How to apply for IEICE membership

Overseas Member/Student Member

They can join IEICE Societies and subscribe the IEICE Transactions of the registered Societies.

(Basic annual membership dues is for one Society.)

OMDP (Overseas Membership Development Program)

Reduced rates are available for candidates from countries/areas in Asia, Africa, Central/South America.

(Notes: OMDP is not available for the members in Republic of Korea and Taiwan due to the outstanding economic growth of these countries since April 2005, and this exception rule was extended to members resident in China and Singapore in April 2011.)
