MASS RETURNED ON PENTECOST

FR. COLTER HAS TWO THINGS TO SHARE WITH YOU:

First, we can hold about 100 in the gym and commons for weekend Masses. You might wish to make a different decision about attending or about which Mass to attend in the future, based on these numbers the first weekend: 5 PM Saturday 25, 7:30 AM Sunday 70, 9:30 AM Sunday 45 11:30 AM Sunday 40.

Secondly, in our previous instructions, we made a "request" that you wear a mask for public Masses. I assumed everyone would honor that request. I must now change that to "insist." You must wear a mask. Keep in mind that you, yourself may feel very brave, but the mask is not primarily for your own protection. Primarily, it is to protect the rest of us, myself included. You can pass the virus even when you have no symptoms.

Weekend Mass times – 5:00 on Saturday; 7:30, 9:30, 11:30 on Sunday in the Dutcher Gym.

Daily Mass will be at 11:00 AM Monday through Friday in the Church.

WEEKEND MASSES

- Chairs in the gym will be spaced at the recommended social Distancing.
- Capacity of about 100 people per Mass.
- You may enter through the Dutcher gym door, the office door, or doors to the link from the upper parking lot. There will be signs put out at these doors when we have reached capacity.
- There will be hand sanitizers at each door.
- There will be no servers/lectors/singers.
- There will be one communion minister. We will have one line down the center aisle. The Eucharist will be delivered to your hands. You may leave after you have received communion.
- The collection baskets will be at the doors.
- We will have the air conditioner on in the gym for better air circulation – you may want to bring a sweater or jacket.
- Elderly and vulnerable should stay home and maybe attend a weekday Mass in the church.
- WATCH SAINT PATRICK MASS ONLINE beginning at 10 AM Sunday mornings on the parish Facebook page or the website.

MESSAGES FROM ARCHBISHOP JACKELS NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING AND LAMENT

By Archbishop Michael Jackels

June 1, 2020 was a Day of Mourning and Lament to remember the people who suffer from the scourge of COVID-19.

We might also mourn and lament those who suffer from the scourge of racism – George Floyd, members of the Tree of Life Synagogue, shoppers at a Walmart in El Paso, and...

Catholics regard racism as evil, a grave sin that sickens the soul. If a person is guilty of this sin, it could result in eternal damnation; it's that serious.

We pray for an end to the scourge of COVID-19, and for a cure or vaccine. We pray, too, for conversion, our own included, especially if the scourge racism sickens the soul.

SHOW THE HOLY SPIRIT, NOT A WORLDLY SPIRIT

By Archbishop Michael Jackels

Last month, I was saddened, even horrified, but not terribly surprised by the newscasts of Memorial Day celebrations around the country, showing parties packed together, with no one wearing masks, saying things like: "No biggie; you gotta die of something."

I get it, people are tired of isolation; they want to be with others. And they need to get back to work, for their economic and social well-being. But they could still wear a mask and social distance, if not for fear that they might get sick and die, then for the sake of others, who are not as casual about their own health and life.

Those unmasked crowds of people packed together in one place are a picture of what the worldly spirit of "I, me and mine" looks like, when people only think of me, and not of thee, of other people, or even of God, saying things like: "I want what I want. What's in it for me? This is mine!"

That's different than the Holy Spirit, characterized by "we, you and ours." So, I'd expect to see a different picture this weekend, when we once again gather for the public celebration of Mass. I would expect that, except that I know a worldly spirit can infiltrate the Body of Christ, the Church, through its members.

Even Catholics can be heard to say "I, me and mine" things, like: You can't deny me my right to go to Holy Mass. Or, I have a right to receive Communion on the tongue. Or, the choice is mine whether or not to wear a mask.

I don't expect the presence and activity of the Holy Spirit this Pentecost to be shown in flickers as of flame and noise like a strong and driving wind, or by ecstatic prayer that makes people think we've been drinking, or by speaking in many languages, or by God doing miracles of healing and conversion through us.

Instead, the Holy Spirit – given, says St. Paul, for some benefit to others – will be shown by Mass-goers washing their hands, wearing masks, practicing social distancing, and receiving the Sacred Host on the hand, for the sake of the health and safety of others, for the sake of the common good, for God's sake.

