice in your loving kindness,
for you have seen my affliction.
You have known my soul in adversities.

<sup>8</sup>You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy.
 You have set my feet in a large place.
<sup>9</sup>Have mercy on me, LORD, for I am in distress.
 My eye, my soul, and my body waste away with grief.
<sup>10</sup>For my life is spent with sorrow,
 my years with sighing.
 My strength fails because of my iniquity.
 My bones are wasted away.
<sup>11</sup>Because of all my adversaries I have become utterly contemptible to my neighbors,
 A fear to my acquaintances.
 Those who saw me on the street fled from me.
<sup>12</sup>I am forgotten from their hearts like a dead man.
 I am like broken pottery.
<sup>13</sup>For I have heard the slander of many, terror on every side, while they conspire together against me,
 they plot to take away my life.
<sup>14</sup>But I trust in you, LORD.
 I said, "You are my God."
<sup>15</sup>My times are in your hand.
 Deliver me from the hand of my enemies,
 and from those who persecute me.
<sup>16</sup>Make your face to shine on your servant.
 Save me in your loving kindness.
<sup>17</sup>Let me not be disappointed, LORD, for I have called on you.
 Let the wicked be disappointed.
 Let them be silent in Sheol<sup>m</sup>.
<sup>18</sup>Let the lying lips be mute, which speak against the righteous insolently, with pride and contempt.
<sup>19</sup>Oh how great is your goodness, which you have laid up for those who fear you,
 which you have worked for those who take refuge in you,
 before the sons of men!
<sup>20</sup>In the shelter of your presence you will hide them from the plotting of man.
 You will keep them secretly in a dwelling away from the strife of tongues.
<sup>21</sup>Praise be to the LORD, for he has shown me his marvelous loving kindness in a strong city.
<sup>22</sup>As for me, I said in my haste, "I am cut off from before your eyes."

<sup>m</sup>31:17 Sheol is the place of the dead.

Nevertheless you heard the voice of my petitions when I cried to you.
<sup>23</sup>Oh love the LORD, all you his holy ones!
 The LORD preserves the faithful, and fully recompenses him who behaves arrogantly.
<sup>24</sup>Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all you who hope in the LORD.

Psalm 32

By David. A contemplative psalm.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is he whose disobedience is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
<sup>2</sup>Blessed is the man to whom the LORD doesn't impute iniquity, in whose spirit there is no deceit.
<sup>3</sup>When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.
<sup>4</sup>For day and night your hand was heavy on me.
 My strength was sapped in the heat of summer.
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>I acknowledged my sin to you.
 I didn't hide my iniquity.
 I said, I will confess my transgressions to the LORD,
 and you forgave the iniquity of my sin.
 Selah.
<sup>6</sup>For this, let everyone who is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found.
 Surely when the great waters overflow, they shall not reach to him.
<sup>7</sup>You are my hiding place.
 You will preserve me from trouble.
 You will surround me with songs of deliverance.
 Selah.
<sup>8</sup>I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go.
 I will counsel you with my eye on you.
<sup>9</sup>Don't be like the horse, or like the mule, which have no understanding, who are controlled by bit and bridle, or else they will not come near to you.
<sup>10</sup>Many sorrows come to the wicked, but loving kindness shall surround him who trusts in the LORD.

<sup>11</sup>Be glad in the LORD, and rejoice, you righteous!
Shout for joy, all you who are upright in heart!

Psalm 33

<sup>1</sup>Rejoice in the LORD, you righteous!
Praise is fitting for the upright.
<sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the LORD with the lyre.
Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
<sup>3</sup>Sing to him a new song.
Play skillfully with a shout of joy!
<sup>4</sup>For the word of the LORD is right.
All his work is done in faithfulness.
<sup>5</sup>He loves righteousness and justice.
The earth is full of the loving kindness of the LORD.
<sup>6</sup>By the LORD's word, the heavens were made;
all their army by the breath of his mouth.
<sup>7</sup>He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap.
He lays up the deeps in storehouses.
<sup>8</sup>Let all the earth fear the LORD.
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
<sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it was done.
He commanded, and it stood firm.
<sup>10</sup>The LORD brings the counsel of the nations to nothing.
He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
<sup>11</sup>The counsel of the LORD stands fast forever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.
<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.
<sup>13</sup>The LORD looks from heaven.
He sees all the sons of men.
<sup>14</sup>From the place of his habitation he looks out on all the inhabitants of the earth, <sup>15</sup>he who fashions all of their hearts;
and he considers all of their works.
<sup>16</sup>There is no king saved by the multitude of an army.
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
<sup>17</sup>A horse is a vain thing for safety, neither does he deliver any by his great power.

<sup>18</sup>Behold, the LORD's eye is on those who fear him, on those who hope in his loving kindness; <sup>19</sup>to deliver their soul from death,
to keep them alive in famine.
<sup>20</sup>Our soul has waited for the LORD.
He is our help and our shield.
<sup>21</sup>For our heart rejoices in him, because we have trusted in his holy name.
<sup>22</sup>Let your loving kindness be on us, LORD, since we have hoped in you.

Psalm 34

By David; when he pretended to be insane before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.<sup>n</sup>

<sup>1</sup>I will bless the LORD at all times.
His praise will always be in my mouth.
<sup>2</sup>My soul shall boast in the LORD.
The humble shall hear of it, and be glad.
<sup>3</sup>Oh magnify the LORD with me.
Let us exalt his name together.
<sup>4</sup>I sought the LORD, and he answered me,
and delivered me from all my fears.
<sup>5</sup>They looked to him, and were radiant.
Their faces shall never be covered with shame.
<sup>6</sup>This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him,
and saved him out of all his troubles.
<sup>7</sup>The angel of the LORD encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.
<sup>8</sup>Oh taste and see that the LORD is good.
Blessed is the man who takes refuge in him.
<sup>9</sup>Oh fear the LORD, you his holy ones, for there is no lack with those who fear him.
<sup>10</sup>The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger, but those who seek the LORD shall not lack any good thing.
<sup>11</sup>Come, you children, listen to me.
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
<sup>12</sup>Who is someone who desires life,

<sup>n</sup>34:0 Psalm 34 is an acrostic poem, with each verse starting with a letter of the alphabet (ordered from Alef to Tav).

- and loves many days, that he may see good?
- <sup>13</sup>Keep your tongue from evil,
and your lips from speaking lies.
- <sup>14</sup>Depart from evil, and do good.
seek peace, and pursue it.
- <sup>15</sup>The LORD's eyes are toward the righteous.
His ears listen to their cry.
- <sup>16</sup>The LORD's face is against those who do evil, to cut off their memory from the earth.
- <sup>17</sup>The righteous cry, and the LORD hears,
and delivers them out of all their troubles.
- <sup>18</sup>The LORD is near to those who have a broken heart,
and saves those who have a crushed spirit.
- <sup>19</sup>Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him out of them all.
- <sup>20</sup>He protects all of his bones.
Not one of them is broken.
- <sup>21</sup>Evil shall kill the wicked.
Those who hate the righteous shall be condemned.
- <sup>22</sup>The LORD redeems the soul of his servants.
None of those who take refuge in him shall be condemned.
- <sup>8</sup>Let destruction come on him unawares.
Let his net that he has hidden catch himself.
Let him fall into that destruction.
- <sup>9</sup>My soul shall be joyful in the LORD.
It shall rejoice in his salvation.
- <sup>10</sup>All my bones shall say, "LORD, who is like you, who delivers the poor from him who is too strong for him;
yes, the poor and the needy from him who robs him?"
- <sup>11</sup>Unrighteous witnesses rise up.
They ask me about things that I don't know about.
- <sup>12</sup>They reward me evil for good,
to the bereaving of my soul.
- <sup>13</sup>But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth.
I afflicted my soul with fasting.
My prayer returned into my own bosom.
- <sup>14</sup>I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother.
I bowed down mourning, as one who mourns his mother.
- <sup>15</sup>But in my adversity, they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together.
The attackers gathered themselves together against me, and I didn't know it.
They tore at me, and didn't cease.

Psalm 35

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>Contend, LORD, with those who contend with me.
Fight against those who fight against me.
- <sup>2</sup>Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.
- <sup>3</sup>Brandish the spear and block those who pursue me.
Tell my soul, "I am your salvation."
- <sup>4</sup>Let those who seek after my soul be disappointed and brought to dishonor.
Let those who plot my ruin be turned back and confounded.
- <sup>5</sup>Let them be as chaff before the wind,
The LORD's angel driving them on.
- <sup>6</sup>Let their way be dark and slippery,
The LORD's angel pursuing them.
- <sup>7</sup>For without cause they have hidden their net in a pit for me.
Without cause they have dug a pit for my soul.
- <sup>16</sup>Like the profane mockers in feasts,
they gnashed their teeth at me.
- <sup>17</sup>Lord, how long will you look on?
Rescue my soul from their destruction,
my precious life from the lions.
- <sup>18</sup>I will give you thanks in the great assembly.
I will praise you among many people.
- <sup>19</sup>Don't let those who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me;
neither let those who hate me without a cause wink their eyes.
- <sup>20</sup>For they don't speak peace, but they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.
- <sup>21</sup>Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me.
They said, "Aha! Aha! Our eye has seen it!"
- <sup>22</sup>You have seen it, LORD. Don't keep silent.
Lord, don't be far from me.
- <sup>23</sup>Wake up! Rise up to defend me, my God!

My Lord, contend for me!
<sup>24</sup>Vindicate me, LORD my God, according to your righteousness.
 Don't let them gloat over me.
<sup>25</sup>Don't let them say in their heart, "Aha! That's the way we want it!"
 Don't let them say, "We have swallowed him up!"
<sup>26</sup>Let them be disappointed and confounded together who rejoice at my calamity.
 Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor who magnify themselves
 against me.
<sup>27</sup>Let them shout for joy and be glad, who favor my righteous cause.
 Yes, let them say continually, "The LORD be magnified,
 who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant!"
<sup>28</sup>My tongue shall talk about your righteousness and about your praise all day long.

Psalm 36

For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>An oracle is within my heart about the disobedience of the wicked:
 "There is no fear of God before his eyes."
<sup>2</sup>For he flatters himself in his own eyes, too much to detect and hate his sin.
<sup>3</sup>The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit.
 He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
<sup>4</sup>He plots iniquity on his bed.
 He sets himself in a way that is not good.
 He doesn't abhor evil.
<sup>5</sup>Your loving kindness, LORD, is in the heavens.
 Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
<sup>6</sup>Your righteousness is like the mountains of
 God.
 Your judgments are like a great deep.
 LORD, you preserve man and animal.
<sup>7</sup>How precious is your loving kindness, God!
 The children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
<sup>8</sup>They shall be abundantly satisfied with the abundance of your house.

You will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.
<sup>9</sup>For with you is the spring of life.
 In your light shall we see light.
<sup>10</sup>Oh continue your loving kindness to those who know you,
 your righteousness to the upright in
 heart.
<sup>11</sup>Don't let the foot of pride come against me.
 Don't let the hand of the wicked drive me
 away.
<sup>12</sup>There the workers of iniquity are fallen.
 They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

Psalm 37

By David.

<sup>1</sup>Don't fret because of evildoers, neither be envious against those who work unrighteousness.
<sup>2</sup>For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither like the green herb.
<sup>3</sup>Trust in the LORD, and do good.
 Dwell in the land, and enjoy safe pasture.
<sup>4</sup>Also delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your
 heart.
<sup>5</sup>Commit your way to the LORD.
 Trust also in him, and he will do this:
<sup>6</sup>he will make your righteousness go forth as the light,
 and your justice as the noon day sun.
<sup>7</sup>Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him.
 Don't fret because of him who prospers in
 his way,
 because of the man who makes wicked plots happen.
<sup>8</sup>Cease from anger, and forsake wrath.
 Don't fret, it leads only to evildoing.
<sup>9</sup>For evildoers shall be cut off, but those who wait for the LORD shall inherit the land.
<sup>10</sup>For yet a little while, and the wicked will be no more.
 Yes, though you look for his place, he isn't
 there.
<sup>11</sup>But the humble shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
<sup>12</sup>The wicked plots against the just,

and gnashes at him with his teeth.
<sup>13</sup>The Lord will laugh at him,
 for he sees that his day is coming.
<sup>14</sup>The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow,
 to cast down the poor and needy,
 to kill those who are upright in the way.
<sup>15</sup>Their sword shall enter into their own heart.
 Their bows shall be broken.
<sup>16</sup>Better is a little that the righteous has,
 than the abundance of many wicked.
<sup>17</sup>For the arms of the wicked shall be broken, but the LORD upholds the righteous.
<sup>18</sup>The LORD knows the days of the perfect.
 Their inheritance shall be forever.
<sup>19</sup>They shall not be disappointed in the time of evil.
 In the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
<sup>20</sup>But the wicked shall perish.
 The enemies of the LORD shall be like the beauty of the fields.
 They will vanish—
 vanish like smoke.
<sup>21</sup>The wicked borrow, and don't pay back,
 but the righteous give generously.
<sup>22</sup>For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land.
 Those who are cursed by him shall be cut off.
<sup>23</sup>A man's goings are established by the LORD.
 He delights in his way.
<sup>24</sup>Though he stumble, he shall not fall, for the LORD holds him up with his hand.
<sup>25</sup>I have been young, and now am old, yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken,
 nor his children begging for bread.
<sup>26</sup>All day long he deals graciously, and lends.
 His seed is blessed.
<sup>27</sup>Depart from evil, and do good.
 Live securely forever.
<sup>28</sup>For the LORD loves justice, and doesn't forsake his holy ones.
 They are preserved forever,
 but the children of the wicked shall be cut off.
<sup>29</sup>The righteous shall inherit the land,
 and live in it forever.
<sup>30</sup>The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom.
 His tongue speaks justice.
<sup>31</sup>The law of his God is in his heart.

None of his steps shall slide.
<sup>32</sup>The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to kill him.
<sup>33</sup>The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.
<sup>34</sup>Wait for the LORD, and keep his way,
 and he will exalt you to inherit the land.
 When the wicked are cut off, you shall see
 it.
<sup>35</sup>I have seen the wicked in great power, spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
<sup>36</sup>But he passed away, and behold, he was not.
 Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.
<sup>37</sup>Mark the perfect man, and see the upright, for there is a future for the man of peace.
<sup>38</sup>As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together.
 The future of the wicked shall be cut off.
<sup>39</sup>But the salvation of the righteous is from the
 LORD.
 He is their stronghold in the time of
 trouble.
<sup>40</sup>The LORD helps them, and rescues them.
 He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them,
 Because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm by David, for a memorial.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, don't rebuke me in your wrath, neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
<sup>2</sup>For your arrows have pierced me,
 your hand presses hard on me.
<sup>3</sup>There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation,
 neither is there any health in my bones
 because of my sin.
<sup>4</sup>For my iniquities have gone over my head.
 As a heavy burden, they are too heavy for
 me.
<sup>5</sup>My wounds are loathsome and corrupt,
 because of my foolishness.
<sup>6</sup>I am pained and bowed down greatly.
 I go mourning all day long.
<sup>7</sup>For my waist is filled with burning.
 There is no soundness in my flesh.
<sup>8</sup>I am faint and severely bruised.

I have groaned by reason of the anguish of my heart.
<sup>9</sup>Lord, all my desire is before you.
My groaning is not hidden from you.
<sup>10</sup>My heart throbs.
My strength fails me.
As for the light of my eyes, it has also left
me.
<sup>11</sup>My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague.
My kinsmen stand far away.
<sup>12</sup>They also who seek after my life lay snares.
Those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things,
and meditate deceits all day long.
<sup>13</sup>But I, as a deaf man, don't hear.
I am as a mute man who doesn't open his mouth.
<sup>14</sup>Yes, I am as a man who doesn't hear,
in whose mouth are no reproofs.
<sup>15</sup>For in you, LORD, do I hope.
You will answer, Lord my God.
<sup>16</sup>For I said, "Don't let them gloat over me, or exalt themselves over me when my foot slips."
<sup>17</sup>For I am ready to fall.
My pain is continually before me.
<sup>18</sup>For I will declare my iniquity.
I will be sorry for my sin.
<sup>19</sup>But my enemies are vigorous and many.
Those who hate me without reason are numerous.
<sup>20</sup>They who also render evil for good are adversaries to me,
because I follow what is good.
<sup>21</sup>Don't forsake me, LORD.
My God, don't be far from me.
<sup>22</sup>Hurry to help me,
Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician. For Jeduthun. A
Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>I said, "I will watch my ways, so that I don't sin with my tongue.
I will keep my mouth with a bridle while the wicked is before me."
<sup>2</sup>I was mute with silence.
I held my peace, even from good.
My sorrow was stirred.

<sup>3</sup>My heart was hot within me.
While I meditated, the fire burned:
I spoke with my tongue:
<sup>4</sup>"LORD, show me my end,
what is the measure of my days.
Let me know how frail I am."
<sup>5</sup>Behold, you have made my days hand-breadths.
My lifetime is as nothing before you.
Surely every man stands as a breath."
Selah.
<sup>6</sup>"Surely every man walks like a shadow.
Surely they busy themselves in vain.
He heaps up, and doesn't know who shall gather.
<sup>7</sup>Now, Lord, what do I wait for?
My hope is in you.
<sup>8</sup>Deliver me from all my transgressions.
Don't make me the reproach of the foolish.
<sup>9</sup>I was mute.
I didn't open my mouth,
because you did it.
<sup>10</sup>Remove your scourge away from me.
I am overcome by the blow of your hand.
<sup>11</sup>When you rebuke and correct man for iniquity,
You consume his wealth like a moth.
Surely every man is but a breath."
Selah.
<sup>12</sup>"Hear my prayer, LORD, and give ear to my cry.
Don't be silent at my tears.
For I am a stranger with you,
a foreigner, as all my fathers were.
<sup>13</sup>Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go away, and exist no more."

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>I waited patiently for the LORD.
He turned to me, and heard my cry.
<sup>2</sup>He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay.
He set my feet on a rock,
and gave me a firm place to stand.
<sup>3</sup>He has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God.
Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed is the man who makes the LORD his trust, and doesn't respect the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

<sup>5</sup>Many, LORD, my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are toward us.

They can't be declared back to you.

If I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

<sup>6</sup>Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire.

You have opened my ears.

You have not required burnt offering and sin offering.

<sup>7</sup>Then I said, "Behold, I have come.

It is written about me in the book in the scroll.

<sup>8</sup>I delight to do your will, my God.

Yes, your Torah is within my heart."

<sup>9</sup>I have proclaimed glad news of righteousness in the great assembly.

Behold, I will not seal my lips, LORD, you know.

<sup>10</sup>I have not hidden your righteousness within my heart.

I have declared your faithfulness and
your salvation.

I have not concealed your loving kindness and your truth from the great assembly.

<sup>11</sup>Don't withhold your tender mercies from me,
LORD.

Let your loving kindness and your truth continually preserve me.

<sup>12</sup>For innumerable evils have surrounded me.

My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up.

They are more than the hairs of my head.

My heart has failed me.

<sup>13</sup>Be pleased, LORD, to deliver me.

Hurry to help me, LORD.

<sup>14</sup>Let them be disappointed and confounded together who seek after my soul to destroy it.

Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor who delight in my hurt.

<sup>15</sup>Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that tell me, "Aha! Aha!"

<sup>16</sup>Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad in you.

Let such as love your salvation say continually, "Let the LORD be exalted!"

<sup>17</sup>But I am poor and needy.

May the Lord think about me.

You are my help and my deliverer.

Don't delay, my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed is he who considers the poor.

The LORD will deliver him in the day of evil.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive.

He shall be blessed on the earth, and he will not surrender him to the will of his enemies.

<sup>3</sup>The LORD will sustain him on his sickbed, and restore him from his bed of illness.

<sup>4</sup>I said, "LORD, have mercy on me!

Heal me, for I have sinned against you."

<sup>5</sup>My enemies speak evil against me:

"When will he die, and his name perish?"

<sup>6</sup>If he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood.

His heart gathers iniquity to itself.

When he goes abroad, he tells it.

<sup>7</sup>All who hate me whisper together against me.

They imagine the worst for me.

<sup>8</sup>"An evil disease," they say, "has afflicted him.

Now that he lies he shall rise up no
more."

<sup>9</sup>Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,

who ate bread with me,

has lifted up his heel against me.

<sup>10</sup>But you, LORD, have mercy on me, and raise me up,

that I may repay them.

<sup>11</sup>By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy doesn't triumph over

me.

<sup>12</sup>As for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me in your presence forever.

<sup>13</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting and to everlasting!

Amen and amen.

BOOK II

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by the sons of Korah.

- <sup>1</sup>As the deer pants for the water brooks, so my soul pants after you, God<sup>o</sup>.
- <sup>2</sup>My soul thirsts for God, for the living God.
When shall I come and appear before
God?
- <sup>3</sup>My tears have been my food day and night, while they continually ask me, "Where is
your God?"
- <sup>4</sup>These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I used to go with the crowd, and led them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping a holy day.
- <sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God!
For I shall still praise him for the saving help of his presence.
- <sup>6</sup>My God, my soul is in despair within me.
Therefore I remember you from the land of the Jordan,
the heights of Hermon, from the hill Mizar.
- <sup>7</sup>Deep calls to deep at the noise of your waterfalls.
All your waves and your billows have swept over me.
- <sup>8</sup>the LORD<sup>p</sup> will command his loving kindness in the daytime.
In the night his song shall be with me:
a prayer to the God of my life.
- <sup>9</sup>I will ask God, my rock, "Why have you forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the
oppression of the enemy?"
- <sup>10</sup>As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me,
while they continually ask me, "Where is
your God?"
- <sup>11</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God! For I shall still praise him, the saving help of my countenance, and my God.

<sup>p</sup>42:8 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

Psalm 43

- <sup>1</sup>Vindicate me, God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation.
Oh, deliver me from deceitful and wicked
men.
- <sup>2</sup>For you are the God of my strength. Why have you rejected me?
Why do I go mourning because of the
oppression of the enemy?
- <sup>3</sup>Oh, send out your light and your truth.
Let them lead me.
Let them bring me to your holy hill,
To your tents.
- <sup>4</sup>Then I will go to the altar of God,
to God, my exceeding joy.
I will praise you on the harp, God, my God.
- <sup>5</sup>Why are you in despair, my soul?
Why are you disturbed within me?
Hope in God!
For I shall still praise him:
my Savior, my helper, and my God.

Psalm 44

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. A contemplative psalm.

- <sup>1</sup>We have heard with our ears, God;
our fathers have told us,
what work you did in their days,
in the days of old.
- <sup>2</sup>You drove out the nations with your hand,
but you planted them.
You afflicted the peoples,
but you spread them abroad.
- <sup>3</sup>For they didn't get the land in possession by their own sword,
neither did their own arm save them;
but your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your face,
because you were favorable to them.
- <sup>4</sup>You are my King, God.
Command victories for Jacob!
- <sup>5</sup>Through you, will we push down our adversaries.
Through your name, will we tread them under who rise up against us.
- <sup>6</sup>For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.

<sup>7</sup>But you have saved us from our adversaries, and have shamed those who hate us.
<sup>8</sup>In God we have made our boast all day long,
we will give thanks to your name forever.
Selah.
<sup>9</sup>But now you rejected us, and brought us to dishonor,
and don't go out with our armies.
<sup>10</sup>You make us turn back from the adversary.
Those who hate us take spoil for themselves.
<sup>11</sup>You have made us like sheep for food,
and have scattered us among the nations.
<sup>12</sup>You sell your people for nothing, and have gained nothing from their sale.
<sup>13</sup>You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and a derision to those who are around us.
<sup>14</sup>You make us a byword among the nations,
a shaking of the head among the peoples.
<sup>15</sup>All day long my dishonor is before me,
and shame covers my face, <sup>16</sup>At the taunt of one who reproaches and verbally abuses,
because of the enemy and the avenger.
<sup>17</sup>All this has come on us,
yet have we not forgotten you, Neither have we been false to your covenant.
<sup>18</sup>Our heart has not turned back, neither have our steps strayed from your path, <sup>19</sup>Though you have crushed us in the haunt of jackals,
and covered us with the shadow of death.
<sup>20</sup>If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange
god;
<sup>21</sup>won't God search this out?
For he knows the secrets of the heart.
<sup>22</sup>Yes, for your sake we are killed all day long.
We are regarded as sheep for the slaughter.
<sup>23</sup>Wake up!
Why do you sleep, Lord?<sup>a</sup> Arise!
Don't reject us forever.
<sup>24</sup>Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
<sup>25</sup>For our soul is bowed down to the dust.

Our body clings to the earth.
<sup>26</sup>Rise up to help us.
Redeem us for your loving kindness'
sake.

Psalm 45

For the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies."
A contemplation by the sons of Korah. A wedding song.

<sup>1</sup>My heart overflows with a noble theme.
I recite my verses for the king.
My tongue is like the pen of a skillful writer.
<sup>2</sup>You are the most excellent of the sons of men.
Grace has anointed your lips,
therefore God has blessed you forever.
<sup>3</sup>Strap your sword on your thigh, mighty one:
your splendor and your majesty.
<sup>4</sup>In your majesty ride on victoriously on behalf of truth, humility, and righteousness.
Let your right hand display awesome
deeds.
<sup>5</sup>Your arrows are sharp.
The nations fall under you, with arrows
in the heart of the king's enemies.
<sup>6</sup>Your throne, God, is forever and ever.
A scepter of equity is the scepter of your kingdom.
<sup>7</sup>You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness.
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
<sup>8</sup>All your garments smell like myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
<sup>9</sup>Kings' daughters are among your honorable women.
At your right hand the queen stands in gold of Ophir.
<sup>10</sup>Listen, daughter, consider, and turn your ear.
Forget your own people, and also your father's house.
<sup>11</sup>So the king will desire your beauty, honor him, for he is your lord.
<sup>12</sup>The daughter of Tyre comes with a gift.
The rich among the people entreat your favor.
<sup>13</sup>The princess inside is all glorious.

Her clothing is interwoven with gold.
<sup>14</sup>She shall be led to the king in embroidered work.

The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to you.
<sup>15</sup>With gladness and rejoicing they shall be led. They shall enter into the king's palace.

<sup>16</sup>Your sons will take the place of your fathers. You shall make them princes in all the earth.

<sup>17</sup>I will make your name to be remembered in all generations.
 Therefore the peoples shall give you thanks forever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the Chief Musician. By the sons of Korah. According to Alamo<sup>t</sup>.

<sup>1</sup>God is our refuge and strength,
 a very present help in trouble.

<sup>2</sup>Therefore we won't be afraid, though the earth changes, though the mountains are shaken into the heart of the seas;

<sup>3</sup>though its waters roar and are troubled, though the mountains tremble with their swelling.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup>There is a river, the streams of which make the city of God glad,
 the holy place of the tents of the Most High.

<sup>5</sup>God is in her midst. She shall not be moved.
 God will help her at dawn.

<sup>6</sup>The nations raged. The kingdoms were moved.
 He lifted his voice, and the earth melted.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD of Hosts is with us.
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah.

<sup>8</sup>Come, see the LORD's works, what desolations he has made in the earth.

<sup>9</sup>He makes wars cease to the end of the earth.
 He breaks the bow, and shatters the spear.
 He burns the chariots in the fire.

<sup>10</sup>"Be still, and know that I am God.
 I will be exalted among the nations.

<sup>s</sup>47:5 or, trumpet

I will be exalted in the earth."

<sup>11</sup>The LORD of Hosts is with us.
 The God of Jacob is our refuge.

Selah.

Psalm 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Oh clap your hands, all you nations.
 Shout to God with the voice of triumph!

<sup>2</sup>For the LORD Most High is awesome.
 He is a great King over all the earth.

<sup>3</sup>He subdues nations under us,
 and peoples under our feet.

<sup>4</sup>He chooses our inheritance for us,
 the glory of Jacob whom he loved.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>God has gone up with a shout,
 The LORD with the sound of a shofar<sup>s</sup>.

<sup>6</sup>Sing praise to God, sing praises.
 Sing praises to our King, sing praises.

<sup>7</sup>For God is the King of all the earth.
 Sing praises with understanding.

<sup>8</sup>God reigns over the nations.
 God sits on his holy throne.

<sup>9</sup>The princes of the peoples are gathered together,
 the people of the God of Abraham.

For the shields of the earth belong to God.
 He is greatly exalted!

Psalm 48

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised,
 in the city of our God, in his holy mountain.

<sup>2</sup>Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion, on the north sides,
 the city of the great King.

 they passed by together.

<sup>5</sup>They saw it, then they were amazed.
 They were dismayed.
 They hurried away.

<sup>6</sup>Trembling took hold of them there, pain, as of a woman in travail.
<sup>7</sup>With the east wind, you break the ships of Tarshish.
<sup>8</sup>As we have heard, so we have seen, in the city of the LORD of Hosts, in the city of our God.
 God will establish it forever.
 Selah.
<sup>9</sup>We have thought about your loving kindness,
 God,
 in the midst of your temple.
<sup>10</sup>As is your name, God,
 so is your praise to the ends of the earth.
 Your right hand is full of righteousness.
<sup>11</sup>Let Mount Zion be glad!
 Let the daughters of Judah rejoice,
 Because of your judgments.
<sup>12</sup>Walk about Zion, and go around her.
 Number its towers.
<sup>13</sup>Mark well her bulwarks.
 Consider her palaces,
 that you may tell it to the next generation.
<sup>14</sup>For this God is our God forever and ever.
 He will be our guide even to death.

Psalm 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>Hear this, all you peoples.
 Listen, all you inhabitants of the world, <sup>2</sup>both low and high,
 rich and poor together.
<sup>3</sup>My mouth will speak words of wisdom.
 My heart shall utter understanding.
<sup>4</sup>I will incline my ear to a proverb.
 I will open my riddle on the harp.
<sup>5</sup>Why should I fear in the days of evil, when iniquity at my heels surrounds me?
<sup>6</sup>Those who trust in their wealth, and boast in the multitude of their riches—
<sup>7</sup>none of them can by any means redeem his brother,
 nor give God a ransom for him.
<sup>8</sup>For the redemption of their life is costly,
 no payment is ever enough,

<sup>t</sup>49:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>9</sup>That he should live on forever,
 that he should not see corruption.
<sup>10</sup>For he sees that wise men die;
 likewise the fool and the senseless perish,
 and leave their wealth to others.
<sup>11</sup>Their inward thought is that their houses will endure forever,
 and their dwelling places to all generations.
 They name their lands after themselves.
<sup>12</sup>But man, despite his riches, doesn't endure.
 He is like the animals that perish.
<sup>13</sup>This is the destiny of those who are foolish, and of those who approve their sayings.
 Selah.
<sup>14</sup>They are appointed as a flock for Sheol<sup>t</sup>.
 Death shall be their shepherd.
 The upright shall have dominion over them in the morning.
 Their beauty shall decay in Sheol<sup>u</sup>, far from their mansion.
<sup>15</sup>But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol<sup>v</sup>,
 for he will receive me.
 Selah.
<sup>16</sup>Don't be afraid when a man is made rich, when the glory of his house is increased.
<sup>17</sup>For when he dies he shall carry nothing away.
 His glory shall not descend after him.
<sup>18</sup>Though while he lived he blessed his soul—and men praise you when you do well for yourself—
<sup>19</sup>he shall go to the generation of his fathers.
 They shall never see the light.
<sup>20</sup>A man who has riches without understanding,
 is like the animals that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm by Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>The Mighty One, God, the LORD, speaks, and calls the earth from sunrise to sunset.
<sup>2</sup>Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty,
God shines forth.
<sup>3</sup>Our God comes, and does not keep silent.
A fire devours before him.
It is very stormy around him.
<sup>4</sup>He calls to the heavens above,
to the earth, that he may judge his people:
<sup>5</sup>"Gather my holy ones together to me,
those who have made a covenant with me
by sacrifice."
<sup>6</sup>The heavens shall declare his righteousness, for God himself is judge.
Selah.
<sup>7</sup>"Hear, my people, and I will speak;
Israel, and I will testify against you.
I am God, your God.
<sup>8</sup>I don't rebuke you for your sacrifices.
Your burnt offerings are continually before me.
<sup>9</sup>I have no need for a bull from your stall, nor male goats from your pens.
<sup>10</sup>For every animal of the forest is mine,
and the livestock on a thousand hills.
<sup>11</sup>I know all the birds of the mountains.
The wild animals of the field are mine.
<sup>12</sup>If I were hungry, I would not tell you,
for the world is mine, and all that is in it.
<sup>13</sup>Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood of goats?
<sup>14</sup>Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving.
Pay your vows to the Most High.
<sup>15</sup>Call on me in the day of trouble.
I will deliver you, and you will honor me."
<sup>16</sup>But to the wicked God says,
"What right do you have to declare my statutes,
that you have taken my covenant on your lips, <sup>17</sup>since you hate instruction, and throw my words behind you?
<sup>18</sup>When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have participated with adulterers.
<sup>19</sup>"You give your mouth to evil.
Your tongue frames deceit.

- <sup>20</sup>You sit and speak against your brother.
You slander your own mother's son.
<sup>21</sup>You have done these things, and I kept silent.
You thought that I was just like you.
I will rebuke you, and accuse you in front of your eyes.
<sup>22</sup>"Now consider this, you who forget God, lest I tear you into pieces, and there be none to deliver.
<sup>23</sup>Whoever offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving
glorifies me,
and prepares his way so that I will show God's salvation to him."

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David, when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

- <sup>1</sup>Have mercy on me, God, according to your loving kindness.
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, blot out my transgressions.
<sup>2</sup>Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity.
Cleanse me from my sin.
<sup>3</sup>For I know my transgressions.
My sin is constantly before me.
<sup>4</sup>Against you, and you only, have I sinned,
and done that which is evil in your sight;
that you may be proved right when you speak,
and justified when you judge.
<sup>5</sup>Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity.
In sin my mother conceived me.
<sup>6</sup>Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts.
You teach me wisdom in the inmost place.
<sup>7</sup>Purify me with hyssop, and I will be clean.
Wash me, and I will be whiter than snow.
<sup>8</sup>Let me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones which you have broken
may rejoice.
<sup>9</sup>Hide your face from my sins,
and blot out all of my iniquities.
<sup>10</sup>Create in me a clean heart, O God.
Renew a right spirit within me.
<sup>11</sup>Don't throw me from your presence, and don't take your holy Spirit from me.
<sup>12</sup>Restore to me the joy of your salvation.
Uphold me with a willing spirit.
<sup>13</sup>Then I will teach transgressors your ways.
Sinners shall be converted to you.

<sup>14</sup>Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, the God of my salvation.
My tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.

<sup>15</sup>Lord, open my lips.
My mouth shall declare your praise.

<sup>16</sup>For you don't delight in sacrifice, or else I would give it.
You have no pleasure in burnt offering.

<sup>17</sup>The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit.
A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

<sup>18</sup>Do well in your good pleasure to Zion.
Build the walls of Jerusalem.

<sup>19</sup>Then you will delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
in burnt offerings and in whole burnt offerings.
Then they will offer bulls on your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. A contemplation by David, when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, "David has come to Abimelech's house."

<sup>1</sup>Why do you boast of mischief, mighty man?
God's loving kindness endures continually.

<sup>2</sup>Your tongue plots destruction, like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.

<sup>3</sup>You love evil more than good, lying rather than speaking the truth.
Selah.

<sup>4</sup>You love all devouring words,
you deceitful tongue.

<sup>5</sup>God will likewise destroy you forever.
He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent,
and root you out of the land of the living.
Selah.

<sup>6</sup>The righteous also will see it, and fear, and laugh at him, saying,

<sup>7</sup>"Behold, this is the man who didn't make God his strength,
but trusted in the abundance of his riches,
and strengthened himself in his wicked-
ness."

<sup>8</sup>But as for me, I am like a green olive tree in God's house.
I trust in God's loving kindness forever
and ever.

<sup>9</sup>I will give you thanks forever, because you have done it.
I will hope in your name, for it is good,
in the presence of your holy ones.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Mahalath." A contemplation by David.

<sup>1</sup>The fool has said in his heart, "There is no
God."
They are corrupt, and have done abominable iniquity.
There is no one who does good.

<sup>2</sup>God looks down from heaven on the children
of men,
to see if there are any who understood,
who seek after God.

<sup>3</sup>Every one of them has gone back.
They have become filthy together.
There is no one who does good, no, not one.

<sup>4</sup>Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge,
who eat up my people as they eat bread,
and don't call on God?

<sup>5</sup>There they were in great fear, where no fear was,
for God has scattered the bones of him who encamps against you.
You have put them to shame,
because God has rejected them.

<sup>6</sup>Oh that the salvation [yeshuat] of Israel would come out of Zion!
When God brings back his people from captivity,
then Jacob shall rejoice,
and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David, when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, "Isn't David hiding himself among us?"

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God, by your name.
Vindicate me in your might.

Listen to the words of my mouth.

<sup>3</sup>For strangers have risen up against me.
Violent men have sought after my soul.
They haven't set God before them.
Selah.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, God is my helper.
The Lord is the one who sustains my soul.
<sup>5</sup>He will repay the evil to my enemies.
Destroy them in your truth.
<sup>6</sup>With a free will offering, I will sacrifice to you.
I will give thanks to your name, LORD,
for it is good.
<sup>7</sup>For he has delivered me out of all trouble.
My eye has seen triumph over my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A contemplation by David.

Don't hide yourself from my supplica-
tion.
<sup>2</sup>Attend to me, and answer me.
I am restless in my complaint, and moan,
<sup>3</sup>Because of the voice of the enemy,
Because of the oppression of the wicked.
For they bring suffering on me.
In anger they hold a grudge against me.
<sup>4</sup>My heart is severely pained within me.
The terrors of death have fallen on me.
<sup>5</sup>Fearfulness and trembling have come on me.
Horror has overwhelmed me.
<sup>6</sup>I said, "Oh that I had wings like a dove!
Then I would fly away, and be at rest.
<sup>7</sup>Behold, then I would wander far off.
I would lodge in the wilderness."
Selah.
<sup>8</sup>"I would hurry to a shelter from the stormy wind and storm."
<sup>9</sup>Confuse them, Lord, and confound their language,
for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
<sup>10</sup>Day and night they prowl around on its walls.
Malice and abuse are also within her.
<sup>11</sup>Destructive forces are within her.
Threats and lies don't depart from her streets.
<sup>12</sup>For it was not an enemy who insulted me,
then I could have endured it.
Neither was it he who hated me who raised himself up against me,

<sup>w</sup>55:15 Sheol is the place of the dead.

then I would have hidden myself from
him.
<sup>13</sup>But it was you, a man like me,
my companion, and my familiar friend.
<sup>14</sup>We took sweet fellowship together.
We walked in God's house with company.
<sup>15</sup>Let death come suddenly on them.
Let them go down alive into Sheol<sup>w</sup>.
For wickedness is in their dwelling, in their midst.
<sup>16</sup>As for me, I will call on God.
The LORD will save me.
<sup>17</sup>Evening, morning, and at noon, I will cry out in distress.
He will hear my voice.
<sup>18</sup>He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me,
although there are many who oppose me.
<sup>19</sup>God, who is enthroned forever, will hear, and answer them.
Selah.
They never change,
who don't fear God.
<sup>20</sup>He raises his hands against his friends.
He has violated his covenant.
<sup>21</sup>His mouth was smooth as butter,
but his heart was war.
His words were softer than oil,
yet they were drawn swords.
<sup>22</sup>Cast your burden on the LORD, and he will sustain you.
He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
<sup>23</sup>But you, God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction.
Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days,
but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Silent Dove in Distant Lands." A poem by David, when the Philistines seized him in Gath.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, for man wants to swallow me up.
All day long, he attacks and oppresses
me.
<sup>2</sup>My enemies want to swallow me up all day long,

for they are many who fight proudly
against me.
<sup>3</sup>When I am afraid,
I will put my trust in you.
<sup>4</sup>In God, I praise his word.
In God, I put my trust.
I will not be afraid.
What can flesh do to me?
<sup>5</sup>All day long they twist my words.
All their thoughts are against me for evil.
<sup>6</sup>They conspire and lurk, watching my steps, they are eager to take my life.
<sup>7</sup>Shall they escape by iniquity?
In anger cast down the peoples, God.
<sup>8</sup>You number my wanderings.
You put my tears into your bottle.
Aren't they in your book?
<sup>9</sup>Then my enemies shall turn back in the day that I call.
I know this, that God is for me.
<sup>10</sup>In God, I will praise his word.
In the LORD, I will praise his word.
<sup>11</sup>I have put my trust in God.
I will not be afraid.
What can man do to me?
<sup>12</sup>Your vows are on me, God.
I will give thank offerings to you.
<sup>13</sup>For you have delivered my soul from death,
and prevented my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

<sup>1</sup>Be merciful to me, God, be merciful to me, for my soul takes refuge in you.
Yes, in the shadow of your wings, I will take refuge,
until disaster has passed.
<sup>2</sup>I cry out to God Most High,
to God who accomplishes my requests for me.
<sup>3</sup>He will send from heaven, and save me,
he rebukes the one who is pursuing me.
Selah.
God will send out his loving kindness and his truth.
<sup>4</sup>My soul is among lions.

I lie among those who are set on fire, even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows,
and their tongue a sharp sword.
<sup>5</sup>Be exalted, God, above the heavens!
Let your glory be above all the earth!
<sup>6</sup>They have prepared a net for my steps.
My soul is bowed down.
They dig a pit before me.
They fall into its midst themselves.
Selah.
<sup>7</sup>My heart is steadfast, God, my heart is steadfast.
I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.
<sup>8</sup>Wake up, my glory! Wake up, psaltery and harp!
I will wake up the dawn.
<sup>9</sup>I will give thanks to you, Lord, among the peoples.
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
<sup>10</sup>For your great loving kindness reaches to the heavens,
and your truth to the skies.
<sup>11</sup>Be exalted, God, above the heavens.
Let your glory be over all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David.

<sup>1</sup>Do you indeed speak righteousness, silent
ones?
Do you judge blamelessly, you sons of
men?
<sup>2</sup>No, in your heart you plot injustice.
You measure out the violence of your hands in the earth.
<sup>3</sup>The wicked go astray from the womb.
They are wayward as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
<sup>4</sup>Their poison is like the poison of a snake;
like a deaf cobra that stops its ear, <sup>5</sup>which doesn't listen to the voice of charmners,
no matter how skillful the charmer may be.
<sup>6</sup>Break their teeth, God, in their mouth.
Break out the great teeth of the young lions, LORD.
<sup>7</sup>Let them vanish as water that flows away.

When they draw the bow, let their arrows be made blunt.

<sup>8</sup>Let them be like a snail which melts and passes away,
like the stillborn child, who has not seen the sun.

<sup>9</sup>Before your pots can feel the heat of the thorns, he will sweep away the green and the burning alike.

<sup>10</sup>The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance.

He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;

<sup>11</sup>so that men shall say, "Most certainly there is a reward for the righteous.

Most certainly there is a God who judges
the earth."

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A poem by David, when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

<sup>1</sup>Deliver me from my enemies, my God.

Set me on high from those who rise up
against me.

<sup>2</sup>Deliver me from the workers of iniquity.

Save me from the bloodthirsty men.

<sup>3</sup>For, behold, they lie in wait for my soul.

The mighty gather themselves together
against me,
not for my disobedience, nor for my sin,
LORD.

<sup>4</sup>I have done no wrong, yet they are ready to attack me.

Rise up, behold, and help me!

<sup>5</sup>You, LORD God of Hosts, the God of Israel, rouse yourself to punish the nations.

Show no mercy to the wicked traitors.

Selah.

<sup>6</sup>They return at evening, howling like dogs, and prowl around the city.

<sup>7</sup>Behold, they spew with their mouth.

Swords are in their lips,

"For," they say, "who hears us?"

<sup>8</sup>But you, LORD, laugh at them.

You scoff at all the nations.

<sup>9</sup>Oh, my Strength, I watch for you,

for God is my high tower.

<sup>10</sup>My God will go before me with his loving kindness.

God will let me look at my enemies in triumph.

<sup>11</sup>Don't kill them, or my people may forget.

Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, Lord our shield.

<sup>12</sup>For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips,

let them be caught in their pride,

for the curses and lies which they utter.

<sup>13</sup>Consume them in wrath.

Consume them, and they will be no more.

Let them know that God rules in Jacob,

to the ends of the earth.

Selah.

<sup>14</sup>At evening let them return.

Let them howl like a dog, and go around the city.

<sup>15</sup>They shall wander up and down for food, and wait all night if they aren't satisfied.

<sup>16</sup>But I will sing of your strength.

Yes, I will sing aloud of your loving kindness in the morning.

For you have been my high tower,

a refuge in the day of my distress.

<sup>17</sup>To you, my strength, I will sing praises.

For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lily of the Covenant." A teaching poem by David, when he fought with Aram Naharaim and with Aram Zobah, and Joab returned, and killed twelve thousand of Edom in the Valley of Salt.

<sup>1</sup>God, you have rejected us.

You have broken us down.

You have been angry.

Restore us, again.

<sup>2</sup>You have made the land tremble.

You have torn it.

Mend its fractures,

for it quakes.

<sup>3</sup>You have shown your people hard things.

You have made us drink the wine that makes us stagger.

<sup>4</sup>You have given a banner to those who fear
you,

that it may be displayed because of the truth.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>So that your beloved may be delivered, save with your right hand, and answer
us.

<sup>6</sup>God has spoken from his sanctuary:
"I will triumph.
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.

<sup>7</sup>Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is the defense of my head.
Judah is my scepter.

<sup>8</sup>Moab is my wash basin.
I will throw my shoe on Edom.
I shout in triumph over Philistia."

<sup>9</sup>Who will bring me into the strong city?
Who has led me to Edom?

<sup>10</sup>Haven't you, God, rejected us?
You don't go out with our armies, God.

<sup>11</sup>Give us help against the adversary,
for the help of man is vain.

<sup>12</sup>Through God we shall do valiantly, for it is he who will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician. For a stringed instrument. By David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my cry, God.

Listen to my prayer.

<sup>2</sup>From the end of the earth, I will call to you,
when my heart is overwhelmed.

Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.

<sup>3</sup>For you have been a refuge for me,
a strong tower from the enemy.

<sup>4</sup>I will dwell in your tent forever.
I will take refuge in the shelter of your wings.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>For you, God, have heard my vows.
You have given me the heritage of those who fear your name.

<sup>6</sup>You will prolong the king's life;
his years shall be for generations.

<sup>7</sup>He shall be enthroned in God's presence forever.

Appoint your loving kindness and truth,
that they may preserve him.

<sup>8</sup>So I will sing praise to your name forever, that I may fulfill my vows daily.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthan. A
Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>My soul rests in God alone.

My salvation [yeshuah-ti] is from him.

<sup>2</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation
[yeshuah-ti], my fortress—

I will never be greatly shaken.

<sup>3</sup>How long will you assault a man, would all of you throw him down,

Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?

<sup>4</sup>They fully intend to throw him down from his lofty place.

They delight in lies.

They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>My soul, wait in silence for God alone, for my expectation is from him.

<sup>6</sup>He alone is my rock and my salvation
[yeshuah-ti], my fortress.

I will not be shaken.

<sup>7</sup>With God is my salvation and my honor.

The rock of my strength, and my refuge,
is in God.

<sup>8</sup>Trust in him at all times, you people.

Pour out your heart before him.

God is a refuge for us.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Surely men of low degree are just a breath, and men of high degree are a lie.

In the balances they will go up.

They are together lighter than a breath.

<sup>10</sup>Don't trust in oppression.

Don't become vain in robbery.

If riches increase,

don't set your heart on them.

<sup>11</sup>God has spoken once;

twice I have heard this,

that power belongs to God.

<sup>12</sup>Also to you, Lord, belongs loving kindness, for you reward every man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm by David, when he was in the desert of Judah.

- <sup>1</sup>God, you are my God.
I will earnestly seek you.
My soul thirsts for you.
My flesh longs for you,
in a dry and weary land, where there is no water.
- <sup>2</sup>So I have seen you in the sanctuary, watching your power and your glory.
- <sup>3</sup>Because your loving kindness is better than life,
my lips shall praise you.
- <sup>4</sup>So I will bless you while I live.
I will lift up my hands in your name.
- <sup>5</sup>My soul shall be satisfied as with the richest food.
My mouth shall praise you with joyful
lips,
<sup>6</sup>when I remember you on my bed,
and think about you in the night watches.
- <sup>7</sup>For you have been my help.
I will rejoice in the shadow of your wings.
- <sup>8</sup>My soul stays close to you.
Your right hand holds me up.
- <sup>9</sup>But those who seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
- <sup>10</sup>They shall be given over to the power of the sword.
They shall be jackal food.
- <sup>11</sup>But the king shall rejoice in God.
Everyone who swears by him will praise
him,
for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be silenced.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

- <sup>1</sup>Hear my voice, God, in my complaint.
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
- <sup>2</sup>Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, from the noisy crowd of the ones doing
evil;
- <sup>3</sup>who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
and aim their arrows, deadly words,
<sup>4</sup>to shoot innocent men from ambushes.
They shoot at him suddenly and fearlessly.

- <sup>5</sup>They encourage themselves in evil plans.
They talk about laying snares secretly.
They say, "Who will see them?"
- <sup>6</sup>They plot injustice, saying, "We have made a perfect plan!"
Surely man's mind and heart are cunning.
- <sup>7</sup>But God will shoot at them.
They will be suddenly struck down with an arrow.
- <sup>8</sup>Their own tongues shall ruin them.
All who see them will shake their heads.
- <sup>9</sup>All mankind shall be afraid.
They shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely ponder what he has done.
- <sup>10</sup>The righteous shall be glad in the LORD,
and shall take refuge in him.
All the upright in heart shall praise him!

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
A song.

- <sup>1</sup>Praise waits for you, God, in Zion.
To you shall vows be performed.
- <sup>2</sup>You who hear prayer,
to you all men will come.
- <sup>3</sup>Sins overwhelmed me,
but you atoned for our transgressions.
- <sup>4</sup>Blessed is one whom you choose, and cause to come near,
that he may live in your courts.
We will be filled with the goodness of your house,
your holy temple.
- <sup>5</sup>By awesome deeds of righteousness, you answer us,
God of our salvation.
You who are the hope of all the ends of the
earth,
of those who are far away on the sea;
- <sup>6</sup>Who by his power forms the mountains,
having armed yourself with strength;
- <sup>7</sup>who stills the roaring of the seas,
the roaring of their waves,
and the turmoil of the nations.
- <sup>8</sup>They also who dwell in faraway places are afraid at your wonders.
You call the morning's dawn and the evening with songs of joy.
- <sup>9</sup>You visit the earth, and water it.
You greatly enrich it.

The river of God is full of water.
 You provide them grain, for so you have ordained it.
<sup>10</sup>You drench its furrows.
 You level its ridges.
 You soften it with showers.
 You bless it with a crop.
<sup>11</sup>You crown the year with your bounty.
 Your carts overflow with abundance.
<sup>12</sup>The wilderness grasslands overflow.
 The hills are clothed with gladness.
<sup>13</sup>The pastures are covered with flocks.
 The valleys also are clothed with grain.
 They shout for joy!
 They also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song. A Psalm.

<sup>2</sup>Sing to the glory of his name!
 Offer glory and praise!
<sup>3</sup>Tell God, "How awesome are your deeds!
 Through the greatness of your power, your enemies submit themselves to
 you.
<sup>4</sup>All the earth will worship you,
 and will sing to you;
 they will sing to your name."
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>Come, and see God's deeds—awesome work on behalf of the children
 of men.
<sup>6</sup>He turned the sea into dry land.
 They went through the river on foot.
 There, we rejoiced in him.
<sup>7</sup>He rules by his might forever.
 His eyes watch the nations.
 Don't let the rebellious rise up against
 him.
 Selah.
<sup>8</sup>Praise our God, you peoples!
 Make the sound of his praise heard, <sup>9</sup>who preserves our life among the living, and doesn't allow our feet to be moved.
<sup>10</sup>For you, God, have tested us.
 You have refined us, as silver is refined.
<sup>11</sup>You brought us into prison.
 You laid a burden on our backs.
<sup>12</sup>You allowed men to ride over our heads.
 We went through fire and through water, but you brought us to the place of abundance.

<sup>13</sup>I will come into your temple with burnt offerings.
 I will pay my vows to you, <sup>14</sup>which my lips promised,
 and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
<sup>15</sup>I will offer to you burnt offerings of fat animals,
 with the offering of rams,
 I will offer bulls with goats.

Selah.

<sup>16</sup>Come, and hear, all you who fear God.
 I will declare what he has done for my soul.
<sup>17</sup>I cried to him with my mouth.
 He was extolled with my tongue.
<sup>18</sup>If I cherished sin in my heart,
 the Lord wouldn't have listened.
<sup>19</sup>But most certainly, God has listened.
 He has heard the voice of my prayer.
<sup>20</sup>Blessed be God, who has not turned away my prayer,
 nor his loving kindness from me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician. With stringed instruments. A Psalm. A song.

<sup>1</sup>May God be merciful to us, bless us,
 and cause his face to shine on us.
 Selah.
<sup>2</sup>That your way may be known on earth, and your salvation [yeshuat] among all
 nations,
<sup>3</sup>let the peoples praise you, God.
 Let all the peoples praise you.
<sup>4</sup>Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you will judge the peoples with equity,
 and govern the nations on earth.
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>Let the peoples praise you, God.
 Let all the peoples praise you.
<sup>6</sup>The earth has yielded its increase.
 God, even our own God, will bless us.
<sup>7</sup>God will bless us.
 All the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
A song.

<sup>1</sup>Let God arise!

Let his enemies be scattered!

Let them who hate him also flee before him.

<sup>2</sup>As smoke is driven away,
so drive them away.

As wax melts before the fire,
so let the wicked perish at the presence of God.

<sup>3</sup>But let the righteous be glad.

Let them rejoice before God.

Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.

<sup>4</sup>Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!

Extol him who rides on the clouds:
to the LORD, his name!

Rejoice before him!

<sup>5</sup>A father of the fatherless, and a defender of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.

<sup>6</sup>God sets the lonely in families.
He brings out the prisoners with singing,
but the rebellious dwell in a sun-scorched land.

<sup>7</sup>God, when you went forth before your people, when you marched through the wilderness...

Selah.

<sup>8</sup>The earth trembled.

The sky also poured down rain at the presence of the God of Sinai—at the presence of God, the God of Israel.

You confirmed your inheritance, when it was weary.

<sup>10</sup>Your congregation lived therein.

You, God, prepared your goodness for the poor.

The ones who proclaim it are a great company.

She who waits at home divides the spoil, <sup>13</sup>while you sleep among the campfires, the wings of a dove sheathed with silver,
her feathers with shining gold.

<sup>14</sup>When the Almighty scattered kings in her,
it snowed on Zalmon.

<sup>15</sup>The mountains of Bashan are majestic mountains.

The mountains of Bashan are rugged.

<sup>16</sup>Why do you look in envy, you rugged mountains,

at the mountain where God chooses to reign?

Yes, the LORD will dwell there forever.

<sup>17</sup>The chariots of God are tens of thousands and thousands of thousands.

The Lord is among them, from Sinai, into the sanctuary.

<sup>18</sup>You have ascended on high.

You have led away captives.

You have received gifts among men,

yes, among the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell there.

<sup>19</sup>Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burdens, even the God who is our salvation.

Selah.

<sup>20</sup>God is to us a God of deliverance.

To the LORD, the Lord, belongs escape from death.

<sup>21</sup>But God will strike through the head of his enemies, the hairy scalp of such a one as still continues in his guiltiness.

<sup>22</sup>The Lord said, "I will bring you again from Bashan,

I will bring you again from the depths of the sea;

<sup>23</sup>That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, that the tongues of your dogs may have their portion from your enemies."

<sup>24</sup>They have seen your processions, God, even the processions of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.

<sup>25</sup>The singers went before, the minstrels followed after,

in the midst of the ladies playing with tambourines,

<sup>26</sup>"Bless God in the congregations, even the Lord in the assembly of Israel!"

the princes of Judah, their council,

the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

<sup>28</sup>Your God has commanded your strength.

Strengthen, God, that which you have done for us.

<sup>29</sup>Because of your temple at Jerusalem, kings shall bring presents to you.
<sup>30</sup>Rebuke the wild animal of the reeds, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples.
Being humbled, may it bring bars of silver.
Scatter the nations that delight in war.
<sup>31</sup>Princes shall come out of Egypt.
Ethiopia shall hurry to stretch out her hands to God.
<sup>32</sup>Sing to God, you kingdoms of the earth!
Sing praises to the Lord!
Selah.
<sup>33</sup>To him who rides on the heaven of heavens, which are of old;
behold, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
<sup>34</sup>Ascribe strength to God!
His excellency is over Israel,
his strength is in the skies.
<sup>35</sup>You are awesome, God, in your sanctuaries.
The God of Israel gives strength and power to his people.
Praise be to God!

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Lilies." By David.

<sup>1</sup>Save me, God,
for the waters have come up to my neck!
<sup>2</sup>I sink in deep mire, where there is no foothold.
I have come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
<sup>3</sup>I am weary with my crying.
My throat is dry.
My eyes fail, looking for my God.
<sup>4</sup>Those who hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head.
Those who want to cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty.
I have to restore what I didn't take away.
<sup>5</sup>God, you know my foolishness.
My sins aren't hidden from you.
<sup>6</sup>Don't let those who wait for you be shamed through me, Lord GOD of Hosts.
Don't let those who seek you be brought to dishonor through me, God of Israel.
<sup>7</sup>Because for your sake, I have borne reproach.
Shame has covered my face.
<sup>8</sup>I have become a stranger to my brothers, an alien to my mother's children.

<sup>9</sup>For the zeal of your house consumes me.
The reproaches of those who reproach
you have fallen on me.
<sup>10</sup>When I wept and I fasted, that was to my reproach.
<sup>11</sup>When I made sackcloth my clothing,
I became a byword to them.
<sup>12</sup>Those who sit in the gate talk about me.
I am the song of the drunkards.
<sup>13</sup>But as for me, my prayer is to you, LORD, in an acceptable time.
God, in the abundance of your loving kindness, answer me in the truth of
your salvation.
<sup>14</sup>Deliver me out of the mire, and don't let me sink.
Let me be delivered from those who hate me, and out of the deep waters.
<sup>15</sup>Don't let the flood waters overwhelm me, neither let the deep swallow me up.
Don't let the pit shut its mouth on me.
<sup>16</sup>Answer me, LORD, for your loving kindness is good.
According to the multitude of your tender mercies, turn to me.
<sup>17</sup>Don't hide your face from your servant,
for I am in distress.
Answer me speedily!
<sup>18</sup>Draw near to my soul, and redeem it.
Ransom me because of my enemies.
<sup>19</sup>You know my reproach, my shame, and my dishonor.
My adversaries are all before you.
<sup>20</sup>Reproach has broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness.
I looked for some to take pity, but there was none;
for comforters, but I found none.
<sup>21</sup>They also gave me gall for my food.
In my thirst, they gave me vinegar to drink.
<sup>22</sup>Let their table before them become a snare.
May it become a retribution and a trap.
<sup>23</sup>Let their eyes be darkened, so that they can't see.
Let their backs be continually bent.
<sup>24</sup>Pour out your indignation on them.
Let the fierceness of your anger overtake
them.
<sup>25</sup>Let their habitation be desolate.
Let no one dwell in their tents.

<sup>26</sup>For they persecute him whom you have wounded.
They tell of the sorrow of those whom you have hurt.

<sup>27</sup>Charge them with crime upon crime.
Don't let them come into your righteousness.

<sup>28</sup>Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.

<sup>29</sup>But I am in pain and distress.
Let your salvation, God, protect me.

<sup>30</sup>I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.

<sup>31</sup>It will please the LORD better than an ox, or a bull that has horns and hoofs.

<sup>32</sup>The humble have seen it, and are glad.
You who seek after God, let your heart live.

<sup>33</sup>For the LORD hears the needy, and doesn't despise his captive people.

<sup>34</sup>Let heaven and earth praise him;
the seas, and everything that moves therein!

<sup>35</sup>For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah.
They shall settle there, and own it.

<sup>36</sup>The children also of his servants shall inherit it.
Those who love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 70

For the Chief Musician. By David. A reminder.

<sup>1</sup>Hurry, God, to deliver me.
Come quickly to help me, LORD.

<sup>2</sup>Let them be disappointed and confounded who seek my soul.
Let those who desire my ruin be turned back in disgrace.

<sup>3</sup>Let them be turned because of their shame
Who say, "Aha! Aha!"

<sup>4</sup>Let all those who seek you rejoice and be glad
in you.
Let those who love your salvation continually say,
"Let God be exalted!"

<sup>5</sup>But I am poor and needy.
Come to me quickly, God.
You are my help and my deliverer.
LORD, don't delay.

Psalm 71

<sup>1</sup>In you, LORD, I take refuge.
Never let me be disappointed.

<sup>2</sup>Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me.
Turn your ear to me, and save me.

<sup>3</sup>Be to me a rock of refuge to which I may always go.
Give the command to save me,
for you are my rock and my fortress.

<sup>4</sup>Rescue me, my God, from the hand of the wicked, from the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.

<sup>5</sup>For you are my hope, Lord GOD;
my confidence from my youth.

<sup>6</sup>I have relied on you from the womb.
You are he who took me out of my mother's womb.
I will always praise you.

<sup>7</sup>I am a marvel to many,
but you are my strong refuge.

<sup>8</sup>My mouth shall be filled with your praise, with your honor all the day.

<sup>9</sup>Don't reject me in my old age.
Don't forsake me when my strength fails.

<sup>10</sup>For my enemies talk about me.
Those who watch for my soul conspire together,
<sup>11</sup>saying, "God has forsaken him.
Pursue and take him, for no one will rescue him."

<sup>12</sup>God, don't be far from me.
My God, hurry to help me.

<sup>13</sup>Let my accusers be disappointed and consumed.
Let them be covered with disgrace and scorn
who want to harm me.

<sup>14</sup>But I will always hope,
and will add to all of your praise.

<sup>15</sup>My mouth will tell about your righteousness, and of your salvation all day,
though I don't know its full measure.

<sup>16</sup>I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord GOD.
I will make mention of your righteousness,
even of yours alone.

<sup>17</sup>God, you have taught me from my youth.
Until now, I have declared your wondrous works.

<sup>18</sup>Yes, even when I am old and gray-haired,
 God, don't forsake me, until I have declared your strength to the next generation,
 your might to everyone who is to come.
<sup>19</sup>Your righteousness also, God, reaches to the heavens;
 you have done great things.
 God, who is like you?
<sup>20</sup>You, who have shown us many and bitter troubles,
 you will let me live.
 You will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
<sup>21</sup>Increase my honor,
 and comfort me again.
<sup>22</sup>I will also praise you with the harp for your faithfulness, my God.
 I sing praises to you with the lyre, Holy
 One of Israel.
<sup>23</sup>My lips shall shout for joy!
 My soul, which you have redeemed,
 sings praises to you!
<sup>24</sup>My tongue will also talk about your righteousness all day long,
 for they are disappointed, and they are confounded,
 who want to harm me.

Psalm 72

By Solomon.

<sup>1</sup>God, give the king your justice;
 your righteousness to the royal son.
<sup>2</sup>He will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.
<sup>3</sup>The mountains shall bring prosperity to the people.
 The hills bring the fruit of righteousness.
<sup>4</sup>He will judge the poor of the people.
 He will save the children of the needy,
 and will break the oppressor in pieces.
<sup>5</sup>They shall fear you while the sun endures;
 and as long as the moon, throughout all generations.
<sup>6</sup>He will come down like rain on the mown grass,
 as showers that water the earth.
<sup>7</sup>In his days, the righteous shall flourish,

and abundance of peace, until the moon is no more.
<sup>8</sup>He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, from the River to the ends of the earth.
<sup>9</sup>Those who dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him.
 His enemies shall lick the dust.
<sup>10</sup>The kings of Tarshish and of the islands will bring tribute.
 The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
<sup>11</sup>Yes, all kings shall fall down before him.
 All nations shall serve him.
<sup>12</sup>For he will deliver the needy when he cries;
 the poor, who has no helper.
<sup>13</sup>He will have pity on the poor and needy.
 He will save the souls of the needy.
<sup>14</sup>He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence.
 Their blood will be precious in his sight.
<sup>15</sup>They shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
 Men shall pray for him continually.
 They shall bless him all day long.
<sup>16</sup>Abundance of grain shall be throughout the land.
 Its fruit sways like Lebanon.
 Let it flourish, thriving like the grass of the field.
<sup>17</sup>His name endures forever.
 His name continues as long as the sun.
 Men shall be blessed by him.
 All nations will call him blessed.
<sup>18</sup>Praise be to the LORD God, the God of Israel, who alone does marvelous deeds.
<sup>19</sup>Blessed be his glorious name forever!
 Let the whole earth be filled with his glory!
 Amen and amen.
<sup>20</sup>This ends the prayers by David, the son of Jesse.

BOOK III

Psalm 73

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Surely God<sup>x</sup> is good to Israel,
 to those who are pure in heart.

<sup>2</sup>But as for me, my feet were almost gone.
 My steps had nearly slipped.
<sup>3</sup>For I was envious of the arrogant,
 when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
<sup>4</sup>For there are no struggles in their death,
 but their strength is firm.
<sup>5</sup>They are free from burdens of men, neither are they plagued like other men.
<sup>6</sup>Therefore pride is like a chain around their neck.
 Violence covers them like a garment.
<sup>7</sup>Their eyes bulge with fat.
 Their minds pass the limits of conceit.
<sup>8</sup>They scoff and speak with malice.
 In arrogance, they threaten oppression.
<sup>9</sup>They have set their mouth in the heavens.
 Their tongue walks through the earth.
<sup>10</sup>Therefore their people return to them, and they drink up waters of abundance.
<sup>11</sup>They say, "How does God know?
 Is there knowledge in the Most High?"
<sup>12</sup>Behold, these are the wicked.
 Being always at ease, they increase in riches.
<sup>13</sup>Surely in vain I have cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence, <sup>14</sup>For all day long have I been plagued,
 and punished every morning.
<sup>15</sup>If I had said, "I will speak thus;"
 behold, I would have betrayed the generation of your children.
<sup>16</sup>When I tried to understand this,
 it was too painful for me;
<sup>17</sup>Until I entered God's sanctuary, and considered their latter end.
<sup>18</sup>Surely you set them in slippery places.
 You throw them down to destruction.
<sup>19</sup>How they are suddenly destroyed!
 They are completely swept away with terrors.
<sup>20</sup>As a dream when one wakes up, so, Lord,<sup>y</sup> when you awake, you will despise their fantasies.
<sup>21</sup>For my soul was grieved.
 I was embittered in my heart.
<sup>22</sup>I was so senseless and ignorant.
 I was a brute beast before you.
<sup>23</sup>Nevertheless, I am continually with you.
 You have held my right hand.
<sup>24</sup>You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

<sup>25</sup>Whom do I have in heaven?
 There is no one on earth whom I desire besides you.
<sup>26</sup>My flesh and my heart fails, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever.
<sup>27</sup>For, behold, those who are far from you shall perish.
 You have destroyed all those who are unfaithful to you.
<sup>28</sup>But it is good for me to come close to God.
 I have made the Lord the LORD<sup>z</sup> my
 refuge,
 that I may tell of all your works.

Psalm 74

A contemplation by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, why have you rejected us forever?
 Why does your anger smolder against the sheep of your pasture?
<sup>2</sup>Remember your congregation, which you purchased of old,
 which you have redeemed to be the tribe
 of your inheritance;
 Mount Zion, in which you have lived.
<sup>3</sup>Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
<sup>4</sup>Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly.
 They have set up their standards as signs.
<sup>5</sup>They behaved like men wielding axes, cutting through a thicket of trees.
<sup>6</sup>Now they break all its carved work down with hatchet and hammers.
<sup>7</sup>They have burned your sanctuary to the ground.
 They have profaned the dwelling place of your Name.
<sup>8</sup>They said in their heart, "We will crush them completely."
 They have burned up all the places in the land where God was worshiped.
<sup>9</sup>We see no miraculous signs.
 There is no longer any prophet, neither is there among us anyone who knows how long.

<sup>z</sup>73:28 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

- <sup>10</sup>How long, God, shall the adversary reproach?
Shall the enemy blaspheme your name forever?
- <sup>11</sup>Why do you draw back your hand, even your right hand?
Take it out of your pocket and consume them!
- <sup>12</sup>Yet God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.
- <sup>13</sup>You divided the sea by your strength.
You broke the heads of the sea monsters in the waters.
- <sup>14</sup>You broke the heads of Leviathan in pieces.
You gave him as food to people and desert creatures.
- <sup>15</sup>You opened up spring and stream.
You dried up mighty rivers.
- <sup>16</sup>The day is yours, the night is also yours.
You have prepared the light and the sun.
- <sup>17</sup>You have set all the boundaries of the earth.
You have made summer and winter.
- <sup>18</sup>Remember this, that the enemy has mocked you, LORD.
Foolish people have blasphemed your name.
- <sup>19</sup>Don't deliver the soul of your dove to wild beasts.
Don't forget the life of your poor forever.
- <sup>20</sup>Honor your covenant, for haunts of violence fill the dark places of the earth.
- <sup>21</sup>Don't let the oppressed return ashamed.
Let the poor and needy praise your name.
- <sup>22</sup>Arise, God! Plead your own cause.
Remember how the foolish man mocks you all day.
- <sup>23</sup>Don't forget the voice of your adversaries.
The tumult of those who rise up against you ascends continually.
- <sup>3</sup>The earth and all its inhabitants quake.
I firmly hold its pillars.
- Selah.
- <sup>4</sup>I said to the arrogant, "Don't boast!"
I said to the wicked, "Don't lift up the horn.
- <sup>5</sup>Don't lift up your horn on high.
Don't speak with a stiff neck."
- <sup>6</sup>For neither from the east, nor from the west,
nor yet from the south, comes exaltation.
- <sup>7</sup>But God is the judge.
He puts down one, and lifts up another.
- <sup>8</sup>For in the hand of the LORD there is a cup,
full of foaming wine mixed with spices.
He pours it out.
Indeed the wicked of the earth drink and drink it to its very dregs.
- <sup>9</sup>But I will declare this forever:
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
- <sup>10</sup>I will cut off all the horns of the wicked,
but the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician. On stringed instruments. A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "Do Not Destroy." A Psalm by Asaph. A song.

- <sup>1</sup>We give thanks to you, God.
We give thanks, for your Name is near.
Men tell about your wondrous works.
- <sup>2</sup>When I choose the appointed time,
I will judge blamelessly.
- <sup>1</sup>In Judah, God is known.
His name is great in Israel.
- <sup>2</sup>His tabernacle is also in Salem;
His dwelling place in Zion.
- <sup>3</sup>There he broke the flaming arrows of the bow,
the shield, and the sword, and the weapons of war.
- Selah.
- <sup>4</sup>Glorious are you, and excellent,
more than mountains of game.
- <sup>5</sup>Valiant men lie plundered,
they have slept their last sleep.
None of the men of war can lift their hands.
- <sup>6</sup>At your rebuke, God of Jacob,
both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.
- <sup>7</sup>You, even you, are to be feared.
Who can stand in your sight when you are angry?
- <sup>8</sup>You pronounced judgment from heaven.
The earth feared, and was silent, <sup>9</sup>when God arose to judgment,
to save all the afflicted ones of the earth.

Selah.

- <sup>10</sup>Surely the wrath of man praises you.
The survivors of your wrath are restrained.
- <sup>11</sup>Make vows to the LORD your God, and fulfill them!
Let all of his neighbors bring presents to him who is to be feared.
- <sup>12</sup>He will cut off the spirit of princes.
He is feared by the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician. To Jeduthun. A Psalm by Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>My cry goes to God!
Indeed, I cry to God for help,
and for him to listen to me.
- <sup>2</sup>In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord.
My hand was stretched out in the night,
and didn't get tired.
My soul refused to be comforted.
- <sup>3</sup>I remember God, and I groan.
I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed.
- Selah.
- <sup>4</sup>You hold my eyelids open.
I am so troubled that I can't speak.
- <sup>5</sup>I have considered the days of old,
the years of ancient times.
- <sup>6</sup>I remember my song in the night.
I consider in my own heart;
my spirit diligently inquires:
- <sup>7</sup>"Will the Lord reject us forever?
Will he be favorable no more?"
- <sup>8</sup>Has his loving kindness vanished forever?
Does his promise fail for generations?
- <sup>9</sup>Has God forgotten to be gracious?
Has he, in anger, withheld his compassion?"

Selah.

- <sup>10</sup>Then I thought, "I will appeal to this:
the years of the right hand of the Most High."
- <sup>11</sup>I will remember the LORD's deeds;
for I will remember your wonders of old.
- <sup>12</sup>I will also meditate on all your work,
and consider your doings.
- <sup>13</sup>Your way, God, is in the sanctuary.
What god is great like God?
- <sup>14</sup>You are the God who does wonders.

You have made your strength known among the peoples.

- <sup>15</sup>You have redeemed your people with your arm,
the sons of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah.

- <sup>16</sup>The waters saw you, God.
The waters saw you, and they writhed.
The depths also convulsed.
- <sup>17</sup>The clouds poured out water.
The skies resounded with thunder.
Your arrows also flashed around.
- <sup>18</sup>The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind.
The lightnings lit up the world.
The earth trembled and shook.
- <sup>19</sup>Your way was through the sea;
your paths through the great waters.
Your footsteps were not known.
- <sup>20</sup>You led your people like a flock,
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

A contemplation by Asaph.

- <sup>1</sup>Hear my teaching, my people.
Turn your ears to the words of my mouth.
- <sup>2</sup>I will open my mouth in a parable.
I will utter dark sayings of old,
which we have heard and known,
and our fathers have told us.
- <sup>4</sup>We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the LORD,
his strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.
- <sup>5</sup>For he established a testimony in Jacob,
and appointed a teaching in Israel,
which he commanded our fathers,
that they should make them known to their children;
- <sup>6</sup>that the generation to come might know, even the children who should be born;
who should arise and tell their children, <sup>7</sup>that they might set their hope in God,
and not forget the works of God,
but keep his commandments,
- <sup>8</sup>and might not be as their fathers,
a stubborn and rebellious generation,
a generation that didn't make their hearts loyal,
whose spirit was not steadfast with God.

- <sup>9</sup>The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.
- <sup>10</sup>They didn't keep God's covenant, and refused to walk by his Torah.
- <sup>11</sup>They forgot his doings,
his wondrous works that he had shown them.
- <sup>12</sup>He did marvelous things in the sight of their fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
- <sup>13</sup>He split the sea, and caused them to pass through.
He made the waters stand as a heap.
- <sup>14</sup>In the daytime he also led them with a cloud,
and all night with a light of fire.
- <sup>15</sup>He split rocks in the wilderness,
and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
- <sup>16</sup>He brought streams also out of the rock,
and caused waters to run down like rivers.
- <sup>17</sup>Yet they still went on to sin against him,
to rebel against the Most High in the desert.
- <sup>18</sup>They tempted God in their heart
by asking food according to their desire.
- <sup>19</sup>Yes, they spoke against God.
They said, "Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?"
- <sup>20</sup>Behold, he struck the rock, so that waters gushed out,
and streams overflowed.
Can he give bread also?
Will he provide flesh for his people?"
- <sup>21</sup>Therefore the LORD heard, and was angry.
A fire was kindled against Jacob,
anger also went up against Israel,
- <sup>22</sup>because they didn't believe in God,
and didn't trust in his salvation [yeshuat].
- <sup>23</sup>Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven.
- <sup>24</sup>He rained down manna on them to eat, and gave them food from the sky.
- <sup>25</sup>Man ate the bread of angels.
He sent them food to the full.
- <sup>26</sup>He caused the east wind to blow in the sky.
By his power he guided the south wind.
- <sup>27</sup>He rained also flesh on them as the dust;
winged birds as the sand of the seas.
- <sup>28</sup>He let them fall in the midst of their camp, around their habitations.
- <sup>29</sup>So they ate, and were well filled.
He gave them their own desire.
- <sup>30</sup>They didn't turn from their cravings.
Their food was yet in their mouths,
<sup>31</sup>when the anger of God went up against them, killed some of their fattest,
and struck down the young men of Israel.
- <sup>32</sup>For all this they still sinned,
and didn't believe in his wondrous works.
- <sup>33</sup>Therefore he consumed their days in vanity,
and their years in terror.
- <sup>34</sup>When he killed them, then they inquired after him.
They returned and sought God earnestly.
- <sup>35</sup>They remembered that God was their rock,
the Most High God, their redeemer.
- <sup>36</sup>But they flattered him with their mouth, and lied to him with their tongue.
- <sup>37</sup>For their heart was not right with him, neither were they faithful in his covenant.
- <sup>38</sup>But he, being merciful, forgave iniquity, and didn't destroy them.
Yes, many times he turned his anger away,
and didn't stir up all his wrath.
- <sup>39</sup>He remembered that they were but flesh,
a wind that passes away, and doesn't come again.
- <sup>40</sup>How often they rebelled against him in the wilderness, and grieved him in the desert!
- <sup>41</sup>They turned again and tempted God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
- <sup>42</sup>They didn't remember his hand,
nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
- <sup>43</sup>how he set his signs in Egypt,
his wonders in the field of Zoan,
- <sup>44</sup>he turned their rivers into blood,
and their streams, so that they could not drink.
- <sup>45</sup>He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them;
and frogs, which destroyed them.
- <sup>46</sup>He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.
- <sup>47</sup>He destroyed their vines with hail,
their sycamore fig trees with frost.
- <sup>48</sup>He gave over their livestock also to the hail,
and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.

<sup>49</sup>He threw on them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, indignation, and trouble,
 and a band of angels of evil.
<sup>50</sup>He made a path for his anger.
 He didn't spare their soul from death,
 but gave their life over to the pestilence, <sup>51</sup>and struck all the firstborn in Egypt, the chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
<sup>52</sup>But he led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
<sup>53</sup>He led them safely, so that they weren't afraid,
 but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
<sup>54</sup>He brought them to the border of his sanctuary,
 to this mountain, which his right hand
 had taken.
<sup>55</sup>He also drove out the nations before them, allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
<sup>56</sup>Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God,
 and didn't keep his testimonies;
<sup>57</sup>but turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers.
 They were turned aside like a deceitful
 bow.
<sup>58</sup>For they provoked him to anger with their high places,
 and moved him to jealousy with their engraved images.
<sup>59</sup>When God heard this, he was angry, and greatly abhorred Israel;
<sup>60</sup>So that he forsook the tent of Shiloh,
 the tent which he placed among men;
<sup>61</sup>and delivered his strength into captivity, his glory into the adversary's hand.
<sup>62</sup>He also gave his people over to the sword, and was angry with his inheritance.
<sup>63</sup>Fire devoured their young men.
 Their virgins had no wedding song.
<sup>64</sup>Their priests fell by the sword,
 and their widows couldn't weep.
<sup>65</sup>Then the Lord awakened as one out of sleep, like a mighty man who shouts by reason of wine.
<sup>66</sup>He struck his adversaries backward.
 He put them to a perpetual reproach.
<sup>67</sup>Moreover he rejected the tent of Joseph, and didn't choose the tribe of Ephraim, <sup>68</sup>But chose the tribe of Judah,

 Mount Zion which he loved.
<sup>69</sup>He built his sanctuary like the heights, like the earth which he has established
 forever.
<sup>70</sup>He also chose David his servant,
 and took him from the sheepfolds; <sup>71</sup>from following the ewes that have their young,
 he brought him to be the shepherd of Jacob, his people,
 and Israel, his inheritance.
<sup>72</sup>So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skillfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, the nations have come into your inheritance.
 They have defiled your holy temple.
 They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
<sup>2</sup>They have given the dead bodies of your servants to be food for the birds of the sky,
 the flesh of your holy ones to the animals
 of the earth.
<sup>3</sup>Their blood they have shed like water around
 Jerusalem.
 There was no one to bury them.
<sup>4</sup>We have become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those who are around us.
<sup>5</sup>How long, LORD?
 Will you be angry forever?
 Will your jealousy burn like fire?
<sup>6</sup>Pour out your wrath on the nations that don't know you;
 on the kingdoms that don't call on your
 name;
<sup>7</sup>For they have devoured Jacob,
 and destroyed his homeland.
<sup>8</sup>Don't hold the iniquities of our forefathers against us.
 Let your tender mercies speedily meet us,
 for we are in desperate need.
<sup>9</sup>Help us, God of our salvation, for the glory of your name.

Deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.

<sup>10</sup>Why should the nations say, "Where is their God?"

Let it be known among the nations, before our eyes, that vengeance for your servants' blood is being poured out.

<sup>11</sup>Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you.

According to the greatness of your power, preserve those who are sentenced to death.

<sup>12</sup>Pay back to our neighbors seven times into their bosom their reproach with which they have reproached you, Lord.

<sup>13</sup>So we, your people and sheep of your pasture, will give you thanks forever.

We will praise you forever, to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Lilies of the Covenant." A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Hear us, Shepherd of Israel,
you who lead Joseph like a flock,
you who sit above the cherubim, shine forth.

<sup>2</sup>Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might!

Come to save us!

<sup>3</sup>Turn us again, God.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

<sup>4</sup>LORD God of Hosts, How long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?

<sup>5</sup>You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.

<sup>6</sup>You make us a source of contention to our neighbors.

Our enemies laugh among themselves.

<sup>7</sup>Turn us again, God of Hosts.
Cause your face to shine,
and we will be saved.

<sup>a</sup>81:3 or, trumpet

You drove out the nations, and planted it.

<sup>9</sup>You cleared the ground for it.

It took deep root, and filled the land.

<sup>10</sup>The mountains were covered with its shadow.

Its boughs were like God's cedars.

<sup>11</sup>It sent out its branches to the sea,
Its shoots to the River.

<sup>12</sup>Why have you broken down its walls, so that all those who pass by the way pluck it?

<sup>13</sup>The boar out of the wood ravages it.
The wild animals of the field feed on it.

<sup>14</sup>Turn again, we beg you, God of Hosts.
Look down from heaven, and see, and visit this vine,

<sup>15</sup>the stock which your right hand planted, the branch that you made strong for yourself.

<sup>16</sup>It's burned with fire.

It's cut down.

They perish at your rebuke.

<sup>17</sup>Let your hand be on the man of your right
hand,
on the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.

<sup>18</sup>So we will not turn away from you.
Revive us, and we will call on your name.

<sup>19</sup>Turn us again, LORD God of Hosts.
Cause your face to shine, and we will be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. By Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>Sing aloud to God, our strength!
Make a joyful shout to the God of Jacob!

<sup>2</sup>Raise a song, and bring here the tambourine, the pleasant lyre with the harp.

at the full moon, on our feast day.

<sup>4</sup>For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.

<sup>5</sup>He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out over the land of Egypt,
I heard a language that I didn't know.

<sup>6</sup>"I removed his shoulder from the burden.
His hands were freed from the basket.

<sup>7</sup>You called in trouble, and I delivered you.

I answered you in the secret place of thunder.
 I tested you at the waters of Meribah.”
 Selah.
<sup>8</sup>“Hear, my people, and I will testify to you,
 Israel, if you would listen to me!
<sup>9</sup>There shall be no strange god in you, neither shall you worship any foreign
 god.
<sup>10</sup>I am the LORD, your God, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt.
 Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
<sup>11</sup>But my people didn’t listen to my voice.
 Israel desired none of me.
<sup>12</sup>So I let them go after the stubbornness of their hearts,
 that they might walk in their own counsels.
<sup>13</sup>Oh that my people would listen to me, that Israel would walk in my ways!
<sup>14</sup>I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.
<sup>15</sup>The haters of the LORD would cringe before
 him,
 and their punishment would last forever.
<sup>16</sup>But he would have also fed them with the finest of the wheat.
 I will satisfy you with honey out of the rock.”

Psalm 82

A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God presides in the great assembly.
 He judges among the gods.
<sup>2</sup>“How long will you judge unjustly, and show partiality to the wicked?”
 Selah.
<sup>3</sup>“Defend the weak, the poor, and the fatherless.
 Maintain the rights of the poor and oppressed.
<sup>4</sup>Rescue the weak and needy.
 Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.”
<sup>5</sup>They don’t know, neither do they understand.
 They walk back and forth in darkness.
 All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

<sup>6</sup>I said, “You are gods, all of you are sons of the Most High.
<sup>7</sup>Nevertheless you shall die like men,
 and fall like one of the rulers.”
<sup>8</sup>Arise, God, judge the earth,
 for you inherit all of the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm by Asaph.

<sup>1</sup>God, don’t keep silent.
 Don’t keep silent,
 and don’t be still, God.
<sup>2</sup>For, behold, your enemies are stirred up.
 Those who hate you have lifted up their heads.
<sup>3</sup>They conspire with cunning against your people.
 They plot against your cherished ones.
<sup>4</sup>“Come,” they say, “and let’s destroy them as a nation,
 that the name of Israel may be remembered no more.”
<sup>5</sup>For they have conspired together with one mind.
 They form an alliance against you.
<sup>6</sup>The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites;
 Moab, and the Hagrites;
<sup>7</sup>Gebal, Ammon, and Amalek;
 Philistia with the inhabitants of Tyre;
<sup>8</sup>Assyria also is joined with them.
 They have helped the children of Lot.
 Selah.
<sup>9</sup>Do to them as you did to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;
<sup>10</sup>who perished at Endor,
 who became as dung for the earth.
<sup>11</sup>Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb;
 yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zal-munna;
<sup>12</sup>who said, “Let us take possession of God’s pasturelands.”
<sup>13</sup>My God, make them like tumbleweed;
 like chaff before the wind.
<sup>14</sup>As the fire that burns the forest, as the flame that sets the mountains on fire,
<sup>15</sup>so pursue them with your tempest,
 and terrify them with your storm.
<sup>16</sup>Fill their faces with confusion, that they may seek your name, LORD.

<sup>17</sup>Let them be disappointed and dismayed forever.

Yes, let them be confounded and perish;

<sup>18</sup>that they may know that you alone, whose name is the LORD, are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician. On an instrument of Gath. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>How lovely are your dwellings,
LORD of Hosts!

<sup>2</sup>My soul longs, and even faints for the courts of the LORD.

My heart and my flesh cry out for the living God.

<sup>3</sup>Yes, the sparrow has found a home, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may have her young,
near your altars, LORD of Hosts, my King, and my God.

<sup>4</sup>Blessed are those who dwell in your house.
They are always praising you.

Selah.

<sup>5</sup>Blessed are those whose strength is in you;
who have set their hearts on a pilgrimage.

<sup>6</sup>Passing through the valley of Weeping, they make it a place of springs.

Yes, the autumn rain covers it with blessings.

<sup>7</sup>They go from strength to strength.

Everyone of them appears before God in Zion.

<sup>8</sup>LORD, God of Hosts, hear my prayer.
Listen, God of Jacob.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup>Behold, God our shield, look at the face of your anointed.

<sup>10</sup>For a day in your courts is better than a thousand.

I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

<sup>11</sup>For the LORD God is a sun and a shield.
The LORD will give grace and glory.

He withholds no good thing from those who walk blamelessly.

<sup>12</sup>LORD of Hosts, blessed is the man who trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you have been favorable to your land.
You have restored the fortunes of Jacob.

<sup>2</sup>You have forgiven the iniquity of your people.
You have covered all their sin.

Selah.

<sup>3</sup>You have taken away all your wrath.

You have turned from the fierceness of your anger.

<sup>4</sup>Turn us, God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.

<sup>5</sup>Will you be angry with us forever?

Will you draw out your anger to all generations?

<sup>6</sup>Won't you revive us again,
that your people may rejoice in you?

<sup>7</sup>Show us your loving kindness, LORD.
Grant us your salvation.

<sup>8</sup>I will hear what God, the LORD, will speak, for he will speak peace to his people, his holy ones;
but let them not turn again to folly.

<sup>9</sup>Surely his salvation is near those who fear him,
that glory may dwell in our land.

<sup>10</sup>Mercy and truth meet together.
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

<sup>11</sup>Truth springs out of the earth.
Righteousness has looked down from heaven.

<sup>12</sup>Yes, the LORD will give that which is good.
Our land will yield its increase.

<sup>13</sup>Righteousness goes before him,
And prepares the way for his steps.

Psalm 86

A Prayer by David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear, LORD, and answer me,
for I am poor and needy.

<sup>2</sup>Preserve my soul, for I am godly.
You, my God, save your servant who trusts in you.

<sup>3</sup>Be merciful to me, Lord,
for I call to you all day long.

<sup>4</sup>Bring joy to the soul of your servant,
for to you, Lord, do I lift up my soul.

<sup>5</sup>For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive; abundant in loving kindness to all those who call on you.

<sup>6</sup>Hear, LORD, my prayer.
Listen to the voice of my petitions.

<sup>7</sup>In the day of my trouble I will call on you,
for you will answer me.

<sup>8</sup>There is no one like you among the gods, Lord, nor any deeds like your deeds.

<sup>9</sup>All nations you have made will come and worship before you, Lord.
They shall glorify your name.

<sup>10</sup>For you are great, and do wondrous things.
You are God alone.

<sup>11</sup>Teach me your way, LORD.
I will walk in your truth.
Make my heart undivided to fear your
name.

<sup>12</sup>I will praise you, Lord my God, with my whole heart.
I will glorify your name forevermore.

<sup>13</sup>For your loving kindness is great toward me.
You have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol<sup>b</sup>.

<sup>14</sup>God, the proud have risen up against me.
A company of violent men have sought after my soul,
and they don't hold regard for you before
them.

<sup>15</sup>But you, Lord, are a merciful and gracious
God,
slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness and truth.

<sup>16</sup>Turn to me, and have mercy on me!
Give your strength to your servant.
Save the son of your handmaid.

<sup>17</sup>Show me a sign of your goodness, that those who hate me may see it, and be shamed,
because you, LORD, have helped me, and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm by the sons of Korah; a Song.

<sup>2</sup>The LORD loves the gates of Zion more than all the dwellings of Jacob.

<sup>c</sup>87:4 Rahab is a reference to Egypt.

<sup>3</sup>Glorious things are spoken about you, city of God.

Selah.

<sup>4</sup>I will record Rahab<sup>c</sup> and Babylon among those who acknowledge me.

Behold, Philistia, Tyre, and also Ethiopia:
"This one was born there."

<sup>5</sup>Yes, of Zion it will be said, "This one and that one was born in her;"
the Most High himself will establish her.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD will count, when he writes up the peoples,
"This one was born there."

Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Those who sing as well as those who dance say,
"All my springs are in you."

Psalm 88

A Song. A Psalm by the sons of Korah.
For the Chief Musician. To the tune of "The Suffering of Affliction." A contemplation by Heman, the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, the God of my salvation,
I have cried day and night before you.

<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer enter into your presence.
Turn your ear to my cry.

<sup>3</sup>For my soul is full of troubles.
My life draws near to Sheol<sup>d</sup>.

<sup>4</sup>I am counted among those who go down into the pit.

I am like a man who has no help,

<sup>5</sup>set apart among the dead,
like the slain who lie in the grave,
whom you remember no more.

They are cut off from your hand.

<sup>6</sup>You have laid me in the lowest pit, in the darkest depths.

<sup>7</sup>Your wrath lies heavily on me.
You have afflicted me with all your waves.

Selah.

<sup>8</sup>You have taken my friends from me.
You have made me an abomination to
them.

I am confined, and I can't escape.

<sup>9</sup>My eyes are dim from grief.
I have called on you daily, LORD.

I have spread out my hands to you.
<sup>10</sup>Do you show wonders to the dead?
 Do the dead rise up and praise you?
 Selah.
<sup>11</sup>Is your loving kindness declared in the grave?
 Or your faithfulness in Destruction?
<sup>12</sup>Are your wonders made known in the dark?
 Or your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
<sup>13</sup>But to you, LORD, I have cried.
 In the morning, my prayer comes before
 you.
<sup>14</sup>LORD, why do you reject my soul?
 Why do you hide your face from me?
<sup>15</sup>I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up.
 While I suffer your terrors, I am distracted.
<sup>16</sup>Your fierce wrath has gone over me.
 Your terrors have cut me off.
<sup>17</sup>They came around me like water all day long.
 They completely engulfed me.
<sup>18</sup>You have put lover and friend far from me,
 and my friends into darkness.

Psalm 89

A contemplation by Ethan, the Ezrahite.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of the loving kindness of the LORD
 forever.
 With my mouth, I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.
<sup>2</sup>I indeed declare, "Love stands firm forever.
 You established the heavens.
 Your faithfulness is in them."
<sup>3</sup>"I have made a covenant with my chosen one,
 I have sworn to David, my servant,
<sup>4</sup>"I will establish your seed forever, and build up your throne to all generations."
 Selah.
<sup>5</sup>The heavens will praise your wonders, LORD; your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
<sup>6</sup>For who in the skies can be compared to the
 LORD?
 Who among the sons of the heavenly beings is like the LORD, <sup>7</sup>a very awesome God in the council of the holy ones,

to be feared above all those who are around him?
<sup>8</sup>LORD, God of Hosts, who is a mighty one, like
 you?
 The LORD, your faithfulness is around
 you.
<sup>9</sup>You rule the pride of the sea.
 When its waves rise up, you calm them.
<sup>10</sup>You have broken Rahab in pieces, like one of the slain.
 You have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
<sup>11</sup>The heavens are yours.
 The earth also is yours;
 the world and its fullness.
 You have founded them.
<sup>12</sup>The north and the south, you have created
 them.
 Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
<sup>13</sup>You have a mighty arm.
 Your hand is strong, and your right hand is exalted.
<sup>14</sup>Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne.
 Loving kindness and truth go before your face.
<sup>15</sup>Blessed are the people who learn to acclaim
 you.
 They walk in the light of your presence,
 LORD.
<sup>16</sup>In your name they rejoice all day.
 In your righteousness, they are exalted.
<sup>17</sup>For you are the glory of their strength.
 In your favor, our horn will be exalted.
<sup>18</sup>For our shield belongs to the LORD;
 our king to the Holy One of Israel.
<sup>19</sup>Then you spoke in vision to your holy ones, and said, "I have bestowed strength on the warrior.
 I have exalted a young man from the
 people.
<sup>20</sup>I have found David, my servant.
 I have anointed him with my holy oil,
<sup>21</sup>with whom my hand shall be established.
 My arm will also strengthen him.
<sup>22</sup>No enemy will tax him.
 No wicked man will oppress him.
<sup>23</sup>I will beat down his adversaries before him,
 and strike those who hate him.
<sup>24</sup>But my faithfulness and my loving kindness will be with him.
 In my name, his horn will be exalted.

<sup>25</sup>I will set his hand also on the sea, and his right hand on the rivers.
<sup>26</sup>He will call to me, 'You are my Father, my God, and the rock of my salvation!'
<sup>27</sup>I will also appoint him my firstborn, the highest of the kings of the earth.
<sup>28</sup>I will keep my loving kindness for him
forevermore.
My covenant will stand firm with him.
<sup>29</sup>I will also make his seed endure forever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
<sup>30</sup>If his children forsake my Torah, and don't walk in my ordinances;
<sup>31</sup>if they break my statutes, and don't keep my commandments;
<sup>32</sup>then I will punish their sin with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
<sup>33</sup>But I will not completely take my loving kindness from him,
nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
<sup>34</sup>I will not break my covenant,
nor alter what my lips have uttered.
<sup>35</sup>Once have I sworn by my holiness,
I will not lie to David.
<sup>36</sup>His seed will endure forever,
his throne like the sun before me.
<sup>37</sup>It will be established forever like the moon, the faithful witness in the sky."
Selah.
<sup>38</sup>But you have rejected and spurned.
You have been angry with your anointed.
<sup>39</sup>You have renounced the covenant of your servant.
You have defiled his crown in the dust.
<sup>40</sup>You have broken down all his hedges.
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
<sup>41</sup>All who pass by the way rob him.
He has become a reproach to his neighbors.
<sup>42</sup>You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries.
You have made all of his enemies rejoice.
<sup>43</sup>Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword, and haven't supported him in battle.
<sup>44</sup>You have ended his splendor, and thrown his throne down to the ground.
<sup>45</sup>You have shortened the days of his youth.
You have covered him with shame.
Selah.

Will you hide yourself forever?
Will your wrath burn like fire?
<sup>47</sup>Remember how short my time is!
For what vanity have you created all the children of men!
<sup>48</sup>What man is he who shall live and not see death,
who shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol?
Selah.
<sup>49</sup>Lord, where are your former loving kindnesses,
which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
<sup>50</sup>Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants,
how I bear in my heart the taunts of all the mighty peoples,
<sup>51</sup>With which your enemies have mocked,
LORD,
with which they have mocked the footsteps of your anointed one.
<sup>52</sup>Blessed be the LORD forevermore.
Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

A Prayer by Moses, the man of God<sup>f</sup>.

<sup>1</sup>Lord,<sup>g</sup> you have been our dwelling place for all generations.
<sup>2</sup>Before the mountains were brought forth,
before you had formed the earth and the world,
even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
<sup>3</sup>You turn man to destruction, saying,
"Return, you children of men."
<sup>4</sup>For a thousand years in your sight are just like yesterday when it is past,
like a watch in the night.
<sup>5</sup>You sweep them away as they sleep.
In the morning they sprout like new grass.
<sup>6</sup>In the morning it sprouts and springs up.

By evening, it is withered and dry.
<sup>7</sup>For we are consumed in your anger.
 We are troubled in your wrath.
<sup>8</sup>You have set our iniquities before you,
 our secret sins in the light of your presence.
<sup>9</sup>For all our days have passed away in your wrath.
 We bring our years to an end as a sigh.
<sup>10</sup>The days of our years are seventy,
 or even by reason of strength eighty years;
 yet their pride is but labor and sorrow,
 for it passes quickly, and we fly away.
<sup>11</sup>Who knows the power of your anger, your wrath according to the fear that is due to you?
<sup>12</sup>So teach us to number our days,
 that we may gain a heart of wisdom.
<sup>13</sup>Relent, LORD!<sup>h</sup>
 How long?
 Have compassion on your servants!
<sup>14</sup>Satisfy us in the morning with your loving kindness, that we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
<sup>15</sup>Make us glad for as many days as you have afflicted us, for as many years as we have seen evil.
<sup>16</sup>Let your work appear to your servants;
 your glory to their children.
<sup>17</sup>Let the favor of the Lord our God be on us;
 establish the work of our hands for us;
 yes, establish the work of our hands.

Psalm 91

<sup>1</sup>He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
<sup>2</sup>I will say of the LORD, "He is my refuge and my fortress;
 my God, in whom I trust."
<sup>3</sup>For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.
<sup>4</sup>He will cover you with his feathers.
 Under his wings you will take refuge.
 His faithfulness is your shield and rampart.
<sup>5</sup>You shall not be afraid of the terror by night, nor of the arrow that flies by day;

<sup>6</sup>nor of the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor of the destruction that wastes at noonday.

<sup>7</sup>A thousand may fall at your side,
 and ten thousand at your right hand;
 but it will not come near you.
<sup>8</sup>You will only look with your eyes, and see the recompense of the wicked.
<sup>9</sup>Because you have made LORD your refuge, and the Most High your dwelling place, <sup>10</sup>no evil shall happen to you,
 neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
<sup>11</sup>For he will put his angels in charge of you,
 to guard you in all your ways.
<sup>12</sup>They will bear you up in their hands,
 so that you won't dash your foot against a stone.
<sup>13</sup>You will tread on the lion and cobra.
 You will trample the young lion and the serpent underfoot.
<sup>14</sup>"Because he has set his love on me, therefore I will deliver him.
 I will set him on high, because he has known my name.
<sup>15</sup>He will call on me, and I will answer him.
 I will be with him in trouble.
 I will deliver him, and honor him.
<sup>16</sup>I will satisfy him with long life,
 and show him my salvation [yeshuah-ti]."

Psalm 92

A Psalm. A song for the Sabbath day.

<sup>1</sup>It is a good thing to give thanks to the LORD, to sing praises to your name, Most High; <sup>2</sup>to proclaim your loving kindness in the morning, and your faithfulness every night, <sup>3</sup>with the ten-stringed lute, with the harp,
 and with the melody of the lyre.
<sup>4</sup>For you, LORD, have made me glad through your work.
 I will triumph in the works of your hands.
<sup>5</sup>How great are your works, LORD!
 Your thoughts are very deep.

<sup>h</sup>90:13 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God neither does a fool understand this:

<sup>7</sup>though the wicked spring up as the grass, and all the evildoers flourish,
 they will be destroyed forever.
<sup>8</sup>But you, LORD, are on high forevermore.
<sup>9</sup>For, behold, your enemies, LORD, for, behold, your enemies shall perish.
 All the evildoers will be scattered.
<sup>10</sup>But you have exalted my horn like that of the wild ox.
 I am anointed with fresh oil.
<sup>11</sup>My eye has also seen my enemies.
 My ears have heard of the wicked enemies who rise up against me.
<sup>12</sup>The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree.
 He will grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
<sup>13</sup>They are planted in the LORD's house.
 They will flourish in our God's courts.
<sup>14</sup>They will still bring forth fruit in old age.
 They will be full of sap and green,
<sup>15</sup>to show that the LORD is upright.
 He is my rock,
 and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns!
 He is clothed with majesty!
 The LORD is armed with strength.
 The world also is established.
 It can't be moved.
<sup>2</sup>Your throne is established from long ago.
 You are from everlasting.
<sup>3</sup>The floods have lifted up, LORD,
 the floods have lifted up their voice.
 The floods lift up their waves.
<sup>4</sup>Above the voices of many waters,
 the mighty breakers of the sea,
 The LORD on high is mighty.
<sup>5</sup>Your statutes stand firm.
 Holiness adorns your house,
 LORD, forevermore.

Psalm 94

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you God to whom vengeance belongs, you God to whom vengeance belongs,
 shine forth.
<sup>2</sup>Rise up, you judge of the earth.
 Pay back the proud what they deserve.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, how long will the wicked,

how long will the wicked triumph?
<sup>4</sup>They pour out arrogant words.
 All the evildoers boast.
<sup>5</sup>They break your people in pieces, LORD,
 and afflict your heritage.
<sup>6</sup>They kill the widow and the alien,
 and murder the fatherless.
<sup>7</sup>They say, "The LORD will not see, neither will Jacob's God consider."
<sup>8</sup>Consider, you senseless among the people;
 you fools, when will you be wise?
<sup>9</sup>He who implanted the ear, won't he hear?
 He who formed the eye, won't he see?
<sup>10</sup>He who disciplines the nations, won't he punish?
 He who teaches man knows.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD knows the thoughts of man,
 that they are futile.
<sup>12</sup>Blessed is the man whom you discipline,
 LORD,
 and teach out of your Torah;
<sup>13</sup>that you may give him rest from the days of adversity,
 until the pit is dug for the wicked.
<sup>14</sup>For the LORD won't reject his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance.
<sup>15</sup>For judgment will return to righteousness.
 All the upright in heart shall follow it.
<sup>16</sup>Who will rise up for me against the wicked?
 Who will stand up for me against the evildoers?
<sup>17</sup>Unless the LORD had been my help,
 my soul would have soon lived in silence.
<sup>18</sup>When I said, "My foot is slipping!"
 Your loving kindness, LORD, held me up.
<sup>19</sup>In the multitude of my thoughts within me, your comforts delight my soul.
<sup>20</sup>Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you,
 which brings about mischief by statute?
<sup>21</sup>They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
<sup>22</sup>But the LORD has been my high tower, my God, the rock of my refuge.
<sup>23</sup>He has brought on them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wicked-
 ness.
 The LORD, our God, will cut them off.

Psalm 95

<sup>1</sup>Oh come, let's sing to the LORD.
 Let's shout aloud to the rock of our salvation!
<sup>2</sup>Let's come before his presence with thanksgiving.
 Let's extol him with songs!
<sup>3</sup>For the LORD is a great God,
 a great King above all gods.
<sup>4</sup>In his hand are the deep places of the earth.
 The heights of the mountains are also his.
<sup>5</sup>The sea is his, and he made it.
 His hands formed the dry land.
<sup>6</sup>Oh come, let's worship and bow down.
 Let's kneel before the LORD, our Maker,
<sup>7</sup>for he is our God.
 We are the people of his pasture,
 and the sheep in his care.
 Today, oh that you would hear his voice!
<sup>8</sup>Don't harden your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness, <sup>9</sup>when your fathers tempted me, tested me, and saw my work.
<sup>10</sup>Forty long years I was grieved with that generation,
 and said, "It is a people that errs in their
 heart.
 They have not known my ways."
<sup>11</sup>Therefore I swore in my wrath,
 "They won't enter into my rest."

Psalm 96

<sup>1</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song!
 Sing to the LORD, all the earth.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to the LORD!
 Bless his name!
 Proclaim his salvation from day to day!
<sup>3</sup>Declare his glory among the nations,
 his marvelous works among all the peoples.
<sup>4</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised!
 He is to be feared above all gods.
<sup>5</sup>For all the gods of the peoples are idols, but the LORD made the heavens.
<sup>6</sup>Honor and majesty are before him.
 Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
<sup>7</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you families of nations,
 ascribe to the LORD glory and strength.
<sup>8</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his
 name.

Bring an offering, and come into his courts.

<sup>9</sup>Worship the LORD in holy array.
 Tremble before him, all the earth.
<sup>10</sup>Say among the nations, "The LORD reigns."
 The world is also established.
 It can't be moved.
 He will judge the peoples with equity.
<sup>11</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice.
 Let the sea roar, and its fullness!
<sup>12</sup>Let the field and all that is in it exult!
 Then all the trees of the woods shall sing for joy <sup>13</sup>before the LORD; for he comes,
 for he comes to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness,
 the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns!
 Let the earth rejoice!
 Let the multitude of islands be glad!
<sup>2</sup>Clouds and darkness are around him.
 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
<sup>3</sup>A fire goes before him, and burns up his adversaries on every side.
<sup>4</sup>His lightning lights up the world.
 The earth sees, and trembles.
<sup>5</sup>The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the LORD,
 at the presence of the Lord of the whole
 earth.
<sup>6</sup>The heavens declare his righteousness.
 All the peoples have seen his glory.
<sup>7</sup>Let all them be shamed who serve engraved images,
 who boast in their idols.
 Worship him, all you gods!
<sup>8</sup>Zion heard and was glad.
 The daughters of Judah rejoiced, because of your judgments, LORD.
<sup>9</sup>For you, LORD, are most high above all the earth.
 You are exalted far above all gods.
<sup>10</sup>You who love the LORD, hate evil.
 He preserves the souls of his holy ones.
 He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
<sup>11</sup>Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.

<sup>12</sup>Be glad in the LORD, you righteous people!
 Give thanks to his holy Name.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

<sup>1</sup>Sing to the LORD a new song,
 for he has done marvelous things!
 His right hand, and his holy arm, have worked salvation for him.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD has made known his salvation.
 He has openly shown his righteousness in the sight of the nations.
<sup>3</sup>He has remembered his loving kindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel.
 All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
<sup>4</sup>Make a joyful noise to the LORD, all the earth!
 Burst out and sing for joy, yes, sing praises!
<sup>5</sup>Sing praises to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and the voice of melody.
<sup>6</sup>With shofars<sup>1</sup> and sound of the ram's horn, make a joyful noise before the King, the
 LORD.
<sup>7</sup>Let the sea roar with its fullness;
 the world, and those who dwell therein.
<sup>8</sup>Let the rivers clap their hands.
 Let the mountains sing for joy together.
<sup>9</sup>Let them sing before the LORD,
 for he comes to judge the earth.
 He will judge the world with righteousness,
 and the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

<sup>1</sup>The LORD reigns! Let the peoples tremble.
 He sits enthroned among the cherubim.
 Let the earth be moved.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD is great in Zion.
 He is high above all the peoples.
<sup>3</sup>Let them praise your great and awesome
 name.
 He is Holy!
<sup>4</sup>The King's strength also loves justice.
 You do establish equity.
 You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.

<sup>1</sup>98:6 or, trumpets

<sup>5</sup>Exalt the LORD our God.
 Worship at his footstool.
 He is Holy!
<sup>6</sup>Moses and Aaron were among his priests, Samuel among those who call on his
 name;
 they called on the LORD, and he answered them.
<sup>7</sup>He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud.
 They kept his testimonies,
 the statute that he gave them.
<sup>8</sup>You answered them, LORD our God.
 You are a God who forgave them, although you took vengeance for their doings.
<sup>9</sup>Exalt the LORD, our God.
 Worship at his holy hill, for the LORD, our God, is holy!

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

<sup>1</sup>Shout for joy to the LORD, all you lands!
<sup>2</sup>Serve the LORD with gladness.
 Come before his presence with singing.
<sup>3</sup>Know that the LORD, he is God.
 It is he who has made us, and we are his.
 We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
<sup>4</sup>Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, into his courts with praise.
 Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
<sup>5</sup>For the LORD is good.
 His loving kindness endures forever,
 his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 101

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>I will sing of loving kindness and justice.
 To you, LORD, I will sing praises.
<sup>2</sup>I will be careful to live a blameless life.
 When will you come to me?
 I will walk within my house with a blameless heart.
<sup>3</sup>I will set no vile thing before my eyes.
 I hate the deeds of faithless men.
 They will not cling to me.
<sup>4</sup>A perverse heart will be far from me.

I will have nothing to do with evil.
<sup>5</sup>I will silence whoever secretly slanders his neighbor.
 I won't tolerate one who is haughty and conceited.
<sup>6</sup>My eyes will be on the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me.
 He who walks in a perfect way,
 he will serve me.
<sup>7</sup>He who practices deceit won't dwell within my house.
 He who speaks falsehood won't be established before my eyes.
<sup>8</sup>Morning by morning, I will destroy all the wicked of the land;
 to cut off all the workers of iniquity from the LORD's city.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed and pours out his complaint before the LORD.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD!
 Let my cry come to you.
<sup>2</sup>Don't hide your face from me in the day of my distress.
 Turn your ear to me.
 Answer me quickly in the day when I call.
<sup>3</sup>For my days consume away like smoke.
 My bones are burned as a torch.
<sup>4</sup>My heart is blighted like grass, and withered, for I forget to eat my bread.
<sup>5</sup>By reason of the voice of my groaning, my bones stick to my skin.
<sup>6</sup>I am like a pelican of the wilderness.
 I have become as an owl of the waste places.
<sup>7</sup>I watch, and have become like a sparrow that is alone on the housetop.
<sup>8</sup>My enemies reproach me all day.
 Those who are mad at me use my name as a curse.
<sup>9</sup>For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mixed my drink with tears,
<sup>10</sup>Because of your indignation and your wrath, for you have taken me up, and thrown me away.
<sup>11</sup>My days are like a long shadow.
 I have withered like grass.
<sup>12</sup>But you, LORD, will remain forever;

your renown endures to all generations.
<sup>13</sup>You will arise and have mercy on Zion;
 for it is time to have pity on her.
 Yes, the set time has come.
<sup>14</sup>For your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity on her dust.
<sup>15</sup>So the nations will fear the name of the LORD;
 all the kings of the earth your glory.
<sup>16</sup>For the LORD has built up Zion.
 He has appeared in his glory.
<sup>17</sup>He has responded to the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.
<sup>18</sup>This will be written for the generation to come.
 A people which will be created will praise the LORD.
<sup>19</sup>For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary.
 From heaven, the LORD saw the earth;
<sup>20</sup>to hear the groans of the prisoner;
 to free those who are condemned to death;
<sup>21</sup>that men may declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;
<sup>22</sup>when the peoples are gathered together,
 the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
<sup>23</sup>He weakened my strength along the course.
 He shortened my days.
<sup>24</sup>I said, "My God, don't take me away in the midst of my days.
 Your years are throughout all generations.
<sup>25</sup>Of old, you laid the foundation of the earth.
 The heavens are the work of your hands.
<sup>26</sup>They will perish, but you will endure.
 Yes, all of them will wear out like a garment.
 You will change them like a cloak, and they will be changed.
<sup>27</sup>But you are the same.
 Your years will have no end.
<sup>28</sup>The children of your servants will continue.
 Their seed will be established before you."

Psalm 103

By David.

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, my soul!
All that is within me, praise his holy name!
- <sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD, my soul,
and don't forget all his benefits;
- <sup>3</sup>who forgives all your sins;
who heals all your diseases;
- <sup>4</sup>who redeems your life from destruction;
who crowns you with loving kindness and tender mercies;
- <sup>5</sup>who satisfies your desire with good things,
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- <sup>6</sup>The LORD executes righteous acts, and justice for all who are oppressed.
- <sup>7</sup>He made known his ways to Moses,
his deeds to the children of Israel.
- <sup>8</sup>The LORD is merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness.
- <sup>9</sup>He will not always accuse;
neither will he stay angry forever.
- <sup>10</sup>He has not dealt with us according to our sins, nor repaid us for our iniquities.
- <sup>11</sup>For as the heavens are high above the earth, so great is his loving kindness toward those who fear him.
- <sup>12</sup>As far as the east is from the west,
so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
- <sup>13</sup>Like a father has compassion on his children,
so the LORD has compassion on those who fear him.
- <sup>14</sup>For he knows how we are made.
He remembers that we are dust.
- <sup>15</sup>As for man, his days are like grass.
As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
- <sup>16</sup>For the wind passes over it, and it is gone.
Its place remembers it no more.
- <sup>17</sup>But the LORD's loving kindness is from everlasting to everlasting with those who fear him, his righteousness to children's children;
- <sup>18</sup>to those who keep his covenant,
to those who remember to obey his precepts.

<sup>1</sup>104:4 or, angels

- <sup>19</sup>The LORD has established his throne in the heavens.
His kingdom rules over all.
- <sup>20</sup>Praise the LORD, you angels of his,
who are mighty in strength, who fulfill his word,
obeying the voice of his word.
- <sup>21</sup>Praise the LORD, all you armies of his,
you servants of his, who do his pleasure.
- <sup>22</sup>Praise the LORD, all you works of his,
in all places of his dominion.
Praise the LORD, my soul!

Psalm 104

- <sup>1</sup>Bless the LORD, my soul.
The LORD, my God, you are very great.
You are clothed with honor and majesty.
- <sup>2</sup>He covers himself with light as with a garment.
He stretches out the heavens like a curtain.
- <sup>3</sup>He lays the beams of his rooms in the waters.
He makes the clouds his chariot.
He walks on the wings of the wind.
- <sup>4</sup>He makes his messengers<sup>j</sup> winds;
his servants flames of fire.
- <sup>5</sup>He laid the foundations of the earth,
that it should not be moved forever.
- <sup>6</sup>You covered it with the deep as with a cloak.
The waters stood above the mountains.
- <sup>7</sup>At your rebuke they fled.
At the voice of your thunder they hurried away.
- <sup>8</sup>The mountains rose,
the valleys sank down,
to the place which you had assigned to them.
- <sup>9</sup>You have set a boundary that they may not pass over;
that they don't turn again to cover the earth.
- <sup>10</sup>He sends forth springs into the valleys.
They run among the mountains.
- <sup>11</sup>They give drink to every animal of the field.
The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
- <sup>12</sup>The birds of the sky nest by them.
They sing among the branches.
- <sup>13</sup>He waters the mountains from his rooms.
The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.

<sup>14</sup>He causes the grass to grow for the livestock, and plants for man to cultivate,
that he may bring forth food out of the
earth:
<sup>15</sup>wine that makes glad the heart of man, oil to make his face to shine,
and bread that strengthens man's heart.
<sup>16</sup>The LORD's trees are well watered, the cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;
<sup>17</sup>where the birds make their nests.
The stork makes its home in the fir trees.
<sup>18</sup>The high mountains are for the wild goats.
The rocks are a refuge for the rock badgers.
<sup>19</sup>He appointed the moon for seasons.
The sun knows when to set.
<sup>20</sup>You make darkness, and it is night,
in which all the animals of the forest prowl.
<sup>21</sup>The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.
<sup>22</sup>The sun rises, and they steal away,
and lay down in their dens.
<sup>23</sup>Man goes forth to his work,
to his labor until the evening.
<sup>24</sup>The LORD, how many are your works!
In wisdom have you made them all.
The earth is full of your riches.
<sup>25</sup>There is the sea, great and wide,
in which are innumerable living things,
both small and large animals.
<sup>26</sup>There the ships go,
and leviathan, whom you formed to play
there.
<sup>27</sup>These all wait for you, that you may give them their food in due season.
<sup>28</sup>You give to them; they gather.
You open your hand; they are satisfied with good.
<sup>29</sup>You hide your face: they are troubled; you take away their breath: they die, and return to the dust.
<sup>30</sup>You send forth your Spirit: they are created.
You renew the face of the ground.
<sup>31</sup>Let the glory of the LORD endure forever.
Let the LORD rejoice in his works.
<sup>32</sup>He looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
<sup>33</sup>I will sing to the LORD as long as I live.

I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.

<sup>34</sup>Let your meditation be sweet to him.
I will rejoice in the LORD.

<sup>35</sup>Let sinners be consumed out of the earth.
Let the wicked be no more.
Bless the LORD, my soul.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 105

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD! Call on his name!
Make his doings known among the peoples.
<sup>2</sup>Sing to him, sing praises to him!
Tell of all his marvelous works.
<sup>3</sup>Glory in his holy name.
Let the heart of those who seek the LORD
rejoice.
<sup>4</sup>Seek the LORD and his strength.
Seek his face forever more.
<sup>5</sup>Remember his marvelous works that he has done;
his wonders, and the judgments of his
mouth,
<sup>6</sup>you seed of Abraham, his servant,
you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
<sup>7</sup>He is the LORD, our God.
His judgments are in all the earth.
<sup>8</sup>He has remembered his covenant forever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations, <sup>9</sup>the covenant which he made with Abraham,
his oath to Isaac,
<sup>10</sup>and confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute;
to Israel for an everlasting covenant, <sup>11</sup>saying, "To you I will give the land of Canaan,
the lot of your inheritance;"
<sup>12</sup>when they were but a few men in number, yes, very few, and foreigners in it.
<sup>13</sup>They went about from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another people.
<sup>14</sup>He allowed no one to do them wrong.
Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,
<sup>15</sup>"Don't touch my anointed ones!
Do my prophets no harm!"
<sup>16</sup>He called for a famine on the land.
He destroyed the food supplies.
<sup>17</sup>He sent a man before them.
Joseph was sold for a slave.
<sup>18</sup>They bruised his feet with shackles.

His neck was locked in irons, <sup>19</sup>until the time that his word happened, and the LORD's word proved him true.
<sup>20</sup>The king sent and freed him;
 even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
<sup>21</sup>He made him lord of his house,
 and ruler of all of his possessions;
<sup>22</sup>to discipline his princes at his pleasure, and to teach his elders wisdom.
<sup>23</sup>Israel also came into Egypt.
 Jacob lived in the land of Ham.
<sup>24</sup>He increased his people greatly,
 and made them stronger than their adversaries.
<sup>25</sup>He turned their heart to hate his people, to conspire against his servants.
<sup>26</sup>He sent Moses, his servant, and Aaron, whom he had chosen.
<sup>27</sup>They performed miracles among them,
 and wonders in the land of Ham.
<sup>28</sup>He sent darkness, and made it dark.
 They didn't rebel against his words.
<sup>29</sup>He turned their waters into blood, and killed their fish.
<sup>30</sup>Their land swarmed with frogs,
 even in the rooms of their kings.
<sup>31</sup>He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
 and lice in all their borders.
<sup>32</sup>He gave them hail for rain,
 with lightning in their land.
<sup>33</sup>He struck their vines and also their fig trees, and shattered the trees of their country.
<sup>34</sup>He spoke, and the locusts came,
 and the grasshoppers, without number, <sup>35</sup>ate up every plant in their land;
 and ate up the fruit of their ground.
<sup>36</sup>He struck also all the firstborn in their land,
 the first fruits of all their manhood.
<sup>37</sup>He brought them forth with silver and gold.
 There was not one feeble person among his tribes.
<sup>38</sup>Egypt was glad when they departed, for the fear of them had fallen on them.
<sup>39</sup>He spread a cloud for a covering,
 fire to give light in the night.
<sup>40</sup>They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of the sky.
<sup>41</sup>He opened the rock, and waters gushed out.
 They ran as a river in the dry places.
<sup>42</sup>For he remembered his holy word,

and Abraham, his servant.
<sup>43</sup>He brought forth his people with joy,
 his chosen with singing.
<sup>44</sup>He gave them the lands of the nations.
 They took the labor of the peoples in possession, <sup>45</sup>that they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws.
 Praise the LORD!

Psalm 106

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
 Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>2</sup>Who can utter the mighty acts of the LORD, or fully declare all his praise?
<sup>3</sup>Blessed are those who keep justice.
 Blessed is one who does what is right at all times.
<sup>4</sup>Remember me, LORD, with the favor that you show to your people.
 Visit me with your salvation,
<sup>5</sup>that I may see the prosperity of your chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation,
 that I may glory with your inheritance.
<sup>6</sup>We have sinned with our fathers.
 We have committed iniquity.
 We have done wickedly.
<sup>7</sup>Our fathers didn't understand your wonders in Egypt.
 They didn't remember the multitude of your loving kindnesses, but were rebellious at the sea, even at the Sea of Suf.
<sup>8</sup>Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake,
 that he might make his mighty power known.
<sup>9</sup>He rebuked the Sea of Suf also, and it was dried up;
 so he led them through the depths, as through a desert.
<sup>10</sup>He saved them from the hand of him who hated them,
 and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
<sup>11</sup>The waters covered their adversaries.
 There was not one of them left.
<sup>12</sup>Then they believed his words.
 They sang his praise.

<sup>13</sup>They soon forgot his works.
 They didn't wait for his counsel, <sup>14</sup>but gave in to craving in the desert, and tested God in the wasteland.
<sup>15</sup>He gave them their request,
 but sent leanness into their soul.
<sup>16</sup>They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron, the LORD's holy one.
<sup>17</sup>The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
<sup>18</sup>A fire was kindled in their company.
 The flame burned up the wicked.
<sup>19</sup>They made a calf in Horeb, and worshiped a molten image.
<sup>20</sup>Thus they exchanged their glory for an image of a bull that eats grass.
<sup>21</sup>They forgot God, their Savior,
 who had done great things in Egypt, <sup>22</sup>Wondrous works in the land of Ham,
 and awesome things by the Sea of Suf.
<sup>23</sup>Therefore he said that he would destroy
 them,
 had Moses, his chosen, not stood before him in the breach,
 to turn away his wrath, so that he wouldn't destroy them.
<sup>24</sup>Yes, they despised the pleasant land.
 They didn't believe his word, <sup>25</sup>but murmured in their tents,
 and didn't listen to the LORD's voice.
<sup>26</sup>Therefore he swore to them that he would overthrow them in the wilderness,
<sup>27</sup>that he would overthrow their seed
 among the nations,
 and scatter them in the lands.
<sup>28</sup>They joined themselves also to Baal Peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
<sup>29</sup>Thus they provoked him to anger with their deeds.
 The plague broke in on them.
<sup>30</sup>Then Phinehas stood up, and executed judgment,
 so the plague was stopped.
<sup>31</sup>That was credited to him for righteousness, for all generations to come.
<sup>32</sup>They angered him also at the waters of Meribah,
 so that Moses was troubled for their sakes;
<sup>33</sup>because they were rebellious against his spirit,

he spoke rashly with his lips.
<sup>34</sup>They didn't destroy the peoples,
 as the LORD commanded them, <sup>35</sup>but mixed themselves with the nations,
 and learned their works.
<sup>36</sup>They served their idols,
 which became a snare to them.
<sup>37</sup>Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons.
<sup>38</sup>They shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters,
 whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan.
 The land was polluted with blood.
<sup>39</sup>Thus were they defiled with their works, and prostituted themselves in their deeds.
<sup>40</sup>Therefore the LORD burned with anger against his people.
 He abhorred his inheritance.
<sup>41</sup>He gave them into the hand of the nations.
 Those who hated them ruled over them.
<sup>42</sup>Their enemies also oppressed them.
 They were brought into subjection under their hand.
<sup>43</sup>Many times he delivered them,
 but they were rebellious in their counsel,
 and were brought low in their iniquity.
<sup>44</sup>Nevertheless he regarded their distress,
 when he heard their cry.
<sup>45</sup>He remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
<sup>46</sup>He made them also to be pitied
 by all those who carried them captive.
<sup>47</sup>Save us, LORD, our God, gather us from among the nations,
 to give thanks to your holy name,
 to triumph in your praise!
<sup>48</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting!
 Let all the people say, "Amen."
 Praise the LORD!

BOOK V

Psalm 107

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD,<sup>k</sup>
 for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>2</sup>Let the redeemed by the LORD say so, whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
<sup>3</sup>And gathered out of the lands,
 from the east and from the west,
 from the north and from the south.
<sup>4</sup>They wandered in the wilderness in a desert
 way.
 They found no city to live in.
<sup>5</sup>Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.
<sup>6</sup>Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses,
<sup>7</sup>he led them also by a straight way,
 that they might go to a city to live in.
<sup>8</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his loving
 kindness,
 for his wonderful works to the children of
 men!
<sup>9</sup>For he satisfies the longing soul.
 He fills the hungry soul with good.
<sup>10</sup>Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of
 death,
 being bound in affliction and iron, <sup>11</sup>because they rebelled against the words of God<sup>l</sup>, and condemned the counsel of the Most High.
<sup>12</sup>Therefore he brought down their heart with labor.
 They fell down, and there was none to help.
<sup>13</sup>Then they cried to the LORD in their trouble,
 and he saved them out of their distresses.
<sup>14</sup>He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
 and broke their bonds in sunder.
<sup>15</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his loving
 kindness,
 for his wonderful works to the children of
 men!
<sup>16</sup>For he has broken the gates of brass, and cut through bars of iron.

<sup>17</sup>Fools are afflicted because of their disobedience,
 and because of their iniquities.
<sup>18</sup>Their soul abhors all kinds of food.
 They draw near to the gates of death.
<sup>19</sup>Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble,
 he saves them out of their distresses.
<sup>20</sup>He sends his word, and heals them,
 and delivers them from their graves.
<sup>21</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his loving
 kindness,
 for his wonderful works to the children of
 men!
<sup>22</sup>Let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with singing.
<sup>23</sup>Those who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters;
<sup>24</sup>These see the LORD's works, and his wonders in the deep.
<sup>25</sup>For he commands, and raises the stormy wind,
 which lifts up its waves.
<sup>26</sup>They mount up to the sky; they go down again to the depths.
 Their soul melts away because of trouble.
<sup>27</sup>They reel back and forth, and stagger like a drunken man,
 and are at their wits' end.
<sup>28</sup>Then they cry to the LORD in their trouble,
 and he brings them out of their distress.
<sup>29</sup>He makes the storm a calm,
 so that its waves are still.
<sup>30</sup>Then they are glad because it is calm,
 so he brings them to their desired haven.
<sup>31</sup>Let them praise the LORD for his loving
 kindness,
 for his wonderful works for the children
 of men!
<sup>32</sup>Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
 and praise him in the seat of the elders.
<sup>33</sup>He turns rivers into a desert,
 water springs into a thirsty ground, <sup>34</sup>and a fruitful land into a salt waste, for the wickedness of those who dwell in
 it.
<sup>35</sup>He turns a desert into a pool of water,
 and a dry land into water springs.
<sup>36</sup>There he makes the hungry live, that they may prepare a city to live in,

<sup>k</sup>107:1 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>37</sup>sow fields, plant vineyards, and reap the fruits of increase.
<sup>38</sup>He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly.
He doesn't allow their livestock to decrease.
<sup>39</sup>Again, they are diminished and bowed down through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
<sup>40</sup>He pours contempt on princes, and causes them to wander in a trackless waste.
<sup>41</sup>Yet he lifts the needy out of their affliction, and increases their families like a flock.
<sup>42</sup>The upright will see it, and be glad.
All the wicked will shut their mouths.
<sup>43</sup>Whoever is wise will pay attention to these things.
They will consider the loving kindnesses of the LORD.

Psalm 108

A Song. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>My heart is steadfast, God.
I will sing and I will make music with my soul.
<sup>2</sup>Wake up, harp and lyre!
I will wake up the dawn.
<sup>3</sup>I will give thanks to you, LORD, among the nations.
I will sing praises to you among the peoples.
<sup>4</sup>For your loving kindness is great above the heavens.
Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
<sup>5</sup>Be exalted, God, above the heavens!
Let your glory be over all the earth.
<sup>6</sup>That your beloved may be delivered, save with your right hand, and answer us.
<sup>7</sup>God has spoken from his sanctuary: "In triumph,
I will divide Shechem, and measure out the valley of Succoth.
<sup>8</sup>Gilead is mine. Manasseh is mine.
Ephraim also is my helmet.
Judah is my scepter.
<sup>9</sup>Moab is my wash pot.
I will toss my sandal on Edom.
I will shout over Philistia."
<sup>10</sup>Who will bring me into the fortified city?

Who has led me to Edom?
<sup>11</sup>Haven't you rejected us, God?
You don't go forth, God, with our armies.
<sup>12</sup>Give us help against the enemy,
for the help of man is vain.
<sup>13</sup>Through God, we will do valiantly.
For it is he who will tread down our enemies.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>2</sup>for they have opened the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit against me.
They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.
<sup>3</sup>They have also surrounded me with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.
<sup>4</sup>In return for my love, they are my adversaries;
but I am in prayer.
<sup>5</sup>They have rewarded me evil for good,
and hatred for my love.
<sup>6</sup>Set a wicked man over him.
Let an adversary stand at his right hand.
<sup>7</sup>When he is judged, let him come forth guilty.
Let his prayer be turned into sin.
<sup>8</sup>Let his days be few.
Let another take his office.
<sup>9</sup>Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
<sup>10</sup>Let his children be wandering beggars.
Let them be sought from their ruins.
<sup>11</sup>Let the creditor seize all that he has.
Let strangers plunder the fruit of his labor.
<sup>12</sup>Let there be no one to extend kindness to him, neither let there be anyone to have pity on his fatherless children.
<sup>13</sup>Let his posterity be cut off.
In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
<sup>14</sup>Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered by the LORD.
Don't let the sin of his mother be blotted out.
<sup>15</sup>Let them be before the LORD continually, that he may cut off their memory from the earth;

<sup>16</sup>because he didn't remember to show kindness, but persecuted the poor and needy man,
 the broken in heart, to kill them.
<sup>17</sup>Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him.
 He didn't delight in blessing, and it was far from him.
<sup>18</sup>He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment.
 It came into his inward parts like water,
 like oil into his bones.
<sup>19</sup>Let it be to him as the clothing with which he covers himself,
 for the belt that is always around him.
<sup>20</sup>This is the reward of my adversaries from the LORD,
 of those who speak evil against my soul.
<sup>21</sup>But deal with me, the LORD the Lord,<sup>m</sup> for your name's sake,
 because your loving kindness is good,
 deliver me;
<sup>22</sup>for I am poor and needy.
 My heart is wounded within me.
<sup>23</sup>I fade away like an evening shadow.
 I am shaken off like a locust.
<sup>24</sup>My knees are weak through fasting.
 My body is thin and lacks fat.
<sup>25</sup>I have also become a reproach to them.
 When they see me, they shake their head.
<sup>26</sup>Help me, LORD, my God.
 Save me according to your loving kind-
 ness;
<sup>27</sup>that they may know that this is your hand;
 that you, LORD, have done it.
<sup>28</sup>They may curse, but you bless.
 When they arise, they will be shamed,
 but your servant shall rejoice.
<sup>29</sup>Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor.
 Let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
<sup>30</sup>I will give great thanks to the LORD with my
 mouth.
 Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
<sup>31</sup>For he will stand at the right hand of the needy, to save him from those who judge his soul.

<sup>n</sup>111:1 Psalm 111 is an acrostic poem, with each verse after the initial "Praise the LORD!" starting with a letter of the alphabet (ordered from Alef to Tav).

Psalm 110

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>The LORD says to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,
 until I make your enemies your footstool for your feet."
<sup>2</sup>The LORD will send forth the rod of your strength out of Zion.
 Rule in the midst of your enemies.
<sup>3</sup>Your people offer themselves willingly in the day of your power, in holy array.
 Out of the womb of the morning, you have the dew of your youth.
<sup>4</sup>The LORD has sworn, and will not change his mind:
 "You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek."
<sup>5</sup>The Lord is at your right hand.
 He will crush kings in the day of his wrath.
<sup>6</sup>He will judge among the nations.
 He will heap up dead bodies.
 He will crush the ruler of the whole earth.
<sup>7</sup>He will drink of the brook in the way;
 therefore he will lift up his head.

Psalm 111

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!<sup>n</sup>
 I will give thanks to the LORD with my
 whole heart,
 in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD's works are great, pondered by all those who delight in
 them.
<sup>3</sup>His work is honor and majesty.
 His righteousness endures forever.
<sup>4</sup>He has caused his wonderful works to be remembered.
 The LORD is gracious and merciful.
<sup>5</sup>He has given food to those who fear him.
 He always remembers his covenant.
<sup>6</sup>He has shown his people the power of his works,
 in giving them the heritage of the nations.
<sup>7</sup>The works of his hands are truth and justice.
 All his precepts are sure.

<sup>8</sup>They are established forever and ever.
 They are done in truth and uprightness.
<sup>9</sup>He has sent redemption to his people.
 He has ordained his covenant forever.
 His name is holy and awesome!
<sup>10</sup>The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.
 All those who do his work have a good understanding.
 His praise endures forever!

