Katie O Handmade Wedding Gifts and Decorations

Bespoke services for your special day

I have been very lucky and honoured to provide handmade decorations and gifts for many weddings and from this experience I know that couples want their weddings to be unique, stylish and really personal to them and their lives. This is why I offer a wide range of wedding gifts and decorations that can all be personalised by the bride and groom, easily matching any wedding colour scheme or theme.

I work to a very high standard to make sure that everything is perfect on the big day. I understand it is so important to get it right and take the pressure off of the couple by providing a fast, trustworthy service, where all orders are completed well ahead of time and are ready for the big day. Everyone deserves to have their wedding exactly how they want it, and this is what I always aim to achieve.

In this brochure you will find many handmade products for decorating the wedding venue, the reception venue and a range of wedding gifts for guests. I believe that it shouldn't cost a fortune to have bespoke decorations and gifts for your wedding, so I provide a variety of customisable options for all the items at excellent prices. As the products are handmade to suit your own personal preferences, then you know you are getting something truly unique for your special day.

With love,

Katie O x