HERE ARE SOME CONCRETE ACTIONS you can take if you are unable to attend Sunday Mass. Let your faith guide you through these uncertain times.

1. Conduct an in-home celebration of the Liturgy of the Word. See the parish website for more information.
2. Prayerfully watch Mass online. See listings on the parish website and Facebook page.
3. Make a spiritual communion using the prayer below.
4. Continue with your recurring giving. Your generosity will help us continue our mission and be ready to open our doors once again.

THERE ARE MANY REMOTE ON LINE OPTIONS TO PARTICIPATE IN DAILY AND SUNDAY MASSES.

Many cable subscriptions include the EWTN Catholic television channel, which carries Mass on various days and times. Please check local listings for that option.

Daily Mass, Sunday Mass, Rosary, and Adoration at Blessed Sacrament Church, Waterloo, will be broadcast via livestream at www.blessedsacramentwaterloo.org. Scroll down to Blessed Sacrament Live.

The Archdiocese of Dubuque streams Holy Mass on Sundays at 9 AM with Archbishop Michael Jackels presiding and Rosary on Thursdays. A link is available at: <https://dbqarch.org/coronavirus>

Tune in to Heart of Nation Mass at 9 AM Sundays. On Cedar Falls Utilities Cable, find it at Channel 7.2 CW, on CFU HD find it at Channel 3 or 403, on Media Com Digital, find it at Channel 107 or 819. It is also available online at: <https://www.heartofthenation.org/online-mass/sunday-mass>.

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION PRAYER

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen

We had such a great response from the Class of 2020, that we're honoring our high school graduates this week also.

MEETING OUR STUDENTS' NEEDS

We have ended our 2019-20 school year and the school is getting a deep cleaning to get ready for next year. Teachers will continue to be in and out of the building to meet and complete our Return to Learn plan so we are prepared for any challenge that may arise in the fall.

St. Patrick Catholic School is a step ahead in this planning with our dedication to small class sizes and individual attention. We will continue finalizing our plans for social distancing, addressing social emotional needs of our students, and accelerating learning. Parents can be assured that we are working hard even throughout the summer to meet the needs of our students in this new normal!

If you would like to know more about St. Patrick Catholic School, I will be in the building several days a week and am always available by appointment for tours. Please call the school office at 277-6781 or sign up at www.cfCatholicSchool.org.

Have a safe and fun-filled summer!

AN UPDATE ON PARISH ELECTIONS

Because we have not been able to celebrate Mass together for several weeks, our normal timeline for soliciting and introducing parishioners interested in being elected to our leadership committees (Pastoral Council, Faith Formation Commission, and School Board) has not taken place. We received a communication from Dubuque granting permission to retain those who would have fulfilled their term on June 30, 2020 if they agreed to do so. In the instance that any are not able to continue serving on their respective committee, Father Colter and the committee members may appoint a replacement.

Serving on Faith Formation Commission are Mark Hannasch, Lisa Ahern, Fred Berneking, Lacy Bjorseth, Jill Blanshan, Michelle DeGabriele, and Shana Mallinger. School Board members are Erin Lyons, Theresa Butler, Kate Dieterich, Melissa Engdahl, Megan Fereday, Katie Schmitz, Erica Schultz, and Steve Yackley. Pastoral Council consists of Bill Mackey, Bob Ames, Theresa Butler, Steve Duppong, Kevin Engels, Dave Guetterman, Justin Rathjen, Laura Schaefer, and Danica Wilcox.

Pray For

Family and friends of Anthony Lumetta II: Anthony passed away recently. May God's love and fond memories comfort you. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful receive the mercy of God.

The newly baptized:
Nora Gianna Shaver, daughter of Zach and Katelyn.

All who are sick, especially those with Covid-19:

That God will restore them to health and guide researchers in finding effective treatments and developing a vaccine.

For our faith community:

That we may respond boldly to the Holy Spirit's call to act together to end violence and racism.

For an end to violence in our cities:

That God will give courage to all who are working for peace in neighborhoods, help the voices of those who have experienced injustice to be heard, and turn the hearts of those prone to violence toward new ways of working for change.