Psalm 112

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!<sup>o</sup> Blessed is the man who fears the LORD, who delights greatly in his commandments.
<sup>2</sup>His seed will be mighty in the land.
 The generation of the upright will be blessed.
<sup>3</sup>Wealth and riches are in his house.
 His righteousness endures forever.
<sup>4</sup>Light dawns in the darkness for the upright, gracious, merciful, and righteous.
<sup>5</sup>It is well with the man who deals graciously and lends.
 He will maintain his cause in judgment.
<sup>6</sup>For he will never be shaken.
 The righteous will be remembered forever.
<sup>7</sup>He will not be afraid of evil news.
 His heart is steadfast, trusting in the
 LORD.
<sup>8</sup>His heart is established.
 He will not be afraid in the end when he sees his adversaries.
<sup>9</sup>He has dispersed, he has given to the poor.
 His righteousness endures forever.
 His horn will be exalted with honor.
<sup>10</sup>The wicked will see it, and be grieved.
 He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt
 away.
 The desire of the wicked will perish.

Psalm 113

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
 Praise, you servants of the LORD,
 praise the name of the LORD.
<sup>2</sup>Blessed be the name of the LORD,

from this time forth and forevermore.
<sup>3</sup>From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same,
 The LORD's name is to be praised.
<sup>4</sup>The LORD is high above all nations, his glory above the heavens.
<sup>5</sup>Who is like the LORD, our God, who has his seat on high, <sup>6</sup>Who stoops down to see in heaven and in the earth?
<sup>7</sup>He raises up the poor out of the dust.
 Lifts up the needy from the ash heap;
<sup>8</sup>that he may set him with princes, even with the princes of his people.
<sup>9</sup>He settles the barren woman in her home,
 as a joyful mother of children.
 Praise the LORD!

Psalm 114

<sup>1</sup>When Israel went forth out of Egypt, the house of Jacob from a people of foreign language;
<sup>2</sup>Judah became his sanctuary,
 Israel his dominion.
<sup>3</sup>The sea saw it, and fled.
 The Jordan was driven back.
<sup>4</sup>The mountains skipped like rams,
 the little hills like lambs.
<sup>5</sup>What was it, you sea, that you fled?
 You Jordan, that you turned back?
<sup>6</sup>You mountains, that you skipped like rams;
 you little hills, like lambs?
<sup>7</sup>Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord,
 at the presence of the God of Jacob, <sup>8</sup>who turned the rock into a pool of water,
 the flint into a spring of waters.

<sup>o</sup>112:1 Psalm 112 is an acrostic poem, with each verse after the initial "Praise the LORD!" starting with a letter of the alphabet (ordered from Alef to Tav).

Psalm 115

<sup>1</sup>Not to us, LORD, not to us,
but to your name give glory,
for your loving kindness, and for your truth's sake.

<sup>2</sup>Why should the nations say,
"Where is their God, now?"

<sup>3</sup>But our God is in the heavens.
He does whatever he pleases.

<sup>4</sup>Their idols are silver and gold,
the work of men's hands.

<sup>5</sup>They have mouths, but they don't speak.
They have eyes, but they don't see.

<sup>6</sup>They have ears, but they don't hear.
They have noses, but they don't smell.

<sup>7</sup>They have hands, but they don't feel.
They have feet, but they don't walk, neither do they speak through their throat.

<sup>8</sup>Those who make them will be like them;
yes, everyone who trusts in them.

<sup>9</sup>Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>10</sup>House of Aaron, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>11</sup>You who fear the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is their help and their shield.

<sup>12</sup>The LORD remembers us. He will bless us.
He will bless the house of Israel.
He will bless the house of Aaron.

<sup>13</sup>He will bless those who fear the LORD, both small and great.

<sup>14</sup>May the LORD increase you more and more,
you and your children.

<sup>15</sup>Blessed are you by the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

<sup>16</sup>The heavens are the heavens of the LORD;
but the earth has he given to the children
of men.

<sup>17</sup>The dead don't praise the LORD, neither any who go down into silence;

<sup>18</sup>But we will bless the LORD,
from this time forth and forevermore.
Praise the LORD!

<sup>P116:3</sup> Sheol is the place of the dead.

Psalm 116

<sup>1</sup>I love the LORD, because he listens to my voice,
and my cries for mercy.

<sup>2</sup>Because he has turned his ear to me, therefore I will call on him as long as I live.

<sup>3</sup>The cords of death surrounded me,
the pains of Sheol<sup>P</sup> got a hold of me.
I found trouble and sorrow.

<sup>4</sup>Then I called on the name of the LORD:
"LORD, I beg you, deliver my soul."

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is Gracious and righteous.
Yes, our God is merciful.

<sup>6</sup>The LORD preserves the simple.
I was brought low, and he saved me.

<sup>7</sup>Return to your rest, my soul, for the LORD has dealt bountifully with
you.

<sup>8</sup>For you have delivered my soul from death,
my eyes from tears,
and my feet from falling.

<sup>9</sup>I will walk before the LORD in the land of the living.

<sup>10</sup>I believed, therefore I said,
"I was greatly afflicted."

<sup>11</sup>I said in my haste,
"All men are liars."

<sup>12</sup>What will I give to the LORD for all his benefits toward me?

<sup>13</sup>I will take the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the LORD.

<sup>14</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD,
yes, in the presence of all his people.

<sup>15</sup>Precious in the sight of the LORD is the death of his holy ones.

<sup>16</sup>LORD, truly I am your servant.
I am your servant, the son of your hand-maid.
You have freed me from my chains.

<sup>17</sup>I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving,
and will call on the name of the LORD.

<sup>18</sup>I will pay my vows to the LORD,
yes, in the presence of all his people,

<sup>19</sup>in the courts of the LORD's house, in the midst of you, Jerusalem.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 117

<sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD, all you nations!
 Extol him, all you peoples!
<sup>2</sup>For his loving kindness is great toward us.
 The LORD's faithfulness endures forever.
 Praise the LORD!

Psalm 118

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>2</sup>Let Israel now say that his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>3</sup>Let the house of Aaron now say
 that his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>4</sup>Now let those who fear the LORD say
 that his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>5</sup>Out of my distress, I called on the LORD.
 The LORD answered me with freedom.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD is on my side. I will not be afraid.
 What can man do to me?
<sup>7</sup>The LORD is on my side among those who help me.
 Therefore I will look in triumph at those who hate me.
<sup>8</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
 than to put confidence in man.
<sup>9</sup>It is better to take refuge in the LORD,
 than to put confidence in princes.
<sup>10</sup>All the nations surrounded me, but in the name of the LORD, I cut them
 off.
<sup>11</sup>They surrounded me, yes, they surrounded
 me.
 In the name of the LORD I indeed cut
 them off.
<sup>12</sup>They surrounded me like bees.
 They are quenched like the burning thorns.
 In the name of the LORD I cut them off.
<sup>13</sup>You pushed me back hard, to make me fall, but the LORD helped me.
<sup>14</sup>The LORD is my strength and song.
 He has become my salvation [yeshu'ah].
<sup>15</sup>The voice of rejoicing and salvation [yeshu'ah] is in the tents of the righteous.
 "The right hand of the LORD does
 valiantly.
<sup>16</sup>The right hand of the LORD is exalted!
 The right hand of the LORD does
 valiantly!"

<sup>17</sup>I will not die, but live, and declare the LORD's works.
<sup>18</sup>The LORD has punished me severely, but he has not given me over to death.
<sup>19</sup>Open to me the gates of righteousness.
 I will enter into them.
 I will give thanks to the LORD.
<sup>20</sup>This is the gate of the LORD;
 the righteous will enter into it.
<sup>21</sup>I will give thanks to you, for you have answered me,
 and have become my salvation
 [yeshu'ah].
<sup>22</sup>The stone which the builders rejected has become the head of the corner.
<sup>23</sup>This is the LORD's doing.
 It is marvelous in our eyes.
<sup>24</sup>This is the day that the LORD has made.
 We will rejoice and be glad in it!
<sup>25</sup>Save us now, we beg you, LORD!
 LORD, we beg you, send prosperity now.
<sup>26</sup>Blessed is he who comes in the name of the
 LORD!
 We have blessed you out of the house of
 the LORD.
<sup>27</sup>The LORD is God, and he has given us light.
 Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
<sup>28</sup>You are my God, and I will give thanks to
 you.
 You are my God, I will exalt you.
<sup>29</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good,
 for his loving kindness endures forever.

Psalm 119

ALEPH

<sup>1</sup>Blessed are those whose ways are blameless, who walk according to the LORD's Torah.
<sup>2</sup>Blessed are those who keep his statutes, who seek him with their whole heart.
<sup>3</sup>Yes, they do nothing wrong.
 They walk in his ways.
<sup>4</sup>You have commanded your precepts, that we should fully obey them.
<sup>5</sup>Oh that my ways were steadfast to obey your statutes!
<sup>6</sup>Then I wouldn't be disappointed, when I consider all of your commandments.
<sup>7</sup>I will give thanks to you with uprightness of
 heart,

when I learn your righteous judgments.
<sup>8</sup>I will observe your statutes.
 Don't utterly forsake me.

BET

<sup>9</sup>How can a young man keep his way pure?
 By living according to your word.
<sup>10</sup>With my whole heart, I have sought you.
 Don't let me wander from your commandments.
<sup>11</sup>I have hidden your word in my heart, that I might not sin against you.
<sup>12</sup>Blessed are you, LORD.
 Teach me your statutes.
<sup>13</sup>With my lips,
 I have declared all the ordinances of your
 mouth.
<sup>14</sup>I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies,
 as much as in all riches.
<sup>15</sup>I will meditate on your precepts, and consider your ways.
<sup>16</sup>I will delight myself in your statutes.
 I will not forget your word.

GIMEL

<sup>17</sup>Do good to your servant.
 I will live and I will obey your word.
<sup>18</sup>Open my eyes, that I may see wondrous things out of your Torah.
<sup>19</sup>I am a stranger on the earth.
 Don't hide your commandments from
 me.
<sup>20</sup>My soul is consumed with longing for your ordinances at all times.
<sup>21</sup>You have rebuked the proud who are cursed,
 who wander from your commandments.
<sup>22</sup>Take reproach and contempt away from me, for I have kept your statutes.
<sup>23</sup>Though princes sit and slander me, your servant will meditate on your statutes.
<sup>24</sup>Indeed your statutes are my delight, and my counselors.

DALED

<sup>25</sup>My soul is laid low in the dust.
 Revive me according to your word!
<sup>26</sup>I declared my ways, and you answered me.
 Teach me your statutes.
<sup>27</sup>Let me understand the teaching of your precepts!

Then I will meditate on your wondrous works.

<sup>28</sup>My soul is weary with sorrow:
 strengthen me according to your word.
<sup>29</sup>Keep me from the way of deceit.
 Grant me your Torah graciously!
<sup>30</sup>I have chosen the way of truth.
 I have set your ordinances before me.
<sup>31</sup>I cling to your statutes, LORD.
 Don't let me be disappointed.
<sup>32</sup>I run in the path of your commandments, for you have set my heart free.

HEY

<sup>33</sup>Teach me, LORD, the way of your statutes.
 I will keep them to the end.
<sup>34</sup>Give me understanding, and I will keep your Torah.
 Yes, I will obey it with my whole heart.
<sup>35</sup>Direct me in the path of your commandments,
 for I delight in them.
<sup>36</sup>Turn my heart toward your statutes, not toward selfish gain.
<sup>37</sup>Turn my eyes away from looking at worthless things.
 Revive me in your ways.
<sup>38</sup>Fulfill your promise to your servant,
 that you may be feared.
<sup>39</sup>Take away my disgrace that I dread, for your ordinances are good.
<sup>40</sup>Behold, I long for your precepts!
 Revive me in your righteousness.

WAW

<sup>41</sup>Let your loving kindness also come to me,
 LORD,
 your salvation, according to your word.
<sup>42</sup>So I will have an answer for him who re-proaches me,
 for I trust in your word.
<sup>43</sup>Don't snatch the word of truth out of my
 mouth,
 for I put my hope in your ordinances.
<sup>44</sup>So I will obey your Torah continually, forever and ever.
<sup>45</sup>I will walk in liberty,
 for I have sought your precepts.
<sup>46</sup>I will also speak of your statutes before kings, and will not be disappointed.
<sup>47</sup>I will delight myself in your commandments, because I love them.

<sup>48</sup>I reach out my hands for your commandments, which I love.
I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN

<sup>49</sup>Remember your word to your servant, because you gave me hope.
<sup>50</sup>This is my comfort in my affliction, for your word has revived me.
<sup>51</sup>The arrogant mock me excessively,
but I don't swerve from your Torah.
<sup>52</sup>I remember your ordinances of old, LORD,
and have comforted myself.
<sup>53</sup>Indignation has taken hold on me, because of the wicked who forsake your Torah.
<sup>54</sup>Your statutes have been my songs,
in the house where I live.
<sup>55</sup>I have remembered your name, LORD, in the night,
and I obey your Torah.
<sup>56</sup>This is my way,
that I keep your precepts.

CHET

<sup>57</sup>The LORD is my portion.
I promised to obey your words.
<sup>58</sup>I sought your favor with my whole heart.
Be merciful to me according to your word.
<sup>59</sup>I considered my ways,
and turned my steps to your statutes.
<sup>60</sup>I will hurry, and not delay,
to obey your commandments.
<sup>61</sup>The ropes of the wicked bind me,
but I won't forget your Torah.
<sup>62</sup>At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you,
because of your righteous ordinances.
<sup>63</sup>I am a friend of all those who fear you,
of those who observe your precepts.
<sup>64</sup>The earth is full of your loving kindness,
LORD.
Teach me your statutes.

TET

<sup>65</sup>Do good to your servant,
according to your word, LORD.
<sup>66</sup>Teach me good judgment and knowledge, for I believe in your commandments.
<sup>67</sup>Before I was afflicted, I went astray;
but now I observe your word.
<sup>68</sup>You are good, and do good.

Teach me your statutes.

<sup>69</sup>The proud have smeared a lie upon me.
With my whole heart, I will keep your precepts.
<sup>70</sup>Their heart is as callous as the fat, but I delight in your Torah.
<sup>71</sup>It is good for me that I have been afflicted, that I may learn your statutes.
<sup>72</sup>The Torah you have spoken is better to me than thousands of pieces of gold and silver.

YUD

<sup>73</sup>Your hands have made me and formed me.
Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.
<sup>74</sup>Those who fear you will see me and be glad,
because I have put my hope in your word.
<sup>75</sup>LORD, I know that your judgments are righteous,
that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.
<sup>76</sup>Please let your loving kindness be for my comfort,
according to your word to your servant.
<sup>77</sup>Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live;
for your Torah is my delight.
<sup>78</sup>Let the proud be disappointed, for they have overthrown me wrongfully.
I will meditate on your precepts.
<sup>79</sup>Let those who fear you turn to me.
They will know your statutes.
<sup>80</sup>Let my heart be blameless toward your decrees,
that I may not be disappointed.

KAF

<sup>81</sup>My soul faints for your salvation.
I hope in your word.
<sup>82</sup>My eyes fail for your word.
I say, "When will you comfort me?"
<sup>83</sup>For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke.
I don't forget your statutes.
<sup>84</sup>How many are the days of your servant?
When will you execute judgment on those who persecute me?
<sup>85</sup>The proud have dug pits for me,
contrary to your Torah.
<sup>86</sup>All of your commandments are faithful.
They persecute me wrongfully.
Help me!

<sup>87</sup>They had almost wiped me from the earth,
but I didn't forsake your precepts.

<sup>88</sup>Preserve my life according to your loving
kindness,
so I will obey the statutes of your mouth.

LAMED

<sup>89</sup>LORD, your word is settled in heaven forever.

<sup>90</sup>Your faithfulness is to all generations.
You have established the earth, and it remains.

<sup>91</sup>Your laws remain to this day,
for all things serve you.

<sup>92</sup>Unless your Torah had been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

<sup>93</sup>I will never forget your precepts, for with them, you have revived me.

<sup>94</sup>I am yours.
Save me, for I have sought your precepts.

<sup>95</sup>The wicked have waited for me, to destroy
me.
I will consider your statutes.

<sup>96</sup>I have seen a limit to all perfection, but your commands are boundless.

MEM

<sup>97</sup>How I love your Torah!
It is my meditation all day.

<sup>98</sup>Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies,
for your commandments are always with
me.

<sup>99</sup>I have more understanding than all my teachers,
for your testimonies are my meditation.

<sup>100</sup>I understand more than the aged,
because I have kept your precepts.

<sup>101</sup>I have kept my feet from every evil way, that I might observe your word.

<sup>102</sup>I have not turned aside from your ordinances,
for you have taught me.

<sup>103</sup>How sweet are your promises to my taste, more than honey to my mouth!

<sup>104</sup>Through your precepts, I get understanding;
therefore I hate every false way.

NUN

<sup>105</sup>Your word is a lamp to my feet, and a light for my path.

<sup>106</sup>I have sworn, and have confirmed it, that I will obey your righteous ordinances.

<sup>107</sup>I am afflicted very much.
Revive me, LORD, according to your
word.

<sup>108</sup>Accept, I beg you, the willing offerings of my mouth.

LORD, teach me your ordinances.

<sup>109</sup>My soul is continually in my hand, yet I won't forget your Torah.

<sup>110</sup>The wicked have laid a snare for me, yet I haven't gone astray from your precepts.

<sup>111</sup>I have taken your testimonies as a heritage
forever,
for they are the joy of my heart.

<sup>112</sup>I have set my heart to perform your statutes forever,
even to the end.

SAMEKH

<sup>113</sup>I hate double-minded men, but I love your Torah.

<sup>114</sup>You are my hiding place and my shield.
I hope in your word.

<sup>115</sup>Depart from me, you evildoers, that I may keep the commandments of
my God.

<sup>116</sup>Uphold me according to your word, that I may live.

Let me not be ashamed of my hope.

<sup>117</sup>Hold me up, and I will be safe, and will have respect for your statutes continually.

<sup>118</sup>You reject all those who stray from your statutes,
for their deceit is in vain.

<sup>119</sup>You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross.

Therefore I love your testimonies.

<sup>120</sup>My flesh trembles for fear of you.
I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN

<sup>121</sup>I have done what is just and righteous.
Don't leave me to my oppressors.

<sup>122</sup>Ensure your servant's well-being.
Don't let the proud oppress me.

<sup>123</sup>My eyes fail looking for your salvation, for your righteous word.

<sup>124</sup>Deal with your servant according to your loving kindness.

Teach me your statutes.

<sup>125</sup>I am your servant. Give me understanding, that I may know your testimonies.

<sup>126</sup>It is time to act, LORD, for they break your Torah.

<sup>127</sup>Therefore I love your commandments more than gold,

yes, more than pure gold.

<sup>128</sup>Therefore I consider all of your precepts to be right.

I hate every false way.

<sup>129</sup>Your testimonies are wonderful, therefore my soul keeps them.

<sup>130</sup>The entrance of your words gives light.
It gives understanding to the simple.

<sup>131</sup>I opened my mouth wide and panted, for I longed for your commandments.

<sup>132</sup>Turn to me, and have mercy on me, as you always do to those who love your
name.

<sup>133</sup>Establish my footsteps in your word.
Don't let any iniquity have dominion over me.

<sup>134</sup>Redeem me from the oppression of man,
so I will observe your precepts.

<sup>135</sup>Make your face shine on your servant.
Teach me your statutes.

<sup>136</sup>Streams of tears run down my eyes, because they don't observe your Torah.

<sup>137</sup>You are righteous, LORD.
Your judgments are upright.

<sup>138</sup>You have commanded your statutes in righteousness.

They are fully trustworthy.

<sup>139</sup>My zeal wears me out, because my enemies ignore your words.

<sup>140</sup>Your promises have been thoroughly tested, and your servant loves them.

<sup>141</sup>I am small and despised.
I don't forget your precepts.

<sup>142</sup>Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness.

Your Torah is truth.

<sup>143</sup>Trouble and anguish have taken hold of me.
Your commandments are my delight.

<sup>144</sup>Your testimonies are righteous forever.

Give me understanding, that I may live.

KUF

<sup>145</sup>I have called with my whole heart.
Answer me, LORD!

I will keep your statutes.

<sup>146</sup>I have called to you. Save me!

I will obey your statutes.

<sup>147</sup>I rise before dawn and cry for help.

I put my hope in your words.

<sup>148</sup>My eyes stay open through the night watches,

that I might meditate on your word.

<sup>149</sup>Hear my voice according to your loving kindness.

Revive me, LORD, according to your ordinances.

<sup>150</sup>They draw near who follow after wicked-
ness.

They are far from your Torah.

<sup>151</sup>You are near, LORD.

All your commandments are truth.

<sup>152</sup>Of old I have known from your testimonies,
that you have founded them forever.

RESH

<sup>153</sup>Consider my affliction, and deliver me, for I don't forget your Torah.

<sup>154</sup>Plead my cause, and redeem me!

Revive me according to your promise.

<sup>155</sup>Salvation is far from the wicked,
for they don't seek your statutes.

<sup>156</sup>Great are your tender mercies, LORD.

Revive me according to your ordinances.

<sup>157</sup>Many are my persecutors and my adversaries.

I haven't swerved from your testimonies.

<sup>158</sup>I look at the faithless with loathing,
because they don't observe your word.

<sup>159</sup>Consider how I love your precepts.

Revive me, LORD, according to your
loving kindness.

<sup>160</sup>All of your words are truth.

Every one of your righteous ordinances endures forever.

SIN AND SHIN

<sup>161</sup>Princes have persecuted me without a cause, but my heart stands in awe of your words.

<sup>162</sup>I rejoice at your word,
as one who finds great spoil.

<sup>163</sup>I hate and abhor falsehood.
I love your Torah.

<sup>164</sup>Seven times a day, I praise you,
because of your righteous ordinances.

<sup>165</sup>Those who love your Torah have great
peace.
Nothing causes them to stumble.

<sup>166</sup>I have hoped for your salvation, LORD.
I have done your commandments.

<sup>167</sup>My soul has observed your testimonies.
I love them exceedingly.

<sup>168</sup>I have obeyed your precepts and your testimonies,
for all my ways are before you.

TAV

<sup>169</sup>Let my cry come before you, LORD.
Give me understanding according to your word.

<sup>170</sup>Let my supplication come before you.
Deliver me according to your word.

<sup>171</sup>Let my lips utter praise, for you teach me your statutes.

<sup>172</sup>Let my tongue sing of your word, for all your commandments are righteousness.

<sup>173</sup>Let your hand be ready to help me, for I have chosen your precepts.

<sup>174</sup>I have longed for your salvation [yeshuat],
LORD.
Your Torah is my delight.

<sup>175</sup>Let my soul live, that I may praise you.
Let your ordinances help me.

<sup>176</sup>I have gone astray like a lost sheep.
Seek your servant, for I don't forget your commandments.

Psalm 120

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>In my distress, I cried to the LORD.
He answered me.

<sup>2</sup>Deliver my soul, LORD, from lying lips,
from a deceitful tongue.

<sup>3</sup>What will be given to you, and what will be done more to you,
you deceitful tongue?

<sup>4</sup>Sharp arrows of the mighty,
with coals of juniper.

<sup>5</sup>Woe is me, that I live in Meshech, that I dwell among the tents of Kedar!

<sup>6</sup>My soul has had her dwelling too long with him who hates peace.

<sup>7</sup>I am for peace,
but when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>I will lift up my eyes to the hills.
Where does my help come from?

<sup>2</sup>My help comes from the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

<sup>3</sup>He will not allow your foot to be moved.
He who keeps you will not slumber.

<sup>4</sup>Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

<sup>5</sup>The LORD is your keeper.
The LORD is your shade on your right
hand.

<sup>6</sup>The sun will not harm you by day, nor the moon by night.

<sup>7</sup>The LORD will keep you from all evil.
He will keep your soul.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will keep your going out and your coming in,
from this time forth, and forevermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup>I was glad when they said to me,
"Let's go to the LORD's house!"

<sup>2</sup>Our feet are standing within your gates,
Jerusalem;

<sup>3</sup>Jerusalem, that is built as a city that is compact together;

<sup>4</sup>where the tribes go up, even the LORD's tribes,
according to an ordinance for Israel,
to give thanks to the name of the LORD.

<sup>5</sup>For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of David's house.

Those who love you will prosper.

<sup>7</sup>Peace be within your walls, and prosperity within your palaces.

<sup>8</sup>For my brothers' and companions' sakes,
I will now say, "Peace be within you."

<sup>9</sup>For the sake of the house of the LORD our
God,
I will seek your good.

Psalm 123

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>To you I do lift up my eyes,
you who sit in the heavens.
<sup>2</sup>Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress;
so our eyes look to the LORD, our God,
until he has mercy on us.
<sup>3</sup>Have mercy on us, LORD, have mercy on us,
for we have endured much contempt.
<sup>4</sup>Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scoffing of those who are at ease, with the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Song of Ascents. By David.

- <sup>1</sup>If it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
let Israel now say,
<sup>2</sup>if it had not been the LORD who was on our side,
when men rose up against us;
<sup>3</sup>then they would have swallowed us up alive,
when their wrath was kindled against us;
<sup>4</sup>then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream would have gone over our
soul;
<sup>5</sup>then the proud waters would have gone over our soul.
<sup>6</sup>Blessed be the LORD, who has not given us as a prey to their teeth.
<sup>7</sup>Our soul has escaped like a bird out of the fowler's snare.
The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
<sup>8</sup>Our help is in the name of the LORD,
who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Those who trust in the LORD are as Mount Zion, which can't be moved, but remains forever.

- <sup>2</sup>As the mountains surround Jerusalem, so the LORD surrounds his people from this time forth and forevermore.
<sup>3</sup>For the scepter of wickedness won't remain over the allotment of the righteous;
so that the righteous won't use their hands to do evil.
<sup>4</sup>Do good, LORD, to those who are good,
to those who are upright in their hearts.
<sup>5</sup>But as for those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
The LORD will lead them away with the workers of iniquity.
Peace be on Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>When the LORD brought back those who returned to Zion,
we were like those who dream.
<sup>2</sup>Then our mouth was filled with laughter,
and our tongue with singing.
Then they said among the nations,
"The LORD has done great things for
them."
<sup>3</sup>The LORD has done great things for us, and we are glad.
<sup>4</sup>Restore our fortunes again, LORD, like the streams in the Negev.
<sup>5</sup>Those who sow in tears will reap in joy.
<sup>6</sup>He who goes out weeping, carrying seed for sowing,
will certainly come again with joy, carrying his sheaves.

Psalm 127

A Song of Ascents. By Solomon.

- <sup>1</sup>Unless the LORD builds the house,
they labor in vain who build it.
Unless the LORD watches over the city,
the watchman guards it in vain.
<sup>2</sup>It is vain for you to rise up early,
to stay up late,
eating the bread of toil;
for he gives sleep to his loved ones.
<sup>3</sup>Behold, children are a heritage of the LORD.
The fruit of the womb is his reward.
<sup>4</sup>As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,

so are the children of youth.

<sup>5</sup>Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them.

They won't be disappointed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>2</sup>For you will eat the labor of your hands. You will be happy, and it will be well with you.

<sup>5</sup>May the LORD bless you out of Zion, and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.

<sup>6</sup>Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of Ascents.

<sup>1</sup>Many times they have afflicted me from my youth up.

Let Israel now say,

<sup>2</sup>many times they have afflicted me from my youth up,

yet they have not prevailed against me.

<sup>3</sup>The plowers plowed on my back. They made their furrows long.

<sup>6</sup>Let them be as the grass on the housetops, which withers before it grows up;

<sup>8</sup>Neither do those who go by say, "The blessing of the LORD be on you. We bless you in the name of the LORD."

Psalm 130

A Song of Ascents.

Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my petitions.

<sup>3</sup>If you, LORD, kept a record of sins, Lord, who could stand?

My soul waits.

I hope in his word.

<sup>6</sup>My soul longs for the Lord more than watchmen long for the morning; more than watchmen for the morning.

<sup>7</sup>Israel, hope in the LORD, for with the LORD there is loving kindness.

With him is abundant redemption.

<sup>8</sup>He will redeem Israel from all their sins.

Psalm 131

A Song of Ascents. By David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, my heart isn't haughty, nor my eyes lofty;

nor do I concern myself with great matters, or things too wonderful for me.

<sup>2</sup>Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul, like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.

<sup>3</sup>Israel, hope in the LORD, from this time forth and forevermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>LORD, remember David and all his affliction, <sup>2</sup>how he swore to the LORD,
 and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob: <sup>3</sup>“Surely I will not come into the structure of my house,
 nor go up into my bed;
<sup>4</sup>I will not give sleep to my eyes,
 or slumber to my eyelids;
<sup>5</sup>until I find out a place for the LORD,
 a dwelling for the Mighty One of Jacob.”
<sup>6</sup>Behold, we heard of it in Ephrathah.
 We found it in the field of Jaar:
<sup>7</sup>“We will go into his dwelling place.
 We will worship at his footstool.
<sup>8</sup>Arise, LORD, into your resting place;
 you, and the ark of your strength.
<sup>9</sup>Let your priest be clothed with righteousness.
 Let your holy ones shout for joy!”
<sup>10</sup>For your servant David’s sake, don’t turn away the face of your anointed
 one.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD has sworn to David in truth.
 He will not turn from it:
 “I will set the fruit of your body on your throne.
<sup>12</sup>If your children will keep my covenant, my testimony that I will teach them, their children also will sit on your throne
 forevermore.”
<sup>13</sup>For the LORD has chosen Zion.
 He has desired it for his habitation.
<sup>14</sup>“This is my resting place forever.
 Here I will live, for I have desired it.
<sup>15</sup>I will abundantly bless her provision.
 I will satisfy her poor with bread.
<sup>16</sup>Her priests I will also clothe with salvation.
 Her holy ones will shout aloud for joy.
<sup>17</sup>There I will make the horn of David to bud.
 I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.
<sup>18</sup>I will clothe his enemies with shame, but on himself, his crown will be resplendent.”

Psalm 133

A Song of Ascents. By David.

- <sup>1</sup>See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to live together in unity!
<sup>2</sup>It is like the precious oil on the head,
 that ran down on the beard,
 even Aaron’s beard;
 that came down on the edge of his robes;
<sup>3</sup>like the dew of Hermon, that comes down on the hills of Zion:
 for there the LORD gives the blessing,
 even life forevermore.

Psalm 134

A Song of Ascents.

- <sup>1</sup>Look! Praise the LORD, all you servants of the LORD,
 who stand by night in the LORD’s house!
<sup>2</sup>Lift up your hands in the sanctuary.
 Praise the LORD!
<sup>3</sup>May the LORD bless you from Zion;
 even he who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
 Praise the name of the LORD!
 Praise him, you servants of the LORD, <sup>2</sup>you who stand in the house of the LORD,
 in the courts of our God’s house.
<sup>3</sup>Praise the LORD, for the LORD is good.
 Sing praises to his name, for that is pleasant.
<sup>4</sup>For the LORD has chosen Jacob for himself;
 Israel for his own possession.
<sup>5</sup>For I know that the LORD is great,
 that our Lord is above all gods.
<sup>6</sup>Whatever the LORD pleased, that he has done, in heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
<sup>7</sup>who causes the clouds to rise from the ends of
 the earth;
 who makes lightnings with the rain;
 who brings forth the wind out of his treasuries;
<sup>8</sup>Who struck the firstborn of Egypt,
 both of man and animal;
<sup>9</sup>Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, Egypt,

on Pharaoh, and on all his servants; <sup>10</sup>who struck many nations,
 and killed mighty kings,
<sup>11</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites,
 Og king of Bashan,
 and all the kingdoms of Canaan, <sup>12</sup>and gave their land for a heritage,
 a heritage to Israel, his people.
<sup>13</sup>Your name, LORD, endures forever;
 your renown, LORD, throughout all generations.
<sup>14</sup>For the LORD will judge his people,
 and have compassion on his servants.
<sup>15</sup>The idols of the nations are silver and gold,
 the work of men's hands.
<sup>16</sup>They have mouths, but they can't speak.
 They have eyes, but they can't see.
<sup>17</sup>They have ears, but they can't hear;
 neither is there any breath in their mouths.
<sup>18</sup>Those who make them will be like them;
 yes, everyone who trusts in them.
<sup>19</sup>House of Israel, praise the LORD!
 House of Aaron, praise the LORD!
<sup>20</sup>House of Levi, praise the LORD!
 You who fear the LORD, praise the LORD!
<sup>21</sup>Blessed be the LORD from Zion,
 Who dwells at Jerusalem.
 Praise the LORD!

Psalm 136

<sup>1</sup>Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>2</sup>Give thanks to the God of gods;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>3</sup>Give thanks to the Lord of lords;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>4</sup>To him who alone does great wonders;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>5</sup>To him who by understanding made the heavens;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>6</sup>To him who spread out the earth above the waters;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>7</sup>To him who made the great lights;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>8</sup>The sun to rule by day;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>9</sup>The moon and stars to rule by night;

for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>10</sup>To him who struck down the Egyptian first-born;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>11</sup>And brought out Israel from among them;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>12</sup>With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>13</sup>To him who divided the Sea of Suf apart;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>14</sup>And made Israel to pass through its midst;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>15</sup>But overthrew Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Suf;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>16</sup>To him who led his people through the wilderness;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>17</sup>To him who struck great kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>18</sup>And killed mighty kings;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>19</sup>Sihon king of the Amorites;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>20</sup>Og king of Bashan;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>21</sup>And gave their land as an inheritance;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>22</sup>Even a heritage to Israel his servant;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>23</sup>Who remembered us in our low estate;
 for his loving kindness endures forever;
<sup>24</sup>And has delivered us from our adversaries;
 for his loving kindness endures forever:
<sup>25</sup>Who gives food to every creature;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.
<sup>26</sup>Oh give thanks to the God of heaven;
 for his loving kindness endures forever.

Psalm 137

<sup>1</sup>By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down.
 Yes, we wept, when we remembered Zion.
<sup>2</sup>On the willows in its midst,
 we hung up our harps.
<sup>3</sup>For there, those who led us captive asked us for songs.
 Those who tormented us demanded songs of joy:
 "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

<sup>4</sup>How can we sing the LORD's song in a foreign land?

<sup>5</sup>If I forget you, Jerusalem, let my right hand forget its skill.

<sup>6</sup>Let my tongue stick to the roof of my mouth if I don't remember you;
if I don't prefer Jerusalem above my chief joy.

<sup>7</sup>Remember, LORD, against the children of Edom,
the day of Jerusalem;
who said, "Raze it!
Raze it even to its foundation!"

<sup>8</sup>Daughter of Babylon, doomed to destruction, he will be happy who rewards you,
as you have served us.

<sup>9</sup>Happy shall he be, who takes and dashes your little ones against the rock.

Psalm 138

By David.

<sup>1</sup>I will give you thanks with my whole heart.
Before the gods<sup>a</sup>, I will sing praises to
you.

<sup>2</sup>I will bow down toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your Name for your loving kindness and for your truth;
for you have exalted your Name and your Word above all.

<sup>3</sup>In the day that I called, you answered me.
You encouraged me with strength in my soul.

<sup>4</sup>All the kings of the earth will give you thanks,
LORD,
for they have heard the words of your
mouth.

<sup>5</sup>Yes, they will sing of the ways of the LORD;
for great is the LORD's glory.

<sup>6</sup>For though the LORD is high, yet he looks after the lowly;
but the proud, he knows from afar.

<sup>7</sup>Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me.
You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies.
Your right hand will save me.

<sup>a</sup>138:1 The word elohim, used here, usually means "God," but can also mean "gods," "princes," or "angels."

<sup>r</sup>139:8 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>8</sup>The LORD will fulfill that which concerns me;
your loving kindness, LORD, endures
forever.

Don't forsake the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, you have searched me,
and you know me.

<sup>2</sup>You know my sitting down and my rising up.
You perceive my thoughts from afar.

<sup>3</sup>You search out my path and my lying down,
and are acquainted with all my ways.

<sup>4</sup>For there is not a word on my tongue, but, behold, LORD, you know it altogether.

<sup>5</sup>You hem me in behind and before.
You laid your hand on me.

<sup>6</sup>This knowledge is beyond me.
It's lofty.
I can't attain it.

<sup>7</sup>Where could I go from your Spirit?
Or where could I flee from your presence?

<sup>8</sup>If I ascend up into heaven, you are there.
If I make my bed in Sheol<sup>r</sup>, behold, you are there!

<sup>9</sup>If I take the wings of the dawn, and settle in the uttermost parts of the sea;

<sup>10</sup>Even there your hand will lead me,
and your right hand will hold me.

<sup>11</sup>If I say, "Surely the darkness will overwhelm
me;
the light around me will be night;"

<sup>12</sup>even the darkness doesn't hide from you, but the night shines as the day.

The darkness is like light to you.

<sup>13</sup>For you formed my inmost being.
You knit me together in my mother's womb.

<sup>14</sup>I will give thanks to you,
for I am fearfully and wonderfully made.
Your works are wonderful.

My soul knows that very well.

<sup>15</sup>My frame wasn't hidden from you,
when I was made in secret,
woven together in the depths of the earth.

<sup>16</sup>Your eyes saw my body.
 In your book they were all written,
 the days that were ordained for me,
 when as yet there were none of them.
<sup>17</sup>How precious to me are your thoughts, God!
 How vast is their sum!
<sup>18</sup>If I would count them, they are more in number than the sand.
 When I wake up, I am still with you.
<sup>19</sup>If only you, God, would kill the wicked.
 Get away from me, you bloodthirsty men!
<sup>20</sup>For they speak against you wickedly.
 Your enemies take your name in vain.
<sup>21</sup>LORD, don't I hate those who hate you?
 Am I not grieved with those who rise up against you?
<sup>22</sup>I hate them with perfect hatred.
 They have become my enemies.
<sup>23</sup>Search me, God, and know my heart.
 Try me, and know my thoughts.
<sup>24</sup>See if there is any wicked way in me,
 and lead me in the everlasting way.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Deliver me, LORD, from the evil man.
 Preserve me from the violent man;
<sup>2</sup>those who devise mischief in their hearts.
 They continually gather themselves together for war.
<sup>3</sup>They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent.
 Viper's poison is under their lips.
 Selah.
<sup>4</sup>LORD, keep me from the hands of the wicked.
 Preserve me from the violent men who have determined to trip my feet.
<sup>5</sup>The proud have hidden a snare for me, they have spread the cords of a net by the path.
 They have set traps for me.
 Selah.
<sup>6</sup>I said to the LORD, "You are my God."
 Listen to the cry of my petitions, LORD.
<sup>7</sup>LORD, the Lord, the strength of my salvation, you have covered my head in the day of battle.
<sup>8</sup>LORD, don't grant the desires of the wicked.

<sup>8</sup>141:7 Sheol is the place of the dead.

Don't let their evil plans succeed, or they will become proud.

Selah.

<sup>9</sup>As for the head of those who surround me, let the mischief of their own lips cover
 them.
<sup>10</sup>Let burning coals fall on them.
 Let them be thrown into the fire, into miry pits, from where they never rise.
<sup>11</sup>An evil speaker won't be established in the earth.
 Evil will hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
<sup>12</sup>I know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted,
 and justice for the needy.
<sup>13</sup>Surely the righteous will give thanks to your name.
 The upright will dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>LORD, I have called on you.
 Come to me quickly!
 Listen to my voice when I call to you.
<sup>2</sup>Let my prayer be set before you like incense;
 the lifting up of my hands like the evening sacrifice.
<sup>3</sup>Set a watch, LORD, before my mouth.
 Keep the door of my lips.
<sup>4</sup>Don't incline my heart to any evil thing, to practice deeds of wickedness with men who work iniquity.
 Don't let me eat of their delicacies.
<sup>5</sup>Let the righteous strike me, it is kindness;
 let him reprove me, it is like oil on the head;
 don't let my head refuse it;
 Yet my prayer is always against evil
 deeds.
<sup>6</sup>Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock.
 They will hear my words, for they are well spoken.
<sup>7</sup>"As when one plows and breaks up the earth, our bones are scattered at the mouth of
<sup>8</sup>For my eyes are on you, LORD, the Lord.

In you, I take refuge.
 Don't leave my soul destitute.
<sup>9</sup>Keep me from the snare which they have laid
 for me,
 from the traps of the workers of iniquity.
<sup>10</sup>Let the wicked fall together into their own nets,
 while I pass by.

Psalm 142

A contemplation by David, when he was in the cave. A Prayer.

<sup>1</sup>I cry with my voice to the LORD.
 With my voice, I ask the LORD for mercy.
<sup>2</sup>I pour out my complaint before him.
 I tell him my troubles.
<sup>3</sup>When my spirit was overwhelmed within me,
 you knew my path.
 In the way in which I walk,
 they have hidden a snare for me.
<sup>4</sup>Look on my right, and see;
 for there is no one who is concerned for
 me.
 Refuge has fled from me.
 No one cares for my soul.
<sup>5</sup>I cried to you, LORD.
 I said, "You are my refuge,
 my portion in the land of the living."
<sup>6</sup>Listen to my cry, for I am in desperate need.
 deliver me from my persecutors,
 For they are stronger than me.
<sup>7</sup>Bring my soul out of prison,
 that I may give thanks to your name.
 The righteous will surround me,
 for you will be good to me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm by David.

<sup>1</sup>Hear my prayer, LORD.
 Listen to my petitions.
 In your faithfulness and righteousness, relieve me.
<sup>2</sup>Don't enter into judgment with your servant, for in your sight no man living is right-
 teous.
<sup>3</sup>For the enemy pursues my soul.

He has struck my life down to the ground.
 He has made me live in dark places, as those who have been long dead.
<sup>4</sup>Therefore my spirit is overwhelmed within
 me.
 My heart within me is desolate.
<sup>5</sup>I remember the days of old.
 I meditate on all your doings.
 I contemplate the work of your hands.
<sup>6</sup>I spread forth my hands to you.
 My soul thirsts for you, like a parched land.

Selah.

<sup>7</sup>Hurry to answer me, LORD.
 My spirit fails.
 Don't hide your face from me,
 so that I don't become like those who go down into the pit.
<sup>8</sup>Cause me to hear your loving kindness in the morning,
 for I trust in you.
 Cause me to know the way in which I should walk,
 for I lift up my soul to you.
<sup>9</sup>Deliver me, LORD, from my enemies.
 I flee to you to hide me.
<sup>10</sup>Teach me to do your will,
 for you are my God.
 Your Spirit is good.
 Lead me in the land of uprightness.
<sup>11</sup>Revive me, LORD, for your name's sake.
 In your righteousness, bring my soul out of trouble.
<sup>12</sup>In your loving kindness, cut off my enemies, and destroy all those who afflict my soul,
 For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

By David.

<sup>1</sup>Blessed be the LORD, my rock, who teaches my hands to war,
 and my fingers to battle:
<sup>2</sup>my loving kindness, my fortress,
 my high tower, my deliverer,
 my shield, and he in whom I take refuge;
 who subdues my people under me.
<sup>3</sup>LORD, what is man, that you care for him?
 Or the son of man, that you think of him?
<sup>4</sup>Man is like a breath.

His days are like a shadow that passes away.
<sup>5</sup>Part your heavens, LORD, and come down.
 Touch the mountains, and they will smoke.
<sup>6</sup>Throw out lightning, and scatter them.
 Send out your arrows, and rout them.
<sup>7</sup>Stretch out your hand from above, rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters,
 out of the hands of foreigners;
<sup>8</sup>whose mouths speak deceit,
 Whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
<sup>9</sup>I will sing a new song to you, God.
 On a ten-stringed lyre, I will sing praises to you.
<sup>10</sup>You are he who gives salvation to kings, who rescues David, his servant, from the deadly sword.
<sup>11</sup>Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hands of foreigners, whose mouths speak deceit,
 whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
<sup>12</sup>Then our sons will be like well-nurtured plants, our daughters like pillars carved to adorn a palace.
<sup>13</sup>Our barns are full, filled with all kinds of provision.
 Our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields.
<sup>14</sup>Our oxen will pull heavy loads.
 There is no breaking in, and no going away,
 and no outcry in our streets.
<sup>15</sup>Happy are the people who are in such a situation.
 Happy are the people whose God is the LORD.

Psalm 145

A praise psalm by David.<sup>t</sup>

<sup>1</sup>I will exalt you, my God, the King.
 I will praise your name forever and ever.

<sup>u</sup>145:13 Some manuscripts omit these last two lines.

I will extol your name forever and ever.
<sup>3</sup>Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised!
 His greatness is unsearchable.
<sup>4</sup>One generation will commend your works to another, and will declare your mighty acts.
<sup>5</sup>Of the glorious majesty of your honor,
 of your wondrous works, I will meditate.
<sup>6</sup>Men will speak of the might of your awesome acts.
 I will declare your greatness.
<sup>7</sup>They will utter the memory of your great goodness, and will sing of your righteousness.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD is gracious, merciful, slow to anger, and of great loving kindness.
<sup>9</sup>The LORD is good to all.
 His tender mercies are over all his works.
<sup>10</sup>All your works will give thanks to you, LORD.
 Your holy ones will extol you.
<sup>11</sup>They will speak of the glory of your kingdom, and talk about your power;
<sup>12</sup>to make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
 the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
<sup>13</sup>Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom.
 Your dominion endures throughout all generations.
 the LORD is faithful in all his words, and loving in all his deeds.<sup>u</sup> <sup>14</sup>The LORD upholds all who fall, and raises up all those who are bowed down.
<sup>15</sup>The eyes of all wait for you.
 You give them their food in due season.
<sup>16</sup>You open your hand,
 and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
<sup>17</sup>The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in all his works.
<sup>18</sup>The LORD is near to all those who call on him,
 to all who call on him in truth.
<sup>19</sup>He will fulfill the desire of those who fear him.
 He also will hear their cry, and will save them.

- <sup>20</sup>The LORD preserves all those who love him, but all the wicked he will destroy.
<sup>21</sup>My mouth will speak the praise of the LORD.
Let all flesh bless his holy name forever
and ever.

Psalm 146

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD, my soul.
<sup>2</sup>While I live, I will praise the LORD.
I will sing praises to my God as long as I exist.
<sup>3</sup>Don't put your trust in princes, each a son of man in whom there is no
help.
<sup>4</sup>His spirit departs, and he returns to the earth.
In that very day, his thoughts perish.
<sup>5</sup>Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help,
whose hope is in the LORD, his God:
<sup>6</sup>who made heaven and earth,
the sea, and all that is in them;
who keeps truth forever;
<sup>7</sup>who executes justice for the oppressed;
who gives food to the hungry.
The LORD frees the prisoners.
<sup>8</sup>The LORD opens the eyes of the blind.
The LORD raises up those who are bowed down.
The LORD loves the righteous.
<sup>9</sup>The LORD preserves the foreigners.
He upholds the fatherless and widow, but the way of the wicked he turns upside
down.
<sup>10</sup>The LORD will reign forever;
your God, O Zion, to all generations.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 147

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD,
for it is good to sing praises to our God;
for it is pleasant and fitting to praise him.
<sup>2</sup>The LORD builds up Jerusalem.
He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
<sup>3</sup>He heals the broken in heart,
and binds up their wounds.
<sup>4</sup>He counts the number of the stars.
He calls them all by their names.
<sup>5</sup>Great is our Lord, and mighty in power.
His understanding is infinite.
<sup>6</sup>The LORD upholds the humble.

- He brings the wicked down to the ground.
<sup>7</sup>Sing to the LORD with thanksgiving.
Sing praises on the harp to our God, <sup>8</sup>who covers the sky with clouds, who prepares rain for the earth,
who makes grass grow on the mountains.
<sup>9</sup>He provides food for the livestock, and for the young ravens when they call.
<sup>10</sup>He doesn't delight in the strength of the horse.
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
<sup>11</sup>The LORD takes pleasure in those who fear
him,
in those who hope in his loving kindness.
<sup>12</sup>Praise the LORD, Jerusalem!
Praise your God, Zion!
<sup>13</sup>For he has strengthened the bars of your gates.
He has blessed your children within you.
<sup>14</sup>He makes peace in your borders.
He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
<sup>15</sup>He sends out his commandment to the earth.
His word runs very swiftly.
<sup>16</sup>He gives snow like wool,
and scatters frost like ashes.
<sup>17</sup>He hurls down his hail like pebbles.
Who can stand before his cold?
<sup>18</sup>He sends out his word, and melts them.
He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
<sup>19</sup>He shows his word to Jacob;
his statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
<sup>20</sup>He has not done this for just any nation.
They don't know his ordinances.
Praise the LORD!

Psalm 148

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD from the heavens!
Praise him in the heights!
<sup>2</sup>Praise him, all his angels!
Praise him, all his army!
<sup>3</sup>Praise him, sun and moon!
Praise him, all you shining stars!
<sup>4</sup>Praise him, you heavens of heavens,
You waters that are above the heavens.
<sup>5</sup>Let them praise the name of the LORD,
For he commanded, and they were created.
<sup>6</sup>He has also established them forever and ever.

He has made a decree which will not pass
away.

- <sup>7</sup>Praise the LORD from the earth,
you great sea creatures, and all depths!
<sup>8</sup>Lightning and hail, snow and clouds;
stormy wind, fulfilling his word; <sup>9</sup>mountains and all hills;
fruit trees and all cedars;
<sup>10</sup>wild animals and all livestock;
small creatures and flying birds;
<sup>11</sup>kings of the earth and all peoples;
princes and all judges of the earth; <sup>12</sup>both young men and maidens;
old men and children:
<sup>13</sup>let them praise the name of the LORD,
for his name alone is exalted.
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
<sup>14</sup>He has lifted up the horn of his people,
the praise of all his holy ones;
even of the children of Israel, a people near to him.

Praise the LORD!

Psalm 149

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Sing to the LORD a new song, his praise in the assembly of the holy
ones.
<sup>2</sup>Let Israel rejoice in him who made them.
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
<sup>3</sup>Let them praise his name in the dance!
Let them sing praises to him with tambourine and harp!
<sup>4</sup>For the LORD takes pleasure in his people.
He crowns the humble with salvation
[yeshu'ah].
<sup>5</sup>Let the holy ones rejoice in honor.
Let them sing for joy on their beds.
<sup>6</sup>May the high praises of God be in their mouths,
and a two-edged sword in their hand;
<sup>7</sup>To execute vengeance on the nations,
and punishments on the peoples;
<sup>8</sup>To bind their kings with chains,
and their nobles with fetters of iron;
<sup>9</sup>to execute on them the written judgment.
All his holy ones have this honor.

Praise the LORD!

<sup>v</sup>150:3 or, trumpet

Psalm 150

- <sup>1</sup>Praise the LORD!
Praise God in his sanctuary!
Praise him in his heavens for his acts of power!
<sup>2</sup>Praise him for his mighty acts!
Praise him according to his excellent greatness!
<sup>3</sup>Praise him with the sounding of the shofar<sup>v</sup>!
Praise him with harp and lyre!
<sup>4</sup>Praise him with tambourine and dancing!
Praise him with stringed instruments and flute!
<sup>5</sup>Praise him with loud cymbals!
Praise him with resounding cymbals!
<sup>6</sup>Let everything that has breath praise the
LORD!
Praise the LORD!

Proverbs

<sup>1:2</sup>to know wisdom and instruction; to discern the words of understanding;

<sup>1:5</sup>that the wise man may hear, and increase in learning;

that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsel:

<sup>1:6</sup>to understand a proverb, and parables, the words and riddles of the wise.

but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.

<sup>1:8</sup>My son, listen to your father's instruction, and don't forsake your mother's teaching:

<sup>1:9</sup>for they will be a garland to grace your head, and chains around your neck.

We'll fill our houses with spoil.

We'll all have one purse."

Keep your foot from their path,

<sup>1:16</sup>for their feet run to evil.

They hurry to shed blood.

<sup>1:18</sup>but these lay wait for their own blood.

They lurk secretly for their own lives.

<sup>1:19</sup>So are the ways of everyone who is greedy for gain.

It takes away the life of its owners.

<sup>1:20</sup>Wisdom calls aloud in the street.

She utters her voice in the public squares.

At the entrance of the city gates, she utters her words:

<sup>1:22</sup>"How long, you simple ones, will you love simplicity?

How long will mockers delight themselves in mockery, and fools hate knowledge?

Behold, I will pour out my spirit on you.

I will make known my words to you.

<sup>1:24</sup>Because I have called, and you have refused;

I have stretched out my hand, and no one has paid attention;

<sup>1:25</sup>but you have ignored all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof;

<sup>1:26</sup>I also will laugh at your disaster.

I will mock when calamity overtakes you;

<sup>1:27</sup>when calamity overtakes you like a storm, when your disaster comes on like a whirlwind;

when distress and anguish come on you.

<sup>1:28</sup>Then will they call on me, but I will not answer.

They will seek me diligently, but they will not find me;

<sup>1:29</sup>because they hated knowledge, and didn't choose the fear of the LORD.

<sup>1:30</sup>They wanted none of my counsel.

They despised all my reproof.

and be filled with their own schemes.

The careless ease of fools will destroy them.

<sup>1:33</sup>But whoever listens to me will dwell securely, and will be at ease, without fear of harm."

<sup>2:1</sup>My son, if you will receive my words, and store up my commandments within you;

<sup>2:2</sup>So as to turn your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;

<sup>2:3</sup>Yes, if you call out for discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;

<sup>a</sup>1:7 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

<sup>b</sup>1:12 Sheol is the place of the dead.

and search for her as for hidden treasures:
<sup>2:5</sup>then you will understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowledge of God<sup>c</sup>.
<sup>2:6</sup>For the LORD gives wisdom.
 Out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding.
<sup>2:7</sup>He lays up sound wisdom for the upright.
 He is a shield to those who walk in integrity;
<sup>2:8</sup>that he may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of his holy ones.
<sup>2:9</sup>Then you will understand righteousness and justice, equity and every good path.
<sup>2:10</sup>For wisdom will enter into your heart.
 Knowledge will be pleasant to your soul.
<sup>2:11</sup>Discretion will watch over you.
 Understanding will keep you,
<sup>2:12</sup>to deliver you from the way of evil,
 from the men who speak perverse things;
<sup>2:13</sup>who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;
<sup>2:14</sup>who rejoice to do evil,
 and delight in the perverseness of evil;
<sup>2:15</sup>who are crooked in their ways,
 and wayward in their paths:
<sup>2:16</sup>To deliver you from the strange woman, even from the foreigner who flatters with her words;
<sup>2:17</sup>who forsakes the friend of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God:
<sup>2:18</sup>for her house leads down to death,
 her paths to the dead.
<sup>2:19</sup>None who go to her return again, neither do they attain to the paths of life:
<sup>2:20</sup>that you may walk in the way of good men,
 and keep the paths of the righteous.
<sup>2:21</sup>For the upright will dwell in the land.
 The perfect will remain in it.
<sup>2:22</sup>But the wicked will be cut off from the land.
 The treacherous will be rooted out of it.
<sup>3:1</sup>My son, don't forget my teaching;
 but let your heart keep my commandments:
<sup>3:2</sup>for length of days, and years of life,
 and peace, will they add to you.
<sup>3:3</sup>Don't let kindness and truth forsake you.
 Bind them around your neck.
 Write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>3:4</sup>So you will find favor,

and good understanding in the sight of God and man.
<sup>3:5</sup>Trust in the LORD with all your heart, and don't lean on your own understanding.
<sup>3:6</sup>In all your ways acknowledge him,
 and he will make your paths straight.
<sup>3:7</sup>Don't be wise in your own eyes.
 Fear the LORD, and depart from evil.
<sup>3:8</sup>It will be health to your body,
 and nourishment to your bones.
<sup>3:9</sup>Honor the LORD with your substance, with the first fruits of all your increase:
<sup>3:10</sup>so your barns will be filled with plenty,
 and your vats will overflow with new wine.
<sup>3:11</sup>My son, don't despise the LORD's discipline, neither be weary of his reproof:
<sup>3:12</sup>for whom the LORD loves, he reproves;
 even as a father reproves the son in whom he delights.
<sup>3:13</sup>Happy is the man who finds wisdom,
 the man who gets understanding.
<sup>3:14</sup>For her good profit is better than getting silver, and her return is better than fine gold.
<sup>3:15</sup>She is more precious than rubies.
 None of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
<sup>3:16</sup>Length of days is in her right hand.
 In her left hand are riches and honor.
<sup>3:17</sup>Her ways are ways of pleasantness.
 All her paths are peace.
<sup>3:18</sup>She is a tree of life to those who lay hold of her.
 Happy is everyone who retains her.
<sup>3:19</sup>By wisdom the LORD founded the earth.
 By understanding, he established the heavens.
<sup>3:20</sup>By his knowledge, the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.
<sup>3:21</sup>My son, let them not depart from your eyes.
 Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
<sup>3:22</sup>so they will be life to your soul,
 and grace for your neck.
<sup>3:23</sup>Then you shall walk in your way securely.
 Your foot won't stumble.
<sup>3:24</sup>When you lie down, you will not be afraid.

- Yes, you will lie down, and your sleep will be sweet.
- 3:25 Don't be afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked,
when it comes:
- 3:26 for the LORD will be your confidence,
and will keep your foot from being taken.
- 3:27 Don't withhold good from those to whom it is due,
when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
- 3:28 Don't say to your neighbor, "Go, and come again;
tomorrow I will give it to you,"
when you have it by you.
- 3:29 Don't devise evil against your neighbor,
since he dwells securely by you.
- 3:30 Don't strive with a man without cause,
if he has done you no harm.
- 3:31 Don't envy the man of violence.
Choose none of his ways.
- 3:32 For the perverse is an abomination to the LORD,
but his friendship is with the upright.
- 3:33 The LORD's curse is in the house of the wicked,
but he blesses the habitation of the righteous.
- 3:34 Surely he mocks the mockers,
but he gives grace to the humble.
- 3:35 The wise will inherit glory,
but shame will be the promotion of fools.
- 4:1 Listen, sons, to a father's instruction.
Pay attention and know understanding;
- 4:2 for I give you sound learning.
Don't forsake my law.
- 4:3 For I was a son to my father, tender and an only child in the sight of my mother.
- 4:4 He taught me, and said to me:
"Let your heart retain my words.
Keep my commandments, and live.
- 4:5 Get wisdom.
Get understanding.
Don't forget, neither swerve from the words of my mouth.
- 4:6 Don't forsake her, and she will preserve you.
Love her, and she will keep you.
- 4:7 Wisdom is supreme.
Get wisdom.
Yes, though it costs all your possessions,
get understanding.
- 4:8 Esteem her, and she will exalt you.
She will bring you to honor, when you embrace her.
- 4:9 She will give to your head a garland of grace.
She will deliver a crown of splendor to you."
- 4:10 Listen, my son, and receive my sayings.
The years of your life will be many.
- 4:11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom.
I have led you in straight paths.
- 4:12 When you go, your steps will not be hampered.
When you run, you will not stumble.
- 4:13 Take firm hold of instruction.
Don't let her go.
Keep her, for she is your life.
- 4:14 Don't enter into the path of the wicked.
Don't walk in the way of evil men.
- 4:15 Avoid it, and don't pass by it.
Turn from it, and pass on.
- 4:16 For they don't sleep, unless they do evil.
Their sleep is taken away, unless they make someone fall.
- 4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness,
and drink the wine of violence.
- 4:18 But the path of the righteous is like the dawning light, that shines more and more until the perfect day.
- 4:19 The way of the wicked is like darkness.
They don't know what they stumble over.
- 4:20 My son, attend to my words.
Turn your ear to my sayings.
- 4:21 Let them not depart from your eyes.
Keep them in the midst of your heart.
- 4:22 For they are life to those who find them,
and health to their whole body.
- 4:23 Keep your heart with all diligence, for out of it is the wellspring of life.
- 4:24 Put away from yourself a perverse mouth.
Put corrupt lips far from you.
- 4:25 Let your eyes look straight ahead.
Fix your gaze directly before you.
- 4:26 Make the path of your feet level.
Let all of your ways be established.
- 4:27 Don't turn to the right hand nor to the left.
Remove your foot from evil.
- 5:1 My son, pay attention to my wisdom.
Turn your ear to my understanding;
- 5:2 that you may maintain discretion,
that your lips may preserve knowledge.
- 5:3 For the lips of an adulteress drip honey.

Her mouth is smoother than oil,
<sup>5:4</sup>But in the end she is as bitter as wormwood, and as sharp as a two-edged sword.
<sup>5:5</sup>Her feet go down to death.
 Her steps lead straight to Sheol<sup>d</sup>.
<sup>5:6</sup>She gives no thought to the way of life.
 Her ways are crooked, and she doesn't know it.
<sup>5:7</sup>Now therefore, my sons, listen to me.
 Don't depart from the words of my
 mouth.
<sup>5:8</sup>Remove your way far from her.
 Don't come near the door of her house, <sup>5:9</sup>lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel one;
<sup>5:10</sup>lest strangers feast on your wealth, and your labors enrich another man's house.
<sup>5:11</sup>You will groan at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed, <sup>5:12</sup>and say, "How I have hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
<sup>5:13</sup>neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor turned my ear to those who instructed me!
<sup>5:14</sup>I have come to the brink of utter ruin, in the midst of the gathered assembly."
<sup>5:15</sup>Drink water out of your own cistern, running water out of your own well.
<sup>5:16</sup>Should your springs overflow in the streets, streams of water in the public squares?
<sup>5:17</sup>Let them be for yourself alone, not for strangers with you.
<sup>5:18</sup>Let your spring be blessed.
 Rejoice in the wife of your youth.
<sup>5:19</sup>A loving doe and a graceful deer—
 let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
 Be captivated always with her love.
<sup>5:20</sup>For why should you, my son, be captivated with an adulteress?
 Why embrace the bosom of another?
<sup>5:21</sup>For the ways of man are before the eyes of
 the LORD.
 He examines all his paths.
<sup>5:22</sup>The evil deeds of the wicked ensnare him.
 The cords of his sin hold him firmly.
<sup>5:23</sup>He will die for lack of instruction.
 In the greatness of his folly, he will go astray.

<sup>d</sup>5:5 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>6:1</sup>My son, if you have become collateral for your neighbor,
 if you have struck your hands in pledge
 for a stranger;
<sup>6:2</sup>You are trapped by the words of your mouth.
 You are ensnared with the words of your
 mouth.
<sup>6:3</sup>Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, since you have come into the hand of
 your neighbor.
 Go, humble yourself.
 Press your plea with your neighbor.
<sup>6:4</sup>Give no sleep to your eyes, nor slumber to your eyelids.
<sup>6:5</sup>Free yourself, like a gazelle from the hand of the hunter,
 like a bird from the snare of the fowler.
<sup>6:6</sup>Go to the ant, you sluggard.
 Consider her ways, and be wise;
<sup>6:7</sup>which having no chief, overseer, or ruler, <sup>6:8</sup>provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.
<sup>6:9</sup>How long will you sleep, sluggard?
 When will you arise out of your sleep?
<sup>6:10</sup>A little sleep, a little slumber,
 a little folding of the hands to sleep:
<sup>6:11</sup>so your poverty will come as a robber, and your scarcity as an armed man.
<sup>6:12</sup>A worthless person, a man of iniquity, is he who walks with a perverse mouth;
<sup>6:13</sup>who winks with his eyes, who signals with his feet,
 who motions with his fingers;
<sup>6:14</sup>in whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually,
 who always sows discord.
<sup>6:15</sup>Therefore his calamity will come suddenly.
 He will be broken suddenly, and that without remedy.
<sup>6:16</sup>There are six things which the LORD hates;
 yes, seven which are an abomination to
 him:
<sup>6:17</sup>haughty eyes, a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood;
<sup>6:18</sup>a heart that devises wicked schemes, feet that are swift in running to mischief, <sup>6:19</sup>a false witness who utters lies,
 and he who sows discord among brothers.
<sup>6:20</sup>My son, keep your father's commandment,

- and don't forsake your mother's teaching.
<sup>6:21</sup> Bind them continually on your heart.
 Tie them around your neck.
<sup>6:22</sup> When you walk, it will lead you.
 When you sleep, it will watch over you.
 When you awake, it will talk with you.
<sup>6:23</sup> For the commandment is a lamp,
 and the Torah is light.
 Reproofs of instruction are the way of life, <sup>6:24</sup> to keep you from the immoral woman, from the flattery of the wayward wife's tongue.
<sup>6:25</sup> Don't lust after her beauty in your heart, neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
<sup>6:26</sup> For a prostitute reduces you to a piece of bread.
 The adulteress hunts for your precious
 life.
<sup>6:27</sup> Can a man scoop fire into his lap,
 and his clothes not be burned?
<sup>6:28</sup> Or can one walk on hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?
<sup>6:29</sup> So is he who goes in to his neighbor's wife.
 Whoever touches her will not be unpun-ished.
<sup>6:30</sup> Men don't despise a thief, if he steals to satisfy himself when he is hungry:
<sup>6:31</sup> but if he is found, he shall restore seven times.
 He shall give all the wealth of his house.
<sup>6:32</sup> He who commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding.
 He who does it destroys his own soul.
<sup>6:33</sup> He will get wounds and dishonor.
 His reproach will not be wiped away.
<sup>6:34</sup> For jealousy arouses the fury of the husband.
 He won't spare in the day of vengeance.
<sup>6:35</sup> He won't regard any ransom, neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.
<sup>7:1</sup> My son, keep my words.
 Lay up my commandments within you.
<sup>7:2</sup> Keep my commandments and live!
 Guard my teaching as the apple of your eye.
<sup>7:3</sup> Bind them on your fingers.
 Write them on the tablet of your heart.
<sup>7:4</sup> Tell wisdom, "You are my sister."
- Call understanding your relative, <sup>7:5</sup> that they may keep you from the strange woman,
 from the foreigner who flatters with her
 words.
<sup>7:6</sup> For at the window of my house,
 I looked out through my lattice.
<sup>7:7</sup> I saw among the simple ones.
 I discerned among the youths a young man void of understanding, <sup>7:8</sup> passing through the street near her corner,
 he went the way to her house, <sup>7:9</sup> in the twilight, in the evening of the day, in the middle of the night and in the darkness.
<sup>7:10</sup> Behold, there a woman met him with the attire of a prostitute, and with crafty intent.
<sup>7:11</sup> She is loud and defiant.
 Her feet don't stay in her house.
<sup>7:12</sup> Now she is in the streets, now in the squares,
 and lurking at every corner.
<sup>7:13</sup> So she caught him, and kissed him.
 With an impudent face she said to him:
<sup>7:14</sup> "Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me.
 This day I have paid my vows.
<sup>7:15</sup> Therefore I came out to meet you,
 to diligently seek your face,
 and I have found you.
<sup>7:16</sup> I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry,
 with striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
<sup>7:17</sup> I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
<sup>7:18</sup> Come, let's take our fill of loving until the morning.
 Let's solace ourselves with loving.
<sup>7:19</sup> For my husband isn't at home.
 He has gone on a long journey.
<sup>7:20</sup> He has taken a bag of money with him.
 He will come home at the full moon."
<sup>7:21</sup> With persuasive words, she led him astray.
 With the flattering of her lips, she seduced him.
<sup>7:22</sup> He followed her immediately,
 as an ox goes to the slaughter,
 as a fool stepping into a noose.
<sup>7:23</sup> Until an arrow strikes through his liver, as a bird hurries to the snare,
 and doesn't know that it will cost his life.
<sup>7:24</sup> Now therefore, sons, listen to me.

Pay attention to the words of my mouth.
 7:25 Don't let your heart turn to her ways.
 Don't go astray in her paths,
 7:26 for she has thrown down many wounded.
 Yes, all her slain are a mighty army.
 7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol<sup>e</sup>, going down to the rooms of death.
 8:1 Doesn't wisdom cry out?
 Doesn't understanding raise her voice?
 8:2 On the top of high places by the way,
 where the paths meet, she stands.
 8:3 Beside the gates, at the entry of the city,
 at the entry doors, she cries aloud:
 8:4 "To you men, I call!
 I send my voice to the sons of mankind.
 8:5 You simple, understand prudence.
 You fools, be of an understanding heart.
 8:6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things.
 The opening of my lips is for right things.
 8:7 For my mouth speaks truth.
 Wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
 8:8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness.
 There is nothing crooked or perverse in
 them.
 8:9 They are all plain to him who understands,
 right to those who find knowledge.
 8:10 Receive my instruction rather than silver;
 knowledge rather than choice gold.
 8:11 For wisdom is better than rubies.
 All the things that may be desired can't be compared to it.
 8:12 "I, wisdom, have made prudence my dwelling.
 Find out knowledge and discretion.
 8:13 The fear of the LORD is to hate evil.
 I hate pride, arrogance, the evil way, and the perverse mouth.
 8:14 Counsel and sound knowledge are mine.
 I have understanding and power.
 8:15 By me kings reign,
 and princes decree justice.
 8:16 By me princes rule;
 nobles, and all the righteous rulers of the earth.
 8:17 I love those who love me.
 Those who seek me diligently will find
 me.
 8:18 With me are riches, honor, enduring wealth, and prosperity.

<sup>e</sup>7:27 Sheol is the place of the dead.

8:19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine
 gold;
 my yield than choice silver.
 8:20 I walk in the way of righteousness,
 in the midst of the paths of justice;
 8:21 That I may give wealth to those who love
 me.
 I fill their treasuries.
 8:22 "The LORD possessed me in the beginning of his work,
 before his deeds of old.
 8:23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning,
 before the earth existed.
 8:24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth,
 when there were no springs abounding with water.
 8:25 Before the mountains were settled in place,
 before the hills, I was brought forth;
 8:26 while as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields,
 nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
 8:27 When he established the heavens, I was there;
 when he set a circle on the surface of the deep,
 8:28 when he established the clouds above, when the springs of the deep became
 strong,
 8:29 when he gave to the sea its boundary, that the waters should not violate his commandment,
 when he marked out the foundations of
 the earth;
 8:30 then I was the craftsman by his side.
 I was a delight day by day,
 always rejoicing before him,
 8:31 Rejoicing in his whole world.
 My delight was with the sons of men.
 8:32 "Now therefore, my sons, listen to me,
 for blessed are those who keep my ways.
 8:33 Hear instruction, and be wise.
 Don't refuse it.
 8:34 Blessed is the man who hears me, watching daily at my gates,
 waiting at my door posts.
 8:35 For whoever finds me, finds life,
 and will obtain favor from the LORD.

- 8:36 But he who sins against me wrongs his own soul.
All those who hate me love death.”
- 9:1 Wisdom has built her house.
She has carved out her seven pillars.
- 9:2 She has prepared her meat.
She has mixed her wine.
She has also set her table.
- 9:3 She has sent out her maidens.
She cries from the highest places of the city:
- 9:4 “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here!”
As for him who is void of understanding,
she says to him,
- 9:5 “Come, eat some of my bread,
Drink some of the wine which I have mixed!
- 9:6 Leave your simple ways, and live.
Walk in the way of understanding.”
- 9:7 He who corrects a mocker invites insult.
He who reproves a wicked man invites abuse.
- 9:8 Don’t reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you.
Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
- 9:9 Instruct a wise man, and he will be still wiser.
Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
- 9:10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom.
The knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
- 9:11 For by me your days will be multiplied.
The years of your life will be increased.
- 9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself.
If you mock, you alone will bear it.
- 9:13 The foolish woman is loud,
Undisciplined, and knows nothing.
- 9:14 She sits at the door of her house,
on a seat in the high places of the city,
- 9:15 To call to those who pass by,
who go straight on their ways,
- 9:16 “Whoever is simple, let him turn in here.”
as for him who is void of understanding,
she says to him,
- 9:17 “Stolen water is sweet.
Food eaten in secret is pleasant.”
- 9:18 But he doesn’t know that the dead are there, that her guests are in the depths of Sheol<sup>f</sup>.
- 10:1 The proverbs of Solomon.
A wise son makes a glad father;
- but a foolish son brings grief to his mother.
- 10:2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing, but righteousness delivers from death.
- 10:3 The LORD will not allow the soul of the righteous to go hungry, but he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
- 10:4 He becomes poor who works with a lazy hand,
but the hand of the diligent brings wealth.
- 10:5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
but he who sleeps during the harvest is a son who causes shame.
- 10:6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
- 10:7 The memory of the righteous is blessed,
but the name of the wicked will rot.
- 10:8 The wise in heart accept commandments,
but a chattering fool will fall.
- 10:9 He who walks blamelessly walks surely,
but he who perverts his ways will be found out.
- 10:10 One winking with the eye causes sorrow,
but a chattering fool will fall.
- 10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a spring of life,
but violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
- 10:12 Hatred stirs up strife,
but love covers all wrongs.
- 10:13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has discernment, but a rod is for the back of him who is void of understanding.
- 10:14 Wise men lay up knowledge,
but the mouth of the foolish is near ruin.
- 10:15 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city.
The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
- 10:16 The labor of the righteous leads to life.
The increase of the wicked leads to sin.
- 10:17 He is in the way of life who heeds correction, but he who forsakes reproof leads others astray.
- 10:18 He who hides hatred has lying lips.
He who utters a slander is a fool.
- 10:19 In the multitude of words there is no lack of disobedience,

<sup>f</sup>9:18 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- but he who restrains his lips does wisely.
<sup>10:20</sup>The tongue of the righteous is like choice silver.
 The heart of the wicked is of little worth.
<sup>10:21</sup>The lips of the righteous feed many, but the foolish die for lack of understanding.
<sup>10:22</sup>The LORD's blessing brings wealth, and he adds no trouble to it.
<sup>10:23</sup>It is a fool's pleasure to do wickedness, but wisdom is a man of understanding's pleasure.
<sup>10:24</sup>What the wicked fear, will overtake them, but the desire of the righteous will be granted.
<sup>10:25</sup>When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; but the righteous stand firm forever.
<sup>10:26</sup>As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to those who send him.
<sup>10:27</sup>The fear of the LORD prolongs days, but the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
<sup>10:28</sup>The prospect of the righteous is joy, but the hope of the wicked will perish.
<sup>10:29</sup>The way of the LORD is a stronghold to the upright, but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
<sup>10:30</sup>The righteous will never be removed, but the wicked will not dwell in the land.
<sup>10:31</sup>The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom, but the perverse tongue will be cut off.
<sup>10:32</sup>The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable, but the mouth of the wicked is perverse.
<sup>11:2</sup>When pride comes, then comes shame, but with humility comes wisdom.
<sup>11:3</sup>The integrity of the upright shall guide them, but the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
<sup>11:4</sup>Riches don't profit in the day of wrath, but righteousness delivers from death.
<sup>11:5</sup>The righteousness of the blameless will direct his way,
- but the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
<sup>11:6</sup>The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them, but the unfaithful will be trapped by evil desires.
<sup>11:7</sup>When a wicked man dies, hope perishes, and expectation of power comes to nothing.
<sup>11:8</sup>A righteous person is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked takes his place.
<sup>11:9</sup>With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor, but the righteous will be delivered through knowledge.
<sup>11:10</sup>When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices. When the wicked perish, there is shouting.
<sup>11:11</sup>By the blessing of the upright, the city is exalted, but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
<sup>11:12</sup>One who despises his neighbor is void of wisdom, but a man of understanding holds his peace.
<sup>11:13</sup>One who brings gossip betrays a confidence, but one who is of a trustworthy spirit is one who keeps a secret.
<sup>11:14</sup>Where there is no wise guidance, the nation falls, but in the multitude of counselors there is victory.
<sup>11:15</sup>He who is collateral for a stranger will suffer for it, but he who refuses pledges of collateral is secure.
<sup>11:17</sup>The merciful man does good to his own soul, but he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
<sup>11:18</sup>Wicked people earn deceitful wages, but one who sows righteousness reaps a sure reward.
<sup>11:19</sup>He who is truly righteous gets life. He who pursues evil gets death.
<sup>11:20</sup>Those who are perverse in heart are an abomination to the LORD,

- but those whose ways are blameless are his delight.
- 11:21 Most certainly, the evil man will not be unpunished, but the seed of the righteous will be delivered.
- 11:22 Like a gold ring in a pig's snout, is a beautiful woman who lacks discretion.
- 11:23 The desire of the righteous is only good.
The expectation of the wicked is wrath.
- 11:24 There is one who scatters, and increases yet more.
There is one who withholds more than is appropriate, but gains poverty.
- 11:25 The liberal soul shall be made fat.
He who waters shall be watered also himself.
- 11:26 People curse someone who withholds grain, but blessing will be on the head of him who sells it.
- 11:27 He who diligently seeks good seeks favor, but he who searches after evil, it shall come to him.
- 11:28 He who trusts in his riches will fall,
but the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
- 11:29 He who troubles his own house shall inherit the wind.
The foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.
- 11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life.
He who is wise wins souls.
- 11:31 Behold, the righteous shall be repaid in the earth;
how much more the wicked and the sinner!
- 12:1 Whoever loves correction loves knowledge,
but he who hates reproof is stupid.
- 12:2 A good man shall obtain favor from the LORD,
but he will condemn a man of wicked devices.
- 12:3 A man shall not be established by wickedness,
but the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
- 12:4 A worthy woman is the crown of her husband,
but a disgraceful wife is as rotteness in his bones.
- 12:5 The thoughts of the righteous are just,
but the advice of the wicked is deceitful.
- 12:6 The words of the wicked are about lying in wait for blood,
but the speech of the upright rescues them.
- 12:7 The wicked are overthrown, and are no more,
but the house of the righteous shall stand.
- 12:8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom,
but he who has a warped mind shall be despised.
- 12:9 Better is he who is lightly esteemed, and has a servant,
than he who honors himself, and lacks bread.
- 12:10 A righteous man respects the life of his animal,
but the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
- 12:11 He who tills his land shall have plenty of bread,
but he who chases fantasies is void of understanding.
- 12:12 The wicked desires the plunder of evil men,
but the root of the righteous flourishes.
- 12:13 An evil man is trapped by sinfulness of lips,
but the righteous shall come out of trouble.
- 12:14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth.
The work of a man's hands shall be rewarded to him.
- 12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
but he who is wise listens to counsel.
- 12:16 A fool shows his annoyance the same day,
but one who overlooks an insult is prudent.
- 12:17 He who is truthful testifies honestly,
but a false witness lies.
- 12:18 There is one who speaks rashly like the piercing of a sword, but the tongue of the wise heals.
- 12:19 Truth's lips will be established forever,
but a lying tongue is only momentary.
- 12:20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
but joy comes to the promoters of peace.
- 12:21 No mischief shall happen to the righteous,
but the wicked shall be filled with evil.

- 12:22 Lying lips are an abomination to the LORD,
but those who do the truth are his delight.
- 12:23 A prudent man keeps his knowledge,
but the hearts of fools proclaim foolishness.
- 12:24 The hands of the diligent ones shall rule, but laziness ends in slave labor.
- 12:25 Anxiety in a man's heart weighs it down,
but a kind word makes it glad.
- 12:26 A righteous person is cautious in friendship,
but the way of the wicked leads them astray.
- 12:27 The slothful man doesn't roast his game,
but the possessions of diligent men are prized.
- 12:28 In the way of righteousness is life;
in its path there is no death.
- 13:1 A wise son listens to his father's instruction,
but a scoffer doesn't listen to rebuke.
- 13:2 By the fruit of his lips, a man enjoys good things;
but the unfaithful crave violence.
- 13:3 He who guards his mouth guards his soul.
One who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
- 13:4 The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing, but the desire of the diligent shall be fully satisfied.
- 13:5 A righteous man hates lies,
but a wicked man brings shame and disgrace.
- 13:6 Righteousness guards the way of integrity,
but wickedness overthrows the sinner.
- 13:7 There are some who pretend to be rich, yet have nothing.
There are some who pretend to be poor,
yet have great wealth.
- 13:8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches,
but the poor hear no threats.
- 13:9 The light of the righteous shines brightly,
but the lamp of the wicked is snuffed out.
- 13:10 Pride only breeds quarrels,
but with ones who take advice is wisdom.
- 13:11 Wealth gained dishonestly dwindles away,
but he who gathers by hand makes it grow.
- 13:12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick,
but when longing is fulfilled, it is a tree of life.
- 13:13 Whoever despises instruction will pay for it,
but he who respects a command will be rewarded.
- 13:14 The teaching of the wise is a spring of life,
to turn from the snares of death.
- 13:15 Good understanding wins favor;
but the way of the unfaithful is hard.
- 13:16 Every prudent man acts from knowledge,
but a fool exposes folly.
- 13:17 A wicked messenger falls into trouble,
but a trustworthy envoy gains healing.
- 13:18 Poverty and shame come to him who refuses discipline,
but he who heeds correction shall be honored.
- 13:19 Longing fulfilled is sweet to the soul,
but fools detest turning from evil.
- 13:20 One who walks with wise men grows wise,
but a companion of fools suffers harm.
- 13:21 Misfortune pursues sinners,
but prosperity rewards the righteous.
- 13:22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored for the righteous.
- 13:23 An abundance of food is in poor people's fields,
but injustice sweeps it away.
- 13:24 One who spares the rod hates his son,
but one who loves him is careful to discipline him.
- 13:25 The righteous one eats to the satisfying of his soul,
but the belly of the wicked goes hungry.
- 14:1 Every wise woman builds her house,
but the foolish one tears it down with her own hands.
- 14:2 He who walks in his uprightness fears the LORD,
but he who is perverse in his ways despises him.
- 14:3 The fool's talk brings a rod to his back,
but the lips of the wise protect them.
- 14:4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean,
but much increase is by the strength of the ox.
- 14:5 A truthful witness will not lie,
but a false witness pours out lies.
- 14:6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and doesn't find it,
but knowledge comes easily to a discerning person.

- 14:7 Stay away from a foolish man,
for you won't find knowledge on his lips.
- 14:8 The wisdom of the prudent is to think about
his way,
but the folly of fools is deceit.
- 14:9 Fools mock at making atonement for sins, but among the upright there is good will.
- 14:10 The heart knows its own bitterness and joy;
he will not share these with a stranger.
- 14:11 The house of the wicked will be overthrown,
but the tent of the upright will flourish.
- 14:12 There is a way which seems right to a man,
but in the end it leads to death.
- 14:13 Even in laughter the heart may be sorrowful,
and mirth may end in heaviness.
- 14:14 The unfaithful will be repaid for his own
ways;
likewise a good man will be rewarded for
his ways.
- 14:15 A simple man believes everything, but the prudent man carefully considers
his ways.
- 14:16 A wise man fears, and shuns evil,
but the fool is hotheaded and reckless.
- 14:17 He who is quick to become angry will commit folly,
and a crafty man is hated.
- 14:18 The simple inherit folly, but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
- 14:19 The evil bow down before the good,
and the wicked at the gates of the righteous.
- 14:20 The poor person is shunned even by his own neighbor,
but the rich person has many friends.
- 14:21 He who despises his neighbor sins, but blessed is he who has pity on the
poor.
- 14:22 Don't they go astray who plot evil?
But love and faithfulness belong to those who plan good.
- 14:23 In all hard work there is profit, but the talk of the lips leads only to poverty.
- 14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches, but the folly of fools crowns them with folly.
- 14:25 A truthful witness saves souls,
but a false witness is deceitful.
- 14:26 In the fear of the LORD is a secure fortress,
and he will be a refuge for his children.
- 14:27 The fear of the LORD is a fountain of life,
turning people from the snares of death.
- 14:28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory,
but in the lack of people is the destruction of the prince.
- 14:29 He who is slow to anger has great understanding,
but he who has a quick temper displays
folly.
- 14:30 The life of the body is a heart at peace,
but envy rots the bones.
- 14:31 He who oppresses the poor shows contempt for his Maker,
but he who is kind to the needy honors
him.
- 14:32 The wicked is brought down in his calamity,
but in death, the righteous has a refuge.
- 14:33 Wisdom rests in the heart of one who has understanding,
and is even made known in the inward part of fools.
- 14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
but sin is a disgrace to any people.
- 14:35 The king's favor is toward a servant who deals wisely,
but his wrath is toward one who causes
shame.
- 15:1 A gentle answer turns away wrath,
but a harsh word stirs up anger.
- 15:2 The tongue of the wise commends knowledge,
but the mouth of fools gush out folly.
- 15:3 The LORD's eyes are everywhere, keeping watch on the evil and the good.
- 15:4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life,
but deceit in it crushes the spirit.
- 15:5 A fool despises his father's correction, but he who heeds reproof shows prudence.
- 15:6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure,
but the income of the wicked brings
trouble.
- 15:7 The lips of the wise spread knowledge;
not so with the heart of fools.
- 15:8 The sacrifice made by the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,

- but the prayer of the upright is his delight.
- 15:9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to the LORD,
but he loves him who follows after righteousness.
- 15:10 There is stern discipline for one who forsakes the way:
whoever hates reproof shall die.
- 15:11 Sheol<sup>g</sup> and Abaddon are before the LORD—how much more than the hearts of the children of men!
- 15:12 A scoffer doesn't love to be reproved;
he will not go to the wise.
- 15:13 A glad heart makes a cheerful face;
but an aching heart breaks the spirit.
- 15:14 The heart of one who has understanding seeks knowledge,
but the mouths of fools feed on folly.
- 15:15 All the days of the afflicted are wretched, but one who has a cheerful heart enjoys a continual feast.
- 15:16 Better is little, with the fear of the LORD,
than great treasure with trouble.
- 15:17 Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is,
than a fattened calf with hatred.
- 15:18 A wrathful man stirs up contention,
but one who is slow to anger appeases strife.
- 15:19 The way of the sluggard is like a thorn patch,
but the path of the upright is a highway.
- 15:20 A wise son makes a father glad,
but a foolish man despises his mother.
- 15:21 Folly is joy to one who is void of wisdom,
but a man of understanding keeps his way straight.
- 15:22 Where there is no counsel, plans fail;
but in a multitude of counselors they are established.
- 15:23 Joy comes to a man with the reply of his mouth.
How good is a word at the right time!
- 15:24 The path of life leads upward for the wise, to keep him from going downward to Sheol<sup>h</sup>.
- 15:25 The LORD will uproot the house of the proud,
- but he will keep the widow's borders intact.
- 15:26 The LORD detests the thoughts of the wicked,
but the thoughts of the pure are pleasing.
- 15:27 He who is greedy for gain troubles his own house, but he who hates bribes will live.
- 15:28 The heart of the righteous weighs answers,
but the mouth of the wicked gushes out evil.
- 15:29 The LORD is far from the wicked,
but he hears the prayer of the righteous.
- 15:30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart.
Good news gives health to the bones.
- 15:31 The ear that listens to reproof lives,
and will be at home among the wise.
- 15:32 He who refuses correction despises his own soul,
but he who listens to reproof gets understanding.
- 15:33 The fear of the LORD teaches wisdom.
Before honor is humility.
- 16:1 The plans of the heart belong to man,
but the answer of the tongue is from the LORD.
- 16:2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes;
but the LORD weighs the motives.
- 16:3 Commit your deeds to the LORD, and your plans shall succeed.
- 16:4 The LORD has made everything for its own end—
yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
- 16:5 Everyone who is proud in heart is an abomination to the LORD:
they shall certainly not be unpunished.
- 16:6 By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for.
By the fear of the LORD men depart from evil.
- 16:7 When a man's ways please the LORD,
he makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
- 16:8 Better is a little with righteousness,
than great revenues with injustice.
- 16:9 A man's heart plans his course,
but the LORD directs his steps.
- 16:10 Inspired judgments are on the lips of the king.
He shall not betray his mouth.

<sup>g</sup>15:11 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>h</sup>15:24 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- 16:11 Honest balances and scales are the LORD's;
all the weights in the bag are his work.
- 16:12 It is an abomination for kings to do wrong,
for the throne is established by righteousness.
- 16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings.
They value one who speaks the truth.
- 16:14 The king's wrath is a messenger of death,
but a wise man will pacify it.
- 16:15 In the light of the king's face is life.
His favor is like a cloud of the spring rain.
- 16:16 How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!
Yes, to get understanding is to be chosen rather than silver.
- 16:17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil.
He who keeps his way preserves his soul.
- 16:18 Pride goes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
- 16:19 It is better to be of a lowly spirit with the poor,
than to divide the plunder with the proud.
- 16:20 He who heeds the Word finds prosperity.
Whoever trusts in the LORD is blessed.
- 16:21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent.
Pleasantness of the lips promotes instruction.
- 16:22 Understanding is a fountain of life to one who has it,
but the punishment of fools is their folly.
- 16:23 The heart of the wise instructs his mouth,
and adds learning to his lips.
- 16:24 Pleasant words are a honeycomb,
sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
- 16:25 There is a way which seems right to a man,
but in the end it leads to death.
- 16:26 The appetite of the laboring man labors for him;
for his mouth urges him on.
- 16:27 A worthless man devises mischief.
His speech is like a scorching fire.
- 16:28 A perverse man stirs up strife.
A whisperer separates close friends.
- 16:29 A man of violence entices his neighbor,
and leads him in a way that is not good.
- 16:30 One who winks his eyes to plot perversities,
one who compresses his lips, is bent on evil.
- 16:31 Gray hair is a crown of glory.
It is attained by a life of righteousness.
- 16:32 One who is slow to anger is better than the mighty;
one who rules his spirit, than he who takes a city.
- 16:33 The lot is cast into the lap,
but its every decision is from the LORD.
- 17:1 Better is a dry morsel with quietness,
than a house full of feasting with strife.
- 17:2 A servant who deals wisely will rule over a son who causes shame, and shall have a part in the inheritance among the brothers.
- 17:3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold,
but the LORD tests the hearts.
- 17:4 An evildoer heeds wicked lips.
A liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
- 17:5 Whoever mocks the poor reproaches his Maker.
He who is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.
- 17:6 Children's children are the crown of old men;
the glory of children are their parents.
- 17:7 Arrogant speech isn't fitting for a fool, much less do lying lips fit a prince.
- 17:8 A bribe is a precious stone in the eyes of him who gives it;
wherever he turns, he prospers.
- 17:9 He who covers an offense promotes love;
but he who repeats a matter separates best friends.
- 17:10 A rebuke enters deeper into one who has understanding than a hundred lashes into a fool.
- 17:11 An evil man seeks only rebellion;
therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
- 17:12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, rather than a fool in his folly.
- 17:13 Whoever rewards evil for good,
evil shall not depart from his house.
- 17:14 The beginning of strife is like breaching a dam, therefore stop contention before quarrelling breaks out.
- 17:15 He who justifies the wicked, and he who condemns the righteous, both of them alike are an abomination to the LORD.

- 17:16 Why is there money in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, since he has no understanding?
- 17:17 A friend loves at all times; and a brother is born for adversity.
- 17:18 A man void of understanding strikes hands, and becomes collateral in the presence of his neighbor.
- 17:19 He who loves disobedience loves strife. One who builds a high gate seeks destruction.
- 17:20 One who has a perverse heart doesn't find prosperity, and one who has a deceitful tongue falls into trouble.
- 17:21 He who becomes the father of a fool grieves. The father of a fool has no joy.
- 17:22 A cheerful heart makes good medicine, but a crushed spirit dries up the bones.
- 17:23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, to pervert the ways of justice.
- 17:24 Wisdom is before the face of one who has understanding, but the eyes of a fool wander to the ends of the earth.
- 17:25 A foolish son brings grief to his father, and bitterness to her who bore him.
- 17:26 Also to punish the righteous is not good, nor to flog officials for their integrity.
- 17:27 He who spares his words has knowledge. He who is even tempered is a man of understanding.
- 17:28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise. When he shuts his lips, he is thought to be discerning.
- 18:1 An unfriendly man pursues selfishness, and defies all sound judgment.
- 18:2 A fool has no delight in understanding, but only in revealing his own opinion.
- 18:3 When wickedness comes, contempt also comes, and with shame comes disgrace.
- 18:4 The words of a man's mouth are like deep waters. The fountain of wisdom is like a flowing brook.
- 18:5 To be partial to the faces of the wicked is not good, nor to deprive the innocent of justice.
- 18:6 A fool's lips come into strife, and his mouth invites beatings.
- 18:7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are a snare to his soul.
- 18:8 The words of a gossip are like dainty morsels: they go down into a person's innermost parts.
- 18:9 One who is slack in his work is brother to him who is a master of destruction.
- 18:10 The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous run to him, and are safe.
- 18:11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, like an unscalable wall in his own imagination.
- 18:12 Before destruction the heart of man is proud, but before honor is humility.
- 18:13 He who gives answer before he hears, that is folly and shame to him.
- 18:14 A man's spirit will sustain him in sickness, but a crushed spirit, who can bear?
- 18:15 The heart of the discerning gets knowledge. The ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
- 18:16 A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men.
- 18:17 He who pleads his cause first seems right; until another comes and questions him.
- 18:18 The lot settles disputes, and keeps strong ones apart.
- 18:19 A brother offended is more difficult than a fortified city; and disputes are like the bars of a castle.
- 18:20 A man's stomach is filled with the fruit of his mouth. With the harvest of his lips he is satisfied.
- 18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue; those who love it will eat its fruit.
- 18:22 Whoever finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor of the LORD.
- 18:23 The poor plead for mercy, but the rich answer harshly.
- 18:24 A man of many companions may be ruined, but there is a friend who sticks closer than a brother.
- 19:1 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.

- 19:2 It isn't good to have zeal without knowledge;
nor being hasty with one's feet and missing the way.
- 19:3 The foolishness of man subverts his way;
his heart rages against the LORD.
- 19:4 Wealth adds many friends,
but the poor is separated from his friend.
- 19:5 A false witness shall not be unpunished.
He who pours out lies shall not go free.
- 19:6 Many will entreat the favor of a ruler, and everyone is a friend to a man who gives gifts.
- 19:7 All the relatives of the poor shun him:
how much more do his friends avoid him!
He pursues them with pleas, but they are gone.
- 19:8 He who gets wisdom loves his own soul.
He who keeps understanding shall find good.
- 19:9 A false witness shall not be unpunished.
He who utters lies shall perish.
- 19:10 Delicate living is not appropriate for a fool, much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
- 19:11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger.
It is his glory to overlook an offense.
- 19:12 The king's wrath is like the roaring of a lion,
but his favor is like dew on the grass.
- 19:13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father.
A wife's quarrels are a continual dripping.
- 19:14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers, but a prudent wife is from the LORD.
- 19:15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep.
The idle soul shall suffer hunger.
- 19:16 He who keeps the commandment keeps his soul,
but he who is contemptuous in his ways shall die.
- 19:17 He who has pity on the poor lends to the LORD;
he will reward him.
- 19:18 Discipline your son, for there is hope;
don't be a willing party to his death.
- 19:19 A hot-tempered man must pay the penalty, for if you rescue him, you must do it again.
- 19:20 Listen to counsel and receive instruction,
that you may be wise in your latter end.
- 19:21 There are many plans in a man's heart,
but the LORD's counsel will prevail.
- 19:22 That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness.
A poor man is better than a liar.
- 19:23 The fear of the LORD leads to life, then contentment;
he rests and will not be touched by trouble.
- 19:24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish;
he will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
- 19:25 Flog a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence;
rebuke one who has understanding, and he will gain knowledge.
- 19:26 He who robs his father and drives away his mother, is a son who causes shame and brings reproach.
- 19:27 If you stop listening to instruction, my son,
you will stray from the words of knowledge.
- 19:28 A corrupt witness mocks justice, and the mouth of the wicked gulps down iniquity.
- 19:29 Penalties are prepared for scoffers, and beatings for the backs of fools.
- 20:1 Wine is a mocker, and beer is a brawler.
Whoever is led astray by them is not wise.
- 20:2 The terror of a king is like the roaring of a lion.
He who provokes him to anger forfeits his own life.
- 20:3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife;
but every fool will be quarreling.
- 20:4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter;
therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.
- 20:5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water;
but a man of understanding will draw it out.
- 20:6 Many men claim to be men of unfailing love,
but who can find a faithful man?
- 20:7 A righteous man walks in integrity.
Blessed are his children after him.
- 20:8 A king who sits on the throne of judgment

- scatters away all evil with his eyes.
- 20:9 Who can say, "I have made my heart pure.
I am clean and without sin?"
- 20:10 Differing weights and differing measures, both of them alike are an abomination to
the LORD.
- 20:11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings,
whether his work is pure, and whether it is right.
- 20:12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye,
The LORD has made even both of them.
- 20:13 Don't love sleep, lest you come to poverty.
Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.
- 20:14 "It's no good, it's no good," says the buyer;
but when he is gone his way, then he boasts.
- 20:15 There is gold and abundance of rubies;
but the lips of knowledge are a rare jewel.
- 20:16 Take the garment of one who puts up collateral for a stranger;
and hold him in pledge for a wayward
woman.
- 20:17 Fraudulent food is sweet to a man, but afterwards his mouth is filled with gravel.
- 20:18 Plans are established by advice;
by wise guidance you wage war!
- 20:19 He who goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets;
therefore don't keep company with him
who opens wide his lips.
- 20:20 Whoever curses his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.
- 20:21 An inheritance quickly gained at the beginning,
won't be blessed in the end.
- 20:22 Don't say, "I will pay back evil."
Wait for the LORD, and he will save you.
- 20:23 The LORD detests differing weights, and dishonest scales are not pleasing.
- 20:24 A man's steps are from the LORD;
how then can man understand his way?
- 20:25 It is a snare to a man to make a rash dedication,
then later to consider his vows.
- 20:26 A wise king winnows out the wicked, and drives the threshing wheel over
them.
- 20:27 The spirit of man is the LORD's lamp, searching all his innermost parts.
- 20:28 Love and faithfulness keep the king safe.
His throne is sustained by love.
- 20:29 The glory of young men is their strength.
The splendor of old men is their gray hair.
- 20:30 Wounding blows cleanse away evil,
and beatings purge the innermost parts.
- 21:1 The king's heart is in the LORD's hand like the watercourses.
He turns it wherever he desires.
- 21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes,
but the LORD weighs the hearts.
- 21:3 To do righteousness and justice is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice.
- 21:4 A high look, and a proud heart,
the lamp of the wicked, is sin.
- 21:5 The plans of the diligent surely lead to profit;
and everyone who is hasty surely rushes to poverty.
- 21:6 Getting treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapor for those who seek death.
- 21:7 The violence of the wicked will drive them
away,
because they refuse to do what is right.
- 21:8 The way of the guilty is devious,
but the conduct of the innocent is upright.
- 21:9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop,
than to share a house with a contentious
woman.
- 21:10 The soul of the wicked desires evil;
his neighbor finds no mercy in his eyes.
- 21:11 When the mocker is punished, the simple gains wisdom.
When the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
- 21:12 The Righteous One considers the house of the wicked,
and brings the wicked to ruin.
- 21:13 Whoever stops his ears at the cry of the
poor,
he will also cry out, but shall not be heard.
- 21:14 A gift in secret pacifies anger;
and a bribe in the cloak, strong wrath.
- 21:15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice;
but it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
- 21:16 The man who wanders out of the way of understanding

- shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
- 21:17 He who loves pleasure shall be a poor man.
He who loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
- 21:18 The wicked is a ransom for the righteous;
the treacherous for the upright.
- 21:19 It is better to dwell in a desert land,
than with a contentious and fretful woman.
- 21:20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise;
but a foolish man swallows it up.
- 21:21 He who follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.
- 21:22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty,
and brings down the strength of its confidence.
- 21:23 Whoever guards his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
- 21:24 The proud and haughty man, "scoffer" is his name;
he works in the arrogance of pride.
- 21:25 The desire of the sluggard kills him,
for his hands refuse to labor.
- 21:26 There are those who covet greedily all day long;
but the righteous give and don't withhold.
- 21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination:
how much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
- 21:28 A false witness will perish,
and a man who listens speaks to eternity.
- 21:29 A wicked man hardens his face;
but as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
- 21:30 There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against the LORD.
- 21:31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle;
but victory is with the LORD.
- 22:1 A good name is more desirable than great riches,
and loving favor is better than silver and gold.
- 22:2 The rich and the poor have this in common:
The LORD is the maker of them all.
- 22:3 A prudent man sees danger, and hides himself;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
- 22:4 The result of humility and the fear of the LORD is wealth, honor, and life.
- 22:5 Thorns and snares are in the path of the wicked:
whoever guards his soul stays from them.
- 22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
and when he is old he will not depart from it.
- 22:7 The rich rule over the poor.
The borrower is servant to the lender.
- 22:8 He who sows wickedness reaps trouble,
and the rod of his fury will be destroyed.
- 22:9 He who has a generous eye will be blessed;
for he shares his food with the poor.
- 22:10 Drive out the mocker, and strife will go out;
yes, quarrels and insults will stop.
- 22:11 He who loves purity of heart and speaks gracefully is the king's friend.
- 22:12 The eyes of the LORD watch over knowledge;
but he frustrates the words of the unfaithful.
- 22:13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion outside!
I will be killed in the streets!"
- 22:14 The mouth of an adulteress is a deep pit:
he who is under the LORD's wrath will fall into it.
- 22:15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child:
the rod of discipline drives it far from him.
- 22:16 Whoever oppresses the poor for his own increase and whoever gives to the rich, both come to poverty.
- 22:17 Turn your ear, and listen to the words of the wise.
Apply your heart to my teaching.
- 22:18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you,
if all of them are ready on your lips.
- 22:19 That your trust may be in the LORD,
I teach you today, even you.
- 22:20 Haven't I written to you thirty excellent things of counsel and knowledge, 22:21 To teach you truth, reliable words,
to give sound answers to the ones who sent you?
- 22:22 Don't exploit the poor, because he is poor;
and don't crush the needy in court;
22:23 for the LORD will plead their case,

- and plunder the life of those who plunder them.
- 22:24 Don't befriend a hot-tempered man,
and don't associate with one who harbors anger:
22:25 lest you learn his ways,
and ensnare your soul.
- 22:26 Don't you be one of those who strike hands,
of those who are collateral for debts.
- 22:27 If you don't have means to pay,
why should he take away your bed from under you?
- 22:28 Don't move the ancient boundary stone,
which your fathers have set up.
- 22:29 Do you see a man skilled in his work?
He will serve kings.
He won't serve obscure men.
- 23:1 When you sit to eat with a ruler,
consider diligently what is before you;
- 23:2 put a knife to your throat,
if you are a man given to appetite.
- 23:3 Don't be desirous of his dainties,
since they are deceitful food.
- 23:4 Don't weary yourself to be rich.
In your wisdom, show restraint.
- 23:5 Why do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For it certainly sprouts wings like an eagle and flies in the sky.
- 23:6 Don't eat the food of him who has a stingy eye,
and don't crave his delicacies:
23:7 for as he thinks about the cost, so he is.
"Eat and drink!" he says to you,
but his heart is not with you.
- 23:8 The morsel which you have eaten you shall vomit up,
and lose your good words.
- 23:9 Don't speak in the ears of a fool,
for he will despise the wisdom of your words.
- 23:10 Don't move the ancient boundary stone.
Don't encroach on the fields of the fatherless:
- 23:11 for their Defender is strong.
He will plead their case against you.
- 23:12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.
- 23:13 Don't withhold correction from a child.
- If you punish him with the rod, he will not die.
- 23:14 Punish him with the rod, and save his soul from Sheol<sup>i</sup>.
- 23:15 My son, if your heart is wise,
then my heart will be glad, even mine:
- 23:16 yes, my heart will rejoice,
when your lips speak what is right.
- 23:17 Don't let your heart envy sinners;
but rather fear the LORD all the day long.
- 23:18 Indeed surely there is a future hope,
and your hope will not be cut off.
- 23:19 Listen, my son, and be wise,
and keep your heart on the right path!
- 23:20 Don't be among ones drinking too much wine,
or those who gorge themselves on meat:
23:21 for the drunkard and the glutton shall become poor;
and drowsiness clothes them in rags.
- 23:22 Listen to your father who gave you life,
and don't despise your mother when she is old.
- 23:23 Buy the truth, and don't sell it.
Get wisdom, discipline, and understanding.
- 23:24 The father of the righteous has great joy.
Whoever fathers a wise child delights in him.
- 23:25 Let your father and your mother be glad!
Let her who bore you rejoice!
- 23:26 My son, give me your heart;
and let your eyes keep in my ways.
- 23:27 For a prostitute is a deep pit;
and a wayward wife is a narrow well.
- 23:28 Yes, she lies in wait like a robber,
and increases the unfaithful among men.
- 23:29 Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has strife?
Who has complaints?
Who has needless bruises?
Who has bloodshot eyes?
- 23:30 Those who stay long at the wine;
those who go to seek out mixed wine.
- 23:31 Don't look at the wine when it is red,
when it sparkles in the cup,
when it goes down smoothly.
- 23:32 In the end, it bites like a snake,
and poisons like a viper.
- 23:33 Your eyes will see strange things,

<sup>i</sup>23:14 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- and your mind will imagine confusing things.
- 23:34 Yes, you will be as he who lies down in the midst of the sea,
or as he who lies on top of the rigging:
- 23:35 "They hit me, and I was not hurt!
They beat me, and I don't feel it!
When will I wake up? I can do it again.
I can find another."
- 24:1 Don't be envious of evil men;
neither desire to be with them:
- 24:2 for their hearts plot violence,
and their lips talk about mischief.
- 24:3 Through wisdom a house is built;
by understanding it is established;
- 24:4 by knowledge the rooms are filled with all rare and beautiful treasure.
- 24:5 A wise man has great power;
and a knowledgeable man increases strength;
- 24:6 for by wise guidance you wage your war;
and victory is in many advisors.
- 24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool:
he doesn't open his mouth in the gate.
- 24:8 One who plots to do evil will be called a schemer.
- 24:9 The schemes of folly are sin.
The mocker is detested by men.
- 24:10 If you falter in the time of trouble,
your strength is small.
- 24:11 Rescue those who are being led away to death!
Indeed, hold back those who are staggering to the slaughter!
- 24:12 If you say, "Behold, we didn't know this," doesn't he who weighs the hearts consider it?
He who keeps your soul, doesn't he know it?
Shall he not render to every man according to his work?
- 24:13 My son, eat honey, for it is good;
the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:
- 24:14 so you shall know wisdom to be to your soul;
if you have found it, then there will be a reward,
your hope will not be cut off.
- 24:15 Don't lay in wait, wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous.
Don't destroy his resting place:
- 24:16 for a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again;
but the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
- 24:17 Don't rejoice when your enemy falls.
Don't let your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
- 24:18 lest the LORD see it, and it displease him,
and he turn away his wrath from him.
- 24:19 Don't fret yourself because of evildoers;
neither be envious of the wicked:
- 24:20 for there will be no reward to the evil man;
and the lamp of the wicked shall be snuffed out.
- 24:21 My son, fear the LORD and the king.
Don't join those who are rebellious:
- 24:22 for their calamity will rise suddenly;
the destruction from them both—who knows?
- 24:23 These also are sayings of the wise.
To show partiality in judgment is not good.
- 24:24 He who says to the wicked, "You are righteous;"
peoples shall curse him, and nations shall abhor him—
- 24:25 but it will go well with those who convict the guilty, and a rich blessing will come on them.
- 24:26 An honest answer
is like a kiss on the lips.
- 24:27 Prepare your work outside,
and get your fields ready.
Afterwards, build your house.
- 24:28 Don't be a witness against your neighbor without cause.
Don't deceive with your lips.
- 24:29 Don't say, "I will do to him as he has done to me;
I will render to the man according to his work."
- 24:30 I went by the field of the sluggard, by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
- 24:31 Behold, it was all grown over with thorns.
Its surface was covered with nettles,
and its stone wall was broken down.
- 24:32 Then I saw, and considered well.
I saw, and received instruction:
a little sleep, a little slumber,
a little folding of the hands to sleep;
24:34 so your poverty will come as a robber,
and your want as an armed man.

- <sup>25:1</sup>These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.
- <sup>25:2</sup>It is the glory of God to conceal a thing, but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
- <sup>25:3</sup>As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the hearts of kings are unsearchable.
- <sup>25:4</sup>Take away the dross from the silver, and material comes out for the refiner;
- <sup>25:5</sup>Take away the wicked from the king's presence, and his throne will be established in righteousness.
- <sup>25:6</sup>Don't exalt yourself in the presence of the king, or claim a place among great men;
- <sup>25:7</sup>for it is better that it be said to you, "Come up here," than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen.
- <sup>25:8</sup>Don't be hasty in bringing charges to court. What will you do in the end when your neighbor shames you?
- <sup>25:9</sup>Debate your case with your neighbor, and don't betray the confidence of another;
- <sup>25:10</sup>lest one who hears it put you to shame, and your bad reputation never depart.
- <sup>25:11</sup>A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
- <sup>25:12</sup>As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover to an obedient ear.
- <sup>25:13</sup>As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
- <sup>25:14</sup>As clouds and wind without rain, so is he who boasts of gifts deceptively.
- <sup>25:15</sup>By patience a ruler is persuaded. A soft tongue breaks the bone.
- <sup>25:16</sup>Have you found honey? Eat as much as is sufficient for you, lest you eat too much, and vomit it.
- <sup>25:17</sup>Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, lest he be weary of you, and hate you.
- <sup>25:18</sup>A man who gives false testimony against his neighbor is like a club, a sword, or a sharp arrow.
- <sup>25:19</sup>Confidence in someone unfaithful in time of trouble is like a bad tooth, or a lame foot.
- <sup>25:20</sup>As one who takes away a garment in cold weather, or vinegar on soda, so is one who sings songs to a heavy heart.
- <sup>25:21</sup>If your enemy is hungry, give him food to eat. If he is thirsty, give him water to drink:
- <sup>25:22</sup>for you will heap coals of fire on his head, and the LORD will reward you.
- <sup>25:23</sup>The north wind brings forth rain: so a backbiting tongue brings an angry face.
- <sup>25:24</sup>It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, than to share a house with a contentious woman.
- <sup>25:25</sup>Like cold water to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
- <sup>25:26</sup>Like a muddied spring, and a polluted well, so is a righteous man who gives way before the wicked.
- <sup>25:27</sup>It is not good to eat much honey; nor is it honorable to seek one's own honor.
- <sup>25:28</sup>Like a city that is broken down and without walls is a man whose spirit is without restraint.
- <sup>26:1</sup>Like snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honor is not fitting for a fool.
- <sup>26:2</sup>Like a fluttering sparrow, like a darting swallow, so the undeserved curse doesn't come to rest.
- <sup>26:3</sup>A whip is for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools!
- <sup>26:4</sup>Don't answer a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.
- <sup>26:5</sup>Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own eyes.
- <sup>26:6</sup>One who sends a message by the hand of a fool is cutting off feet and drinking violence.

- 26:7 Like the legs of the lame that hang loose:
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 26:8 As one who binds a stone in a sling,
so is he who gives honor to a fool.
- 26:9 Like a thornbush that goes into the hand of a drunkard,
so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
- 26:10 As an archer who wounds all,
so is he who hires a fool or he who hires those who pass by.
- 26:11 As a dog that returns to his vomit,
so is a fool who repeats his folly.
- 26:12 Do you see a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 26:13 The sluggard says, "There is a lion in the road!
A fierce lion roams the streets!"
- 26:14 As the door turns on its hinges, so does the sluggard on his bed.
- 26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish.
He is too lazy to bring it back to his
mouth.
- 26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own eyes than seven men who answer with discretion.
- 26:17 Like one who grabs a dog's ears is one who passes by and meddles in a quarrel not his own.
- 26:18 Like a madman who shoots torches, arrows, and death,
26:19 is the man who deceives his neighbor and says, "Am I not joking?"
- 26:20 For lack of wood a fire goes out.
Without gossip, a quarrel dies down.
- 26:21 As coals are to hot embers,
and wood to fire,
so is a contentious man to kindling strife.
- 26:22 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels,
they go down into the innermost parts.
- 26:23 Like silver dross on an earthen vessel are the lips of a fervent one with an evil
heart.
- 26:24 A malicious man disguises himself with his lips,
but he harbors evil in his heart.
- 26:25 When his speech is charming, don't believe
him;
for there are seven abominations in his heart.
- 26:26 His malice may be concealed by deception, but his wickedness will be exposed in the assembly.
- 26:27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it.
Whoever rolls a stone, it will come back on him.
- 26:28 A lying tongue hates those it hurts;
and a flattering mouth works ruin.
- 27:1 Don't boast about tomorrow;
for you don't know what a day may bring forth.
- 27:2 Let another man praise you,
and not your own mouth;
a stranger, and not your own lips.
- 27:3 A stone is heavy,
and sand is a burden;
but a fool's provocation is heavier than both.
- 27:4 Wrath is cruel,
and anger is overwhelming;
but who is able to stand before jealousy?
- 27:5 Better is open rebuke than hidden love.
- 27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend;
although the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
- 27:7 A full soul loathes a honeycomb;
but to a hungry soul, every bitter thing is sweet.
- 27:8 As a bird that wanders from her nest,
so is a man who wanders from his home.
- 27:9 Perfume and incense bring joy to the heart;
so does earnest counsel from a man's friend.
- 27:10 Don't forsake your friend and your father's friend.
Don't go to your brother's house in the day of your disaster:
better is a neighbor who is near than a distant brother.
- 27:11 Be wise, my son,
and bring joy to my heart,
then I can answer my tormentor.
- 27:12 A prudent man sees danger and takes refuge;
but the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
- 27:13 Take his garment when he puts up collateral for a stranger.
Hold it for a wayward woman!
- 27:14 He who blesses his neighbor with a loud voice early in the morning,
it will be taken as a curse by him.
- 27:15 A continual dropping on a rainy day and a contentious wife are alike:

 27:16 restraining her is like restraining the wind,
 or like grasping oil in his right hand.
 27:17 Iron sharpens iron;
 so a man sharpens his friend's countenance.
 27:18 Whoever tends the fig tree shall eat its fruit.
 He who looks after his master shall be honored.
 27:19 As water reflects a face,
 so a man's heart reflects the man.
 27:20 Sheol<sup>1</sup> and Abaddon are never satisfied;
 and a man's eyes are never satisfied.
 27:21 The crucible is for silver,
 and the furnace for gold;
 but man is refined by his praise.
 27:22 Though you grind a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with grain, yet his foolishness will not be removed from him.
 27:23 Know well the state of your flocks,
 and pay attention to your herds:
 27:24 for riches are not forever, nor does even the crown endure to all generations.
 27:25 The hay is removed, and the new growth appears,
 the grasses of the hills are gathered in.
 27:26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of a field.
 27:27 There will be plenty of goats' milk for your food,
 for your family's food,
 and for the nourishment of your servant
 girls.
 28:1 The wicked flee when no one pursues;
 but the righteous are as bold as a lion.
 28:2 In rebellion, a land has many rulers, but order is maintained by a man of understanding and knowledge.
 28:3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a driving rain which leaves no crops.
 28:4 Those who forsake the Torah praise the wicked;
 but those who keep the Torah contend
 with them.
 28:5 Evil men don't understand justice;
 but those who seek the LORD understand it fully.
 28:6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity,

than he who is perverse in his ways, and he is rich.
 28:7 Whoever keeps the Torah is a wise son;
 but he who is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
 28:8 He who increases his wealth by excessive interest gathers it for one who has pity on the
 poor.
 28:9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the Torah,
 even his prayer is an abomination.
 28:10 Whoever causes the upright to go astray in an evil way,
 he will fall into his own trap;
 but the blameless will inherit good.
 28:11 The rich man is wise in his own eyes;
 but the poor who has understanding sees through him.
 28:12 When the righteous triumph, there is great
 glory;
 but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.
 28:13 He who conceals his sins doesn't prosper, but whoever confesses and renounces them finds mercy.
 28:14 Blessed is the man who always fears;
 but one who hardens his heart falls into trouble.
 28:15 As a roaring lion or a charging bear,
 so is a wicked ruler over helpless people.
 28:16 A tyrannical ruler lacks judgment.
 One who hates ill-gotten gain will have long days.
 28:17 A man who is tormented by life blood will be a fugitive until death;
 no one will support him.
 28:18 Whoever walks blamelessly is kept safe; but one with perverse ways will fall suddenly.
 28:19 One who works his land will have an abundance of food;
 but one who chases fantasies will have his fill of poverty.
 28:20 A faithful man is rich with blessings;
 but one who is eager to be rich will not go unpunished.
 28:21 To show partiality is not good;
 yet a man will do wrong for a piece of bread.
 28:22 A stingy man hurries after riches,

- and doesn't know that poverty waits for him.
- 28:23 One who rebukes a man will afterward find more favor than one who flatters with the tongue.
- 28:24 Whoever robs his father or his mother, and says, "It's not wrong." He is a partner with a destroyer.
- 28:25 One who is greedy stirs up strife; but one who trusts in the LORD will prosper.
- 28:26 One who trusts in himself is a fool; but one who walks in wisdom is kept safe.
- 28:27 One who gives to the poor has no lack; but one who closes his eyes will have many curses.
- 28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; but when they perish, the righteous thrive.
- 29:1 He who is often rebuked and stiffens his neck will be destroyed suddenly, with no remedy.
- 29:2 When the righteous thrive, the people rejoice; but when the wicked rule, the people groan.
- 29:3 Whoever loves wisdom brings joy to his father; but a companion of prostitutes squanders his wealth.
- 29:4 The king by justice makes the land stable, but he who takes bribes tears it down.
- 29:5 A man who flatters his neighbor spreads a net for his feet.
- 29:6 An evil man is snared by his sin, but the righteous can sing and be glad.
- 29:7 The righteous care about justice for the poor. The wicked aren't concerned about knowledge.
- 29:8 Mockers stir up a city, but wise men turn away anger.
- 29:9 If a wise man goes to court with a foolish man, the fool rages or scoffs, and there is no peace.
- 29:10 The bloodthirsty hate a man of integrity; and they seek the life of the upright.
- 29:11 A fool vents all of his anger, but a wise man brings himself under control.
- 29:12 If a ruler listens to lies, all of his officials are wicked.
- 29:13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common: The LORD gives sight to the eyes of both.
- 29:14 The king who fairly judges the poor, his throne shall be established forever.
- 29:15 The rod of correction gives wisdom, but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.
- 29:16 When the wicked increase, sin increases; but the righteous will see their downfall.
- 29:17 Correct your son, and he will give you peace; yes, he will bring delight to your soul.
- 29:18 Where there is no revelation, the people cast off restraint; but one who keeps the Torah is blessed.
- 29:19 A servant can't be corrected by words. Though he understands, yet he will not respond.
- 29:20 Do you see a man who is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
- 29:21 He who pampers his servant from youth will have him become a son in the end.
- 29:22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in sin.
- 29:23 A man's pride brings him low, but one of lowly spirit gains honor.
- 29:24 Whoever is an accomplice of a thief is an enemy of his own soul. He takes an oath, but dares not testify.
- 29:25 The fear of man proves to be a snare, but whoever puts his trust in the LORD is kept safe.
- 29:26 Many seek the ruler's favor, but a man's justice comes from the LORD.
- 29:27 A dishonest man detests the righteous, and the upright in their ways detest the wicked.
- 30:1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh, the oracle: the man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
- 30:2 "Surely I am the most ignorant man, and don't have a man's understanding.
- 30:3 I have not learned wisdom, neither do I have the knowledge of the Holy One.

- 30:4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended?
Who has gathered the wind in his fists?
Who has bound the waters in his garment?
Who has established all the ends of the earth?
What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?
- 30:5 "Every word of God is flawless.
He is a shield to those who take refuge in him.
- 30:6 Don't you add to his words,
lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.
- 30:7 "Two things I have asked of you;
don't deny me before I die:
- 30:8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies.
Give me neither poverty nor riches.
Feed me with the food that is needful for me;
- 30:9 lest I be full, deny you, and say, 'Who is the LORD?'
or lest I be poor, and steal,
and so dishonor the name of my God.
- 30:10 "Don't slander a servant to his master,
lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
- 30:11 There is a generation that curses their father,
and doesn't bless their mother.
- 30:12 There is a generation that is pure in their own eyes, yet are not washed from their filthiness.
- 30:13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes!
Their eyelids are lifted up.
- 30:14 There is a generation whose teeth are like swords,
and their jaws like knives,
to devour the poor from the earth, and the needy from among men.
- 30:15 "The leach has two daughters:
'Give, give.'
- "There are three things that are never satisfied;
four that don't say, 'Enough.'
30:16 Sheol<sup>k</sup>,
the barren womb;
the earth that is not satisfied with water;
and the fire that doesn't say, 'Enough.'
- 30:17 "The eye that mocks at his father, and scorns obedience to his mother:
the ravens of the valley shall pick it out,
the young eagles shall eat it.
- 30:18 "There are three things which are too amazing for me, four which I don't understand:
30:19 The way of an eagle in the air;
the way of a serpent on a rock;
the way of a ship in the midst of the sea;
and the way of a man with a maiden.
- 30:20 "So is the way of an adulterous woman:
she eats and wipes her mouth,
and says, 'I have done nothing wrong.'
- 30:21 "For three things the earth tremble, and under four, it can't bear up:
30:22 For a servant when he is king;
a fool when he is filled with food;
30:23 for an unloved woman when she is married;
and a handmaid who is heir to her mistress.
- 30:24 "There are four things which are little on the earth,
but they are exceedingly wise:
30:25 the ants are not a strong people,
yet they provide their food in the summer.
30:26 The conies are but a feeble folk,
yet make they their houses in the rocks.
30:27 The locusts have no king,
yet they advance in ranks.
30:28 You can catch a lizard with your hands,
yet it is in kings' palaces.
- 30:29 "There are three things which are stately in their march,
four which are stately in going:
30:30 The lion, which is mightiest among animals, and doesn't turn away for any;
30:31 the greyhound,
the male goat also;
and the king against whom there is no rising up.
- 30:32 "If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, or if you have thought evil,
put your hand over your mouth.
30:33 For as the churning of milk brings forth butter,
and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood;

<sup>k</sup>30:16 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- so the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.”
- 31:1 The words of king Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught him.
- 31:2 “Oh, my son!
Oh, son of my womb!
Oh, son of my vows!
- 31:3 Don’t give your strength to women,
nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
- 31:4 It is not for kings, Lemuel;
it is not for kings to drink wine;
nor for princes to say, ‘Where is strong drink?’
- 31:5 lest they drink, and forget the decree,
and pervert the justice due to anyone who is afflicted.
- 31:6 Give strong drink to him who is ready to perish;
and wine to the bitter in soul:
- 31:7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty,
and remember his misery no more.
- 31:8 Open your mouth for the mute,
in the cause of all who are left desolate.
- 31:9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and serve justice to the poor and needy.”
- 31:10 Who can find a worthy woman?
For her price is far above rubies.
- 31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her.
He shall have no lack of gain.
- 31:12 She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.
- 31:13 She seeks wool and flax,
and works eagerly with her hands.
- 31:14 She is like the merchant ships.
She brings her bread from afar.
- 31:15 She rises also while it is yet night, gives food to her household,
and portions for her servant girls.
- 31:16 She considers a field, and buys it.
With the fruit of her hands, she plants a vineyard.
- 31:17 She arms her waist with strength, and makes her arms strong.
- 31:18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable.
Her lamp doesn’t go out by night.
- 31:19 She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.
- 31:20 She opens her arms to the poor;
yes, she extends her hands to the needy.
- 31:21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household;
for all her household are clothed with scarlet.
- 31:22 She makes for herself carpets of tapestry.
Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
- 31:23 Her husband is respected in the gates,
when he sits among the elders of the land.
- 31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them,
and delivers sashes to the merchant.
- 31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing.
She laughs at the time to come.
- 31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom.
Faithful instruction is on her tongue.
- 31:27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and doesn’t eat the bread of idleness.
- 31:28 Her children rise up and call her blessed.
Her husband also praises her:
- 31:29 “Many women do noble things, but you excel them all.”
- 31:30 Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain;
but a woman who fears the LORD, she shall be praised.
- 31:31 Give her of the fruit of her hands!
Let her works praise her in the gates!

Job

<sup>1:1</sup>There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God<sup>a</sup>, and turned away from evil. <sup>1:2</sup>There were born to him seven sons and three daughters. <sup>1:3</sup>His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred female donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east. <sup>1:4</sup>His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. <sup>1:5</sup>It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Job did so continually.

<sup>1:6</sup>Now it happened on the day when God's sons came to present themselves before the LORD,<sup>b</sup> that Satan also came among them. <sup>1:7</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

<sup>1:8</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

<sup>1:9</sup>Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing? <sup>1:10</sup>Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. <sup>1:11</sup>But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face."

<sup>1:12</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't put forth your hand."

So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD. <sup>1:13</sup>It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house,<sup>1:14</sup> that there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them, <sup>1:15</sup>and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>1:16</sup>While he was still speaking, there also came another, and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>1:17</sup>While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Kasdim made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>1:18</sup>While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house, <sup>1:19</sup>and behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."

<sup>1:20</sup>Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshiped. <sup>1:21</sup>He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. The LORD gave, and the LORD has taken away. Blessed be the name of the LORD." <sup>1:22</sup>In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

<sup>2:1</sup>Again it happened on the day when the God's sons came to present themselves before the LORD, that Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD. <sup>2:2</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you come from?"

Satan answered the LORD, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

<sup>2:3</sup>The LORD said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause."

<sup>2:4</sup>Satan answered the LORD, and said,

<sup>b</sup>1:6 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

"Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has he will give for his life. <sup>2:5</sup>But put forth your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face."

<sup>2:10</sup>But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?"

In all this Job didn't sin with his lips. <sup>2:11</sup>Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him. <sup>2:12</sup>When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn't recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky. <sup>2:13</sup>So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.

<sup>3:3</sup>"Let the day perish in which I was born, the night which said, 'There is a boy conceived.'

<sup>3:4</sup>Let that day be darkness.

Don't let God from above seek for it, neither let the light shine on it.

<sup>3:5</sup>Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own.

Let a cloud dwell on it.

Let all that makes black the day terrify it.

<sup>3:6</sup>As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it.

Let it not rejoice among the days of the year.

Let it not come into the number of the months.

<sup>3:7</sup>Behold, let that night be barren.

Let no joyful voice come therein.

<sup>3:8</sup>Let them curse it who curse the day,
who are ready to rouse up leviathan.

<sup>3:9</sup>Let the stars of its twilight be dark.

Let it look for light, but have none, neither let it see the eyelids of the morning,

<sup>3:10</sup>because it didn't shut up the doors of my mother's womb,
nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.

<sup>3:11</sup>"Why didn't I die from the womb?

Why didn't I give up the spirit when my mother bore me?

<sup>3:12</sup>Why did the knees receive me?

Or why the breast, that I should nurse?

<sup>3:13</sup>For now should I have lain down and been quiet.

I should have slept, then I would have been at rest,

<sup>3:14</sup>with kings and counselors of the earth,
who built up waste places for themselves;

<sup>3:15</sup>or with princes who had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

<sup>3:16</sup>or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been,
as infants who never saw light.

<sup>3:17</sup>There the wicked cease from troubling.

There the weary are at rest.

<sup>3:18</sup>There the prisoners are at ease together.

They don't hear the voice of the taskmas-
ter.

<sup>3:19</sup>The small and the great are there.

The servant is free from his master.

<sup>3:20</sup>"Why is light given to him who is in misery, life to the bitter in soul,

<sup>3:21</sup>Who long for death, but it doesn't come;
and dig for it more than for hidden treasures,

<sup>3:22</sup>who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?

<sup>3:23</sup>Why is light given to a man whose way is hidden,

whom God has hedged in?

<sup>3:24</sup>For my sighing comes before I eat.

My groanings are poured out like water.

<sup>3:25</sup>For the thing which I fear comes on me,

That which I am afraid of comes to me.

<sup>3:26</sup>I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest;

but trouble comes."

<sup>4:1</sup>Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, <sup>4:2</sup>"If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved?"

But who can withhold himself from speaking?
 4:3 Behold, you have instructed many,
 you have strengthened the weak hands.
 4:4 Your words have supported him who was falling,
 You have made firm the feeble knees.
 4:5 But now it has come to you, and you faint.
 It touches you, and you are troubled.
 4:6 Isn't your piety your confidence?
 Isn't the integrity of your ways your hope?
 4:7 "Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent?
 Or where were the upright cut off?
 4:8 According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, and sow trouble,
 reap the same.
 4:9 By the breath of God they perish.
 By the blast of his anger are they consumed.
 4:10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion,
 the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
 4:11 The old lion perishes for lack of prey.
 The cubs of the lioness are scattered abroad.
 4:12 "Now a thing was secretly brought to me.
 My ear received a whisper of it.
 4:13 In thoughts from the visions of the night,
 when deep sleep falls on men,
 4:14 fear came on me, and trembling, which made all my bones shake.
 4:15 Then a spirit passed before my face.
 The hair of my flesh stood up.
 4:16 It stood still, but I couldn't discern its appearance.
 A form was before my eyes.
 Silence, then I heard a voice, saying,
 4:17 "Shall mortal man be more just than God?
 Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?
 4:18 Behold, he puts no trust in his servants.
 He charges his angels with error.
 4:19 How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust,
 who are crushed before the moth!
 4:20 Between morning and evening they are destroyed.
 They perish forever without any regarding it.

4:21 Isn't their tent cord plucked up within them?
 They die, and that without wisdom.'
 5:1 "Call now; is there any who will answer you?
 To which of the holy ones will you turn?
 5:2 For resentment kills the foolish man,
 and jealousy kills the simple.
 5:3 I have seen the foolish taking root,
 but suddenly I cursed his habitation.
 5:4 His children are far from safety.
 They are crushed in the gate.
 Neither is there any to deliver them,
 5:5 whose harvest the hungry eats up,
 and take it even out of the thorns.
 The snare gapes for their substance.
 5:6 For affliction doesn't come forth from the dust,
 neither does trouble spring out of the ground;
 5:7 but man is born to trouble,
 as the sparks fly upward.
 5:8 "But as for me, I would seek God.
 I would commit my cause to God,
 5:9 who does great things that can't be fathomed, marvelous things without number;
 5:10 who gives rain on the earth,
 and sends waters on the fields;
 5:11 so that he sets up on high those who are low,
 those who mourn are exalted to safety.
 5:12 He frustrates the devices of the crafty,
 So that their hands can't perform their enterprise.
 5:13 He takes the wise in their own craftiness;
 the counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
 5:14 They meet with darkness in the day time,
 and grope at noonday as in the night.
 5:15 But he saves from the sword of their mouth,
 even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
 5:16 So the poor has hope,
 and injustice shuts her mouth.
 5:17 "Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects.
 Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.
 5:18 For he wounds, and binds up.
 He injures, and his hands make whole.
 5:19 He will deliver you in six troubles;
 yes, in seven no evil shall touch you.

5:20 In famine he will redeem you from death;
 in war, from the power of the sword.
 5:21 You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue,
 neither shall you be afraid of destruction
 when it comes.
 5:22 At destruction and famine you shall laugh, neither shall you be afraid of the animals
 of the earth.
 5:23 For you shall be allied with the stones of the field.
 The animals of the field shall be at peace with you.
 5:24 You shall know that your tent is in peace.
 You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.
 5:25 You shall know also that your seed shall be great,
 Your offspring as the grass of the earth.
 5:26 You shall come to your grave in a full age,
 like a shock of grain comes in its season.
 5:27 Look this, we have searched it, so it is.
 Hear it, and know it for your good."
 6:1 Then Job answered,
 6:2 "Oh that my anguish were weighed,
 and all my calamity laid in the balances!
 6:3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas,
 therefore have my words been rash.
 6:4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within
 me.
 My spirit drinks up their poison.
 The terrors of God set themselves in array
 against me.
 6:5 Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass?
 Or does the ox low over his fodder?
 6:6 Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt?
 Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
 6:7 My soul refuses to touch them.
 They are as loathsome food to me.
 6:8 "Oh that I might have my request, that God would grant the thing that I long for,
 6:9 even that it would please God to crush me;
 that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
 6:10 Be it still my consolation, yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare,
 that I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
 6:11 What is my strength, that I should wait?
 What is my end, that I should be patient?
 6:12 Is my strength the strength of stones?
 Or is my flesh of brass?
 6:13 Isn't it that I have no help in me,
 That wisdom is driven quite from me?
 6:14 "To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend;
 even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty.
 6:15 My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook,
 as the channel of brooks that pass away;
 6:16 Which are black by reason of the ice,
 in which the snow hides itself.
 6:17 In the dry season, they vanish.
 When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
 6:18 The caravans that travel beside them turn aside.
 They go up into the waste, and perish.
 6:19 The caravans of Tema looked.
 The companies of Sheba waited for them.
 6:20 They were distressed because they were confident.
 They came there, and were confounded.
 6:21 For now you are nothing.
 You see a terror, and are afraid.
 6:22 Did I say, 'Give to me?'
 or, 'Offer a present for me from your substance?'
 6:23 or, 'Deliver me from the adversary's hand?'
 or, 'Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?'
 6:24 "Teach me, and I will hold my peace.
 Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
 6:25 How forcible are words of uprightness!
 But your reproof, what does it reprove?
 6:26 Do you intend to reprove words, since the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?
 6:27 Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless,
 and make merchandise of your friend.
 6:28 Now therefore be pleased to look at me,
 for surely I shall not lie to your face.
 6:29 Please return.
 Let there be no injustice.
 Yes, return again.

- My cause is righteous.
 6:30 Is there injustice on my tongue?
 Can't my taste discern mischievous things?
 7:1 "Isn't a man forced to labor on earth?
 Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand?
 7:2 As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow,
 as a hireling who looks for his wages,
 7:3 so am I made to possess months of misery,
 wearisome nights are appointed to me.
 7:4 When I lie down, I say,
 'When shall I arise, and the night be gone?'
 I toss and turn until the dawning of the day.
 7:5 My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust.
 My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.
 7:6 My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
 7:7 Oh remember that my life is a breath.
 My eye shall no more see good.
 7:8 The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more.
 Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be.
 7:9 As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, so he who goes down to Sheol<sup>c</sup> shall come up no more.
 7:10 He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
 7:11 "Therefore I will not keep silent.
 I will speak in the anguish of my spirit.
 I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
 7:12 Am I a sea, or a sea monster, that you put a guard over me?
 7:13 When I say, 'My bed shall comfort me.
 My couch shall ease my complaint;'
 7:14 then you scare me with dreams, and terrify me through visions:
 7:15 so that my soul chooses strangling, death rather than my bones.
 7:16 I loathe my life.
 I don't want to live forever.
 Leave me alone, for my days are but a breath.
- 7:17 What is man, that you should magnify him,
 that you should set your mind on him,
 7:18 that you should visit him every morning,
 and test him every moment?
 7:19 How long will you not look away from me, nor leave me alone until I swallow down
 my spittle?
 7:20 If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of men?
 Why have you set me as a mark for you,
 so that I am a burden to myself?
 7:21 Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity?
 For now shall I lie down in the dust.
 You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."
 8:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
 8:2 "How long will you speak these things?
 Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
 8:3 Does God pervert justice?
 Or does the Almighty pervert righteous-
 ness?
 8:4 If your children have sinned against him,
 He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience.
 8:5 If you want to seek God diligently, make your supplication to the Almighty.
 8:6 If you were pure and upright, surely now he would awaken for you,
 and make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.
 8:7 Though your beginning was small,
 yet your latter end would greatly increase.
 8:8 "Please inquire of past generations.
 Find out about the learning of their fathers.
 8:9 (For we are but of yesterday, and know
 nothing,
 because our days on earth are a shadow.)
 8:10 Shall they not teach you, tell you,
 and utter words out of their heart?
 8:11 "Can the papyrus grow up without mire?
 Can the rushes grow without water?
 8:12 While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down,
 it withers before any other reed.
 8:13 So are the paths of all who forget God.
 The hope of the godless man shall perish,
 8:14 Whose confidence shall break apart,
 Whose trust is a spider's web.

<sup>c</sup>7:9 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- 8:15 He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand.
He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure.
- 8:16 He is green before the sun.
His shoots go forth over his garden.
- 8:17 His roots are wrapped around the rock pile.
He sees the place of stones.
- 8:18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'
- 8:19 Behold, this is the joy of his way:
out of the earth, others shall spring.
- 8:20 "Behold, God will not cast away a blameless man, neither will he uphold the evildoers.
- 8:21 He will still fill your mouth with laughter,
your lips with shouting.
- 8:22 Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame.
The tent of the wicked shall be no more."
- 9:1 Then Job answered,
- 9:2 "Truly I know that it is so,
but how can man be just with God?
- 9:3 If he is pleased to contend with him,
he can't answer him one time in a thousand.
- 9:4 God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength:
who has hardened himself against him,
and prospered?
- 9:5 He removes the mountains, and they don't know it,
when he overturns them in his anger.
- 9:6 He shakes the earth out of its place.
Its pillars tremble.
- 9:7 He commands the sun, and it doesn't rise,
and seals up the stars.
- 9:8 He alone stretches out the heavens,
and treads on the waves of the sea.
- 9:9 He makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, and the rooms of the south.
- 9:10 He does great things past finding out;
yes, marvelous things without number.
- 9:11 Behold, he goes by me, and I don't see him.
He passes on also, but I don't perceive him.
- 9:12 Behold, he snatches away.
Who can hinder him?
Who will ask him, 'What are you doing?'
- 9:13 "God will not withdraw his anger.
The helpers of Rahab stoop under him.
- 9:14 How much less shall I answer him,
And choose my words to argue with him?
- 9:15 Though I were righteous, yet I wouldn't answer him.
I would make supplication to my judge.
- 9:16 If I had called, and he had answered me,
yet I wouldn't believe that he listened to my voice.
- 9:17 For he breaks me with a storm,
and multiplies my wounds without cause.
- 9:18 He will not allow me to catch my breath,
but fills me with bitterness.
- 9:19 If it is a matter of strength, behold, he is mighty!
If of justice, 'Who,' says he, 'will summon me?'
- 9:20 Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me.
Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse.
- 9:21 I am blameless.
I don't respect myself.
I despise my life.
- 9:22 "It is all the same.
Therefore I say he destroys the blameless and the wicked.
- 9:23 If the scourge kills suddenly,
he will mock at the trial of the innocent.
- 9:24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked.
He covers the faces of its judges.
If not he, then who is it?
- 9:25 "Now my days are swifter than a runner.
They flee away, they see no good,
- 9:26 They have passed away as the swift ships,
as the eagle that swoops on the prey.
- 9:27 If I say, 'I will forget my complaint,
I will put off my sad face, and cheer up;'
- 9:28 I am afraid of all my sorrows,
I know that you will not hold me innocent.
- 9:29 I shall be condemned.
Why then do I labor in vain?
- 9:30 If I wash myself with snow,
and cleanse my hands with lye,
- 9:31 yet you will plunge me in the ditch.
My own clothes shall abhor me.
- 9:32 For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him,
that we should come together in judgment.
- 9:33 There is no umpire between us, that might lay his hand on us both.

 9:34 Let him take his rod away from me.
 Let his terror not make me afraid;
 9:35 then I would speak, and not fear him,
 for I am not so in myself.
 10:1 "My soul is weary of my life.
 I will give free course to my complaint.
 I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
 10:2 I will tell God, 'Do not condemn me.
 Show me why you contend with me.
 10:3 Is it good to you that you should oppress, that you should despise the work of your
 hands,
 and smile on the counsel of the wicked?
 10:4 Do you have eyes of flesh?
 Or do you see as man sees?
 10:5 Are your days as the days of mortals, or your years as man's years, 10:6 that you inquire after my iniquity,
 and search after my sin?
 10:7 Although you know that I am not wicked, there is no one who can deliver out of your hand.
 10:8 "Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether,
 yet you destroy me.
 10:9 Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay.
 Will you bring me into dust again?
 10:10 Haven't you poured me out like milk,
 and curdled me like cheese?
 10:11 You have clothed me with skin and flesh, and knit me together with bones and sinews.
 10:12 You have granted me life and loving kind-
 ness.
 Your visitation has preserved my spirit.
 10:13 Yet you hid these things in your heart.
 I know that this is with you:
 10:14 if I sin, then you mark me.
 You will not acquit me from my iniquity.
 10:15 If I am wicked, woe to me.
 If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head,
 being filled with disgrace,
 and conscious of my affliction.
 10:16 If my head is held high, you hunt me like a lion.
 Again you show yourself powerful to me.
 10:17 You renew your witnesses against me,
 and increase your indignation on me.

<sup>d</sup>11:8 Sheol is the place of the dead.

Changes and warfare are with me.
 10:18 "Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the womb?
 I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.
 10:19 I should have been as though I had not been.
 I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
 10:20 Aren't my days few?
 Cease then.
 Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort,
 10:21 before I go where I shall not return from,
 to the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;
 10:22 the land dark as midnight,
 of the shadow of death,
 without any order,
 where the light is as midnight."
 11:1 Then Zophar, the Naamathite, answered, 11:2 "Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered?
 Should a man full of talk be justified?
 11:3 Should your boastings make men hold their
 peace?
 When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed?
 11:4 For you say, 'My doctrine is pure.
 I am clean in your eyes.'
 11:5 But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against you, 11:6 that he would show you the secrets of wisdom!
 For true wisdom has two sides.
 Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.
 11:7 "Can you fathom the mystery of God?
 Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty?
 11:8 They are high as heaven. What can you do?
 They are deeper than Sheol<sup>d</sup>. What can you know?
 11:9 Its measure is longer than the earth,
 and broader than the sea.
 11:10 If he passes by, or confines, or convenes a court, then who can oppose
 him?
 11:11 For he knows false men.
 He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn't consider it.

- 11:12 An empty-headed man becomes wise when a man is born as a wild donkey's colt.
- 11:13 "If you set your heart aright, stretch out your hands toward him.
- 11:14 If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away.
Don't let unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
- 11:15 Surely then you shall lift up your face without spot;
Yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear:
- 11:16 for you shall forget your misery.
You shall remember it as waters that are passed away.
- 11:17 Life shall be clearer than the noonday.
Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning.
- 11:18 You shall be secure, because there is hope.
Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety.
- 11:19 Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid.
Yes, many shall court your favor.
- 11:20 But the eyes of the wicked shall fail.
They shall have no way to flee.
Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit."
- 12:1 Then Job answered,
12:2 "No doubt, but you are the people,
and wisdom shall die with you.
- 12:3 But I have understanding as well as you;
I am not inferior to you.
Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?
- 12:4 I am like one who is a joke to his neighbor,
I, who called on God, and he answered.
The just, the blameless man is a joke.
- 12:5 In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune.
It is ready for them whose foot slips.
- 12:6 The tents of robbers prosper.
Those who provoke God are secure,
who carry their God in their hands.
- 12:7 "But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you;
the birds of the sky, and they shall tell
you.
- 12:8 Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you.
The fish of the sea shall declare to you.
- 12:9 Who doesn't know that in all these,
the hand of the LORD has done this,
- 12:10 in whose hand is the life of every living
thing,
and the breath of all mankind?
- 12:11 Doesn't the ear try words,
even as the palate tastes its food?
- 12:12 With aged men is wisdom,
in length of days understanding.
- 12:13 "With God is wisdom and might.
He has counsel and understanding.
- 12:14 Behold, he breaks down, and it can't be built again.
He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.
- 12:15 Behold, he withholds the waters, and they dry up.
Again, he sends them out, and they overturn the earth.
- 12:16 With him is strength and wisdom.
The deceived and the deceiver are his.
- 12:17 He leads counselors away stripped.
He makes judges fools.
- 12:18 He loosens the bond of kings.
He binds their waist with a belt.
- 12:19 He leads priests away stripped,
and overthrows the mighty.
- 12:20 He removes the speech of those who are trusted,
and takes away the understanding of the elders.
- 12:21 He pours contempt on princes, and loosens the belt of the strong.
- 12:22 He uncovers deep things out of darkness, and brings out to light the shadow of
death.
- 12:23 He increases the nations, and he destroys
them.
He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive.
- 12:24 He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, and causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
- 12:25 They grope in the dark without light.
He makes them stagger like a drunken man.
- 13:1 "Behold, my eye has seen all this.
My ear has heard and understood it.
- 13:2 What you know, I know also.
I am not inferior to you.
- 13:3 "Surely I would speak to the Almighty.
I desire to reason with God.
- 13:4 But you are forgers of lies.

You are all physicians of no value.
<sup>13:5</sup>Oh that you would be completely silent!
 Then you would be wise.
<sup>13:6</sup>Hear now my reasoning.
 Listen to the pleadings of my lips.
<sup>13:7</sup>Will you speak unrighteously for God,
 and talk deceitfully for him?
<sup>13:8</sup>Will you show partiality to him?
 Will you contend for God?
<sup>13:9</sup>Is it good that he should search you out?
 Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive him?
<sup>13:10</sup>He will surely reprove you if you secretly show partiality.
<sup>13:11</sup>Shall not his majesty make you afraid,
 And his dread fall on you?
<sup>13:12</sup>Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes,
 Your defenses are defenses of clay.
<sup>13:13</sup>“Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak.
 Let come on me what will.
<sup>13:14</sup>Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand?
<sup>13:15</sup>Behold, he will kill me.
 I have no hope.
 Nevertheless, I will maintain my ways
 before him.
<sup>13:16</sup>This also shall be my salvation, that a godless man shall not come before
 him.
<sup>13:17</sup>Hear diligently my speech.
 Let my declaration be in your ears.
<sup>13:18</sup>See now, I have set my cause in order.
 I know that I am righteous.
<sup>13:19</sup>Who is he who will contend with me?
 For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.
<sup>13:20</sup>“Only don’t do two things to me;
 then I will not hide myself from your face:
<sup>13:21</sup>withdraw your hand far from me;
 and don’t let your terror make me afraid.
<sup>13:22</sup>Then call, and I will answer;
 or let me speak, and you answer me.
<sup>13:23</sup>How many are my iniquities and sins?
 Make me know my disobedience and my sin.
<sup>13:24</sup>Why hide you your face, and hold me for your enemy?
<sup>13:25</sup>Will you harass a driven leaf?
 Will you pursue the dry stubble?

<sup>e</sup>14:13 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>13:26</sup>For you write bitter things against me, and make me inherit the iniquities of my youth:
<sup>13:27</sup>You also put my feet in the stocks,
 and mark all my paths.
 You set a bound to the soles of my feet,
<sup>13:28</sup>though I am decaying like a rotten thing, like a garment that is moth-eaten.
<sup>14:1</sup>“Man, who is born of a woman, is of few days, and full of trouble.
<sup>14:2</sup>He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down.
 He also flees like a shadow, and doesn’t continue.
<sup>14:3</sup>Do you open your eyes on such a one,
 and bring me into judgment with you?
<sup>14:4</sup>Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean?
 Not one.
<sup>14:5</sup>Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with you,
 and you have appointed his bounds that he can’t pass;
<sup>14:6</sup>Look away from him, that he may rest, until he shall accomplish, as a hireling,
 his day.
<sup>14:7</sup>“For there is hope for a tree,
 If it is cut down, that it will sprout again,
 that the tender branch of it will not cease.
<sup>14:8</sup>Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stock dies in the ground, <sup>14:9</sup>yet through the scent of water it will bud, and put forth boughs like a plant.
<sup>14:10</sup>But man dies, and is laid low.
 Yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he?
<sup>14:11</sup>As the waters fail from the sea, and the river wastes and dries up,
<sup>14:12</sup>so man lies down and doesn’t rise.
 Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake,
 nor be roused out of their sleep.
<sup>14:13</sup>“Oh that you would hide me in Sheol<sup>e</sup>, that you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past,
 that you would appoint me a set time,
 and remember me!
<sup>14:14</sup>If a man dies, shall he live again?
 All the days of my warfare would I wait, until my release should come.
<sup>14:15</sup>You would call, and I would answer you.

You would have a desire to the work of your hands.
 14:16 But now you number my steps.
 Don't you watch over my sin?
 14:17 My disobedience is sealed up in a bag.
 You fasten up my iniquity.
 14:18 "But the mountain falling comes to nothing.
 The rock is removed out of its place;
 14:19 The waters wear the stones.
 The torrents of it wash away the dust of
 the earth.
 So you destroy the hope of man.
 14:20 You forever prevail against him, and he departs.
 You change his face, and send him away.
 14:21 His sons come to honor, and he doesn't know it.
 They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of them.
 14:22 But his flesh on him has pain, and his soul within him mourns."
 15:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered, 15:2 "Should a wise man answer with vain
 knowledge,
 and fill himself with the east wind?
 15:3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches with which he can do no good?
 15:4 Yes, you do away with fear, and hinder devotion before God.
 15:5 For your iniquity teaches your mouth,
 and you choose the language of the crafty.
 15:6 Your own mouth condemns you, and not I.
 Yes, your own lips testify against you.
 15:7 "Are you the first man who was born?
 Or were you brought forth before the hills?
 15:8 Have you heard the secret counsel of God?
 Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
 15:9 What do you know, that we don't know?
 What do you understand, which is not in us?
 15:10 With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men,
 much elder than your father.
 15:11 Are the consolations of God too small for
 you,
 even the word that is gentle toward you?
 15:12 Why does your heart carry you away?
 Why do your eyes flash,
 15:13 That you turn your spirit against God,
 and let such words go out of your mouth?
 15:14 What is man, that he should be clean?
 What is he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
 15:15 Behold, he puts no trust in his holy ones.
 Yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight;
 15:16 how much less one who is abominable and corrupt,
 a man who drinks iniquity like water!
 15:17 "I will show you, listen to me;
 that which I have seen I will declare: 15:18 (Which wise men have told by their fathers,
 and have not hidden it;
 15:19 to whom alone the land was given,
 and no stranger passed among them):
 15:20 the wicked man writhes in pain all his days,
 even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.
 15:21 A sound of terrors is in his ears.
 In prosperity the destroyer shall come on
 him.
 15:22 He doesn't believe that he shall return out
 of darkness.
 He is waited for by the sword.
 15:23 He wanders abroad for bread, saying,
 'Where is it?'
 He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
 15:24 Distress and anguish make him afraid.
 They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
 15:25 Because he has stretched out his hand against God,
 and behaves himself proudly against the Almighty;
 15:26 he runs at him with a stiff neck,
 with the thick shields of his bucklers;
 15:27 because he has covered his face with his fatness,
 and gathered fat on his thighs.
 15:28 He has lived in desolate cities, in houses which no one inhabited,
 which were ready to become heaps.
 15:29 He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth.
 15:30 He shall not depart out of darkness.
 The flame shall dry up his branches.

By the breath of God's mouth shall he go away.
<sup>15:31</sup>Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself;
 for emptiness shall be his reward.
<sup>15:32</sup>It shall be accomplished before his time.
 His branch shall not be green.
<sup>15:33</sup>He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive tree.
<sup>15:34</sup>For the company of the godless shall be barren, and fire shall consume the tents of bribery.
<sup>15:35</sup>They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
 Their heart prepares deceit."
<sup>16:2</sup>"I have heard many such things.
 You are all miserable comforters!
<sup>16:3</sup>Shall vain words have an end?
 Or what provokes you that you answer?
<sup>16:4</sup>I also could speak as you do.
 If your soul were in my soul's place,
 I could join words together against you,
 and shake my head at you,
<sup>16:5</sup>but I would strengthen you with my mouth.
 The solace of my lips would relieve you.
<sup>16:6</sup>"Though I speak, my grief is not subsided.
 Though I forbear, what am I eased?
<sup>16:7</sup>But now, God, you have surely worn me out.
 You have made desolate all my company.
<sup>16:8</sup>You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me.
 My leanness rises up against me.
 It testifies to my face.
<sup>16:9</sup>He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me.
 He has gnashed on me with his teeth.
 My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.
<sup>16:10</sup>They have gaped on me with their mouth.
 They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully.
 They gather themselves together against me.
<sup>16:11</sup>God delivers me to the ungodly, and casts me into the hands of the wicked.
<sup>16:12</sup>I was at ease, and he broke me apart.

Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces.
 He has also set me up for his target.
<sup>16:13</sup>His archers surround me.
 He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare.
 He pours out my gall on the ground.
<sup>16:14</sup>He breaks me with breach on breach.
 He runs on me like a giant.
<sup>16:15</sup>I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, and have thrust my horn in the dust.
<sup>16:16</sup>My face is red with weeping.
 Deep darkness is on my eyelids.
<sup>16:17</sup>Although there is no violence in my hands, and my prayer is pure.
<sup>16:18</sup>"Earth, don't cover my blood.
 Let my cry have no place to rest.
<sup>16:19</sup>Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven.
 He who vouches for me is on high.
<sup>16:20</sup>My friends scoff at me.
 My eyes pour out tears to God,
<sup>16:21</sup>that he would maintain the right of a man with God,
 of a son of man with his neighbor!
<sup>16:22</sup>For when a few years have come,
 I shall go the way of no return.
<sup>17:1</sup>"My spirit is consumed.
 My days are extinct,
 And the grave is ready for me.
<sup>17:2</sup>Surely there are mockers with me.
 My eye dwells on their provocation.
<sup>17:3</sup>"Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself.
 Who is there who will strike hands with me?
<sup>17:4</sup>For you have hidden their heart from understanding,
 Therefore you shall not exalt them.
<sup>17:5</sup>He who denounces his friends for a prey,
 Even the eyes of his children shall fail.
<sup>17:6</sup>"But he has made me a byword of the people.
 They spit in my face.
<sup>17:7</sup>My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow.
 All my members are as a shadow.
<sup>17:8</sup>Upright men shall be astonished at this.
 The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.
<sup>17:9</sup>Yet shall the righteous hold on his way.
 He who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger.
<sup>17:10</sup>But as for you all, come on now again;

- I shall not find a wise man among you.
- 17:11 My days are past, my plans are broken off,
as are the thoughts of my heart.
- 17:12 They change the night into day, saying "The light is near" in the presence
of darkness.
- 17:13 If I look for Sheol<sup>f</sup> as my house,
if I have spread my couch in the darkness,
- 17:14 If I have said to corruption, "You are my father;"
to the worm, "My mother," and "my sister;"
17:15 where then is my hope?
as for my hope, who shall see it?
- 17:16 Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol<sup>g</sup>,
or descend together into the dust?"
- 18:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
- 18:2 "How long will you hunt for words?
Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
- 18:3 Why are we counted as animals, which have become unclean in your sight?
- 18:4 You who tear yourself in your anger, shall the earth be forsaken for you?
Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?
- 18:5 "Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out,
The spark of his fire shall not shine.
- 18:6 The light shall be dark in his tent.
His lamp above him shall be put out.
- 18:7 The steps of his strength shall be shortened.
His own counsel shall cast him down.
- 18:8 For he is cast into a net by his own feet,
and he wanders into its mesh.
- 18:9 A snare will take him by the heel.
A trap will catch him.
- 18:10 A noose is hidden for him in the ground,
a trap for him in the way.
- 18:11 Terrors shall make him afraid on every side,
and shall chase him at his heels.
- 18:12 His strength shall be famished.
Calamity shall be ready at his side.
- 18:13 The members of his body shall be devoured.
The firstborn of death shall devour his members.
- 18:14 He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts.
He shall be brought to the king of terrors.
- 18:15 There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his.
Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation.
- 18:16 His roots shall be dried up beneath.
Above shall his branch be cut off.
- 18:17 His memory shall perish from the earth.
He shall have no name in the street.
- 18:18 He shall be driven from light into darkness,
and chased out of the world.
- 18:19 He shall have neither son nor grandson
among his people,
nor any remaining where he lived.
- 18:20 Those who come after shall be astonished at his day,
as those who went before were frightened.
- 18:21 Surely such are the dwellings of the un-
righteous.
This is the place of him who doesn't know
God."
- 19:1 Then Job answered,
- 19:2 "How long will you torment me,
and crush me with words?
- 19:3 You have reproached me ten times.
You aren't ashamed that you attack me.
- 19:4 If it is true that I have erred,
my error remains with myself.
- 19:5 If indeed you will magnify yourselves
against me,
and plead against me my reproach;
19:6 know now that God has subverted me,
and has surrounded me with his net.
- 19:7 "Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard.
I cry for help, but there is no justice.
- 19:8 He has walled up my way so that I can't pass,
and has set darkness in my paths.
- 19:9 He has stripped me of my glory,
and taken the crown from my head.
- 19:10 He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone.
My hope he has plucked up like a tree.
- 19:11 He has also kindled his wrath against me.
He counts me among his adversaries.
- 19:12 His troops come on together, build a siege ramp against me,
and encamp around my tent.
- 19:13 "He has put my brothers far from me.

<sup>f</sup>17:13 Sheol is the place of the dead.<sup>g</sup>17:16 Sheol is the place of the dead.

My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
 19:14 My relatives have gone away.
 My familiar friends have forgotten me.
 19:15 Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger.
 I am an alien in their sight.
 19:16 I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer.
 I beg him with my mouth.
 19:17 My breath is offensive to my wife.
 I am loathsome to the children of my own mother.
 19:18 Even young children despise me.
 If I arise, they speak against me.
 19:19 All my familiar friends abhor me.
 They whom I loved have turned against
 me.
 19:20 My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh.
 I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
 19:21 "Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends;
 for the hand of God has touched me.
 19:22 Why do you persecute me as God,
 and are not satisfied with my flesh?
 19:23 "Oh that my words were now written!
 Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
 19:24 That with an iron pen and lead
 they were engraved in the rock forever!
 19:25 But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives.
 In the end, he will stand upon the earth.
 19:26 After my skin is destroyed,
 then in my flesh shall I see God,
 19:27 Whom I, even I, shall see on my side.
 My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger.
 "My heart is consumed within me.
 19:28 If you say, 'How we will persecute him!'
 because the root of the matter is found in
 me,
 19:29 be afraid of the sword, for wrath brings the punishments of the
 sword,
 that you may know there is a judgment."
 20:1 Then Zophar the Naamathite answered, 20:2 "Therefore do my thoughts give answer to
 me,
 even by reason of my haste that is in me.
 20:3 I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame.
 The spirit of my understanding answers
 me.

20:4 Don't you know this from old time, since man was placed on earth, 20:5 that the triumphing of the wicked is short,
 the joy of the godless but for a moment?
 20:6 Though his height mount up to the heavens,
 and his head reach to the clouds, 20:7 yet he shall perish forever like his own dung.
 Those who have seen him shall say,
 'Where is he?'
 20:8 He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found.
 Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night.
 20:9 The eye which saw him shall see him no
 more,
 neither shall his place any more see him.
 20:10 His children shall seek the favor of the poor.
 His hands shall give back his wealth.
 20:11 His bones are full of his youth, but youth shall lie down with him in the dust.
 20:12 "Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth,
 though he hide it under his tongue, 20:13 though he spare it, and will not let it go,
 but keep it still within his mouth;
 20:14 yet his food in his bowels is turned.
 It is cobra venom within him.
 20:15 He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again.
 God will cast them out of his belly.
 20:16 He shall suck cobra venom.
 The viper's tongue shall kill him.
 20:17 He shall not look at the rivers,
 the flowing streams of honey and butter.
 20:18 That for which he labored he shall restore,
 and shall not swallow it down.
 According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice.
 20:19 For he has oppressed and forsaken the
 poor.
 He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up.
 20:20 "Because he knew no quietness within
 him,
 he shall not save anything of that in which he delights.
 20:21 There was nothing left that he didn't devour,
 therefore his prosperity shall not endure.

- 20:22 In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake him.
The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come on him.
- 20:23 When he is about to fill his belly, God will cast the fierceness of his wrath on him.
It will rain on him while he is eating.
- 20:24 He shall flee from the iron weapon.
The bronze arrow shall strike him through.
- 20:25 He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body.
Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver.
Terrors are on him.
- 20:26 All darkness is laid up for his treasures.
An unfanned fire shall devour him.
It shall consume that which is left in his tent.
- 20:27 The heavens shall reveal his iniquity.
The earth shall rise up against him.
- 20:28 The increase of his house shall depart.
They shall rush away in the day of his wrath.
- 20:29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God,
the heritage appointed to him by God.”
- 21:1 Then Job answered,
21:2 “Listen diligently to my speech.
Let this be your consolation.
- 21:3 Allow me, and I also will speak;
After I have spoken, mock on.
- 21:4 As for me, is my complaint to man?
Why shouldn't I be impatient?
- 21:5 Look at me, and be astonished.
Lay your hand on your mouth.
- 21:6 When I remember, I am troubled.
Horror takes hold of my flesh.
- 21:7 “Why do the wicked live, become old, yes, and grow mighty in power?
- 21:8 Their child is established with them in their sight,
their offspring before their eyes.
- 21:9 Their houses are safe from fear,
neither is the rod of God upon them.
- 21:10 Their bulls breed without fail.
Their cows calve, and don't miscarry.
- 21:11 They send forth their little ones like a flock.
Their children dance.
- 21:12 They sing to the tambourine and harp,
and rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
- 21:13 They spend their days in prosperity.
In an instant they go down to Sheol<sup>h</sup>.
- 21:14 They tell God, ‘Depart from us,
for we don't want to know about your ways.
- 21:15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him?
What profit should we have, if we pray to him?’
- 21:16 Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand.
The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
- 21:17 “How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out,
that their calamity comes on them,
that God distributes sorrows in his anger?
- 21:18 How often is it that they are as stubble before the wind,
as chaff that the storm carries away?
- 21:19 You say, ‘God lays up his iniquity for his children.’
Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it.
- 21:20 Let his own eyes see his destruction.
Let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
- 21:21 For what does he care for his house after him,
when the number of his months is cut off?
- 21:22 “Shall any teach God knowledge, since he judges those who are high?
- 21:23 One dies in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.
- 21:24 His pails are full of milk.
The marrow of his bones is moistened.
- 21:25 Another dies in bitterness of soul,
and never tastes of good.
- 21:26 They lie down alike in the dust.
The worm covers them.
- 21:27 “Behold, I know your thoughts,
the devices with which you would wrong me.
- 21:28 For you say, ‘Where is the house of the prince?
Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?’
- 21:29 Haven't you asked wayfaring men?
Don't you know their evidences,
21:30 that the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity,

<sup>h</sup>21:13 Sheol is the place of the dead.

- That they are led forth to the day of wrath?
- 21:31 Who shall declare his way to his face?
Who shall repay him what he has done?
- 21:32 Yet he will be borne to the grave.
Men shall keep watch over the tomb.
- 21:33 The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him.
All men shall draw after him,
as there were innumerable before him.
- 21:34 So how can you comfort me with nonsense, because in your answers there remains only falsehood?"
- 22:1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
22:2 "Can a man be profitable to God?
Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.
- 22:3 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous?
Or does it benefit him, that you make your ways perfect?
- 22:4 Is it for your piety that he reproves you,
that he enters with you into judgment?
- 22:5 Isn't your wickedness great?
Neither is there any end to your iniquities.
- 22:6 For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing,
and stripped the naked of their clothing.
- 22:7 You haven't given water to the weary to drink,
and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
- 22:8 But as for the mighty man, he had the earth.
The honorable man, he lived in it.
- 22:9 You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
- 22:10 Therefore snares are around you.
Sudden fear troubles you,
22:11 or darkness, so that you can not see,
and floods of waters cover you.
- 22:12 "Isn't God in the heights of heaven?
See the height of the stars, how high they are!
- 22:13 You say, 'What does God know?
Can he judge through the thick darkness?
- 22:14 Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he doesn't see.
He walks on the vault of the sky.'
- 22:15 Will you keep the old way, which wicked men have trodden, 22:16 who were snatched away before their time, whose foundation was poured out as a stream,
22:17 who said to God, 'Depart from us;'
and, 'What can the Almighty do for us?'
- 22:18 Yet he filled their houses with good things, but the counsel of the wicked is far from
me.
- 22:19 The righteous see it, and are glad.
The innocent ridicule them,
22:20 saying, 'Surely those who rose up against us are cut off.
The fire has consumed their remnant.'
- 22:21 "Acquaint yourself with him, now, and be at peace.
Thereby good shall come to you.
- 22:22 Please receive instruction from his mouth,
and lay up his words in your heart.
- 22:23 If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up,
if you put away unrighteousness far from your tents.
- 22:24 Lay your treasure in the dust, the gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
- 22:25 The Almighty will be your treasure, and precious silver to you.
- 22:26 For then you will delight yourself in the Almighty,
and shall lift up your face to God.
- 22:27 You shall make your prayer to him, and he will hear you.
You shall pay your vows.
- 22:28 You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you.
Light shall shine on your ways.
- 22:29 When they cast down, you shall say, 'be lifted up.'
He will save the humble person.
22:30 He will even deliver him who is not innocent.
Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."
- 23:1 Then Job answered,
23:2 "Even today my complaint is rebellious.
His hand is heavy in spite of my groan-
ing.
- 23:3 Oh that I knew where I might find him!
That I might come even to his seat!
23:4 I would set my cause in order before him,
and fill my mouth with arguments.

- 23:5 I would know the words which he would answer me,
and understand what he would tell me.
- 23:6 Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power?
No, but he would listen to me.
- 23:7 There the upright might reason with him,
so I should be delivered forever from my judge.
- 23:8 "If I go east, he is not there;
if west, I can't find him;
- 23:9 He works to the north, but I can't see him.
He turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of him.
- 23:10 But he knows the way that I take.
When he has tried me, I shall come forth like gold.
- 23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps.
I have kept his way, and not turned aside.
- 23:12 I haven't gone back from the commandment of his lips.
I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
- 23:13 But he stands alone, and who can oppose him?
What his soul desires, even that he does.
- 23:14 For he performs that which is appointed for me.
Many such things are with him.
- 23:15 Therefore I am terrified at his presence.
When I consider, I am afraid of him.
- 23:16 For God has made my heart faint.
The Almighty has terrified me.
- 23:17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.
- 24:1 "Why aren't times laid up by the Almighty?
Why don't those who know him see his days?
- 24:2 There are people who remove the landmarks.
They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
- 24:3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless,
and they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
- 24:4 They turn the needy out of the way.
The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
- 24:5 Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert,
they go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food.
The wilderness yields them bread for their children.
- 24:6 They cut their provender in the field.
They glean the vineyard of the wicked.
- 24:7 They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.
- 24:8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.
- 24:9 There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor,
24:10 So that they go around naked without clothing.
Being hungry, they carry the sheaves.
- 24:11 They make oil within the walls of these men.
They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.
- 24:12 From out of the populous city, men groan.
The soul of the wounded cries out,
yet God doesn't regard the folly.
- 24:13 "These are of those who rebel against the light.
They don't know its ways,
nor stay in its paths.
- 24:14 The murderer rises with the light.
He kills the poor and needy.
In the night he is like a thief.
- 24:15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, saying, 'No eye shall see me.'
He disguises his face.
- 24:16 In the dark they dig through houses.
They shut themselves up in the daytime.
They don't know the light.
- 24:17 For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, for they know the terrors of the thick darkness.
- 24:18 "They are foam on the surface of the waters.
Their portion is cursed in the earth.
They don't turn into the way of the vineyards.
- 24:19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters,
so does Sheol<sup>i</sup> those who have sinned.
- 24:20 The womb shall forget him.

<sup>i</sup>24:19 Sheol is the place of the dead.

The worm shall feed sweetly on him.
 He shall be no more remembered.
 Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.
 24:21 He devours the barren who don't bear.
 He shows no kindness to the widow.
 24:22 Yet God preserves the mighty by his power.
 He rises up who has no assurance of life.
 24:23 God gives them security, and they rest in it.
 His eyes are on their ways.
 24:24 They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone.
 Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
 24:25 If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech worth nothing?"
 25:1 Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
 25:2 "Dominion and fear are with him.
 He makes peace in his high places.
 25:3 Can his armies be counted?
 On whom does his light not arise?
 25:4 How then can man be just with God?
 Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?
 25:5 Behold, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in his sight;
 25:6 How much less man, who is a worm,
 the son of man, who is a worm!"
 26:1 Then Job answered,
 26:2 "How have you helped him who is without power!
 How have you saved the arm that has no
 strength!
 26:3 How have you counseled him who has no
 wisdom,
 and plentifully declared sound knowledge!
 26:4 To whom have you uttered words?
 Whose spirit came forth from you?
 26:5 "Those who are deceased tremble, those beneath the waters and all that live
 in them.
 26:6 Sheol<sup>j</sup> is naked before God,
 and Abaddon<sup>k</sup> has no covering.
 26:7 He stretches out the north over empty space,
 and hangs the earth on nothing.
 26:8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds,

<sup>j</sup>26:6 Sheol is the lower world or the grave.

and the cloud is not burst under them.
 26:9 He encloses the face of his throne,
 and spreads his cloud on it.
 26:10 He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters,
 and to the confines of light and darkness.
 26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his rebuke.
 26:12 He stirs up the sea with his power, and by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
 26:13 By his Spirit the heavens are garnished.
 His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
 26:14 Behold, these are but the outskirts of his ways.
 How small a whisper do we hear of him!
 But the thunder of his power who can understand?"
 27:1 Job again took up his parable, and said, 27:2 "As God lives, who has taken away my right,
 the Almighty, who has made my soul bitter.
 27:3 (For the length of my life is still in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
 27:4 surely my lips shall not speak unrighteous-
 ness,
 neither shall my tongue utter deceit.
 27:5 Far be it from me that I should justify you.
 Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
 27:6 I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go.
 My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
 27:7 "Let my enemy be as the wicked.
 Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
 27:8 For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, when God takes away his life?
 27:9 Will God hear his cry when trouble comes on him?
 27:10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty, and call on God at all times?
 27:11 I will teach you about the hand of God.
 That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
 27:12 Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves;

- why then have you become altogether vain?
 27:13 "This is the portion of a wicked man with God,
 the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.
 27:14 If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword.
 His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
 27:15 Those who remain of him shall be buried in death.
 His widows shall make no lamentation.
 27:16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare clothing as the clay; 27:17 he may prepare it, but the just shall put it on,
 and the innocent shall divide the silver.
 27:18 He builds his house as the moth, as a booth which the watchman makes.
 27:19 He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again.
 He opens his eyes, and he is not.
 27:20 Terrors overtake him like waters. A storm steals him away in the night.
 27:21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs.
 It sweeps him out of his place.
 27:22 For it hurls at him, and does not spare, as he flees away from his hand.
 27:23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.
 28:1 "Surely there is a mine for silver, and a place for gold which they refine.
 28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is smelted out of the ore.
 28:3 Man sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound, the stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.
 28:4 He breaks open a shaft away from where people live.
 They are forgotten by the foot.
 They hang far from men, they swing back and forth.
 28:5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread; Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
 28:6 Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold.
 28:7 That path no bird of prey knows, neither has the falcon's eye seen it.
 28:8 The proud animals have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed by there.
 28:9 He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock, and he overturns the mountains by the roots.
 28:10 He cuts out channels among the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing.
 28:11 He binds the streams that they don't trickle.
 The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.
 28:12 "But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?
 28:13 Man doesn't know its price; Neither is it found in the land of the living.
 28:14 The deep says, 'It isn't in me.' The sea says, 'It isn't with me.'
 28:15 It can't be gotten for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for its price.
 28:16 It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire<sup>1</sup>.
 28:17 Gold and glass can't equal it, neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
 28:18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal.
 Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.
 28:19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
 28:20 Where then does wisdom come from? Where is the place of understanding?
 28:21 Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the sky.
 28:22 Destruction and Death say, 'We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.'
 28:23 "God understands its way, and he knows its place.
 28:24 For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole sky.
 28:25 He establishes the force of the wind. Yes, he measures out the waters by measure.
 28:26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;
 28:27 then he saw it, and declared it.

<sup>1</sup>28:16 or, lapis lazuli

He established it, yes, and searched it out.
 28:28 To man he said,
     'Behold, the fear of the Lord<sup>m</sup>, that is wisdom.
     To depart from evil is understanding.'"
 29:1 Job again took up his parable, and said,
 29:2 "Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over
     me;
 29:3 when his lamp shone on my head, and by his light I walked through dark-
     ness,
 29:4 as I was in the ripeness of my days, when the friendship of God was in my tent,
 29:5 when the Almighty was yet with me,
     and my children were around me, 29:6 when my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured out streams of oil for
     me,
 29:7 when I went forth to the city gate,
     when I prepared my seat in the street.
 29:8 The young men saw me and hid themselves.
     The aged rose up and stood.
 29:9 The princes refrained from talking,
     and laid their hand on their mouth.
 29:10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue stuck to the roof of their
     mouth.
 29:11 For when the ear heard me, then it blessed
     me;
     and when the eye saw me, it commended
     me:
 29:12 Because I delivered the poor who cried, and the fatherless also, who had none to help him, 29:13 the blessing of him who was ready to perish came on me,
     and I caused the widow's heart to sing for
     joy.
 29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me.
     My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
 29:15 I was eyes to the blind,
     and feet to the lame.
 29:16 I was a father to the needy.
     The cause of him who I didn't know, I sought out.
 29:17 I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of his teeth.
 29:18 Then I said, 'I shall die in my own house,

I shall number my days as the sand.
 29:19 My root is spread out to the waters.
     The dew lies all night on my branch.
 29:20 My glory is fresh in me.
     My bow is renewed in my hand.'
 29:21 "Men listened to me, waited, and kept silence for my counsel.
 29:22 After my words they didn't speak again.
     My speech fell on them.
 29:23 They waited for me as for the rain.
     Their mouths drank as with the spring rain.
 29:24 I smiled on them when they had no confidence.
     They didn't reject the light of my face.
 29:25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief.
     I lived as a king in the army,
     as one who comforts the mourners.
 30:1 "But now those who are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
 30:2 Of what use is the strength of their hands to
     me,
     men in whom ripe age has perished?
 30:3 They are gaunt from lack and famine.
     They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation.
 30:4 They pluck salt herbs by the bushes.
     The roots of the broom are their food.
 30:5 They are driven out from the midst of men.
     They cry after them as after a thief;
 30:6 So that they dwell in frightful valleys,
     and in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
 30:7 Among the bushes they bray; and under the nettles they are gathered together.
 30:8 They are children of fools, yes, children of base men.
     They were flogged out of the land.
 30:9 "Now I have become their song.
     Yes, I am a byword to them.
 30:10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me,
     and don't hesitate to spit in my face.
 30:11 For he has untied his cord, and afflicted
     me;
     and they have thrown off restraint before
     me.
 30:12 On my right hand rise the rabble.
     They thrust aside my feet,

They cast up against me their ways of destruction.
 30:13 They mar my path,
 They set forward my calamity,
 without anyone's help.
 30:14 As through a wide breach they come,
 in the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in.
 30:15 Terrors have turned on me.
 They chase my honor as the wind.
 My welfare has passed away as a cloud.
 30:16 "Now my soul is poured out within me.
 Days of affliction have taken hold on me.
 30:17 In the night season my bones are pierced in
 me,
 and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
 30:18 By great force is my garment disfigured.
 It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
 30:19 He has cast me into the mire.
 I have become like dust and ashes.
 30:20 I cry to you, and you do not answer me.
 I stand up, and you gaze at me.
 30:21 You have turned to be cruel to me.
 With the might of your hand you persecute me.
 30:22 You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it.
 You dissolve me in the storm.
 30:23 For I know that you will bring me to death,
 To the house appointed for all living.
 30:24 "However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall?
 Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?
 30:25 Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble?
 Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?
 30:26 When I looked for good, then evil came;
 When I waited for light, there came dark-
 ness.
 30:27 My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest.
 Days of affliction have come on me.
 30:28 I go mourning without the sun.
 I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
 30:29 I am a brother to jackals,
 and a companion to ostriches.
 30:30 My skin grows black and peels from me.
 My bones are burned with heat.
 30:31 Therefore my harp has turned to mourning,
 and my pipe into the voice of those who weep.
 31:1 "I made a covenant with my eyes, how then should I look lustfully at a young woman?
 31:2 For what is the portion from God above, and the heritage from the Almighty on high?
 31:3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity?
 31:4 Doesn't he see my ways,
 and number all my steps?
 31:5 "If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hurried to deceit 31:6 (let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity);
 31:7 if my step has turned out of the way, if my heart walked after my eyes,
 if any defilement has stuck to my hands,
 31:8 then let me sow, and let another eat.
 Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.
 31:9 "If my heart has been enticed to a woman, and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door, 31:10 then let my wife grind for another,
 and let others sleep with her.
 31:11 For that would be a heinous crime.
 Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
 31:12 For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, and would root out all my increase.
 31:13 "If I have despised the cause of my male servant
 or of my female servant,
 when they contended with me;
 31:14 What then shall I do when God rises up?
 When he visits, what shall I answer him?
 31:15 Didn't he who made me in the womb make
 him?
 Didn't one fashion us in the womb?
 31:16 "If I have withheld the poor from their desire,
 or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
 31:17 or have eaten my morsel alone,
 and the fatherless has not eaten of it 31:18 (no, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father,
 her have I guided from my mother's womb);
 31:19 if I have seen any perish for want of clothing,
 or that the needy had no covering;
 31:20 if his heart hasn't blessed me,

if he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece;
 31:21 if I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless,
 because I saw my help in the gate, 31:22 then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder blade,
 and my arm be broken from the bone.
 31:23 For calamity from God is a terror to me.
 Because his majesty, I can do nothing.
 31:24 "If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;'
 31:25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great,
 and because my hand had gotten much;
 31:26 if I have seen the sun when it shined, or the moon moving in splendor, 31:27 and my heart has been secretly enticed, and my hand threw a kiss from my
 mouth,
 31:28 this also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges;
 for I should have denied the God who is above.
 31:29 "If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me,
 or lifted up myself when evil found him;
 31:30 (yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking his life with a curse);
 31:31 if the men of my tent have not said,
 'Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?'
 31:32 (the foreigner has not lodged in the street, but I have opened my doors to the traveler);
 31:33 if like Adam I have covered my transgressions,
 by hiding my iniquity in my heart, 31:34 because I feared the great multitude,
 and the contempt of families terrified me, so that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door—
 31:35 oh that I had one to hear me!
 (behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me);
 let the accuser write my indictment!
 31:36 Surely I would carry it on my shoulder;
 and I would bind it to me as a crown.
 31:37 I would declare to him the number of my steps.
 as a prince would I go near to him.

31:38 If my land cries out against me,
 and its furrows weep together;
 31:39 if I have eaten its fruits without money, or have caused its owners to lose their
 life,
 31:40 let briars grow instead of wheat, and stinkweed instead of barley."
 The words of Job are ended.
 32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job,
 because he was righteous in his own eyes.
 32:2 Then the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled because he justified himself rather than God. 32:3 Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. 32:4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.
 32:5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
 32:6 Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered,
 "I am young, and you are very old;
 Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion.
 32:7 I said, 'Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.'
 32:8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
 32:9 It is not the great who are wise,
 nor the aged who understand justice.
 32:10 Therefore I said, 'Listen to me;
 I also will show my opinion.'
 32:11 "Behold, I waited for your words, and I listened for your reasoning,
 while you searched out what to say.
 32:12 Yes, I gave you my full attention, but there was no one who convinced Job,
 or who answered his words, among you.
 32:13 Beware lest you say, 'We have found wisdom,
 God may refute him, not man;'
 32:14 for he has not directed his words against
 me;
 neither will I answer him with your speeches.
 32:15 "They are amazed. They answer no more.
 They don't have a word to say.
 32:16 Shall I wait, because they don't speak, because they stand still, and answer no more?

 32:17 I also will answer my part,
 and I also will show my opinion.
 32:18 For I am full of words.
 The spirit within me constrains me.
 32:19 Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent;
 like new wineskins it is ready to burst.
 32:20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed.
 I will open my lips and answer.
 32:21 Please don't let me respect any man's person, neither will I give flattering titles to any man.
 32:22 For I don't know how to give flattering titles;
 or else my Maker would soon take me away.
 33:1 "However, Job, please hear my speech, and listen to all my words.
 33:2 See now, I have opened my mouth.
 My tongue has spoken in my mouth.
 33:3 My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart.
 That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.
 33:4 The Spirit of God has made me,
 and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
 33:5 If you can, answer me.
 Set your words in order before me, and stand forth.
 33:6 Behold, I am toward God even as you are.
 I am also formed out of the clay.
 33:7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.
 33:8 "Surely you have spoken in my hearing,
 I have heard the voice of your words,
 saying,
 33:9 'I am clean, without disobedience.
 I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me.
 33:10 Behold, he finds occasions against me.
 He counts me for his enemy.
 33:11 He puts my feet in the stocks.
 He marks all my paths.'
 33:12 "Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just, for God is greater than man.
 33:13 Why do you strive against him, because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?
 33:14 For God speaks once,
 yes twice, though man pays no attention.
 33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night,
 when deep sleep falls on men,
 in slumbering on the bed;
 33:16 Then he opens the ears of men,
 and seals their instruction,
 33:17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose,
 and hide pride from man.
 33:18 He keeps back his soul from the pit,
 and his life from perishing by the sword.
 33:19 He is chastened also with pain on his bed,
 with continual strife in his bones;
 33:20 So that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty food.
 33:21 His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen.
 His bones that were not seen stick out.
 33:22 Yes, his soul draws near to the pit,
 and his life to the destroyers.
 33:23 "If there is beside him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand,
 to show to man what is right for him;
 33:24 then God is gracious to him, and says,
 'Deliver him from going down to the pit,
 I have found a ransom.'
 33:25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's.
 He returns to the days of his youth.
 33:26 He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, so that he sees his face with joy.
 He restores to man his righteousness.
 33:27 He sings before men, and says,
 'I have sinned, and perverted that which was right,
 and it didn't profit me.
 33:28 He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit.
 My life shall see the light.'
 33:29 "Behold, God works all these things, twice, yes three times, with a man, 33:30 to bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
 33:31 Mark well, Job, and listen to me.
 Hold your peace, and I will speak.
 33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me.
 Speak, for I desire to justify you.
 33:33 If not, listen to me.

- Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.”
- <sup>34:1</sup>Moreover Elihu answered,
- <sup>34:2</sup>“Hear my words, you wise men.
Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
- <sup>34:3</sup>For the ear tries words,
as the palate tastes food.
- <sup>34:4</sup>Let us choose for us that which is right.
Let us know among ourselves what is good.
- <sup>34:5</sup>For Job has said, ‘I am righteous, God has taken away my right:
- <sup>34:6</sup>Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar.
My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.’
- <sup>34:7</sup>What man is like Job,
who drinks scorn like water,
- <sup>34:8</sup>Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men?
- <sup>34:9</sup>For he has said, ‘It profits a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.’
- <sup>34:10</sup>“Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding:
far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
- <sup>34:11</sup>For the work of a man he will render to him,
and cause every man to find according to his ways.
- <sup>34:12</sup>Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
- <sup>34:13</sup>Who put him in charge of the earth?
or who has appointed him over the whole world?
- <sup>34:14</sup>If he set his heart on himself,
If he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath,
- <sup>34:15</sup>all flesh would perish together,
and man would turn again to dust.
- <sup>34:16</sup>“If now you have understanding, hear this.
Listen to the voice of my words.
- <sup>34:17</sup>Shall even one who hates justice govern?
Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?—
- <sup>34:18</sup>Who says to a king, ‘Vile!’
or to nobles, ‘Wicked!’?
- <sup>34:19</sup>Who doesn’t respect the persons of princes, nor respects the rich more than the poor;
for they all are the work of his hands.
- <sup>34:20</sup>In a moment they die, even at midnight.
The people are shaken and pass away.
The mighty are taken away without a hand.
- <sup>34:21</sup>“For his eyes are on the ways of a man.
He sees all his goings.
- <sup>34:22</sup>There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
- <sup>34:23</sup>For he doesn’t need to consider a man further,
that he should go before God in judgment.
- <sup>34:24</sup>He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out,
and sets others in their place.
- <sup>34:25</sup>Therefore he takes knowledge of their works.
He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
- <sup>34:26</sup>He strikes them as wicked men in the open sight of others;
- <sup>34:27</sup>because they turned aside from following him,
and wouldn’t pay attention to any of his ways,
- <sup>34:28</sup>so that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him.
He heard the cry of the afflicted.
- <sup>34:29</sup>When he gives quietness, who then can condemn?
When he hides his face, who then can see him?
- Alike whether to a nation, or to a man, <sup>34:30</sup>that the godless man may not reign, that there be no one to ensnare the people.
- <sup>34:31</sup>“For has any said to God,
‘I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.
- <sup>34:32</sup>Teach me that which I don’t see.
If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more’?
- <sup>34:33</sup>Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it?
For you must choose, and not I.
Therefore speak what you know.
- <sup>34:34</sup>Men of understanding will tell me,
yes, every wise man who hears me:
- <sup>34:35</sup>‘Job speaks without knowledge.
His words are without wisdom.’

- 34:36 I wish that Job were tried to the end, because of his answering like wicked
men.
- 34:37 For he adds rebellion to his sin.
He claps his hands among us,
and multiplies his words against God.”
- 35:1 Moreover Elihu answered, 35:2 “Do you think this to be your right, or do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than God’s,’
35:3 That you ask, ‘What advantage will it be to
you?
What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?’
35:4 I will answer you,
and your companions with you.
35:5 Look to the heavens, and see.
See the skies, which are higher than you.
35:6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him?
If your transgressions are multiplied,
what do you do to him?
35:7 If you are righteous, what do you give him?
Or what does he receive from your hand?
35:8 Your wickedness may hurt a man as you
are,
and your righteousness may profit a son of man.
35:9 “By reason of the multitude of oppressions
they cry out.
They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
35:10 But none says, ‘Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night, 35:11 who teaches us more than the animals of
the earth,
and makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?’
35:12 There they cry, but none gives answer, because of the pride of evil men.
35:13 Surely God will not hear an empty cry, neither will the Almighty regard it.
35:14 How much less when you say you don’t see him.
The cause is before him, and you wait for
him!
35:15 But now, because he has not visited in his anger,
neither does he greatly regard arrogance.
35:16 Therefore Job opens his mouth with empty talk,
and he multiplies words without knowledge.”
- 36:1 Elihu also continued, and said, 36:2 “Bear with me a little, and I will show you;
for I still have something to say on God’s behalf.
36:3 I will get my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
36:4 For truly my words are not false.
One who is perfect in knowledge is with
you.
36:5 “Behold, God is mighty, and doesn’t despise anyone.
He is mighty in strength of understanding.
36:6 He doesn’t preserve the life of the wicked,
but gives to the afflicted their right.
36:7 He doesn’t withdraw his eyes from the righteous,
but with kings on the throne,
he sets them forever, and they are exalted.
36:8 If they are bound in fetters, and are taken in the cords of afflictions, 36:9 then he shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
36:10 He also opens their ears to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.
36:11 If they listen and serve him,
they shall spend their days in prosperity,
and their years in pleasures.
36:12 But if they don’t listen, they shall perish by the sword;
they shall die without knowledge.
36:13 “But those who are godless in heart lay up
anger.
They don’t cry for help when he binds
them.
36:14 They die in youth.
Their life perishes among the unclean.
36:15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression.
36:16 Yes, he would have allured you out of
distress,
into a broad place, where there is no restriction.
That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.
36:17 “But you are full of the judgment of the wicked.

- Judgment and justice take hold of you.
 36:18 Don't let riches entice you to wrath, neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.
 36:19 Would your wealth sustain you in distress, or all the might of your strength?
 36:20 Don't desire the night,
 when people are cut off in their place.
 36:21 Take heed, don't regard iniquity; for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
 36:22 Behold, God is exalted in his power.
 Who is a teacher like him?
 36:23 Who has prescribed his way for him?
 Or who can say, 'You have committed unrighteousness?'
 36:24 "Remember that you magnify his work, whereof men have sung.
 36:25 All men have looked thereon.
 Man sees it afar off.
 36:26 Behold, God is great, and we don't know
 him.
 The number of his years is unsearchable.
 36:27 For he draws up the drops of water, which distill in rain from his vapor, 36:28 Which the skies pour down and which drop on man abundantly.
 36:29 Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds,
 and the thunderings of his pavilion?
 36:30 Behold, he spreads his light around him.
 He covers the bottom of the sea.
 36:31 For by these he judges the people.
 He gives food in abundance.
 36:32 He covers his hands with the lightning, and commands it to strike the mark.
 36:33 Its noise tells about him, and the livestock also concerning the storm that comes up.
 37:1 "Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place.
 37:2 Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice,
 the sound that goes out of his mouth.
 37:3 He sends it forth under the whole sky, and his lightning to the ends of the earth.
 37:4 After it a voice roars.
 He thunders with the voice of his majesty.
 He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard.
 37:5 God thunders marvelously with his voice.
 He does great things, which we can't comprehend.
- 37:6 For he says to the snow, 'Fall on the earth;'
 likewise to the shower of rain, and to the showers of his mighty rain.
 37:7 He seals up the hand of every man, that all men whom he has made may
 know it.
 37:8 Then the animals take cover,
 and remain in their dens.
 37:9 Out of its room comes the storm,
 and cold out of the north.
 37:10 By the breath of God, ice is given,
 and the breadth of the waters is frozen.
 37:11 Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture.
 He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning.
 37:12 It is turned around by his guidance, that they may do whatever he commands
 them
 on the surface of the habitable world, 37:13 Whether it is for correction, or for his land, or for loving kindness, that he causes it to come.
 37:14 "Listen to this, Job.
 Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
 37:15 Do you know how God controls them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
 37:16 Do you know the workings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
 37:17 You whose clothing is warm, when the earth is still by reason of the south wind?
 37:18 Can you, with him, spread out the sky,
 which is strong as a cast metal mirror?
 37:19 Teach us what we shall tell him, for we can't make our case by reason of darkness.
 37:20 Shall it be told him that I would speak?
 Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?
 37:21 Now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies,
 but the wind passes, and clears them.
 37:22 Out of the north comes golden splendor.
 With God is awesome majesty.
 37:23 We can't reach the Almighty.
 He is exalted in power.
 In justice and great righteousness, he will not oppress.
 37:24 Therefore men revere him.

He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."
 38:1 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind,
 38:2 "Who is this who darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
 38:3 Brace yourself like a man, for I will question you, then you answer me!
 38:4 "Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth?
 Declare, if you have understanding.
 38:5 Who determined its measures, if you know?
 Or who stretched the line on it?
 38:6 Whereupon were its foundations fastened?
 Or who laid its cornerstone,
 38:7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
 38:8 "Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth from the womb,
 38:9 when I made clouds its garment, and wrapped it in thick darkness,
 38:10 marked out for it my bound, set bars and doors,
 38:11 and said, 'Here you may come, but no further.
 Here your proud waves shall be stayed?'
 38:12 "Have you commanded the morning in your days,
 and caused the dawn to know its place;
 38:13 that it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and shake the wicked out of it?
 38:14 It is changed as clay under the seal, and stands forth as a garment.
 38:15 From the wicked, their light is withheld. The high arm is broken.
 38:16 "Have you entered into the springs of the sea?
 Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
 38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you?
 Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
 38:18 Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth?
 Declare, if you know it all.
 38:19 "What is the way to the dwelling of light?
 As for darkness, where is its place, 38:20 that you should take it to its bound,

that you should discern the paths to its house?
 38:21 Surely you know, for you were born then, and the number of your days is great!
 38:22 Have you entered the treasuries of the snow, or have you seen the treasures of the hail, 38:23 which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?
 38:24 By what way is the lightning distributed, or the east wind scattered on the earth?
 38:25 Who has cut a channel for the flood water, or the path for the thunderstorm; 38:26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is;
 on the wilderness, in which there is no man;
 38:27 to satisfy the waste and desolate ground, to cause the tender grass to spring forth?
 38:28 Does the rain have a father?
 Or who fathers the drops of dew?
 38:29 Out of whose womb came the ice?
 The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it?
 38:30 The waters become hard like stone, when the surface of the deep is frozen.
 38:31 "Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, or loosen the cords of Orion?
 38:32 Can you lead forth the constellations in their season?
 Or can you guide the Bear with her cubs?
 38:33 Do you know the laws of the heavens?
 Can you establish its dominion over the earth?
 38:34 "Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover you?
 38:35 Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go?
 Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'
 38:36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts?
 Or who has given understanding to the mind?
 38:37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom?
 Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky,
 38:38 when the dust runs into a mass, and the clods of earth stick together?
 38:39 "Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 38:40 when they crouch in their dens, and lie in wait in the thicket?

 38:41 Who provides for the raven his prey, when his young ones cry to God,
 and wander for lack of food?
 39:1 "Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth?
 Do you watch when the doe bears fawns?
 39:2 Can you number the months that they fulfill?
 Or do you know the time when they give birth?
 39:3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young,
 they end their labor pains.
 39:4 Their young ones become strong.
 They grow up in the open field.
 They go forth, and don't return again.
 39:5 "Who has set the wild donkey free?
 Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey,
 39:6 Whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land his dwelling place?
 39:7 He scorns the tumult of the city, neither does he hear the shouting of the driver.
 39:8 The range of the mountains is his pasture,
 He searches after every green thing.
 39:9 "Will the wild ox be content to serve you?
 Or will he stay by your feeding trough?
 39:10 Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness?
 Or will he till the valleys after you?
 39:11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great?
 Or will you leave to him your labor?
 39:12 Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed,
 and gather the grain of your threshing floor?
 39:13 "The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; but are they the feathers and plumage of love?
 39:14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth,
 warms them in the dust,
 39:15 and forgets that the foot may crush them, or that the wild animal may trample
 them.
 39:16 She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers.

<sup>n</sup>39:24 or, trumpet

<sup>o</sup>39:25 or, trumpet

Though her labor is in vain, she is without fear,
 39:17 because God has deprived her of wisdom, neither has he imparted to her understanding.
 39:18 When she lifts up herself on high,
 she scorns the horse and his rider.
 39:19 "Have you given the horse might?
 Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane?
 39:20 Have you made him to leap as a locust?
 The glory of his snorting is awesome.
 39:21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength.
 He goes out to meet the armed men.
 39:22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed, neither does he turn back from the sword.
 39:23 The quiver rattles against him,
 the flashing spear and the javelin.
 39:24 He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage,
 neither does he stand still at the sound of the shofar<sup>n</sup>.
 39:25 As often as the shofar<sup>o</sup> sounds he snorts,
 'Aha!'
 He smells the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
 39:26 "Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, and stretches her wings toward the south?
 39:27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up,
 and makes his nest on high?
 39:28 On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, on the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
 39:29 From there he spies out the prey.
 His eyes see it afar off.
 39:30 His young ones also suck up blood.
 Where the slain are, there he is."
 40:1 Moreover the LORD answered Job, 40:2 "Shall he who argues contend with the Almighty?
 He who argues with God, let him answer
 it."
 40:3 Then Job answered the LORD, 40:4 "Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you?
 I lay my hand on my mouth.

- 40:5 I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.”
- 40:6 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind,
- 40:7 “Now brace yourself like a man.
I will question you, and you will answer me.
- 40:8 Will you even annul my judgment?
Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?
- 40:9 Or do you have an arm like God?
Can you thunder with a voice like him?
- 40:10 “Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity.
Array yourself with honor and majesty.
- 40:11 Pour out the fury of your anger.
Look at everyone who is proud, and bring him low.
- 40:12 Look at everyone who is proud, and humble him.
Crush the wicked in their place.
- 40:13 Hide them in the dust together.
Bind their faces in the hidden place.
- 40:14 Then I will also admit to you that your own right hand can save you.
- 40:15 “See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you.
He eats grass as an ox.
- 40:16 Look now, his strength is in his thighs.
His force is in the muscles of his belly.
- 40:17 He moves his tail like a cedar.
The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
- 40:18 His bones are like tubes of brass.
His limbs are like bars of iron.
- 40:19 He is the chief of the ways of God.
He who made him gives him his sword.
- 40:20 Surely the mountains produce food for him,
where all the animals of the field play.
- 40:21 He lies under the lotus trees,
in the covert of the reed, and the marsh.
- 40:22 The lotuses cover him with their shade.
The willows of the brook surround him.
- 40:23 Behold, if a river overflows, he doesn’t tremble.
He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to his mouth.
- 40:24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch, or pierce through his nose with a snare?
- 41:1 “Can you draw out Leviathan<sup>P</sup> with a fish-hook, or press down his tongue with a cord?
- 41:2 Can you put a rope into his nose,
or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
- 41:3 Will he make many petitions to you,
or will he speak soft words to you?
- 41:4 Will he make a covenant with you,
that you should take him for a servant forever?
- 41:5 Will you play with him as with a bird?
Or will you bind him for your girls?
- 41:6 Will traders barter for him?
Will they part him among the merchants?
- 41:7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons,
or his head with fish spears?
- 41:8 Lay your hand on him.
Remember the battle, and do so no more.
- 41:9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain.
Won’t one be cast down even at the sight of him?
- 41:10 None is so fierce that he dare stir him up.
Who then is he who can stand before me?
- 41:11 Who has first given to me, that I should repay him?
Everything under the heavens is mine.
- 41:12 “I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
- 41:13 Who can strip off his outer garment?
Who shall come within his jaws?
- 41:14 Who can open the doors of his face?
Around his teeth is terror.
- 41:15 Strong scales are his pride, shut up together with a close seal.
- 41:16 One is so near to another,
that no air can come between them.
- 41:17 They are joined one to another.
They stick together, so that they can’t be pulled apart.
- 41:18 His sneezing flashes out light.
His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
- 41:19 Out of his mouth go burning torches.
Sparks of fire leap forth.
- 41:20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goes,
as of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
- 41:21 His breath kindles coals.
A flame goes forth from his mouth.
- 41:22 There is strength in his neck.

<sup>P</sup>41:1 Leviathan is a name for a crocodile or similar creature.

Terror dances before him.
<sup>41:23</sup>The flakes of his flesh are joined together.
 They are firm on him.
 They can't be moved.
<sup>41:24</sup>His heart is as firm as a stone, yes, firm as the lower millstone.
<sup>41:25</sup>When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid.
 They retreat before his thrashing.
<sup>41:26</sup>If one attacks him with the sword, it can't prevail;
 nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
<sup>41:27</sup>He counts iron as straw;
 and brass as rotten wood.
<sup>41:28</sup>The arrow can't make him flee.
 Sling stones are like chaff to him.
<sup>41:29</sup>Clubs are counted as stubble.
 He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.
<sup>41:30</sup>His undersides are like sharp potsherds, leaving a trail in the mud like a threshing sledge.
<sup>41:31</sup>He makes the deep to boil like a pot.
 He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
<sup>41:32</sup>He makes a path shine after him.
 One would think the deep had white hair.
<sup>41:33</sup>On earth there is not his equal,
 that is made without fear.
<sup>41:34</sup>He sees everything that is high.
 He is king over all the sons of pride."
<sup>42:1</sup>Then Job answered the LORD, <sup>42:2</sup>"I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
<sup>42:3</sup>You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?'
 therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.
<sup>42:4</sup>You said, 'Listen, now, and I will speak;
 I will question you, and you will answer
 me.'
<sup>42:5</sup>I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees you.
<sup>42:6</sup>Therefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes."
<sup>42:7</sup>It was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for <sup>42:11</sup> literally, kesitah, a unit of money, probably silver

you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has. <sup>42:8</sup>Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has."

<sup>42:9</sup>So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what the LORD commanded them, and the LORD accepted Job.

<sup>42:10</sup>The LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. The LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

<sup>42:11</sup>Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that the LORD had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money,<sup>q</sup> and everyone a ring of gold.

<sup>42:12</sup>So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys. <sup>42:13</sup>He had also seven sons and three daughters. <sup>42:14</sup>He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the third, Keren Happuch. <sup>42:15</sup>In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers. <sup>42:16</sup>After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations. <sup>42:17</sup>So Job died, being old and full of days.

Song of Solomon

<sup>1:1</sup>The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.

Beloved

<sup>1:2</sup>Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth;
for your love is better than wine.

<sup>1:3</sup>Your oils have a pleasing fragrance.
Your name is oil poured forth,
therefore the virgins love you.

<sup>1:4</sup>Take me away with you.

Let us hurry.

The king has brought me into his rooms.

Friends

We will be glad and rejoice in you.

We will praise your love more than wine!

Beloved

They are right to love you.

<sup>1:5</sup>I am dark, but lovely,
you daughters of Jerusalem,
like Kedar's tents,
like Solomon's curtains.

<sup>1:6</sup>Don't stare at me because I am dark,
because the sun has scorched me.

My mother's sons were angry with me.
They made me keeper of the vineyards.
I haven't kept my own vineyard.

<sup>1:7</sup>Tell me, you whom my soul loves,
where you graze your flock,
where you rest them at noon;
For why should I be as one who is veiled beside the flocks of your companions?

Lover

<sup>1:8</sup>If you don't know, most beautiful among women,
follow the tracks of the sheep.
Graze your young goats beside the shepherds' tents.

<sup>1:9</sup>I have compared you, my love, to a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.

<sup>1:10</sup>Your cheeks are beautiful with earrings,
your neck with strings of jewels.

<sup>1:11</sup>We will make you earrings of gold, with studs of silver.

<sup>1:12</sup>While the king sat at his table, my perfume spread its fragrance.

<sup>1:13</sup>My beloved is to me a sachet of myrrh, that lies between my breasts.

<sup>1:14</sup>My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blossoms from the vineyards of En Gedi.

Lover

<sup>1:15</sup>Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
Behold, you are beautiful.
Your eyes are doves.

Beloved

<sup>1:16</sup>Behold, you are beautiful, my beloved, yes, pleasant;
and our couch is verdant.

Lover

<sup>1:17</sup>The beams of our house are cedars.
Our rafters are firs.

Beloved

<sup>2:1</sup>I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.

Lover

<sup>2:2</sup>As a lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters.

Beloved

<sup>2:3</sup>As the apple tree among the trees of the wood,
so is my beloved among the sons.

I sat down under his shadow with great delight,
his fruit was sweet to my taste.

<sup>2:4</sup>He brought me to the banquet hall.
His banner over me is love.

<sup>2:5</sup>Strengthen me with raisins, refresh me with apples;
For I am faint with love.

<sup>2:6</sup>His left hand is under my head.
His right hand embraces me.

<sup>2:7</sup>I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
until it so desires.

<sup>2:8</sup>The voice of my beloved!
Behold, he comes,
leaping on the mountains,
skipping on the hills.

<sup>2:9</sup>My beloved is like a roe or a young hart.
Behold, he stands behind our wall!

He looks in at the windows.
He glances through the lattice.

<sup>2:10</sup>My beloved spoke, and said to me,
"Rise up, my love, my beautiful one, and come away.

<sup>2:11</sup>For, behold, the winter is past.
The rain is over and gone.

<sup>2:12</sup>The flowers appear on the earth.
The time of the singing has come,
and the voice of the turtledove is heard in
our land.

<sup>2:13</sup>The fig tree ripens her green figs.

The vines are in blossom.
They give forth their fragrance.
Arise, my love, my beautiful one,
and come away."

Lover

<sup>2:14</sup>My dove in the clefts of the rock,
In the hiding places of the mountainside,
Let me see your face.
Let me hear your voice;
for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.

<sup>2:15</sup>Catch for us the foxes,
the little foxes that spoil the vineyards;
for our vineyards are in blossom.

Beloved

<sup>2:16</sup>My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He browses among the lilies.
<sup>2:17</sup>Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee
away,
turn, my beloved,
and be like a roe or a young hart on the mountains of Bether.

<sup>3:1</sup>By night on my bed,
I sought him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I didn't find him.

<sup>3:2</sup>I will get up now, and go about the city; in the streets and in the squares I will seek him whom my soul loves.
I sought him, but I didn't find him.

<sup>3:3</sup>The watchmen who go about the city found
me;
"Have you seen him whom my soul loves?"

<sup>3:4</sup>I had scarcely passed from them,
when I found him whom my soul loves.

I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house,
into the room of her who conceived me.

<sup>3:5</sup>I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
by the roes, or by the hinds of the field,
that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
until it so desires.

<sup>3:6</sup>Who is this who comes up from the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
with all spices of the merchant?

<sup>3:7</sup>Behold, it is Solomon's carriage!
Sixty mighty men are around it,
of the mighty men of Israel.

<sup>3:8</sup>They all handle the sword, and are expert in war.

Every man has his sword on his thigh,
because of fear in the night.

<sup>3:9</sup>King Solomon made himself a carriage of the wood of Lebanon.

<sup>3:10</sup>He made its pillars of silver, its bottom of gold, its seat of purple,
its midst being paved with love,
from the daughters of Jerusalem.

<sup>3:11</sup>Go forth, you daughters of Zion, and see king Solomon, with the crown with which his mother
has crowned him,
in the day of his weddings,
in the day of the gladness of his heart.

Lover

<sup>4:1</sup>Behold, you are beautiful, my love.
Behold, you are beautiful.

Your eyes are doves behind your veil.
Your hair is as a flock of goats, that descend from Mount Gilead.

<sup>4:2</sup>Your teeth are like a newly shorn flock,
which have come up from the washing,
where every one of them has twins.
None is bereaved among them.

<sup>4:3</sup>Your lips are like scarlet thread.
Your mouth is lovely.

Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.

<sup>4:4</sup>Your neck is like David's tower built for an armory,
whereon a thousand shields hang,
all the shields of the mighty men.

<sup>4:5</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns
that are twins of a roe,
which feed among the lilies.

<sup>4:6</sup>Until the day is cool, and the shadows flee
away,
I will go to the mountain of myrrh,
to the hill of frankincense.

<sup>4:7</sup>You are all beautiful, my love.
There is no spot in you.

<sup>4:8</sup>Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, with me from Lebanon.

Look from the top of Amana, from the top of Senir and Hermon,
from the lions' dens,
from the mountains of the leopards.

<sup>4:9</sup>You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride.

You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes,
with one chain of your neck.

4:10 How beautiful is your love, my sister, my bride!

How much better is your love than wine!
The fragrance of your perfumes than all kinds of spices!

4:11 Your lips, my bride, drip like the honeycomb.

Honey and milk are under your tongue.
The smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.

4:12 A locked up garden is my sister, my bride;
a locked up spring,
a sealed fountain.

4:13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits:
henna with spikenard plants,
4:14 spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with every kind of incense tree;
myrrh and aloes, with all the best spices, 4:15 a fountain of gardens,
a well of living waters,
flowing streams from Lebanon.

Beloved

4:16 Awake, north wind; and come, you south!
Blow on my garden, that its spices may flow out.

Let my beloved come into his garden,
and taste his precious fruits.

Lover

5:1 I have come into my garden, my sister, my bride.

I have gathered my myrrh with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey;
I have drunk my wine with my milk.

Friends

Eat, friends!

Drink, yes, drink abundantly, beloved.

Beloved

5:2 I was asleep, but my heart was awake.
It is the voice of my beloved who knocks:
"Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled;
for my head is filled with dew,
and my hair with the dampness of the night."

5:3 I have taken off my robe. Indeed, must I put it on?

I have washed my feet. Indeed, must I soil them?

5:4 My beloved thrust his hand in through the latch opening.

My heart pounded for him.

5:5 I rose up to open for my beloved.
My hands dripped with myrrh,
my fingers with liquid myrrh,
on the handles of the lock.

5:6 I opened to my beloved;
but my beloved left; and had gone away.
My heart went out when he spoke.

I looked for him, but I didn't find him.
I called him, but he didn't answer.

5:7 The watchmen who go about the city found me.

They beat me.

They bruised me.

The keepers of the walls took my cloak away from me.

5:8 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
If you find my beloved,
that you tell him that I am faint with love.

Friends

5:9 How is your beloved better than another beloved,
you fairest among women?

How is your beloved better than another beloved,
that you do so adjure us?

Beloved

5:10 My beloved is white and ruddy.
The best among ten thousand.

5:11 His head is like the purest gold.
His hair is bushy, black as a raven.

5:12 His eyes are like doves beside the water brooks, washed with milk, mounted like jewels.

5:13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices with towers of perfumes.
His lips are like lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.

5:14 His hands are like rings of gold set with beryl.
His body is like ivory work overlaid with sapphires.

5:15 His legs are like pillars of marble set on sockets of fine gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.

5:16 His mouth is sweetness;
yes, he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved, and this is my friend,
daughters of Jerusalem.

Friends

<sup>6:1</sup>Where has your beloved gone, you fairest among women?

Where has your beloved turned, that we may seek him with you?

Beloved

<sup>6:2</sup>My beloved has gone down to his garden, to the beds of spices,
to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.

<sup>6:3</sup>I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine.

He browses among the lilies,

<sup>6:4</sup>You are beautiful, my love, as Tirzah, lovely as Jerusalem,
awesome as an army with banners.

<sup>6:5</sup>Turn away your eyes from me,
for they have overcome me.

Your hair is like a flock of goats,
that lie along the side of Gilead.

<sup>6:6</sup>Your teeth are like a flock of ewes,
which have come up from the washing;
of which every one has twins;
none is bereaved among them.

<sup>6:7</sup>Your temples are like a piece of a
pomegranate behind your veil.

<sup>6:8</sup>There are sixty queens, eighty concubines, and virgins without number.

<sup>6:9</sup>My dove, my perfect one, is unique.
She is her mother's only daughter.
She is the favorite one of her who bore her.

The daughters saw her, and called her blessed;
the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.

<sup>6:10</sup>Who is she who looks forth as the morning, beautiful as the moon,
clear as the sun,
and awesome as an army with banners?

<sup>6:11</sup>I went down into the nut tree grove, to see the green plants of the valley,
to see whether the vine budded,
and the pomegranates were in flower.

<sup>6:12</sup>Without realizing it, my desire set me with my royal people's chariots.

Friends

<sup>6:13</sup>Return, return, Shulammitte!
Return, return, that we may gaze at you.

Lover

Why do you desire to gaze at the Shulammitte, as at the dance of Mahanaim?

<sup>7:1</sup>How beautiful are your feet in sandals, prince's daughter!

Your rounded thighs are like jewels,
the work of the hands of a skillful workman.

<sup>7:2</sup>Your body is like a round goblet, no mixed wine is wanting.

Your waist is like a heap of wheat, set about with lilies.

<sup>7:3</sup>Your two breasts are like two fawns,
that are twins of a roe.

<sup>7:4</sup>Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon
by the gate of Bathrabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon which looks toward Damascus.

<sup>7:5</sup>Your head on you is like Carmel.

The hair of your head like purple.

The king is held captive in its tresses.

<sup>7:6</sup>How beautiful and how pleasant you are,
love, for delights!

<sup>7:7</sup>This, your stature, is like a palm tree, your breasts like its fruit.

<sup>7:8</sup>I said, "I will climb up into the palm tree.
I will take hold of its fruit."

Let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
the smell of your breath like apples,

Beloved

<sup>7:9</sup>Your mouth like the best wine, that goes down smoothly for my beloved, gliding through the lips of those who are asleep.

<sup>7:10</sup>I am my beloved's.
His desire is toward me.

<sup>7:11</sup>Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field.

Let us lodge in the villages.

<sup>7:12</sup>Let's go early up to the vineyards.

Let's see whether the vine has budded,
its blossom is open,

and the pomegranates are in flower.

There I will give you my love.

<sup>7:13</sup>The mandrakes give forth fragrance.

At our doors are all kinds of precious fruits, new and old,
which I have stored up for you, my
beloved.

<sup>8:1</sup>Oh that you were like my brother, who nursed from the breasts of my mother!

If I found you outside, I would kiss you;
yes, and no one would despise me.

<sup>8:2</sup>I would lead you, bringing you into my mother's house,

who would instruct me.
 I would have you drink spiced wine,
 of the juice of my pomegranate.
 8:3 His left hand would be under my head.
 His right hand would embrace me.
 8:4 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem,
 that you not stir up, nor awaken love,
 until it so desires.
 Friends
 8:5 Who is this who comes up from the wilderness,
 leaning on her beloved?
 Under the apple tree I aroused you.
 There your mother conceived you.
 There she was in labor and bore you.
 8:6 Set me as a seal on your heart,
 as a seal on your arm;
 for love is strong as death.
 Jealousy is as cruel as Sheol<sup>a</sup>.
 Its flashes are flashes of fire,
 a very flame of the LORD.<sup>b</sup> 8:7 Many waters can't quench love, neither can floods drown it.
 If a man would give all the wealth of his house for love,
 he would be utterly scorned.

Friends
 8:8 We have a little sister.
 She has no breasts.
 What shall we do for our sister in the day when she is to be spoken for?
 8:9 If she is a wall,
 we will build on her a turret of silver.
 if she is a door,
 we will enclose her with boards of cedar.

Beloved
 8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers, then I was in his eyes like one who found
 peace.
 8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
 He leased out the vineyard to keepers.
 Each was to bring a thousand shekels of silver for its fruit.
 8:12 My own vineyard is before me.
 The thousand are for you, Solomon;
 two hundred for those who tend its fruit.

Lover
 8:13 You who dwell in the gardens, with friends in attendance,
 let me hear your voice!

<sup>a</sup>8:6 Sheol is the place of the dead.

<sup>b</sup>8:6 "LORD" or "GOD" (all capital letters) indicate the 4-letter Holy Name of God

Beloved
 8:14 Come away, my beloved!
 Be like a gazelle or a young stag on the mountains of spices!

Lamentations

<sup>1:1</sup>How the city sits solitary, that was full of people!

She has become as a widow, who was great among the nations!

She who was a princess among the provinces has become tributary!

<sup>1:2</sup>She weeps bitterly in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks;

among all her lovers she has none to comfort her:

All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.

<sup>1:3</sup>Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; she dwells among the nations, she finds no rest: all her persecutors overtook her within the straits.

all her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh: her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.

for the LORD<sup>a</sup> has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions:

her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.

her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, they are gone without strength before the pursuer.

<sup>1:7</sup>Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old:

when her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one helped her,

The adversaries saw her, they mocked at her desolations.

<sup>1:8</sup>Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she has become as an unclean thing;

all who honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness:

yes, she sighs, and turns backward.

<sup>1:9</sup>Her filthiness was in her skirts; she didn't remember her latter end;

therefore is she come down wonderfully; she has no comforter:

see, LORD, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself.

<sup>1:10</sup>The adversary has spread out his hand on all her pleasant things:

for she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, concerning whom you commanded that they should not enter into your assembly.

<sup>1:11</sup>All her people sigh, they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul:

look, LORD, and see; for I am become abject.

<sup>1:12</sup>Is it nothing to you, all you who pass by?

Look, and see if there is any sorrow like my sorrow, which is brought on me,

With which the LORD has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.

<sup>1:13</sup>From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them;

He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back:

He has made me desolate and faint all the day.

They are knit together, they have come up on my neck; he has made my strength to fail:

The Lord<sup>b</sup> has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.

<sup>1:15</sup>The Lord has set at nothing all my mighty men in the midst of me;

He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men:

The Lord has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.

<sup>1:16</sup>For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water;

Because the comforter who should refresh my soul is far from me:

My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.

The LORD has commanded concerning Jacob, that those who are around him should be his adversaries:

Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.

<sup>1:18</sup>The LORD is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment:

Please hear all you peoples, and see my sorrow:
My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

<sup>1:19</sup>I called for my lovers, but they deceived me:
My priests and my elders gave up the spirit in
the city,

While they sought them food to refresh their souls.

<sup>1:20</sup>See, LORD; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled;

My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled:

Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as
death.

<sup>1:21</sup>They have heard that I sigh; there is none to comfort me;

All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it:

You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like me.

<sup>1:22</sup>Let all their wickedness come before you;
Do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions:

For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

<sup>2:1</sup>How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger!

He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel,

And hasn't remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.

tions of Jacob, and has not pitied:

He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah;

He has brought them down to the ground;
he has profaned the kingdom and its princes.

<sup>2:3</sup>He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel;

He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy:

He has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire,
which devours all around.

<sup>2:4</sup>He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary,

Has killed all that were pleasant to the eye:

In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.

<sup>2:5</sup>The Lord has become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel;

He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds;

He has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.

<sup>2:6</sup>He has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly:

The LORD has caused solemn assembly and Sabbath to be forgotten in Zion,

Has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.

<sup>2:7</sup>The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary;

He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces:

They have made a noise in the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn assembly.

<sup>2:8</sup>The LORD has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion;

He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying;

He has made the rampart and wall to lament;
they languish together.

<sup>2:9</sup>Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars:

Her king and her princes are among the nations
where the law is not;

Yes, her prophets find no vision from the
LORD.

<sup>2:10</sup>The elders of the daughter of Zion sit on the ground, they keep silence;

They have cast up dust on their heads; they have clothed themselves with sackcloth:

The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.

<sup>2:11</sup>My eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled;

My liver is poured on the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my
people,

Because the young children and the infants swoon in the streets of the city.

<sup>2:12</sup>They tell their mothers, Where is grain and wine?

When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city,

When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.

2:13 What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, virgin daughter of Zion? For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you?

2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions; They have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, but have seen for you false oracles and causes of banishment.

2:15 All that pass by clap their hands at you. They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

2:16 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.

2:17 The LORD has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old; He has thrown down, and has not pitied: He has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries.

2:18 Their heart cried to the Lord: wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no respite; don't let the apple of your eye cease.

2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord: Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.

2:20 Look, LORD, and see to whom you have done thus! Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands? Shall the priest and the prophet be killed in the sanctuary of the Lord?

2:21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword:

You have killed them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.

2:22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; There was none that escaped or remained in the day of the LORD's anger: Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.

3:1 I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.

3:2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.

3:3 Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.

3:4 My flesh and my skin has he made old; he has broken my bones.

3:5 He has built against me, and surrounded me with gall and travail.

3:6 He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.

3:7 He has walled me about, that I can't go forth; he has made my chain heavy.

3:8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.

3:9 He has walled up my ways with cut stone; he has made my paths crooked.

3:10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.

3:11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate.

3:12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.

3:13 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my kidneys.

3:14 I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.

3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.

3:16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes.

3:17 You have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgot prosperity.

3:18 I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from the LORD.

3:19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.

3:20 My soul still remembers them, and is bowed down within me.

3:21 This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope.

- 3:22 It is because of the LORD's loving kindness that we are not consumed, because his compassion doesn't fail.
- 3:23 They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.
- 3:24 The LORD is my portion, says my soul; therefore will I hope in him.
- 3:25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
- 3:26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of the LORD.
- 3:27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
- 3:28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because he has laid it on him.
- 3:29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.
- 3:30 Let him give his cheek to him who strikes him; let him be filled full with reproach.
- 3:31 For the Lord will not cast off forever.
- 3:32 For though he cause grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his loving kindnesses.
- 3:33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.
- 3:34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,
- 3:35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,
- 3:36 To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord doesn't approve.
- 3:37 Who is he who says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord doesn't command it?
- 3:38 Doesn't evil and good come out of the mouth of the Most High?
- 3:39 Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?
- 3:40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD.
- 3:41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God<sup>c</sup> in the heavens.
- 3:42 We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.
- 3:43 You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have killed, you have not pitied.
- 3:44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
- 3:45 You have made us an off-scouring and refuse in the midst of the peoples.
- 3:46 All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.
- 3:47 Fear and the pit have come on us, devastation and destruction.
- 3:48 My eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
- 3:49 My eye pours down, and doesn't cease, without any intermission,
- 3:50 Until the LORD look down, and see from heaven.
- 3:51 My eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
- 3:52 They have chased me relentlessly like a bird, those who are my enemies without cause.
- 3:53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone on me.
- 3:54 Waters flowed over my head; I said, I am cut off.
- 3:55 I called on your name, LORD, out of the lowest dungeon.
- 3:56 You heard my voice; don't hide your ear at my breathing, at my cry.
- 3:57 You drew near in the day that I called on you; you said, Don't be afraid.
- 3:58 Lord, you have pleaded the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.
- 3:59 LORD, you have seen my wrong. Judge my cause.
- 3:60 You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.
- 3:61 You have heard their reproach, LORD, and all their devices against me,
- 3:62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
- 3:63 You see their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.
- 3:64 You will render to them a recompense, LORD, according to the work of their hands.
- 3:65 You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.
- 3:66 You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of the LORD.
- 4:1 How the gold has become dim! The most pure gold has changed!

The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.

How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!

The daughter of my people has become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.

<sup>4:4</sup>The tongue of the nursing child clings to the roof of his mouth for thirst:
The young children ask bread, and no man breaks it to them.

<sup>4:5</sup>Those who fed delicately are desolate in the streets:
Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.

<sup>4:6</sup>For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom,
That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid on her.

<sup>4:7</sup>Her Nazirites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk;
They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire.

<sup>4:8</sup>Their appearance is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets:
Their skin clings to their bones; it is withered, it has become like a stick.

<sup>4:9</sup>Those who are killed with the sword are better than those who are killed with hunger;
For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.

<sup>4:10</sup>The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children;
They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

<sup>4:11</sup>The LORD has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger;
He has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured its foundations.

<sup>4:12</sup>The kings of the earth didn't believe, neither all the inhabitants of the world,
That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.

<sup>4:13</sup>It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests,
That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.

<sup>4:14</sup>They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood,
So that men can't touch their garments.

When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall not live here any more.

<sup>4:16</sup>The anger of the LORD has scattered them; he will no more regard them:
They didn't respect the persons of the priests, they didn't favor the elders.

<sup>4:17</sup>Our eyes still fail, looking in vain for our help:
In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.

<sup>4:18</sup>They hunt our steps, so that we can't go in our streets:
Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end has come.

<sup>4:19</sup>Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the sky:
They chased us on the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.

<sup>4:20</sup>The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits;
Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.

<sup>4:21</sup>Rejoice and be glad, daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz:
The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.

<sup>4:22</sup>The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity:
He will visit your iniquity, daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.

<sup>5:1</sup>Remember, LORD, what has come on us:
Look, and see our reproach.

<sup>5:2</sup>Our inheritance is turned to strangers,
Our houses to aliens.

<sup>5:3</sup>We are orphans and fatherless;
Our mothers are as widows.

<sup>5:4</sup>We have drunken our water for money;
Our wood is sold to us.

<sup>5:5</sup>Our pursuers are on our necks:
We are weary, and have no rest.

<sup>5:6</sup>We have given the hand to the Egyptians,
To the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.

<sup>5:7</sup>Our fathers sinned, and are no more;
We have borne their iniquities.

<sup>5:8</sup> Servants rule over us:
There is none to deliver us out of their hand.
<sup>5:9</sup> We get our bread at the peril of our lives,
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
<sup>5:10</sup> Our skin is black like an oven,
Because of the burning heat of famine.
<sup>5:11</sup> They ravished the women in Zion,
The virgins in the cities of Judah.
<sup>5:12</sup> Princes were hanged up by their hand:
The faces of elders were not honored.
<sup>5:13</sup> The young men bare the mill;
The children stumbled under the wood.
<sup>5:14</sup> The elders have ceased from the gate,
The young men from their music.
<sup>5:15</sup> The joy of our heart is ceased;
Our dance is turned into mourning.
<sup>5:16</sup> The crown is fallen from our head:
Woe to us! for we have sinned.
<sup>5:17</sup> For this our heart is faint;
For these things our eyes are dim;
<sup>5:18</sup> For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate:
The foxes walk on it.
<sup>5:19</sup> You, LORD, remain forever;
Your throne is from generation to generation.
<sup>5:20</sup> Why do you forget us forever,
And forsake us so long time?
<sup>5:21</sup> Turn us to yourself, LORD, and we shall be turned.
Renew our days as of old.
<sup>5:22</sup> But you have utterly rejected us;
You are very angry against us.

Ecclesiastes

<sup>1:12</sup>I, Kohelet<sup>c</sup>, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. <sup>1:13</sup>I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under the sky. It is a heavy burden that God<sup>d</sup> has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>1:14</sup>I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and behold, all is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>1:15</sup>That which is crooked can’t be made straight; and that which is lacking can’t be counted. <sup>1:16</sup>I said to myself, “Behold, I have obtained for myself great wisdom above all who were before me in Jerusalem. Yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.” <sup>1:17</sup>I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a chasing after wind. <sup>1:18</sup>For in much wisdom is much grief; and he who increases knowledge increases sorrow.

<sup>2:1</sup>I said in my heart, “Come now, I will test you with mirth: therefore enjoy pleasure;” and behold, this also was vanity. <sup>2:2</sup>I said of laughter, “It is foolishness;” and of mirth, “What does it accomplish?”

<sup>2:3</sup>I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart yet guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold of folly, until I might see what it was good for the sons of men that they should do under heaven all the days of their lives. <sup>2:4</sup>I made myself great works. I built myself houses. I planted myself vineyards. <sup>2:5</sup>I made myself gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit. <sup>2:6</sup>I made myself pools of water, to water from it the forest where trees were reared. <sup>2:7</sup>I bought male servants and female servants, and had servants born in my house. I also had great possessions of herds and flocks, above all who were before me in Jerusalem; <sup>2:8</sup>I also gathered silver and gold for myself, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces. I got myself male and female singers, and the delights of the sons of men—musical instruments, and that of all sorts. <sup>2:9</sup>So I was great, and increased more than all who were before me in Jerusalem. My wisdom also remained with me. <sup>2:10</sup>Whatever my eyes desired, I didn’t keep from them. I didn’t withhold my heart from any joy, for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor, and this was my portion from all my labor. <sup>2:11</sup>Then I looked at all the works that my hands had worked, and at the labor that I had labored to do; and behold, all was vanity and a chasing after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.

<sup>2:12</sup>I turned myself to consider wisdom, madness, and folly: for what can the king’s successor do? Just that which has been done long ago. <sup>2:13</sup>Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness. <sup>2:14</sup>The wise man’s eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness—and yet I perceived that one event happens to them all. <sup>2:15</sup>Then I said in my heart, “As it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise?” Then I said in my heart that this also is vanity. <sup>2:16</sup>For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no memory for ever, since in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. Indeed, the wise man must die just like the fool!

<sup>2:17</sup>So I hated life, because the work that is worked under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>2:18</sup>I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, because I must leave it to the man who comes after me. <sup>2:19</sup>Who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all of my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.

<sup>2:20</sup>Therefore I began to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun. <sup>2:21</sup>For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, with knowledge, and with skillfulness; yet he shall leave it for his portion to a man who has not labored for it. This also is vanity and a great evil. <sup>2:22</sup>For what has a man of all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun? <sup>2:23</sup>For all his days are sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity. <sup>2:24</sup>There is nothing better for a man than that he should eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God. <sup>2:25</sup>For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I? <sup>2:26</sup>For to the man who pleases him, God gives wisdom, knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him who pleases God. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

<sup>3:2</sup>a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
<sup>3:3</sup>a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up;
<sup>3:4</sup>a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
<sup>3:5</sup>a time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together;

a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
<sup>3:6</sup>a time to seek,
and a time to lose;
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away;
<sup>3:7</sup>a time to tear,
and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
<sup>3:8</sup>a time to love,
and a time to hate;
a time for war,
and a time for peace.

<sup>3:9</sup>What profit has he who works in that in which he labors? <sup>3:10</sup>I have seen the burden which God has given to the sons of men to be afflicted with. <sup>3:11</sup>He has made everything beautiful in its time. He has also set eternity in their hearts, yet so that man can't find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end. <sup>3:12</sup>I know that there is nothing better for them than to rejoice, and to do good as long as they live. <sup>3:13</sup>Also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God. <sup>3:14</sup>I know that whatever God does, it shall be forever. Nothing can be added to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him. <sup>3:15</sup>That which is has been long ago, and that which is to be has been long ago: and God seeks again that which is passed away.

<sup>3:16</sup>Moreover I saw under the sun, in the place of justice, that wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, that wickedness was there. <sup>3:17</sup>I said in my heart, "God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work." <sup>3:18</sup>I said in my heart, "As for the sons of men, God tests them, so that they may see that they themselves are like animals. <sup>3:19</sup>For that which happens to the sons of men happens to animals. Even one thing happens to them. As the one dies, so the other dies. Yes, they have all one breath; and man has no advantage over the animals: for all is vanity. <sup>3:20</sup>All go to one place. All are from the dust, and all turn to dust again. <sup>3:21</sup>Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the animal, whether it goes downward to the earth?"

better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who can bring him to see what will be after him?

<sup>4:1</sup>Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold, the tears of those who were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter. <sup>4:2</sup>Therefore I praised the dead who have been long dead more than the living who are yet alive. <sup>4:3</sup>Yes, better than them both is him who has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. <sup>4:4</sup>Then I saw all the labor and achievement that is the envy of a man's neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

<sup>4:7</sup>Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun. <sup>4:8</sup>There is one who is alone, and he has neither son nor brother. There is no end to all of his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with wealth. "For whom then, do I labor, and deprive my soul of enjoyment?" This also is vanity. Yes, it is a miserable business.

<sup>4:9</sup>Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. <sup>4:10</sup>For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him who is alone when he falls, and doesn't have another to lift him up. <sup>4:11</sup>Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one keep warm alone? <sup>4:12</sup>If a man prevails against one who is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.

<sup>4:13</sup>Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king who doesn't know how to receive admonition any more. <sup>4:14</sup>For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor. <sup>4:15</sup>I saw all the living who walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the other, who succeeded him. <sup>4:16</sup>There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was—yet those who come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a chasing after wind.

to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you on earth. Therefore let your words be few. <sup>5:3</sup>For as a dream comes with a multitude of cares, so a fool's speech with a multitude of words. <sup>5:4</sup>When you vow a vow to God, don't defer to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you vow. <sup>5:5</sup>It is better that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay. <sup>5:6</sup>Don't allow your mouth to lead you into sin. Don't protest before the messenger that this was a mistake. Why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands? <sup>5:7</sup>For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, as well as in many words: but you must fear God.

<sup>5:8</sup>If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a district, don't marvel at the matter: for one official is eyed by a higher one; and there are officials over them. <sup>5:9</sup>Moreover the profit of the earth is for all. The king profits from the field.

<sup>5:10</sup>He who loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he who loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity. <sup>5:11</sup>When goods increase, those who eat them are increased; and what advantage is there to its owner, except to feast on them with his eyes?

<sup>5:12</sup>The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eats little or much; but the abundance of the rich will not allow him to sleep.

<sup>5:13</sup>There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun: wealth kept by its owner to his harm. <sup>5:14</sup>Those riches perish by misfortune, and if he has fathered a son, there is nothing in his hand. <sup>5:15</sup>As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand. <sup>5:16</sup>This also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go. And what profit does he have who labors for the wind? <sup>5:17</sup>All his days he also eats in darkness, he is frustrated, and has sickness and wrath.

<sup>5:18</sup>Behold, that which I have seen to be good and proper is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him; for this is his portion. <sup>5:19</sup>Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat of it, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor—this is the gift of God. <sup>5:20</sup>For he shall not often reflect on the days of his life; because God occupies him with the joy of his heart.

<sup>6:1</sup>There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy on men: <sup>6:2</sup>a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him no power to eat of it, but an alien eats it. This is vanity, and it is an evil disease.

<sup>6:3</sup>If a man fathers a hundred children, and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul is not filled with good, and moreover he has no burial; I say, that a stillborn child is better than he: <sup>6:4</sup>for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and its name is covered with darkness. <sup>6:5</sup>Moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it. This has rest rather than the other. <sup>6:6</sup>Yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet fails to enjoy good, don't all go to one place? <sup>6:7</sup>All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. <sup>6:8</sup>For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? What has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living? <sup>6:9</sup>Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire. This also is vanity and a chasing after wind. <sup>6:10</sup>Whatever has been, its name was given long ago; and it is known what man is; neither can he contend with him who is mightier than he. <sup>6:11</sup>For there are many words that create vanity. What does that profit man? <sup>6:12</sup>For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his vain life which he spends like a shadow? For who can tell a man what will be after him under the sun?

<sup>7:1</sup>A good name is better than fine perfume; and the day of death better than the day of one's birth. <sup>7:2</sup>It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting; for that is the end of all men, and the living should take this to heart. <sup>7:3</sup>Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the face the heart is made good. <sup>7:4</sup>The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. <sup>7:5</sup>It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. <sup>7:6</sup>For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool. This also is vanity. <sup>7:7</sup>Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding. <sup>7:8</sup>Better is the end of a thing than its beginning.

The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. <sup>7:9</sup>Don't be hasty in your spirit to be angry, for anger rests in the bosom of fools. <sup>7:10</sup>Don't say, "Why were the former days better than these?" For you do not ask wisely about this.

<sup>7:11</sup>Wisdom is as good as an inheritance. Yes, it is more excellent for those who see the sun. <sup>7:12</sup>For wisdom is a defense, even as money is a defense; but the excellency of knowledge is that wisdom preserves the life of him who has it.

<sup>7:13</sup>Consider the work of God, for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked? <sup>7:14</sup>In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything after him.

<sup>7:15</sup>All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man who perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man who lives long in his evildoing. <sup>7:16</sup>Don't be overly righteous, neither make yourself overly wise. Why should you destroy yourself? <sup>7:17</sup>Don't be too wicked, neither be foolish. Why should you die before your time? <sup>7:18</sup>It is good that you should take hold of this. Yes, also from that don't withdraw your hand; for he who fears God will come forth from them all. <sup>7:19</sup>Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers who are in a city. <sup>7:20</sup>Surely there is not a righteous man on earth, who does good and doesn't sin. <sup>7:21</sup>Also don't take heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you; <sup>7:22</sup>for often your own heart knows that you yourself have likewise cursed others. <sup>7:23</sup>All this have I proved in wisdom. I said, "I will be wise;" but it was far from me. <sup>7:24</sup>That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep. Who can find it out? <sup>7:25</sup>I turned around, and my heart sought to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the scheme of things, and to know that wickedness is stupidity, and that foolishness is madness.

<sup>7:26</sup>I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is snares and traps, whose hands are chains. Whoever pleases God shall escape from her; but the sinner will be ensnared by her.

helet<sup>e</sup>, “one to another, to find out the scheme; <sup>7:28</sup>which my soul still seeks; but I have not found. One man among a thousand have I found; but I have not found a woman among all those. <sup>7:29</sup>Behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright; but they search for many schemes.”

<sup>8:9</sup>All this have I seen, and applied my mind to every work that is done under the sun. There is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt. <sup>8:10</sup>So I saw the wicked buried. Indeed they came also from holiness. They went and were forgotten in the city where they did this. This also is vanity. <sup>8:11</sup>Because sentence against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. <sup>8:12</sup>Though a sinner commits crimes a hundred times, and lives long, yet surely I know that it will be better with those who fear God, who are reverent before him. <sup>8:13</sup>But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he lengthen days like a shadow; because he doesn’t fear God.

<sup>8:14</sup>There is a vanity which is done on the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked. Again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous. I said that this also is vanity. <sup>8:15</sup>Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that will accompany him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.

<sup>8:16</sup>When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done on the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes), <sup>8:17</sup>then I saw all the work of God, that man can’t find out the work that is done under the sun, because however much a man labors to seek it out, yet he won’t find it. Yes even though a wise man thinks he can comprehend it, he won’t be able to find it.

<sup>9:1</sup>For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it is love or hatred, man doesn’t know it; all is before them. <sup>9:2</sup>All things come alike to all. There is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good, to the clean, to the unclean, to him who sacrifices, and to him who doesn’t sacrifice. As is the good, so is the sinner; he who takes an oath, as he who fears an oath. <sup>9:3</sup>This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. <sup>9:4</sup>For to him who is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion. <sup>9:5</sup>For the living know that they will die, but the dead don’t know anything, neither do they have any more a reward; for their memory is forgotten. <sup>9:6</sup>Also their love, their hatred, and their envy has perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion forever in anything that is done under the sun.

the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favor to men of skill; but time and chance happen to them all. <sup>9:12</sup>For man also doesn't know his time. As the fish that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare, even so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, when it falls suddenly on them.

<sup>10:5</sup>There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, the sort of error which proceeds from the ruler. <sup>10:6</sup>Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place. <sup>10:7</sup>I have seen servants on horses, and princes walking like servants on the earth. <sup>10:8</sup>He who digs a pit may fall into it; and whoever breaks through a wall may be bitten by a snake. <sup>10:9</sup>Whoever carves out stones may be injured by them. Whoever splits wood may be endangered thereby. <sup>10:10</sup>If the axe is blunt, and one doesn't sharpen the edge, then he must use more strength; but skill brings success.

<sup>10:11</sup>If the snake bites before it is charmed, then is there no profit for the charmer's tongue. <sup>10:12</sup>The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but a fool is swallowed by his own lips. <sup>10:13</sup>The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness. <sup>10:14</sup>A fool also multiplies words.

Man doesn't know what will be; and that which will be after him, who can tell him? <sup>10:15</sup>The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he doesn't know how to go to the city.

<sup>10:16</sup>Woe to you, land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning!

<sup>10:17</sup>Happy are you, land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season,

for strength, and not for drunkenness!

<sup>10:18</sup>By slothfulness the roof sinks in;

and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.

<sup>10:19</sup>A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes the life glad;

and money is the answer for all things.

and don't curse the rich in your bedroom: for a bird of the sky may carry your voice, and that which has wings may tell the matter.

for you shall find it after many days.

<sup>11:2</sup>Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight;

for you don't know what evil will be on the earth.

<sup>11:3</sup>If the clouds are full of rain, they empty themselves on the earth; and if a tree falls toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.

<sup>11:4</sup>He who observes the wind won't sow;

and he who regards the clouds won't reap.

<sup>11:5</sup>As you don't know what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child;

even so you don't know the work of God who does all.

<sup>11:6</sup>In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening don't withhold your hand;

for you don't know which will prosper, whether this or that,

or whether they both will be equally good.

<sup>11:7</sup> Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to see the sun.

<sup>11:8</sup> Yes, if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all;
but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many.
All that comes is vanity.

<sup>11:9</sup> Rejoice, young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days
of your youth,
and walk in the ways of your heart,
and in the sight of your eyes;
but know that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.

<sup>11:10</sup> Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh;
for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

<sup>12:1</sup> Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth,
before the evil days come, and the years draw near,
when you will say, "I have no pleasure in
them;"

<sup>12:2</sup> Before the sun, the light, the moon, and the stars are darkened,
and the clouds return after the rain;

<sup>12:3</sup> in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble,
and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few,
and those who look out of the windows are darkened,

<sup>12:4</sup> and the doors shall be shut in the street;
when the sound of the grinding is low,
and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;

<sup>12:5</sup> yes, they shall be afraid of heights, and terrors will be in the way;
and the almond tree shall blossom,
and the grasshopper shall be a burden,
and desire shall fail;
because man goes to his everlasting home,
and the mourners go about the streets:

<sup>12:6</sup> before the silver cord is severed, or the golden bowl is broken,
or the pitcher is broken at the spring,

or the wheel broken at the cistern, <sup>12:7</sup> and the dust returns to the earth as it was,
and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
<sup>12:8</sup> "Vanity of vanities," says Kohelet<sup>g</sup>.

"All is vanity!"

<sup>12:9</sup> Further, because Kohelet<sup>h</sup> was wise, he still taught the people knowledge. Yes, he pondered, sought out, and set in order many proverbs. <sup>12:10</sup> The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written blamelessly, words of truth. <sup>12:11</sup> The words of the wise are like goads; and like nails well fastened are words from the masters of as-semblies, which are given from one shepherd.
<sup>12:12</sup> Furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.

<sup>12:13</sup> This is the end of the matter. All has been heard. Fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man. <sup>12:14</sup> For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it is good, or whether it is evil.

Esther

<sup>1:10</sup>On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven eunuchs who served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, <sup>1:11</sup>to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the royal crown, to show the people and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful. <sup>1:12</sup>But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by the eunuchs. Therefore the king was very angry, and his anger burned in him. <sup>1:13</sup>Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for it was the king's custom to consult those who knew law and judgment; <sup>1:14</sup>and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and sat first in the kingdom),

<sup>1:16</sup>Memucan answered before the king and the princes, "Vashti the queen has not done wrong to just the king, but also to all the princes, and to all the people who are in all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus. <sup>1:17</sup>For this deed of the queen will become known to all women, causing them to show contempt for their husbands, when it is reported, 'King Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she didn't come.' <sup>1:18</sup>Today, the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the queen's deed will tell all the king's princes. This will cause much contempt and wrath.

<sup>1:19</sup>"If it please the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it cannot be altered, that Vashti may never again come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she. <sup>1:20</sup>When the king's decree which he shall make is published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give their husbands honor, both great and small."

<sup>2:5</sup>There was a certain Jew in the citadel of Susa, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite, <sup>2:6</sup>who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. <sup>2:7</sup>He brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter; for she had neither father nor mother. The maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter. <sup>2:8</sup>So it happened, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to the citadel of Susa, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women. <sup>2:9</sup>The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him. He quickly gave her cosmetics and her portions of food, and the seven choice maidens who were to be given her out of the king's house. He moved her and her maidens to the best place in the women's house. <sup>2:10</sup>Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives, because Mordecai had instructed her that she should not make it known. <sup>2:11</sup>Mordecai walked every day in front of the court of the women's house, to find out how Esther was doing, and what would become of her.

<sup>2:12</sup>Each young woman's turn came to go in to King Ahasuerus after her purification for twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet fragrances and with preparations for beautifying women). <sup>2:13</sup>The young woman then came to the king like this: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the women's house to the king's house. <sup>2:14</sup>In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second women's house, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's eunuch, who kept the concubines. She came in to the king no more, unless the king delighted in her, and she was called by name. <sup>2:15</sup>Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, came to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's eunuch, the keeper of the women, advised. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her. <sup>2:16</sup>So Esther was taken to King Ahasuerus into his royal house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign. <sup>2:17</sup>The king loved Esther more than all the women, and she obtained favor and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

<sup>2:18</sup>Then the king made a great feast for all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he proclaimed a holiday in the provinces, and gave gifts according to the king's bounty.

<sup>2:19</sup>When the virgins were gathered together the second time, Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate. <sup>2:20</sup>Esther had not yet made known her relatives nor her people, as Mordecai had commanded her; for Esther obeyed Mordecai, like she did when she was brought up by him. <sup>2:21</sup>In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king's gate, two of the king's eunuchs, Bigthan and Teresh, who were doorkeepers, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. <sup>2:22</sup>This thing became known to Mordecai, who informed Esther the queen; and Esther informed the king in Mordecai's name. <sup>2:23</sup>When this matter was investigated, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree; and it was written in the book of the chronicles in the king's presence.

<sup>3:1</sup>After these things King Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him. <sup>3:2</sup>All the king's servants who were in the king's gate bowed down, and paid homage to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai didn't bow down or pay him homage. <sup>3:3</sup>Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, "Why do you disobey the king's commandment?" <sup>3:4</sup>Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's reason would stand; for he had told them that he was a Jew. <sup>3:5</sup>When Haman saw that Mordecai didn't bow down, nor pay him homage, Haman was full of wrath. <sup>3:6</sup>But he scorned the thought of laying hands on Mordecai alone, for they had made known to him Mordecai's people. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even Mordecai's people.

<sup>3:7</sup>In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, and chose the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. <sup>3:8</sup>Haman said to King Ahasuerus, "There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom, and their laws are different than other people's. They don't keep the king's laws. Therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them to remain. <sup>3:9</sup>If it pleases the king, let it be written that they be destroyed; and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who are in charge of the king's business, to bring it into the king's treasuries."

<sup>3:10</sup>The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. <sup>3:11</sup>The king said to Haman, "The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you." <sup>3:12</sup>Then the king's scribes were called in on the first month, on the thirteenth day of the month; and all that Haman commanded was written to the king's satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of King Ahasuerus, and it was sealed with the king's ring. <sup>3:13</sup>Letters were sent by couriers into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to plunder their possessions. <sup>3:14</sup>A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day. <sup>3:15</sup>The couriers went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

<sup>4:1</sup>Now when Mordecai found out all that was done, Mordecai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and wailed loudly and bitterly. <sup>4:2</sup>He came even before the king's gate, for no one is allowed inside the king's gate clothed with sackcloth. <sup>4:3</sup>In every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>4:4</sup>Esther's maidens and her eunuchs came and told her this, and the queen was exceedingly grieved. She sent clothing to Mordecai, to replace his sackcloth; but he didn't receive it. <sup>4:5</sup>Then Esther called for Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs, whom he had appointed to attend her, and commanded him to go to Mordecai, to find out what this was, and why it was. <sup>4:6</sup>So Hathach went out to Mordecai, to city square which was before the king's gate. <sup>4:7</sup>Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the destruction of the Jews. <sup>4:8</sup>He also gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to urge her to go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people.

<sup>4:12</sup>They told to Mordecai Esther's words. <sup>4:13</sup>Then Mordecai asked them return answer to Esther, "Don't think to yourself that you will escape in the king's house any more than all the Jews. <sup>4:14</sup>For if you remain silent now, then relief and deliverance will come to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish. Who knows if you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

<sup>4:15</sup>Then Esther asked them to answer Mordecai, <sup>4:16</sup>"Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day. I and my maidens will also fast the same way. Then I will go in to the king, which is against the law; and if I perish, I perish." <sup>4:17</sup>So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

<sup>5:1</sup>Now it happened on the third day that Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, next to the king's house. The king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, next to the entrance of the house. <sup>5:2</sup>When the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther came near, and touched the top of the scepter. <sup>5:3</sup>Then the king asked her, "What would you like, queen Esther? What is your request? It shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom."

<sup>5:4</sup>Esther said, "If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the banquet that I have prepared for him."

<sup>5:5</sup>Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly, so that it may be done as Esther has said." So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

<sup>5:6</sup>The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, "What is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your request? Even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed."

<sup>5:7</sup>Then Esther answered and said, "My petition and my request is this. <sup>5:8</sup>If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I will prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said."

<sup>5:9</sup>Then Haman went out that day joyful and glad of heart, but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he didn't stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai. <sup>5:10</sup>Nevertheless Haman restrained himself, and went home. There, he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife. <sup>5:11</sup>Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, the multitude of his children, all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. <sup>5:12</sup>Haman also said, "Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow I am also invited by her together with the king. <sup>5:13</sup>Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate."

<sup>5:14</sup>Then Zeresh his wife and all his friends said to him, "Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on it. Then go in merrily with the king to the banquet." This pleased Haman, so he had the gallows made.

<sup>6:1</sup>On that night, the king couldn't sleep. He commanded the book of records of the chronicles to be brought, and they were read to the king. <sup>6:2</sup>It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's eunuchs, who were doorkeepers, who had tried to lay hands on the King Ahasuerus. <sup>6:3</sup>The king said, "What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this?"

Then the king's servants who attended him said, "Nothing has been done for him."

<sup>6:4</sup>The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman had come into the outer court of the king's house, to speak to the king about hanging Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

The king said, "Let him come in." <sup>6:6</sup>So Haman came in. The king said to him, "What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor?"

Now Haman said in his heart, "Who would the king delight to honor more than myself?" <sup>6:7</sup>Haman said to the king, "For the man whom the king delights to honor, <sup>6:8</sup>let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set. <sup>6:9</sup>Let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delights to honor with them, and have him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, 'Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!'"

<sup>6:10</sup>Then the king said to Haman, "Hurry and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do this for Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king's gate. Let nothing fail of all that you have spoken."

through the city square, and proclaimed before him, "Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor!"

<sup>7:3</sup>Then Esther the queen answered, "If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request. <sup>7:4</sup>For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I would have held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's loss."

<sup>7:5</sup>Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, "Who is he, and where is he who dared presume in his heart to do so?"

Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. <sup>7:7</sup>The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine and went into the palace garden. Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king. <sup>7:8</sup>Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen on the couch where Esther was. Then the king said, "Will he even assault the queen in front of me in the house?" As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.

were with the king said, "Behold, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, is standing at Haman's house."

The king said, "Hang him on it!"

<sup>7:10</sup>So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

<sup>8:1</sup>On that day, King Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen. Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her. <sup>8:2</sup>The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman. <sup>8:3</sup>Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews. <sup>8:4</sup>Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king. <sup>8:5</sup>She said, "If it pleases the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right to the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces. <sup>8:6</sup>For how can I endure to see the evil that would come to my people? How can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?"

<sup>8:7</sup>Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, "See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews. <sup>8:8</sup>Write also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring; for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may not be reversed by any man."

<sup>8:9</sup>Then the king's scribes were called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the twenty-third day of the month; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing, and in their language. <sup>8:10</sup>He wrote in the name of King Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by courier on horseback, riding on royal horses that were bred from swift steeds. <sup>8:11</sup>In those letters, the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to defend their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, their little ones and women, and to plunder their possessions, <sup>8:12</sup>on one day in all the provinces of King Ahasuerus, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar. <sup>8:13</sup>A copy of the letter, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that the Jews should be ready for that day to avenge themselves on their enemies. <sup>8:14</sup>So the couriers who rode on royal horses went out, hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. The decree was given out in the citadel of Susa.

<sup>8:15</sup>Mordecai went out of the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple; and the city of Susa shouted and was glad. <sup>8:16</sup>The Jews had light, gladness, joy, and honor. <sup>8:17</sup>In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness, joy, a feast, and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.

<sup>9:1</sup>Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the month, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to conquer them, (but it was turned out the opposite happened, that the Jews conquered those who hated them), <sup>9:2</sup>the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the King Ahasuerus, to lay hands on those who wanted to harm them. No one could withstand them, because the fear of them had fallen on all the people. <sup>9:3</sup>All the princes of the provinces, the satraps, the governors, and those who did the king's business helped the Jews, because the fear of Mordecai had fallen on them. <sup>9:4</sup>For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater. <sup>9:5</sup>The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they wanted to those who hated them. <sup>9:6</sup>In the citadel of Susa, the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men. <sup>9:7</sup>They killed Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha, <sup>9:8</sup>Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha, <sup>9:9</sup>Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, <sup>9:10</sup>the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jew's enemy, but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder. <sup>9:11</sup>On that day, the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Susa was brought before the king. <sup>9:12</sup>The king said to Esther the queen, "The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Susa, including the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king's provinces! Now what is your petition? It shall be granted you. What is your further request? It shall be done."

<sup>9:13</sup>Then Esther said, "If it pleases the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged on the gallows."

<sup>9:14</sup>The king commanded this to be done. A decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. <sup>9:15</sup>The Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil. <sup>9:16</sup>The other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, defended their lives, had rest from their enemies, and killed seventy-five thousand of those who hated them; but they didn't lay their hand on the plunder. <sup>9:17</sup>This was done on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of that month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>9:18</sup>But the Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth days of the month; and on the fifteenth day of that month, they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. <sup>9:19</sup>Therefore the Judeans of the villages, who live in the unwallied towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, a good day, and a day of sending presents of food to one another. <sup>9:20</sup>Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far, <sup>9:21</sup>to enjoin them that they should keep the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month Adar yearly, <sup>9:22</sup>as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending presents of food to one another, and gifts to the needy. <sup>9:23</sup>The Jews accepted the custom that they had begun, as Mordecai had written to them; <sup>9:24</sup>because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast "Pur," that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; <sup>9:25</sup>but when this became known to the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. <sup>9:26</sup>Therefore they called these days "Purim,"<sup>a</sup> from the word "Pur." Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, <sup>9:27</sup>the Jews established, and imposed on themselves, and on their descendants, and on all those who joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to what was written, and according to its appointed time, every year; <sup>9:28</sup>and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor their memory perish from their seed.

land, and on the islands of the sea. <sup>10:2</sup>All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? <sup>10:3</sup>For Mordecai the Jew was next to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his descendants.

Ruth

<sup>1:1</sup>It happened in the days when the judges judged, that there was a famine in the land. A certain man of Bethlehem Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he, and his wife, and his two sons. <sup>1:2</sup>The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem Judah. They came into the country of Moab, and continued there. <sup>1:3</sup>Elimelech, Naomi's husband, died; and she was left, and her two sons. <sup>1:4</sup>They took them wives of the women of Moab; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth: and they lived there about ten years. <sup>1:5</sup>Mahlon and Chilion both died, and the woman was bereaved of her two children and of her husband. <sup>1:6</sup>Then she arose with her daughters-in-law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab how that the LORD<sup>a</sup> had visited his people in giving them bread. <sup>1:7</sup>She went forth out of the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah. <sup>1:8</sup>Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, "Go, return each of you to her mother's house: the LORD deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead, and with me. <sup>1:9</sup>The LORD grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband."

Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voice, and wept. <sup>1:10</sup>They said to her, "No, but we will return with you to your people."

<sup>1:11</sup>Naomi said, "Go back, my daughters. Why do you want to go with me? Do I still have sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? <sup>1:12</sup>Go back, my daughters, go your way; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, 'I have hope,' if I should even have a husband tonight, and should also bear sons; <sup>1:13</sup>would you then wait until they were grown? Would you then refrain from having husbands? No, my daughters, for it grieves me much for your sakes, for the hand of the LORD has gone out against me."

your sister-in-law has gone back to her people, and to her god. Follow your sister-in-law."

<sup>1:16</sup>Ruth said, "Don't entreat me to leave you, and to return from following after you, for where you go, I will go; and where you lodge, I will lodge; your people shall be my people, and your God<sup>b</sup> my God; <sup>1:17</sup>where you die, will I die, and there will I be buried. The LORD do so to me, and more also, if anything but death part you and me."

<sup>1:19</sup>So they two went until they came to Bethlehem. It happened, when they had come to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and they asked, "Is this Naomi?"

<sup>1:20</sup>She said to them, "Don't call me Naomi. Call me Mara; for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me. <sup>1:21</sup>I went out full, and the LORD has brought me home again empty; why do you call me Naomi, since the LORD has testified against me, and the Almighty has afflicted me?" <sup>1:22</sup>So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the country of Moab: and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of barley harvest.

<sup>2:1</sup>Naomi had a kinsman of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, and his name was Boaz. <sup>2:2</sup>Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, "Let me now go to the field, and glean among the ears of grain after him in whose sight I shall find favor."

She said to her, "Go, my daughter." <sup>2:3</sup>She went, and came and gleaned in the field after the reapers: and she happened to come to the portion of the field belonging to Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.

<sup>2:4</sup>Behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem, and said to the reapers, "The LORD be with you."

They answered him, "The LORD bless you."

<sup>2:5</sup>Then Boaz said to his servant who was set over the reapers, "Whose young lady is this?"

<sup>2:6</sup>The servant who was set over the reapers answered, "It is the Moabite lady who came back with Naomi out of the country of Moab. <sup>2:7</sup>She said, 'Please let me glean and gather after the reapers among the sheaves.' So she came, and has continued even from the morning until now, except that she stayed a little in the house.”

<sup>2:8</sup>Then Boaz said to Ruth, “Listen, my daughter. Don’t go to glean in another field, and don’t go from here, but stay here close to my maidens. <sup>2:9</sup>Let your eyes be on the field that they reap, and go after them. Haven’t I commanded the young men not to touch you? When you are thirsty, go to the vessels, and drink from that which the young men have drawn.”

<sup>2:10</sup>Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favor in your sight, that you should take knowledge of me, since I am a foreigner?”

<sup>2:11</sup>Boaz answered her, “It has fully been shown me, all that you have done to your mother-in-law since the death of your husband; and how you have left your father and your mother, and the land of your birth, and have come to a people that you didn’t know before. <sup>2:12</sup>May the LORD repay your work, and a full reward be given you from the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

<sup>2:13</sup>Then she said, “Let me find favor in your sight, my lord, because you have comforted me, and because you have spoken kindly to your handmaid, though I am not as one of your handmaidens.”

She sat beside the reapers, and they reached her parched grain, and she ate, and was satisfied, and left some of it. <sup>2:15</sup>When she had risen up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and don’t reproach her. <sup>2:16</sup>Also pull out some for her from the bundles, and leave it, and let her glean, and don’t rebuke her.”

<sup>2:17</sup>So she gleaned in the field until evening; and she beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah<sup>c</sup> of barley. <sup>2:18</sup>She took it up, and went into the city; and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned: and she brought out and gave to her that which she had left after she was sufficed.

<sup>2:19</sup>Her mother-in-law said to her, “Where have you gleaned today? Where have you worked? Blessed be he who noticed you.”

She showed her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The man’s name with whom I worked today is Boaz.” <sup>2:20</sup>Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he of the LORD, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead.” Naomi said to her, “The man is a close relative to us, one of our near kinsmen.”

<sup>2:21</sup>Ruth the Moabitess said, “Yes, he said to me, ‘You shall stay close to my young men, until they have ended all my harvest.’”

<sup>2:22</sup>Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his maidens, and that they not meet you in any other field.” <sup>2:23</sup>So she stayed close to the maidens of Boaz, to glean to the end of barley harvest and of wheat harvest; and she lived with her mother-in-law.

<sup>3:5</sup>She said to her, “All that you say I will do.” <sup>3:6</sup>She went down to the threshing floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law told her. <sup>3:7</sup>When Boaz had eaten and drunk, and his heart was merry, he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. She came softly, uncovered his feet, and laid her down. <sup>3:8</sup>It happened at midnight, that the man was startled and turned himself; and behold, a woman lay at his feet. <sup>3:9</sup>He said, “Who are you?”

She answered, “I am Ruth your handmaid. Therefore spread your skirt over your handmaid; for you are a near kinsman.”

<sup>3:10</sup>He said, “Blessed are you by the LORD, my daughter. You have shown more kindness in the latter end than at the beginning, inasmuch as you didn’t follow young men, whether poor or rich. <sup>3:11</sup>Now, my daughter, don't be afraid; I will do to you all that you say; for all the city of my people does know that you are a worthy woman. <sup>3:12</sup>Now it is true that I am a near kinsman; however there is a kinsman nearer than I. <sup>3:13</sup>Stay this night, and it shall be in the morning, that if he will perform for you the part of a kinsman, well; let him do the kinsman's part. But if he will not do the part of a kinsman for you, then will I do the part of a kinsman for you, as the LORD lives. Lie down until the morning."

<sup>3:14</sup>She lay at his feet until the morning. She rose up before one could discern another. For he said, "Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing floor." <sup>3:15</sup>He said, "Bring the mantle that is on you, and hold it." She held it; and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her; and he went into the city.

She told her all that the man had done to her. <sup>3:17</sup>She said, "He gave me these six measures of barley; for he said, 'Don't go empty to your mother-in-law.'"

<sup>3:18</sup>Then she said, "Sit still, my daughter, until you know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest, until he has finished the thing this day."

<sup>4:1</sup>Now Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. Behold, the near kinsman of whom Boaz spoke came by; to whom he said, "Come over here, friend, and sit down!" He turned aside, and sat down. <sup>4:2</sup>He took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, "Sit down here." They sat down. <sup>4:3</sup>He said to the near kinsman, "Naomi, who has come back out of the country of Moab, is selling the parcel of land, which was our brother Elimelech's. <sup>4:4</sup>I thought to disclose it to you, saying, 'Buy it before those who sit here, and before the elders of my people.' If you will redeem it, redeem it; but if you will not redeem it, then tell me, that I may know. For there is no one to redeem it besides you; and I am after you."

He said, "I will redeem it."

<sup>4:5</sup>Then Boaz said, "On the day you buy the field from the hand of Naomi, you must buy it also from Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance."

<sup>4:7</sup>Now this was the custom in former time in Israel concerning redeeming and concerning exchanging, to confirm all things: a man took off his shoe, and gave it to his neighbor; and this was the way of attestation in Israel. <sup>4:8</sup>So the near kinsman said to Boaz, "Buy it for yourself." He took off his shoe.

<sup>4:9</sup>Boaz said to the elders, and to all the people, "You are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, from the hand of Naomi. <sup>4:10</sup>Moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, that the name of the dead not be cut off from among his brothers, and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses this day."

<sup>4:11</sup>All the people who were in the gate, and the elders, said, "We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who has come into your house like Rachel and like Leah, which two built the house of Israel; and treat you worthily in Ephrathah, and be famous in Bethlehem. <sup>4:12</sup>Let your house be like the house of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which the LORD shall give you of this young woman."

<sup>4:13</sup>So Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in to her, and the LORD gave her conception, and she bore a son. <sup>4:14</sup>The women said to Naomi, "Blessed be the LORD, who has not left you this day without a near kinsman; and let his name be famous in Israel. <sup>4:15</sup>He shall be to you a restorer of life, and sustain you in your old age, for your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him." <sup>4:16</sup>Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and became nurse to it. <sup>4:17</sup>The women, her neighbors, gave him a name, saying, "There is a son born to Naomi;" and they named him Obed. He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.

<sup>4:18</sup>Now this is the history of the generations of Perez: Perez became the father of Hezron, <sup>4:19</sup>and Hezron became the father of Ram, and Ram became the father of Amminadab, <sup>4:20</sup>and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, and Nahshon became the father of Salmon, <sup>4:21</sup>and Salmon became the father of Boaz, and Boaz became the father of Obed, <sup>4:22</sup>and Obed became the father of Jesse, and Jesse became the father of David.

Daniel

you see, deal with your servants. <sup>1:14</sup>So he listened to them in this matter, and proved them ten days. <sup>1:15</sup>At the end of ten days their faces appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths who ate of the king's dainties. <sup>1:16</sup>So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them pulse. <sup>1:17</sup>Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams. <sup>1:18</sup>At the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>1:19</sup>The king talked with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. <sup>1:20</sup>In every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters who were in all his realm. <sup>1:21</sup>Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

<sup>2:1</sup>In the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him. <sup>2:2</sup>Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Kasdim, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king. <sup>2:3</sup>The king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream. <sup>2:4</sup>Then spoke the Kasdim to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live forever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. <sup>2:5</sup>The king answered the Kasdim, The thing is gone from me: if you don't make known to me the dream and its interpretation, you shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill. <sup>2:6</sup>But if you show the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honor: therefore show me the dream and its interpretation. <sup>2:7</sup>They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation. <sup>2:8</sup>The king answered, I know of a certainty that you would gain time, because you see the thing is gone from me. <sup>2:9</sup>But if you don't make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for you have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, until the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that you can show me its interpretation. <sup>2:10</sup>The Kasdians answered before the king, and said, There is not a man on the earth who can show the king's matter, because no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean. <sup>2:11</sup>It is a rare thing that the king requires, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. <sup>2:12</sup>For this cause the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>2:13</sup>So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they sought Daniel and his companions to be slain. <sup>2:14</sup>Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to kill the wise men of Babylon; <sup>2:15</sup>he answered Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. <sup>2:16</sup>Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time, and he would show the king the interpretation. <sup>2:17</sup>Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: <sup>2:18</sup>that they would desire mercies of the God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. <sup>2:19</sup>Then was the secret revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. <sup>2:20</sup>Daniel answered, Blessed be the name of God forever and ever; for wisdom and might are his. <sup>2:21</sup>He changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to those who have understanding; <sup>2:22</sup>he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him. <sup>2:23</sup>I thank you, and praise you, you God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter. <sup>2:24</sup>Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him: Don't destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation. <sup>2:25</sup>Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, who will make known to the king the interpretation. <sup>2:26</sup>The king answered Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation? <sup>2:27</sup>Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded can neither wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, show to the king; <sup>2:28</sup>but there is a God in heaven who reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head on your bed, are these: <sup>2:29</sup>as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind on your bed, what should happen hereafter; and he who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall happen. <sup>2:30</sup>But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart. <sup>2:31</sup>You, O king, saw, and behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its aspect was awesome. <sup>2:32</sup>As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass, <sup>2:33</sup>its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay. <sup>2:34</sup>You saw until a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image on its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces. <sup>2:35</sup>Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. <sup>2:36</sup>This is the dream; and we will tell its interpretation before the king. <sup>2:37</sup>You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory; <sup>2:38</sup>and wherever the children of men dwell, the animals of the field and the birds of the sky has he given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold. <sup>2:39</sup>After you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. <sup>2:40</sup>The fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, because iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush. <sup>2:41</sup>Whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, because you saw the iron mixed with miry clay. <sup>2:42</sup>As the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. <sup>2:43</sup>Whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cling to one another, even as iron does not mingle with clay. <sup>2:44</sup>In the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. <sup>2:45</sup>Because you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall happen hereafter: and the dream is certain, and its interpretation sure. <sup>2:46</sup>Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell on his face, and worshiped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an offering and sweet odors to him. <sup>2:47</sup>The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, since you have been able to reveal this secret. <sup>2:48</sup>Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon. <sup>2:49</sup>Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

<sup>3:1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and its breadth six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. <sup>3:2</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies,

and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. <sup>3:3</sup>Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counselors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. <sup>3:4</sup>Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, peoples, nations, and languages, <sup>3:5</sup>that whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, you fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up; <sup>3:6</sup>and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>3:7</sup>Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshiped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up. <sup>3:8</sup>Therefore at that time certain Kasdim came near, and brought accusation against the Jews. <sup>3:9</sup>They answered Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever. <sup>3:10</sup>You, O king, have made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image; <sup>3:11</sup>and whoever doesn't fall down and worship shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace. <sup>3:12</sup>There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not respected you. They don't serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. <sup>3:13</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. <sup>3:14</sup>Nebuchadnezzar answered them, Is it on purpose, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, that you don't serve my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? <sup>3:15</sup>Now if you are ready whenever you hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, pipe, and all kinds of music to fall down and worship the image which I have made,

well: but if you don't worship, you shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands? <sup>3:16</sup>Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter. <sup>3:17</sup>If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king. <sup>3:18</sup>But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up. <sup>3:19</sup>Then was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his appearance was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated. <sup>3:20</sup>He commanded certain mighty men who were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. <sup>3:21</sup>Then these men were bound in their pants, their tunics, and their mantles, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>3:22</sup>Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. <sup>3:23</sup>These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. <sup>3:24</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counselors, Didn't we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered the king, True, O king. <sup>3:25</sup>He answered, Look, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they are unharmed; and the aspect of the fourth is like a son of the gods. <sup>3:26</sup>Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, you servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came forth out of the midst of the fire. <sup>3:27</sup>The satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counselors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power on their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their pants changed, nor had the smell of fire passed on them. <sup>3:28</sup>Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants who trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God. <sup>3:29</sup>Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything evil against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god who is able to deliver after this sort. <sup>3:30</sup>Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylon.

<sup>4:1</sup>Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>4:2</sup>It has seemed good to me to show the signs and wonders that the Most High God has worked toward me. <sup>4:3</sup>How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation. <sup>4:4</sup>I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace. <sup>4:5</sup>I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts on my bed and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>4:6</sup>Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream. <sup>4:7</sup>Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Kasdim, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation. <sup>4:8</sup>But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying, <sup>4:9</sup>Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation. <sup>4:10</sup>Thus were the visions of my head on my bed: I saw, and behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great. <sup>4:11</sup>The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to the sky, and its sight to the end of all the earth. <sup>4:12</sup>The leaves of it were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all: the animals of the field had shadow under it, and the birds of the sky lived in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it. <sup>4:13</sup>I saw in the visions of my head on my bed, and behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from the sky. <sup>4:14</sup>He cried aloud, and said thus, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the animals get away from under it, and the fowls from its branches. <sup>4:15</sup>Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals in the grass of the earth: <sup>4:16</sup>let his heart be changed from man's, and let an animal's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him. <sup>4:17</sup>The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men. <sup>4:18</sup>This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation, because all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you. <sup>4:19</sup>Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stricken mute for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered, Belteshazzar, don't let the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered, My lord, the dream be to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your adversaries. <sup>4:20</sup>The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to the sky, and its sight to all the earth; <sup>4:21</sup>whose leaves were beautiful, and its fruit much, and in it was food for all; under which the animals of the field lived, and on whose branches the birds of the sky had their habitation: <sup>4:22</sup>it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to the sky, and your dominion to the end of the earth. <sup>4:23</sup>Whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from the sky, and saying, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of the sky: and let his portion be with the animals of the field, until seven times pass over him; <sup>4:24</sup>this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which has come on my lord the king: <sup>4:25</sup>that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass as oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of the sky, and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. <sup>4:26</sup>Whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule. <sup>4:27</sup>Therefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; if there may be a lengthening of your tranquility. <sup>4:28</sup>All this came on the king Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>4:29</sup>At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon. <sup>4:30</sup>The king spoke and said, Is not this great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty? <sup>4:31</sup>While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from the sky, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom has departed from you: <sup>4:32</sup>and you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the animals of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomever he will. <sup>4:33</sup>The same hour was the thing fulfilled on Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and ate grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky, until his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. <sup>4:34</sup>At the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives forever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation. <sup>4:35</sup>All the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and none can stay his hand, or ask him, What are you doing? <sup>4:36</sup>At the same time my understanding returned to me; and for the glory of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counselors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me. <sup>4:37</sup>Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those who walk in pride he is able to abase.

soothsayers; <sup>5:12</sup>because an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation. <sup>5:13</sup>Then was Daniel brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, Are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah? <sup>5:14</sup>I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you. <sup>5:15</sup>Now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing. <sup>5:16</sup>But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold about your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>5:17</sup>Then Daniel answered before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation. <sup>5:18</sup>You, king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty: <sup>5:19</sup>and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whom he would he killed, and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he raised up, and whom he would he put down. <sup>5:20</sup>But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: <sup>5:21</sup>and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the animals', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the sky; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomever he will. <sup>5:22</sup>You, his son, Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this, <sup>5:23</sup>but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which don't see, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified. <sup>5:24</sup>Then was the part of the hand sent from before him, and this writing was inscribed. <sup>5:25</sup>This is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN. <sup>5:26</sup>This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end; <sup>5:27</sup>TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting. <sup>5:28</sup>PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. <sup>5:29</sup>Then commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. <sup>5:30</sup>In that night Belshazzar the Kasdian King was slain. <sup>5:31</sup>Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

and sign the writing, that it not be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. <sup>6:9</sup>Therefore king Darius signed the writing and the decree. <sup>6:10</sup>When Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his room toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled on his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, as he did before. <sup>6:11</sup>Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God. <sup>6:12</sup>Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's decree: Haven't you signed an decree, that every man who shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, except to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which doesn't alter. <sup>6:13</sup>Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, doesn't respect you, O king, nor the decree that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day. <sup>6:14</sup>Then the king, when he heard these words, was very displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored until the going down of the sun to rescue him. <sup>6:15</sup>Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no decree nor statute which the king establishes may be changed. <sup>6:16</sup>Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you. <sup>6:17</sup>A stone was brought, and laid on the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel. <sup>6:18</sup>Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him. <sup>6:19</sup>Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions. <sup>6:20</sup>When he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions? <sup>6:21</sup>Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live forever.

<sup>6:22</sup>My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; because as before him innocence was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt. <sup>6:23</sup>Then was the king exceeding glad, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no kind of harm was found on him, because he had trusted in his God. <sup>6:24</sup>The king commanded, and they brought those men who had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions mauled them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den. <sup>6:25</sup>Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, who dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you. <sup>6:26</sup>I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and steadfast forever, His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end. <sup>6:27</sup>He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. <sup>6:28</sup>So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the animals that were before it; and it had ten horns. <sup>7:8</sup>I considered the horns, and behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things. <sup>7:9</sup>I saw until thrones were placed, and one who was ancient of days sat: his clothing was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire. <sup>7:10</sup>A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened. <sup>7:11</sup>I saw at that time because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I saw even until the animal was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire. <sup>7:12</sup>As for the rest of the animals, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time. <sup>7:13</sup>I saw in the night visions, and behold, there came with the clouds of the sky one like a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him. <sup>7:14</sup>There was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. <sup>7:15</sup>As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me. <sup>7:16</sup>I came near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things. <sup>7:17</sup>These great animals, which are four, are four kings, who shall arise out of the earth. <sup>7:18</sup>But the holy ones of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom forever, even forever and ever. <sup>7:19</sup>Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth animal, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stamped the residue with its feet; <sup>7:20</sup>and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows. <sup>7:21</sup>I saw, and the same horn made war with the holy ones, and prevailed against them; <sup>7:22</sup>until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the holy ones of the Most High, and the time came that the holy ones possessed the kingdom. <sup>7:23</sup>Thus he said, The fourth animal shall be a fourth kingdom on earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. <sup>7:24</sup>As for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings. <sup>7:25</sup>He shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the holy ones of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time. <sup>7:26</sup>But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end. <sup>7:27</sup>The kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole sky, shall be given to the people of the holy ones of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him. <sup>7:28</sup>Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts much troubled me, and my face was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

<sup>8:1</sup>In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after that which appeared to me at the first. <sup>8:2</sup>I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in the citadel of Susa, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai. <sup>8:3</sup>Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. <sup>8:4</sup>I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no animals could stand before him, neither was there any who could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself. <sup>8:5</sup>As I was considering, behold, a male goat came from the west over the surface of the whole earth, and didn't touch the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. <sup>8:6</sup>He came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran on him in the fury of his power. <sup>8:7</sup>I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled on him; and there was none who could deliver the ram out of his hand. <sup>8:8</sup>The male goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable hornstoward the four winds of the sky. <sup>8:9</sup>Out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land. <sup>8:10</sup>It grew great, even to the army of the sky; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled on them. <sup>8:11</sup>Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. <sup>8:12</sup>The army was given over to ittogether with the continual *burnt offering*through disobedience; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did *its pleasure*and prospered. <sup>8:13</sup>Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision *concerning*the continual burnt offering, and the disobedience that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot? <sup>8:14</sup>He said to me, To two thousand and three hundred evenings andmornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. <sup>8:15</sup>It happened, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. <sup>8:16</sup>I heard a man's voice between *the banks of*the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. <sup>8:17</sup>So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell on my face: but he said to me, Understand, son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end. <sup>8:18</sup>Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright. <sup>8:19</sup>He said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end. <sup>8:20</sup>The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia. <sup>8:21</sup>The rough male goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. <sup>8:22</sup>As for that which was broken, in the place where four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power. <sup>8:23</sup>In the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors have come to the full, a king of fierce face, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. <sup>8:24</sup>His power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people. <sup>8:25</sup>Through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. <sup>8:26</sup>The vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but seal up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come. <sup>8:27</sup>I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick certain days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but none understood it.

<sup>9:1</sup>In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Kasdim, <sup>9:2</sup>in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood by the books the number of the years about which the word of the LORD<sup>c</sup> came to Jeremiah the prophet, for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years. <sup>9:3</sup>I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and petitions, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes. <sup>9:4</sup>I prayed to the LORD my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments, <sup>9:5</sup>we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances; <sup>9:6</sup>neither have we listened to your servants the prophets, who spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land. <sup>9:7</sup>Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of

Jerusalem, and to all Israel, who are near, and who are far off, through all the countries where you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you. <sup>9:8</sup>Lord, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you. <sup>9:9</sup>To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him; <sup>9:10</sup>neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets. <sup>9:11</sup>Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: therefore the curse and the oath written in the Torah of Moses the servant of God has been poured out on us; for we have sinned against him. <sup>9:12</sup>He has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges who judged us, by bringing on us a great evil; for under the whole sky, such has not been done as has been done to Jerusalem. <sup>9:13</sup>As it is written in the Torah of Moses, all this evil has come on us: yet have we not entreated the favor of the LORD our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth. <sup>9:14</sup>Therefore has the LORD watched over the evil, and brought it on us; for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice. <sup>9:15</sup>Now, Lord our God, who has brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten yourself renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly. <sup>9:16</sup>Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and please let your wrath be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people have become a reproach to all who are around us. <sup>9:17</sup>Now therefore, our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his petitions, and cause your face to shine on your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. <sup>9:18</sup>My God, turn your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and see our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our petitions before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake. <sup>9:19</sup>Lord, hear; Lord, forgive; Lord, listen and do; don't defer, for your own sake, my

God, because your city and your people are called by your name. <sup>9:20</sup>While I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; <sup>9:21</sup>yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening offering. <sup>9:22</sup>He instructed me, and talked with me, and said, Daniel, I am now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding. <sup>9:23</sup>At the beginning of your petitions the commandment went forth, and I have come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision. <sup>9:24</sup>Seventy weeks are decreed on your people and on your holy city, to finish disobedience, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy. <sup>9:25</sup>Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem to the Anointed One,<sup>d</sup> the prince, shall be seven weeks, and sixty-two weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troubled times. <sup>9:26</sup>After the sixty-two weeks the Anointed One<sup>e</sup> shall be cut off, and shall have nothing: and the people of the prince who shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined. <sup>9:27</sup>He shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the offering to cease; and on the wing of abominations shall come one who makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out on the desolate.

<sup>10:1</sup>In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision. <sup>10:2</sup>In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks. <sup>10:3</sup>I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, until three whole weeks were fulfilled. <sup>10:4</sup>In the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel, <sup>10:5</sup>I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and behold, a man clothed in linen, whose thighs were adorned with pure gold of Uphaz: <sup>10:6</sup>his body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude. <sup>10:7</sup>I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men who were with me didn't see the vision; but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves. <sup>10:8</sup>So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me; for my comeliness was turned in me into corruption, and I retained no strength. <sup>10:9</sup>Yet heard I the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I fallen into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground. <sup>10:10</sup>Behold, a hand touched me, which set me on my knees and on the palms of my hands. <sup>10:11</sup>He said to me, Daniel, you man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for am I now sent to you. When he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling. <sup>10:12</sup>Then he said to me, Don't be afraid, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I have come for your words' sake. <sup>10:13</sup>But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me twenty-one days; but, behold, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia. <sup>10:14</sup>Now I have come to make you understand what shall happen to your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days: <sup>10:15</sup>and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was mute. <sup>10:16</sup>Behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him who stood before me, my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned on me, and I retain no strength. <sup>10:17</sup>For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, immediately there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in

me. <sup>10:18</sup>Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me. <sup>10:19</sup>He said, "Greatly beloved man, don't be afraid: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong."

When he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, "Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me."

<sup>10:20</sup>Then he said, "Do you know why I have come to you? Now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia. When I go forth, behold, the prince of Greece shall come. <sup>10:21</sup>But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is none who holds with me against these, but Michael your prince."

<sup>11:1</sup>"As for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him. <sup>11:2</sup>Now will I show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and when he has grown strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece. <sup>11:3</sup>A mighty king shall stand up, who shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. <sup>11:4</sup>When he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of the sky, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these. <sup>11:5</sup>The king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. <sup>11:6</sup>At the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and those who brought her, and he who became the father of her, and he who strengthened her in those times. <sup>11:7</sup>But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail. <sup>11:8</sup>Also their gods, with their molten images, and with their goodly vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some years from the king of the north. <sup>11:9</sup>He shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land. <sup>11:10</sup>His sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress. <sup>11:11</sup>The king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand. <sup>11:12</sup>The multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail. <sup>11:13</sup>The king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance. <sup>11:14</sup>In those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall. <sup>11:15</sup>So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand. <sup>11:16</sup>But he who comes against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction. <sup>11:17</sup>He shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt her; but she shall not stand, neither be for him. <sup>11:18</sup>After this shall he turn his face to the islands, and shall take many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yes, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn on him. <sup>11:19</sup>Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found. <sup>11:20</sup>Then shall stand up in his place one who shall cause a tax collector to pass through the kingdom to maintain its glory; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. <sup>11:21</sup>In his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries. <sup>11:22</sup>The overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant. <sup>11:23</sup> After the treaty made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people. <sup>11:24</sup> In time of security shall he come even on the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yes, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time. <sup>11:25</sup> He shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceeding great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him. <sup>11:26</sup> Yes, they who eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain. <sup>11:27</sup> As for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. <sup>11:28</sup> Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and return to his own land. <sup>11:29</sup> At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former. <sup>11:30</sup> For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard to those who forsake the holy covenant. <sup>11:31</sup> Forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate. <sup>11:32</sup> Such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people who know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. <sup>11:33</sup> Those who are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days. <sup>11:34</sup> Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries. <sup>11:35</sup> Some of those who are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed. <sup>11:36</sup> The king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper until the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done. <sup>11:37</sup> Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all. <sup>11:38</sup> But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers didn't know shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. <sup>11:39</sup> He shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price. <sup>11:40</sup> At the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through. <sup>11:41</sup> He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon. <sup>11:42</sup> He shall stretch forth his hand also on the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape. <sup>11:43</sup> But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps. <sup>11:44</sup> But news out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many. <sup>11:45</sup> He shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

<sup>12:1</sup> At that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, everyone who shall be found written in the book. <sup>12:2</sup> Many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. <sup>12:3</sup> Those who are wise shall shine as the brightness of the expanse; and those who turn many to righteousness as the stars forever and ever. <sup>12:4</sup> But you, Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run back and forth, and knowledge shall be increased.”

<sup>12:5</sup>Then I, Daniel, looked, and behold, two others stood, one on the river bank on this side, and the other on the river bank on that side. <sup>12:6</sup>One said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? <sup>12:7</sup>I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him who lives forever that it shall be for a time, times, and a half; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. <sup>12:8</sup>I heard, but I didn't understand: then I said, my lord, what shall be the issue of these things? <sup>12:9</sup>He said, Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed until the time of the end. <sup>12:10</sup>Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those who are wise shall understand. <sup>12:11</sup>From the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be one thousand two hundred ninety days. <sup>12:12</sup>Blessed is he who waits, and comes to the one thousand three hundred thirty-five days. <sup>12:13</sup>But go you your way until the end; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your lot, at the end of the days.

Ezra

<sup>1:1</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD<sup>a</sup> by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, <sup>1:2</sup>“Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, ‘The LORD, the God<sup>b</sup> of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. <sup>1:3</sup>Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD, the God of Israel (he is God), which is in Jerusalem. <sup>1:4</sup>Whoever is left, in any place where he lives, let the men of his place help him with silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, besides the freewill offering for the house of God which is in Jerusalem.’”

<sup>1:5</sup>Then the heads of fathers’ households of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, even all whose spirit God had stirred to go up rose up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem. <sup>1:6</sup>All those who were around them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with animals, and with precious things, besides all that was willingly offered. <sup>1:7</sup>Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought out of Jerusalem, and had put in the house of his gods; <sup>1:8</sup>even those, Cyrus king of Persia brought out by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and numbered them to Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. <sup>1:9</sup>This is the number of them: thirty platters of gold, one thousand platters of silver, twenty-nine knives, <sup>1:10</sup>thirty bowls of gold, silver bowls of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels one thousand. <sup>1:11</sup>All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. Sheshbazzar brought all these up, when the captives were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away to Babylon, and who returned to Jerusalem and Judah, everyone to his city; <sup>2:2</sup>who came with Zerubbabel, Yeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>2:3</sup>The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two. <sup>2:4</sup>The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy-two. <sup>2:5</sup>The children of Arah, seven hundred seventy-five. <sup>2:6</sup>The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Yeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred twelve. <sup>2:7</sup>The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. <sup>2:8</sup>The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty-five. <sup>2:9</sup>The children of Zaccai, seven hundred sixty. <sup>2:10</sup>The children of Bani, six hundred forty-two. <sup>2:11</sup>The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-three. <sup>2:12</sup>The children of Azgad, one thousand two hundred twenty-two. <sup>2:13</sup>The children of Adonikam, six hundred sixty-six. <sup>2:14</sup>The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty-six. <sup>2:15</sup>The children of Adin, four hundred fifty-four. <sup>2:16</sup>The children of Ater, of Hezekiah, ninety-eight. <sup>2:17</sup>The children of Bezai, three hundred twenty-three. <sup>2:18</sup>The children of Jorah, one hundred twelve. <sup>2:19</sup>The children of Hashum, two hundred twenty-three. <sup>2:20</sup>The children of Gibbar, ninety-five. <sup>2:21</sup>The children of Bethlehem, one hundred twenty-three. <sup>2:22</sup>The men of Netophah, fifty-six. <sup>2:23</sup>The men of Anathoth, one hundred twenty-eight. <sup>2:24</sup>The children of Azmaveth, forty-two. <sup>2:25</sup>The children of Kiriath Arim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred forty-three. <sup>2:26</sup>The children of Ramah and Geba, six hundred twenty-one. <sup>2:27</sup>The men of Michmas, one hundred twenty-two. <sup>2:28</sup>The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty-three. <sup>2:29</sup>The children of Nebo, fifty-two. <sup>2:30</sup>The children of Magbish, one hundred fifty-six. <sup>2:31</sup>The children of the other Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. <sup>2:32</sup>The children of Harim, three hundred twenty. <sup>2:33</sup>The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred twenty-five. <sup>2:34</sup>The children of Jericho, three hundred forty-five. <sup>2:35</sup>The children of Senaah, three thousand six hundred thirty. <sup>2:36</sup>The priests: the children of Jedaiah, of the house of Yeshua, nine hundred seventy-three. <sup>2:37</sup>The children of Immer, one thousand fifty-two. <sup>2:38</sup>The children of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred forty-seven. <sup>2:39</sup>The children of Harim, one thousand seventeen. <sup>2:40</sup>The Levites: the children of Yeshua and Kadmiel, of the children of Hodaviah, seventy-four. <sup>2:41</sup>The singers: the children of Asaph, one hundred twenty-eight. <sup>2:42</sup>The children of the porters: the children of Shallum, the children of Ater, the children of Talmon, the children of Akkub, the children of Hatita, the children of Shobai, in all one hundred thirty-nine. <sup>2:43</sup>The Nethinim: the children of Ziha, the children of Hasupha, the children of Tabbaoth, <sup>2:44</sup>the children of Keros, the children of Siah, the children of Padon, <sup>2:45</sup>the children of Lebanah, the children of Hagabah, the children of Akkub, <sup>2:46</sup>the children of Hagab, the children of Shamlai, the children of Hanan, <sup>2:47</sup>the children of Giddel, the children of Gahar, the children of Reaiah, <sup>2:48</sup>the children of Rezin, the children of Nekoda, the children of Gazzam, <sup>2:49</sup>the children of Uzza, the children of Paseah, the children of Besai, <sup>2:50</sup>the children of Asnah, the children of Meunim, the children of Nephisim, <sup>2:51</sup>the children of Bakbuk, the children of Hakupha, the children of Harhur, <sup>2:52</sup>the children of Bazluth, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, <sup>2:53</sup>the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah, <sup>2:54</sup>the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha. <sup>2:55</sup>The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Hassophereth, the children of Peruda, <sup>2:56</sup>the children of Jaalah, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, <sup>2:57</sup>the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of Ami. <sup>2:58</sup>All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety-two. <sup>2:59</sup>These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addan, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, and their seed, whether they were of Israel: <sup>2:60</sup>the children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred fifty-two. <sup>2:61</sup>Of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. <sup>2:62</sup>These sought their place among those who were registered by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. <sup>2:63</sup>The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. <sup>2:64</sup>The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, <sup>2:65</sup>besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred singing men and singing women. <sup>2:66</sup>Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; <sup>2:67</sup>their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred and twenty. <sup>2:68</sup>Some of the heads of fathers' households, when they came to the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem, offered willingly for the house of God to set it up in its place: <sup>2:69</sup>they gave after their ability into the treasury of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. <sup>2:70</sup>So the priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, lived in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

<sup>3:1</sup>When the seventh month had come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. <sup>3:2</sup>Then stood up Yeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brothers, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the Torah of Moses the man of God. <sup>3:3</sup>They set the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the peoples of the countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon to the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening. <sup>3:4</sup>They kept the feast of booths, as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day required; <sup>3:5</sup>and afterward the continual burnt offering, and the offerings of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of everyone who willingly offered a freewill offering to the LORD. <sup>3:6</sup>From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings to the LORD: but the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. <sup>3:7</sup>They gave money

also to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to them of Sidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.<sup>3:8</sup> Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Yeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who were come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of the LORD.<sup>3:9</sup> Then stood Yeshua with his sons and his brothers, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to have the oversight of the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brothers the Levites.<sup>3:10</sup> When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their clothing with shofars<sup>c</sup>, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the order of David king of Israel.<sup>3:11</sup> They sang one to another in praising and giving thanks to the LORD, "For he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever toward Israel." All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.<sup>3:12</sup> But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers' households, the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:<sup>3:13</sup> so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

<sup>4:1</sup> Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to the LORD, the God of Israel; <sup>4:2</sup> then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers' households, and said to them, "Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to him since the days of Esar Haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here."

of the heads of fathers' households of Israel, said to them, "You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to the LORD, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us."

time; for which cause was this city laid waste. <sup>4:16</sup>We inform the king that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River. <sup>4:17</sup>Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest of the country beyond the River: Peace, and so forth. <sup>4:18</sup>The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me. <sup>4:19</sup>I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. <sup>4:20</sup>There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all the country beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them. <sup>4:21</sup>Make a decree now to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me. <sup>4:22</sup>Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? <sup>4:23</sup>Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power. <sup>4:24</sup>Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

<sup>5:1</sup>Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel they prophesied to them. <sup>5:2</sup>Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Yeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them. <sup>5:3</sup>At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>5:4</sup>Then we told them in this way, what the names of the men were who were making this building. <sup>5:5</sup>But the eye of their God was on the Jewish elders, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it. <sup>5:6</sup>The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shetharbozenai, and his companions the

Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king; <sup>5:7</sup>they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius the king, all peace. <sup>5:8</sup>Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands. <sup>5:9</sup>Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, "Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?" <sup>5:10</sup>We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at their head. <sup>5:11</sup>Thus they returned us answer, saying, "We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished. <sup>5:12</sup>But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Kasdian, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. <sup>5:13</sup>But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God. <sup>5:14</sup>The gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those Cyrus the king took out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; <sup>5:15</sup>and he said to him, 'Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place.' <sup>5:16</sup>Then the same Sheshbazzar came, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed. <sup>5:17</sup>Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let a search be made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter."

<sup>6:1</sup>Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the archives, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon. <sup>6:2</sup>There was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of Media, a scroll, and therein was thus written for a record: <sup>6:3</sup>In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let its foundations be strongly laid; its height sixty cubits, and its breadth sixty cubits; <sup>6:4</sup>with three courses of great stones, and a course of new timber: and let the expenses be given out of the king's house. <sup>6:5</sup>Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everyone to its place; and you shall put them in the house of God. <sup>6:6</sup>Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, you must stay far from there. <sup>6:7</sup>Leave the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the Jewish elders build this house of God in its place. <sup>6:8</sup>Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these Jewish elders for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered. <sup>6:9</sup>That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; also wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail; <sup>6:10</sup>that they may offer sacrifices of pleasant aroma to the God of heaven, and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. <sup>6:11</sup>Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this: <sup>6:12</sup>and the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter the same, to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence. <sup>6:13</sup>Then Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, Shetharbozenai, and their companions, because Darius the king had sent a decree, did accordingly with all diligence. <sup>6:14</sup>The Jewish elders built and prospered, through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and

Zechariah the son of Iddo. They built and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the decree of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. <sup>6:15</sup>This house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. <sup>6:16</sup>The children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy. <sup>6:17</sup>They offered at the dedication of this house of God one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. <sup>6:18</sup>They set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. <sup>6:19</sup>The children of the captivity kept the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>6:20</sup>For the priests and the Levites had purified themselves together; all of them were pure: and they killed the Passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves. <sup>6:21</sup>The children of Israel who had come again out of the captivity, and all such as had separated themselves to them from the filthiness of the nations of the land, to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, ate, <sup>6:22</sup>and kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and had turned the heart of the king of Assyria to them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

<sup>7:1</sup>Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>7:2</sup>the son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, <sup>7:3</sup>the son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, <sup>7:4</sup>the son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, <sup>7:5</sup>the son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief priest; <sup>7:6</sup>this Ezra went up from Babylon: and he was a ready scribe in the Torah of Moses, which the LORD, the God of Israel, had given; and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the LORD his God on him. <sup>7:7</sup>There went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinim, to Jerusalem, in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king. <sup>7:8</sup>He came to Jerusalem in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. <sup>7:9</sup>For on the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon; and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according to the good hand of his God on him. <sup>7:10</sup>For Ezra had set his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in Israel statutes and ordinances. <sup>7:11</sup>Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the priest, the scribe, even the scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, and of his statutes to Israel: <sup>7:12</sup>Artaxerxes, king of kings, to Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect and so forth. <sup>7:13</sup>I make a decree, that all those of the people of Israel, and their priests and the Levites, in my realm, who are minded of their own free will to go to Jerusalem, go with you. <sup>7:14</sup>Because you are sent of the king and his seven counselors, to inquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law of your God which is in your hand, <sup>7:15</sup>and to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counselors have freely offered to the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, <sup>7:16</sup>and all the silver and gold that you shall find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem; <sup>7:17</sup>therefore you shall with all diligence buy with this money bulls, rams, lambs, with their meal offerings and their drink offerings, and shall offer them on the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem. <sup>7:18</sup>Whatever shall seem good to you and to your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do that after the will of your God. <sup>7:19</sup>The vessels that are given to you for the service of the house of your God, deliver before the God of Jerusalem. <sup>7:20</sup>Whatever more shall be needful for the house of your God, which you shall have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. <sup>7:21</sup>I, even I Artaxerxes the king, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done with all diligence, <sup>7:22</sup>to one hundred talents of silver, and to one hundred measures of wheat, and to one hundred baths of wine, and to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. <sup>7:23</sup>Whatever is commanded by the God of heaven, let it be done exactly for the house of the God of heaven; for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? <sup>7:24</sup>Also we inform you, that touching any of the priests and Levites, the singers, porters, Nethinim, or servants of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose tribute, custom, or toll, on them. <sup>7:25</sup>You, Ezra, after the wisdom of your God who is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges, who may judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your God; and teach him who doesn't know them. <sup>7:26</sup>Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. <sup>7:27</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem; <sup>7:28</sup>and has extended loving kindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to the hand of the LORD my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

him one hundred sixty males. <sup>8:11</sup>Of the sons of Bebai, Zechariah the son of Bebai; and with him twenty-eight males. <sup>8:12</sup>Of the sons of Azgad, Yochanan the son of Hakkatan; and with him one hundred ten males. <sup>8:13</sup>Of the sons of Adonikam, who were the last; and these are their names: Eliphelet, Jeuel, and Shemaiah; and with them sixty males. <sup>8:14</sup>Of the sons of Bigvai, Uthai and Zabbud; and with them seventy males. <sup>8:15</sup>I gathered them together to the river that runs to Ahava; and there we encamped three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sons of Levi. <sup>8:16</sup>Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, who were teachers. <sup>8:17</sup>I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, and his brothers the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God. <sup>8:18</sup>According to the good hand of our God on us they brought us a man of discretion, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brothers, eighteen; <sup>8:19</sup>and Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiiah of the sons of Merari, his brothers and their sons, twenty; <sup>8:20</sup>and of the Nethinim, whom David and the princes had given for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinim: all of them were mentioned by name. <sup>8:21</sup>Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance. <sup>8:22</sup>For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, "The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him." <sup>8:23</sup>So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he was entreated of us. <sup>8:24</sup>Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them, <sup>8:25</sup>and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his princes, and all Israel

there present, had offered: <sup>8:26</sup>I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents; <sup>8:27</sup>and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold. <sup>8:28</sup>I said to them, "You are holy to the LORD, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering to the LORD, the God of your fathers. <sup>8:29</sup>Watch, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' households of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of the LORD." <sup>8:30</sup>So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God. <sup>8:31</sup>Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way. <sup>8:32</sup>We came to Jerusalem, and stayed there three days. <sup>8:33</sup>On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Yeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite; <sup>8:34</sup>the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time. <sup>8:35</sup>The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>8:36</sup>They delivered the king's commissions to the king's satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and the house of God.

<sup>9:1</sup>Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me, saying, "The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, following their abominations, even those of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. <sup>9:2</sup>For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the peoples of the lands. Yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been

<sup>9:3</sup>When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded. <sup>9:4</sup>Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of their trespass of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering. <sup>9:5</sup>At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to the LORD my God; <sup>9:6</sup>and I said, “My God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities have increased over our head, and our guiltiness has grown up to the heavens. <sup>9:7</sup>Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities we, our kings, and our priests, have been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. <sup>9:8</sup>Now for a little moment grace has been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. <sup>9:9</sup>For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended loving kindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair its ruins, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

<sup>9:10</sup>“Now, our God, what shall we say after this? For we have forsaken your commandments, <sup>9:11</sup>which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness. <sup>9:12</sup>Now therefore don’t give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.’

<sup>9:13</sup>“After all that has come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, since you, our God, have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant,

<sup>9:14</sup>shall we again break your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? Wouldn’t you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape? <sup>9:15</sup>LORD, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that has escaped, as it is this day. Behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.”

<sup>10:5</sup>Then Ezra arose, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore. <sup>10:6</sup>Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the room of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came there, he ate no bread, nor drank water; for he mourned because of their trespass of the captivity. <sup>10:7</sup>They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem; <sup>10:8</sup>and that whoever didn’t come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity. <sup>10:9</sup>Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

them, "You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel. <sup>10:11</sup>Now therefore make confession to the LORD, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women."

<sup>10:12</sup>Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, "As you have said concerning us, so must we do. <sup>10:13</sup>But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside; neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter. <sup>10:14</sup>Let now our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter is resolved."

<sup>10:15</sup>Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this; and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. <sup>10:16</sup>The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest, with certain heads of fathers' households, after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter. <sup>10:17</sup>They made an end with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month. <sup>10:18</sup>Among the sons of the priests there were found who had married foreign women: of the sons of Yeshua, the son of Jozadak, and his brothers, Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and Gedaliah. <sup>10:19</sup>They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their guilt. <sup>10:20</sup>Of the sons of Immer: Hanani and Zebadiah. <sup>10:21</sup>Of the sons of Harim: Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, and Jehiel, and Uzziyah. <sup>10:22</sup>Of the sons of Pashhur: Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethanel, Jozabad, and Elasa. <sup>10:23</sup>Of the Levites: Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah (the same is Kelita), Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. <sup>10:24</sup>Of the singers: Eliashib. Of the porters: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. <sup>10:25</sup>Of Israel: Of the sons of Parosh: Ramiah, and Izziah, and Malchijah, and Mijamin, and Eleazar, and Malchijah, and Benaiah. <sup>10:26</sup>Of the sons of Elam: Mattaniah, Zechariah, and Jehiel, and Abdi, and Jeremoth, and Elijah. <sup>10:27</sup>Of the sons of Zattu: Elioenai, Eliashib, Mattaniah, and Jeremoth, and Zabad, and Aziza. <sup>10:28</sup>Of the sons of Bebai: Jehohanan, Hananiah, Zabbai, Athlai. <sup>10:29</sup>Of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Malluch, and Adaiah, Jashub, and Sheal, Jeremoth. <sup>10:30</sup>Of the sons of Pahathmoab: Adna, and Chelal, Benaiah, Maaseiah, Mattaniah, Bezalel, and Binnui, and Manasseh. <sup>10:31</sup>Of the sons of Harim: Eliezer, Isshijah, Malchijah, Shemaiah, Shimeon, <sup>10:32</sup>Benjamin, Malluch, Shemariah. <sup>10:33</sup>Of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabad, Eliphelet, Jeremai, Manasseh, Shimei. <sup>10:34</sup>Of the sons of Bani: Maadai, Amram, and Uel, <sup>10:35</sup>Benaiah, Bedeiah, Cheluhi, <sup>10:36</sup>Vaniah, Meremoth, Eliashib, <sup>10:37</sup>Mattaniah, Mattenai, and Jaasu, <sup>10:38</sup>and Bani, and Binnui, Shimei, <sup>10:39</sup>and Shelemiah, and Nathan, and Adaiah, <sup>10:40</sup>Machnadebai, Shashai, Sharai, <sup>10:41</sup>Azarel, and Shelemiah, Shemariah, <sup>10:42</sup>Shallum, Amariah, Joseph. <sup>10:43</sup>Of the sons of Nebo: Jeiel, Mattithiah, Zabad, Zebina, Iddo, and Joel, Benaiah. <sup>10:44</sup>All these had taken foreign wives; and some of them had wives by whom they had children.

Nehemiah

<sup>1:1</sup>The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. Now it happened in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace, <sup>1:2</sup>that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. <sup>1:3</sup>They said to me, "The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach. The wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire." <sup>1:4</sup>It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God<sup>a</sup> of heaven, <sup>1:5</sup>and said, "I beg you, LORD,<sup>b</sup> the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness with those who love him and keep his commandments: <sup>1:6</sup>Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned. <sup>1:7</sup>We have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.

<sup>1:8</sup>"Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, 'If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples; <sup>1:9</sup>but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.'

<sup>1:10</sup>"Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand. <sup>1:11</sup>Lord<sup>c</sup>, I beg you, let your ear be attentive now to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man."

Now I was cup bearer to the king.

<sup>2:1</sup>It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been sad before in his presence. <sup>2:2</sup>The king said to me, "Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is nothing else but sorrow of heart."

Then I was very much afraid. <sup>2:3</sup>I said to the king, "Let the king live forever! Why shouldn't my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and its gates have been consumed with fire?"

<sup>2:4</sup>Then the king said to me, "For what do you make request?"

So I prayed to the God of heaven. <sup>2:5</sup>I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, and if your servant has found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it."

<sup>2:6</sup>The king said to me (the queen was also sitting by him), "For how long shall your journey be? And when will you return?"

So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. <sup>2:7</sup>Moreover I said to the king, "If it pleases the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah; <sup>2:8</sup>and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the citadel by the temple, for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into."

The king granted my requests, because of the good hand of my God on me. <sup>2:9</sup>Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen. <sup>2:10</sup>When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. <sup>2:11</sup>So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days. <sup>2:12</sup>I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on. <sup>2:13</sup>I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and its gates were consumed with fire. <sup>2:14</sup>Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass. <sup>2:15</sup>Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned. <sup>2:16</sup>The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work. <sup>2:17</sup>Then I said to them, "You see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire. Come, let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we won't be disgraced." <sup>2:18</sup>I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me.

They said, "Let's rise up and build." So they strengthened their hands for the good work.

<sup>2:19</sup>But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they ridiculed us, and despised us, and said, "What is this thing that you are doing? Will you rebel against the king?"

<sup>2:20</sup>Then answered I them, and said to them, "The God of heaven will prosper us. Therefore we, his servants, will arise and build; but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem."

<sup>3:1</sup>Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up its doors; even to the tower of Hammeah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hananel. <sup>3:2</sup>Next to him built the men of Jericho. Next to them built Zaccur the son of Imri. <sup>3:3</sup>The sons of Hassenaah built the fish gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>3:4</sup>Next to them, Meremoth the son of Uriah, the son of Hakkoz made repairs. Next to them, Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabel made repairs. Next to them, Zadok the son of Baana made repairs. <sup>3:5</sup>Next to them, the Tekoites made repairs; but their nobles didn't put their necks to the work of their lord. <sup>3:6</sup>Joiada the son of Paseah and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah repaired the old gate. They laid its beams, and set up its doors, and its bolts, and its bars. <sup>3:7</sup>Next to them, Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, repaired the residence of the governor beyond the River. <sup>3:8</sup>Next to him, Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, goldsmiths, made repairs. Next to him, Hananiah one of the perfumers made repairs, and they fortified Jerusalem even to the broad wall. <sup>3:9</sup>Next to them, Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, made repairs. <sup>3:10</sup>Next to them, Jedaiah the son of Harumaph made repairs across from his house. Next to him, Hattush the son of Hashabneiah made repairs. <sup>3:11</sup>Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hasshub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired another portion, and the tower of the furnaces. <sup>3:12</sup>Next to him, Shallum the son of Hallohesh, the ruler of half the district of Jerusalem, he and his daughters, made repairs. <sup>3:13</sup>Hanun and the inhabitants of Zanoah repaired the valley gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and one thousand cubits of the wall to the dung gate. <sup>3:14</sup>Malchijah the son of Rechab, the ruler of the district of Beth Haccherem repaired the dung gate. He built it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars. <sup>3:15</sup>Shallun the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of the district of Mizpah repaired the spring gate. He built it, and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts, and its bars, and the wall of the pool of Shelah by the king's garden, even to the stairs that go down from the city of David. <sup>3:16</sup>After him, Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of half the district of Beth Zur, made repairs to the place opposite the tombs of David, and to the pool that was made, and to the house of the mighty men. <sup>3:17</sup>After him, the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani made repairs. Next to him, Hashabiah, the ruler of half the district of Keilah, made repairs for his district. <sup>3:18</sup>After him, their brothers, Bavvai the son of Henadad, the ruler of half the district of Keilah made repairs. <sup>3:19</sup>Next to him, Ezer the son of Yeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, repaired another portion, across from the ascent to the armory at the turning of the wall. <sup>3:20</sup>After him, Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired another portion, from the turning of the wall to the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. <sup>3:21</sup>After him, Meremoth the son of Uriah the son of Hakkoz repaired another portion, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. <sup>3:22</sup>After him, the priests, the men of the Plain made repairs. <sup>3:23</sup>After them, Benjamin and Hasshub made repairs across from their house. After them, Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah made repairs beside his own house. <sup>3:24</sup>After him, Binnui the son of Henadad repaired another portion, from the house of Azariah to the turning of the wall, and to the corner. <sup>3:25</sup>Palal the son of Uzai made repairs opposite the turning of the wall, and the tower that stands out from the upper house of the king, which is by the court of the guard. After him Pedaiah the son of Parosh made repairs. <sup>3:26</sup>(Now the Nethinim lived in Ophel, to the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower that stands out.) <sup>3:27</sup>After him the Tekoites repaired another portion, over against the great tower that stands out, and to the wall of Ophel. <sup>3:28</sup>Above the horse gate, the priests made repairs, everyone across from his own house. <sup>3:29</sup>After them, Zadok the son of Immer made repairs across from his own house. After him, Shemaiah the son of Shecaniah, the keeper of the east gate made repairs. <sup>3:30</sup>After him, Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, repaired another portion. After him, Meshullam the son of Berechiah made repairs across from his room. <sup>3:31</sup>After him, Malchijah one of the goldsmiths to the house of the Nethinim, and of the merchants, made repairs over against the gate of Hammiphkad, and to the ascent of the corner. <sup>3:32</sup>Between the ascent of the corner and the sheep gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

<sup>4:1</sup>But it happened that when Sanballat heard that we were building the wall, he was angry, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews. <sup>4:2</sup>He spoke before his brothers and the army of Samaria, and said, "What are these feeble Jews doing? Will they fortify themselves? Will they sacrifice? Will they finish in a day? Will they revive the stones out of the heaps of rubbish, since they are burned?" <sup>4:3</sup>Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, "What they are building, if a fox climbed up it, he would break down their stone wall."

turn back their reproach on their own head, give them up for a spoil in a land of captivity; <sup>4:5</sup>don't cover their iniquity, and don't let their sin be blotted out from before you; for they have insulted the builders."

<sup>4:6</sup>So we built the wall; and all the wall was joined together to half its height: for the people had a mind to work. <sup>4:7</sup>But it happened that when Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabians, the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites heard that the repairing of the walls of Jerusalem went forward, and that the breaches began to be filled, then they were very angry; <sup>4:8</sup>and they conspired all of them together to come and fight against Jerusalem, and to cause confusion therein. <sup>4:9</sup>But we made our prayer to our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. <sup>4:10</sup>Judah said, "The strength of the bearers of burdens is fading, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall." <sup>4:11</sup>Our adversaries said, "They shall not know, neither see, until we come into their midst, and kill them, and cause the work to cease."

<sup>4:12</sup>It happened that when the Jews who lived by them came, they said to us ten times from all places, "Wherever you turn, they will attack us." <sup>4:13</sup>Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. <sup>4:14</sup>I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, "Don't be afraid of them! Remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses."

<sup>4:15</sup>It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work. <sup>4:16</sup>It happened from that time forth, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. <sup>4:17</sup>They all built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands worked in the work, and with the other held his weapon; <sup>4:18</sup>and the builders, everyone wore his sword at his side, and so built. He who sounded the shofar<sup>d</sup> was by me. <sup>4:19</sup>I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, "The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another. <sup>4:20</sup>Wherever you hear the sound of the shofar<sup>e</sup>, rally there to us. Our God will fight for us."

<sup>4:21</sup>So we worked in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared. <sup>4:22</sup>Likewise at the same time said I to the people, "Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day." <sup>4:23</sup>So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our clothes. Everyone took his weapon to the water.

<sup>5:1</sup>Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews. <sup>5:2</sup>For there were that said, "We, our sons and our daughters, are many. Let us get grain, that we may eat and live." <sup>5:3</sup>Some also there were that said, "We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses. Let us get grain, because of the famine." <sup>5:4</sup>There were also some who said, "We have borrowed money for the king's tribute using our fields and our vineyards as collateral. <sup>5:5</sup>Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children. Behold, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters have been brought into bondage. Neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards."

<sup>5:6</sup>I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words. <sup>5:7</sup>Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, "You exact usury, everyone of his brother." I held a great assembly against them. <sup>5:8</sup>I said to them, "We, after our ability, have redeemed our brothers the Jews that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us?" Then they held their peace, and found never a word. <sup>5:9</sup>Also I said, "The thing that you do is not good. Ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies? <sup>5:10</sup>I likewise, my brothers and my servants, lend them money and grain. Please let us stop this usury. <sup>5:11</sup>Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you are charging them."

<sup>5:12</sup>Then they said, "We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say."

Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise. <sup>5:13</sup>Also I shook out my lap, and said, "So may God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied."

All the assembly said, "Amen," and praised the LORD. The people did according to this promise.

<sup>5:14</sup>Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor. <sup>5:15</sup>But the former governors who were before me were supported by the people, and took bread and wine from them, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants ruled over the people: but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God. <sup>5:16</sup>Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work. <sup>5:17</sup>Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were around us. <sup>5:18</sup>Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I didn't demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people. <sup>5:19</sup>Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.

<sup>6:1</sup>Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;) <sup>6:2</sup>that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, "Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono." But they intended to harm me.

<sup>6:3</sup>I sent messengers to them, saying, "I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down. Why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?" <sup>6:4</sup>They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them the same way. <sup>6:5</sup>Then Sanballat sent his servant to me the same way the fifth time with an open letter in his hand, <sup>6:6</sup>in which was written, "It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews intend to rebel. Because of that, you are building the wall. You would be their king, according to these words. <sup>6:7</sup>You have also appointed prophets to proclaim of you at Jerusalem, saying, 'There is a king in Judah!' Now it will be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together."

<sup>6:8</sup>Then I sent to him, saying, "There are no such things done as you say, but you imagine them out of your own heart." <sup>6:9</sup>For they all would have made us afraid, saying, "Their hands will be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, strengthen my hands."

<sup>6:10</sup>I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut in at his home; and he said, "Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple; for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you."

<sup>6:11</sup>I said, "Should such a man as I flee? Who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in." <sup>6:12</sup>I discerned, and behold, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me. Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. <sup>6:13</sup>He hired so that I would be afraid, do so, and sin, and that they might have material for an evil report, that they might reproach me. <sup>6:14</sup>"Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear."

<sup>6:15</sup>So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth day of Elul, in fifty-two days. <sup>6:16</sup>It happened, when all our enemies heard of it, that all the nations that were about us were afraid, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was worked of our God. <sup>6:17</sup>Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and Tobiah's letters came to them. <sup>6:18</sup>For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife. <sup>6:19</sup>Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

<sup>7:1</sup>Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, <sup>7:2</sup>that I put my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, in charge of Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. <sup>7:3</sup>I said to them, "Don't let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun is hot; and while they stand guard, let them shut the doors, and you bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, with everyone near his house."

<sup>7:4</sup>Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built. <sup>7:5</sup>My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written therein: <sup>7:6</sup>These are the children of the province, who went up out of the captivity of those who had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and who returned to Jerusalem and to Judah, everyone to his city; <sup>7:7</sup>who came with Zerubbabel, Yeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: <sup>7:8</sup>The children of Parosh, two thousand one hundred seventy-two. <sup>7:9</sup>The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy-two. <sup>7:10</sup>The children of Arah, six hundred fifty-two. <sup>7:11</sup>The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Yeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred eighteen. <sup>7:12</sup>The children of Elam, one thousand two hundred fifty-four. <sup>7:13</sup>The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty-five. <sup>7:14</sup>The children of Zaccai, seven hundred sixty. <sup>7:15</sup>The children of Binnui, six hundred forty-eight. <sup>7:16</sup>The children of Bebai, six hundred twenty-eight. <sup>7:17</sup>The children of Azgad, two thousand three hundred twenty-two. <sup>7:18</sup>The children of Adonikam, six hun-

of Harhur, <sup>7:54</sup>the children of Bazlith, the children of Mehida, the children of Harsha, <sup>7:55</sup>the children of Barkos, the children of Sisera, the children of Temah, <sup>7:56</sup>the children of Neziah, the children of Hatipha. <sup>7:57</sup>The children of Solomon's servants: the children of Sotai, the children of Sophereth, the children of Perida, <sup>7:58</sup>the children of Jaala, the children of Darkon, the children of Giddel, <sup>7:59</sup>the children of Shephatiah, the children of Hattil, the children of Pochereth Hazzebaim, the children of Amon. <sup>7:60</sup>All the Nethinim, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety-two. <sup>7:61</sup>These were those who went up from Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer; but they could not show their fathers' houses, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel: <sup>7:62</sup>The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty-two. <sup>7:63</sup>Of the priests: the children of Hobaiah, the children of Hakkoz, the children of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name. <sup>7:64</sup>These searched for their genealogical records, but couldn't find them. Therefore were they deemed polluted and put from the priesthood. <sup>7:65</sup>The governor said to them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, until there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. <sup>7:66</sup>The whole assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred sixty, <sup>7:67</sup>besides their male servants and their female servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty-seven: and they had two hundred forty-five singing men and singing women. <sup>7:68</sup>Their horses were seven hundred thirty-six; their mules, two hundred forty-five; <sup>7:69</sup>their camels, four hundred thirty-five; their donkeys, six thousand seven hundred twenty. <sup>7:70</sup>Some from among the heads of fathers' households gave to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand darics of gold, fifty basins, and five hundred thirty priests' garments. <sup>7:71</sup>Some of the heads of fathers' households gave into the treasury of the work twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand two hundred minas of silver. <sup>7:72</sup>That which the rest of the people gave was twenty thousand darics of gold, and two thousand minas of silver, and sixty-seven priests' garments. <sup>7:73</sup>So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Israel, lived in their cities. When the seventh month had come, the children of Israel were in their cities.

<sup>8:1</sup>All the people gathered themselves together as one man into the broad place that was before the water gate; and they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the scroll of the Torah of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. <sup>8:2</sup>Ezra the priest brought the law before the assembly, both men and women, and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month. <sup>8:3</sup>He read therein before the broad place that was before the water gate from early morning until midday, in the presence of the men and the women, and of those who could understand; and the ears of all the people were attentive to the scroll of the Torah. <sup>8:4</sup>Ezra the scribe stood on a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiiah, and Uriah, and Hilkiyah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchijah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Zechariah, and Meshullam. <sup>8:5</sup>Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: <sup>8:6</sup>and Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. All the people answered, "Amen, Amen," with the lifting up of their hands. They bowed their heads, and worshiped the LORD with their faces to the ground. <sup>8:7</sup>Also Yeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand the law: and the people stayed in their place. <sup>8:8</sup>They read in the book, in the law of God, distinctly; and they gave the sense, so that they understood the reading. <sup>8:9</sup>Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people, said to all the people, "This day is holy to the LORD your God. Don't mourn, nor weep." For all the people wept, when they heard the words of the law. <sup>8:10</sup>Then he said to them, "Go your way. Eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to him for whom nothing is prepared; for this day is holy to our Lord. Don't be grieved; for the joy of the LORD is your strength."

<sup>8:12</sup>All the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared to them. <sup>8:13</sup>On the second day were gathered together the heads of fathers' households of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, to Ezra the scribe, even to give attention to the words of the law. <sup>8:14</sup>They found written in the Torah, how that the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month; <sup>8:15</sup>and that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, "Go out to the mountain, and get olive branches, and branches of wild olive, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written."

<sup>8:16</sup>So the people went out, and brought them, and made themselves booths, everyone on the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the broad place of the water gate, and in the broad place of the gate of Ephraim. <sup>8:17</sup>All the assembly of those who had come again out of the captivity made booths, and lived in the booths; for since the days of Yeshua the son of Nun to that day the children of Israel had not done so. There was very great gladness. <sup>8:18</sup>Also day by day, from the first day to the last day, he read in the scroll of the Torah of God. They kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according to the ordinance.

miel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, "Stand up and bless the LORD your God from everlasting to everlasting! Blessed be your glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise!<sup>9:6</sup> You are the LORD, even you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their army, the earth and all things that are on it, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all. The army of heaven worships you.<sup>9:7</sup> You are the LORD, the God who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur-Kasdim, and gave him the name of Abraham,<sup>9:8</sup> and found his heart faithful before you, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his seed, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.

<sup>9:16</sup>"But they and our fathers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, didn't listen to your commandments,<sup>9:17</sup> and refused to obey, neither were they mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in loving kindness, and didn't forsake them.<sup>9:18</sup> Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, 'This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt,' and had committed awful blasphemies;<sup>9:19</sup> yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go.<sup>9:20</sup> You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

<sup>9:21</sup>"Yes, forty years you sustained them in the wilderness. They lacked nothing. Their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell.<sup>9:22</sup> Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you allotted according to their portions. So they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.<sup>9:23</sup> You also multiplied their children as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you said to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

<sup>9:24</sup>"So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they pleased.<sup>9:25</sup> They took fortified cities, and a rich land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns dug out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit trees in abundance. So they ate, were filled, became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.

the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them; yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times you delivered them according to your mercies, <sup>9:29</sup>and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a man does, he shall live in them), turned their backs, stiffened their neck, and would not hear. <sup>9:30</sup>Yet many years you put up with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets. Yet would they not give ear. Therefore you gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

<sup>9:31</sup>"Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God. <sup>9:32</sup>Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keeps covenant and loving kindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day. <sup>9:33</sup>However you are just in all that has come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly; <sup>9:34</sup>neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you testified against them. <sup>9:35</sup>For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and rich land which you gave before them, neither did they turn from their wicked works.

<sup>9:36</sup>"Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat its fruit and its good, behold, we are servants in it. <sup>9:37</sup>It yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our livestock, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. <sup>9:38</sup>Yet for all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, and our priests, seal it."

Obadiah, <sup>10:6</sup>Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, <sup>10:7</sup>Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, <sup>10:8</sup>Maaziah, Bilgai, Shemaiah; these were the priests. <sup>10:9</sup>The Levites: namely, Yeshua the son of Azariah, Binnui of the sons of Henadad, Kadmiel; <sup>10:10</sup>and their brothers, Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiah, Hanan, <sup>10:11</sup>Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, <sup>10:12</sup>Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, <sup>10:13</sup>Hodiah, Bani, Beninu. <sup>10:14</sup>The chiefs of the people: Parosh, Pahathmoab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, <sup>10:15</sup>Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, <sup>10:16</sup>Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, <sup>10:17</sup>Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, <sup>10:18</sup>Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, <sup>10:19</sup>Hariph, Anathoth, Nobai, <sup>10:20</sup>Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, <sup>10:21</sup>Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, <sup>10:22</sup>Pelataiah, Hanan, Anaiah, <sup>10:23</sup>Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, <sup>10:24</sup>Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, <sup>10:25</sup>Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, <sup>10:26</sup>and Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, <sup>10:27</sup>Malluch, Harim, Baanah. <sup>10:28</sup>The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding— <sup>10:29</sup>they joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes; <sup>10:30</sup>and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons; <sup>10:31</sup>and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. <sup>10:32</sup>Also we made ordinances for ourselves, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; <sup>10:33</sup>for the show bread, and for the continual meal offering, and for the continual burnt offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. <sup>10:34</sup>We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the Torah; <sup>10:35</sup>and to bring the first fruits of our ground, and the first fruits of all fruit of all kinds of trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD; <sup>10:36</sup>also the firstborn of our sons, and of our livestock, as it is written in the Torah, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God; <sup>10:37</sup>and that we should bring the first fruits of our dough, and our wave offerings, and the fruit of all kinds of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. <sup>10:38</sup>The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the rooms, into the treasure house. <sup>10:39</sup>For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the wave offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the rooms, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers. We will not forsake the house of our God.

Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, the son of Ithiel, the son of Jeshaiiah. <sup>11:8</sup>After him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty-eight. <sup>11:9</sup>Joel the son of Zichri was their overseer; and Judah the son of Hassenuah was second over the city. <sup>11:10</sup>Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin, <sup>11:11</sup>Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God, <sup>11:12</sup>and their brothers who did the work of the house, eight hundred twenty-two; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, <sup>11:13</sup>and his brothers, chiefs of fathers' households, two hundred forty-two; and Amashsai the son of Azarel, the son of Ahzai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of Immer, <sup>11:14</sup>and their brothers, mighty men of valor, one hundred twenty-eight; and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of Hagedolim. <sup>11:15</sup>Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; <sup>11:16</sup>and Shabbethai and Jozabad, of the chiefs of the Levites, who had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God; <sup>11:17</sup>and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, who was the chief to begin the thanksgiving in prayer, and Bakbukiah, the second among his brothers; and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. <sup>11:18</sup>All the Levites in the holy city were two hundred eighty-four. <sup>11:19</sup>Moreover the porters, Akkub, Talmon, and their brothers, who kept watch at the gates, were one hundred seventy-two. <sup>11:20</sup>The residue of Israel, of the priests, the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, everyone in his inheritance. <sup>11:21</sup>But the Nethinim lived in Ophel: and Ziha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim. <sup>11:22</sup>The overseer also of the Levites at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Mica, of the sons of Asaph, the singers, over the business of the house of God. <sup>11:23</sup>For there was a commandment from the king concerning them, and a settled provision for the singers, as every day required. <sup>11:24</sup>Pethahiah the son of Meshezabel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. <sup>11:25</sup>As for the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah lived in Kiriath Arba and its towns, and in Dibon and its towns, and in Jekabzeel and its villages, <sup>11:26</sup>and in Yeshua, and in Moladah, and Beth Pelet, <sup>11:27</sup>and in Hazar Shual, and in Beersheba and its towns, <sup>11:28</sup>and in Ziklag, and in Meconah and in its towns, <sup>11:29</sup>and in En Rimmon, and in Zorah, and in Jarmuth, <sup>11:30</sup>Zanoah, Adullam, and their villages, Lachish and its fields, Azekah and its towns. So they encamped from Beersheba to the valley of Hinnom. <sup>11:31</sup>The children of Benjamin also lived from Geba onward, at Michmash and Aija, and at Bethel and its towns, <sup>11:32</sup>at Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, <sup>11:33</sup>Hazar, Ramah, Gittaim, <sup>11:34</sup>Hadid, Zeboim, Neballat, <sup>11:35</sup>Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. <sup>11:36</sup>Of the Levites, certain divisions in Judah settled in Benjamin's territory.

Eliashib, Joiada, and Yochanan, and Jaddua, there were recorded the heads of fathers' households; also the priests, in the reign of Darius the Persian. <sup>12:23</sup>The sons of Levi, heads of fathers' households, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Yochanan the son of Eliashib. <sup>12:24</sup>The chiefs of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Yeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brothers over against them, to praise and give thanks, according to the commandment of David the man of God, watch next to watch. <sup>12:25</sup>Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the watch at the storehouses of the gates. <sup>12:26</sup>These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Yeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest the scribe. <sup>12:27</sup>At the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with giving thanks, and with singing, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and with harps. <sup>12:28</sup>The sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain around Jerusalem, and from the villages of the Netophathites; <sup>12:29</sup>also from Beth Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages around Jerusalem. <sup>12:30</sup>The priests and the Levites purified themselves; and they purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. <sup>12:31</sup>Then I brought up the princes of Judah on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession. One went on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate; <sup>12:32</sup>and after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, <sup>12:33</sup>and Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, <sup>12:34</sup>Judah, and Benjamin, and Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, <sup>12:35</sup>and certain of the priests' sons with shofars<sup>f</sup>: Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph; <sup>12:36</sup>and his brothers, Shemaiah, and Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God; and Ezra the scribe was before them. <sup>12:37</sup>By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward. <sup>12:38</sup>The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall, <sup>12:39</sup>and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard. <sup>12:40</sup>So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me; <sup>12:41</sup>and the priests, Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with shofars<sup>g</sup>; <sup>12:42</sup>and Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. The singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. <sup>12:43</sup>They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. <sup>12:44</sup>On that day were men appointed over the rooms for the treasures, for the wave offerings, for the first fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited. <sup>12:45</sup>They performed the duty of their God, and the duty of the purification, and so did the singers and the porters, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son. <sup>12:46</sup>For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God. <sup>12:47</sup>All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they set apart that which was for the Levites; and the Levites set apart that which was for the sons of Aaron.

<sup>13:1</sup>On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever, <sup>13:2</sup>because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse

them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing. <sup>13:3</sup>It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude. <sup>13:4</sup>Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the rooms of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah, <sup>13:5</sup>had prepared for him a great room, where before they laid the meal offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the wave offerings for the priests. <sup>13:6</sup>But in all this, I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king: and after certain days asked I leave of the king, <sup>13:7</sup>and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a room in the courts of the house of God. <sup>13:8</sup>It grieved me severely: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the room. <sup>13:9</sup>Then I commanded, and they cleansed the rooms: and there brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the frankincense. <sup>13:10</sup>I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, had fled everyone to his field. <sup>13:11</sup>Then I contended with the rulers, and said, "Why is the house of God forsaken?" I gathered them together, and set them in their place. <sup>13:12</sup>Then brought again Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries. <sup>13:13</sup>I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers. <sup>13:14</sup>Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its observances. <sup>13:15</sup>In those days saw I in Judah some men treading winepresses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold food. <sup>13:16</sup>There lived men of Tyre also therein, who brought in fish, and all kinds of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. <sup>13:17</sup>Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, "What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day? <sup>13:18</sup>Didn't your fathers do thus, and didn't our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? Yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath."

<sup>13:19</sup>It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath. I set some of my servants over the gates, that no burden should be brought in on the Sabbath day. <sup>13:20</sup>So the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice. <sup>13:21</sup>Then I testified against them, and said to them, "Why do you stay around the wall? If you do so again, I will lay hands on you." From that time on, they didn't come on the Sabbath. <sup>13:22</sup>I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your loving kindness. <sup>13:23</sup>In those days also saw I the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: <sup>13:24</sup>and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people. <sup>13:25</sup>I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, "You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves. <sup>13:26</sup>Didn't Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? Yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel. Nevertheless foreign women caused even him to sin. <sup>13:27</sup>Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?"

<sup>13:28</sup>One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me. <sup>13:29</sup>Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites. <sup>13:30</sup>Thus I cleansed them from all foreigners, and appointed duties for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work; <sup>13:31</sup>and for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the first fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.

The First Book of Chronicles

of Midian: Ephah, and Epher, and Hanoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were the sons of Keturah. <sup>1:34</sup>Abraham became the father of Isaac. The sons of Isaac: Esau, and Israel. <sup>1:35</sup>The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jalam, and Korah. <sup>1:36</sup>The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, and Omar, Zephi, and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and Amalek. <sup>1:37</sup>The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah. <sup>1:38</sup>The sons of Seir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. <sup>1:39</sup>The sons of Lotan: Hori, and Homam; and Timna was Lotan's sister. <sup>1:40</sup>The sons of Shobal: Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi, and Onam. The sons of Zibeon: Aiah, and Anah. <sup>1:41</sup>The sons of Anah: Dishon. The sons of Dishon: Hamran, and Eshban, and Ithran, and Cheran. <sup>1:42</sup>The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, Jaakan. The sons of Dishan: Uz, and Aran. <sup>1:43</sup>Now these are the kings who reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel: Bela the son of Beor; and the name of his city was Dinhabah. <sup>1:44</sup>Bela died, and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in his place. <sup>1:45</sup>Jobab died, and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his place. <sup>1:46</sup>Husham died, and Hadad the son of Bedad, who struck Midian in the field of Moab, reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Avith. <sup>1:47</sup>Hadad died, and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his place. <sup>1:48</sup>Samlah died, and Shaul of Rehoboth by the River reigned in his place. <sup>1:49</sup>Shaul died, and Baal Hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his place. <sup>1:50</sup>Baal Hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his place; and the name of his city was Pai: and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred, the daughter of Mezahab. <sup>1:51</sup>Hadad died. The chiefs of Edom were: chief Timna, chief Aliah, chief Jetheth, <sup>1:52</sup>chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, <sup>1:53</sup>chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief Mibzar, <sup>1:54</sup>chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom.

the LORD;<sup>a</sup> and he killed him. <sup>2:4</sup>Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Perez and Zerah. All the sons of Judah were five. <sup>2:5</sup>The sons of Perez: Hezron, and Hamul. <sup>2:6</sup>The sons of Zerah: Zimri, and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara; five of them in all. <sup>2:7</sup>The sons of Carmi: Achar, the troubler of Israel, who committed a trespass in the devoted thing. <sup>2:8</sup>The sons of Ethan: Azariah. <sup>2:9</sup>The sons also of Hezron, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, and Ram, and Chelubai. <sup>2:10</sup>Ram became the father of Amminadab, and Amminadab became the father of Nahshon, prince of the children of Judah; <sup>2:11</sup>and Nahshon became the father of Salma, and Salma became the father of Boaz, <sup>2:12</sup>and Boaz became the father of Obed, and Obed became the father of Jesse; <sup>2:13</sup>and Jesse became the father of his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimea the third, <sup>2:14</sup>Nethanel the fourth, Raddai the fifth, <sup>2:15</sup>Ozem the sixth, David the seventh; <sup>2:16</sup>and their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail. The sons of Zeruiah: Abishai, and Joab, and Asahel, three. <sup>2:17</sup>Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite. <sup>2:18</sup>Caleb the son of Hezron became the father of children of Azubah his wife, and of Jerioth; and these were her sons: Jeshur, and Shobab, and Ardon. <sup>2:19</sup>Azubah died, and Caleb took to him Ephrath, who bore him Hur. <sup>2:20</sup>Hur became the father of Uri, and Uri became the father of Bezalel. <sup>2:21</sup>Afterward Hezron went in to the daughter of Machir the father of Gilead, whom he took as wife when he was sixty years old; and she bore him Segub. <sup>2:22</sup>Segub became the father of Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gilead. <sup>2:23</sup>Geshur and Aram took the towns of Jair from them, with Kenath, and its villages, even sixty cities. All these were the sons of Machir the father of Gilead. <sup>2:24</sup>After that Hezron was dead in Caleb Ephrathah, then Abijah Hezron's wife bore him Ashhur the father of Tekoa. <sup>2:25</sup>The sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and Oren, and Ozem, Ahijah. <sup>2:26</sup>Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam. <sup>2:27</sup>The sons of Ram the firstborn of Jerahmeel were Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker. <sup>2:28</sup>The sons of Onam were Shammai, and Jada. The sons of Shammai: Nadab, and Abishur. <sup>2:29</sup>The name of the wife of Abishur was Abihail; and she bore him Ahban, and Molid. <sup>2:30</sup>The sons of Nadab: Seled, and Appaim; but Seled died without children. <sup>2:31</sup>The sons of Appaim: Ishi. The sons of Ishi: Sheshan. The sons of Sheshan: Ahlai. <sup>2:32</sup>The sons of Jada the brother of Shammai: Jether, and Jonathan; and Jether died without children. <sup>2:33</sup>The sons of Jonathan: Peleth, and Zaza. These were the sons of Jerahmeel. <sup>2:34</sup>Now Sheshan had no sons, but daughters. Sheshan had a servant, an Egyptian, whose name was Jarha. <sup>2:35</sup>Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as wife; and she bore him Attai. <sup>2:36</sup>Attai became the father of Nathan, and Nathan became the father of Zabad, <sup>2:37</sup>and Zabad became the father of Ephlal, and Ephlal became the father of Obed, <sup>2:38</sup>and Obed became the father of Jehu, and Jehu became the father of Azariah, <sup>2:39</sup>and Azariah became the father of Helez, and Helez became the father of Eleasah, <sup>2:40</sup>and Eleasah became the father of Sismai, and Sismai became the father of Shallum, <sup>2:41</sup>and Shallum became the father of Jekamiah, and Jekamiah became the father of Elishama. <sup>2:42</sup>The sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph; and the sons of Mareshah the father of Hebron. <sup>2:43</sup>The sons of Hebron: Korah, and Tappuah, and Rekem, and Shema. <sup>2:44</sup>Shema became the father of Raham, the father of Jorkeam; and Rekem became the father of Shammai. <sup>2:45</sup>The son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon was the father of Beth Zur. <sup>2:46</sup>Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez; and Haran became the father of Gazez. <sup>2:47</sup>The sons of Jahdai: Regem, and Jothan, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, and Shaaph. <sup>2:48</sup>Maacah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah. <sup>2:49</sup>She bore also Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena, and the father of Gibeaz; and the daughter of Caleb was Achsah. <sup>2:50</sup>These were the sons of Caleb, the son of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah: Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim, <sup>2:51</sup>Salma the father of Bethlehem, Hareph the father of Beth Gader. <sup>2:52</sup>Shobal the father of Kiriath Jearim had sons: Haroeh, half of the Menuhoth. <sup>2:53</sup>The families of Kiriath Jearim: The Ithrites, and the Puthites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zorathites and the Eshtaolites. <sup>2:54</sup>The sons of Salma: Bethlehem, and the Netophathites, Atroth Beth Joab, and half of the Manahathites, the Zorites. <sup>2:55</sup>The families of scribes who lived at Jabez: the Tirathites, the Shimeathites, the Sucathites. These are the Kenites who came of Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now these were the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron: the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel, of Abigail the Carmelitess; <sup>3:2</sup>the third, Absalom the son of Maacah the daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; <sup>3:3</sup>the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital; the sixth, Ithream by Eglah his wife: <sup>3:4</sup>six were born to him in Hebron; and there he reigned seven years and six months. In Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years; <sup>3:5</sup>and these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bathshua the daughter of Ammiel; <sup>3:6</sup>and Ibhar, and Elishama, and Eliphelet, <sup>3:7</sup>and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>3:8</sup>and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, nine. <sup>3:9</sup>All these were the sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines; and Tamar was their sister. <sup>3:10</sup>Solomon's son was Rehoboam, Abijah his son, Asa his son, Jehoshaphat his son, <sup>3:11</sup>Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, <sup>3:12</sup>Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, Jotham his son, <sup>3:13</sup>Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his son, <sup>3:14</sup>Amon his son, Josiah his son. <sup>3:15</sup>The sons of Josiah: the firstborn Yochanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the fourth Shallum. <sup>3:16</sup>The sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, Zedekiah his son. <sup>3:17</sup>The sons of Jeconiah, the captive: Shealtiel his son, <sup>3:18</sup>and Malchiram, and Pedaiiah, and Shenazzar, Jekamiah, Hoshama, and Nedabiah. <sup>3:19</sup>The sons of Pedaiiah: Zerubbabel, and Shimei. The sons of Zerubbabel: Meshullam, and Hananiah; and Shelomith was their sister; <sup>3:20</sup>and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berechiah, and Hasadiah, Jushab Hesus, five. <sup>3:21</sup>The sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah, and Jeshaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the sons of Shecaniah. <sup>3:22</sup>The sons of Shecaniah: Shemaiah. The sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, and Igal, and Bariah, and Neariah, and Shaphat, six. <sup>3:23</sup>The sons of Neariah: Elieoenai, and Hizkiah, and Azrikam, three. <sup>3:24</sup>The sons of Elieoenai: Hodaviah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Yochanan, and Delaiah, and Anani, seven.

<sup>4:1</sup>The sons of Judah: Perez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and Shobal. <sup>4:2</sup>Reaiah the son of Shobal became the father of Jahath; and Jahath became the father of Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zorathites. <sup>4:3</sup>These were the sons of the father of Etam: Jezreel, and Ishma, and Idbash; and the name of their sister was Hazzeleponi; <sup>4:4</sup>and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah. These are the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephrathah, the father of Bethlehem. <sup>4:5</sup>Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and Naarah. <sup>4:6</sup>Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, and Hopher, and Temeni, and Haahashtari. These were the sons of Naarah. <sup>4:7</sup>The sons of Helah were Zereth, Izhar, and Ethnan. <sup>4:8</sup>Hakkoz became the father of Anub, and Zobebah, and the families of Aharhel the son of Harum. <sup>4:9</sup>Jabez was more honorable than his brothers: and his mother named him Jabez, saying, "Because I bore him with sorrow."

<sup>4:10</sup>Jabez called on the God<sup>b</sup> of Israel, saying, "Oh that you would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that your hand might be with me, and that you would keep me from evil, that it not be to my sorrow!"

God granted him that which he requested. <sup>4:11</sup>Chelub the brother of Shuhah became the father of Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. <sup>4:12</sup>Eshton became the father of Beth Rapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of Ir Nahash. These are the men of Rechab. <sup>4:13</sup>The sons of Kenaz: Othniel, and Seraiah. The sons of Othniel: Hathath. <sup>4:14</sup>Meonothai became the father of Ophrah: and Seraiah became the father of Joab the father of Ge Harashim; for they were craftsmen. <sup>4:15</sup>The sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam; and the sons of Elah; and Kenaz. <sup>4:16</sup>The sons of Jehallelel: Ziph, and Ziphah, Tiria, and Asarel. <sup>4:17</sup>The sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Ephraim, and Jalon; and she bore Miriam, and Shammai, and Ishbah the father of Eshtemoa. <sup>4:18</sup>His wife Yehudiyah bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Soco, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. These are the sons of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mered took. <sup>4:19</sup>The sons of the wife of Hodiah, the sister of Naham, were the father of Keilah

the Garmite, and Eshtemoa the Maacathite. <sup>4:20</sup>The sons of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben Hanan, and Tilon. The sons of Ishi: Zoheth, and Ben Zoheth. <sup>4:21</sup>The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lecah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of those who worked fine linen, of the house of Ashbea; <sup>4:22</sup>and Jokim, and the men of Cozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who had dominion in Moab, and Jashubilehem. The records are ancient. <sup>4:23</sup>These were the potters, and the inhabitants of Netaim and Gederah: there they lived with the king for his work. <sup>4:24</sup>The sons of Simeon: Nemuel, and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, Shaul; <sup>4:25</sup>Shallum his son, Mibsam his son, Mishma his son. <sup>4:26</sup>The sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his son. <sup>4:27</sup>Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters; but his brothers didn't have many children, neither did all their family multiply like the children of Judah. <sup>4:28</sup>They lived at Beersheba, and Moladah, and Hazarshual, <sup>4:29</sup>and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at Tolad, <sup>4:30</sup>and at Bethuel, and at Hormah, and at Ziklag, <sup>4:31</sup>and at Beth Marcaboth, and Hazar Susim, and at Beth Biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities to the reign of David. <sup>4:32</sup>Their villages were Etam, and Ain, Rimmon, and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities; <sup>4:33</sup>and all their villages that were around the same cities, to Baal. These were their habitations, and they have their genealogy. <sup>4:34</sup>Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, <sup>4:35</sup>and Joel, and Jehu the son of Joshibiah, the son of Seraiah, the son of Asiel, <sup>4:36</sup>and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, and Benaiah, <sup>4:37</sup>and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the son of Shemaiah—<sup>4:38</sup>these mentioned by name were princes in their families: and their fathers' houses increased greatly. <sup>4:39</sup>They went to the entrance of Gedor, even to the east side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks. <sup>4:40</sup>They found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable; for those who lived there before were of Ham. <sup>4:41</sup>These written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and struck their tents, and the Meunim who were found there, and destroyed them utterly to this day, and lived in their place; because there was pasture there for their flocks. <sup>4:42</sup>Some of them, even of the sons of Simeon, five hundred men, went to Mount Seir, having for their captains Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons of Ishi. <sup>4:43</sup>They struck the remnant of the Amalekites who escaped, and have lived there to this day.

<sup>5:1</sup>The sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but, because he defiled his father's couch, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; and the genealogy is not to be reckoned after the birthright. <sup>5:2</sup>For Judah prevailed above his brothers, and of him came the prince; but the birthright was Joseph's: <sup>5:3</sup>the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel: Hanoah, and Pallu, Hezron, and Carmi. <sup>5:4</sup>The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei his son, <sup>5:5</sup>Micah his son, Reaiah his son, Baal his son, <sup>5:6</sup>Beerah his son, whom Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites. <sup>5:7</sup>His brothers by their families, when the genealogy of their generations was reckoned: the chief, Jeiel, and Zechariah, <sup>5:8</sup>and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who lived in Aroer, even to Nebo and Baal Meon: <sup>5:9</sup>and eastward he lived even to the entrance of the wilderness from the river Euphrates, because their livestock were multiplied in the land of Gilead. <sup>5:10</sup>In the days of Saul, they made war with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand; and they lived in their tents throughout all the land east of Gilead. <sup>5:11</sup>The sons of Gad lived over against them, in the land of Bashan to Salecah: <sup>5:12</sup>Joel the chief, and Shapham the second, and Janai, and Shaphat in Bashan. <sup>5:13</sup>Their brothers of their fathers' houses: Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jacan, and Zia, and Eber, seven. <sup>5:14</sup>These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, the son of Buz; <sup>5:15</sup>Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, chief of their fathers' houses. <sup>5:16</sup>They lived in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns, and in all the suburbs of Sharon, as far as their borders. <sup>5:17</sup>All these were reckoned by genealogies in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel. <sup>5:18</sup>The sons of Reuben, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty, that were able to go forth to war. <sup>5:19</sup>They made war with the Hagrites, with Jetur, and Naphish, and Nodab. <sup>5:20</sup>They were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all who were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was entreated of them, because they put their trust in him. <sup>5:21</sup>They took away their livestock; of their camels fifty thousand, and of sheep two hundred fifty thousand, and of donkeys two thousand, and of men one hundred thousand. <sup>5:22</sup>For there fell many slain, because the war was of God. They lived in their place until the captivity. <sup>5:23</sup>The children of the half-tribe of Manasseh lived in the land: they increased from Bashan to Baal Hermon and Senir and Mount Hermon. <sup>5:24</sup>These were the heads of their fathers' houses: even Ephraim, and Ishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valor, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses. <sup>5:25</sup>They trespassed against the God of their fathers, and played the prostitute after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God destroyed before them. <sup>5:26</sup>The God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, even the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river of Gozan, to this day.

Solomon built in Jerusalem), <sup>6:11</sup>and Azariah became the father of Amariah, and Amariah became the father of Ahitub, <sup>6:12</sup>and Ahitub became the father of Zadok, and Zadok became the father of Shallum, <sup>6:13</sup>and Shallum became the father of Hilkiyah, and Hilkiyah became the father of Azariah, <sup>6:14</sup>and Azariah became the father of Seraiah, and Seraiah became the father of Jehozadak; <sup>6:15</sup>Jehozadak went into captivity, when the LORD carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar. <sup>6:16</sup>The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari. <sup>6:17</sup>These are the names of the sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei. <sup>6:18</sup>The sons of Kohath were Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. <sup>6:19</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' households. <sup>6:20</sup>Of Gershon: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, <sup>6:21</sup>Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeatherai his son. <sup>6:22</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir his son, <sup>6:23</sup>Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his son, <sup>6:24</sup>Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziyah his son, and Shaul his son. <sup>6:25</sup>The sons of Elkanah: Amasai, and Ahimoth. <sup>6:26</sup>As for Elkanah, the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and Nahath his son, <sup>6:27</sup>Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son. <sup>6:28</sup>The sons of Samuel: the firstborn Joel, and the second Abijah. <sup>6:29</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli, Libni his son, Shimei his son, Uzzah his son, <sup>6:30</sup>Shimea his son, Haggiah his son, Asaiah his son. <sup>6:31</sup>These are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the LORD, after that the ark had rest. <sup>6:32</sup>They ministered with song before the tabernacle of the Tent of Meeting, until Solomon had built the house of the LORD in Jerusalem: and they waited on their office according to their order. <sup>6:33</sup>These are those who waited, and their sons. Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, the son of Samuel, <sup>6:34</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Eliel, the son of Toah, <sup>6:35</sup>the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of Amasai, <sup>6:36</sup>the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, the son of Zephaniah, <sup>6:37</sup>the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, <sup>6:38</sup>the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel. <sup>6:39</sup>His brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand, even Asaph the son of Berechiah, the son of Shimea, <sup>6:40</sup>the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchijah, <sup>6:41</sup>the son of Ethni, the son of Zerah, the son of Adaiah, <sup>6:42</sup>the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the son of Shimei, <sup>6:43</sup>the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi. <sup>6:44</sup>On the left hand their brothers the sons of Merari: Ethan the son of Kishi, the son of Abdi, the son of Malluch, <sup>6:45</sup>the son of Hashabiah, the son of Amaziah, the son of Hilkiah, <sup>6:46</sup>the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the son of Shemer, <sup>6:47</sup>the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi. <sup>6:48</sup>Their brothers the Levites were appointed for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God. <sup>6:49</sup>But Aaron and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded. <sup>6:50</sup>These are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, Abishua his son, <sup>6:51</sup>Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, <sup>6:52</sup>Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, Ahitub his son, <sup>6:53</sup>Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son. <sup>6:54</sup>Now these are their dwelling places according to their encampments in their borders: to the sons of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites (for theirs was the first lot), <sup>6:55</sup>to them they gave Hebron in the land of Judah, and its suburbs around it; <sup>6:56</sup>but the fields of the city, and its villages, they gave to Caleb the son of Jephunneh. <sup>6:57</sup>To the sons of Aaron they gave the cities of refuge, Hebron; Libnah also with its suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa with its suburbs, <sup>6:58</sup>and Hilen with its suburbs, Debir with its suburbs, <sup>6:59</sup>and Ashan with its suburbs, and Beth Shemesh with its suburbs; <sup>6:60</sup>and out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba with its suburbs, and Allemeth with its suburbs, and Anathoth with its suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities. <sup>6:61</sup>To the rest of the sons of Kohath were given by lot, out of the family of the tribe, out of the half-tribe, the half of Manasseh, ten cities. <sup>6:62</sup>To the sons of Gershom, according to their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities. <sup>6:63</sup>To the sons of Merari were given by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities. <sup>6:64</sup>The children of Israel gave to the Levites the cities with their suburbs. <sup>6:65</sup>They gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which are mentioned by name. <sup>6:66</sup>Some of the families of the sons of Kohath had cities of their borders out of the tribe of Ephraim. <sup>6:67</sup>They gave to them the cities of refuge, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim with its suburbs; Gezer also with its suburbs, <sup>6:68</sup>and Jokmeam with its suburbs, and Beth Horon with its suburbs, <sup>6:69</sup>and Aijalon with its suburbs, and Gath Rimmon with its suburbs; <sup>6:70</sup>and out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Aner with its suburbs, and Bileam with its suburbs, for the rest of the family of the sons of Kohath. <sup>6:71</sup>To the sons of Gershom were given, out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan with its suburbs, and Ashtaroth with its suburbs; <sup>6:72</sup>and out of the tribe of Issachar, Kedesh with its suburbs, Daberath with its suburbs, <sup>6:73</sup>and Ramoth with its suburbs, and Anem with its suburbs; <sup>6:74</sup>and out of the tribe of Asher, Mashal with its suburbs, and Abdon with its suburbs, <sup>6:75</sup>and Hukok with its suburbs, and Rehob with its suburbs; <sup>6:76</sup>and out of the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee with its suburbs, and Hammon with its suburbs, and Kiriathaim with its suburbs. <sup>6:77</sup>To the rest of the Levites, the sons of Merari, were given, out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono with its suburbs, Tabor with its suburbs; <sup>6:78</sup>and beyond the Jordan at Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, were given them, out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer in the wilderness with its suburbs, and Jahzah with its suburbs, <sup>6:79</sup>and Kedemoth with its suburbs, and Mephaath with its suburbs; <sup>6:80</sup>and out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with its suburbs, and Mahanaim with its suburbs, <sup>6:81</sup>and Heshbon with its suburbs, and Jazer with its suburbs.

hundred. <sup>7:3</sup>The sons of Uzzi: Izrahiah. The sons of Izrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, Isshiah, five; all of them chief men. <sup>7:4</sup>With them, by their generations, after their fathers' houses, were bands of the army for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons. <sup>7:5</sup>Their brothers among all the families of Issachar, mighty men of valor, reckoned in all by genealogy, were eighty-seven thousand. <sup>7:6</sup>The sons of Benjamin: Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three. <sup>7:7</sup>The sons of Bela: Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valor; and they were reckoned by genealogy twenty-two thousand thirty-four. <sup>7:8</sup>The sons of Becher: Zemirah, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri, and Jeremoth, and Abijah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Becher. <sup>7:9</sup>They were reckoned by genealogy, after their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valor, twenty thousand two hundred. <sup>7:10</sup>The sons of Jediael: Bilhan. The sons of Bilhan: Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarshish, and Ahishahar. <sup>7:11</sup>All these were sons of Jediael, according to the heads of their fathers' households, mighty men of valor, seventeen thousand and two hundred, who were able to go forth in the army for war. <sup>7:12</sup>Shuppim also, and Huppim, the sons of Ir, Hushim, the sons of Aher. <sup>7:13</sup>The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah. <sup>7:14</sup>The sons of Manasseh: Asriel, whom his concubine the Aramitess bore: she bore Machir the father of Gilead: <sup>7:15</sup>and Machir took a wife of Huppim and Shuppim, whose sister's name was Maacah; and the name of the second was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters. <sup>7:16</sup>Maacah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she named him Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheres; and his sons were Ulam and Rakem. <sup>7:17</sup>The sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh. <sup>7:18</sup>His sister Hammolecheth bore Ishhod, and Abiezer, and Mahlah. <sup>7:19</sup>The sons of Shemida were Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam. <sup>7:20</sup>The sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eleadah his son, and Tahath his son, <sup>7:21</sup>and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elead, whom the men of Gath who were born in the land killed, because they came down to take away their livestock. <sup>7:22</sup>Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him. <sup>7:23</sup>He went in to his wife, and she conceived, and bore a son, and he named him Beriah, because it went evil with his house. <sup>7:24</sup>His daughter was Sheerah, who built Beth Horon the lower and the upper, and Uzzen Sheerah. <sup>7:25</sup>Rephah was his son, and Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, <sup>7:26</sup>Ladan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son, <sup>7:27</sup>Nun his son, Joshua his son. <sup>7:28</sup>Their possessions and habitations were Bethel and its towns, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer, with its towns; Shechem also and its towns, to Azzah and its towns; <sup>7:29</sup>and by the borders of the children of Manasseh, Beth Shean and its towns, Taanach and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these lived the children of Joseph the son of Israel. <sup>7:30</sup>The sons of Asher: Imnah, and Ishvah, and Ishvi, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. <sup>7:31</sup>The sons of Beriah: Heber, and Malchiel, who was the father of Birzaith. <sup>7:32</sup>Heber became the father of Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister. <sup>7:33</sup>The sons of Japhlet: Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath. These are the children of Japhlet. <sup>7:34</sup>The sons of Shemer: Ahi, and Rohgah, Jehubbah, and Aram. <sup>7:35</sup>The sons of Helem his brother: Zophah, and Imna, and Shelesh, and Amal. <sup>7:36</sup>The sons of Zophah: Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and Beri, and Imrah, <sup>7:37</sup>Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Ithran, and Beera. <sup>7:38</sup>The sons of Jether: Jephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara. <sup>7:39</sup>The sons of Ulla: Arah, and Hanniel, and Rizia. <sup>7:40</sup>All these were the children of Asher, heads of the fathers' houses, choice and mighty men of valor, chief of the princes. The number of them reckoned by genealogy for service in war was twenty-six thousand men.

Manahath: <sup>8:7</sup>and Naaman, and Ahijah, and Gera, he carried them captive: and he became the father of Uzza and Ahihud. <sup>8:8</sup>Shaharaim became the father of children in the field of Moab, after he had sent them away; Hushim and Baara were his wives. <sup>8:9</sup>He became the father of Hodesh his wife, Jobab, and Zibia, and Mesha, and Malcam, <sup>8:10</sup>and Jeuz, and Shachia, and Mirmah. These were his sons, heads of fathers' households. <sup>8:11</sup>Of Hushim he became the father of Abitub and Elpaal. <sup>8:12</sup>The sons of Elpaal: Eber, and Misham, and Shemed, who built Ono and Lod, with its towns; <sup>8:13</sup>and Beriah, and Shema, who were heads of fathers' households of the inhabitants of Aijalon, who put to flight the inhabitants of Gath; <sup>8:14</sup>and Ahio, Shashak, and Jeremoth, <sup>8:15</sup>and Zebadiah, and Arad, and Eder, <sup>8:16</sup>and Michael, and Ishpah, and Joha, the sons of Beriah, <sup>8:17</sup>and Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hizki, and Heber, <sup>8:18</sup>and Ishmerai, and Izliah, and Jobab, the sons of Elpaal, <sup>8:19</sup>and Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, <sup>8:20</sup>and Elienai, and Zillethai, and Eliel, <sup>8:21</sup>and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath, the sons of Shimei, <sup>8:22</sup>and Ishpan, and Eber, and Eliel, <sup>8:23</sup>and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, <sup>8:24</sup>and Hananiah, and Elam, and Anthothijah, <sup>8:25</sup>and Iphdeiah, and Penuel, the sons of Shashak, <sup>8:26</sup>and Shamsheraï, and Shehariah, and Athaliah, <sup>8:27</sup>and Jareshiah, and Elijah, and Zichri, the sons of Jeroham. <sup>8:28</sup>These were heads of fathers' households throughout their generations, chief men: these lived in Jerusalem. <sup>8:29</sup>In Gibeon there lived the father of Gibeon, whose wife's name was Maacah; <sup>8:30</sup>and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Nadab, <sup>8:31</sup>and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zecher. <sup>8:32</sup>Mikloth became the father of Shimeah. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, over against their brothers. <sup>8:33</sup>Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Saul; and Saul became the father of Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>8:34</sup>The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>8:35</sup>The sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. <sup>8:36</sup>Ahaz became the father of Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah became the father of Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza. <sup>8:37</sup>Moza became the father of Binea; Raphah was his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. <sup>8:38</sup>Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Azel. <sup>8:39</sup>The sons of Eshek his brother: Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, and Eliphelet the third. <sup>8:40</sup>The sons of Ulam were mighty men of valor, archers, and had many sons, and sons' sons, one hundred fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

<sup>9:1</sup>So all Israel were reckoned by genealogies; and behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel: and Judah was carried away captive to Babylon for their disobedience. <sup>9:2</sup>Now the first inhabitants who lived in their possessions in their cities were Israel, the priests, the Levites, and the Nethinim. <sup>9:3</sup>In Jerusalem lived of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin, and of the children of Ephraim and Manasseh: <sup>9:4</sup>Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Perez the son of Judah. <sup>9:5</sup>Of the Shilonites: Asaiah the firstborn, and his sons. <sup>9:6</sup>Of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel, and their brothers, six hundred ninety. <sup>9:7</sup>Of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Hassenuah, <sup>9:8</sup>and Ibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Meshullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Ibnijah; <sup>9:9</sup>and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred fifty-six. All these men were heads of fathers' households by their fathers' houses. <sup>9:10</sup>Of the priests: Jedaiah, and Jehoiarib, Jachin, <sup>9:11</sup>and Azariah the son of Hilkiah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the house of God; <sup>9:12</sup>and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Maasai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of Immer; <sup>9:13</sup>and their brothers, heads of their fathers' houses, one thousand seven hundred sixty; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God. <sup>9:14</sup>Of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, of the sons of Merari; <sup>9:15</sup>and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal, and Mattaniah the son of Mica, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph, <sup>9:16</sup>and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun, and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who lived in the villages of the Netophathites. <sup>9:17</sup>The porters: Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brothers (Shallum was the chief), <sup>9:18</sup>who previously served in the king's gate eastward: they were the porters for the camp of the children of Levi. <sup>9:19</sup>Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brothers, of his father's house, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent: and their fathers had been over the camp of the LORD, keepers of the entry. <sup>9:20</sup>Phinehas the son of Eleazar was ruler over them in time past, and the LORD was with him. <sup>9:21</sup>Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was porter of the door of the Tent of Meeting. <sup>9:22</sup>All these who were chosen to be porters in the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by genealogy in their villages, whom David and Samuel the seer ordained in their office of trust. <sup>9:23</sup>So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the LORD, even the house of the tent, by wards. <sup>9:24</sup>On the four sides were the porters, toward the east, west, north, and south. <sup>9:25</sup>Their brothers, in their villages, were to come in every seven days from time to time to be with them: <sup>9:26</sup>for the four chief porters, who were Levites, were in an office of trust, and were over the rooms and over the treasuries in the house of God. <sup>9:27</sup>They lodged around the house of God, because that duty was on them; and to them pertained its opening morning by morning. <sup>9:28</sup>Certain of them were in charge of the vessels of service; for by count were these brought in and by count were these taken out. <sup>9:29</sup>Some of them also were appointed over the furniture, and over all the vessels of the sanctuary, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices. <sup>9:30</sup>Some of the sons of the priests prepared the confection of the spices. <sup>9:31</sup>Mattithiah, one of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, had the office of trust over the things that were baked in pans. <sup>9:32</sup>Some of their brothers, of the sons of the Kohathites, were over the show bread, to prepare it every Sabbath. <sup>9:33</sup>These are the singers, heads of fathers' households of the Levites, who lived in the rooms and were free from other service; for they were employed in their work day and night. <sup>9:34</sup>These were heads of fathers' households of the Levites, throughout their generations, chief men: these lived at Jerusalem. <sup>9:35</sup>In Gibeon there lived the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, whose wife's name was Maacah: <sup>9:36</sup>and his firstborn son Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and Nadab, <sup>9:37</sup>and Gedor, and Ahio, and Zechariah, and Mikloth. <sup>9:38</sup>Mikloth became the father of Shimeam. They also lived with their brothers in Jerusalem, over against their brothers. <sup>9:39</sup>Ner became the father of Kish; and Kish became the father of Saul; and Saul became the father of Jonathan, and Malchishua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal. <sup>9:40</sup>The son of Jonathan was Merib Baal; and Merib Baal became the father of Micah. <sup>9:41</sup>The sons of Micah: Pithon, and Melech, and Tahrea, and Ahaz. <sup>9:42</sup>Ahaz became the father of Jarah; and Jarah became the father of Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri became the father of Moza; <sup>9:43</sup>and Moza became the father of Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son. <sup>9:44</sup>Azel had six sons, whose names are these: Azrikam, Bocheru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan: these were the sons of Azel.

But his armor bearer would not; for he was terrified. Therefore Saul took his sword, and fell on it. <sup>10:5</sup>When his armor bearer saw that Saul was dead, he likewise fell on his sword, and died. <sup>10:6</sup>So Saul died, and his three sons; and all his house died together. <sup>10:7</sup>When all the men of Israel who were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and lived in them. <sup>10:8</sup>It happened on the next day, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa. <sup>10:9</sup>They stripped him, and took his head, and his armor, and sent into the land of the Philistines all around, to carry the news to their idols, and to the people. <sup>10:10</sup>They put his armor in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the house of Dagon. <sup>10:11</sup>When all Jabesh Gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul, <sup>10:12</sup>all the valiant men arose, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabesh, and fasted seven days. <sup>10:13</sup>So Saul died for his trespass which he committed against the LORD, because of the word of the LORD, which he didn't keep; and also because he asked counsel of one who had a familiar spirit, to inquire, <sup>10:14</sup>and didn't inquire of the LORD: therefore he killed him, and turned the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

<sup>11:1</sup>Then all Israel gathered themselves to David to Hebron, saying, "Behold, we are your bone and your flesh. <sup>11:2</sup>In times past, even when Saul was king, it was you who led out and brought in Israel. The LORD your God said to you, 'You shall be shepherd of my people Israel, and you shall be prince over my people Israel.'"

<sup>11:3</sup>So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before the LORD; and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the LORD by Samuel. <sup>11:4</sup>David and all Israel went to Jerusalem (the same is Jebus); and the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land, were there. <sup>11:5</sup>The inhabitants of Jebus said to David, "You shall not come in here." Nevertheless David took the stronghold of Zion. The same is the city of David. <sup>11:6</sup>David said, "Whoever strikes the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain." Joab the son of Zeruiah went up first, and was made chief. <sup>11:7</sup>David lived in the stronghold; therefore they called it the city of David. <sup>11:8</sup>He built the city all around, from Millo even around; and Joab repaired the rest of the city. <sup>11:9</sup>David grew greater and greater; for the LORD of Hosts was with him. <sup>11:10</sup>Now these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who showed themselves strong with him in his kingdom, together with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of the LORD concerning

Israel. <sup>11:11</sup>This is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of a Hachmonite, the chief of the thirty; he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them at one time. <sup>11:12</sup>After him was Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite, who was one of the three mighty men. <sup>11:13</sup>He was with David at Pasdammim, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battle, where there was a plot of ground full of barley; and the people fled from before the Philistines. <sup>11:14</sup>They stood in the midst of the plot, and defended it, and killed the Philistines; and the LORD saved them by a great victory. <sup>11:15</sup>Three of the thirty chief men went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam; and the army of the Philistines were encamped in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>11:16</sup>David was then in the stronghold, and the garrison of the Philistines was then in Bethlehem. <sup>11:17</sup>David longed, and said, "Oh that one would give me water to drink of the well of Bethlehem, which is by the gate!"

<sup>11:18</sup>The three broke through the army of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, that was by the gate, and took it, and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the LORD, <sup>11:19</sup>and said, "My God forbid it me, that I should do this! Shall I drink the blood of these men who have put their lives in jeopardy?" For they risked their lives to bring it. Therefore he would not drink it. The three mighty men did these things.

<sup>11:20</sup>Abishai, the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three; for he lifted up his spear against three hundred and killed them, and had a name among the three. <sup>11:21</sup>Of the three, he was more honorable than the two, and was made their captain: however he didn't attain to the three. <sup>11:22</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man of Kabzeel, who had done mighty deeds, he killed the two sons of Ariel of Moab: he went down also and killed a lion in the midst of a pit in time of snow. <sup>11:23</sup>He killed an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high; and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and killed him with his own spear. <sup>11:24</sup>Benaiah the son of Jehoiada did these things, and had a name among the three mighty men. <sup>11:25</sup>Behold, he was more honorable than the thirty, but he didn't attain to the three: and David set him over his guard. <sup>11:26</sup>Also the mighty men of the armies: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo of Bethlehem, <sup>11:27</sup>Shammoth the Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, <sup>11:28</sup>Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, <sup>11:29</sup>Sibbecai the Hushathite, Ilai the Ahohite, <sup>11:30</sup>Maharai the Netophathite, <sup>11:31</sup>Ithai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathonite, <sup>11:32</sup>Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, Abiel the Arbathite, <sup>11:33</sup>Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, <sup>11:34</sup>the sons of Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shagee the Hararite, <sup>11:35</sup>Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphai the son of Ur, <sup>11:36</sup>Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahijah the Pelonite, <sup>11:37</sup>Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, <sup>11:38</sup>Joel the brother of Nathan, Mibhar the son of Hagri, <sup>11:39</sup>Zekek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armor bearer of Joab the son of Zeruah, <sup>11:40</sup>Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite, <sup>11:41</sup>Uriah the Hittite, Zabad the son of Ahlai, <sup>11:42</sup>Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a chief of the Reubenites, and thirty with him, <sup>11:43</sup>Hanan the son of Maacah, and Joshaphat the Mithnite, <sup>11:44</sup>Uzzia the Ashterathite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Hotham the Aroerite, <sup>11:45</sup>Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, the Tizite, <sup>11:46</sup>Eliel the Mahavite, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Ithmah the Moabite, <sup>11:47</sup>Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

<sup>12:1</sup>Now these are those who came to David to Ziklag, while he yet kept himself close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men, his helpers in war. <sup>12:2</sup>They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin. <sup>12:3</sup>The chief was Ahiezer; then Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite, and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth, and Beracah, and Jehu the Anathothite, <sup>12:4</sup>and Ishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jeremiah, and Jahziel, and Yochanan, and Jozabad the Ged-rathite, <sup>12:5</sup>Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite, <sup>12:6</sup>Elkanah, and Isshiah, and Azarel, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, the Korahites, <sup>12:7</sup>and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor. <sup>12:8</sup>Of the Gadites there separated themselves to David to the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty men of valor, men trained for war, that could handle shield and spear; whose faces were like the faces of lions, and they were as swift as the roes on the mountains; <sup>12:9</sup>Ezer the chief, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, <sup>12:10</sup>Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah the fifth, <sup>12:11</sup>Attai the sixth, Eliel the seventh, <sup>12:12</sup>Yochanan the eighth, Elzabad the ninth, <sup>12:13</sup>Jeremiah the tenth, Machbannai the eleventh. <sup>12:14</sup>These of the sons of Gad were captains of the army: he who was least was equal to one hundred, and the greatest to one thousand. <sup>12:15</sup>These are those who went over the Jordan in the first month, when it had overflowed all its banks; and they put to flight all them of the valleys, both toward the east, and toward the west. <sup>12:16</sup>There came of the children of Benjamin and Judah to the stronghold to David. <sup>12:17</sup>David went out to meet them, and answered them, "If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if you have come to betray me to my adversaries, since there is no wrong in my hands, may the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it." <sup>12:18</sup>Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, and he said, "We are yours, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse: peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you." Then David received them, and made them captains of the band. <sup>12:19</sup>Of Manasseh also there fell away some to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle; but they didn't help them; for the lords of the Philistines sent him away after consultation, saying, "He will fall away to his master Saul to the jeopardy of our heads."

<sup>12:20</sup>As he went to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh, Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zillethai, captains of thousands who were of Manasseh. <sup>12:21</sup>They helped David against the band of rovers: for they were all mighty men of valor, and were captains in the army. <sup>12:22</sup>For from day to day men came to David to help him, until there was a great army, like the army of God. <sup>12:23</sup>These are the numbers of the heads of those who were armed for war, who came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the LORD. <sup>12:24</sup>The children of Judah who bore shield and spear were six thousand and eight hundred, armed for war. <sup>12:25</sup>Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valor for the war, seven thousand and one hundred. <sup>12:26</sup>Of the children of Levi four thousand and six hundred. <sup>12:27</sup>Jehoiada was the leader of the household of Aaron; and with him were three thousand and seven hundred, <sup>12:28</sup>and Zadok, a young man mighty of valor, and of his father's house twenty-two captains. <sup>12:29</sup>Of the children of Benjamin, the brothers of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept their allegiance to the house of Saul. <sup>12:30</sup>Of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valor, famous men in their fathers' houses. <sup>12:31</sup>Of the half-tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were mentioned by name, to come and make David king. <sup>12:32</sup>Of the children of Issachar, men who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, their heads were two hundred; and all their brothers were at their commandment. <sup>12:33</sup>Of Zebulun, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, with all kinds of instruments of war, fifty thousand, and who could command and were not of double heart. <sup>12:34</sup>Of Naphtali one thousand captains, and with them with shield and spear thirty-seven thousand. <sup>12:35</sup>Of the Danites who could set the battle in array, twenty-eight thousand six hundred. <sup>12:36</sup>Of Asher, such as were able to go out in the army, who could set the battle in array, forty thousand. <sup>12:37</sup>On the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all kinds of instruments of war for the battle, one hundred twenty thousand. <sup>12:38</sup>All these being men of war, who could order the battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make David king. <sup>12:39</sup>They were there with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brothers had made preparation for them. <sup>12:40</sup>Moreover those who were near to them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naphtali, brought bread on donkeys, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, food of meal, cakes of figs, and clusters of raisins, and wine, and oil, and cattle, and sheep in abundance: for there was joy in Israel.

<sup>13:4</sup>All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people. <sup>13:5</sup>So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor the brook of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath Jearim. <sup>13:6</sup>David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath Jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God the LORD that sits above the cherubim, that is called by the Name. <sup>13:7</sup>They carried the ark of God on a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart. <sup>13:8</sup>David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with stringed instruments, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with shofars<sup>c</sup>. <sup>13:9</sup>When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled. <sup>13:10</sup>The anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God. <sup>13:11</sup>David was displeased, because the LORD had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez Uzza, to this day. <sup>13:12</sup>David was afraid of God that day, saying, "How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?" <sup>13:13</sup>So David didn't move the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite. <sup>13:14</sup>The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-Edom in his house three months: and the LORD blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

<sup>c</sup>13:8 or, trumpets

David, and cedar trees, and masons, and carpenters, to build him a house. <sup>14:2</sup>David perceived that the LORD had established him king over Israel; for his kingdom was exalted on high, for his people Israel's sake. <sup>14:3</sup>David took more wives at Jerusalem; and David became the father of more sons and daughters. <sup>14:4</sup>These are the names of the children whom he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon, <sup>14:5</sup>and Ibhara, and Elishua, and Elpelet, <sup>14:6</sup>and Nogah, and Nepheg, and Japhia, <sup>14:7</sup>and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet. <sup>14:8</sup>When the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, all the Philistines went up to seek David: and David heard of it, and went out against them. <sup>14:9</sup>Now the Philistines had come and made a raid in the valley of Rephaim. <sup>14:10</sup>David inquired of God, saying, "Shall I go up against the Philistines? Will you deliver them into my hand?"

The LORD said to him, "Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand."

<sup>14:11</sup>So they came up to Baal Perazim, and David struck them there; and David said, God has broken my enemies by my hand, like the breach of waters. Therefore they called the name of that place Baal Perazim. <sup>14:12</sup>They left their gods there; and David gave commandment, and they were burned with fire. <sup>14:13</sup>The Philistines yet again made a raid in the valley. <sup>14:14</sup>David inquired again of God; and God said to him, "You shall not go up after them. Turn away from them, and come on them over against the mulberry trees. <sup>14:15</sup>It shall be, when you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry trees, that then you shall go out to battle; for God has gone out before you to strike the army of the Philistines."

<sup>14:16</sup>David did as God commanded him: and they struck the army of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gezer. <sup>14:17</sup>The fame of David went out into all lands; and the LORD brought the fear of him on all nations.

<sup>15:1</sup>David made him houses in the city of David; and he prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent. <sup>15:2</sup>Then David said, "No one ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites. For the LORD has chosen them to carry the ark of God, and to minister to him forever."

to bring up the ark of the LORD to its place, which he had prepared for it. <sup>15:4</sup>David gathered together the sons of Aaron, and the Levites: <sup>15:5</sup>of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brothers one hundred twenty; <sup>15:6</sup>of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred twenty; <sup>15:7</sup>of the sons of Gershon, Joel the chief, and his brothers one hundred thirty; <sup>15:8</sup>of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brothers two hundred; <sup>15:9</sup>of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brothers eighty; <sup>15:10</sup>of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brothers one hundred twelve. <sup>15:11</sup>David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, <sup>15:12</sup>and said to them, "You are the heads of the fathers' households of the Levites. Sanctify yourselves, both you and your brothers, that you may bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel, to the place that I have prepared for it. <sup>15:13</sup>For because you didn't carry it at first, the LORD our God made broke out against us, because we didn't seek him according to the ordinance."

<sup>15:14</sup>So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>15:15</sup>The children of the Levites bore the ark of God on their shoulders with the poles thereon, as Moses commanded according to the word of the LORD. <sup>15:16</sup>David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brothers the singers, with instruments of music, stringed instruments and harps and cymbals, sounding aloud and lifting up the voice with joy. <sup>15:17</sup>So the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brothers, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brothers, Ethan the son of Kushaiah; <sup>15:18</sup>and with them their brothers of the second degree, Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the doorkeepers. <sup>15:19</sup>So the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, were given cymbals of brass to sound aloud; <sup>15:20</sup>and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with stringed instruments set to Alamoth; <sup>15:21</sup>and Mattithiah, and Eliphelehu, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with

harps tuned to the eight-stringed lyre, to lead. <sup>15:22</sup>Chenaniah, chief of the Levites, was over the song: he instructed about the song, because he was skillful. <sup>15:23</sup>Berechiah and Elkanah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>15:24</sup>Shebaniah, and Joshaphat, and Nethanel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew the shofars<sup>d</sup> before the ark of God: and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark. <sup>15:25</sup>So David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy. <sup>15:26</sup>It happened, when God helped the Levites who bore the ark of the covenant of the LORD, that they sacrificed seven bulls and seven rams. <sup>15:27</sup>David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites who bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah the master of the song with the singers: and David had on him an ephod of linen. <sup>15:28</sup>Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with shofars<sup>e</sup>, and with cymbals, sounding aloud with stringed instruments and harps. <sup>15:29</sup>It happened, as the ark of the covenant of the LORD came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked out at the window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

<sup>16:1</sup>They brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt offerings and peace offerings before God. <sup>16:2</sup>When David had made an end of offering the burnt offering and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD. <sup>16:3</sup>He dealt to everyone of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread, and a portion of meat, and a cake of raisins. <sup>16:4</sup>He appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the LORD, and to celebrate and to thank and praise the LORD, the God of Israel: <sup>16:5</sup>Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jehiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jehiel, with stringed instruments and with harps; and Asaph with cymbals, sounding aloud; <sup>16:6</sup>and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with shofars<sup>f</sup> continually, before the ark of the covenant of God.

<sup>16:7</sup>Then on that day David first ordained to give thanks to the LORD, by the hand of Asaph and his brothers.

<sup>16:8</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD.

Call on his name.

Make his doings known among the peoples.

<sup>16:9</sup>Sing to him.

Sing praises to him.

Tell of all his marvelous works.

<sup>16:10</sup>Glory in his holy name.

Let the heart of those who seek the LORD rejoice.

<sup>16:11</sup>Seek the LORD and his strength.

Seek his face forever more.

<sup>16:12</sup>Remember his marvelous works that he has done,

his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,

<sup>16:13</sup>you seed of Israel his servant,

you children of Jacob, his chosen ones.

<sup>16:14</sup>He is the LORD our God.

His judgments are in all the earth.

his oath to Isaac.

<sup>16:17</sup>He confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant,

<sup>16:18</sup>saying, "I will give you the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance,"

<sup>16:19</sup>when you were but a few men in number,

yes, very few, and foreigners were in it.

<sup>16:20</sup>They went about from nation to nation, from one kingdom to another people.

Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes,

Do my prophets no harm!"

<sup>16:23</sup>Sing to the LORD, all the earth!

Display his salvation from day to day.

and his marvelous works among all the peoples.

<sup>16:25</sup>For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised.

He also is to be feared above all gods.

<sup>16:27</sup>Honor and majesty are before him.

Strength and gladness are in his place.

<sup>16:28</sup>Ascribe to the LORD, you relatives of the peoples,

ascribe to the LORD glory and strength!

<sup>16:29</sup>Ascribe to the LORD the glory due to his name.

Bring an offering, and come before him.

Worship the LORD in holy array.

<sup>16:30</sup>Tremble before him, all the earth.

The world also is established that it can't be moved.

<sup>16:31</sup>Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice!

Let them say among the nations, "The LORD reigns!"

<sup>16:32</sup>Let the sea roar, and its fullness!

Let the field exult, and all that is therein!

<sup>16:33</sup>Then the trees of the forest will sing for joy before the LORD,

for he comes to judge the earth.

<sup>16:34</sup>Oh give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his loving kindness endures forever.

<sup>16:35</sup>Say, "Save us, God of our salvation!

Gather us together and deliver us from the nations,

to give thanks to your holy name,

to triumph in your praise."

<sup>16:36</sup>Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, from everlasting even to everlasting.

All the people said, "Amen," and praised the LORD.

the Torah of the LORD, which he commanded to Israel; <sup>16:41</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest who were chosen, who were mentioned by name, to give thanks to the LORD, because his loving kindness endures forever; <sup>16:42</sup>and with them Heman and Jeduthun with shofars<sup>8</sup> and cymbals for those that should sound aloud, and with instruments for the songs of God; and the sons of Jeduthun to be at the gate. <sup>16:43</sup>All the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

<sup>17:1</sup>It happened, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, "Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of the LORD is under curtains."

<sup>17:2</sup>Nathan said to David, "Do all that is in your heart; for God is with you."

<sup>17:3</sup>It happened the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying, <sup>17:4</sup>"Go and tell David my servant, 'Thus says the LORD, "You shall not build me a house to dwell in; <sup>17:5</sup>for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel, to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tent to another. <sup>17:6</sup>In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, did I speak a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'"

<sup>17:7</sup>"Now therefore, you shall tell my servant David, 'Thus says the LORD of Hosts, "I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel. <sup>17:8</sup>I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you. I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth. <sup>17:9</sup>I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first, <sup>17:10</sup>and from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that the LORD will build you a house. <sup>17:11</sup>It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom. <sup>17:12</sup>He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever. <sup>17:13</sup>I will be his father, and he shall be my son. I will not take my loving kindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you; <sup>17:14</sup>but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever. His throne shall be established forever.””” <sup>17:15</sup>According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so Nathan spoke to David.

<sup>17:16</sup>Then David the king went in, and sat before the LORD; and he said, “Who am I, LORD God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far? <sup>17:17</sup>This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have respected me according to the estate of a man of high degree, LORD God. <sup>17:18</sup>What can David say yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? For you know your servant. <sup>17:19</sup>LORD, for your servant’s sake, and according to your own heart, you have worked all this greatness, to make known all these great things. <sup>17:20</sup>LORD, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears. <sup>17:21</sup>What one nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeem out of Egypt? <sup>17:22</sup>For your people Israel you made your own people forever; and you, LORD, became their God. <sup>17:23</sup>Now, LORD, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken. <sup>17:24</sup>Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, ‘The LORD of Hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel. The house of David your servant is established before you.’ <sup>17:25</sup>For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house. Therefore your servant has found courage to pray before you. <sup>17:26</sup>Now, LORD, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant. <sup>17:27</sup>Now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you; for you, LORD, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.”

the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines. <sup>18:2</sup>He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute. <sup>18:3</sup>David struck Hadadezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates. <sup>18:4</sup>David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstringed all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots. <sup>18:5</sup>When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men. <sup>18:6</sup>Then David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>18:7</sup>David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem. <sup>18:8</sup>From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadadezer, David took very much brass, with which Solomon made the bronze sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass. <sup>18:9</sup>When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the army of Hadadezer king of Zobah, <sup>18:10</sup>he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and struck him; (for Hadadezer had wars with Tou;) and he had with him all kinds of vessels of gold and silver and brass. <sup>18:11</sup>King David also dedicated these to the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek. <sup>18:12</sup>Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand. <sup>18:13</sup>He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. The LORD gave victory to David wherever he went. <sup>18:14</sup>David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people. <sup>18:15</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the army; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder; <sup>18:16</sup>and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe; <sup>18:17</sup>and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place. <sup>19:2</sup>David said, "I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me."

So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him. <sup>19:3</sup>But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, "Do you think that David honors your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Haven't his servants come to you to search, to overthrow, and to spy out the land?" <sup>19:4</sup>So Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away. <sup>19:5</sup>Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, "Stay at Jericho until your beards have grown, and then return."

<sup>19:6</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Arammaacah, and out of Zobah. <sup>19:7</sup>So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle. <sup>19:8</sup>When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the army of the mighty men. <sup>19:9</sup>The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field. <sup>19:10</sup>Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians. <sup>19:11</sup>The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon. <sup>19:12</sup>He said, "If the Syrians are too strong for me, then you are to help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I will help you." <sup>19:13</sup>Be courageous, and let us be strong for our people, and for the cities of our God. May the LORD do that which seems good to him."

and they fled before him. <sup>19:15</sup>When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem. <sup>19:16</sup>When the Syrians saw that they were defeated by Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the army of Hadadezer at their head. <sup>19:17</sup>It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him. <sup>19:18</sup>The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians the men of seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the army. <sup>19:19</sup>When the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were defeated by Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

<sup>20:1</sup>It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out, that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it. <sup>20:2</sup>David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much. <sup>20:3</sup>He brought forth the people who were therein, and cut them with saws, and with iron picks, and with axes. David did so to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem. <sup>20:4</sup>It happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued. <sup>20:5</sup>There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam. <sup>20:6</sup>There was again war at Gath, where there was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six on each hand, and six on each foot; and he also was born to the giant. <sup>20:7</sup>When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him. <sup>20:8</sup>These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

<sup>21:1</sup>Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel. <sup>21:2</sup>David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, "Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them."

<sup>21:3</sup>Joab said, "May the LORD make his people a hundred times as many as they are. But, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? Why does my lord require this thing? Why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?"

<sup>21:4</sup>Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>21:5</sup>Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword: and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew sword. <sup>21:6</sup>But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab. <sup>21:7</sup>God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel. <sup>21:8</sup>David said to God, "I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing. But now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly."

<sup>21:9</sup>The LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying, <sup>21:10</sup>"Go and speak to David, saying, 'Thus says the LORD, "I offer you three things. Choose one of them, that I may do it to you.'"

<sup>21:11</sup>So Gad came to David, and said to him, "Thus says the LORD, 'Take your choice: <sup>21:12</sup>either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.'"

<sup>21:13</sup>David said to Gad, "I am in distress. Let me fall, I pray, into the hand of the LORD; for his mercies are very great. Let me not fall into the hand of man."

<sup>21:14</sup>So the LORD sent a pestilence on Israel; and seventy thousand men of Israel fell. <sup>21:15</sup>God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it. As he was about to destroy, the LORD saw, and he relented of the disaster, and said to the destroying angel, "It is enough; now stay your hand." The angel of the LORD was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite. <sup>21:16</sup>David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem.

Then David and the elders, clothed in sack-cloth, fell on their faces. <sup>21:17</sup>David said to God, "Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O LORD my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued."

<sup>21:23</sup>Ornan said to David, "Take it for yourself, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes. Behold, I give the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal offering. I give it all."

<sup>21:24</sup>King David said to Ornan, "No; but I will most certainly buy it for the full price. For I will not take that which is yours for the LORD, nor offer a burnt offering without cost."

<sup>21:25</sup>So David gave to Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place. <sup>21:26</sup>David built an altar to the LORD there, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on the LORD; and he answered him from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering. <sup>21:27</sup>The LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath. <sup>21:28</sup>At that time, when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there. <sup>21:29</sup>For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon. <sup>21:30</sup>But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.

Don't be afraid, neither be dismayed. <sup>22:14</sup>Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of the LORD one hundred thousand talents of gold, one million talents of silver, and brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance. I have also prepared timber and stone; and you may add to them. <sup>22:15</sup>There are also workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all kinds of men who are skillful in every kind of work: <sup>22:16</sup>of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and may the LORD be with you."

<sup>23:12</sup>The sons of Kohath: Amram, Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four. <sup>23:13</sup>The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses; and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his sons, forever, to burn incense before the LORD, to minister to him, and to bless in his name, forever. <sup>23:14</sup>But as for Moses the man of God, his sons were named among the tribe of Levi. <sup>23:15</sup>The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eliezer. <sup>23:16</sup>The sons of Gershom: Shebuel the chief. <sup>23:17</sup>The sons of Eliezer were: Rehabiah the chief; and Eliezer had no other sons; but the sons of Rehabiah were very many. <sup>23:18</sup>The sons of Izhar: Shelomith the chief. <sup>23:19</sup>The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the chief, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jekameam the fourth. <sup>23:20</sup>The sons of Uzziel: Micah the chief, and Isshiah the second. <sup>23:21</sup>The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Eleazar and Kish. <sup>23:22</sup>Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters only: and their brothers the sons of Kish took them as wives. <sup>23:23</sup>The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three. <sup>23:24</sup>These were the sons of Levi after their fathers' houses, even the heads of the fathers' houses of those who were counted individually, in the number of names by their polls, who did the work for the service of the house of the LORD, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>23:25</sup>For David said, "The LORD, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem forever. <sup>23:26</sup>Also the Levites will no longer need to carry the tabernacle and all its vessels for its service." <sup>23:27</sup>For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward. <sup>23:28</sup>For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the rooms, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God; <sup>23:29</sup>for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all kinds of measure and size; <sup>23:30</sup>and to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise in the evening; <sup>23:31</sup>and to offer all burnt offerings to the LORD, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before the LORD; <sup>23:32</sup>and that they should keep the duty of the Tent of Meeting, and the duty of the holy place, and the duty of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the house of the LORD.

<sup>25:1</sup>Moreover, David and the captains of the army set apart for the service certain of the sons of Asaph, and of Heman, and of Jeduthun, who should prophesy with harps, with stringed instruments, and with cymbals: and the number of those who did the work according to their service was: <sup>25:2</sup>of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asharelah, the sons of Asaph, under the hand of Asaph, who prophesied after the order of the king. <sup>25:3</sup>Of Jeduthun; the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Jeshaiah, Hashabiah, and Mattithiah, six, under the hands of their father Jeduthun with the harp, who prophesied in giving thanks and praising the LORD. <sup>25:4</sup>Of Heman; the sons of Heman: Bukkiah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, Shebuel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Joshbekashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahazioth. <sup>25:5</sup>All these were the sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God, to lift up the horn. God gave to Heman fourteen sons and three daughters. <sup>25:6</sup>All these were under the hands of their father for song in the house of the LORD, with cymbals, stringed instruments, and harps, for the service of the house of God; Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman being under the order of the king. <sup>25:7</sup>The number of them, with their brothers who were instructed in singing to the LORD, even all who were skillful, was two hundred eighty-eight. <sup>25:8</sup>They cast lots for their offices, all alike, as well the small as the great, the teacher as the scholar. <sup>25:9</sup>Now the first lot came forth for Asaph to Joseph: the second to Gedaliah; he and his brothers and sons were twelve: <sup>25:10</sup>the third to Zaccur, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:11</sup>the fourth to Izri, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:12</sup>the fifth to Nethaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:13</sup>the sixth to Bukkiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:14</sup>the seventh to Jesharelah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:15</sup>the eighth to Jeshaiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:16</sup>the ninth to Mattaniah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:17</sup>the tenth to Shimei, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:18</sup>the eleventh to Azarel, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:19</sup>the twelfth to Hashabiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:20</sup>for the thirteenth, Shubael, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:21</sup>for the fourteenth, Mattithiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:22</sup>for the fifteenth to Jeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:23</sup>for the sixteenth to Hananiah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:24</sup>for the seventeenth to Joshbekashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:25</sup>for the eighteenth to Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:26</sup>for the nineteenth to Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:27</sup>for the twentieth to Eliathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:28</sup>for the one and twentieth to Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:29</sup>for the two and twentieth to Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:30</sup>for the three and twentieth to Mahazioth, his sons and his brothers, twelve: <sup>25:31</sup>for the four and twentieth to Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.

Obed, Elzabad, whose brothers were valiant men, Elihu, and Semachiah. <sup>26:8</sup>All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom: they and their sons and their brothers, able men in strength for the service; sixty-two of Obed-Edom. <sup>26:9</sup>Meshelemiah had sons and brothers, valiant men, eighteen. <sup>26:10</sup>Also Hosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the chief, (for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him chief), <sup>26:11</sup>Hilkiah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brothers of Hosah were thirteen. <sup>26:12</sup>Of these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, even of the chief men, having offices like their brothers, to minister in the house of the LORD. <sup>26:13</sup>They cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every gate. <sup>26:14</sup>The lot eastward fell to Shelemiah. Then for Zechariah his son, a wise counselor, they cast lots; and his lot came out northward. <sup>26:15</sup>To Obed-Edom southward; and to his sons the storehouse. <sup>26:16</sup>To Shuppim and Hosah westward, by the gate of Shallecheth, at the causeway that goes up, watch against watch. <sup>26:17</sup>Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and for the storehouse two and two. <sup>26:18</sup>For Parbar westward, four at the causeway, and two at Parbar. <sup>26:19</sup>These were the divisions of the doorkeepers; of the sons of the Korahites, and of the sons of Merari. <sup>26:20</sup>Of the Levites, Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the dedicated things. <sup>26:21</sup>The sons of Ladan, the sons of the Gershonites belonging to Ladan, the heads of the fathers' households belonging to Ladan the Gershonite: Jehieli. <sup>26:22</sup>The sons of Jehieli: Zetham, and Joel his brother, over the treasures of the house of the LORD. <sup>26:23</sup>Of the Amramites, of the Izharites, of the Hebronites, of the Uzzielites: <sup>26:24</sup>and Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was ruler over the treasures. <sup>26:25</sup>His brothers: of Eliezer, Rehabiah his son, and Jeshaiiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, and Shelomoth his son. <sup>26:26</sup>This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which David the king, and the heads of the fathers' households, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the army, had dedicated. <sup>26:27</sup>They dedicated some of the spoil won in battles to repair the house of the LORD. <sup>26:28</sup>All that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah, had dedicated, whoever had dedicated anything, it was under the hand of Shelomoth, and of his brothers. <sup>26:29</sup>Of the Izharites, Chenaniah and his sons were for the outward business over Israel, for officers and judges. <sup>26:30</sup>Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brothers, men of valor, one thousand seven hundred, had the oversight of Israel beyond the Jordan westward, for all the business of the LORD, and for the service of the king. <sup>26:31</sup>Of the Hebronites was Jerijah the chief, even of the Hebronites, according to their generations by fathers' households. In the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men of valor at Jazer of Gilead. <sup>26:32</sup>His brothers, men of valor, were two thousand seven hundred, heads of fathers' households, whom king David made overseers over the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half-tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and for the affairs of the king.

<sup>27:1</sup>Now the children of Israel after their number, the heads of fathers' households and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and their officers who served the king, in any matter of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year—of every division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:2</sup>Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:3</sup>He was of the children of Perez, the chief of all the captains of the army for the first month. <sup>27:4</sup>Over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite, and his division; and Mikloth the ruler: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:5</sup>The third captain of the army for the third month was Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, chief: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:6</sup>This is that Benaiah, who was the mighty man of the thirty, and over the thirty: and of his division was Ammizabad his son. <sup>27:7</sup>The fourth captain for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:8</sup>The fifth captain for this fifth month was Shamhuth the Izrahite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:9</sup>The sixth captain for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:10</sup>The seventh captain for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:11</sup>The eighth captain for the eighth month was Sibbecai the Hushathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:12</sup>The ninth captain for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjamites: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:13</sup>The tenth captain for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zerahites: and in his division were Twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:14</sup>The eleventh captain for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:15</sup>The twelfth captain for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel: and in his division were twenty-four thousand. <sup>27:16</sup>Furthermore over the tribes of Israel: of the Reubenites was Eliezer the son of Zichri the ruler: of the Simeonites, Shephatiah the son of Maacah: <sup>27:17</sup>of Levi, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel: of Aaron, Zadok: <sup>27:18</sup>of Judah, Elihu, one of the brothers of David: of Issachar, Omri the son of Michael: <sup>27:19</sup>of Zebulun, Ishmaiah the son of Obadiah: of Naphtali, Jeremoth the son of Azriel: <sup>27:20</sup>of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the son of Azaziah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah: <sup>27:21</sup>of the half-tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner: <sup>27:22</sup>of Dan, Azarel the son of Jeroham. These were the captains of the tribes of Israel. <sup>27:23</sup>But David didn't take the number of them from twenty years old and under, because the LORD had said he would increase Israel like the stars of the sky. <sup>27:24</sup>Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but didn't finish; and there came wrath for this on Israel; neither was the number put into the account in the chronicles of king David. <sup>27:25</sup>Over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel: and over the treasures in the fields, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers, was Jonathan the son of Uzziah: <sup>27:26</sup>Over those who did the work of the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri the son of Chelub: <sup>27:27</sup>and over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite: and over the increase of the vineyards for the winecellars was Zabdi the Shiphmite: <sup>27:28</sup>and over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the lowland was Baal Hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oil was Joash: <sup>27:29</sup>and over the herds that fed in Sharon was Shitrai the Sharonite: and over the herds that were in the valleys was Shaphat the son of Adlai: <sup>27:30</sup>and over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite: and over the donkeys was Jehdeiah the Meronothite: and over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagrite. <sup>27:31</sup>All these were the rulers of the substance which was king David's. <sup>27:32</sup>Also Jonathan, David's uncle, was a counselor, a man of understanding, and a scribe: and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's sons: <sup>27:33</sup>Ahithophel was the king's counselor: and Hushai the Archite was the king's friend: <sup>27:34</sup>and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar: and the captain of the king's army was Joab.

<sup>28:1</sup>David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the captains of the companies who served the king by division, and the captains of thousands, and the captains of hundreds, and the rulers over all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the officers, and the mighty men, even all the mighty men of valor, to Jerusalem. <sup>28:2</sup>Then David the king stood up on his feet, and said, "Hear me, my brothers, and my people! As for me, it was in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and for the footstool of our God; and I had prepared for the building. <sup>28:3</sup>But God said to me, 'You shall not build a house for my name, because you are a man of war, and have shed blood.' <sup>28:4</sup>However the LORD, the God of Israel, chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel forever. For he has chosen Judah to be prince; and in the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king over all Israel. <sup>28:5</sup>Of all my sons (for the LORD has given me many sons), he has chosen Solomon my son to sit on the throne of the LORD's kingdom over Israel. <sup>28:6</sup>He said to me, 'Solomon, your son, shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his father. <sup>28:7</sup>I will establish his kingdom forever, if he continues to do my commandments and my ordinances, as at this day.' <sup>28:8</sup>Now therefore, in the sight of all Israel, the assembly of the LORD, and in the audience of our God, observe and seek out all the commandments of the LORD your God; that you may possess this good land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children after you forever. <sup>28:9</sup>You, Solomon my son, know the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for the LORD searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts. If you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever. <sup>28:10</sup>Take heed now; for the LORD has chosen you to build a house for the sanctuary. Be strong, and do it."

<sup>28:11</sup>Then David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch of the temple, and of its houses, and of its treasuries, and of the upper rooms of it, and of the inner rooms of it, and of the place of the mercy seat; <sup>28:12</sup>and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, for the courts of the house of the LORD, and for all the surrounding rooms, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated things; <sup>28:13</sup>also for the divisions of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the LORD; <sup>28:14</sup>of gold by weight for the gold, for all vessels of every kind of service; for all the vessels of silver by weight, for all vessels of every kind of service; <sup>28:15</sup>by weight also for the menorahs of gold, and for its lamps, of gold, by weight for every menorah and for its lamps; and for the menorahs of silver, by weight for every menorah and for its lamps, according to the use of every menorah; <sup>28:16</sup>and the gold by weight for the tables of show bread, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver; <sup>28:17</sup>and the forks, and the basins, and the cups, of pure gold; and for the golden bowls by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls by weight for every bowl; <sup>28:18</sup>and for the altar of incense refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot, the cherubim, that spread out, and covered the ark of the covenant of the LORD. <sup>28:19</sup>"All this," said David, "I have been made to understand in writing from the hand of the LORD, even all the works of this pattern."

even my God, is with you. He will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of the LORD is finished. <sup>28:21</sup>Behold, there are the divisions of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God. There shall be with you in all kinds of work every willing man who has skill, for any kind of service. Also the captains and all the people will be entirely at your command."

<sup>29:1</sup>David the king said to all the assembly, "Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God. <sup>29:2</sup>Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the things of silver, and the brass for the things of brass, the iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; onyx stones, and stones to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all kinds of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance. <sup>29:3</sup>In addition, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, since I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house, <sup>29:4</sup>even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses; <sup>29:5</sup>of gold for the things of gold, and of silver for the things of silver, and for all kinds of work to be made by the hands of artisans. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to the LORD?" <sup>29:6</sup>Then the princes of the fathers' households, and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly; <sup>29:7</sup>and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents. <sup>29:8</sup>They with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite. <sup>29:9</sup>Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy. <sup>29:10</sup>Therefore David blessed the LORD before all the assembly; and David said, "You are blessed, LORD, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever. <sup>29:11</sup>Yours, LORD, is the greatness, the power, the glory, the victory, and the majesty! For all that is in the heavens and in the earth is yours. Yours is the kingdom, LORD, and you are exalted as head above all. <sup>29:12</sup>Both riches and honor come from you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and it is in your hand to make great, and to give strength to all. <sup>29:13</sup>Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name. <sup>29:14</sup>But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly as this? For all things come from you, and of your own have we given you. <sup>29:15</sup>For we are strangers before you, and foreigners, as all our fathers were. Our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no remaining. <sup>29:16</sup>LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes from your hand, and is all your own. <sup>29:17</sup>I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things. Now have I seen with joy your people, that are present here, offer willingly to you. <sup>29:18</sup>LORD, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart for you; <sup>29:19</sup>and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision." <sup>29:20</sup>David said to all the assembly, "Now bless the LORD your God!"

All the assembly blessed the LORD, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads and prostrated themselves before the LORD and the king. <sup>29:21</sup>They sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD, and offered burnt offerings to the LORD, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, <sup>29:22</sup>and ate and drink before the LORD on that day with great gladness. They made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to the LORD to be prince, and Zadok to be priest. <sup>29:23</sup>Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him. <sup>29:24</sup>All the princes, the mighty men, and also all of the sons of king David submitted themselves to Solomon the king. <sup>29:25</sup>The LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed on him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel. <sup>29:26</sup>Now David the son of Jesse reigned over all Israel. <sup>29:27</sup>The time that he reigned over Israel was forty years; he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem. <sup>29:28</sup>He died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honor: and Solomon his son reigned in his place. <sup>29:29</sup>Now the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Samuel the seer, and in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the history of Gad the seer, <sup>29:30</sup>with all his reign and his might, and the times that went over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

The Second Book of Chronicles

<sup>1:2</sup>Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every prince in all Israel, the heads of the fathers' households. <sup>1:3</sup>So Solomon, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Gibeon; for there was the Tent of Meeting of God, which Moses the servant of the LORD had made in the wilderness.

<sup>1:4</sup>But David had brought the ark of God up from Kiriath Jearim to the place that David had prepared for it; for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem. <sup>1:5</sup>Moreover the bronze altar, that Bezalel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of the LORD: and Solomon and the assembly were seeking counsel there. <sup>1:6</sup>Solomon went up there to the bronze altar before the LORD, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered one thousand burnt offerings on it. <sup>1:7</sup>In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, "Ask what I shall give you." <sup>1:8</sup>Solomon said to God, "You have shown great loving kindness to David my father, and have made me king in his place. <sup>1:9</sup>Now, LORD God, let your promise to David my father be established; for you have made me king over a people like the dust of the earth in multitude.

<sup>1:11</sup>God said to Solomon, "Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king: <sup>1:12</sup>wisdom and knowledge is granted to you. I will give you riches, wealth, and honor, such as none of the kings have had who have been before you; neither shall there any after you have the like."

Meeting, to Jerusalem; and he reigned over Israel. <sup>1:14</sup>Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen: and he had one thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he placed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>1:15</sup>The king made silver and gold to be in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>1:16</sup>The horses which Solomon had were brought out of Egypt and from Kue; the king's merchants purchased them from Kue. <sup>1:17</sup>They brought up and brought out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred fifty: and so for all the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of Syria, they brought them out by their means.

<sup>2:5</sup>"The house which I build is great; for our God is great above all gods. <sup>2:6</sup>But who is able to build him a house, since heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, except just to burn incense before him?"

<sup>2:7</sup>"Now therefore send me a man skillful to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and who knows how to engrave engravings, to be with the skillful men who are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father provided.

your servants know how to cut timber in Lebanon: and behold, my servants shall be with your servants, <sup>2:9</sup>even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful. <sup>2:10</sup>Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil."

<sup>2:11</sup>Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, "Because the LORD loves his people, he has made you king over them." <sup>2:12</sup>Hiram continued, "Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom. <sup>2:13</sup>Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Hiram my father's, <sup>2:14</sup>the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any kind of engraving, and to devise any device; that there may be a place appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

<sup>2:15</sup>"Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants: <sup>2:16</sup>and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem." <sup>2:17</sup>Solomon numbered all the foreigners who were in Eretz-Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred. <sup>2:18</sup>He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

of his reign. <sup>3:3</sup>Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits. <sup>3:4</sup>The porch that was in front, its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold. <sup>3:5</sup>The greater house he made a ceiling with fir wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and ornamented it with palm trees and chains. <sup>3:6</sup>He garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim. <sup>3:7</sup>He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and its walls, and its doors, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls. <sup>3:8</sup>He made the most holy house: its length, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents. <sup>3:9</sup>The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper rooms with gold. <sup>3:10</sup>In the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work; and they overlaid them with gold. <sup>3:11</sup>The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>3:12</sup>The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits, joining to the wing of the other cherub. <sup>3:13</sup>The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house. <sup>3:14</sup>He made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and ornamented it with cherubim. <sup>3:15</sup>Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits. <sup>3:16</sup>He made chains in the oracle, and put them on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains. <sup>3:17</sup>He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

<sup>4:1</sup>Then he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits its length, and twenty cubits its breadth, and ten cubits its height. <sup>4:2</sup>Also he made the

molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encircled it. <sup>4:3</sup>Under it was the likeness of oxen, which encircled it, for ten cubits, encircling the sea. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast. <sup>4:4</sup>It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward. <sup>4:5</sup>It was a handbreadth thick; and its brim was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths. <sup>4:6</sup>He made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in. <sup>4:7</sup>He made the ten menorahs of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left. <sup>4:8</sup>He made also ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right side, and five on the left. He made one hundred basins of gold. <sup>4:9</sup>Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid their doors with brass. <sup>4:10</sup>He set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, toward the south. <sup>4:11</sup>Huram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Huram made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon in the house of God: <sup>4:12</sup>the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, <sup>4:13</sup>and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars. <sup>4:14</sup>He made also the bases, and the basins made he on the bases; <sup>4:15</sup>one sea, and the twelve oxen under it. <sup>4:16</sup>Huram his father also made the pots, the shovels, the forks, and all its vessels for king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright brass. <sup>4:17</sup>The king cast them in the plain of the Jordan, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah. <sup>4:18</sup>Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.

<sup>4:19</sup>Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables with the show bread on them; <sup>4:20</sup>and the menorahs with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold; <sup>4:21</sup>and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold; <sup>4:22</sup>and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the main hall of the temple were of gold.

<sup>5:1</sup>Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of the LORD was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God. <sup>5:2</sup>Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers' households of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD out of the city of David, which is Zion. <sup>5:3</sup>And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was in the seventh month. <sup>5:4</sup>All the elders of Israel came: and the Levites took up the ark; <sup>5:5</sup>and they brought up the ark, and the Tent of Meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these the priests the Levites brought up. <sup>5:6</sup>King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and cattle, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude. <sup>5:7</sup>The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim. <sup>5:8</sup>For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and its poles above. <sup>5:9</sup>The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there it is to this day. <sup>5:10</sup>There was nothing in the ark except the two tables which Moses put at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt. <sup>5:11</sup>It happened, when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and didn't keep their divisions; <sup>5:12</sup>also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and stringed instruments and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with shofars<sup>c</sup>;) <sup>5:13</sup>it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the shofars<sup>d</sup> and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying,

“For he is good;

that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD, <sup>5:14</sup>so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD filled the house of God.

<sup>6:1</sup>Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness. <sup>6:2</sup>But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever.”

<sup>6:3</sup>The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood. <sup>6:4</sup>He said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying, <sup>6:5</sup>‘Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be prince over my people Israel: <sup>6:6</sup>but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.’ <sup>6:7</sup>Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>6:8</sup>But the LORD said to David my father, ‘Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart: <sup>6:9</sup>nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your body, he shall build the house for my name.’

<sup>6:10</sup>“The LORD has performed his word that he spoke; for I have risen up in the place of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>6:11</sup>There I have set the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, which he made with the children of Israel.”

<sup>6:12</sup>He stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands <sup>6:13</sup>(for Solomon had made a bronze scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;) <sup>6:14</sup>and he said, “LORD, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; you who keep covenant and loving kindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart; <sup>6:15</sup>who have kept with your servant David my father that which you promised him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.

<sup>6:16</sup>“Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, ‘There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.’ <sup>6:17</sup>Now therefore, LORD, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.

<sup>6:18</sup>“But will God indeed dwell with men on the earth? Behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can’t contain you; how much less this house which I have built! <sup>6:19</sup>Yet have respect for the prayer of your servant, and to his supplication, LORD my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you; <sup>6:20</sup>that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place where you have said that you would put your name; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place. <sup>6:21</sup>Listen to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.

<sup>6:22</sup>“If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house; <sup>6:23</sup>then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, bringing retribution to the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

<sup>6:24</sup>“If your people Israel be struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and shall turn again and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this house; <sup>6:25</sup>then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.

<sup>6:26</sup>“When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you afflict them: <sup>6:27</sup>then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.

<sup>6:28</sup>“If there is famine in the land, if there is pestilence, if there is blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there is; <sup>6:29</sup>whatever prayer and supplication be made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house: <sup>6:30</sup>then hear from heaven, your dwelling place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of men;) <sup>6:31</sup>that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.

<sup>6:32</sup>“Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for your great name’s sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house: <sup>6:33</sup>then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.

<sup>6:34</sup>“If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name; <sup>6:35</sup>then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

<sup>6:36</sup>“If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn’t sin), and you are angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near; <sup>6:37</sup>yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, ‘We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;’ <sup>6:38</sup>if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name: <sup>6:39</sup>then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.

<sup>6:40</sup>“Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.

<sup>6:41</sup>“Now therefore arise, LORD God, into your resting place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your priests, LORD God, be clothed with salvation [yeshu’ah], and let your holy ones rejoice in goodness.

<sup>7:1</sup>Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

<sup>7:2</sup>The priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD filled the LORD’s house. <sup>7:3</sup>All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks to the LORD, saying,

“For he is good;

for his loving kindness endures for ever.”

<sup>7:4</sup>Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before the LORD.

<sup>7:5</sup>King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand head of cattle, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God. <sup>7:6</sup>The priests stood, according to their positions; the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to give thanks to the LORD, when David praised by their ministry, saying "For his loving kindness endures for ever." The priests sounded shofars<sup>e</sup> before them; and all Israel stood.

<sup>7:7</sup>Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of the LORD; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal offering, and the fat. <sup>7:8</sup>So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt. <sup>7:9</sup>On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days. <sup>7:10</sup>On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people. <sup>7:11</sup>Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and he successfully completed all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house.

<sup>7:13</sup>"If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people; <sup>7:14</sup>if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land. <sup>7:15</sup>Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place. <sup>7:16</sup>For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

<sup>7:17</sup>"As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances; <sup>7:18</sup>then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, 'There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.' <sup>7:19</sup>But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them; <sup>7:20</sup>then I will pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples. <sup>7:21</sup>This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, 'Why has the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house?' <sup>7:22</sup>They shall answer, 'Because they abandoned the LORD, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and took other gods, worshiped them, and served them. Therefore he has brought all this evil on them.'"

them Solomon conscripted forced labor to this day. <sup>8:9</sup>But of the children of Israel, Solomon made no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen. <sup>8:10</sup>These were the chief officers of king Solomon, even two-hundred fifty, who ruled over the people.

<sup>8:11</sup>Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house that he had built for her; for he said, "My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places where the ark of the LORD has come are holy."

<sup>8:12</sup>Then Solomon offered burnt offerings to the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch, <sup>8:13</sup>even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the Sabbaths, and on the new moons, and on the set feasts, three times in the year, in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of booths. <sup>8:14</sup>He appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their offices, to praise, and to minister before the priests, as the duty of every day required; the doorkeepers also by their divisions at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded. <sup>8:15</sup>They didn't depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and Levites concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures. <sup>8:16</sup>Now all the work of Solomon was prepared to the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished. So the house of the LORD was completed. <sup>8:17</sup>Then went Solomon to Ezion Geber, and to Eloth, on the seashore in the land of Edom. <sup>8:18</sup>Huram sent him ships and servants who had knowledge of the sea by the hands of his servants; and they came with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched from there four hundred fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

<sup>9:1</sup>When the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great train, and camels that bore spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she had come to Solomon, she talked with him of all that was in her heart. <sup>9:2</sup>Solomon told her all her questions; and there was not anything hidden from Solomon which he didn't tell her. <sup>9:3</sup>When the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built, <sup>9:4</sup>and the food of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their clothing, his cup bearers also, and their clothing, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of the LORD; there was no more spirit in her.

<sup>9:5</sup>She said to the king, "It was a true report that I heard in my own land of your acts, and of your wisdom. <sup>9:6</sup>However I didn't believe their words, until I came, and my eyes had seen it; and behold, the half of the greatness of your wisdom was not told me: you exceed the fame that I heard. <sup>9:7</sup>Happy are your men, and happy are these your servants, who stand continually before you, and hear your wisdom. <sup>9:8</sup>Blessed be the LORD your God, who delighted in you, to set you on his throne, to be king for the LORD your God: because your God loved Israel, to establish them forever, therefore made he you king over them, to do justice and righteousness."

<sup>9:9</sup>She gave the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave to king Solomon. <sup>9:10</sup>The servants also of Hiram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought alnum trees and precious stones. <sup>9:11</sup>The king made of the alnum trees terraces for the house of the LORD, and for the king's house, and harps and stringed instruments for the singers: and there were none like these seen before in the land of Judah. <sup>9:12</sup>King Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the king. So she turned, and went to her own land, she and her servants. <sup>9:13</sup>Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, <sup>9:14</sup>besides that which the traders and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon. <sup>9:15</sup>King Solomon made two hundred bucklers of beaten gold; six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one buckler. <sup>9:16</sup>He made three hundred shields of beaten gold; three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon. <sup>9:17</sup>Moreover the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold. <sup>9:18</sup>And there were six steps to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and stays on either side by the place of the seat, and two lions standing beside the stays. <sup>9:19</sup>Twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other on the six steps: there was nothing like it made in any kingdom. <sup>9:20</sup>All king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: silver was nothing accounted of in the days of Solomon. <sup>9:21</sup>For the king had ships that went to Tarshish with the servants of Hiram; once every three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks. <sup>9:22</sup>So king Solomon exceeded all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom. <sup>9:23</sup>All the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his heart. <sup>9:24</sup>They brought every man his tribute, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, armor, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year. <sup>9:25</sup>Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen, that he stationed in the chariot cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. <sup>9:26</sup>He ruled over all the kings from the River even to the land of the Philistines, and to the border of Egypt. <sup>9:27</sup>The king made silver to be in Jerusalem as stones, and he made cedars to be as the sycamore trees that are in the lowland, for abundance. <sup>9:28</sup>They brought horses for Solomon out of Egypt, and out of all lands. <sup>9:29</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat? <sup>9:30</sup>Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years. <sup>9:31</sup>Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his place.

<sup>10:1</sup>Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king. <sup>10:2</sup>It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon), that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt. <sup>10:3</sup>They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all

Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying, <sup>10:4</sup>"Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you."

<sup>10:5</sup>He said to them, "Come again to me after three days."

The people departed. <sup>10:6</sup>King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, "What counsel do you give me to return answer to this people?"

<sup>10:7</sup>They spoke to him, saying, "If you are kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever."

<sup>10:8</sup>But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him. <sup>10:9</sup>He said to them, "What counsel do you give, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, 'Make the yoke that your father put on us lighter?'"

<sup>10:10</sup>The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, "Thus you shall tell the people who spoke to you, saying, 'Your father made our yoke heavy, but make it lighter on us;' thus you shall say to them, 'My little finger is thicker than my father's waist. <sup>10:11</sup>Now whereas my father burdened you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.'"

<sup>10:12</sup>So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king asked, saying, "Come to me again the third day."

<sup>10:13</sup>The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men, <sup>10:14</sup>and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, "My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it. My father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions."

<sup>10:15</sup>So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that the LORD might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat. <sup>10:16</sup>When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, "What portion have we in David? Neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse!

Every man to your tents, Israel! Now see to your own house, David." So all Israel departed to their tents.

<sup>10:17</sup>But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them. <sup>10:18</sup>Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get himself up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. <sup>10:19</sup>So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

<sup>11:1</sup>When Rehoboam had come to Jerusalem, he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, one hundred eighty thousand chosen men, who were warriors, to fight against Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam. <sup>11:2</sup>But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, <sup>11:3</sup>"Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying, <sup>11:4</sup>"Thus says the LORD, "You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers! Return every man to his house; for this thing is of me." So they listened to the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam. <sup>11:5</sup>Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah. <sup>11:6</sup>He built Bethlehem, and Etam, and Tekoa, <sup>11:7</sup>Beth Zur, and Soco, and Adullam, <sup>11:8</sup>and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, <sup>11:9</sup>and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, <sup>11:10</sup>and Zorah, and Aijalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities. <sup>11:11</sup>He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of food, and oil and wine. <sup>11:12</sup>He put shields and spears in every city, and made them exceeding strong. Judah and Benjamin belonged to him. <sup>11:13</sup>The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their border. <sup>11:14</sup>For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office to the LORD; <sup>11:15</sup>and he appointed him priests for the high places, and for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made. <sup>11:16</sup>After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>11:17</sup>So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon. <sup>11:18</sup>Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, and of Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse; <sup>11:19</sup>and she bore him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. <sup>11:20</sup>After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith. <sup>11:21</sup>Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.) <sup>11:22</sup>Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, the prince among his brothers; for he intended to make him king. <sup>11:23</sup>He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them food in abundance. He sought for them many wives.

<sup>12:1</sup>It happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him. <sup>12:2</sup>It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against the LORD, <sup>12:3</sup>with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians. <sup>12:4</sup>He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>12:5</sup>Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, "Thus says the LORD, 'You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.'"

<sup>12:6</sup>Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, "The LORD is righteous."

<sup>12:7</sup>When the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, "They have humbled themselves. I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak. <sup>12:8</sup>Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.”

<sup>12:9</sup>So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king’s house. He took it all away. He also took away the shields of gold which Solomon had made. <sup>12:10</sup>King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king’s house. <sup>12:11</sup>It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard room. <sup>12:12</sup>When he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things found. <sup>12:13</sup>So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother’s name was Naamah the Ammonitess. <sup>12:14</sup>He did that which was evil, because he didn’t set his heart to seek the LORD. <sup>12:15</sup>Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren’t they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, after the way of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually. <sup>12:16</sup>Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his place.

his sons by a covenant of salt? <sup>13:6</sup>Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord. <sup>13:7</sup>There were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tenderhearted, and could not withstand them.

<sup>13:8</sup>“Now you think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods. <sup>13:9</sup>Haven’t you driven out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made priests for yourselves after the ways of the peoples of other lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of those who are no gods.

<sup>13:10</sup>“But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and we have priests ministering to the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work: <sup>13:11</sup>and they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense. They also set the show bread in order on the pure table; and the menorah of gold with its lamps, to burn every evening: for we keep the instruction of the LORD our God; but you have forsaken him. <sup>13:12</sup>Behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the shofars<sup>f</sup> of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, don’t fight against the LORD, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.”

<sup>13:13</sup>But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them. <sup>13:14</sup>When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to the LORD, and the priests sounded with the shofars<sup>g</sup>. <sup>13:15</sup>Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah. <sup>13:16</sup>The children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand. <sup>13:17</sup>Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men. <sup>13:18</sup>Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>13:19</sup>Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with its towns, and Jeshanah with its towns, and Ephron with its towns. <sup>13:20</sup>Jeroboam didn't recover strength again in the days of Abijah. The LORD struck him, and he died. <sup>13:21</sup>But Abijah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters. <sup>13:22</sup>The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

<sup>14:1</sup>So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years. <sup>14:2</sup>Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God: <sup>14:3</sup>for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, <sup>14:4</sup>and commanded Judah to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment. <sup>14:5</sup>Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun images: and the kingdom was quiet before him. <sup>14:6</sup>He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because the LORD had given him rest. <sup>14:7</sup>For he said to Judah, "Let us build these cities, and make walls around them, with towers, gates, and bars. The land is yet before us, because we have sought the LORD our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side." So they built and prospered. <sup>14:8</sup>Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor. <sup>14:9</sup>There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah. <sup>14:10</sup>Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah. <sup>14:11</sup>Asa cried to the LORD his God, and said, "LORD, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength. Help us, LORD our God; for we rely on you, and in your name are we come against this multitude. LORD, you are our God. Don't let man prevail against you."

<sup>14:12</sup>So the LORD struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled. <sup>14:13</sup>Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his army; and they carried away very much booty. <sup>14:14</sup>They struck all the cities around Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came on them: and they despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them. <sup>14:15</sup>They struck also the tents of livestock, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.

<sup>15:1</sup>The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded: <sup>15:2</sup>and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, "Hear me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin! the LORD is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found by you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you. <sup>15:3</sup>Now for a long time Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law. <sup>15:4</sup>But when in their distress they turned to the LORD, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them. <sup>15:5</sup>In those times there was no peace to him who went out, nor to him who came in; but great troubles were on all the inhabitants of the lands. <sup>15:6</sup>They were broken in pieces, nation against nation, and city against city; for God troubled them with all adversity. <sup>15:7</sup>But you be strong, and don't let your hands be slack; for your work shall be rewarded."

<sup>15:8</sup>When Asa heard these words, and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from the hill country of Ephraim; and he renewed the altar of the LORD, that was before the porch of the LORD. <sup>15:9</sup>He gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and those who lived with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon: for they fell to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the LORD his God was with him. <sup>15:10</sup>So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa. <sup>15:11</sup>They sacrificed to the LORD in that day, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred head of cattle and seven thousand sheep. <sup>15:12</sup>They entered into the covenant to seek the LORD, the God of their fathers, with all their heart and with all their soul; <sup>15:13</sup>and that whoever would not seek the LORD, the God of Israel, should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman. <sup>15:14</sup>They swore to the LORD with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with shofars<sup>h</sup>, and with cornets. <sup>15:15</sup>All Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire; and he was found of them: and the LORD gave them rest all around. <sup>15:16</sup>Also Maacah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen, because she had made an abominable image for an Asherah; and Asa cut down her image, and made dust of it, and burnt it at the brook Kidron. <sup>15:17</sup>But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless the heart of Asa was perfect all his days. <sup>15:18</sup>He brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels. <sup>15:19</sup>There was no more war to the five and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa.

<sup>16:1</sup>In the six and thirtieth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah, and built Ramah, that he might not allow anyone to go out or come in to Asa king of Judah. <sup>16:2</sup>Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the LORD and of the king's house, and sent to Ben Hadad king of Syria, who lived at Damascus, saying, <sup>16:3</sup>"Let there be a treaty between me and you, as there was between my father and your father. Behold, I have sent you silver and gold. Go, break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me."

of your hand. <sup>16:8</sup>Weren't the Ethiopians and the Lubim a huge army, with chariots and horsemen exceeding many? Yet, because you relied on the LORD, he delivered them into your hand. <sup>16:9</sup>For the eyes of the LORD run back and forth throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in the behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein you have done foolishly; for from henceforth you shall have wars."

<sup>16:10</sup>Then Asa was angry with the seer, and put him in the prison; for he was in a rage with him because of this thing. Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time. <sup>16:11</sup>Behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>16:12</sup>In the thirty-ninth year of his reign Asa was diseased in his feet; his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he didn't seek the LORD, but to the physicians. <sup>16:13</sup>Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one and fortieth year of his reign. <sup>16:14</sup>They buried him in his own tombs, which he had dug out for himself in the city of David, and laid him in the bed which was filled with sweet odors and various kinds of spices prepared by the perfumers' art: and they made a very great burning for him.

<sup>17:1</sup>Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Israel. <sup>17:2</sup>He placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim, which Asa his father had taken. <sup>17:3</sup>The LORD was with Jehoshaphat, because he walked in the first ways of his father David, and didn't seek the Baals, <sup>17:4</sup>but sought to the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after the doings of Israel. <sup>17:5</sup>Therefore the LORD established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah brought to Jehoshaphat tribute; and he had riches and honor in abundance. <sup>17:6</sup>His heart was lifted up in the ways of the LORD: and furthermore he took away the high places and the Asherim out of Judah. <sup>17:7</sup>Also in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, even Ben Hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethanel, and Micaiah, to teach in the cities of Judah; <sup>17:8</sup>and with them the Levites, even Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tobadonijah, the Levites; and with them Elishama and Jehoram, the priests. <sup>17:9</sup>They taught in Judah, having the scroll of the Torah of the LORD with them; and they went about throughout all the cities of Judah, and taught among the people. <sup>17:10</sup>The fear of the LORD fell on all the kingdoms of the lands that were around Judah, so that they made no war against Jehoshaphat. <sup>17:11</sup>Some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat presents, and silver for tribute; the Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand and seven hundred rams, and seven thousand and seven hundred male goats. <sup>17:12</sup>Jehoshaphat grew great exceedingly; and he built in Judah castles and cities of store. <sup>17:13</sup>He had many works in the cities of Judah; and men of war, mighty men of valor, in Jerusalem. <sup>17:14</sup>This was the numbering of them according to their fathers' houses: Of Judah, the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him mighty men of valor three hundred thousand; <sup>17:15</sup>and next to him Jehohanan the captain, and with him two hundred eighty thousand; <sup>17:16</sup>and next to him Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to the LORD; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valor. <sup>17:17</sup>Of Benjamin: Eliada a mighty man of valor, and with him two hundred thousand armed with bow and shield; <sup>17:18</sup>and next to him Jehozabad and with him one hundred eighty thousand ready prepared for war. <sup>17:19</sup>These were those who waited on the king, besides those whom the king put in the fortified cities throughout all Judah.

<sup>18:1</sup>Now Jehoshaphat had riches and honor in abundance; and he joined affinity with Ahab. <sup>18:2</sup>After certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. Ahab killed sheep and cattle for him in abundance, and for the people who were with him, and moved him to go up with him to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>18:3</sup>Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, "Will you go with me to Ramoth Gilead?"

He answered him, "I am as you are, and my people as your people. We will be with you in the war." <sup>18:4</sup>Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, "Please inquire first for the word of the LORD."

<sup>18:5</sup>Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, "Shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

They said, "Go up; for God will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>18:6</sup>But Jehoshaphat said, "Isn't there here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may inquire of him?"

<sup>18:7</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of the LORD; but I hate him, for he never prophesies good concerning me, but always evil. He is Micaiah the son of Imla."

Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."

<sup>18:8</sup>Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, "Get Micaiah the son of Imla quickly."

<sup>18:9</sup>Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, and they were sitting in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them. <sup>18:10</sup>Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, "Thus says the LORD, 'With these you shall push the Syrians, until they are consumed.'"

<sup>18:11</sup>All the prophets prophesied so, saying, "Go up to Ramoth Gilead, and prosper; for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king."

<sup>18:12</sup>The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, "Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth. Let your word therefore, please be like one of theirs, and speak good."

<sup>18:13</sup>Micaiah said, "As the LORD lives, what my God says, that will I speak."

<sup>18:14</sup>When he had come to the king, the king said to him, "Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear?"

He said, "Go up, and prosper. They shall be delivered into your hand."

<sup>18:15</sup>The king said to him, "How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of the LORD?"

<sup>18:16</sup>He said, "I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. The LORD said, 'These have no master. Let them return every man to his house in peace.'"

<sup>18:17</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?"

<sup>18:18</sup>Micaiah said, "Therefore hear the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the army of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left. <sup>18:19</sup>The LORD said, 'Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth Gilead?' One spoke saying in this way, and another saying in that way. <sup>18:20</sup>A spirit came out, stood before the LORD, and said, 'I will entice him.'

"The LORD said to him, 'How?'

<sup>18:21</sup>"He said, 'I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.'

"He said, 'You will entice him, and will prevail also. Go forth, and do so.'

<sup>18:22</sup>"Now therefore, behold, the LORD has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and the LORD has spoken evil concerning you."

<sup>18:23</sup>Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, "Which way did the Spirit of the LORD go from me to speak to you?"

<sup>18:25</sup>The king of Israel said, "Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son; <sup>18:26</sup>and say, 'Thus says the king, "Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.'"

<sup>18:27</sup>Micaiah said, "If you return at all in peace, the LORD has not spoken by me." He said, "Listen, you peoples, all of you!" <sup>18:28</sup>So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth Gilead. <sup>18:29</sup>The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, "I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but you put on your robes." So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle. <sup>18:30</sup>Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, "Fight neither with small nor great, except only with the king of Israel."

<sup>18:31</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, "It is the king of Israel!" Therefore they turned around to fight against him. But Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him. <sup>18:32</sup>It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him. <sup>18:33</sup>A certain man drew his bow at random, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor. Therefore he said to the driver of the chariot, "Turn your hand, and carry me out of the army; for I am severely wounded." <sup>18:34</sup>The battle increased that day. However the king of Israel propped himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening; and about the time of the going down of the sun, he died.

<sup>19:1</sup>Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem. <sup>19:2</sup>Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, "Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate the LORD? Because of this, wrath is on you from before the LORD. <sup>19:3</sup>Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God."

<sup>19:4</sup>Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill country of Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>19:5</sup>He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city, <sup>19:6</sup>and said to the judges, "Consider what you do: for you don't judge for man, but for the LORD; and he is with you in the judgment. <sup>19:7</sup>Now therefore let the fear of the LORD be on you. Take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes."

<sup>19:8</sup>Moreover in Jerusalem Jehoshaphat appointed Levites and priests, and of the heads of the fathers' households of Israel, for the judgment of the LORD, and for controversies. They returned to Jerusalem. <sup>19:9</sup>He commanded them, saying, "Thus you shall do in the fear of the LORD, faithfully, and with a perfect heart. <sup>19:10</sup>Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards the LORD, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers. Do this, and you shall not be guilty. <sup>19:11</sup>Behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of the LORD; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and may the LORD be with the good."

down against them. Behold, they are coming up by the ascent of Ziz. You shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel. <sup>20:17</sup>You will not need to fight this battle. Set yourselves, stand still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem. Don't be afraid, nor be dismayed. Go out against them tomorrow, for the LORD is with you."

<sup>20:21</sup>When he had taken counsel with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the LORD, and give praise in holy array, as they went out before the army, and say, Give thanks to the LORD; for his loving kindness endures forever. <sup>20:22</sup>When they began to sing and to praise, the LORD set ambushers against the children of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were struck. <sup>20:23</sup>For the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Seir, utterly to kill and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, everyone helped to destroy another. <sup>20:24</sup>When Judah came to the place overlooking the wilderness, they looked at the multitude; and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and there were none who escaped. <sup>20:25</sup>When Jehoshaphat and his people came to take their spoil, they found among them in abundance both riches and dead bodies, and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away: and they were three days in taking the spoil, it was so much. <sup>20:26</sup>On the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Beracah; for there they blessed the LORD: therefore the name of that place was called The valley of Beracah to this day.

<sup>20:27</sup>Then they returned, every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in their forefront, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for the LORD had made them to rejoice over their enemies. <sup>20:28</sup>They came to Jerusalem with stringed instruments and harps and shofars<sup>i</sup> to the house of the LORD. <sup>20:29</sup>The fear of God was on all the kingdoms of the countries, when they heard that the LORD fought against the enemies of Israel. <sup>20:30</sup>So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest all around. <sup>20:31</sup>Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi. <sup>20:32</sup>He walked in the way of Asa his father, and didn't turn aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD. <sup>20:33</sup>However the high places were not taken away; neither as yet had the people set their hearts to the God of their fathers. <sup>20:34</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the history of Jehu the son of Hanani, which is inserted in the book of the kings of Israel. <sup>20:35</sup>After this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel. The same did very wickedly: <sup>20:36</sup>and he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships in Ezion Geber. <sup>20:37</sup>Then Eliezer the son of Dodavahu of Mareshah prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, "Because you have joined yourself with Ahaziah, the LORD has destroyed your works." The ships were broken, so that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

<sup>21:5</sup>Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. <sup>21:6</sup>He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>21:7</sup>However the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always. <sup>21:8</sup>In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves. <sup>21:9</sup>Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots. <sup>21:10</sup>So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day: then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken the LORD, the God of his fathers. <sup>21:11</sup>Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, and led Judah astray. <sup>21:12</sup>A letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, "Thus says the LORD, the God of David your father, 'Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah, <sup>21:13</sup>but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, like the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself: <sup>21:14</sup>behold, the LORD will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your substance; <sup>21:15</sup>and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.'"

end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of severe diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers. <sup>21:20</sup>Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

<sup>22:1</sup>The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned. <sup>22:2</sup>Forty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri. <sup>22:3</sup>He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly. <sup>22:4</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction. <sup>22:5</sup>He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth Gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram. <sup>22:6</sup>He returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick. <sup>22:7</sup>Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab. <sup>22:8</sup>It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them. <sup>22:9</sup>He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, "He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart." The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom. <sup>22:10</sup>Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the royal seed of the house of Judah. <sup>22:11</sup>But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she didn't kill him. <sup>22:12</sup>He was with them hidden in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.

<sup>23:1</sup>In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him. <sup>23:2</sup>They went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' households of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem. <sup>23:3</sup>All the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. He said to them, "Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD has spoken concerning the sons of David. <sup>23:4</sup>This is the thing that you shall do. A third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the thresholds. <sup>23:5</sup>A third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation. All the people shall be in the courts of the LORD's house. <sup>23:6</sup>But let no one come into the house of the LORD, except the priests, and those who minister of the Levites. They shall come in, for they are holy, but all the people shall follow the LORD's instructions. <sup>23:7</sup>The Levites shall surround the king, every man with his weapons in his hand. Whoever comes into the house, let him be slain. Be with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out."

<sup>23:8</sup>So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest didn't dismiss the shift. <sup>23:9</sup>Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God. <sup>23:10</sup>He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, around the king. <sup>23:11</sup>Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and gave him the testimony, and made him king; and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, "Long live the king!"

<sup>23:12</sup>When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD: <sup>23:13</sup>and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the shofars<sup>j</sup> by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew shofars<sup>k</sup>; the singers also played musical instruments, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, "Treason! treason!"

<sup>23:14</sup>Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, "Bring her out between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword." For the priest said, "Don't kill her in the the LORD's house." <sup>23:15</sup>So they made way for her. She went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king's house; and they killed her there. <sup>23:16</sup>Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be the LORD's people. <sup>23:17</sup>All the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. <sup>23:18</sup>Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of the LORD under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the Torah of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David. <sup>23:19</sup>He set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in. <sup>23:20</sup>He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom. <sup>23:21</sup>So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.

gan to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba. <sup>24:2</sup>Joash did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest. <sup>24:3</sup>Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he became the father of sons and daughters. <sup>24:4</sup>It happened after this, that Joash intended to restore the house of the LORD. <sup>24:5</sup>He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, "Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather money to repair the house of your God from all Israel from year to year. See that you expedite this matter." However the Levites didn't do it right away. <sup>24:6</sup>The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, "Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in the tax of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the assembly of Israel, out of Judah and out of Jerusalem, for the tent of the testimony?" <sup>24:7</sup>For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and they also gave all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD to the Baals. <sup>24:8</sup>So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of the LORD. <sup>24:9</sup>They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for the LORD the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness. <sup>24:10</sup>All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end. <sup>24:11</sup>It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance. <sup>24:12</sup>The king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of the LORD, and also such as worked iron and brass to repair the house of the LORD. <sup>24:13</sup>So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up the house of God in its state, and strengthened it. <sup>24:14</sup>When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada. <sup>24:15</sup>But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; one hundred thirty years old was he when he died. <sup>24:16</sup>They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house. <sup>24:17</sup>Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king listened to them. <sup>24:18</sup>They forsook the house of the LORD, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness. <sup>24:19</sup>Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear. <sup>24:20</sup>The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, "Thus says God, 'Why do you disobey the commandments of the LORD, so that you can't prosper? Because you have forsaken the LORD, he has also forsaken you.'"

<sup>24:21</sup>They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD. <sup>24:22</sup>Thus Joash the king didn't remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, "May the LORD look at it, and repay it." <sup>24:23</sup>It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the king of Damascus. <sup>24:24</sup>For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and the LORD delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash. <sup>24:25</sup>When they were departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings. <sup>24:26</sup>These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad

the son of Shimrith the Moabitess. <sup>24:27</sup>Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid on him, and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>25:1</sup>Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem. <sup>25:2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart. <sup>25:3</sup>Now it happened, when the kingdom was established to him, that he killed his servants who had killed the king his father. <sup>25:4</sup>But he didn't put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the Torah in the book of Moses, as the LORD commanded, saying, "The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin." <sup>25:5</sup>Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers' houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield. <sup>25:6</sup>He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver. <sup>25:7</sup>A man of God came to him, saying, "O king, don't let the army of Israel go with you; for the LORD is not with Israel, with all the children of Ephraim. <sup>25:8</sup>But if you will go, take action, be strong for the battle. God will overthrow you before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to overthrow."

<sup>25:9</sup>Amaziah said to the man of God, "But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel?"

The man of God answered, "The LORD is able to give you much more than this."

<sup>25:10</sup>Then Amaziah separated them, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: therefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger. <sup>25:11</sup>Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck ten thousand of the children of Seir. <sup>25:12</sup>The children of Judah carry away ten thousand alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. <sup>25:13</sup>But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth Horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil. <sup>25:14</sup>Now it happened, after that Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. <sup>25:15</sup>Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, "Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?"

<sup>25:16</sup>It happened, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, "Have we made you one of the king's counselors? Stop! Why should you be struck down?"

Then the prophet stopped, and said, "I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel."

<sup>25:18</sup>Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, "The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, 'Give your daughter to my son as his wife; then a wild animal that was in Lebanon passed by, and trampled down the thistle. <sup>25:19</sup>You say to yourself that you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast. Now stay at home. Why should you meddle with trouble, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?"

<sup>25:20</sup>But Amaziah would not listen; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought after the gods of Edom. <sup>25:21</sup>So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth Shemesh, which belongs to Judah. <sup>25:22</sup>Judah was defeated by Israel; and they fled every man to his tent. <sup>25:23</sup>Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth Shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, four hundred cubits. <sup>25:24</sup>He took all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria. <sup>25:25</sup>Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz king of Israel fifteen years. <sup>25:26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel? <sup>25:27</sup>Now from the time that Amaziah turned away from following the LORD, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem. He fled to Lachish; but they sent after him to Lachish, and killed him there. <sup>25:28</sup>They brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains. <sup>26:12</sup>The whole number of the heads of fathers' households, even the mighty men of valor, was two thousand and six hundred. <sup>26:13</sup>Under their hand was an army, three hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, who made war with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy. <sup>26:14</sup>Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging. <sup>26:15</sup>He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong. <sup>26:16</sup>But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against the LORD his God; for he went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense on the altar of incense. <sup>26:17</sup>Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, who were valiant men: <sup>26:18</sup>and they resisted Uzziah the king, and said to him, "It isn't for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from the LORD God."

<sup>26:19</sup>Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, beside the altar of incense. <sup>26:20</sup>Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, himself hurried also to go out, because the LORD had struck him. <sup>26:21</sup>Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land. <sup>26:22</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, wrote. <sup>26:23</sup>So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, "He is a leper." Jotham his son reigned in his place.

<sup>27:1</sup>Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerushah the daughter of Zadok. <sup>27:2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: however he didn't enter into the temple of the LORD. The people still did corruptly. <sup>27:3</sup>He built the upper gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much. <sup>27:4</sup>Moreover he built cities in the hill country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers. <sup>27:5</sup>He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. The children of Ammon gave that much to him in the second year also, and in the third. <sup>27:6</sup>So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before the LORD his God. <sup>27:7</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. <sup>27:8</sup>He was five and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. <sup>27:9</sup>Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

<sup>28:1</sup>Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, like David his father; <sup>28:2</sup>but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for the Baals. <sup>28:3</sup>Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>28:4</sup>He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree. <sup>28:5</sup>Therefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter. <sup>28:6</sup>For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>28:7</sup>Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king's son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king. <sup>28:8</sup>The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria. <sup>28:9</sup>But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, "Behold, because the LORD, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven. <sup>28:10</sup>Now you purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and bondmaids for yourselves. Aren't there even with you trespasses of your own against the LORD your God? <sup>28:11</sup>Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive from your brothers; for the fierce wrath of the LORD is on you." <sup>28:12</sup>Then some of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Yochanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war, <sup>28:13</sup>and said to them, "You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against the LORD, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel."

<sup>28:14</sup>So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly. <sup>28:15</sup>The men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, dressed them, gave them sandals, and gave them something to eat and to drink, anointed them, carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brothers. Then they returned to Samaria. <sup>28:16</sup>At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him. <sup>28:17</sup>For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives. <sup>28:18</sup>The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth Shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with its towns, and Timnah with its towns, Gimzo also and its towns: and they lived there. <sup>28:19</sup>For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed severely against the LORD. <sup>28:20</sup>Tilgath Pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but didn't strengthen him. <sup>28:21</sup>For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the LORD, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it didn't help him. <sup>28:22</sup>In the time of his distress, he trespassed yet more against the LORD, this same king Ahaz. <sup>28:23</sup>For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck him; and he said, "Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, so I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me." But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel. <sup>28:24</sup>Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and shut up the doors of the house of the LORD; and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem. <sup>28:25</sup>In every city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger the LORD, the God of his fathers. <sup>28:26</sup>Now the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>28:27</sup>Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem; for they didn't bring him into the tombs of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

<sup>29:1</sup>Hezekiah began to reign when he was twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Abijah, the daughter of Zechariah. <sup>29:2</sup>He did that which was right in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that David his father had done. <sup>29:3</sup>He in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the LORD, and repaired them. <sup>29:4</sup>He brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them together into the broad place on the east, <sup>29:5</sup>and said to them, "Listen to me, you Levites! Now sanctify yourselves, and sanctify the house of the LORD, the God of your fathers, and carry out the filthiness out of the holy place. <sup>29:6</sup>For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs. <sup>29:7</sup>Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered burnt offerings in the holy place to the God of Israel. <sup>29:8</sup>Therefore the wrath of the LORD was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes. <sup>29:9</sup>For, behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives are in captivity for this. <sup>29:10</sup>Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with the LORD, the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn away from us. <sup>29:11</sup>My sons, don't be negligent now; for the LORD has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense."

<sup>29:12</sup>Then the Levites arose, Mahath, the son of Amasai, and Joel the son of Azariah, of the sons of the Kohathites; and of the sons of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi, and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah, and Eden the son of Joah; <sup>29:13</sup>and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeuel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and Mattaniah; <sup>29:14</sup>and of the sons of Heman, Jehuel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah and Uzziel. <sup>29:15</sup>They gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD. <sup>29:16</sup>The priests went in to the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron. <sup>29:17</sup>Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the LORD; and they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end. <sup>29:18</sup>Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within the palace, and said, "We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt offering, with all its vessels, and the table of show bread, with all its vessels. <sup>29:19</sup>Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign threw away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD."

<sup>29:20</sup>Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD. <sup>29:21</sup>They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD. <sup>29:22</sup>So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar. <sup>29:23</sup>They brought near the male goats for the sin offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them: <sup>29:24</sup>and the priests killed them, and they made a sin offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded that the burnt offering and the sin offering should be made for all Israel. <sup>29:25</sup>He set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with stringed instruments, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of the LORD by his prophets. <sup>29:26</sup>The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the shofars<sup>1</sup>. <sup>29:27</sup>Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of the LORD began also, and the shofars<sup>m</sup>, together with the instruments of David king of Israel. <sup>29:28</sup>All the assembly worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this continued until the burnt offering was finished. <sup>29:29</sup>When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshiped. <sup>29:30</sup>Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to the LORD with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped. <sup>29:31</sup>Then Hezekiah answered,

“Now you have consecrated yourselves to the LORD; come near and bring sacrifices and thank offerings into the house of the LORD.” The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart brought burnt offerings. <sup>29:32</sup>The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to the LORD. <sup>29:33</sup>The consecrated things were six hundred head of cattle and three thousand sheep. <sup>29:34</sup>But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: therefore their brothers the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests. <sup>29:35</sup>Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace offerings, and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order. <sup>29:36</sup>Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

<sup>30:1</sup>Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>30:2</sup>For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month. <sup>30:3</sup>For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem. <sup>30:4</sup>The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly. <sup>30:5</sup>So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to the LORD, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written. <sup>30:6</sup>So the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, “You children of Israel, turn again to the LORD, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant that have escaped of you out of the hand of the kings of Assyria. <sup>30:7</sup>Don’t be like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against the LORD, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see. <sup>30:8</sup>Now don’t be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve the LORD your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you. <sup>30:9</sup>For if you turn again to the LORD, your brothers and your children shall find compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.”

<sup>30:10</sup>So the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they ridiculed them, and mocked them. <sup>30:11</sup>Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem. <sup>30:12</sup>Also on Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of the LORD. <sup>30:13</sup>Many people assembled at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly. <sup>30:14</sup>They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron. <sup>30:15</sup>Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of the LORD. <sup>30:16</sup>They stood in their place after their order, according to the Torah of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of the hand of the Levites. <sup>30:17</sup>For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites were in charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD. <sup>30:18</sup>For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, “May the good the LORD pardon everyone <sup>30:19</sup>who sets his heart to seek God, the LORD, the God of his fathers, even if they aren’t clean according to the purification of the sanctuary.”

<sup>30:20</sup>The LORD listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people. <sup>30:21</sup>The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments to the LORD. <sup>30:22</sup>Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding in the service of the LORD. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace offerings, and making confession to the LORD, the God of their fathers. <sup>30:23</sup>The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept another seven days with gladness. <sup>30:24</sup>For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves. <sup>30:25</sup>All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the foreigners who came out of Eretz-Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced. <sup>30:26</sup>So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem. <sup>30:27</sup>Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.

<sup>31:1</sup>Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and cut down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities. <sup>31:2</sup>Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of the LORD. <sup>31:3</sup>He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the Torah of the LORD. <sup>31:4</sup>Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of the LORD. <sup>31:5</sup>As soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly. <sup>31:6</sup>The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of cattle and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps. <sup>31:7</sup>In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month. <sup>31:8</sup>When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel. <sup>31:9</sup>Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps. <sup>31:10</sup>Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, "Since people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for the LORD has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store." <sup>31:11</sup>Then Hezekiah commanded them to prepare rooms in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them. <sup>31:12</sup>They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second. <sup>31:13</sup>Jehiel, and Azariah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God. <sup>31:14</sup>Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east gate, was over the freewill offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of the LORD, and the most holy things. <sup>31:15</sup>Under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Yeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by divisions, as well to the great as to the small: <sup>31:16</sup>besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of the LORD, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their divisions; <sup>31:17</sup> and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their divisions; <sup>31:18</sup> and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness. <sup>31:19</sup> Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites. <sup>31:20</sup> Hezekiah did so throughout all Judah; and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before the LORD his God. <sup>31:21</sup> In every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

<sup>32:5</sup> He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo in the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance. <sup>32:6</sup> He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying, <sup>32:7</sup> "Be strong and courageous, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater with us than with him. <sup>32:8</sup> With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles." The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah. <sup>32:9</sup> After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him), to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying, <sup>32:10</sup> Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, "In whom do you trust, that you remain under siege in Jerusalem? <sup>32:11</sup> Doesn't Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, 'The LORD our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?' <sup>32:12</sup> Hasn't the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, 'You shall worship before one altar, and on it you shall burn incense?' <sup>32:13</sup> Don't you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any way able to deliver their land out of my hand? <sup>32:14</sup> Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand? <sup>32:15</sup> Now therefore don't let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this way, neither believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers. How much less will your God deliver you out of my hand?"

<sup>32:16</sup> His servants spoke yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah. <sup>32:17</sup> He also wrote letters insulting the LORD, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, "As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand." <sup>32:18</sup> They cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city. <sup>32:19</sup> They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands. <sup>32:20</sup> Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven. <sup>32:21</sup> The LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he had come into the house of his god, those who came forth from his own bowels killed him there with the sword. <sup>32:22</sup>Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side. <sup>32:23</sup>Many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth. <sup>32:24</sup>In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and he prayed to the LORD; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign. <sup>32:25</sup>But Hezekiah didn't render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>32:26</sup>Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD didn't come on them in the days of Hezekiah. <sup>32:27</sup>Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all kinds of goodly vessels; <sup>32:28</sup>storehouses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all kinds of animals, and flocks in folds. <sup>32:29</sup>Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance. <sup>32:30</sup>This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works. <sup>32:31</sup>However concerning the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart. <sup>32:32</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel. <sup>32:33</sup>Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

<sup>33:1</sup>Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem. <sup>33:2</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, after the

abominations of the nations whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel. <sup>33:3</sup>For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made Asheroth, and worshiped all the army of the sky, and served them. <sup>33:4</sup>He built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD said, "My name shall be in Jerusalem forever." <sup>33:5</sup>He built altars for all the army of the sky in the two courts of the house of the LORD. <sup>33:6</sup>He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and practiced sorcery, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he worked much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger. <sup>33:7</sup>He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, "In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever: <sup>33:8</sup>neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances given by Moses." <sup>33:9</sup>Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did more evil than the nations whom the LORD destroyed before the children of Israel did. <sup>33:10</sup>The LORD spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed. <sup>33:11</sup>Therefore the LORD brought on them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon. <sup>33:12</sup>When he was in distress, he begged the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers. <sup>33:13</sup>He prayed to him; and he was entreated by him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD was God. <sup>33:14</sup>Now after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate; and he encircled Ophel with it, and raised it up to a very great height: and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah. <sup>33:15</sup>He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city. <sup>33:16</sup>He built up the altar of the LORD, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>33:17</sup>Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to the LORD their God. <sup>33:18</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of the LORD, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel. <sup>33:19</sup>His prayer also, and how God was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of Hozai. <sup>33:20</sup>So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his place. <sup>33:21</sup>Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem. <sup>33:22</sup>He did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them. <sup>33:23</sup>He didn't humble himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more. <sup>33:24</sup>His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house. <sup>33:25</sup>But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves of those who had sacrificed to them. <sup>34:5</sup>He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>34:6</sup>He did this in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, around in their ruins. <sup>34:7</sup>He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and cut down all the incense altars throughout all Eretz-Israel, and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>34:8</sup>Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God. <sup>34:9</sup>They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>34:10</sup>They delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of the LORD; and the workmen who labored in the house of the LORD gave it to mend and repair the house; <sup>34:11</sup>even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy cut stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed. <sup>34:12</sup>The men did the work faithfully: and their overseers were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and others of the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music. <sup>34:13</sup>Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every kind of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters. <sup>34:14</sup>When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiah the priest found the scroll of the Torah of the LORD given by Moses. <sup>34:15</sup>Hilkiah answered Shaphan the scribe, "I have found the scroll of the Torah in the house of the LORD." Hilkiah delivered the book to Shaphan.

<sup>34:16</sup>Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, "All that was committed to your servants, they are doing. <sup>34:17</sup>They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen." <sup>34:18</sup>Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, "Hilkiah the priest has delivered me a book." Shaphan read therein before the king.

<sup>34:19</sup>It happened, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he tore his clothes. <sup>34:20</sup>The king commanded Hilkiah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying, <sup>34:21</sup>"Go inquire of the LORD for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do according to all that is written in this book." <sup>34:22</sup>So Hilkiah, and they whom the king had commanded, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter;) and they spoke to her to that effect. <sup>34:23</sup>She said to them, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: 'Tell the man who sent you to me, <sup>34:24</sup>"Thus says the LORD, 'Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah. <sup>34:25</sup>Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.'" <sup>34:26</sup>But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus you shall tell him, "Thus says the LORD, the God of Israel: "As touching the words which you have heard, <sup>34:27</sup>because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you," says the LORD. <sup>34:28</sup>"Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on its inhabitants.'" "

They brought back word to the king.

<sup>34:29</sup>Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>34:30</sup>The king went up to the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD. <sup>34:31</sup>The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book. <sup>34:32</sup>He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers. <sup>34:33</sup>Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. All his days they didn't depart from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

<sup>35:1</sup>Josiah kept a Passover to the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month. <sup>35:2</sup>He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD. <sup>35:3</sup>He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD, "Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built. There shall no more be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve the LORD your God, and his people Israel. <sup>35:4</sup>Prepare yourselves after your fathers' houses by your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son. <sup>35:5</sup>Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of your brothers the children of the people, and let there be for each a portion of a fathers' house of the Levites. <sup>35:6</sup>Kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of the LORD by Moses."

<sup>35:7</sup>Josiah gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and young goats, all of them for the Passover offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls: these were of the king's substance. <sup>35:8</sup>His princes gave for a freewill offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand and six hundred small livestock, and three hundred head of cattle. <sup>35:9</sup>Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small livestock, and five hundred head of cattle. <sup>35:10</sup>So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their divisions, according to the king's commandment. <sup>35:11</sup>They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood which they received of their hand, and the Levites flayed them. <sup>35:12</sup>They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. So they did with the cattle. <sup>35:13</sup>They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people. <sup>35:14</sup>Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron were busy with offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron. <sup>35:15</sup>The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they didn't need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them. <sup>35:16</sup>So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah. <sup>35:17</sup>The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days. <sup>35:18</sup>There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. <sup>35:19</sup>In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this Passover kept. <sup>35:20</sup>After all this, when Josiah had prepared the temple, Neco king of Egypt went up to fight against Carchemish by the Euphrates: and Josiah went out against him. <sup>35:21</sup>But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, "What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? I come not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war. God has commanded me to make haste. Beware that it is God who is with me, that he not destroy you."

<sup>35:22</sup>Nevertheless Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight with him, and didn't listen to the words of Neco from the mouth of God, and came to fight in the valley of Megiddo. <sup>35:23</sup>The archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, "Take me away, because I am seriously wounded!"

<sup>35:24</sup>So his servants took him out of the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem; and he died, and was buried in the tombs of his fathers. All Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah. <sup>35:25</sup>Jeremiah lamented for Josiah: and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance in Israel: and behold, they are written in the lamentations. <sup>35:26</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds, according to that which is written in the Torah of the LORD, <sup>35:27</sup>and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

<sup>36:1</sup>Then the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's place in Jerusalem. <sup>36:2</sup>Joahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem. <sup>36:3</sup>The king of Egypt deposed him at Jerusalem, and fined the land one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold. <sup>36:4</sup>The king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. Neco took Joahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt. <sup>36:5</sup>Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God. <sup>36:6</sup>Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon. <sup>36:7</sup>Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the LORD to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon. <sup>36:8</sup>Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place. <sup>36:9</sup>Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem: and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD. <sup>36:10</sup>At the return of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent, and brought him to Babylon, with the goodly vessels of the house of the LORD, and made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem. <sup>36:11</sup>Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: <sup>36:12</sup>and he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD his God; he didn't humble himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking from the mouth of the LORD. <sup>36:13</sup>He also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart against turning to the LORD, the God of Israel. <sup>36:14</sup>Moreover all the chiefs of the priests, and the people, trespassed very greatly after all the abominations of the nations; and they polluted the house of the LORD which he had made holy in Jerusalem. <sup>36:15</sup>The LORD, the God of their fathers, sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending, because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place: <sup>36:16</sup>but they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the wrath of the LORD arose against his people, until there was no remedy. <sup>36:17</sup>Therefore he brought on them the king of the Kasdim, who killed their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion on young man or virgin, old man or gray-headed: he gave them all into his hand. <sup>36:18</sup>All the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon. <sup>36:19</sup>They burnt the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels of it. <sup>36:20</sup>He carried those who had escaped from the sword away to Babylon; and they were servants to him and his sons until the reign of the kingdom of Persia: <sup>36:21</sup>to fulfill the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its Sabbaths. As long as it lay desolate it kept Sabbath, to fulfill seventy years. <sup>36:22</sup>Now in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of the LORD by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, the LORD stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, so that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying, <sup>36:23</sup>"Thus says Cyrus king of Persia, 'The LORD, the God of heaven, has given all the kingdoms of the earth to me; and he has commanded me to build him a house in Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, the LORD his God be with him, and let him go up.'"

The Good News According to Matthew

generations; and from the carrying away to Babylon to the Messiah, fourteen generations.

<sup>1:18</sup>Now the birth of Yeshua the Messiah was like this; for after his mother, Miriam, was engaged to Joseph, before they came together, she was found pregnant by the Holy Spirit. <sup>1:19</sup>Joseph, her husband, being a righteous man, and not willing to make her a public example, intended to put her away secretly. <sup>1:20</sup>But when he thought about these things, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to take to yourself Miriam, your wife, for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Spirit. <sup>1:21</sup>She shall bring forth a son. You shall call his name Yeshua, for it is he who shall save his people from their sins."

<sup>1:23</sup>"Behold, the virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son.

They shall call his name Immanuel;"

which is, being interpreted, "God with us."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>2:1</sup>Now when Yeshua was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of King Herod, behold, wise men<sup>d</sup> from the east came to Jerusalem, saying, <sup>2:2</sup>"Where is he who is born King of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east, and have come to worship him." <sup>2:3</sup>When King Herod heard it, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him. <sup>2:4</sup>Gathering together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he asked them where the Messiah would be born. <sup>2:5</sup>They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for this is written through the prophet, are in no way least among the princes of Judah:

for out of you shall come forth a governor,

who shall shepherd my people, Israel.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>2:7</sup>Then Herod secretly called the wise men, and learned from them exactly what time the star appeared. <sup>2:8</sup>He sent them to Bethlehem, and said, “Go and search diligently for the young child. When you have found him, bring me word, so that I also may come and worship him.”

<sup>2:9</sup>They, having heard the king, went their way; and behold, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, until it came and stood over where the young child was. <sup>2:10</sup>When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy. <sup>2:11</sup>They came into the house and saw the young child with Miriam, his mother, and they fell down and worshiped him. Opening their treasures, they offered to him gifts: gold, frankincense, and myrrh. <sup>2:12</sup>Being warned in a dream that they shouldn’t return to Herod, they went back to their own country another way.

<sup>2:13</sup>Now when they had departed, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, “Arise and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and stay there until I tell you, for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him.”

<sup>2:14</sup>He arose and took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt, <sup>2:15</sup>and was there until the death of Herod; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the Lord through the prophet, saying, “Out of Egypt I called my son.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>2:16</sup>Then Herod, when he saw that he was mocked by the wise men, was exceedingly angry, and sent out, and killed all the male children who were in Bethlehem and in all the surrounding countryside, from two years old and under, according to the exact time which he had learned from the wise men. <sup>2:17</sup>Then that which was spoken by Jeremiah the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

lamentation, weeping and great mourning,
Rachel weeping for her children;
she wouldn’t be comforted,
because they are no more.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>2:19</sup>But when Herod was dead, behold, an angel of the Lord appeared in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, saying, <sup>2:20</sup>“Arise and take the young child and his mother, and go into Eretz-Israel, for those who sought the young child’s life are dead.”

<sup>2:21</sup>He arose and took the young child and his mother, and came into Eretz-Israel. <sup>2:22</sup>But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning over Judea in the place of his father, Herod, he was afraid to go there. Being warned in a dream, he withdrew into the region of Galilee, <sup>2:23</sup>and came and lived in a city called Nazareth; that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophets: “He will be called a Nazarene.”

“The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
make ready the way of the Lord.

Make his paths straight.”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>3:4</sup>Now Yochanan himself wore clothing made of camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. His food was locusts and wild honey.

<sup>3:5</sup>Then people from Jerusalem, all of Judea, and all the region around the Jordan went out to him. <sup>3:6</sup>They were immersed by him in the Jordan, confessing their sins. <sup>3:7</sup>But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming for his immersion he said to them, “You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>3:8</sup>Therefore bring forth fruit worthy of repentance! <sup>3:9</sup>Don’t think to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham for our father,’ for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

<sup>3:10</sup>“Even now the axe lies at the root of the trees. Therefore, every tree that doesn’t bring forth good fruit is cut down, and cast into the fire. <sup>3:11</sup>I indeed immerse you in water for repentance, but he who comes after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to carry. He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit.<sup>i</sup> <sup>3:12</sup>His winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor. He will gather his wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with unquenchable fire.”

<sup>3:13</sup>Then Yeshua came from Galilee to the Jordan to Yochanan, to be immersed by him. <sup>3:14</sup>But Yochanan would have hindered him, saying, “I need to be immersed by you, and you come to me?”

<sup>3:15</sup>But Yeshua, answering, said to him, “Allow it now, for this is the fitting way for us to fulfill all righteousness.” Then he allowed him. <sup>3:16</sup>Yeshua, when he was immersed, went up directly from the water: and behold, the heavens were opened to him. He saw the Spirit of God descending as a dove, and coming on him. <sup>3:17</sup>Behold, a voice out of the heavens said, “This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

<sup>4:1</sup>Then Yeshua was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. <sup>4:2</sup>When he had fasted forty days and forty nights, he was hungry afterward. <sup>4:3</sup>The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become bread.”

<sup>4:4</sup>But he answered, “It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.’”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>4:5</sup>Then the devil took him into the holy city. He set him on the pinnacle of the temple, <sup>4:6</sup>and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down, for it is written, ‘He will put his angels in charge of you.’ and, ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you don’t dash your foot against a stone.”<sup>k</sup>

<sup>4:7</sup>Yeshua said to him, “Again, it is written, ‘You shall not test the Lord, your God.’”<sup>l</sup>

<sup>4:8</sup>Again, the devil took him to an exceedingly high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world, and their glory. <sup>4:9</sup>He said to him, “I will give you all of these things, if you will fall down and worship me.”

<sup>4:10</sup>Then Yeshua said to him, “Get behind me,<sup>m</sup> Satan! For it is written, ‘You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.”<sup>n</sup>

<sup>4:11</sup>Then the devil left him, and behold, angels came and served him. <sup>4:12</sup>Now when Yeshua heard that Yochanan was delivered up, he withdrew into Galilee. <sup>4:13</sup>Leaving Nazareth, he came and lived in Capernaum, which is by the sea, in the region of Zebulun and Naphtali, <sup>4:14</sup>that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>4:15</sup>“The land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, toward the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles,

<sup>4:16</sup>the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, to those who sat in the region and shadow of death,
to them light has dawned.”<sup>o</sup>

<sup>4:18</sup>Walking by the sea of Galilee, he<sup>p</sup> saw two brothers: Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew, his brother, casting a net into the sea; for they were fishermen. <sup>4:19</sup>He said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you fishers for men.”

<sup>4:23</sup>Yeshua went about in all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>4:24</sup>The report about him went out into all Syria. They brought to him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and torments, possessed with demons, epileptics, and paralytics; and he healed them. <sup>4:25</sup>Great multitudes from

<sup>5:1</sup>Seeing the multitudes, he went up onto the mountain. When he had sat down, his disciples came to him. <sup>5:2</sup>He opened his mouth and taught them, saying,

<sup>5:3</sup>“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.<sup>q</sup>

<sup>5:4</sup>Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted.<sup>r</sup>

<sup>5:5</sup>Blessed are the gentle,

<sup>5:10</sup>Blessed are those who have been persecuted for righteousness’ sake, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>5:11</sup>“Blessed are you when people reproach you, persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely, for my sake. <sup>5:12</sup>Rejoice, and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven. For that is how they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

<sup>5:13</sup>“You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt has lost its flavor, with what will it be salted? It is then good for nothing, but to be cast out and trodden under the feet of men. <sup>5:14</sup>You are the light of the world. A city located on a hill can’t be hidden.

<sup>5:15</sup>Neither do you light a lamp, and put it under a measuring basket, but on a stand; and it shines to all who are in the house. <sup>5:16</sup>Even so, let your light shine before men; that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven.

<sup>5:17</sup>“Don’t think that I came to destroy the Torah or the Prophets. I didn’t come to destroy, but to fulfill. <sup>5:18</sup>For most certainly, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not even one smallest letter<sup>t</sup> or one tiny pen stroke<sup>u</sup> shall in any way pass away from the Torah, until all things are accomplished.

<sup>5:19</sup>Whoever, therefore, shall break one of these least commandments, and teach others to do so, shall be called least in the Kingdom of Heaven; but whoever shall do and teach them shall be called great in the Kingdom of Heaven. <sup>5:20</sup>For I tell you that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, there is no way you will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven.

<sup>5:21</sup>“You have heard that it was said to the ancient ones, ‘You shall not murder;’<sup>v</sup> and ‘Whoever shall murder shall be in danger of the judgment.’ <sup>5:22</sup>But I tell you, that every-one who is angry with his brother without a cause<sup>w</sup> shall be in danger of the judgment; and whoever shall say to his brother, ‘You good-for-nothing<sup>x!</sup>’ shall be in danger of the council; and whoever shall say, ‘You fool!’ shall be in danger of the fire of Gehinnom.<sup>y</sup>

<sup>5:23</sup>“If therefore you are offering your gift at the altar, and there remember that your brother has anything against you, <sup>5:24</sup>leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift. <sup>5:25</sup>Agree with your adversary quickly, while you are with him in the way; lest perhaps the prosecutor deliver you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and you be cast into prison. <sup>5:26</sup>Most certainly I tell you, you shall by no means get out of there, until you have paid the last penny.<sup>z</sup>

<sup>5:43</sup>“You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor,<sup>g</sup> and hate your enemy.’<sup>h</sup> <sup>5:44</sup>But I tell you, love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who mistreat you and persecute you, <sup>5:45</sup>that you may be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he makes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the just and the unjust. <sup>5:46</sup>For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Don’t even the tax collectors do the same? <sup>5:47</sup>If you only greet your friends, what more do you do than others? Don’t even the tax collectors<sup>i</sup> do the same? <sup>5:48</sup>Therefore you shall be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

<sup>6:1</sup>“Be careful that you don’t do your charitable giving before men, to be seen by them, or else you have no reward from your Father who is in heaven. <sup>6:2</sup>Therefore when you do merciful deeds, don’t sound a shofar<sup>j</sup> before yourself, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may get glory from men. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6:3</sup>But when you do merciful deeds, don’t let your left hand know what your right hand does, <sup>6:4</sup>so that your merciful deeds may be in secret, then your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly.

<sup>6:5</sup>“When you pray, you shall not be as the hypocrites, for they love to stand and pray in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen by men. Most certainly, I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6:6</sup>But you, when you pray, enter into your inner room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret, and your Father who sees in secret will reward you openly. <sup>6:7</sup>In praying, don’t use vain repetitions, as the Gentiles do; for they think that they will be heard for their much speaking. <sup>6:8</sup>Therefore don’t be like them, for your

Father knows what things you need, before you ask him. <sup>6:9</sup>Pray like this: 'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. <sup>6:10</sup>Let your Kingdom come. Let your will be done, as in heaven, so on earth. <sup>6:11</sup>Give us today our daily bread. <sup>6:12</sup>Forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors. <sup>6:13</sup>Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. For yours is the Kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>6:14</sup>"For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. <sup>6:15</sup>But if you don't forgive men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

<sup>6:16</sup>"Moreover when you fast, don't be like the hypocrites, with sad faces. For they disfigure their faces, that they may be seen by men to be fasting. Most certainly I tell you, they have received their reward. <sup>6:17</sup>But you, when you fast, anoint your head, and wash your face; <sup>6:18</sup>so that you are not seen by men to be fasting, but by your Father who is in secret, and your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you.

<sup>6:22</sup>"The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is sound, your whole body will be full of light. <sup>6:23</sup>But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in you is darkness, how great is the darkness!

<sup>6:24</sup>"No one can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one and love the other; or else he will be devoted to one and despise the other. You can't serve both God and Mammon. <sup>6:25</sup>Therefore, I tell you, don't be anxious for your life: what you will eat, or what you will drink; nor yet for your body, what you will wear. Isn't life more than food, and the body more than clothing? <sup>6:26</sup>See the birds of the sky, that they don't sow, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns. Your heavenly Father feeds them. Aren't you of much more value than they?

<sup>6:31</sup>"Therefore don't be anxious, saying, 'What will we eat?', 'What will we drink?' or, 'With what will we be clothed?' <sup>6:32</sup>For the Gentiles seek after all these things; for your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. <sup>6:33</sup>But seek first God's Kingdom, and his righteousness; and all these things will be given to you as well. <sup>6:34</sup>Therefore don't be anxious for tomorrow, for tomorrow will be anxious for itself. Each day's own evil is sufficient.

<sup>7:1</sup>"Don't judge, so that you won't be judged. <sup>7:2</sup>For with whatever judgment you judge, you will be judged; and with whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you. <sup>7:3</sup>Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>7:4</sup>Or how will you tell your brother, 'Let me remove the speck from your eye;' and behold, the beam is in your own eye? <sup>7:5</sup>You hypocrite! First remove the beam out of your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck out of your brother's eye.

<sup>7:7</sup>"Ask, and it will be given you. Seek, and you will find. Knock, and it will be opened for you. <sup>7:8</sup>For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened. <sup>7:9</sup>Or who is there among you, who, if his son asks him for bread, will give him a stone? <sup>7:10</sup>Or if he asks for a fish, who will give him a serpent? <sup>7:11</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in

<sup>7:15</sup>“Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly are ravening wolves. <sup>7:16</sup>By their fruits you will know them. Do you gather grapes from thorns, or figs from thistles? <sup>7:17</sup>Even so, every good tree produces good fruit; but the corrupt tree produces evil fruit. <sup>7:18</sup>A good tree can’t produce evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree produce good fruit. <sup>7:19</sup>Every tree that doesn’t grow good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire. <sup>7:20</sup>Therefore, by their fruits you will know them. <sup>7:21</sup>Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven; but he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. <sup>7:22</sup>Many will tell me in that day, ‘Lord, Lord, didn’t we prophesy in your name, in your name cast out demons, and in your name do many mighty works?’ <sup>7:23</sup>Then I will tell them, ‘I never knew you. Depart from me, you who work iniquity.’

<sup>7:28</sup>It happened, when Yeshua had finished saying these things, that the multitudes were astonished at his teaching, <sup>7:29</sup>for he taught them with authority, and not like the scribes.

<sup>8:1</sup>When he came down from the mountain, great multitudes followed him. <sup>8:2</sup>Behold, a leper came to him and worshiped him, saying,

“Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean.”

<sup>8:3</sup>Yeshua stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, “I want to. Be made clean.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed. <sup>8:4</sup>Yeshua said to him, “See that you tell nobody, but go, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, as a testimony to them.”

<sup>8:5</sup>When he came into Capernaum, a centurion came to him, asking him, <sup>8:6</sup>and saying, “Lord, my servant lies in the house paralyzed, grievously tormented.”

<sup>8:7</sup>Yeshua said to him, “I will come and heal him.”

<sup>8:8</sup>The centurion answered, “Lord, I’m not worthy for you to come under my roof. Just say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>8:9</sup>For I am also a man under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes; and tell another, ‘Come,’ and he comes; and tell my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

<sup>8:10</sup>When Yeshua heard it, he marveled, and said to those who followed, “Most certainly I tell you, I haven’t found so great a faith, not even in Israel. <sup>8:11</sup>I tell you that many will come from the east and the west, and will sit down with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in the Kingdom of Heaven, <sup>8:12</sup>but the children of the Kingdom will be thrown out into the outer darkness. There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.” <sup>8:13</sup>Yeshua said to the centurion, “Go your way. Let it be done for you as you have believed.” His servant was healed in that hour.

<sup>8:19</sup>A scribe came, and said to him, “Rabbi, I will follow you wherever you go.”

<sup>8:20</sup>Yeshua said to him, “The foxes have

<sup>8:21</sup>Another of his disciples said to him, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."

<sup>8:22</sup>But Yeshua said to him, "Follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

<sup>8:23</sup>When he got into a boat, his disciples followed him. <sup>8:24</sup>Behold, a violent storm came up on the sea, so much that the boat was covered with the waves, but he was asleep. <sup>8:25</sup>They came to him, and woke him up, saying, "Save us, Lord! We are dying!"

<sup>8:26</sup>He said to them, "Why are you fearful, O you of little faith?" Then he got up, rebuked the wind and the sea, and there was a great calm.

<sup>8:27</sup>The men marveled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

<sup>8:28</sup>When he came to the other side, into the country of the Gergesenes,<sup>P</sup> two people possessed by demons met him there, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that nobody could pass that way. <sup>8:29</sup>Behold, they cried out, saying, "What do we have to do with you, Yeshua, Son of God? Have you come here to torment us before the time?" <sup>8:30</sup>Now there was a herd of many pigs feeding far away from them. <sup>8:31</sup>The demons begged him, saying, "If you cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of pigs."

<sup>8:32</sup>He said to them, "Go!"

They came out, and went into the herd of pigs: and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the cliff into the sea, and died in the water. <sup>8:33</sup>Those who fed them fled, and went away into the city, and told everything, including what happened to those who were possessed with demons. <sup>8:34</sup>Behold, all the city came out to meet Yeshua. When they saw him, they begged that he would depart from their borders.

<sup>9:1</sup>He entered into a boat, and crossed over, and came into his own city. <sup>9:2</sup>Behold, they brought to him a man who was paralyzed, lying on a bed. Yeshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, cheer up! Your sins are forgiven you."

selves, "This man blasphemeth."

<sup>9:4</sup>Yeshua, knowing their thoughts, said, "Why do you think evil in your hearts? <sup>9:5</sup>For which is easier, to say, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Get up, and walk?' <sup>9:6</sup>But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." (then he said to the paralytic), "Get up, and take up your mat, and go up to your house."

<sup>9:7</sup>He arose and departed to his house. <sup>9:8</sup>But when the multitudes saw it, they marveled and glorified God, who had given such authority to men.

<sup>9:9</sup>As Yeshua passed by from there, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax collection office. He said to him, "Follow me." He got up and followed him. <sup>9:10</sup>It happened as he sat in the house, behold, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Yeshua and his disciples. <sup>9:11</sup>When the Pharisees saw it, they said to his disciples, "Why does your rabbi eat with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>9:12</sup>When Yeshua heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. <sup>9:13</sup>But you go and learn what this means: 'I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,'<sup>Q</sup> for I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.'"

<sup>9:14</sup>Then Yochanan's disciples came to him, saying, "Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but your disciples don't fast?"

<sup>9:15</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Can the friends of the bridegroom mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then they will fast. <sup>9:16</sup>No one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment; for the patch would tear away from the garment, and a worse hole is made. <sup>9:17</sup>Neither do people put new wine into old wineskins, or else the skins would burst, and the wine be spilled, and the skins ruined. No, they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved."

<sup>9:18</sup>While he told these things to them, behold, a ruler came and worshiped him, saying, "My daughter has just died, but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live."

<sup>9:19</sup>Yeshua got up and followed him, as did his disciples. <sup>9:20</sup>Behold, a woman who had an issue of blood for twelve years came behind him, and touched the fringe<sup>s</sup> of his garment; <sup>9:21</sup>for she said within herself, "If I just touch his garment, I will be made well."

<sup>9:22</sup>But Yeshua, turning around and seeing her, said, "Daughter, cheer up! Your faith has made you well." And the woman was made well from that hour.

<sup>9:23</sup>When Yeshua came into the ruler's house, and saw the flute players, and the crowd in noisy disorder, <sup>9:24</sup>he said to them, "Make room, because the girl isn't dead, but sleeping."

They were ridiculing him. <sup>9:25</sup>But when the crowd was put out, he entered in, took her by the hand, and the girl arose. <sup>9:26</sup>The report of this went out into all that land. <sup>9:27</sup>As Yeshua passed by from there, two blind men followed him, calling out and saying, "Have mercy on us, son of David!"

<sup>9:28</sup>When he had come into the house, the blind men came to him. Yeshua said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They told him, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>9:29</sup>Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith be it done to you." <sup>9:30</sup>Their eyes were opened. Yeshua strictly commanded them, saying, "See that no one knows about this." <sup>9:31</sup>But they went out and spread abroad his fame in all that land.

<sup>9:32</sup>As they went out, behold, a mute man who was demon possessed was brought to him. <sup>9:33</sup>When the demon was cast out, the mute man spoke. The multitudes marveled, saying, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

<sup>9:35</sup>Yeshua went about all the cities and the villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. <sup>9:36</sup>But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were harassed<sup>t</sup> and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd. <sup>9:37</sup>Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest indeed is plentiful, but the laborers are few." <sup>9:38</sup>Pray

<sup>10:1</sup>He called to himself his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every sickness. <sup>10:2</sup>Now the names of the twelve emissaries are these. The first, Simon, who is called Peter; Andrew, his brother; Jacob the son of Zebedee; Yochanan, his brother; <sup>10:3</sup>Philip; Bartholomew; Thomas; Matthew the tax collector; Jacob the son of Halfai; Labbai, whose surname was<sup>u</sup> Taddai; <sup>10:4</sup>Simon the Canaanite; and Judah Iscariot, who also betrayed him.

<sup>10:16</sup>"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents, and harmless as doves." <sup>10:17</sup>But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to councils, and in their synagogues they will scourge you. <sup>10:18</sup>Yes, and you will be brought before governors and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them and to the nations. <sup>10:19</sup>But when they deliver you up, don't be anxious how or what you will say, for it will be given you in that hour what you will say. <sup>10:20</sup>For it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father who speaks in you.

<sup>10:21</sup>“Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death. <sup>10:22</sup>You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake, but he who endures to the end will be saved. <sup>10:23</sup>But when they persecute you in this city, flee into the next, for most certainly I tell you, you will not have gone through the cities of Israel, until the Son of Man has come.

<sup>10:34</sup>“Don’t think that I came to send peace on the earth. I didn’t come to send peace, but a sword. <sup>10:35</sup>For I came to set a man at odds against his father, and a daughter against her mother, and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law. <sup>10:36</sup>A man’s foes will be those of his own household.<sup>y</sup> <sup>10:37</sup>He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me isn’t worthy of me. <sup>10:38</sup>He who doesn’t take his cross and follow after me, isn’t worthy of me. <sup>10:39</sup>He who seeks his life will lose it; and he who loses his life for my sake will find it. <sup>10:40</sup>He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives him who sent me. <sup>10:41</sup>He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet’s reward. He who receives a righteous man in the name of a righteous man will receive a righteous man’s reward. <sup>10:42</sup>Whoever gives one of these little ones just a cup of cold water to drink in the name of a disciple, most certainly I tell you he will in no way lose his reward.”

<sup>11:16</sup>“But to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the marketplaces, who call to their companions <sup>11:17</sup>and say, ‘We played the flute for you, and you didn’t dance. We mourned for you, and you didn’t lament.’ <sup>11:18</sup>For Yochanan came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’ <sup>11:19</sup>The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘Behold, a gluttonous man and a drunkard, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ But wisdom is justified by her children.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>11:20</sup>Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his mighty works had been done, because they didn’t repent. <sup>11:21</sup>“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>11:22</sup>But I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. <sup>11:23</sup>You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, you will go down to Sheol.<sup>e</sup> For if the mighty works had been done in Sodom which were done in you, it would have remained until this day. <sup>11:24</sup>But I tell you that it will be more tolerable for the land of Sodom, on the day of judgment, than for you.”

<sup>11:25</sup>At that time, Yeshua answered, “I thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you hid these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to infants. <sup>11:26</sup>Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight. <sup>11:27</sup>All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows the Son, except the Father; neither does anyone know the Father, except the Son, and he to whom the Son desires to reveal him.

<sup>11:28</sup>“Come to me, all you who labor and are heavily burdened, and I will give you rest. <sup>11:29</sup>Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart; and you will find rest for your souls. <sup>11:30</sup>For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.”

<sup>12:1</sup>At that time, Yeshua went on the Sabbath day through the grain fields. His disciples were hungry and began to pluck heads of grain and to eat. <sup>12:2</sup>But the Pharisees, when they saw it, said to him, “Behold, your disciples do what is not lawful to do on the Sabbath.”

<sup>12:3</sup>But he said to them, “Haven’t you read what David did, when he was hungry, and those who were with him; <sup>12:4</sup>how he entered into the house of God, and ate the show bread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for those who were with him, but only for the priests?<sup>f</sup> <sup>12:5</sup>Or have you not read in the Torah, that on the Sabbath day, the priests in the temple profane the Sabbath, and are guiltless? <sup>12:6</sup>But I tell you that one greater than the temple is here. <sup>12:7</sup>But if you had known what this means, ‘I desire mercy, and not sacrifice,’<sup>g</sup> you would not have condemned the guiltless. <sup>12:8</sup>For the Son of Man is Lord of the Sabbath.”

<sup>12:9</sup>He departed there, and went into their synagogue. <sup>12:10</sup>And behold there was a man with a withered hand. They asked him, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath day?” that they might accuse him.

<sup>12:11</sup>He said to them, “What man is there among you, who has one sheep, and if this one falls into a pit on the Sabbath day, won’t he grab on to it, and lift it out? <sup>12:12</sup>Of how much more value then is a man than a sheep! Therefore it is lawful to do good on the Sabbath day.” <sup>12:13</sup>Then he told the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out; and it was restored whole, just like the other. <sup>12:14</sup>But the Pharisees went out, and conspired against him, how they might destroy him. <sup>12:15</sup>Yeshua, perceiving that, withdrew from there. Great multitudes followed him; and he healed them all, <sup>12:16</sup>and commanded them that they should not make him known: <sup>12:17</sup>that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through Isaiah the prophet, saying,

<sup>12:18</sup>“Behold, my servant whom I have chosen; my beloved in whom my soul is well pleased:

I will put my Spirit on him.

He will proclaim justice to the nations.

<sup>12:19</sup>He will not strive, nor shout; neither will anyone hear his voice in the streets.

He won’t quench a smoking flax, until he leads justice to victory.

<sup>12:22</sup>Then one possessed by a demon, blind and mute, was brought to him and he healed him, so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. <sup>12:23</sup>All the multitudes were amazed, and said, “Can this be the son of David?”

<sup>12:24</sup>But when the Pharisees heard it, they said, “This man does not cast out demons, except by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.”

<sup>12:25</sup>Knowing their thoughts, Yeshua said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand.

<sup>12:26</sup>If Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then will his kingdom stand? <sup>12:27</sup>If I by Beelzebul cast out demons, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore they will be your judges. <sup>12:28</sup>But if I by the Spirit of God cast out demons, then the Kingdom of God has come upon you.

<sup>12:29</sup>Or how can one enter into the house of the strong man, and plunder his goods, unless he first bind the strong man? Then he will plunder his house.

Spirit, it will not be forgiven him, neither in this age, nor in that which is to come.

<sup>12:33</sup>“Either make the tree good, and its fruit good, or make the tree corrupt, and its fruit corrupt; for the tree is known by its fruit. <sup>12:34</sup>You offspring of vipers, how can you, being evil, speak good things? For out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.

<sup>12:36</sup>I tell you that every idle word that men speak, they will give account of it in the day of judgment. <sup>12:37</sup>For by your words you will be justified, and by your words you will be condemned.”

<sup>12:38</sup>Then certain of the scribes and Pharisees answered, “Rabbi, we want to see a sign from you.”

<sup>12:39</sup>But he answered them, “An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, but no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah the prophet. <sup>12:40</sup>For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the whale, so will the Son of Man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth. <sup>12:41</sup>The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for they repented at the proclaiming of Jonah; and behold, someone greater than Jonah is here. <sup>12:42</sup>The queen of the south will rise up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, someone greater than Solomon is here. <sup>12:43</sup>But the unclean spirit, when he is gone out of the man, passes through waterless places, seeking rest, and doesn’t find it. <sup>12:44</sup>Then he says, ‘I will return into my house from which I came out,’ and when he has come back, he finds it empty, swept, and put in order. <sup>12:45</sup>Then he goes, and takes with himself seven other spirits more evil than he is, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first. Even so will it be also to this evil generation.”

<sup>12:46</sup>While he was yet speaking to the multitudes, behold, his mother and his brothers stood outside, seeking to speak to him.

<sup>12:49</sup>He stretched out his hand towards his disciples, and said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!"
<sup>12:50</sup>For whoever does the will of my Father who is in heaven, he is my brother, and sister, and mother."

<sup>13:1</sup>On that day Yeshua went out of the house, and sat by the seaside. <sup>13:2</sup>Great multitudes gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat, and sat, and all the multitude stood on the beach. <sup>13:3</sup>He spoke to them many things in parables, saying, "Behold, a farmer went out to sow. <sup>13:4</sup>As he sowed, some seeds fell by the roadside, and the birds came and devoured them. <sup>13:5</sup>Others fell on rocky ground, where they didn't have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of earth. <sup>13:6</sup>When the sun had risen, they were scorched. Because they had no root, they withered away. <sup>13:7</sup>Others fell among thorns. The thorns grew up and choked them. <sup>13:8</sup>Others fell on good soil, and yielded fruit: some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty. <sup>13:9</sup>He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>13:11</sup>He answered them, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of Heaven, but it is not given to them. <sup>13:12</sup>For whoever has, to him will be given, and he will have abundance, but whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he has. <sup>13:13</sup>Therefore I speak to them in parables, because seeing they don't see, and hearing, they don't hear, neither do they understand. <sup>13:14</sup>In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says,

'By hearing you will hear,
 and will in no way understand;
 Seeing you will see,
 and will in no way perceive:

<sup>13:15</sup>for this people's heart has grown callous,
 their ears are dull of hearing,
 they have closed their eyes;

or else perhaps they might perceive with their eyes,
 hear with their ears,
 understand with their heart,
 and should turn again;
 and I would heal them.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>13:16</sup>"But blessed are your eyes, for they see; and your ears, for they hear. <sup>13:17</sup>For most certainly I tell you that many prophets and righteous men desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them; and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them.

<sup>13:18</sup>"Hear, then, the parable of the farmer. <sup>13:19</sup>When anyone hears the word of the Kingdom, and doesn't understand it, the evil one comes, and snatches away that which has been sown in his heart. This is what was sown by the roadside. <sup>13:20</sup>What was sown on the rocky places, this is he who hears the word, and immediately with joy receives it; <sup>13:21</sup>yet he has no root in himself, but endures for a while. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles. <sup>13:22</sup>What was sown among the thorns, this is he who hears the word, but the cares of this age and the deceitfulness of riches choke the word, and he becomes unfruitful. <sup>13:23</sup>What was sown on the good ground, this is he who hears the word, and understands it, who most certainly bears fruit, and brings forth, some one hundred times as much, some sixty, and some thirty."

<sup>13:28</sup>"He said to them, 'An enemy has done this.'

"The servants asked him, 'Do you want us to go and gather them up?'

<sup>13:29</sup>"But he said, 'No, lest perhaps while you gather up the darnel weeds, you root

up the wheat with them. <sup>13:30</sup> Let both grow together until the harvest, and in the harvest time I will tell the reapers, "First, gather up the darnel weeds, and bind them in bundles to burn them; but gather the wheat into my barn."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>13:31</sup> He set another parable before them, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his field; <sup>13:32</sup> which indeed is smaller than all seeds. But when it is grown, it is greater than the herbs, and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the air come and lodge in its branches."

<sup>13:34</sup> Yeshua spoke all these things in parables to the multitudes; and without a parable, he didn't speak to them, <sup>13:35</sup> that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

"I will open my mouth in parables;

I will utter things hidden from the foundation of the world."<sup>m</sup>

<sup>13:36</sup> Then Yeshua sent the multitudes away, and went into the house. His disciples came to him, saying, "Explain to us the parable of the darnel weeds of the field."

<sup>13:41</sup> The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will gather out of his Kingdom all things that cause stumbling, and those who do iniquity, <sup>13:42</sup> and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping and the gnashing of teeth. <sup>13:43</sup> Then the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the Kingdom of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear.

a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found, and hid. In his joy, he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field.

<sup>13:47</sup> "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a dragnet, that was cast into the sea, and gathered some fish of every kind, <sup>13:48</sup> which, when it was filled, they drew up on the beach. They sat down, and gathered the good into containers, but the bad they threw away.

<sup>13:49</sup> So will it be in the end of the world. The angels will come forth, and separate the wicked from among the righteous, <sup>13:50</sup> and will cast them into the furnace of fire. There will be the weeping and the gnashing of teeth." <sup>13:51</sup> Yeshua said to them, "Have you understood all these things?"

They answered him, "Yes, Lord."

<sup>13:52</sup> He said to them, "Therefore, every scribe who has been made a disciple in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man who is a householder, who brings out of his treasure new and old things."

<sup>13:53</sup> It happened that when Yeshua had finished these parables, he departed from there.

<sup>13:54</sup> Coming into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, so that they were astonished, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom, and these mighty works? <sup>13:55</sup> Isn't this the carpenter's son? Isn't his mother called Miriam, and his brothers, Jacob, Yosi, Simon, and Judah? <sup>13:56</sup> Aren't all of his sisters with us? Where then did this man get all of these things?" <sup>13:57</sup> They were offended by him.

But Yeshua said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and in his own house." <sup>13:58</sup> He didn't do many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

<sup>14:1</sup> At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report concerning Yeshua, <sup>14:2</sup> and said to his servants, "This is Yochanan the Immerser. He is risen from the dead. That is why these powers work in him." <sup>14:3</sup> For Herod had laid hold of Yochanan, and bound him, and put him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. <sup>14:4</sup>For Yochanan said to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." <sup>14:5</sup>When he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. <sup>14:6</sup>But when Herod's birthday came, the daughter of Herodias danced among them and pleased Herod. <sup>14:7</sup>Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatever she should ask. <sup>14:8</sup>She, being prompted by her mother, said, "Give me here on a platter the head of Yochanan the Immerser."

<sup>14:9</sup>The king was grieved, but for the sake of his oaths, and of those who sat at the table with him, he commanded it to be given, <sup>14:10</sup>and he sent and beheaded Yochanan in the prison. <sup>14:11</sup>His head was brought on a platter, and given to the young lady; and she brought it to her mother. <sup>14:12</sup>His disciples came, and took the body, and buried it; and they went and told Yeshua. <sup>14:13</sup>Now when Yeshua heard this, he withdrew from there in a boat, to a deserted place apart. When the multitudes heard it, they followed him on foot from the cities.

<sup>14:14</sup>Yeshua went out, and he saw a great multitude. He had compassion on them, and healed their sick. <sup>14:15</sup>When evening had come, his disciples came to him, saying, "This place is deserted, and the hour is already late. Send the multitudes away, that they may go into the villages, and buy themselves food."

<sup>14:16</sup>But Yeshua said to them, "They don't need to go away. You give them something to eat."

<sup>14:17</sup>They told him, "We only have here five loaves and two fish."

<sup>14:19</sup>He commanded the multitudes to sit down on the grass; and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, broke and gave the loaves to the disciples, and the disciples gave to the multitudes. <sup>14:20</sup>They all ate, and were filled. They took up twelve baskets full of that which remained left over from the broken pieces. <sup>14:21</sup>Those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

<sup>14:22</sup>Immediately Yeshua made the disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead of him to the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. <sup>14:23</sup>After he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. When evening had come, he was there alone. <sup>14:24</sup>But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, distressed by the waves, for the wind was contrary. <sup>14:25</sup>In the fourth watch of the night,<sup>n</sup> Yeshua came to them, walking on the sea.<sup>o</sup> <sup>14:26</sup>When the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It's a ghost!" and they cried out for fear. <sup>14:27</sup>But immediately Yeshua spoke to them, saying "Cheer up! It is I!<sup>p</sup> Don't be afraid."

<sup>14:28</sup>Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the waters."

<sup>14:29</sup>He said, "Come!"

Peter stepped down from the boat, and walked on the waters to come to Yeshua. <sup>14:30</sup>But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

<sup>14:31</sup>Immediately Yeshua stretched out his hand, took hold of him, and said to him, "You of little faith, why did you doubt?" <sup>14:32</sup>When they got up into the boat, the wind ceased. <sup>14:33</sup>Those who were in the boat came and worshiped him, saying, "You are truly the Son of God!"

<sup>14:34</sup>When they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. <sup>14:35</sup>When the people of that place recognized him, they sent into all that surrounding region, and brought to him all who were sick, <sup>14:36</sup>and they begged him that they might just touch the fringe<sup>q</sup> of his garment. As many as touched it were made whole.

<sup>15:3</sup>He answered them, "Why do you also disobey the commandment of God because of your tradition? <sup>15:4</sup>For God commanded, 'Honor your father and your mother,'<sup>r</sup> and, 'He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.'<sup>s</sup> <sup>15:5</sup>But you say, 'Whoever may tell his father or his mother, "Whatever help you might otherwise have gotten from me is a gift devoted to God,"<sup>15:6</sup> he shall not honor his father or mother.' You have made the commandment of God void because of your tradition. <sup>15:7</sup>You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, saying,

<sup>15:8</sup>"These people draw near to me with their mouth, and honor me with their lips;
but their heart is far from me.

<sup>15:9</sup>And in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrine rules made by men."<sup>t</sup>

<sup>15:10</sup>He summoned the multitude, and said to them, "Hear, and understand. <sup>15:11</sup>That which enters into the mouth doesn't defile the man; but that which proceeds out of the mouth, this defiles the man."

<sup>15:12</sup>Then the disciples came, and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended, when they heard this saying?"

<sup>15:13</sup>But he answered, "Every plant which my heavenly Father didn't plant will be uprooted. <sup>15:14</sup>Leave them alone. They are blind guides of the blind. If the blind guide the blind, both will fall into a pit."

<sup>15:16</sup>So Yeshua said, "Do you also still not understand? <sup>15:17</sup>Don't you understand that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the belly, and then out of the body? <sup>15:18</sup>But the things which proceed out of the mouth come out of the heart, and they defile the man. <sup>15:19</sup>For out of the heart come forth evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, sexual sins, thefts, false testimony, and blasphemies. <sup>15:20</sup>These are the things which defile the man; but to eat with unwashed hands doesn't defile the man."

<sup>15:21</sup>Yeshua went out from there, and withdrew into the region of Tyre and Sidon. <sup>15:22</sup>Behold, a Canaanite woman came out from those borders, and cried, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, you son of David! My daughter is severely demonized!"

His disciples came and begged him, saying, "Send her away; for she cries after us."

<sup>15:24</sup>But he answered, "I wasn't sent to anyone but the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

<sup>15:26</sup>But he answered, "It is not appropriate to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs."

<sup>15:28</sup>Then Yeshua answered her, "Woman, great is your faith! Be it done to you even as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that hour.

<sup>15:29</sup>Yeshua departed there, and came near to the sea of Galilee; and he went up into the mountain, and sat there. <sup>15:30</sup>Great multitudes came to him, having with them the lame, blind, mute, maimed, and many others, and they put them down at his feet. He healed them, <sup>15:31</sup>so that the multitude wondered when they saw the mute speaking, injured whole, lame walking, and blind seeing—and they glorified the God of Israel.

<sup>15:32</sup>Yeshua summoned his disciples and said, "I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days and have nothing to eat. I don't want to send them away fasting, or they might faint on the way."

<sup>15:33</sup>The disciples said to him, "Where should we get so many loaves in a deserted place as to satisfy so great a multitude?"

<sup>15:34</sup>Yeshua said to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

They said, "Seven, and a few small fish."

<sup>15:35</sup>He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground; <sup>15:36</sup>and he took the seven loaves and the fish. He gave thanks and broke them, and gave to the disciples, and the disciples to the multitudes. <sup>15:37</sup>They all ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets full of the broken pieces that were left over. <sup>15:38</sup>Those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children. <sup>15:39</sup>Then he sent away the multitudes, got into the boat, and came into the borders of Magdala.

<sup>16:1</sup>The Pharisees and Sadducees came, and testing him, asked him to show them a sign from heaven. <sup>16:2</sup>But he answered them, "When it is evening, you say, 'It will be fair weather, for the sky is red.' <sup>16:3</sup>In the morning, 'It will be foul weather today, for the sky is red and threatening.' Hypocrites! You know how to discern the appearance of the sky, but you can't discern the signs of the times! <sup>16:4</sup>An evil and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and there will be no sign given to it, except the sign of the prophet Jonah."

He left them, and departed. <sup>16:5</sup>The disciples came to the other side and had forgotten to take bread. <sup>16:6</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Take heed and beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

<sup>16:8</sup>Yeshua, perceiving it, said, "Why do you reason among yourselves, you of little faith, 'because you have brought no bread?' <sup>16:9</sup>Don't you yet perceive, neither remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets you took up? <sup>16:10</sup>Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets you took up? <sup>16:11</sup>How is it that you don't perceive that I didn't speak to you concerning bread? But beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

<sup>16:12</sup>Then they understood that he didn't tell them to beware of the yeast of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

<sup>16:13</sup>Now when Yeshua came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, "Who do men say that I, the Son of Man, am?"

<sup>16:16</sup>Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

you, Simon Bar Jonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father who is in heaven. <sup>16:18</sup>I also tell you that you are Peter,<sup>u</sup> and on this rock<sup>v</sup> I will build my assembly, and the gates of Sheol<sup>w</sup> will not prevail against it. <sup>16:19</sup>I will give to you the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven; and whatever you release on earth will have been released in heaven." <sup>16:20</sup>Then he commanded the disciples that they should tell no one that he was Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>16:21</sup>From that time, Yeshua began to show his disciples that he must go to Jerusalem and suffer many things from the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up.

<sup>16:22</sup>Peter took him aside, and began to rebuke him, saying, "Far be it from you, Lord! This will never be done to you."

<sup>16:23</sup>But he turned, and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to me, for you are not setting your mind on the things of God, but on the things of men." <sup>16:24</sup>Then Yeshua said to his disciples, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>16:25</sup>For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, and whoever will lose his life for my sake will find it. <sup>16:26</sup>For what will it profit a man, if he gains the whole world, and forfeits his life? Or what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>16:27</sup>For the Son of Man will come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then he will render to everyone according to his deeds. <sup>16:28</sup>Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Son of Man coming in his Kingdom."

"Lord, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three tents here: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

<sup>17:5</sup>While he was still speaking, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them. Behold, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. Listen to him."

<sup>17:10</sup>His disciples asked him, saying, "Then why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

<sup>17:11</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and will restore all things, <sup>17:12</sup>but I tell you that Elijah has come already, and they didn't recognize him, but did to him whatever they wanted to. Even so the Son of Man will also suffer by them." <sup>17:13</sup>Then the disciples understood that he spoke to them of Yochanan the Immerser.

<sup>17:14</sup>When they came to the multitude, a man came to him, kneeling down to him, saying, <sup>17:15</sup>"Lord, have mercy on my son, for he is epileptic, and suffers grievously; for he often falls into the fire, and often into the water. <sup>17:16</sup>So I brought him to your disciples, and they could not cure him."

<sup>17:17</sup>Yeshua answered, "Faithless and perverse generation! How long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him here to me." <sup>17:18</sup>Yeshua rebuked him, the demon went out of him, and the boy was cured from that hour.

<sup>17:19</sup>Then the disciples came to Yeshua privately, and said, "Why weren't we able to cast it out?"

<sup>17:20</sup>He said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For most certainly I tell you, if you have faith as a grain of mustard seed, you will tell this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you. <sup>17:21</sup>But this kind doesn't go out except by prayer and fasting."

<sup>17:22</sup>While they were staying in Galilee, Yeshua said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, <sup>17:23</sup>and they will kill him, and the third day he will be raised up."

They were exceedingly sorry. <sup>17:24</sup>When they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the didrachma coins<sup>x</sup> came to Peter, and said, "Doesn't your rabbi pay the didrachma?" <sup>17:25</sup>He said, "Yes."

When he came into the house, Yeshua anticipated him, saying, "What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth receive toll or tribute? From their children, or from strangers?"

Yeshua said to him, "Therefore the children are exempt. <sup>17:27</sup>But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast a hook, and take up the first fish that comes up. When you have opened its mouth, you will find a stater coin.<sup>y</sup> Take that, and give it to them for me and you."

<sup>18:1</sup>In that hour the disciples came to Yeshua, saying, "Who then is greatest in the Kingdom of Heaven?"

It is better for you to enter into life maimed or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet to be cast into the eternal fire. <sup>18:9</sup>If your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out, and cast it from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehinnom<sup>z</sup> of fire. <sup>18:10</sup>See that you don't despise one of these little ones, for I tell you that in heaven their angels always see the face of my Father who is in heaven. <sup>18:11</sup>For the Son of Man came to save that which was lost.

<sup>18:15</sup>"If your brother sins against you, go, show him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have gained back your brother. <sup>18:16</sup>But if he doesn't listen, take one or two more with you, that at the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established. <sup>a</sup> <sup>18:17</sup>If he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. <sup>18:21</sup>Then Peter came and said to him, "Lord, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Until seven times?"

until seven times, but, until seventy times seven. <sup>18:23</sup>Therefore the Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who wanted to reconcile accounts with his servants. <sup>18:24</sup>When he had begun to reconcile, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents.<sup>b</sup> <sup>18:25</sup>But because he couldn't pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, with his wife, his children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. <sup>18:26</sup>The servant therefore fell down and kneeled before him, saying, 'Lord, have patience with me, and I will repay you all!' <sup>18:27</sup>The lord of that servant, being moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

<sup>18:29</sup>"So his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, 'Have patience with me, and I will repay you!' <sup>18:30</sup>He would not, but went and cast him into prison, until he should pay back that which was due. <sup>18:31</sup>So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were exceedingly sorry, and came and told to their lord all that was done. <sup>18:32</sup>Then his lord called him in, and said to him, 'You wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt, because you begged me. <sup>18:33</sup>Shouldn't you also have had mercy on your fellow servant, even as I had mercy on you?' <sup>18:34</sup>His lord was angry, and delivered him to the tormentors, until he should pay all that was due to him. <sup>18:35</sup>So my heavenly Father will also do to you, if you don't each forgive your brother from your hearts for his misdeeds."

<sup>19:4</sup>He answered, "Haven't you read that he who made them from the beginning made them male and female,<sup>d 19:5</sup> and said, 'For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother, and shall join to his wife; and the two shall become one flesh?'<sup>e 19:6</sup> So that they are no more two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, don't let man tear apart."

<sup>19:7</sup>They asked him, "Why then did Moses command us to give her a bill of divorce, and divorce her?"

<sup>19:8</sup>He said to them, "Moses, because of the hardness of your hearts, allowed you to divorce your wives, but from the beginning it has not been so. <sup>19:9</sup>I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries her when she is divorced commits adultery."

<sup>19:11</sup>But he said to them, "Not all men can receive this saying, but those to whom it is given. <sup>19:12</sup>For there are eunuchs who were born that way from their mother's womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men; and there are eunuchs who made themselves eunuchs for the Kingdom of Heaven's sake. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it."

<sup>19:13</sup>Then little children were brought to him, that he should lay his hands on them and pray; and the disciples rebuked them. <sup>19:14</sup>But Yeshua said, "Allow the little children, and don't forbid them to come to me; for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to ones like these." <sup>19:15</sup>He laid his hands on them, and departed from there.

<sup>19:16</sup>Behold, one came to him and said, "Good Rabbi, what good thing shall I do, that I may have eternal life?"

<sup>19:17</sup>He said to him, "Why do you call me good?<sup>f</sup> No one is good but one, that is, God. But if you want to enter into life, keep the commandments."

<sup>19:18</sup>He said to him, "Which ones?"

Yeshua said, "'You shall not murder.' 'You shall not commit adultery.' 'You shall not steal.' 'You shall not offer false testimony.' <sup>19:19</sup>'Honor your father and mother.'<sup>g</sup> And, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'<sup>h</sup>

<sup>19:20</sup>The young man said to him, "All these things I have observed from my youth. What do I still lack?"

<sup>19:21</sup>Yeshua said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me." <sup>19:22</sup>But when the young man heard the saying, he went away sad, for he was one who had great possessions. <sup>19:23</sup>Yeshua said to his disciples, "Most certainly I say to you, a rich man will enter into the Kingdom of Heaven with difficulty. <sup>19:24</sup>Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel<sup>i</sup> to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

<sup>19:25</sup>When the disciples heard it, they were exceedingly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

<sup>19:27</sup>Then Peter answered, "Behold, we have left everything, and followed you. What then will we have?"

<sup>19:28</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Most certainly I tell you that you who have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of Man will sit on the throne of his glory, you also will sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. <sup>19:29</sup>Everyone who has left houses, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, will receive one hundred times, and will inherit eternal life. <sup>19:30</sup>But many will be last who are first; and first who are last.

So they went their way. <sup>20:5</sup>Again he went out about the sixth and the ninth hour,<sup>l</sup> and did likewise. <sup>20:6</sup>About the eleventh hour<sup>m</sup> he went out, and found others standing idle. He said to them, 'Why do you stand here all day idle?'

"He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and you will receive whatever is right.' <sup>20:8</sup>When evening had come, the lord of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and pay them their wages, beginning from the last to the first.'

<sup>20:17</sup>As Yeshua was going up to Jerusalem, he took the twelve disciples aside, and on the way he said to them, <sup>20:18</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and scribes, and they will condemn him to death, <sup>20:19</sup>and will hand him over to the Gentiles to mock, to scourge, and to crucify; and the third

<sup>20:20</sup>Then the mother of the sons of Zebedee came to him with her sons, kneeling and asking a certain thing of him. <sup>20:21</sup>He said to her, "What do you want?"

She said to him, "Command that these, my two sons, may sit, one on your right hand, and one on your left hand, in your Kingdom."

<sup>20:22</sup>But Yeshua answered, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?"

They said to him, "We are able."

<sup>20:23</sup>He said to them, "You will indeed drink my cup, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with, but to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give; but it is for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

<sup>20:24</sup>When the ten heard it, they were indignant with the two brothers.

<sup>20:25</sup>But Yeshua summoned them, and said, "You know that the rulers of the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>20:26</sup>It shall not be so among you, but whoever desires to become great among you shall be<sup>n</sup> your servant. <sup>20:27</sup>Whoever desires to be first among you shall be your bondservant, <sup>20:28</sup>even as the Son of Man came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

<sup>20:29</sup>As they went out from Jericho, a great multitude followed him. <sup>20:30</sup>Behold, two blind men sitting by the road, when they heard that Yeshua was passing by, cried out, "Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!" <sup>20:31</sup>The multitude rebuked them, telling them that they should be quiet, but they cried out even more, "Lord, have mercy on us, you son of David!"

<sup>20:32</sup>Yeshua stood still, and called them, and asked, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>20:34</sup>Yeshua, being moved with compassion, touched their eyes; and immediately their eyes received their sight, and they followed him.

<sup>21:1</sup>When they drew near to Jerusalem, and came to Bethphage,<sup>o</sup> to the Mount of Olives, then Yeshua sent two disciples, <sup>21:2</sup>saying to them, “Go into the village that is opposite you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied, and a colt with her. Untie them, and bring them to me. <sup>21:3</sup>If anyone says anything to you, you shall say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and immediately he will send them.”

<sup>21:4</sup>All this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken through the prophet, saying,

behold, your King comes to you,
humble, and riding on a donkey,
on a colt, the foal of a donkey.”<sup>p</sup>

<sup>21:6</sup>The disciples went, and did just as Yeshua commanded them, <sup>21:7</sup>and brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their clothes on them; and he sat on them. <sup>21:8</sup>A very great multitude spread their clothes on the road. Others cut branches from the trees, and spread them on the road. <sup>21:9</sup>The multitudes who went before him, and who followed kept shouting, “Hoshia’na<sup>q</sup> to the son of David! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Hoshia’na in the highest!”<sup>r</sup>

<sup>21:10</sup>When he had come into Jerusalem, all the city was stirred up, saying, “Who is this?” <sup>21:11</sup>The multitudes said, “This is the prophet, Yeshua, from Nazareth of Galilee.”

<sup>21:12</sup>Yeshua entered into the temple of God, and drove out all of those who sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the money changers’ tables and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>21:13</sup>He said to them, “It is written, ‘My house shall be called a house of prayer,’<sup>s</sup> but you have made it a den of robbers!”<sup>t</sup>

<sup>21:14</sup>The blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. <sup>21:15</sup>But when the chief priests and the scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children who were crying in the temple and saying, “Hoshia’na to the son of David!” they were indignant, <sup>21:16</sup>and said to him, “Do you hear what these are saying?”

Yeshua said to them, “Yes. Did you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nursing babies you have perfected praise?’”<sup>u</sup>

<sup>21:17</sup>He left them, and went out of the city to Bethany, and lodged there. <sup>21:18</sup>Now in the morning, as he returned to the city, he was hungry. <sup>21:19</sup>Seeing a fig tree by the road, he came to it, and found nothing on it but leaves. He said to it, “Let there be no fruit from you forever!”

Immediately the fig tree withered away. <sup>21:20</sup>When the disciples saw it, they marveled, saying, “How did the fig tree immediately wither away?”

<sup>21:21</sup>Yeshua answered them, “Most certainly I tell you, if you have faith, and don’t doubt, you will not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you told this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ it would be done. <sup>21:22</sup>All things, whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.”

<sup>21:23</sup>When he had come into the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, “By what authority do you do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

<sup>21:24</sup>Yeshua answered them, “I also will ask you one question, which if you tell me, I likewise will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>21:25</sup>The immersion of Yochanan, where was it from? From heaven or from men?”

They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will ask us, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>21:26</sup>But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the multitude, for all hold Yochanan as a prophet.” <sup>21:27</sup>They answered Yeshua, and said, “We don’t know.”

He also said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>21:28</sup>But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first, and said, ‘Son, go work today in my vineyard.’ <sup>21:29</sup>He answered, ‘I will not,’ but afterward he changed his mind, and went. <sup>21:30</sup>He came to the second, and

When you saw it, you didn't even repent afterward, that you might believe him.

<sup>21:33</sup>"Hear another parable. There was a man who was a master of a household, who planted a vineyard, set a hedge about it, dug a winepress in it, built a tower, leased it out to farmers, and went into another country. <sup>21:34</sup>When the season for the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive his fruit. <sup>21:35</sup>The farmers took his servants, beat one, killed another, and stoned another. <sup>21:36</sup>Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they treated them the same way. <sup>21:37</sup>But afterward he sent to them his son, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>21:38</sup>But the farmers, when they saw the son, said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and seize his inheritance.' <sup>21:39</sup>So they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. <sup>21:40</sup>When therefore the lord of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

<sup>21:41</sup>They told him, "He will miserably destroy those miserable men, and will lease out the vineyard to other farmers, who will give him the fruit in its season."

<sup>21:42</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Did you never read in the Scriptures,
'The stone which the builders rejected,
the same was made the head of the corner.

This was from the Lord.

It is marvelous in our eyes?"<sup>v</sup>

<sup>21:43</sup>"Therefore I tell you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and will be given to a nation bringing forth its fruit. <sup>21:44</sup>He who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it will fall, it will scatter him as dust."

<sup>21:45</sup>When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they perceived that he spoke about them. <sup>21:46</sup>When they sought to seize him, they feared the multitudes, because they considered him to be a prophet.

<sup>22:1</sup>Yeshua answered and spoke again in parables to them, saying, <sup>22:2</sup>"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a certain king, who made a marriage feast for his son, <sup>22:3</sup>and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the marriage feast, but they would not come. <sup>22:4</sup>Again he sent out other servants, saying, 'Tell those who are invited, "Behold, I have prepared my dinner. My cattle and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready. Come to the marriage feast!"' <sup>22:5</sup>But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his own farm, another to his merchandise, <sup>22:6</sup>and the rest grabbed his servants, and treated them shamefully, and killed them. <sup>22:7</sup>When the king heard that, he was angry, and sent his armies, destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.

<sup>22:8</sup>"Then he said to his servants, 'The wedding is ready, but those who were invited weren't worthy. <sup>22:9</sup>Go therefore to the intersections of the highways, and as many as you may find, invite to the marriage feast.' <sup>22:10</sup>Those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together as many as they found, both bad and good. The wedding was filled with guests. <sup>22:11</sup>But when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man who didn't have on wedding clothing, <sup>22:12</sup>and he said to him, 'Friend, how did you come in here not wearing wedding clothing?' He was speechless. <sup>22:13</sup>Then the king said to the servants, 'Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him into the outer darkness; there is where the weeping and grinding of teeth will be.' <sup>22:14</sup>For many are called, but few chosen."

<sup>22:15</sup>Then the Pharisees went and took counsel how they might entrap him in his talk. <sup>22:16</sup>They sent their disciples to him, along with the Herodians, saying, "Rabbi, we know that you are honest, and teach the way of God in truth, no matter whom you teach, for you aren't partial to anyone. <sup>22:17</sup>Tell us therefore, what do you think? Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

<sup>22:18</sup> But Yeshua perceived their wickedness, and said, “Why do you test me, you hypocrites? <sup>22:19</sup> Show me the tax money.”

They brought to him a denarius.

Then he said to them, “Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>22:26</sup> In the same way, the second also, and the third, to the seventh. <sup>22:27</sup> After them all, the woman died. <sup>22:28</sup> In the resurrection therefore, whose wife will she be of the seven? For they all had her.”

<sup>22:33</sup> When the multitudes heard it, they were astonished at his teaching. <sup>22:34</sup> But the Pharisees, when they heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, gathered themselves together.

<sup>22:37</sup> Yeshua said to him, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all

They said to him, “Of David.”

<sup>22:43</sup> He said to them, “How then does David in the Spirit call him Lord, saying,

<sup>22:46</sup> No one was able to answer him a word, neither did any man dare ask him any more questions from that day forth.

<sup>23:1</sup> Then Yeshua spoke to the multitudes and to his disciples, <sup>23:2</sup> saying, “The scribes and the Pharisees sat on Moses’ seat. <sup>23:3</sup> All things therefore whatever they tell you to observe, observe and do, but don’t do their works; for they say, and don’t do. <sup>23:4</sup> For they bind heavy burdens that are grievous to be borne, and lay them on men’s shoulders; but they themselves will not lift a finger to help them. <sup>23:5</sup> But all their works they do to be seen by men. They make their tefillin<sup>a</sup> broad, enlarge the fringe<sup>b</sup> of their garments, <sup>23:6</sup> and love the place of honor at feasts, the best seats in the synagogues, <sup>23:7</sup> the salutations in the marketplaces, and to be called ‘Rabbi, Rabbi’ by men. <sup>23:8</sup> But don’t you be called ‘Rabbi,’ for one is your Rabbi, the Messiah, and all of you are brothers. <sup>23:9</sup> Call no man on the earth your father, for one is your Father, he who is in heaven. <sup>23:10</sup> Neither be called masters, for one is your master, the Messiah. <sup>23:11</sup> But he who is greatest among you will be your servant. <sup>23:12</sup> Whoever exalts himself will be

<sup>23:14</sup>“But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the Kingdom of Heaven against men; for you don’t enter in yourselves, neither do you allow those who are entering in to enter.” <sup>23:15</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you travel around by sea and land to make one proselyte; and when he becomes one, you make him twice as much of a son of Gehinnom<sup>d</sup> as yourselves.

<sup>23:25</sup>“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full

<sup>23:27</sup>“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitened tombs, which outwardly appear beautiful, but inwardly are full of dead men’s bones, and of all uncleanness.” <sup>23:28</sup>Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.

<sup>23:29</sup>“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the tombs of the righteous,<sup>23:30</sup> and say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we wouldn’t have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.’” <sup>23:31</sup>Therefore you testify to yourselves that you are children of those who killed the prophets. <sup>23:32</sup>Fill up, then, the measure of your fathers. <sup>23:33</sup>You serpents, you offspring of vipers, how will you escape the judgment of Gehinnom<sup>h</sup>? <sup>23:34</sup>Therefore, behold, I send to you prophets, wise men, and scribes. Some of them you will kill and crucify; and some of them you will scourge in your synagogues, and persecute from city to city; <sup>23:35</sup>that on you may come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Berechiah, whom you killed between the sanctuary and the altar. <sup>23:36</sup>Most certainly I tell you, all these things will come upon this generation.

<sup>23:37</sup>“Jerusalem, Jerusalem, who kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! was going on his way. His disciples came to him to show him the buildings of the temple. <sup>24:2</sup>But he answered them, "You see all of these things, don't you? Most certainly I tell you, there will not be left here one stone on another, that will not be thrown down."

<sup>24:3</sup>As he sat on the Mount of Olives, the disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign of your coming, and of the end of the age?"

<sup>24:4</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>24:5</sup>For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Messiah,' and will lead many astray. <sup>24:6</sup>You will hear of wars and rumors of wars. See that you aren't troubled, for all this must happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>24:7</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom; and there will be famines, plagues, and earthquakes in various places. <sup>24:8</sup>But all these things are the beginning of birth pains. <sup>24:9</sup>Then they will deliver you up to oppression, and will kill you. You will be hated by all of the nations for my name's sake. <sup>24:10</sup>Then many will stumble, and will deliver up one another, and will hate one another. <sup>24:11</sup>Many false prophets will arise, and will lead many astray. <sup>24:12</sup>Because iniquity will be multiplied, the love of many will grow cold. <sup>24:13</sup>But he who endures to the end, the same will be saved. <sup>24:14</sup>This Good News of the Kingdom will be preached in the whole world for a testimony to all the nations, and then the end will come.

<sup>24:23</sup>"Then if any man tells you, 'Behold, here is the Messiah,' or, 'There,' don't believe it. <sup>24:24</sup>For there will arise false messiahs, and false prophets, and they will show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

<sup>24:25</sup>"Behold, I have told you beforehand. <sup>24:26</sup>If therefore they tell you, 'Behold, he is in the wilderness,' don't go out; 'Behold, he is in the inner rooms,' don't believe it. <sup>24:27</sup>For as the lightning flashes from the east, and is seen even to the west, so will be the coming of the Son of Man. <sup>24:28</sup>For wherever the carcass is, there is where the vultures<sup>k</sup> gather together. <sup>24:29</sup>But immediately after the oppression of those days, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, the stars will fall from the sky, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken;<sup>l</sup> <sup>24:30</sup>and then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky. Then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky with power and great glory. <sup>24:31</sup>He will send out his angels with a great sound of a shofar<sup>m</sup>, and they will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the sky to the other.

<sup>25:1</sup>“Then the Kingdom of Heaven will be like ten virgins, who took their lamps, and went out to meet the bridegroom. <sup>25:2</sup>Five of them were foolish, and five were wise. <sup>25:3</sup>Those who were foolish, when they took their lamps, took no oil with them, <sup>25:4</sup>but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. <sup>25:5</sup>Now while the bridegroom delayed, they all slumbered and slept. <sup>25:6</sup>But at midnight there was a cry, ‘Behold! ‘Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.’ <sup>25:9</sup>But the wise answered, saying, ‘What if there isn’t enough for us and you? You go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.’ <sup>25:10</sup>While they went away to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the marriage feast, and the door was shut. <sup>25:11</sup>Afterward the other virgins also came, saying, ‘Lord, Lord, open to us.’ <sup>25:12</sup>But he answered, ‘Most certainly I tell you, I don’t know you.’ <sup>25:13</sup>Watch therefore, for you don’t know the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming.

<sup>25:14</sup>“For it is like a man, going into another country, who called his own servants, and entrusted his goods to them. <sup>25:15</sup>To one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one; to each according to his own ability. Then he went on his journey. <sup>25:16</sup>Immediately he who received the five talents went and traded with them, and made another five talents. <sup>25:17</sup>In the same way, he also who got the two gained another two. <sup>25:18</sup>But he who received the one went away and dug in the earth, and hid his lord’s money.

<sup>25:31</sup>"But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on the throne of his glory. <sup>25:32</sup>Before him all the nations will be gathered, and he will separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. <sup>25:33</sup>He will set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. <sup>25:34</sup>Then the King will tell those on his right hand, 'Come, blessed of my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world; <sup>25:35</sup>for I was hungry, and you gave me food to eat. <sup>25:37</sup>"Then the righteous will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, and feed you; or thirsty, and give you a drink? <sup>25:38</sup>When did we see you as a stranger, and take you in; or naked, and clothe you? <sup>25:39</sup>When did we see you sick, or in prison, and come to you?'

<sup>25:44</sup>"Then they will also answer, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and didn't help you?'

<sup>25:45</sup>"Then he will answer them, saying, 'Most certainly I tell you, inasmuch as you didn't do it to one of the least of these, you didn't do it to me.' <sup>25:46</sup>These will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous into eternal life."

<sup>26:1</sup>It happened, when Yeshua had finished all these words, that he said to his disciples, <sup>26:2</sup>"You know that after two days the Passover is coming, and the Son of Man will be delivered up to be crucified."

<sup>26:10</sup>However, knowing this, Yeshua said to them, "Why do you trouble the woman? Because she has done a good work for me. <sup>26:11</sup>For you always have the poor with you; but you don't always have me. <sup>26:12</sup>For in pouring this ointment on my body, she did it to prepare me for burial. <sup>26:13</sup>Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of as a memorial of her."

<sup>26:17</sup> Now on the first day of unleavened bread, the disciples came to Yeshua, saying to him, "Where do you want us to prepare for you to eat the Passover?"

<sup>26:18</sup> He said, "Go into the city to a certain person, and tell him, 'The Rabbi says, 'My time is at hand. I will keep the Passover at your house with my disciples.'"

<sup>26:19</sup> The disciples did as Yeshua commanded them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>26:21</sup> As they were eating, he said, "Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me."

<sup>26:22</sup> They were exceedingly sorrowful, and each began to ask him, "It isn't me, is it, Lord?"

<sup>26:23</sup> He answered, "He who dipped his hand with me in the dish, the same will betray me. <sup>26:24</sup> The Son of Man goes, even as it is written of him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

He said to him, "You said it."

<sup>26:26</sup> As they were eating, Yeshua took bread, gave thanks for<sup>s</sup> it, and broke it. He gave to the disciples, and said, "Take, eat; this is my body." <sup>26:27</sup> He took the cup, gave thanks, and gave to them, saying, "All of you drink it, <sup>26:28</sup> for this is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many for the remission of sins. <sup>26:29</sup> But I tell you that I will not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it anew with you in my Father's Kingdom." <sup>26:30</sup> When they had sung the Hallel, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>26:31</sup> Then Yeshua said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'<sup>t</sup> <sup>26:32</sup> But after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

<sup>26:33</sup> But Peter answered him, "Even if all will be made to stumble because of you, I will never be made to stumble."

<sup>26:34</sup> Yeshua said to him, "Most certainly I tell you that tonight, before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times."

<sup>26:35</sup> Peter said to him, "Even if I must die with you, I will not deny you." All of the disciples also said likewise.

<sup>26:36</sup> Then Yeshua came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I go there and pray."

<sup>26:37</sup> He took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and severely troubled. <sup>26:38</sup> Then he said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch with me."

<sup>26:39</sup> He went forward a little, fell on his face, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass away from me; nevertheless, not what I desire, but what you desire."

<sup>26:40</sup> He came to the disciples, and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "What, couldn't you watch with me for one hour? <sup>26:41</sup> Watch and pray, that you don't enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

<sup>26:42</sup> Again, a second time he went away, and prayed, saying, "My Father, if this cup can't pass away from me unless I drink it, your desire be done." <sup>26:43</sup> He came again and found them sleeping, for their eyes were heavy.

<sup>26:44</sup> He left them again, went away, and prayed a third time, saying the same words. <sup>26:45</sup> Then he came to his disciples, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. Behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>26:46</sup> Arise, let's be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

<sup>26:47</sup> While he was still speaking, behold, Judah, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priest and elders of the people.

<sup>26:48</sup> Now he who betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, "Whoever I kiss, he is the one. Seize him." <sup>26:49</sup> Immediately he came to Yeshua, and said, "Hail, Rabbi!" and kissed

him.

<sup>26:50</sup>Yeshua said to him, “Friend, why are you here?” Then they came and laid hands on Yeshua, and took him. <sup>26:51</sup>Behold, one of those who were with Yeshua stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and struck off his ear. <sup>26:52</sup>Then Yeshua said to him, “Put your sword back into its place, for all those who take the sword will die by the sword. <sup>26:53</sup>Or do you think that I couldn’t ask my Father, and he would even now send me more than twelve legions of angels? <sup>26:54</sup>How then would the Scriptures be fulfilled that it must be so?”

<sup>26:55</sup>In that hour Yeshua said to the multitudes, “Have you come out as against a robber with swords and clubs to seize me? I sat daily in the temple teaching, and you didn’t arrest me. <sup>26:56</sup>But all this has happened, that the Scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled.”

Then all the disciples left him, and fled. <sup>26:57</sup>Those who had taken Yeshua led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together. <sup>26:58</sup>But Peter followed him from a distance, to the court of the high priest, and entered in and sat with the officers, to see the end. <sup>26:59</sup>Now the chief priests, the elders, and the whole council sought false testimony against Yeshua, that they might put him to death; <sup>26:60</sup>and they found none. Even though many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, <sup>26:61</sup>and said, “This man said, ‘I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.’”

<sup>26:62</sup>The high priest stood up, and said to him, “Have you no answer? What is this that these testify against you?” <sup>26:63</sup>But Yeshua held his peace. The high priest answered him, “I adjure you by the living God, that you tell us whether you are the Messiah, the Son of God.”

<sup>26:64</sup>Yeshua said to him, “You have said it. Nevertheless, I tell you, after this you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming on the clouds of the sky.”

<sup>26:65</sup>Then the high priest tore his clothing, saying, “He has spoken blasphemy! Why do we need any more witnesses? Behold, now you have heard his blasphemy. <sup>26:66</sup>What do you think?”

They answered, “He is worthy of death!”

<sup>26:67</sup>Then they spit in his face and beat him with their fists, and some slapped him, <sup>26:68</sup>saying, “Prophecy to us, you Messiah! Who hit you?”

<sup>26:69</sup>Now Peter was sitting outside in the court, and a maid came to him, saying, “You were also with Yeshua, the Galilean!”

<sup>26:70</sup>But he denied it before them all, saying, “I don’t know what you are talking about.”

<sup>26:71</sup>When he had gone out onto the porch, someone else saw him, and said to those who were there, “This man also was with Yeshua of Nazareth.”

<sup>26:73</sup>After a little while those who stood by came and said to Peter, “Surely you are also one of them, for your speech makes you known.”

<sup>26:74</sup>Then he began to curse and to swear, “I don’t know the man!”

Immediately the rooster crowed. <sup>26:75</sup>Peter remembered the word which Yeshua had said to him, “Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times.” He went out and wept bitterly.

<sup>27:1</sup>Now when morning had come, all the chief priests and the elders of the people took counsel against Yeshua to put him to death: <sup>27:2</sup>and they bound him, and led him away, and delivered him up to Pontius Pilate, the governor. <sup>27:3</sup>Then Judah, who betrayed him, when he saw that Yeshua was condemned, felt remorse, and brought back the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and elders, <sup>27:4</sup>saying, “I have sinned in that I betrayed innocent blood.”

But they said, “What is that to us? You see to it.”

<sup>27:5</sup>He threw down the pieces of silver in the sanctuary, and departed. He went away and hanged himself. <sup>27:6</sup>The chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, “It’s not lawful to put them into the treasury, since it is the price of blood.” <sup>27:7</sup>They took counsel, and bought the potter’s field with them, to bury strangers in. <sup>27:8</sup>Therefore that field was called “The Field of Blood” to this day. <sup>27:9</sup>Then that which was spoken through Jeremiah<sup>u</sup> the prophet was fulfilled, saying,

“They took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him upon whom a price had been set,

whom some of the children of Israel priced, <sup>27:10</sup>and they gave them for the potter's field, as the Lord commanded me."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>27:11</sup>Now Yeshua stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

Yeshua said to him, "So you say."

<sup>27:12</sup>When he was accused by the chief priests and elders, he answered nothing.

<sup>27:13</sup>Then Pilate said to him, "Don't you hear how many things they testify against you?"

<sup>27:14</sup>He gave him no answer, not even one word, so that the governor marveled greatly.

<sup>27:15</sup>Now at the feast the governor was accustomed to release to the multitude one prisoner, whom they desired.

<sup>27:16</sup>They had then a notable prisoner, called Barabbas. <sup>27:17</sup>When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Whom do you want me to release to you? Barabbas, or Yeshua, who is called Messiah?" <sup>27:18</sup>For he knew that because of envy they had delivered him up.

<sup>27:19</sup>While he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him." <sup>27:20</sup>Now the chief priests and the elders persuaded the multitudes to ask for Barabbas, and destroy Yeshua. <sup>27:21</sup>But the governor answered them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

They said, "Barabbas!"

<sup>27:22</sup>Pilate said to them, "What then shall I do to Yeshua, who is called Messiah?"

They all said to him, "Let him be crucified!"

<sup>27:23</sup>But the governor said, "Why? What evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

<sup>27:24</sup>So when Pilate saw that nothing was being gained, but rather that a disturbance was starting, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, "I am innocent of the blood of this righteous person. You see to it."

<sup>27:25</sup>All the people answered, "May his blood be on us, and on our children!"

<sup>27:26</sup>Then he released to them Barabbas, but Yeshua he flogged and delivered to be crucified.

<sup>27:27</sup>Then the governor's soldiers took Yeshua into the Praetorium, and gathered the whole garrison together against him. <sup>27:28</sup>They stripped him, and put a scarlet robe on him.

<sup>27:32</sup>As they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name, and they compelled him to go with them, that he might carry his cross.

<sup>27:33</sup>They came to a place called "Golgotha," that is to say, "The place of a skull." <sup>27:34</sup>They gave him sour wine to drink mixed with gall. When he had tasted it, he would not drink. <sup>27:35</sup>When they had crucified him, they divided his clothing among them, casting lots,<sup>w</sup> <sup>27:36</sup>and they sat and watched him there. <sup>27:37</sup>They set up over his head the accusation against him written, "THIS IS YESHUA, THE KING OF THE JEWS."

<sup>27:41</sup>Likewise the chief priests also mocking, with the scribes, the Pharisees,<sup>x</sup> and the elders, said, <sup>27:42</sup>"He saved others, but he can't save himself. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down from the cross now, and we will believe in him. <sup>27:43</sup>He trusts in God. Let God deliver him now, if he wants him; for he said, 'I am the Son of God.'" <sup>27:44</sup>The robbers also who were crucified with him cast on him the same reproach.

darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.<sup>z</sup> <sup>27:46</sup>About the ninth hour Yeshua cried with a loud voice, saying, “Eli, Eli, lima<sup>a</sup> sabachthani?” That is, “My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>27:50</sup>Yeshua cried again with a loud voice, and yielded up his spirit. <sup>27:51</sup>Behold, the veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. The earth quaked and the rocks were split. <sup>27:52</sup>The tombs were opened, and many bodies of the holy ones who had fallen asleep were raised; <sup>27:53</sup>and coming out of the tombs after his resurrection, they entered into the holy city and appeared to many. <sup>27:54</sup>Now the centurion, and those who were with him watching Yeshua, when they saw the earthquake, and the things that were done, feared exceedingly, saying, “Truly this was the Son of God.”

<sup>27:55</sup>Many women were there watching from afar, who had followed Yeshua from Galilee, serving him. <sup>27:56</sup>Among them were Miriam Magdalene, Miriam the mother of Jacob and Yosi, and the mother of the sons of Zebedee. <sup>27:57</sup>When evening had come, a rich man from Arimathaea, named Joseph, who himself was also Yeshua’s disciple came. <sup>27:58</sup>This man went to Pilate, and asked for Yeshua’s body. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given up. <sup>27:59</sup>Joseph took the body, and wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, <sup>27:60</sup>and laid it in his own new tomb, which he had cut out in the rock, and he rolled a great stone to the door of the tomb, and departed. <sup>27:61</sup>Miriam Magdalene was there, and the other Miriam, sitting opposite the tomb. <sup>27:62</sup>Now on the next day, which was the day after the Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees were gathered together to Pilate, <sup>27:63</sup>saying, “Sir, we remember what that deceiver said while he was still alive: ‘After three days I will rise again.’ <sup>27:64</sup>Command therefore that the tomb be made secure until the third day, lest perhaps his disciples come at night and steal him away, and tell the people, ‘He is risen from the dead;’ and the last deception will be worse than the first.”

<sup>27:65</sup>Pilate said to them, “You have a guard. Go, make it as secure as you can.” <sup>27:66</sup>So they went with the guard and made the tomb secure, sealing the stone.

<sup>28:1</sup>Now after the Sabbath, as it began to dawn on the first day of the week, Miriam Magdalene and the other Miriam came to see the tomb. <sup>28:2</sup>Behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from the sky, and came and rolled away the stone from the door, and sat on it. <sup>28:3</sup>His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. <sup>28:4</sup>For fear of him, the guards shook, and became like dead men. <sup>28:5</sup>The angel answered the women, “Don’t be afraid, for I know that you seek Yeshua, who has been crucified. <sup>28:6</sup>He is not here, for he has risen, just like he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. <sup>28:7</sup>Go quickly and tell his disciples, ‘He has risen from the dead, and behold, he goes before you into Galilee; there you will see him.’ Behold, I have told you.”

<sup>28:8</sup>They departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to bring his disciples word. <sup>28:9</sup>As they went to tell his disciples, behold, Yeshua met them, saying, “Rejoice!”

They came and took hold of his feet, and worshiped him.

<sup>28:10</sup>Then Yeshua said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Go tell my brothers<sup>c</sup> that they should go into Galilee, and there they will see me.”

<sup>28:11</sup>Now while they were going, behold, some of the guards came into the city, and told the chief priests all the things that had happened. <sup>28:12</sup>When they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave a large amount of silver to the soldiers, <sup>28:13</sup>saying, “Say that his disciples came by night, and stole him away while we slept. <sup>28:14</sup>If this comes to the governor’s ears, we will persuade him and make you free of worry.”

<sup>28:15</sup>So they took the money and did as they were told. This saying was spread abroad among the Judeans, and continues until this day.

<sup>28:16</sup>But the eleven disciples went into Galilee, to the mountain where Yeshua had sent them. <sup>28:17</sup>When they saw him, they bowed down to him, but some doubted. <sup>28:18</sup>Yeshua came to them and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to me in heaven and on earth. <sup>28:19</sup>Go,<sup>d</sup> and make disciples of all nations, immersing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, <sup>28:20</sup>teaching them to observe all things that I commanded you. Behold, I am with you always, even to the end of the age.” Amen.

The Good News According to Mark

“Behold, I send my messenger before your face,
who will prepare your way before you.”<sup>a</sup>

<sup>1:3</sup>The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
‘Make ready the way of the Lord!
Make his paths straight!’<sup>b</sup>

<sup>1:12</sup>Immediately the Spirit drove him out into the wilderness. <sup>1:13</sup>He was there in the wilderness forty days tempted by Satan. He was with the wild animals; and the angels were serving him.

<sup>1:14</sup>Now after Yochanan was taken into custody, Yeshua came into Galilee, proclaiming the Good News of the Kingdom of God, <sup>1:15</sup>and saying, “The time is fulfilled, and the Kingdom of God is at hand! Repent, and believe in the Good News.”

<sup>1:16</sup>Passing along by the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew the brother of Simon casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen. <sup>1:17</sup>Yeshua said to them, “Come after me, and I will make you into fishers for men.”

<sup>1:29</sup>Immediately, when they had come out of the synagogue, they came into the house of Simon and Andrew, with Jacob and Yochanan. <sup>1:30</sup>Now Simon’s wife’s mother lay sick with a fever, and immediately they told him about her. <sup>1:31</sup>He came and took her by the hand, and raised her up. The fever left her, and she served them. <sup>1:32</sup>At evening, when the sun had set, they brought to him all who were sick, and those who were possessed by demons. <sup>1:33</sup>All the city was gathered together at the door. <sup>1:34</sup>He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons. He didn’t allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

<sup>1:35</sup>Early in the morning, while it was still dark, he rose up and went out, and departed into a deserted place, and prayed there. <sup>1:36</sup>Simon and those who were with him followed after him; <sup>1:37</sup>and they found him, and told him, "Everyone is looking for you."

<sup>1:38</sup>He said to them, "Let's go elsewhere into the next towns, that I may proclaim there also, because I came out for this reason."

<sup>1:41</sup>Being moved with compassion, he stretched out his hand, and touched him, and said to him, "I want to. Be made clean."

<sup>1:42</sup>When he had said this, immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was made clean. <sup>1:43</sup>He strictly warned him, and immediately sent him out, <sup>1:44</sup>and said to him, "See you say nothing to anybody, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing the things which Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."

<sup>1:45</sup>But he went out, and began to proclaim it much, and to spread about the matter, so that Yeshua could no more openly enter into a city, but was outside in desert places: and they came to him from everywhere.

<sup>2:1</sup>When he entered again into Capernaum after some days, it was heard that he was in the house. <sup>2:2</sup>Immediately many were gathered together, so that there was no more room, not even around the door; and he spoke the word to them. <sup>2:3</sup>Four people came, carrying a paralytic to him. <sup>2:4</sup>When they could not come near to him for the crowd, they removed the roof where he was. When they had broken it up, they let down the mat that the paralytic was lying on. <sup>2:5</sup>Yeshua, seeing their faith, said to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

<sup>2:6</sup>But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, <sup>2:7</sup>"Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

<sup>2:8</sup>Immediately Yeshua, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts? <sup>2:9</sup>Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, 'Your sins are forgiven;' or to say, 'Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?'"

<sup>2:10</sup>But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins"—he said to the paralytic—<sup>2:11</sup>"I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."

<sup>2:12</sup>He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"

<sup>2:13</sup>He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them. <sup>2:14</sup>As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Halfai, sitting at the tax office, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.

<sup>2:15</sup>It happened, that he was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Yeshua and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.

<sup>2:16</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"

<sup>2:18</sup>Yochanan's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, "Why do Yochanan's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"

<sup>2:19</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Can the groomsmen fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can't fast. <sup>2:20</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day. <sup>2:21</sup>No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made. <sup>2:22</sup>No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."

<sup>2:23</sup>It happened that he was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain. <sup>2:24</sup>The Pharisees said to him, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>2:25</sup>He said to them, "Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry—he, and those who were with him?<sup>2:26</sup> How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest<sup>d</sup>, and ate the show bread, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?” <sup>2:27</sup>He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath. <sup>2:28</sup>Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath.”

<sup>3:1</sup>He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered. <sup>3:2</sup>They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him. <sup>3:3</sup>He said to the man who had his hand withered, “Stand up.” <sup>3:4</sup>He said to them, “Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?” But they were silent. <sup>3:5</sup>When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other. <sup>3:6</sup>The Pharisees went out, and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.

<sup>3:13</sup>He went up into the mountain, and called to himself those whom he wanted, and they went to him. <sup>3:14</sup>He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to proclaim, <sup>3:15</sup>and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons: <sup>3:16</sup>Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter; <sup>3:17</sup>Jacob the son of Zebedee; Yochanan, the brother of Jacob, and he surnamed them Benei-Regesh, which means, Sons of Thunder;

He came into a house. <sup>3:20</sup>The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. <sup>3:21</sup>When his friends heard it, they went out to seize him: for they said, “He is insane.” <sup>3:22</sup>The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, “He has Beelzebul,” and, “By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons.”

<sup>3:23</sup>He summoned them, and said to them in parables, “How can Satan cast out Satan? <sup>3:24</sup>If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. <sup>3:25</sup>If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. <sup>3:26</sup>If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end. <sup>3:27</sup>But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house. <sup>3:28</sup>Most certainly I tell you, all sins of the descendants of man will be forgiven, including their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme; <sup>3:29</sup>but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin”<sup>3:30</sup>—because they said, “He has an unclean spirit.”

<sup>3:31</sup>His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him. <sup>3:32</sup>A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, “Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters<sup>e</sup> are outside looking for you.”

<sup>3:33</sup>He answered them, “Who are my mother and my brothers?” <sup>3:34</sup>Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, “Behold, my mother and my brothers! <sup>3:35</sup>For whoever does the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.”

<sup>4:1</sup>Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea. <sup>4:2</sup>He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching, <sup>4:3</sup>“Listen! Behold, the farmer went out to sow, <sup>4:4</sup>and it happened, as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds<sup>f</sup> came and devoured it. <sup>4:5</sup>Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil. <sup>4:6</sup>When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. <sup>4:7</sup>Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. <sup>4:8</sup>Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much. <sup>4:9</sup>He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>4:10</sup>When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables. <sup>4:11</sup>He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables, <sup>4:12</sup>that 'seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.'"<sup>g</sup>

<sup>4:13</sup>He said to them, "Don't you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables? <sup>4:14</sup>The farmer sows the word. <sup>4:15</sup>The ones by the road are the ones where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them. <sup>4:16</sup>These in the same way are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy. <sup>4:17</sup>They have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. When oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble. <sup>4:18</sup>Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word, <sup>4:19</sup>and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. <sup>4:20</sup>Those which were sown on the good ground are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times."

<sup>4:21</sup>He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket<sup>h</sup> or under a bed? Isn't it put on a stand? <sup>4:22</sup>For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light. <sup>4:23</sup>If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>4:24</sup>He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear. <sup>4:25</sup>For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him."

<sup>4:26</sup>He said, "The Kingdom of God is as if a man should cast seed on the earth, <sup>4:27</sup>and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn't know how. <sup>4:28</sup>For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. <sup>4:29</sup>But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."

<sup>4:30</sup>He said, "How will we liken the Kingdom of God? Or with what parable will we illustrate it? <sup>4:31</sup>It's like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth, <sup>4:32</sup>yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."

<sup>4:33</sup>With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it. <sup>4:34</sup>Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained everything.

<sup>4:35</sup>On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side." <sup>4:36</sup>Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him. <sup>4:37</sup>A big wind storm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled. <sup>4:38</sup>He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Rabbi, don't you care that we are dying?"

<sup>4:39</sup>He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" The wind ceased, and there was a great calm. <sup>4:40</sup>He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it

<sup>4:41</sup>They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

<sup>5:1</sup>They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes. <sup>5:2</sup>When he had come out of the boat, immediately a man with an unclean spirit met him out of the tombs. <sup>5:3</sup>He lived in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains, <sup>5:4</sup>because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him. <sup>5:5</sup>Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones. <sup>5:6</sup>When he saw Yeshua from afar, he ran and bowed down to him, <sup>5:7</sup>and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Yeshua, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me." <sup>5:8</sup>For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

He said to him, "My name is Legion, for we are many." <sup>5:10</sup>He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country. <sup>5:11</sup>Now on the mountainside there was a great herd of pigs feeding. <sup>5:12</sup>All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."

<sup>5:13</sup>At once Yeshua gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea. <sup>5:14</sup>Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

The people came to see what it was that had happened. <sup>5:15</sup>They came to Yeshua, and saw him who had been possessed by demons sitting, clothed, and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid. <sup>5:16</sup>Those who saw it declared to them how it happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs. <sup>5:17</sup>They began to beg him to depart from their region.

<sup>5:18</sup>As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him. <sup>5:19</sup>He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them what great things

the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you."

<sup>5:20</sup>He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Yeshua had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.

<sup>5:21</sup>When Yeshua had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea. <sup>5:22</sup>Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet, <sup>5:23</sup>and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."

<sup>5:24</sup>He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides. <sup>5:25</sup>A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years, <sup>5:26</sup>and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse, <sup>5:27</sup>having heard the things concerning Yeshua, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes. <sup>5:28</sup>For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well." <sup>5:29</sup>Immediately the flow of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her affliction.

<sup>5:30</sup>Immediately Yeshua, perceiving in himself that the power had gone out from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"

<sup>5:31</sup>His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>5:32</sup>He looked around to see her who had done this thing. <sup>5:33</sup>But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.

<sup>5:34</sup>He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."

<sup>5:35</sup>While he was still speaking, people came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Rabbi any more?"

<sup>5:36</sup>But Yeshua, when he heard the message spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe." <sup>5:37</sup>He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, Jacob, and Yochanan the brother of Jacob. <sup>5:38</sup>He came to the synagogue ruler's house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing. <sup>5:39</sup>When he had entered in, he said to them, “Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep.”

<sup>5:40</sup>They ridiculed him. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child, her mother, and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying. <sup>5:41</sup>Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, “Talitha cumi!” which means, being interpreted, “Girl, I tell you, get up!” <sup>5:42</sup>Immediately the girl rose up and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement. <sup>5:43</sup>He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and commanded that something should be given to her to eat.

<sup>6:1</sup>He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him. <sup>6:2</sup>When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, “Where did this man get these things?” and, “What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands? <sup>6:3</sup>Isn’t this the carpenter, the son of Miriam, and brother of Jacob, Yosi, Judah, and Simon? Aren’t his sisters here with us?” They were offended at him.

<sup>6:4</sup>Yeshua said to them, “A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house.” <sup>6:5</sup>He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick people, and healed them. <sup>6:6</sup>He marveled because of their unbelief.

He went around the villages teaching. <sup>6:7</sup>He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits. <sup>6:8</sup>He commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse, <sup>6:9</sup>but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics. <sup>6:10</sup>He said to them, “Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there. <sup>6:11</sup>Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!”

should repent. <sup>6:13</sup>They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them. <sup>6:14</sup>King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, “Yochanan the Immerser has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers are at work in him.” <sup>6:15</sup>But others said, “He is Elijah.” Others said, “He is a prophet, or like one of the prophets.” <sup>6:16</sup>But Herod, when he heard this, said, “This is Yochanan, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead.” <sup>6:17</sup>For Herod himself had sent out and arrested Yochanan, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for he had married her. <sup>6:18</sup>For Yochanan said to Herod, “It is not lawful for you to have your brother’s wife.” <sup>6:19</sup>Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn’t, <sup>6:20</sup>for Herod feared Yochanan, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.

<sup>6:21</sup>Then a convenient day came, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his nobles, the high officers, and the chief men of Galilee. <sup>6:22</sup>When the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those sitting with him. The king said to the young lady, “Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you.” <sup>6:23</sup>He swore to her, “Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom.”

<sup>6:24</sup>She went out, and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?”

She said, “The head of Yochanan the Immerser.”

gether to Yeshua, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught. <sup>6:31</sup>He said to them, “You come apart into a deserted place, and rest awhile.” For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat. <sup>6:32</sup>They went away in the boat to a deserted place by themselves. <sup>6:33</sup>They<sup>i</sup> saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him. <sup>6:34</sup>Yeshua came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things. <sup>6:35</sup>When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, “This place is deserted, and it is late in the day. <sup>6:36</sup>Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat.”

They asked him, “Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii<sup>j</sup> worth of bread, and give them something to eat?”

<sup>6:38</sup>He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go see.”

When they knew, they said, “Five, and two fish.”

<sup>6:39</sup>He commanded them that everyone should sit down in groups on the green grass. <sup>6:40</sup>They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties. <sup>6:41</sup>He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all. <sup>6:42</sup>They all ate, and were filled. <sup>6:43</sup>They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish. <sup>6:44</sup>Those who ate the loaves were<sup>k</sup> five thousand men.

<sup>6:45</sup>Immediately he made his disciples get into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away. <sup>6:46</sup>After he had taken leave of them, he went up the mountain to pray.

<sup>6:47</sup>When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land. <sup>6:48</sup>Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea,<sup>l</sup> and he would have passed by them, <sup>6:49</sup>but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out; <sup>6:50</sup>for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, “Cheer up! It is I!<sup>m</sup> Don’t be afraid.” <sup>6:51</sup>He got into the boat with them; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled; <sup>6:52</sup>for they hadn’t understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.

<sup>6:53</sup>When they had crossed over, they came to land at Gennesaret, and moored to the shore. <sup>6:54</sup>When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him, <sup>6:55</sup>and ran around that whole region, and began to bring those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was. <sup>6:56</sup>Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe<sup>n</sup> of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.

<sup>7:14</sup> He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, “Hear me, all of you, and understand. <sup>7:15</sup> There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man. <sup>7:16</sup> If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”

<sup>7:17</sup> When he had entered into a house away from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable. <sup>7:18</sup> He said to them, “Are you thus without understanding also? Don’t you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can’t defile him, <sup>7:19</sup> because it doesn’t go into his heart, but into his stomach, then into the latrine, thus purifying all foods<sup>s</sup>?” <sup>7:20</sup> He said, “That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man. <sup>7:21</sup> For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts, <sup>7:22</sup> covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness. <sup>7:23</sup> All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.”

the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and didn’t want anyone to know it, but he couldn’t escape notice. <sup>7:25</sup> For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet. <sup>7:26</sup> Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter. <sup>7:27</sup> But Yeshua said to her, “Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children’s bread and throw it to the dogs.”

<sup>7:29</sup> He said to her, “For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter.”

<sup>7:31</sup> Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the region of Decapolis. <sup>7:32</sup> They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him. <sup>7:33</sup> He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue. <sup>7:34</sup> Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha!” that is, “Be opened!” <sup>7:35</sup> Immediately his ears were opened, and the impediment of his tongue was released, and he spoke clearly. <sup>7:36</sup> He commanded them that they should tell no one, but the more he commanded them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it. <sup>7:37</sup> They were astonished beyond measure, saying, “He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!”

<sup>8:1</sup> In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Yeshua called his disciples to himself, and said to them, <sup>8:2</sup> “I have compassion on the multitude, because they have stayed with me now three days, and have nothing to eat. <sup>8:3</sup> If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come

They said, “Seven.”

<sup>8:6</sup>He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude. <sup>8:7</sup>They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also. <sup>8:8</sup>They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over. <sup>8:9</sup>Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.

<sup>8:16</sup>They reasoned with one another, saying, “It’s because we have no bread.”

<sup>8:17</sup>Yeshua, perceiving it, said to them, “Why do you reason that it’s because you have no bread? Don’t you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened?”

<sup>8:18</sup>Having eyes, don’t you see? Having ears, don’t you hear? Don’t you remember? <sup>8:19</sup>When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?”

They told him, “Twelve.”

<sup>8:20</sup>“When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?”

They told him, “Seven.”

<sup>8:22</sup>He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him. <sup>8:23</sup>He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

<sup>8:25</sup>Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly. <sup>8:26</sup>He sent him away to his house, saying, “Don’t enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village.”

<sup>8:27</sup>Yeshua went out, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, “Who do men say that I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Messiah.”

<sup>8:30</sup>He commanded them that they should tell no one about him. <sup>8:31</sup>He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. <sup>8:32</sup>He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him. <sup>8:33</sup>But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men.”

<sup>8:34</sup>He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, “Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. <sup>8:35</sup>For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the sake of the Good News will save it. <sup>8:36</sup>For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life? <sup>8:37</sup>For what will a man give in exchange for his life? <sup>8:38</sup>For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”

<sup>9:1</sup>He said to them, “Most certainly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death until they see the Kingdom of God come with power.”

<sup>9:2</sup>After six days Yeshua took with him Peter, Jacob, and Yochanan, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them. <sup>9:3</sup>His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them. <sup>9:4</sup>Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Yeshua.

<sup>9:5</sup>Peter answered Yeshua, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." <sup>9:6</sup>For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.

<sup>9:7</sup>A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

<sup>9:8</sup>Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Yeshua only.

<sup>9:9</sup>As they were coming down from the mountain, he commanded them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until after the Son of Man had risen from the dead. <sup>9:10</sup>They kept this saying to themselves, questioning what the "rising from the dead" meant.

<sup>9:11</sup>They asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"

<sup>9:12</sup>He said to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised? <sup>9:13</sup>But I tell you that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."

<sup>9:14</sup>Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them. <sup>9:15</sup>Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him. <sup>9:16</sup>He asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"

<sup>9:17</sup>One of the multitude answered, "Rabbi, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit; <sup>9:18</sup>and wherever it seizes him, it throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."

<sup>9:19</sup>He answered him, "Unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I bear with you? Bring him to me."

<sup>9:20</sup>They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.

<sup>9:21</sup>He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come to him?"

He said, "From childhood. <sup>9:22</sup>Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."

<sup>9:23</sup>Yeshua said to him, "If you can believe, all things are possible to him who believes."

<sup>9:24</sup>Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"

<sup>9:25</sup>When Yeshua saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and never enter him again!"

<sup>9:26</sup>Having cried out, and convulsed greatly, it came out of him. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "He is dead." <sup>9:27</sup>But Yeshua took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.

<sup>9:28</sup>When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?" <sup>9:29</sup>He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."

<sup>9:30</sup>They went out from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it. <sup>9:31</sup>For he was teaching his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is being handed over to the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again."

<sup>9:32</sup>But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.

<sup>9:33</sup>He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"

<sup>9:34</sup>But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.

<sup>9:35</sup>He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he shall be last of all, and servant of all."

<sup>9:36</sup>He took a little child, and set him in their midst. Taking him in his arms, he said to them, <sup>9:37</sup>"Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."

<sup>9:38</sup>Yochanan said to him, "Rabbi, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us."

<sup>9:39</sup>But Yeshua said, "Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me. <sup>9:40</sup>For whoever is not against us is on our side. <sup>9:41</sup>For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Messiah's, most certainly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward. <sup>9:42</sup>Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if he were thrown into the sea with a millstone hung around his neck. <sup>9:43</sup>If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehinnom,<sup>u</sup> into the unquenchable fire, <sup>9:44</sup>where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' <sup>9:45</sup>If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehinnom,<sup>v</sup> into the fire that will never be quenched—<sup>9:46</sup>where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.' <sup>9:47</sup>If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into the Kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehinnom<sup>w</sup> of fire, <sup>9:48</sup>where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.<sup>x</sup> <sup>9:49</sup>For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt. <sup>9:50</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

<sup>10:1</sup>He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he was again teaching them. <sup>10:2</sup>Pharisees came to him testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

<sup>10:4</sup>They said, "Moses allowed a certificate of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

<sup>10:5</sup>But Yeshua said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment. <sup>10:6</sup>But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.<sup>y</sup> <sup>10:7</sup>For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife, <sup>10:8</sup>and the two will become one flesh,<sup>z</sup> so that they are no longer two, but one flesh. <sup>10:9</sup>What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."

<sup>10:13</sup>They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them. <sup>10:14</sup>But when Yeshua saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>10:15</sup>Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it." <sup>10:16</sup>He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.

<sup>10:17</sup>As he was going out into the way, one ran to him, knelt before him, and asked him, "Good Rabbi, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"

<sup>10:18</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one—God. <sup>10:19</sup>You know the commandments: 'Do not murder,' 'Do not commit adultery,' 'Do not steal,' 'Do not give false testimony,' 'Do not defraud,' 'Honor your father and mother.'"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>10:20</sup>He said to him, "Rabbi, I have observed all these things from my youth."

<sup>10:21</sup>Yeshua looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."

<sup>10:22</sup>But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions. <sup>10:23</sup>Yeshua looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of God!"

<sup>10:24</sup>The disciples were amazed at his words. But Yeshua answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the Kingdom of God! <sup>10:25</sup>It is easier for a camel<sup>b</sup> to go through a needle's eye than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

<sup>10:26</sup>They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"

<sup>10:27</sup>Yeshua, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."

<sup>10:28</sup>Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."

<sup>10:29</sup>Yeshua said, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the sake of the Good News, <sup>10:30</sup>but he will receive one hundred times more now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life. <sup>10:31</sup>But many who are first will be last; and the last first."

<sup>10:32</sup>They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Yeshua was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him. <sup>10:33</sup>"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles. <sup>10:34</sup>They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."

<sup>10:35</sup>Jacob and Yochanan, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Rabbi, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."

<sup>10:36</sup>He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

<sup>10:37</sup>They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."

<sup>10:38</sup>But Yeshua said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?"

<sup>10:39</sup>They said to him, "We are able."

Yeshua said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with; <sup>10:40</sup>but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."

<sup>10:41</sup>When the ten heard it, they began to be indignant towards Jacob and Yochanan.

<sup>10:42</sup>Yeshua summoned them, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the nations lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. <sup>10:43</sup>But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you shall be your servant. <sup>10:44</sup>Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be bondservant of all. <sup>10:45</sup>For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."

<sup>10:46</sup>They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road. <sup>10:47</sup>When he heard that it was Yeshua the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Yeshua, you son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>10:48</sup>Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out much more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>10:49</sup>Yeshua stood still, and said, "Call him."

They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you!"

<sup>10:50</sup>He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Yeshua.

<sup>10:51</sup>Yeshua asked him, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him, "Rabboni,<sup>c</sup> that I may see again."

<sup>10:52</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Yeshua in the way.

<sup>11:1</sup>When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage<sup>d</sup> and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, <sup>11:2</sup>and said to them, “Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a young donkey tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him. <sup>11:3</sup>If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ say, ‘The Lord needs him;’ and immediately he will send him back here.”

<sup>11:4</sup>They went away, and found a young donkey tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him. <sup>11:5</sup>Some of those who stood there asked them, “What are you doing, untying the young donkey?” <sup>11:6</sup>They said to them just as Yeshua had said, and they let them go.

<sup>11:7</sup>They brought the young donkey to Yeshua, and threw their garments on it, and Yeshua sat on it. <sup>11:8</sup>Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road. <sup>11:9</sup>Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried out, “Hoshia’na<sup>e</sup>! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!<sup>f</sup> <sup>11:10</sup>Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hoshia’na in the highest!”

<sup>11:11</sup>Yeshua entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

<sup>11:12</sup>The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry. <sup>11:13</sup>Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs. <sup>11:14</sup>Yeshua told it, “May no one ever eat fruit from you again!” and his disciples heard it.

<sup>11:15</sup>They came to Jerusalem, and Yeshua entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves. <sup>11:16</sup>He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple. <sup>11:17</sup>He taught, saying to them, “Isn’t it written, ‘My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?’<sup>g</sup> But you have made it a den of robbers!”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>11:18</sup>The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, because all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.

<sup>11:19</sup>When evening came, he went out of the city. <sup>11:20</sup>As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots. <sup>11:21</sup>Peter, remembering, said to him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away.”

<sup>11:22</sup>Yeshua answered them, “Have faith in God. <sup>11:23</sup>For most certainly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, ‘Be taken up and cast into the sea,’ and doesn’t doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says is happening; he shall have whatever he says.

<sup>11:24</sup>Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you have received them, and you shall have them.

<sup>11:25</sup>Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions. <sup>11:26</sup>But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions.”

<sup>11:27</sup>They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him, <sup>11:28</sup>and they began saying to him, “By what authority do you do these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?”

<sup>11:29</sup>Yeshua said to them, “I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. <sup>11:30</sup>The immersion of Yochanan—was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me.”

<sup>11:31</sup>They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we should say, ‘From heaven;’ he will say, ‘Why then did you not believe him?’ <sup>11:32</sup>If we should say, ‘From men’”—they feared the people, for all held Yochanan to really be a prophet. <sup>11:33</sup>They answered Yeshua, “We don't know."

Yeshua said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."

<sup>12:1</sup>He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, put a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country. <sup>12:2</sup>When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard. <sup>12:3</sup>They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty. <sup>12:4</sup>Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated. <sup>12:5</sup>Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some. <sup>12:6</sup>Therefore still having one, his beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, 'They will respect my son.' <sup>12:7</sup>But those farmers said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let's kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' <sup>12:8</sup>They took him, killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard. <sup>12:9</sup>What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others. <sup>12:10</sup>Haven't you even read this Scripture: 'The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the head of the corner.

<sup>12:11</sup>This was from the Lord, it is marvelous in our eyes?"<sup>i</sup>

<sup>12:12</sup>They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away. <sup>12:13</sup>They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might trap him with words. <sup>12:14</sup>When they had come, they asked him, "Rabbi, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not? <sup>12:15</sup>Shall we give, or shall we not give?"

But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."

<sup>12:16</sup>They brought it.

He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?"

They said to him, "Caesar's."

<sup>12:17</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the things that are God's."

They marveled greatly at him.

<sup>12:18</sup>There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying, <sup>12:19</sup>"Rabbi, Moses wrote to us, 'If a man's brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up offspring for his brother.' <sup>12:20</sup>There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no offspring. <sup>12:21</sup>The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise; <sup>12:22</sup>and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died. <sup>12:23</sup>In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."

<sup>12:24</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the Scriptures, nor the power of God? <sup>12:25</sup>For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven. <sup>12:26</sup>But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, about the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'<sup>j</sup>? <sup>12:27</sup>He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."

<sup>12:28</sup>One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the greatest of all?"

<sup>12:29</sup>Yeshua answered, "The greatest is, 'Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one: <sup>12:30</sup>you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.'<sup>k</sup> This is the first commandment. <sup>12:31</sup>The second is like this, 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'<sup>l</sup> There is no other commandment greater than these."

<sup>12:32</sup>The scribe said to him, "Truly, Rabbi, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he, <sup>12:33</sup>and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more important than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

<sup>12:34</sup>When Yeshua saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the Kingdom of God."

No one dared ask him any question after that. <sup>12:35</sup>Yeshua responded, as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Messiah is the son of David? <sup>12:36</sup>For David himself said in the Holy Spirit,

'The Lord said to my Lord,

"Sit at my right hand,

until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.'"<sup>m</sup>

The common people heard him gladly. <sup>12:38</sup>In his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces, <sup>12:39</sup>and the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts: <sup>12:40</sup>those who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

<sup>13:1</sup>As he went out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Rabbi, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!"

<sup>13:2</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down."

<sup>13:3</sup>As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, Jacob, Yochanan, and Andrew asked him privately, <sup>13:4</sup>"Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be fulfilled?"

<sup>13:5</sup>Yeshua, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray. <sup>13:6</sup>For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am he!<sup>p</sup>' and will lead many astray.

<sup>13:7</sup>"When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet. <sup>13:8</sup>For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains. <sup>13:9</sup>But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. You will stand before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony to them. <sup>13:10</sup>The Good News must first be preached to all the nations. <sup>13:11</sup>When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. child and to those who nurse babies in those days! <sup>13:18</sup> Pray that your flight won't be in the winter. <sup>13:19</sup> For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be. <sup>13:20</sup> Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the sake of the chosen ones, whom he picked out, he shortened the days. <sup>13:21</sup> Then if anyone tells you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or, 'Look, there!' don't believe it. <sup>13:22</sup> For there will arise false messiahs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones. <sup>13:23</sup> But you watch.

"Behold, I have told you all things beforehand. <sup>13:24</sup> But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give its light, <sup>13:25</sup> the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.<sup>r</sup> <sup>13:26</sup> Then they will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory. <sup>13:27</sup> Then he will send out his angels, and will gather together his chosen ones from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.

<sup>13:28</sup> "Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near; <sup>13:29</sup> even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors. <sup>13:30</sup> Most certainly I say to you, this generation<sup>s</sup> will not pass away until all these things happen. <sup>13:31</sup> Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. <sup>13:32</sup> But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. <sup>13:33</sup> Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.

<sup>13:34</sup> "It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch. <sup>13:35</sup> Watch therefore, for you don't know when the lord of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning; <sup>13:36</sup> lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping. <sup>13:37</sup> What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."

<sup>14:1</sup> It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might seize him by deception, and kill him. <sup>14:2</sup> For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."

<sup>14:3</sup> While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper<sup>t</sup>, as he sat at the table, a woman came having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard—very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head. <sup>14:4</sup> But there were some who were indignant among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted? <sup>14:5</sup> For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii,<sup>u</sup> and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.

<sup>14:6</sup> But Yeshua said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me. <sup>14:7</sup> For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me. <sup>14:8</sup> She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying. <sup>14:9</sup> Most certainly I tell you, wherever this Good News may be preached throughout the whole world, that which this woman has done will also be spoken of for a memorial of her."

<sup>14:10</sup> Judah Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them. <sup>14:11</sup> They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him. <sup>14:12</sup> On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and prepare that you may eat the Passover?"

<sup>14:13</sup> He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him, <sup>14:14</sup> and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, "The Rabbi says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"<sup>14:15</sup> He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Get ready for us there."

<sup>14:16</sup>His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.

<sup>14:17</sup>When it was evening he came with the twelve. <sup>14:18</sup>As they sat and were eating, Yeshua said, "Most certainly I tell you, one of you will betray me—he who eats with me."

<sup>14:19</sup>They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"

<sup>14:20</sup>He answered them, "It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish. <sup>14:21</sup>For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

<sup>14:22</sup>As they were eating, Yeshua took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

<sup>14:23</sup>He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it.

<sup>14:24</sup>He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many.

<sup>14:25</sup>Most certainly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the Kingdom of God."

<sup>14:26</sup>When they had sung the Hallel, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

<sup>14:27</sup>Yeshua said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, 'I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.'<sup>v</sup> <sup>14:28</sup>However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."

<sup>14:29</sup>But Peter said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."

<sup>14:30</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Most certainly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times."

<sup>14:31</sup>But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." They all said the same thing.

<sup>14:32</sup>They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray."<sup>14:33</sup> He took with him Peter, Jacob, and Yochanan, and began to be greatly troubled and distressed. <sup>14:34</sup>He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."

<sup>14:35</sup>He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him. <sup>14:36</sup>He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I desire, but what you desire."

<sup>14:37</sup>He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour?" <sup>14:38</sup>Watch and pray, that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

<sup>14:39</sup>Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words. <sup>14:40</sup>Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him. <sup>14:41</sup>He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. <sup>14:42</sup>Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."

<sup>14:43</sup>Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judah, one of the twelve, came—and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. <sup>14:44</sup>Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whomever I will kiss, that is he. Seize him, and lead him away safely."<sup>14:45</sup> When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him. <sup>14:46</sup>They laid their hands on him, and seized him. <sup>14:47</sup>But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

<sup>14:48</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?" <sup>14:49</sup>I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the Scriptures might be fulfilled."

the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. <sup>14:53</sup>They led Yeshua away to the high priest. All the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes came together with him.

<sup>14:54</sup>Peter had followed him from a distance, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire. <sup>14:55</sup>Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Yeshua to put him to death, and found none. <sup>14:56</sup>For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other. <sup>14:57</sup>Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying, <sup>14:58</sup>"We heard him say, 'I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.'" <sup>14:59</sup>Even so, their testimony did not agree.

<sup>14:60</sup>The high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Yeshua, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?"

<sup>14:61</sup>But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?"

<sup>14:62</sup>Yeshua said, "I am. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."

<sup>14:63</sup>The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses?"

<sup>14:64</sup>You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death. <sup>14:65</sup>Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophesy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

<sup>14:66</sup>As Peter was in the courtyard below, one of the maids of the high priest came, <sup>14:67</sup>and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Yeshua!"

<sup>14:68</sup>But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out on the porch, and the rooster crowed.

<sup>14:70</sup>But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it." <sup>14:71</sup>But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!" <sup>14:72</sup>The rooster crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Yeshua said to him, "Before the rooster crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.

<sup>15:1</sup>Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Yeshua, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate. <sup>15:2</sup>Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

He answered, "So you say."

<sup>15:3</sup>The chief priests accused him of many things. <sup>15:4</sup>Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"

<sup>15:5</sup>But Yeshua made no further answer, so that Pilate marveled.

<sup>15:6</sup>Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him.

<sup>15:7</sup>There was one called Barabbas, bound with those who had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder.

<sup>15:8</sup>The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them. <sup>15:9</sup>Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>15:10</sup>For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up. <sup>15:11</sup>But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead. <sup>15:12</sup>Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?"

<sup>15:13</sup>They cried out again, "Crucify him!"

<sup>15:14</sup>Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?"

But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"

<sup>15:15</sup>Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and handed over Yeshua, when he had flogged him, to be crucified.

<sup>15:16</sup>The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort. <sup>15:17</sup>They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him. <sup>15:18</sup>They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"

<sup>15:19</sup>They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him.

<sup>15:20</sup>When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him.

<sup>15:21</sup>They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross. <sup>15:22</sup>They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull." <sup>15:23</sup>They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.

<sup>15:29</sup>Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days, <sup>15:30</sup>save yourself, and come down from the cross!"

<sup>15:31</sup>Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself. <sup>15:32</sup>Let the Messiah, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him."<sup>y</sup> Those who were crucified with him insulted him.

<sup>15:33</sup>When the sixth hour<sup>z</sup> had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.<sup>a</sup> <sup>15:34</sup>At the ninth hour Yeshua cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"<sup>b</sup>

<sup>15:35</sup>Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he is calling Elijah."

<sup>15:36</sup>One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let's see whether Elijah comes to take him down."

<sup>15:37</sup>Yeshua cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit. <sup>15:38</sup>The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom. <sup>15:39</sup>When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"

<sup>15:40</sup>There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Miriam Magdalene, and Miriam the mother of Jacob the less and of Yosi, and Shalom; <sup>15:41</sup>who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.

<sup>15:42</sup>When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, <sup>15:43</sup>Joseph of Arimathea, a prominent council member who also himself was looking for the Kingdom of God, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Yeshua's body. <sup>15:44</sup>Pilate marveled if he were already dead; and summoning the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead long. <sup>15:45</sup>When he found out from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph. <sup>15:46</sup>He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb. <sup>15:47</sup>Miriam Magdalene and Miriam, the mother of Yosi, saw where he was laid.

<sup>16:1</sup>When the Sabbath was past, Miriam Magdalene, and Miriam the mother of Jacob, and Shalom, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him. <sup>16:2</sup>Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen. <sup>16:3</sup>They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?" <sup>16:4</sup>for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back.

<sup>16:5</sup>Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed. <sup>16:6</sup>He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Yeshua, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him! <sup>16:7</sup>But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.”

<sup>16:8</sup>They went out,<sup>c</sup> and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid. <sup>16:9</sup>Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Miriam Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons. <sup>16:10</sup>She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept. <sup>16:11</sup>When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved. <sup>16:12</sup>After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country. <sup>16:13</sup>They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.

<sup>16:14</sup>Afterward he was revealed to the Eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen. <sup>16:15</sup>He said to them, “Go into all the world, and proclaim the Good News to the whole creation. <sup>16:16</sup>He who believes and is immersed will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned. <sup>16:17</sup>These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages; <sup>16:18</sup>they will take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover.”

<sup>16:19</sup>So then the Lord<sup>d</sup>, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God. <sup>16:20</sup>They went out, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed. Amen.

The Good News According to Luke

<sup>1:1</sup>Since many have undertaken to set in order a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us, <sup>1:2</sup>even as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, <sup>1:3</sup>it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus; <sup>1:4</sup>that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.

<sup>1:5</sup>There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zechariah, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisheva. <sup>1:6</sup>They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord. <sup>1:7</sup>But they had no child, because Elisheva was barren, and they both were well advanced in years. <sup>1:8</sup>Now it happened, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division, <sup>1:9</sup>according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense. <sup>1:10</sup>The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.

<sup>1:11</sup>An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. <sup>1:12</sup>Zechariah was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell upon him. <sup>1:13</sup>But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zechariah, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elisheva, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name Yochanan. <sup>1:14</sup>You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth. <sup>1:15</sup>For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother's womb. <sup>1:16</sup>He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God. <sup>1:17</sup>He will go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, 'to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,' and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to prepare a people prepared for the Lord."

<sup>1:18</sup>Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."

<sup>1:19</sup>The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. <sup>1:20</sup>Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."

<sup>1:29</sup>But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be. <sup>1:30</sup>The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Miriam, for you have found favor with God. <sup>1:31</sup>Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name 'Yeshua.' <sup>1:32</sup>He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his father, David, <sup>1:33</sup>and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end to his Kingdom."

<sup>1:35</sup>The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one who is born from you will be called the Son of God. <sup>1:36</sup>Behold, Elisheva, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren. <sup>1:37</sup>For everything spoken by God is possible."

The angel departed from her. <sup>1:39</sup>Miriam arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah, <sup>1:40</sup>and entered into the house of Zechariah and greeted Elisheva. <sup>1:41</sup>It happened, when Elisheva heard Miriam's greeting, that the baby leaped in her womb, and Elisheva was filled with the Holy Spirit. <sup>1:42</sup>She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! <sup>1:43</sup>Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? <sup>1:44</sup>For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy! <sup>1:45</sup>Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"

<sup>1:46</sup>Miriam said,
 "My soul magnifies the Lord.
<sup>1:47</sup>My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior, <sup>1:48</sup>for he has looked at the humble state of his handmaid.
 For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.
<sup>1:49</sup>For he who is mighty has done great things for me.
 Holy is his name.
<sup>1:50</sup>His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him.
<sup>1:51</sup>He has shown strength with his arm.
 He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
<sup>1:52</sup>He has put down princes from their thrones.
 And has exalted the lowly.
<sup>1:53</sup>He has filled the hungry with good things.
 He has sent the rich away empty.
<sup>1:54</sup>He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy, <sup>1:55</sup>As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and his seed forever."
<sup>1:56</sup>Miriam stayed with her about three months, and then returned to her house.
<sup>1:57</sup>Now the time that Elisheva should give birth was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son.
<sup>1:58</sup>Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her, and they rejoiced with her. <sup>1:59</sup>It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him

Zechariah, after the name of the father. <sup>1:60</sup>His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called Yochanan."

<sup>1:61</sup>They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
<sup>1:62</sup>They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.

They all marveled. <sup>1:64</sup>His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God. <sup>1:65</sup>Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea. <sup>1:66</sup>All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of the Lord was with him. <sup>1:67</sup>His father, Zechariah, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying, for he has visited and worked redemption for his people;
<sup>1:68</sup>"Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel,

<sup>1:69</sup>and has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David
<sup>1:71</sup>salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;
<sup>1:72</sup>to show mercy towards our fathers, to remember his holy covenant,
<sup>1:73</sup>the oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father, <sup>1:74</sup>to grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,
<sup>1:75</sup>In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.
<sup>1:76</sup>And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, for you will go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways, <sup>1:77</sup>to give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins, <sup>1:78</sup>because of the tender mercy of our God, whereby the dawn from on high will visit us, <sup>1:79</sup>to shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death;
 to guide our feet into the way of peace."
<sup>1:80</sup>The child was growing, and becoming strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.

<sup>2:6</sup>It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that she should give birth. <sup>2:7</sup>She brought forth her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn. <sup>2:8</sup>There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock. <sup>2:9</sup>Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>2:10</sup>The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people. <sup>2:11</sup>For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Messiah the Lord. <sup>2:12</sup>This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough." <sup>2:13</sup>Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly army praising God, and saying, <sup>2:14</sup>"Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will toward men."

<sup>2:15</sup>It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the shepherds said one to another, "Let's go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us." <sup>2:16</sup>They came with haste, and found both Miriam and Joseph, and the baby was lying in the feeding trough. <sup>2:17</sup>When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child. <sup>2:18</sup>All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds. <sup>2:19</sup>But Miriam kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart. <sup>2:20</sup>The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, just as it was told them.

<sup>2:21</sup>When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called Yeshua, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

<sup>2:22</sup>When the days of their purification according to the Torah of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord <sup>2:23</sup>(as it is written in the Torah of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord"), <sup>a</sup> <sup>2:24</sup>and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the Torah of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>2:25</sup>Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him. <sup>2:26</sup>It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death before he had seen the Lord's Messiah.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2:27</sup>He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Yeshua, that they might do concerning him according to the requirement of the Torah, <sup>2:28</sup>then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,

according to your word, in peace;

<sup>2:30</sup>for my eyes have seen your salvation,

<sup>2:36</sup>There was one Hannah, a prophetess, the daughter of Penuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity, <sup>2:37</sup>and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day. <sup>2:38</sup>Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.

<sup>2:39</sup>When they had accomplished all things that were according to the Torah of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth. <sup>2:40</sup>The child was growing, and was becoming strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him. <sup>2:41</sup>His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.

<sup>2:42</sup>When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast, <sup>2:43</sup>and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy Yeshua stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it, <sup>2:44</sup>but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances. <sup>2:45</sup>When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him. <sup>2:46</sup>It happened after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the rabbis, both listening to them, and asking them questions. <sup>2:47</sup>All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers. <sup>2:48</sup>When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."

<sup>2:49</sup>He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?" <sup>2:50</sup>They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them. <sup>2:51</sup>And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. <sup>2:52</sup>And Yeshua increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pontius Pilate being governor of Judea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias tetrarch of Abilene, <sup>3:2</sup>in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to Yochanan, the son of Zechariah, in the wilderness. <sup>3:3</sup>He came into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming the immersion of repentance for remission of sins. <sup>3:4</sup>As it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet,

"The voice of one crying in the wilderness,

'Make ready the way of the Lord.

Make his paths straight.

<sup>3:5</sup>Every valley will be filled.

Every mountain and hill will be brought low.

The crooked will become straight, and the rough ways smooth.

<sup>3:7</sup>He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be immersed by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come? <sup>3:8</sup>Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and don't begin to say among yourselves, 'We have Abraham for our father;' for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones! <sup>3:9</sup>Even now the axe also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn't bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

<sup>3:10</sup>The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

<sup>3:11</sup>He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."

<sup>3:12</sup>Tax collectors also came to be immersed, and they said to him, "Rabbi, what must we do?"

<sup>3:13</sup>He said to them, "Collect no more than that which is appointed to you."

<sup>3:14</sup>Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?"

He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."

<sup>3:15</sup>As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning Yochanan, whether perhaps he was the Messiah, <sup>3:16</sup>Yochanan answered them all, "I indeed immerse you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the latchet of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will immerse you in the Holy Spirit and fire, <sup>3:17</sup>whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."

Herod the tetrarch, being reproved by him for Herodias, his brother's<sup>e</sup> wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done, <sup>3:20</sup>added this also to them all, that he shut up Yochanan in prison. <sup>3:21</sup>Now it happened, when all the people were immersed, Yeshua also had been immersed, and was praying. The sky was opened, <sup>3:22</sup>and the Holy Spirit descended in a bodily form as a dove on him; and a voice came out of the sky, saying "You are my beloved Son. In you I am well pleased."

<sup>3:23</sup>Yeshua himself, when he began to teach, was about thirty years old, being the son (as was supposed) of Joseph, the son of Eli, <sup>3:24</sup>the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, the son of Melchi, the son of Jannai, the son of Joseph, <sup>3:25</sup>the son of Mattithiah, the son of Amos, the son of Nahum, the son of Esli, the son of Naggai, <sup>3:26</sup>the son of Maath, the son of Mattithiah, the son of Shimei, the son of Joseph, the son of Judah, <sup>3:27</sup>the son of Yochanan, the son of Rhesa, the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, the son of Neri, <sup>3:28</sup>the son of Melchi, the son of Addi, the son of Cosam, the son of Elmodam, the son of Er, <sup>3:29</sup>the son of Yosi, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat, the son of Levi, <sup>3:30</sup>the son of Simeon, the son of Judah, the son of Joseph, the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim, <sup>3:31</sup>the son of Maleah, the son of Manah, the son of Mattathah, the son of Nathan, the son of David, <sup>3:32</sup>the son of Jesse, the son of Obed, the son of Boaz, the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon, <sup>3:33</sup>the son of Amminadab, the son of Ram,<sup>f</sup> the son of Hezron, the son of Perez, the son of Judah, <sup>3:34</sup>the son of Jacob, the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham, the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, <sup>3:35</sup>the son of Serug, the son of Reu, the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, <sup>3:36</sup>the son of Kenan, the son of Arpachshad, the son of Shem, the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, <sup>3:37</sup>the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch, the son of Jared, the son of Mahalalel, the son of Kenan, <sup>3:38</sup>the son of Enosh, the son of Seth, the son of Adam, the son of God.

from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness <sup>4:2</sup>for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry. <sup>4:3</sup>The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."

<sup>4:4</sup>Yeshua answered him, saying, "It is written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.'"<sup>g</sup>

<sup>4:5</sup>The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. <sup>4:6</sup>The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want. <sup>4:7</sup>If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."

<sup>4:8</sup>Yeshua answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, 'You shall worship the Lord your God, and you shall serve him only.'"<sup>h</sup>

<sup>4:9</sup>He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here, <sup>4:10</sup>for it is written,

'He will put his angels in charge of you, to guard you;'

<sup>4:11</sup>and,

'On their hands they will bear you up, lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.'<sup>i</sup>

<sup>4:12</sup>Yeshua answering, said to him, "It has been said, 'You shall not tempt the Lord your God.'"<sup>j</sup>

<sup>4:13</sup>When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him until another time.

<sup>4:14</sup>Yeshua returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area. <sup>4:15</sup>He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.

<sup>4:16</sup>He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read. <sup>4:17</sup>The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the scroll, and found the place where it was written,

<sup>4:18</sup>"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted,<sup>k</sup> to proclaim release to the captives, recovering of sight to the blind,
to deliver those who are crushed, <sup>4:19</sup>and to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."<sup>l</sup>

<sup>4:20</sup>He closed the scroll, gave it back to the shammash, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him. <sup>4:21</sup>He began to tell them, "Today, this Scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."

<sup>4:22</sup>All testified about him, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

<sup>4:23</sup>He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, 'Physician, heal yourself!
Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.'" <sup>4:24</sup>He said, "Most certainly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown. <sup>4:25</sup>But truly
I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land. <sup>4:26</sup>Elijah was sent to none of them, except to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow. <sup>4:27</sup>There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

<sup>4:28</sup>They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things. <sup>4:29</sup>They rose up, threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff.
<sup>4:30</sup>But he, passing through their midst, went his way.

<sup>4:31</sup>He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day, <sup>4:32</sup>and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority.
<sup>4:33</sup>In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice, <sup>4:34</sup>saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, Yeshua of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"

<sup>4:35</sup>Yeshua rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.

<sup>4:36</sup>Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!" <sup>4:37</sup>News about him went out into every place of the surrounding region.

<sup>4:38</sup>He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her. <sup>4:39</sup>He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and served them. <sup>4:40</sup>When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. <sup>4:41</sup>Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Messiah, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Messiah.

<sup>4:42</sup>When it was day, he departed and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them.
<sup>4:43</sup>But he said to them, "I must proclaim the good news of the Kingdom of God to the other cities also. For this reason I have been sent."
<sup>4:44</sup>He was proclaiming in the synagogues of Galilee.

<sup>5:1</sup>Now it happened, while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.

<sup>5:2</sup>He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets. <sup>5:3</sup>He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon's, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes from the boat. <sup>5:4</sup>When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon,
"Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

<sup>5:5</sup>Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net." <sup>5:6</sup>When they had done this, they caught a great multitude

of fish, and their net was breaking. <sup>5:7</sup>They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink. <sup>5:8</sup>But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Yeshua's knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord." <sup>5:9</sup>For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught; <sup>5:10</sup>and so also were Jacob and Yochanan, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

Yeshua said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching people alive."

<sup>5:11</sup>When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him. <sup>5:12</sup>It happened, while he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Yeshua, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."

<sup>5:13</sup>He stretched out his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean."

Immediately the leprosy left him. <sup>5:14</sup>He commanded him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them." <sup>5:15</sup>But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. <sup>5:16</sup>But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

<sup>5:17</sup>It happened on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the Torah sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them. <sup>5:18</sup>Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before Yeshua. <sup>5:19</sup>Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst before Yeshua. <sup>5:20</sup>Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

<sup>5:21</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"

answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts? <sup>5:23</sup>Which is easier to say, 'Your sins are forgiven you;' or to say, 'Arise and walk?' <sup>5:24</sup>But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."

<sup>5:25</sup>Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God. <sup>5:26</sup>Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."

<sup>5:27</sup>After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector named Levi sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me!"

<sup>5:28</sup>He left everything, and rose up and followed him. <sup>5:29</sup>Levi made a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them. <sup>5:30</sup>Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?" <sup>5:31</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do. <sup>5:32</sup>I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

<sup>5:33</sup>They said to him, "Why do Yochanan's disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?"

<sup>5:34</sup>He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them? <sup>5:35</sup>But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then they will fast in those days." <sup>5:36</sup>He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old. <sup>5:37</sup>No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed. <sup>5:38</sup>But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved. <sup>5:39</sup>No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, 'The old is better.'"

<sup>6:1</sup>Now it happened on the second Sabbath after the first, that he was going through the grain fields. His disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands. <sup>6:2</sup>But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>6:3</sup>Yeshua, answering them, said, "Haven't you read what David did when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him; <sup>6:4</sup>how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?" <sup>6:5</sup>He said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

<sup>6:6</sup>It also happened on another Sabbath that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered. <sup>6:7</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him. <sup>6:8</sup>But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood. <sup>6:9</sup>Then Yeshua said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" <sup>6:10</sup>He looked around at them all, and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other. <sup>6:11</sup>But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Yeshua.

<sup>6:12</sup>It happened in these days, that he went out to the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God. <sup>6:13</sup>When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named emissaries: <sup>6:14</sup>Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; Jacob; Yochanan; Philip; Bartholomew; <sup>6:15</sup>Matthew; Thomas; Jacob, the son of Halfai; Simon, who was called the Zealot; <sup>6:16</sup>Judah the son of Jacob; and Judah Iscariot, who also became a traitor. <sup>6:17</sup>He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; <sup>6:18</sup>as well as those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were being healed.

<sup>6:19</sup>All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came out from him and healed them all.

<sup>6:20</sup>He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said,

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the Kingdom of God.

<sup>6:21</sup>Blessed are you who hunger now,
for you will be filled.

Blessed are you who weep now,
for you will laugh.

<sup>6:22</sup>Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall exclude and mock you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man's sake.

<sup>6:23</sup>Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.

<sup>6:24</sup>"But woe to you who are rich!

For you have received your consolation.

<sup>6:25</sup>Woe to you, you who are full now,
for you will be hungry.

Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.

<sup>6:26</sup>Woe,<sup>m</sup> when<sup>n</sup> men speak well of you, for their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.

<sup>6:27</sup>"But I tell you who hear: love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, <sup>6:28</sup>bless those who curse you, and pray for those who mistreat you. <sup>6:29</sup>To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other;
and from him who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also. <sup>6:30</sup>Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.

<sup>6:31</sup>"As you would like people to do to you, do exactly so to them. <sup>6:32</sup>If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. <sup>6:33</sup>If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same. <sup>6:34</sup>If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much. <sup>6:35</sup>But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back;
and your reward will be great, and you will be children of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.

<sup>6:36</sup>Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.

<sup>6:37</sup>Don't judge, and you won't be judged.

Don't condemn,
and you won't be condemned.

Set free,
and you will be set free.

<sup>6:38</sup>"Give, and it will be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will be given to you.<sup>o</sup> For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."

<sup>6:39</sup>He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit? <sup>6:40</sup>A disciple is not above his rabbi, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his rabbi. <sup>6:41</sup>Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye? <sup>6:42</sup>Or how can you tell your brother, 'Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,' when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye. <sup>6:43</sup>For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit. <sup>6:44</sup>For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush. <sup>6:45</sup>The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings out that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings out that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.

<sup>6:46</sup>"Why do you call me, 'Lord, Lord,' and don't do the things which I say? <sup>6:47</sup>Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like. <sup>6:48</sup>He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock. <sup>6:49</sup>But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."

<sup>7:1</sup>After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum. <sup>7:2</sup>A certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death. <sup>7:3</sup>When he heard about Yeshua, he sent to him Jewish elders, asking him to come and save his servant. <sup>7:4</sup>When they came to Yeshua, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him, <sup>7:5</sup>for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us." <sup>7:6</sup>Yeshua went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof. <sup>7:7</sup>Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed. <sup>7:8</sup>For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, 'Go!' and he goes; and to another, 'Come!' and he comes; and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

<sup>7:9</sup>When Yeshua heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found such great faith, no, not in Israel." <sup>7:10</sup>Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.

<sup>7:11</sup>It happened soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples, along with a great multitude, went with him. <sup>7:12</sup>Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her. <sup>7:13</sup>When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don't cry." <sup>7:14</sup>He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!" <sup>7:15</sup>He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. And he gave him to his mother.

<sup>7:16</sup>Fear took hold of all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us!" and, "God has visited his people!" <sup>7:17</sup>This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.

<sup>7:18</sup>The disciples of Yochanan told him about all these things. <sup>7:19</sup>Yochanan, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Yeshua, saying, "Are you the one who is coming, or should we look for another?" <sup>7:20</sup>When the men had come to him, they said, "Yochanan the Immerser has sent us to you, saying, 'Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?'"

<sup>7:21</sup>In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight. <sup>7:22</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Go and tell Yochanan the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them. <sup>7:23</sup>Blessed is he who finds no occasion for stumbling in me."

<sup>7:24</sup>When Yochanan's messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about Yochanan, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind? <sup>7:25</sup>But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. <sup>7:26</sup>But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet. <sup>7:27</sup>This is he of whom it is written,

'Behold, I send my messenger before your face,

who will prepare your way before you.'<sup>P</sup>

<sup>7:28</sup>"For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than Yochanan the Immerser, yet he who is least in the Kingdom of God is greater than he."

<sup>7:29</sup>When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they declared God to be just, having been immersed with Yochanan's immersion. <sup>7:30</sup>But the Pharisees and the Torah scholars rejected the counsel of God, not being immersed by him themselves.

<sup>7:31</sup><sup>q</sup>"To what then will I liken the people of this generation? What are they like? <sup>7:32</sup>They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, 'We piped to you, and you didn't dance. We mourned, and you didn't weep.' <sup>7:33</sup>For Yochanan the Immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' <sup>7:34</sup>The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!' <sup>7:35</sup>Wisdom is justified by all her children."

<sup>7:36</sup>One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee's house, and sat at the table. <sup>7:37</sup>Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee's house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment. <sup>7:38</sup>Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. <sup>7:39</sup>Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."

He said, "Rabbi, say on."

<sup>7:41</sup>"A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty. <sup>7:42</sup>When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?"

<sup>7:43</sup>Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most."

He said to him, "You have judged correctly." <sup>7:44</sup>Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head. <sup>7:45</sup>You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet. <sup>7:46</sup>You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment. <sup>7:47</sup>Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."

<sup>7:49</sup>Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

<sup>7:50</sup>He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

<sup>8:1</sup>It happened soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, proclaiming and bringing the good news of the Kingdom of God. With him were the twelve, <sup>8:2</sup>and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Miriam who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out; <sup>8:3</sup>and Yochanah, the wife of Kuza, Herod's steward; Shoshanah; and many others; who served them<sup>r</sup> from their possessions. <sup>8:4</sup>When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable. <sup>8:5</sup>"The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell along the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it. <sup>8:6</sup>Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture. <sup>8:7</sup>Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it. <sup>8:8</sup>Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"

<sup>8:10</sup>He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that 'seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand." <sup>8:11</sup>Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God. <sup>8:12</sup>Those along the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved. <sup>8:13</sup>Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, then fall away in time of temptation. <sup>8:14</sup>That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity. <sup>8:15</sup>That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.

<sup>8:16</sup>"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light. <sup>8:17</sup>For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light. <sup>8:18</sup>Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."

<sup>8:19</sup>His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd. <sup>8:20</sup>It was told him by some saying, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."

<sup>8:21</sup>But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."

<sup>8:22</sup>Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out. <sup>8:23</sup>But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. <sup>8:24</sup>They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm. <sup>8:25</sup>He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?" <sup>8:26</sup>They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.

<sup>8:27</sup>When Yeshua stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city who had demons for a long time met him. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs. <sup>8:28</sup>When he saw Yeshua, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Yeshua, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!" <sup>8:29</sup>For Yeshua was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.

He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him. <sup>8:31</sup>They begged him that he would not command them to go into the abyss. <sup>8:32</sup>Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them. <sup>8:33</sup>The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned. <sup>8:34</sup>When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.

<sup>8:35</sup>People went out to see what had happened. They came to Yeshua, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at Yeshua's feet, clothed and in his right mind; and they were afraid. <sup>8:36</sup>Those who saw it told them how he who had been possessed by demons was healed. <sup>8:37</sup>All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned. <sup>8:38</sup>But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Yeshua sent him away, saying, <sup>8:39</sup>"Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Yeshua had done for him.

<sup>8:40</sup>It happened, when Yeshua returned, that the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him. <sup>8:41</sup>Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Yeshua's feet, and begged him to come into his house, <sup>8:42</sup>for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes pressed against him. <sup>8:43</sup>A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any, <sup>8:44</sup>came behind him, and touched the fringe<sup>u</sup> of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped. <sup>8:45</sup>Yeshua said, "Who touched me?"

When all denied it, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'"

<sup>8:46</sup>But Yeshua said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me." <sup>8:47</sup>When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately. <sup>8:48</sup>He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."

<sup>8:49</sup>While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue's house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don't trouble the Rabbi."

<sup>8:50</sup>But Yeshua hearing it, answered him, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

<sup>8:51</sup>When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, Yochanan, Jacob, the father of the child, and her mother. <sup>8:52</sup>All were weeping and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."

<sup>8:53</sup>They were ridiculing him, knowing that she was dead. <sup>8:54</sup>But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Child, arise!" <sup>8:55</sup>Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat. <sup>8:56</sup>Her parents were amazed, but he commanded them to tell no one what had been done.

<sup>9:1</sup>He called the twelve<sup>v</sup> together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases. <sup>9:2</sup>He sent them forth to proclaim the Kingdom of God, and to heal the sick. <sup>9:3</sup>He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey—neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece. <sup>9:4</sup>Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there. <sup>9:5</sup>As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."

<sup>9:6</sup>They departed, and went throughout the villages, proclaiming the Good News, and healing everywhere. <sup>9:7</sup>Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that Yochanan had risen from the dead, <sup>9:8</sup>and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again. <sup>9:9</sup>Herod said, "Yochanan I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him. <sup>9:10</sup>The emissaries, when they had returned, told him what things they had done.

He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida. <sup>9:11</sup>But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the Kingdom of God, and he cured those who needed healing. <sup>9:12</sup>The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get food, for we are here in a deserted place."

<sup>9:13</sup>But he said to them, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people." <sup>9:14</sup>For they were about five thousand men.

He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each." <sup>9:15</sup>They did so, and made them all sit down. <sup>9:16</sup>He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude. <sup>9:17</sup>They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.

<sup>9:18</sup>It happened, as he was praying alone, that the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"

<sup>9:19</sup>They answered, "'Yochanan the Immerser,' but others say, 'Elijah,' and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."

<sup>9:20</sup>He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?"

Peter answered, "The Messiah of God."

<sup>9:21</sup>But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one, <sup>9:22</sup>saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."

<sup>9:23</sup>He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross,<sup>w</sup> and follow me. <sup>9:24</sup>For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it. <sup>9:25</sup>For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self? <sup>9:26</sup>For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in his glory, and the glory of the Father, and of the holy angels. <sup>9:27</sup>But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the Kingdom of God."

<sup>9:28</sup>It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, Yochanan, and Jacob, and went up onto the mountain to pray. <sup>9:29</sup>As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling. <sup>9:30</sup>Behold, two men were talking with him, who were Moses and Elijah, <sup>9:31</sup>who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure,<sup>x</sup> which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.

<sup>9:32</sup>Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him. <sup>9:33</sup>It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Yeshua, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let's make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.

<sup>9:34</sup>While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud. <sup>9:35</sup>A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!" <sup>9:36</sup>When the voice came, Yeshua was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.

<sup>9:37</sup>It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met him. <sup>9:38</sup>Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Rabbi, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child. <sup>9:39</sup>Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely. <sup>9:40</sup>I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."

<sup>9:41</sup>Yeshua answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."

<sup>9:42</sup>While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Yeshua rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father. <sup>9:43</sup>They were all astonished at the majesty of God.

But while all were marveling at all the things which Yeshua did, he said to his disciples, <sup>9:44</sup>“Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men.” <sup>9:45</sup>But they didn’t understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

<sup>9:46</sup>There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest. <sup>9:47</sup>Yeshua, perceiving the reasoning of their hearts, took a little child, and set him by his side, <sup>9:48</sup>and said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great.”

<sup>9:49</sup>Yochanan answered, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn’t follow with us.”

<sup>9:50</sup>Yeshua said to him, “Don’t forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us.”

<sup>9:51</sup>It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem, <sup>9:52</sup>and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him. <sup>9:53</sup>They didn’t receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem. <sup>9:54</sup>When his disciples, Jacob and Yochanan, saw this, they said, “Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?”

<sup>9:55</sup>But he turned and rebuked them, “You don’t know of what kind of spirit you are. <sup>9:56</sup>For the Son of Man didn’t come to destroy men’s lives, but to save them.”

They went to another village. <sup>9:57</sup>As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, “I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord.”

<sup>9:58</sup>Yeshua said to him, “The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head.”

<sup>9:59</sup>He said to another, “Follow me!”

But he said, “Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father.”

<sup>9:60</sup>But Yeshua said to him, “Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the Kingdom of God.”

<sup>9:61</sup>Another also said, “I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to say good-bye to those who are at my house.”

<sup>9:62</sup>But Yeshua said to him, “No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God.”

<sup>10:1</sup>Now after these things, the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of him<sup>y</sup> into every city and place, where he was about to come. <sup>10:2</sup>Then he said to them, “The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest. <sup>10:3</sup>Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs among wolves. <sup>10:4</sup>Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way. <sup>10:5</sup>Into whatever house you enter, first say, ‘Peace be to this house.’ <sup>10:6</sup>If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. <sup>10:7</sup>Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don’t go from house to house. <sup>10:8</sup>Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you. <sup>10:9</sup>Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, ‘The Kingdom of God has come near to you.’ <sup>10:10</sup>But into whatever city you enter, and they don’t receive you, go out into its streets and say, <sup>10:11</sup>‘Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the Kingdom of God has come near to you.’ <sup>10:12</sup>I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.”

<sup>10:13</sup>“Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. <sup>10:14</sup>But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you. <sup>10:15</sup>You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Sheol.<sup>z</sup> <sup>10:16</sup>Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."

<sup>10:17</sup>The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name!"

<sup>10:18</sup>He said to them, "I saw Satan having fallen like lightning from heaven.

<sup>10:19</sup>Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you. <sup>10:20</sup>Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."

<sup>10:21</sup>In that same hour Yeshua rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."

<sup>10:22</sup>Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whomever the Son desires to reveal him."

<sup>10:23</sup>Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see, <sup>10:24</sup>for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."

<sup>10:25</sup>Behold, a certain Torah scholar stood up and tested him, saying, "Rabbi, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>10:26</sup>He said to him, "What is written in the Torah? How do you read it?"

<sup>10:27</sup>He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind,<sup>a</sup> and your neighbor as yourself."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>10:28</sup>He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

<sup>10:29</sup>But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Yeshua, "Who is my neighbor?"

<sup>10:30</sup>Yeshua answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. <sup>10:31</sup>By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side. <sup>10:32</sup>In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side.

<sup>10:33</sup>But a certain Samaritan, as he traveled, came where he was. When he saw him, he moved with compassion, <sup>10:34</sup>came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. <sup>10:35</sup>On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, 'Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.'

<sup>10:36</sup>Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"

<sup>10:37</sup>He said, "He who showed mercy on him."

Then Yeshua said to him, "Go and do likewise."

<sup>10:38</sup>It happened as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house. <sup>10:39</sup>She had a sister called Miriam, who also sat at Yeshua's feet, and heard his word. <sup>10:40</sup>But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."

<sup>11:1</sup>It happened, that when he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as Yochanan also taught his disciples."

<sup>11:2</sup>He said to them, "When you pray, say, 'Our Father in heaven, may your name be kept holy. May your Kingdom come. May your will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

<sup>11:4</sup>Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us.

but deliver us from the evil one.”

<sup>11:5</sup>He said to them, “Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,’ <sup>11:6</sup>for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,’ <sup>11:7</sup>and he from within will answer and say, ‘Don’t bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can’t get up and give it to you?’ <sup>11:8</sup>I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.

<sup>11:9</sup>“I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. <sup>11:10</sup>For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.

<sup>11:11</sup>“Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won’t give him a snake instead of a fish, will he? <sup>11:12</sup>Or if he asks for an egg, he won’t give him a scorpion, will he? <sup>11:13</sup>If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?”

<sup>11:14</sup>He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. It happened, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled. <sup>11:15</sup>But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons.” <sup>11:16</sup>Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven. <sup>11:17</sup>But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls. <sup>11:18</sup>If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? For you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul. <sup>11:19</sup>But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your children cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges. <sup>11:20</sup>But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then the Kingdom of God has come to you.

<sup>11:22</sup>But when someone stronger attacks him and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.

<sup>11:23</sup>“He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn’t gather with me scatters.

<sup>11:24</sup>The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, ‘I will turn back to my house from which I came out.’ <sup>11:25</sup>When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order. <sup>11:26</sup>Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first.”

<sup>11:27</sup>It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, “Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!”

<sup>11:28</sup>But he said, “On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it.”

<sup>11:29</sup>When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, “This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet. <sup>11:30</sup>For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation. <sup>11:31</sup>The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here. <sup>11:32</sup>The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the proclaiming of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.

<sup>11:33</sup>“No one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar or under a basket, but on a stand, that those who come in may see the light. <sup>11:34</sup>The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body is also full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness. <sup>11:35</sup>Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn’t darkness. <sup>11:36</sup>If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light.”

<sup>11:37</sup>Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table. <sup>11:38</sup>When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner. <sup>11:39</sup>The Lord said to him, “Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness. <sup>11:40</sup>You foolish ones, didn’t he who made the outside make the inside also? <sup>11:41</sup>But give for gifts to the needy those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you. <sup>11:42</sup>But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe the mint and rue and every herb, but you bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to have left the other undone. <sup>11:43</sup>Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces. <sup>11:44</sup>Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don’t know it.”

<sup>11:46</sup>He said, “Woe to you Torah scholars also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won’t even lift one finger to help carry those burdens. <sup>11:47</sup>Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. <sup>11:48</sup>So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs. <sup>11:49</sup>Therefore also the wisdom of God said, ‘I will send to them prophets and emissaries; and some of them they will kill and persecute, <sup>11:50</sup>that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; <sup>11:51</sup>from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary.’ Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation. <sup>11:52</sup>Woe to you Torah scholars! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn’t enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered.”

<sup>11:53</sup>As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him; <sup>11:54</sup>lying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.

<sup>12:1</sup>Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, “Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. <sup>12:2</sup>But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known. <sup>12:3</sup>Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner rooms will be proclaimed on the housetops.

<sup>12:4</sup>“I tell you, my friends, don’t be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. <sup>12:5</sup>But I will warn you whom you should fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehinnom.<sup>c</sup> Yes, I tell you, fear him.

<sup>12:8</sup>“I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God; <sup>12:9</sup>but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God. <sup>12:10</sup>Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. <sup>12:11</sup>When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don’t be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say; <sup>12:12</sup>for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say.”

<sup>12:14</sup>But he said to him, “Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?” <sup>12:15</sup>He said to them, “Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man’s life doesn’t consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses.”

<sup>12:16</sup>He spoke a parable to them, saying,

"The ground of a certain rich man brought forth abundantly. <sup>12:17</sup>He reasoned within himself, saying, 'What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?' <sup>12:18</sup>He said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. <sup>12:19</sup>I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."'

<sup>12:20</sup>"But God said to him, 'You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared—whose will they be?' <sup>12:21</sup>So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."

<sup>12:22</sup>He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear. <sup>12:23</sup>Life is more than food, and the body is more than clothing. <sup>12:24</sup>Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds! <sup>12:25</sup>Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height? <sup>12:26</sup>If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest? <sup>12:27</sup>Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. <sup>12:28</sup>But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith? <sup>12:29</sup>Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious. <sup>12:30</sup>For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things. <sup>12:31</sup>But seek God's Kingdom, and all these things will be added to you. <sup>12:32</sup>Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the Kingdom. <sup>12:33</sup>Sell that which you have, and give gifts to the needy. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys. <sup>12:34</sup>For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

<sup>12:35</sup>"Let your waist be dressed and your lamps burning. <sup>12:36</sup>Be like men watching for their lord, when he returns from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him. <sup>12:37</sup>Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most certainly I tell you, that he will dress himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them. <sup>12:38</sup>They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so. <sup>12:39</sup>But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into. <sup>12:40</sup>Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."

<sup>12:41</sup>Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"

<sup>12:42</sup>The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times? <sup>12:43</sup>Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes. <sup>12:44</sup>Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has. <sup>12:45</sup>But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord delays his coming,' and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken, <sup>12:46</sup>then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him in two, and place his portion with the unfaithful. <sup>12:47</sup>That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes, <sup>12:48</sup>but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whomever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom much was entrusted, of him more will be asked.

<sup>12:49</sup>"I came to throw fire on the earth. I wish it were already kindled. <sup>12:50</sup>But I have a immersion to be immersed with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished! <sup>12:51</sup>Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division. <sup>12:52</sup>For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three. <sup>12:53</sup>They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>12:54</sup>He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, 'A shower is coming,' and so it happens. <sup>12:55</sup>When a south wind blows, you say, 'There will be a scorching heat,' and it happens. <sup>12:56</sup>You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time? <sup>12:57</sup>Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right? <sup>12:58</sup>For when you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be released from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison. <sup>12:59</sup>I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last penny."<sup>f</sup>

<sup>13:1</sup>Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices. <sup>13:2</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all the other Galileans, because they suffered such things? <sup>13:3</sup>I tell you, no, but unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way. <sup>13:4</sup>Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem? <sup>13:5</sup>I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."

<sup>13:6</sup>He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none. <sup>13:7</sup>He said to the vine dresser, 'Behold, these three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?' <sup>13:8</sup>He answered, 'Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it. <sup>13:9</sup>If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.'"

<sup>13:10</sup>He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. <sup>13:11</sup>Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way straighten herself up. <sup>13:12</sup>When Yeshua saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity." <sup>13:13</sup>He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.

<sup>13:14</sup>The ruler of the synagogue, being indignant because Yeshua had healed on the Sabbath, said to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"

<sup>13:15</sup>Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water? <sup>13:16</sup>Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, be freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"

<sup>13:17</sup>As he said these things, all his adversaries were disappointed, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.

<sup>13:18</sup>He said, "What is the Kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it? <sup>13:19</sup>It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and put in his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in its branches."

<sup>13:20</sup>Again he said, "To what shall I compare the Kingdom of God? <sup>13:21</sup>It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three measures<sup>g</sup> of flour, until it was all leavened."

<sup>13:22</sup>He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem. <sup>13:23</sup>One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?"

He said to them, <sup>13:24</sup>"Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able. <sup>13:25</sup>When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us!' then he will answer and tell you, 'I don't know you or where you come from.’ <sup>13:26</sup>Then you will begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.’ <sup>13:27</sup>He will say, ‘I tell you, I don’t know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.’ <sup>13:28</sup>There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in the Kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrown outside. <sup>13:29</sup>They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the Kingdom of God. <sup>13:30</sup>Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last.”

<sup>13:32</sup>He said to them, “Go and tell that fox, ‘Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission.’ <sup>13:33</sup>Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can’t be that a prophet perish outside of Jerusalem.’

<sup>13:34</sup>“Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused! <sup>13:35</sup>Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, ‘Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!’”<sup>h</sup>

<sup>14:1</sup>It happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him. <sup>14:2</sup>Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him. <sup>14:3</sup>Yeshua, answering, spoke to the Torah scholars and Pharisees, saying, “Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?”

<sup>14:4</sup>But they were silent.

He took him, and healed him, and let him go. <sup>14:5</sup>He answered them, “Which of you, if your son<sup>i</sup> or an ox fell into a well, wouldn’t immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?”

<sup>14:7</sup>He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them, <sup>14:8</sup>“When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don’t sit in the best seat, since perhaps someone more honorable than you might be invited by him, <sup>14:9</sup>and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, ‘Make room for this person.’ Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place. <sup>14:10</sup>But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, ‘Friend, move up higher.’ Then you will be honored in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. <sup>14:11</sup>For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted.”

<sup>14:12</sup>He also said to the one who had invited him, “When you make a dinner or a supper, don’t call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back. <sup>14:13</sup>But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind; <sup>14:14</sup>and you will be blessed, because they don’t have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous.”

<sup>14:15</sup>When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, “Blessed is he who will feast in the Kingdom of God!”

<sup>14:16</sup>But he said to him, “A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people. <sup>14:17</sup>He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, ‘Come, for everything is ready now.’ <sup>14:18</sup>They all as one began to make excuses.

“The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.’

<sup>14:19</sup>“Another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.’

<sup>14:20</sup>“Another said, ‘I have married a wife, and therefore I can’t come.’

<sup>14:21</sup>“That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, ‘Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.’

<sup>14:22</sup>“The servant said, ‘Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.'

<sup>14:23</sup>"The lord said to the servant, 'Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. <sup>14:24</sup>For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.'"

<sup>14:25</sup>Now great multitudes were going with him. He turned and said to them, <sup>14:26</sup>"If anyone comes to me, and doesn't disregard<sup>j</sup> his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple. <sup>14:27</sup>Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple. <sup>14:28</sup>For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it? <sup>14:29</sup>Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him, <sup>14:30</sup>saying, 'This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.' <sup>14:31</sup>Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand? <sup>14:32</sup>Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace. <sup>14:33</sup>So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple. <sup>14:34</sup>Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it? <sup>14:35</sup>It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."

<sup>15:1</sup>Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him. <sup>15:2</sup>The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

<sup>15:3</sup>He told them this parable. <sup>15:4</sup>"Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it? <sup>15:5</sup>When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing. <sup>15:6</sup>When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!' <sup>15:7</sup>I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.

<sup>15:8</sup>Or what woman, if she had ten drachma<sup>k</sup> coins, if she lost one drachma coin, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it? <sup>15:9</sup>When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.' <sup>15:10</sup>Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."

<sup>15:11</sup>He said, "A certain man had two sons.

<sup>15:12</sup>The younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of your property.' He divided his livelihood between them.

<sup>15:13</sup>Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and traveled into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living. <sup>15:14</sup>When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need. <sup>15:15</sup>He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs. <sup>15:16</sup>He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any. <sup>15:17</sup>But when he came to himself he said, 'How many hired servants of my father's have bread enough to spare, and I'm dying with hunger! <sup>15:18</sup>I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.

<sup>15:19</sup>I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants.'" <sup>15:20</sup>"He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him. <sup>15:21</sup>The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

<sup>15:22</sup>"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet. <sup>15:23</sup>Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate; <sup>15:24</sup>for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.' They began to celebrate.

<sup>15:25</sup>"Now his elder son was in the field. As he came near to the house, he heard music and dancing. <sup>15:26</sup>He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on. <sup>15:27</sup>He said to him, 'Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him back safe and healthy.' <sup>15:28</sup>But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him. <sup>15:29</sup>But he answered his father, 'Behold, these many years I have served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, but you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends. <sup>15:30</sup>But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.'

<sup>15:31</sup>"He said to him, 'Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours. <sup>15:32</sup>But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.'"

<sup>16:1</sup>He also said to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man who had a manager. An accusation was made to him that this man was wasting his possessions. <sup>16:2</sup>He called him, and said to him, 'What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.'

<sup>16:3</sup>"The manager said within himself, 'What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg. <sup>16:4</sup>I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.' <sup>16:5</sup>Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, 'How much do you owe to my lord?' <sup>16:6</sup>He said, 'A hundred batos<sup>1</sup> of oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.' <sup>16:7</sup>Then he said to another, 'How much do you owe?' He said, 'A hundred cors<sup>m</sup> of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, and write eighty.'

means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents. <sup>16:10</sup>He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is dishonest in a very little is also dishonest in much. <sup>16:11</sup>If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches? <sup>16:12</sup>If you have not been faithful in that which is another's, who will give you that which is your own? <sup>16:13</sup>No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and mammon<sup>n</sup>."

<sup>16:14</sup>The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him. <sup>16:15</sup>He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God. <sup>16:16</sup>The Torah and the Prophets were until Yochanan. From that time the Good News of the Kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it. <sup>16:17</sup>But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the Torah to become void. <sup>16:18</sup>Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is divorced from a husband commits adultery.

<sup>16:19</sup>"Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day. <sup>16:20</sup>A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores, <sup>16:21</sup>and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores. <sup>16:22</sup>It happened that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels to Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried. <sup>16:23</sup>In Sheol<sup>o</sup>, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom. <sup>16:24</sup>He cried and said, 'Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.'

<sup>16:25</sup>“But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in the same way, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish. <sup>16:26</sup>Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that none may cross over from there to us.’

<sup>16:27</sup>“He said, ‘I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father’s house; <sup>16:28</sup>for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, so they won’t also come into this place of torment.’

<sup>16:29</sup>“But Abraham said to him, ‘They have Moses and the Prophets. Let them listen to them.’

<sup>16:30</sup>“He said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.’

<sup>16:31</sup>“He said to him, ‘If they don’t listen to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.’”

<sup>17:1</sup>He said to the disciples, “It is impossible that no occasions of stumbling should come, but woe to him through whom they come! <sup>17:2</sup>It would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble. <sup>17:3</sup>Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him. <sup>17:4</sup>If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times returns, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”

<sup>17:6</sup>The Lord said, “If you had faith like a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, ‘Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you. <sup>17:7</sup>But who is there among you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, ‘Come immediately and sit down at the table,’ <sup>17:8</sup>and will not rather tell him, ‘Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you shall eat and drink?’ <sup>17:9</sup>Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not. <sup>17:10</sup>Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say,

‘We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.’”

<sup>17:11</sup>It happened as he was on his way to Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee. <sup>17:12</sup>As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood at a distance. <sup>17:13</sup>They lifted up their voices, saying, “Yeshua, Master, have mercy on us!”

<sup>17:14</sup>When he saw them, he said to them, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.” It happened that as they went, they were cleansed. <sup>17:15</sup>One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice. <sup>17:16</sup>He fell on his face at Yeshua’s feet, giving him thanks; and he was a Samaritan. <sup>17:17</sup>Yeshua answered, “Weren’t the ten cleansed? But where are the nine? <sup>17:18</sup>Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?” <sup>17:19</sup>Then he said to him, “Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you.”

<sup>17:20</sup>Being asked by the Pharisees when the Kingdom of God would come, he answered them, “The Kingdom of God doesn’t come with observation; <sup>17:21</sup>neither will they say, ‘Look, here!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ for behold, the Kingdom of God is within you.”

<sup>17:22</sup>He said to the disciples, “The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it. <sup>17:23</sup>They will tell you, ‘Look, here!’ or ‘Look, there!’ Don’t go away, nor follow after them, <sup>17:24</sup>for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day. <sup>17:25</sup>But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation. <sup>17:26</sup>As it happened in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man. <sup>17:27</sup>They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ship, and the flood came, and destroyed them all. <sup>17:28</sup>Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built; <sup>17:29</sup>but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all. <sup>17:30</sup>It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed. <sup>17:31</sup>In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back. <sup>17:32</sup>Remember Lot's wife! <sup>17:33</sup>Whoever seeks to save his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it. <sup>17:34</sup>I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left. <sup>17:35</sup>There will be two grinding grain together. One will be taken, and the other will be left." <sup>17:36p</sup>

He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

<sup>18:1</sup>He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up, <sup>18:2</sup>saying, "There was a judge in a certain city who didn't fear God, and didn't respect man. <sup>18:3</sup>A widow was in that city, and she often came to him, saying, 'Defend me from my adversary!' <sup>18:4</sup>He wouldn't for a while, but afterward he said to himself, 'Though I neither fear God, nor respect man, <sup>18:5</sup>yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.'"

<sup>18:6</sup>The Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says. <sup>18:7</sup>Won't God avenge his chosen ones, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them? <sup>18:8</sup>I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"

<sup>18:9</sup>He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others. <sup>18:10</sup>"Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector. <sup>18:11</sup>The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: 'God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. <sup>18:12</sup>I fast twice a week. I give tithes of all that I get.' <sup>18:13</sup>But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, 'God, be merciful to me, a sinner!' <sup>18:14</sup>I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."

<sup>18:15</sup>They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them. <sup>18:16</sup>Yeshua summoned them, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. <sup>18:17</sup>Most certainly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive the Kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."

<sup>18:18</sup>A certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Rabbi, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?"

<sup>18:19</sup>Yeshua asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one—God. <sup>18:20</sup>You know the commandments: 'Don't commit adultery,' 'Don't murder,' 'Don't steal,' 'Don't give false testimony,' 'Honor your father and your mother.'"<sup>q</sup>

<sup>18:21</sup>He said, "I have observed all these things from my youth up."

<sup>18:22</sup>When Yeshua heard these things, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."

<sup>18:23</sup>But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.

<sup>18:24</sup>Yeshua, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the Kingdom of God! <sup>18:25</sup>For it is easier for a camel<sup>f</sup> to enter in through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the Kingdom of God."

<sup>18:26</sup>Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"

<sup>18:27</sup>But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."

<sup>18:29</sup>He said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the Kingdom of God's sake, <sup>18:30</sup>who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life."

<sup>18:31</sup>He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed. <sup>18:32</sup>For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on. <sup>18:33</sup>They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."

<sup>18:34</sup>They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said. <sup>18:35</sup>It happened, as he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging. <sup>18:36</sup>Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant. <sup>18:37</sup>They told him that Yeshua of Nazareth was passing by. <sup>18:38</sup>He cried out, "Yeshua, you son of David, have mercy on me!" <sup>18:39</sup>Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"

<sup>18:40</sup>Standing still, Yeshua commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him, <sup>18:41</sup>"What do you want me to do?"

He said, "Lord, that I may see again."

<sup>18:42</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."

<sup>18:43</sup>Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

<sup>19:1</sup>He entered and was passing through Jericho. <sup>19:2</sup>There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich. <sup>19:3</sup>He was trying to see who Yeshua was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short. <sup>19:4</sup>He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way. <sup>19:5</sup>When Yeshua came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house." <sup>19:6</sup>He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully. <sup>19:7</sup>When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."

<sup>19:8</sup>Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."

<sup>19:9</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham. <sup>19:10</sup>For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."

<sup>19:11</sup>As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the Kingdom of God would be revealed immediately. <sup>19:12</sup>He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. <sup>19:13</sup>He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten mina coins,<sup>s</sup> and told them, 'Conduct business until I come.' <sup>19:14</sup>But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, 'We don't want this man to reign over us.'

<sup>19:15</sup>"It happened when he had come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business. <sup>19:16</sup>The first came before him, saying, 'Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.'

<sup>19:17</sup>"He said to him, 'Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful with very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.'

<sup>19:19</sup>"So he said to him, 'And you are to be over five cities.' <sup>19:20</sup>Another came, saying, 'Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief, <sup>19:21</sup>for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which you didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.'

<sup>19:22</sup>"He said to him, 'Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow. <sup>19:23</sup>Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and at my coming, I might have earned interest on it?' <sup>19:24</sup>He said to those who stood by, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.'

<sup>19:25</sup>"They said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas!' <sup>19:26</sup>For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him. <sup>19:27</sup>But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.”<sup>19:28</sup> Having said these things, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.

<sup>19:29</sup> It happened, when he drew near to Bethsphage<sup>t</sup> and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples,<sup>19:30</sup> saying, “Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie it, and bring it.”<sup>19:31</sup> “If anyone asks you, ‘Why are you untying it?’ say to him: ‘The Lord needs it.’”

<sup>19:32</sup> Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them.<sup>19:33</sup> As they were untying the colt, its owners said to them, “Why are you untying the colt?”<sup>19:34</sup> They said, “The Lord needs it.”<sup>19:35</sup> They brought it to Yeshua. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Yeshua on them.<sup>19:36</sup> As he went, they spread their cloaks in the way.<sup>19:37</sup> As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,<sup>19:38</sup> saying, “Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord!<sup>u</sup> Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!”

<sup>19:40</sup> He answered them, “I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out.”

<sup>19:41</sup> When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it,<sup>19:42</sup> saying, “If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.”<sup>19:43</sup> “For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side,<sup>19:44</sup> and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn’t know the time of your visitation.”

<sup>19:45</sup> He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,<sup>19:46</sup> saying to them, “It is written, ‘My house is a house of prayer,’<sup>v</sup> but you have made it a

<sup>19:47</sup> He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him.<sup>19:48</sup> They couldn’t find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.

<sup>20:1</sup> It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the Good News, that the <sup>x</sup>priests and scribes came to him with the elders.<sup>20:2</sup> They asked him, “Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?”

<sup>20:3</sup> He answered them, “I also will ask you one question. Tell me: <sup>20:4</sup>the immersion of Yochanan, was it from heaven, or from men?”

<sup>20:5</sup> They reasoned with themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why didn’t you believe him?’<sup>20:6</sup> But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that Yochanan was a prophet.”<sup>20:7</sup> They answered that they didn’t know where it was from.

<sup>20:8</sup> Yeshua said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things.”

<sup>20:9</sup> He began to tell the people this parable.

<sup>20:11</sup> “He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.”<sup>20:12</sup> “He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out.”

<sup>20:13</sup> “The lord of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.’”

<sup>20:14</sup> “But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let’s kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.’”<sup>20:15</sup> “They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them? <sup>20:16</sup>He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.”

When they heard it, they said, “May it never be!”

<sup>20:17</sup>But he looked at them, and said, “Then what is this that is written,

‘The stone which the builders rejected, the same was made the chief cornerstone?’<sup>z</sup>

<sup>20:18</sup>Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whomever it falls on to dust.”

<sup>20:19</sup>The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on him that very hour, but they feared the people—for they knew he had spoken this parable against them. <sup>20:20</sup>They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the power and authority of the governor.

<sup>20:21</sup>They asked him, “Rabbi, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren’t partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. <sup>20:22</sup>Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”

<sup>20:23</sup>But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, “Why do you test me? <sup>20:24</sup>Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?”

They answered, “Caesar’s.”

<sup>20:25</sup>He said to them, “Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar’s, and to God the things that are God’s.”

<sup>20:26</sup>They weren’t able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent. <sup>20:27</sup>Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection. <sup>20:28</sup>They asked him, “Rabbi, Moses wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother. <sup>20:29</sup>There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless. <sup>20:30</sup>The second took her as wife, and he died childless. <sup>20:31</sup>The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died. <sup>20:32</sup>Afterward the woman also died. <sup>20:33</sup>Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife.”

<sup>20:34</sup>Yeshua said to them, “The children of this age marry, and are given in marriage.

<sup>20:35</sup>But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.

<sup>20:36</sup>For they can’t die any more, for they are like the angels, and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. <sup>20:37</sup>But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord ‘The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’<sup>a</sup> <sup>20:38</sup>Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him.”

<sup>20:39</sup>Some of the scribes answered, “Rabbi, you speak well.” <sup>20:40</sup>They didn’t dare to ask him any more questions.

<sup>20:41</sup>He said to them, “Why do they say that the Messiah is David’s son? <sup>20:42</sup>David himself says in the scroll of Psalms,

‘The Lord said to my Lord, “Sit at my right hand,

<sup>20:43</sup>until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.’<sup>b</sup>

<sup>20:45</sup>In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples, <sup>20:46</sup>“Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts; <sup>20:47</sup>who devour widows’ houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation.”

<sup>21:1</sup>He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.

<sup>21:2</sup>He saw a certain poor widow casting in two small brass coins.<sup>c</sup> <sup>21:3</sup>He said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them, <sup>21:4</sup>for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, put in all that she had to live on.”

<sup>21:5</sup>As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said, <sup>21:6</sup>“As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down.”

<sup>21:7</sup>They asked him, “Rabbi, so when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?”

<sup>21:8</sup>He said, “Watch out that you don’t get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, ‘I am he<sup>d</sup>,’ and, ‘The time is at hand.’ Therefore don’t follow them. <sup>21:9</sup>When you hear of wars and disturbances, don’t be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won’t come immediately.”

<sup>21:10</sup>Then he said to them, “Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. <sup>21:11</sup>There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven.

<sup>21:12</sup>But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name’s sake. <sup>21:13</sup>It will turn out as a testimony for you. <sup>21:14</sup>Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer, <sup>21:15</sup>for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict. <sup>21:16</sup>You will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. They will cause some of you to be put to death. <sup>21:17</sup>You will be hated by all men for my name’s sake. <sup>21:18</sup>And not a hair of your head will perish.

<sup>21:20</sup>“But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand. <sup>21:21</sup>Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let those who are in the midst of her depart. Let those who are in the country not enter therein. <sup>21:22</sup>For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled. <sup>21:23</sup>Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people. <sup>21:24</sup>They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled. <sup>21:25</sup>There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves; <sup>21:26</sup>men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken. <sup>21:27</sup>Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. <sup>21:28</sup>But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near.”

<sup>21:29</sup>He told them a parable. “See the fig tree, and all the trees. <sup>21:30</sup>When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near. <sup>21:31</sup>Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the Kingdom of God is near. <sup>21:32</sup>Most certainly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished. <sup>21:33</sup>Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.

<sup>21:34</sup>“So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly. <sup>21:35</sup>For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth. <sup>21:36</sup>Therefore be watchful all the time, praying that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man.”

<sup>21:37</sup>Every day Yeshua was teaching in the temple, and every night he would go out and spend the night on the mountain that is called Olivet. <sup>21:38</sup>All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple to hear him.

<sup>22:1</sup>Now the feast of unleavened bread, which is called the Passover, drew near. <sup>22:2</sup>The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people. <sup>22:3</sup>Satan entered into Judah, who was surnamed Iscariot, who was numbered with the twelve. <sup>22:4</sup>He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them. <sup>22:5</sup>They were glad, and agreed to give him money. <sup>22:6</sup>He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude. <sup>22:7</sup>The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed. <sup>22:8</sup>He sent Peter and Yochanan, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat.”

<sup>22:9</sup>They said to him, “Where do you want

<sup>d</sup>21:8 or, I AM

us to prepare?"

<sup>22:10</sup>He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters. <sup>22:11</sup>Tell the master of the house, 'The Rabbi says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"' <sup>22:12</sup>He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."

<sup>22:13</sup>They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover. <sup>22:14</sup>When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve emissaries. <sup>22:15</sup>He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, <sup>22:16</sup>for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the Kingdom of God."

<sup>22:17</sup>He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves, <sup>22:18</sup>for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until the Kingdom of God comes."

<sup>22:19</sup>He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me." <sup>22:20</sup>Likewise, he took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, which is poured out for you. <sup>22:21</sup>But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table. <sup>22:22</sup>The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"

<sup>22:23</sup>They began to question among themselves, which of them it was who would do this thing. <sup>22:24</sup>There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest. <sup>22:25</sup>He said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called 'benefactors.' <sup>22:26</sup>But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the younger, and one who is governing, as one who serves. <sup>22:27</sup>For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves. <sup>22:28</sup>But you are those who have continued with me in my trials. <sup>22:29</sup>I confer on you a kingdom, even as my Father conferred on me, <sup>22:30</sup>that you may eat and drink at my table in my Kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

<sup>22:31</sup>The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat, <sup>22:32</sup>but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers<sup>e</sup>."

<sup>22:33</sup>He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"

<sup>22:34</sup>He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today until you deny that you know me three times."

<sup>22:35</sup>He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?"

They said, "Nothing."

<sup>22:36</sup>Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword. <sup>22:37</sup>For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: 'He was counted with transgressors.'<sup>f</sup> For that which concerns me has an end."

He said to them, "That is enough."

<sup>22:39</sup>He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him. <sup>22:40</sup>When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation."

<sup>22:41</sup>He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed, <sup>22:42</sup>saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."

<sup>22:43</sup>An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. <sup>22:44</sup>Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.

<sup>22:45</sup>When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief, <sup>22:46</sup>and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."

<sup>22:47</sup>While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judah, one of the twelve, was leading them. He came near to Yeshua to kiss him. <sup>22:48</sup>But Yeshua said to him, “Judah, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?”

<sup>e</sup>22:32 The word for "brothers" here may be also correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>22:49</sup>When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said to him, “Lord, shall we strike with the sword?” <sup>22:50</sup>A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

<sup>22:51</sup>But Yeshua answered, “Let me at least do this”—and he touched his ear, and healed him. <sup>22:52</sup>Yeshua said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs? <sup>22:53</sup>When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn’t stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness.”

<sup>22:54</sup>They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest’s house. But Peter followed from a distance. <sup>22:55</sup>When they had kindled a fire in the middle of the courtyard, and had sat down together, Peter sat among them. <sup>22:56</sup>A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, “This man also was with him.”

<sup>22:58</sup>After a little while someone else saw him, and said, “You also are one of them!”

But Peter answered, “Man, I am not!”

<sup>22:59</sup>After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, “Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!”

<sup>22:60</sup>But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you are talking about!” Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. <sup>22:61</sup>The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Then Peter remembered the Lord’s word, how he said to him, “Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times.” <sup>22:62</sup>He went out, and wept bitterly.

<sup>22:63</sup>The men who held Yeshua mocked him and beat him. <sup>22:64</sup>Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, “Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?” <sup>22:65</sup>They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.

<sup>22:66</sup>As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying, <sup>22:67</sup>“If you are the Messiah, tell us.”

But he said to them, “If I tell you, you won’t believe, <sup>22:68</sup>and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go. <sup>22:69</sup>From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.”

<sup>22:70</sup>They all said, “Are you then the Son of God?”

He said to them, “You say it, because I am.”

<sup>22:71</sup>They said, “Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!”

<sup>23:1</sup>The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate. <sup>23:2</sup>They began to accuse him, saying, “We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Messiah, a king.”

<sup>23:3</sup>Pilate asked him, “Are you the King of the Jews?”

He answered him, “So you say.”

<sup>23:4</sup>Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, “I find no basis for a charge against this man.”

<sup>23:5</sup>But they insisted, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place.” <sup>23:6</sup>But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean. <sup>23:7</sup>When he found out that he was in Herod’s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem during those days.

<sup>23:8</sup>Now when Herod saw Yeshua, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him. <sup>23:9</sup>He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers. <sup>23:10</sup>The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him. <sup>23:11</sup>Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate. <sup>23:12</sup>Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.

<sup>23:13</sup>Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people, <sup>23:14</sup>and said to them, “You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him. <sup>23:15</sup>Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him. <sup>23:16</sup>I will therefore chastise him and release him."

<sup>23:17</sup>Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast. <sup>23:18</sup>But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!"—<sup>23:19</sup>one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.

<sup>23:20</sup>Then Pilate spoke to them again, wanting to release Yeshua, <sup>23:21</sup>but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!"

<sup>23:22</sup>He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him." <sup>23:23</sup>But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed. <sup>23:24</sup>Pilate decreed that what they asked for should be done. <sup>23:25</sup>He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Yeshua up to their will.

<sup>23:26</sup>When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Yeshua. <sup>23:27</sup>A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him. <sup>23:28</sup>But Yeshua, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children." <sup>23:29</sup>For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' <sup>23:30</sup>Then they will begin to tell the mountains, 'Fall on us!' and tell the hills, 'Cover us.' <sup>23:31</sup>For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"

<sup>23:32</sup>There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death. <sup>23:33</sup>When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.

<sup>23:34</sup>Yeshua said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing."

Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots. <sup>23:35</sup>The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Messiah of God, his chosen one!"

<sup>23:36</sup>The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar, <sup>23:37</sup>and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"

<sup>23:38</sup>An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

<sup>23:39</sup>One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Messiah, save yourself and us!"

<sup>23:40</sup>But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don't you even fear God, seeing you are under the same condemnation?" <sup>23:41</sup>And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong." <sup>23:42</sup>He said to Yeshua, "Lord, remember me when you come into your Kingdom."

<sup>23:43</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

<sup>23:44</sup>It was now about the sixth hour<sup>h</sup>, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.<sup>i</sup> <sup>23:45</sup>The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two. <sup>23:46</sup>Yeshua, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last.

<sup>23:47</sup>When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man." <sup>23:48</sup>All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned home beating their breasts. <sup>23:49</sup>All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

<sup>23:50</sup>Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man <sup>23:51</sup>(he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Judeans, who was also waiting for the Kingdom of God: <sup>23:52</sup>this man went to Pilate, and asked for Yeshua's body. <sup>23:53</sup>He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no one had ever been laid. <sup>23:54</sup>It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was drawing near. <sup>23:55</sup>The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid. <sup>23:56</sup>They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.

They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? <sup>24:6</sup>He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee, <sup>24:7</sup>saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"

<sup>24:8</sup>They remembered his words, <sup>24:9</sup>returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the Eleven, and to all the rest. <sup>24:10</sup>Now they were Miriam Magdalene, Yochanah, and Miriam the mother of Jacob. The other women with them told these things to the emissaries. <sup>24:11</sup>These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them. <sup>24:12</sup>But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.

<sup>24:13</sup>Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia<sup>j</sup> from Jerusalem. <sup>24:14</sup>They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened. <sup>24:15</sup>It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Yeshua himself came near, and went with them. <sup>24:16</sup>But their eyes were kept from recognizing him. <sup>24:17</sup>He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"

<sup>24:18</sup>One of them, named Klofah, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"

<sup>24:19</sup>He said to them, "What things?"

They said to him, "The things concerning

Yeshua, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people; <sup>24:20</sup>and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him. <sup>24:21</sup>But we were hoping that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened. <sup>24:22</sup>Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having arrived early at the tomb; <sup>24:23</sup>and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive. <sup>24:24</sup>Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."

<sup>24:25</sup>He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken! <sup>24:26</sup>Didn't the Messiah have to suffer these things and to enter into his glory?" <sup>24:27</sup>Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he explained to them in all the Scriptures the things concerning himself. <sup>24:28</sup>They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.

He went in to stay with them. <sup>24:30</sup>It happened, that when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them. <sup>24:31</sup>Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight. <sup>24:32</sup>They said one to another, "Weren't our hearts burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the Scriptures to us?" <sup>24:33</sup>They rose up that very hour, returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them, <sup>24:34</sup>saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" <sup>24:35</sup>They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.

<sup>24:36</sup>As they said these things, Yeshua himself stood among them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>24:37</sup>But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.

<sup>24:38</sup>He said to them, "Why are you trou- bled? Why do doubts arise in your hearts?

<sup>24:39</sup>See my hands and my feet, that it is truly me. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."

<sup>24:40</sup>When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. <sup>24:41</sup>While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

<sup>24:42</sup>They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb. <sup>24:43</sup>He took them, and ate in front of them. <sup>24:44</sup>He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things which are written in the Torah of Moses, the Prophets, and the Psalms, concerning me must be fulfilled."

<sup>24:45</sup>Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the Scriptures. <sup>24:46</sup>He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day, <sup>24:47</sup>and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem. <sup>24:48</sup>You are witnesses of these things. <sup>24:49</sup>Behold, I send forth the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."

<sup>24:50</sup>He led them out as far as Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. <sup>24:51</sup>It happened, while he blessed them, that he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven. <sup>24:52</sup>They worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, <sup>24:53</sup>and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

The Good News According to Yochanan

<sup>1:1</sup>In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. <sup>1:2</sup>The same was in the beginning with God. <sup>1:3</sup>All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made. <sup>1:4</sup>In him was life, and the life was the light of men. <sup>1:5</sup>The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome<sup>a</sup> it. <sup>1:6</sup>There came a man, sent from God, whose name was Yochanan. <sup>1:7</sup>The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him. <sup>1:8</sup>He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light. <sup>1:9</sup>The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.

<sup>1:10</sup>He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him. <sup>1:11</sup>He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him. <sup>1:12</sup>But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name: <sup>1:13</sup>who were born not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. <sup>1:14</sup>The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the one and only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth. <sup>1:15</sup>Yochanan testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.'" <sup>1:16</sup>From his fullness we all received grace upon grace. <sup>1:17</sup>For the Torah was given through Moses. Grace and truth were realized through Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:18</sup>No one has seen God at any time. The one and only Son,<sup>b</sup> who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.

<sup>1:19</sup>This is Yochanan's testimony, when the Judeans sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"

<sup>1:20</sup>He declared, and didn't deny, but he declared, "I am not the Messiah."

<sup>1:21</sup>They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?"

<sup>a</sup>1:5 The word translated "overcome" (katelaben) can also be translated "comprehended." It refers to getting a grip on an enemy to defeat him.

<sup>c</sup>1:23 Isaiah 40:3

He said, "I am not."

"Are you the prophet?"

He answered, "No."

<sup>1:22</sup>They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"

<sup>1:26</sup>Yochanan answered them, "I immerse in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know. <sup>1:27</sup>He is the one who comes after me, who is preferred before me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to loosen." <sup>1:28</sup>These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where Yochanan was immersing.

<sup>1:29</sup>The next day, he saw Yeshua coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!" <sup>1:30</sup>This is he of whom I said, 'After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.' <sup>1:31</sup>I didn't know him, but for this reason I came immersing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel." <sup>1:32</sup>Yochanan testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him. <sup>1:33</sup>I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to immerse in water, he said to me, 'On whomever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who immerses in the Holy Spirit.' <sup>1:34</sup>I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."

They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

<sup>1:39</sup>He said to them, "Come, and see."

They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.<sup>d</sup> <sup>1:40</sup>One of the two who heard Yochanan, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. <sup>1:41</sup>He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Anointed One<sup>e</sup>). <sup>1:42</sup>He brought him to Yeshua. Yeshua looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Kefa<sup>f</sup>" (which is by interpretation, Peter). <sup>1:43</sup>On the next day, he was determined to go out into Galilee, and he found Philip. Yeshua said to him, "Follow me." <sup>1:44</sup>Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. <sup>1:45</sup>Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the Torah, and the Prophets, wrote: Yeshua of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

<sup>1:46</sup>Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?"

Philip said to him, "Come and see."

<sup>1:47</sup>Yeshua saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"

<sup>1:48</sup>Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?"

Yeshua answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."

<sup>1:49</sup>Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!"

<sup>1:50</sup>Yeshua answered him, "Because I told you, 'I saw you underneath the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these!" <sup>1:51</sup>He said to him, "Most certainly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

<sup>2:1</sup>The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Yeshua's mother was there. <sup>2:2</sup>Yeshua also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage. <sup>2:3</sup>When the wine ran out, Yeshua's mother said to him, "They have no wine."

<sup>2:4</sup>Yeshua said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."

<sup>2:5</sup>His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it." <sup>2:6</sup>Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews' way of purifying, containing two or three metretes<sup>g</sup> apiece. <sup>2:7</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim. <sup>2:8</sup>He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." So they took it. <sup>2:9</sup>When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom, <sup>2:10</sup>and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!" <sup>2:11</sup>This beginning of his signs Yeshua did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory; and his disciples believed in him.

<sup>2:12</sup>After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and they stayed there a few days. <sup>2:13</sup>The Passover in Judea was at hand, and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. <sup>2:14</sup>He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting. <sup>2:15</sup>He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables. <sup>2:16</sup>To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!" <sup>2:17</sup>His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>2:19</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."

<sup>2:20</sup>The Judeans therefore said, "It took forty-six years to build this temple! Will you raise it up in three days?" <sup>2:21</sup>But he spoke of the temple of his body. <sup>2:22</sup>When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the Scripture, and the word which Yeshua had said.

<sup>2:23</sup>Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did. <sup>2:24</sup>But Yeshua didn't trust himself to them, because he knew everyone, <sup>2:25</sup>and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.

<sup>3:1</sup>Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Judeans. <sup>3:2</sup>The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."

<sup>3:3</sup>Yeshua answered him, "Most certainly, I tell you, unless one is born anew,<sup>i</sup> he can't see the Kingdom of God."

<sup>3:4</sup>Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

<sup>3:5</sup>Yeshua answered, "Most certainly I tell you, unless one is born of water and spirit, he can't enter into the Kingdom of God! <sup>3:6</sup>That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit. <sup>3:7</sup>Don't marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born anew.' <sup>3:8</sup>The wind<sup>j</sup> blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit."

<sup>3:10</sup>Yeshua answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things? <sup>3:11</sup>Most certainly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness. <sup>3:12</sup>If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? <sup>3:13</sup>No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven. <sup>3:14</sup>As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up, <sup>3:15</sup>that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. <sup>3:16</sup>For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life. <sup>3:17</sup>For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him. <sup>3:18</sup>He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the one and only Son of God. <sup>3:19</sup>This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil. <sup>3:20</sup>For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, lest his works would be exposed. <sup>3:21</sup>But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done in God."

<sup>3:22</sup>After these things, Yeshua came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and immersed. <sup>3:23</sup>Yochanan also was immersing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were immersed. <sup>3:24</sup>For Yochanan was not yet thrown into prison. <sup>3:25</sup>There arose therefore a questioning on the part of Yochanan's disciples with some Judeans about purification. <sup>3:26</sup>They came to Yochanan, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same immerses, and everyone is coming to him."

<sup>3:27</sup>Yochanan answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven. <sup>3:28</sup>You yourselves testify that I said, 'I am not the Messiah,' but, 'I have been sent before him.' <sup>3:29</sup>He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full. <sup>3:30</sup>He must increase, but I must decrease. <sup>3:31</sup>He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the earth belongs to the earth, and speaks of the earth. He who comes from heaven is above all. <sup>3:32</sup>What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness. <sup>3:33</sup>He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true. <sup>3:34</sup>For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure. <sup>3:35</sup>The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. <sup>3:36</sup>One who believes in the Son has eternal life, but one who disobeys<sup>k</sup> the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."

<sup>4:9</sup>The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)

<sup>4:10</sup>Yeshua answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

<sup>4:11</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water?" <sup>4:12</sup>Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his children, and his livestock?"

<sup>4:13</sup>Yeshua answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again, <sup>4:14</sup>but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst again; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."

<sup>4:15</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."

Yeshua said to her, "You said well, 'I have no husband,' <sup>4:18</sup>for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."

<sup>4:19</sup>The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet. <sup>4:20</sup>Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and you say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."

<sup>4:21</sup>Yeshua said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father. <sup>4:22</sup>You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews. <sup>4:23</sup>But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers. <sup>4:24</sup>God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

<sup>4:25</sup>The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes," (he who is called Anointed One). "When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

<sup>4:26</sup>Yeshua said to her, "I am he, the one who speaks to you." <sup>4:27</sup>At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?" <sup>4:28</sup>So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people, <sup>4:29</sup>"Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Messiah?"

<sup>4:30</sup>They went out of the city, and were coming to him. <sup>4:31</sup>In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

<sup>4:32</sup>But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."

<sup>4:33</sup>The disciples therefore said one to another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"

<sup>4:34</sup>Yeshua said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work. <sup>4:35</sup>Don't you say, 'There are yet four months until the harvest?' Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white for harvest already. <sup>4:36</sup>He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. <sup>4:37</sup>For in this the saying is true, 'One sows, and another reaps.' <sup>4:38</sup>I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."

<sup>4:39</sup>From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, "He told me everything that I did." <sup>4:40</sup>So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days. <sup>4:41</sup>Many more believed because of his word. <sup>4:42</sup>They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Messiah, the Savior of the world."

<sup>4:43</sup>After the two days he went out from there and went into Galilee. <sup>4:44</sup>For Yeshua himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country. <sup>4:45</sup>So when he came into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast. <sup>4:46</sup>Yeshua came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum. <sup>4:47</sup>When he heard that Yeshua had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death. <sup>4:48</sup>Yeshua therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."

<sup>4:49</sup>The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies." <sup>4:50</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Yeshua spoke to him, and he went his way. <sup>4:51</sup>As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your child lives!" <sup>4:52</sup>So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour,<sup>m</sup> the fever left him." <sup>4:53</sup>So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Yeshua said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house. <sup>4:54</sup>This is again the second sign that Yeshua did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.

<sup>5:1</sup>After these things, there was a Jewish festival, and Yeshua went up to Jerusalem. <sup>5:2</sup>Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda,"<sup>n</sup> having five porches. <sup>5:3</sup>In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water; <sup>5:4</sup>for an angel went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water.

Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease he had. <sup>5:5</sup>A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years. <sup>5:6</sup>When Yeshua saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"

<sup>5:7</sup>The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I'm coming, another steps down before me."

<sup>5:8</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."

<sup>5:9</sup>Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked.

Now it was the Sabbath on that day. <sup>5:10</sup>So the Judeans said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry the mat."

<sup>5:11</sup>He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, "Take up your mat, and walk."

<sup>5:12</sup>Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, "Take up your mat, and walk?"

<sup>5:13</sup>But he who was healed didn't know who it was, for Yeshua had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.

<sup>5:14</sup>Afterward Yeshua found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."

<sup>5:15</sup>The man went away, and told the Judeans that it was Yeshua who had made him well. <sup>5:16</sup>For this cause the Judeans persecuted Yeshua, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath. <sup>5:17</sup>But Yeshua answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too." <sup>5:18</sup>For this cause therefore the Judeans sought all the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God. <sup>5:19</sup>Yeshua therefore answered them, "Most certainly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise." <sup>5:20</sup>For the Father has affection for the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel. <sup>5:21</sup>For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires. <sup>5:22</sup>For the Father judges no one, but he has given all judgment to the Son, <sup>5:23</sup>that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.

<sup>5:24</sup>"Most certainly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life. <sup>5:25</sup>Most certainly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live. <sup>5:26</sup>For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself. <sup>5:27</sup>He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man. <sup>5:28</sup>Don't marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice, <sup>5:29</sup>and will come out; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment. <sup>5:30</sup>I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don't seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.

<sup>5:31</sup>"If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid. <sup>5:32</sup>It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true. <sup>5:33</sup>You have sent to Yochanan, and he has testified to the truth. <sup>5:34</sup>But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved. <sup>5:35</sup>He was the burning and shining lamp, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light. <sup>5:36</sup>But the testimony which I have is greater than that of Yochanan, for the works which the Father gave me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me. <sup>5:37</sup>The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form. <sup>5:38</sup>You don't have his word living in you; because you don't believe him whom he sent.

<sup>5:39</sup>"You search the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me. <sup>5:40</sup>Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life. <sup>5:41</sup>I don't receive glory from men. <sup>5:42</sup>But I know you, that you don't have God's love in yourselves. <sup>5:43</sup>I have come in my Father's name, and you don't receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him. <sup>5:44</sup>How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don't seek the glory that comes from the only God?

<sup>5:45</sup>"Don't think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope. <sup>5:46</sup>For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me. <sup>5:47</sup>But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

<sup>6:1</sup>After these things, Yeshua went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias. <sup>6:2</sup>A great multitude followed him, because they saw his signs which he did on those who were sick. <sup>6:3</sup>Yeshua went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples. <sup>6:4</sup>Now the Passover, the Jewish festival, was at hand. <sup>6:5</sup>Yeshua therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?" <sup>6:6</sup>This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.

<sup>6:7</sup>Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."

<sup>6:8</sup>One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, <sup>6:9</sup>"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"

<sup>6:10</sup>Yeshua said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. <sup>6:11</sup>Yeshua took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired. <sup>6:12</sup>When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost." <sup>6:13</sup>So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten. <sup>6:14</sup>When therefore the people saw the sign which Yeshua did, they said, "This is truly the Prophet who comes into the world." <sup>6:15</sup>Yeshua therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again to the mountain by himself.

<sup>6:16</sup>When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, <sup>6:17</sup>and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Yeshua had not come to them. <sup>6:18</sup>The sea was tossed by a great wind blowing. <sup>6:19</sup>When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia,<sup>o</sup> they saw Yeshua walking on the sea,<sup>p</sup> and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid. <sup>6:20</sup>But he said to them, "It is I<sup>q</sup>. Don't be afraid." <sup>6:21</sup>They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.

<sup>6:22</sup>On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one in which his disciples had embarked, and that Yeshua hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples had gone away alone. <sup>6:23</sup>However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks. <sup>6:24</sup>When the multitude therefore saw that Yeshua wasn't there, nor his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Yeshua. <sup>6:25</sup>When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

<sup>6:26</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled. <sup>6:27</sup>Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For God the Father has sealed him."

<sup>6:28</sup>They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"

<sup>6:29</sup>Yeshua answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

<sup>6:30</sup>They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do? <sup>6:31</sup>Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, 'He gave them bread out of heaven<sup>r</sup> to eat.'<sup>s</sup>

<sup>6:32</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, "Most certainly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven. <sup>6:33</sup>For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."

<sup>6:34</sup>They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."

<sup>6:35</sup>Yeshua said to them, "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty. <sup>6:36</sup>But I told you that you have seen me, and yet you don't believe. <sup>6:37</sup>All those whom the Father gives me will come to me. He who comes to me I will in no way throw out. <sup>6:38</sup>For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. <sup>6:39</sup>This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise him up at the last day. <sup>6:40</sup>This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."

<sup>6:41</sup>The Judeans therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven." <sup>6:42</sup>They said, "Isn't this Yeshua, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"

<sup>6:43</sup>Therefore Yeshua answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves. <sup>6:44</sup>No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day. <sup>6:45</sup>It is written in the Prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.'<sup>t</sup> Therefore everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me. <sup>6:46</sup>Not that anyone has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father. <sup>6:47</sup>Most certainly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life. <sup>6:48</sup>I am the bread of life. <sup>6:49</sup>Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died. <sup>6:50</sup>This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that anyone may eat of it and not die. <sup>6:51</sup>I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give for the life of the world is my flesh."

<sup>6:52</sup>The Judeans therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

<sup>6:53</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have life in yourselves. <sup>6:54</sup>He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. <sup>6:55</sup>For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. <sup>6:56</sup>He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him. <sup>6:57</sup>As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me. <sup>6:58</sup>This is the bread which came down out of heaven—not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever." <sup>6:59</sup>He said these things in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.

<sup>6:60</sup>Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can listen to it?"

<sup>6:61</sup>But Yeshua knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble? <sup>6:62</sup>Then what if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? <sup>6:63</sup>It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life. <sup>6:64</sup>But there are some of you who don't believe." For Yeshua knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him. <sup>6:65</sup>He said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, unless it is given to him by my Father."

<sup>6:66</sup>At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. <sup>6:67</sup>Yeshua said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"

<sup>6:68</sup>Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life. <sup>6:69</sup>We have come to believe and know that you are the Messiah, the Son of the living God."

<sup>6:70</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

<sup>6:71</sup>Now he spoke of Judah, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

<sup>7:1</sup>After these things, Yeshua was walking in Galilee, for he wouldn't walk in Judea, because the Judeans sought to kill him. <sup>7:2</sup>Now the Jewish festival, the Feast of Sukkot, was at hand. <sup>7:3</sup>His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do. <sup>7:4</sup>For no one does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world." <sup>7:5</sup>For even his brothers didn't believe in him.

<sup>7:6</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready. <sup>7:7</sup>The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. <sup>7:8</sup>You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."

<sup>7:9</sup>Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee. <sup>7:10</sup>But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret. <sup>7:11</sup>The Judeans therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?" <sup>7:12</sup>There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray." <sup>7:13</sup>Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Judeans. <sup>7:14</sup>But when it was now the midst of the feast, Yeshua went up into the temple and taught. <sup>7:15</sup>The Judeans therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"

<sup>7:16</sup>Yeshua therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

<sup>7:17</sup>If anyone desires to do his will, he will know about the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I am speaking from myself. <sup>7:18</sup>He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.

<sup>7:19</sup>Didn't Moses give you the Torah, and yet none of you keeps the Torah? Why do you seek to kill me?"

<sup>7:20</sup>The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"

<sup>7:21</sup>Yeshua answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it. <sup>7:22</sup>Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy. <sup>7:23</sup>If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the Torah of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man completely healthy on the Sabbath? <sup>7:24</sup>Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."

<sup>7:25</sup>Therefore some of them of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill? <sup>7:26</sup>Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Messiah? <sup>7:27</sup>However we know where this man comes from, but when the Messiah comes, no one will know where he comes from."

<sup>7:28</sup>Yeshua therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know. <sup>7:29</sup>I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."

<sup>7:30</sup>They sought therefore to take him; but no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>7:31</sup>But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Messiah comes, he won't do more signs than those which this man has done, will he?" <sup>7:32</sup>The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to arrest him.

<sup>7:33</sup>Then Yeshua said, "I will be with you a little while longer, then I go to him who sent me. <sup>7:34</sup>You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."

<sup>7:35</sup>The Judeans therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Diaspora among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? <sup>7:36</sup>What is this word that he said, 'You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come'?"

<sup>7:37</sup>Now on the last and greatest day of the feast<sup>u</sup>, Yeshua stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink! <sup>7:38</sup>He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water." <sup>7:39</sup>But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Yeshua wasn't yet glorified.

<sup>7:40</sup>Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the Prophet." <sup>7:41</sup>Others said, "This is the Messiah." But some said, "What, does the Messiah come out of Galilee? <sup>7:42</sup>Hasn't the Scripture said that the Messiah comes of the seed of David,<sup>v</sup> and from Bethlehem,<sup>w</sup> the village where David was?" <sup>7:43</sup>So there arose a division in the multitude because of him. <sup>7:44</sup>Some of them would have arrested him, but no one laid hands on him. <sup>7:45</sup>The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"

<sup>7:47</sup>The Pharisees therefore answered them, "You aren't also led astray, are you? <sup>7:48</sup>Have any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees? <sup>7:49</sup>But this multitude that doesn't know the Torah is accursed."

<sup>7:50</sup>Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them, <sup>7:51</sup>"Does our Torah judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

<sup>7:52</sup>They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee.<sup>x</sup>"

<sup>7:53</sup>Everyone went to his own house, <sup>8:1</sup>but Yeshua went to the Mount of Olives. <sup>8:2</sup>Now very early in the morning, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them. <sup>8:3</sup>The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the midst, <sup>8:4</sup>they told him, "Rabbi, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act. <sup>8:5</sup>Now in our Torah, Moses commanded us to stone such.<sup>y</sup> What then do you say about her?" <sup>8:6</sup>They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of.

But Yeshua stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger. <sup>8:7</sup>But when they continued asking him, he looked up and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her." <sup>8:8</sup>Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.

<sup>8:9</sup>They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Yeshua was left alone with the woman where she was, in the middle. <sup>8:10</sup>Yeshua, standing up, saw her and said, "Woman, where are your accusers? Did no one condemn you?"

Yeshua said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."

<sup>8:12</sup>Again, therefore, Yeshua spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world.<sup>z</sup> He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."

<sup>8:13</sup>The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

<sup>8:14</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going. <sup>8:15</sup>You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one. <sup>8:16</sup>Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me. <sup>8:17</sup>It's also written in your Torah that the testimony of two people is valid.<sup>a</sup> <sup>8:18</sup>I am one who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."

<sup>8:19</sup>They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?"

Yeshua answered, "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also." <sup>8:20</sup>Yeshua spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. Yet no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come. <sup>8:21</sup>Yeshua said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I go, you can't come."

<sup>8:22</sup>The Judeans therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you can't come?'"

<sup>8:23</sup>He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world. <sup>8:24</sup>I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am<sup>b</sup> he, you will die in your sins."

<sup>8:25</sup>They said therefore to him, "Who are you?"

Yeshua said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning. <sup>8:26</sup>I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."

<sup>8:27</sup>They didn't understand that he spoke to them about the Father. <sup>8:28</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then you will know that I am he, and I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things. <sup>8:29</sup>He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."

<sup>8:30</sup>As he spoke these things, many believed in him. <sup>8:31</sup>Yeshua therefore said to those Judeans who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples. <sup>8:32</sup>You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>8:33</sup>They answered him, "We are Abraham's seed, and have never been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, 'You will be made free?'"

<sup>8:34</sup>Yeshua answered them, "Most certainly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin. <sup>8:35</sup>A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever. <sup>8:36</sup>If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed. <sup>8:37</sup>I know that you are Abraham's seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you. <sup>8:38</sup>I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father.”

Yeshua said to them, “If you were Abraham’s children, you would do the works of Abraham. <sup>8:40</sup>But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn’t do this. <sup>8:41</sup>You do the works of your father.”

They said to him, “We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God.”

<sup>8:42</sup>Therefore Yeshua said to them, “If God were your father, you would love me, for I came out and have come from God. For I haven’t come of myself, but he sent me. <sup>8:43</sup>Why don’t you understand my speech? Because you can’t hear my word. <sup>8:44</sup>You are of your father, the devil, and you want to do the desires of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn’t stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks on his own; for he is a liar, and its father. <sup>8:45</sup>But because I tell the truth, you don’t believe me. <sup>8:46</sup>Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me? <sup>8:47</sup>He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don’t hear, because you are not of God.”

<sup>8:48</sup>Then the Judeans answered him, “Don’t we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?”

<sup>8:49</sup>Yeshua answered, “I don’t have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me. <sup>8:50</sup>But I don’t seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges. <sup>8:51</sup>Most certainly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death.”

<sup>8:52</sup>Then the Judeans said to him, “Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, ‘If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.’ <sup>8:53</sup>Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?”

<sup>8:54</sup>Yeshua answered, “If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God. <sup>8:55</sup>You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, ‘I don’t know him,’ I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word. <sup>8:56</sup>Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad.”

<sup>8:57</sup>The Judeans therefore said to him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?”

<sup>8:58</sup>Yeshua said to them, “Most certainly, I tell you, before Abraham came into existence, I AM.<sup>d</sup>”

<sup>8:59</sup>Therefore they took up stones to throw at him, but Yeshua was hidden, and went out of the temple, having gone through their midst, and so passed by.

<sup>9:1</sup>As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. <sup>9:2</sup>His disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?”

<sup>9:3</sup>Yeshua answered, “Neither did this man sin, nor his parents; but, that the works of God might be revealed in him. <sup>9:4</sup>I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work. <sup>9:5</sup>While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” <sup>9:6</sup>When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man’s eyes with the mud, <sup>9:7</sup>and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means “Sent”). So he went away, washed, and came back seeing. <sup>9:8</sup>The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind before, said, “Isn’t this he who sat and begged?” <sup>9:9</sup>Others were saying, “It is he.” Still others were saying, “He looks like him.”

He said, “I am he.” <sup>9:10</sup>They therefore were asking him, “How were your eyes opened?”

<sup>9:11</sup>He answered, “A man called Yeshua made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash.’ So I went away and washed, and I received sight.”

<sup>9:12</sup>Then they asked him, “Where is he?”

He said, “I don’t know.”

<sup>9:13</sup>They brought him who had been blind to the Pharisees. <sup>9:14</sup>It was a Sabbath when Yeshua made the mud and opened his eyes.

<sup>9:15</sup>Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, “He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see.”

<sup>9:16</sup>Some therefore of the Pharisees said, “This man is not from God, because he doesn’t keep the Sabbath.” Others said, “How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?” There was division among them. <sup>9:17</sup>Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, because he opened your eyes?"

<sup>d</sup>8:58 or, I am

He said, "He is a prophet."

<sup>9:18</sup>The Judeans therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight, <sup>9:19</sup>and asked them, "Is this your son, whom you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"

<sup>9:20</sup>His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind; <sup>9:21</sup>but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself."

<sup>9:22</sup>His parents said these things because they feared the Judeans; for the Judeans had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Messiah, he would be put out of the synagogue. <sup>9:23</sup>Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."

<sup>9:24</sup>So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."

<sup>9:25</sup>He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I do know: that though I was blind, now I see."

<sup>9:26</sup>They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

<sup>9:27</sup>He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? You don't also want to become his disciples, do you?"

<sup>9:28</sup>They insulted him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses. <sup>9:29</sup>We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."

<sup>9:30</sup>The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes. <sup>9:31</sup>We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does his will, he listens to him. <sup>e 9:32</sup>Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of someone born blind. <sup>9:33</sup>If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."

<sup>9:34</sup>They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.

<sup>9:35</sup>Yeshua heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

<sup>9:36</sup>He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?"

<sup>9:37</sup>Yeshua said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."

<sup>9:38</sup>He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshiped him.

<sup>9:39</sup>Yeshua said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."

<sup>9:40</sup>Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"

<sup>9:41</sup>Yeshua said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, 'We see.' Therefore your sin remains."

<sup>10:1</sup>"Most certainly, I tell you, one who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber. <sup>10:2</sup>But one who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

<sup>10:3</sup>The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.

<sup>10:4</sup>Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice. <sup>10:5</sup>They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers."

<sup>10:6</sup>Yeshua spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.

<sup>10:7</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them again, "Most certainly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door. <sup>10:8</sup>All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them. <sup>10:9</sup>I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture. <sup>10:10</sup>The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly. <sup>10:11</sup>I am the good shepherd.

<sup>f</sup>The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. <sup>10:12</sup>He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them. <sup>10:13</sup>The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep. <sup>10:14</sup>I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own; <sup>10:15</sup>even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep. <sup>10:16</sup>I have other sheep, which are not of this fold.<sup>g</sup> I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd. <sup>10:17</sup>Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life,<sup>h</sup> that I may take it again. <sup>10:18</sup>No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."

<sup>10:19</sup>Therefore a division arose again among the Judeans because of these words. <sup>10:20</sup>Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is insane! Why do you listen to him?" <sup>10:21</sup>Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed by a demon. It isn't possible for a demon to open the eyes of the blind, is it?"<sup>i</sup>

<sup>10:22</sup>It was the Feast of Hanukkah<sup>j</sup> at Jerusalem. <sup>10:23</sup>It was winter, and Yeshua was walking in the temple, in Solomon's porch. <sup>10:24</sup>The Judeans therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Messiah, tell us plainly."

<sup>10:25</sup>Yeshua answered them, "I told you, and you don't believe. The works that I do in my Father's name, these testify about me. <sup>10:26</sup>But you don't believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. <sup>10:27</sup>My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. <sup>10:28</sup>I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. <sup>10:29</sup>My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. <sup>10:30</sup>I and the Father are one."

<sup>10:31</sup>Therefore the Judeans took up stones again to stone him. <sup>10:32</sup>Yeshua answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"

<sup>10:33</sup>The Judeans answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."

<sup>10:39</sup>They sought again to seize him, and he went out of their hand. <sup>10:40</sup>He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where Yochanan was immersing at first, and there he stayed. <sup>10:41</sup>Many came to him. They said, "Yochanan indeed did no sign, but everything that Yochanan said about this man is true." <sup>10:42</sup>Many believed in him there.

<sup>11:8</sup>The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Judeans were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"

<sup>11:9</sup>Yeshua answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world. <sup>11:10</sup>But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him.” <sup>11:11</sup>He said these things, and after that, he said to them, “Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep.”

<sup>11:12</sup>The disciples therefore said, “Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover.”

<sup>11:13</sup>Now Yeshua had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep. <sup>11:14</sup>So Yeshua said to them plainly then, “Lazarus is dead. <sup>11:15</sup>I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let’s go to him.”

<sup>11:16</sup>Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus,<sup>1</sup> said to his fellow disciples, “Let’s go also, that we may die with him.”

<sup>11:17</sup>So when Yeshua came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already.

<sup>11:18</sup>Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia<sup>m</sup> away. <sup>11:19</sup>Many of the Judeans had joined the women around Martha and Miriam, to console them concerning their brother. <sup>11:20</sup>Then when Martha heard that Yeshua was coming, she went and met him, but Miriam stayed in the house. <sup>11:21</sup>Therefore Martha said to Yeshua, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn’t have died. <sup>11:22</sup>Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you.” <sup>11:23</sup>Yeshua said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

<sup>11:24</sup>Martha said to him, “I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

<sup>11:25</sup>Yeshua said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will still live, even if he dies. <sup>11:26</sup>Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

<sup>11:27</sup>She said to him, “Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Messiah, God’s Son, he who comes into the world.”

<sup>11:28</sup>When she had said this, she went away, and called Miriam, her sister, secretly, saying, “The Rabbi is here, and is calling you.”

<sup>11:29</sup>When she heard this, she arose quickly, and went to him. <sup>11:30</sup>Now Yeshua had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him. <sup>11:31</sup>Then the Judeans who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Miriam, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.” <sup>11:32</sup>Therefore when Miriam came to where Yeshua was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, “Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn’t have died.”

<sup>11:33</sup>When Yeshua therefore saw her weeping, and the Judeans weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, <sup>11:34</sup>and said, “Where have you laid him?”

They told him, “Lord, come and see.”

<sup>11:36</sup>The Judeans therefore said, “See how much affection he had for him!” <sup>11:37</sup>Some of them said, “Couldn’t this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also kept this man from dying?”

<sup>11:38</sup>Yeshua therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it. <sup>11:39</sup>Yeshua said, “Take away the stone.”

Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.”

<sup>11:40</sup>Yeshua said to her, “Didn’t I tell you that if you believed, you would see God’s glory?”

<sup>11:41</sup>So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying.<sup>n</sup> Yeshua lifted up his eyes, and said, “Father, I thank you that you listened to me. <sup>11:42</sup>I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me.”

<sup>11:43</sup>When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come out!”

<sup>11:44</sup>He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth.

Yeshua said to them, “Free him, and let him go.”

<sup>11:45</sup>Therefore many of the Judeans, who came to Miriam and saw what Yeshua did, believed in him. <sup>11:46</sup>But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Yeshua had done. <sup>11:47</sup>The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, “What are we doing? For this man does many signs. <sup>11:48</sup>If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation.”

<sup>11:49</sup>But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know nothing at all, <sup>11:50</sup>nor do you consider that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish.” <sup>11:51</sup>Now he didn’t say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Yeshua would die for the nation, <sup>11:52</sup>and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad. <sup>11:53</sup>So from that day forward they took counsel that they might put him to death. <sup>11:54</sup>Yeshua therefore walked no more openly among the Judeans, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

<sup>11:55</sup>Now the Passover in Judea was at hand. Many went up from the country to Jerusalem before the Passover, to purify themselves. <sup>11:56</sup>Then they sought for Yeshua and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, “What do you think—that he isn’t coming to the feast at all?” <sup>11:57</sup>Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

<sup>12:1</sup>Then six days before the Passover, Yeshua came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead. <sup>12:2</sup>So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him. <sup>12:3</sup>Miriam, therefore, took a pound<sup>o</sup> of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Yeshua, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment. <sup>12:4</sup>Then Judah Iscariot, Simon’s son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said, <sup>12:5</sup>“Why wasn’t this ointment sold for three hundred denarii,<sup>p</sup> and given to the poor?” <sup>12:6</sup>Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into

it. <sup>12:7</sup>But Yeshua said, “Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial. <sup>12:8</sup>For you always have the poor with you, but you don’t always have me.”

<sup>12:9</sup>A large crowd therefore of the Judeans learned that he was there, and they came, not for Yeshua’s sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. <sup>12:10</sup>But the chief priests conspired to put Lazarus to death also, <sup>12:11</sup>because on account of him many of the Judeans went away and believed in Yeshua.

<sup>12:20</sup>Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast. <sup>12:21</sup>These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, “Sir, we want to see Yeshua.” <sup>12:22</sup>Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Yeshua. <sup>12:23</sup>Yeshua answered them, “The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified. <sup>12:24</sup>Most certainly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit. <sup>12:25</sup>He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life. <sup>12:26</sup>If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.

<sup>12:27</sup>“Now my soul is troubled. What shall I say? ‘Father, save me from this time?’ But for this cause I came to this time. <sup>12:28</sup>Father, glorify your name!”

Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, “I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.”

<sup>12:29</sup>The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to him.”

<sup>12:30</sup>Yeshua answered, “This voice hasn’t come for my sake, but for your sakes. <sup>12:31</sup>Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out. <sup>12:32</sup>And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all people to myself.” <sup>12:33</sup>But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die. <sup>12:34</sup>The multitude answered him, “We have heard out of the law that the Messiah remains forever. <sup>t</sup>How do you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up?’ Who is this Son of Man?”

<sup>12:35</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, “Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn’t overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn’t know where he is going. <sup>12:36</sup>While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become children of light.” Yeshua said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them. <sup>12:37</sup>But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn’t believe in him, <sup>12:38</sup>that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, “Lord, who has believed our report?

To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?”<sup>u</sup>

<sup>12:39</sup>For this cause they couldn’t believe, for Isaiah said again,

<sup>12:40</sup>“He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, lest they should see with their eyes, and perceive with their heart, and would turn, and I would heal them.”<sup>v</sup>

<sup>12:41</sup>Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and spoke of him.<sup>w</sup> <sup>12:42</sup>Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn’t confess it, so that they wouldn’t be put out of the synagogue, <sup>12:43</sup>for they loved men’s praise more than God’s praise.

<sup>12:44</sup>Yeshua cried out and said, “Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me. <sup>12:45</sup>He who sees me sees him who sent me. <sup>12:46</sup>I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness. <sup>12:47</sup>If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn’t believe, I don’t judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. <sup>12:48</sup>He who rejects me, and doesn’t receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day. <sup>12:49</sup>For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak. <sup>12:50</sup>I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak.”

<sup>13:1</sup>Now before the feast of the Passover, Yeshua, knowing that his time had come that he would depart from this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. <sup>13:2</sup>During supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judah Iscariot, Simon’s son, to betray him, <sup>13:3</sup>Yeshua, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God, <sup>13:4</sup>arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist. <sup>13:5</sup>Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples’ feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him. <sup>13:6</sup>Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, “Lord, do you wash my feet?”

<sup>13:7</sup>Yeshua answered him, “You don’t know what I am doing now, but you will understand later.”

<sup>13:8</sup>Peter said to him, “You will never wash my feet!”

Yeshua answered him, “If I don’t wash you, you have no part with me.”

<sup>13:9</sup>Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!”

<sup>13:10</sup>Yeshua said to him, “Someone who has bathed only needs to have his feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you.” <sup>13:11</sup>For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, “You are not all clean.” <sup>13:12</sup>So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you?” <sup>13:13</sup>You call me, ‘Rabbi’ and ‘Lord.’ You say so correctly, for so I am.

<sup>13:14</sup>If I then, the Lord and the Rabbi, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet. <sup>13:15</sup>For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. <sup>13:16</sup>Most certainly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him.

<sup>13:17</sup>If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them. <sup>13:18</sup>I don’t speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen. But that the Scripture may be fulfilled, ‘He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.’<sup>x</sup> <sup>13:19</sup>From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I am he. <sup>13:20</sup>Most certainly I tell you, he who receives whomever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me.”

<sup>13:21</sup>When Yeshua had said this, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, “Most certainly I tell you that one of you will betray me.”

<sup>13:22</sup>The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke. <sup>13:23</sup>One of his disciples, whom Yeshua loved, was at the table, leaning against Yeshua’s breast. <sup>13:24</sup>Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, “Tell us who it is of whom he speaks.”

<sup>13:25</sup>He, leaning back, as he was, on Yeshua’s breast, asked him, “Lord, who is it?”

<sup>13:26</sup>Yeshua therefore answered, “It is he to whom I will give this piece of bread when I have dipped it.” So when he had dipped the piece of bread, he gave it to Judah, the son of Simon Iscariot. <sup>13:27</sup>After the piece of bread, then Satan entered into him.

Then Yeshua said to him, “What you do, do quickly.”

<sup>13:28</sup>Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him. <sup>13:29</sup>For some thought, because Judah had the money box, that Yeshua said to him, “Buy what things we need for the feast,” or that he should give something to the poor. <sup>13:30</sup>Therefore, having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.

<sup>13:31</sup>When he had gone out, Yeshua said, “Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him.” <sup>13:32</sup>If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately. <sup>13:33</sup>Little children, I will be with you a little while longer. You will seek me, and as I said to the Judeans, ‘Where I am going, you can’t come,’ so now I tell you.

<sup>13:34</sup>A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, just like I have loved you; that you also love one another. <sup>13:35</sup>By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.”

<sup>13:36</sup>Simon Peter said to him, “Lord, where are you going?”

Yeshua answered, “Where I am going, you can’t follow now, but you will follow afterwards.”

<sup>13:37</sup>Peter said to him, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I will lay down my life for you.”

<sup>13:38</sup>Yeshua answered him, “Will you lay down your life for me? Most certainly I tell you, the rooster won’t crow until you have denied me three times.”

<sup>14:1</sup>“Don’t let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me.” <sup>14:2</sup>In my Father’s house are many homes. If it weren’t so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you. <sup>14:3</sup>If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also. <sup>14:4</sup>Where I go, you know, and you know the way.”

<sup>14:5</sup>Thomas said to him, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going. How can we know the way?”

<sup>14:6</sup>Yeshua said to him, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, except through me. <sup>14:7</sup>If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him."

<sup>14:8</sup>Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."

<sup>14:9</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?' <sup>14:10</sup>Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father who lives in me does his works.

<sup>14:11</sup>Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake. <sup>14:12</sup>Most certainly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and he will do greater works than these, because I am going to my Father.

<sup>14:13</sup>Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. <sup>14:14</sup>If you will ask anything in my name, I will do it. <sup>14:15</sup>If you love me, keep my commandments. <sup>14:16</sup>I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor,<sup>y</sup> that he may be with you forever,—<sup>14:17</sup>the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you. <sup>14:18</sup>I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you. <sup>14:19</sup>Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also.

<sup>14:20</sup>In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. <sup>14:21</sup>One who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

<sup>14:22</sup>Judah (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what has happened that you are about to reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"

<sup>14:23</sup>Yeshua answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him. <sup>14:24</sup>He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me. <sup>14:25</sup>I have said these things to you, while still living with you. <sup>14:26</sup>But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and will remind you of all that I said to you.

<sup>14:27</sup>Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful. <sup>14:28</sup>You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said 'I am going to my Father;' for the Father is greater than I. <sup>14:29</sup>Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe. <sup>14:30</sup>I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me. <sup>14:31</sup>But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.

<sup>15:1</sup>"I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. <sup>15:2</sup>Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit. <sup>15:3</sup>You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you. <sup>15:4</sup>Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me. <sup>15:5</sup>I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing. <sup>15:6</sup>If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned. <sup>15:7</sup>If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done for you.

<sup>15:8</sup>"In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples. <sup>15:9</sup>Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love. <sup>15:10</sup>If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love. <sup>15:11</sup>I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be made full.

<sup>15:12</sup>"This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you. <sup>15:13</sup>Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends.

<sup>15:14</sup>You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you. <sup>15:15</sup>No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you. <sup>15:16</sup>You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.

<sup>15:17</sup>"I command these things to you, that you may love one another. <sup>15:18</sup>If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you. <sup>15:19</sup>If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you. <sup>15:20</sup>Remember the word that I said to you: 'A servant is not greater than his lord.'<sup>z</sup> If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also. <sup>15:21</sup>But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they don't know him who sent me. <sup>15:22</sup>If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin. <sup>15:23</sup>He who hates me, hates my Father also. <sup>15:24</sup>If I hadn't done among them the works which no one else did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father. <sup>15:25</sup>But this happened so that the word may be fulfilled which was written in their law, 'They hated me without a cause.'<sup>a</sup>

<sup>15:26</sup>"When the Counselor<sup>b</sup> has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me. <sup>15:27</sup>You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

<sup>16:1</sup>"These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble. <sup>16:2</sup>They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God. <sup>16:3</sup>They will do these things<sup>c</sup> because they have not known the Father, nor me. <sup>16:4</sup>But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. <sup>16:5</sup>But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, 'Where are you going?' <sup>16:6</sup>But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart. <sup>16:7</sup>Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you. <sup>16:8</sup>When he has come, he will convict the world about sin, about righteousness, and about judgment; <sup>16:9</sup>about sin, because they don't believe in me; <sup>16:10</sup>about righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you won't see me any more; <sup>16:11</sup>about judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.

<sup>16:12</sup>"I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now. <sup>16:13</sup>However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you things that are coming. <sup>16:14</sup>He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you. <sup>16:15</sup>All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes<sup>d</sup> of mine, and will declare it to you. <sup>16:16</sup>A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."

<sup>16:17</sup>Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;' and, 'Because I go to the Father?'" <sup>16:18</sup>They said therefore, "What is this that he says, 'A little while?' We don't know what he is saying."

<sup>16:19</sup>Therefore Yeshua perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, 'A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?'" <sup>16:20</sup>Most certainly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy. <sup>16:21</sup> A woman, when she gives birth, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a human being is born into the world. <sup>16:22</sup> Therefore you now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.

<sup>16:23</sup> "In that day you will ask me no questions. Most certainly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father in my name, he will give it to you. <sup>16:24</sup> Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full. <sup>16:25</sup> I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time is coming when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father. <sup>16:26</sup> In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you, <sup>16:27</sup> for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God. <sup>16:28</sup> I came out from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."

<sup>16:29</sup> His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech. <sup>16:30</sup> Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God."

<sup>16:31</sup> Yeshua answered them, "Do you now believe? <sup>16:32</sup> Behold, the time is coming, yes, and has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and you will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me. <sup>16:33</sup> I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."

<sup>17:1</sup> Yeshua said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you; <sup>17:2</sup> even as you gave him authority over all flesh, he will give eternal life to all whom you have given him. <sup>17:3</sup> This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent,

Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>17:4</sup> I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do. <sup>17:5</sup> Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed. <sup>17:6</sup> I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word. <sup>17:7</sup> Now they have known that all things whatever you have given me are from you, <sup>17:8</sup> for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they have believed that you sent me. <sup>17:9</sup> I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours. <sup>17:10</sup> All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them. <sup>17:11</sup> I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are. <sup>17:12</sup> While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be fulfilled. <sup>17:13</sup> But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves. <sup>17:14</sup> I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. <sup>17:15</sup> I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one. <sup>17:16</sup> They are not of the world even as I am not of the world. <sup>17:17</sup> Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth. <sup>17:18</sup> As you sent me into the world, even so I have sent them into the world. <sup>17:19</sup> For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth. <sup>17:20</sup> Not for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word, <sup>17:21</sup> that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me. <sup>17:22</sup> The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one; <sup>17:23</sup> I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me. <sup>17:24</sup>Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world. <sup>17:25</sup>Righteous Father, the world hasn't known you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me. <sup>17:26</sup>I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."

<sup>18:1</sup>When Yeshua had spoken these words, he went out with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he and his disciples entered. <sup>18:2</sup>Now Judah, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Yeshua often met there with his disciples. <sup>18:3</sup>Judah then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons. <sup>18:4</sup>Yeshua therefore, knowing all the things that were happening to him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

Yeshua said to them, "I am he."

Judah also, who betrayed him, was standing with them. <sup>18:6</sup>When therefore he said to them, "I am he," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

<sup>18:7</sup>Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?"

They said, "Yeshua of Nazareth."

<sup>18:8</sup>Yeshua answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," <sup>18:9</sup>that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."<sup>f</sup>

<sup>18:10</sup>Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus. <sup>18:11</sup>Yeshua therefore said to Peter, "Put the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not surely drink it?"

<sup>18:12</sup>So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Judeans, seized Yeshua and bound him, <sup>18:13</sup>and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year. <sup>18:14</sup>Now it was Caiaphas who advised the Judeans that it was expedient that one man should perish for the people. <sup>18:15</sup>Simon Peter followed Yeshua, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Yeshua into the court of the high priest; <sup>18:16</sup>but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter. <sup>18:17</sup>Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?"

He said, "I am not."

<sup>18:18</sup>Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself. <sup>18:19</sup>The high priest therefore asked Yeshua about his disciples, and about his teaching. <sup>18:20</sup>Yeshua answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret.

<sup>18:21</sup>Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

<sup>18:22</sup>When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Yeshua with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

<sup>18:23</sup>Yeshua answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

<sup>18:24</sup>Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest. <sup>18:25</sup>Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "You aren't also one of his disciples, are you?"

He denied it, and said, "I am not."

<sup>18:26</sup>One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"

<sup>18:27</sup>Peter therefore denied it again, and immediately the rooster crowed.

<sup>18:28</sup>They led Yeshua therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover. <sup>18:29</sup>Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"

<sup>18:30</sup>They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."

<sup>18:31</sup>Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law."

Therefore the Judeans said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death," <sup>18:32</sup>that the word of Yeshua might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.

<sup>18:33</sup>Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Yeshua, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>18:34</sup>Yeshua answered him, "Do you say this by yourself, or did others tell you about me?"

<sup>18:35</sup>Pilate answered, "I'm not a Jew, am I? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"

<sup>18:36</sup>Yeshua answered, "My Kingdom is not of this world. If my Kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Judeans. But now my Kingdom is not from here."

<sup>18:37</sup>Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?"

Yeshua answered, "You say that I am a king. For this reason I have been born, and for this reason I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."

<sup>18:38</sup>Pilate said to him, "What is truth?"

When he had said this, he went out again to the Judeans, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him. <sup>18:39</sup>But you have a custom, that I should release someone to you at the Passover. Therefore do you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"

<sup>18:40</sup>Then they all shouted again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.

<sup>19:1</sup>So Pilate then took Yeshua, and flogged him. <sup>19:2</sup>The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment. <sup>19:3</sup>They kept saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they kept slapping him.

<sup>19:4</sup>Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

<sup>19:5</sup>Yeshua therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

<sup>19:6</sup>When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

<sup>19:7</sup>The Judeans answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

<sup>19:8</sup>When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid. <sup>19:9</sup>He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Yeshua, "Where are you from?" But Yeshua gave him no answer. <sup>19:10</sup>Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

<sup>19:11</sup>Yeshua answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

<sup>19:12</sup>At this, Pilate was seeking to release him, but the Judeans cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

<sup>19:13</sup>When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Yeshua out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha." <sup>19:14</sup>Now it was the Preparation Day of the Passover, at about the sixth hour.§ He said to the Judeans, "Behold, your King!"

<sup>19:15</sup>They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!"

Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?"

The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"

<sup>19:16</sup>So then he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Yeshua and led him away. <sup>19:17</sup>He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The Place of a Skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha," <sup>19:18</sup>where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Yeshua in the middle. <sup>19:19</sup>Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "YESHUA OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS." <sup>19:20</sup>Therefore many of the Judeans read this title, for the place where Yeshua was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek. <sup>19:21</sup>The chief priests of the Judeans therefore said to Pilate, "Don't write, 'The King of the Jews,' but, 'he said, I am King of the Jews.'"

§19:14 "the sixth hour" would have been 6:00 AM according to the Roman timekeeping system, or noon for the Jewish timekeeping system in use, then.

<sup>19:23</sup>Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Yeshua, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. <sup>19:24</sup>Then they said to one another, "Let's not tear it, but cast lots for it to decide whose it will be," that the Scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them. For my cloak they cast lots."<sup>h</sup>

Therefore the soldiers did these things. <sup>19:25</sup>But there were standing by the cross of Yeshua his mother, and his mother's sister, Miriam the wife of Klofah, and Miriam Magdalene. <sup>19:26</sup>Therefore when Yeshua saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!" <sup>19:27</sup>Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.

<sup>19:28</sup>After this, Yeshua, seeing<sup>i</sup> that all things were now finished, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty." <sup>19:29</sup>Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and held it at his mouth. <sup>19:30</sup>When Yeshua therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.

<sup>19:31</sup>Therefore the Judeans, because it was the Preparation Day, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. <sup>19:32</sup>Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him; <sup>19:33</sup>but when they came to Yeshua, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs. <sup>19:34</sup>However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out. <sup>19:35</sup>He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you may believe. <sup>19:36</sup>For these things happened, that the Scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken."<sup>j</sup> <sup>19:37</sup>Again another Scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."<sup>k</sup>

<sup>19:38</sup>After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Yeshua, but secretly for fear of the Judeans, asked of Pilate that he might take away Yeshua's body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore and took away his body. <sup>19:39</sup>Nicodemus, who at first came to Yeshua by night, also came bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds.<sup>l</sup> <sup>19:40</sup>So they took Yeshua's body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Judeans is to bury. <sup>19:41</sup>Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden was a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid. <sup>19:42</sup>Then because of the Judeans' Preparation Day (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Yeshua there.

<sup>20:1</sup>Now on the first day of the week, Miriam Magdalene went early, while it was still dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb. <sup>20:2</sup>Therefore she ran and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Yeshua loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"

<sup>20:3</sup>Therefore Peter and the other disciple went out, and they went toward the tomb. <sup>20:4</sup>They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first. <sup>20:5</sup>Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in. <sup>20:6</sup>Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying,<sup>20:7</sup> and the cloth that had been on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself. <sup>20:8</sup>So then the other disciple who came first to the tomb also entered in, and he saw and believed. <sup>20:9</sup>For as yet they didn't know the Scripture, that he must rise from the dead. <sup>20:10</sup>So the disciples went away again to their own homes.

<sup>20:11</sup>But Miriam was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb, <sup>20:12</sup>and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Yeshua had lain. <sup>20:13</sup>They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him." <sup>20:14</sup>When she had said this, she turned around and saw Yeshua standing, and didn't know that it was Yeshua.

<sup>20:15</sup>Yeshua said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."

She turned and said to him, "Rabboni<sup>m</sup>!" which is to say, "Great Teacher!"

<sup>20:17</sup>Yeshua said to her, "Don't hold me, for I haven't yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.'"

<sup>20:18</sup>Miriam Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her. <sup>20:19</sup>When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Judeans, Yeshua came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be to you."

<sup>20:20</sup>When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord. <sup>20:21</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you." <sup>20:22</sup>When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit! <sup>20:23</sup>If you forgive anyone's sins, they have been forgiven them. If you retain anyone's sins, they have been retained."

<sup>20:24</sup>But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn't with them when Yeshua came. <sup>20:25</sup>The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!"

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

<sup>20:26</sup>After eight days again his disciples were inside, and Thomas was with them. Yeshua came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you." <sup>20:27</sup>Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be unbelieving, but believing."

<sup>20:28</sup>Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"

<sup>20:29</sup>Yeshua said to him, "Because you have seen me,<sup>n</sup> you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."

<sup>20:30</sup>Therefore Yeshua did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book; <sup>20:31</sup>but these are written, that you may believe that Yeshua is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.

<sup>21:1</sup>After these things, Yeshua revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way. <sup>21:2</sup>Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together. <sup>21:3</sup>Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing."

They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went out, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing. <sup>21:4</sup>But when day had already come, Yeshua stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Yeshua. <sup>21:5</sup>Yeshua therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?"

They answered him, "No."

<sup>21:6</sup>He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some."

They cast it therefore, and now they weren't able to draw it in for the multitude of fish. <sup>21:7</sup>That disciple therefore whom Yeshua loved

said to Peter, "It's the Lord!"

So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea. <sup>21:8</sup>But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits<sup>o</sup> away), dragging the net full of fish. <sup>21:9</sup>So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread. <sup>21:10</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."

<sup>21:11</sup>Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.

<sup>21:12</sup>Yeshua said to them, "Come and eat breakfast."

None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.

<sup>21:13</sup>Then Yeshua came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise. <sup>21:14</sup>This is now the third time that Yeshua was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead. <sup>21:15</sup>So when they had eaten their breakfast, Yeshua said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Feed my lambs." <sup>21:16</sup>He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?"

He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you."

He said to him, "Tend my sheep." <sup>21:17</sup>He said to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?"

Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you."

Yeshua said to him, "Feed my sheep." <sup>21:18</sup>Most certainly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."

<sup>21:19</sup>Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."

<sup>21:20</sup>Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Yeshua sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Yeshua's breast at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray You?" <sup>21:21</sup>Peter seeing him, said to Yeshua, "Lord, what about this man?"

<sup>21:22</sup>Yeshua said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." <sup>21:23</sup>This saying therefore went out among the brothers<sup>p</sup>, that this disciple wouldn't die. Yet Yeshua didn't say to him that he wouldn't die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?" <sup>21:24</sup>This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true. <sup>21:25</sup>There are also many other things which Yeshua did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't have room for the books that would be written.

The Acts of the Emissaries

<sup>1:1</sup>The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Yeshua began both to do and to teach, <sup>1:2</sup>until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the emissaries whom he had chosen. <sup>1:3</sup>To these he also showed himself alive after he suffered, by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and speaking about God's Kingdom. <sup>1:4</sup>Being assembled together with them, he commanded them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me. <sup>1:5</sup>For Yochanan indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

<sup>1:6</sup>Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"

<sup>1:7</sup>He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within his own authority. <sup>1:8</sup>But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."

<sup>1:9</sup>When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight. <sup>1:10</sup>While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing, <sup>1:11</sup>who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Yeshua, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."

<sup>1:12</sup>Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away. <sup>1:13</sup>When they had come in, they went up into the upper room, where they were staying; that is Peter, Yochanan, Jacob, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, Jacob the son of Halfai, Simon the Zealot, and Judah the son of Jacob. <sup>1:14</sup>All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, along with the women, and Miriam the mother of Yeshua, and with his brothers.

<sup>1:15</sup>In these days, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples (and the number of names was about one hundred twenty), and said, <sup>1:16</sup>"Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judah, who was guide to those who took Yeshua. <sup>1:17</sup>For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry. <sup>1:18</sup>Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out. <sup>1:19</sup>It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called 'Hakel-Dema,' that is, 'The field of blood.' <sup>1:20</sup>For it is written in the scroll of Psalms,

'Let his habitation be made desolate.

Let no one dwell therein;<sup>a</sup> and,

'Let another take his office.'<sup>b</sup>

<sup>1:21</sup>"Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Yeshua went in and out among us, <sup>1:22</sup>beginning from the immersion of Yochanan, to the day that he was received up from us, of these one must become a witness with us of his resurrection."

<sup>2:1</sup>Now when the day of Shavu'ot had come, they were all with one accord in one place. <sup>2:2</sup>Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. <sup>2:3</sup>Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and one sat on each of them. <sup>2:4</sup>They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. <sup>2:5</sup>Now there were dwelling in Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. <sup>2:6</sup>When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. <sup>2:7</sup>They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't all these who speak Galileans?" <sup>2:8</sup>How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? <sup>2:9</sup>Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, <sup>2:10</sup>Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, <sup>2:11</sup>Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!" <sup>2:12</sup>They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?" <sup>2:13</sup>Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."

<sup>2:14</sup>But Peter, standing up with the Eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words. <sup>2:15</sup>For these aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day<sup>c</sup>. <sup>2:16</sup>But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:

<sup>2:17</sup>"It will be in the last days, says God, that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh.
Your sons and your daughters will prophesy.
Your young men will see visions.
Your old men will dream dreams.

<sup>2:18</sup>Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days,
I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.

<sup>2:19</sup>I will show wonders in the sky above, and signs on the earth beneath;
blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.

<sup>2:20</sup>The sun will be turned into darkness,
and the moon into blood,
before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.

<sup>2:21</sup>It will be, that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2:22</sup>"Men of Israel, hear these words! Yeshua of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which

God did by him in the midst of you, even as you yourselves know, <sup>2:23</sup>him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed; <sup>2:24</sup>whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it. <sup>2:25</sup>For David says concerning him, "I saw the Lord always before my face,

For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.

<sup>2:26</sup>Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced.

Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;

<sup>2:27</sup>because you will not leave my soul in Sheol<sup>e</sup>, neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.

<sup>2:28</sup>You made known to me the ways of life.

You will make me full of gladness with your presence.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>2:29</sup>"Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.

<sup>2:30</sup>Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Messiah to sit on his throne, <sup>2:31</sup>he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Messiah, that neither was his soul left in Sheol<sup>g</sup>, nor did his flesh see decay.

<sup>2:32</sup>This Yeshua God raised up, to which we all are witnesses. <sup>2:33</sup>Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this, which you now see and hear. <sup>2:34</sup>For David didn't ascend into the heavens, but he says himself,

"The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit by my right hand,

<sup>2:35</sup>until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>2:36</sup>"Let all the house of Israel therefore know certainly that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Yeshua whom you crucified.”

<sup>2:37</sup>Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the emissaries, “Brothers, what shall we do?”

<sup>2:38</sup>Peter said to them, “Repent, and be immersed, every one of you, in the name of Yeshua the Messiah for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. <sup>2:39</sup>For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself.” <sup>2:40</sup>With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, “Save yourselves from this crooked generation!”

<sup>2:41</sup>Then those who gladly received his word were immersed. There were added that day about three thousand souls. <sup>2:42</sup>They continued steadfastly in the emissaries’ teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer. <sup>2:43</sup>Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the emissaries. <sup>2:44</sup>All who believed were together, and had all things in common. <sup>2:45</sup>They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need. <sup>2:46</sup>Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart, <sup>2:47</sup>praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.

received strength. <sup>3:8</sup>Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God. <sup>3:9</sup>All the people saw him walking and praising God. <sup>3:10</sup>They recognized him, that it was he who used to sit begging for gifts for the needy at the Yafeh Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at what had happened to him. <sup>3:11</sup>As the lame man who was healed held on to Peter and Yochanan, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon’s, greatly wondering.

<sup>3:12</sup>When Peter saw it, he responded to the people, “You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk? <sup>3:13</sup>The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Yeshua, whom you delivered up, and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had determined to release him. <sup>3:14</sup>But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you, <sup>3:15</sup>and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, to which we are witnesses. <sup>3:16</sup>By faith in his name, his name has made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.

<sup>3:17</sup>“Now, brothers<sup>k</sup>, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers. <sup>3:18</sup>But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Messiah should suffer, he thus fulfilled.

<sup>3:19</sup>“Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, so that there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord, <sup>3:20</sup>and that he may send Messiah Yeshua, who was ordained for you before, <sup>3:21</sup>whom heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, which God spoke long ago by the mouth of his holy prophets. <sup>3:22</sup>For Moses indeed said to the fathers, ‘The Lord God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him in all things whatever he says to you. <sup>3:23</sup>It will be, that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.<sup>1</sup> <sup>3:24</sup>Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days. <sup>3:25</sup>You are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.'<sup>m</sup> <sup>3:26</sup>God, having raised up his servant, Yeshua, sent him to you first, to bless you, in turning away everyone of you from your wickedness."

<sup>4:1</sup>As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them, <sup>4:2</sup>being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Yeshua the resurrection from the dead. <sup>4:3</sup>They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening. <sup>4:4</sup>But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

<sup>4:5</sup>It happened in the morning, that their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem. <sup>4:6</sup>Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, Yochanan, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest. <sup>4:7</sup>When they had stood them in the middle of them, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"

<sup>4:8</sup>Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, <sup>4:9</sup>if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed, <sup>4:10</sup>be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Yeshua the Messiah of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole. <sup>4:11</sup>He is 'the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which has become the head of the corner.'<sup>n</sup> <sup>4:12</sup>There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, by which we must be saved!"

<sup>4:13</sup>Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and Yochanan, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Yeshua. <sup>4:14</sup>Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it. <sup>4:15</sup>But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, <sup>4:16</sup>saying, "What shall we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can't deny it. <sup>4:17</sup>But so that this spreads no further among the people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't speak to anyone in this name." <sup>4:18</sup>They called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Yeshua.

<sup>4:19</sup>But Peter and Yochanan answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves, <sup>4:20</sup>for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."

<sup>4:21</sup>When they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done. <sup>4:22</sup>For the man on whom this miracle of healing was performed was more than forty years old.

<sup>4:23</sup>Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. <sup>4:24</sup>When they heard it, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>4:25</sup>who by the mouth of your servant, David, said,

'Why do the nations rage,
and the peoples plot a vain thing?

at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness, <sup>4:30</sup>while you stretch out your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Yeshua.”

<sup>4:31</sup>When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. <sup>4:32</sup>The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things in common. <sup>4:33</sup>With great power, the emissaries gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Yeshua. Great grace was on them all. <sup>4:34</sup>For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the proceeds of the things that were sold, <sup>4:35</sup>and laid them at the emissaries’ feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need. <sup>4:36</sup>Yosi, who by the emissaries was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Encouragement), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race, <sup>4:37</sup>having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the emissaries’ feet.

<sup>5:5</sup>Hananiah, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things. <sup>5:6</sup>The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him. <sup>5:7</sup>About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what had happened, came in. <sup>5:8</sup>Peter answered her, “Tell me whether you sold the land for so much.”

She said, “Yes, for so much.”

<sup>5:9</sup>But Peter asked her, “How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out.”

<sup>5:10</sup>She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband. <sup>5:11</sup>Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things. <sup>5:12</sup>By the hands of the emissaries many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon’s porch. <sup>5:13</sup>None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them. <sup>5:14</sup>More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women. <sup>5:15</sup>They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them. <sup>5:16</sup>Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

<sup>5:17</sup>But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy, <sup>5:18</sup>and laid hands on the emissaries, and put them in public custody. <sup>5:19</sup>But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said, <sup>5:20</sup>“Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.”

<sup>5:21</sup>When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. <sup>5:22</sup>But the officers who came didn’t find them in the prison. They returned and reported, <sup>5:23</sup>“We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we opened them, we found no one inside!”

<sup>5:24</sup>Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. <sup>5:25</sup>One came and told them, “Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people.” <sup>5:26</sup>Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

them before the council. The high priest questioned them, <sup>5:28</sup>saying, "Didn't we strictly command you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."

<sup>5:29</sup>But Peter and the emissaries answered, "We must obey God rather than men. <sup>5:30</sup>The God of our fathers raised up Yeshua, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree. <sup>5:31</sup>God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins. <sup>5:32</sup>We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

<sup>5:33</sup>But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them. <sup>5:34</sup>But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the Torah, honored by all the people, and commanded to put the emissaries out for a little while. <sup>5:35</sup>He said to them, "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do. <sup>5:36</sup>For before these days Todah rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing. <sup>5:37</sup>After this man, Judah of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad. <sup>5:38</sup>Now I tell you, withdraw from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown. <sup>5:39</sup>But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!"

<sup>5:40</sup>They agreed with him. Summoning the emissaries, they beat them and commanded them not to speak in the name of Yeshua, and let them go. <sup>5:41</sup>They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Yeshua's name.

<sup>5:42</sup>Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and proclaiming Yeshua, the Messiah.

<sup>6:1</sup>Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, a complaint arose from the Hellenists<sup>1</sup> against the Hebrews, <sup>1</sup>6:1 The Hellenists used Greek language and culture, even though they were also of Hebrew descent.

because their widows were neglected in the daily service. <sup>6:2</sup>The twelve summoned the multitude of the disciples and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables. <sup>6:3</sup>Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. <sup>6:4</sup>But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."

<sup>6:8</sup>Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people. <sup>6:9</sup>But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen. <sup>6:10</sup>They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke. <sup>6:11</sup>Then they secretly induced men to say, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God." <sup>6:12</sup>They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came against him and seized him, and brought him in to the council, <sup>6:13</sup>and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the Torah. <sup>6:14</sup>For we have heard him say that this Yeshua of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us." <sup>6:15</sup>All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.

<sup>7:2</sup>He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, <sup>7:3</sup>and said to him, 'Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.<sup>r</sup> <sup>7:4</sup>Then he came out of the land of the Kasdim, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living. <sup>7:5</sup>He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his seed after him, when he still had no child. <sup>7:6</sup>God spoke in this way: that his seed would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years. <sup>7:7</sup>‘I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,’ said God, ‘and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.’<sup>s</sup> <sup>7:8</sup>He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.

<sup>7:9</sup>‘The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him, <sup>7:10</sup>and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house. <sup>7:11</sup>Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food. <sup>7:12</sup>But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent out our fathers the first time. <sup>7:13</sup>On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph’s race was revealed to Pharaoh. <sup>7:14</sup>Joseph sent, and summoned Jacob, his father, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls. <sup>7:15</sup>Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers, <sup>7:16</sup>and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the children of Hamor of Shechem.

<sup>7:17</sup>‘But as the time of the promise came close which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, <sup>7:18</sup>until there arose a different king, who didn’t know Joseph. <sup>7:19</sup>The same took advantage of our race, and mistreated our fathers, and forced them to throw out their babies, so that they wouldn’t stay alive. <sup>7:20</sup>At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father’s house. <sup>7:21</sup>When he was thrown out, Pharaoh’s daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son. <sup>7:22</sup>Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works. <sup>7:23</sup>But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers<sup>t</sup>, the children of Israel. <sup>7:24</sup>Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian. <sup>7:25</sup>He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn’t understand.

<sup>7:26</sup>‘The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, ‘Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one another?’ <sup>7:27</sup>But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?’ <sup>7:28</sup>Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?’<sup>u</sup> <sup>7:29</sup>Moses fled at this saying, and became a stranger in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.

<sup>7:30</sup>‘When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush. <sup>7:31</sup>When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him, <sup>7:32</sup>‘I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’<sup>v</sup> Moses trembled, and dared not look. <sup>7:33</sup>The Lord said to him, ‘Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. <sup>7:34</sup>I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.’<sup>w</sup>

<sup>7:35</sup>‘This Moses, whom they refused, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge?’—God has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush. <sup>7:36</sup>This man led them out, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea<sup>x</sup>, and in the wilderness for forty years. <sup>7:37</sup>This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, 'The Lord our God will raise up a prophet for you from among your brothers, like me.<sup>y/z</sup> <sup>7:38</sup>This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living oracles to give to us, <sup>7:39</sup>to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt, <sup>7:40</sup>saying to Aaron, 'Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.<sup>a</sup> <sup>7:41</sup>They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands. <sup>7:42</sup>But God turned, and gave them up to serve the army of the sky,<sup>b</sup> as it is written in the book of the prophets,

'Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?

<sup>7:43</sup>You took up the tabernacle of Moloch, the star of your god Rephan, the figures which you made to worship.

I will carry you away<sup>c</sup> beyond Babylon.'

<sup>7:44</sup>'Our fathers had the tabernacle of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses commanded him to make it according to the pattern that he had seen; <sup>7:45</sup>which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David, <sup>7:46</sup>who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob. <sup>7:47</sup>But Solomon built him a house. <sup>7:48</sup>However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says, <sup>7:49</sup>'heaven is my throne, and the earth a footstool for my feet.

What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord;

'or what is the place of my rest?

<sup>7:51</sup>'You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do.

<sup>7:52</sup>Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers.

<sup>7:53</sup>You received the Torah as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"

<sup>7:54</sup>Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth. <sup>7:55</sup>But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Yeshua standing on the right hand of God, <sup>7:56</sup>and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

<sup>8:1</sup>Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the emissaries. <sup>8:2</sup>Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him. <sup>8:3</sup>But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison. <sup>8:4</sup>Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around proclaiming the word. <sup>8:5</sup>Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Messiah. <sup>8:6</sup>The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did. <sup>8:7</sup>For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. <sup>8:8</sup>There was great joy in that city.

<sup>8:9</sup>But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who used to practice sorcery in the city, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one, <sup>8:10</sup>to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God." <sup>8:11</sup>They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries. <sup>8:12</sup>But when they believed Philip proclaiming good news concerning the Kingdom of God and the name of Yeshua the Messiah, they were immersed, both men and women. <sup>8:13</sup>Simon himself also believed. Being immersed, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles occurring, he was amazed.

<sup>8:14</sup>Now when the emissaries who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and Yochanan to them, <sup>8:15</sup>who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit; <sup>8:16</sup>for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been immersed in the name of Messiah Yeshua. <sup>8:17</sup>Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit. <sup>8:18</sup>Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the emissaries' hands, he offered them money, <sup>8:19</sup>saying, "Give me also this power, that whomever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit." <sup>8:20</sup>But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money! <sup>8:21</sup>You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God. <sup>8:22</sup>Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you. <sup>8:23</sup>For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."

<sup>8:24</sup>Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken happen to me."

<sup>8:25</sup>They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the Good News to many villages of the Samaritans. <sup>8:26</sup>But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."

<sup>8:27</sup>He arose and went; and behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch<sup>e</sup> of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship. <sup>8:28</sup>He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.

<sup>8:29</sup>The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."

<sup>8:30</sup>Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

<sup>8:31</sup>He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him. <sup>8:32</sup>Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter.

As a lamb before his shearer is silent,
so he doesn't open his mouth.

<sup>8:33</sup>In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away.

Who will declare His generation?

For his life is taken from the earth."<sup>f</sup>

<sup>8:34</sup>The eunuch<sup>g</sup> answered Philip, "Who is the prophet talking about? About himself, or about someone else?"

<sup>8:35</sup>Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Yeshua. <sup>8:36</sup>As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch<sup>h</sup> said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being immersed?"

<sup>8:37i</sup> <sup>8:38</sup>He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch,<sup>j</sup> and he immersed him.

<sup>8:39</sup>When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing. <sup>8:40</sup>But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the Good News to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

<sup>9:1</sup>But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest, <sup>9:2</sup>and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. <sup>9:3</sup>As he traveled, it happened that he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him. <sup>9:4</sup>He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

<sup>9:5</sup>He said, "Who are you, Lord?"

The Lord said, "I am Yeshua, whom you are persecuting.<sup>k</sup> <sup>9:6</sup>But<sup>l</sup> rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."

<sup>9:7</sup>The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the sound, but seeing no one. <sup>9:8</sup>Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. <sup>9:9</sup>He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.

<sup>9:10</sup>Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Hananiah. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Hananiah!"

He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord."

<sup>9:11</sup>The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judah for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying,<sup>9:12</sup> and in a vision he has seen a man named Hananiah coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."

<sup>9:13</sup>But Hananiah answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your holy ones at Jerusalem. <sup>9:14</sup>Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."

<sup>9:15</sup>But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel. <sup>9:16</sup>For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name's sake."

<sup>9:17</sup>Hananiah departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you on the road by which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit." <sup>9:18</sup>Immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and he received his sight. He arose and was immersed. <sup>9:19</sup>He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus. <sup>9:20</sup>Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Messiah, that he is the Son of God. <sup>9:21</sup>All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"

<sup>9:22</sup>But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Messiah. <sup>9:23</sup>When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him, <sup>9:24</sup>but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him, <sup>9:25</sup>but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket. <sup>9:26</sup>When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples; but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple. <sup>9:27</sup>But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the emissaries, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Yeshua. <sup>9:28</sup>He was with them entering into<sup>m</sup> Jerusalem, <sup>9:29</sup>proclaiming boldly in the name of the Lord Yeshua.<sup>n</sup> He spoke and disputed against the Hellenists,<sup>o</sup> but they were seeking to kill him. <sup>9:30</sup>When the brothers<sup>p</sup> knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him off to Tarsus. <sup>9:31</sup>So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.

<sup>9:32</sup>It happened, as Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the holy ones who lived at Lydda. <sup>9:33</sup>There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed. <sup>9:34</sup>Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Yeshua the Messiah heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose. <sup>9:35</sup>All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

<sup>9:36</sup>Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tavita, which when translated, means Dorcas.<sup>g</sup> This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did. <sup>9:37</sup>It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. <sup>9:38</sup>As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men<sup>f</sup> to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. <sup>9:39</sup>Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper room. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. <sup>9:40</sup>Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tavita, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up. <sup>9:41</sup>He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the holy ones and widows, he presented her alive. <sup>9:42</sup>And it became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord. <sup>9:43</sup>It happened, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.

<sup>10:1</sup>Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment, <sup>10:2</sup>a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave gifts for the needy generously to the people, and always prayed to God. <sup>10:3</sup>At about the ninth hour of the day<sup>s</sup>, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"

<sup>10:4</sup>He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?"

He said to him, "Your prayers and your gifts to the needy have gone up for a memorial before God. <sup>10:5</sup>Now send men to Joppa, and get Simon, who is surnamed Peter. <sup>10:6</sup>He lodges with one Simon, a tanner, whose house is by the seaside.<sup>t</sup>"

<sup>10:7</sup>When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually. <sup>10:8</sup>Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa. <sup>10:9</sup>Now on the next day as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray at about noon. <sup>10:10</sup>He became hungry and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance. <sup>10:11</sup>He saw heaven opened and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet let down by four corners on the earth, <sup>10:12</sup>in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky. <sup>10:13</sup>A voice came to him, "Rise, Peter, kill and eat!"

<sup>10:15</sup>A voice came to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not call unclean." <sup>10:16</sup>This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven. <sup>10:17</sup>Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon's house, stood before the gate, <sup>10:18</sup>and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there. <sup>10:19</sup>While Peter was pondering the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three<sup>u</sup> men seek you. <sup>10:20</sup>But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."

<sup>10:21</sup>Peter went down to the men, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?"

<sup>10:22</sup>They said, "Cornelius, a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the Jewish nation, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say." <sup>10:23</sup>So he called them in and lodged them. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. <sup>10:24</sup>On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends. <sup>10:25</sup>When it happened that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, fell down at his feet, and worshiped him. <sup>10:26</sup>But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up! I myself am also a man." <sup>10:27</sup>As he talked with him, he went in and found many gathered together. <sup>10:28</sup>He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn't call any man unholy or unclean. <sup>10:29</sup>Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"

<sup>10:30</sup>Cornelius said, "Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour,<sup>v</sup> I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, <sup>10:31</sup>and said, 'Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your gifts to the needy are remembered in the sight of God. <sup>10:32</sup>Send therefore to Joppa, and summon Simon, who is surnamed Peter. He lodges in the house of Simon a tanner, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.' <sup>10:33</sup>Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God."

which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the immersion which Yochanan preached; <sup>10:38</sup>even Yeshua of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. <sup>10:39</sup>We are witnesses of everything he did both in the countryside of Judea, and in Jerusalem; whom they also<sup>w</sup> killed, hanging him on a tree. <sup>10:40</sup>God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed, <sup>10:41</sup>not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. <sup>10:42</sup>He commanded us to proclaim to the people and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead. <sup>10:43</sup>All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins."

<sup>10:44</sup>While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word. <sup>10:45</sup>They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles. <sup>10:46</sup>For they heard them speaking in other languages and magnifying God.

Then Peter answered, <sup>10:47</sup>"Can any man forbid the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we should not be immersed?" <sup>10:48</sup>He commanded them to be immersed in the name of Yeshua the Messiah. Then they asked him to stay some days.

<sup>11:1</sup>Now the emissaries and the brothers<sup>x</sup> who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God. <sup>11:2</sup>When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him, <sup>11:3</sup>saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"

<sup>11:4</sup>But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying, <sup>11:5</sup>"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. at it, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky. <sup>11:7</sup>I also heard a voice saying to me, 'Rise, Peter, kill and eat!' <sup>11:8</sup>But I said, 'Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.' <sup>11:9</sup>But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, 'What God has cleansed, don't you call unclean.' <sup>11:10</sup>This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven. <sup>11:11</sup>Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me. <sup>11:12</sup>The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house. <sup>11:13</sup>He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, 'Send to Joppa, and get Simon, whose surname is Peter, <sup>11:14</sup>who will speak to you words by which you will be saved, you and all your house.' <sup>11:15</sup>As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning. <sup>11:16</sup>I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, 'Yochanan indeed immersed in water, but you will be immersed in the Holy Spirit.' <sup>11:17</sup>If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who was I, that I could withstand God?"

<sup>11:18</sup>When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!"

<sup>11:19</sup>They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except to Jews only. <sup>11:20</sup>But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists,<sup>y</sup> proclaiming the Lord Yeshua. <sup>11:21</sup>The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord. <sup>11:22</sup>The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent out Barnabas to go as far as Antioch, <sup>11:23</sup>who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they should remain near to the Lord. <sup>11:24</sup>For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.

<sup>11:25</sup>Barnabas went out to Tarsus to look for Saul. <sup>11:26</sup>When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that for a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Messianic in Antioch. <sup>11:27</sup>Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch. <sup>11:28</sup>One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine all over the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius. <sup>11:29</sup>As any of the disciples had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea; <sup>11:30</sup>which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

<sup>12:1</sup>Now about that time, King Herod stretched out his hands to oppress some of the assembly. <sup>12:2</sup>He killed Jacob, the brother of Yochanan, with the sword. <sup>12:3</sup>When he saw that it pleased the Judeans, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread. <sup>12:4</sup>When he had arrested him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover. <sup>12:5</sup>Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him. <sup>12:6</sup>The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

<sup>12:7</sup>And behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands. <sup>12:8</sup>The angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Put on your cloak, and follow me." <sup>12:9</sup>And he went out and followed him. He didn't know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision. <sup>12:10</sup>When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and went down one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

<sup>12:11</sup>When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent out his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting." <sup>12:12</sup>Thinking about that, he came to the house of Miriam, the mother of Yochanan whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying. <sup>12:13</sup>When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer. <sup>12:14</sup>When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter was standing in front of the gate.

<sup>12:15</sup>They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel." <sup>12:16</sup>But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed. <sup>12:17</sup>But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to Jacob, and to the brothers." Then he departed, and went to another place.

<sup>12:18</sup>Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter. <sup>12:19</sup>When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there. <sup>12:20</sup>Now Herod was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's personal aide, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food. <sup>12:21</sup>On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them. <sup>12:22</sup>The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" <sup>12:23</sup>Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms and died.

<sup>12:24</sup>But the word of God grew and multiplied. <sup>12:25</sup>Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them Yochanan whose surname was Mark.

there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. <sup>13:2</sup>As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them."

<sup>13:3</sup>Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. <sup>13:4</sup>So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus. <sup>13:5</sup>When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the Jewish synagogues. They had also Yochanan as their attendant. <sup>13:6</sup>When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Yeshua, <sup>13:7</sup>who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man summoned Barnabas and Saul, and sought to hear the word of God. <sup>13:8</sup>But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith. <sup>13:9</sup>But Saul, who is also called Paul<sup>a</sup>, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him, <sup>13:10</sup>and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? <sup>13:11</sup>Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!"

Immediately a mist and darkness fell on him. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand. <sup>13:12</sup>Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.

<sup>13:13</sup>Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. Yochanan departed from them and returned to Jerusalem. <sup>13:14</sup>But they, passing on from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down. <sup>13:15</sup>After the reading of the Torah and the Prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."

<sup>13:16</sup>Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear

God, listen. <sup>13:17</sup>The God of this people<sup>b</sup> chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them out of it. <sup>13:18</sup>For a period of about forty years he put up with them in the wilderness. <sup>13:19</sup>When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred fifty years. <sup>13:20</sup>After these things he gave them judges until Samuel the prophet. <sup>13:21</sup>Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years. <sup>13:22</sup>When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, 'I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.' <sup>13:23</sup>From this man's seed, God has brought salvation<sup>c</sup> to Israel according to his promise, <sup>13:24</sup>before his coming, when Yochanan had first preached the immersion of repentance to Israel.<sup>d</sup> <sup>13:25</sup>As Yochanan was fulfilling his course, he said, 'What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, one comes after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.' <sup>13:26</sup>Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent out to you. <sup>13:27</sup>For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him. <sup>13:28</sup>Though they found no cause for death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed. <sup>13:29</sup>When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb. <sup>13:30</sup>But God raised him from the dead, <sup>13:31</sup>and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people. <sup>13:32</sup>We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers, <sup>13:33</sup>that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Yeshua. 'You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.<sup>e</sup>

<sup>13:34</sup>"Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: 'I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.'<sup>f</sup> <sup>13:35</sup>Therefore he says also in another psalm, 'You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.'<sup>g</sup> <sup>13:36</sup>For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay. <sup>13:37</sup>But he whom God raised up saw no decay. <sup>13:38</sup>Be it known to you therefore, brothers<sup>h</sup>, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins, <sup>13:39</sup>and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the Torah of Moses. <sup>13:40</sup>Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the Prophets:

<sup>13:41</sup>'Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish;

for I work a work in your days, a work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.'<sup>i</sup>

<sup>13:42</sup>So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.

<sup>13:43</sup>Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God. <sup>13:44</sup>The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God. <sup>13:45</sup>But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.

<sup>13:46</sup>Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles. <sup>13:47</sup>For so has the Lord commanded us, saying,

'I have set you as a light for the Gentiles, that you should bring salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth.”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>13:48</sup>As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed. <sup>13:49</sup>The Lord’s word was spread abroad throughout all the region. <sup>13:50</sup>But the Jews stirred up the devout and prominent women and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders. <sup>13:51</sup>But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium. <sup>13:52</sup>The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.

<sup>14:1</sup>It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the Jewish synagogue, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed. <sup>14:2</sup>But the unbelieving<sup>k</sup> Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers. <sup>14:3</sup>Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands. <sup>14:4</sup>But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the emissaries. <sup>14:5</sup>When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to mistreat and stone them, <sup>14:6</sup>they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region. <sup>14:7</sup>There they preached the Good News.

<sup>14:8</sup>At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother’s womb, who never had walked. <sup>14:9</sup>He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole, <sup>14:10</sup>said with a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet!” He leaped up and walked. <sup>14:11</sup>When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, “The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!” <sup>14:12</sup>They called Barnabas “Jupiter,” and Paul “Mercury,” because he was the chief speaker. <sup>14:13</sup>The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice along with the multitudes. <sup>14:14</sup>But when the emissaries, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out, <sup>14:15</sup>“Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them; <sup>14:16</sup>who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways. <sup>14:17</sup>Yet he didn’t leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you<sup>l</sup> rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.”

<sup>14:18</sup>Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them. <sup>14:19</sup>But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.

<sup>14:20</sup>But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe. <sup>14:21</sup>When they had preached the Good News to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch, <sup>14:22</sup>confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the Kingdom of God. <sup>14:23</sup>When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.

<sup>14:24</sup>They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia. <sup>14:25</sup>When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia. <sup>14:26</sup>From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled. <sup>14:27</sup>When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the nations. <sup>14:28</sup>They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.

<sup>15:1</sup>Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can’t be saved.” <sup>15:2</sup>Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the emissaries and elders about this question. <sup>15:3</sup>They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers.<sup>m</sup> <sup>15:4</sup>When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the emissaries and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.

<sup>15:5</sup>But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Torah of Moses.”

<sup>15:6</sup>The emissaries and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter. <sup>15:7</sup>When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, “Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made a choice among you, that by my mouth the nations should hear the word of the Good News, and believe. <sup>15:8</sup>God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us. <sup>15:9</sup>He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith. <sup>15:10</sup>Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? <sup>15:11</sup>But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Yeshua,<sup>n</sup> just as they are.”

<sup>15:12</sup>All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the nations through them. <sup>15:13</sup>After they were silent, Jacob answered, “Brothers, listen to me. <sup>15:14</sup>Simeon has reported how God first visited the nations, to take out of them a people for his name. <sup>15:15</sup>This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written, <sup>15:16</sup>“After these things I will return.

I will again build the tabernacle of David,
which has fallen.

I will again build its ruins.

I will set it up,

<sup>15:17</sup>That the rest of men may seek after
the Lord;

All the Gentiles who are called by my
name,

Says the Lord, who does all these things.<sup>o</sup>

<sup>15:18</sup>All his works are known to God from eternity.’

<sup>15:19</sup>“Therefore my judgment is that we don’t trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God, <sup>15:20</sup>but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood. <sup>15:21</sup>For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who proclaim him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath.”

<sup>15:22</sup>Then it seemed good to the emissaries and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judah called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers.<sup>p</sup> <sup>15:23</sup>They wrote these things by their hand:

“The emissaries, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, Syria, and Cilicia: greetings. <sup>15:24</sup>Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, ‘You must be circumcised and keep the Torah,’ to whom we gave no commandment; <sup>15:25</sup>it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, <sup>15:26</sup>men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>15:27</sup>We have sent therefore Judah and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth. <sup>15:28</sup>For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things: <sup>15:29</sup>that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things sacrificed to idols, from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell.”

<sup>15:30</sup>So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter. <sup>15:31</sup>When they had read it, they rejoiced over the encouragement. <sup>15:32</sup>Judah and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them. <sup>15:33</sup>After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the emissaries. <sup>15:34q</sup> <sup>15:35</sup>But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and proclaiming the word of the Lord, with many others also.

<sup>15:36</sup>After some days Paul said to Barnabas, “Let’s return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing.” <sup>15:37</sup>Barnabas planned to take Yochanan, who was called Mark, with them also. <sup>15:38</sup>But Paul didn’t think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who had withdrawn from them in Pamphylia, and didn’t go with them to do the work. <sup>15:39</sup>Then the contention grew so sharp that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus, <sup>15:40</sup>but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God. <sup>15:41</sup>He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

<sup>16:1</sup>He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek. <sup>16:2</sup>The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him. <sup>16:3</sup>Paul wanted to have him go out with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek. <sup>16:4</sup>As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the emissaries and elders who were at Jerusalem. <sup>16:5</sup>So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.

<sup>16:6</sup>When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia. <sup>16:7</sup>When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn’t allow them. <sup>16:8</sup>Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas. <sup>16:9</sup>A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, “Come over into Macedonia and help us.” <sup>16:10</sup>When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go out to Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to proclaim the Good News to them. <sup>16:11</sup>Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis; <sup>16:12</sup>and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the foremost of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.

<sup>16:13</sup>On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together. <sup>16:14</sup>A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshiped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>16:15</sup>When she and her household were immersed, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay.” So she persuaded us.

<sup>16:16</sup>It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling. <sup>16:17</sup>Following Paul and us, she cried out, “These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us a way of salvation!” <sup>16:18</sup>She was doing this for many days.

But Paul, becoming greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the name of Yeshua the Messiah to come out of her!” It came out that very hour. <sup>16:19</sup>But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they seized Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers. <sup>16:20</sup>When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, “These men, being Jews, are agitating our city, <sup>16:21</sup>and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans.”

prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely, <sup>16:24</sup>who, having received such a command, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.

<sup>16:25</sup>But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. <sup>16:26</sup>Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone's bonds were loosened. <sup>16:27</sup>The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped. <sup>16:28</sup>But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don't harm yourself, for we are all here!"

<sup>16:29</sup>He called for lights and sprang in, and fell down trembling before Paul and Silas, <sup>16:30</sup>and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

<sup>16:31</sup>They said, "Believe in the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and you will be saved, you and your household." <sup>16:32</sup>They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.

<sup>16:33</sup>He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately immersed, he and all his household. <sup>16:34</sup>He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his household, having believed in God.

<sup>16:35</sup>But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."

<sup>16:36</sup>The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."

<sup>16:37</sup>But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most certainly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"

<sup>16:38</sup>The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans, <sup>16:39</sup>and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city. <sup>16:40</sup>They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia's house. When they had seen the brothers, they encouraged them, and departed.

<sup>17:1</sup>Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. <sup>17:2</sup>Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures, <sup>17:3</sup>explaining and demonstrating that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Yeshua, whom I proclaim to you, is the Messiah."

<sup>17:11</sup>Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily to see whether these things were so. <sup>17:12</sup>Many of them therefore believed; also of the prominent Greek women, and not a few men. <sup>17:13</sup>But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Beroea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes. <sup>17:14</sup>Then the brothers immediately sent out Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there. <sup>17:15</sup>But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him very quickly, they departed.

<sup>17:16</sup>Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols. <sup>17:17</sup>So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him. <sup>17:18</sup>Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also<sup>t</sup> were conversing with him. Some said, "What does this babbling want to say?"

Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign deities," because he preached Yeshua and the resurrection.

<sup>17:19</sup>They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you?" <sup>17:20</sup>For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean." <sup>17:21</sup>Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.

<sup>17:22</sup>Paul stood in the middle of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things. <sup>17:23</sup>For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: 'TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.' What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you. <sup>17:24</sup>The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, <sup>17:25</sup>neither is he served by men's hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things. <sup>17:26</sup>He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the boundaries of their dwellings, <sup>17:27</sup>that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. <sup>17:28</sup>For in him we live, and move, and have our being.' As some of your own poets have said, 'For we are also his offspring.' <sup>17:29</sup>Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and design of man. <sup>17:30</sup>The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all people everywhere should repent, <sup>17:31</sup>because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; of which he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."

<sup>17:32</sup>Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you again concerning this."

<sup>17:33</sup>Thus Paul went out from among them. <sup>17:34</sup>But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

<sup>18:1</sup>After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth. <sup>18:2</sup>He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them, <sup>18:3</sup>and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers. <sup>18:4</sup>He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks. <sup>18:5</sup>But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Yeshua was the Messiah. <sup>18:6</sup>When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"

<sup>18:7</sup>He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshiped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue. <sup>18:8</sup>Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, when they heard, believed and were immersed. <sup>18:9</sup>The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Don't be afraid, but speak and don't be silent; <sup>18:10</sup>for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."

<sup>18:11</sup>He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them. <sup>18:12</sup>But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat, <sup>18:13</sup>saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."

<sup>18:14</sup>But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, you Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you; <sup>18:15</sup>but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don't want to be a judge of these matters." <sup>18:16</sup>He drove them from the judgment seat.

<sup>18:17</sup>Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn't care about any of these things.

<sup>18:18</sup>Paul, having stayed after this many more days, took his leave of the brothers,<sup>u</sup> and sailed from there for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila. He shaved his head in Cenchreae, for he had a vow. <sup>18:19</sup>He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. <sup>18:20</sup>When they asked him to stay with them a longer time, he declined; <sup>18:21</sup>but taking his leave of them, and saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.

<sup>18:22</sup>When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch. <sup>18:23</sup>Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples. <sup>18:24</sup>Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the Scriptures. <sup>18:25</sup>This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Yeshua, although he knew only the immersion of Yochanan. <sup>18:26</sup>He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.

<sup>18:27</sup>When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he greatly helped those who had believed through grace; <sup>18:28</sup>for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the Scriptures that Yeshua was the Messiah.

<sup>u</sup>18:18 The word for "brothers" here and where the context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>19:1</sup>It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples. <sup>19:2</sup>He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

They said to him, "No, we haven't even heard that there is a Holy Spirit."

<sup>19:3</sup>He said, "Into what then were you immersed?"

They said, "Into Yochanan's immersion."

<sup>19:4</sup>Paul said, "Yochanan indeed immersed with the immersion of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, in Yeshua."

<sup>19:5</sup>When they heard this, they were immersed in the name of the Lord Yeshua.

<sup>19:6</sup>When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages and prophesied. <sup>19:7</sup>They were about twelve men in all. <sup>19:8</sup>He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the Kingdom of God.

<sup>19:9</sup>But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus. <sup>19:10</sup>This continued for two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Yeshua, both Jews and Greeks.

<sup>19:11</sup>God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul, <sup>19:12</sup>so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out. <sup>19:13</sup>But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to invoke over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Yeshua, saying, "We adjure you by Yeshua whom Paul preaches." <sup>19:14</sup>There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.

<sup>19:16</sup>The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. <sup>19:17</sup>This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Yeshua was magnified.

<sup>19:21</sup> Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

<sup>19:22</sup> Having sent into Macedonia two of those who served him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while. <sup>19:23</sup> About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way. <sup>19:24</sup> For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen, <sup>19:25</sup> whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth. <sup>19:26</sup> You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands. <sup>19:27</sup> Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."

<sup>19:28</sup> When they heard this they were filled with anger, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" <sup>19:29</sup> The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel. <sup>19:30</sup> When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him. <sup>19:31</sup> Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater. <sup>19:32</sup> Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together. <sup>19:33</sup> They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people. <sup>19:34</sup> But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

<sup>19:35</sup> When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus? <sup>19:36</sup> Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash. <sup>19:37</sup> For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess. <sup>19:38</sup> If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another. <sup>19:39</sup> But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly. <sup>19:40</sup> For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion." <sup>19:41</sup> When he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

<sup>20:1</sup> After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia. <sup>20:2</sup> When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece. <sup>20:3</sup> When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia. <sup>20:4</sup> These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia. <sup>20:5</sup> But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas. <sup>20:6</sup> We sailed away from Philippi after the days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

<sup>20:7</sup> On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight. <sup>20:8</sup> There were many lights

<sup>v</sup>19:19 The 50,000 pieces of silver here probably referred to 50,000 drachmas. If so, the value of the burned books was equivalent to about 160 man-years of wages for agricultural laborers in the upper room where we<sup>w</sup> were gathered together. <sup>20:9</sup>A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead. <sup>20:10</sup>Paul went down, and fell upon him, and embracing him said, "Don't be troubled, for his life is in him."

<sup>20:11</sup>When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed. <sup>20:12</sup>They brought the boy in alive, and were greatly comforted.

<sup>20:13</sup>But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, intending to take Paul aboard there, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land. <sup>20:14</sup>When he met us at Assos, we took him aboard, and came to Mitylene. <sup>20:15</sup>Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus. <sup>20:16</sup>For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be in Jerusalem on the day of Shavu'ot.

<sup>20:17</sup>From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly. <sup>20:18</sup>When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time, <sup>20:19</sup>servicing the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews; <sup>20:20</sup>how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house, <sup>20:21</sup>testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Yeshua.<sup>x</sup> <sup>20:22</sup>Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there; <sup>20:23</sup>except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me. <sup>20:24</sup>But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which

I received from the Lord Yeshua, to fully testify to the Good News of the grace of God.

<sup>20:25</sup>"Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the Kingdom of God, will see my face no more. <sup>20:26</sup>Therefore I testify to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men, <sup>20:27</sup>for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. <sup>20:28</sup>Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Lord and<sup>y</sup> God which he purchased with his own blood. <sup>20:29</sup>For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock. <sup>20:30</sup>Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them. <sup>20:31</sup>Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears. <sup>20:32</sup>Now, brothers,<sup>z</sup> I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified. <sup>20:33</sup>I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing. <sup>20:34</sup>You yourselves know that these hands served my necessities, and those who were with me. <sup>20:35</sup>In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Yeshua, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

<sup>20:36</sup>When he had spoken these things, he knelt down and prayed with them all. <sup>20:37</sup>They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him, <sup>20:38</sup>sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

<sup>21:1</sup>When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. <sup>21:2</sup>Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail. <sup>21:3</sup>When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

<sup>z</sup>20:32 The word for "brothers" here and where the context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>21:4</sup>Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:5</sup>When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed. <sup>21:6</sup>After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.

<sup>21:7</sup>When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day. <sup>21:8</sup>On the next day, we, who were Paul's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea.

We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him. <sup>21:9</sup>Now this man had four virgin daughters who prophesied. <sup>21:10</sup>As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet named Agabus came down from Judea. <sup>21:11</sup>Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: 'So will the Judeans at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.'"

<sup>21:12</sup>When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:13</sup>Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Yeshua."

<sup>21:14</sup>When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."

<sup>21:15</sup>After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem. <sup>21:16</sup>Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.

<sup>21:17</sup>When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly. <sup>21:18</sup>The day following, Paul went in with us to Jacob; and all the elders were present. <sup>21:19</sup>When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry. <sup>21:20</sup>They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Judeans of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the Torah. <sup>21:21</sup>They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs.

<sup>21:22</sup>What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.

<sup>21:23</sup>Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have taken a vow. <sup>21:24</sup>Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the Torah. <sup>21:25</sup>But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

<sup>21:26</sup>Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them. <sup>21:27</sup>When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him, <sup>21:28</sup>crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the Torah, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!" <sup>21:29</sup>For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.

<sup>21:30</sup>All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut. <sup>21:31</sup>As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.

<sup>21:32</sup>Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul. <sup>21:33</sup>Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done. <sup>21:34</sup>Some shouted one thing, and some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.

He said, "Do you know Greek? <sup>21:38</sup>Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"

<sup>21:39</sup>But Paul said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."

<sup>21:40</sup>When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,

<sup>22:2</sup>When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said, <sup>22:3</sup>"I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict tradition of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day. <sup>22:4</sup>I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. <sup>22:5</sup>As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and traveled to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished. <sup>22:6</sup>It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me. <sup>22:7</sup>I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?' <sup>22:8</sup>I answered, 'Who are you, Lord?' He said to me, 'I am Yeshua of Nazareth, whom you persecute.'

<sup>22:9</sup>"Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand the voice of him who spoke to me. <sup>22:10</sup>I said, 'What shall I do, Lord?' The Lord said to me, 'Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.' <sup>22:11</sup>When I couldn't see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus. <sup>22:12</sup>One Hananiah, a devout man according to the Torah, well reported of by all the Jews who lived in Damascus, <sup>22:13</sup>came to me, and standing by me said to me, 'Brother Saul, receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at him. <sup>22:14</sup>He said, 'The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth. <sup>22:15</sup>For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard. <sup>22:16</sup>Now why do you wait? Arise, be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

<sup>22:17</sup>"It happened that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance, <sup>22:18</sup>and saw him saying to me, 'Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.' <sup>22:19</sup>I said, 'Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you. <sup>22:20</sup>When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.'

<sup>22:21</sup>"He said to me, 'Depart, for I will send you out far from here to the Gentiles.'"

<sup>22:22</sup>They listened to him until he said that; then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn't fit to live!"

<sup>22:23</sup>As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air, <sup>22:24</sup>the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that. <sup>22:25</sup>When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"

<sup>22:26</sup>When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, "Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!"

<sup>22:27</sup>The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?"

He said, "Yes."

<sup>22:28</sup>The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price."

Paul said, "But I was born a Roman."

<sup>22:29</sup>Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him. <sup>22:30</sup>But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Judeans, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.

<sup>23:1</sup>Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, "Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day."

<sup>23:2</sup>The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.

<sup>23:3</sup>Then Paul said to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the Torah, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?"

<sup>23:4</sup>Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's high priest?"

<sup>23:5</sup>Paul said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.'"<sup>a</sup>

<sup>23:6</sup>But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"

<sup>23:7</sup>When he had said this, an argument arose between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided. <sup>23:8</sup>For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these. <sup>23:9</sup>A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let's not fight against God!"

<sup>23:10</sup>When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.

<sup>23:11</sup>The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, "Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome."

<sup>23:12</sup>When it was day, some of the Judeans

banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul. <sup>23:13</sup>There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy. <sup>23:14</sup>They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. <sup>23:15</sup>Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."

<sup>23:16</sup>But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul. <sup>23:17</sup>Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."

<sup>23:18</sup>So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, summoned me and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."

<sup>23:19</sup>The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"

<sup>23:20</sup>He said, "The Judeans have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down to the council tomorrow, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him. <sup>23:21</sup>Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."

<sup>23:22</sup>So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have revealed these things to me." <sup>23:23</sup>He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night<sup>b</sup>." <sup>23:24</sup>He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix the governor. <sup>23:25</sup>He wrote a letter like this:

<sup>23:27</sup>“This man was seized by the Judeans, and was about to be killed by them, when I came with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman. <sup>23:28</sup>Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council. <sup>23:29</sup>I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but not to be charged with anything worthy of death or of imprisonment. <sup>23:30</sup>When I was told that the Judeans lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell.”

<sup>23:31</sup>So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris. <sup>23:32</sup>But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks. <sup>23:33</sup>When they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Paul to him. <sup>23:34</sup>When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said, <sup>23:35</sup>“I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive.” He commanded that he be kept in Herod’s palace.

<sup>24:1</sup>After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul. <sup>24:2</sup>When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that excellent measures are coming to this nation, <sup>24:3</sup>we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness. <sup>24:4</sup>But, that I don’t delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words. <sup>24:5</sup>For we have found this man to be a plague, an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes. <sup>24:6</sup>He even tried to profane the temple, and we arrested him.<sup>c</sup> <sup>24:7d</sup> <sup>24:8e</sup>By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him.”

<sup>24:9</sup>The Judeans also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so. <sup>24:10</sup>When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, “Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense, <sup>24:11</sup>seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem. <sup>24:12</sup>In the temple they didn’t find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city. <sup>24:13</sup>Nor can they prove to you the things of which they now accuse me. <sup>24:14</sup>But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the Torah, and which are written in the Prophets; <sup>24:15</sup>having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. <sup>24:16</sup>Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men. <sup>24:17</sup>Now after some years, I came to bring gifts for the needy to my nation, and offerings; <sup>24:18</sup>amid which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, not with a mob, nor with turmoil. <sup>24:19</sup>They ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me. <sup>24:20</sup>Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council, <sup>24:21</sup>unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, ‘Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!’”

<sup>24:22</sup>But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, “When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case.” <sup>24:23</sup>He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him. <sup>24:24</sup>But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>24:25</sup>As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, “Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will summon you.” <sup>24:26</sup>Meanwhile, he also hoped that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him. <sup>24:27</sup>But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Judeans, Felix left Paul in bonds.

<sup>25:1</sup>Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea. <sup>25:2</sup>Then the high priest and the principal men of the Judeans informed him against Paul, and they begged him, <sup>25:3</sup>asking a favor against him, that he would summon him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way. <sup>25:4</sup>However Festus answered that Paul should be kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly. <sup>25:5</sup>"Let them therefore," said he, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."

<sup>25:6</sup>When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought. <sup>25:7</sup>When he had come, the Judeans who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove, <sup>25:8</sup>while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."

<sup>25:9</sup>But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Judeans, answered Paul and said, "Are you willing to go up to Jerusalem, and be judged by me there concerning these things?"

<sup>25:10</sup>But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Judeans, as you also know very well. <sup>25:11</sup>For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that they accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"

<sup>25:12</sup>Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you shall go."

Jerusalem, the chief priests and the Jewish elders informed me, asking for a sentence against him. <sup>25:16</sup>To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused has met the accusers face to face, and has had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him. <sup>25:17</sup>When therefore they had come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought. <sup>25:18</sup>Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed; <sup>25:19</sup>but had certain questions against him about their own religion, and about one Yeshua, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. <sup>25:20</sup>Being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, I asked whether he was willing to go to Jerusalem and there be judged concerning these matters. <sup>25:21</sup>But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I could send him to Caesar."

<sup>25:22</sup>Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself."

"Tomorrow," he said, "you shall hear him."

<sup>25:23</sup>So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in. <sup>25:24</sup>Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Judeans petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer. <sup>25:25</sup>But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him. <sup>25:26</sup>Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, King Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write. <sup>25:27</sup>For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."

Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense. <sup>26:2</sup>"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things that I am accused by the Judeans, <sup>26:3</sup>especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.

<sup>26:4</sup>"Indeed, all Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem; <sup>26:5</sup>having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee. <sup>26:6</sup>Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers, <sup>26:7</sup>which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Judeans, King Agrippa! <sup>26:8</sup>Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?

<sup>26:9</sup>"I myself most certainly thought that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Yeshua of Nazareth. <sup>26:10</sup>This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the holy ones in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them. <sup>26:11</sup>Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

<sup>26:12</sup>"Whereupon as I traveled to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests, <sup>26:13</sup>at noon, O king, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me. <sup>26:14</sup>When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, 'Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

<sup>26:15</sup>"I said, 'Who are you, Lord?'

"He said, 'I am Yeshua, whom you are persecuting. <sup>26:16</sup>But arise, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose: to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you; <sup>26:17</sup>delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, <sup>26:18</sup>to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.'

<sup>26:19</sup>"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, <sup>26:20</sup>but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance. <sup>26:21</sup>For this reason Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me. <sup>26:22</sup>Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the Prophets and Moses said would happen, <sup>26:23</sup>how the Messiah must suffer, and how, by the resurrection of the dead, he would be first to proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles."

<sup>26:24</sup>As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"

<sup>26:25</sup>But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but boldly declare words of truth and reasonableness. <sup>26:26</sup>For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner. <sup>26:27</sup>King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."

<sup>26:28</sup>Agrippa said to Paul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Mes-sianic?"

<sup>26:29</sup>Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."

<sup>26:30</sup>The king rose up with the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them. <sup>26:31</sup>When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds." <sup>26:32</sup>Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

<sup>27:1</sup>When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band. <sup>27:2</sup>Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea; Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us. <sup>27:3</sup>The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself. <sup>27:4</sup>Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. <sup>27:5</sup>When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia. <sup>27:6</sup>There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board. <sup>27:7</sup>When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone. <sup>27:8</sup>With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.

<sup>27:9</sup>When much time had passed and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them, <sup>27:10</sup>and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives." <sup>27:11</sup>But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul. <sup>27:12</sup>Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised going to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.

<sup>27:13</sup>When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore. <sup>27:14</sup>But before long, a stormy wind beat down from shore, which is called Euroclydon.<sup>f</sup> <sup>27:15</sup>When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along. <sup>27:16</sup>Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat. <sup>27:17</sup>After they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven along. <sup>27:18</sup>As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard. <sup>27:19</sup>On the third day, they threw out the ship's tackle with their own hands. <sup>27:20</sup>When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small storm pressed on us, all hope that we would be saved was now taken away.

Paul stood up in the middle of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss. <sup>27:22</sup>Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship. <sup>27:23</sup>For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve, <sup>27:24</sup>saying, 'Don't be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.' <sup>27:25</sup>Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me. <sup>27:26</sup>But we must run aground on a certain island."

<sup>27:27</sup>But when the fourteenth night had come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land. <sup>27:28</sup>They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms.<sup>g</sup> After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.<sup>h</sup> <sup>27:29</sup>Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight. <sup>27:30</sup>As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow, <sup>27:31</sup>Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved." <sup>27:32</sup>Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let it fall off.

<sup>27:33</sup>While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing. <sup>27:34</sup>Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for not a hair will perish from any of your heads." <sup>27:35</sup>When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat. <sup>27:36</sup>Then they all cheered up, and they also took food. <sup>27:37</sup>In all, we were two hundred seventy-six souls on the ship. <sup>27:38</sup>When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea. <sup>27:39</sup>When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it. <sup>27:40</sup>Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach. <sup>27:41</sup>But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.

<sup>27:42</sup>The soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape. <sup>27:43</sup>But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go toward the land; <sup>27:44</sup>and the rest should follow, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.

<sup>28:1</sup>When we had escaped, then they<sup>i</sup> learned that the island was called Malta. <sup>28:2</sup>The natives showed us uncommon kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold. <sup>28:3</sup>But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand. <sup>28:4</sup>When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live." <sup>28:5</sup>However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed. <sup>28:6</sup>But they expected that he would have swollen or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they watched for a long time and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

<sup>28:7</sup>Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us for three days. <sup>28:8</sup>It happened that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him. <sup>28:9</sup>Then when this was done, the rest also who had diseases in the island came, and were cured. <sup>28:10</sup>They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.

<sup>j</sup>28:14 The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>28:11</sup>After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers." <sup>28:12</sup>Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days. <sup>28:13</sup>From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli, <sup>28:14</sup>where we found brothers,<sup>j</sup> and were entreated to stay with them for seven days. So we came to Rome. <sup>28:15</sup>From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns. When Paul saw them, he thanked God, and took courage. <sup>28:16</sup>When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.

<sup>28:17</sup>It happened that after three days Paul called together those who were the Jewish leaders. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans, <sup>28:18</sup>who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me. <sup>28:19</sup>But when the Judeans spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation. <sup>28:20</sup>For this cause therefore I asked to see you and to speak with you. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."

<sup>28:21</sup>They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you. <sup>28:22</sup>But we desire to hear from you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."

<sup>28:23</sup>When they had appointed him a day, many people came to him at his lodging. He explained to them, testifying about the Kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Yeshua, both from the Torah of Moses and from the Prophets, from morning until evening. <sup>28:24</sup>Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved. <sup>28:25</sup>When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke rightly through Isaiah, the prophet, to our fathers, <sup>28:26</sup>saying,

'Go to this people, and say,
in hearing, you will hear,
but will in no way understand.

In seeing, you will see,
but will in no way perceive.

<sup>28:27</sup>For this people's heart has grown callous.
Their ears are dull of hearing.
Their eyes they have closed.

Lest they should see with their eyes,
hear with their ears,
understand with their heart,
and would turn again,
and I would heal them.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>28:28</sup>"Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the nations. They will also listen."

<sup>28:29</sup>When he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.

<sup>28:30</sup>Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who were coming to him, <sup>28:31</sup>proclaiming the Kingdom of God, and teaching the things concerning the Lord Yeshua the Messiah with all boldness, without hindrance.

Paul's Letter to the Romans

<sup>1:8</sup>First, I thank my God through Yeshua the Messiah for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world. <sup>1:9</sup>For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the Good News of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers, <sup>1:10</sup>requesting, if by any means now at last I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you. <sup>1:11</sup>For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end that you may be established; <sup>1:12</sup>that is, that I with you may be encouraged in you, each of us by the other's faith, both yours and mine.

<sup>1:13</sup>Now I don't desire to have you unaware, brothers, that I often planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among the rest of the Gentiles. <sup>1:14</sup>I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish. <sup>1:15</sup>So, as much as is in me, I am eager to proclaim the Good News to you also who are in Rome. <sup>1:16</sup>For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Messiah, for it is the power of God for salvation for everyone who believes; for the Jew first, and also for the Greek. <sup>1:17</sup>For in it is revealed God's righteousness from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."<sup>a</sup> <sup>1:18</sup>For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, <sup>1:19</sup>because that which is known of God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them. <sup>1:20</sup>For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse. <sup>1:21</sup>Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.

<sup>1:26</sup>For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature. <sup>1:27</sup>Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error. <sup>1:28</sup>Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting; <sup>1:29</sup>being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, malice; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers, <sup>1:30</sup>backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, <sup>1:31</sup>without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful; <sup>1:32</sup>who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also approve of those who practice them.

<sup>2:1</sup>Therefore you are without excuse, O man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things. <sup>2:2</sup>We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things. <sup>2:3</sup>Do you think this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God? <sup>2:4</sup>Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance? <sup>2:5</sup>But according to your hardness and unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath, revelation, and of the righteous judgment of God; <sup>2:6</sup>who "will pay back to everyone according to their works:"<sup>b</sup> <sup>2:7</sup>to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory, honor, and incorruptibility, eternal life; <sup>2:8</sup>but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation, <sup>2:9</sup>oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who works evil, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.

<sup>2:10</sup>But glory, honor, and peace go to every man who works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. <sup>2:11</sup>For there is no partiality with God. <sup>2:12</sup>For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. <sup>2:13</sup>For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified <sup>2:14</sup>(for when Gentiles who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves, <sup>2:15</sup>in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them) <sup>2:16</sup>in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my Good News, by Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>2:17</sup>Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God, <sup>2:18</sup>and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law, <sup>2:19</sup>and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness, <sup>2:20</sup>a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babies, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth. <sup>2:21</sup>You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who proclaim that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal? <sup>2:22</sup>You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery. Do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?

<sup>2:23</sup>You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God? <sup>2:24</sup>For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you,"<sup>c</sup> just as it is written. <sup>2:25</sup>For circumcision indeed profits, if you are a doer of the law, but if you are a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision. <sup>2:26</sup>If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision? <sup>2:27</sup>Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law? <sup>2:28</sup>For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh; <sup>2:29</sup>but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

<sup>3:1</sup>Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision? <sup>3:2</sup>Much in every way! Because first of all, they were entrusted with the oracles of God. <sup>3:3</sup>For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith nullify the faithfulness of God? <sup>3:4</sup>May it never be! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, "That you might be justified in your words, and might prevail when you come into judgment."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>3:5</sup>But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do. <sup>3:6</sup>May it never be! For then how will God judge the world? <sup>3:7</sup>For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner? <sup>3:8</sup>Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned. <sup>3:9</sup>What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously warned both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin. <sup>3:10</sup>As it is written,

"There is no one righteous; no, not one.

<sup>3:11</sup>There is no one who understands.

There is no one who seeks after God.

<sup>3:12</sup>They have all turned aside.
 They have together become unprofitable.
 There is no one who does good,
 no, not, so much as one.<sup>e</sup> <sup>3:13</sup>“Their throat is an open tomb.
 With their tongues they have used deceit.”<sup>f</sup>
 “The poison of vipers is under their lips;”<sup>g</sup> <sup>3:14</sup>“whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.”<sup>h</sup>
<sup>3:15</sup>“Their feet are swift to shed blood.
<sup>3:16</sup>Destruction and misery are in their ways.
<sup>3:17</sup>The way of peace, they haven’t known.”<sup>i</sup>
<sup>3:18</sup>“There is no fear of God before their eyes.”<sup>j</sup> <sup>3:19</sup>Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God. <sup>3:20</sup>Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin. <sup>3:21</sup>But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the Torah and the Prophets; <sup>3:22</sup>even the righteousness of God through faith in Yeshua the Messiah to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction, <sup>3:23</sup>for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God; <sup>3:24</sup>being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Messiah Yeshua; <sup>3:25</sup>whom God set forth to be an atoning sacrifice<sup>k</sup>, through faith in his blood, for a demonstration of his righteousness through the passing over of prior sins, in God’s forbearance; <sup>3:26</sup>to demonstrate his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Yeshua.
<sup>3:27</sup>Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what kind of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith. <sup>3:28</sup>We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law. <sup>3:29</sup>Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn’t he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also, <sup>3:30</sup>since indeed there is one God who will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith. <sup>3:31</sup>Do we then nullify the law through faith? May it never be! No, we establish the law.

<sup>4:1</sup>What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh?
<sup>4:2</sup>For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward
 God. <sup>4:3</sup>For what does the Scripture say?
 “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”<sup>l</sup> <sup>4:4</sup>Now to him who works, the reward is not counted as grace, but as something owed. <sup>4:5</sup>But to him who doesn’t work, but believes in him who justifies the un-godly, his faith is accounted for righteousness.
<sup>4:6</sup>Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness
 apart from works,

<sup>4:7</sup>“Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven,
 whose sins are covered.

<sup>4:8</sup>Blessed is the man whom the Lord will by no means charge with sin.”<sup>m</sup>

<sup>4:9</sup>Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also?
 For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness. <sup>4:10</sup>How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision. <sup>4:11</sup>He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they might be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them. <sup>4:12</sup>He is the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision. <sup>4:13</sup>For the promise to Abraham and to his seed that he should be heir of the world wasn’t through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. <sup>4:14</sup>For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect. <sup>4:15</sup>For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience. <sup>4:16</sup>For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all. <sup>4:17</sup>As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations."<sup>n</sup> This is in the presence of him whom he believed: God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were. <sup>4:18</sup>Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be."<sup>o</sup> <sup>4:19</sup>Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb. <sup>4:20</sup>Yet, looking to the promise of God, he didn't waver through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God, <sup>4:21</sup>and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was also able to perform. <sup>4:22</sup>Therefore it also was "reckoned to him for righteousness."<sup>p</sup> <sup>4:23</sup>Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone, <sup>4:24</sup>but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Yeshua, our Lord, from the dead, <sup>4:25</sup>who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.

<sup>5:1</sup>Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>5:2</sup>through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God. <sup>5:3</sup>Not only this, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance; <sup>5:4</sup>and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope: <sup>5:5</sup>and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit who was given to us. <sup>5:6</sup>For while we were yet weak, at the right time Messiah died for the ungodly. <sup>5:7</sup>For one will hardly die for a righteous man. Yet perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die. <sup>5:8</sup>But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Messiah died for us.

<sup>5:9</sup>Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him. <sup>5:10</sup>For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.

<sup>5:11</sup>Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through whom we have now received the reconciliation. <sup>5:12</sup>Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned. <sup>5:13</sup>For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law. <sup>5:14</sup>Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come.

<sup>5:15</sup>But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Yeshua the Messiah, abound to the many. <sup>5:16</sup>The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification. <sup>5:17</sup>For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>5:18</sup>So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life. <sup>5:19</sup>For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one, many will be made righteous. <sup>5:20</sup>The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace abounded more exceedingly; <sup>5:21</sup>that as sin reigned in death, even so grace might reign through righteousness to eternal life through Yeshua the Messiah our Lord.

<sup>6:1</sup>What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound? <sup>6:2</sup>May it never be! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer? <sup>6:3</sup>Or don't you know that all we who were immersed into Messiah Yeshua were immersed into his death? <sup>6:4</sup>We were buried therefore with him through immersion to death, that just like Messiah was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life. <sup>6:5</sup>For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection; <sup>6:6</sup>knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin. <sup>6:7</sup>For he who has died has been freed from sin. <sup>6:8</sup>But if we died with Messiah, we believe that we will also live with him; <sup>6:9</sup>knowing that Messiah, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him! <sup>6:10</sup>For the death that he died, he died to sin one time; but the life that he lives, he lives to God. <sup>6:11</sup>Thus consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

<sup>6:12</sup>Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts. <sup>6:13</sup>Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God. <sup>6:14</sup>For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace. <sup>6:15</sup>What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? May it never be! <sup>6:16</sup>Don't you know that to whom you present yourselves as servants to obedience, his servants you are whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness? <sup>6:17</sup>But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were bondservants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto you were delivered. <sup>6:18</sup>Being made free from sin, you became bondservants of righteousness.

<sup>6:19</sup>I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification. <sup>6:20</sup>For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. <sup>6:21</sup>What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death. <sup>6:22</sup>But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life. <sup>6:23</sup>For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

<sup>7:1</sup>Or don't you know, brothers<sup>q</sup> (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives? <sup>7:2</sup>For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband. <sup>7:3</sup>So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man. <sup>7:4</sup>Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Messiah, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to God. <sup>7:5</sup>For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death. <sup>7:6</sup>But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

<sup>7:7</sup>What shall we say then? Is the law sin? May it never be! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."<sup>r</sup> <sup>7:8</sup>But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead. <sup>7:9</sup>I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. <sup>7:10</sup>The commandment, which was for life, this I found to be for death; <sup>7:11</sup>for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me. <sup>7:12</sup>Therefore the law indeed is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.

death to me? May it never be! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful. <sup>7:14</sup>For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin. <sup>7:15</sup>For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do. <sup>7:16</sup>But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good. <sup>7:17</sup>So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>7:18</sup>For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good. <sup>7:19</sup>For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice. <sup>7:20</sup>But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me. <sup>7:21</sup>I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present. <sup>7:22</sup>For I delight in God's law after the inward man, <sup>7:23</sup>but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members. <sup>7:24</sup>What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death? <sup>7:25</sup>I thank God through Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord! So then with the mind, I myself serve God's law, but with the flesh, the sin's law.

<sup>8:1</sup>There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Messiah Yeshua, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.<sup>s</sup> <sup>8:2</sup>For the law of the Spirit of life in Messiah Yeshua made me free from the law of sin and of death. <sup>8:3</sup>For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God did, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, he condemned sin in the flesh; <sup>8:4</sup>that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. <sup>8:5</sup>For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit. <sup>8:6</sup>For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace; <sup>8:7</sup>because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God's law, neither indeed can it be. <sup>8:8</sup>Those who are in the flesh can't please God. <sup>8:9</sup>But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn't have the Spirit of Messiah, he is not his. <sup>8:10</sup>If Messiah is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness. <sup>8:11</sup>But if the Spirit of him who raised up Yeshua from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Messiah Yeshua from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you. <sup>8:12</sup>So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh. <sup>8:13</sup>For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. <sup>8:14</sup>For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God. <sup>8:15</sup>For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption, by whom we cry, "Abba!† Father!"

<sup>8:16</sup>The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God; <sup>8:17</sup>and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint heirs with Messiah; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him. <sup>8:18</sup>For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us. <sup>8:19</sup>For the creation waits with eager expectation for the children of God to be revealed. <sup>8:20</sup>For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but because of him who subjected it, in hope <sup>8:21</sup>that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God. <sup>8:22</sup>For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now. <sup>8:23</sup>Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body. <sup>8:24</sup>For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees? <sup>8:25</sup>But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience. <sup>8:26</sup>In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered. <sup>8:27</sup>He who searches the hearts

<sup>s</sup>8:1 NU omits "who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit"

knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the holy ones according to God.

<sup>8:28</sup>We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose. <sup>8:29</sup>For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.<sup>u</sup> <sup>8:30</sup>Whom he predestined, those he also called. Whom he called, those he also justified. Whom he justified, those he also glorified.

<sup>8:31</sup>What then shall we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? <sup>8:32</sup>He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things? <sup>8:33</sup>Who could bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who justifies. <sup>8:34</sup>Who is he who condemns? It is Messiah who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.

<sup>8:35</sup>Who shall separate us from the love of Messiah? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword? <sup>8:36</sup>Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."<sup>v</sup> <sup>8:37</sup>No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. <sup>8:38</sup>For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, <sup>8:39</sup>nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

<sup>9:1</sup>I tell the truth in Messiah. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit, <sup>9:2</sup>that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart. <sup>9:3</sup>For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Messiah for my brothers' sake, my relatives according to the flesh, <sup>9:4</sup>who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises; <sup>9:5</sup>of whom are the fathers, and from whom is Messiah as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.

<sup>9:6</sup>But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel. <sup>9:7</sup>Neither, because they are Abraham's seed, are they all children. But, "In Isaac will your seed be called."<sup>w</sup> <sup>9:8</sup>That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as a seed. <sup>9:9</sup>For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."<sup>x</sup> <sup>9:10</sup>Not only so, but Rebekah also conceived by one, by our father Isaac. <sup>9:11</sup>For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls,<sup>y</sup> <sup>9:12</sup>it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."<sup>z</sup> <sup>9:13</sup>Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>9:14</sup>What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? May it never be! <sup>9:15</sup>For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."<sup>b</sup> <sup>9:16</sup>So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy. <sup>9:17</sup>For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth."<sup>c</sup> <sup>9:18</sup>So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires. <sup>9:19</sup>You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?" <sup>9:20</sup>But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me and no one who believes in him will be disappointed."<sup>j</sup>

10:1 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved. 10:2 For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge. 10:3 For being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn't subject themselves to the righteousness of God. 10:4 For Messiah is the fulfillment<sup>k</sup> of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes. 10:5 For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them."<sup>l</sup> 10:6 But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don't say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'<sup>m</sup> (that is, to bring Messiah down); 10:7 or, 'Who will descend into the abyss?'<sup>n</sup> (that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead.)" 10:8 But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;"<sup>o</sup> that is, the word of faith, which we proclaim: 10:9 that if you will confess with your mouth that Yeshua is Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. 10:10 For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. 10:11 For the Scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be disappointed."<sup>p</sup>

10:12 For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him. 10:13 For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved."<sup>q</sup> 10:14 How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a proclaimer?<sup>10:15</sup> And how will they proclaim unless they are sent? As it is written:

"How beautiful are the feet of those who proclaim the Good News of peace, who bring glad tidings of good things!"<sup>r</sup>

<sup>10:16</sup> But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"<sup>s</sup> <sup>10:17</sup> So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. <sup>10:18</sup> But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most certainly,

"Their sound went out into all the earth, their words to the ends of the world."<sup>t</sup>

<sup>10:19</sup> But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says,

"I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, with a nation void of understanding I will make you angry."<sup>u</sup> <sup>10:20</sup> Isaiah is very bold, and says, "I was found by those who didn't seek me.

I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."<sup>v</sup>

<sup>10:21</sup> But as to Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>11:1</sup> I ask then, did God reject his people? May it never be! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin. <sup>11:2</sup> God didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the Scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel: <sup>11:3</sup> "Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life."<sup>x</sup> <sup>11:4</sup> But how does God answer him?

"I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."<sup>y</sup>

<sup>11:5</sup> Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

<sup>11:6</sup> And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.

<sup>11:7</sup> What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the chosen ones obtained it, and the rest were hardened.

<sup>11:8</sup> According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."<sup>z</sup> <sup>11:9</sup> David says,

"Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, a stumbling block, and a retribution to them.

<sup>11:10</sup> Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see.

Bow down their back always."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>11:11</sup> I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? May it never be! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy. <sup>11:12</sup> Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?

<sup>11:13</sup> For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an emissary to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry; <sup>11:14</sup> if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them. <sup>11:15</sup> For if the rejection of them is the reconciling of the world, what would their acceptance be, but life from the dead? <sup>11:16</sup> If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches.

<sup>11:17</sup> But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root and of the richness of the olive tree;

<sup>11:18</sup> don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who support the root, but the root supports you. <sup>11:19</sup> You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in."

<sup>11:20</sup> True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear; <sup>11:21</sup> for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you. <sup>11:22</sup>See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off. <sup>11:23</sup>They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again. <sup>11:24</sup>For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? <sup>11:25</sup>For I don't desire you to be ignorant, brothers,<sup>b</sup> of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a partial hardening has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles has come in, <sup>11:26</sup>and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written,

<sup>11:27</sup>This is my covenant to them, when I will take away their sins."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>11:28</sup>Concerning the Good News, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake.

<sup>11:29</sup>For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable. <sup>11:30</sup>For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience, <sup>11:31</sup>even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy. <sup>11:32</sup>For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.

<sup>11:33</sup>Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!

<sup>11:34</sup>"For who has known the mind of the Lord?
Or who has been his counselor?"<sup>d</sup>

<sup>11:35</sup>"Or who has first given to him, and it will be repaid to him again?"<sup>e</sup>

<sup>11:36</sup>For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.

mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service. <sup>12:2</sup>Don't be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good, well-pleasing, and perfect will of God. <sup>12:3</sup>For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith. <sup>12:4</sup>For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function, <sup>12:5</sup>so we, who are many, are one body in Messiah, and individually members one of another. <sup>12:6</sup>Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith; <sup>12:7</sup>or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching; <sup>12:8</sup>or he who exhorts, to his exhorting; he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.

<sup>12:9</sup>Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good.

<sup>12:10</sup>In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor preferring one another; <sup>12:11</sup>not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; <sup>12:12</sup>rejoicing in hope; enduring in troubles; continuing steadfastly in prayer; <sup>12:13</sup>contributing to the needs of the holy ones; given to hospitality. <sup>12:14</sup>Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse. <sup>12:15</sup>Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep. <sup>12:16</sup>Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits. <sup>12:17</sup>Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men. <sup>12:18</sup>If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men. <sup>12:19</sup>Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord."<sup>f</sup> <sup>12:20</sup>Therefore for in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>13:1</sup>Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who exist are ordained by God. <sup>13:2</sup>Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment. <sup>13:3</sup>For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same, <sup>13:4</sup>for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a servant of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil. <sup>13:5</sup>Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake. <sup>13:6</sup>For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are servants of God's service, attending continually on this very thing. <sup>13:7</sup>Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor. <sup>13:8</sup>Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

<sup>13:9</sup>For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not give false testimony," "You shall not covet,"<sup>hi</sup> and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>i</sup> <sup>13:10</sup>Love doesn't harm a neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law. <sup>13:11</sup>Do this, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awaken out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed. <sup>13:12</sup>The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light. <sup>13:13</sup>Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy. <sup>13:14</sup>But put on the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.

<sup>14:1</sup>Now accept one who is weak in faith, but not for disputes over opinions. <sup>14:2</sup>One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats only vegetables. <sup>14:3</sup>Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has accepted him. <sup>14:4</sup>Who are you who judge another's servant? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.

<sup>14:5</sup>One man esteems one day as more important. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind. <sup>14:6</sup>He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks. <sup>14:7</sup>For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself. <sup>14:8</sup>For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's. <sup>14:9</sup>For to this end Messiah died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

<sup>14:10</sup>But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Messiah. <sup>14:11</sup>For it is written, "As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bow.

Every tongue will confess to God."<sup>k</sup>

<sup>14:12</sup>So then each one of us will give account of himself to God. <sup>14:13</sup>Therefore let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion for falling. <sup>14:14</sup>I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Yeshua, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean. <sup>14:15</sup>Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom Messiah died. <sup>14:16</sup>Then don't let your good be slandered, <sup>14:17</sup>for the Kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. <sup>14:18</sup>For he who serves Messiah in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men. <sup>14:19</sup>So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things by which we may build one another up. <sup>14:20</sup>Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating. <sup>14:21</sup>It is good to not eat meat, drink wine, nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.

<sup>14:22</sup>Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves. <sup>14:23</sup>But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

<sup>14:24</sup>Now to him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the proclaiming of Yeshua the Messiah, according to the revelation of the mystery which has been kept secret through long ages, <sup>14:25</sup>but now is revealed, and by the Scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the eternal God, is made known for obedience of faith to all the nations; <sup>14:26</sup>to the only wise God, through Yeshua the Messiah, to whom be the glory forever! Amen.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>15:1</sup>Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves. <sup>15:2</sup>Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up. <sup>15:3</sup>For even Messiah didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me."<sup>m</sup> <sup>15:4</sup>For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through encouragement of the Scriptures we might have hope. <sup>15:5</sup>Now the God of patience and of encouragement grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Messiah Yeshua, <sup>15:6</sup>that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>15:7</sup>Therefore accept one another, even as Messiah also accepted you,<sup>n</sup> to the glory of God. <sup>15:8</sup>Now I say that Messiah has been made a servant of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers, <sup>15:9</sup>and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written,

"Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name."<sup>o</sup>

<sup>15:10</sup>Again he says,

"Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."<sup>p</sup>

<sup>15:11</sup>Again,

"Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles!

Let all the peoples praise him."<sup>q</sup>

<sup>15:12</sup>Again, Isaiah says,

"There will be the root of Jesse,
he who arises to rule over the Gentiles;
in him the Gentiles will hope."<sup>r</sup>

<sup>15:13</sup>Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit. <sup>15:14</sup>I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers<sup>s</sup>, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others. <sup>15:15</sup>But I write the more boldly to you in part, as reminding you, because of the grace that was given to me by God, <sup>15:16</sup>that I should be a servant of Messiah Yeshua to the Gentiles, serving as a priest the Good News of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, sanctified by the Holy Spirit. <sup>15:17</sup>I have therefore my boasting in Messiah Yeshua in things pertaining to God. <sup>15:18</sup>For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Messiah worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed, <sup>15:19</sup>in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God's Spirit;

so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the Good News of Messiah;<sup>15:20</sup> yes, making it my aim to proclaim the Good News, not where Messiah was already named, that I might not build on another's foundation.<sup>15:21</sup> But, as it is written, "They will see, to whom no news of him came.

They who haven't heard will understand."<sup>t</sup>

<sup>15:22</sup>Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you,<sup>15:23</sup> but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you,<sup>15:24</sup> whenever I journey to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while.<sup>15:25</sup> But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the holy ones.<sup>15:26</sup> For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the holy ones who are at Jerusalem.<sup>15:27</sup> Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things.<sup>15:28</sup> When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by way of you to Spain.<sup>15:29</sup> I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the Good News of Messiah.

<sup>15:30</sup>Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,<sup>15:31</sup> that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the holy ones;<sup>15:32</sup> that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest.<sup>15:33</sup> Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

<sup>16:1</sup>I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a shammash<sup>u</sup> of the assembly that is at Cenchreae,<sup>16:2</sup> that you receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of the holy ones, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.

<sup>16:3</sup>Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Messiah Yeshua,<sup>16:4</sup> who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles.<sup>16:5</sup> Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epaenetus, my beloved, who is the first fruits of Achaia to Messiah.<sup>16:6</sup> Greet Miriam, who labored much for us.<sup>16:7</sup> Greet Andronicus and Junia, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the emissaries, who also were in Messiah before me.<sup>16:8</sup> Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord.<sup>16:9</sup> Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stachys, my beloved.<sup>16:10</sup> Greet Apelles, the approved in Messiah. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.<sup>16:11</sup> Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet them of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.<sup>16:12</sup> Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord.<sup>16:13</sup> Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.<sup>16:14</sup> Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers<sup>v</sup> who are with them.<sup>16:15</sup> Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the holy ones who are with them.<sup>16:16</sup> Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Messiah greet you.

<sup>16:17</sup>Now I beg you, brothers, look out for those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them.<sup>16:18</sup> For those who are such don't serve our Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent.<sup>16:19</sup> For your obedience has become known to all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise in that which is good, but innocent in that which is evil.<sup>16:20</sup> And the God of peace will quickly crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you.

<sup>16:21</sup>Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives.<sup>16:22</sup> I, Tertius, who write the letter, greet you in the Lord.<sup>16:23</sup> Gaius, my host and host

Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, called to be an emissary of Yeshua the Messiah through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes, <sup>1:2</sup>to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Messiah Yeshua, called to be holy ones, with all who call on the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah in every place, both theirs and ours: <sup>1:3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:4</sup>I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Messiah Yeshua; <sup>1:5</sup>that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge; <sup>1:6</sup>even as the testimony of Messiah was confirmed in you: <sup>1:7</sup>so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>1:8</sup>who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:9</sup>God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord. <sup>1:10</sup>Now I beg you, brothers,<sup>a</sup> through the name of our Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment. <sup>1:11</sup>For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe's household, that there are contentions among you. <sup>1:12</sup>Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Kefa<sup>b</sup>," and, "I follow Messiah." <sup>1:13</sup>Is Messiah divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you immersed into the name of Paul? <sup>1:14</sup>I thank God that I immersed none of you, except Crispus and Gaius, <sup>1:15</sup>so that no one should say that I had immersed you into my own name. <sup>1:16</sup>(I also immersed the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I immersed any other.) <sup>1:17</sup>For Messiah sent me not to immerse, but to proclaim the Good News—not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Messiah wouldn't be made void. <sup>1:18</sup>For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.

<sup>1:19</sup>For it is written,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise,

I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."<sup>c</sup>

<sup>1:20</sup>Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the Torah scholar of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world? <sup>1:21</sup>For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the proclaiming to save those who believe. <sup>1:22</sup>For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom, <sup>1:23</sup>but we proclaim Messiah crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks, <sup>1:24</sup>but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Messiah is the power of God and the wisdom of God.

<sup>1:25</sup>Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men. <sup>1:26</sup>For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble; <sup>1:27</sup>but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong; <sup>1:28</sup>and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are: <sup>1:29</sup>that no flesh should boast before God. <sup>1:30</sup>But of him, you are in Messiah Yeshua, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption: <sup>1:31</sup>that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2:1</sup>When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God. <sup>2:2</sup>For I determined not to know anything among you, except Yeshua the Messiah, and him crucified. <sup>2:3</sup>I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling. <sup>2:4</sup>My speech and my proclaiming were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,<sup>2:5</sup> that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. <sup>2:6</sup>We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing. <sup>2:7</sup>But we speak God's wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds for our glory, <sup>2:8</sup>which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn't have crucified the Lord of glory. <sup>2:9</sup>But as it is written,

"Things which an eye didn't see, and an ear didn't hear, which didn't enter into the heart of man, these God has prepared for those who love him."<sup>e</sup>

<sup>2:10</sup>But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God. <sup>2:11</sup>For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God's Spirit. <sup>2:12</sup>But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God. <sup>2:13</sup>Which things also we speak, not in words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things. <sup>2:14</sup>Now the natural man doesn't receive the things of God's Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can't know them, because they are spiritually discerned. <sup>2:15</sup>But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one. <sup>2:16</sup>"For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?"<sup>f</sup> But we have Messiah's mind.

"I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly? <sup>3:5</sup>Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him? <sup>3:6</sup>I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase. <sup>3:7</sup>So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase. <sup>3:8</sup>Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor. <sup>3:9</sup>For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building. <sup>3:10</sup>According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it. <sup>3:11</sup>For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>3:12</sup>But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble; <sup>3:13</sup>each man's work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man's work is. <sup>3:14</sup>If any man's work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward. <sup>3:15</sup>If any man's work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.

<sup>3:16</sup>Don't you know that you are a temple of God, and that God's Spirit lives in you? <sup>3:17</sup>If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are. <sup>3:18</sup>Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise. <sup>3:19</sup>For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."<sup>g</sup> <sup>3:20</sup>And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."<sup>h</sup> <sup>3:21</sup>Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours, <sup>3:22</sup>whether Paul, or Apollos, or Kefa<sup>i</sup>, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours, <sup>3:23</sup>and you are Messiah's, and Messiah is God's.

<sup>g</sup>3:19 Job 5:13

<sup>4:2</sup>Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful. <sup>4:3</sup>But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment. Yes, I don't judge my own self. <sup>4:4</sup>For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord. <sup>4:5</sup>Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.

<sup>4:6</sup>Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another. <sup>4:7</sup>For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it? <sup>4:8</sup>You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you. <sup>4:9</sup>For, I think that God has displayed us, the emissaries, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men. <sup>4:10</sup>We are fools for Messiah's sake, but you are wise in Messiah. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor. <sup>4:11</sup>Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place. <sup>4:12</sup>We toil, working with our own hands. When people curse us, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure. <sup>4:13</sup>Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now. <sup>4:14</sup>I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children. <sup>4:15</sup>For though you have ten thousand tutors in Messiah, yet not many fathers. For in Messiah Yeshua, I became your father through the Good News. <sup>4:16</sup>I beg you therefore, be imitators of me. <sup>4:17</sup>Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Messiah, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly. <sup>4:18</sup>Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you. <sup>4:19</sup>But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power. <sup>4:20</sup>For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. <sup>4:21</sup>What do you want? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?

<sup>5:1</sup>It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father's wife. <sup>5:2</sup>You are puffed up, and didn't rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you. <sup>5:3</sup>For I most certainly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing. <sup>5:4</sup>In the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, <sup>5:5</sup>are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Yeshua.

<sup>5:6</sup>Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump? <sup>5:7</sup>Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Messiah, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place. <sup>5:8</sup>Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth. <sup>5:9</sup>I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners; <sup>5:10</sup>yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world. <sup>5:11</sup>But as it is, I wrote to you not to associate with anyone who is called a brother who is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Don't even eat with such a person. <sup>5:12</sup>For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within? <sup>5:13</sup>But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves."<sup>1</sup>

<sup>6:1</sup>Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the holy ones? <sup>6:2</sup>Don't you know that the holy ones will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters? <sup>6:3</sup>Don't you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life? <sup>6:4</sup>If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly? <sup>6:5</sup>I say this to move you to shame. Isn't there even one wise man among you who would be able to decide between his brothers? <sup>6:6</sup>But brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers! <sup>6:7</sup>Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded? <sup>6:8</sup>No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers. <sup>6:9</sup>Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the Kingdom of God? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, <sup>6:10</sup>nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortioners, will inherit the Kingdom of God. <sup>6:11</sup>Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Yeshua, and in the Spirit of our God. <sup>6:12</sup>"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything. <sup>6:13</sup>"Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. <sup>6:14</sup>Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power. <sup>6:15</sup>Don't you know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah, and make them members of a prostitute? May it never be! <sup>6:16</sup>Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two," says he, "will become one flesh."<sup>k</sup> <sup>6:17</sup>But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit. <sup>6:18</sup>Flee sexual immorality! "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body. <sup>6:19</sup>Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own, <sup>6:20</sup>for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

<sup>7:6</sup>But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment. <sup>7:7</sup>Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind. <sup>7:8</sup>But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am. <sup>7:9</sup>But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn. <sup>7:10</sup>But to the married I command—not I, but the Lord—that the wife not leave her husband <sup>7:11</sup>(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.

<sup>7:12</sup>But to the rest I—not the Lord—say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her. <sup>7:13</sup>The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband. <sup>7:14</sup>For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now they are holy. <sup>7:15</sup>Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace. <sup>7:16</sup>For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife? <sup>7:17</sup>Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.

<sup>7:18</sup>Was anyone called having been circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has anyone been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised. <sup>7:19</sup>Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. <sup>7:20</sup>Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called. <sup>7:21</sup>Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it. <sup>7:22</sup>For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Messiah's bondservant. <sup>7:23</sup>You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men. <sup>7:24</sup>Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.

<sup>7:25</sup>Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy. <sup>7:26</sup>I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is. <sup>7:27</sup>Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife. <sup>7:28</sup>But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you. <sup>7:29</sup>But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none; <sup>7:30</sup>and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess; <sup>7:31</sup>and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away. <sup>7:32</sup>But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord; <sup>7:33</sup>but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife. <sup>7:34</sup>There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world—how she may please her husband. <sup>7:35</sup>This I say for your own profit; not that I may ensnare you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction. <sup>7:36</sup>But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry. <sup>7:37</sup>But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, does well. <sup>7:38</sup>So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage does better. <sup>7:39</sup>A wife is bound by law for as long as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whomever she desires, only in the Lord. <sup>7:40</sup>But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.

<sup>8:1</sup>Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up. <sup>8:2</sup>But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know. <sup>8:3</sup>But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him. <sup>8:4</sup>Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one. <sup>8:5</sup>For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords;" <sup>8:6</sup>yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we for him; and one Lord, Yeshua the Messiah, through whom are all things, and we live through him. <sup>8:7</sup>However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, with consciousness of the idol until now, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled. <sup>8:8</sup>But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better. <sup>8:9</sup>But be careful that by no means does this liberty of yours become a stumbling block to the weak. <sup>8:10</sup>For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols? <sup>8:11</sup>And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Messiah died. <sup>8:12</sup>Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Messiah. <sup>8:13</sup>Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.

<sup>9:1</sup>Am I not free? Am I not an emissary? Haven't I seen Yeshua the Messiah, our Lord?

Aren't you my work in the Lord? <sup>9:2</sup>If to others I am not an emissary, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my office of emissary in the Lord. <sup>9:3</sup>My defense to those who examine me is this. <sup>9:4</sup>Have we no right to eat and to drink? <sup>9:5</sup>Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the emissaries, and the brothers of the Lord, and Kefa?<sup>l</sup> <sup>9:6</sup>Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work? <sup>9:7</sup>What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn't eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn't drink from the flock's milk? <sup>9:8</sup>Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the Torah also say the same thing? <sup>9:9</sup>For it is written in the Torah of Moses, "You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain."<sup>m</sup> Is it for the oxen that God cares, <sup>9:10</sup>or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, it was written for our sake, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope. <sup>9:11</sup>If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things? <sup>9:12</sup>If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the Good News of Messiah. <sup>9:13</sup>Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar? <sup>9:14</sup>Even so the Lord ordained that those who proclaim the Good News should live from the Good News. <sup>9:15</sup>But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void. <sup>9:16</sup>For if I proclaim the Good News, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't proclaim the Good News. <sup>9:17</sup>For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me. <sup>9:18</sup>What then is my reward? That, when I proclaim the Good News, I may present the Good News of Messiah without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News. <sup>9:19</sup>For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more. <sup>9:20</sup>To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law; <sup>9:21</sup>to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Messiah), that I might win those who are without law. <sup>9:22</sup>To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some. <sup>9:23</sup>Now I do this for the sake of the Good News, that I may be a joint partaker of it. <sup>9:24</sup>Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win. <sup>9:25</sup>Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible. <sup>9:26</sup>I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air, <sup>9:27</sup>but I beat my body and bring it into submission, lest by any means, after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.

<sup>10:1</sup>Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; <sup>10:2</sup>and were all immersed into Moses in the cloud and in the sea; <sup>10:3</sup>and all ate the same spiritual food; <sup>10:4</sup>and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Messiah. <sup>10:5</sup>However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness. <sup>10:6</sup>Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. <sup>10:7</sup>Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."<sup>n</sup> <sup>10:8</sup>Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell. <sup>10:9</sup>Neither let us test the Lord, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents. <sup>10:10</sup>Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer. <sup>10:11</sup>Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come. <sup>10:12</sup>Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.

<sup>10:13</sup>No temptation has taken you except what is common to man. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation also make the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it. <sup>10:14</sup>Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry. <sup>10:15</sup>I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say. <sup>10:16</sup>The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a sharing of the blood of Messiah? The bread which we break, isn't it a sharing of the body of Messiah? <sup>10:17</sup>Because there is one loaf of bread, we, who are many, are one body; for we all partake of the one loaf of bread. <sup>10:18</sup>Consider Israel according to the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices participate in the altar?

<sup>10:19</sup>What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything? <sup>10:20</sup>But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have fellowship with demons. <sup>10:21</sup>You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons. <sup>10:22</sup>Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he? <sup>10:23</sup>"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are profitable. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up. <sup>10:24</sup>Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good. <sup>10:25</sup>Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience, <sup>10:26</sup>for "the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness."<sup>o</sup> <sup>10:27</sup>But if one of those who don't believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience. <sup>10:28</sup>But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don't eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord's, and all its fullness."<sup>o</sup> <sup>10:29</sup>Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other's conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience? <sup>10:30</sup>If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks? <sup>10:31</sup>Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God. <sup>10:32</sup>Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God; <sup>10:33</sup>even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.

<sup>11:1</sup>Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Messiah. <sup>11:2</sup>Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you. <sup>11:3</sup>But I would have you know that the head of every man is Messiah, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Messiah is God. <sup>11:4</sup>Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head. <sup>11:5</sup>But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved. <sup>11:6</sup>For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered. <sup>11:7</sup>For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. <sup>11:8</sup>For man is not from woman, but woman from man; <sup>11:9</sup>for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man. <sup>11:10</sup>For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels.

<sup>11:11</sup>Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord. <sup>11:12</sup>For as woman came from man, so a man also comes through a woman; but all things are from God. <sup>11:13</sup>Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled? <sup>11:14</sup>Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him? <sup>11:15</sup>But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering. <sup>11:16</sup>But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.

<sup>11:17</sup>But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse. <sup>11:18</sup>For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it. <sup>11:19</sup>For there also must be factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you. <sup>11:20</sup>When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not the Lord's supper that you eat. <sup>11:21</sup>For in your eating each one takes his own supper first. One is hungry, and another is drunken. <sup>11:22</sup>What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What shall I tell you? Shall I praise you? In this I don't praise you.

<sup>11:23</sup>For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Yeshua on the night in which he was betrayed took bread. <sup>11:24</sup>When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me." <sup>11:25</sup>In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me." <sup>11:26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until he comes. <sup>11:27</sup>Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord's cup in a way unworthy of the Lord will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord. <sup>11:28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup. <sup>11:29</sup>For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy way eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn't discern the Lord's body. <sup>11:30</sup>For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep. <sup>11:31</sup>For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn't be judged. <sup>11:32</sup>But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world. <sup>11:33</sup>Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another. <sup>11:34</sup>But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest your coming together be for judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.

<sup>12:1</sup>Now concerning spiritual things, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant. <sup>12:2</sup>You know that when you were heathen<sup>P</sup>, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led. <sup>12:3</sup>Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Yeshua is accursed." No one can say, "Yeshua is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit. <sup>12:4</sup>Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

<sup>12:5</sup>There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord. <sup>12:6</sup>There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all. <sup>12:7</sup>But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all.

<sup>12:8</sup>For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit; <sup>12:9</sup>to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit; <sup>12:10</sup>and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages. <sup>12:11</sup>But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.

<sup>12:12</sup>For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Messiah. <sup>12:13</sup>For in one Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all given to drink into one Spirit. <sup>12:14</sup>For the body is not one member, but many. <sup>12:15</sup>If the foot would say, "Because I'm not the hand, I'm not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body. <sup>12:16</sup>If the ear would say, "Because I'm not the eye, I'm not part of the body," it's not therefore not part of the body. <sup>12:17</sup>If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be? <sup>12:18</sup>But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired. <sup>12:19</sup>If they were all one member, where would the body be? <sup>12:20</sup>But now they are many members, but one body. <sup>12:21</sup>The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you." <sup>12:22</sup>No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary. <sup>12:23</sup>Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unrepresentable parts have more abundant propriety; <sup>12:24</sup>whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part, <sup>12:25</sup>that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. <sup>12:26</sup>When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

<sup>12:27</sup>Now you are the body of Messiah, and members individually. <sup>12:28</sup>God has set some in the assembly: first emissaries, second prophets, third teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages. <sup>12:29</sup>Are all emissaries? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers? <sup>12:30</sup>Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret? <sup>12:31</sup>But earnestly desire the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.

<sup>13:1</sup>If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal. <sup>13:2</sup>If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing. <sup>13:3</sup>If I dole out all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.

<sup>13:4</sup>Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud, <sup>13:5</sup>doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil; <sup>13:6</sup>doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth; <sup>13:7</sup>bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. <sup>13:8</sup>Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with. <sup>13:9</sup>For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; <sup>13:10</sup>but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with. <sup>13:11</sup>When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things. <sup>13:12</sup>For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known. <sup>13:13</sup>But now faith, hope, and love remain—these three. The greatest of these is love.

<sup>14:1</sup>Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. <sup>14:2</sup>For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the Spirit he speaks mysteries. <sup>14:3</sup>But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation. <sup>14:4</sup>He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly. <sup>14:5</sup>Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.

<sup>14:6</sup>But now, brothers,<sup>q</sup> if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching? <sup>14:7</sup>Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped? <sup>14:8</sup>For if the shofar<sup>r</sup> gave an uncertain sound, who would prepare himself for war? <sup>14:9</sup>So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air. <sup>14:10</sup>There are, it may be, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without meaning. <sup>14:11</sup>If then I don't know the meaning of the sound, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks would be a foreigner to me. <sup>14:12</sup>So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly. <sup>14:13</sup>Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret. <sup>14:14</sup>For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.

<sup>14:15</sup>What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. <sup>14:16</sup>Otherwise if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say? <sup>14:17</sup>For you most certainly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up. <sup>14:18</sup>I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all. <sup>14:19</sup>However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.

<sup>r</sup>14:8 or, trumpet

<sup>14:20</sup>Brothers, don't be children in thoughts, yet in malice be babies, but in thoughts be mature. <sup>14:21</sup>In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord."<sup>s</sup> <sup>14:22</sup>Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe. <sup>14:23</sup>If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy? <sup>14:24</sup>But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all. <sup>14:25</sup>And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.

<sup>14:26</sup>What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up. <sup>14:27</sup>If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret. <sup>14:28</sup>But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silent in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God. <sup>14:29</sup>Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern. <sup>14:30</sup>But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silent. <sup>14:31</sup>For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted. <sup>14:32</sup>The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets, <sup>14:33</sup>for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace.

As in all the assemblies of the holy ones, <sup>14:34</sup>let your wives keep silent in the assemblies, for it has not been permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the Torah also says. <sup>14:35</sup>If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the assembly. <sup>14:36</sup>What? Was it from you that the word of God went out? Or did it come to you alone? <sup>14:37</sup>If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord. <sup>14:38</sup>But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant. <sup>14:39</sup>Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages. <sup>14:40</sup>Let all things be done decently and in order.

<sup>15:1</sup>Now I declare to you, brothers, the Good News which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand, <sup>15:2</sup>by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. <sup>15:3</sup>For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures, <sup>15:4</sup>that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures, <sup>15:5</sup>and that he appeared to Kefa†, then to the twelve. <sup>15:6</sup>Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep. <sup>15:7</sup>Then he appeared to Jacob, then to all the emissaries, <sup>15:8</sup>and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also. <sup>15:9</sup>For I am the least of the emissaries, who is not worthy to be called an emissary, because I persecuted the assembly of God. <sup>15:10</sup>But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not futile, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. <sup>15:11</sup>Whether then it is I or they, so we proclaim, and so you believed.

<sup>15:12</sup>Now if Messiah is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? <sup>15:13</sup>But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Messiah been raised. <sup>15:14</sup>If Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is in vain, and your faith also is in vain. <sup>15:15</sup>Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Messiah, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised. <sup>15:16</sup>For if the dead aren't raised, neither has Messiah been raised. <sup>15:17</sup>If Messiah has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. <sup>15:18</sup>Then they also who are fallen asleep in Messiah have perished. <sup>15:19</sup>If we have only hoped in Messiah in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.

<sup>15:20</sup>But now Messiah has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep. <sup>15:21</sup>For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man. <sup>15:22</sup>For as in Adam all die, so also in Messiah all will be made alive. <sup>15:23</sup>But each in his own order: Messiah the first fruits, then those who are Messiah's, at his coming. <sup>15:24</sup>Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the Kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power. <sup>15:25</sup>For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet. <sup>15:26</sup>The last enemy that will be abolished is death. <sup>15:27</sup>For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet."<sup>u</sup> But when he says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him. <sup>15:28</sup>When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all. <sup>15:29</sup>Or else what will they do who are immersed for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they immersed for the dead? <sup>15:30</sup>Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour? <sup>15:31</sup>I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Messiah Yeshua our Lord, I die daily. <sup>15:32</sup>If I fought with animals at Ephesus for human purposes, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."<sup>v</sup> <sup>15:33</sup>Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals." <sup>15:34</sup>Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame. <sup>15:35</sup>But someone will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?" <sup>15:36</sup>You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies. <sup>15:37</sup>That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind. <sup>15:38</sup>But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own. <sup>15:39</sup>All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds. <sup>15:40</sup>There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial. <sup>15:41</sup>There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory. <sup>15:42</sup>So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption. <sup>15:43</sup>It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power. <sup>15:44</sup>It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body and there is also a spiritual body.

<sup>15:45</sup>So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul."<sup>w</sup> The last Adam became a life-giving spirit. <sup>15:46</sup>However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual. <sup>15:47</sup>The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven. <sup>15:48</sup>As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. <sup>15:49</sup>As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let's<sup>x</sup> also bear the image of the heavenly. <sup>15:50</sup>Now I say this, brothers,<sup>y</sup> that flesh and blood can't inherit the Kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

<sup>15:51</sup>Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed, <sup>15:52</sup>in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last shofar<sup>z</sup>. For the shofar<sup>a</sup> will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed. <sup>15:53</sup>For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. <sup>15:54</sup>But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."<sup>b</sup>

<sup>15:56</sup>The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. <sup>15:57</sup>But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>15:58</sup>Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

<sup>16:1</sup>Now concerning the collection for the holy ones, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise. <sup>16:2</sup>On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come. <sup>16:3</sup>When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem. <sup>16:4</sup>If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me. <sup>16:5</sup>But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia. <sup>16:6</sup>But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go. <sup>16:7</sup>For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits. <sup>16:8</sup>But I will stay at Ephesus until Shavu'ot, <sup>16:9</sup>for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries. <sup>16:10</sup>Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do. <sup>16:11</sup>Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.

<sup>16:12</sup>Now concerning Apollos, the brother, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers; and it was not at all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.

<sup>16:15</sup>Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to serve the holy ones), <sup>16:16</sup>that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors. <sup>16:17</sup>I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied. <sup>16:18</sup>For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.

<sup>16:19</sup>The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house. <sup>16:20</sup>All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.

Paul's Second Letter to the Corinthians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the holy ones who are in the whole of Achaia: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort; <sup>1:4</sup>who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God. <sup>1:5</sup>For as the sufferings of Messiah abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Messiah. <sup>1:6</sup>But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which produces in you the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer. <sup>1:7</sup>Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort. <sup>1:8</sup>For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers,<sup>a</sup> concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life. <sup>1:9</sup>Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead, <sup>1:10</sup>who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us; <sup>1:11</sup>you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf. <sup>1:12</sup>For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you. <sup>1:13</sup>For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end; <sup>1:14</sup>as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Yeshua. <sup>1:15</sup>In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit; <sup>1:16</sup>and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea. <sup>1:17</sup>When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?" <sup>1:18</sup>But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no." <sup>1:19</sup>For the Son of God, Yeshua the Messiah, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes." <sup>1:20</sup>For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen," to the glory of God through us.

<sup>1:21</sup>Now he who establishes us with you in Messiah, and anointed us, is God; <sup>1:22</sup>who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts. <sup>1:23</sup>But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you. <sup>1:24</sup>Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.

<sup>2:1</sup>But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow. <sup>2:2</sup>For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me? <sup>2:3</sup>And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy would be shared by all of you. <sup>2:4</sup>For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you. <sup>2:5</sup>But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all. <sup>2:6</sup>Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many; <sup>2:7</sup>so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow. <sup>2:8</sup>Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him. <sup>2:9</sup>For to this end I also wrote, that

I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things. <sup>2:10</sup>Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Messiah, <sup>2:11</sup>that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.

<sup>2:12</sup>Now when I came to Troas for the Good News of Messiah, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord, <sup>2:13</sup>I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went out into Macedonia. <sup>2:14</sup>Now thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Messiah, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place. <sup>2:15</sup>For we are a sweet aroma of Messiah to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish; <sup>2:16</sup>to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things? <sup>2:17</sup>For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Messiah.

<sup>3:1</sup>Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you? <sup>3:2</sup>You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men; <sup>3:3</sup>being revealed that you are a letter of Messiah, served by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh. <sup>3:4</sup>Such confidence we have through Messiah toward God; <sup>3:5</sup>not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God; <sup>3:6</sup>who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the Spirit. For the letter kills, but the Spirit gives life. <sup>3:7</sup>But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away: <sup>3:8</sup>won't service of the Spirit be with much more glory? <sup>3:9</sup>For if the service of condemnation has glory, the service of righteousness exceeds much more in glory. <sup>3:10</sup>For most certainly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses. <sup>3:11</sup>For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.

<sup>3:12</sup>Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech, <sup>3:13</sup>and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away. <sup>3:14</sup>But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Messiah it passes away. <sup>3:15</sup>But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart. <sup>3:16</sup>But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away. <sup>3:17</sup>Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. <sup>3:18</sup>But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.

<sup>4:1</sup>Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint. <sup>4:2</sup>But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. <sup>4:3</sup>Even if our Good News is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish; <sup>4:4</sup>in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the Good News of the glory of Messiah, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them. <sup>4:5</sup>For we don't proclaim ourselves, but Messiah Yeshua as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Yeshua's sake; <sup>4:6</sup>seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness,"<sup>b</sup> who has shone in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>4:7</sup>But we have this treasure in clay vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves. <sup>4:8</sup>We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair; <sup>4:9</sup>pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed; <sup>4:10</sup>always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Yeshua, that the life of Yeshua may also be revealed in our body. <sup>4:11</sup>For we who live are always delivered to death for Yeshua's sake, that the life also of Yeshua may be revealed in our mortal flesh. <sup>4:12</sup>So then death works in us, but life in you. <sup>4:13</sup>But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke."<sup>c</sup> We also believe, and therefore also we speak; <sup>4:14</sup>knowing that he who raised the Lord Yeshua will raise us also with Yeshua, and will present us with you. <sup>4:15</sup>For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God. <sup>4:16</sup>Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day. <sup>4:17</sup>For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory; <sup>4:18</sup>while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

<sup>5:1</sup>For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens. <sup>5:2</sup>For most certainly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven; <sup>5:3</sup>if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked. <sup>5:4</sup>For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life. <sup>5:5</sup>Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.

<sup>5:6</sup>Therefore, we are always confident and know that while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord; <sup>5:7</sup>for we walk by faith, not by sight. <sup>5:8</sup>We are courageous, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord. <sup>5:9</sup>Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him. <sup>5:10</sup>For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Messiah; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. <sup>5:11</sup>Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences. <sup>5:12</sup>For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart. <sup>5:13</sup>For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you. <sup>5:14</sup>For the love of Messiah constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died. <sup>5:15</sup>He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again. <sup>5:16</sup>Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Messiah after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more. <sup>5:17</sup>Therefore if anyone is in Messiah, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, all things have become new. <sup>5:18</sup>But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Yeshua the Messiah, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation; <sup>5:19</sup>namely, that God was in Messiah reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation. <sup>5:20</sup>We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Messiah, as though God were entreating by us: we beg you on behalf of Messiah, be reconciled to God. <sup>5:21</sup>For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

<sup>6:1</sup>Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain, <sup>6:2</sup>for he says,
"At an acceptable time I listened to you, in a day of salvation I helped you."<sup>d</sup>

Behold, now is the acceptable time. Behold, now is the day of salvation. <sup>6:3</sup>We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed, <sup>6:4</sup>but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses, <sup>6:5</sup>in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings; <sup>6:6</sup>in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love, <sup>6:7</sup>in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, <sup>6:8</sup>by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true; <sup>6:9</sup>as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed; <sup>6:10</sup>as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.

<sup>6:11</sup>Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged. <sup>6:12</sup>You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections. <sup>6:13</sup>Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be open wide. <sup>6:14</sup>Don't be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what fellowship has light with darkness? <sup>6:15</sup>What agreement has Messiah with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever? <sup>6:16</sup>What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people."<sup>e</sup> <sup>6:17</sup>Therefore, "Come out from among them, and be separate," says the Lord.

'Touch no unclean thing.

I will receive you.<sup>f</sup>

<sup>6:18</sup>I will be to you a Father.

You will be to me sons and daughters,' says the Lord Almighty."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>7:1</sup>Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. <sup>7:2</sup>Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one. <sup>7:3</sup>I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together. <sup>7:4</sup>Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction. <sup>7:5</sup>For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside. <sup>7:6</sup>Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus; <sup>7:7</sup>and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us of your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.

<sup>7:8</sup>For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while. <sup>7:9</sup>I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing. <sup>7:10</sup>For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death. <sup>7:11</sup>For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter. <sup>7:12</sup>So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God. <sup>7:13</sup>Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all. <sup>7:14</sup>For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not disappointed. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth. <sup>7:15</sup>His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him. <sup>7:16</sup>I rejoice that in everything I am confident concerning you.

<sup>8:1</sup>Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia; <sup>8:2</sup>how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality. <sup>8:3</sup>For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord, <sup>8:4</sup>begging us with much entreaty to receive this grace and the fellowship in the service to the holy ones. <sup>8:5</sup>This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God. <sup>8:6</sup>So we urged Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace. <sup>8:7</sup>But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace. <sup>8:8</sup>I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love. <sup>8:9</sup>For you know the grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich. <sup>8:10</sup>I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing. <sup>8:11</sup>But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability. <sup>8:12</sup>For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have. <sup>8:13</sup>For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed, <sup>8:14</sup>but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality. <sup>8:15</sup>As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>8:16</sup>But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus. <sup>8:17</sup>For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went out to you of his own accord. <sup>8:18</sup>We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the Good News is known through all the assemblies. <sup>8:19</sup>Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness. <sup>8:20</sup>We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us concerning this abundance which is administered by us. <sup>8:21</sup>Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. <sup>8:22</sup>We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you. <sup>8:23</sup>As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker for you. As for our brothers, they are the emissaries of the assemblies, the glory of Messiah. <sup>8:24</sup>Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.

<sup>i</sup>9:9 Psalm 112:9

to you concerning the service to the holy ones, <sup>9:2</sup>for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them. <sup>9:3</sup>But I have sent the brothers that our boasting on your behalf may not be in vain in this respect, that, just as I said, you may be prepared, <sup>9:4</sup>so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be disappointed in this confident boasting. <sup>9:5</sup>I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness. <sup>9:6</sup>Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>9:7</sup>Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>9:8</sup>And God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work. <sup>9:9</sup>As it is written, "He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor.

His righteousness remains forever."<sup>i</sup>

<sup>9:10</sup>Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness; <sup>9:11</sup>you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God. <sup>9:12</sup>For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the holy ones, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God; <sup>9:13</sup>seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the Good News of Messiah, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all; <sup>9:14</sup>while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you. <sup>9:15</sup>Now thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

<sup>10:1</sup>Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Messiah; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am bold toward you. <sup>10:2</sup>Yes, I beg you that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I intend to be bold against some, who consider us to be walking according to the flesh. <sup>10:3</sup>For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh; <sup>10:4</sup>for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds, <sup>10:5</sup>throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Messiah; <sup>10:6</sup>and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full. <sup>10:7</sup>Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Messiah's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Messiah's, so also we are Messiah's. <sup>10:8</sup>For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be disappointed, <sup>10:9</sup>that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters. <sup>10:10</sup>For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised." <sup>10:11</sup>Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present. <sup>10:12</sup>For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding. <sup>10:13</sup>But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you. <sup>10:14</sup>For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you with the Good News of Messiah, <sup>10:15</sup>not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be abundantly enlarged by you in our sphere of influence, <sup>10:16</sup>so as to proclaim the Good News even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done. <sup>10:17</sup>But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."<sup>j</sup> <sup>10:18</sup>For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

<sup>11:1</sup>I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me. <sup>11:2</sup>For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Messiah. <sup>11:3</sup>But I am afraid that somehow, as the serpent deceived Havah in his craftiness, so your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Messiah. <sup>11:4</sup>For if he who comes preaches another Yeshua, whom we did not proclaim, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different "good news", which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough. <sup>11:5</sup>For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best emissaries. <sup>11:6</sup>But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things. <sup>11:7</sup>Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's Good News free of charge? <sup>11:8</sup>I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you. <sup>11:9</sup>When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so. <sup>11:10</sup>As the truth of Messiah is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia. <sup>11:11</sup>Why? Because I don't love you? God knows. <sup>11:12</sup>But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we. <sup>11:13</sup>For such men are false emissaries, deceitful workers, masquerading as Messiah's emissaries. <sup>11:14</sup>And no wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light. <sup>11:15</sup>It is no great thing therefore if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.

<sup>11:16</sup>I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little. <sup>11:17</sup>That which I speak, I don't speak according to the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting. <sup>11:18</sup>Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast. <sup>11:19</sup>For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise. <sup>11:20</sup>For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face. <sup>11:21</sup>I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also. <sup>11:22</sup>Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. <sup>11:23</sup>Are they servants of Messiah? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often. <sup>11:24</sup>Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one. <sup>11:25</sup>Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep. <sup>11:26</sup>I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers; <sup>11:27</sup>in labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.

<sup>11:28</sup>Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies. <sup>11:29</sup>Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn with indignation? <sup>11:30</sup>If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness. <sup>11:31</sup>The God and Father of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I don't lie. <sup>11:32</sup>In Damascus the governor under King Aretas guarded the city of the Damascenes desiring to arrest me. <sup>11:33</sup>Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.

<sup>12:1</sup>It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. For I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord. <sup>12:2</sup>I know a man in Messiah, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven. <sup>12:3</sup>I know such a man (whether in the body, or outside of the body, I don't know; God knows), <sup>12:4</sup>how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter. <sup>12:5</sup>On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses. <sup>12:6</sup>For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I refrain, so that no man may think more of me than that which he sees in me, or hears from me. <sup>12:7</sup>By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to torment me, that I should not be exalted excessively. <sup>12:8</sup>Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me. <sup>12:9</sup>He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore I will rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Messiah may rest on me.

<sup>12:10</sup>Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Messiah's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong. <sup>12:11</sup>I have become foolish in boasting. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I inferior to the very best emissaries, though I am nothing. <sup>12:12</sup>Truly the signs of an emissary were worked among you in all patience, in signs and wonders and mighty works. <sup>12:13</sup>For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.

<sup>12:14</sup>Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children. <sup>12:15</sup>I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less? <sup>12:16</sup>But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception. <sup>12:17</sup>Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you? <sup>12:18</sup>I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps? <sup>12:19</sup>Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Messiah. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying. <sup>12:20</sup>For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots; <sup>12:21</sup>that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.

<sup>13:1</sup>This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established."<sup>k</sup> <sup>13:2</sup>I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare; <sup>13:3</sup>seeing that you seek a proof of Messiah who speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you. <sup>13:4</sup>For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you. <sup>13:5</sup>Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know as to your own selves, that Yeshua the Messiah is in you?—unless indeed you are disqualified. <sup>13:6</sup>But I hope that you will know that we aren't disqualified.

<sup>13:7</sup>Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate. <sup>13:8</sup>For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth. <sup>13:9</sup>For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this we also pray for, even your perfecting. <sup>13:10</sup>For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.

<sup>13:11</sup>Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. <sup>13:12</sup>Greet one another with a holy kiss. <sup>13:13</sup>All the holy ones greet you. <sup>13:14</sup>The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Galatians

<sup>1:6</sup>I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Messiah to a different “good news”; <sup>1:7</sup>and there isn't another “good news.” Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the Good News of Messiah. <sup>1:8</sup>But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should proclaim to you any “good news” other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed. <sup>1:9</sup>As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any “good news” other than that which you received, let him be cursed. <sup>1:10</sup>For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of Messiah. <sup>1:11</sup>But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the Good News which was preached by me, that it is not according to man. <sup>1:12</sup>For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:13</sup>For you have heard of my way of living in time past in Judaism<sup>b</sup>, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it. <sup>1:14</sup>I advanced in Judaism<sup>c</sup> beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers. <sup>1:15</sup>But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace, <sup>1:16</sup>to reveal his Son in me, that I might proclaim him among the Gentiles, I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood, <sup>1:17</sup>nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were emissaries before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus. <sup>1:18</sup>Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days. <sup>1:19</sup>But of the other emissaries I saw no one, except Jacob, the Lord's brother. <sup>1:20</sup>Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying. <sup>1:21</sup>Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia. <sup>1:22</sup>I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Messiah, <sup>1:23</sup>but they only heard: “He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy.” <sup>1:24</sup>And they glorified God in me.

<sup>2:1</sup>Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me. <sup>2:2</sup>I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the Good News which I proclaim among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain. <sup>2:3</sup>But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised. <sup>2:4</sup>This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Messiah Yeshua, that they might bring us into bondage; <sup>2:5</sup>to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the Good News might continue with you. <sup>2:6</sup>But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man)—they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me, <sup>2:7</sup>but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the Good News for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the Good News for the circumcision <sup>2:8</sup>(for he who appointed Peter to be an emissary of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles); <sup>2:9</sup>and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, Jacob and Kefa<sup>d</sup> and Yochanan, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision. <sup>2:10</sup>They only asked us to remember the poor—which very thing I was also zealous to do.

<sup>2:11</sup>But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to his face, because he stood condemned. <sup>2:12</sup>For before some people came from Jacob, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision. <sup>2:13</sup>And the rest of the Jewish believers joined him in his hypocrisy; so that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy. <sup>2:14</sup>But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Peter before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?"

<sup>2:15</sup>"We, being Jews by birth, and not Gentile sinners, <sup>2:16</sup>yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through faith in Yeshua the Messiah, even we believed in Messiah Yeshua, that we might be justified by faith in Messiah, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law. <sup>2:17</sup>But if, while we sought to be justified in Messiah, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Messiah a servant of sin? Certainly not! <sup>2:18</sup>For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker. <sup>2:19</sup>For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God. <sup>2:20</sup>I have been crucified with Messiah, and it is no longer I that live, but Messiah living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me. <sup>2:21</sup>I don't make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Messiah died for nothing!"

<sup>3:1</sup>Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Yeshua the Messiah was openly set forth among you as crucified? <sup>3:2</sup>I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3:3</sup>Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh? <sup>3:4</sup>Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain?

<sup>3:5</sup>He therefore who supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith? <sup>3:6</sup>Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness." <sup>3:7</sup>Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are children of Abraham. <sup>3:8</sup>The Scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the Good News beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you all the nations will be blessed."<sup>e</sup> <sup>3:9</sup>So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham. <sup>3:10</sup>For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the scroll of the Torah, to do them."<sup>f</sup> <sup>3:11</sup>Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith."<sup>g</sup> <sup>3:12</sup>The law is not of faith, but, "The man who does them will live by them."<sup>h</sup>

<sup>3:13</sup>Messiah redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"<sup>i</sup> <sup>3:14</sup>that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Messiah Yeshua; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. <sup>3:15</sup>Brothers, speaking of human terms, though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it. <sup>3:16</sup>Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He doesn't say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed,"<sup>j</sup> which is Messiah. <sup>3:17</sup>Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Messiah, the law, which came four hundred thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect. <sup>3:18</sup>For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.

<sup>3:19</sup>What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator. <sup>3:20</sup>Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one. <sup>3:21</sup>Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most certainly righteousness would have been of the law. <sup>3:22</sup>But the Scriptures imprisoned all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Yeshua the Messiah might be given to those who believe. <sup>3:23</sup>But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, confined for the faith which should afterwards be revealed. <sup>3:24</sup>So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Messiah, that we might be justified by faith. <sup>3:25</sup>But now that faith has come, we are no longer under a tutor. <sup>3:26</sup>For you are all children of God, through faith in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>3:27</sup>For as many of you as were immersed into Messiah have put on Messiah. <sup>3:28</sup>There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>3:29</sup>If you are Messiah's, then you are Abraham's seed and heirs according to promise.

<sup>4:1</sup>But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all; <sup>4:2</sup>but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father. <sup>4:3</sup>So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elemental principles of the world. <sup>4:4</sup>But when the fullness of the time came, God sent out his Son, born to a woman, born under the law, <sup>4:5</sup>that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of children. <sup>4:6</sup>And because you are children, God sent out the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, "Abba,<sup>k</sup> Father!" <sup>4:7</sup>So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Messiah. <sup>4:8</sup>However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are not gods. <sup>4:9</sup>But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elemental principles, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again? <sup>4:10</sup>You observe days, months, seasons, and years. <sup>4:11</sup>I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you. <sup>4:12</sup>I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, <sup>4:13</sup>but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the Good News to you the first time. <sup>4:14</sup>That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Messiah Yeshua.

<sup>4:15</sup>What was the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me. <sup>4:16</sup>So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth? <sup>4:17</sup>They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them. <sup>4:18</sup>But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.

<sup>4:19</sup>My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Messiah is formed in you—<sup>4:20</sup>but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you. <sup>4:21</sup>Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law? <sup>4:22</sup>For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free woman. <sup>4:23</sup>However, the son by the handmaid was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise. <sup>4:24</sup>These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar. <sup>4:25</sup>For this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children. <sup>4:26</sup>But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is the mother of us all. <sup>4:27</sup>For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear.

Break forth and shout, you that don't travail.

For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has a husband."<sup>l</sup>

<sup>4:28</sup>Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise. <sup>4:29</sup>But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now. <sup>4:30</sup>However what does the Scripture say? "Throw out the handmaid and her son, for the son of the handmaid will not inherit with the son of the free woman.<sup>m</sup> 4:31 So then, brothers, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free woman.

<sup>5:1</sup>Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Messiah has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage. <sup>5:2</sup>Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Messiah will profit you nothing. <sup>5:3</sup>Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. <sup>5:4</sup>You are alienated from Messiah, you who desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace. <sup>5:5</sup>For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness. <sup>5:6</sup>For in Messiah Yeshua neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love. <sup>5:7</sup>You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth? <sup>5:8</sup>This persuasion is not from him who calls you. <sup>5:9</sup>A little yeast grows through the whole lump. <sup>5:10</sup>I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.

<sup>5:11</sup>But I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling block of the cross has been removed. <sup>5:12</sup>I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off. <sup>5:13</sup>For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another. <sup>5:14</sup>For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."<sup>n</sup> <sup>5:15</sup>But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another. <sup>5:16</sup>But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh. <sup>5:17</sup>For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; and these are contrary to one another, that you may not do the things that you desire. <sup>5:18</sup>But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. <sup>5:19</sup>Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness, <sup>5:20</sup>idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies, <sup>5:21</sup>envyings, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I also forewarned you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the Kingdom of God.

<sup>6:1</sup>Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted. <sup>6:2</sup>Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the Torah of Messiah. <sup>6:3</sup>For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself. <sup>6:4</sup>But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor. <sup>6:5</sup>For each man will bear his own burden. <sup>6:6</sup>But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches. <sup>6:7</sup>Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. <sup>6:8</sup>For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life. <sup>6:9</sup>Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up. <sup>6:10</sup>So then, as we have opportunity, let's do what is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.

<sup>6:11</sup>See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand. <sup>6:12</sup>As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Messiah. <sup>6:13</sup>For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh. <sup>6:14</sup>But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. <sup>6:15</sup>For in Messiah Yeshua neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation. <sup>6:16</sup>As many as walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God's Israel. <sup>6:17</sup>From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of the Lord Yeshua branded on my body.

<sup>6:18</sup>The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Ephesians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, to the holy ones who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Messiah Yeshua: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Messiah; <sup>1:4</sup>even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love; <sup>1:5</sup>having predestined us for adoption as children through Yeshua the Messiah to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire, <sup>1:6</sup>to the praise of the glory of his grace, by which he freely bestowed favor on us in the Beloved, <sup>1:7</sup>in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace, <sup>1:8</sup>which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, <sup>1:9</sup>making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him <sup>1:10</sup>to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Messiah, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him; <sup>1:11</sup>in whom also we were assigned an inheritance, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his will; <sup>1:12</sup>to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Messiah: <sup>1:13</sup>in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your salvation—in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, <sup>1:14</sup>who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God's own possession, to the praise of his glory. <sup>1:15</sup>For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Yeshua which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the holy ones, <sup>1:16</sup>don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>1:17</sup>that the God of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him; <sup>1:18</sup>having the eyes of your hearts<sup>a</sup> enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the holy ones, <sup>1:19</sup>and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might <sup>1:20</sup>which he worked in Messiah, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places, <sup>1:21</sup>far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age, but also in that which is to come. <sup>1:22</sup>He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things for the assembly, <sup>1:23</sup>which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.

both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition, <sup>2:15</sup>having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace; <sup>2:16</sup>and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby. <sup>2:17</sup>He came and preached peace to you who were far off and to those who were near. <sup>2:18</sup>For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father. <sup>2:19</sup>So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but you are fellow citizens with the holy ones, and of the household of God, <sup>2:20</sup>being built on the foundation of the emissaries and prophets, Messiah Yeshua himself being the chief cornerstone; <sup>2:21</sup>in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord; <sup>2:22</sup>in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.

<sup>3:1</sup>For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Messiah Yeshua on behalf of you Gentiles, <sup>3:2</sup>if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you; <sup>3:3</sup>how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words, <sup>3:4</sup>by which, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Messiah; <sup>3:5</sup>which in other generations was not made known to the children of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy emissaries and prophets in the Spirit; <sup>3:6</sup>that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of his promise in Messiah Yeshua through the Good News, <sup>3:7</sup>of which I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power. <sup>3:8</sup>To me, the very least of all holy ones, was this grace given, to proclaim to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Messiah, <sup>3:9</sup>and to make all men see what is the administration<sup>b</sup> of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>3:10</sup>to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places, <sup>3:11</sup>according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Messiah Yeshua our Lord; <sup>3:12</sup>in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him. <sup>3:13</sup>Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.

<sup>3:14</sup>For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, <sup>3:15</sup>from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named, <sup>3:16</sup>that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man; <sup>3:17</sup>that Messiah may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love, <sup>3:18</sup>may be strengthened to comprehend with all the holy ones what is the breadth and length and height and depth, <sup>3:19</sup>and to know Messiah's love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. <sup>3:20</sup>Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, <sup>3:21</sup>to him be the glory in the assembly and in Messiah Yeshua to all generations forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>4:1</sup>I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called, <sup>4:2</sup>with all lowliness and humility, with patience, bearing with one another in love; <sup>4:3</sup>being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. <sup>4:4</sup>There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling; <sup>4:5</sup>one Lord, one faith, one immersion, <sup>4:6</sup>one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all. <sup>4:7</sup>But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Messiah. <sup>4:8</sup>Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."<sup>c</sup> <sup>4:9</sup>Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth? <sup>4:10</sup>He who descended is the one who also ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.

full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Messiah; <sup>4:14</sup>that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error; <sup>4:15</sup>but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Messiah; <sup>4:16</sup>from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.

<sup>4:17</sup>This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the futility of their mind, <sup>4:18</sup>being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts; <sup>4:19</sup>who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness. <sup>4:20</sup>But you did not learn Messiah that way; <sup>4:21</sup>if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Yeshua: <sup>4:22</sup>that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit; <sup>4:23</sup>and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind, <sup>4:24</sup>and put on the new man, who in the likeness of God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.

<sup>4:25</sup>Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members of one another. <sup>4:26</sup>“Be angry, and don’t sin.”<sup>d</sup> Don’t let the sun go down on your wrath, <sup>4:27</sup>neither give place to the devil. <sup>4:28</sup>Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need. <sup>4:29</sup>Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear. <sup>4:30</sup>Don’t grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>4:31</sup>Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice. <sup>4:32</sup>And be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Messiah forgave you.

children. <sup>5:2</sup>Walk in love, even as Messiah also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance. <sup>5:3</sup>But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes holy ones; <sup>5:4</sup>nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.

<sup>5:5</sup>Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the Kingdom of Messiah and God.

<sup>5:6</sup>Let no one deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. <sup>5:7</sup>Therefore don’t be partakers with them. <sup>5:8</sup>For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light, <sup>5:9</sup>for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth, <sup>5:10</sup>proving what is well pleasing to the Lord. <sup>5:11</sup>Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them. <sup>5:12</sup>For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of. <sup>5:13</sup>But all things, when they are reprov’d, are revealed by the light, for everything that reveals is light. <sup>5:14</sup>Therefore he says, “Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Messiah will shine on you.” siah also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it; <sup>5:26</sup>that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word, <sup>5:27</sup>that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. <sup>5:28</sup>Even so husbands also ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself. <sup>5:29</sup>For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as the Lord also does the assembly; <sup>5:30</sup>because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones. <sup>5:31</sup>“For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh.”<sup>e</sup> <sup>5:32</sup>This mystery is great, but I speak concerning Messiah and of the assembly. <sup>5:33</sup>Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.

<sup>5:22</sup>Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord. <sup>5:23</sup>For the husband is the head of the wife, and Messiah also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body. <sup>5:24</sup>But as the assembly is subject to Messiah, so let the wives also be to their own husbands in everything.

<sup>6:1</sup>Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right. <sup>6:2</sup>“Honor your father and mother,” which is the first commandment with a promise: <sup>6:3</sup>“that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>6:4</sup>You fathers, don’t provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.

<sup>6:5</sup>Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Messiah; <sup>6:6</sup>not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men pleasers; but as servants of Messiah, doing the will of God from the heart; <sup>6:7</sup>with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men; <sup>6:8</sup>knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.

<sup>6:9</sup>You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.

<sup>6:10</sup>Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. <sup>6:11</sup>Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. <sup>6:12</sup>For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world’s rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places.

<sup>6:13</sup>Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. <sup>6:14</sup>Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, <sup>6:15</sup>and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace; <sup>6:16</sup>above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. <sup>6:17</sup>And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word<sup>g</sup> of God; <sup>6:18</sup>with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the holy ones: <sup>6:19</sup>on my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the Good News, <sup>6:20</sup>for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

<sup>6:21</sup>But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things; <sup>6:22</sup>whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

<sup>6:23</sup>Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>6:24</sup>Grace be with all those who love our Lord Yeshua the Messiah with incorruptible love. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Philippians

To all the holy ones in Messiah Yeshua who are at Philippi, with the overseers and servants<sup>a</sup>: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:3</sup>I thank my God whenever I remember you, <sup>1:4</sup>always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy, <sup>1:5</sup>for your partnership<sup>b</sup> in furtherance of the Good News from the first day until now; <sup>1:6</sup>being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:7</sup>It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, because, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the Good News, you all are partakers with me of grace. <sup>1:8</sup>For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Messiah Yeshua.

<sup>1:9</sup>This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; <sup>1:10</sup>so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Messiah; <sup>1:11</sup>being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Yeshua the Messiah, to the glory and praise of God.

<sup>1:12</sup>Now I desire to have you know, brothers,<sup>c</sup> that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the Good News; <sup>1:13</sup>so that it became evident to the whole palace<sup>d</sup> guard, and to all the rest, that my bonds are in Messiah; <sup>1:14</sup>and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear. <sup>1:15</sup>Some indeed proclaim Messiah even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will. <sup>1:16</sup>The former insincerely proclaim Messiah from selfish ambition, thinking that they add affliction to my chains; <sup>1:17</sup>but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the Good News.

<sup>1:18</sup>What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Messiah is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice. <sup>1:19</sup>For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Yeshua the Messiah, <sup>1:20</sup>according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be disappointed, but with all boldness, as always, now also Messiah will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death. <sup>1:21</sup>For to me to live is Messiah, and to die is gain. <sup>1:22</sup>But if I live on in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; yet I don't know what I will choose. <sup>1:23</sup>But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Messiah, which is far better. <sup>1:24</sup>Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake. <sup>1:25</sup>Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith, <sup>1:26</sup>that your rejoicing may abound in Messiah Yeshua in me through my presence with you again.

<sup>1:27</sup>Only let your way of life be worthy of the Good News of Messiah, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the Good News; <sup>1:28</sup>and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God. <sup>1:29</sup>Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Messiah, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf, <sup>1:30</sup>having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.

<sup>2:1</sup>If there is therefore any exhortation in Messiah, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion, <sup>2:2</sup>make my joy full, by being like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind; <sup>2:3</sup>doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself; <sup>2:4</sup>each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.

<sup>c</sup>1:12 The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>2:12</sup>So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling. <sup>2:13</sup>For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure. <sup>2:14</sup>Do all things without murmurings and disputes, <sup>2:15</sup>that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, <sup>2:16</sup>holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Messiah, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain. <sup>2:17</sup>Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all. <sup>2:18</sup>In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.

<sup>2:19</sup>But I hope in the Lord Yeshua to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing. <sup>2:20</sup>For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you. <sup>2:21</sup>For they all seek their own, not the things of Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>2:22</sup>But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the Good News. <sup>2:23</sup>Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me. <sup>2:24</sup>But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly. <sup>2:25</sup>But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your emissary and servant of my need; <sup>2:26</sup>since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick. <sup>2:27</sup>For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow. <sup>2:28</sup>I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful. <sup>2:29</sup>Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor, <sup>2:30</sup>because for the work of Messiah he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.

<sup>3:1</sup>Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe. <sup>3:2</sup>Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision. <sup>3:3</sup>For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Messiah Yeshua, and have no confidence in the flesh; <sup>3:4</sup>though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more: <sup>3:5</sup>circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee; <sup>3:6</sup>concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.

<sup>3:7</sup>However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Messiah. <sup>3:8</sup>Yes most certainly, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Messiah Yeshua, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Messiah <sup>3:9</sup>and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Messiah, the righteousness which is from God by faith; <sup>3:10</sup>that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death; <sup>3:11</sup>if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead. <sup>3:12</sup>Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was taken hold of by Messiah Yeshua.

<sup>3:13</sup>Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having taken hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before, <sup>3:14</sup>I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of God in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>3:15</sup>Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, God will also reveal that to you. <sup>3:16</sup>Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind. <sup>3:17</sup>Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example. <sup>3:18</sup>For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Messiah, <sup>3:19</sup>whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things. <sup>3:20</sup>For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>3:21</sup>who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working by which he is able even to subject all things to himself.

<sup>4:1</sup>Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved. <sup>4:2</sup>I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord. <sup>4:3</sup>Yes, I beg you also, true yokefellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the Good News, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life. <sup>4:4</sup>Rejoice in the Lord always! Again I will say, "Rejoice!" <sup>4:5</sup>Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand. <sup>4:6</sup>In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. <sup>4:7</sup>And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Messiah Yeshua.

<sup>4:8</sup>Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things. <sup>4:9</sup>The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you. <sup>4:10</sup>But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity. <sup>4:11</sup>Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it. <sup>4:12</sup>I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things I have learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both

to abound and to be in need. <sup>4:13</sup>I can do all things through Messiah, who strengthens me. <sup>4:14</sup>However you did well that you shared in my affliction. <sup>4:15</sup>You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly shared with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only. <sup>4:16</sup>For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need. <sup>4:17</sup>Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account. <sup>4:18</sup>But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God. <sup>4:19</sup>My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>4:20</sup>Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever! Amen.

<sup>4:21</sup>Greet every holy one in Messiah Yeshua. The brothers who are with me greet you. <sup>4:22</sup>All the holy ones greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household. <sup>4:23</sup>The grace of the Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to the Colossians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, <sup>1:2</sup>to the holy ones and faithful brothers<sup>a</sup> in Messiah at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:3</sup>We give thanks to God the Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, praying always for you, <sup>1:4</sup>having heard of your faith in Messiah Yeshua, and of the love which you have toward all the holy ones, <sup>1:5</sup>because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, <sup>1:6</sup>which has come to you; even as it is in all the world and is bearing fruit and growing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth; <sup>1:7</sup>even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow servant, who is a faithful servant of Messiah on our behalf, <sup>1:8</sup>who also declared to us your love in the Spirit. <sup>1:9</sup>For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, don't cease praying and making requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding, <sup>1:10</sup>that you may walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; <sup>1:11</sup>strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, for all endurance and perseverance with joy; <sup>1:12</sup>giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the holy ones in light; <sup>1:13</sup>who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the Kingdom of the Son of his love; <sup>1:14</sup>in whom we have our redemption,<sup>b</sup> the forgiveness of our sins; <sup>1:15</sup>who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. <sup>1:16</sup>For by him all things were created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and for him. <sup>1:17</sup>He is before all things, and in him all things are held together. <sup>1:18</sup>He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. <sup>1:19</sup>For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him; <sup>1:20</sup>and through him to reconcile all things to himself, by him, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of his cross.

<sup>1:21</sup>You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works, <sup>1:22</sup>yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him, <sup>1:23</sup>if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the Good News which you heard, which is being proclaimed in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

<sup>1:24</sup>Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Messiah in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly; <sup>1:25</sup>of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God, <sup>1:26</sup>the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his holy ones, <sup>1:27</sup>to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Messiah in you, the hope of glory; <sup>1:28</sup>whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Messiah Yeshua; <sup>1:29</sup>for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

<sup>2:1</sup>For I desire to have you know how greatly I struggle for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; <sup>2:2</sup>that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and gaining all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Messiah, <sup>2:3</sup>in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden. <sup>2:4</sup>Now this I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech. <sup>2:5</sup>For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Messiah. <sup>2:6</sup>As therefore you received Messiah Yeshua, the Lord, walk in him, <sup>2:7</sup>rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving. <sup>2:8</sup>Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Messiah. <sup>2:9</sup>For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily, <sup>2:10</sup>and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power; <sup>2:11</sup>in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Messiah; <sup>2:12</sup>having been buried with him in immersion, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead. <sup>2:13</sup>You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses, <sup>2:14</sup>wiping out the handwriting in ordinances which was against us; and he has taken it out of the way, nailing it to the cross; <sup>2:15</sup>having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

<sup>2:16</sup>Let no one therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day, <sup>2:17</sup>which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Messiah's. <sup>2:18</sup>Let no one rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind, <sup>2:19</sup>and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth. <sup>2:20</sup>If you died with Messiah from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances, <sup>2:21</sup>"Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" <sup>2:22</sup>(all of which perish with use), according to the precepts and doctrines of men? <sup>2:23</sup>Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Messiah is, seated on the right hand of God. <sup>3:2</sup>Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth. <sup>3:3</sup>For you died, and your life is hidden with Messiah in God. <sup>3:4</sup>When Messiah, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory. <sup>3:5</sup>Put to death therefore your members which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, depraved passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry; <sup>3:6</sup>for which things' sake the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience. <sup>3:7</sup>You also once walked in those, when you lived in them; <sup>3:8</sup>but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth. <sup>3:9</sup>Don't lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings, <sup>3:10</sup>and have put on the new man, who is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator, <sup>3:11</sup>where there can't be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but Messiah is all, and in all.

<sup>3:12</sup>Put on therefore, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance; <sup>3:13</sup>bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as Messiah forgave you, so you also do.

<sup>3:14</sup>Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection. <sup>3:15</sup>And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful. <sup>3:16</sup>Let the word of Messiah dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your heart to the Lord.

<sup>3:17</sup>Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Yeshua, giving thanks to God the Father, through him.

<sup>3:18</sup>Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.

<sup>3:20</sup>Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord.

<sup>3:21</sup>Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.

<sup>3:22</sup>Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing God. <sup>3:23</sup>And whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men, <sup>3:24</sup>knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord Messiah. <sup>3:25</sup>But he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.

<sup>4:1</sup>Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.

<sup>4:2</sup>Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving; <sup>4:3</sup>praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Messiah, for which I am also in bonds; <sup>4:4</sup>that I may reveal it as I ought to speak. <sup>4:5</sup>Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. <sup>4:6</sup>Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

<sup>4:7</sup>All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord. <sup>4:8</sup>I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts, <sup>4:9</sup>together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you everything that is going on here. <sup>4:10</sup>Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner, greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"), <sup>4:11</sup>and Yeshua who is called Justus. These are my only fellow workers for the Kingdom of God who are of the circumcision, men who have been a comfort to me.

<sup>4:12</sup>Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Messiah, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God. <sup>4:13</sup>For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis. <sup>4:14</sup>Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you. <sup>4:15</sup>Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house. <sup>4:16</sup>When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea. <sup>4:17</sup>Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."

<sup>4:18</sup>The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand: remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul's First Letter to the Thessalonians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:2</sup>We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers, <sup>1:3</sup>remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, before our God and Father. <sup>1:4</sup>We know, brothers<sup>a</sup> loved by God, that you are chosen, <sup>1:5</sup>and that our Good News came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake. <sup>1:6</sup>You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit, <sup>1:7</sup>so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia. <sup>1:8</sup>For from you the word of the Lord has been declared, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God has gone out; so that we need not to say anything. <sup>1:9</sup>For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God, <sup>1:10</sup>and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Yeshua, who delivers us from the wrath to come.

<sup>2:1</sup>For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you wasn't in vain, <sup>2:2</sup>but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the Good News of God in much conflict. <sup>2:3</sup>For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception. <sup>2:4</sup>But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts. <sup>2:5</sup>For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness), <sup>2:6</sup>nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as emissaries of Messiah. <sup>2:7</sup>But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother cherishes her own children.

<sup>2:8</sup>Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the Good News of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us. <sup>2:9</sup>For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail; for working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the Good News of God. <sup>2:10</sup>You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe. <sup>2:11</sup>As you know, we exhorted, comforted, and implored every one of you, as a father does his own children, <sup>2:12</sup>to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own Kingdom and glory. <sup>2:13</sup>For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe. <sup>2:14</sup>For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Messiah Yeshua; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Judeans; <sup>2:15</sup>who killed both the Lord Yeshua and their own prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men; <sup>2:16</sup>forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.

<sup>2:17</sup>But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire, <sup>2:18</sup>because we wanted to come to you—indeed, I, Paul, once and again—but Satan hindered us. <sup>2:19</sup>For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Yeshua<sup>b</sup> at his coming? <sup>2:20</sup>For you are our glory and our joy.

you concerning your faith; <sup>3:3</sup>that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task. <sup>3:4</sup>For most certainly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know. <sup>3:5</sup>For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain. <sup>3:6</sup>But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you; <sup>3:7</sup>for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith. <sup>3:8</sup>For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord. <sup>3:9</sup>For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God; <sup>3:10</sup>night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith? <sup>3:11</sup>Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, direct our way to you; <sup>3:12</sup>and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you, <sup>3:13</sup>to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Yeshua with all his holy ones.

<sup>4:1</sup>Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Yeshua, that as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, that you abound more and more. <sup>4:2</sup>For you know what instructions we gave you through the Lord Yeshua. <sup>4:3</sup>For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality, <sup>4:4</sup>that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor, <sup>4:5</sup>not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God; <sup>4:6</sup>that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified. <sup>4:7</sup>For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification. <sup>4:8</sup>Therefore he who rejects this doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.

<sup>4:9</sup>But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another, <sup>4:10</sup>for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more; <sup>4:11</sup>and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we instructed you; <sup>4:12</sup>that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

<sup>4:13</sup>But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope. <sup>4:14</sup>For if we believe that Yeshua died and rose again, even so God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep in Yeshua. <sup>4:15</sup>For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep. <sup>4:16</sup>For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's shofar<sup>c</sup>. The dead in Messiah will rise first, <sup>4:17</sup>then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever. <sup>4:18</sup>Therefore comfort one another with these words.

<sup>5:1</sup>But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you. <sup>5:2</sup>For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night. <sup>5:3</sup>For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape. <sup>5:4</sup>But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief. <sup>5:5</sup>You are all children of light, and children of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness, <sup>5:6</sup>so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let's watch and be sober. <sup>5:7</sup>For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunk are drunk in the night. <sup>5:8</sup>But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation. <sup>5:9</sup>For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, <sup>5:10</sup>who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. <sup>5:11</sup>Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do. <sup>5:12</sup>But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you, <sup>5:13</sup>and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake.

Be at peace among yourselves. <sup>5:14</sup>We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all. <sup>5:15</sup>See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, for one another, and for all.

<sup>5:23</sup>May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>5:24</sup>He who calls you is faithful, who will also do it. <sup>5:25</sup>Brothers, pray for us. <sup>5:26</sup>Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss. <sup>5:27</sup>I solemnly command you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

<sup>5:28</sup>The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you. Amen.

Paul's Second Letter to the Thessalonians

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in God our Father, and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:3</sup>We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers,<sup>a</sup> even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds; <sup>1:4</sup>so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure. <sup>1:5</sup>This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the Kingdom of God, for which you also suffer. <sup>1:6</sup>Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you, <sup>1:7</sup>and to give relief to you who are afflicted with us, when the Lord Yeshua is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire, <sup>1:8</sup>giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the Good News of our Lord Yeshua, <sup>1:9</sup>who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might, <sup>1:10</sup>when he comes to be glorified in his holy ones, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.

<sup>1:11</sup>To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power; <sup>1:12</sup>that the name of our Lord Yeshua<sup>b</sup> may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>2:1</sup>Now, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and our gathering together to him, we ask you <sup>2:2</sup>not to be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Messiah had come. <sup>2:3</sup>Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the departure comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction, <sup>2:4</sup>he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshiped; so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God. <sup>2:5</sup>Don't you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things? <sup>2:6</sup>Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season. <sup>2:7</sup>For the mystery of lawlessness already works. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way. <sup>2:8</sup>Then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and destroy by the manifestation of his coming; <sup>2:9</sup>even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>2:10</sup>and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>2:11</sup>Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie; <sup>2:12</sup>that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. <sup>2:13</sup>But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief in the truth; <sup>2:14</sup>to which he called you through our Good News, for the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>2:15</sup>So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.

<sup>2:16</sup>Now our Lord Yeshua the Messiah himself, and God our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace, <sup>2:17</sup>comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.

<sup>3:1</sup>Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may spread rapidly and be glorified, even as also with you; <sup>3:2</sup>and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith. <sup>3:3</sup>But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one. <sup>3:4</sup>We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things we command. <sup>3:5</sup>May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Messiah.

<sup>3:6</sup>Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us. <sup>3:7</sup>For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you, <sup>3:8</sup>neither did we eat bread from anyone's hand without paying for it, but in labor and travail worked night and day, that we might not burden any of you; <sup>3:9</sup>not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us. <sup>3:10</sup>For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat." <sup>3:11</sup>For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies. <sup>3:12</sup>Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.

<sup>3:13</sup>But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well. <sup>3:14</sup>If any man doesn't obey our word in this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed. <sup>3:15</sup>Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.

<sup>3:16</sup>Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.

<sup>3:17</sup>The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter: this is how I write. <sup>3:18</sup>The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with you all. Amen.

Paul's First Letter to Timothy

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an emissary of Messiah Yeshua according to the commandment of God our Savior, and Messiah Yeshua our hope; <sup>1:2</sup>to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

<sup>1:3</sup>As I urged you when I was going into Macedonia, stay at Ephesus that you might command certain men not to teach a different doctrine, <sup>1:4</sup>neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith—<sup>1:5</sup>but the goal of this command is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and sincere faith; <sup>1:6</sup>from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking; <sup>1:7</sup>desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm. <sup>1:8</sup>But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully, <sup>1:9</sup>as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, <sup>1:10</sup>for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine; <sup>1:11</sup>according to the Good News of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. <sup>1:12</sup>And I thank him who enabled me, Messiah Yeshua our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service; <sup>1:13</sup>although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. <sup>1:14</sup>The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>1:15</sup>The saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance, that Messiah Yeshua came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief. <sup>1:16</sup>However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Yeshua the Messiah might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him for eternal life. <sup>1:17</sup>Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>2:1</sup>I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men: <sup>2:2</sup>for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence. <sup>2:3</sup>For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior; <sup>2:4</sup>who desires all people to be saved and come to full knowledge of the truth. <sup>2:5</sup>For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Messiah Yeshua, <sup>2:6</sup>who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times; <sup>2:7</sup>to which I was appointed a proclaimer and an emissary (I am telling the truth in Messiah, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.

<sup>2:8</sup>I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands without anger and doubting. <sup>2:9</sup>In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, gold, pearls, or expensive clothing; <sup>2:10</sup>but (which becomes women professing godliness) with good works. <sup>2:11</sup>Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection. <sup>2:12</sup>But I don't permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness. <sup>2:13</sup>For Adam was first formed, then Havah. <sup>2:14</sup>Adam wasn't deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience; <sup>2:15</sup>but she will be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.

to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of God?) <sup>3:6</sup>not a new convert, lest being puffed up he fall into the same condemnation as the devil. <sup>3:7</sup>Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.

<sup>3:14</sup>These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly; <sup>3:15</sup>but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. <sup>3:16</sup>Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great:

God was revealed in the flesh, justified in the spirit,
seen by angels,
preached among the nations,
believed on in the world,
and received up in glory.

<sup>4:1</sup>But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, <sup>4:2</sup>through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron; <sup>4:3</sup>forbidding marriage and commanding to abstain from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth. <sup>4:4</sup>For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving. <sup>4:5</sup>For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer. <sup>4:6</sup>If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant

<sup>a</sup>3:8 or, Servants.

<sup>b</sup>3:10 or, serve as shammashim

<sup>c</sup>3:12 or, servants

of Messiah Yeshua, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed. <sup>4:7</sup>But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness. <sup>4:8</sup>For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value in all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come. <sup>4:9</sup>This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance. <sup>4:10</sup>For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe. <sup>4:11</sup>Command and teach these things.

<sup>4:12</sup>Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity. <sup>4:13</sup>Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching. <sup>4:14</sup>Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders. <sup>4:15</sup>Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all. <sup>4:16</sup>Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.

<sup>5:1</sup>Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers; <sup>5:2</sup>the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity. <sup>5:3</sup>Honor widows who are widows indeed. <sup>5:4</sup>But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is<sup>e</sup> acceptable in the sight of God. <sup>5:5</sup>Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day. <sup>5:6</sup>But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives. <sup>5:7</sup>Also command these things, that they may be without reproach. <sup>5:8</sup>But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and especially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever. <sup>5:9</sup>Let no one be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man, <sup>5:10</sup>being approved by good works, if she has brought up children, if she has been hospitable to strangers, if she has washed the holy ones' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, and if she has diligently followed every good work.

<sup>5:11</sup>But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Messiah, they desire to marry; <sup>5:12</sup>having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge. <sup>5:13</sup>Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not. <sup>5:14</sup>I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for insulting. <sup>5:15</sup>For already some have turned aside after Satan. <sup>5:16</sup>If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

<sup>5:17</sup>Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching. <sup>5:18</sup>For the Scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when it treads out the grain."<sup>f</sup> And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."<sup>g</sup>

<sup>5:19</sup>Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>5:20</sup>Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear. <sup>5:21</sup>I command you in the sight of God, and Messiah Yeshua, and the chosen angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality. <sup>5:22</sup>Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure. <sup>5:23</sup>Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.

<sup>5:24</sup>Some men's sins are evident, preceding them to judgment, and some also follow later. <sup>5:25</sup>In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.

<sup>6:1</sup>Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed. <sup>6:2</sup>Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

<sup>6:3</sup>If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness, <sup>6:4</sup>he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, insulting, evil suspicions, <sup>6:5</sup>constant friction of people of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such.<sup>h</sup>

<sup>6:6</sup>But godliness with contentment is great gain. <sup>6:7</sup>For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out. <sup>6:8</sup>But having food and clothing, we will be content with that. <sup>6:9</sup>But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction. <sup>6:10</sup>For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.

<sup>6:11</sup>But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. <sup>6:12</sup>Fight the good fight of faith. Lay hold of the eternal life to which you were called, and you confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses. <sup>6:13</sup>I command you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Messiah Yeshua, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession, <sup>6:14</sup>that you keep the commandment without spot, blameless, until the appearing of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>6:15</sup>which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords; <sup>6:16</sup>who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.

<sup>6:17</sup>Charge those who are rich in this present world that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy; <sup>6:18</sup>that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate; <sup>6:19</sup>laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.

<sup>6:20</sup>Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called; <sup>6:21</sup>which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Paul's Second Letter to Timothy

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, an emissary of Yeshua the Messiah through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Messiah Yeshua, <sup>1:2</sup>to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Messiah Yeshua our Lord.

<sup>1:3</sup>I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day <sup>1:4</sup>longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy; <sup>1:5</sup>having been reminded of the sincere faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.

<sup>1:6</sup>For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands. <sup>1:7</sup>For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and self-control. <sup>1:8</sup>Therefore don't be ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner; but endure hardship for the Good News according to the power of God, <sup>1:9</sup>who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Messiah Yeshua before times eternal, <sup>1:10</sup>but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Messiah Yeshua, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the Good News. <sup>1:11</sup>For this, I was appointed as a proclaimer, an emissary, and a teacher of the Gentiles. <sup>1:12</sup>For this cause I also suffer these things.

Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.

<sup>1:13</sup>Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>1:14</sup>That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit who dwells in us.

<sup>1:15</sup>This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes. <sup>1:16</sup>May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, <sup>1:17</sup>but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me <sup>1:18</sup>(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord's mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.

<sup>2:1</sup>You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>2:2</sup>The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also. <sup>2:3</sup>You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Messiah Yeshua. <sup>2:4</sup>No soldier on duty entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier. <sup>2:5</sup>Also, if anyone competes in athletics, he isn't crowned unless he has competed by the rules. <sup>2:6</sup>The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops. <sup>2:7</sup>Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.

<sup>2:8</sup>Remember Yeshua the Messiah, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my Good News, <sup>2:9</sup>in which I suffer hardship to the point of chains as a criminal. But God's word isn't chained. <sup>2:10</sup>Therefore I endure all things for the chosen ones' sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Messiah Yeshua with eternal glory. <sup>2:11</sup>This saying is faithful:

"For if we died with him,

we will also live with him.

<sup>2:12</sup>If we endure,

we will also reign with him.

If we deny him,

he also will deny us.

<sup>2:13</sup>If we are faithless,

he remains faithful.

He can't deny himself."

<sup>2:14</sup>Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.

<sup>2:15</sup>Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth. <sup>2:16</sup>But shun empty chatter, for it will go further in ungodliness, <sup>2:17</sup>and those words will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; <sup>2:18</sup>men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some. <sup>2:19</sup>However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his,"<sup>a</sup> and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord<sup>b</sup> depart from unrighteousness." <sup>2:20</sup>Now in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor. <sup>2:21</sup>If anyone therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.

<sup>3:1</sup>But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come. <sup>3:2</sup>For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3:3</sup>without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good, <sup>3:4</sup>traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God; <sup>3:5</sup>holding a form of godliness, but having denied its power. Turn away from these, also. <sup>3:6</sup>For some of these are people who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts, <sup>3:7</sup>always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth. <sup>3:8</sup>Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, who concerning the faith, are rejected. <sup>3:9</sup>But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be. <sup>3:10</sup>But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness, <sup>3:11</sup>persecutions, and sufferings: those things that happened to me at Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra. I endured those persecutions. Out of them all the Lord delivered me. <sup>3:12</sup>Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Messiah Yeshua will suffer persecution. <sup>3:13</sup>But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. <sup>3:14</sup>But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them. <sup>3:15</sup>From infancy, you have known the holy Scriptures which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith, which is in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>3:16</sup>Every Scripture is God-breathed and<sup>c</sup> profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for instruction in righteousness, <sup>3:17</sup>that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

<sup>4:1</sup>I command you therefore before God and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his Kingdom: <sup>4:2</sup>proclaim the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching. <sup>4:3</sup>For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts; <sup>4:4</sup>and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables. <sup>4:5</sup>But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.

<sup>4:6</sup>For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come. <sup>4:7</sup>I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith. <sup>4:8</sup>From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me on that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing. <sup>4:9</sup>Be diligent to come to me soon, <sup>4:10</sup>for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia. <sup>4:11</sup>Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for service. <sup>4:12</sup>But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus. <sup>4:13</sup>Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus when you come, and the books, especially the parchments. <sup>4:14</sup>Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his works, <sup>4:15</sup>of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.

<sup>4:16</sup>At my first defense, no one came to help me, but all left me. May it not be held against them. <sup>4:17</sup>But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. <sup>4:18</sup>And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me for his heavenly Kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

Paul's Letter to Titus

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, a servant of God, and an emissary of Yeshua the Messiah, according to the faith of God's chosen ones, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness, <sup>1:2</sup>in hope of eternal life, which God, who can't lie, promised before time began; <sup>1:3</sup>but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God our Savior; <sup>1:4</sup>to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah our Savior.

<sup>1:5</sup>I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you; <sup>1:6</sup>if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior. <sup>1:7</sup>For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain; <sup>1:8</sup>but given to hospitality, a lover of good, sober minded, fair, holy, self-controlled; <sup>1:9</sup>holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him. <sup>1:10</sup>For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, <sup>1:11</sup>whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake. <sup>1:12</sup>One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons." <sup>1:13</sup>This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith, <sup>1:14</sup>not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth. <sup>1:15</sup>To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. <sup>1:16</sup>They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.

nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good; <sup>2:4</sup>that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, <sup>2:5</sup>to be sober minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God's word may not be blasphemed. <sup>2:6</sup>Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober minded; <sup>2:7</sup>in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility, <sup>2:8</sup>and soundness of speech that can't be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us. <sup>2:9</sup>Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting; <sup>2:10</sup>not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things. <sup>2:11</sup>For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men, <sup>2:12</sup>instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world; <sup>2:13</sup>looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah; <sup>2:14</sup>who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify for himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works. <sup>2:15</sup>Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.

<sup>3:1</sup>Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good work, <sup>3:2</sup>to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all humility toward all men. <sup>3:3</sup>For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. <sup>3:4</sup>But when the kindness of God our Savior and his love toward mankind appeared, <sup>3:5</sup>not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the mikveh of rebirth and renewing by the Holy Spirit, <sup>3:6</sup>whom he poured out on us richly, through Yeshua the Messiah our Savior; <sup>3:7</sup>that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life. <sup>3:8</sup>This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, so that those who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works.

These things are good and profitable to men; <sup>3:9</sup>but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. <sup>3:10</sup>Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning; <sup>3:11</sup>knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

<sup>3:12</sup>When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there. <sup>3:13</sup>Send Zenas, the Torah scholar, and Apollos on their journey speedily, that nothing may be lacking for them. <sup>3:14</sup>Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

<sup>3:15</sup>All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

Paul's Letter to Philemon

<sup>1:1</sup>Paul, a prisoner of Messiah Yeshua, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker, <sup>1:2</sup>to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house: <sup>1:3</sup>Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:4</sup>I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers, <sup>1:5</sup>hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Yeshua, and toward all the holy ones; <sup>1:6</sup>that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us in Messiah Yeshua. <sup>1:7</sup>For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the holy ones have been refreshed through you, brother.

<sup>1:8</sup>Therefore, though I have all boldness in Messiah to command you that which is appropriate, <sup>1:9</sup>yet for love's sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, but also a prisoner of Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:10</sup>I beg you for my child, whom I have become the father of in my chains, Onesimus,<sup>a</sup> <sup>1:11</sup>who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me. <sup>1:12</sup>I am sending him back. Therefore receive him, that is, my own heart, <sup>1:13</sup>whom I desired to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News. <sup>1:14</sup>But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will. <sup>1:15</sup>For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever, <sup>1:16</sup>no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, especially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.

<sup>1:17</sup>If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me. <sup>1:18</sup>But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account. <sup>1:19</sup>I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides). <sup>1:20</sup>Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord. <sup>1:21</sup>Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.

<sup>1:22</sup>Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.

<sup>1:23</sup>Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Messiah Yeshua, greets you, <sup>1:24</sup>as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers. <sup>1:25</sup>The grace of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah be with your spirit. Amen.

The Letter to the Hebrews

<sup>1:1</sup>God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways, <sup>1:2</sup>has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds. <sup>1:3</sup>His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; <sup>1:4</sup>having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have. <sup>1:5</sup>For to which of the angels did he say at any time,

“You are my Son.

Today have I become your father?”<sup>a</sup>

and again,

“I will be to him a Father, and he will be to me a Son?”<sup>b</sup>

<sup>1:6</sup>Again, when he brings in the firstborn into the world he says, “Let all the angels of God worship him.” <sup>1:7</sup>Of the angels he says, “Who makes his angels winds, and his servants a flame of fire.”<sup>c</sup>

<sup>1:8</sup>But of the Son he says,

“Your throne, O God, is forever and ever.

The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your Kingdom.

<sup>1:9</sup>You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity;

therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>1:10</sup>And,

“You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth.

The heavens are the works of your hands.

<sup>1:11</sup>They will perish, but you continue.

They all will grow old like a garment does.

<sup>1:12</sup>As a mantle, you will roll them up, and they will be changed;

but you are the same.

Your years will not fail.”<sup>e</sup>

<sup>1:13</sup>But which of the angels has he told at any time,

“Sit at my right hand,

until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?”<sup>f</sup>

<sup>1:14</sup>Aren’t they all serving spirits, sent out to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?

<sup>2:1</sup>Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away. <sup>2:2</sup>For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense; <sup>2:3</sup>how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation—which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard; <sup>2:4</sup>God also testifying with them, both by signs and wonders, by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will? <sup>2:5</sup>For he didn’t subject the world to come, of which we speak, to angels. <sup>2:6</sup>But one has somewhere testified, saying,

“What is man, that you think of him?

Or the son of man, that you care for him?

<sup>2:7</sup>You made him a little lower than the angels.

You crowned him with glory and honor.<sup>g</sup>

For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don’t see all things subjected to him, yet. <sup>2:9</sup>But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Yeshua, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone. <sup>2:10</sup>For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many children to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings. <sup>2:11</sup>For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers<sup>i</sup>, <sup>2:12</sup>saying, "I will declare your name to my brothers.

In the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise."<sup>j</sup>

<sup>2:13</sup>Again, "I will put my trust in him."<sup>k</sup> Again, "Behold, here I am with the children whom God has given me."<sup>l</sup> <sup>2:14</sup>Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in the same way partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, <sup>2:15</sup>and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage. <sup>2:16</sup>For most certainly, he doesn't give help to angels, but he gives help to the seed of Abraham. <sup>2:17</sup>Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people. <sup>2:18</sup>For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.

<sup>3:1</sup>Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Emissary and High Priest of our confession, Yeshua; <sup>3:2</sup>who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house. <sup>3:3</sup>For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who built the house has more honor than the house. <sup>3:4</sup>For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God. <sup>3:5</sup>Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken, <sup>3:6</sup>but Messiah is faithful as a Son over his house; whose house we are, if we hold fast our confidence and the glorying of our hope firm to the end. <sup>3:7</sup>Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says,

"Today if you will hear his voice,
<sup>3:8</sup>don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion, like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness,

<sup>3:9</sup>where your fathers tested me by proving me, and saw my works for forty years.

<sup>3:10</sup>Therefore I was displeased with that generation, and said, 'They always err in their heart, but they didn't know my ways;'

<sup>3:11</sup>as I swore in my wrath,

'They will not enter into my rest.'<sup>m</sup>

<sup>3:12</sup>Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God; <sup>3:13</sup>but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. <sup>3:14</sup>For we have become partakers of Messiah, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end: <sup>3:15</sup>while it is said,

"Today if you will hear his voice,

don't harden your hearts, as in the rebellion."<sup>n</sup>

<sup>3:16</sup>For who, when they heard, rebelled? No, didn't all those who came out of Egypt by Moses? <sup>3:17</sup>With whom was he displeased forty years? Wasn't it with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? <sup>3:18</sup>To whom did he swear that they wouldn't enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient? <sup>3:19</sup>We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.

<sup>4:1</sup>Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps anyone of you should seem to have come short of a promise of entering into his rest. <sup>4:2</sup>For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as they also did, but the word they heard didn't profit them, because it wasn't mixed with faith by those who heard. <sup>4:3</sup>For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, they will not enter into my rest;"<sup>o</sup> although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

<sup>4:4</sup>For he has said this somewhere about the seventh day, "God rested on the seventh day from all his works;<sup>9p</sup> <sup>4:5</sup>and in this place again, “They will not enter into my rest.”<sup>q</sup>

<sup>4:6</sup>Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news was before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience, <sup>4:7</sup>he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), “Today if you will hear his voice, don’t harden your hearts.”<sup>r</sup>

<sup>4:8</sup>For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day. <sup>4:9</sup>There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God. <sup>4:10</sup>For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his. <sup>4:11</sup>Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience. <sup>4:12</sup>For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and is able to discern the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

<sup>4:13</sup>There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do. <sup>4:14</sup>Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Yeshua, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession. <sup>4:15</sup>For we don’t have a high priest who can’t be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin. <sup>4:16</sup>Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for help in time of need.

<sup>5:1</sup>For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins. <sup>5:2</sup>The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness. <sup>5:3</sup>Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself. <sup>5:4</sup>Nobody takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was. <sup>5:5</sup>So also Messiah didn’t glorify himself to be made a high priest, but it was he who said to him,

“You are my Son.

Today I have become your father.”<sup>s</sup>

<sup>5:6</sup>As he says also in another place,

“You are a priest forever,

after the order of Melchizedek.”<sup>t</sup>

<sup>5:7</sup>He, in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear, <sup>5:8</sup>though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered. <sup>5:9</sup>Having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation, <sup>5:10</sup>named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. <sup>5:11</sup>About him we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing. <sup>5:12</sup>For although by this time you should be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food. <sup>5:13</sup>For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby. <sup>5:14</sup>But solid food is for those who are full grown, who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.

<sup>6:1</sup>Therefore leaving the teaching of the first principles of Messiah, let us press on to perfection—not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God, <sup>6:2</sup>of the teaching of immersions<sup>u</sup>, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. <sup>6:3</sup>This will we do, if God permits. <sup>6:4</sup>For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit, <sup>6:5</sup>and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come, <sup>6:6</sup>and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame. <sup>6:7</sup>For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God; <sup>6:8</sup>but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near being cursed, whose end is to be burned.

<sup>6:9</sup>But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, even though we speak like this. <sup>6:10</sup>For God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served the holy ones, and still do serve them. <sup>6:11</sup>We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end, <sup>6:12</sup>that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises. <sup>6:13</sup>For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself, <sup>6:14</sup>saying, "Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you."<sup>v</sup> <sup>6:15</sup>Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise. <sup>6:16</sup>For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation. <sup>6:17</sup>In this way God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath; <sup>6:18</sup>that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us. <sup>6:19</sup>This hope we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil; <sup>6:20</sup>where as a forerunner Yeshua entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.

<sup>7:1</sup>For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him, <sup>7:2</sup>to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, king of righteousness, and then also king of Salem, which is king of peace; <sup>7:3</sup>without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually. <sup>7:4</sup>Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils.

<sup>7:5</sup>They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the Torah, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the body of Abraham, <sup>7:6</sup>but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has accepted tithes from Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises. <sup>7:7</sup>But without any dispute the lesser is blessed by the greater. <sup>7:8</sup>Here people who die receive tithes, but there one receives tithes of whom it is testified that he lives. <sup>7:9</sup>We can say that through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes, <sup>7:10</sup>for he was yet in the body of his father when Melchizedek met him. <sup>7:11</sup>Now if there were perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people have received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron? <sup>7:12</sup>For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also in the law. <sup>7:13</sup>For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no one has officiated at the altar. <sup>7:14</sup>For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, about which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood. <sup>7:15</sup>This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest, <sup>7:16</sup>who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life: <sup>7:17</sup>for it is testified,

"You are a priest forever,

according to the order of Melchizedek."<sup>w</sup>

<sup>7:18</sup>For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness <sup>7:19</sup>(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. <sup>7:20</sup>Inasmuch as he was not made priest without the taking of an oath <sup>7:21</sup>(for they indeed have been made priests without an oath), but he with an oath by him that says of him,

"The Lord swore and will not change his mind,

'You are a priest forever,

according to the order of Melchizedek."<sup>x</sup>

<sup>7:22</sup>By so much, Yeshua has become the collateral of a better covenant. <sup>7:23</sup>Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death. <sup>7:24</sup>But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable. <sup>7:25</sup>Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing that he lives forever to make intercession for them.

<sup>7:26</sup>For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; <sup>7:27</sup>who doesn't need, like those high priests, to offer up sacrifices daily, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people. For he did this once for all, when he offered up himself. <sup>7:28</sup>For the Torah appoints men as high priests who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the Torah appoints a Son forever who has been perfected.

<sup>8:1</sup>Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens, <sup>8:2</sup>a servant of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, not man. <sup>8:3</sup>For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer. <sup>8:4</sup>For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the Torah; <sup>8:5</sup>who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tabernacle, for he said, "See, you shall make everything according to the pattern that was shown to you on the mountain."<sup>y</sup> <sup>8:6</sup>But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which on better promises has been given as Torah. <sup>8:7</sup>For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second. <sup>8:8</sup>For finding fault with them, he said,

"Behold, the days come," says the Lord,
 "that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;
<sup>8:9</sup>not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day that I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt;

 for they didn't continue in my covenant,
 and I disregarded them," says the Lord.

<sup>8:10</sup>"For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel.

After those days," says the Lord;
 "I will put my laws into their mind,
 I will also write them on their heart.

I will be their God,
 and they will be my people.

<sup>8:11</sup>They will not teach every man his fellow citizen,<sup>z</sup>

and every man his brother, saying, 'Know
 the Lord,'

for all will know me,
 from their least to their greatest.

<sup>8:12</sup>For I will be merciful to their unrighteous-
 ness.

I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>8:13</sup>In that he says, "A new covenant," he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.

<sup>9:1</sup>Now indeed even the first<sup>b</sup> covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary. <sup>9:2</sup>For a tabernacle was prepared. In the first part were the menorah, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place.
<sup>9:3</sup>After the second veil was the tabernacle which is called the Holy of Holies, <sup>9:4</sup>having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tablets of the covenant; <sup>9:5</sup>and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't speak now in detail. <sup>9:6</sup>Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the services, <sup>9:7</sup>but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people. <sup>9:8</sup>The Holy Spirit is indicating this, that the way into the Holy Place wasn't yet revealed while the first tabernacle was still standing; <sup>9:9</sup>which is a symbol of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect; <sup>9:10</sup>being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.

<sup>9:11</sup>But Messiah having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation, <sup>9:12</sup>nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption. <sup>9:13</sup>For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh: <sup>9:14</sup>how much more will the blood of Messiah, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? <sup>9:15</sup>For this reason he is the mediator of a new covenant, since a death has occurred for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, that those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance. <sup>9:16</sup>For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it. <sup>9:17</sup>For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives. <sup>9:18</sup>Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood. <sup>9:19</sup>For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the Torah, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people, <sup>9:20</sup>saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God has commanded you."<sup>c</sup>

of the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us; <sup>9:25</sup>nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own, <sup>9:26</sup>or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. <sup>9:27</sup>Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this judgment, <sup>9:28</sup>so Messiah also, having been offered once to bear the sins of many,<sup>d</sup> will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.

<sup>10:1</sup>For the Torah, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near. <sup>10:2</sup>Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins? <sup>10:3</sup>But in those sacrifices there is a yearly reminder of sins. <sup>10:4</sup>For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins. <sup>10:5</sup>Therefore when he comes into the world, he says,

"Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire,
but you prepared a body for me;

<sup>10:6</sup>You had no pleasure in whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin.

<sup>10:7</sup>Then I said, 'Behold, I have come (in the scroll of the book it is written of me) to do your will, O God.'"<sup>e</sup>

<sup>10:8</sup>Previously saying, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the Torah), <sup>10:9</sup>then he has said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second, <sup>10:10</sup>by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Yeshua the Messiah once for all. <sup>10:11</sup>Every priest indeed stands day by day serving and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins, <sup>10:12</sup>but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God;

<sup>e</sup>10:7 Psalm 40:6-8

<sup>10:13</sup>from that time waiting until his enemies are made the footstool of his feet. <sup>10:14</sup>For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are being sanctified. <sup>10:15</sup>The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying,

<sup>10:16</sup>“This is the covenant that I will make with them:

‘After those days,’ says the Lord,

‘I will put my laws on their heart,

I will also write them on their mind;”<sup>f</sup>

then he says,

<sup>10:17</sup>“I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more.”<sup>g</sup>

<sup>10:18</sup>Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin. <sup>10:19</sup>Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Yeshua, <sup>10:20</sup>by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; <sup>10:21</sup>and having a great priest over the house of God, <sup>10:22</sup>let’s draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water, <sup>10:23</sup>let us hold fast the confession of our hope without wavering; for he who promised is faithful.

<sup>10:24</sup>Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works, <sup>10:25</sup>not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching. <sup>10:26</sup>For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins, <sup>10:27</sup>but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries. <sup>10:28</sup>A man who disregards the Torah of Moses dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses. <sup>10:29</sup>How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace? <sup>10:30</sup>For we know him who said, “Vengeance belongs to me,” says the Lord, “I will repay.”<sup>h</sup> Again, “The Lord will judge his people.”<sup>i</sup> <sup>10:31</sup>It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God. <sup>10:32</sup>But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings; <sup>10:33</sup>partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so. <sup>10:34</sup>For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens. <sup>10:35</sup>Therefore don’t throw away your boldness, which has a great reward. <sup>10:36</sup>For you need endurance so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.

<sup>10:37</sup>“In a very little while,

he who comes will come, and will not wait.

<sup>10:38</sup>But the righteous will live by faith.

If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.”<sup>j</sup>

<sup>10:39</sup>But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.

<sup>11:1</sup>Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen. <sup>11:2</sup>For by this, the elders obtained testimony. <sup>11:3</sup>By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible. <sup>11:4</sup>By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God testifying with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks. <sup>11:5</sup>By faith, Enoch was taken away, so that he wouldn’t see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God. <sup>11:6</sup>Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. <sup>11:7</sup>By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear,<sup>k</sup> prepared a ship for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith. <sup>11:8</sup>By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went. <sup>11:9</sup>By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. <sup>11:10</sup>For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God. <sup>11:11</sup>By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised. <sup>11:12</sup>Therefore as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore, were fathered by one man, and him as good as dead. <sup>11:13</sup>These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen<sup>l</sup> them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth. <sup>11:14</sup>For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking a country of their own. <sup>11:15</sup>If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return. <sup>11:16</sup>But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.

<sup>11:17</sup>By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son; <sup>11:18</sup>even he to whom it was said, "In Isaac will your seed be called;"<sup>m</sup> <sup>11:19</sup>concluding that God is able to raise up even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead. <sup>11:20</sup>By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come. <sup>11:21</sup>By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshiped, leaning on the top of his staff. <sup>11:22</sup>By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones. <sup>11:23</sup>By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. <sup>11:24</sup>By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, <sup>11:25</sup>choosing rather to share ill treatment with God's people, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time; <sup>11:26</sup>accounting the reproach of Messiahship greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward. <sup>11:27</sup>By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. <sup>11:28</sup>By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them. <sup>11:29</sup>By faith, they passed through the Red Sea<sup>n</sup> as on dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up. <sup>11:30</sup>By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days. <sup>11:31</sup>By faith, Rahab the prostitute, didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace. <sup>11:32</sup>What more shall I say? For the time would fail me if I told of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets; <sup>11:33</sup>who, through faith subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,<sup>o</sup> <sup>11:34</sup>quenched the power of fire,<sup>p</sup> escaped the edge of the sword,<sup>q</sup> from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and caused foreign armies to flee. <sup>11:35</sup>Women received their dead by resurrection.<sup>r</sup> Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. <sup>11:36</sup>Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment. <sup>11:37</sup>They were stoned.<sup>s</sup> They were sawn apart. They were tempted.

They were slain with the sword.<sup>t</sup> They went around in sheep skins and in goat skins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated <sup>11:38</sup>(of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts, mountains, caves, and the holes of the earth. <sup>11:39</sup>These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise, <sup>11:40</sup>God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.

<sup>12:1</sup>Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, <sup>12:2</sup>looking to Yeshua, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising its shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. <sup>12:3</sup>For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls. <sup>12:4</sup>You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin; <sup>12:5</sup>and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with children,

<sup>12:8</sup>But if you are without discipline, of which all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not children. <sup>12:9</sup>Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live? <sup>12:10</sup>For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness. <sup>12:11</sup>All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby. <sup>12:12</sup>Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,<sup>v</sup> <sup>12:13</sup>and make straight paths for your feet,<sup>w</sup> so that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed. <sup>12:14</sup>Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord, <sup>12:15</sup>looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and many be defiled by it; <sup>12:16</sup>lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, like Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal. <sup>12:17</sup>For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears. <sup>12:18</sup>For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, storm, <sup>12:19</sup>the sound of a shofar<sup>x</sup>, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them, <sup>12:20</sup>for they could not stand that which was commanded, "If even an animal touches the mountain, it shall be stoned<sup>y</sup>,"<sup>z</sup> <sup>12:21</sup>and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."<sup>a</sup>

<sup>12:22</sup>But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable multitudes of angels, <sup>12:23</sup>to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect, <sup>12:24</sup>to Yeshua, the mediator of a new covenant,<sup>b</sup> and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.

<sup>12:25</sup>See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven, <sup>12:26</sup> whose voice shook the earth then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."<sup>c</sup> <sup>12:27</sup> This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain. <sup>12:28</sup> Therefore, receiving a Kingdom that can't be shaken, let us have grace, through which we serve God acceptably, with reverence and awe, <sup>12:29</sup> for our God is a consuming fire.<sup>d</sup>

<sup>13:1</sup> Let brotherly love continue. <sup>13:2</sup> Don't forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it. <sup>13:3</sup> Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body. <sup>13:4</sup> Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.

<sup>13:5</sup> Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."<sup>e</sup> <sup>13:6</sup> So that with good courage we say, "The Lord is my helper. I will not fear.

What can man do to me?"<sup>f</sup>

<sup>13:7</sup> Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith. <sup>13:8</sup> Yeshua the Messiah is the same yesterday, today, and forever. <sup>13:9</sup> Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.

<sup>13:10</sup> We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tabernacle have no right to eat.

<sup>13:11</sup> For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.<sup>g</sup> <sup>13:12</sup> Therefore Yeshua also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate. <sup>13:13</sup> Let us therefore go out to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach. <sup>13:14</sup> For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come. <sup>13:15</sup> Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God<sup>h</sup> continually, that is, the fruit of lips which proclaim allegiance to his name. <sup>13:16</sup> But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

<sup>13:17</sup> Obey your leaders and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.

<sup>13:18</sup> Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things. <sup>13:19</sup> I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.

<sup>13:20</sup> Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Yeshua, <sup>13:21</sup> make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Yeshua the Messiah, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>13:22</sup> But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words. <sup>13:23</sup> Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you. <sup>13:24</sup> Greet all of your leaders and all the holy ones. The Italians greet you. <sup>13:25</sup> Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Letter from Jacob

<sup>1:9</sup>But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position; <sup>1:10</sup>and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away. <sup>1:11</sup>For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.

<sup>1:12</sup>Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him. <sup>1:13</sup>Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted by evil, and he himself tempts no one. <sup>1:14</sup>But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed. <sup>1:15</sup>Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death. <sup>1:16</sup>Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers. <sup>1:17</sup>Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow. <sup>1:18</sup>Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.

<sup>1:19</sup>So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger; <sup>1:20</sup>for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God. <sup>1:21</sup>Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls<sup>b</sup>. <sup>1:22</sup>But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves. <sup>1:23</sup>For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a mirror; <sup>1:24</sup>for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. <sup>1:25</sup>But he who looks into the perfect Torah of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets, but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.

<sup>1:26</sup>If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless. <sup>1:27</sup>Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.

<sup>b</sup>1:21 or, preserve your life.

he has become guilty of all. <sup>2:11</sup>For he who said, "Do not commit adultery,"<sup>e</sup> also said, "Do not commit murder."<sup>f</sup> Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law. <sup>2:12</sup>So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom. <sup>2:13</sup>For judgment is without mercy to him who has shown no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.

<sup>2:14</sup>What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can faith save him? <sup>2:15</sup>And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food, <sup>2:16</sup>and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it? <sup>2:17</sup>Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself. <sup>2:18</sup>Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without works, and I by my works will show you my faith.

<sup>2:19</sup>You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder. <sup>2:20</sup>But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead? <sup>2:21</sup>Wasn't Abraham our father justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar? <sup>2:22</sup>You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected; <sup>2:23</sup>and the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness;"<sup>g</sup> and he was called the friend of God. <sup>2:24</sup>You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith. <sup>2:25</sup>In the same way, wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way? <sup>2:26</sup>For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.

<sup>3:1</sup>Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment. <sup>3:2</sup>For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also. <sup>3:3</sup>Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we guide their whole body. <sup>3:4</sup>Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet guided by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires. <sup>3:5</sup>So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. See how a small fire can spread to a large forest! <sup>3:6</sup>And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehinnom.<sup>h</sup> <sup>3:7</sup>For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and thing in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind. <sup>3:8</sup>But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison. <sup>3:9</sup>With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God. <sup>3:10</sup>Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so. <sup>3:11</sup>Does a spring send out from the same opening fresh and bitter water? <sup>3:12</sup>Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.

<sup>3:13</sup>Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good conduct that his deeds are done in gentleness of wisdom. <sup>3:14</sup>But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth. <sup>3:15</sup>This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic. <sup>3:16</sup>For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed. <sup>3:17</sup>But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. <sup>3:18</sup>Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

<sup>4:1</sup>Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members? <sup>4:2</sup>You lust, and don't have. You kill, covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. You don't have, because you don't ask. <sup>4:3</sup>You ask, and don't receive, because you ask with wrong motives, so that you may spend it for your pleasures. <sup>4:4</sup>You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God. <sup>4:5</sup>Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"? <sup>4:6</sup>But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."<sup>i</sup> <sup>4:7</sup>Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you. <sup>4:8</sup>Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded. <sup>4:9</sup>Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom. <sup>4:10</sup>Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.

<sup>4:11</sup>Don't speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge. <sup>4:12</sup>Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?

<sup>4:13</sup>Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let's go into this city, and spend a year there, trade, and make a profit." <sup>4:14</sup>Whereas you don't know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away. <sup>4:15</sup>For you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that." <sup>4:16</sup>But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil. <sup>4:17</sup>To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn't do it, to him it is sin.

<sup>5:1</sup>Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you. <sup>5:2</sup>Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten. <sup>5:3</sup>Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up your treasure in the last days. <sup>5:4</sup>Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cry out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts<sup>j</sup>. <sup>5:5</sup>You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter. <sup>5:6</sup>You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you.

coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain. <sup>5:8</sup>You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.

<sup>5:9</sup>Don't grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won't be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door. <sup>5:10</sup>Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. <sup>5:11</sup>Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the outcome, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy. <sup>5:12</sup>But above all things, my brothers, don't swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your "yes" be "yes," and your "no," "no," so that you don't fall into hypocrisy.<sup>k</sup>

<sup>5:13</sup>Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises. <sup>5:14</sup>Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord, <sup>5:15</sup>and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, he will be forgiven. <sup>5:16</sup>Confess your offenses to one another, and pray for one another, that you may be healed. The insistent prayer of a righteous person is powerfully effective. <sup>5:17</sup>Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months. <sup>5:18</sup>He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.

<sup>5:19</sup>Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back, <sup>5:20</sup>let him know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.

Peter's First Letter

<sup>1:1</sup>Peter, an emissary of Yeshua the Messiah, to the chosen ones who are living as foreigners in the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia, <sup>1:2</sup>according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, that you may obey Yeshua the Messiah and be sprinkled with his blood: Grace to you and peace be multiplied. <sup>1:3</sup>Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, who according to his great mercy became our father again to a living hope through the resurrection of Yeshua the Messiah from the dead, <sup>1:4</sup>to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance that doesn't fade away, reserved in Heaven for you, <sup>1:5</sup>who by the power of God are guarded through faith for a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. <sup>1:6</sup>Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials, <sup>1:7</sup>that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Yeshua the Messiah—<sup>1:8</sup>whom not having known you love; in whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory—<sup>1:9</sup>receiving the result of your faith, the salvation of your souls. <sup>1:10</sup>Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you, <sup>1:11</sup>searching for who or what kind of time the Spirit of Messiah, which was in them, pointed to, when he predicted the sufferings of Messiah, and the glories that would follow them. <sup>1:12</sup>To them it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, they ministered these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the Good News to you by the Holy Spirit sent out from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.

ing to your former lusts as in your ignorance, <sup>1:15</sup>but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior; <sup>1:16</sup>because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy."<sup>b</sup> <sup>1:17</sup>If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man's work, pass the time of your living as foreigners here in reverent fear: <sup>1:18</sup>knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers, <sup>1:19</sup>but with precious blood, as of a faultless and pure lamb, the blood of Messiah; <sup>1:20</sup>who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake, <sup>1:21</sup>who through him are believers in God, who raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

<sup>1:22</sup>Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently: <sup>1:23</sup>having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever. <sup>1:24</sup>For,

"All flesh is like grass, and all of man's glory like the flower in the grass.

The grass withers, and its flower falls;

<sup>1:25</sup>but the Lord's word endures forever."<sup>c</sup>

This is the word of Good News which was preached to you.

<sup>2:1</sup>Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking, <sup>2:2</sup>as newborn babies, long for the pure milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby, <sup>2:3</sup>if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious: <sup>2:4</sup>coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious. <sup>2:5</sup>You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>2:6</sup>Because it is contained in Scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, chosen, and precious:

<sup>c</sup>1:25 Isaiah 40:6-8

He who believes in him will not be disappointed.”<sup>d</sup>

<sup>2:7</sup>For you who believe therefore is the honor, but for those who are disobedient, “The stone which the builders rejected, has become the chief cornerstone,”<sup>e</sup> <sup>2:8</sup>and, “a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense.”<sup>f</sup>

For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, to which also they were appointed. <sup>2:9</sup>But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God’s own possession, that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light: <sup>2:10</sup>who in time past were no people, but now are God’s people, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. <sup>2:11</sup>Beloved, I beg you as foreigners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; <sup>2:12</sup>having good behavior among the nations, so in that of which they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation. <sup>2:13</sup>Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord’s sake: whether to the king, as supreme; <sup>2:14</sup>or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evildoers and for praise to those who do well. <sup>2:15</sup>For this is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: <sup>2:16</sup>as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.

<sup>2:17</sup>Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king. <sup>2:18</sup>Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked. <sup>2:19</sup>For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God. <sup>2:20</sup>For what glory is it if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God. <sup>2:21</sup>For to this you were called, because Messiah also suffered for us, leaving you<sup>g</sup> an example, that you should follow his steps, <sup>2:22</sup>who did not sin, “neither was deceit found in his mouth.”<sup>h</sup> <sup>2:23</sup>Who, when he was cursed, didn’t curse back. When he suffered, didn’t threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously; <sup>2:24</sup>who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed. <sup>2:25</sup>For you were going astray like sheep; but now have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer<sup>i</sup> of your souls.

<sup>3:1</sup>In the same way, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don’t obey the Word, they may be won by the behavior of their wives without a word; <sup>3:2</sup>seeing your pure behavior in fear. <sup>3:3</sup>Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing; <sup>3:4</sup>but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious. <sup>3:5</sup>For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands: <sup>3:6</sup>as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.

<sup>3:7</sup>You husbands, in the same way, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; that your prayers may not be hindered.

<sup>3:8</sup>Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, courteous, <sup>3:9</sup>not rendering evil for evil, or insult for insult; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing. <sup>3:10</sup>For,

“He who would love life,

and see good days,

let him keep his tongue from evil,

and his lips from speaking deceit.

<sup>3:11</sup>Let him turn away from evil, and do good.

Let him seek peace, and pursue it.

<sup>3:12</sup>For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their prayer;
but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.<sup>j</sup>

<sup>3:13</sup>Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good? <sup>3:14</sup>But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled."<sup>k</sup> <sup>3:15</sup>But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts; and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear: <sup>3:16</sup>having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be disappointed who curse your good way of life in Messiah. <sup>3:17</sup>For it is better, if it is God's will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil. <sup>3:18</sup>Because Messiah also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit; <sup>3:19</sup>in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison, <sup>3:20</sup>who before were disobedient, when God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ship was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water. <sup>3:21</sup>This is a symbol of immersion, which now saves you—not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Yeshua the Messiah, <sup>3:22</sup>who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.

<sup>4:1</sup>Forasmuch then as Messiah suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin; <sup>4:2</sup>that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but for the will of God. <sup>4:3</sup>For we have spent enough of our past time doing the desire of the Gentiles, and having walked in lewdness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries. <sup>4:4</sup>They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming; <sup>4:5</sup>who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead. <sup>4:6</sup>For to this end the Good News was preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit. <sup>4:7</sup>But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer. <sup>4:8</sup>And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins. <sup>4:9</sup>Be hospitable to one another without grumbling. <sup>4:10</sup>As each has received a gift, employ it in serving one another, as good managers of the grace of God in its various forms. <sup>4:11</sup>If anyone speaks, let it be as it were the very words of God. If anyone serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Yeshua the Messiah, to whom belong the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>4:12</sup>Beloved, don't be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you. <sup>4:13</sup>But because you are partakers of Messiah's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory you also may rejoice with exceeding joy. <sup>4:14</sup>If you are insulted for the name of Messiah, you are blessed; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified. <sup>4:15</sup>For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or a meddler in other men's matters. <sup>4:16</sup>But if one of you suffers for being a Messianic, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter. <sup>4:17</sup>For the time has come for judgment to begin with the household of God. If it begins first with us, what will happen to those who don't obey the Good News of God? <sup>4:18</sup>"If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?"<sup>l</sup> <sup>4:19</sup>Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.

<sup>5:1</sup>I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Messiah, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed. <sup>5:2</sup>Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly; <sup>5:3</sup>neither as lord-ing it over those entrusted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock. <sup>5:4</sup>When the chief Shepherd is revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.

<sup>l</sup>4:18 Proverbs 11:31

<sup>5:5</sup>Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you clothe yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."<sup>m</sup> <sup>5:6</sup>Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time; <sup>5:7</sup>casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.

<sup>5:8</sup>Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful.
Your adversary, the devil, walks around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.
<sup>5:9</sup>Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings. <sup>5:10</sup>But may the God of all grace, who called you to his eternal glory by Messiah Yeshua, after you have suffered a little while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you. <sup>5:11</sup>To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>5:12</sup>Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand. <sup>5:13</sup>She who is in Babylon, chosen together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son. <sup>5:14</sup>Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Messiah Yeshua. Amen.

Peter's Second Letter

<sup>1:1</sup>Simon Peter, a servant and emissary of Yeshua the Messiah, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah: <sup>1:2</sup>Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Yeshua our Lord, <sup>1:3</sup>seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue; <sup>1:4</sup>by which he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in the world by lust. <sup>1:5</sup>Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge; <sup>1:6</sup>and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness; <sup>1:7</sup>and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love. <sup>1:8</sup>For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:9</sup>For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins. <sup>1:10</sup>Therefore, brothers,<sup>a</sup> be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble. <sup>1:11</sup>For thus you will be richly supplied with the entrance into the eternal Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>1:12</sup>Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth. <sup>1:13</sup>I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you; <sup>1:14</sup>knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord Yeshua the Messiah made clear to me. <sup>1:15</sup>Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure. <sup>1:16</sup>For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty. <sup>1:17</sup>For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."<sup>b</sup> <sup>1:18</sup>We heard this voice come out of heaven when we were with him on the holy mountain.

<sup>1:19</sup>We have the more sure word of prophecy; and you do well that you heed it, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the morning star arises in your hearts: <sup>1:20</sup>knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture is of private interpretation. <sup>1:21</sup>For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

<sup>2:1</sup>But false prophets also arose among the people, as false teachers will also be among you, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction. <sup>2:2</sup>Many will follow their immoral<sup>c</sup> ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned. <sup>2:3</sup>In covetousness they will exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber. <sup>2:4</sup>For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus<sup>d</sup>, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved for judgment; <sup>2:5</sup>and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a proclaimer of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly; <sup>2:6</sup>and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly; <sup>2:7</sup>and delivered righteous Lot, who was very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked <sup>2:8</sup>(for that righteous man dwelling among them, was tormented in his righteous soul from day to day with seeing and hearing lawless deeds): <sup>2:9</sup>the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation and to keep the unrighteous under punishment for the day of judgment; <sup>2:10</sup>but chiefly those who

<sup>b</sup>1:17 Matthew 17:5; Mark 9:7; Luke 9:35

walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries; <sup>2:11</sup>whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord. <sup>2:12</sup>But these, as unreasoning creatures, born natural animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed, <sup>2:13</sup>receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the daytime, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you; <sup>2:14</sup>having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing; <sup>2:15</sup>forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing; <sup>2:16</sup>but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the madness of the prophet. <sup>2:17</sup>These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. <sup>2:18</sup>For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error; <sup>2:19</sup>promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for a man is brought into bondage by whoever overcomes him.

<sup>2:20</sup>For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Yeshua the Messiah, they are again entangled in it and overcome, the last state has become worse for them than the first. <sup>2:21</sup>For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them. <sup>2:22</sup>But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again,"<sup>e</sup> and "the sow that has washed to wallowing in the mire."

<sup>3:1</sup>This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you; <sup>3:2</sup>that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of us, the emissaries of the Lord and Savior: <sup>3:3</sup>knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts, <sup>3:4</sup>and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation." <sup>3:5</sup>For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God; <sup>3:6</sup>by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished. <sup>3:7</sup>But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. <sup>3:8</sup>But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. <sup>3:9</sup>The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is patient with us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. <sup>3:10</sup>But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up. <sup>3:11</sup>Therefore since all these things will be destroyed like this, what kind of people ought you to be in holy living and godliness, <sup>3:12</sup>looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, which will cause the burning heavens to be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat? <sup>3:13</sup>But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which righteousness dwells.

<sup>3:14</sup>Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without blemish and blameless in his sight. <sup>3:15</sup>Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you; <sup>3:16</sup>as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those, there are some things that are hard to understand, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they also do to the other Scriptures, to their own destruction. <sup>3:17</sup>You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware, lest being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness. <sup>3:18</sup>But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Yeshua the Messiah. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

Yochanan's First Letter

<sup>1:1</sup>That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life <sup>1:2</sup>(and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us); <sup>1:3</sup>that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:4</sup>And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

<sup>1:5</sup>This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. <sup>1:6</sup>If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth. <sup>1:7</sup>But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Yeshua the Messiah, his Son, cleanses us from all sin. <sup>1:8</sup>If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. <sup>1:9</sup>If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. <sup>1:10</sup>If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

<sup>2:1</sup>My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor<sup>a</sup> with the Father, Yeshua the Messiah, the righteous. <sup>2:2</sup>And he is the atoning sacrifice<sup>b</sup> for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world. <sup>2:3</sup>This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments. <sup>2:4</sup>One who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth isn't in him. <sup>2:5</sup>But whoever keeps his word, God's love has most certainly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him: <sup>2:6</sup>he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.

had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning. <sup>2:8</sup>Again, I write a new commandment to you, which is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines. <sup>2:9</sup>He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now. <sup>2:10</sup>He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him. <sup>2:11</sup>But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

<sup>2:12</sup>I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.

<sup>2:13</sup>I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one.

I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.

<sup>2:14</sup>I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning.

I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.

<sup>2:15</sup>Don't love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him. <sup>2:16</sup>For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's. <sup>2:17</sup>The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.

<sup>2:18</sup>Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Anti-messiah is coming, even now many anti-messiahs have arisen. By this we know that it is the final hour. <sup>2:19</sup>They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us. <sup>2:20</sup>You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you all have knowledge.<sup>c</sup> <sup>2:21</sup>I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth. <sup>2:22</sup>Who is the liar but he who denies that Yeshua is the Messiah? This is the Antimessiah, he who denies the Father and the Son. <sup>2:23</sup>Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.

<sup>b</sup>2:2 "atoning sacrifice" is from the Greek "hilasmos," an appeasing, propitiating, or the means of appeasement or propitiation—the sacrifice that turns away God's wrath because of our sin.

<sup>2:24</sup>Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father. <sup>2:25</sup>This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life. <sup>2:26</sup>These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray. <sup>2:27</sup>As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him. <sup>2:28</sup>Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming. <sup>2:29</sup>If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of him.

<sup>3:1</sup>Behold, how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him. <sup>3:2</sup>Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is. <sup>3:3</sup>Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure. <sup>3:4</sup>Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness. <sup>3:5</sup>You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin. <sup>3:6</sup>Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.

<sup>3:7</sup>Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous. <sup>3:8</sup>He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil. <sup>3:9</sup>Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of God. <sup>3:10</sup>In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother. <sup>3:11</sup>For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; <sup>3:12</sup>unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous. <sup>3:13</sup>Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you. <sup>3:14</sup>We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death. <sup>3:15</sup>Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.

<sup>3:16</sup>By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers. <sup>3:17</sup>But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and closes his heart of compassion against him, how does the love of God remain in him? <sup>3:18</sup>My little children, let's not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth. <sup>3:19</sup>And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him, <sup>3:20</sup>because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things. <sup>3:21</sup>Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God; <sup>3:22</sup>and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight. <sup>3:23</sup>This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Yeshua the Messiah, and love one another, even as he commanded. <sup>3:24</sup>He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.

<sup>4:1</sup>Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world. <sup>4:2</sup>By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Yeshua the Messiah has come in the flesh is of God, <sup>4:3</sup>and every spirit who doesn't confess that Yeshua the Messiah has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the Antimessiah, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already. <sup>4:4</sup>You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world. <sup>4:5</sup>They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them. <sup>4:6</sup>We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.

<sup>4:7</sup>Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. <sup>4:8</sup>He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love. <sup>4:9</sup>By this God's love was revealed in us, that God has sent his one and only Son into the world that we might live through him. <sup>4:10</sup>In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice<sup>d</sup> for our sins. <sup>4:11</sup>Beloved, if God loved us in this way, we also ought to love one another. <sup>4:12</sup>No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.

<sup>4:13</sup>By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit. <sup>4:14</sup>We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world. <sup>4:15</sup>Whoever confesses that Yeshua is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God. <sup>4:16</sup>We know and have believed the love which God has for us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him. <sup>4:17</sup>In this love has been made perfect among us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world. <sup>4:18</sup>There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love. <sup>4:19</sup>We love him, because he first loved us. <sup>4:20</sup>If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? <sup>4:21</sup>This commandment we have from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.

<sup>5:1</sup>Whoever believes that Yeshua is the Messiah is born of God. Whoever loves the Father also loves the child who is born of him. <sup>5:2</sup>By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments. <sup>5:3</sup>For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous. <sup>5:4</sup>For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.

<sup>5:5</sup>Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Yeshua is the Son of God?

<sup>5:6</sup>This is he who came by water and blood, Yeshua the Messiah; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood. It is the Spirit who testifies, because the Spirit is the truth.

<sup>5:7</sup>For there are three who testify<sup>e</sup>: <sup>5:8</sup>the Spirit, the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one. <sup>5:9</sup>If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God's testimony which he has testified concerning his Son. <sup>5:10</sup>He who believes in the Son of God has the testimony in himself. He who doesn't believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son. <sup>5:11</sup>The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. <sup>5:12</sup>He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn't have God's Son doesn't have the life. <sup>5:13</sup>These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

<sup>5:14</sup>This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us. <sup>5:15</sup>And if we know that he listens to us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.

<sup>5:16</sup>If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not leading to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that he should make a request concerning this. <sup>5:17</sup>All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death. <sup>5:18</sup>We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him. <sup>5:19</sup>We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one. <sup>5:20</sup>We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Yeshua the Messiah. This is the true God, and eternal life.

<sup>d</sup>4:10 "atoning sacrifice" is from the Greek "hilasmos," an appeasing, propitiating, or the means of appeasement or propitiation—the sacrifice that turns away God's wrath because of our sin.

<sup>e</sup>5:7 Only a few recent manuscripts add "in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. And there are three that testify on earth"

1 Yochanan 5:21

Yochanan's Second Letter

<sup>1</sup>The elder, to the chosen lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth; <sup>2</sup>for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever: <sup>3</sup>Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Yeshua the Messiah, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

<sup>4</sup>I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father. <sup>5</sup>Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. <sup>6</sup>This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it. <sup>7</sup>For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Yeshua the Messiah came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Anti-messiah. <sup>8</sup>Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward. <sup>9</sup>Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Messiah, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son. <sup>10</sup>If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him, <sup>11</sup>for he who welcomes him participates in his evil works.

<sup>12</sup>Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full. <sup>13</sup>The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.

Yochanan's Third Letter

<sup>2</sup>Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers. <sup>3</sup>For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth. <sup>4</sup>I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.

<sup>5</sup>Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers. <sup>6</sup>They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a way worthy of God, <sup>7</sup>because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles. <sup>8</sup>We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.

<sup>9</sup>I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say. <sup>10</sup>Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly.

<sup>11</sup>Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God.

<sup>12</sup>Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.

<sup>13</sup>I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen; <sup>14</sup>but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

The Letter from Judah

<sup>1</sup>Judah, a servant of Yeshua the Messiah, and brother of Jacob, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Yeshua the Messiah: <sup>2</sup>Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.

<sup>3</sup>Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the holy ones. <sup>4</sup>For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even those who were long ago written about for this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into indecency, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Yeshua the Messiah.

<sup>5</sup>Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe. <sup>6</sup>Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day. <sup>7</sup>Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire. <sup>8</sup>Yet in the same way, these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings. <sup>9</sup>But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!" <sup>10</sup>But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, they are destroyed in these things. <sup>11</sup>Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion. <sup>12</sup>These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; <sup>13</sup>wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever. <sup>14</sup>About these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, <sup>15</sup>to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." <sup>16</sup>These are murderers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons to gain advantage.

<sup>17</sup>But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the emissaries of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>18</sup>They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts." <sup>19</sup>These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit. <sup>20</sup>But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit. <sup>21</sup>Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Yeshua the Messiah to eternal life. <sup>22</sup>On some have compassion, making a distinction, <sup>23</sup>and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.

<sup>24</sup>Now to him who is able to keep them<sup>a</sup> from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy, <sup>25</sup>to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.

The Revelation to Yochanan

<sup>1:1</sup>This is the Revelation of Yeshua the Messiah, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel<sup>a</sup> to his servant, Yochanan, <sup>1:2</sup>who testified to God's word, and of the testimony of Yeshua the Messiah, about everything that he saw.

<sup>1:3</sup>Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.

<sup>1:4</sup>Yochanan, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne; <sup>1:5</sup>and from Yeshua the Messiah, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood; <sup>1:6</sup>and he made us to be a Kingdom, priests<sup>b</sup> to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

<sup>1:7</sup>Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.

<sup>1:8</sup>"I am the Alef and the Tav,<sup>c</sup>" says the Lord God,<sup>d</sup> "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

<sup>1:9</sup>I Yochanan, your brother and partner with you in oppression, Kingdom, and perseverance in Messiah Yeshua, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God's Word and the testimony of Yeshua the Messiah. <sup>1:10</sup>I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like a shofar<sup>e</sup> <sup>1:11</sup>saying, "<sup>f</sup>What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies<sup>g</sup>: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

<sup>1:12</sup>I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden menorahs. <sup>1:13</sup>And among the menorahs was one like a son of man,<sup>h</sup> clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest. <sup>1:14</sup>His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire. <sup>1:15</sup>His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters. <sup>1:16</sup>He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest. <sup>1:17</sup>When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man.

He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last,<sup>1:18</sup> and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. Amen. I have the keys of Death and of Sheol<sup>i</sup>. <sup>1:19</sup>Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter; <sup>1:20</sup>the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden menorahs. The seven stars are the angels<sup>j</sup> of the seven assemblies. The seven menorahs are seven assemblies.

"He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks among the seven golden menorahs says these things:

<sup>2:2</sup>"I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves emissaries, and they are not, and found them false. <sup>2:3</sup>You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have<sup>k</sup> not grown weary. <sup>2:4</sup>But I have this against you, that you left your first love. <sup>2:5</sup>Remember

therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you swiftly, and will move your menorah out of its place, unless you repent.

<sup>2:6</sup>But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. <sup>2:7</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God.

"The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

<sup>2:9</sup>"I know your works, oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

<sup>2:10</sup>Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life. <sup>2:11</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be harmed by the second death.

"He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:

<sup>2:13</sup>"I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells. <sup>2:14</sup>But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality. <sup>2:15</sup>So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans likewise<sup>1</sup>. <sup>2:16</sup>Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth. <sup>2:17</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him I will give of the hidden manna,<sup>m</sup> and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.

"The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:

<sup>2:19</sup>"I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first. <sup>2:20</sup>But I have this against you, that you tolerate your<sup>n</sup>

woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols. <sup>2:21</sup>I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality. <sup>2:22</sup>Behold, I will throw her into a bed,<sup>o</sup> and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works. <sup>2:23</sup>I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts.

I will give to each one of you according to your deeds. <sup>2:24</sup>But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call 'the deep things of Satan,' to you I say, I am not putting any other burden on you. <sup>2:25</sup>Nevertheless, hold that which you have firmly until I come. <sup>2:26</sup>He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him I will give authority over the nations. <sup>2:27</sup>He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots;<sup>p</sup> as I also have received of my Father: <sup>2:28</sup>and I will give him the morning star. <sup>2:29</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

"He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things:

"I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. <sup>3:2</sup>Wake up, and keep the things that remain,

"He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things:

"I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. <sup>3:2</sup>Wake up, and keep the things that remain, which you were about to throw away, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God. <sup>3:3</sup>Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come upon you. <sup>3:4</sup>Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy. <sup>3:5</sup>He who overcomes will be arrayed in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. <sup>3:6</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

"He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and who shuts and no one opens, says these things:

<sup>3:8</sup>"I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name. <sup>3:9</sup>Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you. <sup>3:10</sup>Because you kept my command to endure, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth. <sup>3:11</sup>I am coming quickly! Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown. <sup>3:12</sup>He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name. <sup>3:13</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

"The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God's creation, says these things:

<sup>3:15</sup>"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot. <sup>3:16</sup>So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth. <sup>3:17</sup>Because you say, 'I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;' and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked; <sup>3:18</sup>I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see. <sup>3:19</sup>As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent. <sup>3:20</sup>Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, then I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me. <sup>3:21</sup>He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne. <sup>3:22</sup>He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies."

<sup>4:1</sup>After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a shofar<sup>q</sup> speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."

<sup>4:2</sup>Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne <sup>4:3</sup>that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at. <sup>4:4</sup>Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads. <sup>4:5</sup>Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before his throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. <sup>4:6</sup>Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind. <sup>4:7</sup>The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth was like a flying eagle. <sup>4:8</sup>The four living creatures, each one of them having six wings, are full of eyes around and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, "Holy, holy, holy<sup>r</sup> is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come!<sup>t</sup>

<sup>4:9</sup>When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever, <sup>4:10</sup>the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and throw their crowns before the throne, saying, <sup>4:11</sup>“Worthy are you, our Lord and God, the Holy One,<sup>s</sup> to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created!”

<sup>5:1</sup>I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written inside and outside, sealed shut with seven seals. <sup>5:2</sup>I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?” <sup>5:3</sup>No one in heaven above, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it. <sup>5:4</sup>And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it. <sup>5:5</sup>One of the elders said to me, “Don’t weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome; he who opens the book and its seven seals.” <sup>5:6</sup>I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth. <sup>5:7</sup>Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne. <sup>5:8</sup>Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the holy ones. <sup>5:9</sup>They sang a new song, saying,

“You are worthy to take the book, and to open its seals:

for you were killed,

and bought us for God with your blood, out of every tribe, language, people, and

nation,

<sup>5:10</sup>and made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on earth.”

<sup>5:11</sup>I saw, and I heard something like a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands; <sup>5:12</sup>saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, wealth, wisdom, strength, honor, glory, and blessing!”

<sup>5:13</sup>I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, “To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever! Amen!<sup>u</sup>”

<sup>5:14</sup>The four living creatures said, “Amen!” The <sup>v</sup>elders fell down and worshipped.

<sup>6:1</sup>I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, “Come and see!” <sup>6:2</sup>And behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.

<sup>6:3</sup>When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come!” <sup>6:4</sup>Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given power to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.

<sup>6:5</sup>When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, “Come and see!” And behold, a black horse, and he who sat on it had a balance in his hand. <sup>6:6</sup>I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A choenix<sup>w</sup> of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don’t damage the oil and the wine!”

<sup>6:7</sup>When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see!” <sup>6:8</sup>And behold, a pale horse, and he who sat on it, his name was Death. Sheol<sup>x</sup> followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to him.

<sup>x</sup>6:6 A choenix is a dry volume measure that is a little more than a litre (a little more than a quart).

<sup>y</sup>6:8 or, Hell

<sup>6:9</sup>When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the Word of God, and for the testimony of the Lamb which they had. <sup>6:10</sup>They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, until you judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?" <sup>6:11</sup>A long white robe was given to each of them. They were told that they should rest yet for a while, until their fellow servants and their brothers,<sup>y</sup> who would also be killed even as they were, should complete their course.

<sup>6:12</sup>I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood. <sup>6:13</sup>The stars of the sky fell to the earth, like a fig tree dropping its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind. <sup>6:14</sup>The sky was removed like a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places. <sup>6:15</sup>The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and free person, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. <sup>6:16</sup>They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb, <sup>6:17</sup>for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"

<sup>7:1</sup>After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree. <sup>7:2</sup>I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, <sup>7:3</sup>saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!" <sup>7:4</sup>I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:

<sup>7:5</sup>of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,

<sup>y</sup>6:11 The word for "brothers" here and where context allows may also be correctly translated "brothers and sisters" or "siblings."

<sup>z</sup>8:2 or, trumpets

<sup>7:6</sup>of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand, <sup>7:7</sup>of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand, <sup>7:8</sup>of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand,
of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

<sup>7:9</sup>After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands. <sup>7:10</sup>They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!"

<sup>7:11</sup>All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell on their faces before his throne, and worshiped God, <sup>7:12</sup>saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

<sup>7:13</sup>One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and from where did they come?"

<sup>7:14</sup>I told him, "My lord, you know."

He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great tribulation. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood. <sup>7:15</sup>Therefore they are before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tabernacle over them. <sup>7:16</sup>They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat; <sup>7:17</sup>for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shepherds them, and leads them to springs of waters of life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

<sup>8:1</sup>When he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour.

<sup>8:2</sup>I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven shofars<sup>z</sup> were given to them.

<sup>8:3</sup>Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the holy ones on the golden altar which was before the throne. <sup>8:4</sup>The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the holy ones, went up before God out of the angel's hand. <sup>8:5</sup>The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

<sup>8:6</sup>The seven angels who had the seven shofars<sup>a</sup> prepared themselves to sound. <sup>8:7</sup>The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up,<sup>b</sup> and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.

<sup>8:8</sup>The second angel sounded, and something like a great burning mountain was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood, <sup>8:9</sup>and one third of the living creatures which were in the sea died. One third of the ships were destroyed.

<sup>8:10</sup>The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters. <sup>8:11</sup>The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many people died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

<sup>8:12</sup>The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way. <sup>8:13</sup>I saw, and I heard an eagle,<sup>c</sup> flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the shofars<sup>d</sup> of the three angels, who are yet to sound!"

<sup>9:1</sup>The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky which had fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him. <sup>9:2</sup>He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a<sup>e</sup> burning furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit. <sup>9:3</sup>Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power. <sup>9:4</sup>They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those people who don't have God's seal on their foreheads. <sup>9:5</sup>They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a person. <sup>9:6</sup>In those days people will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them. <sup>9:7</sup>The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like golden crowns, and their faces were like people's faces. <sup>9:8</sup>They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions. <sup>9:9</sup>They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war. <sup>9:10</sup>They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails they have power to harm men for five months. <sup>9:11</sup>They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon,"<sup>f</sup> but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon."<sup>g</sup> <sup>9:12</sup>The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.

<sup>9:13</sup>The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God, <sup>9:14</sup>saying to the sixth angel who had one shofar<sup>h</sup>, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates!"

<sup>9:15</sup>The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they might kill one third of mankind. <sup>9:16</sup>The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million<sup>i</sup>. I heard the number of them. <sup>9:17</sup>Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur. <sup>9:18</sup>By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths. <sup>9:19</sup>For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm. <sup>9:20</sup>The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk. <sup>9:21</sup>They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries,<sup>j</sup> nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.

<sup>10:1</sup>I saw a mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet<sup>k</sup> like pillars of fire. <sup>10:2</sup>He had in his hand a little open book. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land. <sup>10:3</sup>He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices. <sup>10:4</sup>When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."

<sup>10:5</sup>The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky, <sup>10:6</sup>and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay, <sup>10:7</sup>but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets. <sup>10:8</sup>The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."

<sup>10:9</sup>I went to the angel, telling him to give me the little book.

He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."

<sup>10:10</sup>I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter. <sup>10:11</sup>They told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."

<sup>11:1</sup>A reed like a rod was given to me. Someone said, "Rise, and measure God's temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it. <sup>11:2</sup>Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don't measure it, for it has been given to the nations. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months. <sup>11:3</sup>I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth." <sup>11:4</sup>These are the two olive trees and the two menorahs, standing before the Lord of the earth. <sup>11:5</sup>If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way. <sup>11:6</sup>These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire. <sup>11:7</sup>When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them. <sup>11:8</sup>Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified. <sup>11:9</sup>From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations people will look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb. <sup>11:10</sup>Those who dwell on the earth rejoice over them, and they will be glad. They will give gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth. <sup>11:11</sup>After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them. <sup>11:12</sup>I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them. <sup>11:13</sup>In that day there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven. <sup>11:14</sup>The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe

<sup>j</sup>9:21 The word for "sorceries" (pharmakeia) also implies the use of potions, poisons, and drugs comes quickly.

<sup>11:15</sup>The seventh angel sounded, and great voices in heaven followed, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the Kingdom of our Lord, and of his Messiah. He will reign forever and ever!"

<sup>11:16</sup>The twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God's throne, fell on their faces and worshiped God, <sup>11:17</sup>saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was<sup>1</sup>; because you have taken your great power, and reigned. <sup>11:18</sup>The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your bondservants the prophets, their reward, as well as to the holy ones, and those who fear your name, to the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."

<sup>11:19</sup>God's temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord's covenant was seen in his temple. Lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail followed.

<sup>12:1</sup>A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars. <sup>12:2</sup>She was with child. She cried out in pain, laboring to give birth. <sup>12:3</sup>Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns. <sup>12:4</sup>His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child. <sup>12:5</sup>She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne. <sup>12:6</sup>The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.

<sup>12:7</sup>There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war. <sup>12:8</sup>They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven. <sup>12:9</sup>The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. <sup>12:10</sup>I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now the salvation, the power, and the Kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah has come; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night. <sup>12:11</sup>They overcame him because of the Lamb's blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn't love their life, even to death. <sup>12:12</sup>Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe to the earth and to the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."

<sup>12:13</sup>When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child. <sup>12:14</sup>Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, so that she might be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. <sup>12:15</sup>The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream. <sup>12:16</sup>The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth. <sup>12:17</sup>The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep God's commandments and hold Yeshua's testimony.

<sup>13:1</sup>Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names. <sup>13:2</sup>The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority. <sup>13:3</sup>One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast. <sup>13:4</sup>They worshiped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?" <sup>13:5</sup>A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to make war for forty-two months was given to him. <sup>13:6</sup>He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his dwelling, those who dwell in heaven. <sup>13:7</sup>It was given to him to make war with the holy ones, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him. <sup>13:8</sup>All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed. <sup>13:9</sup>If anyone has an ear, let him hear. <sup>13:10</sup>If anyone is to go into captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is to be killed with the sword, he must be killed.<sup>m</sup> Here is the endurance and the faith of the holy ones.

<sup>13:11</sup>I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon. <sup>13:12</sup>He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.<sup>n</sup> <sup>13:13</sup>He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky to the earth in the sight of people. <sup>13:14</sup>He deceives my own<sup>o</sup> people who dwell on the earth because of the signs he was granted to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived. <sup>13:15</sup>It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed. <sup>13:16</sup>He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given marks on their right hands, or on their foreheads; <sup>13:17</sup>and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name. <sup>13:18</sup>Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.

<sup>14:1</sup>I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him a number, one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads. <sup>14:2</sup>I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpists playing on their harps. <sup>14:3</sup>They sing a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. No one could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth. <sup>14:4</sup>These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Yeshua from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. <sup>14:5</sup>In their mouth was found no lie, for they are blameless.<sup>p</sup>

<sup>14:6</sup>I saw an angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal Good News to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people. <sup>14:7</sup>He said with a loud voice, "Fear the Lord, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"

<sup>14:8</sup>Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."

<sup>14:9</sup>Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand, <sup>14:10</sup>he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. <sup>14:11</sup>The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name. <sup>14:12</sup>Here is the patience of the holy ones, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Yeshua."

<sup>14:13</sup>I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with

<sup>m</sup>13:10 TR reads "If anyone leads into captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone will kill with the sword, he must be killed with a sword." instead of "If anyone has captivity, he will go into captivity. If anyone is with the sword, he must be killed."

<sup>14:17</sup>Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle. <sup>14:18</sup>Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, “Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for the earth’s grapes are fully ripe!” <sup>14:19</sup>The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God. <sup>14:20</sup>The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.<sup>r</sup>

“Great and marvelous are your works, Lord
God, the Almighty!

Righteous and true are your ways, you
King of the nations.

<sup>15:4</sup>Who wouldn’t fear you, Lord, and glorify your name?

For you only are holy.

For all the nations will come and worship before you.

For your righteous acts have been revealed.”

<sup>15:5</sup>After these things I looked, and the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened. <sup>15:6</sup>The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.

<sup>15:7</sup>One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever. <sup>15:8</sup>The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.

<sup>16:1</sup>I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!”

<sup>16:2</sup>The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the people who had the mark of the beast, and who worshiped his image.

<sup>16:3</sup>The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.

<sup>16:4</sup>The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and they became blood. <sup>16:5</sup>I heard the angel of the waters saying, “You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you have judged these things. <sup>16:6</sup>For they poured out the blood of the holy ones and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this.” <sup>16:7</sup>I heard the altar saying, “Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments.”

<sup>16:8</sup>The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire. <sup>16:9</sup>People were scorched with great heat, and people blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn’t repent and give him glory.

<sup>16:10</sup>The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain, <sup>16:11</sup>and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn’t repent of their works.

<sup>16:12</sup>The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be prepared for the kings that come from the sunrise. <sup>16:13</sup>I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs; <sup>16:14</sup>for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of that great day of God, the Almighty.

<sup>16:15</sup>“Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn’t walk naked, and they see his shame.” <sup>16:16</sup>He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, Har-Megiddo.

<sup>16:17</sup>The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came forth out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, “It is done!” <sup>16:18</sup>There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty. <sup>16:19</sup>The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. <sup>16:20</sup>Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. <sup>16:21</sup>Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent,<sup>u</sup> came down out of the sky on people. People blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for this plague is exceedingly severe.

<sup>17:1</sup>One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, “Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, <sup>17:2</sup>with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality.” <sup>17:3</sup>He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. <sup>17:4</sup>The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations and the impurities of the sexual immorality of the earth. <sup>17:5</sup>And on her forehead a name was written, “MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,

THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.”

<sup>17:6</sup>I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the holy ones, and with the blood of the martyrs of Yeshua. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement. <sup>17:7</sup>The angel said to me, “Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. <sup>17:8</sup>The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth and whose names have not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world will marvel when they see that the beast was, and is not, and shall be present.<sup>v</sup> <sup>17:9</sup>Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits. <sup>17:10</sup>They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other has not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while. <sup>17:11</sup>The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction. <sup>17:12</sup>The ten horns that you saw are ten kings who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour. <sup>17:13</sup>These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast. <sup>17:14</sup>These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful.” <sup>17:15</sup>He said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages. <sup>17:16</sup>The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate, and will make her naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire. <sup>17:17</sup>For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to be of one mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished. <sup>17:18</sup>The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth.”

<sup>u</sup>16:21 1 talent is about 34 kilograms or 75 pounds

saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and she has become a habitation of demons, a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird! <sup>18:3</sup>For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."

<sup>18:4</sup>I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, that you have no participation in her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues, <sup>18:5</sup>for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities. <sup>18:6</sup>Return to her just as she returned, and repay her double as she did, and according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double. <sup>18:7</sup>However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, 'I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.' <sup>18:8</sup>Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong. <sup>18:9</sup>The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning, <sup>18:10</sup>standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.' <sup>18:11</sup>The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more; <sup>18:12</sup>merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble; <sup>18:13</sup>and cinnamon, incense, perfume, frankincense, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, sheep, horses, chariots, and people's bodies and souls. <sup>18:14</sup>The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all. <sup>18:15</sup>The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning; <sup>18:16</sup>saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls! <sup>18:17</sup>For in an hour such great riches are made desolate.' Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away, <sup>18:18</sup>and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What is like the great city?' <sup>18:19</sup>They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!' For in one hour is she made desolate.

<sup>18:20</sup>"Rejoice over her, O heaven, you holy ones, emissaries, and prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her." <sup>18:21</sup>A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all. <sup>18:22</sup>The voice of harpists, minstrels, flute players, and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you. <sup>18:23</sup>The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived. <sup>18:24</sup>In her was found the blood of prophets and of holy ones, and of all who have been slain on the earth."

<sup>19:1</sup>After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, power, and glory belong to our God: <sup>19:2</sup>for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."

<sup>19:3</sup>A second said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever." <sup>19:4</sup>The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"

<sup>19:5</sup>A voice came forth from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!"

<sup>19:6</sup>I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns! <sup>19:7</sup>Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready." <sup>19:8</sup>It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the holy ones.

<sup>19:9</sup>He said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" He said to me, "These are true words of God."

<sup>19:10</sup>I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Yeshua. Worship God, for the testimony of Yeshua is the Spirit of Prophecy."

<sup>19:11</sup>I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war. <sup>19:12</sup>His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself. <sup>19:13</sup>He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God." <sup>19:14</sup>The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen. <sup>19:15</sup>Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, double-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with an iron rod.<sup>w</sup> He treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty. <sup>19:16</sup>He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

<sup>19:17</sup>I saw an angel standing in the sun.<sup>x</sup> He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God,<sup>y</sup> <sup>19:18</sup>that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great." <sup>19:19</sup>I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army. <sup>19:20</sup>The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped his image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. <sup>19:21</sup>The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.

<sup>20:1</sup>I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand. <sup>20:2</sup>He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the devil and Satan, who deceives the whole inhabited earth, and bound him for a thousand years, <sup>20:3</sup>and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time. <sup>20:4</sup>I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Yeshua, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with Messiah for a thousand years. <sup>20:5</sup>The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. <sup>20:6</sup>Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Messiah, and will reign with him one thousand years.

<sup>20:7</sup>And after the thousand years, Satan will be released from his prison, <sup>20:8</sup>and he will come out to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea. <sup>20:9</sup>They went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the holy ones, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven from God, and devoured them. <sup>20:10</sup>The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet are also. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them. <sup>20:12</sup>I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne, and they opened books. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works. <sup>20:13</sup>The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Sheol<sup>z</sup> gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works. <sup>20:14</sup>Death and Sheol<sup>a</sup> were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire. <sup>20:15</sup>If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

<sup>21:1</sup>I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more. <sup>21:2</sup>I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared like a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>21:3</sup>I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with people, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God. <sup>21:4</sup>He will wipe away from them every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away."

<sup>21:5</sup>He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." He said, "Write, for these words of God are faithful and true." <sup>21:6</sup>He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alef and the Tav, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life." <sup>21:7</sup>He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son. <sup>21:8</sup>But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers,<sup>b</sup> idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

<sup>21:9</sup>One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were loaded with the seven

last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride." <sup>21:10</sup>He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, <sup>21:11</sup>having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it were a jasper stone, clear as crystal; <sup>21:12</sup>having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel. <sup>21:13</sup>On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. <sup>21:14</sup>The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Emissaries of the Lamb. <sup>21:15</sup>He who spoke with me had for a measure, a golden reed, to measure the city, its gates, and its walls. <sup>21:16</sup>The city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. He measured the city with the reed, Twelve thousand twelve stadia<sup>c</sup>. Its length, breadth, and height are equal. <sup>21:17</sup>Its wall is one hundred forty-four cubits,<sup>d</sup> by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel. <sup>21:18</sup>The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass. <sup>21:19</sup>The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire<sup>e</sup>; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald; <sup>21:20</sup>the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst. <sup>21:21</sup>The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass. <sup>21:22</sup>I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple. <sup>21:23</sup>The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb. <sup>21:24</sup>The nations will walk in its light. <sup>22:1</sup>He showed me a<sup>f</sup> river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb, <sup>22:2</sup>in the middle of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations. <sup>22:3</sup>There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants serve him. <sup>22:4</sup>They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. <sup>22:5</sup>There will be no night, and they need no lamp light; for the Lord God will illuminate them. They will reign forever and ever.

<sup>22:6</sup>He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord God of the spirits of the prophets sent his angel to show to his bondservants the things which must happen soon."

<sup>22:7</sup>"Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

<sup>22:8</sup>Now I, Yochanan, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had shown me these things. <sup>22:9</sup>He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God." <sup>22:10</sup>He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand. <sup>22:11</sup>He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."

<sup>22:12</sup>"Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work. <sup>22:13</sup>I am the Alef and the Tav, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End. <sup>22:14</sup>Blessed are those who do his commandments,<sup>g</sup> that they may have the

<sup>22:17</sup>The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely. <sup>22:18</sup>I testify to everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this book. <sup>22:19</sup>If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book. <sup>22:20</sup>He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly."

Emmaus: A village “three-score furlongs” from Jerusalem, where Messiah had an interview with two of his disciples on the day of his resurrection. Lu 24:13.

Eretz-Israel: The land of Israel.

Galilee: From Latin Galilaeae, or Greek Galilaia, the Septuagint translation for Hebrew Galil (Aramaic Galeela). This was one of the provinces of Israel during the Roman occupation, including an area given by King Solomon as a gift to King Hiram.

Gamaliel: The grandson of Hillel who taught at the school of Hillel, then center of Pharisaic Judaism, and was president of the Sanhedrin during the reigns of Tiberius, Caligula, and Claudius. Saul of Tarsus was a student of Gamaliel. Gamaliel is quoted in Acts as counseling a moderate, calm, and cautious attitude toward the followers of Yeshua, saying to leave them alone. For if the followers activity is of human origin, it will fail, “But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God!” (5:35-39).

Gaza: Greek for the town of ‘Aza. Acts 8:26.

Gehinnom: (Gehenna) Hebrew for “Valley of Hinnom” (Greek geenna; Latin gehennae). Usually rendered Gehenna. A ravine south of Jerusalem where constant fires were kept burning to consume refuse including the dead bodies of animals and criminals. Used figuratively in the NT for hell, a fiery place of eternal punishment for the ungodly dead (Mt 5:22)

Gennesaret: A town of Naphtali, called Kinneret (Jos 19:35). In later times the name was gradually changed to Genezar, Gennesaret (Latin Gennesar), and Ginosar. Mt 14:34, Mk 6:53, Lu 5:1.

gimel: Third letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

Gomorrah: Greek for Hebrew ‘Amorah. (Latin: Gomorram) Wicked city destroyed by God in the time of Abraham (Gen 19). Mt 10:15.

Gospel: (Greek: euaggelion; Latin: evangelium) “Good news” or “glad tidings,” specifically the Good News of Yeshua’s life, death, and resurrection for our salvation, healing, and provision; and the hope of eternal life that Yeshua made available to us by God’s grace.

Hades: See Sheol, the Hebrew equivalent.

Halfai: (Alphaeus)— From the Greek Alphaios (Aramaic Khalfai; Latin Alphei). Mt 10:3.

hallel: Hebrew, meaning “praise.” Psa 113-118 and 136 are recited as part of the Seder service. Mt 26:30.

Hananiah: (Ananias)-Meaning “Yah is gracious.” 1. One of the members of the Messianic Synagogue at Jerusalem, who conspired with his wife Shappirah to deceive the brethren, and who fell down and immediately died after he had spoken the falsehood (Ac 5:5) 2. A Messianic at Damascus (Ac 9:10). 3. The high priest before whom Shaul was brought (Ac 23:2,5,24)

Hannah: Hebrew for English (Greek and Latin) Anna (Aramaic Khanna). A prophetess. Lu 2:36.

Hanukkah: The Festival of Dedication. Observed on the 25th of Kislev when the Temple was rededicated in 165 or 164 BCE. Yeshua also observed this festival. Yo 10:22.

Har-Megiddo: (Armageddon, Megiddo)-Meaning “mountain/hill of Megiddo.” Rev 16:16.

HaShem: Hebrew, meaning “The Name,” i.e., YHWH. 3 Yo 1:7.

Havah: (Eve) Hebrew for English Eve, from Old English Efe and Late Latin Eva (Greek Eua(n): Latin Hava(m)), meaning “living, life, life-giving.” Also called the “Mother of All Living” (Hebrew em kal hay) Ge 3:20; 2 Co 11:3; 1 Ti 2:13.

Herod Agrippa I: Grandson of Herod the Great. He became tetrarch beginning in 40 CE and then king from 41-44 CE. He put the emissary Jacob the elder to death, and put Kefa Petros into prison (Lu 3:1, 23:7 Ac 12:1-19)

Herod Agrippa II: Son of Agrippa I. The Emperor Claudius gave him the office of superintendent of the Temple of Jerusalem in 48 CE, and later was made king of Judea, 53–92 CE, and was governor over the tetrarchy of Philip and Lysanias (Ac 25:13 26:2,7) It was before him that Paul was delivered in 59 CE (Ac 26:1). Though a Jew in religion, he was entirely devoted to the Romans, and sent 2000 men to support Vespasian during the Jewish Revolt.

Herod Archelaus: The Latin name of the son of Herod the Great, and brother of Herod Antipas, who became king of Judea, Samaria and Idumea after Herod the Great’s death in about January 1 CE. (Aramaic Arkhilius; Greek Archelaos) Mt 2:22.

Herod Phillip II: Son of Herod the Great and Cleopatra of Jerusalem who ruled from about

1 CE till the 22nd year of Tiberius, about 36 CE. He ruled Ituraea, Trachonitis, Batanea and Auranitis. Lu 3:1.

Herod the Great: First appointed tetrarch of Judea by his Idumaeen father Antipater, and later king of Judea about 37 BCE when he sacked Jerusalem. He restored the ruined temple of Jerusalem, a work which began about 20 BCE but was uncompleted at the time of his death. A Census, registration, or oath of loyalty to Augustus was undertaken to be finished before Feb 5, 2 B.C.E. in the 13th consulship of Augustus. This was probably the enrollment mentioned in Luke 2:1. Herod died soon after a lunar eclipse, possibly the one of Dec 29 1 BCE, and his kingdom was divided among his three remaining sons, Philip who had Ituraea and Trachonitis, Antipas who had Galilee and Perea, and Archelaus who had Judea and Samaria.

hin: A hin was about 6.5 liters or 1.7 gallons.

Hoshana Rabbah: “The great day” of the week long Sukkot festival. Yo 7:37.

hypocrite: a stage actor; someone who pretends to be someone other than who they really are; a dissembler

Immanuel: Meaning “with us is God” or “God with us.” Mt 1:23.

Iscaiot: Possibly meaning “man of Kriot,” “from Kriot,” or “from Skriot.” Kerioth or Kriot was a city in the Negev (Jos 15:25).

Israel: Meaning “Prince with God” or “He strives with God”. The name given by an angel to Jacob son of Isaac after wrestling with him (Gen 32:24-28).

Jacob: Hebrew Ya’akov. Found in the Greek NT as Iakob, Iakobo, Iakobos, and Iakobon. The latter three have been traditionally translated as James since at least the 14th century. The English name “James” appears to come from Hebrew Yaakov through Greek Iakobos and late Latin Iacomus. In the Latin Vulgate it is Iacobo, Iacobus, Iacobi, and Iacobum (Aramaic Yacob).

Jairus: Latin for Hebrew Yair (Aramaic Yu’arash; Greek Iaeiros). Ruler of the synagogue at Capernaum, whose only daughter Messiah restored to life. Mk 5:22 Lu 8:41.

Jerusalem: Hebrew Yerushalaim or Yerushalayim, possibly meaning “Foundation/City of Peace". The earlier name of the city was apparently Shalem (Genesis 14:18). Abraham had renamed the site at Moriah (Gen 22:2; 2Chr 3:1) as "YHWH Yireh" (Gen 22:14), when a substitute sacrifice for his son Isaac was provided, being caught in a thicket. In the conjunction of Yireh with Shalem the weak consonants disappeared to form Yerushalem. The name Yireh usually means "will see", but is later suggested as "will provide", when Abraham answered Isaac that "God will provide (Yireh) himself a lamb" (Gen 22:8). Thus the LORD of vision is the LORD of provision. The substitute sacrifice, with a thicket over his head, was to be the Messiah (Isa 53:10; Mt 27:29). Capital city of all Israel since the time of king David ca. 1000 BCE.

Judah: Hebrew Yehudah (Aramaic Yehuda; Greek Ioudas; Latin Iudas). In the Greek NT traditionally translated variously as Judah, Judas, and Jude.

Kefa: (Cephas) Aramaic meaning "a stone." The name given to Simon son of Jonah by the Messiah.

Kuza: Aramaic for English Chuza (Greek Chouzas; Latin Chuza)

Labbai: (Lebbaeus)-Aramaic meaning "flaming with fire." The Greek means "courageous." Mt 10:3. One of the Twelve emissaries, also called Taddi (Thaddaeus) Mt 10:3 Mk 3:18. According to a tradition, Labbai is the same person as "Judah the son [or brother] of Jacob." Lu 6:16

Lazarus: Latin for Hebrew El'azar (Aramaic Lazar; Greek Lazaros). Lu 16:20-25, Yo 11:1-12:17.

lepta: Very small, brass, Jewish coins worth half a Roman quadrans each, which is worth a quarter of the copper assarion. Lepta are worth less than 1% of an agricultural worker's daily wages.

Luke: Writer of the books of Luke and Acts (Aramaic Luqa; Greek Loukas; Latin Lucas). Accompanied Saul of Tarsus on several journeys.

Magdalene: Latin for Hebrew Magdalit (Aramaic Magdalith; Greek Magdalenos). Possibly meaning of the town of Magdala, which was near Tiberius on the coast of Galilee. In Syriac the root gdl means "to braid, twist", and there is a tradition that this Miriam was called "Magdalene" because she braided her hair. Mt 27:56, etc.

Manaen: Menachem—"comforter". Ac 13:1.

Manah: (Menan)—In Messianic genealogy. Lu 3:31.

marriage: the union of a husband and a wife for the purpose of cohabitation, procreation, and to enjoy each other's company. God's plan for marriage is between one man and one woman (Mark 10:6-9; 1 Corinthians 7). Although there are many cases of a man marrying more than one woman in the Old Testament, being married to one wife is a prerequisite for those chosen to serve in certain church leadership positions (1 Timothy 3:2,12; Titus 1:5-6).

Matthew: (Mattithiah, Mattathias)—English for Hebrew Mattityah or Mattai (Aramaic Matti; Greek Maththaios; Latin Mattheum), meaning "gift of Yah." He was the son of Halfai (Alphaeus), and was a tax-collector at Capernaum. He was called by Messiah to be one of the Twelve emissaries (Mt 9:9). In 1Chr 9 Ezra 10 Neh 8, and in Messianic genealogy. Lu 3:26.

Matthiah: Hebrew for Matthias (Greek Matthian(s); Latin Matthiam; Aramaic Matyah). Chosen as an emissary in place of Judah Iscariot. Ac 1:23, 26.

Mattithiah: See Matthew

matzah: Unleavened bread.

Melchizedek: For Hebrew Malki-Tzedek, "my king is righteousness." Heb 5:6.

Menorah: Lamp. The menorah in the Temple had seven branches. Heb 9:2, Rev 1:12.

Messiah: (Mashiach)—Literally, "anointed one," usually a consecrated person (as a king or kohen). The English equivalent for Hebrew Mashiach is "Messiah." Equivalent to Greek christos, which also means "anointed one." The word Mashiach comes from the root word mashach (mahshahkh). This word means to rub with oil, i.e., to anoint, by implication to consecrate. The children of Israel were also considered to be mashiach (anointed; 1Chr 16:20-22). Many of the objects used in Tabernacle and Temple worship were anointed. The tabernacle itself, the altar, the laver, and the garments of the priests are among those items mentioned. (Ex 40:9-13).

mikveh: Immersion in fresh water for ritual purification. Ti 3:5

mina: a Greek coin worth 100 Greek drachmas (or 100 Roman denarii), or about 100 day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

Miriam: Hebrew for English Mary. In the Greek NT the name is given variously as Maria, Marian, and Mariam (Aramaic).

Nevi'im: Prophets, being the second of the three parts of the Tanakh.

Nicodemus: Latin for Hebrew Nakdimon (Aramaic Niqodemus; Greek Nikodemus), meaning "victorious". A Pharisee and member of the Sanhedrin who talked with Messiah privately at night. Both he and Joseph of Arimathea, another Sanhedrin member, put Messiah's body in the tomb after the crucifixion. Yo 3, 7, 19.

Nicolaitans: Most likely Gnostics who taught the detestable lie that the physical and spiritual realms were entirely separate and that immorality in the physical realm wouldn't harm your spiritual health.

Penuel: (Phanuel)-Meaning "face of God" (Aramaic Panuel; Greek Phanouel; Latin Phanuhel).

Pharisee: English for Hebrew Parush pl. Perushim (Greek Pharisaios; Latin Pharisaei)

Pontus Pilate: Roman governor of Judea from 26-36 CE (Greek Pontios Pilatos; Latin Pontio Pilato). He hated the Jews and liberally shed their blood. He gave the final decision at the trial of the Messiah of execution by crucifixion, which during the killing of the Passover lamb was to fulfill the prophecies concerning the Messiah (Psalm 22, Isa 52-53, Zec 12:10, etc.).

Praetorium: The Roman governor's residence and office building, and those who work there.

Purim: A feast celebrated by the reading of the Scroll of Esther. The basic story of Purim is that under the rule of King Ahashuerus, Haman, the King's prime minister, plots to exterminate all of the Jews of Persia. His plan is foiled by Queen Esther and her uncle Mordechai, who ultimately save the Jews of the land from destruction.

quadrans: A Roman coin worth about 1/64 of a denarius. A denarius is about one day's wages for an agricultural laborer.

rabbi: My teacher

Rabboni: Meaning "My Great/Honored Teacher/Rabbi". Mk 10:51 Yo 20:16.

Ram: (Aram)—In Messianic genealogy. Lu 3:33.

repent: to change one's mind; turn away from sin and turn towards God; to abhor one's past sins and determine to follow God.

Rephan: Reifan-Babylonian god corresponding to Saturn. Ac 7:43.

Saducee: English for Hebrew Tzeduk pl. Tzedukim. The Saducees, who rejected the Prophets and Writings, holding only to the Torah, didn't believe in life after death or angels.

saint: Greek hagios, equivalent to Hebrew kadosh, hasid, and tzaddik, meaning: holy one, righteous, just, sacred, set-apart, consecrated, godly, spiritual leader, dedicated, faithful, merciful and kind.

sata: A dry measure of capacity approximately equal to 13 liters or 1.5 pecks.

Saul: English for Hebrew Sha'ul, who also had the Greek name Paulos. He was born in Tarsus and brought up in Jerusalem. He was a Pharisee of the tribe of Benjamin and student of Gamaliel, whose teaching can be seen in Saul's constant use of known Hillelian Hermeneutics. Saul first persecuted the disciples of Messiah until his vision of Messiah on the way to Damascus. Known writer of 13 letters in the B'rit Hadasha.

scribe: One who copies God's Torah (Hebrew sofer; Greek grammateus; Latin scriba). They were often respected as teachers and authorities on God's Torah.

Sea of Suf: Yam Suf, or Sea of Reeds; also called the Red Sea in the Septuagint and in the Greek of Ac 7:36 and Heb 11:29. This body of water may have also been called Yam Sof, or Sea at the End. This is the large body of water that the Israelites miraculously crossed on dry ground, but Pharaoh's army drowned when they tried to cross behind them. See Ex 14 and 15.

selah: A musical term indicating a pause or instrumental interlude for reflection.

shalom: Peace, well-being, safety, contentment, health, comfort, integrity and wholeness. "Shalom!" is a common greeting. Also a proper name (Salome) Hebrew for Greek and Latin Salome (Aramaic Shalom) Mk 15:40 16:1

shammash: pl. shammashim—attendant, servant, deacon. Lu 4:20.

Shappirah: (Sapphira)—Ac 5:1.

Shaul: (Saul)—“Asked (of Yah).”

Shema: (or Sh'ma) the most famous verse in Judaism is the Shema, found in Deuteronomy 6:4: Shema Israel Adonai Eloheinu Adonai echad. “Hear oh Israel, the Lord is our God, the Lord is one.” “Shema,” usually translated “hear,” is a complex word that means to, “accept, implying faith, commitment, and obedience.” It is repeated by the Messiah as being among the most important verses in the Torah. Mk 12:29

Sheol: The abode of departed spirits of the lost (but including the blessed dead in periods preceding the Ascension of Messiah, wherein they were apparently in a separate area). Sometimes translated “grave,” “nether world,” “underworld,” “the Pit,” and “hell” (Greek Hades; Latin infern(os,us,um)), although hell is more synonymous with Gehinnom (Gehenna).

Shlomit: (Salome) Hebrew for Greek and Latin Salome (Aramaic Shalom) Mk 15:40 16:1

shofar: Ram’s horn. Often rendered as “trumpet.” Mt 24:31.

Shoshanah: Hebrew for Latin Susanna (Aramaic Shushan; Greek Sousanna), meaning “Lily” or “rose”. Lu 8:3.

soul: Living being, life, self. The emotions and intellect of a living person, as well as that person’s very life. It is distinguished in the Bible from a person’s spirit and body. (1Thes 5:23, Heb 4:12)

span: The length from the tip of the thumb to the tip of the little finger when the hand is stretched out (about 9 inches or 22.8 cm.).

spirit: Spirit, breath, and wind all derive from the same Hebrew and Greek words. A person’s spirit is the very essence of that person’s life, which comes from God, who is a Spirit being (Yo 4:24, Gen 1:2; 2:7). The Bible distinguishes between a person’s spirit, soul, and body (1Thes 5:23, Heb 4:12). Some beings may exist as spirits without necessarily having a visible body, such as angels and demons (Lu 9:39, 1 Yo 4:1-3).

stadia: Plural for “stadion,” a linear measure of about 184.9 meters or 606.6 feet (the length of the race course at Olympia).

stater: a Greek silver coin equivalent to four Attic or two Alexandrian drachmas, or a Jewish shekel: just exactly enough to cover the half-shekel Temple Tax for two people.

Sukkot: (Booths, Tabernacles)—Festival of Booths (Hebrew Chag HaSukkot) to be observed the fifteenth day of the seventh month. Lev 23:34, Yo 7:2.

Taddai: Hebrew for English Thaddaeus (Greek Thaddaios; Latin Thaddeus), one of the Twelve emissaries of Yeshua. Mt 10:3.

talent: A measure of weight or mass of 3000 shekels.

Tanakh: An acronym formed from the three divisions of the Hebrew bible: Torah, Nevi’im and Ketuvim.

Tartarus: Greek for the place of eternal punishment but in 2Pe 2:4 applied to the intermediate sphere of punishment for fallen angels (Latin Tartarum).

tav: twenty-second and last letter of the Hebrew alphabet.

Tavita: Aramaic for Greek Tabitha (Latin Tabitas). Woman in Joppa whom Kefa raised from the dead. Ac 9:36,40.

tefillin: (phylacteries)—A leather container for holding a small scroll containing important Scripture passages that is worn on the arm and forehead in prayer. Tefillin are still used by orthodox Jewish men. See Deu 6:8 and Mt 23:5.

Tehillim: (Psalms)—songs and poetry

Theophilis: Person written to by Luke (Greek Theophilos; Latin Theophile; Aramaic Tawfeela). May have been the High Priest of Jerusalem of that name in 37-41 C.E. He was a Sadducee (Tzeduk). Lu 1:3.

Thomas: Latin and Greek for Hebrew T’oma (Aramaic Tooma). One of the emissaries of Messiah.

Timaeus: Latin for Hebrew Timai (Aramaic Timi; Greek Timaios). Mk 10:46.

Todah: (Theudas) see Ac 5:36

Torah: (Law, law)—“Teaching.” The Five Books of Moses, being the first of the three parts of the Tanakh. Usually translated “Law” since Greek uses the word nomos to render Hebrew Torah.

tzitzit: pl. tzitziot - specially made fringes worn on the four corners of a man's tallit, fulfilling the commandment in Num 15:37-41.

Yeshua: Hebrew for English Jesus, the Messiah of Israel. The Greek Iesou(s) was used in the Septuagint for both Joshua and Jeshua, the later being a post exilic variant for Joshua (Neh 8:17). In the Greek New Covenant Iesous is traditionally translated three times as Joshua (Lu 3:29, Ac 7:45, Heb 4:8), but left in all other instances to the literal Greek pronunciation. The Besorat HaMashiach follows the mainstream Messianic translation of the remaining Greek instances of Iesous as the Hebrew Yeshua.

yeshu'ah: "salvation"; used in a word play on Yeshua's name at Lu 2:30.

Yochanah: Hebrew for English Joanna (Aramaic Yokhan; Greek Ioanna; Latin Iohanna). Wife of Chuza, the steward of Herod, and a follower of Yeshua (Lu 8:3 24:10; Yo)

Yochanan: (Johanah, John) meaning "Yah is Gracious" (Aramaic Yukhanan; Greek Ioannes; Latin Iohannes).

Yom-Kippur: The Day of Atonement. Observed on the tenth day of the seventh month (10th Tishri; Lev 23:27). The "fast" noted in Acts 27:9 is probably Yom Kippur.

Yosi: (Joses)- Shortened form of Joseph (Aramaic Yosea, Yoseh; Greek Ioses; Latin Ioseph). 1. One of the half-brothers of Yeshua (Mt 13:55 27:56 Mk 6:3 15:40, 47) 2. A Cypriot Levite surnamed Barnabas (Ac 4:36).

Zacchaeus: Latin for Hebrew Zakkai (Aramaic Zachai; Greek Zakchaios), which is short for Zechariah. Lu 19:2,5,8.

Zebedee: English for Hebrew Zavdai (Aramaic Zawdee; Greek Zebedaios; Latin Zebedaei). Father of the Emissaries Jacob and Yochanan.

50 Parallels Between Moses and Yeshua

“The LORD your God will raise up to you a prophet from the midst of you, of your brothers, like me. You shall listen to him.” (Deut 18:15 cf. Acts 3:22)

1. Moses, a Jew by birth, was born when Egyptians (gentiles) ruled the people of Israel (Ex. 1:8-10).

Yeshua, a Jew by birth, was born when Romans (gentiles) ruled the people of Israel (Lk. 2:1-5).

2. An evil ruler, Pharaoh, decreed that all male Hebrew babies should be killed by casting them into the river (Ex. 1:22).

An evil ruler, Herod, decreed that all male Hebrew babies should be put to death (Mt. 2:16).

3. Moses was hidden in Egypt 3 months to keep him alive (Ex. 2:2).

Yeshua was also hidden in Egypt to keep him alive (Mt. 2:13).

4. Moses' mother put him in the river in a basket (Ex. 2:3).

Yeshua's mother put Him in a feeding trough (Lk. 2:7).

5. “Moses” means drawn out of water (Ex. 2:10). Drawing out of water is a picture of salvation (Isa. 12:3). (Moses was Israel's vehicle of salvation).

Yeshua's name is Hebrew for “salvation” (Mt. 1:21).

6. The favor of God was upon Moses, even as an infant. Pharaoh's daughter took him out of the river and he became a prince in Egypt (Ex. 2:5).

The favor of God was upon Yeshua. Wise men worshipped Him and presented gifts to Him (Mt. 2:11).

7. Moses was brought up by a man who was not his natural father (Ex. 2:9-10).

Yeshua was brought up by his stepfather, Joseph (Lk. 2:33).

8. Moses, when grown, saw the burdens of his brethren and had compassion on them (Ex. 2:11).

Yeshua saw His people as sheep without a shepherd and had compassion on them (Mk. 6:34).

9. Moses, at a well, was kind to the daughters of the priest of Midian and watered their flock (not the usual custom) (Ex. 2:17).

Yeshua, at a well, was kind to a Samaritan woman and offered her water (not the usual custom) (Yo. 4:9-11).

10. Moses was in exile in a foreign land until the king of Egypt died (Ex. 2:23).

Yeshua was in exile in a foreign land until King Herod died (Mt. 2:19-20).

11. Moses was a shepherd of God's people (Ps. 77:20).

Yeshua called Himself the “good shepherd” who came to lay down His life for the sheep (Yo. 10:11-16).

12. Moses began his ministry in a supernatural way. A bush burned with fire, but was not consumed, and God spoke from the midst of the bush (Ex. 3:2-4).

Yeshua began his ministry in a supernatural way. A dove descended on Him and a voice from Heaven said, “This is My beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased” (Mt. 3:16-17).

13. God sent Moses to deliver His people because He knew their sorrows (Ex. 3:7).

God sent Yeshua to deliver His people because He knew their enslaved, brokenhearted state (Lk. 4:18).

14. Moses “came down” to deliver His people (Ex. 3:8) and to “bring them up to the Promised Land.”

Yeshua came down from Heaven to deliver His people and to bring them up to heaven one day (Phil. 2:7-8).

15. Moses was very humble, saying “Who am I?” (Ex. 3:11). He was called “very meek” (Num. 12:3).

Yeshua was “meek and lowly” calling all to find rest for their souls in Him (Mt. 11:28-30).

16. Moses performed many public miracles following God's direction (Ex. 4:4-9).

Yeshua performed many public miracles following God's direction (Yo. 5:19-20).

17. The reason behind Moses' liberation of the Hebrews was for them to serve God (Ex. 9:1).

The reason behind Yeshua's liberation of mankind is for us to serve God (Heb. 9:14; 12:28).

18. Moses delivered the children of Israel from Egyptian bondage through blood (Ex. 12:13, 23). Lambs without blemish were slain. Their blood protected Hebrew homes from death.

Yeshua delivered all mankind from the bondage of sin through blood His blood, shed on the cross as The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. (Yo. 1:29; Heb. 9:11-15).

19. Moses instructed Israel to remember the Lord's deliverance (Ex. 12:25-27) via a covenant meal (Passover).

Yeshua instructed His disciples (talmidim) to remember His deliverance from sin via a covenant meal (Passover, the "Lord's Supper") (Lk. 22:14-20).

20. Moses gave the Israelites sweet, "living water" to drink (Ex. 16:25).

Yeshua promised living water to all who believe in Him (Yo. 7:38).

The Jews murmured at Yeshua (Yo. 6:41).

24. Moses told the people to gather manna every morning - daily bread (Ex. 16:20-21).

Yeshua taught His disciples to feed their souls with spiritual bread daily (Mt. 6:11).

25. People were ready to stone Moses (Ex. 17:4)

People were ready to stone Yeshua (Yo.10:31).

26. Moses received God's Law on a mountain and told the people what God expected of them (Ex. 9:3).

Yeshua set the Law back in its proper place on a mountain (Mt. 5:1). (The Sermon on the Mount.)

27. God came to Moses in a thick cloud (Ex. 19:9; 24:16).

God came to Yeshua on the Mt. of Transfiguration in a thick cloud (Mk. 9:7).

28. Moses sprinkled the blood of the first covenant on the people (Ex. 24:8).

Yeshua sanctified the people with his own blood, the blood of the New Covenant (Heb. 13:12).

29. God gave Moses commandments to teach His people (Ex. 24:12).

God gave Yeshua commandments to teach His people (Yo. 13:34).

30. Moses interceded with God for Israel when He was angry with His people (Ex. 32:11-14).

Yeshua interceded with God on behalf of sinful man; He "made intercession for the transgressors" (Is. 53:12) and became the final sacrifice for sin (Mt. 20:28; Heb. 7:25).

31. God spoke with Moses face to face (Ex. 33:11; Num. 12:8).

Yeshua had an intimate "face to face" relationship with God, His Father (Yo. 14:31).

32. Moses fasted for 40 days and 40 nights when he received the Law (Ex. 34:28).

Yeshua fasted for 40 days and 40 nights when He was tempted in the wilderness (Mt. 4:1-2).

33. Moses' face shone with the glory of God (Ex. 34:29).

Yeshua's face shone with the glory of God (Mt. 17:1-2).

34. God told Moses how He wanted to be worshipped - the Tabernacle (mishkan) (Ex. 40).

God told Yeshua how He wanted to be worshipped - "spirit and in truth" (Yo. 4:23-24).

35. Moses, a prophet, was a mouthpiece for God. He spoke the words God gave him (Ex. 19:7-8).

Yeshua, as a prophet spoke the words that God gave Him (Yo. 8:28-29).

36. Moses commanded the children of Israel to keep their lamps burning continually (Lev. 24:2).

Yeshua commanded His children to put their light on a lampstand and let it shine before men (Mt. 5:15-16).

37. Moses fed the children of Israel (a multitude) in a supernatural way (Ex. 16:15).

Yeshua fed a multitude (5,000) with five loaves and two fishes (Mt. 14:19-21).

38. Moses was faithful in God's house (Num. 12:7).

Yeshua, the High Priest of our profession, was faithful to He who appointed Him (Heb. 3:16).

39. Moses beseeched God to pardon the iniquity of His people (Num. 14:19).

Yeshua, on the cross, beseeched God to forgive the iniquity of those who were crucifying Him (Lk. 23:34).

God listened to Yeshua (Yo. 11:41-42).

41. Moses said that the "little ones" in the wilderness would enter the Promised Land (Num. 14:31).

Yeshua said that the Kingdom of God belonged to the "little ones" (Mk. 10:14).

42. Moses told the Israelites to remember and do all the commandments of the Lord (Num. 15: 38-39).

Yeshua told His disciples to keep His commandments if they would abide in His love (Yo. 15:10).

43. Moses told the Israelites that God would show that He had sent Moses by doing signs and wonders (Num. 16:28).

Yeshua told His disciples that the works He did were to prove that the Father was in Him and He was in the Father (Yo. 14:10-11).

44. Moses made a fiery serpent on a pole and the Israelites were healed when they looked upon it (Num. 21:9).

Yeshua was lifted up on a pole. All who looked upon Him by faith (as He took their sin) were healed (Yo. 3:14-15).

45. Moses chose 12 men, 1 of each tribe and sent them out (to scout) to bring fruit (Deut. 1:23).

Yeshua chose 12 men and sent them out to bear fruit (Mt. 10:1).

46. Moses said that in the mouth of 2 or 3 witnesses a truth would be established (Deut. 19:15).

Yeshua said that where 2 or 3 were gathered in His name, He would be in their midst (Mt. 18:20).

47. Moses' relatives criticized and challenged him (Num. 12:1-2).

Yeshua's relatives criticized and challenged him (Yo. 7:5; Mt. 13:57).

48. Moses was Israel's judge, the final authority in decision-making (Ex. 18:21-22).

Yeshua will return to earth as a judge. All must appear before the "judgment seat of Messiah" (2 Cor. 5:10). Yeshua will judge all at His appearing (2 Tim. 4:1).

49. Moses reappeared after his death (on the Mt. of Transfiguration) (Mt. 17:3).

Yeshua reappeared after His resurrection from the dead (seen by many for next 40 days) (Acts 1:3).

50. Moses as deliverer was initially rejected by His people, and took a gentile bride... Zipporah. (Ex. 2:11-14; 16-21).
